Exhibit C

[Form of]

GENERAL RELEASE

In consideration of, among other things, the premises and mutual covenants contained in that certain Purchase and Exchange Agreement (the "Agreement") dated as of November 15, 1996, between Corporate Property Investors, a voluntary association of the type commonly known as a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI"), and State Street Bank and Trust Company, not individually but solely in its capacity as Trustee of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust, a trust organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York (the "Purchaser"), and the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Agreement.

2. Each of CPI (both individually and in its capacity as a general partner of the Partnerships) and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CRC"), hereby forever releases and discharges the Purchaser, any beneficiary of the Purchaser, AT&T Investment Management Corporation and their respective, trustees, directors, officers and employees (collectively, the "Purchaser Releasees") from, and waives and relinquishes any and all claims, demands, debts, liabilities, obligations, actions, causes of action, suits, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, promises and rights whatsoever, whenever arising, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or fixed, liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, in law, equity or otherwise (collectively, "Claims") that CPI or CRC ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall or may have against the Purchaser Releasees for, upon, or by reason of any matter, cause, transaction or thing whatsoever occurring at any time prior to the date hereof including, without limitation, any additional capital contributions to any of the Partnerships accruing on or after the date hereof (except for the capital contribution being made on November 15, 1996 pursuant to Section 3.2(g) of the Agreement); provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to release any person from its obligations under the Agreement, the Assignment Agreements or any other documents delivered pursuant to the express provisions thereof or to release the Purchaser from any obligations to CPI under any written agreement pursuant to which the Purchaser or any predecessor in interest acquired Common Shares or Preference Shares.

3. The Purchaser (in its capacity as a limited partner of the Partnerships and otherwise in its capacity as a trustee for the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust) hereby forever releases and discharges each of CPI, CRC, all of their respective subsidiaries and partners, and all the respective trustees, directors, officers and employees of each of them (collectively, the "CPI Releasees") from, and waives and relinquishes any and all Claims that Purchaser ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall or may have against the CPI Releasees for, upon or by reason of, any matter, cause, transaction or thing whatsoever occurring at any time prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to release any person from its obligations under the Agreement, the Assignment Agreements or any other documents delivered pursuant to the express provisions thereof or to release CPI or CRC from any obligations to the Purchaser (i) under any written agreement pursuant to which the Purchaser or any predecessor in interest acquired Common Shares or Preference Shares or (ii) that may arise solely by virtue of the Purchaser's ownership of any such Common Shares or Preference Shares.

4. This Release shall be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. No party hereto may assign either this Release or any of its rights, interests or obligations hereunder without the prior written approval of the other party.

5. This Release constitutes the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. It is expressly understood and agreed that this Release may not be altered, amended, modified or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever, except by a writing duly executed and delivered by all of the parties hereto.

6. THIS RELEASE SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, AND GOVERNED AND ENFORCED IN ALL RESPECTS BY, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES OF SUCH STATE. THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY AGREE TO SUBMIT TO PERSONAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND TO WAIVE ANY OBJECTION AS TO VENUE IN THE COUNTY OF NEW YORK, STATE OF NEW YORK IN CONNECTION

WITH ALL MATTERS RELATING TO THIS RELEASE AND/OR THE CLAIMS. EACH PARTY HERETO WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS RELEASE. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS RELEASE BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 6.

7. If any provisions of this Release are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the remaining provisions, and any partially invalid or unenforceable provisions, to the extent valid and enforceable, shall nevertheless be binding and valid and enforceable.

8. This Release may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

9. This Release shall not be effective unless and until executed by all of the parties hereto.

10. The Purchaser understands that the name "Corporate Property Investors" is the designation of the Trustees under its Declaration of Trust. Neither the shareholders nor the Trustees or officers, employees or agents of the trust created thereby shall be liable hereunder and all persons shall look solely to the trust estate for the payment of any claims hereunder or for the performance hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Release as of the ____ day of November, 1996.(1)

Exhibit D

Statement pursuant to Treasury
Regulation Section 1.897-2(h)

In accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.897-2(h), Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI"), hereby states that its Series A Common Shares do not represent a "United States real property interest" within the meaning of Section 897(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), because CPI has determined based upon its corporate records that it currently is a "domestically-controlled REIT" within the meaning of Section 897(h)(4)(B) of the Code.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that (i) I have examined this statement, (ii) to the best of my knowledge and belief, this statement is true, correct and complete and (iii) I have authority to sign this statement on behalf of CPI.

REDEMPTION AGREEMENT

REDEMPTION AGREEMENT dated as of December 31, 1996 (together with the Exhibits and Schedules hereto, this "Agreement"), between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI") and RODAMCO NORTH AMERICA B.V., a Netherlands company with limited liability ("Rodamco").

Preliminary Statement

A. HRE Finance Inc., a Delaware corporation ("HRE"), and Wevervink B.V., a Netherlands company with limited liability, are direct or indirect subsidiaries of Rodamco (the "Rodamco Subsidiaries") and collectively are the record owners of 2,603,158 voting Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest in CPI (the "CPI Shares") and beneficial interests in 260,315.8 shares (the "CRC Shares") of Common Stock of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CRC"; the CRC Shares, together with the CPI Shares being referred to herein collectively as the "Rodamco Shares"). The Rodamco Subsidiaries have assigned certain beneficial interests in the CPI Shares to the following Delaware corporations, which are indirect subsidiaries of Rodamco and direct subsidiaries of Hexalon Real Estate, Inc. (the "HRE Subsidiaries"): HRE North Star, Inc., HRE San Antonio, Inc., HRE Maplewood, Inc., HRE Minneapolis, Inc., HRE Countryside, Inc., and HRE Clearwater, Inc.

B. CPI-North Star Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of CPI, is the sole general partner ("CPI-North Star Corporation"), and CPI is the sole limited partner, of CPI-North Star Associates Limited Partnership, a Delaware limited partnership ("CPI- North Star") which owns a 62.5% partnership interest in The North Star Mall Joint Venture, a New York general partnership ("North Star Venture"). CPI-Countryside Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of CPI ("CPI-Countryside Corporation"), is the sole general partner, and CPI is the sole limited partner, of Bellwether Properties of Florida (Limited), a Florida limited partnership ("Bellwether Florida"). CPI-Maplewood Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of CPI ("CPI-Maplewood Corporation"), is the sole general partner, and CPI is the sole limited partner, of Maplewood Mall Associates Limited Partnership, a Delaware limited partnership ("Maplewood"). CPI-North Star Corporation, CPI-Countryside Corporation and CPI-Maplewood Corporation are each referred to herein individually as a "CPI Subsidiary" and collectively as the "CPI Subsidiaries"; CPI-North Star, Bellwether Florida and Maplewood are each referred to herein individually as a "Partnership" and collectively as the "Partnerships"; the interests of CPI and the CPI Subsidiaries in the Partnerships are each referred to herein as a "Partnership Interest" and collectively as the "Partnership Interests".

C. The North Star Venture owns certain real property interests in a shopping center located in San Antonio, Texas commonly known as North Star Mall ("North Star Mall"). Bellwether Florida owns certain real property interests in a shopping center located in Pinellas County, Florida commonly known as Countryside Mall ("Countryside Mall"). Maplewood owns certain real property interests in a shopping center located in Maplewood, Minnesota and commonly known as Maplewood Mall ("Maplewood Mall"; and, collectively with North Star Mall and Countryside Mall, the "Malls").

D. Rodamco and CPI have agreed that (i) Rodamco shall cause the Rodamco Subsidiaries to assign and transfer the Rodamco Shares to CPI and in exchange (ii) CPI shall transfer and shall cause the CPI Subsidiaries to transfer their respective Partnership Interests to one or more of the HRE Subsidiaries, all upon the terms and conditions as set forth in this Agreement (collectively the "Exchange Transactions").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Exchange Transactions

SECTION 1.01. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the First Closing (as hereinafter defined) (a) Rodamco shall (i) cause the Rodamco Subsidiaries and the HRE Subsidiaries to exchange, convey, assign, transfer and deliver to CPI, and CPI shall receive and accept all of their respective right, title and interest in and to, the CRC Shares and 1,514,215 of the CPI Shares (collectively, the "Initial Rodamco Shares") and (ii) deliver each of the documents listed in Section 3.02(b) to be delivered by Rodamco on or prior to the First Closing Date, (b) (i) CPI shall, and shall cause CPI-Countryside Corporation to, exchange, convey, assign, transfer and deliver to HRE Countryside, Inc., and HRE Clearwater, Inc., and HRE Countryside, Inc., and HRE Clearwater, Inc., shall receive and accept all right, title and interest in and to the Partnership Interests of CPI and CPI-Countryside Corporation in Bellwether Florida and (ii) CPI shall, and shall cause CPI- Maplewood Corporation to, exchange, convey, assign, transfer and deliver to HRE Maplewood, Inc., and HRE Minneapolis, Inc., and HRE Maplewood, Inc., and HRE Minneapolis, Inc. shall receive and accept all right, title and interest in and to the Partnership Interests of CPI and CPI-Maplewood Corporation in Maplewood and (c) CPI shall (i) pay to Rodamco or its designee $11,447,000 (less the $850,000 credit due CPI pursuant to Section 2.05) by wire transfer of Federal funds to an account designated by Rodamco in a written notice to CPI (the "Cash Payment") in each case in consideration for the CRC Shares and the CPI Shares included in the Initial Rodamco Shares in accordance with the allocation set forth on Schedule 1.01 and (ii) deliver each of the documents listed in Section 3.02(a) to be delivered by CPI on or prior to the First Closing Date.

SECTION 1.02. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Second Closing (as hereinafter defined) (a) Rodamco shall (i) cause the Rodamco Subsidiaries and the HRE Subsidiaries to exchange, convey, assign, transfer and deliver to CPI and CPI shall receive and accept all of their respective right, title and interest in and to 1,088,943 of the CPI Shares (the "Remaining Rodamco Shares") and (ii) deliver each of the documents listed in Section 3.03(b) to be delivered by Rodamco on or prior to the Second Closing Date and (b) CPI (i) shall, and shall cause CPI-North Star Corporation to, exchange, convey, assign, transfer and deliver to HRE North Star, Inc., and HRE San Antonio, Inc., and HRE North Star Inc., and HRE San Antonio, Inc. shall receive and accept, all right, title and interest in and to the Partnership Interests of CPI and CPI-North Star Corporation in CPI-North Star, in consideration for the Remaining Rodamco Shares in accordance with the allocation set forth on Schedule 1.01 and (ii) shall deliver each of the documents listed in Section 3.03(a) to be delivered by CPI on or prior to the Second Closing Date.

ARTICLE II

Expenses

SECTION 2.01. Each of Rodamco and CPI shall pay 50% of all costs, fees and expenses of (a) the examination of title and issuance by First American Title Insurance Company (the "Title Company") of standard ALTA Owners' policies of title insurance insuring the owning Partnership's interest in (i) Bellwether Florida for $116,000,000 and (ii) Maplewood for $86,300,000; provided that Rodamco shall pay all costs related to any special endorsements (other than non-imputation endorsements) or other coverage requested by it and (b) basic ALTA/ACSM minimum standard detail surveys of Maplewood Mall and Countryside Mall, provided that Rodamco shall pay all survey costs related to any "Table A" survey items it may request.

SECTION 2.02. Each of CPI and Rodamco shall pay in a timely manner 50% of all state and local recording, documentary stamp, "intangibles", realty or stock transfer, recording and/or sales and other transactional taxes (other than income or capital gains taxes) due or ultimately determined to be due in connection with or in respect of the Exchange Transactions. Rodamco shall have no liability in respect of any excise taxes incurred by CPI pursuant to Section 4981 of the Internal Revenue Code (or similar state or local tax laws) as a consequence of the Exchange Transactions.

SECTION 2.03. Each of CPI and Rodamco shall pay 50% of (a) the fees and expenses of Lazard Freres & Co. L.L.C. in connection with its representation of CPI with respect to the Exchange Transactions and its advice to CPI and its Board of Trustees regarding the fairness to CPI from a financial point of view of the Exchange Transactions in the amount of $750,000 plus expenses and (b) the fees and expenses of counsel to CPI and Rodamco in connection with the Exchange Transactions; provided that Rodamco shall pay 100% of any such fees and expenses of its counsel incurred in connection with Rodamco's due diligence review with respect to the Exchange Transactions.

SECTION 2.04. Each of CPI and Rodamco shall pay 50% of the fees and expenses of Clayton Environmental Consultants, Inc., in connection with the preparation and delivery of "Phase I" environmental assessments of the Countryside Mall and the Maplewood Mall.

SECTION 2.05. CPI shall be entitled to a credit of $850,000 at the First Closing in respect of certain matters. Such credit shall be treated by the parties for income tax purposes as a reduction in the consideration for the Rodamco Shares.

ARTICLE III

Closing; Conditions of Closing

SECTION 3.01. The closing of the transactions described in Section 1.01 (the "First Closing") shall occur on December 31, 1996 or on such other date in 1996 as shall be mutually agreed upon by Rodamco and CPI (the "First Closing Date"), at the offices of Cravath, Swaine & Moore, Worldwide Plaza, 825 Eighth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10019; the closing of the transactions described in Section 1.02 (the "Second Closing") shall occur on January 2, 1997, or such other date in 1997 as shall be mutually agreed upon by Rodamco and CPI (the "Second Closing Date") at the location stated above.

SECTION 3.02. (a) The obligation of Rodamco to cause the transfer of the Initial Rodamco Shares and to accept in exchange therefor the Partnership Interests in Bellwether Florida and Maplewood and the Cash Payment as described in Section 1.01 shall be conditioned expressly on the satisfaction of the following conditions as of the First Closing Date:

(i) the representations and warranties of CPI contained in this Agreement shall be true, correct and complete in all material respects as of such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date;

(ii) CPI shall have terminated or caused the termination of the existing management agreements with Pembrook Management, Inc., a New York corporation ("Pembrook"), relating to Maplewood Mall and Countryside Mall effective as of the First Closing Date;

(iii) Pembrook shall have duly executed and delivered a new management agreement relating to Maplewood Mall and Countryside Mall, substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (the "Interim Management Agreement");

(iv) there shall have been issued by the Title Company a standard ALTA Owner's Title Insurance Policy insuring the owning Partnership's interest in Maplewood Mall and Countryside Mall in the amounts set forth in Section 2.01;

(v) Rodamco shall have received an opinion dated the First Closing Date of Cravath, Swaine & Moore substantially in the form of Exhibit B;

(vi) Rodamco shall have received satisfactory "Phase I" environmental assessments of Clayton Environmental Consultants, Inc., with respect to Maplewood Mall, Countryside Mall and North Star Mall;

(vii) all consents or waivers which may be required from third parties with respect to the Exchange Transactions shall have been obtained;

(viii) CPI shall have delivered to the applicable HRE Subsidiary duly executed Assignments (as hereinafter defined) relating to the Partnership Interests of CPI, CPI-Countryside Corporation and CPI-Maplewood Corporation in Bellwether Florida and Maplewood;

(ix) CPI shall have delivered to Rodamco or its designee a standard owner's affidavit in the form of Exhibit D relating to each of Maplewood Mall and Countryside Mall;

(x) CPI shall have delivered to Rodamco or its designee certified copies of the partnership agreements of CPI-Northstar, Bellwether Florida and Maplewood, good standing certificates issued by the Secretary of State of the jurisdiction of formation of each such Partnership and incumbency certificates, corporate resolutions and/or other evidence reasonably satisfac tory to Rodamco as to the authority of CPI to consummate the Exchange Transactions;

(xi) CPI shall have delivered to Rodamco or its designee a FIRPTA certificate, duly executed and acknowledged by an officer of CPI, in the form of Exhibit E;

(xii) CPI, CRC and the CPI Subsidiaries shall have duly executed and delivered to Rodamco a Release (as hereinafter defined) dated as of the First Closing Date;

(xiii) the partnership agreement of North Star Venture shall have been amended to reflect the substitution of CPI North Star for CPI as a partner therein;

(xiv) CPI shall have delivered or caused to be delivered to Rodamco or its designee the consent of the lender under the mortgage relating to Countryside Mall with respect to the transfer of the Partnership Interests in Bellwether Florida; and

(xv) CPI shall have delivered to Rodamco or its designee a copy of the partnership agreement of North Star Venture together with a certificate duly executed by CPI-North Star Corporation and North Star Mall, Inc. stating that such copy is true and complete and has not been amended.

(b) The obligation of CPI to transfer or cause the transfer of the Partnership Interests in Bellwether Florida and Maplewood and to make the Cash Payment and to accept in exchange therefor the Initial Rodamco Shares as described in Section 1.01 shall be conditioned expressly on the satisfaction of the following conditions as of the First Closing Date:

(i) the representations and warranties of Rodamco contained in this Agreement shall be true, correct and complete in all material respects as of such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date;

(ii) Rodamco shall have caused the Rodamco Subsidiaries and the HRE Subsidiaries to deliver to CPI assignments of beneficial interests in the Initial Rodamco Shares and the certificates representing the Initial Rodamco Shares, duly endorsed in blank or accompanied by stock powers duly endorsed in blank in proper form for transfer, with appropriate transfer tax stamps, if any, affixed;

(iii) CPI shall have received an opinion dated the First Closing Date of Arnall, Golden & Gregory, LLP, substantially in the form of Exhibit G;

(iv) Mr. Cecil Conlee (as well as any other designee of Rodamco then serving on the Board of Trustees of CPI) shall have resigned from the Board of Trustees of CPI and all committees thereof, effective as of the First Closing Date;

(v) Lazard Freres & Co. L.L.C. shall have delivered to CPI an opinion to the effect that the consideration to be received by CPI pursuant to the Exchange Transactions will be fair to CPI from a financial point of view;

(vi) no demand for registration of any Rodamco Shares under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, shall have been made;

(vii) Rodamco, Rodamco N.V., the Rodamco Subsidiaries and the Partnerships shall have duly executed and delivered to CPI a Release dated as of the First Closing Date;

(viii) Rodamco shall have delivered or caused to be delivered to CPI certified resolutions, incumbency certificates and/or other evidence reasonably satisfactory to CPI as to the authority of Rodamco and the Rodamco Subsidiaries to consummate the transaction contemplated hereby; and

(ix) Rodamco and HRE Maplewood, Inc., HRE Minneapolis, Inc., HRE Countryside, Inc., and HRE Clearwater, Inc., as applicable, shall have delivered duly executed Assignments relating to the Partnership Interest of CPI, CPI-Countryside Corporation and CPI-Maplewood Corporation in Bellwether Florida and Maplewood.

SECTION 3.03. (a) The obligation of Rodamco to cause the transfer of the Remaining Rodamco Shares and to accept in exchange therefor the Partnership Interests in CPI-North Star as described in Section 1.02 shall be conditioned expressly upon the satisfaction of the following conditions as of the Second Closing Date:

(i) the First Closing shall have occurred in 1996;

(ii) CPI shall have delivered to Rodamco or its designee a duly executed Assignment relating to the Partnership Interest of CPI and CPI-North Star Corporation in CPI- North Star; and

(iii) CPI, CRC and the CPI Subsidiaries shall have duly executed and delivered to Rodamco a Release dated as of the Second Closing Date.

(b) The obligation of CPI to transfer or cause the transfer of the Partnership Interests in CPI-North Star and to accept in exchange therefor the Remaining Rodamco Shares as described in Section 1.02 shall be conditioned expressly upon the satisfaction of the following conditions as of the Second Closing Date:

(i) the First Closing shall have occurred in 1996;

(ii) Rodamco shall have caused the Rodamco Subsidiaries and the HRE Subsidiaries to deliver to CPI assignments of beneficial interests in the Remaining Rodamco Shares and the certificates representing the Remaining Rodamco Shares, duly endorsed in blank or accompanied by stock powers duly endorsed in blank in proper form for transfer, with appropriate transfer tax stamps, if any, affixed;

(iii) Rodamco, HRE North Star, Inc., and HRE San Antonio, Inc., shall have delivered a duly executed Assignment relating to the Partnership Interest of CPI and CPI-North Star Corporation in CPI-North Star; and

(iv) Rodamco, Rodamco N.V., the Rodamco Subsidiaries and the Partnerships shall have duly executed and delivered to CPI a Release dated as of the Second Closing Date.

(c) Rodamco covenants and agrees that each of the representations and warranties set forth in Article VI, to the extent relating to the Remaining Rodamco Shares or any of the Exchange Transactions contemplated by the Second Closing, shall be true and correct in all material respects on the Second Closing Date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date.

(d) Rodamco covenants and agrees that it shall not make or suffer to be made any demand for registration of any of the Rodamco Shares under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

(e) Rodamco hereby covenants and agrees that, as soon as practicable following the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, it shall, or shall cause its applicable designee to, at the sole expense of Rodamco or such designee, take all actions necessary or appropriate in order to change the names of Bellwether Florida and CPI-North Star such that the terms "Bellwether" and "CPI", as applicable, shall be eliminated therefrom.

(f) CPI covenants and agrees that each of the representations and warranties set forth in Article V, to the extent relating to CPI-North Star and the Partnership Interests therein or any of the Exchange Transactions contemplated by the Second Closing, shall be true and correct in all material respects on the Second Closing Date, except to the extent such representations and warranties expressly relate to an earlier date.

SECTION 3.04. CPI and Rodamco shall each have the right to waive any conditions to their respective obligations under this Agreement, provided that any such waiver shall be in writing. The parties acknowledge and agree that if CPI or Rodamco has knowledge of a failure of any condition to such party's obligations hereunder as set forth in this Article III, including without limitation, the knowledge of either CPI or Rodamco that any representation or warranty made to them hereunder is not true and correct, and CPI or Rodamco, as applicable, proceeds with the First Closing or the Second Closing, as applicable, such party shall be deemed to have waived such condition and such party and its successors, assigns and affiliates shall not be entitled to be indemnified pursuant to Article X, to sue for breach of such warranty or representation so made herein, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any certificate pursuant hereto. Rodamco acknowledges that it shall be deemed to have knowledge of all matters set forth in estoppel certificates delivered to Rodamco (or its agents or representations) prior to the First Closing Date. As used in this Agreement, the phrase "knowledge of Rodamco" and any variations thereof shall mean, as of any date of determination, the actual knowledge or awareness, with no duty to make inquiry with respect thereto, as of such date, of Dale R. Gilomen, Lisa Saylor and Thomas F. Heyse.

ARTICLE IV

Closing Adjustments

SECTION 4.01. Within 60 days following the Second Closing Date, CPI shall deliver to Rodamco a certificate of the Chief Financial Officer or Controller of CPI, setting forth the Net Adjustment Amount (as defined below) (the "Certificate"). The Certificate shall set forth in reasonable detail calculations relating to the determination of the Net Adjustment Amount. Rodamco or its designee shall cause the Partnerships and their respective employees to assist CPI at Rodamco's expense, in the preparation of the Certificate and shall, to the extent within its authority so to do, provide CPI and its agents and representatives access at all reasonable times to the personnel, properties, books and records of the Partnerships and the North Star Venture for such purpose. CPI shall have the primary responsibility and authority for preparing the Certificate; provided that CPI shall, upon request, inform Rodamco or Rodamco's independent accountants from time to time of the status of the preparation of the Certificate; provided, further, that such 60 day period following the Second Closing Date shall be extended in the event that CPI shall not have adequate access to the personnel, properties, books and records of the North Star Venture sufficient to permit it to reasonably prepare the Certificate.

During the 30-day period following Rodamco's receipt of the Certificate, Rodamco and its independent accountants shall be permitted to review the working papers or other documents and papers on which the working papers are based relating to the Certificate. The Certificate as to the matters stated therein shall become final and binding upon the parties on the thirtieth day following delivery thereof, unless Rodamco gives written notice of its disagreement with the Certificate (a "Notice of Disagreement") to CPI prior to such date with any matters not so disagreed with being final and binding on the parties. Any Notice of Disagreement shall (A) specify in reasonable detail the nature of any disagreement so asserted and (B) be accompanied by a certificate of Rodamco that it has complied with the covenants set forth in Section 4.03. If a Notice of Disagreement is received by CPI in a timely manner, then the Certificate as to the matters stated therein with which Rodamco has disagreed (as revised in accordance with clause (I) or (II) below) shall become final and binding upon CPI and Rodamco on the earlier of (I) the date CPI and Rodamco resolve in writing any differences they have with respect to the matters specified in the Notice of Disagreement or (II) the date any disputed matters are finally resolved in writing by the Accounting Firm (as defined below).

During the 30-day period following the delivery of a Notice of Disagreement, CPI and Rodamco shall seek in good faith to resolve in writing any differences which they may have with respect to the matters specified in the Notice of Disagreement. During such period CPI shall have access to the working papers of Rodamco relating to the Notice of Disagreement. At the end of such 30-day period, CPI and Rodamco shall submit to an independent accounting firm (the "Accounting Firm") for review and resolution of any and all matters which remain in dispute and which were properly included in the Notice of Disagreement. The Accounting Firm shall be Arthur Andersen & Co. or, if such firm is unable or unwilling to act, such other nationally recognized independent public accounting firm as shall be reasonably agreed upon by the parties hereto in writing. The determination of the Accounting Firm as to such matters shall be final and binding on the parties hereto, and CPI and Rodamco agree that judgment may be entered upon the determination of the Accounting Firm in any court having jurisdiction over the party against which such determination is to be enforced. The fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm incurred pursuant to this Section 4.01 shall be borne by Rodamco and CPI in inverse proportion as they may prevail on matters resolved by the Accounting Firm, which proportionate allocations shall also be determined by the Accounting Firm at the time the determination of the Accounting Firm is rendered on the merits of the matters submitted.

SECTION 4.02. (a) Within three business days of the date on which the Certificate is deemed to be final, if the Net Adjustment Amount is negative, CPI will pay such amount to Rodamco or its designee, and if the Net Adjustment is positive, Rodamco will pay such amount to CPI, in immediately available funds.

(b) As used herein, the "Net Adjustment Amount" means the amount obtained by subtracting (x) the Closing Date Adjustment Amount from (y) the sum (positive or negative) of the Bellwether Working Capital Adjustment Amount, the North Star Working Capital Adjustment Amount and the Maplewood Working Capital Adjustment Amount, all as defined below.

(c) The "Bellwether Working Capital Adjustment Amount" means the Working Capital (as defined below) of Bellwether Florida as of the First Closing Date. The "North Star Working Capital Adjustment Amount" means the Working Capital of CPI-North Star as of the Second Closing Date; provided, however, that if CPI-North Star did not make any cash distributions to its partners in the period from December 31, 1996, to the Second Closing Date, then the Working Capital of CPI-North Star as of the Second Closing Date shall be deemed to be equal to the Working Capital of CPI-North Star as of December 31, 1996, which Working Capital shall reflect accruals from North Star Venture. The "Maplewood Working Capital Adjustment Amount" means the Working Capital of Maplewood as of the First Closing Date. The "Working Capital" of a Partnership as of any date means the amount (positive or negative) obtained in accordance with the computations with respect to such Partnership set forth on Schedule 4.02. The "Closing Date Adjustment Amount" means the sum of (i) the product of (x) $2,839,153 and (y) a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of days elapsed from November 15, 1996, to the First Closing Date and the denominator of which shall be 92, and (ii) the product of (x) $2,041,768 and (y) a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of days elapsed from November 15, 1996, to the Second Closing Date and the denominator of which shall be 92.

SECTION 4.03. Rodamco agrees that following the applicable Closing, until the Certificate shall become final and binding on Rodamco as provided in Section 4.01, it shall not take any action with respect to the accounting books and records of any Partnership on which the Certificate is to be based that are not consistent with the applicable Partnership's past practices (solely with respect to matters pertaining to the Certificate).

SECTION 4.04. During the period of time from and after the Second Closing Date through the resolution of any ultimate determination of the Net Adjustment Amount contemplated by this Article IV, Rodamco shall cause each Partnership and, to the extent within its control, the North Star Venture to afford to CPI and any accountants, counsel or financial advisers retained by CPI in connection with the determination of the Net Adjustment Amount reasonable access during normal business hours to all the Partnerships' properties, books, contracts, personnel and records relevant to the adjustment contemplated by this Article IV.

ARTICLE V

Representations and Warranties of CPI

CPI represents and warrants to Rodamco and its successors and assigns that:

SECTION 5.01. The factual statements contained in paragraph B of the Preliminary Statement are true, correct and complete in all material respects.

SECTION 5.02. (a) CPI is a voluntary association of the type commonly known as a business trust duly organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and is authorized to own its property and conduct its business in each jurisdiction where it is required to be so authorized, except to the extent the failure to so qualify would not have a material adverse effect on CPI's consolidated business, properties or financial position.

(b) CPI-North Star has been duly formed and is validly existing as a limited partnership under the laws of the State of Delaware and is registered as a foreign limited partnership in the State of Texas. CPI has previously furnished to Rodamco a true, correct and complete copy of the partnership agreement of CPI North Star dated as of November 12, 1996 between CPI-North Star Corporation and CPI (the "North Star Agreement"). CPI-North Star Corporation is the sole general partner and CPI is the sole limited partner of CPI-North Star. CPI-North Star Corporation and CPI own their respective Partnership Interests in CPI-North Star under the North Star Agreement free and clear of all liens, pledges, security interests or other encumbrances. CPI- North Star is not and has not during its existence engaged in any business other than the ownership of a 62.5% partnership interest in North Star Venture and owns no assets and has no liabilities which do not relate to such business.

(c) Bellwether Florida has been duly formed and is validly existing as a limited partnership under the laws of the State of Florida. CPI has previously furnished to Rodamco a true, correct and complete copy of the amended and restated partnership agreement of Bellwether Florida dated as of November 15, 1996 between CPI-Countryside Corporation and CPI (the "Bellwether Agreement"). CPI-Countryside Corporation is the sole general partner and CPI is the sole limited partner of Bellwether Florida. CPI-Countryside Corporation and CPI own their respective Partnership Interests in Bellwether Florida under the Bellwether Agreement free and clear of all liens, pledges, security interests or other encumbrances. Bellwether Florida is not and has not during its existence engaged in any business other than the ownership and operation of Countryside Mall and owns no assets and has no liabilities which do not relate to such business.

(d) Maplewood has been duly formed and is validly existing as a limited partnership under the laws of the State of Delaware and is registered as a foreign limited partnership in the State of Minnesota. CPI has previously furnished to Rodamco a true, correct and complete copy of the partnership agreement of Maplewood dated as of November 22, 1996 between CPI-Maplewood and CPI (the "Maplewood Agreement"). CPI-Maplewood Corporation is the sole general partner and CPI is the sole limited partner of Maplewood. CPI-Maplewood Corporation and CPI own their respective Partnership Interests in Maplewood under the Maplewood Agreement free and clear of all liens, pledges, security interests or other encumbrances. Maplewood is not and has not during its existence engaged in any business other than the ownership and operation of Maplewood Mall and owns no business and has no liabilities which do not relate to such business.

(e) The CPI Subsidiaries are corporations duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, and each is authorized to own its property and conduct its business in each jurisdiction where it is required to be so authorized.

(f) CPI has the legal right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and perform all its obligations hereunder, and the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents contemplated by this Agreement by CPI, and the performance by CPI of its obligations hereunder and under the documents contemplated by this Agreement (i) have been duly authorized by all requisite action, (ii) will not conflict with, or result in a breach or violation of or default under, or be modified, restricted or precluded by, (A) any of the terms, conditions and provisions of its Second Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, as amended (the "Declaration of Trust"), or its Trustees' Regulations (B) any order, judgment, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality which has been served or otherwise given to CPI, (C) any agreement or instrument to which CPI or any of the Partnerships is a party or by which CPI or any of the Partnerships is bound, or to which CPI or any of the Partnerships is subject, (D) any law or regulation of the United States or any Federal, state or local governmental authority and (iii) do not require the consent or approval of any person or entity (other than as have been obtained and delivered to Rodamco on or prior to the date hereof). This Agreement and all documents executed and delivered by CPI in connection with this Agreement constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of CPI (subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally from time to time in effect and to general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law, and except as the enforceability of the indemnification provisions hereof may be limited by federal securities law and public policy considerations).

(g) The CPI Subsidiaries have the legal right, power and authority to execute and deliver all documents contemplated by this Agreement to be executed and delivered by them, respectively, and the performance by each of its obligations under such documents (i) have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate action, (ii) will not conflict with, or result in a breach or violation of or default under, or be modified, restricted or precluded by, (A) any of the terms, conditions and provisions of their respective certificates of incorporation or by-laws, (B) any order, judgment, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality which has been served or otherwise given to any of them, (C) any agreement or instrument to which any of them is a party or by which any of them is bound, or to which any of them or their respective Partnership Interests or the Partnerships are subject, (D) any law or regulation of the United States or any Federal, state or local governmental authority and (iii) do not require the consent or approval of any person or entity (other than as have been obtained and delivered to Rodamco on or prior to the date hereof). All documents executed and delivered by the CPI Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement constitute their respective legal, valid and binding obligations (subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally from time to time in effect and to general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law, and except as the enforceability of the indemnification provisions hereof may be limited by federal securities law and public policy considerations).

SECTION 5.03. (a) CPI has not received any written notice from any governmental authority having jurisdiction thereover that (i) Maplewood Mall or Countryside Mall or the current use, development, construction, management, maintenance, servicing, operation and occupancy of Maplewood Mall or Countryside Mall, materially violates any applicable law, ordinance, rule, regulation, order or requirement of such governmental authority.

(b) CPI has not received any written notice that any certificate of occupancy or any other license or permit required by any law or regulation for the proper use and operation of Maplewood Mall or Countryside Mall is not in full force and effect.

(c) CPI has not received written notice of, and to the knowledge of CPI there are no, violations, liabilities, suits, proceedings, orders, decrees or judgments relating to Hazardous Material or Hazardous Material Laws (both terms as defined below), against, or with respect to, Maplewood Mall or Countryside Mall or any part thereof. "Hazardous Materials" means asbestos and any substance containing asbestos, the group of organic compounds known as polychlorinated biphenyls, flammable explosives, radioactive materials, chemicals known to cause cancer or reproductive toxicity, pollutants, effluents, contaminants, emissions or related materials; insecticides, fungicides and rodenticides, except used in normal applications; crude oil, petroleum or fractions thereof, chlorofluorocarbons and urea formaldehyde and any items included in the definition of hazardous or toxic wastes, materials or substances under the Hazardous Material Laws. "Hazardous Material Laws" means the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, 42 U.S.C. ss.6901 et seq., the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act of 1986 42 U.S.C. ss. 9601, as amended by the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorized Act of 1986, the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U.S.C. ss.ss.2601 et seq., and all similar federal, state and local environmental statutes, ordinances and the regulations, orders, decrees now in effect.

SECTION 5.04. (a) To the knowledge of CPI, there are no proceedings that could have the effect of impairing or restricting the current access between Maplewood Mall or Countryside Mall respectively, and public streets, roads and highways adjoining either of them.

(b) CPI has not received any written notice of any curtailment, moratorium or other limitation of service of any utility supplied to Maplewood Mall or Countryside Mall.

SECTION 5.05. True, correct and complete copies of all material service contracts relating to the operation and maintenance of Maplewood Mall and Countryside Mall, respectively, have been furnished by CPI to Rodamco and are listed on Schedule 5.05.

SECTION 5.06. (a) CPI has previously delivered to Rodamco a rent roll (the "Rent Roll") which sets forth a list of all tenants other than tenants the tenancies of which may be terminated by the landlord on not more than one month's notice and other than tenants the terms of the tenancies of which shall expire prior to or on January 31,

1997 ("Tenants") with leases of premises at Countryside Mall and Maplewood Mall. The Rent Roll accurately sets forth, for all Tenants' leases, (i) the "DBA" name of the Tenant, (ii) the suite number or other appropriate designation of the space occupied, (iii) the number of square feet of rentable or gross leasable area, as applicable, (iv) the annual base rent payable thereunder, (v) the term of each such lease, including commencement date and expiration date and (vi) the dates of basic rent step-ups and the annual rates of such stepped-up rent. Exhibit 5.06(a) accurately and completely lists all Tenants' leases as of the date hereof by date and identity of Tenant as set forth on the Rent Roll (the "Leases").

(b) The Leases have been executed and delivered by the parties thereto and the copies of the Leases made available to Rodamco are true, correct and complete.

(c) CPI has not given, made or received any written notice of material default with respect to any of the Leases (other than as may be set forth in Exhibit 5.06(c)).

SECTION 5.07. There are no pending, nor has CPI received any written notice of threatened, actions or proceedings (including, without limitation, condemnation or eminent domain proceedings or proceedings in the nature or in lieu thereof) against CPI, Bellwether Florida or Maplewood relating to or adversely affecting the right, title or interest of any of them respectively, in or to Maplewood Mall or Countryside Mall or any part thereof.

SECTION 5.08. Exhibit 5.08 accurately and completely lists all documents comprising the agreements between Bellwether Florida, Maplewood and the "anchors" at Countryside Mall and Maplewood Mall (the "Mall Agreements") as of the date hereof by caption, date and parties. Neither Bellwether Florida, Maplewood nor any other party to any Mall Agreement has given, made or received any written notice of default with respect to a material default thereunder that remains outstanding.

SECTION 5.09. As used in this Agreement, the phrases "to the knowledge of CPI" and any variations thereof shall mean, as of any date of determination, the actual knowledge or awareness, with no duty to make inquiry with respect thereto, as of such date, of J. Michael Maloney or Jane Fortenberry (as to Maplewood Mall only), G. Martin Fell or Robert J. Ross (as to Countryside Mall only) and Harold E. Rolfe (as to litigation matters only).

SECTION 5.10. Since September 30, 1996, CPI has not materially altered its policies (including cash flow distribution policies) with respect to the management of Countryside Mall and Maplewood Mall.

SECTION 5.11. None of CPI, CPI North Star Corporation or CPI North Star has any lien or other security interest in the interest of North Star Mall Limited Partnership or North Star Mall, Inc., in North Star Venture.

ARTICLE VI

Representations and Warranties of Rodamco

Rodamco hereby represents and warrants to CPI and its successors and assigns that:

SECTION 6.01. The factual statements contained in Paragraph A of the Preliminary Statement are true, correct and complete in all material respects.

SECTION 6.02. Rodamco is a company with limited liability duly organized and existing under the laws of the Netherlands and is authorized to own its property and conduct its business in each jurisdiction where it is required to be so authorized.

SECTION 6.03. Rodamco has the legal right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement and perform all its obligations hereunder, and the execution and delivery of this Agreement and all documents contemplated by this Agreement by Rodamco and the performance by Rodamco of its obligations hereunder and under the documents contemplated by this Agreement (a) have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate action, (b) will not conflict with, or result in a breach or violation of, or be modified, restricted or precluded by, (i) any of the terms, conditions and provisions of its organizational documents, (ii) any order, judgment, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality which has been served or otherwise given to Rodamco, (iii) any agreement or instrument to which Rodamco is a party or by which it is bound or (iv) any law or regulation of the United States or any Federal, state or local governmental authority and (c) do not require the consent or approval of any person or entity. This Agreement and all documents executed and delivered by Rodamco in connection with this Agreement constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of Rodamco (subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally from time to time in effect and to general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law, and except as the enforceability of the indemnification provisions hereof may be limited by federal securities law and public policy considerations).

SECTION 6.04. HRE Finance Inc. is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Delaware. Wevervink B.V. is a company with limited liability duly organized and existing under the laws of the Netherlands. Each Rodamco Subsidiary is authorized to own its property and conduct its business in each jurisdiction where it is required to be so authorized. Each HRE Subsidiary is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Delaware and is authorized to own its property and conduct its business in each jurisdiction where it is required to be so authorized.

SECTION 6.05. The Rodamco Subsidiaries and the HRE Subsidiaries have the legal right, power and authority, respectively, to execute and deliver all documents required to be executed and delivered by them, respectively, and the performance by each of its obligations under such documents (a) have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate action, (b) will not conflict with, or result in a breach or violation of, or be modified, restricted or precluded by, (i) any of the terms, conditions and provisions of their respective certificates of incorporation or by-laws (or other organizational documents), (ii) any order, judgment, writ, injunction or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality which has been served or otherwise been given to any of them, (iii) any agreement or instrument to which any of them is subject or (iv) any law or regulation of the United States or any Federal, state of local governmental authority and (c) do not require the consent or approval of any person or entity. All documents executed and delivered by the Rodamco Subsidiaries and the HRE Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement constitute their respective legal, valid and binding obligations (subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally from time to time in effect and to general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law, and except as the enforceability of the indemnification provisions hereof may be limited by federal securities law and public policy considerations).

SECTION 6.06. The Rodamco Subsidiaries and the HRE Subsidiaries collectively own all right, title and interest in and to the Rodamco Shares free and clear of any liens, pledges, security interests or other encumbrances of any kind whatsoever. Neither Rodamco nor the Rodamco Subsidiaries are parties to any agreements affecting the Rodamco Shares other than this Agreement or other documents executed in connection with this Agreement; the Rodamco Shares are the only shares of beneficial interest in CPI owned or controlled by Rodamco, the Rodamco Subsidiaries, Rodamco N.V. or any affiliate of any of them.

ARTICLE VII

Condition of Premises

Rodamco acknowledges that each of it and the Rodamco Subsidiaries has inspected the Malls and reviewed the Partnerships and the North Star Venture, that it has received copies of and has reviewed the Mall Agreements, the Bellwether Agreement, the Maplewood Agreement and the North Star Agreement, that is has received copies of such other documents as it has requested and that it agrees to accept the Malls "as is" and in their present condition. Rodamco on behalf of itself, the Rodamco Subsidiaries and the HRE Subsidiaries acknowledges and agrees that except as expressly set forth in the Assignments and the Releases, and in this Agreement and the Exhibits and Schedules hereto, CPI (and its affiliates) are making no representations, promises, warranties, guarantees, statements or projections regarding the physical condition, habitability, leases, layout, footage, income and revenue, rents, expenses, zoning, operations, occupancy percentages or rates, environmental condition, the presence or absence of hazardous substances, compliance with applicable laws and regulations, including zoning and building codes, the status of development rights or potential, or any matter respecting, affecting, or pertaining to the Malls, or any part thereof, or with respect to the financial condition of the North Star Venture or any Partnership (or related entity). With respect to any items of personal property, CPI has not made and does not make any representations, promises or warranties, express or implied, dealing with merchantability, fitness for use or condition thereof, and Rodamco agrees that none have been made. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no environmental assessment or audit report or title policy furnished by CPI (or any of its affiliates) to Rodamco (or any of its affiliates) shall be deemed a representation or warranty by CPI (or any of its affiliates) as to any of the information contained therein. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement to the contrary, CPI shall have no obligation to Rodamco (or its affiliates) with regard to compliance or failure of compliance under the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") in connection with the Malls, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (i) none of CPI's (or any of its affiliates') representations and warranties (including, without limitation, those representation and warranties set forth in Article V) shall be interpreted to include any representation or warranty with regard to compliance by the Malls with the ADA and (ii) CPI shall have no obligation to cure any violation of law arising under the ADA (or to adjust the Working Capital of any Partnership to reflect the cost thereof).

Rodamco further acknowledges that it is a sophisticated purchaser of real estate and interests in partnerships directly or indirectly owning real estate and that its decision to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is based upon its own independent expert evaluation of the Malls, the Partnerships, the North Star Venture and other materials and information deemed relevant by Rodamco and its agents. In entering into this Agreement, Rodamco has not relied upon any oral or written representations from CPI or any of CPI's Trustees, officers, employees, affiliates, agents or representatives other than the representations and warranties of CPI (or its affiliates) expressly set forth in this Agreement or in the Assignments or the Releases. Nothing contained in this Article VII is intended to or shall affect the liability of CPI or the CPI Subsidiaries under this Agreement, the Assignments or the Releases in the event of any breach by it of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement or any default by it in performing its obligations under this Agreement, the Assignments or the Releases. In addition, nothing contained in this Article VII shall in any way constitute a waiver by Rodamco of its right to rely on the representations or warranties of CPI contained in this Agreement or to pursue any remedies available to Rodamco in connection with the breach of any such representations or warranties.

Records

SECTION 8.01. The following documents and other items relating to each of Countryside Mall and Maplewood Mall will become the property of Rodamco and, to the extent in the possession of CPI and in accordance with the provisions of the Interim Management Agreement, will be turned over to Pembrook, either directly or by delivery to the management offices of the applicable Mall, at the applicable Closing:

(a) the original executed copies of all Leases, Lease correspondence, Mall Agreements and service contracts, if available, and accurate, legible and certified photocopies thereof where the original executed copies are unavailable;

(b) any and all plans, specifications and drawings relating to such Mall;

(c) all building permits, permanent certificates of occupancy or certificates of compliance which relate to any improvements constituting part of such Mall; and

(d) 1996 accounting and billing records relating to such Mall.

SECTION 8.02. CPI shall turn over to Rodamco, at the applicable Closing, all books and records of CPI in CPI's possession relating to the Partnerships, the Partnership Interests and the North Star Venture and shall cause the accounting and billing records relating to the Maplewood Mall or Countryside Mall, to the extent in CPI's possession for all years prior to 1996 to be made available to Rodamco or the applicable HRE Subsidiary upon request in connection with the preparation of financial statements or for other reasonable business purposes. Rodamco shall cause such books and records relating to the Partnership to be made available to CPI upon request in connection with the preparation of financial statements or tax returns or for other reasonable business purposes.

Indemnity; Survival

SECTION 10.01. (a) CPI agrees to indemnify, defend and hold Rodamco, its designees which receive Partnership Interests pursuant to this Agreement and their respective successors and assigns and present and former direct and indirect partners and their respective officers, directors, trustees, employees and affiliates harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, liabilities and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (collectively, "Losses") suffered or incurred by any such person or entity arising from any breach of any representation or warranty of CPI contained in this Agreement which survives the First Closing Date; provided, that CPI shall have no liability under this sentence unless the aggregate of all claims, damages, losses, liabilities and expenses relating thereto for which CPI would, but for this proviso, be liable exceeds on a cumulative basis $250,000, and then to the full amount thereof.

(b) Rodamco agrees to indemnify, defend and hold CPI and each CPI Subsidiary and their respective successors and assigns and present and former direct and indirect partners and their respective officers, directors, trustees, employees and affiliates harmless from and against any and all Losses suffered or incurred by any such person or entity arising from any breach of any representation or warranty of Rodamco contained in this Agreement which survives the First Closing Date; provided, that Rodamco shall have no liability under this sentence unless the aggregate of all claims, damages, losses, liabilities and expenses relating thereto for which Rodamco would, but for this proviso, be liable exceeds on a cumulative basis $250,000, and then to the full amount thereof.

(c) In order for a party (the "indemnified party") to be entitled to any indemnification provided for under this Agreement in respect of, arising out of or involving a claim or demand made by any third person against the indemnified party (a "Third Party Claim"), such indemnified party must notify the indemnifying party in writing, and in reasonable detail, of the Third Party Claim within 10 business days after receipt by such indemnified party of written notice of the Third Party Claim; provided, however, that failure to give such notification shall not affect the indemnification provided hereunder except to the extent the indemnifying party shall have been actually prejudiced as a result of such failure (except that the indemnifying party shall not be liable for any expenses incurred during the period in which the indemnified party failed to give such notice). Thereafter, the indemnified party shall deliver to the indemnifying party, within five business days after the indemnified party's receipt thereof, copies of all notices and documents (including court papers) received by the indemnified party relating to the Third Party Claim.

If a Third Party Claim is made against an indemnified party, the indemnifying party shall be entitled to participate in the defense thereof and, if it so chooses and acknowledges its obligation to indemnify the indemnified party therefor, to assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the indemnifying party; provided that such counsel is not reasonably objected to by the indemnified party. Should the indemnifying party so elect to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim, and diligently pursue the defense thereof in a prudent and commercially reasonable manner, the indemnifying party shall not be liable to the indemnified party for legal expenses subsequently incurred by the indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof. The indemnifying party shall be liable for the fees and expenses of counsel employed by the indemnified party for any period during which the indemnifying party has failed to assume and diligently pursue in a prudent and commercially reasonable manner the defense thereof (other than during the period prior to the time the indemnified party shall have given notice of the Third Party Claim as provided above).

If the indemnifying party so elects to assume the defense of any Third Party Claim, all of the indemnified parties shall cooperate with the indemnifying party in the defense or prosecution thereof. Such cooperation shall include, at the expense of the indemnifying party, the retention and (upon the indemnifying party's request) the provision to the indemnifying party of records and information which are reasonably relevant to such Third Party Claim, and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder. If the indemnifying party shall have assumed the defense of a Third Party Claim, the indemnified party shall not admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, such Third Party Claim without the indemnifying party's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld). If the indemnifying party shall have assumed the defense of a Third Party Claim, the indemnified party shall agree to any settlement, compromise or discharge of a Third Party Claim which the indemnifying party may recommend and which by its terms obligates the indemnifying party to pay the full amount of the liability in connection with such Third Party Claim, which releases each of the indemnifying party and the indemnified party completely in connection with such Third Party Claim provided that the indemnified party shall not be prejudiced in any manner. Otherwise, any such settlement, compromise or discharge of a Third Party Claim which the indemnifying party may recommend shall be subject to the consent of the indemnified party not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Third Party Claim involves a claim for which coverage is provided under any past or present insurance policy or for which such coverage would be provided but for any self-insured retention provision contained in such an insurance policy, the indemnifying party may, if it so chooses and acknowledges its obligation to indemnify the indemnified party therefor (i) assume the defense thereof with counsel selected solely in the discretion of the indemnifying party, (ii) withhold its consent for any reason to any admission of liability with respect to, or any settlement, compromise or discharge of, such Third Party Claim by the indemnified party and (iii) on behalf of the indemnified party, enter into any settlement, compromise or discharge of such Third Party Claim so long as its terms obligate the indemnifying party to pay the full amount of the liability in connection with such Third Party Claim and release the indemnified party from such Third Party Claim. The indemnifying party shall control all aspects of the defense of such Third Party Claim and shall have no liability to the indemnified party for legal expenses incurred by the indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof subsequent to the assumption by the indemnifying party of the foregoing obligation to indemnify; provided that the indemnifying party shall, upon request, inform the indemnified party from time to time of the status of such defense. In connection with any such Third Party Claim, the indemnifying party shall have the right to assert and prosecute, with counsel selected by the indemnifying party in its sole discretion, in the name of the indemnified party or the indemnifying party, any claim for contribution, cross-claim, counterclaim or other claim seeking to recover all or any part of the cost or responsibility for such Third Party Claim and to apply any proceeds thereof to the satisfaction of such Third Party Claim, and the indemnified party shall not settle, compromise or discharge any such claim without the indemnifying party's consent.

The indemnification required by Section 10.01(a) and 10.01(b) shall be made by periodic payments of the amount thereof during the course of the investigation or defense, as and when bills are received or loss, liability, claim, damage or expense is incurred. All claims under Section 10.01(a) or 10.01(b) other than Third Party Claims shall be governed by Section 10.01(d).

(d) Other Claims. In the event any indemnified party should have a claim against any indemnifying party under Section 10.01(a) or 10.01(b) that does not involve a Third Party Claim being asserted against or sought to be collected from such indemnified party, the indemnified party shall deliver notice of such claim with reasonable promptness to the indemnifying party. The failure by any indemnified party so to notify the indemnifying party shall not relieve the indemnifying party from any liability which it may have to such indemnified party under Section 10.01(a) or 10.01(b), except to the extent that the indemnifying party demonstrates that it has been materially prejudiced by such failure. If the indemnifying party does not notify the indemnified party within 10 calendar days following its receipt of such notice that the indemnifying party disputes its liability to the indemnified party under Section 10.01(a) or 10.01(b), such claim specified by the indemnified party in such notice shall be conclusively deemed a liability of the indemnifying party under Section 10.01(a) or 10.01(b) and the indemnifying party shall pay the amount of such liability to the indemnified party on demand or, in the case of any notice in which the amount of the claim (or any portion thereof) is estimated, on such later date when the amount of such claim (or such portion thereof) becomes finally determined. If the indemnifying party has timely disputed its liability with respect to such claim, as provided above, the indemnifying party and the indemnified party shall proceed in good faith to negotiate a resolution of such dispute and, if not resolved through negotiations, such dispute shall be resolved by litigation in an appropriate court of competent jurisdiction.

(e) Environmental Claims. In the event Rodamco should have a claim against CPI under Section 10.01(a), 10.01(c) or 10.01(d) which relates to Hazardous Material Laws or Hazardous Materials, then in such event, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 10.01(c) or 10.01(d), Rodamco or its designee shall give CPI written notice of any such claim for indemnification as soon as practicable. CPI shall thereafter defend the applicable claim against Rodamco with counsel reasonably approved by Rodamco, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld. The failure of Rodamco to give the written notice required by the first sentence of this paragraph 10.01(e) shall not release or limit in any way the indemnification obligation of CPI, except to the extent that CPI shall be prejudiced by such failure. Thereafter, all other provisions of Section 10.01(c) and (d) shall apply.

SECTION 10.02. The representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement shall survive the First Closing Date solely for purposes of Sections 10.01(a) and (b) and shall terminate at the close of business on the first anniversary of the First Closing Date, except that the representations and warranties of CPI contained in the penultimate sentences of Sections 5.02(b), (c) and (d) and the representations and warranties of Rodamco contained in the first sentence of Section 6.06 shall survive indefinitely. All other provisions of this Agreement shall survive indefinitely.

ARTICLE XI

Miscellaneous

SECTION 11.01. No waiver by any party of any breach hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any other or subsequent breach.

SECTION 11.02. This Agreement may not be altered, amended, changed, waived, terminated or modified in any respect or particular unless the same shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

SECTION 11.03. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and to their respective heirs, executors, administrators, and successors and assigns. Neither CPI nor Rodamco nor any Rodamco Subsidiary nor any HRE Subsidiary may assign its rights under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other, except that either party may assign its rights hereunder to a wholly owned subsidiary which assumes the obligations of such party hereunder. No assignment shall relieve the assignor of any obligations hereunder.

SECTION 11.04. All understandings and agreements heretofore had between CPI and Rodamco, including the letter from CPI to Rodamco dated November 13, 1996, are merged into this Agreement and the Exhibits hereto, which fully and completely express the parties' agreement with respect to all matters pertaining to the subject matter hereof.

SECTION 11.05. At any time prior to, on or after the First Closing Date, each party shall execute and deliver to the other party any additional documents and instruments which are reasonably necessary to further assure the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that such additional documents and instruments do not impose any material additional cost or liability on the party delivering the same.

SECTION 11.06. This Agreement is for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties hereto, and their respective permitted successors and assigns, and no third party is intended to or shall have any rights hereunder. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the indemnities set forth in this Agreement are intended for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, the indemnitees thereunder.

SECTION 11.07. (a) The headings and captions herein are inserted for convenient reference only and the same shall not limit or construe the paragraphs or sections to which they refer or apply or otherwise affect the interpretation hereof.

(b) The terms "hereby", "hereof", "herein", "hereunder" and any similar terms shall refer to this Agreement, and the term "hereafter" shall mean after, and the term "heretofore" shall mean before, the date of this Agreement.

(c) Words importing persons shall include firms, associations, partnerships (including limited partnerships), trusts, corporations and other legal entities, including public bodies, as well as natural persons.

(d) The terms "include", "including", "including specifically" and similar terms shall be construed as if followed by the phrase "without limitation" or "and without limitation", as applicable.

(e) As used in this Agreement, the term "Assignment" shall mean an agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit C and the term the "Assignments" shall mean collectively, the Assignments to be delivered in accordance with and pursuant to Sections 1.01 and 1.02 hereof.

(f) As used in this Agreement, the term "affiliate", as applied to any person, shall mean any other person controlling, controlled by or under common control with such person. For purposes of the preceding sentence, (i) "control" of any person other than a natural person shall be deemed to be held by any other person owning, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of such person's voting securities and (ii) "control" of any partnership shall be deemed to be held by any general partner of such partnership.

(g) As used in this Agreement, the term "Release" shall mean an agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit F and the term the "Releases" shall mean collectively, the Releases delivered pursuant to and in accordance with Sections 1.01 and 1.02 hereof.

(h) The rights and remedies of the parties hereunder shall be cumulative, and no single or partial exercise of any of them shall preclude the further or other exercise of any of them, in any sequence or combination, and in one or more iterations.

SECTION 11.08. This Agreement and any document or instrument executed pursuant hereto may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed counterpart of this Agreement or any document or instrument executed pursuant hereto by facsimile transmission shall be effective as delivery of an originally executed counterpart thereof.

SECTION 11.09. If any provision of this Agreement shall be judicially or administratively held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such holding shall not be deemed to affect, alter, modify or impair in any way any other provision hereof.

SECTION 11.10. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without reference to its conflicts of laws provisions. Each of Rodamco and CPI irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of (a) the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, and (b) the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, for the purposes of any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby. Each of Rodamco and CPI further agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to such party's respective address set forth above shall be effective service of process for any action, suit or proceeding in New York with respect to any matters to which it has submitted to jurisdiction to this Section 11.11. Each of Rodamco and CPI irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby in (i) the Supreme Court of the State of New York, New York County, or (ii) the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of Rodamco and CPI waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any litigation directly or indirectly arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 11.11. Each of Rodamco and CPI acknowledges and agrees that the other party would be damaged irreparably in the event that the agreements contained in this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms which includes, but is not limited to the Second Closing, which is an essential bargained for element of the Exchange Transactions. Accordingly, each party hereto agrees that the other shall be entitled to specifically enforce this Agreement, including the consummation of the Exchange Transactions, in addition to any other remedy to which the nonbreaching party may be entitled at law or in equity without the posting of any bond or proof of damages.

SECTION 11.12. Each of Rodamco and the Rodamco Subsidiaries hereby acknowledges and agrees that, upon the transfer of the Initial Rodamco Shares and the Remaining Rodamco Shares to CPI pursuant to this Agreement, all rights of the Rodamco Subsidiaries with respect to such Rodamco Shares, whether arising under the Purchase Agreement dated December 29, 1989, between CPI and Rodamco N.V. (the "Purchase Agreement"), the letter agreement dated December 29, 1989, between CPI and Rodamco N.V. (the "Letter Agreement") or under any other agreement or arrangement, written or oral, or in any other manner, shall be deemed to be transferred therewith, and all rights of Rodamco or the Rodamco Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates under the Share Purchase Agreement, the Letter Agreement or otherwise relating to the Rodamco Shares shall be terminated and of no further force or effect.

SECTION 11.13. Rodamco and CPI acknowledge and agree that the fair market value of the Partnership Interests in CPI-Northstar is $143 million, that the fair market value of the Partnership Interests in Bellwether Florida is $101.1 million and that the fair market value of Partnership Interests in Maplewood is $86.3 million (in each case without regard to Working Capital). Rodamco and CPI agree that they will file all their tax returns (and cause their respective affiliates to file all their tax returns) on a basis consistent with the foregoing fair market value amounts.

SECTION 11.14. The following notification is hereby given pursuant to Florida Statute Section 404.056(6) (1995):

> RADON GAS: Radon is naturally occurring radio-active gas that, when it has accumulated in a building in sufficient quantities, may present health risks to persons who are exposed to it over time. Levels of radon that exceed federal and state guidelines have been found in buildings in Florida. Additional information regarding radon and radon testing may be obtained from your county public health unit.

SECTION 11.15. The parties hereby agree that neither this Agreement nor any memorandum or notice hereof shall be recorded.

SECTION 11.16. CPI, CRC, Rodamco, each of the Rodamco Subsidiaries and each of the HRE Subsidiaries, each after consultation with an attorney of its own selection (which counsel was not directly or indirectly identified, suggested or selected by the other party or any agent of the other party), hereby voluntarily waives its rights under the Deceptive Trade Practices - Consumer Protection Act

(Section 17.41, et seq., Business and Commerce Code), a law that gives consumers special rights and protections. The parties hereby acknowledge to the other that neither party is in a significantly disparate bargaining position.

ARTICLE XII

Exculpation

SECTION 12.01. Rodamco understands that the name "Corporate Property Investors" is the designation of the trustees thereof under the Declaration of Trust, on file with the Secretary of State of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and neither the shareholders nor the Trustees, officers, employees or agents of the Trust created thereby, nor any of their personal assets, shall be liable hereunder and all persons dealing with the Trust shall look solely to the Trust estate for the payment any claims hereunder or for the performance hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed as of the day and year first above written.

Exhibit 10.41

STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT dated as of December 13, 1996, between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a voluntary association of the type commonly known as a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI") and FIFTH AND 59TH STREET INVESTORS CORPORATION, a Delaware corporation (the "Purchaser").

Preliminary Statement

Pursuant to and on the terms of this Purchase Agreement, CPI agrees to sell and Purchaser agrees to buy, certain voting Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest, par value $1 per share, in CPI, together with related beneficial interests in the shares of common stock, par value $.10 per share, of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CRC"), held in the CRC Trust (as hereinafter defined), in exchange for Purchaser's sale, assignment, transfer and conveyance to CPI or one of its affiliates of the Partnership Interest (as hereinafter defined).

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used herein the following terms have the following meanings:

"Assignment Agreement" means an assignment agreement dated as of the Closing Date, substantially in the form of Exhibit B, effecting Purchaser's sale, assignment, transfer and conveyance of the Partnership Interest to CPI or one of its affiliates.

"business day" means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which banks in the State of New York are authorized to be closed.

"Closing" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.2.

"Closing Date" means December 13, 1996, or such later date as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties hereto, but in no event later than February 14, 1997.

"Closing Date Share Number" means a number equal to (a) $227,200,000 divided by (b) the Purchase Price.

"Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended to date.

"Commission" means the Securities and Exchange Commission or any successor federal agency charged with responsibility for enforcing the United States federal securities laws.

"Common Share" means any shares of beneficial interest of any class of CPI that are designated Common Shares pursuant to the Declaration of Trust as of the date of this Purchase Agreement, and shares of any class or classes authorized after the date of this Purchase Agreement or resulting from the reclassification of any of the foregoing which have no preference in respect of dividends or amounts payable in the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of CPI and which are not subject to redemption by CPI (except as the Trustees of CPI may deem necessary so that CPI may qualify as a Real Estate Investment Trust in accordance with the terms of Section 5.12 of the Declaration of Trust).

"CPI" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble, and shall include any successor thereto.

"CRC" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble, and shall include any successor thereto.

"CRC Shares" means shares of Common Stock, par value $.10 per share, of CRC.

"CRC Trust" means the Trust created by the CRC Trust Agreement, under which the depositing holders of Common Shares have ratable beneficial interests in the CRC Shares deposited in the CRC Trust.

"CRC Trust Agreement" means the Trust Agreement dated as of October 30, 1979, among the shareholders of CPI at that date, CRC and the Bank of Montreal Trust Company, as successor Trustee.

"Declaration of Trust" means the Second Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust executed as of March 16, 1995, as amended, of CPI.

"Encumbrance" means any security interest, lien, charge, claim or other encumbrance or restriction of any other nature or kind other than those granted by this Purchase Agreement, the Declaration of Trust or the CRC Trust Agreement.

"Evaluation Material" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.4.

"1934 Act" means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, all as in effect from time to time.

"Partnership" means Longstreet Associates, L.P., a New York limited partnership.

"Partnership Interest" shall mean the rights and obligations of Purchaser that are set forth in those agreements and other documents listed in Schedule 6.2.1, together with any other rights or claims that the Purchaser may have (as a partner, creditor, beneficiary or other claimant) in, to or against the Partnership.

"Per Share Proration Factor" means an amount equal to $1.875 multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days following November 15, 1996, that the Closing Date occurs and the denominator of which is 92.

"Preference Shares" means any shares of beneficial interest of any class or series of CPI that are designated Preference Shares pursuant to the Declaration of Trust.

"Purchaser" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Purchase Price" means $131.32 per Share, which amount includes the portion thereof ($.44 as of December 31, 1995, as determined by Landauer Associates, Inc.) per Common Share which represents the fair value of the beneficial interest which the certificate for such Common Share represents (at the ratio of 1/10th of a CRC Share per Common Share) in the CRC Shares held in the CRC Trust, plus the Per Share Proration Factor.

"Real Estate Investment Trust" or "REIT" means "real estate investment trust" as defined in Section 856 of the Code, or such other entity as may, under the corresponding section or sections of any United States income tax law at the time in effect, be entitled to substantially the same treatment in respect of liability for Federal income taxes as a "real estate investment trust", as so defined, is entitled pursuant to Sections 856 through 860 of the Code, as in effect on the date of this Purchase Agreement.

"Release" means a release dated as of the Closing Date, substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, all as in effect from time to time.

"Series A Shares" means voting Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest, par value $1, in CPI.

"Shares" means the Common Shares (with their related beneficial interests in CRC Shares held in the CRC Trust) purchased by the Purchaser from CPI pursuant to Section 2.

"Statement" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 2.3.1.

"TREET" means State Street Bank and Trust Company, a Massachusetts banking corporation, in its capacity as Trustee of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust and not individually.

"Undistributed Cash Flow" of the Partnership means the amount of the Partnership's adjusted undistributed cash flow, computed in accordance with Schedule 1 hereto.

"Working Capital Share Number" shall mean a number (which number of Shares may be positive or negative) equal to the Working Capital Value divided by the Purchase Price.

"Working Capital Value" for the Partnership means the sum of (i) the Purchaser's proportionate share as of the Closing Date of (a) the cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, receivables (net of allowances for doubtful collections and exclusive of any "straight-line" rent receivable) and prepaid taxes, prepaid utilities and other prepaid expenses of the Partnership minus (b) the liabilities of the Partnership (including any unpaid tenant inducements payable by the Partnership, but excluding the principal amount of mortgage liabilities and other long-term indebtedness), and the Partnership's Undistributed Cash Flow, all of the items referred to in clauses (a) and (b) computed (to the extent applicable) in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals applied consistently with the most recently prepared audited financial statements of the Partnership, plus (ii) the Purchaser's proportionate share of the Partnership's Undistributed Cash Flow. The method of computation of Working Capital Value for the Partnership is more particularly described on Schedule 1 hereto, in a manner consistent with the definition thereof.

SECTION 2. Sale and Purchase of Shares; Adjustments.

SECTION 2.1. Sale and Purchase of Shares; Sale and Assignment of Partnership Interest; Delivery of Shares. Subject to the terms and conditions of and in reliance upon the representations and warranties set forth in this Purchase Agreement, (a) CPI agrees to sell to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser agrees to purchase from CPI, on the Closing Date, at a price per Share equal to the Purchase Price, a number of Shares equal to the Closing Date Share Number (and, in connection therewith, CRC agrees to sell to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser agrees to purchase from CRC, a number of CRC Shares equal to 10% of the Closing Date Share Number, which CRC Shares the Purchaser and CRC agree shall be issued directly to the trustee of the CRC Trust and deposited in the CRC Trust to be held thereafter for the ratable benefit of the holders of Common Shares pursuant to the terms of the CRC Trust Agreement), (b) the Purchaser agrees to sell, assign, transfer and convey to CPI or one or more of its affiliates all of the Purchaser's right, title and interest in and to the Partnership Interest, (c) CPI agrees to deliver to Purchaser such Common Shares as CPI may be required to deliver pursuant to Section 2.3.3 hereof and (d) Purchaser agrees to deliver to CPI such Common Shares as Purchaser may be required to deliver pursuant to Section 2.3.3 hereof.

SECTION 2.2. Closings. The purchase by and the sale of Shares to the Purchaser and the sale, assignment, transfer and conveyance of the Partnership Interest by the Purchaser to CPI (the "Closing") shall take place on the Closing Date at the offices of Cravath, Swaine & Moore, 825 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York 10019, or at such other place as may be mutually agreed by the parties.

The Purchaser may, by written notice to CPI and pursuant to documentation satisfactory to CPI, assign this Purchase Agreement to Fosterlane Holdings Corporation concurrently with an assignment of the Partnership Interest to such entity. Except as the context otherwise requires, each such entity shall be deemed the "Purchaser" for all purposes of this Purchase Agreement to the same extent as if it had executed and delivered a copy of this Purchase Agreement, provided that the Purchaser referenced in the first paragraph of this Purchase Agreement shall remain liable for all of its obligations hereunder.

At least five business days prior to the Closing Date, CPI may, by written notice to the Purchaser, specify one or more affiliates of CPI as the entities to acquire all or any part of the Partnership Interest pursuant hereto, provided that CPI shall remain liable for all of its obligations hereunder.

At the Closing, (a) CPI will deliver to the Purchaser one certificate, registered in the name of the Purchaser, representing the number of Shares set forth in Section 2.1 (unless the Purchaser has at least two business days prior to the Closing Date specified in writing to CPI a different name or names and/or different number of certificates representing the same aggregate number of such Shares) and (b) CRC shall deliver to the trustee of the CRC Trust one certificate, registered in the name of such trustee, representing the number of CRC Shares to be deposited in the CRC Trust in accordance with Section 2.1, each against the sale, assignment, transfer and conveyance by the Purchaser to CPI or its specified affiliates of the Partnership Interest in the Partnership pursuant to the Assignment Agreement, all as may be reasonably requested by CPI. The Certificate representing the Shares that is delivered to the Purchaser shall include the following descriptive legend:

"The holder of the shares represented by this certificate also holds a beneficial interest in shares of stock of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC") held in a trust under a Trust Agreement dated as of October 30, 1979, among shareholders of the Trust, CRC and the Trustee thereunder."

SECTION 2.3. Adjustments.

SECTION 2.3.1. Working Capital Value Statement. Within 45 days after the Closing Date,

CPI shall prepare and deliver to Purchaser a statement (the "Statement") setting forth CPI's determination of the Working Capital Value and the elements and calculation thereof, all as set forth in Schedule 1 hereto and consistent with the definitions related thereto, along with a Certificate of the Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer or Controller of CPI to the effect that the Statement was prepared substantially in accordance with the requirements therefor as provided herein. From the Closing Date through the date which is 30 days after receipt by the Purchaser of the Statement, CPI shall provide the Purchaser with reasonable access to any books, records, working papers or other information reasonably necessary or useful in the preparation or calculation of the Statement or any Notice of Disagreement (as defined hereafter). The Statement shall become final and binding upon both parties hereto on the 31st day following delivery thereof unless the Purchaser delivers written Notice of Disagreement (a "Notice of Disagreement") with the Statement to CPI prior to such date. Any Notice of Disagreement shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of any disagreement so asserted and shall relate solely to the preparation of the Statement and the calculation of the Working Capital Value.

SECTION 2.3.2. Disputes. If a Notice of Disagreement is received by CPI in a timely manner, then the Working Capital Value set forth in the Statement, as adjusted pursuant hereto, shall become final and binding upon the parties hereto on the earlier of (i) the date Purchaser and CPI resolve, in writing, any differences they may have with respect to any matters specified in the Notice of Disagreement or (ii) the date any disputed matters are finally resolved in writing by the Arbitrator. During the 30-day period following the delivery of the Notice of Disagreement, CPI and the Purchaser shall seek in good faith to resolve, in writing, any differences which they may have with respect to any matter specified in the Notice of Disagreement and each shall provide the other with reasonable access to any books, records, working papers or other information reasonably necessary or useful in the preparation or calculation of the Statement, any Notice of Disagreement, the Working Capital Value or otherwise with respect to any thereof. At the end of such 30-day period, if there has been no resolution of the matters specified in the Notice of Disagreement, then CPI and the Purchaser shall submit to an arbitrator (the "Arbitrator") for review and resolution any and all matters (and only such matters) arising under this Section which remain in dispute. The Arbitrator shall be Arthur Andersen L.L.P., or if such firm is unable or unwilling to act, such other nationally recognized independent public accounting firm as shall be agreed upon, in writing, by CPI and the Purchaser. The Arbitrator shall render a decision resolving the matters submitted to the Arbitrator within 30 days following submission thereto. The costs of any arbitration (including the fees of the Arbitrator) shall be borne 50% by CPI and 50% by the Purchaser. Except as specified above, each of CPI and the Purchaser shall bear their own costs and expenses incurred in connection with any arbitration.

SECTION 2.3.3. Adjustment Mechanics. Within 7 days after the date that the Working Capital Value set forth in the Statement (as adjusted according to the procedures set forth in Section 2.3) becomes final and binding on the parties: (a) if the Working Capital Value is a positive number, then the number of Shares to be sold to, and purchased by, the Purchaser hereunder shall be increased by a number of Shares equal to the Working Capital Share Number and CPI shall deliver to the Purchaser a certificate, registered in the name of the Purchaser (or such other name as may be designated by the Purchaser) representing such number of Shares (and, in connection therewith, CRC agrees to deliver to the Purchaser a number of CRC Shares equal to 10% of the Working Capital Share Number, which CRC Shares the Purchaser and CRC agree shall be issued directly to the trustee of the CRC Trust and deposited in the CRC Trust to be held thereafter for the benefit of the holders of Common Shares pursuant to the terms of the CRC Trust Agreement), or

(b) if the Working Capital Value is a negative number, then the number of Shares sold to, and purchased by, the Purchaser hereunder shall be reduced by a number of Shares equal to the absolute value of the Working Capital Share Number and the Purchaser shall deliver to CPI such number of Shares (and, in connection therewith, CPI and CRC shall cause a number of CRC Shares equal to 10% of the Working Capital Share Number to be withdrawn from the CRC Trust and delivered to CRC). In connection with any delivery of Shares by the Purchaser pursuant to this Section 2.3.3(b), the Purchaser shall deliver to CPI the certificate or certificates delivered pursuant to Section 2.2 hereof (together with an undated stock power executed in blank) and, upon receipt thereof, CPI shall deliver to the Purchaser one certificate, registered in the name of the Purchaser (or such other name as may be designated by the Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.2) representing the number of Shares equal to the Closing Date Share Number less the number of Shares returned to CPI pursuant to this Section 2.3.3(b).

SECTION 2.4. Evaluation Material. CPI has delivered to the Purchaser its Annual Report for the year 1995, its Proxy Statement for the 1996 Annual Meeting of its shareholders and its Nine Month Report for the six months ended September 30, 1996 (collectively called the "Evaluation Material").

SECTION 3. Conditions.

SECTION 3.1. Conditions to Purchaser's Obligations. The obligations of the Purchaser to purchase the Shares and sell, assign, transfer and convey the Partnership Interest on the Closing Date shall be subject to the following conditions at the Closing Date:

(a) The Purchaser shall have received a certificate of the President or a Vice-President of CPI dated the Closing Date to the effect that (A) the representations and warranties of CPI contained in Section 6 of this Purchase Agreement are true and correct in all material respects as of such date as if made on and as of such date and (B) the covenants, agreements and conditions that CPI was required to perform or comply with have been fulfilled in all material respects.

(b) The Purchaser shall have received (i) a Certificate of the Secretary of CPI certifying as to the accuracy of the copies of the Declaration of Trust of CPI, the CRC Trust Agreement and the Trustees Regulations of CPI provided to the Purchaser and (ii) a Certificate of the Secretary of CRC certifying as to the accuracy of the copies of the Certificate of Incorporation and by-laws of CRC provided to the Purchaser.

(c) The Purchaser shall have received from Cravath, Swaine & Moore, counsel for CPI (who may rely with respect to any matters of Massachusetts law involved therein on an opinion of Peabody & Arnold, Massachusetts counsel for CPI, a signed copy of which, addressed to Purchaser, shall accompany such opinion of Cravath, Swaine & Moore), a favorable opinion dated the Closing Date, and reasonably satisfactory in scope and form to the Purchaser, to the effect set forth in Sections 6.1.1, 6.1.2, 6.1.3, 6.1.4(i), 6.1.7, 6.1.13, 6.1.14 (the first and second sentences thereof), 6.1.15(i), 6.1.18, 6.1.23 and 6.1.24 and, to the knowledge of such counsel, after having made due inquiry, Sections 6.1.4(ii), 6.1.5, 6.1.6, 6.1.15(ii), 6.1.16, 6.1.17 and 6.1.21, and as to:

(i) the exemption from the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of the offer, sale and delivery to the Purchaser of the Shares then to be purchased by the Purchaser;

(ii) that CPI qualified as a REIT for its taxable years ended December 31, 1993, December 31, 1994 and December 31, 1995, and that its organization and method of operation for its current taxable year should enable it to continue so to qualify;

(iii) the due execution and delivery by authorized representatives of CPI and CRC, respectively, of all instruments and documents signed by or on behalf of CPI and CRC and delivered to the Purchaser on the Closing Date.

(d) The purchase of and payment for the Shares to be purchased by the Purchaser on the Closing Date on the terms and conditions herein provided shall not violate any applicable law or governmental regulation and the Purchaser shall have received such certificates or other evidence as it may reasonably request to establish compliance with this condition.

(e) All proceedings in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and all documents and instruments incident to such transactions, shall be reasonably satisfactory in substance and form to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser shall have received all such counterpart originals or certified or other copies of such documents as the Purchaser may reasonably request.

(f) From the date of this Purchase Agreement to and including the Closing Date there shall not have been any material adverse change in the business, assets, operations, properties, prospects or condition, financial or otherwise, of CPI and its subsidiaries taken as a whole.

(g) The Purchaser shall have received from CPI an executed Release.

(h) The Purchaser shall have received from CPI an executed statement in the form of Exhibit D attached hereto.

SECTION 3.2. Conditions to CPI's Obligations. The obligation of CPI to sell the Shares and acquire the Partnership Interest on the Closing Date shall be subject to the following conditions at the Closing Date:

(a) CPI shall have received a certificate of the President or a Vice-President of the Purchaser dated the Closing Date to the effect that (i) the representations and warranties of the Purchaser contained in Section 6 of this Purchase Agreement are true and correct in all material respects as of such date as if made on and as of such date and (ii) the covenants, agreements and conditions that the Purchaser was required to perform or comply with have been fulfilled in all material respects.

(b) CPI shall have received a Certificate of the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Purchaser certifying as to the accuracy of the copies of the Certificate of Incorporation, by-laws and other organizational documents of the Purchaser provided to CPI.

(c) CPI shall have received from Shearman & Sterling, counsel for the Purchaser, a favorable opinion dated the Closing Date and reasonably satisfactory in scope and form to CPI, to the effect set forth in Sections 6.2.2, 6.2.3(i) and 6.2.5, and to the knowledge of such counsel, after having made due inquiry, Sections 6.2.3(ii) and 6.2.4, and as to:

(i) the exemption from the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of the sale, assignment, transfer and conveyance to CPI of the Partnership Interest; and

(ii) the due execution and delivery by authorized representatives of the Purchaser, respectively, of all instruments and documents signed by or on behalf of the Purchaser and delivered to CPI on the Closing Date.

(d) The acquisition by CPI of the Partnership Interest on the Closing Date on the terms and conditions herein provided shall not violate any applicable law or governmental regulation and CPI shall have received such certificates or other evidence as it may reasonably request to establish compliance with this condition.

(e) All proceedings in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and all documents and instruments incident to such transactions, shall be reasonably satisfactory in substance and form to CPI, and CPI shall have received all such counterpart originals or certified or other copies of such documents as CPI may reasonably request.

(f) From the date of this Purchase Agreement to and including the Closing Date there shall not have been any material adverse change in the business, assets, operations, properties, prospects or condition, financial or otherwise, of the Partnership.

(g) CPI shall have received from the Purchaser an executed Release.

(h) CPI shall have received from Purchaser a duly executed certificate of non-foreign status in the form presented by Treasury Regulation ss. 1.1445-1(b)(2).

SECTION 4. Covenants.

SECTION 4.1. CPI agrees with the Purchaser as follows:

SECTION 4.1.1 From the date of this Purchase Agreement through the Closing Date, CPI shall not issue any Common Shares or Preference Shares by virtue of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, subdivision, declaration of a stock dividend or otherwise except pursuant to plans, arrangements and agreements existing on the date hereof.

SECTION 4.1.2. CPI has not, either by itself or through any agent on its behalf, offered to sell any Common Shares, or solicited any offers to buy Common Shares and will not so offer or solicit offers, so as thereby to bring the issuance and sale of Shares pursuant to this Purchase Agreement or any other securities in violation of the Securities Act, the Massachusetts Uniform Securities Act, the New Jersey Uniform Securities Law or the New York State Martin Act or any other state securities or real estate syndication or similar laws.

SECTION 4.1.3. Until a class of CPI's equity securities has been registered under Section 12 of the 1934 Act or CPI has become obligated to file reports under Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act, CPI shall, within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year of CPI, furnish to the Purchaser or any permitted transferee of the Shares, as long as it owns any Shares, the following statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied and reported upon by Ernst & Young LLP or such other independent public accountants of recognized standing as may be retained by CPI from time to time: (i) a balance sheet of CPI as of the end of such fiscal year and (ii) statements of income, cash flow and shareholders' equity for such fiscal year, in each case setting forth in comparative form the corresponding figures for the preceding fiscal year. Until a class of CPI's equity securities has been registered under Section 12 of the 1934 Act or CPI has become obligated to file reports under Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act, CPI shall, within 60 days after the close of each of the first three quarters of each fiscal year of CPI, furnish to the Purchaser or any permitted transferee of the Shares as long as it owns any Shares (1) a balance sheet of CPI as of the end of such quarter and (2) statements of income, cash flow and shareholders' equity for the portion of such fiscal year preceding the end of such quarter, in each case setting forth in comparative form the corresponding figures for the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year.

SECTION 4.1.4. Until a class of CPI's equity securities has been registered under Section 12 of the 1934 Act or CPI has become obligated to file reports under Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act, CPI shall promptly furnish to the Purchaser or any transferee of the Shares such other information with respect to the finances, business, operations, affairs, prospects, condition, properties and assets of CPI and CRC as from time to time may be reasonably requested by the Purchaser or such transferee, it being understood that CPI shall determine whether or not any such request is reasonable, giving effect to all relevant circumstances.

SECTION 5. Transfer and Registration.

SECTION 5.1. Investment Statements. The Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to CPI that (1) the Purchaser will purchase the Shares to be purchased by it hereunder for investment and not with a view to their public sale or distribution, nor with any present intention of selling or distributing any such Shares or beneficial interests in CRC Shares, (2) the Purchaser will purchase such Shares for its own account (including any separate accounts maintained by the Purchaser) and that such Shares (and any CRC Shares delivered to the Purchaser upon a termination of the CRC Trust) will be acquired by it or such funds for the purpose of investment and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, the public distribution thereof, nor with any present intention of publicly distributing the same other than in accordance with the registration provisions hereof) and (3) Purchaser is familiar with the business and operations of CPI and CRC and has conducted its own due diligence investigation with respect thereto.

The Purchaser further represents and warrants to CPI (i) that the Purchaser understands that such Shares (and any CRC Shares delivered to the Purchaser upon a termination of the CRC Trust) have not been registered under the Securities Act by reason of their issuance in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) thereof, (ii) that such Shares (and any CRC Shares delivered to the Purchaser upon a termination of the CRC Trust) will not be disposed of unless such disposition is either registered under the Securities Act or is exempt from registration under that Act and (iii) that CPI has no obligation to register such Shares (or CRC Shares so delivered to the Purchaser) other than as set forth herein.

The Purchaser also understands and agrees that, if any CRC Shares shall be delivered to the Purchaser upon a termination of the CRC Trust, the Purchaser shall be bound by and entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Article FOURTH of CRC's Certificate of Incorporation (a copy of which has been delivered to the Purchaser) restricting transfers of, and providing rights to registrations under the Securities Act of, any such CRC Shares. Each certificate for CRC Shares so delivered will bear the legend prescribed by said Article FOURTH.

SECTION 5.2. Permissible Transfers. Except in accordance with this Section 5, the Purchaser shall not effect any Transfer of Restricted Shares (both as hereinafter defined) or of any interest or right to purchase the same other than:

(a) a Transfer from the Purchaser to another person or persons acting as nominee or nominees or trustee or trustees for the Purchaser or, if the Purchaser is acting as nominee or trustee in making the purchases hereunder, to a different nominee or trustee for the same person as the Purchaser is so acting;

(b) a Transfer to the Purchaser from one or more other person or persons acting as nominee or nominees or trustee or trustees for the Purchaser;

(c) a Transfer by the Purchaser, if it is a trustee for a pension or trust fund, in connection with the dissolution of such fund or in connection with the Transfer or distribution of all or part of the assets of such fund to another pension or trust fund for which the Purchaser or another corporate trustee is acting as trustee; or

(d) a Transfer by a pension or trust fund to another pension or trust fund the investment discretion for which is exercised by the same trustee or other fiduciary or director.

In the event that the Purchaser shall Transfer any Restricted Shares in a manner contemplated by this Section 5.2, the Purchaser shall cause its transferee or transferees to agree in writing to take and hold such securities subject to the provisions of this Section 5.

SECTION 5.3. Certain Definitions. As used in this Section 5 (and elsewhere herein with reference to this Section 5), the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

"Transfer" means, as to any Restricted Shares, any sale, assignment or transfer of any of such Restricted Shares or of any interest therein or right to subscribe therefor, whether or not such transfer would constitute a "sale" as that term is defined in Section 2(3) of the Securities Act.

"Restricted Shares" means the Shares and any other securities issued as a dividend or other distribution on or as a result of a subdivision, combination or reclassification of any Shares, in each case, prior to the effective registration of the Transfer thereof under the Securities Act.

"Registration Expenses" means the expenses so described in Section 5.8.

"Selling Expenses" means the expenses so described in Section 5.8.

"Underwriter" means each person who is or may be deemed to be an "underwriter", as that term is defined in Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, in respect of Restricted Shares which shall have been registered by CPI under the Securities Act pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 5.

"CPI Counsel" means Cravath, Swaine & Moore, or such other counsel as shall at the time be serving as counsel to CPI.

"Holder's Counsel" shall mean counsel for the holder of the Restricted Shares in question, which counsel shall be reasonably satisfactory to CPI.

SECTION 5.4. Transfer Legends. Each certificate for Restricted Shares, including each certificate issued to any transferee, shall be stamped or otherwise imprinted with a legend (in addition to any legends otherwise required by the Declaration of Trust of CPI) in substantially the following form (unless otherwise permitted by the provisions of Section 5.5 or unless such Restricted Shares shall have been effectively registered under the Securities Act and sold or otherwise disposed of pursuant to the registration statement covering such Restricted Shares):

"The shares represented by this certificate were issued pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of December 13, 1996, between Corporate Property Investors and the original purchaser of such shares (copies of which Agreement are on file at the principal office of the issuer of such shares), have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and may not be sold, assigned or transferred until the applicable provisions of Section 5 of such Agreement have been complied with."

SECTION 5.5. Notice of Proposed Transfers; Requests for Registration. The holder of any Restricted Shares by acceptance thereof agrees, prior to any Transfer of any such Restricted Shares (other than a Transfer referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 5.2), to give written notice to CPI of such holder's intention to effect such Transfer and to comply in all other respects with the provisions of this Section 5.5. Each notice shall describe in detail the manner, method of disposition and circumstances of the proposed Transfer and shall be accompanied by (i) a written opinion of Holder's Counsel addressed to CPI stating whether in the opinion of such counsel such proposed Transfer involves a transaction requiring registration of the Restricted Shares under the Securities Act, and (ii) if in the opinion of such counsel registration is required, a written request that CPI effect the registration of such Restricted Shares under the Securities Act, subject to the limitations contained in Section 5.10. Upon receipt by CPI of any such notice, opinion and, if necessary, request, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) Not more than 20 calendar days after such receipt, CPI Counsel shall render an opinion to CPI as to whether such counsel concurs in the opinion of Holder's Counsel. CPI Counsel shall furnish copies of such opinion to CPI, Holder's Counsel and the shareholder giving such notice. If CPI Counsel shall not render such opinion within such 20 calendar days, its opinion shall be deemed to concur with the opinion of Holder's Counsel.

(b) If in the opinion of Holder's Counsel and CPI Counsel the proposed Transfer of Restricted Shares may be effected without registration under the Securities Act, the shareholder shall thereupon be entitled to transfer such Restricted Shares in accordance with the terms of the notice delivered to CPI; provided, however, that the transferee of such Restricted Shares shall agree in writing to take and hold such securities subject to the applicable provisions of this Section 5. Each certificate evidencing the Restricted Shares issued upon the Transfer (and each certificate evidencing any untransferred balance of the original Restricted Shares) shall bear the legend set forth in Section 5.4 unless in the opinion of CPI Counsel such legend is not necessary.

(c) If in the opinion of both Holder's Counsel and CPI Counsel the proposed Transfer of the Restricted Shares may not be effected without registration under the Securities Act, CPI shall use its best efforts to effect such registration, all in accordance with the request of the prospective seller and the provisions and conditions of this Section 5. Upon the effectiveness of such registration the Restricted Shares may be transferred to the extent permitted by law and the legend thereon shall be removed promptly upon delivery of certificates therefor to CPI.

(d) If in the opinion of Holder's Counsel the proposed Transfer of Restricted Shares may be effected without registration under the Securities Act, but CPI Counsel shall not concur in such opinion, Holder's Counsel at their option may submit the question to the staff of the Commission for an advisory opinion and, in the event that the staff of the Commission shall issue a "no action" letter or other favorable advisory opinion which, in the view of CPI Counsel, shall be conclusive with respect to the proposed Transfer, the shareholder shall be entitled to transfer the Restricted Shares covered by such "no action" letter or other favorable advisory opinion on the basis and in accordance with the terms thereof; provided, however, that the transferee of such Restricted Shares shall agree in writing to take and hold such securities subject to the provisions of this Section 5.

The holder of Restricted Shares giving the notice under this Section 5.5 shall not Transfer such Restricted Shares unless and until (i) the favorable opinions of Holder's Counsel and CPI Counsel referred to in paragraph (b) shall have been given, (ii) registration of such Restricted Shares under the Securities Act shall have become effective or (iii) the "no action" letter or other favorable advisory opinion referred to in paragraph (d) shall have been received and reviewed by CPI Counsel and, in addition, in the case of (i) and (iii), the written agreement referred to in paragraphs (b) and (d), respectively, shall have been made. Nothing contained in this Section 5 shall preclude a holder of Restricted Shares from entering into an agreement to Transfer the same if such agreement requires compliance with the conditions set forth in this Section 5.5.

Section 5.6. Required Registration. Whenever CPI shall be required pursuant to Section 5.5 to effect the registration of any Restricted Shares under the Securities Act, CPI shall promptly give written notice of such proposed registration to all holders of outstanding Restricted Shares and, subject to the provisions of Section 5.10, shall use its best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of the Restricted Shares which CPI has been requested to register pursuant to Section 5.5 and all other Restricted Shares the holders of which shall have made written requests (stating the proposed method of disposition of such securities by the prospective seller) to CPI for the registration thereof within 20 calendar days after the mailing of such written notice by CPI.

Section 5.7. Incidental Registration. If CPI shall propose to register any Common Shares or other securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares (otherwise than pursuant to Section 5.6) on Form S-1, Form S-2, Form S-3, Form S-11 or any similar form then in effect, it shall give written notice to all holders of outstanding Restricted Shares of its intention and, upon the written request of the holder of any such Restricted Shares given within 20 calendar days after the mailing of such notice (which request shall state the proposed method of disposition of such Restricted Shares), CPI shall use its best efforts to cause all Restricted Shares the holders of which have requested registration to be included under the proposed registration for disposition in accordance with the proposed method thereof stated in the respective shareholder's request; provided, however, that CPI may, in lieu of including any of or all such Restricted Shares under the proposed registration, elect to effect a separate registration thereof if its proposed registration relates to an underwritten public offering and the Underwriters thereof object to the inclusion of any of or all such Restricted Shares under such registration. In the event CPI shall elect to effect a separate registration in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence, CPI shall use its best efforts to cause such separate registration to become effective not later than 90 days after the effectiveness of its originally proposed registration. If CPI determines, prior to the effectiveness of its originally proposed registration, not to proceed with such registration, CPI shall have no further obligation under this Section 5.7 to register any Restricted Shares.

SECTION 5.8. Registration Procedures and Expenses. If and whenever CPI is required by the provisions of this Section 5 to use its best efforts to effect the registration of any Restricted Shares under the Securities Act, CPI shall, as expeditiously as possible,

(a) select underwriters, counsel and independent accountants for CPI of recognized standing and competence in connection with such registration;

(b) prepare and file (or cause to be prepared and filed) with the Commission a registration statement with respect to such Restricted Shares and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective;

(c) prepare and file (or cause to be prepared and filed) with the Commission such amendments and supplements to such registration statement as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective for nine months from the date of its effectiveness;

(d) furnish each seller such number of copies of the registration statement and the prospectus forming a part of such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus) as such seller may reasonably request;

(e) use its best efforts to register or qualify (or cause to be registered or qualified) the securities covered by such registration statement under the securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as each seller shall reasonably request (including, without limitation, the New York State Real Estate Syndicate Act, the Massachusetts Uniform Securities Act and the New Jersey Real Estate Syndicate Offerings Law), and do any and all other acts and things which may be necessary or advisable to enable such seller to consummate the disposition of the Restricted Shares during the period provided in paragraph (c) of this Section 5.8; provided, however, that in no event shall CPI be obligated to qualify to do business in any jurisdiction where it is not now so qualified, to take any action which would subject it to the service of process in suits other than those arising out of the offer or sale of the securities covered by such registration statement in any jurisdiction where it is not now so subject or to conform the composition of its assets at the time to the securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdiction;

(f) notify each seller of any Restricted Shares covered by such registration statement, during the period when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event which causes the prospectus forming a part of such registration statement to include an untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, and at the request of any such seller prepare and furnish such seller a reasonable number of copies of any supplement to or any amendment of such prospectus necessary so as to render such prospectus, as amended or supplemented, in compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act;

(g) engage a transfer agent and registrar for the Restricted Shares at least by the effective date of the first registration of any of such Restricted Shares;

(h) give serious consideration to the listing of the Restricted Shares on an appropriate national securities exchange as promptly after the effectiveness of such first registration as the Trustees of CPI deem advisable.

(i) use its best efforts to procure a comfort letter or letters for the benefit of the underwriters of such registration which substantially conform with the requirements of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Statement of Auditing Standards No. 72 from independent accountants for CPI of recognized standing and competence in connection with such registration;

(j) use its best efforts to deliver customary closing opinions of counsel for CPI in connection with such registration; and

(k) make customary representations and warranties to the underwriters in connection with such registration.

All expenses (except for the compensation of regular employees of CPI, which shall be paid in any event by CPI) incurred by CPI in complying with this Section 5.8, including, without limitation, all registration and filing fees, printing expenses, expenses of complying with securities or blue sky laws (including fees and disbursements of counsel for CPI, counsel for the Underwriters and counsel representing selling shareholders owning a majority of the Restricted Shares being registered), all fees and disbursements of counsel for CPI and any accountants' fees and expenses incident to or required by any such registration are herein called "Registration Expenses", which shall be borne as provided in Section 5.9. All underwriting fees and commissions to be incurred by any seller and all fees and disbursements of counsel for any seller (other than counsel described in the second parenthetical phrase in the preceding sentence) are herein called "Selling Expenses", which shall be borne by the seller or sellers in such proportions as they may agree upon; provided, however, that if such sellers cannot otherwise agree, they shall bear such expenses (other than their individual counsel fees which shall be borne by them directly) in direct proportion to the number of Restricted Shares which they are having registered.

It shall be a condition precedent to the obligation of CPI to take any action pursuant to this Section 5.8 for the benefit of a prospective seller of Restricted Shares that (x) CPI shall have received an undertaking satisfactory to it from such seller (A) to pay all Registration Expenses required to be paid by such seller pursuant to Section 5.9 and all Selling Expenses to be incurred by or for account of such seller and (B) to notify CPI of the happening of any event within the knowledge of such seller which causes the prospectus referred to in Section 5.8(d), as it may be amended or supplemented, to include an untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, in each case with respect to such seller, and (y) such seller shall furnish to CPI such information regarding such seller, the Restricted Shares held by such seller and the intended method of disposition of such Restricted Shares as CPI shall reasonably request and as shall be required by applicable law in connection with the action to be taken by CPI.

SECTION 5.9. Allocation of Expenses. If and whenever CPI is required by the provisions of this Section 5 to use its best efforts to effect the registration of any of its securities under the Securities Act, CPI shall pay all Registration Expenses in connection with

(a) (i) the first two registrations of any Restricted Shares consummated pursuant to Sections 5.5 and 5.6 and (ii) each of the third, fourth, fifth and sixth registrations of any Restricted Shares consummated pursuant to Sections 5.5 and 5.6, so long as each such registration is effected pursuant to a request or requests from a prospective seller or sellers

(including Purchaser) to register at least 5% of the outstanding Common Shares (including as "outstanding" for such purpose any Common Shares issuable upon conversion of any outstanding securities of CPI which may then be converted); provided, however, that if the full number of Restricted Shares covered by a request pursuant to Section 5.5 is not in fact sold pursuant to any such registration as a result of the inclusion of any additional outstanding or newly issued securities of CPI in such registration, such registration shall not be counted for purposes of this clause (a) of Section 5.9; and

(b) each registration pursuant to Section 5.7.

The Registration Expenses in connection with any other registration of its Restricted Shares which CPI shall be required to use its best efforts to effect pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 5, and all Selling Expenses in connection with any registration of its Restricted Shares pursuant to this Section 5, shall be borne by the seller or sellers of such Restricted Shares in such proportions as they may agree upon; provided, however, that if such sellers cannot otherwise agree, they shall bear such expenses (other than their individual counsel fees which shall be borne by them directly) in direct proportion to the number of Restricted Shares which they are having registered.

SECTION 5.10. Limitations on Obligations to Register and Right To Sell Restricted Shares. Anything in this Section 5 to the contrary notwithstanding:

(a) if CPI has not theretofore registered an offering of Common Shares or other securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares under the Securities Act, CPI shall not be obligated to effect any registration under Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 unless it shall have received a request or requests pursuant to Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 or any similar provision of any other agreement from a prospective seller or sellers (including the Purchaser) to register at least 10% of the outstanding Common Shares (including as "outstanding" for such purpose any Common Shares issuable upon conversion of any outstanding securities of CPI which may then be converted);

(b) if CPI has theretofore registered an offering of Common Shares or other securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares under the Securities Act, CPI shall not be obligated to effect any registration under Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 unless it shall have received a request or requests from a prospective seller or sellers (including Purchaser) to register Common Shares with a minimum value of $15 million, based on the current value of shareholder's equity per Common Share as of the December 31 immediately preceding the date of the first such request. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the "current value of shareholder's equity per Common Share" shall be deemed to be the average of the daily closing prices for the thirty consecutive business days commencing no more than forty-five business days before the day in question. The closing price for each day shall be the last reported sale price regular way or, in case no such reported sale takes place on such day, the average of the last reported bid and asked prices regular way, in either case on the principal national securities exchange on which the Common Shares are admitted to trading or listed, or if not listed or admitted to trading on any national securities exchange, the average of highest reported bid and lowest reported asked prices on the over-the-counter market on the day in question as reported by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotation System (or any successor to such system), or a similarly generally accepted reporting service, or if not so available, the "current value of shareholder's equity per Common Share" shall be determined in an appraisal conducted by Landauer Associates, Inc. or such other independent person of recognized standing as shall have been selected by the Trustees of CPI to determine the net asset value of CPI;

(c) CPI shall not be required to register Restricted Shares under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 more than once in any consecutive 12-month period; provided, that if the full number of Restricted Shares covered by a request pursuant to Section 5.5 is not in fact sold pursuant to any such registration as a result of the inclusion of any additional outstanding or newly issued securities of CPI in such registration, such registration shall not be counted for purposes of this clause (c) of Section 5.10;

(d) CPI shall not be obligated to effect any registration pursuant to Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 if such registration would require an audit of CPI as of a date other than its fiscal year end unless the seller requesting such registration agrees to bear responsibility for the expenses of such an audit; and

(e) any registration statement prepared pursuant to this Section 5 shall be subject to such restrictions or limitations as may be required by law to the sales price or sales method of the Restricted Shares included in such registration statement; provided, however, that, if upon the effectiveness of any such registration statement CPI will be engaged in a primary distribution of its securities, CPI may require the prospective seller or sellers whose Restricted Shares are included in such registration statement to agree not to sell any such Restricted Shares for a period of 90 days after the effective date of such registration statement.

SECTION 5.11. Indemnification. In the event of any registration of Restricted Shares pursuant to this Section 5, CPI shall indemnify and hold harmless the Purchaser, its officers, directors or trustees and each seller of Restricted Shares covered by a registration pursuant to this Section 5 and each Underwriter of such Restricted Shares and each person, if any, who controls the Purchaser or such seller or Underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities and any action in respect thereof, joint or several, to which the Purchaser or such seller, Underwriter or controlling person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any registration statement under which such securities were registered under the Securities Act, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading; and CPI will reimburse the Purchaser and each such seller, Underwriter and controlling person for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action; provided, however, that CPI will not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, prospectus or amendment or supplement thereto in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished to CPI in writing by the Purchaser or such seller specifically for use therein, or by any Underwriter distributing or selling the Restricted Shares of such seller, specifically for use in the preparation thereof. This indemnity will be in addition to any liability which CPI may otherwise have.

A party from whom indemnity may be sought pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.11 shall not be liable for such indemnity with respect to any claim as to which indemnity is sought unless the party seeking such indemnity shall have notified such indemnifying party in writing of the nature of such claim promptly after such indemnified party becomes aware of the assertion thereof; provided, however, that the failure so to notify such indemnifying party shall not relieve such party from any liability which it may have to such indemnified party otherwise than on account of the provisions of this Section 5.11 or if the failure to give such notice promptly shall not have been prejudicial to such indemnifying party. Any indemnifying party may participate (with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party) in, and to the extent that it shall wish, may direct (at its own expense and either individually or jointly with any other indemnifying party), the defense of any suit brought to enforce such claim; provided, that if a party seeking such indemnity shall give notice to such indemnifying party that in its good faith judgment an important general interest of such party is involved in such proceeding, such party seeking indemnity shall have the right to control (at its own expense), with the participation of the indemnifying party, the defense against or settlement of any such proceeding. If any indemnifying party elects to assume the defense of any such suit and retains counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party, such indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense of such suit, other than reasonable costs of investigation. No indemnifying party shall be liable for any compromise or settlement of any such action effected without its consent.

Insofar as the foregoing indemnity agreement may permit indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act of any person who is a partner or controlling person of an Underwriter within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act and who, at the effective date of the registration statement, is, or is named to be, a Trustee of CPI, if a claim for indemnification for any such liabilities (except payment for expenses incurred in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such a person, CPI will submit to a court of competent jurisdiction (unless in the opinion of counsel for CPI the matter has already been settled by controlling precedent) the question of whether or not such indemnification is against public policy and unenforceable, and such person and CPI will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

It shall be a condition precedent to the obligation of CPI to take any action pursuant to Section 5.8 that CPI shall have received an undertaking satisfactory to it from each prospective seller of the Restricted Shares to be registered under each registration pursuant to this Section 5, and from any Underwriter of such Restricted Shares, to indemnify and hold harmless (in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 5.11) CPI and each of its Trustees, officers and "control" persons within the meaning of that term under the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which CPI or any such Trustee, officer or control person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished to CPI in writing by such seller or Underwriter, as the case may be, specifically for use therein; and such persons will reimburse CPI and each of its Trustees, officers and control persons for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action. This indemnity will be in addition to any liability which such seller or Underwriter may otherwise have.

SECTION 5.12. 1934 Act Registration. CPI shall cause at least one class of its securities to be registered pursuant to Section 12 of the 1934 Act within 90 calendar days after the effective date of the first registration statement pertaining to Common Shares or other securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares filed by CPI under the Securities Act or as otherwise required by the 1934 Act and shall thereafter (i) cause such securities to remain registered under such Section 12, (ii) file within the requisite period of time all reports required to be filed by issuers having securities registered pursuant to such Section 12, (iii) file such other documents as may be required to be filed pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act as a condition to the sale of restricted or control securities and (iv) provide such other information as may be required to be provided pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act as in effect on the date of this Purchase Agreement.

CPI covenants that, so long as the Purchaser shall hold any Common Shares or CRC Shares, it will give to the Purchaser prompt written notice of (i) the filing and effectiveness of any registration statement filed by CPI under the 1934 Act pursuant to the preceding paragraph, relating to any class of securities of CPI or CRC, and (ii) the number of shares of such class of securities outstanding at the time such registration statement becomes effective. CPI also covenants that it will furnish to the Purchaser any information which it may reasonably require for the purpose of completing Form 144, or any other comparable form, in connection with any proposed sale by the Purchaser pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as then in effect, or any other comparable rule, of any Common Share or any CRC Shares.

SECTION 5.13. More Favorable Rights. CPI agrees that if it shall hereafter afford to any person or entity registration rights with respect to Restricted Shares more favorable than those provided in this Section 5, it will forthwith make such more favorable rights available to the Purchaser with respect to the Restricted Shares held by the Purchaser.

SECTION 6. Representations and Warranties.

SECTION 6.1. Representations and Warranties of CPI. CPI (and, with respect to the representations and warranties applicable to it, CRC) represents and warrants to the Purchaser as follows:

SECTION 6.1.1. CPI is a voluntary association of the type commonly known as a business trust duly organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, has all the requisite power to own and deal with real and other property, conduct its business as it is now conducted and perform this Purchase Agreement and is duly qualified to do business and in good standing in Massachusetts and in each jurisdiction, if any, in which the nature of the business transacted or the character of the property owned by it therein makes such qualification necessary. This Purchase and Exchange Agreement, the Assignment Agreement and the Release have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by CPI and constitute CPI's legal, valid and binding agreements enforceable against CPI in accordance with their terms (subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally from time to time in effect and to general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law, and except as the enforceability of the indemnification provisions hereof may be limited by federal securities law and public policy considerations).

SECTION 6.1.2. The Shares to be delivered to the Purchaser on the Closing Date in accordance with this Purchase Agreement will have all the rights and privileges applicable to Series A Shares as provided in the Declaration of Trust and, when so delivered against payment therefor, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and the delivery to the Purchaser of certificates for the Shares will pass to the Purchaser good and valid title thereto, free of any Encumbrance.

SECTION 6.1.3. The Declaration of Trust and the Trustees' Regulations of CPI, in the forms certified by the Secretary of CPI and delivered to the Purchaser on the date hereof, are and at the Closing will be in full force and effect.

SECTION 6.1.4. The execution and delivery by CPI of this Purchase Agreement, the Assignment Agreement, the Release and the certificates representing the Shares and performance of this Purchase Agreement, the Assignment Agreement and the Release and compliance with the provisions hereof and thereof do not and, in the case of the Release and Assignment Agreements, upon their execution and delivery will not (i) violate any provision of any applicable law or of the Declaration of Trust or Trustees' Regulations, (ii) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any Encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of CPI pursuant to, any material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument to which CPI is a party or by which it or any of its properties may be bound or (iii) require any consent under any such material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument other than consents (A) that have been obtained or the procurement of which is a condition to the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby or (B) the failure to obtain of which is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect upon the assets, business or operations of CPI, CRC and their subsidiaries taken as a whole or the ability of CPI and CRC to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.5. CPI has not, either directly or through any agent, offered any Common Shares or other securities for sale, or solicited any orders to buy the same, or otherwise approached or negotiated in respect thereof, in such manner as to require registration under the Securities Act, the Massachusetts Uniform Securities Act, the New Jersey Uniform Securities Law or the New York State Martin Act of such Common Shares, such other securities or any Shares to be sold hereunder.

SECTION 6.1.6. Except as described in the Evaluation Material, there is no action, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of CPI, threatened, against CPI in which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse decision that would materially adversely affect the condition, business or prospects of CPI or any of its properties or assets, or which questions the validity of this Purchase Agreement, the Shares, the Assignment Agreement, the Release or any action to be taken pursuant to this Purchase Agreement, the Assignment Agreement or the Release.

SECTION 6.1.7. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any governmental or public body or authority on the part of CPI is required in connection with the valid execution, delivery and performance of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, the Assignment Agreement, the Release or the offer, sale and delivery of the Shares, as contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.8. CPI has no present intention of making any public distribution of any equity securities.

SECTION 6.1.9. Each of CPI, CPI's subsidiaries and CRC have filed all material Federal, state and local income, franchise and other tax returns, reports and statements required to have been filed to date. All material taxes shown to be due on such returns have been paid. There is no material audit, examination, investigation, dispute or claim concerning any taxes of any of CPI, CPI's subsidiaries or CRC raised by any taxing authority in writing or as to which any of the Trustees and officers of CPI, other directors and officers of CPI's subsidiaries and the directors and officers of CRC have actual knowledge. There are no settlements or closing agreements with respect to any taxes of CPI or CRC with respect to which any material amounts remain to be paid. Neither CPI nor CRC is a party to any income tax sharing agreement.

SECTION 6.1.10. CPI has endeavored and will endeavor to operate in such manner as to qualify as a real estate investment trust under Sections 856-860 of the Code.

SECTION 6.1.11. The Evaluation Material does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact. The balance sheets of CPI as at December 31, 1995, and September 30, 1996, and the related statements of income, cash flow and shareholders' equity for the twelve months then ended and nine months then ended, respectively, included in the Evaluation Material, fairly present the financial condition of CPI as at such dates and the results of operations of CPI for the periods ended on such dates, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied. Since September 30, 1996, there has been no material adverse change in the business, operations, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of CPI and its subsidiaries.

SECTION 6.1.12. CPI in its Federal income tax return for the taxable year ended December 31, 1995, elected to be treated as a Real Estate Investment Trust.

SECTION 6.1.13. CRC is a duly organized and validly existing corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware, has all the requisite power to own and deal with real and other property, and is duly qualified to do business and in good standing in the jurisdictions, if any, in which the nature of the business transacted or the character of the property owned by it therein makes such qualification necessary.

SECTION 6.1.14. Upon its acquisition of the Shares, the Purchaser will also acquire related beneficial interests in the CRC Shares held in the CRC Trust. The CRC Shares held in the CRC Trust are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and the delivery to the Purchaser pursuant to this Purchase Agreement of certificates for the Shares will pass to the Purchaser good and valid title to their related beneficial interests in the CRC Shares held in the CRC Trust, free of any Encumbrance except as set forth in Article FOURTH of CRC's Certificate of Incorporation. All but 74.3 of the outstanding CRC Shares are held by the CRC Trust or by the Bank of Montreal Trust Company, as trustee, ratably on behalf of the holders of CPI's outstanding Preference Shares.

SECTION 6.1.15. The execution and delivery by each of CPI and CRC of this Purchase Agreement and by CPI of the certificates representing the Shares and performance by CPI and CRC of this Purchase Agreement and compliance with the provisions hereof do not (i) violate any provision of CRC's Certificate of Incorporation, its By-laws or the CRC Trust Agreement or (ii) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of CRC pursuant to, any material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument to which CRC is a party or by which it or any of its properties may be bound or (iii) require any consent under any such material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument other than consents (A) that have been obtained or the procurement of which is a condition to the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby or (B) the failure to obtain of which is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect upon the assets, business or operations of CPI, CRC and their subsidiaries taken as a whole or the ability of CPI and CRC to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.16. CRC has not, either directly or through any agent, offered any CRC Shares or other securities for sale, or solicited any orders to buy the same, or otherwise approached or negotiated in respect thereof, in such manner as to require registration under the Securities Act, the Massachusetts Uniform Securities Act, the New Jersey Uniform Securities Law or the New York State Martin Act of such CRC Shares, such other securities or any Shares to be sold hereunder.

SECTION 6.1.17. Except as described in the Evaluation Material, there is no action, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of CPI, threatened, against CRC in which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse decision that would materially adversely affect the condition, business or prospects of CPI and CRC taken as a whole, or which questions the validity of this Purchase Agreement, the CRC Shares or any action taken by CPI or CRC pursuant to this Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 6.1.18. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any governmental or public body or authority on the part of CRC is required in connection with the valid execution, delivery and performance of this Purchase Agreement or the issuance for deposit in the CRC Trust of CRC Shares as contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.19. CRC has no present intention of making any public distribution of any CRC Shares.

SECTION 6.1.20. The financial information concerning CRC set forth in the Annual Report and Nine Month Report of CPI included in the Evaluation Material fairly summarizes the financial condition of CRC at such dates and the results of operations of CRC for the periods indicated in such information, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied. Since September 30, 1996, there has been no adverse change in the business, operations, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of CRC and its subsidiaries that are material in the context of CPI (and its subsidiaries) and CRC, taken as a whole.

SECTION 6.1.21. CPI is not in violation of any provision of its Declaration of Trust or Trustees' Regulations. CRC is not in violation of any provision of the CRC Trust.

SECTION 6.1.22. CRC is not in violation of any provision of its Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws.

SECTION 6.1.23. The Certificate of Incorporation of CRC, as amended, in the form certified by the Secretary of CRC and heretofore delivered to the Purchaser, is and at the Closing will be in full force and effect.

SECTION 6.1.24. The CRC Trust Agreement in the form certified by the Secretary of CRC and heretofore delivered to the Purchaser, is and at the Closing will be in full force and effect.

SECTION 6.1.25. The total number of Preference Shares which CPI shall have authority to issue shall be 209,249, and the total number of Common Shares which CPI shall have authority to issue shall be 36,089,872 Common Shares plus such number (if any) of additional Common Shares as shall be required for issuance pursuant to Share Purchase Contracts entered into under CPI's 1994 Plan for Shareholder Contractual Purchases of Shares (the "1994 Plan") and 1997 Plan for Shareholder Contractual Purchases of Shares (the "1997 Plan"); provided, however, that (a) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable pursuant to the terms of Share Purchase Contracts entered into under the 1994 Plan (the "1994 Contracts"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,105,894 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall then have been issued subsequent to November 1, 1996, pursuant to such 1994 Contracts; (b) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable pursuant to the terms of Share Purchase Contracts entered into under the 1997 Plan (the "1997 Contracts"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,100,000 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall then have been issued subsequent to January 1, 1997, pursuant to such 1997 Contracts; (c) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable pursuant to all Employee Share Purchase Plan Contracts entered into under CPI's Employee Share Purchase Plan as amended ("Employee Contracts"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued as aforesaid shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 12,513 (as adjusted to reflect non-vested shares acquired by CPI) over the total number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall then have been issued subsequent to June 15, 1994, pursuant to Employee Contracts; (d) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable pursuant to Share Purchase Agreements providing for the issuance of up to 1,788,948 Common Shares directly, or upon the conversion or exchange of securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares, the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,788,948 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall have been issued subsequent to November 1, 1996 pursuant to such Share Purchase Agreements; (e) upon the termination or expiration of the Trust's 1993 Share Option Plan for Employees and all options granted thereunder (the "1993 Share Options"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued as aforesaid shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,000,000 over the total number of Common Shares as shall then have been issued upon the exercise of 1993 Share Options granted on or after November 2, 1993; (f) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable upon conversion of the First Series Preference Shares, the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued as aforesaid shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,600,000 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall then have been issued subsequent to June 15, 1994 upon conversion of such First Series Preference Shares; (g) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable in exchange for interests in properties (whether direct or indirect through ownership interests in legal entities) pursuant to contracts entered into on or before January 31, 1997 ("Bellwether Contracts"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the excess (if any), of 6,000,000 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall have been issued subsequent to November 1, 1996 pursuant to such Bellwether Contracts; and (h) upon the issuance of all Common Shares (excluding those utilized in (g) above) issuable in exchange for interests in the Partnership (or in a successor to the assets thereof or in the underlying assets thereof), on or before December 31, 2000 ("Longstreet Exchanges"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,800,000 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall then have been issued subsequent to November 1, 1996 pursuant to such Longstreet Exchanges. As of November 20, 1996 there were outstanding 26,918,773 Common Shares (excluding 404,967 Common Shares held by CPI in its treasury), 209,249 Preference Shares and 2,843,075.3 shares of common stock of CRC. Since November 4, 1996, neither CPI nor CRC has effected any change in its authorized classes of beneficial interest (whether by way of reclassification, recapitalization, subdivision, stock splits or otherwise). Neither CPI nor CRC is required to file, pursuant to the requirements of Section 12 of the 1934 Act, a registration statement relating to any of its securities.

38

SECTION 6.1.26. Since January 1, 1975, CPI has been, and CPI continues to be, primarily engaged directly in the management or development of real estate.

SECTION 6.1.27. Schedule 6.2.1 contains a correct and complete list of all of the organizational documents of the Partnership.

SECTION 6.1.28. Each of CPI and CRC are in compliance in all material respects with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and requirements of governmental authorities except where (a) the necessity of compliance therewith is contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings or (b) the failure to comply therewith would not, together with all other such failures, reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the assets, business or operations of CPI, CRC and their subsidiaries taken as a whole.

SECTION 6.1.29. CPI (a) will acquire the Partnership Interest for the purpose of investment and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, the public distribution thereof, nor with any present intention of publicly distributing the same and (b) is familiar with the business and operations of the Partnership and has conducted its own due diligence investigation with respect thereto.

SECTION 6.2. Representations and Warranties of Purchaser. The Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to CPI as follows:

SECTION 6.2.1. Schedule 6.2.1 contains a correct and complete list of all of the organizational documents of the Partnership and the Purchaser owns the Partnership Interest free and clear of all Encumbrances.

SECTION 6.2.2. The Purchaser is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of Delaware, the Purchaser has all the requisite power to own and deal with its real and other property, conduct its business as it is now conducted and perform this Purchase Agreement, the Assignment Agreement and the Release and is duly qualified to do business and in good standing in each jurisdiction, if any, in which the nature of the business transacted or the character of the property owned by it therein makes such qualification necessary. This Purchase Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by Purchaser and each of the Assignment Agreement and the Release has been duly authorized by Purchaser and shall be duly executed and delivered by Purchaser at the Closing and this Purchase Agreement and the Assignment Agreement (upon its execution and delivery) and the Release (upon its execution and delivery) constitute (or will constitute upon execution and delivery) Purchaser's legal, valid and binding agreement enforceable in accordance with its terms (subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally from time to time in effect and to general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law, and except as the enforceability of the indemnification provisions hereof may be limited by federal securities law and public policy considerations).

SECTION 6.2.3. The execution and delivery by Purchaser of this Purchase Agreement, the Assignment Agreement and the Release and the performance of this Purchase Agreement, the Assignment Agreement and the Release, and compliance with the provisions hereof and thereof do not and, in the case of the Release and the Assignment Agreements, upon their execution and delivery will not (i) violate any provision of any applicable law or of the Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws of the Purchaser or (ii) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of Purchaser pursuant to, any material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument to which Purchaser is a party or by which it or any of its properties may be bound.

SECTION 6.2.4. There is no action, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of Purchaser, threatened, against Purchaser in which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse decision that questions the validity of this Purchase Agreement, the Assignment Agreement, the Release, the Partnership Interest or any action to be taken pursuant to this Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 6.2.5. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any governmental or public body or authority on the part of Purchaser is required in connection with the valid execution, delivery and performance of this Purchase Agreement, the Assignment Agreement, the Release, Purchaser's sale, assignment, transfer and conveyance of the Partnership Interest or Purchaser's acquisition of the Shares, all as contemplated hereby.

SECTION 7. Applicability of Declaration of Trust. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Purchase Agreement, the rights of the Purchaser to hold and transfer the Shares shall at all times be subject to the provisions of Sections 5.12, Purchasers Disclosures; Redemption of Shares, and 5.13, Right to Refuse to Transfer Shares; Certain Transfers Void, of the Declaration of Trust of CPI and to all rights granted to the Trustees of CPI thereunder.

SECTION 8. Assignment. This Purchase Agreement may not be assigned by CPI or the Purchaser prior to the Closing Date without, in the case of a transfer by the Purchaser, the consent of CPI and, in the case of a transfer by CPI, the consent of the Purchaser. After the Closing Date, all representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Purchase Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of CPI and the Purchaser and their respective successors and assigns (including without limitation transferees of any or all Shares to be purchased hereunder by the Purchaser if such transferees acquired such Shares prior to the public offering thereof), except as any provision may by its terms be otherwise limited. After the Closing Date, the Purchaser shall not assign this Purchase Agreement or any of its rights, privileges or obligations hereunder to any party other than such a transferee without the prior written consent of CPI.

SECTION 9. Governing Law. This Purchase Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York, without regard to the principles of the conflicts of laws thereof.

SECTION 10. Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process. (a) Each of the Purchaser and CPI hereby irrevocably and unconditionally submits, for itself and its property, to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or Federal court of the United States of America sitting in New York City, and any appellate court from any thereof, in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Purchase Agreement, or for recognition or enforcement of any judgment arising therefrom, and CPI and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agree that all claims in respect of any such action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such New York State or, to the extent permitted by law, in such Federal court. CPI and the Purchaser agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Purchase Agreement shall affect any right that the Purchaser or CPI may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Purchase Agreement against the other or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) CPI and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive, to the fullest extent they may legally and effectively do so, any objection which they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Purchase Agreement in any New York State or Federal court sitting in New York City. CPI and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding in any such court.

(c) CPI and the Purchaser irrevocably consent to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 13. Nothing in this Purchase Agreement will affect the right of any party to this Purchase Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 11. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any litigation directly or indirectly arising out of, under or in connection with this Purchase Agreement. Each party hereto (a) certifies that no representative, agent or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (b) acknowledges that it and the other party hereto have been induced to enter into this Purchase Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 11.

SECTION 12. Brokers Fees. The Purchaser shall indemnify CPI and CPI shall indemnify the Purchaser against any claim for brokerage or other commissions relative to this Purchase Agreement or to the transactions contemplated hereby based in any way on agreements, arrangements or understandings made or alleged to have been made by the indemnifying party.

SECTION 13. Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered or mailed by first-class registered or certified mail (air mail when being sent outside the United States) postage prepaid, addressed (a) if to the Purchaser, at its address set forth in Exhibit A hereto, or at such other address as may be furnished in writing by the Purchaser to CPI, or (b) if to CPI, Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, 305 East 47th Street, New York, N.Y. 10017, or at such other address as CPI shall have furnished to the Purchaser in writing.

SECTION 14. Survival of Provisions. The representations, warranties and covenants set forth in Sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 12 and 15 shall survive the purchase of Shares under this Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 15. Expenses. Each of CPI and the Purchaser shall bear its own respective direct and indirect costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution and performance of this Purchase Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including, without limitation, all fees and disbursements of agents, representatives, counsel and accountants.

SECTION 16. Entire Agreement; Section Headings. This Purchase Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties hereto, and supersedes the provisions of any prior agreement or understanding of the parties hereto, with respect to the subject matter hereof. The descriptive headings of the several sections of this Purchase Agreement are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 17. Counterparts. This Purchase Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original.

The Purchaser understands that the name "Corporate Property Investors" is the designation of the Trustees under its Declaration of Trust. Neither the shareholders nor the Trustees or officers, employees or agents of the trust created thereby shall be liable hereunder and all persons shall look solely to the trust estate for the payment of any claims hereunder or for the performance hereof.

Assignment Agreement

[Form of]

PARTNERSHIP INTEREST ASSIGNMENT

This Partnership Interest Assignment ("Assignment") is made on [the Closing Date] by and between [FOSTERLANE HOLDINGS CORPORATION], a Delaware corporation ("Assignor"), and   ("Assignee"), with reference to the following:

A. Assignor owns the rights of Fifth and 59th Street Investors Corporation, that are set forth in those agreements and other documents listed on Schedule A annexed hereto (collectively, the "Partnership Agreement"), which constitute the organizational documents of Longstreet Associates, L.P., a New York limited partnership (the "Partnership"), as amended to the date hereof.

B. Assignor now wishes to assign to Assignee all of Assignor's interest in and to the Partnership and the Partnership Agreement and to cause Assignee to become a substituted limited partner of the Partnership in the place and stead of Assignor.

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. Assignment. For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Assignor hereby assigns and transfers to Assignee, its successors and assigns, effective as of the date hereof, all of Assignor's right, title and interest (whether as partner, creditor, beneficiary or other claimant) in and to the Partnership, the Partnership Agreement and all of the Partnership's rights, interests and assets of any nature whatsoever, whether now existing or hereafter arising, including, without limitation, all of Assignor's right, title and interest in and to all distributions of cash or property made by the Partnership after the date hereof, all of Assignor's rights to the repayment of any moneys advanced or otherwise lent to the Partnership that have not been repaid as of the date hereof, all of Assignor's right, title and interest in and to all allocations of profits, losses and tax credits for tax purposes arising with respect to Assignor's interest in the

- ----------

(1) Designee of CPI.

Partnership after the date hereof and all of Assignor's capital account attributable to Assignor's interest in the Partnership (all of the foregoing being collectively referred to herein as the "Partnership Interest").

2. Substitution of Assignee as Limited Partner. Assignor and Assignee intend that, effective as of the date hereof, Assignee shall be substituted as a limited partner in the Partnership in the place and stead of Assignor. Upon Assignee's request, Assignor shall execute and deliver to each of the remaining partners in the Partnership and to Assignee an amendment to the Partnership Agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to each of the remaining partners and Assignee, effecting the substitution of Assignee from and after the date hereof in the place and stead of Assignor as a partner of the Partnership.

3. Acceptance and Assumption; Indemnity. Effective as of the date hereof, Assignee hereby accepts the assignment to it of all of Assignor's right, title and interest in and to the Partnership Interest, hereby agrees to become a substituted limited partner in the Partnership from and after the date hereof in the place and stead of Assignor and, to the extent of the Partnership Interest and as otherwise provided by law, hereby assumes and agrees to be bound by all of the obligations of Assignor under the Partnership Agreement arising after the date hereof, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent and howsoever arising; provided, however, that the liabilities and obligations assumed by Assignee hereunder do not include (i) any claims related to Federal, state or local income, franchise, sales, property, transfer, document recording or other taxes of Assignor or the Partnership accruing prior to the date hereof or by reason of the assignment and transfer contemplated hereby or (ii) any other liabilities or obligations of Assignor or the Partnership accruing prior to the date hereof. Assignee hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold harmless Assignor from and against all of Assignor's losses, costs, damages and claims arising out of the liabilities assumed pursuant to this paragraph 3 to the extent that such losses, costs, damages or claims are incurred by Assignor on or after the date hereof.

4. Further Assurances. Assignor shall, at any time and from time to time after the date hereof, upon the request of Assignee, execute, acknowledge and deliver all such further acts, deeds, assignments, transfers, conveyances, powers of attorney and assurances, and take all such further actions, as shall be necessary or desirable to give effect to the transactions hereby consummated and to collect and reduce to the possession of Assignee any and all of the interests and assets hereby transferred to Assignee. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Assignor hereby appoints Assignee, and its nominees, successors and assigns, the true and lawful attorney of Assignor, with full power of substitution, in the name of Assignee or in the name of Assignor but for the benefit and at the expense of Assignee, to demand and receive from time to time the benefits of the right and title to the Partnership Interest hereby conveyed, transferred and assigned, to give receipts and releases for and in respect of the same, or any part thereof, and from time to time to institute and prosecute in the name of Assignor or otherwise, for the benefit of Assignee, any and all proceedings at law, in equity or otherwise, which Assignee, its nominees, successors or assigns, may deem proper in order to collect, assert or enforce the right or title to the Partnership Interest hereby conveyed, transferred and assigned, or intended so to be, to defend and compromise any and all actions, suits or proceedings in respect of the Partnership Interest, and to do any and all such acts and things in relation thereto as Assignee, its nominees, successors or assigns, shall deem advisable; Assignor hereby declaring that the appointment hereby made and the powers hereby granted are coupled with an interest and are and shall be irrevocable by Assignor; provided that prior to its exercise of any rights granted pursuant to the foregoing appointment, Assignee shall deliver to Assignor at least 5 business days' prior notice of Assignee's intention to take any such action.

5. Counterparts. This Assignment may be executed in counterparts with the same effect as if all parties hereto had executed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute a single Assignment.

6. Governing Law. This Assignment shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with, and governed and enforced in all respects by, the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to the conflict of laws principles of such State.

Assignor understands that the name "Corporate Property Investors" is the designation of the Trustees under its Declaration of Trust. Neither the shareholders nor the Trustees or officers, employees or agents of the trust created thereby shall be liable hereunder and all persons shall look solely to the trust estate for the payment of any claims hereunder or for the performance hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Assignor and Assignee have executed this Partnership Interest Assignment as of the date and year first above written.

Exhibit C

GENERAL RELEASE

In consideration of, among other things, the premises and mutual covenants contained in that certain Purchase Agreement (the "Agreement") dated as of December 13, 1996, between Corporate Property Investors, a voluntary association of the type commonly known as a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI"), Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CRC"), and Fosterlane Holdings Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Purchaser"), and the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Agreement.

2. Each of CPI, CPI-767 Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("CPI-767"), CPI-767 II Corporation, a Delaware corporation ("CPI-767 II"), and CRC hereby forever releases and discharges the Purchaser, its subsidiaries and partners, and each of their respective directors, officers and employees (collectively, the "Purchaser Releasees") from, and waives and relinquishes any and all claims, demands, debts, liabilities, obligations, actions, causes of action, suits, sums of money, accounts, reckonings, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, promises and rights whatsoever, whenever arising, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or fixed, liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, in law, equity or otherwise (collectively, "Claims") that CPI, CPI-767, CPI- 767 II or CRC ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall or may have against the Purchaser Releasees for, upon, or by reason of any matter, cause, transaction or thing whatsoever occurring at any time prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to release any person from its obligations under the Agreement, the Assignment Agreements or any other documents delivered pursuant to the express provisions thereof or to release the Purchaser from any obligations to CPI under any written agreement pursuant to which the Purchaser or any predecessor in interest acquired Common Shares.

3. The Purchaser hereby forever releases and discharges each of CPI, CPI-767, CPI-767 II, CRC, all of their respective subsidiaries and partners, and all the respective trustees, directors, officers and employees of each of them (collectively, the "CPI Releasees") from, and waives and relinquishes any and all Claims that Purchaser ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall or may have against the CPI Releasees for, upon or by reason of, any matter, cause, transaction or thing whatsoever occurring at any time prior to the date hereof; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to release any person from its obligations under the Agreement, the Assignment Agreements or any other documents delivered pursuant to the express provisions thereof or to release CPI or CRC from any obligations to the Purchaser (i) under any written agreement pursuant to which the Purchaser or any predecessor in interest acquired Common Shares or (ii) that may arise solely by virtue of the Purchaser's ownership of any such Common Shares.

4. This Release shall be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. No party hereto may assign either this Release or any of its rights, interests or obligations hereunder without the prior written approval of the other party.

5. This Release constitutes the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof. It is expressly understood and agreed that this Release may not be altered, amended, modified or otherwise changed in any respect whatsoever, except by a writing duly executed and delivered by all of the parties hereto.

6. THIS RELEASE SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, AND GOVERNED AND ENFORCED IN ALL RESPECTS BY, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO THE CONFLICT OF LAWS PRINCIPLES OF SUCH STATE. THE PARTIES HERETO IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY AGREE TO SUBMIT TO PERSONAL JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND TO WAIVE ANY OBJECTION AS TO VENUE IN THE COUNTY OF NEW YORK, STATE OF NEW YORK IN CONNECTION WITH ALL MATTERS RELATING TO THIS RELEASE AND/OR THE CLAIMS. EACH PARTY HERETO WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS RELEASE. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS RELEASE BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 6.

7. If any provisions of this Release are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the remaining provisions, and any partially invalid or unenforceable provisions, to the extent valid and enforceable, shall nevertheless be binding and valid and enforceable.

8. This Release may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

9. This Release shall not be effective unless and until executed by all of the parties hereto.

9. The Purchaser understands that the name "Corporate Property Investors" is the designation of the Trustees under its Declaration of Trust. Neither the shareholders nor the Trustees or officers, employees or agents of the trust created thereby shall be liable hereunder and all persons shall look solely to the trust estate for the payment of any claims hereunder or for the performance hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Release as of the ____ day of December, 1996.(2)

Exhibit D

Statement pursuant to Treasury
Regulation Section 1.897-2(h)

In accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.897-2(h), Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI"), hereby states that its Series A Common Shares do not represent a "United States real property interest" within the meaning of Section 897(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), because CPI has determined based upon its corporate records that it currently is a "domestically-controlled REIT" within the meaning of Section 897(h)(4)(B) of the Code.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that (i) I have examined this statement, (ii) to the best of my knowledge and belief, this statement is true, correct and complete and (iii) I have authority to sign this statement on behalf of CPI.

EXHIBIT 10.42

SUPPLEMENTAL EXECUTIVE RETIREMENT PLAN
OF
CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS

STATEMENT OF AMENDMENTS
EFFECTIVE AS OF JULY 1, 1998

1. The penultimate sentence of Section 5.2(b) is replaced by the following:

"Such election may be made at the time the Executive becomes a Participant or at any time thereafter; provided, however, that no such election shall require payment prior to 1999 or be effective unless it is made (i) at least 12 months prior to his or her Termination of Service or (ii) prior to August 31, 1998, and within a calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the distribution or commencement of distributions of his or her Investment Credits would otherwise occur without regard to the new election. The foregoing advance election requirements shall not apply in the event Termination of Service is by reason of death."

2. Article VII is amended to read as follows:

"The Committee may, in its absolute discretion, without notice, at any time and from time to time, modify or amend, in whole or in part, any or all of the provisions of the Plan, or suspend or terminate it entirely, provided, that no such modification, amendment, suspension or termination may, without his consent, apply to or affect the payment or distribution to any Participant or adversely affect the rights of any Participant with respect to benefits accrued under the Plan prior to the effective date of such modification, amendment, suspension or termination, including but not limited to, the right to any Investment Option or to any Investment Credits credited to him prior to the effective date of such modification, amendment, suspension or termination."

AMENDED AND RESTATED

SUPPLEMENTAL EXECUTIVE

RETIREMENT PLAN

OF

Effective as of August 1, 1997

INDEX

OF

EFFECTIVE AS OF AUGUST 1, 1997

PREAMBLE

Corporate Property Investors established its Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors effective January 1, 1993, in order to provide benefits to selected executives that are supplemental to the benefits provided under the Corporate. Property Investors Simplified Employee Pension Plan.

Said Plan is intended to be an unfunded plan maintained primarily for the purpose of providing deferred compensation for a select group of management or highly compensated employees as described in Section 201(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

Said Plan was amended and restated effective January 1, 1996, with retroactive effect to January 1, 1993, to clarify the calculation of benefits under said Plan if not all amounts payable with respect to a particular calendar year are actually paid in such year. Said Plan was further amended and restated effective August 1, 1997, to permit more frequent investment elections.

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. "Board of Trustees" means the board of trustees of the Trust.

1.2. "Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

1.3. "Committee" means the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees.

1.4. "Compensation" for any Year means the wages, salaries, fees for professional services and other amounts received by a Participant, regardless of when received, for personal services actually rendered in such Year in the course of such Participant's employment with the Employer, determined prior to reduction for any contributions made on a salary reduction basis and excluded from income pursuant to Sections 125 or 402(e)(3) of the Code and prior to reduction for amounts deferred under the Deferred Remuneration Plan. Compensation shall include bonuses and overtime but shall exclude:

(a) Employer contributions under the SEPP or any plan qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code (other than contributions excluded from income pursuant to Section 402(e)(3) of the Code);

(b) amounts included in gross income as a result of the exercise of a nonqualified stock option or a disqualifying disposition of stock acquired under an incentive stock option;

(c) reimbursement for educational expenses and automobile expenses and allowances;

(d) any imputed income resulting from the provision of group-ten or split dollar life insurance to the Employee;

(e) living and moving allowances;

(f) severance payments and settlements;

(g) forgiveness of debt owed the Employer; and

(h) amounts paid pursuant to this Plan.

1.5. "Contribution Date" for any Year means the date the Trust fixes for a contribution to be made under this Plan with respect to such Year pursuant to Section 3.1, which date shall not be earlier than the Determination Date for such Year. If the Trust does not separately fix such a date for any Year, the Contribution Date for such Year will be the fourth business day following the Determination Date for such Year.

1.6. "Deferred Remuneration Plan" means the Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of Corporate Property Investors as in effect from time to time.

1.7. "Determination Date" for any Year means the date that the Trust makes a determination to make contributions under this Plan with respect to such Year pursuant to Section 3.1.

1.8. "Executive" means an employee (whether or not an officer) of the Trust whose Compensation is in excess of the dollar limit on pay that may be taken into account under the SEPP for any particular Year pursuant to Code Section 408(k)(3) (as adjusted by the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate in accordance with Section 408(k)(8) of the Code).

1.9. "Insurance" means an annuity, life insurance policy or other similar investment vehicle approved by the Committee.

1.10. "Investment Credits" of a Participant at any time means the sum of (a) the amount of any uninvested balance in such Participant's Investment Credit account at such time and (b) the value of investments in such Participant's Investment Credit account at such time.

1.11. "Investment Options" means the investments (none of which shall be a partnership) designated by the Committee pursuant to Section 3.2(a) or, if the Committee should not have designated Investment Options pursuant to Section 3.2(a), the investment options available to participants under the Deferred Remuneration Plan.

1.12. "Quarter" means the four consecutive three-month periods of any Year of the Trust, with the first period beginning on the first day of such Year.

1.13. "Participant" means an Executive who is eligible under Article II or who was so eligible and whose Investment Credits have not been fully distributed.

1.14. "Plan" means this Amended and Restated Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors as set forth in this document, as it may be further amended from time to time.

1.15. "SEPP" means the Corporate Property Investors Simplified Employee Pension Plan as in effect from time to time.

1.16. "Termination of Service" means the termination (by death or otherwise) of a Participant's service with the Trust.

1.17. "Trust" means Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust.

1.18. "Year" means the calendar year.

The masculine pronoun, wherever used herein, shall include the feminine pronoun, unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning.

ARTICLE II

PARTICIPATION

Each Executive shall be eligible to participate in the Plan for any Year provided that he was or would be eligible to share in the contribution, if any, made under the SEPP for such Year.

ARTICLE III

CONTRIBUTIONS AND ACCOUNTS

3.1 Contributions. For each Year after 1992, the Trust shall determine whether a contribution will be made under the Plan for the Year. Such determination need not be made prior to the end of such Year. If the Trust determines that a contribution will be made for a Year, there shall be contributed on behalf of each Participant an amount under this Plan equal to (a) reduced by (b):

(a) 7-1/2% of the Participant's Compensation for such Year up to the taxable wage base determined under Section 230 of the Social Security Act with respect to determining taxes under Code Section 3101(a) for such Year plus 11% of his Compensation for such Year in excess of such taxable wage base; reduced by

(b) the amount contributed on the Participant's behalf under the SEPP for such Year and in the case of a Participant who has had compensation deferred under the Deferred Remuneration Plan for such Year, any contribution to such plan by the Trust equivalent to amounts that would have been contributed under the SEPP on behalf of the Participant for such Year if such compensation had not been so deferred.

Such contributions shall be allocated to Investment Credit accounts established for the Participants' benefit as of the Contribution Date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 3.1, a Participant entitled to a contribution for any Year may elect, prior to the Contribution Date for such Year, that such contribution will be paid to him in cash on such Contribution Date. Such election will be honored only to the extent that the Participant furnishes evidence satisfactory to the Committee that the balance of such payment, after deductions for taxes imposed thereon (assuming that such taxes will be imposed at the highest marginal rates applicable to individuals living and working in the locales lived and worked in by such Participant), will be used to purchase new Insurance or maintain Insurance in effect. Unless the Committee shall require otherwise, "evidence satisfactory to the Committee" shall consist of a written description of the Insurance to be purchased or maintained, including the premium required to purchase or maintain it, and a written undertaking or representation of the Participant that the payment made under this paragraph either will be used to reimburse the Participant for paying such premium or will be applied to the prompt payment of such premium. To the extent a Participant's contribution is paid to him in cash, he will have no rights to any benefits provided under the Plan.

3.2 Investment of Contributions. (a) At the time an Executive becomes a Participant, he shall elect in writing his choice of Investment Options and the amount to be invested in each such Investment Option. The Committee shall inform, 30 days prior to the beginning of each Year or as soon thereafter as administratively practicable, each Participant of the Investment Options available for such Year.

(b) If a Participant shall fail to elect an Investment Option, he shall be deemed to have elected that his contributions be invested in a money market fund selected by the Committee. Any election pursuant to this Section 3.2 may be changed in accordance with Section 4.2.

3.3. Distributions. A Participant's Investment Credits shall be distributable in the manner and subject to the conditions set forth in Article V.

ARTICLE IV

ACCOUNTS

4.1. Investment Credits. (a) Until a Participant's Investment Credit account is invested as hereinafter provided, any uninvested balance in a Participant's Investment Credit account shall be credited as of the end of each month in each Year with an interest equivalent for such month which shall be an amount equal to the uninvested balance in a Participant's Investment Credit account at the end of the prior month multiplied by a rate equal to (i) the number of days in such month during which the uninvested balance in a Participant's Investment Credit account was not invested divided by (ii) 360, and the quotient thereof multiplied by the average of the prime or base rate of interest of Citibank, N.A., New York, New York, on the first and last day of the current month.

(b) Subject to Section 4.3, the uninvested balance in a Participant's Investment Credit account shall be invested by the Committee or its designee, at such intervals as the Committee deems practicable, in the Investment Options selected by such Participant pursuant to Section 3.2, provided that the aggregate purchase price (including brokerage commissions and any other transaction costs) of such investments shall be approximately equal to the amount of such uninvested balance.

(c) The Investment Credit account of a Participant shall be credited with the proceeds (net of expenses of sale and any taxes) of any sale or exchange of investments in such account and with any dividends or other income received with respect to such investments and shall be debited with the value of any investments that are sold or exchanged. Until such credits are reinvested in the Investment Option from which they arose or as otherwise directed by the Participant pursuant to Section 4.2(a), they shall be added to the uninvested balance of such Participant's Investment Credit account and shall earn interest equivalents as provided in Section 4.1(a).

4.2. Changes in Investments. (a) A Participant may, by notice to the Committee, change the manner in which his credits are accumulated by electing to change all or part of the Investment Options in his Investment Credit account.

(b) Any change of election provided in Section 4.2(a) shall be effected by filing an election in writing with the Committee at any time to be effective as soon as practicable thereafter subject to any restrictions imposed by the Committee; provided, however, that elections which relate to either increasing or decreasing a Participant's investment in shares of the Trust in his Investment Credit account may only be effected by filing an election form with the Committee not later than 15 days prior to the expiration of the first Quarter to be effective as of the first day of the second Quarter.

4.3. Committee Discretion. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan, the Committee shall determine in its sole discretion whether actually to invest a Participant's contributions in an Investment Option selected by a Participant pursuant to Section 3.2. If the Committee determines that a Participant's contributions shall not actually be invested in an Investment Option, the amount of a Participant's Investment Credits shall, for all purposes of the Plan, be determined as if the amount of the Participant's allocations had actually been invested in the Investment Option in the manner described in this Article IV.

ARTICLE V

VESTING AND DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Vesting. The Investment Credits of a Participant shall be fully vested and nonforfeitable at all times.

5.2 Distribution. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) below, the Investment Credits of a Participant shall be distributed to such Participant in 15 annual installments commencing on (i) the first Tuesday following the end of the Year in which his Termination of Service occurs or as soon thereafter as practicable or (ii) if a Participant has a valid distribution election in effect pursuant to paragraph (b) (ii) below, the first Tuesday of the Year specified in such distribution election or as soon thereafter as practicable.

(b) A Participant may, in writing, also elect (i) the number of annual installments over which his or her Investment Credits shall be distributed after the Participant's Termination of Service (including an election to have all such credits distributed in a single installment) and/or (ii) the Year that distribution of the Investment Credits shall commence; provided, however, that if the Participant's Termination of Service has not occurred by the first day of such specified Year the election under this clause (ii) shall be null and void. Such election may be made at the time the Executive becomes a Participant or at any time thereafter; provided, however, that no such election shall be effective unless it is made at least 12 months prior to his or her Termination of Service. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if a Participant also participates in the Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of Corporate Property Investors, his Investment Credits shall be paid under the same distribution method as his cash and investment credits are paid under such plan.

(c) Except as provided in Section 5.3, the amount of each installment of the Investment Credits to be distributed to a Participant shall equal (i) the sum of such Participant's Investment Credits on the close of the business day next preceding the day of distribution divided by (ii) the total number of annual installments to be distributed to such Participant less the number of annual installments previously distributed to such Participant.

(d) Distribution of Investment Credits shall be made in cash or in kind, as selected by the Committee, and, if in kind, by delivery of whole shares of the investments in such Participant' s Investment Credit account (net of any expenses) and by payment of the balance, if any, in cash with the last installment.

5.3. Committee Discretion. The Committee may, with the consent of the person or persons then entitled to receive distributions, make changes in the time, rate or medium of distribution of all or part of the Investment Credits.

5.4. Death Benefits. (a) Any Investment Credits or remaining undistributed installments thereof that become distributable after the death of a Participant shall be distributed in installments as provided in this Article V to such person or persons, or the survivors thereof, including corporations, unincorporated associations or trusts, as the Participant may have designated in a writing delivered to the Committee unless the Participant shall have elected that any remaining amounts shall be paid to such person or persons or to the Participant's estate in a lump sum. The Participant may from time to time revoke or change any such designation by a writing delivered to the Committee. If there is no unrevoked designation on file with the Committee at the time of the Participant's death, or if the person or persons designated therein shall have all predeceased the Participant or otherwise ceased to exist, such distribution shall be made to the Participant's estate in a lump sum. If the person or persons designated by the Participant shall survive the Participant but shall die before receiving all of such distributions, the balance thereof payable to such deceased distributee shall, unless the Participant's designation provides otherwise, be distributed to such deceased distributee's estate in a lump sum.

(b) If the death of the Participant occurs after his Termination of Service, the number of installments remaining to be paid shall be the number that otherwise would have been distributed to the Participant.

ARTICLE VI

ADMINISTRATION

6.1. Committee. The Plan shall be administered by the Committee.

6.2. Rules. The Committee shall from time to time establish rules for the administration of the Plan that are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan.

6.3. Authority of the Committee. All determinations of the Committee, including, but without limitation, the determination of the Committee as to any disputed question arising under the Plan, including all questions of construction and interpretation, shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all persons. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the determination of the Committee as to whether a Participant has had a Termination of Service and the date thereof shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all persons.

6.4. Acknowledgments and Distributions. The acknowledgment by the Committee of an assignment or pledge made in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.3 and any distribution by the Committee to the assignee or pledgee shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all persons and shall relieve the Trust and the Committee of any liability or obligation to any other person or persons with respect to such distribution. As a condition to such acknowledgment or distribution, the Committee may require the submission of such statements, opinions, orders, certificates, resolutions or other instruments, documents, consents or evidence, as the case may be, as either of them, in its sole discretion, shall determine to be necessary or appropriate.

6.5. Legal Counsel. The Committee may consult with legal counsel, who may be counsel for the Trust or other counsel, with respect to its obligations or duties hereunder, or with respect to any action or proceeding or any question of law, and shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted by it in good faith pursuant to the advice of such counsel.

6.6. Incompetency. If the Committee shall find that any person to whom any payment is payable under the Plan is unable to care for his affairs because of illness or accident, or is a minor, the Committee may direct that any payment due (unless a prior claim shall have been made for such payment by a duly appointed legal representative) shall be paid to his spouse, a child, a parent or other blood relative. Any payment so made shall be a complete discharge of the liabilities of the Trust for that payment.

ARTICLE VII

AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Committee may, in its absolute discretion, without notice, at any time and from time to time, modify or amend, in whole or in part, any or all of the provisions of the Plan, or suspend or terminate it entirely, provided, that no such modification, amendment, suspension or termination may, without his consent, apply to or affect the payment or distribution to any Participant or adversely affect the right of any Participant to any Investment Credits credited to him for any Year ended prior to the effective date of such modification, amendment, suspension or termination. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, at all times when Investment Credits are held under the Plan, the Committee shall permit such Investment Credits to be invested pursuant to one or more Investment Options that provides a reasonable rate of return.

ARTICLE VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

8.1. Funding. Distributions under the Plan shall be made solely from the general assets of the Trust, and a Participant's interest in his Investment Credit accounts shall be that of a general unsecured creditor. No Participant or any other person shall have any interest in any fund or in any specific asset or assets of the Trust by reason of any Investment Credits or interest equivalents, dividend equivalents or other income credited to him hereunder, nor the right to exercise any of the rights or privileges of an owner with respect to any investment credited to his Investment Credit account, nor any right to receive any distribution under the Plan except as and to the extent expressly provided in the Plan.

8.2. No Guarantee of Employment. Neither the adoption nor the amendment of the Plan, nor any action of the Board of Trustees or the Committee shall be held or construed to confer on any person any legal right to be continued in the employ of the Trust.

8.3. Nonalienation. No Participant shall have the right to assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of (except as provided in Section 5.4) any Investment Credits nor shall the Participant's interest therein be subject to garnishment, attachment, transfer by operation of law, or any legal process; nor shall any person entitled to receive

Investment Credits or remaining undistributed installments thereof, which become distributable after the death of a Participant in accordance with Section 5.4, have the right to assign or pledge any such credits or remaining undistributed installments except to the extent that the executor or administrator of a Participant's estate may exercise such right as hereinafter in this Section 8.3 provided. If and to the extent that other assets of a Participant's estate are not sufficient or available for the purpose of paying estate and other death taxes or other obligations of his or her estate, the executor or administrator thereof may, if so authorized by the terms of the Participant's will or by a court having jurisdiction of his or her estate or otherwise by operation of law, assign or pledge, to the extent required to secure borrowings made to pay such taxes or obligations, the Investment Credits or the remaining undistributed installments thereof, including the interest equivalents, dividends and other income (all of which together are hereinafter in this sentence referred to as "installments"), which become distributable after the Participant's death to his or her estate, provided that (a) the installments so assigned or pledged shall be those which first become payable, and (b) the assignment or pledge of installments of Investment Credits shall constitute an irrevocable direction for the Committee's investment of the Investment Credits so assigned or pledged in a money market fund selected by the Committee. Any such assignment or pledge, and the exercise of the election provided in the preceding sentence, may be made, if at all, only within the two-year period beginning with the date of the Participant's death.

8.4. Applicable Law. The Plan shall be construed in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of New York.

EXHIBIT 10.43

TRUSTEES' AND EXECUTIVES' DEFERRED REMUNERATION PLAN OF CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS

STATEMENT OF AMENDMENTS EFFECTIVE AS OF JULY 1, 1998

1. The fifth sentence of Section 2.1 is replaced by the following:

"A Participant may make a new or revise a prior installment or distribution election (with payments to begin or be paid no earlier than 1999) with respect to compensation previously deferred provided that such election is made (i) at least one year prior to the Termination of Service of such Participant or (ii) prior to August 31, 1998, and within a calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the distribution or commencement of the Cash Credits and Investments would otherwise occur without regard to the new election. The foregoing advance election requirements shall not apply in the event Termination of Service is by reason of death."

2. Article VIII is amended to read as follows:

"The Committee may, in its absolute discretion, without notice, at any time and from time to time, modify or amend, in whole or in part, any or all of the provisions of the Plan, or suspend or terminate it entirely, provided, that no such modification, amendment, suspension or termination may, without his consent, apply to or affect the payment or distribution to any Participant or adversely affect the rights of any Participant with respect to benefits accrued under the Plan prior to the effective date of such modification, amendment, suspension or termination, including but not limited to the right to any Investment Option or any Cash Credits or Investment Credits credited to him prior to the effective date of such modification, amendment, suspension or termination."

TRUSTEES' AND EXECUTIVES' DEFERRED REMUNERATION PLAN

OF

AS AMENDED AND RESTATED EFFECTIVE AUGUST 1, 1997

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

1.1. "Cash Credits" of a Participant at any time means the sum of all amounts, including interest equivalents, theretofore credited to such Participant's Cash Credit account pursuant to Article III.

1.2. "Committee" means the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees of the Trust.

1.3. "Deferred Remuneration" means the portion of a Participant's remuneration from the Trust for any Fiscal Year, or part thereof, that has been deferred pursuant to the Plan.

1.4. "Executive" means an employee (whether or not an officer) of the Trust whose annual remuneration rate is $100,000 or more. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the dollar amount set forth in this Section 1.4 shall be adjusted by the Committee to comply with any regulations or rulings issued by the Secretary of Labor with respect to deferred compensation plans maintained for management or highly compensated employees.

1.5. "Fiscal Quarter" means the four consecutive three-month periods of any Fiscal Year of the Trust, with the first period beginning on the first day of such Fiscal Year.

1.6. "Fiscal Year" means the calendar year or other fiscal year of the Trust.

1.7. "Investment Credits" of a Participant at any time means the sum of (A) the amount of any uninvested balance in such Participant's Investment Credit account at such time and (B) the value of investments in such Participant's Investment Credit account at such time, provided that the value of a Participant's investment in shares of the Trust shall be based upon the most recent (at such time) appraisal of the Trust's shares by Landauer Associates, Inc. or any successor appraiser.

1.8. "Investment Options" means (A) shares of the Trust, (B) the investments (none of which shall be a partnership) designated by the Committee pursuant to Section 2.3(a), which may include one of each of the following types of investments: (i) U.S. Treasury notes and bonds; (ii) a U.S. Treasury or agency bond fund; (iii) a money market fund; (iv) a growth-oriented equity fund; (v) an income-oriented equity fund; and (vi) an international fund and (C) in the case of Participants specified in Section 2.3(c), the other investments provided for in such Section 2.3(c) in which the amount credited to a Participant's Investment Credit account may be invested pursuant to the Plan.

1.9. "Participant" means a Trustee or Executive all or a portion of whose remuneration for any Fiscal Year has been deferred pursuant to the Plan and whose Cash Credits or Investment Credits have not been fully distributed.

1.10. "Plan" means the Deferred Remuneration Plan of the Trust, as described in this instrument.

1.11. "SEPP" means the Corporate Property Investors Simplified Employee Pension Plan as in effect from time to time.

1.12. "Termination of Service" means the termination (by death or otherwise) of a Participant's service as a Trustee or Executive, as the case may be.

1.13. "Trust" means Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust.

1.14. "Trustee" means a member of the Board of Trustees of the Trust.

The masculine pronoun, wherever used herein, shall include the feminine pronoun, unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning.

DEFERRALS

2.1. Deferral Elections. Each Trustee and each Executive may elect to have a percentage of the remuneration to be earned by him during each Fiscal Year or portion thereof deferred in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Plan. A Trustee or Executive desiring to exercise such election shall, prior to the beginning of each Fiscal Year, notify the Trust, in writing, of the amount of his remuneration for such Fiscal Year that he elects to be so deferred. The amount of such remuneration which is to be deferred pursuant to each such election shall be in each case at least $5,000.00 per year. At the time of such notification to the Trust, the Trustee or Executive may, in writing, also elect (a) the number of annual installments over which the Cash Credits and Investment Credits shall be distributed after the Participant's Termination of Service and/or (b) the year that distribution of the Cash Credits and Investment Credits shall commence, provided that if the Participant's Termination of Service has not occurred by the first day of such specified year the election made pursuant to this clause (b) shall be null and void. A Participant may make a new or revise a prior installment or distribution election with respect to compensation previously deferred provided that, except in the case of the death of the Participant prior to his Termination of Service, such election is made at least one year prior to the Termination of Service of such Participant. In the absence of a valid installment election, the number of installments over which the Cash Credits and Investment Credits of a Participant are to be distributed shall be made as provided in Section 5.1(b). In the absence of a valid distribution election, distribution of the Cash Credits and Investment Credits shall commence as provided in clause (i) of Section 5.1(a).

2.2. Amounts Deferred Under Prior Plan. In addition to any amount described in Section 2.1, each Executive shall have an amount of compensation that was previously deferred pursuant to the deferred compensation plan in effect prior to April 1, 1975, deferred in accordance with terms and conditions of the Plan.

2.3. Investment Elections. (a) At the time a Participant gives notice to the Trust pursuant to Section 2.1 he shall elect in writing the amount of his Deferred Remuneration to be credited as a Cash Credit, an Investment Credit or a combination thereof. If a Participant elects that an amount of his Deferred Compensation is to be credited as an Investment Credit, such Participant shall also elect in writing his choice of Investment Options and the amount to be invested in each such Investment Option. The Committee shall, 30 days prior to the beginning of each Fiscal Year, notify each Participant of the Investment Options for such Fiscal Year.

(b) If a Participant shall fail to make the election described in Section 2.3(a), he shall be deemed to have elected his Deferred Remuneration be credited to him as a Cash Credit. If a Participant elects to have his Deferred Remuneration credited to him as an Investment Credit but fails to elect an Investment Option, he shall be deemed to have elected shares of the Trust as his Investment Option. Any election pursuant to this Section 2.3 may be changed in accordance with Section 4.2.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Plan, subject to any rules and restrictions imposed by the Committee, if a Participant is a Trustee or if the sum of the value of a Participant's Cash Credits and the value of his Investment Credits (when aggregated with the value of his `investment credits' as defined under the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors) exceeds $250,000, then, with respect to such Participant, the term Investment Option shall be deemed also to include any other investment selected by such Participant; provided, however, that the amount at risk under any Investment Option may not exceed the amount of the initial investment.

2.4. Credits Related to the SEPP. On December 31 of each Fiscal Year (or such later date as the Committee selects), there shall be credited to the Cash Credits or Investment Credits of each Participant (as selected in writing by such Participant, or if no such selection shall have been made, such Participant's Cash Credits) an amount equal to (a) reduced by (b):

(a) the amount that would have been contributed for such Fiscal Year on such Participant's behalf under the SEPP had such Participant's compensation, as determined for the purpose of the SEPP, included amounts deferred pursuant this Plan; reduced by

(b) the amount actually contributed for such Fiscal Year on such Participant's behalf under the SEPP.

2.5. Distributions. A Participant's Cash Credits and Investment Credits shall be distributable in the manner and subject to the conditions set forth in Articles V and VI.

ARTICLE III

CASH CREDITS

(a) If a Cash Credit is elected, the Participant' s Cash Credit account shall be credited, as of the end of each month in each Fiscal Year for which the election was made, with a pro rata portion of the amount of the Participant's annual Deferred Remuneration which he elected to have credited to him as a Cash Credit.

(b) The Cash Credit account of each Participant shall be credited, as of the end of each month in each Fiscal Year for which the election was made, with an interest equivalent for such month, which shall be an amount equal to the Cash Credits of a Participant at the end of the prior month multiplied by a rate equal to (x) prior to April 1, 1994, 1/12th of the average of the prime or base rate of interest of Citibank, N.A., New York, New York, on the first and last day of the current month and (y) after March 31, 1994, the rate of return provided by a money market fund selected by the Committee for the current month.

ARTICLE IV

INVESTMENT CREDITS AND INVESTMENT ELECTIONS

4.1. Investment Credits. (a) If an Investment Credit is elected, the Participant's Investment Credit account shall be credited, as of the end of each month in each Fiscal Year for which the election was made, with a pro rata portion of the amount of the Participant's annual Deferred Remuneration which he elected to have credited to him as an Investment Credit, and until invested as hereinafter provided, any uninvested balance in a Participant's Investment Credit account shall be credited as of the end of each month in each Fiscal Year with an interest equivalent for such month which shall be an amount equal to the uninvested balance in a Participant's Investment Credit account at the end of the prior month multiplied by a rate equal to (x) the number of days in such month during which the uninvested balance in a Participant's Investment Credit account was not invested divided by (y) 360, and the quotient thereof multiplied by the average of the prime or base rate of interest of Citibank, N.A., New York, New York, on the first and last day of the current month.

(b) The uninvested balance in a Participant's Investment Credit account shall be invested by the Committee, at such intervals as the Committee deems practicable, in the Investment Options selected by such Participant pursuant to Section 2.3, provided that aggregate purchase price (including brokerage commissions and any other transaction costs) of such investments shall be approximately equal to the amount of such uninvested balance.

(c) The Investment Credit account of a Participant shall be credited with the proceeds of any sale or exchange of investments in such account and with any dividends or other income received with respect to such investments and shall be debited with the value of any investments that are sold or exchanged. Until such credits are reinvested in the Investment Option from which they arose or as otherwise directed by the Participant pursuant to Section 4.1(b), they shall be added to the uninvested balance of such Participant's Investment Credit account and shall earn interest equivalents as provided in Section 4.1(a).

4.2. Changes in Investment Elections. (a) A Participant may change the manner in which his credits are accumulated by electing (i) to have all or part of his Cash Credits invested in the manner provided in Section 2.3, (ii) to have all or part of the Investment Options in his Investment Credit account liquidated and the proceeds credited to his Cash Credit account or (iii) to change all or part of the Investment Options in his Investment Credit account; provided, however, in the case of a Participant's election made pursuant to this Section 4.2(a) to increase or decrease an investment in shares of the Trust in his Investment Credit account, the value of shares of the Trust as of the effective date of such election (determined pursuant to Section 4.2(b)) shall be based upon the appraisal utilized for purposes of determining Investment Credits referred to in Section 1.7 for the Fiscal Year first preceding the effective date of such election.

(b) The election provided in Section 4.2(a) may be effected by filing an election in writing with the Committee at any time to be effective as soon as practicable thereafter subject to any restrictions imposed by the Committee; provided, however, that elections which relate to (i) having all or part of a Participant's Cash Credit invested in shares of the Trust, (ii) having all or part of a Participant's investment in shares of the Trust liquidated and the proceeds credited to his Cash Credit account or (iii) either increasing or decreasing a Participant's investment in shares of the Trust in his Investment Credit account may only be effected by filing an election form with the Committee not later than 15 days prior to the expiration of the first Fiscal Quarter to be effective as of the first day of the second Fiscal Quarter.

4.3. Investment by the Trust. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan, the Committee shall determine in its sole discretion whether actually to invest a Participant's Deferred Compensation in an Investment Option selected by a Participant pursuant to Section 2.3. If the Committee determines that a Participant's Deferred Compensation shall not actually be invested in an Investment Option, the amount of a Participant's Investment Credits shall, for all purposes of the Plan, be determined as if the amount of the Participant's annual Deferred Remuneration that he elected to have credited to him as an Investment Credit had actually been invested in the Investment Option in the manner described in this Article IV.

ARTICLE V

DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1. Distributions. (a) Except as provided in Section 5.2, the Cash Credits and Investment Credits of a Participant shall be distributed to such Participant in annual installments commencing on (i) except as provided in clause (ii) of this sentence, the first Tuesday following the end of the calendar year in which his Termination of Service occurs or as soon thereafter as practicable or (ii) if a Participant has a valid distribution election in effect pursuant to Section 2.1, the first Tuesday of the year specified in such distribution election or as soon thereafter as practicable.

(b) Except as provided in Sections 2.1 and 5.2, if Termination of Service occurs at or after the date on which the Participant has attained age 65, such distribution shall be made in five annual installments. The number of installments shall be increased by one for each year by which the Participant's age shall be under 65 at the time of Termination of Service, but the number of installments shall not exceed 15 in any case.

(c) Except as provided in Section 5.2, the amount of each installment of the Cash Credits and Investment Credits to be distributed to a Participant pursuant to Section 5.1(a) shall equal (x) the sum of such Participant's Cash Credits and Investment Credits on the close of the business day next preceding the day of distribution divided by (y) the total number of annual installments to be distributed to such Participant less the number of annual installments previously distributed to such Participant.

(d) Distribution of the Cash Credits of a Participant shall be made in cash. Distribution of Investment Credits shall be made in cash or in kind, as selected by the Committee, and, if in kind, by delivery of whole shares of the investments in such Participant's Investment Credit account (net of any expenses) and by payment of the balance, if any, in cash with the last installment.

5.2. Changes by the Committee. The Committee may, with the consent of the person or persons then entitled to receive distributions, make changes in the time, rate or medium of distribution of all or part of the Cash Credits or Investment Credits.

5.3. Death of Participant. Any Cash Credits or Investment Credits or remaining undistributed installments thereof which become distributable after the death of a Participant shall be distributed in installments as provided in this Article V to such person or persons, or the survivors thereof, including corporations, unincorporated associations or trusts, as the Participant may have designated in a writing delivered to the Committee unless the Participant shall have elected that any remaining amounts shall be paid to such person or persons or to the Participant's estate in a lump sum. The Participant may from time to time revoke or change any such designation by a writing delivered to the Committee. If there is no unrevoked designation on file with the Committee at the time of the Participant`s death, or if the person or persons designated therein shall have all predeceased the Participant or otherwise ceased to exist, such distributions shall be made to the Participant's estate in a lump sum. If the person or persons designated therein shall survive the Participant but shall die before receiving all of such distributions, the balance thereof payable to such deceased distributee shall, unless the Participant's designation provides otherwise, be distributed to such deceased distributee's estate in a lump sum.

5.4 Death After Termination of Service. If the death of the Participant occurs after his Termination of Service, the number of installments remaining to be paid shall be the number that otherwise would be distributable to the Participant.

ARTICLE VI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1. Plan is Unfunded. The Plan shall be unfunded and shall be maintained primarily for the purpose of providing deferred compensation for a select group of management or highly compensated employees of the Trust as described in Section 201(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. Distributions under the Plan shall be made solely from the general assets of the Trust, and a Participant's interest in his Cash Credit and Investment Credit accounts shall be that of a general unsecured creditor. No Participant or any other person shall have any interest in any fund or in any specific asset or assets of the Trust by reason of any Cash Credits or Investment Credits or interest equivalents, dividends or other income credited to him hereunder, nor the right to exercise any of the rights or privileges of an owner with respect to any investment credited to his Investment Credit account, nor any right to receive any distribution under the Plan except as and to the extent expressly provided in the Plan.

6.2. No Guarantee of Employment. Neither the adoption nor the amendment of the Plan, nor any action of the Board of Trustees of the Trust or the Committee, nor any election to defer remuneration hereunder, shall be held or construed to confer on any person any legal right to be continued in the employ of the Trust.

6.3. Nonalienation. No Participant shall have the right to assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of (except as provided in Article V) any Cash Credits or Investment Credits, nor shall the Participant's interest therein be subject to garnishment, attachment, transfer by operation of law, or any legal process; nor shall any person entitled to receive Cash Credits or Investment Credits or remaining undistributed installments thereof, which become distributable after the death of a Participant in accordance with Article V, have the right to assign or pledge any such credits or remaining undistributed installments except to the extent that the executor or administrator of a Participant's estate may exercise such right as hereinafter in this Section 6.3 provided. If and to the extent that other assets of a Participant's estate are not sufficient or available for the purpose of paying estate and other death taxes or other obligations of his estate, the executor or administrator thereof may, if so authorized by the terms of the Participant's will or by a court having jurisdiction of his estate or otherwise by operation of law, assign or pledge, to the extent required to secure borrowings made to pay such taxes or obligations, the Cash Credits or the Investment Credits, or both, or the remaining undistributed installments thereof, including the interest equivalents, dividends and other income (all of which together are hereinafter in this sentence referred to as "installments"), which become distributable after the Participant's death to his estate, provided that (a) the installments so assigned or pledged shall be those which first become payable, and (b) the assignment or pledge of installments of Investment Credits shall constitute an irrevocable direction for the Committee's investment of the Investment Credits so assigned or pledged in a money market fund selected by the Committee. Any such assignment or pledge, and the exercise of the election provided in the preceding sentence, may be made, if at all, only within the two-year period beginning with the date of the Participant's death.

6.4. Governing Law. The Plan shall be construed in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of New York.

ARTICLE VII

ADMINISTRATION

7.1. Committee. The Plan shall be administered by the Committee.

7.2. Rules. The Committee shall from time to time establish eligibility requirements for participation in the Plan and rules for the administration of the Plan that are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan.

7.3. Authority of Committee. All determinations of the Committee, including, but without limitation, the determination of the Committee as to any disputed question arising under the Plan, including all questions of construction and interpretation, shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all persons. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the determination of the Committee as to whether a Participant has had a Termination of Service and the date thereof, shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all persons.

7.4. Acknowledgments and Distributions. The acknowledgment by the Committee of an assignment or pledge made in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.3 and any distribution by the Committee to the assignee or pledgee shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all persons and shall relieve the Trust and the Committee of any liability or obligation to any other person or persons with respect to such distribution. As a condition to such acknowledgment or distribution, the Committee may require the submission of such statements, opinions, orders, certificates, resolutions or other instruments, documents, consents or evidence, as the case may be, as either of them, in its sole discretion, shall determine to be necessary or appropriate.

7.5. Legal Counsel. The Committee may consult with legal counsel, who may be counsel for the Trust or other counsel, with respect to its obligations or duties hereunder, or with respect to any action or proceeding or any question of law, and shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted by it in good faith pursuant to the advice of such counsel.

7.6. Incompetency. If the Committee shall find that any person to whom any payment is payable under the Plan is unable to care for his affairs because of illness or accident, or is a minor, the Committee may direct that any payment due (unless a prior claim shall have been made for such payment by a duly appointed legal representative) shall be paid to his spouse, a child, a parent or other blood relative. Any payment so made shall be a complete discharge of the liabilities of the Trust for that payment.

ARTICLE VIII

AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Committee may, in its absolute discretion, without notice, at any time and from time to time, modify or amend, in whole or in part, any or all of the provisions of the Plan, or suspend or terminate it entirely, provided, that no such modification, amendment, suspension or termination may, without his consent, apply to or affect the payment or distribution to any Participant of any Cash Credits or Investment Credits credited to him for any Fiscal Year ended prior to the effective date of such modification, amendment, suspension or termination.

2.10 SERVICE: Employment with an Employer or an Affiliate or as a leased employee within the meaning of Section 414(n)(2) of the Code if an Employer or Affiliate was the recipient of such leased employee's services.

2.11 TRUST: Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust.

ARTICLE III

Participation

3.1 ELIGIBILITY: Each Employee shall be a Participant for any Plan Year (whether or not he is employed by an Employer on the last day of the Plan Year) provided that he has:

(a) performed any Service during at least three of the immediately preceding five Plan Years; and

(b) received at least $300 of compensation (as defined in Section 414(g)(7) of the Code and as adjusted by the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate in accordance with Section 408(k)(8) of the Code) during the Plan Year.

3.2 NOTIFICATIONS: The Plan administrator shall notify an Employee in writing prior to the end of the first Plan Year in which he becomes a Participant. Such notification shall include information required to be furnished by Department of Labor regulations under 29 CFR 2520.104-49. Such notification shall also advise the Participant that he should establish an Individual Retirement Account and the date by which such Individual Retirement Account should be established. Each Participant shall notify the Plan administrator of the name and address of the trustee of the Individual Retirement Account and any other information the Plan administrator may request. The Plan administrator shall continue making deposits to the institution selected by the Participant until the Plan administrator receives notice in writing from such Participant, acceptable to the Plan administrator, requesting that deposits be made to another institution. If the Participant fails to notify the Plan administrator of the establishment of an Individual Retirement Account or fails to provide any required information as of the prescribed date, the Plan administrator shall select an institution for the establishment of such an account and execute such forms and documents as may be necessary to establish an Individual Retirement Account for and on behalf of such Participant.

ARTICLE IV

Contributions

4.1 CONTRIBUTIONS: For each Plan Year after 1992, the Trust shall determine whether a contribution will be made under the Plan for that Plan Year. If the Trust determines that a contribution will be made for a Plan Year, there shall be contributed to the Individual Retirement Account of each individual who is a Participant for the Plan Year (whether or not his employment with an Employer has terminated prior to the last day of such Plan Year) 7-1/2% of the Participant's Compensation for such Plan Year up to the taxable wage base determined under Section 230 of the Social Security Act with respect to determining taxes under Code Section 3101(a) for such Plan Year plus 11% of his Compensation for such Plan Year in excess of such taxable wage base.

The contribution of the Employer made on behalf of each Participant shall be either (a) paid directly to the Individual Retirement Account of a Participant or (b) delivered to the Participant by check made payable to the trustee of the Participant's Individual Retirement Account. Such contribution shall be paid not later than the due date (including extensions) of the Employer's tax return for the tax year that corresponds with the Plan Year.

4.2 LIMITS ON CONTRIBUTIONS: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the maximum "annual addition" (as herein defined) on behalf of any Participant for any Plan Year shall not exceed (and, if necessary, shall be reduced to) the lesser of $30,000 (or, if greater, 25% of the dollar limitation in effect under Section 415(b)(1)(A) of the Code for the Year) or 25% of his total compensation (within the meaning of Code Section 415(c)(3)) for such Plan Year. The "annual additions" for a Participant shall be the sum of (a) contributions allocated to his Individual Retirement Account under the Plan, (b) contributions and forfeitures allocated to his account for the Plan Year under any plan qualified under Code Section 401(a) maintained by an Employer and (c) any other amounts considered annual additions pursuant to Code Sections 415(1)(1) and 419A(d) (2).

ARTICLE V

Benefits

5.1 VESTING: All contributions made to this Plan by an Employer on behalf of a Participant shall be fully vested and nonforfeitable at all times.

5.2 WITHDRAWALS: Withdrawal of amounts contributed to a Participant's Individual Retirement Account shall be governed by the terms of such Individual Retirement Account. If a Participant does withdraw amounts from his Individual Retirement Account, he shall be responsible for paying any income, penalty, excise or other taxes associated with such withdrawal.

5.3 DEATH: In the event of a Participant's death, disposition of his Individual Retirement Account shall be governed by the terms of his Individual Retirement Account.

ARTICLE VI

Administration

6.1 NAMED FIDUCIARY AND PLAN ADMINISTRATOR: The Trust shall be the named fiduciary and plan administrator. The Trust may by appointment allocate the duties of the plan administrator among several individuals or entities. Such appointments shall not be effective until the party designated accepts such appointment in writing. The Plan administrator shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) to construe and interpret the provisions of the Plan;

(b) to decide all questions of eligibility for Plan participation;

(c) to provide appropriate parties with such returns, reports, descriptions and statements as are required by law, within the times prescribed by law and to make them available for examination by Participants and their beneficiaries when required by law;

(d) to take such other action as may be reasonably required to administer the Plan in accordance with its terms or as may be provided for or required by law;

(e) to provide any Participant whose claim for contributions has been denied with a reasonable opportunity for a full and fair review;

(f) to appoint and retain such persons as may be necessary to carry out the functions of the Plan administrator.

6.2 EXPENSES OF ADMINISTRATION: All administrative expenses of the Plan shall be paid by the Employer.

ARTICLE VII

Employer Rights

7.1 NONGUARANTEE OF EMPLOYMENT: Nothing contained in this Plan shall be construed as a contract of employment between an Employer and any Employee, or as a right of any Employee to be continued in the employment of an Employer, or as a limitation of the right of an Employer to discharge any of its Employees, with or without cause.

7.2 AMENDMENTS: The Trust reserves the right to make from time to time any amendment or amendments to this Plan which do not cause any part of Employer contributions hereunder to be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of Participants; provided, however, that the Employer may make any amendment it determines necessary or desirable, with or without retroactive effect, to comply with the Code or any other Federal law and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

7.3 SUCCESSOR EMPLOYER: In the event of the dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of an Employer, provision may be made by which the Plan will be continued by the successor; and, in that event, such successor shall be substituted for the Employer under the Plan. The substitution of the successor shall constitute an assumption of Plan liabilities by the successor and the successor shall have all of the powers, duties and responsibilities of an Employer under the Plan.

7.4 RIGHT TO TERMINATE: The Plan is intended to be permanent but the Trust reserves the right to terminate the Plan at any time. In the event of the dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Trust, the Plan shall terminate unless it is continued by a successor to the Trust in accordance with Section 7.3.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Trust has executed this Plan the _____ day of _____, 1993.

Exhibit 10.45

1993 SHARE OPTION PLAN

1. Adoption and Purpose of the Plan. Corporate Property Investors ("CPI") hereby adopts this share option plan (the "Plan") to provide for the grant of share options to Trustees and employees of CPI. The general purpose of the Plan is to promote the interests of CPI by providing to Trustees and employees additional incentives to continue and increase their efforts with respect to, and (in the case of employees) to remain in the employ of, CPI.

2. Stock Subject to the Plan. There will be reserved for issuance upon the exercise of options to be granted from time to time under the Plan an aggregate of 1,000,000 Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest of CPI ("Common Shares"). Such shares may be in whole or in part, as the Board of Trustees of CPI (the "Board") shall from time to time determine, authorized and unissued Common Shares or issued Common Shares that shall have been reacquired by CPI. If any option granted under the Plan shall expire or terminate for any reason without having been exercised in full, the unpurchased Common Shares subject thereto shall again be available for the purposes of the Plan.

3. Administration. The Plan shall be administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Committee"). Subject to the express provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall have plenary authority, in its discretion, to determine the terms of all options granted under the Plan (which need not be identical) including, without limitation, the purchase price of the Common Shares covered by each option, the individuals to whom, and the time or times at which, options shall be granted, the number of Common Shares to be subject to each option, when an option can be exercised and whether in whole or in installments. In making such determinations, the Committee may take into account the nature of the services rendered by the respective individuals, their present and potential contributions to CPI's success and such other factors as the Committee in its discretion shall deem relevant; provided, however, that each time options are granted to non-employee Trustees of CPI, all such Trustees shall be offered options for the same number of Common Shares and with the same terms and provisions. Subject to the express provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall have plenary authority to interpret the Plan, to prescribe, amend and rescind the rules and regulations relating to it and to make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan. The determinations of the Committee on the matters referred to in this section 3 shall be conclusive. No officer or former officer of CPI who is a Trustee shall serve as a member of the Committee.

The Committee shall select one of its members as Chairman of the Committee, and the Committee shall hold its meetings at such times and places as it shall deem advisable. A majority of its members shall constitute a quorum and all determinations shall be made by a majority of its members. Any determination reduced to writing and signed by a majority of the members shall be fully as effective as if it had been made by a majority vote at a meeting duly called and held.

4. Eligibility and Types of Options. Options may be granted only to Trustees (whether or not employees), officers and other salaried employees of CPI. A Trustee, officer or employee who has been granted an option may be granted an additional option or options. The eligibility of non-employee Trustees to receive options shall be subject to the approval of the shareholders of CPI at the 1994 Annual Meeting; if such approval is not received, then any option theretofore granted to a non-employee Trustee shall terminate. Any options granted to non-employee Trustees prior to the 1994 Annual Meeting shall not be exercisable until after the date of such Meeting.

Nothing contained in the Plan shall be construed to limit the right of CPI to grant options otherwise than under the Plan in connection with the acquisition by purchase, lease, consolidation or otherwise of the business and assets of any corporation, firm or association, including options granted to employees thereof who become employees of CPI, or for other proper purposes.

In no event shall an option be granted to any person who, if such option were exercised in full immediately after the grant thereof, would own Common Shares such that CPI would not qualify as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the "Code").

All options granted under the Plan shall be non-qualified stock options unless the Committee shall determine with respect to any particular option grant that it shall be an "incentive stock option" within the meaning of Section 422(b) of the Code. No incentive stock option may be granted to a non-employee Trustee or to an employee who owns more than 10% of the combined voting power of all classes of shares of CPI. Each incentive stock option shall not be exercisable in any one calendar year for Common Shares having a value greater than the $100,000 limitation prescribed by Section 422(d) of the Code, such value to be determined on the basis of the Fair Market Value of a Common Share (as defined in section 5) on the date of grant of the option, and shall otherwise have such terms and provisions as are provided in the Plan. The exercise of an incentive stock option shall be subject to the approval of the right to grant incentive stock options by the shareholders of CPI at the 1994 Annual Meeting; if such approval is not received, then any incentive stock option granted by the Committee prior to such meeting shall continue unchanged, except that it shall be a nonqualified stock option and shall not contain any provisions stated in the Plan to be applicable to incentive stock options. Any incentive stock option granted prior to the 1994 Annual Meeting shall not be exercisable until after the date of such Meeting.

5. Option Prices. The purchase price of the Common Shares under each option shall be equal to the Fair Market Value of a Common Share on the date of grant of the option. The "Fair Market Value of a Common Share" as used in the Plan shall be at any time (i) the then most recent net asset value per Common Share as adjusted to appropriately reflect the assumed conversion into Common Shares of any outstanding convertible securities of CPI that have a conversion price for Common Shares less than the net asset value otherwise determined hereunder, plus an amount equal to (x) the equity in Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC"), available with respect to the Common Shares (including Common Shares subject to options) divided by (y) the adjusted number of Common Shares used in determining such net asset value per Common Share, all as most recently determined by Landauer Associates, Inc. (or such successor or other independent firm as shall at the time be retained by the Trustees of CPI to appraise the net asset value of CPI), or (ii) if since the date of such most recent appraisal there has been a sale or issuance in one or more closely related transactions of at least $1,000,000 worth of Common Shares and related interests in CRC at a different price, the most recent such different price; provided, however, that such sale or issuance must be an arms-length transaction (or series of transactions) between unaffiliated parties, must involve two United States parties or non-United States parties under circumstances having substantially the same tax consequences as would be the case if United States parties were involved, and, if CPI is not a party to the transaction (or series of transactions), at least one of the parties must notify CPI of the price by written notice addressed to the Secretary of CPI.

6. Term of Options. The term of each option shall be for such period as the Committee shall determine, but not more than 10 years from the date of granting thereof or such shorter period as is prescribed in sections 7, 10 and 11.

7. Exercise of Options. Subject to sections 10 and 11 and this section 7, unless the Committee otherwise determines, an option granted under the Plan shall become exercisable in annual installments of 25% of the aggregate number of shares covered by the option on each of the first four anniversaries of the date of grant, such installments to be cumulative. In no case may an option be exercised at any time for less than 50 Common Shares (or the remaining Common Shares covered by the option if less than 50).

An option may be exercised by written notice to CPI. Such notice shall state that the holder of the option elects to exercise the option, the number of Common Shares in respect of which it is being exercised and the manner of payment for such Common Shares; the notice shall include any representations required pursuant to section 9 and shall either (i) be accompanied by payment of the full purchase price of such Common Shares or (ii) fix a date (not more than 10 business days from the date of exercise) for the payment of the full purchase price of such Common Shares.

Payment shall be made in cash or, unless otherwise provided in the option agreement, in Common Shares which have been owned by the holder of the option for more than six months (or, in the case of Common Shares being used for payment on the exercise of an incentive stock option, such Common Shares shall meet any longer holding period requirement set forth in Section 422(a)(1) of the Code or any successor provision) or partly in cash and partly in such Common Shares. Cash payments shall be made by cash or check payable to the order of CPI. Payments in Common

Shares (valued at the Fair Market Value of a Common Share on the date of exercise) shall be made by delivery of share certificates in negotiable form. If certificates representing Common Shares are used to pay all or part of the purchase price under an option, a separate certificate which shall bear legends reflecting any restrictions imposed upon the Common Shares surrendered (as well as the legend required under section 9(d)) shall be delivered by CPI representing the same number of Common Shares as each certificate so used, and an additional certificate shall be delivered representing the additional Common Shares to which the holder of the option is entitled as a result of the exercise of the option. Except as provided in sections 10 and 11 and for options granted to non-employee Trustees, no option may be exercised at any time unless the person to whom such option was originally granted is then an employee of CPI. The holder of an option shall have none of the rights of a shareholder with respect to the Common Shares subject to the option until such Common Shares shall be transferred to the holder upon exercise of the option.

Notwithstanding any contrary waiting period, installment period or other limitation or restriction in any option agreement or in the Plan, each outstanding option granted under the Plan shall become exercisable in full for the aggregate number of Common Shares covered thereby in the event the Board (or, if approval of the Board is not required as a matter of law, the shareholders of CPI) shall approve (i) any consolidation or merger of CPI in which CPI will not be the continuing or surviving corporation or pursuant to which Common Shares would be converted into cash, securities or other property, other than a merger of CPI in which the holders of Common Shares immediately prior to the merger have the same proportionate ownership of the common shares of the surviving corporation immediately after the merger, (ii) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of all, or substantially all, the assets of CPI, (iii) the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of CPI or (iv) the acquisition by one or more related entities of securities representing 50% or more of the combined voting power of CPI's outstanding securities having the right to vote in the election of trustees, adjusted to appropriately reflect the assumed conversion into Common Shares of any outstanding convertible securities of CPI.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, CPI shall loan the funds needed to exercise an option to the holder of such option if such holder simultaneously exercises such option and exercises the option holder's rights under section 9(d) to sell all the Common Shares purchased under such option. The interest rate, the maturity date, any installments, any security and all other terms and conditions of each such loan shall be determined from time to time by the Committee, in its sole discretion; provided, however, that no installments shall be due on any such loan, nor shall any such loan mature, until the Next Determination Date (as defined in section 9) following the option holder's exercise of such holder's rights under section 9(d).

With respect to each Common Share issued upon the exercise of an option, CPI shall deliver to the trustee of the trust in which substantially all the outstanding shares of Common Stock of CRC have been deposited for the benefit of holders of the Common Shares an amount equal to the amount with respect to CRC (the "CRC Equity") included in the purchase price per Common Share set forth in such option pursuant to clauses (x) and (y) of the definition of Fair Market Value of a Common Share in section 5 or which would have been included in the purchase price per Common Share if the purchase price had been determined under clause (i) of section 5 rather than under clause (ii) of that section; such amount shall be used by such trustee to purchase, at a price of 10 times the CRC Equity, for deposit in such trust, a number of shares of CRC Common Stock equal to 1/10 of the number of Common Shares issued upon exercise of such option.

8. Transferability of Options. No option granted under the Plan shall be transferable otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, except that an option holder may transfer a nonqualified stock option to his or her spouse or children, a trust or trusts for the benefit of such option holder or his or her spouse or children or a corporation or partnership all the equity interests in which are owned by such option holder or his or her spouse or children; provided, however, that any such transferee shall be required to acknowledge and agree that the option so transferred shall remain subject to this section 8 and will not be transferable except as permitted by this section 8. The designation of a beneficiary by an option holder shall not constitute a transfer. An option may be exercised, during the lifetime of the holder thereof

(whether the optionee or a permitted transferee under this section 8), only by such holder.

9. Restrictions on Options and Optioned Shares. (a) No options shall be granted under the Plan, and no Common Shares shall be issued and delivered upon the exercise of options granted under the Plan, unless and until any applicable Federal or state registration, listing and qualification requirements and any other requirements of law or of any regulatory agencies having jurisdiction shall have been fully complied with.

(b) The Committee in its discretion may, as a condition to the exercise of any option granted under the Plan, require the holder of such option (i) to represent in writing that the Common Shares received upon exercise of such option are being acquired for investment and not with a view to distribution and (ii) to make such other representations and warranties as are deemed appropriate by CPI.

(c) All Common Shares purchased by any option holder on exercise of an option granted under the Plan shall be transferable to any party only with the consent of CPI (which may not be unreasonably withheld), except that no such consent shall be required for any transfer of Common Shares (i) in accordance with section 9(d) or (ii) to such option holder's spouse or children, a trust or trusts for the benefit of such option holder or his or her spouse or children or a corporation or partnership all the equity interests in which are owned by such option holder or his or her spouse or children but, in the event of any such transfer under clause (ii), the transferee shall be required to acknowledge and agree that the Common Shares so transferred will remain subject to the provisions of this section 9. If pursuant to the preceding sentence any holder of Common Shares shall give notice to CPI seeking CPI's consent to the transfer of any of or all such Common Shares to an entity that is not an existing shareholder of CPI, then CPI may elect in its sole discretion, to be exercised by giving a written election to the person who delivered such notice within ten business days of CPI's receipt of such notice, to purchase all but not less than all the Common Shares specified in such notice at a price per Common Share equal to the then Fair Market Value of a Common Share as set forth in section 5, such purchase to be completed by CPI not later than five business days after it so elects to purchase such Common Shares.

(d) Each option agreement shall provide that, for so long as the option holder or any permitted transferee under section 8 or this section 9 shall continue to hold the Common Shares acquired on exercise of the option, the option holder or such transferee, respectively, may at his or her election at any time notify CPI in writing of his or her intent to sell a specified number of such Common Shares and shall state in such notice that CPI shall either (as such option holder or transferee shall elect in such notice):

(i) use its best efforts to have the Common Shares specified therein purchased by other CPI shareholders or third parties, subject to CPI's customary restrictions on transfer and other limitations, at a price per Common Share not less than the then Fair Market Value of a Common Share as set forth in section 5; if by the later of six months after the receipt of such notice by CPI and the date of the next written determination of an appraisal of the net asset value of CPI as described in section 5 (the "Next Determination Date") all the Common Shares covered by such notice have not been purchased by other CPI shareholders or third parties, then on the later of such dates CPI shall notify such option holder or transferee that it will buy all such unsold Common Shares at a price per Common Share equal to the Fair Market Value of a Common Share as set forth in section 5 as of such later date, and such option holder or transferee shall then have ten business days to advise CPI if he or she still wishes to sell; or

(ii) if such notice is delivered to CPI on or before July 1 in any year, use its best efforts to have the Common Shares purchased as described in clause (1) above; and, if by the Next Determination Date such Common Shares shall not have been so purchased, purchase from such option holder or transferee the Common Shares specified in such notice at a price per Common Share equal to the Fair Market Value of a Common Share as of the Next Determination Date; provided, however, that CPI, not later than the last business day of such year, shall purchase such Common Shares from such option holder or transferee and shall pay a price per Common Share equal to the then Fair Market Value of a Common Share as set forth in section 5, and thereafter, promptly following such Next Determination Date, CPI shall pay such option holder or transferee, or such option holder or transferee shall pay CPI, as the case may be, an amount per share so purchased by CPI equal to the difference between such Fair Market Values.

(e) Stock certificates representing Common Shares acquired upon the exercise of options shall bear substantially the following legend or such other legend that may be required:

"THE TRANSFER OF SHARES COVERED HEREBY AND CERTAIN OTHER MATTERS WITH RESPECT TO SUCH SHARES ARE GOVERNED BY AND SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF AN OPTION AGREEMENT BETWEEN CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS AND THE OPTIONEE OF THE OPTION UNDER WHICH SUCH SHARES WERE ISSUED, AND NO TRANSFER OF SUCH SHARES SHALL BE VALID OR EFFECTIVE WITHOUT COMPLIANCE THEREWITH. A COPY OF SUCH AGREEMENT MAY BE OBTAINED AT NO COST BY WRITTEN REQUEST MADE BY THE HOLDER OF RECORD OF THIS CERTIFICATE TO THE SECRETARY OF CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS."

10. Termination of Trusteeship or Employment. In the event that an option holder ceases to be a Trustee or an employee of CPI otherwise than by reason of death or total disability (as defined in section 11), such option may be exercised (to the extent of the number of Common Shares covered by the option which were purchasable by the option holder immediately prior to the termination of his or her Trusteeship or employment) at any time (i) within one year (three months in the case of an incentive stock option or, in any case, such shorter period as may be specified in the option agreement) after termination due to Retirement (as defined below) or (ii) within three months (or such shorter period as may be specified in the option agreement) after termination for any other reason; provided, however, that if the Trustee or employee shall die during such three-month period, the option may be exercised within one year after termination. In no event may an option be exercised after the expiration of its original term. Retirement shall mean, in the case of a non-employee Trustee, termination of service as a Trustee on or after the date on which such Trustee has reached 70 years of age or has served as a Trustee for more than 10 years and, in the case of an employee, the termination of employment on or after the date on which such employee has reached 62 years of age.

In the case of employees, options granted under the Plan shall not be affected by any change of employment so long as the optionee continues to be an employee of CPI. Nothing in the Plan or in any option granted pursuant to the Plan shall confer on any individual any right to continue as a Trustee or in the employ of CPI or interfere in any way with the right of CPI to terminate his or her Trusteeship or employment at any time, with or without cause, notwithstanding the possibility that the number of Common Shares purchasable by a Trustee or employee (or by a permitted transferee under section 8) under an option may thereby be reduced or eliminated.

11. Death or Total Disability of an Option Holder. In the event of (i) the death of an option holder while he or she is a Trustee of or employed by CPI or (ii) an option holder becoming disabled within the meaning of Section 422(c)(6) of the Code ("total disability"), such option may be exercised in full for the maximum number of Common Shares covered by the option by a legatee or legatees of such option holder under his or her last will, or by his or her personal representatives or distributees, or by such disabled option holder, or, if such option has been transferred by such option holder pursuant to section 8, by such transferee, at any time within a period of three years after death or total disability (one year after total disability in the case of an incentive stock option), but not after expiration of the original term of the option.

12. Adjustments upon Changes in Capitalization. The Committee, whose determination shall be conclusive, shall determine appropriate adjustments of the number and class of shares subject to each outstanding option and its option price in the event of any change in the outstanding shares of beneficial interest of CPI or the capital stock of CRC by reason of any stock dividend, stock split, recapitalization, combination, exchange of shares, merger, consolidation, liquidation, split-up, split-off, spin-off or other similar change in capitalization, any distribution to common shareholders, including a rights offering, other than regular cash dividends (i.e., dividends payable out of operating cash flow), or any like change, or any acquisition of property or stock, separation, reorganization, liquidation or the like. In the event of any such event, the aggregate number and class of shares available under the Plan shall also be appropriately adjusted by the Committee, whose determination shall be conclusive.

13. Termination and Amendment. Unless the Plan shall theretofore have been terminated as hereinafter provided, the Plan shall terminate on, and no option shall be granted after, February 4, 1998 (or December 1, 1998 if the shareholders of CPI shall approve such later date at the 1994 Annual Meeting). The Plan may be terminated, modified or amended by the shareholders of CPI. The Board may at any time terminate, modify or amend the Plan in such respects as it shall deem advisable; provided, however, that the Board may not, without approval by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of voting stock of CPI present and voting at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present or acting by their written consent:

(i) increase (except as provided in section 12) the maximum number of Common Shares as to which options may be granted under the Plan;

(ii) change the persons eligible to receive options;

(iii) change the manner of determining the option prices other than to change the manner of determining the Fair Market Value of a Common Share as stated in section 5;

(iv) increase the periods during which options may be granted or exercised; or

(v) provide for the administration of the Plan otherwise than by a Committee consisting of Trustees of CPI.

No termination, modification or amendment of the Plan may, without the consent of the individual to whom an option shall theretofore have been granted, or, if the option has theretofore been transferred pursuant to section 8, without the consent of such transferee, adversely affect the rights of such individual or transferee under such option.

14. Effectiveness of the Plan. The Plan became effective as of February 4, 1993, since it thereafter received the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Common Shares present and voting at the 1993 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of CPI.

15. Time of Granting of Options. For all purposes of the Plan, the date of grant of an option shall be the date on which the Committee approves the granting of such option or any later date selected by the Committee as the date of grant. Each grantee of an option shall be notified promptly of the grant of the option, and a written agreement shall promptly be executed and delivered by or on behalf of CPI and the grantee.

16. Tax Withholding. In connection with the issuance of Common Shares as a result of the exercise of an option, CPI shall have the right to retain, or to demand surrender of, Common Shares in value sufficient to cover any withholding tax (that is, any tax, including any Federal, state or local income tax, required by any governmental entity to be withheld of otherwise deducted and paid with respect to such issuance), and to make payment (or to reimburse itself for payment made) to the appropriate taxing authority of an amount in cash equal to the amount of such withholding tax, remitting any balance to the person exercising the option. For purposes of this section, the value of Common Shares so retained or surrendered shall be the Fair Market Value of a Common Share (determined as provided in section 5) on the date that the amount of the withholding tax is to be determined (the "Tax Date").

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the person exercising an option shall be entitled to satisfy the obligation to pay any withholding tax, in whole or in part, by providing CPI with funds sufficient to enable CPI to pay such withholding tax.

EXHIBIT 10.46

EXECUTIVE AGREEMENT dated as of August 7, 1997, between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust ("the Company"), and HANS C. MAUTNER (the "Executive").

The Company and the Executive agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) "Accrued Obligations" means the sum of the amounts described in Section 6(a)(i)(A) and Section 6(a)(ii)(A).

(b) "Annual Base Salary" means the Executive's salary at a rate not less than the Executive's annualized salary in effect immediately prior to the Operative Date or the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date (whichever date results in a larger salary).

(c) "Annual Bonus" means the Executive's annual bonus in an amount that is not less than the highest annual bonus paid to the Executive with respect to the three years preceding the Operative Date.

(d) "Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Company.

(e) "Cause" means (i) the wilful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially the Executive's duties owed to the Company after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to the Executive which specifically identifies the nature of such non-performance, (ii) the wilful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct significantly and demonstrably injurious to the Company, or (iii) conduct by the Executive in the course of his or her employment which is a felony or fraud that results in material harm to the Company or a third party. No act or omission on the part of the Executive shall be considered "wilful" unless it is done or omitted in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall not be deemed to have been terminated for Cause without (1) reasonable notice to the Executive setting forth the reasons for the Company's intention to terminate for Cause, (2) an opportunity for the Executive, together with his counsel, to be heard before the Board, and (3) delivery to the Executive of a Notice of Termination from the Board finding that in the good faith opinion of three-quarters (3/4) of the Board the Executive was guilty of conduct set forth in clause (i) or (ii) above and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

(f) A "Change in Control" shall be deemed to occur upon the consummation of any transaction involving the Company, such as a merger, consolidation or similar transaction involving the outstanding voting securities of the Company, the sale of voting securities of the Company (other than through an underwritten public offering), the sale of assets of the Company or the acquisition of assets by the Company, pursuant to which the shareholders of the Company immediately prior to such transaction would, after giving effect to such transaction, cease to beneficially own 70% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the Company or its successor. For purposes of the foregoing definition, the dissolution of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust, of which State Street Bank and Trust Company is the Trustee, and the resulting distribution of any of the Company's voting securities to the entities that are the beneficial owners thereof on the date hereof shall not be deemed a transaction involving a Change in Control.

(g) "Common Shares" means Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest of the Company.

(h) "Date of Termination" means: (i) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company, for Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, the date of receipt of the Notice of Termination or any later date specified therein, as the case may be, (ii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date on which the Company notifies the Executive of such termination, and (iii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of death or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date of death of the Executive or the Incapacity Effective Date, as the case may be.

(i) "Dependents", as of any date, means the members of the Executive's family who under the eligibility rules (as in effect on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date) of the plans or programs of the Company (or any successor) which provide medical benefits, would, by virtue of such status as family members, be eligible for benefits under such plans or programs on such date.

(j) "Good Reason" means:

(i) without the Executive's express written consent and excluding for this purpose an isolated, insubstantial and inadvertent action not taken in bad faith and which is remedied by the Company promptly after receipt of notice thereof given by the Executive, (A) the assignment to the Executive of any duties inconsistent in any respect with the Executive's position, authority, duties or responsibilities as contemplated by Section 4(a), (B) any other action by the Company which results in a significant diminution in such position, authority, duties or responsibilities, or (C) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 4(b);

(ii) without the Executive's express written consent, the Company's requiring the Executive's work location to be other than in Manhattan located in New York City;

(iii) any failure by the Company to comply with and satisfy Section 11(a); or

(iv) any breach by the Company of any other material provision of this Agreement.

(k) "Incapacity" means any physical or mental illness or disability of the Executive which continues for a period of six consecutive months or more and which at any time after such six-month period the Board shall reasonably determine renders the Executive incapable of performing his or her duties during the remainder of the Term.

(l) "Incapacity Effective Date" means the date of determination by the Board that the Incapacity of the Executive has occurred during the term of this Agreement; provided, however, that if the Company's policy regarding disability leaves of absence provides that the Executive's employment would cease and terminate on a later date, then the Incapacity Effective Date shall be such later date.

(m) "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) to the extent applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, (iii) in the case of termination by the Company for Cause or for Incapacity, confirms that such termination is pursuant to a resolution of the Board and (iv) if the Date of Termination is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than 30 calendar days after the giving) of such notice.

(n) "Operative Date" means the date on which a Change in Control shall have occurred.

(o) "Other Benefits" means any other amounts or benefits required to be paid or provided or which the Executive is eligible to receive under any plan, program, policy or practice or contract or agreement of the Company, including earned but unpaid stock and similar compensation, that is in effect on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(p) "SEPP" means the Corporate Property Investors Simplified Employee Pension Plan as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date six months prior to the Operative Date.

(q) "SERP" means the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(r) "Term" means the term of this Agreement which shall begin as of the date first written above, and shall continue to and remain in effect until the fourth anniversary of such date or, if later, two years following an Operative Date occurring prior to the fourth anniversary of the date first written above and shall include any extensions pursuant to Section 2.

SECTION 2. Extension of This Agreement. If no Operative Date shall have occurred on or before the 60th calendar day preceding the date on which the Term is then scheduled to expire, then the Term shall automatically be extended for one year unless either party shall have given the other party written notice of its intention not to extend the Term.

SECTION 3. Terms of Employment Prior to Operative Date. Prior to the Operative Date, the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment, including the Executive's rights upon termination of the Executive's employment, shall be the same as they would have been had this Agreement not been entered into by the Executive and the Company.

SECTION 4. Terms of Employment on and After Operative Date. (a) Position and Duties. (i) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (A) the Executive's position (including status, offices, titles, authority, duties and responsibilities) shall be at least commensurate in all material respects with the most significant of those held, exercised and assigned immediately prior to the Operative Date and (B) the Executive's work location shall be based in Manhattan in New York City and the Company shall not require the Executive to travel on Company business to a substantially greater extent than required on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, except for travel and temporary assignments which are reasonably required for the full discharge of the Executive's responsibilities and which are consistent with the Executive's being so based.

(ii) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, but excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which the Executive is entitled, the Executive agrees to devote reasonable attention and time during normal business hours to the business and affairs of the Company and, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive's reasonable best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities.

(b) Compensation. (i) Salary and Bonus. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will receive compensation at an annual rate equal to the sum of (A) his or her Annual Base Salary plus (B) his or her Annual Bonus.

(ii) Stock Option, Savings and Supplemental Retirement Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to (A) continue to participate in all stock option, savings and supplemental retirement plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company, including, without limitation, the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors, Corporate Property Investors Employee 401(k) Savings Plan, the SEPP, the SERP, and the Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of Corporate Property Investors, or

(B) participate in stock option, savings and retirement plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive.

(iii) Welfare Benefit Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive and/or persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents, as the case may be, shall be eligible to (A) participate in and shall receive (or, in the case of life insurance, shall be entitled to have the Executive's beneficiary receive) all benefits under welfare benefit plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, including, without limitation, medical, disability insurance (group and individual), disability leaves of absence, group life, split dollar life, accidental death and travel accident insurance plans and programs, or (B) participate in welfare benefit plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents.

(iv) Business Expenses. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall, in accordance with policies in effect with respect to the payment of such expenses immediately prior to the Operative Date, pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable out-of-pocket travel and other expenses (other than ordinary commuting expenses) incurred by the Executive in performing services hereunder. All such expenses shall be accounted for in such reasonable detail as the Company may require.

(v) Vacations. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to periods of vacation not less than those to which the Executive was entitled on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(vi) Other Benefits. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to all Other Benefits not specifically provided for in subsections (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of this Section 4(b).

SECTION 5. Termination of Employment. (a) Death or Incapacity. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive's employment shall also terminate automatically on his or her Incapacity Effective Date during the Term of this Agreement.

(b) Cause. Prior to the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment only for Cause, pursuant to the Board passing a resolution that such Cause exists.

(c) Good Reason. Prior to the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for Good Reason.

(d) Notice of Termination. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, any termination by the Company for Cause or Incapacity, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by Notice of Termination to the other party hereto given in accordance with Section 13. The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason, Incapacity or Cause shall not serve to waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

SECTION 6. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination on or After Operative Date. (a) Termination for Good Reason or for Reasons Other Than for Cause, Death or Incapacity. If, on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (x) the Company shall terminate the Executive's employment other than for Cause, death or Incapacity or (y) the Executive shall terminate his or her employment for Good Reason, then:

(i) the Company shall pay to the Executive in a lump sum in cash within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination the aggregate of the following amounts:

(A) the sum of (1) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination to the extent not theretofore paid, (2) the product of (x) an amount equal to his or her then Annual Bonus times (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the current fiscal year through the Date of Termination, and the denominator of which is 365 plus (3) any accrued vacation pay to the extent not theretofore paid; and

(B) the amount equal to the product of (1) three times (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary and (y) his or her then Annual Bonus; and

(ii) the Company will contribute within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination an amount to the SERP equal to the sum of:

(A) the product of (1) 11% and (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination plus (y) a portion of his Annual Bonus determined in accordance with Section 6(a)(i)(A)(2); and

(B) the product of (1) three times (2) 11% of the sum of the Annual Base Salary and the Annual Bonus;

(iii) for three years after the Executive's Date of Termination, or such longer period as may be provided by the terms of the appropriate plan, program, practice or policy, the Company shall continue benefits to the Executive and/or the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents at least equal to those which would have been provided to them in accordance with the plans, programs, practices and policies described in Section 4(b)(iii) if the Executive's employment had not been terminated or, if more favorable to the Executive and the Dependents, as in effect generally at any time thereafter;

(iv) the Executive and the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents shall continue to be eligible to participate in and shall receive all benefits under any plan or program of the Company providing medical benefits as are in effect on the date six months prior to the Operative Date or under any plan or program of a successor to the Company which provides medical benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents than such plans or programs of the Company until the date the Executive and the Dependents are all eligible for Medicare benefits (by reason of attaining the minimum age for such benefits without regard to whether an application has been made therefor); provided, however, that (A) in no event will a Dependent be eligible for benefits as described in this clause (iv) after the date he ceases to be a Dependent and (B) at all times after the expiration of the three-year period described in clause (iii) above, the Executive shall pay for such coverage at the same rate as is charged to other similarly situated individuals electing continuation coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(v) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Shares under the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors or under any other option plan shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to Executive's termination of employment;

(vi) the Company will continue to pay any premiums due on split-dollar life insurance policies in effect on the life of the Executive for three years following the Date of Termination after which time the Company shall distribute such policy to the Executive without requiring the Executive to repay any premiums paid by the Company;

(vii) notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary under any outstanding recourse note issued under the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan or any other agreement providing for the acceleration or prepayment of any such note payments under such note shall not be accelerated as a result of Executive's termination of employment but shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms of such note determined as if Executive's employment had not terminated;

(viii) the Company will transfer any car made available to the Executive for his use by the Company to the Executive for no consideration provided that the Executive pays any and all transfer taxes and agrees to be solely responsible for insurance and the cost of insurance after the date of transfer; and

(ix) the Executive shall be entitled to keep any computer and/or software provided to the Executive by the Company for home or travel use for no consideration; and

(x) to the extent not theretofore paid or provided, the Company shall timely pay or provide to the Executive all Other Benefits to the extent accrued on the Date of Termination and not specifically provided for in subsections (i) through (ix) of this Section 6(a).

(b) Death or Incapacity. If the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date by reason of the Executive's death or Incapacity, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive or the Executive's legal representatives under this Agreement, other than for (i) timely payment of Accrued Obligations and (ii) provision by the Company of death benefits or disability benefits for termination due to death or Incapacity, respectively, in accordance with Sections 4(b)(iii) and 6(a)(vi) as in effect at the Operative Date or, if more favorable to the Executive, at the Executive's Date of Termination.

(c) Cause; Other than for Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated on or after the Operative Date for Cause, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive other than timely payment to the Executive of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination and (y) Other Benefits, but in each case only to the extent theretofore unpaid as of the Date of Termination. If the Executive voluntarily terminates employment during the Term of this Agreement, excluding a termination for Good Reason on or after the Operative Date, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive, other than for the timely payment of Accrued Obligations and Other Benefits.

SECTION 7. Non-exclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any plan, program, policy or practice provided by the Company and for which the Executive may qualify, nor, subject to Section 15(c), shall anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any contract or agreement with the Company. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

SECTION 8. No Mitigation. The Company agrees that, if the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement for any reason, the Executive is not required to seek other employment or to attempt in any way to reduce any amounts payable to the Executive hereunder. Further, the amount of any payment or benefit provided hereunder on or after the Operative Date shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as the result of employment by another employer, by retirement benefits, by offset against any amount claimed to be owed by the Executive to the Company, or otherwise.

SECTION 9. Full Settlement and Settlement of Disputes. (a) Subject to full compliance by the Company with all its obligations under this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute the settlement of such claims as the Executive might otherwise be entitled to assert against the Company by reason of the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason on or after the Operative Date. The Company's obligation to make the payments provided for in this Agreement and otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not be affected by any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other claim, right or action which the Company may have against the Executive or others. The Company agrees to pay as incurred, to the full extent permitted by law, all legal fees and expenses which the Executive may reasonably incur as a result of any contest (regardless of the outcome thereof) by the Company, the Executive or others of the validity or enforceability of, or liability under, any provision of this Agreement or any guarantee of performance thereof.

(b) All claims by the Executive for benefits under this Agreement shall be directed to and determined by the Board and shall be in writing. Any denial by the Board of a claim for benefits under this Agreement shall be delivered to the Executive in writing and shall set forth the specific reasons for the denial and the specific provisions of this Agreement relied upon. The Board shall afford a reasonable opportunity to the Executive for a review of the decision denying a claim and shall further allow the Executive to appeal to the Board a decision of the Board within 60 calendar days after notification by the Board that the Executive's claim has been denied. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrator's award in any court having jurisdiction; provided, however, that the Executive shall be entitled to seek specific performance of the Executive's right to be paid his Annual Base Salary and medical benefits until the Date of Termination during the pendency of any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement. All costs of litigation or arbitration shall be borne by the Company and shall be paid as incurred.

Any dispute or controversy arising from the circumstances under which the Executive terminates employment shall be settled by litigation or arbitration as the aggrieved party shall select.

SECTION 10. Partial Reduction in Payments. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive in connection with a Change in Control or the termination of the Executive's employment (whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, being hereinafter called "Total Payments") would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax (the "Excise Tax") imposed under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), then the payments or benefits to be made under Section 6 hereof (the "Severance Payments") shall be reduced (in the manner determined by the Executive or, if no such determination shall be made by the time such payments or benefits are required to be paid or given, by the Company) to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax (after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement) if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income tax and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such reduced Total Payments), is greater than (ii) the excess of (A) the net amount of such Total Payments, without reduction (but after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such Total Payments), over (B) the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such Total Payments.

SECTION 11. Successors; Binding Agreement. (a) The Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company, by agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Executive, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession had taken place. Failure of the Company to obtain such assumption and agreement prior to the effectiveness of any such succession will be a breach of this Agreement and entitle the Executive to compensation from the

Company in the same amount and on the same terms as the Executive would be entitled to hereunder had the Company terminated the Executive for reason other than Cause or Incapacity on the succession date. As used in this Agreement, "the Company" means the Company as defined in the preamble to this Agreement and any successor to its business or assets which executes and delivers the agreement provided for in this Section 11 or which otherwise becomes bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement by operation of law or otherwise.

(b) This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Executive's personal or legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees and legatees.

SECTION 12. Nonassignability. This Agreement is personal in nature and neither of the parties hereto shall, without the consent of the other, assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, except as provided in Section 11. Without limiting the foregoing, the Executive's right to receive payments hereunder shall not be assignable or transferable, whether by pledge, creation of a security interest or otherwise, other than a transfer by his or her will or by the laws of descent or distribution, and, in the event of any attempted assignment or transfer by the Executive contrary to this Section 12, the Company shall have no liability to pay any amount so attempted to be assigned or transferred.

SECTION 13. Notices. For the purpose of this Agreement, notices and all other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered or mailed by United States registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

- If to the Executive -- at the address included on the signature page.

If to the Company:

Corporate Property Investors
Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza
305 E. 47th Street
New York, NY 10017

Attention: Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

or to such other address as either party may have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith, except that notices of change of address shall be effective only upon receipt.

SECTION 14. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York without reference to principles of conflict of laws.

SECTION 15. Miscellaneous. (a) This Agreement contains the entire understanding with the Executive with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings, written or oral, relating to such subject matter. No provisions of this Agreement may be modified, waived or discharged unless such modification, waiver or discharge is agreed to in writing signed by the Executive and the Company.

(b) The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(c) Except as provided herein, this Agreement shall not be construed to affect in any way any rights or obligations in relation to the Executive's employment by the Company prior to the Operative Date or subsequent to the end of the Term.

(d) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same Agreement.

(e) The Company may withhold from any benefits payable under this Agreement all Federal, state, city or other taxes as shall be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling.

(f) The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered as of the day and year first above set forth.

Amendment to Executive Agreement
with Hans C. Mautner

WHEREAS, Hans C. Mautner and Corporate Property Investors (the "Company") entered into an agreement dated as of August 7, 1997 (the "Agreement"), setting forth the mutual agreement of the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of his employment by the Company following a change in control and his entitlement to various benefits from the Company in the event of his termination of employment on or following a change in control (see Exhibit 1 hereto);

WHEREAS, it is desired to amend such Agreement as provided herein to reflect the provisions contained in a Disclosure Letter referred to in the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated February 18, 1998, by and among Simon DeBartolo Group, the Company and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. (the "Merger Agreement");

NOW THEREFORE, the Agreement be, and it hereby is, amended in the following respects:

1. Each and every reference to the Operative Date and/or to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date shall be deemed to be a reference to February 18, 1998.

2. The fourth sentence of Section 9(b) is amended to read as follows:

"Except as provided in Section 10, any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect."

3. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

"Certain Additional Payments by the Company. (a) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that it shall be determined that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive (whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise) (a "Payment") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or that any interest or penalties are incurred by the Executive with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then the Executive shall be entitled to receive an additional payment (the "Net Gross-Up Payment") in an amount equal to the excess of the Gross-Up Payment (as defined below) he would be entitled to receive based on all Payments over the Excise Tax he would have incurred if his only parachute payments (as defined in Code Section 280G(b)(2)) were the payments contemplated by clause (ii) of Section 6.9.3 of the Merger Agreement. The "Gross-Up Payment" is defined as an amount such that after payment by the Executive of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes and Excise Tax) imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, the Executive retains an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the Payments.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9(b), all determinations required to be made under this Section 10, including whether and when the Net Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Net Gross-Up Payment including any determination of the parachute payments under Code Section 280G(b)(2), and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determinations shall be made by a nationally recognized certified public accounting firm that is mutually selected by the Executive and the Company (the "Accounting Firm") which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and the Executive within 15 business days of the receipt of notice from the Executive that there has been a Payment, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company. All fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be borne solely by the Company. Any Net Gross-Up Payment shall be paid by the Company to the Executive within five days of the receipt of the Accounting Film's determination. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon the Company and the Executive. As a result of uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of the initial determination by the Accounting Firm hereunder, it is possible that the Net Gross-Up Payment made will have been an amount less than the Company should have paid pursuant to this Section 10 (the "Underpayment"). In the event that the Executive thereafter is required to make a payment of any Excise Tax, the Accounting Firm shall determine the amount of the Underpayment and any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive."

It is expressly understood that all other terms of the Agreement remain in effect and are hereby ratified and confirmed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Amendment to the Agreement to be executed as of the 18th day of February, 1998.

EXHIBIT 10.47

EXECUTIVE AGREEMENT dated as of August 7, 1997, between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust ("the Company"), and MARK S. TICOTIN (the "Executive").

The Company and the Executive agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) "Accrued Obligations" means the sum of the amounts described in Section 6(a)(i)(A) and Section 6(a)(ii)(A).

(b) "Annual Base Salary" means the Executive's salary at a rate not less than the Executive's annualized salary in effect immediately prior to the Operative Date or the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date (whichever date results in a larger salary).

(c) "Annual Bonus" means the Executive's annual bonus in an amount that is not less than the highest annual bonus paid to the Executive with respect to the three years preceding the Operative Date.

(d) "Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Company.

(e) "Cause" means (i) the wilful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially the Executive's duties owed to the Company after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to the Executive which specifically identifies the nature of such non-performance, (ii) the wilful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct significantly and demonstrably injurious to the company, or (iii) conduct by the Executive in the course of his or her employment which is a felony or fraud that results in material harm to the Company or a third party. No act or omission on the part of the Executive shall be considered "wilful" unless it is done or omitted in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall not be deemed to have been terminated for Cause without (l) reasonable notice to the Executive setting forth the reasons for the Company's intention to terminate for Cause, (2) an opportunity for the Executive, together with his counsel, to be heard before the Board, and (3) delivery to the Executive of a Notice of Termination from the Board finding that in the good faith opinion of three-quarters (3/4) of the Board the Executive was guilty of conduct set forth in clause (i) or (ii) above and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

(f) A "Change in Control" shall be deemed to occur upon the consummation of any transaction involving the Company, such as a merger, consolidation or similar transaction involving the outstanding voting securities of the Company, the sale of voting securities of the Company (other than through an underwritten public offering), the sale of assets of the Company or the acquisition of assets by the Company, pursuant to which the shareholders of the Company immediately prior to such transaction would, after giving effect to such transaction, cease to beneficially own 70% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the Company or its successor. For purposes of the foregoing definition, the dissolution of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust, of which State Street Bank and Trust Company is the Trustee, and the resulting distribution of any of the Company's voting securities to the entities that are the beneficial owners thereof on the date hereof shall not be deemed a transaction involving a Change in Control.

(g) "Common Shares" means Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest of the Company.

(h) "Date of Termination" means: (i) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, the date of receipt of the Notice of Termination or any later date specified therein, as the case may be, (ii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date on which the Company notifies the Executive of such termination, and (iii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of death or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date of death of the Executive or the Incapacity Effective Date, as the case may be.

(i) "Dependents", as of any date, means the members of the Executive's family who under the eligibility rules (as in effect on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date) of the plans or programs of the Company (or any successor) which provide medical benefits, would, by virtue of such status as family members, be eligible for benefits under such plans or programs on such date.

(j) "Good Reason" means:

(i) without the Executive's express written consent and excluding for this purpose an isolated, insubstantial and inadvertent action not taken in bad faith and which is remedied by the Company promptly after receipt of notice thereof given by the Executive, (A) the assignment to the Executive of any duties inconsistent in any respect with the Executive's position, authority, duties or responsibilities as contemplated by Section 4(a), (B) any other action by the Company which results in a significant diminution in such position, authority, duties or responsibilities, or (C) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 4(b);

(ii) without the Executive's express written consent, the Company's requiring the Executive's work location to be other than in Manhattan located in New York City;

(iii) any failure by the Company to comply with and satisfy Section 11(a); or

(iv) any breach by the Company of any other material provision of this Agreement.

(k) "Incapacity" means any physical or mental illness or disability of the Executive which continues for a period of six consecutive months or more and which at any time after such six-month period the Board shall reasonably determine renders the Executive incapable of performing his or her duties during the remainder of the Term.

(l) "Incapacity Effective Date" means the date of determination by the Board that the Incapacity of the Executive has occurred during the term of this Agreement; provided, however, that if the Company's policy regarding disability leaves of absence provides that the Executive's employment would cease and terminate on a later date, then the Incapacity Effective Date shall be such later date.

(m) "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) to the extent applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, (iii) in the case of termination by the Company for Cause or for Incapacity, confirms that such termination is pursuant to a resolution of the Board, and (iv) if the Date of Termination is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than 30 calendar days after the giving) of such notice.

(n) "Operative Date" means the date on which a Change in Control shall have occurred.

(o) "Other Benefits" means any other amounts or benefits required to be paid or provided or which the Executive is eligible to receive under any plan, program, policy or practice or contract or agreement of the Company, including earned but unpaid stock and similar compensation, that is in effect on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(p) "SEPP" means the Corporate Property Investors Simplified Employee Pension Plan as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date six months prior to the Operative Date.

(q) "SERP" means the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(r) "Term" means the term of this Agreement which shall begin as of the date first written above, and shall continue to and remain in effect until the fourth anniversary of such date or, if later, two years following an Operative Date occurring prior to the fourth anniversary of the date first written above and shall include any extensions pursuant to Section 2.

SECTION 2. Extension of This Agreement. If no Operative Date shall have occurred on or before the 60th calendar day preceding the date on which the Term is then scheduled to expire, then the Term shall automatically be extended for one year unless either party shall have given the other party written notice of its intention not to extend the Term.

SECTION 3. Terms of Employment Prior to Operative Date. Prior to the Operative Date, the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment, including the Executive's rights upon termination of the Executive's employment, shall be the same as they would have been had this Agreement not been entered into by the Executive and the Company.

SECTION 4. Terms of Employment on and After Operative Date. (a) Position and Duties. (i) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (A) the Executive's position (including status, offices, titles, authority, duties and responsibilities) shall be at least commensurate in all material respects with the most significant of those held, exercised and assigned immediately prior to the Operative Date and (B) the Executive's work location shall be based in Manhattan in New York City and the Company shall not require the Executive to travel on Company business to a substantially greater extent than required on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, except for travel and temporary assignments which are reasonably required for the full discharge of the Executive's responsibilities and which are consistent with the Executive's being so based.

(ii) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, but excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which the Executive is entitled, the Executive agrees to devote reasonable attention and time during normal business hours to the business and affairs of the Company and, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive's reasonable best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities.

(b) Compensation. (i) Salary and Bonus. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will receive compensation at an annual rate equal to the sum of (A) his or her Annual Base Salary plus (B) his or her Annual Bonus.

(ii) Stock Option, Savings and Supplemental Retirement Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to (A) continue to participate in all stock option, savings and supplemental retirement plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company, including, without limitation, the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors, Corporate Property Investors Employee 401(k) Savings Plan, the SEPP, the SERP, and the Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of Corporate Property Investors, or

(B) participate in stock option, savings and retirement plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive.

(iii) Welfare Benefit Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive and/or persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents, as the case may be, shall be eligible to (A) participate in and shall receive (or, in the case of life insurance, shall be entitled to have the Executive's beneficiary receive) all benefits under welfare benefit plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, including, without limitation, medical, disability insurance (group and individual), disability leaves of absence, group life, split dollar life, accidental death and travel accident insurance plans and programs, or (B) participate in welfare benefit plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents.

(iv) Business Expenses. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall, in accordance with policies in effect with respect to the payment of such expenses immediately prior to the Operative Date, pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable out-of-pocket travel and other expenses (other than ordinary commuting expenses) incurred by the Executive in performing services hereunder. All such expenses shall be accounted for in such reasonable detail as the Company may require.

(v) Vacations. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to periods of vacation not less than those to which the Executive was entitled on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(vi) Other Benefits. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to all Other Benefits not specifically provided for in subsections (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of this Section 4(b).

SECTION 5. Termination of Employment. (a) Death or Incapacity. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive's employment shall also terminate automatically on his or her Incapacity Effective Date during the Term of this Agreement.

(b) Cause. Prior to the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment only for Cause, pursuant to the Board passing a resolution that such Cause exists.

(c) Good Reason. Prior to the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for Good Reason.

(d) Notice of Termination. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, any termination by the Company for Cause or Incapacity, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by Notice of Termination to the other party hereto given in accordance with Section 13. The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason, Incapacity or Cause shall not serve to waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

SECTION 6. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination on or After Operative Date. (a) Termination for Good Reason or for Reasons Other Than for Cause, Death or Incapacity. If, on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (x) the Company shall terminate the Executive's employment other than for Cause, death or Incapacity or (y) the Executive shall terminate his or her employment for Good Reason, then:

(i) the Company shall pay to the Executive in a lump sum in cash within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination the aggregate of the following amounts:

(A) the sum of (1) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination to the extent not theretofore paid, (2) the product of (x) an amount equal to his or her then Annual Bonus times (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the current fiscal year through the Date of Termination, and the denominator of which is 365 plus (3) any accrued vacation pay to the extent not theretofore paid; and

8

(B) the amount equal to the product of (1) three times (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary and (y) his or her then Annual Bonus; and

(ii) the Company will contribute within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination an amount to the SERP equal to the sum of:

(A) the product of (1) 11% and (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination plus (y) a portion of his Annual Bonus determined in accordance with Section 6(a)(i)(A)(2); and

(B) the product of (1) three times (2) 11% of the sum of the Annual Base Salary and the Annual Bonus;

(iii) for three years after the Executive's Date of Termination, or such longer period as may be provided by the terms of the appropriate plan, program, practice. or policy, the Company shall continue benefits to the Executive and/or the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents at least equal to those which would have been provided to them in accordance with the plans, programs, practices and policies described in Section 4(b)(iii) if the Executive's employment had not been terminated or, if more favorable to the Executive and the Dependents, as in effect generally at any time thereafter;

(iv) the Executive and the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents shall continue to be eligible to participate in and shall receive all benefits under any plan or program of the Company providing medical benefits as are in effect on the date six months prior to the Operative Date or under any plan or program of a successor to the Company which provides medical benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents than such plans or programs of the Company until the date the Executive and the Dependents are all eligible for Medicare benefits (by reason of attaining the minimum age for such benefits without regard to whether an application has been made therefor); provided, however, that (A) in no event will a Dependent be eligible for benefits as described in this clause (iv) after the date he ceases to be a Dependent and (B) at all times after the expiration of the three-year period described in clause (iii) above, the Executive shall pay for such coverage at the same rate as is charged to other similarly situated individuals electing continuation coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(v) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Shares under the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors or under any other option plan shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to Executive's termination of employment;

(vi) the Company will continue to pay any premiums due on split-dollar life insurance policies in effect on the life of the Executive for three years following the Date of Termination after which time the Company shall distribute such policy to the Executive without requiring the Executive to repay any premiums paid by the Company;

(vii) notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary under any outstanding recourse note issued under the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan or any other agreement providing for the acceleration or prepayment of any such note payments under such note shall not be accelerated as a result of Executive's termination of employment but shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms of such note determined as if Executive's employment had not terminated;

(viii) the Company will transfer any car made available to the Executive for his use by the Company to the Executive for no consideration provided that the Executive pays any and all transfer taxes and agrees to be solely responsible for insurance and the cost of insurance after the date of transfer; and

(ix) the Executive shall be entitled to keep any computer and/or software provided to the Executive by the Company for home or travel use for no consideration; and

(x) to the extent not theretofore paid or provided, the Company shall timely pay or provide to the Executive all Other Benefits to the extent accrued on the Date of Termination and not specifically provided for in subsections (i) through (ix) of this Section 6(a).

(b) Death or Incapacity. If the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date by reason of the Executive's death or Incapacity, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive or the Executive's legal representatives under this Agreement, other than for (i) timely payment of Accrued Obligations and (ii) provision by the Company of death benefits or disability benefits for termination due to death or Incapacity, respectively, in accordance with Sections 4(b)(iii) and 6(a)(vi) as in effect at the Operative Date or, if more favorable to the Executive, at the Executive's Date of Termination.

(c) Cause; Other than for Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated on or after the Operative Date for Cause, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive other than timely payment to the Executive of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination and (y) Other Benefits, but in each case only to the extent theretofore unpaid as of the Date of Termination. If the Executive voluntarily terminates employment during the Term of this Agreement, excluding a termination for Good Reason on or after the Operative Date, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive, other than for the timely payment of Accrued Obligations and Other Benefits.

SECTION 7. Non-exclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any plan, program, policy or practice provided by the Company and for which the Executive may qualify, nor, subject to Section 15(c), shall anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any contract or agreement with the Company. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

SECTION 8. No Mitigation. The Company agrees that, if the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement for any reason, the Executive is not required to seek other employment or to attempt in any way to reduce any amounts payable to the Executive hereunder. Further, the amount of any payment or benefit provided hereunder on or after the Operative Date shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as the result of employment by another employer, by retirement benefits, by offset against any amount claimed to be owed by the Executive to the Company, or otherwise.

SECTION 9. Full Settlement and Settlement of Disputes. (a) Subject to full compliance by the Company with all its obligations under this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute the settlement of such claims as the Executive might otherwise be entitled to assert against the Company by reason of the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason on or after the Operative Date. The Company's obligation to make the payments provided for in this Agreement and otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not be affected by any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other claim, right or action which the Company may have against the Executive or others. The Company agrees to pay as incurred, to the full extent permitted by law, all legal fees and expenses which the Executive may reasonably incur as a result of any contest (regardless of the outcome thereof) by the Company, the Executive or others of the validity or enforceability of, or liability under, any provision of this Agreement or any guarantee of performance thereof.

(b) All claims by the Executive for benefits under this Agreement shall be directed to and determined by the Board and shall be in writing. Any denial by the Board of a claim for benefits under this Agreement shall be delivered to the Executive in writing and shall set forth the specific reasons for the denial and the specific provisions of this Agreement relied upon. The Board shall afford a reasonable opportunity to the Executive for a review of the decision denying a claim and shall further allow the Executive to appeal to the Board a decision of the Board within 60 calendar days after notification by the Board that the Executive's claim has been denied. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrator's award in any court having jurisdiction; provided, however, that the Executive shall be entitled to seek specific performance of the Executive's right to be paid his Annual Base Salary and medical benefits until the Date of Termination during the pendency of any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement. All costs of litigation or arbitration shall be borne by the Company and shall be paid as incurred.

Any dispute or controversy arising from the circumstances under which the Executive terminates employment shall be settled by litigation or arbitration as the aggrieved party shall select.

SECTION 10. Partial Reduction in Payments. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive in connection with a Change in Control or the termination of the Executive's employment (whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, being hereinafter called "Total Payments") would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax (the "Excise Tax") imposed under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), then the payments or benefits to be made under Section 6 hereof (the "Severance Payments") shall be reduced (in the manner determined by the Executive or, if no such determination shall be made by the time such payments or benefits are required to be paid or given, by the Company) to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax (after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement) if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income tax and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such reduced Total Payments), is greater than (ii) the excess of (A) the net amount of such Total Payments, without reduction (but after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such Total Payments), over (B) the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such Total Payments.

SECTION 11. Successors; Binding Agreement. (a) The Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company, by agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Executive, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession bad taken place. Failure of the Company to obtain such assumption and agreement prior to the effectiveness of any such succession will be a breach of this Agreement and entitle the Executive to compensation from the

Company in the same amount and on the same terms as the Executive would be entitled to hereunder had the Company terminated the Executive for reason other than Cause or Incapacity on the succession date. As used in this Agreement, "the Company" means the Company as defined in the preamble to this Agreement and any successor to its business or assets which executes and delivers the agreement provided for in this Section 11 or which otherwise becomes bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement by operation of law or otherwise.

(b) This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Executive's personal or legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees and legatees.

SECTION 12. Nonassignability. This Agreement is personal in nature and neither of the parties hereto shall, without the consent of the other, assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, except as provided in Section 11. Without limiting the foregoing, the Executive's right to receive payments hereunder shall not be assignable or transferable, whether by pledge, creation of a security interest or otherwise, other than a transfer by his or her will or by the laws of descent or distribution, and, in the event of any attempted assignment or transfer by the Executive contrary to this Section 12, the Company shall have no liability to pay any amount so attempted to be assigned or transferred.

SECTION 13. Notices. For the purpose of this Agreement, notices and all other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered or mailed by United States registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

- If to the Executive -- at the address included on the signature page.

If to the Company:

Corporate Property Investors

New York, NY 10017

Attention: Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

or to such other address as either party may have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith, except that notices of change of address shall be effective only upon receipt.

SECTION 14. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York without reference to principles of conflict of laws.

SECTION 15. Miscellaneous. (a) This Agreement contains the entire understanding with the Executive with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings, written or oral, relating to such subject matter. No provisions of this Agreement may be modified, waived or discharged unless such modification, waiver or discharge is agreed to in writing signed by the Executive and the Company.

(b) The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(c) Except as provided herein, this Agreement shall not be construed to affect in any way any rights or obligations in relation to the Executive's employment by the Company prior to the Operative Date or subsequent to the end of the Term.

(d) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same Agreement.

(e) The Company may withhold from any benefits payable under this Agreement all Federal, state, city or other taxes as shall be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling.

(f) The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered as of the day and year first above set forth.

Amendment to Executive Agreement
with Mark S. Ticotin

WHEREAS, Mark S. Ticotin and Corporate Property Investors (the "Company") entered into an agreement dated as of August 7, 1997 (the "Agreement"), setting forth the mutual agreement of the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of his employment by the Company following a change in control and his entitlement to various benefits from the Company in the event of his termination of employment on or following a change in control (see Exhibit 1 hereto);

WHEREAS, it is desired to amend such Agreement as provided herein to reflect the provisions contained in a Disclosure Letter referred to in the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated February 18, 1998, by and among Simon DeBartolo Group, the Company and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. (the "Merger Agreement");

NOW THEREFORE, the Agreement be, and it hereby is, amended in the following respects:

1. Each and every reference to the Operative Date and/or to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date shall be deemed to be a reference to February 18, 1998.

2. The fourth sentence of Section 9(b) is amended to read as follows:

"Except as provided in Section 10, any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect."

3. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

"Certain Additional Payments by the Company. (a) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that it shall be determined that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive (whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise) (a "Payment") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or that any interest or penalties are incurred by the Executive with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then the Executive shall be entitled to receive an additional payment (the "Net Gross-Up Payment") in an amount equal to the excess of the Gross-Up Payment (as defined below) he would be entitled to receive based on all Payments over the Excise Tax he would have incurred if his only parachute payments (as defined in Code Section 280G(b)(2)) were the payments contemplated by clause (ii) of Section 6.9.3 of the Merger Agreement. The "Gross-Up Payment" is defined as an amount such that after payment by the Executive of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes and Excise Tax) imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, the Executive retains an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the Payments.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9(b), all determinations required to be made under this Section 10, including whether and when the Net Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Net Gross-Up Payment including any determination of the parachute payments under Code Section 280G(b)(2), and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determinations shall be made by a nationally recognized certified public accounting firm that is mutually selected by the Executive and the Company (the "Accounting Firm") which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and the Executive within 15 business days of the receipt of notice from the Executive that there has been a Payment, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company. All fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be borne solely by the Company. Any Net Gross-Up Payment shall be paid by the Company to the Executive within five days of the receipt of the Accounting Firm's determination. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon the Company and the Executive. As a result of uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of the initial determination by the Accounting Firm hereunder, it is possible that the Net Gross-Up Payment made will have been an amount less than the Company should have paid pursuant to this Section l0 (the "Underpayment"). In the event that the Executive thereafter is required to make a payment of any Excise Tax, the Accounting Firm shall determine the amount of the Underpayment and any such Underpayment shall be

It is expressly understood that all other terms of the Agreement remain in effect and are hereby ratified and confirmed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Amendment to the Agreement to be executed as of the 18th day of February, 1998.

EXHIBIT 10.48

EXECUTIVE AGREEMENT dated as of August 7, 1997, between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust ("the Company"), and MICHAEL L. JOHNSON (the "Executive").

The Company and the Executive agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) "Accrued Obligations" means the sum of the amounts described in Section 6(a)(i)(A) and Section 6(a)(ii)(A).

(b) "Annual Base Salary" means the Executive's salary at a rate not less than the Executive's annualized salary in effect immediately prior to the Operative Date or the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date (whichever date results in a larger salary).

(c) "Annual Bonus" means the Executive's annual bonus in an amount that is not less than the highest annual bonus paid to the Executive with respect to the three years preceding the Operative Date.

(d) "Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Company.

(e) "Cause" means (i) the wilful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially the Executive's duties owed to the Company after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to the Executive which specifically identifies the nature of such non-performance, (ii) the wilful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct significantly and demonstrably injurious to the Company, or (iii) conduct by the Executive in the course of his or her employment which is a felony or fraud that results in material harm to the Company or a third party. No act or omission on the part of the Executive shall be considered "wilful" unless it is done or omitted in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall not be deemed to have been terminated for Cause without (1) reasonable notice to the Executive setting forth the reasons for the Company's intention to terminate for Cause, (2) an opportunity for the Executive, together with his counsel, to be heard before the Board, and (3) delivery to the Executive of a Notice of Termination from the Board finding that in the good faith opinion of three-quarters (3/4) of the Board the Executive was guilty of conduct set forth in clause (i) or (ii) above and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

(f) A "Change in Control" shall be deemed to occur upon the consummation of any transaction involving the Company, such as a merger, consolidation or similar transaction involving the outstanding voting securities of the Company, the sale of voting securities of the Company (other than through an underwritten public offering), the sale of assets of the Company or the acquisition of assets by the Company, pursuant to which the shareholders of the Company immediately prior to such transaction would, after giving effect to such transaction, cease to beneficially own 70% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the Company or its successor. For purposes of the foregoing definition, the dissolution of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust, of which State Street Bank and Trust Company is the Trustee, and the resulting distribution of any of the Company's voting securities to the entities that are the beneficial owners thereof on the date hereof shall not be deemed a transaction involving a Change in Control.

(g) "Common Shares" means Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest of the Company.

(h) "Date of Termination" means: (i) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, the date of receipt of the Notice of Termination or any later date specified therein, as the case may be, (ii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date on which the Company notifies the Executive of such termination, and (iii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of death or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date of death of the Executive or the Incapacity Effective Date, as the case may be.

(i) "Dependents", as of any date, means the members of the Executive's family who under the eligibility rules (as in effect on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date) of the plans or programs of the Company (or any successor) which provide medical benefits, would, by virtue of such status as family members, be eligible for benefits under such plans or programs on such date.

(j) "Good Reason" means:

(i) without the Executive's express written consent and excluding for this purpose an isolated, insubstantial and inadvertent action not taken in bad faith and which is remedied by the Company promptly after receipt of notice thereof given by the Executive, (A) the assignment to the Executive of any duties inconsistent in any respect with the Executive's position, authority, duties or responsibilities as contemplated by Section 4(a), (B) any other action by the Company which results in a significant diminution in such position, authority, duties or responsibilities, or (C) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 4(b);

(ii) without the Executive's express written consent, the Company's requiring the Executive's work location to be other than in Manhattan located in New York City;

(iii) any failure by the Company to comply with and satisfy Section 11(a); or

(iv) any breach by the Company of any other material provision of this Agreement.

(k) "Incapacity" means any physical or mental illness or disability of the Executive which continues for a period of six consecutive months or more and which at any time after such six-month period the Board shall reasonably determine renders the Executive incapable of performing his or her duties during the remainder of the Term.

(l) "Incapacity Effective Date" means the date of determination by the Board that the Incapacity of the Executive has occurred during the term of this Agreement; provided, however, that if the Company's policy regarding disability leaves of absence provides that the Executive's employment would cease and terminate on a later date, then the Incapacity Effective Date shall be such later date.

(m) "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) to the extent applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, (iii) in the case of termination by the Company for Cause or for Incapacity, confirms that such termination is pursuant to a resolution of the Board, and (iv) if the Date of Termination is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than 30 calendar days after the giving) of such notice.

(n) "Operative Date" means the date on which a Change in Control shall have occurred.

(o) "Other Benefits" means any other amounts or benefits required to be paid or provided or which the Executive is eligible to receive under any plan, program, policy or practice or contract or agreement of the Company, including earned but unpaid stock and similar compensation, that is in effect on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(p) "SEPP" means the Corporate Property Investors Simplified Employee Pension Plan as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date six months prior to the Operative Date.

(q) "SERP" means the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(r) "Term" means the term of this Agreement which shall begin as of the date first written above, and shall continue to and remain in effect until the fourth anniversary of such date or, if later, two years following an Operative Date occurring prior to the fourth anniversary of the date first written above and shall include any extensions pursuant to Section 2.

SECTION 2. Extension of This Agreement. If no Operative Date shall have occurred on or before the 60th calendar day preceding the date on which the Term is then scheduled to expire, then the Term shall automatically be extended for one year unless either party shall have given the other party written notice of its intention not to extend the Term.

SECTION 3. Terms of Employment Prior to Operative Date. Prior to the Operative Date, the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment, including the Executive's rights upon termination of the Executive's employment, shall be the same as they would have been had this Agreement not been entered into by the Executive and the Company.

SECTION 4. Terms of Employment on and After Operative Date. (a) Position and Duties. (i) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (A) the Executive's position (including status, offices, , authority, duties and responsibilities) shall be at least commensurate in all material respects with the most significant of those held, exercised and assigned immediately prior to the Operative Date and (B) the Executive's work location shall be based in Manhattan in New York City and the Company shall not require the Executive to travel on Company business to a substantially greater extent than required on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, except for travel and temporary assignments which are reasonably required for the full discharge of the Executive's responsibilities and which are consistent with the Executive's being so based.

(ii) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, but excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which the Executive is entitled, the Executive agrees to devote reasonable attention and time during normal business hours to the business and affairs of the Company and, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive1s reasonable best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities.

(b) Compensation. (i) Salary and Bonus. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will receive compensation at an annual-rate equal to the sum of (A) his or her Annual Base Salary plus (B) his or her Annual Bonus.

(ii) Stock Option, Savings and Supplemental Retirement Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to (A) continue to participate in all stock option, savings and supplemental retirement plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company, including, without limitation, the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors, Corporate Property Investors Employee 40l(k) Savings Plan, the SEPP, the SERP, and the Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of Corporate Property Investors, or

(B) participate in stock option, savings and retirement plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive.

(iii) Welfare Benefit Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive and/or persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents, as the case may be, shall be eligible to (A) participate in and shall receive (or, in the case of life insurance, shall be entitled to have the Executive's beneficiary receive) all benefits under welfare benefit plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, including, without limitation, medical, disability insurance (group and individual), disability leaves of absence, group life, split dollar life, accidental death and travel accident insurance plans and programs, or (B) participate in welfare benefit plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents.

(iv) Business Expenses. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall, in accordance with policies in effect with respect to the payment of such expenses immediately prior to the Operative Date, pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable out-of-pocket travel and other expenses (other than ordinary commuting expenses) incurred by the Executive in performing services hereunder. All such expenses shall be accounted for in such reasonable detail as the Company may require.

(v) Vacations. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to periods of vacation not less than those to which the Executive was entitled on the date that is six months-prior to the Operative Date.

(vi) Other Benefits. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to all Other Benefits not specifically provided for in subsections (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of this Section 4(b).

SECTION 5. Termination of Employment. (a) Death or Incapacity. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive's employment shall also terminate automatically on his or her Incapacity Effective Date during the Term of this Agreement.

(b) Cause. Prior to the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment only for Cause, pursuant to the Board passing a resolution that such Cause exists.

(c) Good Reason. Prior to the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for Good Reason.

(d) Notice of Termination. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, any termination by the Company for Cause or Incapacity, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by Notice of Termination to the other party hereto given in accordance with Section 13. The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason, Incapacity or Cause shall not serve to waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

SECTION 6. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination on or After Operative Date. (a) Termination for Good Reason or for Reasons Other Than for Cause, Death or Incapacity. If, on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (x) the Company shall terminate the Executive's employment other than for Cause, death or Incapacity or (y) the Executive shall terminate his or her employment for Good Reason, then:

(i) the Company shall pay to the Executive in a lump sum in cash within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination the aggregate of the following amounts:

(A) the sum of (1) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination to the extent not theretofore paid, (2) the product of (x) an amount equal to his or her then Annual Bonus times (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the current fiscal year through the Date of Termination, and the denominator of which is 365 plus (3) any accrued vacation pay to the extent not theretofore paid; and

8

(B) the amount equal to the product of (1) three times (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary and (y) his or her then Annual Bonus; and

(ii) the Company will contribute within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination an amount to the SERP equal to the sum of:

(A) the product of (1) 11% and (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination plus (y) a portion of his Annual Bonus determined in accordance with Section 6(a)(i)(A)(2); and

(B) the product of (1) three times (2) 11% of the sum of the Annual Base Salary and the Annual Bonus;

(iii) for three years after the Executive's Date of Termination, or such longer period as may be provided by the terms of the appropriate plan, program, practice or policy, the Company shall continue benefits to the Executive and/or the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents at least equal to those which would have been provided to them in accordance with the plans, programs, practices and policies described in Section 4(b)(iii) if the Executive's employment had not been terminated or, if more favorable to the Executive and the Dependents, as in effect generally at any time thereafter;

(iv) the Executive and the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents shall continue to be eligible to participate in and shall receive all benefits under any plan or program of the Company providing medical benefits as are in effect on the date six months prior to the Operative Date or under any plan or program of a successor to the Company which provides medical benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents than such plans or programs of the Company until the date the Executive and the Dependents are all eligible for Medicare benefits (by reason of attaining the minimum age for such benefits without regard to whether an application has been made therefor); provided, however, that (A) in no event will a Dependent be eligible for benefits as described in this clause (iv) after the date he ceases to be a Dependent and (B) at all times after the expiration of the three-year period described in clause (iii) above, the Executive shall pay for such coverage at the same rate as is charged to other similarly situated individuals electing continuation coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(v) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Shares under the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors or under any other option plan shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to Executive's termination of employment;

(vi) the Company will continue to pay any premiums due on split-dollar life insurance policies in effect on the life of the Executive for three years following the Date of Termination after which time the Company shall distribute such policy to the Executive without requiring the Executive to repay any premiums paid by the Company;

(vii) notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary under any outstanding recourse note issued under the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan or any other agreement providing for the acceleration or prepayment of any such note payments under such note shall not be accelerated as a result of Executive's termination of employment but shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms of such note determined as if Executive's employment had not terminated;

(viii) the Company will transfer any car made available to the Executive for his use by the Company to the Executive for no consideration provided that the Executive pays any and all transfer taxes and agrees to be solely responsible for insurance and the cost of insurance after the date of transfer; and

(ix) the Executive shall be entitled to keep any computer and/or software provided to the Executive by the Company for home or travel use for no consideration; and

(x) to the extent not theretofore paid or provided, the Company shall timely pay or provide to the Executive all Other Benefits to the extent accrued on the Date of Termination and not specifically provided for in subsections (i) through (ix) of this Section 6(a).

(b) Death or Incapacity. If the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date by reason of the Executive's death or Incapacity, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive or the Executive's legal representatives under this Agreement, other than for (i) timely payment of Accrued Obligations and (ii) provision by the Company of death benefits or disability benefits for termination due to death or Incapacity, respectively, in accordance with Sections 4(b)(iii) and 6(a)(vi) as in effect at the Operative Date or, if more favorable to the Executive, at the Executive's Date of Termination.

(c) Cause, Other than for Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated on or after the Operative Date for Cause, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive other than timely payment to the Executive of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination and (y) Other Benefits, but in each case only to the extent theretofore unpaid as of the Date of Termination. If the Executive voluntarily terminates employment during the Term of this Agreement, excluding a termination for Good Reason on or after the Operative Date, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive, other than for the timely payment of Accrued Obligations and Other Benefits.

SECTION 7. Non-exclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any plan, program, policy or practice provided by the Company and for which the Executive may qualify, nor, subject to Section 15(c), shall anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any contract or agreement with the Company. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

SECTION 8. No Mitigation. The Company agrees that, if the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement for any reason, the Executive is not required to seek other employment or to attempt in any way to reduce any amounts payable to the Executive hereunder. Further, the amount of any payment or benefit provided hereunder on or after the Operative Date shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as the result of employment by another employer, by retirement benefits, by offset against any amount claimed to be owed by the Executive to the Company, or otherwise.

SECTION 9. Full Settlement and Settlement of Disputes. (a) Subject to full compliance by the Company with all its obligations under this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute the settlement of such claims as the Executive might otherwise be entitled to assert against the Company by reason of the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason on or after the Operative Date. The Company's obligation to make the payments provided for in this Agreement and otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not be affected by any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other claim, right or action which the Company may have against the Executive or others. The Company agrees to pay as incurred, to the full extent permitted by law, all legal fees and expenses which the Executive may reasonably incur as a result of any contest (regardless of the outcome thereof) by the Company, the Executive or others of the validity or enforceability of, or liability under, any provision of this Agreement or any guarantee of performance thereof.

(b) All claims by the Executive for benefits under this Agreement shall be directed to and determined by the Board and shall be in writing. Any denial by the Board of a claim for benefits under this Agreement shall be delivered to the Executive in writing and shall set forth the specific reasons for the denial and the specific provisions of this Agreement relied upon. The Board shall afford a reasonable opportunity to the Executive for a review of the decision denying a claim and shall further allow the Executive to appeal to the Board a decision of the Board within 60 calendar days after notification by the Board that the Executive's claim has been denied. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrator's award in any court having jurisdiction; provided, however, that the Executive shall be entitled to seek specific performance of the Executive's right to be paid his Annual Base Salary and medical benefits until the Date of Termination during the pendency of any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement. All costs of litigation or arbitration shall be borne by the Company and shall be paid as incurred.

Any dispute or controversy arising from the circumstances under which the Executive terminates employment shall be settled by litigation or arbitration as the aggrieved party shall select.

SECTION 10. Partial Reduction in Payments. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive in connection with a Change in Control or the termination of the Executive's employment (whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, being hereinafter called "Total Payments") would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax (the "Excise Tax") imposed under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), then the payments or benefits to be made under Section 6 hereof (the "Severance Payments") shall be reduced (in the manner determined by the Executive or, if no such determination shall be made by the time such payments or benefits are required to be paid or given, by the Company) to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax (after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement) if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income tax and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such reduced Total Payments), is greater than (ii) the excess of (A) the net amount of such Total Payments, without reduction (but after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such Total Payments), over (B) the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such Total Payments.

SECTION 11. Successors; Binding Agreement. (a) The Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company, by agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Executive, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession had taken place. Failure of the Company to obtain such assumption and agreement prior to the effectiveness of any such succession will be a breach of this Agreement and entitle the Executive to compensation from the

Company in the same amount and on the same terms as the Executive would be entitled to hereunder had the Company terminated the Executive for reason other than Cause or Incapacity on the succession date. As used in this Agreement, "the Company" means the Company as defined in the preamble to this Agreement and any successor to its business or assets which executes and delivers the agreement provided for in this Section 11 or which otherwise becomes bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement by operation of law or otherwise.

(b) This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Executive's personal or legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees and legatees.

SECTION 12. Nonassignability. This Agreement is personal in nature and neither of the parties hereto shall, without the consent of the other, assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, except as provided in Section 11. Without limiting the foregoing, the Executive's right to receive payments hereunder shall not be assignable or transferable, whether by pledge, creation of a security interest or otherwise, other than a transfer by his or her will or by the laws of descent or distribution, and, in the event of any attempted assignment or transfer by the Executive contrary to this Section 12, the Company shall have no liability to pay any amount so attempted to be assigned or transferred.

SECTION 13. Notices. For the purpose of this Agreement, notices and all other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered or mailed by United States registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

- If to the Executive -- at the address included on the signature page.

If to the Company:

Corporate Property Investors

New York, NY 10017

Attention: Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

or to such other address as either party may have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith, except that notices of change of address shall be effective only upon receipt.

SECTION 14. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York without reference to principles of conflict of laws.

SECTION 15. Miscellaneous. (a) This Agreement contains the entire understanding with the Executive with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings, written or oral, relating to such subject matter. No provisions of this Agreement may be modified, waived or discharged unless such modification, waiver or discharge is agreed to in writing signed by the Executive and the Company.

(b) The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(c) Except as provided herein, this Agreement shall not be construed to affect in any way any rights or obligations in relation to the Executive's employment by the Company prior to the Operative Date or subsequent to the end of the Term.

(d) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same Agreement.

(e) The Company may withhold from any benefits payable under this Agreement all Federal, state, city or other taxes as shall be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling.

(f) The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered as of the day and year first above set forth.

Amendment to Executive Agreement
with Michael L. Johnson

WHEREAS, Michael L. Johnson and Corporate Property Investors (the "Company") entered into an agreement dated as of August 7, 1997 (the "Agreement"), setting forth the mutual agreement of the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of his employment by the Company following a change in control and his entitlement to various benefits from the Company in the event of his termination of employment on or following a change in control (see Exhibit 1 hereto);

WHEREAS, it is desired to amend such Agreement as provided herein to reflect the provisions contained in a Disclosure Letter referred to in the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated February 18, 1998, by and among Simon DeBartolo Group, the Company and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. (the "Merger Agreement");

NOW THEREFORE, the Agreement be, and it hereby is, amended in the following respects:

1. Each and every reference to the Operative Date and/or to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date shall be deemed to be a reference to February 18, 1998.

2. The fourth sentence of Section 9(b) is amended to read as follows:

"Except as provided in Section 10, any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect."

3. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

"Certain Additional Payments by the Company. (a) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that it shall be determined that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive (whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise) (a "Payment") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or that any interest or penalties are incurred by the Executive with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then the Executive shall be entitled to receive an additional payment (the "Net Gross-Up Payment") in an amount equal to the excess of the Gross-Up Payment (as defined below) he would be entitled to receive based on all Payments over the Excise Tax he would have incurred if his only parachute payments (as defined in Code Section 280G(b)(2)) were the payments contemplated by clause (ii) of Section 6.9.3 of the Merger Agreement. The "Gross-Up Payment" is defined as an amount such that after payment by the Executive of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes and Excise Tax) imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, the Executive retains an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the Payments.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9(b), all determinations required to be made under this Section 10, including whether and when the Net Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Net Gross-Up Payment including any determination of the parachute payments under Code Section 280G(b)(2), and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determinations shall be made by a nationally recognized certified public accounting firm that is mutually selected by the Executive and the Company (the "Accounting Firm") which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and the Executive within 15 business days of the receipt of notice from the Executive that there has been a Payment, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company. All fees, and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be borne solely by the Company. Any Net Gross-Up Payment shall be paid by the Company to the Executive within five days of the receipt of the Accounting Firm's determination. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon the Company and the Executive. As a result of uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of the initial determination by the Accounting Firm hereunder, it is possible that the Net Gross-Up Payment made will have been an amount less than the Company should have paid pursuant to this Section 10 (the "Underpayment"). In the event that the Executive thereafter is required to make a payment of any Excise Tax, the Accounting Firm shall determine the amount of the Underpayment and any such Underpayment shall be

It is expressly understood that all other terms of the Agreement remain in effect and are hereby ratified and confirmed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Amendment to the Agreement to be executed as of the 18th day of February, 1998.

Exhibit 10.49

EXECUTIVE AGREEMENT dated as of August 7, 1997, between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust ("the Company"), and J. MICHAEL MALONEY (the "Executive").

The Company and the Executive agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) "Accrued Obligations" means the sum of the amounts described in Section 6(a)(i)(A) and Section 6(a)(ii)(A).

(b) "Annual Base Salary" means the Executive's salary at a rate not less than the Executive's annualized salary in effect immediately prior to the Operative Date or the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date (whichever date results in a larger salary).

(c) "Annual Bonus" means the Executive's annual bonus in an amount that is not less than the highest annual bonus paid to the Executive with respect to the three years preceding the Operative Date.

(d) "Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Company.

(e) "Cause" means (i) the wilful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially the Executive's duties owed to the Company after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to the Executive which specifically identifies the nature of such non-performance, (ii) the wilful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct significantly and demonstrably injurious to the Company, or (iii) conduct by the Executive in the course of his or her employment which is a felony or fraud that results in material harm to the Company or a third party. No act or omission on the part of the Executive shall be considered "wilful" unless it is done or omitted in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall not be deemed to have been terminated for Cause without (1) reasonable notice to the Executive setting forth the reasons for the Company's intention to terminate for Cause, (2) an opportunity for the Executive, together with his counsel, to be heard before the Board, and (3) delivery to the Executive of a Notice of Termination from the Board finding that in the good faith opinion of three-quarters (3/4) of the Board the Executive was guilty of conduct set forth in clause (i) or (ii) above and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

(f) A "Change in Control" shall be deemed to occur upon the consummation of any transaction involving the Company, such as a merger, consolidation or similar transaction involving the outstanding voting securities of the Company, the sale of voting securities of the Company (other than through an underwritten public offering), the sale of assets of the Company or the acquisition of assets by the Company, pursuant to which the shareholders of the Company immediately prior to such transaction would, after giving effect to such transaction, cease to beneficially own 70% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the Company or its successor. For purposes of the foregoing definition, the dissolution of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust, of which State Street Bank and Trust Company is the Trustee, and the resulting distribution of any of the Company's voting securities to the entities that are the beneficial owners thereof on the date hereof shall not be deemed a transaction involving a Change in Control.

(g) "Common Shares" means Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest of the Company.

(h) "Date of Termination" means: (i) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, the date of receipt of the Notice of Termination or any later date specified therein, as the case may be, (ii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date on which the Company notifies the Executive of such termination, and (iii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of death or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date of death of the Executive or the Incapacity Effective Date, as the case may be.

(i) "Dependents", as of any date, means the members of the Executive's family who under the eligibility rules (as in effect on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date) of the plans or programs of the Company (or any successor) which provide medical benefits, would, by virtue of such status as family members, be eligible for benefits under such plans or programs on such date.

(j) "Good Reason" means:

(i) without the Executive's express written consent and excluding for this purpose an isolated, insubstantial and inadvertent action not taken in bad faith and which is remedied by the Company promptly after receipt of notice thereof given by the Executive, (A) the assignment to the Executive of any duties inconsistent in any respect with the Executive's position, authority, duties or responsibilities as contemplated by Section 4(a), (B) any other action by the Company which results in a significant diminution in such position, authority, duties or responsibilities, or (C) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 4(b);

(ii) without the Executive's express written consent, the Company' s requiring the Executive's work location to be other than in Manhattan located in New York City;

(iii) any failure by the Company to comply with and satisfy Section 11(a); or

(iv) any breach by the Company of any other material provision of this Agreement.

(k) "Incapacity" means any physical or mental illness or disability of the Executive which continues for a period of six consecutive months or more and which at any time after such six-month period the Board shall reasonably determine renders the Executive incapable of performing his or her duties during the remainder of the Term.

(1) "Incapacity Effective Date" means the date of determination by the Board that the Incapacity of the Executive has occurred during the term of this Agreement; provided, however, that if the Company's policy regarding disability leaves of absence provides that the Executive's employment would cease and terminate on a later date, then the Incapacity Effective Date shall be such later date.

(m) "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) to the extent applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, (iii) in the case of termination by the Company for Cause or for Incapacity, confirms that such termination is pursuant to a resolution of the Board, and (iv) if the Date of Termination is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than 30 calendar days after the giving) of such notice.

(n) "Operative Date" means the date on which a Change in Control shall have occurred.

(o) "Other Benefits" means any other amounts or benefits required to be paid or provided or which the Executive is eligible to receive under any plan, program, policy or practice or contract or agreement of the Company, including earned but unpaid stock and similar compensation, that is in effect on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(p) "SEPP" means the Corporate Property Investors Simplified Employee Pension Plan as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date six months prior to the Operative Date.

(q) "SERP" means the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(r) "Term" means the term of this Agreement which shall begin as of the date first written above, and shall continue to and remain in effect until the fourth anniversary of such date or, if later, two years following an Operative Date occurring prior to the fourth anniversary of the date first written above and shall include any extensions pursuant to Section 2.

SECTION 2. Extension of This Agreement. If no Operative Date shall have occurred on or before the 60th calendar day preceding the date on which the Term is then scheduled to expire, then the Term shall automatically be extended for one year unless either party shall have given the other party written notice of its intention not to extend the Term.

SECTION 3. Terms of Employment Prior to Operative Date. Prior to the Operative Date, the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment, including the Executive's rights upon termination of the Executive's employment, shall be the same as they would have been had this Agreement not been entered into by the Executive and the Company.

SECTION 4. Terms of Employment on and After Operative Date. (a) Position and Duties. (i) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (A) the Executive's position (including status, offices, titles, authority, duties and responsibilities) shall be at least commensurate in all material respects with the most significant of those held, exercised and assigned immediately prior to the Operative Date and (B) the Executive's work location shall be based in Manhattan in New York City and the Company shall not require the Executive to travel on Company business to a substantially greater extent than required on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, except for travel and temporary assignments which are reasonably required for the full discharge of the Executive's responsibilities and which are consistent with the Executive's being so based.

(ii) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, but excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which the Executive is entitled, the Executive agrees to devote reasonable attention and time during normal business hours to the business and affairs of the Company and, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive's reasonable best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities.

(b) Compensation. (i) Salary and Bonus. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will receive compensation at an annual rate equal to the sum of (A) his or her Annual Base Salary plus (B) his or her Annual Bonus.

(ii) Stock Option, Savings and Supplemental Retirement Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to (A) continue to participate in all stock option, savings and supplemental retirement plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company, including, without limitation, the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors, Corporate Property Investors Employee 401(k) Savings Plan, the SEPP, the SERP and the Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of Corporate Property Investors, or

(B) participate in stock option, savings and retirement plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive.

(iii) Welfare Benefit Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive and/or persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents, as the case may be, shall be eligible to (A) participate in and shall receive (or, in the case of life insurance, shall be entitled to have the Executive's beneficiary receive) all benefits under welfare benefit plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, including, without limitation, medical, disability insurance (group and individual), disability leaves of absence, group life, split dollar life, accidental death and travel accident insurance plans and programs, or (B) participate in welfare benefit plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents.

(iv) Business Expenses. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall, in accordance with policies in effect with respect to the payment of such expenses immediately prior to the Operative Date, pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable out-of-pocket travel and other expenses (other than ordinary commuting expenses) incurred by the Executive in performing services hereunder. All such expenses shall be accounted for in such reasonable detail as the Company may require.

(v) Vacations. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to periods of vacation not less than those to which the Executive was entitled on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(vi) Other Benefits. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to all Other Benefits not specifically provided for in subsections (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of this Section 4(b).

SECTION 5. Termination of Employment. (a) Death or Incapacity. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive's employment shall also terminate automatically on his or her Incapacity Effective Date during the Term of this Agreement.

(b) Cause. Prior to the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment only for Cause, pursuant to the Board passing a resolution that such Cause exists.

(c) Good Reason. Prior to the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for Good Reason.

(d) Notice of Termination. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, any termination by the Company for Cause or Incapacity, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by Notice of Termination to the other party hereto given in accordance with Section 13. The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason, Incapacity or Cause shall not serve to waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

SECTION 6. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination on or After Operative Date. (a) Termination for Good Reason or for Reasons Other Than for Cause, Death or Incapacity. If, on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (x) the Company shall terminate the Executive's employment other than for Cause, death or Incapacity or (y) the Executive shall terminate his or her employment for Good Reason, then:

(i) the Company shall pay to the Executive in a lump sum in cash within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination the aggregate of the following amounts:

(A) the sum of (1) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination to the extent not theretofore paid, (2) the product of (x) an amount equal to his or her then Annual Bonus times (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the current fiscal year through the Date of Termination, and the denominator of which is 365 plus (3) any accrued vacation pay to the extent not theretofore paid; and

8

(B) the amount equal to the product of (1) three times (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary and (y) his or her then Annual Bonus; and

(ii) the Company will contribute within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination an amount to the SERP equal to the sum of:

(A) the product of (1) 11% and (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination plus (y) a portion of his Annual Bonus determined in accordance with Section 6(a)(i)(A)(2); and

(B) the product of (1) three times (2) 11% of the sum of the Annual Base Salary and the Annual Bonus;

(iii) for three years after the Executive's Date of Termination, or such longer period as may be provided by the terms of the appropriate plan, program, practice or policy, the Company shall continue benefits to the Executive and/or the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents at least equal to those which would have been provided to them in accordance with the plans, programs, practices and policies described in Section 4(b)(iii) if the Executive's employment had not been terminated or, if more favorable to the Executive and the Dependents, as in effect generally at any time thereafter;

(iv) the Executive and the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents shall continue to be eligible to participate in and shall receive all benefits under any plan or program of the Company providing medical benefits as are in effect on the date six months prior to the Operative Date or under any plan or program of a successor to the Company which provides medical benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents than such plans or programs of the Company until the date the Executive and the Dependents are all eligible for Medicare benefits (by reason of attaining the minimum age for such benefits without regard to whether an application has been made therefor); provided however, that (A) in no event will a Dependent be eligible for benefits as described in this clause (iv) after the date he ceases to be a Dependent and (B) at all times after the expiration of the three-year period described in clause (iii) above, the Executive shall pay for such coverage at the same rate as is charged to other similarly situated individuals electing continuation coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(v) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Shares under the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors or under any other option plan shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to Executive's termination of employment;

(vi) the Company will continue to pay any premiums due on split-dollar life insurance policies in effect on the life of the Executive for three years following the Date of Termination after which time the Company shall distribute such policy to the Executive without requiring the Executive to repay any premiums paid by the Company;

(vii) notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary under any outstanding recourse note issued under the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan or any other agreement providing for the acceleration or prepayment of any such note payments under such note shall not be accelerated as a result of Executive's termination of employment but shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms of such note determined as if Executive's employment had not terminated;

(viii) the Company will transfer any car made available to the Executive for his use by the Company to the Executive for no consideration provided that the Executive pays any and all transfer taxes and agrees to be solely responsible for insurance and the cost of insurance after the date of transfer; and

(ix) the Executive shall be entitled to keep any computer and/or software provided to the Executive by the Company for home or travel use for no consideration; and

(x) to the extent not theretofore paid or provided, the Company shall timely pay or provide to the Executive all Other Benefits to the extent accrued on the Date of Termination and not specifically provided for in subsections (i) through (ix) of this Section 6(a).

(b) Death or Incapacity. If the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date by reason of the Executive's death or Incapacity, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive or the Executive's legal representatives under this Agreement, other than for (i) timely payment of Accrued Obligations and (ii) provision by the Company of death benefits or disability benefits for termination due to death or Incapacity, respectively, in accordance with Sections 4(b)(iii) and 6(a)(vi) as in effect at the Operative Date or, if more favorable to the Executive, at the Executive's Date of Termination.

(c) Cause; Other than for Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated on or after the Operative Date for Cause, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive other than timely payment to the Executive of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination and (y) Other Benefits, but in each case only to the extent theretofore unpaid as of the Date of Termination. If the Executive voluntarily terminates employment during the Term of this Agreement, excluding a termination for Good Reason on or after the Operative Date, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive, other than for the timely payment of Accrued Obligations and Other Benefits.

SECTION 7. Non-exclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any plan, program, policy or practice provided by the Company and for which the Executive may qualify, nor, subject to Section 15(c), shall anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any contract or agreement with the Company. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

SECTION 8. No Mitigation. The Company agrees that, if the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement for any reason, the Executive is not required to seek other employment or to attempt in any way to reduce any amounts payable to the Executive hereunder. Further, the amount of any payment or benefit provided hereunder on or after the Operative Date shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as the result of employment by another employer, by retirement benefits, by offset against any amount claimed to be owed by the Executive to the Company, or otherwise.

SECTION 9. Full Settlement and Settlement of Disputes. (a) Subject to full compliance by the Company with all its obligations under this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute the settlement of such claims as the Executive might otherwise be entitled to assert against the Company by reason of the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason on or after the Operative Date. The Company's obligation to make the payments provided for in this Agreement and otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not be affected by any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other claim, right or action which the Company may have against the Executive or others. The Company agrees to pay as incurred, to the full extent permitted by law, all legal fees and expenses which the Executive may reasonably incur as a result of any contest (regardless of the outcome thereof) by the Company, the Executive or others of the validity or enforceability of, or liability under, any provision of this Agreement or any guarantee of performance thereof.

(b) All claims by the Executive for benefits under this Agreement shall be directed to and determined by the Board and shall be in writing. Any denial by the Board of a claim for benefits under this Agreement shall be delivered to the Executive in writing and shall set forth the specific reasons for the denial and the specific provisions of this Agreement relied upon. The Board shall afford a reasonable opportunity to the Executive for a review of the decision denying a claim and shall further allow the Executive to appeal to the Board a decision of the Board within 60 calendar days after notification by the Board that the Executive's claim has been denied. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrator's award in any court having jurisdiction; provided, however, that the Executive shall be entitled to seek specific performance of the Executive's right to be paid his Annual Base Salary and medical benefits until the Date of Termination during the pendency of any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement. All costs of litigation or arbitration shall be borne by the Company and shall be paid as incurred.

Any dispute or controversy arising from the circumstances under which the Executive terminates employment shall be settled by litigation or arbitration as the aggrieved party shall select.

SECTION 10. Partial Reduction in Payments. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive in connection with a Change in Control or the termination of the Executive's employment (whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, being hereinafter called "Total Payments") would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax (the "Excise Tax") imposed under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), then the payments or benefits to be made under Section 6 hereof (the "Severance Payments") shall be reduced (in the manner determined by the Executive or, if no such determination shall be made by the time such payments or benefits are required to be paid or given, by the Company) to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax (after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement) if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income tax and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such reduced Total Payments), is greater than (ii) the excess of (A) the net amount of such Total Payments, without reduction (but after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such Total Payments), over (B) the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such Total Payments.

SECTION 11. Successors; Binding Agreement. (a) The Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company, by agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Executive, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession had taken place. Failure of the Company to obtain such assumption and agreement prior to the effectiveness of any such succession will be a breach of this Agreement and entitle the Executive to compensation from the

Company in the same amount and on the same terms as the Executive would be entitled to hereunder had the Company terminated the Executive for reason other than Cause or Incapacity on the succession date. As used in this Agreement, "the Company" means the Company as defined in the preamble to this Agreement and any successor to its business or assets which executes and delivers the agreement provided for in this Section 11 or which otherwise becomes bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement by operation of law or otherwise.

(b) This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Executive's personal or legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees and legatees.

SECTION 12. Nonassignability. This Agreement is personal in nature and neither of the parties hereto shall, without the consent of the other, assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, except as provided in Section 11. Without limiting the foregoing, the Executive's right to receive payments hereunder shall not be assignable or transferable, whether by pledge, creation of a security interest or otherwise, other than a transfer by his or her will or by the laws of descent or distribution, and, in the event of any attempted assignment or transfer by the Executive contrary to this Section 12, the Company shall have no liability to pay any amount so attempted to be assigned or transferred.

SECTION 13. Notices. For the purpose of this Agreement, notices and all other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered or mailed by United States registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Executive -- at the address included on the signature page.

If to the Company:

Corporate Property Investors

305 E. 47th Street
New York, NY 10017

Attention: Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

or to such other address as either party may have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith, except that notices of change of address shall be effective only upon receipt.

SECTION 14. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York without reference to principles of conflict of laws.

SECTION 15. Miscellaneous. (a) This Agreement contains the entire understanding with the Executive with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings, written or oral, relating to such subject matter. No provisions of this Agreement may be modified, waived or discharged unless such modification, waiver or discharge is agreed to in writing signed by the Executive and the Company.

(b) The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(c) Except as provided herein, this Agreement shall not be construed to affect in any way any rights or obligations in relation to the Executive's employment by the Company prior to the Operative Date or subsequent to the end of the Term.

(d) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same Agreement.

(e) The Company may withhold from any benefits payable under this Agreement all Federal, state, city or other taxes as shall be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling.

(f) The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered as of the day and year first above set forth.

Amendment to Executive Agreement with J. Michael Maloney

WHEREAS, J. Michael Maloney and Corporate Property Investors (the "Company") entered into an agreement dated as of August 7, 1997 (the "Agreement"), setting forth the mutual agreement of the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of his employment by the Company following a change in control and his entitlement to various benefits from the Company in the event of his termination of employment on or following a change in control (see Exhibit 1 hereto);

WHEREAS, it is desired to amend such Agreement as provided herein to reflect the provisions contained in a Disclosure Letter referred to in the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated February 18, 1998, by and among Simon DeBartolo Group, the Company and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. (the "Merger Agreement");

NOW THEREFORE, the Agreement be, and it hereby is, amended in the following respects:

1. Each and every reference to the Operative Date and/or to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date shall be deemed to be a reference to February 18, 1998.

2. The fourth sentence of Section 9(b) is amended to read as follows:

"Except as provided in Section 10, any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect."

3. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

"Certain Additional Payments by the Company. (a) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that it shall be determined that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive (whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise) (a "Payment") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or that any interest or penalties are incurred by the Executive with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then the Executive shall be entitled to receive an additional payment (the "Net Gross-Up Payment") in an amount equal to the excess of the Gross-Up Payment (as defined below) he would be entitled to receive based on all Payments over the Excise Tax he would have incurred if his only parachute payments (as defined in Code Section 280G(b)(2)) were the payments contemplated by clause (ii) of Section 6.9.3 of the Merger Agreement. The "Gross-Up Payment" is defined as an amount such that after payment by the Executive of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes and Excise Tax) imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, the Executive retains an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the Payments.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9(b), all determinations required to be made under this Section 10, including whether and when the Net Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Net Gross-Up Payment including any determination of the parachute payments under Code Section 280G(b)(2), and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determinations shall be made by a nationally recognized certified public accounting firm that is mutually selected by the Executive and the Company (the "Accounting Firm") which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and the Executive within 15 business days of the receipt of notice from the Executive that there has been a Payment, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company. All fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be borne solely by the Company. Any Net Gross-Up Payment shall be paid by the Company to the Executive within five days of the receipt of the Accounting Firm's determination. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon the Company and the Executive. As a result of uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of the initial determination by the Accounting Firm hereunder, it is possible that the Net Gross-Up Payment made will have been an amount less than the Company should have paid pursuant to this Section 10 (the "Underpayment"). In the event that the Executive thereafter is required to make a payment of any Excise Tax, the Accounting Firm shall determine the amount of the Underpayment and any such Underpayment shall be

It is expressly understood that all other terms of the Agreement remain in effect and are hereby ratified and confirmed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Amendment to the Agreement to be executed as of the 18th day of February, 1998.

Exhibit 10.50

EXECUTIVE AGREEMENT dated as of August 7, 1997, between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust ("the Company"), and G. MARTIN FELL (the "Executive").

The Company and the Executive agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) "Accrued Obligations" means the sum of the amounts described in Section 6(a)(i)(A) and Section 6(a)(ii)(A).

(b) "Annual Base Salary" means the Executive's salary at a rate not less than the Executive's annualized salary in effect immediately prior to the Operative Date or the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date (whichever date results in a larger salary).

(c) "Annual Bonus" means the Executive's annual bonus in an amount that is not less than the highest annual bonus paid to the Executive with respect to the three years preceding the Operative Date.

(d) "Board" means the Board of Trustees of the Company.

(e) "Cause" means (i) the wilful and continued failure of the Executive to perform substantially the Executive's duties owed to the Company after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to the Executive which specifically identifies the nature of such non-performance, (ii) the wilful engaging by the Executive in gross misconduct significantly and demonstrably injurious to the Company, or (iii) conduct by the Executive in the course of his or her employment which is a felony or fraud that results in material harm to the Company or a third party. No act or omission on the part of the Executive shall be considered "wilful" unless it is done or omitted in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall not be deemed to have been terminated for Cause without (1) reasonable notice to the Executive setting forth the reasons for the Company's intention to terminate for Cause, (2) an opportunity for the Executive, together with his counsel, to be heard before the Board, and (3) delivery to the Executive of a Notice of Termination from the Board finding that in the good faith opinion of three-quarters (3/4) of the Board the Executive was guilty of conduct set forth in clause (i) or (ii) above and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

(f) A "Change in Control" shall be deemed to occur upon the consummation of any transaction involving the Company, such as a merger, consolidation or similar transaction involving the outstanding voting securities of the Company, the sale of voting securities of the Company (other than through an underwritten public offering), the sale of assets of the Company or the acquisition of assets by the Company, pursuant to which the shareholders of the Company immediately prior to such transaction would, after giving effect to such transaction, cease to beneficially own 70% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the Company or its successor. For purposes of the foregoing definition, the dissolution of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust, of which State Street Bank and Trust Company is the Trustee, and the resulting distribution of any of the Company's voting securities to the entities that are the beneficial owners thereof on the date hereof shall not be deemed a transaction involving a Change in Control.

(g) "Common Shares" means Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest of the Company.

(h) "Date of Termination" means: (i) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, the date of receipt of the Notice of Termination or any later date specified therein, as the case may be, (ii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date on which the Company notifies the Executive of such termination, and (iii) if the Executive's employment is terminated by reason of death or Incapacity, the Date of Termination shall be the date of death of the Executive or the Incapacity Effective Date, as the case may be.

(i) "Dependents", as of any date, means the members of the Executive's family who under the eligibility rules (as in effect on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date) of the plans or programs of the Company (or any successor) which provide medical benefits, would, by virtue of such status as family members, be eligible for benefits under such plans or programs on such date.

(j) "Good Reason" means:

(i) without the Executive's express written consent and excluding for this purpose an isolated, insubstantial and inadvertent action not taken in bad faith and which is remedied by the Company promptly after receipt of notice thereof given by the Executive, (A) the assignment to the Executive of any duties inconsistent in any respect with the Executive's position, authority, duties or responsibilities as contemplated by Section 4(a), (B) any other action by the Company which results in a significant diminution in such position, authority, duties or responsibilities, or (C) any failure by the Company to comply with any of the provisions of Section 4(b);

(ii) without the Executive's express written consent, the Company's requiring the Executive's work location to be other than in Manhattan located in New York City;

(iii) any failure by the Company to comply with and satisfy Section 11(a); or

(iv) any breach by the Company of any other material provision of this Agreement.

(k) "Incapacity" means any physical or mental illness or disability of the Executive which continues for a period of six consecutive months or more and which at any time after such six-month period the Board shall reasonably determine renders the Executive incapable of performing his or her duties during the remainder of the Term.

(l) "Incapacity Effective Date" means the date of determination by the Board that the Incapacity of the Executive has occurred during the term of this Agreement; provided, however, that if the Company's policy regarding disability leaves of absence provides that the Executive's employment would cease and terminate on a later date, then the Incapacity Effective Date shall be such later date.

(m) "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) to the extent applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, (iii) in the case of termination by the Company for Cause or for Incapacity, confirms that such termination is pursuant to a resolution of the Board, and (iv) if the Date of Termination is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than 30 calendar days after the giving) of such notice.

(n) "Operative Date" means the date on which a Change in Control shall have occurred.

(o) "Other Benefits" means any other amounts or benefits required to be paid or provided or which the Executive is eligible to receive under any plan, program, policy or practice or contract or agreement of the Company, including earned but unpaid stock and similar compensation, that is in effect on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(p) "SEPP" means the Corporate Property Investors Simplified Employee Pension Plan as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date six months prior to the Operative Date.

(q) "SERP" means the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors as it now exists or may hereafter be amended prior to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(r) "Term" means the term of this Agreement which shall begin as of the date first written above, and shall continue to and remain in effect until the fourth anniversary of such date or, if later, two years following an Operative Date occurring prior to the fourth anniversary of the date first written above and shall include any extensions pursuant to Section 2.

SECTION 2. Extension of This Agreement. If no Operative Date shall have occurred on or before the 60th calendar day preceding the date on which the Term is then scheduled to expire, then the Term shall automatically be extended for one year unless either party shall have given the other party written notice of its intention not to extend the Term.

SECTION 3. Terms of Employment Prior to Operative Date. Prior to the Operative Date, the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment, including the Executive's rights upon termination of the Executive's employment, shall be the same as they would have been had this Agreement not been entered into by the Executive and the Company.

SECTION 4. Terms of Employment on and After Operative Date. (a) Position and Duties. (i) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (A) the Executive's position (including status, offices, titles, authority, duties and responsibilities) shall be at least commensurate in all material respects with the most significant of those held, exercised and assigned immediately prior to the Operative Date and (B) the Executive's work location shall be based in Manhattan in New York City and the Company shall not require the Executive to travel on Company business to a substantially greater extent than required on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, except for travel and temporary assignments which are reasonably required for the full discharge of the Executive's responsibilities and which are consistent with the Executive's being so based.

(ii) On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, but excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which the Executive is entitled, the Executive agrees to devote reasonable attention and time during normal business hours to the business and affairs of the Company and, to the extent necessary to discharge the responsibilities assigned to the Executive hereunder, to use the Executive's reasonable best efforts to perform faithfully and efficiently such responsibilities.

(b) Compensation. (i) Salary and Bonus. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will receive compensation at an annual rate equal to the sum of (A) his or her Annual Base Salary plus (B) his or her Annual Bonus.

(ii) Stock Option, Savings and Supplemental Retirement Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to (A) continue to participate in all stock option, savings and supplemental retirement plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company, including, without limitation, the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors, Corporate Property Investors Employee 401(k) Savings Plan, the SEPP, the SERP, and the Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of Corporate Property Investors, or

(B) participate in stock option, savings and retirement plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive.

(iii) Welfare Benefit Plans. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive and/or persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents, as the case may be, shall be eligible to (A) participate in and shall receive (or, in the case of life insurance, shall be entitled to have the Executive's beneficiary receive) all benefits under welfare benefit plans and programs generally applicable to full-time officers or employees of the Company on a date that is six months prior to the Operative Date, including, without limitation, medical, disability insurance (group and individual), disability leaves of absence, group life, split dollar life, accidental death and travel accident insurance plans and programs, or (B) participate in welfare benefit plans and programs of a successor to the Company which have benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents.

(iv) Business Expenses. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Company shall, in accordance with policies in effect with respect to the payment of such expenses immediately prior to the Operative Date, pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable out-of-pocket travel and other expenses (other than ordinary commuting expenses) incurred by the Executive in performing services hereunder. All such expenses shall be accounted for in such reasonable detail as the Company may require.

(v) Vacations. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to periods of vacation not less than those to which the Executive was entitled on the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date.

(vi) Other Benefits. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to all Other Benefits not specifically provided for in subsections (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) of this Section 4(b).

SECTION 5. Termination of Employment. (a) Death or Incapacity. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive's employment shall also terminate automatically on his or her Incapacity Effective Date during the Term of this Agreement.

(b) Cause. Prior to the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Company may terminate the Executive's employment only for Cause, pursuant to the Board passing a resolution that such Cause exists.

(c) Good Reason. Prior to the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for any reason. On and after the Operative Date, the Executive may terminate his or her employment for Good Reason.

(d) Notice of Termination. On and after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, any termination by the Company for Cause or Incapacity, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by Notice of Termination to the other party hereto given in accordance with Section 13. The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason, Incapacity or Cause shall not serve to waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

SECTION 6. Obligations of the Company Upon Termination on or After Operative Date. (a) Termination for Good Reason or for Reasons Other Than for Cause, Death or Incapacity. If, on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement, (x) the Company shall terminate the Executive's employment other than for Cause, death or Incapacity or (y) the Executive shall terminate his or her employment for Good Reason, then:

(i) the Company shall pay to the Executive in a lump sum in cash within 30 calendar days after the Date of-Termination the aggregate of the following amounts:

(A) the sum of (1) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination to the extent not theretofore paid, (2) the product of (x) an amount equal to his or her then Annual Bonus times (y) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the current fiscal year through the Date of Termination, and the denominator of which is 365 plus (3) any accrued vacation pay to the extent not theretofore paid; and

8

(B) the amount equal to the product of (1) three times (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary and (y) his or her then Annual Bonus; and

(ii) the Company will contribute within 30 calendar days after the Date of Termination an amount to the SERP equal to the sum of:

(A) the product of (1) 11% and (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination plus (y) a portion of his Annual Bonus determined in accordance with Section 6(a)(i)(A)(2); and

(B) the product of (1) three times (2) 11% of the sum of the Annual Base Salary and the Annual Bonus;

(iii) for three years after the Executive's Date of Termination, or such longer period as may be provided by the terms of the appropriate plan, program, practice or policy, the Company shall continue benefits to the Executive and/or the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents at least equal to those which would have been provided to them in accordance with the plans, programs, practices and policies described in Section 4(b) (iii) if the Executive's employment had not been terminated or, if more favorable to the Executive and the Dependents, as in effect generally at any time thereafter;

(iv) the Executive and the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents shall continue to be eligible to participate in and shall receive all benefits under any plan or program of the Company providing medical benefits as are in effect on the date six months prior to the Operative Date or under any plan or program of a successor to the Company which provides medical benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents than such plans or programs of the Company until the date the Executive and the Dependents are all eligible for Medicare benefits (by reason of attaining the minimum age for such benefits without regard to whether an application has been made therefor); provided, however, that (A) in no event will a Dependent be eligible for benefits as described in this clause (iv) after the date he ceases to be a Dependent and (B) at all times after the expiration of the three-year period described in clause (iii) above, the Executive shall pay for such coverage at the same rate as is charged to other similarly situated individuals electing continuation coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

(v) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Shares under the 1993 Share Option Plan of Corporate Property Investors or under any other option plan shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to Executive's termination of employment;

(vi) the Company will continue to pay any premiums due on split-dollar life insurance policies, in effect on the life of the Executive for three years following the Date of Termination after which time the Company shall distribute such policy to the Executive without requiring the Executive to repay any premiums paid by the Company;

(vii) notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary under any outstanding recourse note issued under the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan or any other agreement providing for the acceleration or prepayment of any such note payments under such note shall not be accelerated as a result of Executive's termination of employment but shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms of such note determined as if Executive's employment had not terminated;

(viii) the Company will transfer any car made available to the Executive for his use by the Company to the Executive for no consideration provided that the Executive pays any and all transfer taxes and agrees to be solely responsible for insurance and the cost of insurance after the date of transfer; and

(ix) the Executive shall be entitled to keep any computer and/or software provided to the Executive by the Company for home or travel use for no consideration; and

(x) to the extent not theretofore paid or provided, the Company shall timely pay or provide to the Executive all Other Benefits to the extent accrued on the Date of Termination and not specifically provided for in subsections (i) through (ix) of this Section 6(a).

(b) Death or Incapacity. If the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date by reason of the Executive's death or Incapacity, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive or the Executive's legal representatives under this Agreement, other than for (i) timely payment of Accrued Obligations and (ii) provision by the Company of death benefits or disability benefits for termination due to death or Incapacity, respectively, in accordance with Sections 4(b) (iii) and 6(a) (vi) as in effect at the Operative Date or, if more favorable to the Executive, at the Executive's Date of Termination.

(c) Cause; Other than for Good Reason. If the Executive's employment shall be terminated on or after the Operative Date for Cause, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive other than timely payment to the Executive of (x) the Executive's then Annual Base Salary through the Date of Termination and (y) Other Benefits, but in each case only to the extent theretofore unpaid as of the Date of Termination. If the Executive voluntarily terminates employment during the Term of this Agreement, excluding a termination for Good Reason on or after the Operative Date, this Agreement shall terminate without further obligations to the Executive, other than for the timely payment of Accrued Obligations and Other Benefits.

SECTION 7. Non-exclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any plan, program, policy or practice provided by the Company and for which the Executive may qualify, nor, subject to Section 15(c), shall anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any contract or agreement with the Company. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

SECTION 8. No Mitigation. The Company agrees that, if the Executive's employment is terminated on or after the Operative Date and during the Term of this Agreement for any reason, the Executive is not required to seek other employment or to attempt in any way to reduce any amounts payable to the Executive hereunder. Further, the amount of any payment or benefit provided hereunder on or after the Operative Date shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as the result of employment by another employer, by retirement benefits, by offset against any amount claimed to be owed by the Executive to the Company, or otherwise.

SECTION 9. Full Settlement and Settlement of Disputes. (a) Subject to full compliance by the Company with all its obligations under this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute the settlement of such claims as the Executive might otherwise be entitled to assert against the Company by reason of the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason on or after the Operative Date. The Company's obligation to make the payments provided for in this Agreement and otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not be affected by any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other claim, right or action which the Company may have against the Executive or others. The Company agrees to pay as incurred, to the full extent permitted by law, all legal fees and expenses which the Executive may reasonably incur as a result of any contest (regardless of the outcome thereof) by the Company, the Executive or others of the validity or enforceability of, or liability under, any provision of this Agreement or any guarantee of performance thereof.

(b) All claims by the Executive for benefits under this Agreement shall be directed to and determined by the Board and shall be in writing. Any denial by the Board of a claim for benefits under this Agreement shall be delivered to the Executive in writing and shall set forth the specific reasons for the denial and the specific provisions of this Agreement relied upon. The Board shall afford a reasonable opportunity to the Executive for a review of the decision denying a claim and shall further allow the Executive to appeal to the Board a decision of the Board within 60 calendar days after notification by the Board that the Executive's claim has been denied. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrator's award in any court having jurisdiction; provided, however, that the Executive shall be entitled to seek specific performance of the Executive's right to be paid his Annual Base Salary and medical benefits until the Date of Termination during the pendency of any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement. All costs of litigation or arbitration shall be borne by the Company and shall be paid as incurred.

Any dispute or controversy arising from the circumstances under which the Executive terminates employment shall be settled by litigation or arbitration as the aggrieved party shall select.

SECTION 10. Partial Reduction in Payments. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive in connection with a Change in Control or the termination of the Executive's employment (whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, being hereinafter called "Total Payments") would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax (the "Excise Tax") imposed under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), then the payments or benefits to be made under Section 6 hereof (the "Severance Payments") shall be reduced (in the manner determined by the Executive or, if no such determination shall be made by the time such payments or benefits are required to be paid or given, by the Company) to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax (after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement) if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income tax and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such reduced Total Payments), is greater than (ii) the excess of (A) the net amount of such Total Payments, without reduction (but after deduction of the net amount of federal, state and local income and employment taxes to which the Executive would be subject by virtue of his or her receipt of such Total Payments), over (B) the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such Total Payments.

SECTION 11. Successors; Binding Agreement. (a) The Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company, by agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Executive, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform if no such succession had taken place. Failure of the Company to obtain such assumption and agreement prior to the effectiveness of any such succession will be a breach of this Agreement and entitle the Executive to compensation from the

Company in the same amount and on the same terms as the Executive would be entitled to hereunder had the Company terminated the Executive for reason other than Cause or Incapacity on the succession date. As used in this Agreement, "the Company" means the Company as defined in the preamble to this Agreement and any successor to its business or assets which executes and delivers the agreement provided for in this Section 11 or which otherwise becomes bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement by operation of law or otherwise.

(b) This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Executive's personal or legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, heirs, distributees, devisees and legatees.

SECTION 12. Nonassignability. This Agreement is personal in nature and neither of the parties hereto shall, without the consent of the other, assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder, except as provided in Section 11. Without limiting the foregoing, the Executive's right to receive payments hereunder shall not be assignable or transferable, whether by pledge, creation of a security interest or otherwise, other than a transfer by his or her will or by the laws of descent or distribution, and, in the event of any attempted assignment or transfer by the Executive contrary to this Section 12, the Company shall have no liability to pay any amount so attempted to be assigned or transferred.

SECTION 13. Notices. For the purpose of this Agreement, notices and all other communications provided for herein shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered or mailed by United States registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

- If to the Executive -- at the address included on the signature page.

If to the Company:

Corporate Property Investors

New York, NY 10017

Attention: Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

or to such other address as either party may have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith, except that notices of change of address shall be effective only upon receipt.

SECTION 14. Governing Law. The validity, interpretation, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York without reference to principles of conflict of laws.

SECTION 15. Miscellaneous. (a) This Agreement contains the entire understanding with the Executive with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings, written or oral, relating to such subject matter. No provisions of this Agreement may be modified, waived or discharged unless such modification, waiver or discharge is agreed to in writing signed by the Executive and the Company.

(b) The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(c) Except as provided herein, this Agreement shall not be construed to affect in any way any rights or obligations in relation to the Executive's employment by the Company prior to the Operative Date or subsequent to the end of the Term.

(d) This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same Agreement.

(e) The Company may withhold from any benefits payable under this Agreement all Federal, state, city or other taxes as shall be required pursuant to any law or governmental regulation or ruling.

(f) The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be executed and delivered as of the day and year first above set forth.

Amendment to Executive Agreement with G. Martin Fell

WHEREAS, G. Martin Fell and Corporate Property Investors (the "Company") entered into an agreement dated as of August 7, 1997 (the "Agreement"), setting forth the mutual agreement of the parties with respect to the terms and conditions of his employment by the Company following a change in control and his entitlement to various benefits from the Company in the event of his termination of employment on or following a change in control (see Exhibit 1 hereto);

WHEREAS, it is desired to amend such Agreement as provided herein to reflect the provisions contained in a Disclosure Letter referred to in the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated February 18, 1998, by and among Simon DeBartolo Group, the Company and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. (the "Merger Agreement");

NOW THEREFORE, the Agreement be, and it hereby is, amended in the following respects:

1. Each and every reference to the Operative Date and/or to the date that is six months prior to the Operative Date shall be deemed to be a reference to February 18, 1998.

2. The fourth sentence of Section 9(b) is amended to read as follows:

"Except as provided in Section 10, any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York City, New York in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect."

3. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

"Certain Additional Payments by the Company. (a) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event that it shall be determined that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive (whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise) (a "Payment") would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or that any interest or penalties are incurred by the Executive with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then the Executive shall be entitled to receive an additional payment (the "Net Gross-Up Payment") in an amount equal to the excess of the Gross-Up Payment (as defined below) he would be entitled to receive based on all Payments over the Excise Tax he would have incurred if his only parachute payments (as defined in Code Section 280G(b)(2)) were the payments contemplated by clause (ii) of Section 6.9.3 of the Merger Agreement. The "Gross-Up Payment" is defined as an amount such that after payment by the Executive of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes and Excise Tax) imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, the Executive retains an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the Payments.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 9(b), all determinations required to be made under this Section 10, including whether and when the Net Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Net Gross-Up Payment including any determination of the parachute payments under Code Section 280G(b)(2), and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determinations shall be made by a nationally recognized certified public accounting firm that is mutually selected by the Executive and the Company (the "Accounting Firm") which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and the Executive within 15 business days of the receipt of notice from the Executive that there has been a Payment, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company. All fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be borne solely by the Company. Any Net Gross-Up Payment shall be paid by the Company to the Executive within five days of the receipt of the Accounting Firm's determination. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon the Company and the Executive. As a result of uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of the initial determination by the Accounting Firm hereunder, it is possible that the Net Gross-Up Payment made will have been an amount less than the Company should have paid pursuant to this Section 10 (the "Underpayment"). In the event that the Executive thereafter is required to make a payment of any Excise Tax, the Accounting Firm shall determine the amount of the Underpayment and any such Underpayment shall be

It is expressly understood that all other terms of the Agreement remain in effect and are hereby ratified and confirmed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Amendment to the Agreement to be executed as of the 18th day of February, 1998.

Dear Applicant:

In our opinion, the amendment to the form of the plan identified above does not in and of itself adversely affect the plan's acceptability under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code. This opinion relates only to the amendment to the form of the plan. It is not an opinion as to the acceptability of any other amendment or of the form of the plan as a whole, or as to the effect of other Federal or local statutes.

You must furnish a copy of this letter to each employer who adopts this plan: You are also required to send a copy of the approved form of the plan, any approved amendments and related documents to each Key District Director of Internal Revenue Service in whose jurisdiction there are adopting employers.

An employer who adopts the amended form of the plan after the date of the amendment should apply for a determination letter by filing an application with the Key District Director of Internal Revenue on Form 5307, Short Form Application for Determination for Employee Benefit Plan.

This letter with respect to the amendment to the form of the plan does not affect the applicability to the plan of the continued, interim and extended reliance provisions of sections 13 and 17.03 of Rev. Proc. 89-9, 1989-1 C.B. 780. The applicability of such provisions may be determined by reference to the initial opinion letter issued with respect to the plan.

If you, the sponsoring organization, have any questions concerning the IRS processing of this case, please call the above telephone number. This number is only for use of the sponsoring organization. Individual participants and/or adopting employers with questions concerning the plan should contact the sponsoring organization. The plan's adoption agreement must include the sponsoring organization's address and telephone number for inquiries by adopting employers.

If you write to the IRS regarding this plan, please provide your telephone number and the most convenient time for us to call in case we need more information. Whether you call or write, please refer to the Letter Serial Number and File Folder Number shown in the heading of this letter.

You should keep this letter as a permanent record. Please notify us if you modify or discontinue sponsorship of this plan.

Dear Applicant:

In our opinion, the amendment to the form of the plan identified above does not in and of itself adversely affect the plan's acceptability under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code. This opinion relates only to the amendment to the form of the plan. It is not an opinion as to the acceptability of any other amendment or of the form of the plan as a whole, or as to the effect of other Federal or local statutes.

You must furnish a copy of this letter to each employer who adopts this plan: You are also required to send a copy of the approved form of the plan, any approved amendments and related documents to each Key District Director of Internal Revenue Service in whose jurisdiction there are adopting employers.

An employer who adopts the amended form of the plan after the date of the amendment should apply for a determination letter by filing an application with the Key District Director of Internal Revenue on Form 5307, Short Form Application for Determination for Employee Benefit Plan.

This letter with respect to the amendment to the form of the plan does not affect the applicability to the plan of the continued, interim and extended reliance provisions of sections 13 and 17.03 of Rev. Proc. 89-9, 1989-1 C.B. 780. The applicability of such provisions may be determined by reference to the initial opinion letter issued with respect to the plan.

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

As used in this Prototype Plan and in each Adoption Agreement, each of the following terms shall have the meaning for that term set forth in this Article I:

1.1 Account: A separate Elective Deferrals Account, Employee Thrift Contributions Account, Employer Contributions Account, Matching 401(k) Contributions Account, Matching Thrift Contributions Account, Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions Account, Qualified Matching Contributions Account, Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account, Rollover Contribution Account, and Transferred Account, as the case may be.

1.2 Account Balance: The value of an Account determined as of the applicable Valuation Date.

1.3 ACP Test: The Contribution Percentage test that is set forth in Section 3.5.2 of the Plan.

1.4 Actual Deferral Percentage: The ratio (expressed as a percentage), of (A) Elective Deferrals made on behalf of an Eligible Participant for the Plan Year (including Excess Elective Deferrals of Highly Compensated Employees and, at the election of the Employer, Qualified Nonelective Contributions and/or Qualified Matching Contributions), but excluding (1) Excess Elective Deferrals of Nonhighly Compensated Employees that arise solely from Elective Deferrals made under the Plan or plans of the Employer or an Affiliate and (2) Elective Deferrals that are taken into account in the ACP Test (provided the ADP Test is satisfied with or without the exclusion of such Elective Deferrals) to (B) the Participant's CODA Compensation for the Plan Year (whether or not the Eligible Employee was a Participant for the entire Plan Year). The Actual Deferral Percentage of an Eligible Participant who would be a Participant but for the failure to make an Elective Deferral is zero.

1.5 Adjustment Factor: The cost of living adjustment factor prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury under Code Section 415(d) for years beginning after December 31, 1987, as applied to such items and in such manner as the Secretary shall provide.

1.6 Administrator: The Employer, unless otherwise specified by duly authorized action by the Employer.

1.7 Adoption Agreement: The document so designated with respect to this Prototype Plan that is executed by the Employer, as amended from time to time.

1.8 ADP Test: The Average Actual Deferral Percentage test set forth in Section 3.4.2(B) of the Plan.

1.9 Affiliate: Any corporation or unincorporated trade or business (other than the Employer) while it is:

(A) a member of a "controlled group of corporations" (within the meaning of Code Section 414(b)) of which the Employer is a member;

(B) a member of any trade or business under "common control" (within the meaning of Code Section 414(c)) with the Employer;

(C) a member of an "affiliated service group" (as that term is defined in Code Section 414(m)) which includes the Employer; or

(D) any other entity required to be aggregated with the Employer pursuant to Code Section 414(o). With respect to Section 3.9, "Affiliate" status shall be determined in accordance with Code Section 415(h).

1.10 Annuity Contract: An individual or group annuity contract issued by an insurance company providing periodic benefits, whether fixed, variable or both, the benefits or value of which a Participant or Beneficiary cannot transfer, sell, assign, discount, or pledge as collateral for a loan or as security for the performance of an obligation, or for any other purpose, to any person other than the issuer thereof. The terms of any annuity contract purchased and distributed by the Plan to a Participant or Spouse shall comply with the requirements of this Plan.

1.11 Average Actual Deferral Percentage: For any group of Eligible Participants, the average (expressed as a percentage) of the Actual Deferral Percentages for each of the Eligible Participants in that group, including those not making Elective Deferrals.

1.12 Average Contribution Percentage: For any group of Eligible Participants, the average (expressed as a percentage) of the Contribution Percentages for each of the Participants in that group, including those on whose behalf Matching 401(k) Contributions and/or Matching Thrift Contributions, if applicable, are not being made.

1.13 Beneficiary: A person or persons entitled to receive any payment of benefits pursuant to Article VII.

1.14 Benefit Commencement Date: The first day, determined pursuant to Article V, for which a Participant or Beneficiary receives or begins to receive payment in any form of distribution as a result of death, Disability, termination of Employment, Early Retirement, Plan termination or upon or after Normal Retirement Age or age 70-1/2.

1.15 CODA: A cash or deferred arrangement pursuant to Code Section 401(k) which is part of a profit sharing plan and under which an Eligible Participant may elect to make Elective Deferrals in accordance with Section 3.4.1.

1.16 CODA Compensation: Solely for purposes of determining the Actual Deferral Percentage and the Contribution Percentage, CODA Compensation shall be Compensation excluding or including "elective contributions" as specified in the Adoption Agreement. The preceding sentence shall be effective for Plan Years beginning on or after January 1, 1989.

1.17 Code: The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or as amended from time to time. A reference to a specific provision of the Code shall include such provision and any applicable regulation pertaining thereto.

1.18 Compensation: For purposes of contributions, Compensation shall be defined in the Adoption Agreement and Section 3.9.1(H), subject to any exclusions elected under Section IAA(d) of the Adoption Agreement, Section 3.1.4 and the following modifications:

(A) For a Self-Employed Individual, Compensation means his or her Earned Income, provided that if the Self-Employed Individual is not a Participant for an entire Plan Year, his or her Compensation for that Plan Year shall be his or her Earned Income for that Plan Year multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days he or she is a Participant during the Plan Year and the denominator of which is the number of days in the Plan Year.

(B) Compensation of each Participant taken into account under this Plan for any Plan Year beginning after December 21, 1988 shall be limited to the first $200,000 as adjusted by the Adjustment Factor. In determining the Compensation of a Participant for purposes of this limitation, the rule of Code Section 414(q)(6) shall apply, except in applying such rules, the term "family" shall include only the Spouse of the Participant and any lineal descendants of the Participant who have not attained the age of 19 before the close of the year. If, as a result of the application of such rules, the adjusted $200,000 limitation is exceeded, (except for purposes of determining the portion of Compensation up to the Integration Level if this Plan is integrated with Social Security), the limitation shall be prorated among the affected Participants in proportion to each such Participant Compensation as determined under this Section 1.18 prior to the application of this limitation. In a manner applied uniformly to all Eligible Employees, only Compensation during the period in which the Employee is an Eligible Employee may be taken into account for purposes of the nondiscrimination tests described in Code Section 401(k) and 401(m).

(C) If Compensation for any prior Plan Year is taken into account in determining an Employee's contributions or benefits for the current year, the Compensation for such prior year is subject to the applicable annual compensation limit in effect for that prior year. For this purpose, for years beginning before January 1, 1990, the applicable annual compensation limit is $200,000.

(D) In addition to other applicable limitations set forth in the Plan, and not withstanding any other provision of the Plan to the contrary, for Plan Years beginning on or after January 1,, 1994, the annual compensation of each employee taken into account under the Plan shall not exceed the OBRA'93 annual compensation limit. The OBRA'93 annual compensation limit is $150,000 as adjusted by the Commissioner for increases in the cost of living in accordance with Section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The cost of living adjustment in effect for a calendar year applies to any period, not exceeding 12 months, over which compensation is determined (determination period) beginning in such calendar year. If a determination period consists of fewer than 12 months, the OBRA'93 annual compensation limit will be multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of months in the determination period, and the denominator of which is 12.

For Plan years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, any reference in this Plan to the limitations under Section 401(a)(17) of the Code shall mean the OBRA'93 annual compensation limit set forth in this provision.

If Compensation for any prior determination period is taken into account in determining an Employee's benefits accruing, in the current Plan year, the Compensation for that prior determination period is subject to the OBRA'93 annual compensation limit in effect for that prior determination period. For this purpose, for prior determination periods beginning before the first day of the first Plan year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the OBRA'93 Compensation limit is $150,000.

1.19 Contribution Percentage: The ratio (expressed as a percentage) of the Participant's Contribution Percentage Amounts to the Participant's CODA Compensation for the Plan Year, whether or not the Eligible Employee was a Participant for the entire Plan Year.

1.20 Contribution Percentage Amounts shall mean the sum of the: (A) Matching 401(k) Contributions; (B) Matching Thrift Contributions; (C) Qualified Matching Contributions (to the extent not taken into account for purposes of the ADP Test); (D) Employee Thrift Contributions; and (E) Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions, as applicable, made on behalf of the Participant for the Plan Year. Such Contribution Percentage Amounts shall not include Matching 401(k) Contributions that are forfeited either to correct Excess Aggregate Contributions or because the contributions to which they relate are Excess Elective Deferrals, Excess Contributions or Excess Aggregate Contributions. The Employer may include Qualified Nonelective Contributions in the Contribution Percentage Amounts, as specified in the Adoption Agreement. Elective Deferrals may also be used in the Contribution Percentage Amounts so long as the ADP Test is met before the Elective Deferrals are used in the ACP Test and continues to be met following the exclusion of those Elective Deferrals that are used to meet the ACP Test, as specified in the Adoption Agreement. An Eligible Participant who does not direct an Elective Deferral or an Employee Thrift Contribution shall be treated as an Eligible Participant on behalf of whom no such contributions are made.

1.21 Defined Benefit Plan: A plan of the type defined in Code Section 414(j) maintained by the Employer or Affiliate, as applicable.

1.22 Defined Contribution Plan: A plan of the type defined in Code Section 414(i) maintained by the Employer or Affiliate, as applicable.

1.23 Disability: Disability as defined in the Adoption Agreement. The permanence and degree of such impairment shall be supported by medical evidence.

1.24 Early Retirement: An actively employed Participant is eligible for Early Retirement upon satisfying the requirements set forth in the Adoption Agreement.

1.25 Early Retirement Date: The Participant's Benefit Commencement Date following his or her termination of Employment on or after satisfying the requirements for Early Retirement and prior to Normal Retirement Age.

1.26 Earned Income: The "net earnings from self-employment" within the meaning of Code Section 401(c)(2) of a Self-Employed Individual from the trade or business with respect to which the Plan is established, but only if the personal services of the Self-Employed Individual are a material income-producing factor in that trade or business. Net earnings will be determined without regard to items not included in gross income and the deductions properly allocable to or chargeable against such items and are to be reduced by contributions by the Employer or Affiliate to a Qualified Plan to the extent deductible under Code Section 404. Where this Plan refers to Earned Income in the context of a trade or business other than that with respect to which the Plan is adopted, the term Earned Income means such net earnings as would be Earned Income as defined above if that trade or business was the trade or business with respect to which the Plan is adopted.

Net earnings shall be determined with regard to the deduction allowed to the Employer by Code Section 164(f) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989.

1.27 Elective Deferrals: Contributions made to the Plan during the Plan Year by the Employer, at the election of the Participant, in lieu of cash compensation and shall include contributions that are made pursuant to a 401(k) Election. A Participant's Elective Deferral in any taxable year is the sum of all Employer and Affiliate contributions pursuant to an election to defer under any qualified cash or deferred arrangement, any simplified employee pension plan or deferred arrangement as described in Code Section 402(h)(l)(B), any eligible deferred compensation plan under Code Section 457, any plan as described under Code Section 501(c)(18), and any Employer contributions made on behalf of a Participant for the purchase of an annuity under Code Section 403(b) pursuant to a salary reduction agreement. Such contributions are nonforfeitable when made and are not distributable under the terms of the Plan to Participants or their Beneficiaries earlier than the earlier of:

(A) termination from Employment, death or Disability of the Participant;

(B) termination of the Plan without establishment of another Defined Contribution Plan by the Employer or an Affiliate;

(C) disposition by the Employer or Affiliate to an unrelated corporation of substantially all of its assets used in a trade or business if such unrelated corporation continues to maintain this Plan after the disposition but only with respect to Employees who continue employment with the acquiring unrelated entity. The sale of 85% of the assets used in a trade or business will be deemed a sale of "substantially all" the assets used in a trade or business;

(D) sale by the Employer or Affiliate to an unrelated entity of its interest in an Affiliate if such unrelated entity continues to maintain the Plan but only with respect to Employees who continue employment with such unrelated entity; or

(E) the events specified in Part B, Article VIII of the Adoption Agreement.

Elective Deferrals shall not include any deferrals properly distributed as an "Excess Amount" pursuant to Section 3.9.2.

1.28 Elective Deferrals Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.1.

1.29 Eligible Employee: Those Employees specified in the Adoption Agreement.

1.30 Eligible Participant: An Eligible Employee who has met the eligibility requirements set forth in the Adoption Agreement whether or not he or she makes Elective Deferrals and/or Employee Thrift Contributions.

1.31 Employee: A Self-Employed Individual, or any individual who is employed by the Employer in the trade or business with respect to which the Plan is adopted and any individual who is employed by an Affiliate. Each Leased Employee shall also be treated as an Employee of the recipient Employer. The preceding sentence shall not apply, however, to any Leased Employee who is (A) covered by a money purchase pension plan maintained by the "leasing organization" referred to in Section 1.54 which provides, with respect to such Leased Employee, a nonintegrated Employer contribution rate of at least 10% of Limitation Compensation, but including amounts contributed pursuant to a salary reduction agreement which are excluded from the Employee's gross income under Code Section 402(a)(8), Code Section 402(h) or Code Section 403(b), immediate participation, and full and immediate vesting and (B) such Leased Employees do not constitute more than 20% of the Employer's and Affiliates' nonhighly compensated workforce. For purposes of the Plan, all Employees will be treated as employed by a single employer.

1.32 Employee Thrift Contributions: Employee nondeductible contributions which are required to be eligible for a Matching Thrift Contribution. Employee Thrift Contributions do not include Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions.

1.33 Employee Thrift Contributions Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.3.

1.34 Employer: The sole proprietorship, partnership or corporation that adopts the Plan by executing the Adoption Agreement. For all purposes relating to eligibility, participation, contributions, vesting and allocations, Employer includes all Participating Affiliates.

1.35 Employer Account: The Participant's Matching 401(k) Contributions Account, Matching Thrift Contributions Account, Employer Contributions Account, Qualified Matching Contributions Account and Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account, as the case may be.

1.36 Employer Contributions: Any contributions made by the Employer for the Plan Year on behalf of a Participant in accordance with Section 3.1 of the Plan.

1.37 Employer Contributions Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.2.

1.38 Employment: An Employee's employment or self-employment with the Employer, Affiliate or a "leasing organization" referred to in Section 1.54 or, to the extent required under Code Section 414(a)(2) or as otherwise specified by the Administrator on a uniform and nondiscriminatory basis, any predecessor of any of them. If any of them maintains a plan of a "predecessor employer" (within the meaning of Code Section 414(a)(1)) employment or self-employment with the "predecessor employer" will be treated as Employment. Additionally, if the trade or business conducted by a Self-Employed Individual becomes incorporated, all employment with that trade or business or with any Affiliate shall be treated as Employment with the Employer.

1.39 Entry Date: The date on which an Eligible Employee becomes a Participant, as specified in the Adoption Agreement.

1.40 ERISA: The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended from time to time. Reference to a specific provision of ERISA shall include such provision and any applicable regulation pertaining thereto.

1.41 Excess Aggregate Contributions: With respect to any Plan Year, the excess of:

(A) The aggregate Contribution Percentage Amounts, taken into account in computing the numerator of the Contribution Percentage actually made on behalf of Highly Compensated Employees for such Plan Year, over

(B) The maximum Contribution Percentage Amounts permitted by the ACP Test (determined by reducing contributions made on behalf of Highly Compensated Employees in the order of their Contribution Percentages beginning with the highest of such percentages) Such determination shall be made after first determining Excess Elective Deferrals and then determining Excess Contributions.

1.42 Excess Contributions: With respect to any Plan Year, the aggregate amount of Elective Deferrals, Qualified Nonelective Contributions and Qualified Matching Contributions, if applicable, actually paid over to the Trust Fund on behalf of Highly Compensated Employees for such Plan Year, over the maximum amount of such contributions permitted by the ADP Test (determined by reducing contributions made on behalf of Highly Compensated Employees in order of the Actual Deferral Percentages, beginning with the highest of such percentages).

1.43 Excess Elective Deferrals: The amount of Elective Deferrals for a Participant's taxable year that are includible in the gross income of the Participant to the extent that such Elective Deferrals exceed the Code Section 402(g) dollar limitation and which the Participant allocates to this Plan pursuant to the procedure set forth in Section 3.4.2. Excess Elective Deferrals shall be treated as an Annual Addition pursuant to Section 3.9, unless such amounts are distributed no later than the first April 15th following the close of the Participant's taxable year.

1.44 Family Member: An individual described in Code Section 414(q)(6)(B).

1.45 401(k) Contributions Accounts: The Participant's Elective Deferral Account, Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account, and/or Qualified Matching Contributions Account, as the case may be.

1.46 401(k) Election: The election by a Participant to make Elective Deferrals in accordance with Section 3.4.1.

1.47 Fully Vested Separation: Termination of Employment, by reason other than death, of a Participant whose vested percentage in each Employer Account is 100%.

1.48 Group Trust: A Trust Fund consisting of assets of any Plan maintained and established by the Employer or an Affiliate pursuant to Section 10.14.

1.49 Highly Compensated Employee: The term Highly Compensated Employee includes highly compensated active Employees and highly compensated former employees.

(A) A highly compensated active Employee includes any Employee who performs service for the Employer or Affiliate during the Plan Year and who, during the look-back year (the twelve-month period immediately preceding the Plan Year):

(i) received Compensation from the Employer or Affiliate in excess of $75,000 (as adjusted by the Adjustment Factor);

(ii) received Compensation from the Employer or Affiliate in excess of $50,000 (as adjusted by the Adjustment Factor) and was a member of the top-paid group for such year; or

(iii) was an officer of the Employer or Affiliate and received Compensation during such year that is greater than 50% of the Defined Benefit Dollar Limitation.

(B) The term Highly Compensated Employee also includes:

(i) Employees who are both described in the preceding sentence if the term "Plan Year" is substituted for the term "look-back year" and the Employee is one of the 100 Employees who received the most Compensation from the Employer or Affiliate during the Plan Year; and

(ii) Employees who are 5% owners at any time during the look-back year or Plan Year.

(C) If no officer has received Compensation that is greater than 50% of the Defined Benefit Dollar Limitation in effect during either the Plan Year or look-back year, the highest paid officer of such year shall be treated as a Highly Compensated Employee.

(D) A highly compensated former employee includes any Employee who terminated Employment (or was deemed to have terminated) prior to the Plan Year, performs no service for the Employer or Affiliate during the Plan Year, and was a highly compensated active employee for either the separation year or any Plan Year ending on or after the Employee's 55th birthday.

(E) If an Employee is, during a Plan Year or look-back year, a Family Member of either (i) a 5% owner who is an active or former Employee or (ii) a Highly Compensated Employee who is one of the ten most highly compensated employees ranked on the basis of Compensation paid by the Employer or Affiliate during such year, then the Family Member and the 5% owner or top-ten Highly Compensated Employee shall be aggregated. In such case, the Family Member and 5% owner or top-ten Highly Compensated Employee shall be treated as a single Employee receiving Compensation and plan contributions or benefits equal to the sum of such Compensation and contributions or benefits of the Family Member and 5% owner or top-ten Highly Compensated Employee. For purposes of this section, Family Member includes the Spouse, lineal ascendants and descendants of the Employee or former employee and the spouses of such lineal ascendants and descendants.

(F) The determination of who is a Highly Compensated Employee, including the determinations of the number and identity of Employees in the top-paid group; the top 100 Employees; the number of Employees treated as officers; and the Compensation that is considered will be made in accordance with Code Section 414(q).

1.50 Hour of Service: If the Employer elects in the Adoption Agreement the hourly record method, an Hour of Service shall include:

(A) Each hour for which an Employee is paid, or entitled to payment, by the Employer or an Affiliate for the performance of duties for the Employer or an Affiliate. These hours will be credited to the Employee for each Plan Year in which the duties are performed, or with respect to eligibility under Article II, the applicable computation period under the definition of Year of Service in which the duties are performed;

(B) Each hour for which an Employee is paid, or entitled to payment, by the Employer or an Affiliate due to a period of time during which no duties are performed (irrespective of whether Employment has terminated) due to vacation, holiday, illness, incapacity (including Disability), layoff, jury duty, military duty, or leave of absence. No more than 501 Hours of Service will be credited under this paragraph for any single continuous period (whether or not such period occurs in a single computation period). Hours under this paragraph will be calculated and credited pursuant to section 2530.200b-2 of the Department of Labor Regulations which are incorporated herein by this reference; and

(C) Each hour for which back pay, irrespective of mitigation of damages, is either awarded or agreed to by the Employer or an Affiliate. The same Hours of Service will not be credited both under subparagraph (A) or subparagraph (B), as the case may be, and under this subparagraph (C). These hours will be credited to the Employee for the Year of Service or other computation period to which the award or agreement pertains rather than the Year of Service or other computation period in which the award, agreement or payment is made.

If the Employer elects in the Adoption Agreement the elapsed time method, an Hour of Service is an hour for which an Employee is paid, or entitled to payment, for the performance of duties for the Employer or an Affiliate.

With respect to both the hourly record method and the elapsed time method, in addition to service with an Affiliate, Hours of Service will also be credited for any individual considered an Employee for purposes of this Plan under Code Section 414(n).

1.51 Immediately Distributable: A Participant's Account is Immediately Distributable if any part of such Account could be distributed to the Participant or Participant's Surviving Spouse before the Participant attains (or would have attained if not deceased) the later of Normal Retirement Age or age 62.

1.52 Investment Manager: Any person appointed by the Trustee or, with respect to Participant-Directed Assets, by the Participant or Beneficiary having the power to direct the investment of such assets, to serve as such in accordance with Section 10.8.

1.53 Key Employee: Any Employee or former Employee (and the beneficiaries of such Employee) who at any time during the "determination period" was (A) an officer of the Employer or Affiliate, having an annual Compensation greater than 50% of the Defined Benefit Dollar Limitation for any Plan Year within the "determination period"; (B) an owner (or considered an owner under Code Section 318) of one of the ten largest interests in the Employer or Affiliate if such individual's Compensation exceeds 100% of the dollar limitation under Code Section 415(c)(1)(A); (C) a "5% owner" (as defined in Code Section 416(i)) of the Employer or Affiliate; or (D) a "1% owner" (as defined in Code Section 416(i)) of the Employer or Affiliate who has an annual Compensation of more than $150,000. Annual Compensation means compensation as defined in Code Section 415(c)(3), but including amounts contributed by the Employer pursuant to a salary reduction agreement which are excludible from the Employee's gross income under Code Section 125, Code Section 402(a)(8), Code Section 402(h) or Code Section 403(b). The "determination period" is the Plan Year containing the "determination date" and the four preceding Plan Years. The "determination date" for the first Plan Year is the last day of that Plan Year, and for any subsequent Plan Year is the last day of the preceding Plan Year. The determination of who is a Key Employee will be made in accordance with Code Section 416(i).

1.54 Leased Employee: Any individual (other than an Employee of the recipient Employer or Affiliate) who, pursuant to an agreement between the Employer or Affiliate and any other person (the "leasing organization") has performed services for the Employer (or for the Employer or Affiliate and "related persons" determined in accordance with Code Section 414(n)(6)) on a substantially full-time basis for a period of at least one year, which services are of a type historically performed, in the business field of the recipient Employer or Affiliate, by employees. Contributions or benefits provided a Leased Employee by the leasing organization which are attributable to services performed for the recipient Employer or Affiliate shall be treated as provided by the recipient Employer.

1.55 Limitation Year: The Limitation Year as specified in the Adoption Agreement. All Qualified Plans maintained by the Employer must use the same Limitation Year. If the Limitation Year is amended to a different 12-consecutive month period, the new Limitation Year must begin on a date within the Limitation Year in which the amendment is made.

1.56 Master or Prototype Plan: A plan the form of which is the subject of a favorable opinion letter from the Internal Revenue Service.

1.57 Matching 401(k) Contribution: Any contribution made by the Employer to this and/or any other Defined Contribution Plan for the Plan Year, by reason of the Participant's 401(k) Election, and allocated to a Participant's Matching 401(k) Contributions Account or to a comparable account in another Defined Contribution Plan. Matching 401(k) Contributions are subject to the distribution provisions applicable to Employer Accounts in the Plan.

1.58 Matching 401(k) Contributions Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.4.

1.59 Matching Thrift Contributions: Any contribution made by the Employer for the Plan Year by reason of Employee Thrift Contributions. Matching Thrift Contributions shall be subject to the distribution provisions applicable to Employer Accounts in the Plan.

1.60 Matching Thrift Contributions Account. The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.5.

1.61 Net Profits: The current and accumulated profits of the Employer from the trade or business of the Employer with respect to which the Plan is established, as determined by the Employer before deductions for federal, state and local taxes on income and before contributions under the Plan or any other Qualified Plan.

1.62 Nonhighly Compensated Employee: An Employee of the Employer who is neither a Highly Compensated Employee nor a Family Member.

1.63 Nonvested Separation: Termination of Employment of a Participant whose vested percentage in each Employer Account is 0%.

1.64 Normal Retirement Age: The age specified in the Adoption Agreement. Notwithstanding the Employer's election in the Adoption Agreement, if, for Plan Years beginning before January 1, 1988, Normal Retirement Age was determined with reference to the anniversary of the participation commencement date (more than 5 but not to exceed 10 years), the anniversary date for Participants who first commenced participation under the Plan before the first Plan Year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, shall be the earlier of (A) the tenth anniversary of the date the Participant commenced participation in the Plan (or such anniversary as had been elected by the Employer, if less than 10) or (B) the fifth anniversary of the first day of the first Plan Year beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

1.65 Owner-Employee: An individual who is a sole proprietor, if the Employer is a sole proprietorship, or if the Employer is a partnership, a partner owning more than 10% of either the capital interest or the profits interest in the Employer; provided that where this Plan refers to an Owner-Employee in the context of a trade or business other than the trade or business with respect to which the Plan is adopted, the term Owner-Employee means a person who would be an Owner-Employer as defined above if that other trade or business was the Employer.

1.66 Partially Vested Separation: Termination of Employment of a Participant whose vested percentage in any Employer Account is less than 100% but greater than 0%.

1.67 Participant: An Employee who has commenced, but not terminated, participation in the Plan as provided in Article II.

1.68 Participant Contributions Account: The Participant's Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions Account and/or Employee Thrift Contributions Account, as the case may be.

1.69 Participant-Directed Assets: The assets of an Account which are invested, as described in Section 10.5.1, according to the direction of the Participant or the Participant's Beneficiary, as the case may be, in either individually selected investments or in commingled funds or in shares of regulated investment companies.

1.70 Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions: Any voluntary nondeductible contributions made in cash by a Participant to this Plan other than Employee Thrift Contributions.

1.71 Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.6.

1.72 Participating Affiliate: Any Affiliate or any other employer designated as such by the Employer, and, by duly authorized action, that has adopted the Plan with the consent of the Employer and has not withdrawn therefrom.

1.73 Period of Severance: For purposes of the hourly records method, a Period of Severance is a period equal to the number of consecutive Plan Years or, with respect to eligibility, the applicable computation period under the definition of Year of Service, in which an Employee has 500 Hours of Service or less. The Period of Severance shall be determined on the basis of Hours of Service and shall commence with the first Plan Year in which the Employee has 500 Hours of Service or less. With respect to any period of absence during which a Period of Severance does not commence, the Participant shall be credited with the Hours of Service (up to a maximum of 501 Hours of Service in a Plan Year) which would otherwise have been credited to him or her but for such absence, or if such Hours of Service cannot be determined, 8 Hours of Service for each day of absence.

For purposes of the elapsed time method, a Period of Severance is a continuous period of at least 12-consecutive months during which an individual's Employment is not continuing, beginning on the date an Employee retires, quits or is discharged or, if earlier, the first 12-month anniversary of the date that the individual is otherwise first absent from service (with or without pay) for any other reason, and ending on the date the individual again performs an Hour of Service.

Anything in the definition thereof to the contrary notwithstanding, a Period of Severance shall not commence if the Participant is:

(A) On an authorized leave of absence in accordance with standard personnel policies applied in a nondiscriminatory manner to all Employees similarly situated and returns to active Employment by the Employer or Affiliate immediately upon the expiration of such leave of absence;

(B) On a military leave while such Employee's reemployment rights are protected by law and returns to active Employment within ninety days after his or her discharge or release (or such longer period as may be prescribed by law); or

(C) Absent from work by reason of (i) the pregnancy of the Employee, (ii) the birth of a child of the Employee, or (iii) the placement of a child with the Employment in connection with the adoption of such child by such Employee, or (iv) the care of such child for a period beginning immediately following such birth or placement. In determining when such a Participant's Period of Severance begins, the Participant will be credited with (i) for purposes of the elapsed time method, the 12-consecutive month period beginning on the first anniversary of the first date of such absence; or (ii) for purposes of the hourly records method, the Hours of Service he or she would normally have had but for such absence, or if such Hours cannot be determined, eight Hours of Service for each day of such absence; provided, however, that such Hours of Service shall not exceed 50l and shall be credited only in the year in which such absence began if such crediting would prevent the Participant from incurring a Period of Severance in that year, or in any other case, shall be credited in the immediately following year.

1.74 Plan: The plan established by the Employer in the form of this Prototype Plan and the applicable Adoption Agreement executed by the Employer. The Plan shall have the name specified in the Adoption Agreement.

1.75 Plan Year: Each 12-consecutive month period ending on the date specified in the Adoption Agreement, during any part of which the Plan is in effect.

1.76 Prototype Plan: The Merrill Lynch Special Prototype Defined Contribution Plan set forth in this document, as amended or restated from time to time.

1.77 Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity: An immediate annuity for the life of Participant with a survivor annuity continuing after the Participant's death to the Participant's Surviving Spouse for the Surviving Spouse's life in an amount equal to 50% of the amount of the annuity payable during the joint lives of the Participant and such Surviving Spouse and which is the actuarial equivalent of a single life annuity which could be provided for the Participant under an Annuity Contract purchased with the aggregate vested Account Balances of the Participant's Accounts at the Benefit Commencement Date.

1.78 Qualified Matching Contributions: Matching Contributions which, pursuant to the election made by the Employer, and in accordance with Code Section 401(m), are nonforfeitable when made and subject to the limitation on distribution set forth in the definition of Qualified Nonelective Contributions.

1.79 Qualified Matching Contributions Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.7.

1.80 Qualified Nonelective Contributions: Contributions (other than Matching 401(k) Contributions, Qualified Matching 401(k) Contributions or Elective Deferrals), if any, made by the Employer which the Participant may not elect to receive in cash until distributed from the Plan, which are nonforfeitable when made, and which are not distributable under the terms of the Plan to Participants or their Beneficiaries earlier than the earlier of:

(A) termination of Employment, death, or Disability of the Participant;

(B) attainment of the age 59-1/2 by the Participant;

(C) termination of the Plan without establishment of another Defined Contribution Plan by the Employer or an Affiliate;

(D) disposition by the Employer or Participating Affiliate to an unrelated corporation of substantially all of its assets used in a trade or business if such unrelated corporation continues to maintain this Plan after the disposition but only with respect to Employees who continue employment with the acquiring unrelated entity. The sale of 85% of the assets used in a trade or business will be deemed a sale of "substantially all" the assets used in a trade or business;

(E) sale by the Employer to an unrelated entity of its interest in an Affiliate if such unrelated entity continues to maintain the Plan but only with respect to Employees who continue employment with such unrelated entity; and

(F) effective for Plan Years beginning before January 1, 1989, upon the hardship of the Participant.

1.81 Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.7.

1.82 Qualified Plan: A Defined Benefit Plan or Defined Contribution Plan.

1.83 Qualifying Employer Securities: Employer securities, as that term is defined in ERISA Section 407(d)(5).

1.84 Rollover Contribution: A contribution described in Section 3.4.

1.85 Rollover Contributions Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.9.

1.86 Self-Employed Individual: An individual who has Earned Income for the Plan Year involved from the trade or business for which the Plan is established, or who would have had such Earned Income but for the fact that the trade or business with respect to which the Plan is established had no Net Profits for that Plan Year.

1.87 Social Security Retirement Age: Age 65 in the case of a Participant attaining age 62 before January 1, 2000 (i.e., born before January 1, 1938), age 66 for a Participant attaining age 62 after December 31, 1999, and before January 1, 2017 (i.e., born after December 31, 1937, but before January 1, 1955), and age 67 for a Participant attaining age 62 after December 31, 2016 (i.e., born after December 31, 1954).

1.88 Sponsor: The mass submitter, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and any successor thereto, and any other qualifying sponsoring organization who sponsors with the consent of the mass submitter, the Prototype Plan and makes the Prototype Plan available for adoption by Employers.

1.89 Spouse: The person married to a Participant, provided that a former spouse will be treated as the Spouse to the extent provided under a "qualified domestic relations order" (or a "domestic relations order" treated as such) as referred to in Section 12.6.

1.90 Surviving Spouse: The person married to a Participant on the earliest of:

(A) the date of the Participant's death;

(B) the Participant's Benefit Commencement Date; or

(C) the date on which an Annuity Contract is purchased for the Participant providing benefits under the Plan;

Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, a former spouse will be treated as the Surviving Spouse to the extent provided under a "qualified domestic relations order" (or a "domestic relations order" treated as such) as referred to in Section 12.6.

1.91 Taxable Wage Base: The maximum amount of earnings which may be considered "wages" for the Plan Year involved under Code Section 3121(a)(1).

1.92 Transferred Account: The Account established for a Participant pursuant to Section 3.8.10.

1.93 Trust: The trust established under the Plan to which Plan contributions are made and in which Plan assets are held.

1.94 Trust Fund: The assets of the Trust held by or in the name of the Trustee.

1.95 Trustee: The person appointed as Trustee pursuant to Article X and any successor Trustee.

1.96 Valuation Date: The last business day of each Plan Year, the date specified in the Adoption Agreement or determined pursuant to Section 10.6, if applicable, and each other date as may be determined by the Administrator.

1.97 Vesting Service: The Years of Service credited to a Participant under Article IV for purposes of determining the Participant's vested percentage in any Employer Account established for the Participant.

1.98 Years of Service: If the Employer elects the hourly records method in the Adoption Agreement, an Employee shall be credited with one Year of Service for each Plan Year in which he or she has 1,000 Hours of Service. Solely for purposes of eligibility to participate, an Employee shall be credited with a Year of Service on the last day of the 12-consecutive month period which begins on the first day on which he or she has an Hour of Service, if he or she has at least 1,000 Hours of Service in that period. If an Employee fails to be credited with a Year of Service on such date, he or she shall be credited with a Year of Service on the last day of each succeeding 12-consecutive month period.

If the Employer elects the elapsed time method in the Adoption Agreement, the Employee's Years of Service shall be a span of service equal to the sum of:

(A) the period commencing on the date the Employee first performs an Hour of Service and ending on the date he or she quits, retires, is discharged, dies, or if earlier, the 12-month anniversary of the date on which the Employee was otherwise first absent from service (with or without pay) for any other reason; and

(B) (i) if the Employee quits, retires, or is discharged, the period commencing on the date the Employee terminated his or her Employment and ending on the first date on which he or she again performs an Hour of Service, if such date is within 12 months of the date on which he or she last performed an Hour of Service; or

(ii) if the Employee is absent from work for any other reason and, within 12 months of the first day of such absence, the Employee quits, retires or is discharged, the period commencing on the first day of such absence and ending on the first day he or she again performs an Hour of Service if such day is within 12 months of the date his or her absence began.

With respect to both the elapsed time method and the hourly record method, service with a predecessor employer, determined in the manner in which the rules of this Plan would have credited such service had the Participant earned such service under the terms of this Plan, may be included in Years of Service, as specified in the Adoption Agreement.

ARTICLE II PARTICIPATION

2.1 Admission as a Participant

2.1.1 An Eligible Employee shall become a Participant on the Entry Date coincident with or next following the date on which he or she meets the eligibility requirements specified in the Adoption Agreement; provided, however that

(A) an Eligible Employee who has met the eligibility requirements as of the first day of the Plan Year in which the Plan is adopted as a new Plan shall become a Participant as of such date;

(B) an Eligible Employee who had met the eligibility requirements of a plan that is restated and/or amended to become this Plan shall become a Participant as of the date this Plan is adopted; and

(C) if selected in the Adoption Agreement, an Eligible Employee shall become a Participant on the effective date of the Plan providing he or she is an Eligible Employee on such date.

2.1.2 An Employee who did not become a Participant on the Entry Date coincident with or next following the day on which he or she met the eligibility requirements because he or she was not then an Eligible Employee shall become a Participant on the first day on which he or she again becomes an Eligible Employee unless determined otherwise in accordance with Section 2.3.1 of the Plan.

2.1.3 If the Plan includes a CODA or thrift feature, in addition to the participation requirements set forth in Section 2.1.1, an Eligible Employee shall become a Participant upon filing his or her 401(k) Election or election to make Employee Thrift Contributions with the Administrator. An election shall not be required if the Employer has elected to make contributions to an Employer Account and/or Qualified Nonelective Contributions with respect to all Eligible Participants.

2.1.4 An individual who has ceased to be a Participant and who again becomes an Eligible Employee shall become a Participant immediately upon reemployment as an Eligible Employee unless determined otherwise in accordance with Section 2.3.1 of the Plan.

2.2 Rollover Membership and Trust to Trust Transfer

An Eligible Employee who makes a Rollover Contribution or a trust to trust transfer shall become a Participant as of the date of such contribution or transfer even if he or she had not previously become a Participant. Such an Eligible Employee shall be a Participant only for the purposes of such Rollover Contribution or transfer and shall not be eligible to share in contributions made by the Employer until he or she has become a Participant in accordance with Section 2.1.

2.3 Crediting of Service for Eligibility Purposes

2.3.1 For purposes of eligibility to participate, an Eligible Employee or Participant without any vested interest in any Employer Account and without an Elective Deferrals Account who terminates Employment shall lose credit for his or her Years of Service prior to such termination of Employment if his or her Period of Severance equals or exceeds five years or, if greater, the aggregate number of Years of Service.

2.3.2 For purposes of eligibility to participate, a Participant who has a vested interest in any Employer Account and who terminates Employment shall retain credit for his or her Years of Service prior to such termination of Employment without regard to the length of his or her Period of Severance. In the event such Participant returns to Employment, he or she shall participate immediately.

2.3.3 A former Eligible Employee who was not a Participant who again becomes an Eligible Employee with no Years of Service to his or her credit shall be treated as a new Employee.

2.4 Termination of Participation

A Participant shall cease to be a Participant:

(A) upon his or her death;

(B) upon the payment to him or her of all nonforfeitable benefits due to him or her under the Plan, whether directly or by the purchase of an Annuity Contract; or

(C) upon his or her Nonvested Separation.

2.5 Limitation for Owner-Employee

2.5.1 If the Plan provides contributions or benefits for one or more Owner-Employees who control the trade or business for which this Plan is established and who also control as an Owner-Employee or as Owner-Employees one or more other trades or businesses, this Plan and the plan established for each such other trade or business must, when looked at as a single plan, satisfy the requirements of Code Sections 401(a) and (d) with respect to the employees of this and all of such other trades or businesses.

2.5.2 If the Plan provides contributions or benefits for one or more Owner-Employees who control as an Owner-Employee or as Owner-Employees one or more other trades or businesses, the employees of the other trades or businesses must be included in a plan which satisfies the requirements of Code Sections 401(a) and (d) and which provides contributions and benefits for the employees of such other trades or businesses not less favorable than the contributions and benefits provided for Owner-Employees under this Plan.

2.5.3 If an individual is covered as an Owner-Employee under the plans of two or more trades or businesses which are not controlled and the individual controls a trade or business, then the contributions or benefits of the employees under the plan of the trades or businesses which are controlled must be as favorable as those provided for such individual under the most favorable plan of the trade or business which is not controlled.

2.5.4 For purposes of the preceding three subsections, an Owner-Employee, or two or more Owner-Employees, will be considered to control a trade or business if the Owner-Employee, or two or more Owner-Employees together:

(A) own the entire interest in an unincorporated trade or business, or

(B) in the case of a partnership, own more than 50% of either the capital interest or the profits interest in the partnership.

For purposes of the preceding sentence, an Owner-Employee, or two or more Owner-Employees, shall be treated as owning any interest in a partnership which is owned, directly or indirectly, by a partnership which such Owner-Employee, or such two or more Owner-Employees, are considered to control within the meaning of the preceding sentence.

2.6 Corrections with Regard to Participation

2.6.1 If in any Plan Year an Eligible Employee who should be included as a Participant in the Plan is erroneously omitted and discovery of such omission is not made until after a contribution by the Employer for the year has been made, the Employer shall make a subsequent contribution with respect to the omitted Eligible Employee in the amount which would have contributed with respect to such Eligible Employee had he or she not been omitted. Such contribution shall be made whether or not it is deductible in whole or in part in any taxable year under applicable provisions of the Code. It shall be the responsibility of the Employer and Administrator to take any and all actions as required by this Section 2.6.1.

2.6.2 If in any Plan Year any person who should not have been included as a Participant in the Plan is erroneously included and discovery of such incorrect inclusion is not made until after a contribution for the year has been made the amount contributed on behalf of such ineligible person shall constitute a forfeiture for the Plan Year in which the discovery is made. It shall be the responsibility of the Employer and Administrator to take any and all actions as required by this Section 2.6.2.

2.7 Provision of Information

Each Employee shall execute such forms as may reasonably be required by the Administrator, and shall make available to the Administrator any information the Administrator may reasonably request in this regard. By virtue of his or her participation in this Plan, an Employee agrees, on his or her own behalf and on behalf of all persons who may have or claim any right by reason of the Employee's participation in the Plan, to be bound by all provisions of the Plan.

ARTICLE III

CONTRIBUTIONS AND ACCOUNT ALLOCATIONS

3.1 Employer Contributions and Allocations

3.1.1 If the Plan is a profit-sharing plan, the Employer will contribute cash and/or Qualifying Employer Securities to the Trust Fund, in such amount, if any, as specified in the Adoption Agreement and with respect to Qualifying Employer Securities as is consistent with Sections 10.4.2 and 10.4.3. If the Plan is a profit-sharing plan, Net Profits may be necessary for an Employer to make contributions, as specified in the Adoption Agreement. Employer Contributions for a Plan Year will be allocated no later than the last day of the Plan Year to the Employer Contributions Account of Participants eligible for an allocation in the manner specified in the Adoption Agreement. A not-for-profit corporation may adopt a profit-sharing plan as an incentive plan; provided, however, that such a plan may not contain a CODA feature unless otherwise permitted by law.

3.1.2 If the Plan is a money purchase pension plan, the Employer will contribute cash to the Trust Fund in an amount equal to that percentage of the Compensation of each Participant eligible for an allocation of Employer contributions for that Plan Year as specified in the Adoption Agreement. Employer Contributions for the Plan Year will be allocated as of the last day of the Plan Year to the Employer Contributions Accounts of Participants eligible for an allocation and entitled to share in such contributions in the manner specified in the Adoption Agreement.

3.1.3 If the Plan is a target benefit plan, the Employer will contribute cash to the Trust Fund in an amount specified in the Adoption Agreement. The amount contributed with respect to the targeted benefit of each Participant eligible for an allocation for that Plan Year will be allocated as of the last day of the Plan Year to the Participant's Employer Contributions Account in the manner specified in the Adoption Agreement.

3.1.4 If the Employer elects in the Adoption Agreement to make contributions on behalf of a Participant whose Employment terminated due to Disability, "Compensation" shall mean, with respect to such Participant, the Compensation he or she would have received for the entire calendar year in which the Disability occurred if he or she had been paid for such year at the rate at which he or she was being paid immediately prior to such Disability. Employer Contributions may be taken into account only if the Participant is a Nonhighly Compensated Employee and contributions made on his or her behalf are nonforfeitable.

3.1.5 If an Employer has adopted more than one Adoption Agreement, or has adopted a plan pursuant to the Merrill Lynch Special Prototype Defined Benefit Plan and Trust, only one Adoption Agreement may be integrated with Social Security.

3.1.6 For purposes of the Plan, contributions provided by the "leasing organization" referred to in Section 1.37 of a Leased Employee which are attributable to services performed for the Employer shall be treated as provided by the Employer.

3.2 Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions

3.2.1 If elected by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement, each Participant while actively employed may make Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions in cash in a dollar amount or a percentage of Compensation which does not, when included in the Contribution Percentage Amount, exceed the limitations set forth in Code Section 401(m).

3.2.2 Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions shall be made in accordance with rules and procedures adopted by the Administrator.

3.3 Rollover Contributions and Trust to Trust Transfers

3.3.1 Any Eligible Employee or Participant may make a Rollover Contribution under the Plan. A Rollover Contribution shall be in cash or in other property acceptable to the Trustee and shall be a contribution attributable to (a) a "qualified total distribution" (as defined in Code Section 402(a)(5)), distributed to the contributing Employee under Code Section 402(a)(5) from a Qualified Plan or distributed to the Employee under Code Section 403(a)(4) from an "employee annuity" or referred to in that section, or (b) a payout or distribution to the Employee referred to in Code Section 408(d)(3) from an "individual retirement account" or an "individual retirement annuity" described, respectively, in Code Section 408(a) or Section 408(b) consisting exclusively of amounts attributable to "qualified total distributions" (as defined in Code Section 402(a)(5)) from a Qualified Plan. The Plan shall not accept a Rollover Contribution attributable to any accumulated deductible employee contributions as defined by Code Section 72(o)(5)(B). The Trustee may condition acceptance of a Rollover Contribution upon receipt of such documents as it may require. In the event that an Employee makes a contribution pursuant to this Section 3.3 intended to be a Rollover Contribution but which did not qualify as a Rollover Contribution, the Trustee shall distribute to the Employee as soon as practicable after that conclusion is reached the entire Account balance in his or her Rollover Contributions Account deriving from such contributions determined as of the valuation date coincident with or immediately preceding such discovery.

3.3.2 Any Eligible Employee or Participant may direct the Administrator to direct the Trustee to accept a transfer to the Trust Fund from another trust established pursuant to another Qualified Plan of all or any part of the assets held in such other trust. The Plan shall not accept a direct transfer attributable to accumulated deductible employee contributions as defined by Code Section 72(o)(5)(B). The Trustee may condition acceptance of such a trust to trust transfer upon receipt of such documents as it may require.

3.4 Section 401(k) Contributions and Account Allocations

3.4.1 Elective Deferrals

(A) Amount of Elective Deferrals

Subject to the limitations contained in Section 3.4.2, the Employer will contribute cash to the Trust Fund in an amount equal to:

(i) as specified on the Participant's 401(k) Election form, the specific dollar amount, or the deferral percentage multiplied by each such Participant's Compensation; or

(ii) a bonus contribution made pursuant to Section 3.4.1(C).

(B) The amount elected by a Participant pursuant to a 401(k) Election shall be determined within the limits specified in the Adoption Agreement. The 401(k) Election shall be made on a form provided by the Administrator but no election shall be effective prior to approval by the Administrator. The Administrator may reduce the amount of any 401(k) Election, or make such other modifications as necessary, so that the Plan complies with the provisions of the Code. A Participant's 401(k) Election shall remain in effect until modified or terminated. Modification or termination of a 401(k) Election shall be made at such time as specified in the Adoption Agreement.

(C) If elected by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement, an Eligible Employee may make a 401(k) Election to have an amount withheld up to the amount of any bonus payable for such Plan Year and direct the Employer to contribute the amount so withheld to his or her Elective Deferrals Account.

3.4.2 Limitation on Elective Deferrals

(A) Maximum Amount of Elective Deferrals and Distribution of Excess Elective Deferrals

(i) No Participant shall be permitted to have Elective Deferrals made under this Plan, or any other Qualified Plan maintained by the Employer, during any Plan Year in excess of the dollar limitation contained in Code Section 402(g) in effect at the beginning of the Participant's taxable year.

(ii) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, Excess Elective Deferrals made to this Plan or assigned to this Plan, plus any income and minus any loss allocable thereto, shall be distributed no later than April 15, 1988, and each April 15 thereafter, to Participants to whose accounts Excess Elective Deferrals were designated for the preceding Plan Year and who claim Excess Elective Deferrals for such taxable year. Excess Elective Deferrals shall be treated as Annual Additions.

(iii) Claims. A Participant may designate to this Plan any amount of his or her Elective Deferrals as Excess Elective Deferrals during his or her taxable year. A Participant's claim shall be in writing, shall be submitted to the Administrator no later than March 1, shall specify the Participant's Excess Elective Deferral for the preceding Plan Year, and shall be accompanied by the Participant's written statement that if such amounts are not distributed, such Excess Elective Deferral, when added to amounts deferred under other plans or arrangements described in Code Section 401(k), Code Section 408(k), Code Section 403(b) or Code Section 457, exceeds the limit imposed on the Participant by Code Section 402(g) for the year in which the deferral occurred. A Participant is deemed to notify the Administrator of any Excess Elective Deferrals that arise by taking into account only those Elective Deferrals made to this Plan and any other plans of the Employer or an Affiliate.

(iv) Determination of Income or Loss. Excess Elective Deferrals shall be adjusted for income or loss up to the date of distribution. The income or loss allocable to Participant's Excess Elective Deferrals is the sum of: (1) the income or loss allocable to the Participant's Elective Deferrals Account for the Participant's taxable year multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Participant's Excess Elective Deferrals for the Participant's taxable year and the denominator of which is the Account Balance of the Participant's Elective Deferrals Account without regard to any income or loss occurring during such taxable year; and (2) ten percent of the amount determined under (1) multiplied by the number of whole calendar months between the end of the Participant's taxable year and the date of distribution, counting the month of distribution if distribution occurs after the 15th of such month.

Anything in the preceding paragraph of this Section 3.4.2(A)(iv) to the contrary notwithstanding, any reasonable method for computing the income or loss allocable to Excess Elective Deferrals may be used, provided that such method is used consistently for all Participants and for all corrective distributions under the Plan, and is used by the Plan for allocating income or loss to Participants' Accounts. Income or loss allocable to the period between the end of the taxable year and the date of distribution may be disregarded in determining income or loss.

(B) ADP Test

The Average Actual Deferral Percentage for Highly Compensated Employees for each Plan Year and the Average Actual Deferral Percentage for Nonhighly Compensated Employees for the same Plan Year must satisfy one of the following tests:

(i) The Average Actual Deferral Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees for the Plan Year shall not exceed the Average Actual Deferral Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees for the Plan Year multiplied by 1.25; or

(ii) The Average Actual Deferral Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees for the Plan Year shall not exceed the Average Actual Deferral Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees for the Plan Year multiplied by 2.0; provided that the Average Actual Deferral Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees does not exceed the Average Actual Deferral Percentage for Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees by more than two percentage points.

(C) Special Actual Deferral Percentage Rules

(i) The Actual Deferral Percentage for any Eligible Participant who is a Highly Compensated Employee for the Plan Year and who is eligible to have Elective Deferrals and Qualified Matching Contributions or Qualified Nonelective Contributions, or both, if treated as Elective Deferrals for purposes of the ADP Test, allocated to his or her accounts under two or more plans or arrangements described in Code Section 401(k) that are maintained by the Employer shall be determined as if all such Elective Deferrals, Qualified Matching Contributions and Qualified Nonelective Contributions were made under a single arrangement. If a Highly Compensated Employee participates in two or more cash or deferred arrangements that have different plan years, all cash or deferred arrangements ending with or within the same calendar year shall be treated as a single arrangement.

(ii) In the event that this Plan satisfies the requirements of Code Section 401(k), Code Section 401(a)(4) or Code Section 410(b) only if aggregated with one or more other qualified plans, or if one or more other qualified plans satisfy the requirements of such Code Sections only if aggregated with this Plan, then this Section shall be applied by determining the Actual Deferral Percentage of Employees as if all such qualified plans were a single qualified plan. For Plan Years beginning after December 31, 1989, plans may be aggregated in order to satisfy Code Section 401(k) only if they have the same plan year.

(iii) For purposes of determining the Actual Deferral Percentage of an Eligible Participant who is a 5% owner or one of the ten most highly paid Highly Compensated Employees, the Elective Deferrals (and Qualified Matching Contributions or Qualified Nonelective Contributions, or both, if treated as Elective Deferrals for purposes of one of the tests referred to in Section 3.4.2(B)) and CODA Compensation of such Participant shall include the Elective Deferrals (and, if applicable, Qualified Matching Contributions, Qualified Nonelective Contributions) and CODA Compensation for the Plan Year of Family Members. Family Members with respect to such Highly Compensated Employees shall be disregarded as separate employees in determining the Actual Deferral Percentage both for Eligible Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees and for Eligible Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees.

(iv) For purposes of determining the ADP Test, Elective Deferrals, Qualified Matching Contributions, and Qualified Nonelective must be made before the last day of the 12-month period immediately following the Plan Year to which such contributions relate.

(v) The Employer shall maintain records sufficient to demonstrate satisfaction of the ADP Test and the amount of Qualified Nonelective Contributions and/or Qualified Matching Contribution used in such test.

(vi) The determination and treatment of the Elective Deferrals, Qualified Matching Contributions, and Qualified Nonelective Contributions, used in the ADP Test shall satisfy such other requirements as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

(D) Distribution of Excess Contributions

(i) In General. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan except Section 3.4.2(E), Excess Contributions, plus any income and minus any loss allocable thereto, shall be distributed no later than the last day of each Plan Year beginning after December 31, 1987, to Participants to whose Accounts Elective Deferrals, Qualified Matching Contributions, and Qualified Nonelective Contributions were allocated for the preceding Plan Year.(1) Excess Contributions of Participants who are subject to the Family Member aggregation rules shall be allocated among the Family Members in proportion to the Elective Deferrals (and amounts treated as Elective Deferrals) of each Family Member that is combined to determine the combined Actual Deferral Percentage. Excess Contributions shall be treated as Annual Additions.

(ii) Determination of Income or Loss. Excess Contributions shall be adjusted for any income or loss up to the date of distribution. The income or loss allocable to Excess Contributions is the sum of: (1) the income or loss allocable to the Participant's Elective Deferrals Account (and, if applicable, the Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account or the Qualified Matching Contributions Account or both) for the Plan Year multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is such Participant's Excess Contributions for the year and the denominator of which is the Account Balances of Participant's Elective Deferrals Account, Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account and Qualified Matching Contributions Account if any of such contributions are included in the ADP Test, without regard to any income or loss occurring during such Plan Year; and

- ----------
(1) Distribution of Excess Contributions on or before the last day of the Plan Year after the Plan Year in which such excess amounts arose is required under Code Section 401(k)(8) if the Plan is to maintain its tax-qualified status. However, if such excess amounts, plus any income and minus any loss allocable thereto, are distributed more than 2-1/2 months after the last day of the Plan Year in which such excess amounts arose, then Code Section 4979 imposes a 10% excise tax on the employer maintaining the plan with respect to such amounts.

(2) 10% of the amount determined under (1) multiplied by the number of whole calendar months between the end of the Plan Year and the date of distribution, counting the month of distribution if distribution occurs after the 15th of such month.

Anything in the preceding paragraph of this Section 3.4.2(D)(ii) to the contrary notwithstanding any reasonable method for computing the income or loss allocable to Excess Contributions may be used, provided that such method is used consistently for all Participants and for all corrective distributions under the Plan for the Plan Year, and is used by the Plan for allocating income or loss to Participant's Accounts. Income or loss allocable to the period between the end of the Plan Year and the date of distribution may be disregarded in determining income or loss.

(iii) Accounting for Excess Contributions. Amounts distributed under this Section 3.4.2(D) shall first be distributed from the Participant's Elective Deferrals Account and Qualified Matching Contributions Account in proportion to the Participant's Elective Deferrals and Qualified Matching Contributions (to the extent used in the ADP Test) for the Plan Year. Excess Contributions shall be distributed from the Participant's Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account only to the extent that such Excess Contributions exceed the balance in the Participant's Elective Deferrals Account and Qualified Matching Contributions Account.

(E) In lieu of distributing Excess Contributions pursuant to the preceding Section 3.4.2(D), and as specified in the Adoption Agreement, the Employer may make special Qualified Nonelective Contributions on behalf of Nonhighly Compensated Employees that are sufficient to satisfy the ADP Test.

(F) In lieu of distributing Excess Contributions, the Participant may treat his or her Excess Contributions as an amount distributed and then re-contributed by such Participant. Recharacterized amounts are 100% nonforfeitable and subject to the same distribution requirements as Elective Deferrals. Amounts may not be recharacterized by a Highly Compensated Employee to the extent that such amount in combination with other amounts made to the Participant's Participant Contributions Account would exceed any stated limit on such contributions, as specified in the Adoption Agreement. If Excess Contributions are recharacterized, they must be so no later than two and one half months after the last day of the Plan Year in which such Excess Contributions arose and they are deemed to occur no earlier than the date the last Highly Compensated Employee is informed in writing of the amount recharacterized and the consequences thereof. Recharacterized amounts are taxable to the Participant for the tax year in which he or she would have received such contributions in cash.

(G) Under no circumstances may Elective Deferrals, Qualified Matching Contributions and Qualified Nonelective Contributions be contributed and allocated to the Trust later than the last day of the 12-month period immediately following the Plan Year to which such contributions relate.

3.5 Matching 401(k) Contributions

3.5.1 Amount of Matching Contributions Subject to the limitations contained in Sections 3.9 and 3.5.2, for each Plan Year the Employer will contribute in cash and/or Qualifying Employer Securities, Matching 401(k) Contributions to the Trust Fund in an amount, if any, calculated by reference to the Participants' Elective Deferrals as specified in the Adoption Agreement.

3.5.2 Limitation on Contribution Percentage

(A) ACP Test

The Average Contribution Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees for the Plan Year and the Average Contributions Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees for the same Plan Year must satisfy one of the following tests:

(i) the Average Contribution Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees for the Plan Year shall not exceed the Average Contribution Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees for the same Plan Year multiplied by 1.25; or

(ii) the Average Contribution Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees shall not exceed the Average Contribution Percentage for Eligible Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees by more than two percentage points or such lesser amount as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe to prevent the multiple use of this alternative limitation with respect to any Highly Compensated Employee.

(B) Special Average Contribution Percentage Rules

(i) For purposes of this Section 3.5.2, the Contribution Percentage for any Eligible Participant who is a Highly Compensated Employee for the Plan Year and who is eligible to have Matching 401(k) Contributions or Matching Thrift Contributions, as the case may be (other than Qualified Matching Contributions), allocated to his or her account under two or more qualified plans described in Code Section 401(a), or arrangements described in Code Section 401(k) shall be determined as if the total of such Contribution Percentage Amounts was made under each plan. If a Highly Compensated Employee participates in 2 or more cash or deferred arrangements that have different plan years, all cash or deferred arrangements ending with or within the same calendar year shall be treated as a single arrangement.

(ii) In the event that this Plan satisfies the requirements of Code Section 410(b) only if aggregated with one or more other plans, or if one or more other plans satisfy the requirements of Code Section 410(b) only if aggregated with this Plan, then this Section 3.5.2 shall be applied by determining the Contribution Percentages of Employees as if all such plans were a single plan. For Plan Years beginning after December 31, 1989, plans may be aggregated in order to satisfy Code Section 401(m) only if they have the same plan year.

(iii) For purposes of determining the Contribution Percentage of an Eligible Participant who is a 5% owner or one of the 10 most highly-paid Highly Compensated Employees, the Contribution Percentage Amounts and the CODA Compensation of such Participant shall include the Contribution Percentage Amounts and CODA Compensation for the Plan Year of Family Members. Family Members with respect to Highly Compensated Employees shall be disregarded as separate employees in determining the Contribution Percentage both for Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees and for Participants who are Highly Compensated Employees.

(iv) For purposes of determining the ACP Test, Matching 401(k) Contributions, Matching Thrift Contributions and Qualified Nonelective Contributions will be considered made for a Plan Year if made no later than the end of the 12-month period beginning on the day after the close of the Plan Year.

(v) The Employer shall maintain records sufficient to demonstrate satisfaction of the ACP Test and the amount of Qualified Nonelective Contributions or Qualified Matching Contributions, or both, used in such test.

(C) Multiple Use

If one or more Highly Compensated Employees participate in both a cash or deferred arrangement and a plan subject to the ACP Test and the sum of the Actual Deferral Percentage and the Actual Contribution Percentage of those Highly Compensated Employees exceeds the "aggregate limit", then the Actual Contribution Percentage of those Highly Compensated Employees will be reduced, beginning with such Highly Compensated Employee whose Actual Contribution Percentage is the highest, so that the limit is not exceeded. The amount by which each Highly Compensated Employee's Contribution Percentage is reduced shall be treated as an Excess Aggregate Contribution. The Actual Deferral Percentage and Actual Contribution Percentage of the Highly Compensated Employees are determined after any corrections required to meet the ADP Test and the ACP Test. Multiple use does not occur if either the Average Deferral Percentage or Actual Contribution Percentage of the Highly Compensated Employees does not exceed 1.25 multiplied by the Actual Deferral Percentage and the Actual Contribution Percentage of the Nonhighly Compensated Employees.

(i) The "aggregate limit" is the sum of (1) 125% of the greater of the Actual Deferral Percentage for Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees for the Plan Year or the Actual Deferral Percentage for Participants who are Nonhighly Compensated Employees for the Plan Year beginning with or within the Plan Year and (2) the lesser of 200% or two plus the lesser of such Actual Deferral Percentage or Actual Contribution Percentage. "Lesser" is substituted for "greater" in "(1)," above, and "greater" is substituted for "lesser" after "two plus the" in "(2)" if it would result in a larger aggregate limit.

(D) Forfeiture of Excess Aggregate Contributions

(i) In General. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, Excess Aggregate Contributions, plus any income and minus any loss allocable thereto, shall be forfeited and applied to reduce subsequent Matching 401(k) Contributions or Matching Thrift Contributions, as the case may be. No forfeitures arising under this Section 3.6.2(D) shall be allocated to the account of any Highly Compensated Employee. If not forfeitable, Excess Aggregate Contributions shall be distributed no later than the last day of each Plan Year beginning after December 31, 1987, to Participants to whose Accounts such Excess Aggregate Contributions were allocated for the preceding Plan Year. Excess Aggregate Contributions of Participants who are subject to the Family Member aggregation rules shall be allocated among the Family Members in proportion to the amounts constituting Contribution Percentage Amounts of each Family Member that is combined to determine the combined Actual Contribution Percentage. Excess Aggregate Contributions shall be treated as Annual Additions. Anything above to the contrary notwithstanding, any forfeiture or distribution under this Section 3.5.2(D)(i) shall occur only if sufficient Employee Thrift Contributions and/or Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions, as the case may be, are not distributed from the qualified plan holding such Employee Thrift Contributions and/or Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions, as the case may be.(2)

(ii) Determination of Income or Loss. Excess Aggregate Contributions shall be adjusted for any income or loss up to the date of distribution. The income or loss allocable to Excess Aggregate Contributions is the sum of: (1) the income or loss allocable to the Participant's Matching 401(k) Contribution Account or Matching Thrift Contribution Account (if any, and if all amounts therein are not used in the ADP Test) and, if applicable, Qualified Nonelective Contribution Account and Elective Deferrals Account for the Plan Year multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is such Participant's Excess Aggregate Contributions for the year and the denominator of which is the Participant's Account Balance(s) attributable to Contribution Percentage Amounts without regard to any income or loss occurring during such Plan Year; and (2) 10% of the amount determined under (1) multiplied by the number of whole calendar months between the end of the Plan Year and the date of distribution, counting the month of distribution if distribution occurs after the 15th of such month.

Anything in the preceding paragraph of this Section 3.5.2(D)(ii) to the contrary notwithstanding, any reasonable method for computing the income or loss allocable to Excess Aggregate Contributions may be used, provided that such method is used consistently for all Participants and for all corrective distributions under the Plan for the Plan Year, and is used by the Plan for allocating income or loss to Participants' Accounts. Income or loss allocable to the period between the end of the Plan Year and the date of distribution may be disregarded in determining income or loss.

(iii) The determination of the Excess Aggregate Contributions shall be made after first determining the Excess Elective Deferrals, and then determining the Excess Contributions.

3.5.3 For purposes of determining the ACP Test, Qualified Nonelective Contributions, Matching 401(k) Contributions and Matching Thrift Contributions will be considered made for a Plan Year if paid to the Trustee no later than the end of the 12-month period beginning on the day after the close of the Plan Year.

3.6 Thrift Contributions

3.6.1 Employee Thrift Contributions. If elected by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement to provide for Employee Thrift Contributions, the Employer will contribute cash to the Trust Fund in an amount equal to (A) the Employee Thrift Contribution percentage of each Participant on his or her Employee Thrift Contribution election form multiplied by each such Participant's Compensation or (B) the specific dollar amount set forth on the Participants election form.

The amount elected by a Participant pursuant to a Participant's Employee Thrift Contribution election shall be determined within the limits specified in the Adoption Agreement. Such election shall be made on a form provided by the Administrator but no election shall be effective prior to approval by the Administrator. The Administrator may reduce the amount of any Employee Thrift Contribution, or make such other modifications as necessary, so that the Plan complies with the provisions of the Code. A Participant's election shall remain in effect until modified or terminated at such times as specified in the Adoption Agreement.

3.6.2 Matching Thrift Contributions. Subject to the limitations contained in Sections 3.9 and 3.5.2, for each Plan Year the Employer will contribute in cash and/or Qualifying Employer Securities, Matching Thrift Contributions to the Trust Fund in an amount, if any, calculated by reference to the Participants' Employee Thrift Contributions, as specified in the Adoption Agreement.

Matching Thrift Contributions made by the Employer will be allocated to the Matching Thrift Contributions Account of those Participants who have contributed Employee Thrift Contributions to the Plan, as specified in the Adoption Agreement.

- ----------
(2) Distribution or forfeiture of Excess Aggregate Contributions on or before the last day of the Plan Year after the Plan Year in which such excess amounts arose is required under Code Section 401(m)(6) if the Plan is to maintain its tax-qualified status. However, if such excess amounts, plus any income and minus any loss allocable thereto, are distributed more than 2-1/2 months after the last day of the Plan Year in which such excess amounts arose, then Code Section 4979 imposes a 10% excise tax on the employer maintaining the plan with respect to such amounts.

3.7 Treatment of Forfeitures

3.7.1 If the Employer has elected in the Adoption Agreement to reallocate forfeitures for a Plan Year among Participants, then such forfeitures, if any, shall be allocated as of the last day of the Plan Year specified in the Adoption Agreement to the Employer Accounts of those Participants who are eligible to share in the allocation of contributions to that particular Employer Account (whether or not a contribution was made for that Plan Year) for that Plan Year in that particular Employer Account category with respect to which such forfeitures are attributable. If the Plan is a Target Benefit Plan, forfeitures may only be used to reduce Employer Contributions, in accordance with Section 3.7.2.

3.7.2 If the Employer has elected in the Adoption Agreement to use forfeiture to reduce contributions, then forfeitures shall be applied in the Plan Year specified in the Adoption Agreement to reduce Employer Contributions in that particular Employer Account category to which such forfeitures were attributable.

3.8 Establishing of Accounts

3.8.1 An Elective Deferrals Account shall be established for each Eligible Participant who makes a 401(k) Election to which the Administrator shall credit, or cause to be credited, Elective Deferrals allocable to each such Participant, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.2 An Employer Contributions Account shall be established for each Participant to which the Administrator shall credit or cause to be credited Employer contributions pursuant to Section 3.1, and forfeitures attributable to such contributions, if any, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.3 An Employee Thrift Contributions Account shall be established for each Participant who makes Employee Thrift Contributions to the Plan, to which the Administrator shall credit, or cause to be credited, all amounts allocable to each such Participant, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.4 A Matching 401(k) Contributions Account shall be established for each Participant for whom Matching 401(k) Contributions are made, to which the Administrator shall credit, or cause to be credited, all such amounts allocable to each such Participant, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.5 A Matching Thrift Contributions Account shall be established for each Participant for whom Matching Thrift Contributions are made, to which the Administrator shall credit, or cause to be credited, all amounts allocable to each such Participant, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.6 A Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions Account shall be established for each Participant who makes Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions to the Plant, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.7 A Qualified Matching Contributions Account shall be established for each Eligible Participant for whom Qualified Matching Contributions are made, to which the Administrator shall credit, or cause to be credited, all amounts allocable to each such Participant, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.8 A Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account shall be established for each Participant for whom Qualified Nonelective Contributions are made, to which the Administrator shall credit, or cause to be credited, all amounts allocable to each such Participant, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.9 A Rollover Contributions Account shall be established for each Participant who contributes to the Plan pursuant to Section 3.3 to which the Administrator shall credit, or cause to be credited, Rollover Contributions made by the Participant, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.8.10 A Transferred Contributions Account shall be established for each Participant for whom assets are transferred from another Qualified Plan, to which the Administrator shall credit, or cause to be credited, transferred assets, plus earnings or losses thereon.

3.9 Limitation on Amount of Allocations

3.9.1 As used in this Section 3.9, each of the following terms shall have the meaning for that term set forth in this Section 3.9.1:

(A) Annual Additions means, for each Participant, the sum of the following amounts credited to the Participant's Accounts for the Limitation Year:

(i) Employer Contributions within the meaning of IRS regulation 1.415-6(b);

(ii) Employee Contributions;

(iii) forfeitures;

(iv) allocation under a simplified employee pension; and

(v) any Excess Amount applied under a Defined Contribution Plan in the Limitation Year to reduce Employer Contributions will also be considered as part of the Annual Additions for such Limitation Year.

Amounts allocated after March 31, 1984, to an "individual medical benefit account" as defined in Code Section 415(1)(2) ("Individual Medical Benefit Account") which is part of a pension or annuity plan maintained by the Employer or Affiliate are treated as Annual Additions to a Defined Contribution Plan. Also, amounts derived from contributions paid or accrued after December 31, 1985, in taxable years ending after that date, which are attributable to post-retirement medical benefits allocated to the separate account of a "key employee" as defined in Code Section 419A(d)(3) under a "welfare benefit fund" as defined in Code Section 419(e) ("Welfare Benefit Fund") maintained by the Employer or Affiliate, are treated as Annual Additions to a Defined Contribution Plan.

(B) Defined Benefit Dollar Limitation means $90,000 multiplied by the Adjustment Factor or such other limitation set forth in Code Section 415(b)(1) as in effect for the Limitation Year.

(C) Defined Benefit Fraction means a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the Projected Annual Benefits of the Participant involved under all Defined Benefit Plans (whether or not terminated) maintained by the Employer or Affiliate, and the denominator of which is the lesser of 125% of the Defined Benefit Dollar Limitation determined for the Limitation Year or 140% of the Participant's Highest Average Limitation Compensation, including any adjustments under Code Section 415(b).

Notwithstanding the above, if the Participant was a Participant as of the first day of the first Limitation Year beginning after December 31, 1986, in one or more Defined Benefit Plans maintained by the Employer or Affiliate which were in existence on May 5, 1986, the denominator of this fraction will not be less than 125% of the sum of the annual benefits under such Plans which the Participant had accrued as of the close of the last Limitation Year beginning before January 1, 1987, disregarding any changes in the terms and conditions of the plans after May 5, 1986. The preceding sentence applies only if the Defined Benefit Plans individually and in the aggregate satisfied the requirements of Code Section 415 for all Limitation Years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(D) Defined Contribution Dollar Limitation means $30,000 or if greater, one-fourth of the Defined Benefit Dollar Limitation as in effect for the Limitation Year.

(E) Defined Contribution Fraction means a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the Annual Additions to the Participant's Account or Accounts under all the Defined Contribution Plans (whether or not terminated) maintained by the Employer or Affiliate for the current and all prior Limitation Years (including the Annual Additions attributable to the Participant's nondeductible contributions to all Defined Benefit Plans, whether or not terminated, maintained by the Employer or Affiliate and the Annual Additions attributable to all Welfare Benefit Funds, Individual Medical Benefit Accounts, and simplified employee pensions maintained by the Employer or Affiliate), and the denominator of which is the sum of the "maximum aggregate amounts" (as defined in the following sentence) for the current and all prior Limitation Years of service with the Employer or Affiliate (regardless of whether a Defined Contribution Plan was maintained by the Employer or Affiliate). The "maximum aggregate amount" in any Limitation Year is the lesser of (i) 125% of the Defined Benefit Dollar Limitation in effect under Code Section 415(c)(1)(A) or (ii) 35% of the Participant's Compensation for such year.

If the Employee was a Participant as of the first day of the first Limitation Year beginning after December 31, 1986, in one or more Defined Contribution Plans maintained by the Employer or Affiliate in existence on May 5, 1986, the numerator of this fraction will be adjusted if the sum of this fraction and the Defined Benefit Fraction would otherwise exceed 1.0 under the terms of this Plan. Under the adjustment, an amount equal to the product of (A) the excess of the sum of the fractions over 1.0 times (B) the denominator of this fraction will be permanently subtracted from the numerator of this fraction. The adjustment is calculated using the fractions as they would be computed as of the later of the end of the last Limitation Year beginning before January 1, 1987, and disregarding any changes in the terms and conditions of the Plans made after May 6, 1986, but using the Code Section 415 limitation applicable to the first Limitation Year beginning on or after January 1, 1987. The Annual Addition for any Limitation Year beginning before January 1,1987, shall not be recomputed to treat all Participant contributions as Annual Additions.

(F) Excess Amounts means the excess of the Participant's Annual Additions for the Limitation Year involved over the Maximum Permissible Amount for that Limitation Year.

(G) Highest Average Limitation Compensation means the average Compensation as defined in Code Section 415(e)(3) of the Participant involved for that period of three consecutive Years of Service with the Employer or Affiliate (or if the Participant has less than three such Years of Service, the actual number thereof) that produces the highest average.

(H) Limitation Compensation means Compensation, as defined in either (i), (ii) or (iii) below, as specified in the Adoption Agreement:

(i) Code Section 415 Safe-Harbor Compensation

For an Employee other than a Self-Employed Individual, the Employee's earned income, wages, salaries, and fees for professional services and other amounts received (without regard to whether or not an amount is paid in cash) for personal services actually rendered in the course of Employment (including, but not limited to, commissions paid salesmen, compensation for services on the basis of a percentage of profits, commissions on insurance premiums, tips, bonuses, fringe benefits, and reimbursements or other expense allowances under a nonaccountable plan (as described in Reg. 1.62-2(c)) and excluding the following:

(1) Employer contributions to a plan of deferred compensation which are not includible in the Employee's gross income for the taxable year in which contributed, or contributions under a "simplified employee pension" plan (within the meaning of Code Section 408(k)) to the extent such contributions are deductible by the Employee, or any distributions from a plan of deferred compensation;

(2) amounts realized from the exercise of a non-qualified stock option, or when restricted stock (or other property) held by the Employee either becomes freely "transferable" or is no longer subject to a "substantial risk of forfeiture" (both quoted terms within the meaning of Code Section 83(a));

(3) amounts realized from the sale, exchange or other disposition of stock acquired under a qualified stock option; and

(4) other amounts which received special tax benefits, or contributions made (whether or not under a salary reduction agreement) towards the purchase of an annuity described in Code Section 403(b) (whether or not the amounts are actually excludable from the gross income of the Employee); or For Limitation Years beginning after December 31, 1991, Limitation Compensation shall include only that compensation which is actually paid or made available during the Limitation Year.

(ii) Information required to be reported under Sections 6041 and 6051. ("Wages, Tips and other Compensation Box" Form W-2) Limitation Compensation is defined as wages as defined in Code Section 3401(a) and all other payments of compensation to an Employee by the Employer (in the course of the Employer's trade or business) for which the Employer is required to furnish the Employee a written statement under Sections 6041(d) and 6051(a)(3) of the Code. Compensation must be determined without regard to any rules under Section 3401(a) that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed (such as the exception for agricultural labor in Section 3401(a)(2)).

(iii) Code Section 3401(a) wages

Limitation Compensation is defined as wages within the meaning of Code Section 3401(a) for the purposes of income tax withholding at the source but determined without regard to any rules that limit the remuneration included in wages based on the nature or location of the employment or the services performed (such as the exception for agricultural labor in Code Section 3401(a)(2)).

Without regard to the definition of Limitation Compensation elected by the Employer, for a Self-Employed Individual, Limitation Compensation means his or her Earned Income, provided that if the Self-Employed Individual is not a Participant for an entire Plan Year, his or her Limitation Compensation for that Plan Year shall be his or her Earned Income for that Plan Year multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the number of days he or she is a Participant during the Plan Year and the denominator of which is the number of days in the Plan Year. Additionally, Limitation Compensation for a Participant in a Defined Contribution Plan who is permanently and totally disabled (as defined in Code Section 22(e)) is the compensation such Participant would have received for the Limitation Year if the Participant had been paid at the rate of compensation paid immediately before becoming disabled; such imputed compensation may be taken into account only if the Participant is not a Highly Compensated Employee and contributions made on behalf of such Participant are nonforfeitable when made.

(I) Maximum Permissible Amount means the maximum Annual Addition which may be contributed or allocated to a Participant's Account under the Plan for any Limitation Year. The maximum Annual Addition shall not exceed the lesser of: (a) the Defined Contribution Dollar Limitation, or (b) 25% of the Participant's Compensation for the Limitation Year. The Compensation limitation referred to in (b) shall not apply to any contribution for medical benefits (within the meaning of Code Sections 401(h) or 419A(f)(2)) which is otherwise treated as an Annual Addition under Code Section 415(l)(1) or 419A(d)(2). If a short Limitation Year is created because of an amendment changing the Limitation Year to a different 12-consecutive month period, the Maximum Permissible Amount will not exceed the Defined Contribution Dollar Limitation multiplied by the following fraction:

$$\frac{\text{Number of months in the short Limitation Year}}{12}$$

(J) Projected Annual Benefit means the annual retirement benefit (adjusted to an actuarially equivalent straight life annuity if such benefit is expressed in a form other than a straight life annuity or Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity) to which the Participant would be entitled under the terms of a Defined Benefit Plan assuming:

(i) the Participant continues in employment with the Employer or Affiliate until the Participant's "normal retirement age" under the Plan within the meaning of Code Section 411(a)(8) (or the Participant's current age, if later); and

(ii) the Participant's Limitation Compensation for the current Limitation Year and all other relevant factors used to determine benefits under the Plan will remain constant for all future Limitation Years.

3.9.2 The provisions of this subsection 3.9.2 apply with respect to a Participant who does not participate in, and has never participated in, another Qualified Plan, a Welfare Benefit Fund or an Individual Medical Benefit Account or a simplified employee pension, as defined in Code Section 401(k), maintained by the Employer or an Affiliate, which provides an Annual Addition as defined in Section 3.9.1(A) of the Plan, other than this Plan:

(A) The amount of Annual Additions which may be credited to the Participant's Account for any Limitation Year will not exceed the lesser of the Maximum Permissible Amount or any other limitation contained in this Plan. If the Employer Contribution that would otherwise be contributed or allocated to the Participant's Account would cause the Annual Additions on behalf of the Participant for the Limitation Year to exceed the Maximum Permissible Amount with respect to that Participant for the Limitation Year, the amount contributed or allocated will be reduced so that the Annual Additions on behalf of the Participant for the Limitation Year will equal such Maximum Permissible Amount.

(B) Prior to determining the Participant's actual Limitation Compensation for a Limitation Year, the Employer may determine the Maximum Permissible Amount for the Participant for the Limitation Year on the basis of a reasonable estimation of the Participant's Compensation for that Limitation Year. Such estimated Compensation shall be uniformly determined for all Participants similarly situated.

(C) As soon as is administratively feasible after the end of a Limitation Year, the Maximum Permissible Amount for the Limitation Year will be determined on the basis of the Participant's actual compensation for the Limitation Year.

(D) If pursuant to Section 3.9.2(C) or as a result of the allocation of forfeitures, there is an Excess Amount with respect to the Participant for a Limitation Year, the Excess Amount shall be disposed of as follows:

(i) First, any contribution to the Participant's Elective Deferrals Account, Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions Account or Employee Thrift Contributions Account, if applicable, and any earnings allocable thereto will be distributed to the Participant to the extent that the return thereof would reduce the Excess Amount in such Participant's Accounts;

(ii) If after the application of Section 3.9.2(D)(i) an Excess Amount still exists, and the Participant is covered by the Plan at the end of the Limitation Year, the remaining Excess Amount in the Participant's Account will be used to reduce Employer contributions (including allocation of any forfeitures) under this Plan for such Participant in the next Limitation Year, and in each succeeding Limitation Year, if necessary.

(iii) If after the application of Section 3.9.2(D)(i) an Excess Amount still exists, and the Participant is not covered by the Plan at the end of the Limitation Year, the Excess Amount will be held unallocated in a suspense account. The suspense account will be applied to reduce future Employer contributions under this Plan for all remaining Participants in the next Limitation Year, and in each succeeding Limitation Year, if necessary; provided, however, that if all or any part of the Excess Amount held in a suspense account is attributable to a Participant's Elective Deferrals, such Excess Amount shall be held unallocated in a suspense account to be used for such Participant in the next Limitation Year and each succeeding Limitation Year as an elective Deferral if such Participant is covered by the Plan in the next and each succeeding Limitation Year, if necessary.

(iv) If a suspense account is in existence at any time during a Limitation Year pursuant to Section 3.9.2(D)(iii), the suspense account will not participate in the allocation of the Trust Fund's investment gains or losses to or from any other Account. If a suspense account is in existence at any time during a particular Limitation Year, all amounts in the suspense account must be allocated and reallocated to Participants' Accounts before any Employer or Participant contributions may be made to the Plan for the Limitation Year. Excess Amounts, other than those Excess Amounts referred to in Section 3.9.2(D)(i), may not be distributed to Participants or Former Participants.

3.9.3 The provisions of this subsection 3.9.3 apply with respect to a Participant who, in addition to this Plan, is covered or has been covered under one or more Defined Contribution Plans which are Master or Prototype Plans, Welfare Benefit Funds an Individual Medical Benefit Account or a simplified employee pension maintained by the Employer or an Affiliate, which provides an Annual Addition as described in Section 3.9.1(A) of the Plan during any Limitation Year:

(A) The Annual Additions which may be credited to a Participant's Accounts under this Plan for any such Limitation Year will not exceed the Maximum Permissible Amount reduced by the Annual Additions credited to the Participant's account or accounts under any other plans and Welfare Benefit Fund, Individual Medical Benefit Account or simplified employee pension for the same Limitation Year. If the Annual Additions with respect to the Participant under any one or more other such Defined Contribution Plans or Welfare Benefit Funds, Individual Medical Benefit Account or simplified employee pension maintained by the Employer are less than the Maximum Permissible Amount and the Employer Contribution that would otherwise be contributed or allocated to a Participant's Account under this Plan would cause the Annual Additions for the Limitation Year to exceed this limitation, the amount contributed or allocated shall be reduced so that the Annual Additions under all such plans and funds for the Limitation Year will equal the Maximum Permissible Amount.

If the Annual Additions with respect to the Participant under such other Defined Contribution Plans and Welfare Benefit Funds, Individual Medical Benefit Account or simplified employee pension in the aggregate are equal to or greater than the Maximum Permissible Amount, no amount will be contributed or allocated to any of the Participant's Account under this Plan for the Limitation Year.

(B) Prior to determining the Participant's actual compensation for a Limitation Year, the Maximum Permissible Amount for a Participant may be determined in the manner described in Section 3.9.2(B).

(C) As soon as is administratively feasible after the end of a Limitation Year, the Maximum Permissible Amount for the Limitation Year will be determined on the basis of the Participant's actual Limitation Compensation for the Limitation Year.

(D) If, pursuant to subsection 3.9.3(C) above, or as a result of the allocation of forfeitures, a Participant's Annual Additions under this Plan and the Participant's Annual Additions under such other plans would result in an Excess Amount for a Limitation Year, the Excess Amount will be deemed to consist of the Annual Additions last allocated, except that Annual Additions attributable to simplified employee pension will be deemed to have been allocated first, followed by Annual Additions to a Welfare Benefit Fund or Individual Medical Benefit Account regardless of the actual allocation date.

(E) If an Excess Amount was allocated to a Participant on an allocation date of this Plan which coincides with an allocation date of another such plan, the Excess Amount attributed to this Plan will be the product of:

(i) the total Excess Amount allocated as of such date, times

(ii) the ratio of (A) the Annual Additions allocated to the Participant for the Limitation Year as of such date under this Plan to (B) the total Annual Additions allocated to the Participant for the Limitation Year as of such date under this Plan and all of the other plans referred to in the first sentence of this Section 3.9.3.

(F) Any Excess Amount attributed to this Plan will be disposed in the manner described in Section 3.9.2(D).

3.9.4 If a Participant is covered under one or more Defined Contribution Plans, other than this Plan, maintained by the Employer or an Affiliate which are not Master or Prototype Plans, or Welfare Benefit Funds or an Individual Medical Benefit Account maintained by the Employer, Annual Additions which may be credited to the Participant's Account under this Plan for any Limitation Year shall be limited in accordance with the provisions of subsections 3.9.3(A)-(F) above as though each such other plan was a Master or Prototype Plan.

3.9.5 If the Employer maintains, or at any time maintained, a Defined Benefit Plan covering any Participant in this Plan, the sum of the Participant's Defined Benefit Fraction and Defined Contribution Fraction will not exceed 1.0 in any Limitation Year. If such sum would otherwise exceed 1.0 and if such Defined Benefit Plan does not provide for a reduction in benefits thereunder, Annual Additions which may be credited to a Participant's Account under this Plan for any Limitation Year shall be limited in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.9.2.

3.9.6 If required pursuant to Section 4.4.4, "100%" shall be substituted for 125% wherever the latter percentage appears in this Section 3.9.

3.10 Return of Employer Contributions Under Special Circumstances

Notwithstanding any provision of this Plan to the contrary, upon timely written demand by the Employer or the Administrator to the Trustee:

(A) Any contribution by the Employer to the Plan under a mistake of fact shall be returned to the Employer by the Trustee within one year after the payment of the contribution.

(B) Any contribution made by the Employer incident to the determination by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that the Plan is initially a Qualified Plan shall be returned to the Employer by the Trustee within one year after notification from the Internal Revenue Service that the Plan is not initially a Qualified Plan but only if the application for the qualification is made by the time prescribed by law for filing the Employers return for the taxable year in which the Plan is adopted, or such later date as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(C) In the event the deduction of a contribution made by the Employer is disallowed under Code Section 404, such contribution (to the extent disallowed) must be returned to the Employer within one year of the disallowance of the deduction.

ARTICLE IV VESTING

4.1 Determination of Vesting

4.1.1 A Participant shall at all times have a vested percentage of 100% in the Account Balance of each of his or her Participant Contributions Accounts, 401(k) Contributions Accounts, Rollover Contributions Account and Transferred Account.

4.1.2 A Participant shall have a vested percentage of 100% in his or her Account Balance of each of his or her Employer Accounts if he or she terminates Employment due to the attainment of Normal Retirement Age, Early Retirement specified in the Adoption Agreement, if elected by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement, or upon Disability or death.

4.1.3 The vested percentage of a Participant in the Account Balance of each of his or her Employer Accounts not vested pursuant to Section 4.1.1 or 4.1.2 shall be determined in accordance with the vesting rule or schedule specified in the Adoption Agreement.

4.2 Rules for Crediting Vesting Service

4.2.1 Subject to Section 4.2.2, Years of Service shall be credited for purposes of determining a Participant's Vesting Service as specified in the Adoption Agreement. If the Employer maintains the plan of a predecessor employer, service with such predecessor employer shall be treated as service with the Employer for purposes of Vesting Service.

4.2.2 An Employee who terminates Employment with no vested percentage in an Employer Account shall, if he or she returns to Employment, have no credit for Vesting Service prior to such termination of Employment if his or her Period of Severance equals or exceeds five years.

4.2.3 Vesting Service of an Employee following a Period of Severance of five years or more shall not be counted for the purpose of computing his or her vested percentage in his or her Employer Accounts derived from contributions accrued prior to the Period of Severance. If applicable, separate records shall be maintained reflecting the Participant's vested rights in his or her Account Balance attributable to service prior to the Period of Severance and reflecting the Participant's vested percentage in his or her Account Balance attributable to service after the Period of Severance. Vesting Service prior to and following an Employee's Period of Severance shall be counted for purposes of computing his or her vested percentage in an Employer Account derived from contributions made after the Period of Severance.

4.3 Employer Accounts Forfeitures

4.3.1 Subject to Section 5.6, upon the Nonvested Separation of a Participant, the nonvested portion of each Employer Account of such Participant will be forfeited as of the date of termination of Employment.

Upon the Partially Vested Separation of a Participant, the nonvested portion of each Employer Account of such Participant will be forfeited as of the date of termination of Employment; provided, however, that such Participant receives a distribution in accordance with Section 5.6. If a Participant does not receive a distribution following his or her termination of Employment, the nonvested portion of each Employer Account of the Participant shall be forfeited following a Period of Severance of five years.

4.3.2 If the Employer elects in the Adoption Agreement to reallocate forfeitures, forfeitures for a Plan Year shall be allocated in accordance with Section 3.7.1. If the Employer elects in the Adoption Agreement to use forfeitures to reduce Employer contributions, forfeitures shall be applied in accordance with Section 3.7.2.

4.4 Top-Heavy Provisions

4.4.1 As used in this Section 4.4, each of the following terms shall have the meanings for that term set forth in this Section 4.4.1:

(A) Determination Date means, for any Plan Year subsequent to the first Plan Year, the last day of the preceding Plan year. For the first Plan Year of the Plan, the last day of that year.

(B) Permissive Aggregation Group means the Required Aggregation Group of plans plus any other plan or plans of the Employer or Affiliate which, when considered as a group with the Required Aggregation Group, would continue to satisfy the requirements of Code Sections 401(a)(4) and 410.

(C) Required Aggregation Group means (i) each Qualified Plan of the Employer or Affiliate in which at least one Key Employee participates or participated at any time during the determination period (regardless of whether the Plan has terminated), and (ii) any other qualified plan of the Employer or Affiliate which enables a plan described in (i) to meet the requirements of Code Sections 401(a)(4) or 410.

(D) Super Top-Heavy means, for any Plan Year beginning after December 31, 1963, the Plan if any Top-Heavy Ratio as determined under the definition of Top-Heavy Plan exceeds 90%.

(E) Top-Heavy Plan means, for any Plan Year beginning after December 31, 1983, the Plan if any of the following conditions exists:

(i) If the Top-Heavy Ratio for the Plan exceeds 60% and the Plan is not part of any Required Aggregation Group or Permissive Aggregation Group of Plans.

(ii) If the Plan is a part of a Required Aggregation Group of plans but not part of a Permissive Aggregation Group and the Top-Heavy Ratio for the group of plans exceeds 60%.

(iii) If the Plan is a part of a Required Aggregation Group and part of a Permissive Aggregation Group of plans and the Top-Heavy Ratio for the Permissive Aggregation Group exceeds 60%.

(F) Top-Heavy Ratio means

(i) If the Employer or Affiliate maintains one or more Defined Contribution Plans (including any Simplified Employee Pension Plan) and the Employer or Affiliate has never maintained any Defined Benefit Plan which during the five-year period ending on the Determination Date has or has had accrued benefits, the Top-Heavy Ratio for this Plan alone or for the Required or Permissive Aggregation Group as appropriate is a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the Account Balances of all Key Employees as of the Determination Date (including any part of any Account Balance distributed in the five-year period ending on the Determination Date), and the denominator of which is the sum of all Account Balances (including any part of any Account Balance distributed in the five-year period ending on the Determination Date), both computed in accordance with Code Section 416. Both the numerator and denominator of the Top-Heavy Ratio are increased to reflect any contribution not actually made as of the Determination Date, but which is required to be taken into account on that date under Code Section 416.

(ii) If the Employer or an Affiliate maintains one or more Defined Contribution Plans (including any Simplified Employee Pension Plan) and the Employer or an Affiliate maintains or has maintained one or more Defined Benefit Plans which during the five-year period ending on the Determination Date has or has had any accrued benefits, the Top-Heavy Ratio for any Required or Permissive Aggregation Group as appropriate is a fraction. the numerator of which is the sum of Account Balances under the aggregated Defined Contribution Plans for all Key Employees, determined in accordance with (i) above, and the present value of accrued benefits under the aggregated Defined Benefit Plans for all Key Employees as of the Determination Date, and the denominator of which is the sum of the Account Balances under the aggregated Defined Contribution Plans for all Participants, determined in accordance with (i) above, and the present value of accrued benefits under the Defined Benefit Plans for all Participants as of the Determination Date, all determined in accordance with Code Section 416. The accrued benefit under a Defined Benefit Plan in both the numerator and denominator of the Top-Heavy Ratio are increased for any distribution of an accrued benefit made in the five-year period ending on the Determination Date.

(iii) For purposes of (i) and (ii) above, the value of Account Balances and the present value of accrued benefits will be determined as of the most recent Valuation Date that falls within or ends with the 12-month period ending on the Determination Date, except as provided in Code Section 416 for the first and second Plan Years of a Defined Benefit Plan. The Account Balances and accrued benefits of a Participant (1) who is not a Key Employee but who was a Key Employee in a prior year, or (2) who has not been credited with at least one Hour of Service with the Employer or an Affiliate at any time during the five-year period ending on the Determination Date, will be disregarded. The calculation of the Top-Heavy Ratio, and the extent to which distributions, rollovers, and transfers are taken into account will be made in accordance with Code Section 416.

Deductible Employee Contributions will not be taken into account for purposes of computing the Top-Heavy Ratio. When aggregating plans the value of Account Balances and accrued benefits will be calculated with reference to the Determination Dates that fall within the same calendar year.

The accrued benefit of a Participant who is not a Key Employee shall be determined under (A) the method, if any, that uniformly applies for accrual purposes under all Defined Benefit Plans or (B) if there is no such method, as if such benefit accrued not more rapidly than the slowest accrual rate permitted under the fractional rule of Code Section 411(b)(1)(C).

4.4.2 If the Plan is determined to be a Top-Heavy Plan or a Super Top-Heavy Plan as of any Determination Date after December 31, 1983, then the Top-Heavy vesting schedule specified in the Adoption Agreement, beginning with the first Plan Year commencing after such Determination Date, shall apply only for those Plan Years in which the Plan continues to be a Top-Heavy Plan or Super Top-Heavy Plan, as the case may be.

4.4.3 (A) Except as provided in Sections 4.4.3(C) and (D), for any Plan Year in which the Plan is a Top-Heavy Plan, contributions and forfeitures allocated to the Employer Contributions Account of any Participant who is not a Key Employee in respect of that Plan Year shall not be less than the lesser of:

(i) 3% of such Participant's Limitation Compensation, or

(ii) if the Employer has no Defined Benefit Plan which designates this Plan to satisfy Code Section 401, the largest percentage of contributions and forfeitures, as a percentage of the Key Employees Limitation Compensation, allocated to the Employer Contributions Account of any Key Employee for that year. The minimum allocation is determined without regard to any Social Security contribution. This minimum allocation shall be made even though, under other Plan provisions, the Participant would not otherwise be entitled to receive an allocation, or would have received a lesser allocation for the Plan Year because of (a) the Participant's failure to complete a Year of Service, (b) the Participants failure to make mandatory Participant contributions to the Plan or (c) compensation less than a stated amount.

(B) For purposes of computing the minimum allocation, a Participant's Limitation Compensation will be applied.

(C) The provision in (A) above shall not apply to any Participant who was not employed by the Employer or an Affiliate on the last day of the Plan Year.

(D) If the Employer or an Affiliate has executed Adoption Agreements covering Participants by a plan which is a profit-sharing plan and by another plan which is a money purchase pension plan or a target benefit plan, the minimum allocation specified in the preceding Section 4.4.3(A) shall be provided by the money purchase pension plan or by the target benefit plan, as the case may be. If a Participant is covered under this Plan and a Defined Benefit Plan maintained pursuant to Adoption Agreements offered by the Sponsor, the minimum allocation specified in the preceding Section 4.4.3(A) shall not be applicable and the Participant shall receive the minimum benefit specified in the Defined Benefit Plan.

(E) With respect to any profit-sharing or money purchase pension plan which becomes Top-Heavy and is integrated with Social Security, prior to making the allocations specified in the Adoption Agreement, anything contained therein to the contrary notwithstanding, there shall be an allocation of the Employer Contribution to each eligible Participant's Employer Contribution Account in the ratio that each such Participant's Limitation Compensation for the Plan Year bears to the Limitation Compensation of all such Participants for the Plan Year, but not in excess of 3% of such Limitation Compensation.

4.4.4 If the Plan becomes a Top-Heavy Plan, then the maximum benefit which can be provided under Section 3.9 shall continue to be determined by applying "125%" wherever it appears in that Section and by substituting "4%" for "3%" wherever that appears in Section 4.4.3. However, if the Plan becomes a Super Top-Heavy Plan, the maximum benefit which can be provided under Section 3.9 shall be determined by substituting "100%" for "125%" wherever the latter percentage appears and the 3% minimum contribution provided for in Section 4.4.4 shall remain unchanged.

4.4.5 Beginning with the Plan Year in which this Plan is Top-Heavy, one of the minimum Top-Heavy vesting schedules as specified in the Adoption Agreement will apply. The minimum vesting schedule applies to all benefits within the meaning of Code Section 411(a)(7) except those attributable to Employee contributions, including benefits accrued before the effective date of Code Section 416 and benefits accrued before the Plan became Top-Heavy. However, this Section 4.4 does not apply to the Account Balances of any Employee who does not have an Hour of Service after the Plan has initially become Top-Heavy and such Employee's vesting in his or her Employer Contributions Account will be determined without regard to this Section 4.4. The minimum allocation pursuant to Section 4.4.3 (to the extent required to be nonforfeitable under Code Section 416(b)) may not be forfeited under Code Section 411(a)(3)(B) or Code Section 411(a)(3)(D).

ARTICLE V
AMOUNT AND DISTRIBUTION OF BENEFITS, WITHDRAWALS AND LOANS

5.1 Distribution Upon Termination of Employment

5.1.1 Subject to Section 5.1.2. a Participant's Benefit Commencement Date shall be as soon as practicable following his or her Fully Vested Separation, Partially Vested Separation or Nonvested Separation, if applicable, and in accordance with Section 5.6. If the Plan includes a CODA feature, each 401(k) Contributions Account of a Participant shall be payable in accordance with the events specified in Section 1.27 of the Plan.

5.1.2 If specified in the Adoption Agreement, a Participant's Benefit Commencement Date shall be deferred until the earliest of his or her Normal Retirement Age, Disability, or if elected by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement, Early Retirement. If a Participant terminates Employment after satisfying any service requirement for Early Retirement specified in the Adoption Agreement, he or she shall be entitled to elect to receive a distribution of his or her vested Employer Accounts upon satisfaction of any age requirement for Early Retirement.

5.2 Amount of Benefits Upon a Fully Vested Separation

A Participant's benefits upon his or her Fully Vested Separation for any reason other than Disability shall be the Account Balance of all of his or her Accounts determined in accordance with Section 10.6.2.

5.3 Amount of Benefits Upon a Partially Vested Separation

A Participant's benefits upon his or her Partially Vested Separation for any reason other than Disability shall be (A) the Account Balance of his or her Employer Accounts determined in accordance with Section 10.6.2 multiplied by his or her vested percentage determined pursuant to Section 4.1.3, or, if applicable, Section 4.4.2, plus (B) the Account Balance of his or her other Accounts determined in accordance with Section 10.6.2.

5.4 Amount of Benefits Upon a Nonvested Separation

A Participant's benefits upon his or her Nonvested Separation shall be the Account Balance of his or her Accounts other than Employer Accounts, if any, determined in accordance with Section 10.6.2.

5.5 Amount of Benefits Upon a Separation Due to Disability

If a Participant terminates Employment due to a Disability, his or her benefit shall be the Account Balance of all of his or her Accounts determined as a Fully Vested Separation in accordance with Section 5.2 and Section 10.6.2. The Benefit Commencement Date of any such Participant on whose behalf contributions are being made pursuant to Section 3.1.4 shall be as soon as practicable after the date such contributions cease.

5.6 Distribution and Restoration

5.6.1 If, upon a Participant's termination of Employment, the vested Account Balance of his or her Accounts as of the applicable Valuation Date is equal to or less than $3,500, such Participant will receive a distribution of his or her entire vested benefit and the nonvested portion will be treated as forfeiture. If the value of a Participant's vested Account is zero, the Participant shall be deemed to have received a distribution of such vested Account.

5.6.2 If, upon a Participant's termination of Employment, the vested Account Balance of his or her Accounts as of the applicable Valuation Date exceeds $3,500, the Participant may elect, in accordance with Article VI, to receive a distribution of the entire vested portion of such Accounts and the nonvested portion, if any, will be treated as a forfeiture.

5.6.3 If the vested Account Balance of a Participant's Accounts as of the applicable Valuation Date has an aggregate value exceeding (or at the time of any prior distribution exceeded) $3,500, and the Participant's benefit is Immediately Distributable, the Participant and the Participant's Spouse (or where either the Participant or the Spouse has died, the survivor) must consent to any distribution of such benefit. The consent of the Participant and the Participant's Spouse shall be obtained in writing within the 90-day period ending on the Participant's Benefit Commencement Date; provided, however, that if the Plan is a profit-sharing plan and Section 6.1.2 applies, the consent of the Participant's Spouse will not be required. The Administrator shall notify the Participant and the Participant's Spouse of the right to defer any distribution until the Participant's benefit is no longer Immediately Distributable. Such notification shall include a general description of the material features, and an explanation of the relative values of, the optional forms of benefit available under the Plan in a manner that would satisfy the notice requirements of Code Section 417(a)(3), and shall be provided no less than 30 days and no more than 90 days prior to the Benefit Commencement Date.

5.6.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing, only the Participant need consent to the commencement of a distribution in the form of a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity while the Participant's benefit is Immediately Distributable. Neither the consent of the Participant nor the Participant's Spouse shall be required to the extent that a distribution is required to satisfy Code Section 401(a)(9) or Code Section 415.

5.6.5 For purposes of determining the applicability of the foregoing consent requirements to distributions made before the first day of the first Plan Year beginning after December 31, 1988, the Participant's vested benefit shall not include amounts attributable to accumulated deductible Participant contributions within the meaning of Code Section 72(o)(5)(B).

5.6.6 If a Participant, who after termination of Employment received a distribution and forfeited any portion of an Employer Account or is deemed to have received a distribution in accordance with Section 3.6.1, resumes Employment, he or she shall have the right, while an Employee, to repay the full amount previously distributed from such Employer Account. Such repayment must occur before the earlier of (i) the date on which he or she would have incurred a Period of Severance of five years commencing after the distribution or (ii) five years after the first date on which the Participant is subsequently reemployed. If the Participant makes a repayment, the Account Balance of his or her relevant Employer Account shall be restored to its value as of the date of distribution. The restored amount shall be derived from forfeitures during the Plan Year and, if such forfeitures are not sufficient, from a contribution by the Employer made as of that date (determined without reference to Net Profits). If an Employee who had a Nonvested Separation and was deemed to receive a distribution resumes Employment before a Period of Severance of five years, his or her Employer Account will be restored, upon reemployment, to the amount on the date of such deemed distribution.

5.7 Withdrawals During Employment

5.7.1 If the Plan is a profit-sharing plan, and if the Employer has elected in the Adoption Agreement to permit withdrawals during Employment, prior to termination of Employment, each Participant upon attainment of age 59-1/2 may elect to withdraw, as of the Valuation Date next following the receipt of an election by the Administrator, and upon such notice as the Administrator may require, all or any part of the vested Account Balance of all of his or her Accounts, as of such Valuation Date.

5.7.2 Notwithstanding Section 5.7.1, prior to termination of Employment, each Participant with a Rollover Contributions Account and/or a Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions Account may elect to withdraw, as of the Valuation Date next following the receipt of an election by the Administrator, and upon such notice as the Administrator may require, all or any of such Account, as of such Valuation Date.

5.7.3 The Administrator may establish from time to time rules and procedures with respect to any withdrawals including the order of Accounts from which such withdrawals shall be made.

5.7.4 No forfeitures shall occur as a result of a withdrawal pursuant to this Section 5.7.

5.7.5 If a Participant is married at the time of such election, the Participant's Spouse must consent to such a withdrawal in the same manner as provided in Section 6.2.4; provided, however, that if the Plan is a profit-sharing plan and Section 6.1.2 applies, the consent of the Participant's Spouse will not be required.

5.8 Loans

5.8.1 If the Employer has elected in the Adoption Agreement to make loans available, a Participant may submit an application to the Administrator to borrow from any Account maintained for the Participant (on such terms and conditions as the Administrator shall prescribe) an amount which when added to the outstanding balance of all other loans to the Participant would not exceed the lesser of (a) $50,000 reduced by the excess (if any) of the highest outstanding balance of loans during the one year period ending on the day before the loan is made, over the outstanding balance of loans from the Plan on the date the loan is made, or (b) 50% of the vested portion of his or her Account from which the borrowing is to be made as of the Valuation Date next following the receipt of his or her loan application by the Administrator and the expiration of such notice period as the Administrator may require. For this purpose, all loans from Qualified Plans of the Employer or an Affiliate shall be aggregated, and an assignment or pledge of any portion of the Participant's interest in the Plan, and a loan, pledge or assignment with respect to any insurance contract purchased under the Plan, will be treated as a loan under this Section 5.8.1.

5.8.2 If approved, each such loan shall comply with the following conditions:

(A) it shall be evidenced by a negotiable promissory note;

(B) the rate of interest payable on the unpaid balance of such loan shall be a reasonable rate determined by the Administrator;

(C) the Participant must obtain the consent of his or her Spouse, if any, within the 90-day period before the time an Account is used as security for the loan; provided, however, that if the Plan is a profit-sharing plan that meets the requirements in Section 6.1.2 of the Plan, the consent of the Participant's Spouse will not be required. A new consent is required if an Account is used for any increase in the amount of security. The consent shall comply with the requirements of Section 6.2.4, but shall be deemed to meet any requirements contained in section 6.2.4 relating to the consent of any subsequent Spouse. A new consent shall be required if an Account is used for renegotiation, extension, renewal, or other revision of the loan;

(D) the loan, by its terms, must require repayment (principal and interest) be amortized in level payments, not less frequently than quarterly, over a period not extending beyond five years from the date of the loan; provided, however, that if the proceeds of the loan are used to acquire a dwelling unit which within a reasonable time (determined at the time the loan is made) will be used as the principal residence of the Participant, the repayment schedule may be for a term in excess of five years; and

(E) the loan shall be adequately secured and may be secured by no more than 50% of the Participant's vested interest in the Account Balance of his or her Accounts.

5.8.3 If a Participant or Beneficiary requests and is granted a loan, and the loan is made from Participant-Directed Assets, principal and interest payments with respect to the loan shall be credited solely to the Account of the borrowing Participant from which the loan was made. Any loss caused by nonpayment or other default on a Participant's loan obligations shall be charged solely to that Account. Any other loan shall be treated as an investment of the Trust Fund and interest and principal payments on account thereof shall be credited to the Trust Fund. The Administrator shall determine the order of Accounts from which a loan may be made.

5.8.4 Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding:

(A) in the event of a default, foreclosure on the promissory note will not occur until a distributable event occurs under this Article V;

(B) no loan will be made to any Owner-Employee or to any "shareholder-employee" of the Employer or a Participating Affiliate or with respect to any amounts attributable to a Rollover Contribution or a trust to trust transfer and relating to prior participation by such an individual in a Qualified Plan. For this purpose, a "shareholder-employee" means an employee or officer of an electing small business, i.e., an "S corporation" as defined in Code Section 1361, who owns (or is considered as owning within the meaning of Code Section 318(a)(1)) on any day during the taxable year of such corporation, more than 5% of the outstanding stock of the corporation; and

(C) loans shall not be made available to Highly Compensated Employees in an amount greater than the amount made available to other Employees.

5.8.5 If a valid spousal consent has been obtained in accordance with Section 5.8.2(C), then, notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, the portion of the Participant's vested Account used as a security interest held by the Plan by reason of a loan outstanding to the Participant shall be taken into account for purposes of determining the amount of the Participant's benefit payable at the time of death or distribution; but only if the reduction is used as repayment of the loan. If less than 100% of the Participant's vested benefit (determined without regard to the preceding sentence) is payable to the Surviving Spouse, then the Participant's benefit shall be adjusted by first reducing the Participant's vested benefit by the amount of the security used as repayment of the loan, and then determining the benefit payable to the Surviving Spouse.

5.9 Hardship Distributions

5.9.1 Effective January 1, 1989, if available and elected by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement, a Participant may request a distribution due to hardship from the vested portion of his or her Accounts, (other than from his or her Qualified Nonelective Contributions Account, Qualified Matching Contributions Account or earnings accrued after December 31, 1988, on the Participant's Elective Deferrals) only if the distribution is made both due to an immediate and heavy financial need of the Participant and is necessary to satisfy such financial need.

5.9.2 A hardship distribution shall be permitted only if the distribution is due to:

(A) expenses incurred or necessary for medical care described in Code Section 213(d) incurred by the Participant, the Participant's Spouse, or any dependents of the Participant (as defined in Code Section 152);

(B) purchase (excluding mortgage payments) of a principal residence for the Participant;

(C) payment of tuition and related educational fees for the next 12 months of post-secondary education for the Participant, his or her Spouse, children or dependents;

(D) the need to prevent the eviction of the Participant from his or her principal residence or foreclosure on the mortgage of the Participant's principal residence; or

(E) any other condition or event which the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service determines is a deemed immediate and financial need.

5.9.3 A distribution will be considered necessary to satisfy an immediate and heavy financial need of a Participant if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(A) the distribution will not be in excess of the amount of the immediate and heavy financial need of the Participant (including amounts necessary to pay any Federal, state or local income taxes or penalties reasonably anticipated to result from the distribution);

(B) the Participant obtains all distributions, other than hardship distributions, and all nontaxable loans currently available under all plans maintained by the Employer or an Affiliate;

(C) the Participant's Elective Deferrals, Employee Thrift Contributions and Participant Voluntary Nondeductible Contributions will be suspended for at least 12 months after receipt of the hardship distribution in this Plan and in all other plans maintained by the Employer or an Affiliate; and

(D) the Participant may not make Elective Deferrals for the Participant's taxable year immediately following the taxable year of the hardship distribution in excess of the applicable limit under Code Section 402(g) for such next taxable year less the amount of such Participant's Elective Deferrals for the taxable year of the distribution in this Plan and in all other plans maintained by the Employer or an Affiliate.

5.9.4 If the distribution is made from any Account other than a 401(k) Contributions Account, a distribution due to hardship may be made without application of Section 5.9.3(B), 5.9.3(C), or 5.9.3(D).

5.10 Limitation on Commencement of Benefits

5.10.1 Anything in this Article V to the contrary notwithstanding, a Participant's Benefit Commencement Date shall in no event be later than the 60th day after the close of the Plan Year in which the latest of the following events occur:

(A) the attainment by the Participant of his or her Normal Retirement Age;

(B) the tenth anniversary of the year in which the Participant commenced participation in the Plan; or

(C) the Participant's termination of Employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the failure of a Participant and Spouse to consent to a distribution while a benefit is Immediately Distributable, shall be deemed to be an election to defer commencement of payment of any benefit sufficient to satisfy this Section.

5.10.2 If it is not possible to distribute a Participant's Accounts because the Administrator has been unable to locate the Participant after making reasonable efforts to do so, then a distribution of the Participant's Accounts shall be made when the Participant can be located.

5.11 Distribution Requirements

5.11.1 Subject to the Joint and Survivor Annuity rules set forth in Article VI, the requirements of this Article shall apply to any distribution of a Participant's interest and will take precedence over any inconsistent provisions of this Plan. Unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this article apply to calendar years beginning after December 31, 1984. As used in this Section 5.11, each of the following terms shall have the meaning for that term set forth in this Section 5.11.1:

(A) Applicable Life Expectancy. The life expectancy (or joint and last survivor expectancy) calculated using the attained age of the Participant (or designated Beneficiary) as of the Participant's (or designated Beneficiary's) birthday in the applicable calendar year reduced by one for each calendar year which has elapsed since the date Life Expectancy was first calculated. If Life Expectancy is being recalculated, the Applicable Life Expectancy shall be the Life Expectancy as so recalculated, the applicable calendar year shall be the first distribution calendar year, and if Life Expectancy is being recalculated such succeeding calendar year.

(B) Designated Beneficiary. The individual who is designated as the Beneficiary under the Plan in accordance with Code Section 401(a)(9). In the event that a Participant names a trust to be a designated Beneficiary, such designation shall provide that, as of the later of the date on which the trust is named as a Beneficiary or the Participant's Required Beginning Dates and as of all subsequent periods during which the trust is named as a Beneficiary, the following requirements are met: (i) the trust is a valid trust under state law, or would be but for the fact that there is no corpus; (ii) the trust is irrevocable; (iii) the Beneficiaries of the trust who are Beneficiaries with respect to the trust's interest in the Participant's benefits are identifiable from the trust instrument within the meaning of Code Section 401(a)(9); and (iv) a copy of the trust is provided to the Plan.

(C) Distribution Calendar Year. A calendar year for which a minimum distribution is required. For distributions beginning before the Participant's death, the first Distribution Calendar Year is the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year which contains the Participant's Required Beginning Date. For distributions beginning after the Participant's death, the first Distribution Calendar Year is the calendar year in which distributions are required to begin pursuant to Section 7.2.

(D) Life Expectancy. Life Expectancy and joint and last survivor expectancy are computed by use of the expected return multiples in Tables V and VI of section 1.72-9 of the regulations issued under the Code.

Unless otherwise elected by the Participant (or Spouse, in the case of distributions described in Section 7.2) by the time distributions are required to begin, Life Expectancies shall not be recalculated annually. Such election shall be irrevocable as to the Participant or Spouse and shall apply to all subsequent years. The Life Expectancy of a nonspouse Beneficiary may not be recalculated.

(E) Required Beginning Date.

(I) General rule. The Required Beginning Date of a Participant is the first day of April of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the Participant attains age 70-1/2.

(II) Transitional rule. The Required Beginning Date of a Participant who attains age 70-1/2 before January 1, 1988, shall be determined in accordance with (1) or (2) below:

(1) Non-5% owners. The Required Beginning Date of a Participant who is not a "5% owner" as defined in (iii) below is the first day of April of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the later of retirement or attainment of age 70-1/2 occurs.

(2) 5% owners. The Required Beginning Date of a Participant who is a 5% owner during any year beginning after December 31, 1979, is the first day of April following the later of:

(a) the calendar year in which the Participant attains age 70-1/2; or

(b) the earlier of the calendar year with or within which ends the Plan Year in which the Participant becomes a 5% owner, or the calendar year in which the Participant retires.

The Required Beginning Date of a Participant who is not a 5% owner who attains age 70-1/2 during 1988 and who has not retired as of January 1, 1989, is April 1, 1990.

(iii) 5% owner. A Participant is treated as a 5% owner for purposes of this Section 5.11 if such Participant is a 5% owner as defined in Code Section 416(i) (determined in accordance with section 416 but without regard to whether the plan is top-heavy) at any time during the Plan Year ending with or within the calendar year in which such owner attains age 66-1/2 or any subsequent Plan Year.

(iv) Once distributions have begun to a 5% owner under this Section 5.11, they must continue to be distributed, even if the Participant ceases to be a 5% owner in a subsequent year.

5.11.2 All distributions required under this Section 5.11 shall be determined and made in accordance with the Income Tax Regulations under Code Section 401(a)(9), including the minimum distribution incidental benefit requirement of section 1.401(a)(9)-2 of the regulations issued under the Code. The entire interest of a Participant must be distributed or begin to be distributed no later than the Participant's Required Beginning Date.

5.11.3 Limits on Distribution Periods. As of the first Distribution Calendar Year, distributions, if not made in a lump sum, may only be made over one of the following periods (or a combination thereof):

(A) the life of the Participant;

(B) the life of the Participant and a Designated Beneficiary;

(C) a period certain not extending beyond the Life Expectancy of the Participant; or

(D) a period certain not extending beyond the joint and last survivor expectancy of the Participant and a Designated Beneficiary.

For calendar years beginning before January 1, 1989, if the Participant's Spouse is not the Designated Beneficiary, the method of distribution selected must assure that at least 50% of the present value of the amount available for distribution is paid within the Life Expectancy of the Participant.

5.11.4 Determination of Amount to be Distributed Each Year. (A) If the Participant's interest is to be paid in the form of annuity distributions under the Plan (whether directly or in the form of an annuity purchased from an insurance company), payments under the annuity shall satisfy the following requirements:

(I) the annuity distributions must be paid in periodic payments made at intervals not longer than one year;

(ii) the distribution period must be over a life (or lives) or over a period certain not longer than a Life Expectancy (or joint life and last survivor expectancy) described in Code Section 401(a)(9)(A)(ii) or Code Section 401(a)(9)(B)(iii), whichever is applicable;

(iii) the Life Expectancy (or joint life and last survivor expectancy) for purposes of determining the period certain shall be determined without recalculation of Life Expectancy;

(iv) once payments have begun over a period certain, the period certain may not be lengthened even if the period certain is shorter than the maximum permitted;

(v) payments must either be nonincreasing or increase only as follows:

(1) with any percentage increase in a specified and generally recognized cost-of-living index;

(2) to the extent of the reduction to the amount of the Participant's payments to provide for a survivor benefit upon death, but only if the Beneficiary whose life was being used to determine the distribution period described in Section 5.11.4(A)(iii) dies and the payments continue otherwise in accordance with that section over the life of the Participant;

(3) to provide cash refunds of Employee contributions upon the Participant's death; or

(4) because of an increase in benefits under the Plan.

(vi) If the annuity is a life annuity (or a life annuity with a period certain not exceeding 20 years), the amount which must be distributed on or before the Participant's Required Beginning Date (or, in the case of distributions after the death of the Participant, the date distributions are required to begin pursuant to Section 7.2) shall be the payment which is required for one payment interval. The second payment need not be made until the end of the next payment interval even if that payment interval ends in the next calendar year. Payment intervals are the periods for which payments are received, e.g., bimonthly, monthly, semi-annually, or annually.

If the annuity is a period certain annuity without a life contingency (or is a life annuity with a period certain exceeding 20 years) periodic payments for each distribution calendar year shall be combined and treated as an annual amount The amount which must be distributed by the Participant's Required Beginning Date (or, in the case of distributions after the death of the Participant, the date distributions are required to begin pursuant to Section 7.2) is the annual amount for the first Distribution Calendar Year. The annual amount for other Distribution Calendar Years, including the annual amount for the calendar year in which the Participant's Required Beginning Date (or the date distributions are required to begin pursuant to Section 7.2) occurs, must be distributed on or before December 31 of the calendar year for which the distribution is required.

(B) Annuities purchased after December 31, 1988, are subject to the following additional conditions:

(i) Unless the Participant's Spouse is the Designated Beneficiary, if the Participant's interest is being distributed in the form of a period certain annuity without a life contingency, the period certain as of the beginning of the first Distribution Calendar Year may not exceed the applicable period determined using the table set forth in Q&A A-5 of section 1.401(a)(9)-2 of the regulations issued under the Code.

(ii) If the Participant's interest is being distributed in the form of a joint and survivor annuity for the joint lives of the Participant and a nonspouse Beneficiary, annuity payments to be made on or after the Participant's Required Beginning Date to the Designated Beneficiary after the Participant's death must not at any time exceed the applicable percentage of the annuity payment for such period that would have been payable to the Participant using the table set forth in Q&A A-6 of section 1.401(a)(9)-2 of the regulations under the Code.

(C) Transitional Rule. If payments under an annuity which complies with Section 5.11.4(A) begin prior to January 1, 1989, the minimum distribution requirements in effect as of July 27, 1987, shall apply to distributions from this Plan, regardless of whether the annuity form of payment is irrevocable. This transitional rule also applies to deferred annuity contracts distributed to or owned by the Participant prior to January 1, 1989, unless additional contributions are made under the Plan by the Employer or Affiliate with respect to such contract.

(D) If the form of distribution is an annuity made in accordance with Section 5.11.4, any additional benefits accruing to the Participant after his or her Required Beginning Date shall be distributed as a separate and identifiable component of the annuity beginning with the first payment interval ending in the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which such amount accrues.

(E) Any part of the Participant's interest which is in the form of an individual account shall be distributed in a manner satisfying the requirements of Code Section 401(a)(9).

5.11.5 Transitional Rule; Section 242 Election. Notwithstanding the other requirements of this Article and subject to the Joint and Survivor Annuity rules set forth in Article V1, distribution on behalf of any Employee, including a 5% owner, may be made in accordance with all of the following requirements (regardless of when such distribution commences):

(A) the distribution by the trust is one which would not have disqualified such trust under Code Section 401(a)(9) as in effect prior to amendment by the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984;

(B) the distribution is in accordance with a method of distribution designated by the Employee whose interest in the trust is being distributed or, if the Employee is deceased, by a Beneficiary of such Employee;

(C) such designation was in writing, was signed by the Employee or the Beneficiary, and was made before January 1, 1984;

(D) the Employee had accrued a benefit under the Plan as of December 31, 1983; and

(E) the method of distribution designated by the Employee or the Beneficiary specifies the time at which distribution will commence, the period over which distributions will be made, and in the case of any distribution upon the Employee's death, the Beneficiaries of the Employee listed in order of priority.

A distribution upon death will not be covered by this transitional rule unless the information in the designation contains the required information described above with respect to the distributions to be made upon the death of the Employee.

For any distribution which commences before January 1, 1984, but continues after December 31, 1983, the Employee, or the Beneficiary, to whom such distribution is being made, will be presumed to have designated the method of distribution under which the distribution is being made if the method of distribution was specified in writing and the distribution satisfies the requirements in subsections 5.11.5(A) and (E).

If a designation is revoked any subsequent distribution must satisfy the requirements of Code Section 401(a)(9). If a designation is revoked subsequent to the date distributions are required to begin, the trust must distribute by the end of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the revocation occurs the total amount not yet distributed to satisfy Code Section 401(a)(9) but for the Section 242(b)(2) election. For calendar years beginning after December 31, 1988, such distributions must meet the minimum distribution incidental benefit requirements in section 1.401(a)(9)-2 of the regulations issued under the Code. Any changes in the designation will be considered to be a revocation of the designation. However, the mere substitution or addition of another Beneficiary (one not named in the designation) under the designation will not be considered to be a revocation of the designation, so long as such substitution or addition does not alter the period over which distributions are to be made under the designation, directly or indirectly (for example, by altering the relevant measuring life). In the case in which an amount is transferred or rolled over from one plan to another plan, the rules in Q&A J-2 and Q&A J-3 of section 1.401(a)(9)-1 of the regulations issued under the Code.

ARTICLE VI
FORMS OF PAYMENT OF RETIREMENT BENEFITS

6.1 Methods of Distribution

6.1.1 If the Plan is a money purchase pension plan or a target benefit plan, a Participant's benefit shall be payable in the normal form of a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity if the Participant is married on his or her Benefit Commencement Date and in the normal form of an immediate annuity for the life of the Participant if the Participant is not married on that date. A Participant who terminated Employment on or after satisfying the requirements for Early Retirement may elect to have his or her Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity distributed upon attainment of such Early Retirement. If the Plan is a profit-sharing plan that satisfies the requirements set forth in Section 6.1.2, a Participant's Accounts shall only be payable in the normal form of a lump-sum distribution in accordance with Section 6.1.1(B) below. A Participant in a money purchase pension plan, a target benefit plan, or a profit-sharing plan that does not satisfy the requirements set forth in Section 6.1.2. may at any time after attaining age 35 and prior to his or her Benefit Commencement Date elect, in accordance with Section 6.2, any of the following optional forms of payment instead of the normal form:

(A) An Annuity Contract payable as:

(i) a single life annuity;

(ii) a joint and 50% survivor annuity with a contingent annuitant;

(iii) a joint and 100% survivor annuity with a contingent annuitant;

(iv) an annuity for the life of the Participant with 120 monthly payments certain;

(B) A lump-sum distribution in cash or in kind, or part in cash and part in kind; or

(C) In installments payable in cash or in kind, or part in cash and part in kind over a period not in excess of that required to comply with Section 5.11.4.

Anything in this Section 6.1.1 to the contrary notwithstanding, if the value of a Participant's vested Account as of the applicable Valuation Date is $3,500 or less, his or her benefit shall be paid in the form of a lump-sum distribution and no optional form of benefit payment shall be available.

6.1.2 If the Plan is a profit-sharing plan then: (A) the Participant cannot elect payments in the form of a Life annuity (this Section 6.1.2 shall not apply if a life annuity form is an optional form preserved under Code Section 411(d)(6)); (B) on the death of the Participant, the Participant's benefits will be paid to his or her Surviving Spouse, if any, or, if his or her Surviving Spouse has already consented in a manner conforming to an election under Section 6.2.4, then to the Participant's Beneficiary and (C) the normal form of benefit shall be a lump-sum and Sections 6.2.1, 6.2.2 and 6.2.4 shall not be applied by the Administrator. A Participant in such a profit-sharing plan may also elect to receive his or her benefit in the form of installments in accordance with Section 6.1.1(C) of the Plan. This Section 6.1.2 shall not apply, however, with respect to the Participant if it is determined that the Plan is a direct or indirect transferee of a defined benefit plan, a money purchase pension plan (including a target benefit plan) or a stock bonus or profit-sharing plan which is subject to the survivor annuity requirements of Code Sections 401(a)(11) and 417. In addition, this Section 6.1.2 shall not apply unless the Participant's Surviving Spouse, if any, is the Beneficiary of (i) the proceeds of any insurance on the Participant's life purchased by Employer contributions or (ii) forfeitures allocated to the Participant's Employer Account or unless the Participant's Surviving Spouse has consented to the Participant's designation of another Beneficiary as referred to in subsection (C) of this Section 6.1.2.

6.1.3 The following transitional rules shall apply for those Participants entitled to but not receiving benefits as of August 23, 1984:

(A) Any living Participant not receiving benefits on August 23, 1984, who would otherwise not receive the benefits prescribed by Section 6.1 must be given the opportunity to elect to have Section 6.1 apply if such Participant is credited with at least one Hour of Service under this Plan or a predecessor plan in a Plan Year beginning on or after January 1, 1976, and such Participant had at least 10 Years of Service when he or she terminated from Employment.

(B) Any living Participant not receiving benefits on August 23, 1984, who was credited with at least one Hour of Service under this Plan or a predecessor plan on or after September 2, 1974, and who is not otherwise credited with an Hour of Service in a Plan Year beginning on or after January 1, 1976, must be given the opportunity to have his or her benefits paid in accordance with this Section 6.1.3(D).

(C) The respective opportunities to elect (as described in these Sections 6.1.3(A) and (B)) must be afforded to the appropriate Participants during the period commencing on August 23, 1984, and ending on such Participant's Benefit Commencement Date.

(D) Any Participant who has elected pursuant to this Section 6.1.3(B) and any Participant who does not elect under this Section 6.1.3(A) or who meets the requirements of this Section 6.1.3(A) except that such Participant does not have at least ten Years of Service when he or she terminates from Employment, shall have his or her benefits distributed in accordance with all of the following requirements if benefits would have been payable in the form of a single life annuity:

(1) Automatic Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity

If benefits in the form of a single life annuity become payable to a married Participant who:

(a) begins to receive payments on or after Normal Retirement Age; or

(b) dies on or after Normal Retirement Age while in active Employment; or

(c) begins to receive payments on or after the "Qualified Early Retirement Age", as that term is defined in Section 6.1.3(D)(3)(a); or

(d) terminates from Employment on or after attaining Normal Retirement Age (or Qualified Early Retirement Age) and after satisfying the eligibility requirement for the payment of benefits under the Plan and thereafter dies before his or her Benefit Commencement Date; then such benefits will be received in the form of a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity, unless the Participant has elected otherwise during the election period which begins at least six months before the Participant attains Qualified Early Retirement Age and ends no earlier than 90 days before his or her Benefit Commencement Date. Any election hereunder will be in writing and may be changed by the Participant at any time.

(2) Election of early survivor annuity

A Participant who is employed after attaining the Qualified Early Retirement Age will be given the opportunity to elect, beginning on the later of (1) the 90th day before he or she attains his or her Qualified Early Retirement Age, or (2) the date on which participation begins, and ending on the date he or she terminates Employment, to have a survivor annuity payable on death. If the Participant elects the survivor annuity, payments under such annuity must not be less than the payments which would have been made to the Spouse under the Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity if the Participant had retired on the day before his or her death. Any election under this provision will be in writing and may be changed by the Participant at any time.

(3) Qualified Early Retirement Age

(a) For purposes of this section 6.1.3, Qualified Early Retirement Age is the latest of:

(i) the earliest date, under the Plan, on which the Participant may elect to receive retirement benefits,

(ii) the first day of the 120th month beginning before the Participant reaches Normal Retirement Age, or

(iii) the date the Participant begins participation.

(b) Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity is an annuity for the life of the Participant with a survivor annuity for the life of the Spouse as described in Section 1.77.

6.2 Election of Optional Forms

6.2.1 By notice to the Administrator at any time prior to a Participant's date of death and beginning on the first day of the Plan Year in which the Participant attains age 35, the Participant may elect, in writing, not to receive the normal form of benefit payment otherwise applicable and to receive instead an optional form of benefit payment provided for in Section 6.1.1. If the Participant separates from Employment prior to the first day of the Plan Year in which the Participant attains age 35, the Participant may make such election beginning on the date he or she separates from Employment. This Section 6.2.1 shall not be applicable if Section 6.1.2 applies to a Participant.

6.2.2 Within a reasonable period, but in any event no less than 30 and no more than 90 days prior to each Participant's Benefit Commencement Date, the Administrator shall provide to each Participant a written explanation of the terms and conditions of a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity. Such written explanation shall consist of:

(A) the terms and conditions of the Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity;

(B) the Participant's right to make, and the effect of, an election to waive the Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity;

(C) the rights of the Participant's Spouse under Section 6.2.4;

(D) the right to make, and the effect of, a revocation of a previous election to waive the Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity; and

(E) the relative values of the various optional forms of benefit under the Plan.

The Administrator may, on a uniform and nondiscriminatory basis, provide for such other notices, information or election periods or take such other action as the Administrator considers necessary or appropriate to implement the provisions of this Section 6.2.2.

6.2.3 A Participant may revoke his or her election to take an optional form of benefit, and elect a different form of benefit, at any time prior to the Participant's Benefit Commencement Date.

6.2.4 The election of an optional benefit by a Participant after December 31, 1984, must also be a waiver of a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity by the Participant. Any waiver of a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity shall not be effective unless (A) the Participant's Spouse consents in writing; (B) the election designates a specific alternate Beneficiary, including any class of Beneficiaries or any contingent Beneficiaries which may not be changed without spousal consent (or the Spouse expressly permits designations by the Participant without any further spousal consent); (C) the Spouse's consent to the waiver is witnessed by a Plan representative or notary public; and (D) the Spouse's consent acknowledges the effect of the election. Additionally, a Participant's waiver of the Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity will not be effective unless the election designates a form of benefit payment which may not be changed without spousal consent or the Spouse expressly permits designations without any further spousal consent. Notwithstanding this consent requirement, if the Participant establishes to the satisfaction of a Plan representative that such written consent may not be obtained because there is no Spouse or the Spouse cannot be located, the election will be deemed effective. Any consent necessary under this provision will not be valid with respect to any other Spouse. A consent that permits designations by the Participant without any requirement of further consent by such Spouse must acknowledge that the Spouse has the right to limit consent to a specific Beneficiary, and a specific form of benefit, where applicable, and that the Spouse voluntarily elects to relinquish either or both of such rights. Additionally, a revocation of a prior waiver may be made by a Participant without the consent of the Spouse at any time before his or her Benefit Commencement Date. The number of revocations shall not be limited. Any new waiver will require a new consent by the electing Participant's Spouse. No consent obtained under this provision shall be valid unless the Participant has received notice as provided in this Section.

6.2.5 The election of an optional form of benefit which contemplates the payment of an annuity shall not be given effect if any person who would receive benefits under the annuity dies before the Benefit Commencement Date.

6.3 Change in Form of Benefit Payments

Any former Employee whose payments are being deferred or who is receiving installment payments may request acceleration or other modification of the form of benefit distribution, subject to Code Section 401(a)(9), provided that any necessary consent to such change required pursuant to Section 6.2.4 is obtained from the Employee's Spouse. This Section 6.3 shall not apply to any Employee who becomes a Participant on or after January 1, 1989 or to Plans adopted after that date.

6.4 Direct Rollovers

6.4.1 The provisions of this Section 6.4 apply only to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993.

6.4.2 Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary that would otherwise limit a Distributee's election under this Section 6.4, a Distributee may elect, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Administrator, to have any portion of an Eligible Rollover Distribution paid directly to an Eligible Retirement Plan specified by the Distributee in a Direct Rollover.

6.4.3 Definitions - All terms used in this Section 6.4 shall have the meaning set forth below:

(A) Eligible Rollover Distribution: An Eligible Rollover Distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the Distributee, except, that an Eligible Rollover Distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the Distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the Distributee and the Distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under Code Section 401(a)(9); and the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities).

(B) Eligible Retirement Plan: An Eligible Retirement Plan is an individual retirement account described in Code Section 408(a), an individual retirement annuity described in Code Section 408(b), an annuity plan described in Code Section 403(a), or a qualified trust described in Code Section 401(a) that accepts the Distributee's Eligible Rollover Distribution. However, in the case of an Eligible Rollover Distribution to the Surviving Spouse, an Eligible Retirement Plan is an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity.

(C) Distributee: A Distributee includes an Employee or former Employee. In addition, the Employee's or former Employee's Surviving Spouse and the Employee's or former Employee's Spouse or former Spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in Code Section 414(p), are Distributees with regard to the interest of the Spouse or former Spouse.

(D) Direct Rollover: A Direct Rollover is a payment by the Plan to the Eligible Retirement Plan specified by the Distributee.

ARTICLE VII
Death Benefits

7.1 Payment of Account Balances

7.1.1 The benefits payable to the Beneficiary of a Participant who dies while an Employee shall be the Account Balance of all of his or her Accounts including, if applicable, the proceeds of any life insurance contract in effect on the Participant's life in accordance with Section 7.3. The benefits payable to the Beneficiary of a Participant who dies after terminating Employment shall be the vested Account Balance of all of his or her Accounts. Except as otherwise provided in this Article VII, a Beneficiary may request that he or she be paid his or her benefits as soon as practicable after the Participant's death.

7.1.2 If a Participant dies before distribution of his or her entire interest in the Plan has been completed, the remaining interest shall, subject to Section 7.2.5, be distributed to the Participant's Beneficiary in the form, at the time and from among the methods specified in Section 6.1.1 as elected by the Beneficiary in writing filed with the Administrator. If an election is not received by the Administrator within 90 days following the date the Administrator is notified of the Participant's death, the distribution shall be made, if to a Surviving Spouse, in accordance with Section 7.2.5(B), and, if to some other Beneficiary, to the Beneficiary in a lump-sum.

7.1.3 The value of the benefits payable to a Beneficiary shall be determined in accordance with Section 10.6.2. If the value of such death benefit is $3,500 or less, distribution of such benefit shall be made in a lump-sum as soon as practicable following the death of the Participant.

7.2 Beneficiaries

7.2.1 The Administrator shall provide each Participant, within the period described in Section 7.2.1(A) for such Participant. a written explanation of the death benefit in such terms and in such a manner as would be comparable to the explanation provided for meeting the requirements applicable to a Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity. This Section 7.2.1 shall not be applicable if Section 6.1.2 applies to a Participant.

(A) The period for providing a written explanation of the death benefit for a Participant ends on the latest of the following to occur:

(i) the period beginning with the first day of the Plan Year in which the Participant attains age 32 and ending with the close of the Plan Year preceding the Plan Year in which the Participant attains age 35;

(ii) a reasonable period ending after the Employee becomes a Participant; or

(iii) a reasonable period ending after Code Section 417 first applies to the Participant.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, notice must be provided within a reasonable period ending after termination of Employment in case of a Participant who terminates Employment before attaining age 35 and who has a vested interest in his or her Account.

(B) For purposes of the preceding paragraph, a reasonable period ending after the enumerated events described in (ii) and (iii) is the end of the two-year period beginning one year prior to the date the applicable event occurs and ending one year after that date. A Participant who has a vested interest in his or her Account and who terminates Employment before the Plan in which age 35 is attained, shall be provided such notice within the two-year period beginning one year prior to and ending one year after termination. If such a Participant returns to Employment, the applicable period for such Participant shall be redetermined.

7.2.2 A Participant shall designate one or more Beneficiaries to whom amounts due after his or her death, other than under the Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity, shall be paid. In the event a Participant fails to make a proper designation or in the event that no designated Beneficiary survives the Participant, the Participant's Beneficiary shall be the Participant's Surviving Spouse, or if the Participant has no Surviving Spouse, the legal representative of the Participant's estate, as an asset of that estate. A Participant's Beneficiary shall not have any right to benefits under the Plan unless he or she shall survive the Participant.

7.2.3 Any designation of a Beneficiary incorporated into an Annuity Contract or insurance contract shall be governed by the terms of such Annuity Contract or insurance contract. Any other designation of a Beneficiary must be filed with the Administrator, in a time and manner designated by such Administrator, in order to be effective. Any such designation of a Beneficiary may be revoked by filing a later designation or an instrument of revocation with the Administrator, in a time and manner designated by the Administrator.

7.2.4 Effective after December 31, 1984, a married Participant whose designation of a Beneficiary is someone other than his or her Spouse, including a Beneficiary referred to in the first sentence of Section 7.2.3, or the change of any such Beneficiary to a new Beneficiary other than the Participant's Spouse, shall not be valid unless made in writing and consented to by the Participant's Spouse in such terms and in such a manner as would be comparable to the consent provided for a waiver of the Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity. The Spouse's consent to such designation must be made in the manner described in Section 6.2.4.

7.2.5 Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan to the contrary:

(A) If the Participant dies after his or her Benefit Commencement Date, but before distribution of his or her benefit has been completed, the remaining portion of such benefit may continue in the form and over the period in which the distributions were being made, but in any event must continue to be made at least as rapidly as under the method of distribution being used prior to the Participant's death.

(B) If the Participant dies leaving a Surviving Spouse before his or her Benefit Commencement Date, the Participant's benefit shall be payable to the Participant's Surviving Spouse in the form of an annuity for the life of the Surviving Spouse. The preceding sentence shall not apply if, within 90 days following the date the Administrator is notified of the Participant's death, his or her Surviving Spouse elects, by written notice to the Administrator, any other form of benefit payment specified in Section 6.1.1, or the such Surviving Spouse has already consented in a manner described in Section 6.2.4 to a distribution to an alternate Beneficiary designated by the Participant. If the Plan is a profit-sharing plan which meets the requirements of Section 6.1.2, the Surviving Spouse shall receive his or her distribution in the form of a lump-sum unless she or he elects within 90 days following the date the Administrator is notified of the Participant's death, any other form of benefit payment specified in Section 6.1.1, or the Participant's Surviving Spouse has already consented in a manner described in Section 6.2.4 to a distribution to an alternate Beneficiary designated by the Participant. If the Participant's benefit is $3,500 or less, distribution shall be made in the form of a lump-sum comprised of the assets in the Account immediately prior to the distribution if the Account consists of Participant-Directed Assets. If the Account does not consist of Participant-Directed Assets, the distribution shall be in cash. If the Participant's benefit is distributable in the form of an annuity for the life of the Surviving Spouse, the Surviving Spouse may elect to have such annuity distributed immediately.

(C) If the Participant dies before his or her Benefit Commencement Date, the distribution of the Participant's entire interest shall be completed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the Participant's death except to the extent that an election is made by the designated Beneficiary involved to receive distributions in accordance with (i) or (ii) of this subsection (C) below:

(i) if any portion of the Participant's interest is payable to a designated Beneficiary who is an individual, distributions may be made in substantially equal installments over the life or Life Expectancy, as defined in Section 5.11.1(D), of the designated Beneficiary commencing on or before December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year of the Participant's death;

(ii) if the designated Beneficiary is the Participant's Surviving Spouse, the date distributions are required to begin in accordance with (i) of this subsection (C) shall not be earlier than the later of December 31 of the calendar year in which the Participant died and December 31 of the calendar year in which the Participant would have attained age 65; and

(iii) if the Surviving Spouse dies before payments begin subsequent distributions shall be made as if the Surviving Spouse had been the Participant.

(D) For purposes of this Section 7.2.5, distribution of a Participant's interest is considered to begin on the Participant's Required Beginning Date, as defined in Section 5.11.1(E). If distribution in the form of an annuity irrevocably commences to the Participant before such Required Beginning Date, the date distribution is considered to begin is the date distribution actually commences.

(E) For purposes of this Section 7.2.5, any amount paid to a child of the Participant will be treated as if it had been paid to the Participant's Surviving Spouse if the amount becomes payable to such Surviving Spouse when the child reaches the age of majority.

(F) If the Participant has not made an election pursuant to this Section 7.2.5 by the time of his or her death, the Participant's designated Beneficiary must elect the method of distribution no later than the earlier of (i) December 31 of the calendar year in which distributions would be required to begin under this Section or (ii) December 31 of the calendar year which contains the fifth anniversary of the date of death of the Participant. If the Participant has no designated Beneficiary, or if the designated Beneficiary does not elect a method of distribution, distribution of the Participant's entire interest must be completed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the Participant's death.

7.3 Life Insurance

7.3.1 With the consent of the Administrator and upon such notice as the Administrator may require, a Participant may direct that a portion of his or her Account be used to pay premiums on life insurance on the Participant's life; provided, however, that (a) the aggregate premiums paid on ordinary life insurance must be less than 50% of the aggregate contributions allocated to the Participant's Employer Accounts, (b) the aggregate premiums paid on term life insurance contracts, universal life insurance contracts and all other life insurance contracts which are not ordinary life insurance may not exceed 25% of the aggregate contributions allocated to the Participant's Employer Account, and (c) the sum of one-half of the premiums paid on ordinary life insurance and the total of all other life insurance premiums may not exceed 25% of the aggregate contributions allocated to the Employer Account of the Participant. For purposes of these limitations, ordinary life insurance contracts are contracts with both non-decreasing death benefits and non-increasing premiums.

7.3.2 The Trustee shall be the owner of each life insurance contract purchased under this Section 7.3 and the proceeds of each such contract shall be payable to the Trustee, provided that all benefits, rights and privileges under each contract on the life of a Participant which are available while the Participant is living shall be exercised by the Trustee only upon and in accordance with the written instructions of the Participant. The proceeds of all such insurance on the life of a Participant shall be paid over by the Trustee to the Participant's Beneficiary in accordance with this Article VII. Under no circumstances shall the Trustee retain any part of the proceeds.

7.3.3 Any dividends or credits earned on a life insurance contract shall be applied when received in reduction of any premiums thereon, or, if no premiums are due, applied to increase the proceeds of the insurance contract.

7.3.4 If a Participant is found by the Administrator to be insurable only at a substandard premium rate, the policy shall provide a reduced death benefit using the same premium as would be required if the Participant were a standard risk, the amount of the death benefit being determined in accordance with the amount of the rating.

7.3.5 The cash surrender value of an insurance contract to the extent deriving from Employer or Participant contributions, if any, shall be included, respectively, in the Account Balance of the Account from which the premiums were paid. Any death benefits under an insurance contract payable before the Participant's termination of Employment will be paid to the Trustee for addition to the relevant Account of the Participant for distribution in accordance with Section 7.1.

7.3.6 Any other provisions herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the purchase of life insurance for any Participant shall be subject to such minimum premium requirements as the Trustee may determine from time to time.

7.3.7 Premiums on life insurance contracts on a Participant's life shall be paid by the Trustee, unless directed otherwise by the Participant, first from cash in the Participant's Employer Accounts to the extent thereof, and then from cash in the Participant's Participant Contributions Accounts, if any, to the extent thereof. If there is insufficient cash in either Account to pay premiums due, the Trustee shall notify the Participant of this fact. If the Participant does not thereafter instruct the Trustee to sell sufficient assets in an Account of the Participant to pay premiums due on a timely basis, the Trustee shall not be obligated to take any further action with respect to any life insurance contract on the Participant's life, whether as regards continuing insurance on a paid-up basis, effecting a reduction of the insurance in force, or otherwise, except at the direction of the Participant.

7.3.8 Prior to such time as a Participant becomes entitled to receive a distribution of any benefits under this Plan for any reason other than the Participant's death, the Trustee shall, pursuant to the written direction of the Participant delivered to the Administrator within such period of time as is acceptable to the Administrator, either convert all life insurance contracts on the Participant's life into cash or an annuity to provide current or future retirement income to the Participant or distribute the contracts to the Participant as a part of a benefit distribution; provided, however, that:

(A) the contracts shall not be distributed unless, if the Participant is married at the time the distribution of the contracts is to be made, and the Plan is a money purchase pension plan, a target benefit plan or a profit-sharing plan to which Section 6.1.2 does not apply, the Participant's Spouse at that time consents to a distribution in the manner prescribed by Section 6.2.4; and

(B) if the cash value of any contracts at the time they become distributable to a Participant exceeds a Participant's vested interest in his or her Employer Accounts at that time, the Participant shall be entitled to receive a distribution of such contracts only if the Participant promptly pays such excess in cash to the Trust Fund.

Life insurance contracts on a Participant's life shall not continue to be maintained under the Plan following the Participant's termination of Employment or after Employer contributions have ceased.

If a Participant on whose life an insurance contract is held does not make a timely and proper direction regarding the contract under this Section 7.3.8, the Participant shall be deemed to have directed that the contract be converted into cash to be distributed in the manner in which the Participant's benefit is to be distributed.

7.3.9 Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event of any conflict between the terms of the Plan and the terms of any insurance contract purchased under this Section 7.3, the provisions of the Plan shall control.

ARTICLE VIII
FIDUCIARIES

8.1 Named Fiduciaries

8.1.1 The Administrator shall be a "named fiduciary" of the Plan, as that term is defined in ERISA Section 402(a)(2), with authority to control and manage the operation and administration of the Plan, other than authority to manage and control Plan assets. The Administrator shall also be the "administrator" and "plan administrator" with respect to the Plan, as those terms are defined in ERISA Section 3(16)(A) and in Code Section 414(g), respectively.

8.1.2 The Trustee, or Investment Committee if appointed by the Employer, shall be a "named fiduciary" of the Plan, as that term is defined in ERISA Section 402(a)(2), with authority to manage and control all Trust Fund assets and to select an Investment Manager or Investment Managers. If Merrill Lynch Trust Company is the Trustee, it shall be a nondiscretionary trustee; an Investment Committee shall be appointed and shall be the Employer, who may also remove such Investment Committee; and the Investment Committee shall be the "named fiduciary" with respect to Trust Fund assets. Anything in this Section 8.1.2. to the contrary notwithstanding, with respect to Participant-Directed Assets, the Participant or Beneficiary having the power to direct the investment of such assets shall be the "named fiduciary" with respect thereto.

8.1.3 The Trustee, or Investment Committee if appointed by the Employer, shall have the power to make and deal with any investment of the Trust Fund permitted in Section 10.4, except Participant-Directed Assets or assets for which an Investment Manager has such power, in any manner which it deems advisable and shall also:

(A) establish and carry out a funding policy and method consistent with the objectives of the Plan and the requirements of ERISA;

(B) have the power to select Annuity Contracts, if applicable;

(C) have the power to determine, if applicable, what investments specified in Section 10.4, including, without limitation, Qualified Employer Securities and regulated investment company shares, are available as Participant-Directed Assets; and

(D) have all the rights, powers, duties and obligations granted or imposed upon it elsewhere in the Plan.

8.2 Employment of Advisers

A "named fiduciary", with respect to the Plan (as defined in ERISA Section 402(a)(2)) and any "fiduciary" (as defined in ERISA Section 3(4)) appointed by such a "named fiduciary", may employ one or more persons to render advice with regard to any responsibility of such "named fiduciary" or "fiduciary" under the Plan.

8.3 Multiple Fiduciary Capacities

Any "named fiduciary" with respect to the Plan (as defined in ERISA Section 402(a)(2)) and any other "fiduciary" (as defined in ERISA Section 3(4)) with respect to the Plan may serve in more than one fiduciary capacity.

8.4 Indemnification

To the extent not prohibited by state or federal law, the Employer agrees to, and shall indemnify and save harmless, as the case maybe, each Administrator (if a person other than the Employer), Trustee, Investment Committee and/or any Employee, officer or director of the Employer, or an Affiliate, from all claims for liability, loss, damage or expense (including payment of reasonable expenses in connection with the defense against any such claim) which result from any exercise or failure to exercise any of the indemnified person's responsibilities with respect to the Plan, other than by reason of gross negligence.

8.5 Payment of Expenses

8.5.1 All Plan expenses, including without limitation, expenses and fees (including fees for legal services rendered and fees to the Trustee) of the Sponsor, Administrator, Investment Manager, Trustee, and any insurance company, shall be charged against and withdrawn from the Trust Fund; provided, however, the Employer may pay any of such expenses or reimburse the Trust Fund for any payment.

8.5.2 All transactional costs or charges imposed or incurred (if any) for Participant-Directed Assets shall be charged to the Account of the directing Participant or Beneficiary. Transactional costs and charges shall include, but shall not be limited to, charges for the acquisition or sale or exchange of Participant-Directed Assets, brokerage commissions, service charges and professional fees.

8.5.3 Any taxes which may be imposed upon the Trust Fund or the income therefrom shall be deducted from and charged against the Trust Fund.

ARTICLE IX
PLAN ADMINISTRATION

9.1 The Administrator

9.1.1 The Employer may appoint one or more persons as Administrator, who may also be removed by the Employer. If any individual is appointed as Administrator, and the individual is an Employee, the individual will be considered to have resigned as Administrator if he or she terminates Employment and at least one other person continues to serve as Administrator. Employees shall receive no compensation for their services rendered to or as Administrator.

9.1.2 If more than one person is designated as Administrator, the Administrator shall act by a majority of its members at the time in office and such action may be taken either by a vote at a meeting or in writing without a meeting. However, if less than three members are appointed, the Administrators shall act only upon the unanimous consent of its members. An Administrator who is also a Participant shall not vote or act upon any matter relating to himself or herself, unless such person is the sole Administrator.

9.1.3 The Administrator may authorize in writing any person to execute any document or documents on the Administrator's behalf; and any interested person, upon receipt of notice of such authorization directed to it, may thereafter accept and rely upon any document executed by such authorized person until the Administrator shall deliver to such interested person a written revocation of such authorization.

9.2 Powers and Duties of the Administrator

9.2.1 The Administrator shall have the power to construe the Plan and to determine all questions of fact or interpretation that may arise thereunder, and any such construction or determination shall be conclusively binding upon all persons interested in the Plan.

9.2.2 The Administrator shall have the power to promulgate such rules and procedures, to maintain or cause to be maintained such records and to issue such forms as it shall deem necessary and proper for the administration of the Plan.

9.2.3 Subject to the terms of the Plan, the Administrator shall determine the time and manner in which all elections authorized by the Plan shall be made or revoked.

9.2.4 The Administrator shall have all the rights, powers, duties and obligations granted to or imposed upon it elsewhere in the Plan.

9.2.5 The Administrator shall exercise all of its responsibilities in a uniform and nondiscriminatory manner.

9.3 Delegation of Responsibility

The Administrator may designate persons, including persons other than "named fiduciaries" (as defined in ERISA Section 402(a)(2)) to carry out the specified responsibilities of the Administrator and shall not be liable for any act or omission of a person so designated.

ARTICLE X
TRUSTEE AND INVESTMENT COMMITTEE

10.1 Appointment of Trustee and Investment Committee

10.1.1 The Employer shall appoint one or more persons as a Trustee who shall serve as such for all or a portion of the Trust Fund. By executing the Adoption Agreement: (i) the Employer represents that all necessary action has been taken for the appointment of the Trustee; (ii) the Trustee acknowledges that it accepts such appointment; and (iii) both the Employer and the Trustee agree to act in accordance with the Trust provisions contained in this Article X.

10.1.2 An Employee appointed as Trustee or to the Investment Committee shall receive no compensation for services rendered in such capacity and will be considered to have resigned if he or she terminates Employment and at least one other person continues to act as Trustee or as the Investment Committee, as the case may be. If Merrill Lynch Trust Company is the Trustee, the Employer shall appoint an Investment Committee and Merrill Lynch Trust Company shall be a nondiscretionary trustee.

10.1.3 If more than one person is acting as the Trustee, or as an Investment Committee, such Trustee, or Investment Committee, shall act by a majority of the persons at the time so acting and such action may be taken either by a vote at a meeting or in writing without a meeting. If less than three members are serving, the Trustee, or Investment Committee, shall act only upon the unanimous consent of those serving. The Trustee, or Investment Committee, may authorize in writing any person to execute any document or documents on its behalf, and any interested person, upon receipt of notice of such authorization directed to it, may thereafter accept and rely upon any document executed by such authorized person until the Trustee, or Investment Committee, shall deliver to such interested person a written revocation of such authorization.

10.2 The Trust Fund

The Trustee shall receive such sums of money or other property acceptable to the Trustee which shall from time to time be paid or delivered to the Trustee under the Plan. The Trustee shall hold in the Trust Fund all such assets, without distinction between principal and income, together with all property purchased therewith and the proceeds thereof and the earnings and income thereon. The Trustee shall not be responsible for, or have any duty to enforce, the collection of any contributions or assets to be paid or transferred to it, or for verifying whether contributions or transfers to it are allowable under the Plan, nor shall the Trustee be responsible for the adequacy of the Trust Fund to meet or discharge liabilities under the Plan.

10.2.1 The Trustee shall receive in cash or other assets acceptable to the Trustee, so long as such assets received do not constitute a prohibited transaction, all contributions paid or delivered to it which are allocable under the Plan and to the Trust Fund and all transfers paid or delivered under the Plan to the Trust Fund from a predecessor trustee or another trust (including a trust forming part of another plan qualified under Code Section 401(a); provided, however, that the Trustee shall not be obligated to receive any such contribution or transfer unless prior thereto or coincident therewith, as the Trustee may specify, the Trustee has received such reconciliation, allocation, investment or other information concerning, or such direction, contribution or representation with respect to, the contribution or transfer or the source thereof as the Trustee may require. The Trustee shall have no duty or authority to (a) require any contributions or transfers to be made under the Plan or to the Trustee, (b) compute any amount to be contributed or transferred under the Plan to the Trustee, or (c) determine whether amounts received by the Trustee comply with the Plan.

10.2.2 The Trust Fund shall consist of all money and other property received by the Trustee pursuant to Section 10.2. increased by any income or gains on or increment in such assets and decreased by any investment loss or expense, benefit or disbursement paid pursuant to the Plan.

10.3 Relationship with Administrator

10.3.1 Neither the Trustee, nor the Investment Committee, if any, shall be responsible in any respect for the administration of the Plan. Payments of money or property from the Trust Fund shall be made by the Trustee upon direction from the Administrator or its designee. Payments by the Trustee shall be transmitted to the Administrator or its designee for delivery to the proper payees or to payee addresses supplied by the Administrator or its designee, and the Trustee's obligation to make such payments shall be satisfied upon such transmittal. The Trustee shall have no obligation to determine the identity of persons entitled to payments under the Plan or their addresses.

10.3.2 Directions from or on behalf of the Administrator or its designee shall be communicated to the Trustee or the Trustee's designee for that purpose only in a manner and in accordance with procedures acceptable to the Trustee. The Trustee's designee shall not, however, be empowered to implement any such directions except in accordance with procedures acceptable to the Trustee. The Trustee shall have no liability for following any such directions or failing to act in the absence of any such directions. The Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any person making or failing to make any direction under the Plan or the provisions of this Article X nor any duty or obligation to review any such direction, act or omission.

10.3.3 If a dispute arises over the propriety of the Trustee making any payment from the Trust Fund, the Trustee may withhold the payment until the dispute has been resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction or settled by the parties to the dispute. The Trustee may consult legal counsel and shall be fully protected in acting upon the advice of counsel.

10.4 Investment of Assets

10.4.1 Except as provided in Section 10.4.2, investments of the Trust Fund shall be made in the following, but only if compatible with the Sponsor's administrative and operational requirement and framework:

(A) shares of any regulated investment company managed in whole or in part by the Sponsor or any affiliate of the Sponsor;

(B) any property purchased through the Sponsor or any affiliate of the Sponsor, whether or not productive of income or consisting of wasting assets, including, without limitation specification, governmental, corporate or personal obligations, trust and participation certificates, leaseholds, fee titles, mortgages and other interests in realty, preferred and common stocks, convertible stocks and securities, shares of regulated investment companies, certificates of deposit, put and call options and other option contracts of any type, foreign or domestic, whether or not traded on any exchange, futures contracts and options on futures contracts traded on or subject to the rules of an exchange which has been designated as a contract market by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, an independent U.S. government agency, contracts relating to the lending of property, evidences of indebtedness or ownership in foreign corporations or other enterprises, or indebtedness of foreign governments, group trust participations, limited or general partnership interests, insurance contracts, annuity contracts, any other evidences of indebtedness or ownership including oil, mineral or gas properties, royalty interests or rights (including equipment pertaining thereto); and

(C) Qualifying Employer Securities or "qualifying employer real properties" (as that term is defined in ERISA Section 407(d) to the extent permitted in Section 10.4.3).

10.4.2 (A) Up to 25% or with the written consent of the Sponsor or its representative, an additional percentage of each Plan Year's contributions may be invested in property as specified in Section 10.4.1(B) acquired through a person other than the Sponsor or an affiliate of the Sponsor.

(B) Except as permitted by Section 10.4.2 and except as may result from a Rollover Contribution or a trust to trust transfer, without the written consent of the Sponsor or its representative, property may not be acquired through a person other than the Sponsor or an affiliate of the Sponsor if following such acquisitions the value of the property so acquired would exceed 25% of the value of the Trust Fund.

10.4.3 In its sole discretion, the Investment Committee, or Trustee if there is no Investment Committee:

(A) may permit the investment of up to 10% of the Trust Fund in Qualifying Employer Securities or "qualifying employer real property" (as that term is defined in ERISA Section 407(d)), to the extent such investment is compatible with the Sponsor's administrative and operational requirements and framework; and

(B) may determine, subject to Section 10.4.2, that a percentage of assets in excess of 10% of the Trust Fund may be invested in Qualifying Employer Securities or "qualifying employer real property" by a profit-sharing plan.

10.4.4 This Plan will be recognized as a Prototype Plan by the Sponsor only by complying with the provisions of this Section 10.4.

10.5 Investment Direction, Participant-Directed Assets and Qualifying Employer Investments

10.5.1 The Trustee, or Investment Committee if appointed, shall manage the investment of the Trust Fund except insofar as (a) an Investment Manager has authority to manage Trust assets, or (b) Participant-Directed Assets are permitted as specified in the Adoption Agreement. Except as required by ERISA, if an Investment Committee is acting, the Trustee shall invest the Trust Fund as directed by the Investment Committee, an Investment Manager or a Participant or Beneficiary, as the case may be, and the Trustee shall have no discretionary control over, nor any other discretion regarding, the investment or reinvestment of any asset of the Trust. Participant-Directed Assets shall be invested in accordance with the direction of the Participant or, in the event of the Participant's death before an Account is fully paid out, the Participant's Beneficiary with respect to the assets involved; provided, however, that Participant-Directed Assets may not be invested in "collectibles" (as defined in Code Section 408(m)(2)). If there are Participant-Directed Assets, the investment of these assets shall be made in accordance with such rules and procedures established by the Administrator which must be consistent with the rules and procedures of the Sponsor or its affiliate, as the case may be.

10.5.2 With respect to Participant-Directed Assets, neither the Administrator, the Investment Committee nor the Trustee shall:

(A) make any investments or dispose of any investments without the direction of the Participant or Beneficiary for whom the Participant-Directed Assets are maintained, except as provided in Section 8.5 so as to pay fees or expenses of the Plan;

(B) be responsible for reviewing any investment direction with respect to Participant-Directed Assets or for making recommendations on acquiring, retaining or disposing of any assets or otherwise regarding any assets;

(C) have any duty to determine whether any investment is an authorized or proper one; or

(D) be liable for following any investment direction or for any losses, taxes or other consequences incurred as a consequence of investments selected by any Participant or Beneficiary or for holding assets uninvested until it receives proper instructions.

10.5.3 If Participant-Directed Assets are permitted, a list of the Participants and Beneficiaries and such information concerning them as the Trustee may specify shall be provided by the Employer or the Administrator to the Trustee and/or such person as are necessary for the implementation of the directions in accordance with the procedure acceptable to the Trustee.

10.5.4 It is understood that the Trustee may, from time to time, have on hand funds which are received as contributions or transfers to the Trust Fund which are awaiting investment or funds from the sale of Trust Fund assets which are awaiting reinvestment. Absent receipt by the Trustee of a direction from the proper person for the investment or reinvestment of such funds or otherwise prior to the application of funds in implementation of such a direction, the Trustee shall cause such funds to be invested in shares of such money market fund or other short term investment vehicle as the Trustee, or Investment Committee if appointed, may specify for this purpose from time to time. Any such investment fund may be sponsored, managed or distributed by the Sponsor or an affiliate of the Sponsor.

10.5.5 Directions for the investment or reinvestment of Trust assets of a type referred to in Section 10.4 from the Investment Committee, an Investment Manager or a Participant or Beneficiary, as the case may be, shall, in a manner and in accordance with procedures acceptable to the Trustee, be communicated to and implemented by, as the case may be, the Trustee, the Trustee's designee or, with the Trustees consent and if an Investment Committee is operating, a broker/dealer designated for the purpose by the Investment Committee. Communication of any such direction to such a designee or broker/dealer shall conclusively be deemed an authorization to the designee or broker/dealer to implement the direction even though coming from a person other than the Trustee. The Trustee shall have no liability for its or any other person's following such directions or failing to act in the absence of any such directions. The Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any person directing the investment or reinvestment of Trust Fund assets or making or failing to make any direction referred to in Section 10.5.6.

10.5.6 The voting and other rights in securities or other assets held in the Trust shall be exercised by the Trustee provided, however, that if an Investment Committee is appointed, the Trustee shall act as directed by such person who at the time has the right to direct the investment or reinvestment of the security or other asset involved.

10.5.7 With respect to any Qualifying Employer Securities allocated to an Account, each Participant shall be entitled to direct the Trustee in writing as to the manner in which Qualifying Employer Securities are to be voted.

10.5.8 With respect to any Qualifying Employer Securities allocated to an Account, each Participant shall be entitled to direct the Trustee in writing as to the manner in which to respond to a tender or exchange offer or other decisions with respect to the Qualifying Employer Securities. The Administrator shall utilize its best efforts to timely distribute or cause to be distributed to each Participant such information received from the Trustee as will be distributed to shareholders of the Employer in connection with any such tender or exchange offer or other similar matter or any vote referred to in Section 10.5.7.

10.5.9 If an Investment Committee is appointed, notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, in the event the person with the right to direct a voting or other decision with respect to any security. Qualifying Employer Securities, or other asset held in the Trust does not communicate any decision on the matter to the Trustee or the Trustee's designee by the time prescribed by the Trustee or the Trustee's designee for that purpose or if the Trustee notifies the Investment Committee, if applicable, either that it does not have precise information as to the securities, Qualifying Employer Securities, or other assets involved allocated on the applicable record date to the accounts of all Participants and Beneficiaries or that time constraints make it unlikely that Participant, Beneficiary or Investment Manager direction, as the case may be, can be received on a timely basis, the decision shall be the responsibility of the Investment Committee and shall be communicated to the Trustee on a timely basis. In the event an Investment Committee with any right under the Plan to direct a voting or other decision with respect to any security, Qualifying Employer Securities, or other asset held in the Trust, does not communicate any decision on the matter to the Trustee or the Trustee's designee by the time prescribed by the Trustee for that purpose, the Trustee may, at the cost of the Employer, retain an Investment Manager with full discretion to make the decision. Except as required by ERISA, the Trustee shall (a) follow all directions above referred to in this Section and (b) shall have no duty to exercise voting or other rights relating to any such security, Qualifying Employer Security or other asset.

10.5.10 The Administrator shall establish, or cause to be established, a procedure acceptable to the Trustee for the timely dissemination to each person entitled to direct the Trustee or its designee as to a voting or other decision called for thereby or referred to therein of all proxy and other materials bearing on the decision.

10.5.11 Any person authorized to direct the investment of Trust assets may, if the Trustee and the Investment Committee, if applicable, so permit, direct the Trustee to invest such assets in a common or collective trust maintained by the Trustee for the investment of assets of qualified trusts under section 401(a) of the Code, individual retirement accounts under section 408(a) of the Code and plans or governmental units described in section 818(a)(6) of the Code. The documents governing any such common or collective trust fund maintained by the Trustee, and in which Trust assets have been invested, are hereby incorporated into this Article X by reference.

10.6 Valuation of Accounts

10.6.1 A Participant's Accounts shall be valued at fair market value on each Valuation Date. Subject to Section 10.6.2(A), as of each Valuation Date, the earnings and losses and expenses of the Trust Fund shall be allocated to each Participant Account in the ratio that such Account Balance in that category of Accounts bears to all Account Balances in that category. With respect to Participant-Directed Assets, the earnings and losses and expenses (including transactional expenses pursuant to Section 8.5.2) of such Participant-Directed Assets shall be allocated to the Account of the Participant or Beneficiary having authority to direct the investment of the assets in his or her Account.

10.6.2 The Valuation Date with respect to any distributions (including, without limitation, loan distributions and purchase of annuities) from any Account upon the occurrence of a Benefit Commencement Date or otherwise, shall be:

(A) with respect to Participant-Directed Asset, the date as of which the Account distribution is made; and

(B) with respect to other assets, the Valuation Date immediately preceding the Benefit Commencement Date, if applicable, or immediately preceding the proposed date of any other distribution from an Account.

With respect to any contribution allocable to an Account which has not been made as of a Valuation Date determined pursuant to this Section 10.6.2, the principal amount of such contribution distributable because of the occurrence of a Benefit Commencement Date shall be distributed as soon as practicable after the date paid to the Trust Fund.

10.6.3 The assets of the Trust shall be valued at fair market value as determined by the Trustee based upon such sources of information as it may deem reliable, including, but not limited to, stock market quotations, statistical evaluation services, newspapers of general circulation, financial publications, advice from investment counselors or brokerage firms, or any combination of sources. The reasonable costs incurred in establishing values of the Trust Fund shall be a charge against the Trust Fund, unless paid by the Employer.

When the Trustee is unable to arrive at a value based upon information from independent sources, it may rely upon information from the Employer, Administrator, Investment Committee, appraisers or other sources, and shall not incur any liability for inaccurate valuation based in good faith upon such information.

10.7 Insurance Contracts

The Trustee, if an Investment Committee is not appointed, Investment Committee, or Participant or Beneficiary with respect to Participant-Directed Assets, may appoint one or more insurance companies to hold assets of the Plan, and may direct, subject to Section 7.3, the purchase of insurance contracts or policies from one or more insurance companies with assets of the Plan. Neither the Investment Committee, Trustee nor the Administrator shall be liable for the validity of any such contract or policy, the failure of any insurance company to make any payments or for any act or omission of an insurance company with respect to any duties delegated to any insurance company.

10.8 The Investment Manager

10.8.1 The Trustee, if an Investment Committee is not appointed, Investment Committee, or the Participant or Beneficiary with respect to Participant-Directed Assets, may, by an instrument in writing, appoint one or more Investment Managers, who may be an affiliate of the Merrill Lynch Trust Company, to direct the Trustee in the investment of all or a specified portion of the assets of the Trust in property specified in Section 10.4. Any such Investment Manager shall be directed by the Trustee, if an Investment Committee is not appointed, Investment Committee, Participant or Beneficiary, as the case may be, to act in accordance with the procedures referred to in Section 10.5.5. If appointed, the Investment Committee shall notify the Trustee in writing before the effectiveness of the appointment or removal of any Investment Manager. If there is more than one Investment Manager whose appointment is effective under the Plan at any one time, the Trustee shall upon written instructions from the Investment Committee, Participant or Beneficiary, establish separate funds for control by each such Investment Manager. The funds shall consist of those Trust Fund assets designated by the investment Committee, Participant or Beneficiary.

10.8.2 Each person appointed as an Investment Manager shall be:

(A) an investment adviser registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940,

(B) a bank as defined in that Act, or

(C) an insurance company qualified to manage, acquire or dispose of any asset of the Plan under the laws of more than one state.

10.8.3 Each Investment Manager shall acknowledge in writing that it is a "fiduciary" (as defined in ERISA Section 3(21)) with respect to the Plan. The Trustee, or the Investment Committee if appointed, shall enter into an agreement with each Investment Manager specifying the duties and compensation of such Investment Manager and the other terms and conditions under which such Investment Manager shall be retained. Neither the Trustee nor the Investment Committee, if appointed, shall be liable for any act or omission of any Investment Manager and shall not be liable for following the advice of any Investment Manager with respect to any duties delegated to any Investment Manager.

10.8.4 The Trustee, or investment Committee if appointed, or the Participant or Beneficiary, if applicable with respect to Participant-Directed Assets, shall have the power to determine the amount of Trust Fund assets to be invested pursuant to the direction of a designated Investment Manager and to set investment objectives and guidelines for the Investment Manager.

10.8.5 Second Trust Fund. The Employer may appoint a second trustee under the Plan with respect to assets which the Employer desires to contribute or have transferred to the Trust Fund, but which the other Trustee does not choose to accept; provided, however, that if a Merrill Lynch Trust Company is a Trustee, its consent (which consent may be evidenced by its acceptance of its appointment as Trustee) shall be required. In the event and upon the effectiveness of the acceptance of the second Trustee's appointment, the Employer shall be deemed to have created two trust funds under the Plan, each with its own Trustee, each governed separately by this Article X. Each Trustee under such an arrangement shall, however, discharge its duties and responsibilities solely with respect to those assets of the Trust delivered into its possession and except pursuant to ERISA, shall have no duties, responsibilities or obligations with respect to property of the other Trust nor any liability for the acts or omissions of the other Trustee. As a condition to its consent to the appointment of a second trustee, the Merrill Lynch Trust Company shall assure that recordkeeping, distribution and reporting procedures are established on a coordinated basis between it and the second trustee as considered necessary or appropriate with respect to the Trusts.

10.9 Powers of Trustee

10.9.1 At the direction of the person authorized to direct such action as referred to in Section 10.5.1, but limited to those assets or categories of assets acceptable to the Trustee as referred to in Section 10.4, or at its own discretion if no such person is so authorized, the Trustee, or the Trustee's designee or a broker/dealer as referred to in Section 10.5.5, is authorized and empowered:

(A) To invest and reinvest the Trust Fund, together with the income therefrom, in assets specified in Section 10.4;

(B) To deposit or invest all or any part of the assets of the Trust in savings accounts or certificates of deposit or other deposits in a bank or savings and loan association or other depository institution, including the Trustee or any of its affiliates, provided with respect to such deposits with the Trustee or an affiliate the deposits bear a reasonable interest rate;

(C) To hold, manage, improve, repair and control all property, real or personal, forming part of the Trust Fund; to sell, convey, transfer, exchange, partition, lease for any term, even extending beyond the duration of this Trust, and otherwise dispose of the same from time to time;

(D) To have, respecting securities, all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner, including the power to give proxies, pay assessments and other sums deemed by the Trustee necessary for the protection of the Trust Fund, to vote any corporate stock either in person or by proxy, with or without power of substitution, for any purpose; to participate in voting trusts, pooling agreements, foreclosures, reorganizations, consolidations, mergers and liquidations, and in connection therewith to deposit securities with or transfer title to any protective or other committee; to exercise or sell stock subscriptions or conversion rights; and, regardless of any limitation elsewhere in this instrument relative to investments by the Trustee, to accept and retain as an investment any securities or other property received through the exercise of any of the foregoing powers;

(E) Subject to Section 10.5.4 hereof, to hold in cash, without liability for interest, such portion of the Trust Fund which it is directed to so hold pending investments, or payment of expenses, or the distribution of benefits;

(F) To take such actions as may be necessary or desirable to protect the Trust from loss due to the default on mortgages held in the Trust including the appointment of agents or trustees in such other jurisdictions as may seem desirable, to transfer property to such agents or trustees, to grant to such agents such powers as are necessary or desirable to protect the Trust Fund. to direct such agent or trustee, or to delegate such power to direct, and to remove such agent or trustee;

(G) To settle, compromise or abandon all claims and demands in favor of or against the Trust Fund;

(H) To invest in any common or collective trust fund of the type referred to in Section 10.5.8 hereof maintained by the Trustee;

(I) To exercise all of the further rights, powers, options and privileges granted, provided for, or vested in trustees generally under the laws of the State of New Jersey, so that the powers conferred upon the Trustee herein shall not be in limitation of any authority conferred by law, but shall be in addition thereto;

(J) To borrow money from any source and to execute promissory notes, mortgages or other obligations and to pledge or mortgage any trust assets as security, subject to applicable requirements of the Code and ERISA; and

(K) To maintain accounts at, execute transactions through, and lend on an adequately secured basis stocks, bonds or other securities to, any brokerage or other firm, including any firm which is an affiliate of the Trustee.

10.9.2 To the extent necessary or which it deems appropriate to implement its powers under Section 10.9.1 or otherwise to fulfill any of its duties and responsibilities as trustee of the Trust Fund, the Trustee shall have the following additional powers and authority:

(A) to register securities, or any other property, in its name or in the name of any nominee, including the name of any affiliate or the nominee name designated by any affiliate, with or without indication of the capacity in which property shall be held, or to hold securities in bearer form and to deposit any securities or other property in a depository or clearing corporation;

(B) to designate and engage the services of, and to delegate powers and responsibilities to, such agents, representatives, advisers, counsel and accountants as the Trustee considers necessary or appropriate, any of whom may be an affiliate of the Trustee or a person who renders services to such an affiliate, and, as a part of its expenses under this Trust Agreement, to pay their reasonable expenses and compensation;

(C) to make, execute and deliver, as Trustee, any and all deeds, leases, mortgages, conveyances, waivers, releases or other instruments in writing necessary or appropriate for the accomplishment of any of the powers listed in this Trust Agreement; and

(D) generally to do all other acts which the Trustee deems necessary or appropriate for the protection of the Trust Fund.

10.9.3 The Trustee shall have no duties or responsibilities other than those specified in the Plan.

10.10 Accounting and Records

10.10.1 The Trustee shall maintain or cause to be maintained accurate records and accounts of all Trust transactions and assets. The records and accounts shall be available at reasonable times during normal business hours for inspection or audit by the Administrator, Investment Committee, if appointed, or any person designated for the purpose by either of them.

10.10.2 Within 90 days following the close of each fiscal year of the Plan or the effective date of the removal or resignation of the Trustee, the Trustee shall file with the Administrator a written accounting setting forth all transactions since the end of the period covered by the last previous accounting. The accounting shall include a listing of the assets of the Trust showing the value of such assets at the close of the period covered by the accounting. On direction of the Administrator, and if previously agreed to by the Trustee, the Trustee shall submit to the Administrator interim valuations, reports or other information pertaining to the Trust.

The Administrator may approve the accounting by written approval delivered to the Trustee or by failure to deliver written objections to the Trustee within 60 days after receipt of the accounting. Any such approval shall be binding on the Employer, the Administrator, the Investment Committee and, to the extent permitted by ERISA, all other persons.

10.11 Judicial Settlement of Accounts

The Trustee can apply to a court of competent jurisdiction at any time for judicial settlement of any matter involving the Plan including judicial settlement of the Group Trustee's account. If it does so, the Trustee must give the Administrator the opportunity to participate in the court proceedings, but the Trustee can also involve other persons. Any expenses the Trustee incurs in legal proceedings involving the Plan, including attorney's fees, are chargeable to the Trust Fund as an administrative expense. Any judgment or decree which may be entered in such a proceeding, shall, subject to the provision of ERISA, be conclusive upon all persons having or claiming to have any interest in the Trust Fund or under any Plan.

10.12 Resignation and Removal of Trustee

10.12.1 The Trustee may resign at any time upon at least 30 days' written notice to the Employer.

10.12.2 The Employer may remove the Trustee upon at least 30 days' written notice to the Trustee.

10.12.3 Upon resignation or removal of the Trustee, the Employer shall appoint a successor trustee. Upon failure of the Employer to appoint, or the failure of the effectiveness of the appointment by the Employer of, a successor trustee by the effective date of the resignation or removal, the Trustee may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor.

Promptly after receipt by the Trustee of notice of the effectiveness of the appointment of the successor trustee: (a) the Trustee shall deliver to the successor trustee such records as may be reasonably requested to enable the successor trustee to properly administer the Trust Fund and all property of the Trust after deducting therefrom such amounts as the Trustee deems necessary to provide for expenses, taxes, compensation or other amounts due to or by the Trustee not paid by the Employer prior to the delivery; and (b) except if the second Trustee is removed or resigns, the Plan will no longer be considered a prototype plan.

10.12.4 Upon resignation or removal of the Trustee, the Trustee shall have the right to a settlement of its account, which settlement shall be made, at the Trustee's option, either by an agreement of settlement between the Trustee and the Employer or by a judicial settlement in an action instituted by the Trustee. The Employer shall bear the cost of any such judicial settlement including reasonable attorneys fees.

10.12.5 The Trustee shall not be obligated to transfer Trust assets until the Trustee is provided assurance by the Employer satisfactory to the Trustee that all fees and expenses reasonably anticipated will be paid.

10.12.6 Upon settlement of the account and transfer of the Trust Fund to the successor trustee, all rights and privileges under the Trust Agreement shall vest in the successor trustee and all responsibility and liability of the Trustee with respect to the Trust and assets thereof shall, except as otherwise required by ERISA, terminate subject only to the requirement that the Trustee execute all necessary documents to transfer the Trust assets to the successor trustee.

10.13 Group Trust

10.13.1 If elected by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement, the Trustee shall be the Trustee for this Plan and for each other qualified plan specified in the Adoption Agreement; provided, however, that such other qualified plan is in effect pursuant to an Adoption Agreement under this Prototype Plan. Any reference to Trustee and to the Trust Fund in this Plan shall mean the Trustee as the trustee of a Group Trust consisting of the assets of each such plan. The Plan and each other qualified plan specified in the Adoption Agreement shall be deemed to join in and adopt the Trust as the trust for each such plan. By executing the Adoption Agreement the Trustee accepts designation as Trustee of this Group Trust.

10.13.2 The Trustee shall establish and maintain such accounting records for each of the Plans as shall be necessary to reflect the interest in the Group Trust applicable at any time or from time to time to each Plan. No part of the corpus or income of the Group Trust allocable to an individual Plan may be used for or diverted to any purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of Participants and their Beneficiaries entitled to benefits under that Plan. The allocable interest of a Plan in the Group Trust may not be assigned.

ARTICLE XI
PLAN AMENDMENT OR TERMINATION

11.1 Prototype Plan Amendment

11.1.1 The mass submitter, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and any successor thereto, may amend any part of the Prototype Plan. For purposes of sponsoring organization amendments, the mass submitter shall be recognized as the agent of the sponsoring organization. If the sponsoring organization does not adopt the amendments made by the mass submitter, it will no longer be identical to or a minor modifier of the mass submitter plan.

11.1.2 An Employer shall have the right at any time, by an instrument in writing, effective retroactively or otherwise, to (A) change the choice of options in the Adoption Agreement, in whole or in part (B) add overriding language in the Adoption Agreement when such language is needed to satisfy Code Section 415 or Code Section 416 because of the required aggregation of multiple plans; and (C) add certain model amendments published by the Internal Revenue Service which specifically provide that their adoption will not cause the Plan to be treated as individually designed. No such amendment, however, shall have any of the effects specified in Section 11.2.1. If the adopting Employer amends the Plan or nonelective portions of the Adoption Agreement except as previously provided, it will no longer participate in the Prototype Plan, but will be considered to have an individually designed plan for purposes of qualification under Code Section 401(a). In the event the Employer is switching from an individually designed plan or from one prototype plan to another, a list of the Section 411(d)(6) protected benefits' that must be preserved may be attached, and such a list would not be considered an amendment to the plan.

11.1.3 This Plan will be recognized as a Prototype Plan by the Sponsor only by complying with the registration requirements as specified in the Adoption Agreement.

11.2 Plan Amendment

11.2.1 Except as provided in Section 11.2.2, no amendment pursuant to Section 11.1 shall:

(A) authorize any part of the Trust Fund to be used for, or diverted to, purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of Participants or their Beneficiaries;

(B) decrease the accrued benefits of any Participant or his or her Beneficiary under the Plan; An amendment which has the effect of (1) eliminating or reducing an Early Retirement benefit or a retirement-type subsidy, or (2) eliminating an optional form of benefit payment with respect to benefits attributable to service before the amendment shall be treated as reducing accrued benefits. In the case of a retirement-type subsidy, the preceding sentence shall apply only with respect to a Participant who satisfies (either before or after the amendment) the preamendment conditions for the subsidy. In general, a retirement-type subsidy is a subsidy that continues after retirement, but does not include a qualified disability benefit, a medical benefit, a social security supplement, a death benefit (including life insurance), or a plant shutdown benefit (that does not continue after retirement age).

(C) reduce the vested percentage of any Participant determined without regard to such amendment as of the later of the date such amendment is adopted or the date it becomes effective;

(D) eliminate an optional form of benefit distribution with respect to benefits attributable to service before the amendment; or

(E) change the vesting schedule, or in any way amend the Plan to either directly or indirectly affect the computation of a Participant's vested percentage, unless each Participant having not less than 3 years of Vesting Service is permitted to elect, within a reasonable period specified by the Administrator after the adoption of such amendment, to have his or her vested percentage computed without regard to such amendment.

For Participants who do not have at least one Hour of Service in any Plan Year beginning after December 31, 1988, the preceding sentence shall be applied by substituting "5 Years of Vesting Service" for "3 Years of Vesting Service" where such language appears. The period during which the election may be made shall commence with the date the amendment is adopted and shall end on the later of:

(i) 60 days after the amendment is adopted;

(ii) 60 days after the amendment becomes effective; or

(iii) 60 days after the Participant is issued written notice by the Administrator.

11.2.2 Anything contained in this Section 11.2 to the contrary notwithstanding, a Participant's benefit may be reduced to the extent permitted under Code Section 412(c)(8).

11.3 Right of the Employer to Terminate Plan

11.3.1 The Employer intends and expects that from year to year it will be able to and will deem it advisable to continue this Plan in effect and to make contributions as herein provided. The Employer reserves the right, however, to terminate the Plan with respect to its Employees at any time by an instrument in writing delivered to the Administrator and the Trustee, or to completely discontinue its contributions thereto at any time.

11.3.2 The Plan will also terminate: (A) if the Employer is a sole proprietorship, upon the death of the sole proprietor; (B) if the Employer is a partnership, upon termination of the partnership; (C) if the Employer is judicially declared bankrupt or insolvent; (D) upon the sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the business; or (E) upon any other termination of the business. Any successor to or purchaser of the Employer's trade or business, after any event specified in the prior sentence, may continue the Plan, in which case the successor or purchaser will thereafter be considered the Employer for purposes of the Plan. Such a successor or purchaser shall execute an appropriate Adoption Agreement if and when requested by the Administrator.

11.3.3 Anything contained herein to the contrary notwithstanding, if the Employer fails to attain or retain qualification of the Plan under Code Section 401(a), the Plan will not participate in this Prototype Plan and will, instead, be considered an individually designed plan for purposes of such qualification.

11.4 Effect of Partial or Complete Termination or Complete Discontinuance of Contributions

11.4.1 Determination of Date of Complete or Partial Termination. The date of complete or partial termination shall be established by the Administrator in accordance with the directions of the Employer (if then in existence) in accordance with applicable law.

11.4.2 Effect of Termination.

(A) As of the date of a partial termination of the Plan:

(i) the accrued benefit of each affected Participant, to the extent funded, shall become nonforfeitable;

(ii) no affected Participant shall be granted credit based on Hours of Service after such date;

(iii) Compensation paid to affected Participants after such date shall not be taken into account; and

(iv) no contributions by affected Participants shall be required or permitted.

(B) As of the date of the complete termination of the Plan or of a complete discontinuance of contributions:

(i) the accrued benefit of each affected Participant to the extent funded, shall become nonforfeitable;

(ii) no affected Participant shall be granted credit based on Hours of Service after such date;

(iii) Compensation paid after such date shall not be taken into account;

(iv) no contributions by affected Participants shall be required or permitted;

(v) no Eligible Employee shall become a Participant after such date; and

(vi) except as may otherwise be required by applicable law, all obligations of the Employer and Participating Affiliates to fund the Plan shall terminate.

(C) All other provisions of the Plan shall remain in effect unless otherwise amended.

11.4.3 Upon the complete discontinuance of profit-sharing contributions under the Plan at the Employer's election, either the Trust Fund shall continue to be held and distributed as if the Plan had not been terminated (in which case such Plan shall continue to be subject to all requirements under Title I of ERISA, and qualification requirements under the Code) or any and all assets remaining in the Trust Fund as of the date of such termination or discontinuance, together with any earnings subsequently accruing thereon, shall be distributed by the Trustee to the Participants at the Administrator's direction. Upon the complete termination of the Plan, the Trust Fund shall be distributed to Participants within one year after the date of termination. If the Plan does not offer an annuity option (purchased from a commercial provider) and if the Employer or any Affiliate does not maintain another Defined Contribution Plan (other than an employee stock ownership plan as defined in Code Section 4975(e)(7)), the Participant's benefit may, without the Participant's consent, be distributed to the Participant. However, if any Affiliate maintains another Defined Contribution Plan (other than an employee stock ownership plan as defined in Code Section 4975(e)(7)), then the Participant's Account(s) will be transferred, without the Participant's consent, to the other plan if the Participant does not consent to an immediate distribution. Distributions shall be made in compliance with the applicable provisions, including restrictions, of Articles VI and VII. The Trust Fund shall continue in effect until all distributions therefrom are complete. Upon the completion of such distributions, the Trustee shall be relieved from all further liability with respect to all amounts so paid or distributed.

11.5 Bankruptcy

In the event that the Employer shall at any time be judicially declared bankrupt or insolvent without any provisions being made for the continuation of this Plan, the Plan shall be completely terminated in accordance with this Article XI.

ARTICLE XII
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

12.1 Exclusive Benefit of Participants

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, the Trust Fund shall be held for the benefit of all persons who shall be entitled to receive payments under the Plan. Subject to Section 3.10, it shall be prohibited at any time for any part of the Trust Fund (other than such part as is required to pay expenses) to be used for, or diverted to, purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of Participants or their Beneficiaries.

12.2 Plan Not a Contract of Employment

The Plan is not a contract of Employment, and the terms of Employment of any Employee shall not be affected in any way by the Plan or related instruments except as specifically provided therein.

12.3 Action by Employer

Any action by an Employer which is a corporation shall be taken by the board of directors of the corporation or any person or persons duly empowered to exercise the powers of the corporation with respect to the Plan. In the case of an Employer which is a partnership, action shall be taken by any general partner of the partnership, and in the case of an Employer which is a sole proprietorship, action shall be taken by the sole proprietor.

12.4 Source of Benefits

Benefits under the Plan shall be paid or provided for solely from the Trust Fund, and neither the Employer, any Participating Affiliate, the Trustee, the Administrator, nor any Investment Manager or insurance company shall assume any liability under the Plan therefor.

12.5 Benefits Not Assignable

Benefits provided under the Plan may not be assigned or alienated, either voluntarily or involuntarily. In the event that a Participant or Beneficiary becomes individually liable with respect to any expenses listed in Section 8.5, the provision of Section 401(a)(13) of the Code shall be applicable with respect to any claim the Plan may have against the Participant or Beneficiary individually with respect to such expenses. The preceding sentence shall also apply to the creation, assignment or recognition of a right to any benefit payable with respect to a Participant pursuant to a "domestic relations order" (as defined in Code Section 414(p)) unless such order is determined by the Administrator to be a "qualified domestic relations order" (as defined in Code Section 4l4(p)) or, in the case of a "domestic relations order" entered before January 1, 1985, if either payment of benefits pursuant to the order has commenced as of that date or the Administrator decides to treat such order as a "qualified domestic relations order" within the meaning of Code Section 414(p) even if it does not otherwise qualify as such.

12.6 Domestic Relations Orders

Any other provision of the Plan to the contrary notwithstanding, the Administrator shall have all powers necessary with respect to the Plan for the proper operation of Code Section 414(p) with respect to "qualified domestic relations orders" (or "domestic relations orders" treated as such) referred to in Section 12.5, including, but not limited to, the power to establish all necessary or appropriate procedures, to authorize the establishment of new accounts with such assets and subject to such investment control by the Administrator as the Administrator may deem appropriate, and the Administrator may decide upon and direct appropriate distributions therefrom.

12.7 Claims Procedure

In the event that a claim by a Participant, Beneficiary, or other person for benefits under the Plan is denied, the Administrator will so notify the claimant, giving the reasons for the denial. This notice will also refer to the specific provisions of the Plan on which the denial was based, will specify whether any additional information is needed from the Participant or Beneficiary and will explain the review procedure.

Within 60 days after receiving the denial, the claimant may submit, directly or through a duly authorized representative, a written request for reconsideration of the application to the Administrator. Documents or records relied on by the claimant should be filed with the request. The person making the request may review relevant documents and submit issues and additional comments in writing.

The Administrator will review the claim within 60 days (or 120 days if a hearing is held because special circumstances exist) and provide a written response to the appeal. The response will explain the reasons for the decision and will refer to the Plan provisions on which the decision is based. The decision of the Administrator is the final one under this claims procedure.

12.8 Records and Documents; Errors

Participants and Beneficiaries must supply the Administrator with such personal history data as may be required by the Administrator in the operation of the Plan. Proof of age, when required, must be established by evidence satisfactory to the Administrator, and the records of the Employer and Participating Affiliates concerning length of service and compensation may be accepted by the Administrator as conclusive for the purposes of the Plan. Should any error in the records maintained under the Plan result in any Participant or Beneficiary receiving from the Plan more or less than he or she would have been entitled to receive had the records been correct, the Administrator, in its discretion, may correct such error and, as far as practicable, may adjust benefits in such manner that the aggregate value of the benefit under the Plan shall be the amount to which such Participant or Beneficiary was properly entitled.

12.9 Benefits Payable to Minors, Incompetents and Others

In the event any benefit is payable to a minor or to a Participant or Beneficiary declared incompetent by a court having jurisdiction over such matters and a guardian, committee, conservator or other legal representative of the estate of such a person is appointed, benefits to which he or she is entitled shall be paid to the legally appointed person. The receipt by any such person to whom any such payment on behalf of any Participant or Beneficiary is made shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.

12.10 Plan Merger or Transfer of Assets

12.10.1 The merger or consolidation of the Employer with any other person, or the transfer of the assets of the Employer to any other person, or the merger of the Plan with any other plan shall not constitute a termination of the Plan if provision is made for the continuation of the Plan.

12.10.2 The Plan may not merge or consolidate with, or transfer any assets or liabilities to, any other plan, unless each Participant would (if the Plan had then terminated) receive a benefit immediately after the merger, consolidation or transfer which is equal to or greater than the benefit he or she would have been entitled to receive immediately before the merger, consolidation or transfer (if the Plan had then terminated). Any merger or consolidation shall not constitute a termination of a Plan or require the acceleration of vesting of Participant's Account Balances.

12.11 Participating Affiliates

12.11.1 With the consent of the Employer and by duly authorized action, any Affiliate may adopt the Plan. Such Affiliate shall determine the classes of its Employees who shall be Eligible Employees and the amount of its contribution to the Plan on behalf of such Employees.

12.11.2 With the consent of the Employer and by duly authorized action, a Participating Affiliate may terminate its participation in the Plan or withdraw from the Plan. Any such withdrawal shall be deemed an adoption by such Participating Affiliate of a plan and trust identical to the Plan and the Trust, except that all references to the Employer shall be deemed to refer to such Participating Affiliate. At such time and in such manner as the Employer directs, the assets of the Trust allocable to Employees of such Participating Affiliate shall be transferred to the trust deemed adopted by such Participating Affiliate.

12.11.4 A Participating Affiliate shall have no power with respect to the Plan except as specifically provided herein.

12.12 Controlling Law

The Plan is intended to qualify under Code Section 401(a) and to comply with ERISA. and its terms shall be interpreted accordingly. Otherwise, to the extent not preempted by ERISA, the laws of the State of New York shall control the interpretation and performance of the terms of the Plan.

12.13 Singular and Plural and Article and Section References

As used in the Plan, the singular includes the plural, and the plural includes the singular, unless qualified by the context. Titles of Articles and Sections of the Plan are for convenience of reference only and are to be disregarded in applying the provisions of the Plan. Any reference in this Prototype Plan to an Article or Section is to the Article or Section so specified of the Prototype Plan, unless otherwise indicated.

The Employer must complete and sign the Adoption Agreement. Upon receipt of the Adoption Agreement, the Plan will be registered as a Prototype Plan of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated. The Adoption Agreement will be countersigned by an authorized representative and a copy of the countersigned Adoption Agreement will be returned to the Employer.

2. Registration Renewal

Annual registration renewal is required in order for the Employer to continue to receive any and all necessary updating documents. There is an annual registration renewal fee in the amount set forth with the initial registration material. The adopting Employer authorizes Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, to debit the account established for the Plan for payment of agreed upon annual fee; provided, however, if the assets of an account are invested solely in Participant-Directed Assets, a notice for this annual fee will be sent to the Employer annually. The Sponsor reserves the right to change this fee from time to time and will provide written notice in advance of any change.

C. Prototype Replacement Plan

This Adoption Agreement is a replacement prototype plan for the (1) Merrill Lynch Special Prototype Defined Contribution Plan and Trust - 401(k) Plan #03-004 and (2) Merrill Lynch Asset Management, Inc., Special Prototype Defined Contribution Plan and Trust - 401(k) Plan Adoption Agreement #03-004.

D. Reliance

The adopting Employer may not rely on the opinion letter issued by the National Office of the Internal Revenue Service as evidence that this Plan is qualified under Code Section 401. In order to obtain reliance, the Employer must apply to the appropriate Key District Director of the Internal Revenue Service for a determination letter with respect to the Plan.

Employee Share Purchase Plan Contract

CPI's Employee Share Purchase Plan, as amended, authorizes the CPI Compensation Committee to award authorized but unissued Series A Common Shares of CPI ("Common Shares") for purchase by employees in accordance with the terms of the Plan. The Committee has awarded Common Shares for purchase by you and we understand you desire to so purchase such Shares. Accordingly, you and CPI hereby agree as follows:

1. CPI hereby sells to you, and you purchase from CPI, - authorized but unissued Common Shares of CPI at a price of $151.83 per Share (the present "Fair Market Value of a Common Share" as hereinafter defined), receipt of which is acknowledged by CPI. The Common Shares so purchased by you are hereinafter called "your Plan Shares". Certificates for your Plan Shares, bearing appropriate legends consistent with the provisions hereof, are being delivered to you in exchange for (a) your delivery to CPI of your Five Year Recourse Note in the form of Exhibit A hereto (the "Note") payable to CPI in a principal amount equal to $91.10 for each such Plan Share and (b) your assumption of a permanent restriction (the "Permanent Restriction") in an amount equal to $60.73 for each such Plan Share as provided in paragraphs 3 and 4 below.

You hereby authorize CPI to apply dividends and distributions on your Plan Shares to payments of principal and interest on the Note, in each case to the extent required for such payments when due. As indicated in Exhibit A the Note will become due on the earlier of May 1, 1997, or the expiration of 12 months after your employment by CPI shall terminate, unless such termination is for reasons of death or disability or of retirement after reaching age 60 in which case the Note will not mature until May 1, 1997, and the Note will bear interest on the unpaid principal amount thereof as provided therein.

2. Your ownership of your Plan Shares will "vest" over a period of four years at the rate of 25% per annum, with the initial 25% of such Shares vesting on May 1, 1993, and an additional 25% of such Shares vesting on each succeeding May 1, through 1996, all subject to the reserved right of the Compensation Committee in their discretion to change such vesting schedule. Your ownership of your Plan Shares will in any event vest in full upon your death or upon a "Change in Control of CPI".

3. You agree that

(a) if at any time you desire to sell any of your vested Plan Shares, you will sell such Shares only to CPI and at an amount per Share (which CPI agrees to pay) equal to the then Fair Market Value of a Common Share of CPI minus the sum of the amount of the Permanent Restriction for such Share and the then unpaid Per Share Amount of the Note; and

(b) if your employment by CPI shall terminate for any reason, you will have the right to request CPI to purchase from you (in which case CPI will purchase from you) all your Plan Shares which are then "vested" at a price for each Share equal to the excess of the then Fair Market Value of a Common Share over the sum of the Permanent Restriction for such Share and the then unpaid Per Share Amount of the Note and you will immediately sell to CPI, and it will purchase from you, all your Plan Shares which are not "vested" at a price for each share equal to the lesser of the then Fair Market Value of a Common Share of CPI or $151.83 minus the sum of the Permanent Restriction for such Share and the then unpaid Per Share amount of the Note.

Upon any sale of your Plan Shares to CPI pursuant to this paragraph 3, a principal amount of the Note equal to the then unpaid Per Share Amount of the Note (less any excess of (a) the original Per Share Amount of the Note over (b) the Fair Market Value of a Common Share at the time of purchase by CPI decreased by the Permanent Restriction) times the number of your Plan Shares so purchased by CPI will be cancelled and deemed paid.

4. The Plan Shares will not be transferable except to CPI in accordance with Paragraph 3 above and except to your spouse or to a trust or trusts for the benefit of your spouse or children or to a corporation or partnership all the equity interests in which are owned by you, your spouse or children but, in the event of any such transfer, such transferee will be required to acknowledge and agree that the Plan Shares so transferred will remain subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 and will not be transferable except as permitted by this paragraph 4.

5. At any time after the earlier of May 1, 1993, or the termination of your employment by CPI due to death or disability or to retirement after age 60, you will have the right at your election to surrender to CPI any of the Plan Shares which shall be vested and to request CPI to cancel the same and in exchange to (a) issue to you such number of full Common Shares not subject to a Permanent Restriction as is equal to (i) an amount equal to the excess of the then aggregate Fair Market Value of the Common Shares so surrendered over the aggregate Permanent Restrictions for the surrendered Shares, divided by (ii) the then Fair Market Value of a Common Share of CPI and (b) pay you in cash any remaining Fair Market Value of the surrendered Plan Shares.

Upon receipt of such surrendered Plan Shares and request from you, CPI may at its election (exercised by action taken by the Compensation Committee in its discretion) accept such surrendered Shares for cancellation and effect such exchange.

6. CPI will deliver to the trustee of the trust in which substantially all of the outstanding shares of common stock of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., have been deposited for the benefit of holders of Common Shares of CPI an amount equal to the amount (the "CRC Equity") included in the purchase price (the Fair Market Value of a Common Share at the date of issue) of each such Plan Share pursuant to clauses (x) and (y) of the definition of Fair Market Value of a Common Share, which amounts will be used by such trustee to purchase, at a price of 10 times the CRC Equity, for deposit in said trust, a number of CRC shares equal to 1/10 the number of your Plan Shares so purchased by you.

7. The following terms have the following meanings herein:

(a) The "Fair Market Value of a Common Share" means as of any time (i) the then most recent net asset value per Common Share as adjusted to appropriately reflect the assumed conversion into Common Shares of any outstanding convertible securities of CPI which have a conversion price for Shares less than the net asset value otherwise determined hereunder and to include an amount equal to (x) the equity in Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., available for Common Shares of CPI divided by (y) the adjusted number of Common Shares of CPI used in determining such net asset value per Common Share, all as most recently determined by Landauer Associates, Inc. (or such successor or other independent firm as shall at the time be retained by the Trustees of CPI to appraise the net asset value of CPI) or (ii) if since the date of such appraisal there has been a sale or issuance of Common Shares at a different price, the most recent such different price. As used in this paragraph "Common Share" includes both Series A and Series B Common Shares.

(b) The term "Per Share Amount of the Note" shall mean as of any time the face amount of the Note then remaining unpaid divided by the number of your Plan Shares purchased through the acceptance of the Note as part of the purchase price.

(c) The term "Change in Control of CPI" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following: (i) any consolidation or merger of CPI in which CPI is not the surviving entity, (ii) the sale, lease, exchange or transfer of substantially all of the assets of CPI, (iii) the liquidation or dissolution of CPI, or (iv) the acquisition by one or more related entities of securities representing 50% or more of the combined voting power of CPI's outstanding securities having the right to vote in the election of trustees, adjusted to appropriately reflect the assumed conversion into voting common shares of any outstanding convertible securities of CPI.

Please confirm your agreement to the foregoing by signing in the space provided below and returning the enclosed copy of this letter.

Very truly yours,

EXHIBIT 10.54

ISSUANCE AGREEMENT dated as of
, 1998, between CORPORATE
PROPERTY INVESTORS, INC., a Delaware corporation
("C1"), and CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC., a Delaware corporation ("C2").

The parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used herein, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"C1 Common Equivalent" with respect to a share of a series of C1 Special Preferred Stock at any date shall mean the number of shares of C1 Common Stock that would be issued to the holder of such share of C1 Special Preferred Stock if all outstanding shares of such series were converted into C1 Common Stock on such date in accordance with their terms; provided, however, that if such series shall not then be convertible, the "C1 Common Equivalent" of such a share of C1 Special Preferred Stock shall be determined by the Board of Directors of C1 in good faith so as to achieve, insofar as is possible, the intents and purposes of this Agreement.

"C1 Common Stock" shall mean the Common Stock, par value $___ per share, of C1.

"C1 Special Preferred Stock" shall mean (i) the 6.5% Series A Preferred Stock of C1 and (ii) any series of preferred stock, par value $___ per share, of C1 convertible into C1 Common Stock, the terms of which expressly provide that such stock shall be "Special Preferred Stock" of C1 for purposes of this Agreement.

"C2 Common Stock" shall mean the Common Stock, par value $___ per share, of C2.

"C1 Proportionate Interest" shall mean (i) with respect to the C1 Common Stock at any date, a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of C1 Common Stock outstanding at such date and the denominator of which shall be the sum of such number of shares of C1 Common Stock and the aggregate C1 Common Equivalents of all outstanding shares of C1 Special Preferred Stock at such date, and (ii) with respect to any series of C1 Special Preferred Stock, a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the C1 Common Equivalent of the outstanding shares of such series at such date and the denominator of which shall be the sum of the number of shares of C1 Common Stock outstanding at such date and the aggregate C1 Common Equivalents of all outstanding shares of C1 Special Preferred Stock at that date.

"C2 Common Trust" shall mean the trust for the ratable benefit of all or substantially all the holders of C1 Common Stock established pursuant to that certain Trust Agreement dated as of October 30, 1979, among the shareholders of Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust, whose executions appear at the foot thereof, C2 and Bank of Montreal Trust Company, as successor trustee thereunder.

"C2 Permitted Preferred Stock" shall mean a series of preferred stock of C2, (i) the dividends on which shall not be determined by reference to the dividends on C2 Common Stock or to the financial performance of C2 or any of its affiliates or any particular line of business of any of them (other than to provide that such dividends shall be payable to the extent the Board of Directors of C2 determines that sufficient surplus shall be available to pay them), (ii) that does not carry any voting rights (other than the right to vote on amendments to the terms thereof or the Certificate of Incorporation of C2, if such amendments shall be materially prejudicial to the holders of such series of preferred stock) and (iii) that is not convertible into C2 Common Stock.

"C2 Preferred Trust" shall mean a trust for the ratable benefit of all the holders of a single series of C1 Special Preferred Stock under which C2 Common Shares are held by a corporate trustee on terms substantially the same as those of the trust established pursuant to the Trust Agreement dated as of August 26, 1994, among the holders of the 6.50% First Series Preference Shares of Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust, whose executions appear at the foot thereof, C2 and Bank of Montreal Trust Company, as trustee thereunder.

"C2 Trust" shall mean each of the C2 Common Trust and the C2 Preferred Trusts.

"C2 Proportionate Interest" for any C2 Trust at any date shall mean a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of C2 Common Stock held in such C2 Trust at such date and the denominator of which shall be the number of shares of C2 Common Stock outstanding at such date.

Two numbers shall be "equal" if such numbers, when rounded to the nearest 1/10,000th, are the same.

A series of capital stock of C1 shall be "related" to a C2 Trust, and vice versa, if the C2 Common Stock held in such trust is held for the ratable benefit of the holders of all or substantially all the outstanding shares of such series of capital stock of C1.

SECTION 2. Establishment of C2 Trusts. C1 shall not issue any shares of any series of C1 Special Preferred Stock unless either a C2 Trust related to such series shall then exist or C1 shall contemporaneously cause such a C2 Trust to be established and give C2 notice of such establishment, along with the details thereof.

SECTION 3. Issuance of C2 Shares. (a) Whenever C1 shall issue shares of C1 Common Stock or C1 Special Preferred Stock, C2 shall issue to the C2 Trusts numbers of shares of C2 Common Stock such that, immediately after such issuance of C2 Common Stock (giving effect to any transfers of shares of C2 Common Stock among the C2 Trusts pursuant to the terms of such trusts occurring by reason of the issuance of such shares of stock by C1) the C2 Proportionate Interest of each C2 Trust shall equal the C1 Proportionate Interest of the series of capital stock of C1 related to such C2 Trust. The issuance of shares of C1 Common Stock or C1 Special Preferred Stock in connection with a merger, consolidation or similar transaction in which C1 shall be the survivor shall be deemed to occur when the holders of the securities to be exchanged for such shares surrender the Certificates evidencing such securities to C1 or an exchange agent for exchange.

(b) C2 shall from time to time issue to the C2 Trusts, pro rata in accordance with the number of shares of C2 Common Stock then held by each such trust, a minimally sufficient number of shares of C2 Common Stock so that the aggregate C2 Proportionate Interests of the C2 Trusts shall at all times exceed 0.9999.

SECTION 4. Payment for C2 Shares Issued. Whenever C2 shall issue shares of C2 Common Stock pursuant to Section 3, C1 shall simultaneously pay to C2 an amount equal to the greater of (x) the aggregate par value of the shares of C2 Common Stock issued and (y) the amount determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of C2 to represent the fair market net asset value of the shares of C2 Common Stock issued (less, in the case of this clause (y), the aggregate consideration paid to C2 by parties other than C1 in connection with such issuance of C2 Common Stock).

SECTION 5. Limitation on Issuance; Reservation of Shares. (a) C2 shall not (i) issue, or propose or contract to issue, any shares of any series of capital stock other than C2 Common Stock and C2 Permitted Preferred Stock, or (ii) increase the par value of the C2 Common Stock.

(b) All authorized shares of C2 Common Stock that are not outstanding from time to time shall be reserved for issuance pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

SECTION 6. Third Party Beneficiaries. The only intended third party beneficiaries hereof shall be the holders from time to time of the outstanding shares of C1 Common Stock and C1 Special Preferred Stock; provided, however, that this Agreement may be amended as set forth herein, and all such third party beneficiaries shall be bound by the terms of any such amendment.

SECTION 7. Amendment. This Agreement and the rights of the parties hereunder may not be waived, modified or otherwise amended other than by a written amendment signed by the parties and either approved in writing by the trustees of each C2 Trust then existing or approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of 66.67% of the shares of C1 Common Stock then outstanding and the affirmative vote of the holders of 66.67% of the shares of each series of C1 Special Preferred Stock then outstanding, each such series voting as a separate class, at a stockholders' meeting duly called for the purpose thereof or by a written consent in lieu thereof executed in accordance with Section 228 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

SECTION 8. Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any rights hereunder shall be assigned by any party hereto, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise; provided, however, that a party may assign this Agreement if it shall merge or consolidate with another entity with such other entity being the surviving entity, so long as such entity assumes in writing, by an instrument delivered to the other party and the trustees of any C2 Trusts then in existence, all the assigning party's obligations hereunder, and in such an event all references herein to such party, its capital stock and its Board of Directors shall thereafter be deemed references to such person, its capital stock and its Board of Directors, as applicable.

SECTION 9. Termination. This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect until there shall be no C2 Trusts in existence, whereupon it shall immediately terminate.

SECTION 10. Notices. (a) C2 shall give C1 prompt notice of any issuance of C2 Common Stock and of the dissolution of any C2 Trust. C1 shall give C2 prompt notice of any issuance of C1 Common Stock or C1 Special Preferred Stock and of the entry by C1 into any agreement obligating C1 to make any such issuance in the future.

(b) All notices hereunder shall be in writing; shall be hand delivered, or mailed, postage prepaid, or sent by recognized overnight courier to the address specified below (as the same may be changed by a party on notice to the other party):

If to C1:

Corporate Property Investors, Inc.
305 East 47th Street
New York, New York 10017
Attn: Corporate Secretary; and

If to C2:

Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc.
305 East 47 Street
New York, New York 10017
Attn: Corporate Secretary; and shall be deemed delivered when received.

6

SECTION 11. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflicts of laws principles.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned have executed this Issuance Agreement as of the date first written above.

THIS FIRST AMENDMENT TO LEASE AGREEMENT, made as of the 31st day of December, 1982, by and between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust (hereinafter referred to as the "Lessor"), and 305-313 EAST 47th STREET ASSOCIATES, a New York partnership consisting of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation and CRC Advisory Corp., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Lessee").

W I T N E S S E T H:

Lessor and Lessee have heretofore entered into that certain Lease Agreement dated June 22, 1982 (the "Lease") by which Lessor leased to Lessee the land only described in Exhibit A hereto (the "Land") and known as 305-313 East 47th Street in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, and Lessor and Lessee now desire to amend the Lease.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants contained in the Lease and herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Article Two of the Lease is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to be and read as follows:

"Section 2.1. Lessee hereby covenants and agrees to pay to Lessor, at the address set forth in Section 11.1, annual rent for the Land as follows:

(a) during the period commencing on the date of this lease and ending December 31, 1982, an annual rental of $780,000;

(b) during the period commencing January 1, 1983 and ending on December 31 of the year in which the fifteenth anniversary of the Date of Substantial Completion occurs (the "Base Rental Period"), an annual rental equal to $450,000;

(c) during each succeeding fifteen year period following the Base Rental Period (or, in the case of the last of such period the period from the commencement date of such period to the date on which this Lease expires), the first of which periods shall commence on the January 1 of the year following the end of the Base Rental Period and shall end on the December 31 of the year in which the fifteenth anniversary of the end of the Base Rental Period occurs, the succeeding fifteen year periods each to commence on the January 1 following the end of the preceding year period and to end on the date which is the fifteenth anniversary of the end of the preceding fifteen year period (or, in the case of the last such period, to the date on which this Lease expires), an annual rental equal to the greater of (i) the annual rental prevailing during the preceding fifteen year period, or (ii) fifteen per cent (15%) of the Appraised Fair Market Value of the Land prevailing on December 31 of the year in which the preceding fifteen year period ends.

"Section 2.2. The rent shall be paid in equal monthly installments (in the case of an annual rental rate applying during a period less than a calendar year, in monthly installments equal to one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual rental rate) during the calendar year, in advance on the first day of each month or shorter period; provided, however, that in the event that the annual rent for any calendar ear is not yet known at the commencement of such year, because the Appraised Fair Market Value of the Land has not yet been determined, then Lessee shall continue to pay to Lessor monthly installments based on the annual rental prevailing in the preceding calendar year (or shorter period) until advised in writing by Lessor of the new annual rental. After notice by Lessor to Lessee of the new annual rental, Lessee shall pay, at such time as the next monthly installment is due, a sum equal to the new monthly rent plus the total amount of rent due at the new annual rental and not therefore paid to Lessor. In the event the new annual rental is less than that prevailing in the preceding calendar year, Lessee shall be entitled to a credit against future monthly installments in an amount equal to the excess of amounts theretofore paid over the new annual rent.

"Section 2.3. For the purposes of this Article Two, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Appraised Fair Market Value of the Land" shall mean the value of the Land as determined at Lessor's expense by Landauer Associates Inc. or another nationally recognized firm of independent real estate appraisers selected by Lessor, calculated as of December 31 of the relevant year as being the then fair market value of the Land in accordance with standard appraisal practices of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers or any successor organization. Such value shall be determined by the appraiser as if the Land were free and clear of this Lease, of any mortgages on the Land or the leasehold created under this Lease, and as if there were no building, structure or improvement of any kind on the Land, and the Land were available for sale in a free market consisting of willing buyers and sellers, subject only to zoning and land use restrictions then in effect. The appraiser shall render its valuation in terms of a dollar value per square foot of the Land, and the Land shall be considered to consist (unless subsequently reduced in area by condemnation or taking) of 12,562 square feet. By way of illustration, if at December 31 of the year in which the first fifteen year rental period after the Date of Substantial Completion ends, the appraisal indicated an Appraised Fair Market Value of the Land of $1,000 per square foot, the annual rental during the succeeding fifteen year rental period would be $1,000 x 12,562 x .15, or $1,884,300 per annum.

"Date of Substantial Completion" shall mean the earlier of (a) the date on which Lessee is first awarded a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy by the Buildings Department of the City of New York for the Improvements upon completion of Lessee's current program of construction, renovation and rehabilitation thereof, or (b) January 1, 1984. Lessor and Lessee may enter into a separate agreement setting forth the Date of Substantial Completion."

2. In all other respects, the Lease is hereby ratified and confirmed as being in full force and effect between Lessor and Lessee. From and after the date of this Amendment, all references herein or in the Lease to "this Lease" or words of similar import shall be read and construed to mean the Lease as amended hereby, and the Lease, as amended hereby, shall be considered a single integrated instrument.

3. Corporate Property Investors, refers to the trustees under an Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust dated June 15, 1978, as amended, and filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The obligations of the Lessor do not constitute personal obligations of Lessor or of its trustees, shareholders, officers, employees or agents. All persons dealing with Lessor shall look solely to the assets of Lessor for the satisfaction of any liability of Lessor in respect of this Lease, and will not seek recourse against the trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents of Lessor, or any of them or their personal assets, for such satisfaction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Lessor and Lessee have executed this Amendment as of the date first set forth above.

THIS CONSOLIDATED, AMENDED AND RESTATED MORTGAGE made as of 1st day of January, 1984, between 305-313 EAST 47TH STREET ASSOCIATES, a New York partnership, consisting of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and CRC Advisory Corp., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Mortgagor"), and CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust (hereinafter referred to as "Mortgagee").

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Mortgagee has heretofore extended to Mortgagor a purchase money mortgage loan in the principal amount of $4,209,834, secured by a Mortgage dated June 22, 1982 and evidenced by a Mortgage Note of even date therewith (the "Purchase Money Mortgage"), and has heretofore extended to Mortgagor a construction mortgage loan in a maximum principal amount of $16,790,166, secured by a Mortgage dated July 1, 1982 and evidenced by a Mortgage Note of even date therewith (the "Construction Mortgage"). Interest has accrued on the outstanding principal amount of the Purchase Money Mortgage loan at the rate provided in the note to December 31, 1983 in the amount of $1,094,233.60, and Mortgagee has drawn to December 31, 1983 under the Construction Mortgage loan advances in the aggregate principal amount of $11,394,382.35, and interest has accrued to December 31, 1983 on the principal amount of such advances from time to time outstanding of $1,039,343.13. Mortgagor and Mortgagee desire to consolidate, continue and coordinate the liens of the Purchase Money Mortgage and the Construction Mortgage into a single lien secured and governed by the terms of this instrument, which shall be considered between Mortgagor and Mortgagee to constitute an amendment and restatement in full, and consolidation of, the Purchase Money Mortgage and the Construction Mortgage, and likewise desire to consolidate the outstanding principal amounts of, and accrued interest on, the Purchase Money Mortgage loan and the Construction Mortgage loan into a single loan, representing the aggregate balance of the Purchase Money Mortgage note and the Construction Mortgage note on the date hereof of $17,737,793.08, and to provide for future advances to Mortgagee up to a maximum principal amount of $3,262,206.92, or so much thereof as may be advanced, all to be evidenced by a new mortgage note of even date herewith and secured hereby, in a maximum principal amount of $21,000,000.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree as follows:

WITNESSETH:

To secure the payment of an indebtedness in the principal sum of Twenty One Million and No/100 Dollars ($21,000,000), lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid with interest (said indebtedness, interest and all other sums which may or shall become due hereunder being hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Debt") according to a certain note dated the date hereof in the principal sum of Twenty One Million and No/100 Dollars ($21,000,000) made by Mortgagor to the order of Mortgagee (hereinafter referred to as the "Note"), or so much thereof as shall be advanced thereon from time to time, Mortgagor has mortgaged, given, granted, bargained, sold, aliened, enfeoffed, conveyed, confirmed and assigned, and by these presents does mortgage, give, grant, bargain, sell, alien, enfeoff, convey, confirm and assign unto Mortgagee all right, title and interest of Mortgagor in and to the property hereinafter described, such property, rights and interests being hereinafter collectively called the "Mortgaged Property"):

(a) the Ground Lease and the leasehold estate created thereby (the "Ground Lease"), which Ground Lease is more fully described in Exhibit A attached hereto;

(b) All modifications, extensions and renewals of the Ground Lease and all credits, deposits, options, privileges and rights of Mortgagor as tenant under the Ground Lease, including, but not limited to, the right, if any, of Mortgagor to renew the Ground Lease for any succeeding term or terms thereof;

(c) all buildings, structures and improvements now or hereafter located on the real property specified in the Ground Lease (hereinafter referred to as the "Improvements");

(d) all easements, rights-of-way, rights to the use of streets, ways, alleys and passages, sewer rights, waters, water courses, water rights and powers, and all estates, rights, titles, interests, privileges, liberties, tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances of any nature whatsoever, in any way belonging, relating or pertaining to the Mortgaged Property;

(e) all machinery, apparatus, equipment, fittings, fixtures and other property of every kind and nature whatsoever owned by Mortgagor, or in which Mortgagor has or shall have an interest, now or hereafter located upon the Mortgaged Property, or appurtenances thereto, and usable in connection with the present or future operation and occupancy of the Mortgaged Property and all building equipment, materials and supplies of any nature whatsoever owned by Mortgagor, or in which Mortgagor has or shall have an interest, now or hereafter located upon the Mortgaged Property (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Equipment"), and the right, title and interest of Mortgagor in and to any of the Equipment which may be subject to any security agreements (as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code of New York);

(f) all awards or payments, including interest thereon, and the right to receive the same, which may be made with respect to the Mortgaged Property, whether from the exercise of the right of eminent domain (including any transfer made in lieu of the exercise of said right), or for any other injury to or decrease in the value of the Mortgaged Property;

(g) all leases and other agreements affecting the use or occupancy of the Mortgaged Property now or hereafter entered into (hereinafter referred to as the Leases) and the rights to receive and apply the rents, issues and profits of the Mortgaged Property (hereinafter referred to as the "Rents") to the payment of the Debt;

(h) all proceeds of and any unearned premiums on any insurance policies covering the Mortgaged Property, including, without limitation, the right to receive and apply the proceeds of any insurance, judgments, or settlements made in lieu thereof, for damage to the Mortgaged Property;

TOGETHER WITH the right, in the name and on behalf of Mortgagor, to appear in and defend any action or proceeding brought with respect to the Mortgaged Property and to commence any action or proceeding to protect the interest of Mortgage in the Mortgaged Property.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above granted and described Mortgaged Property unto and to the proper use and benefit of Mortgagee, and the successors and assigns of Mortgagee, forever.

PROVIDED, ALWAYS, and these presents are upon the express condition, if Mortgagor shall well and truly pay to Mortgagee the Debt at the time and in the manner provided in the Note and this Mortgage and shall well and truly abide by and comply with each and every covenant and condition set forth herein and in the Note, then these presents and the estate hereby granted shall cease, determine and be void.

ANY Mortgagor covenants with and represents and warrants to Mortgagee as follows:

1. Payment of Debt. Mortgagor will pay the Debt at the time and in the manner provided for its payment in the Note and in this Mortgage.

2. Warranty of Title. Mortgagor warrants the title to the Mortgaged Property.

3. Insurance. Mortgagor (i) will keep the Improvements and the Equipment insured against loss or damage by fire and such other hazards as Mortgagee shall from time to time require in amounts approved by Mortgagee, not exceeding in the aggregate 100% of the full insurable value of the Improvements and the Equipment and (ii) will maintain rental and business interruption insurance and such other forms of insurance coverage with respect to the Mortgaged Property as Mortgagee shall from time to time require in amounts approved by Mortgagee. All policies of insurance (hereinafter referred to as the "Policies") shall be issued by an insurer lawfully doing business in New York and acceptable to Mortgagee and shall contain the standard New York mortgage clause endorsement or an equivalent endorsement satisfactory to Mortgagee naming Mortgagee as the person to which all payments made by such insurance company shall be paid. Mortgagor shall pay the premiums for the Policies as the same become due and payable. At the request of Mortgagee, Mortgagor will assign and deliver duplicates or certificates of the Policies to Mortgagee. Not later than thirty (30) days prior to the expiration date, of each of the Policies, Mortgagor will deliver to Mortgagee a renewal policy together with evidence of payment of premium satisfactory to Mortgagee. Sums paid to Mortgagee by any insurer may be retained and applied by Mortgagee toward payment of the Debt in such priority and proportions as Mortgagee in its discretion shall deem proper or, at the discretion of Mortgagee, the same may be paid, either in whole or in part, to Mortgagor for such purposes as Mortgagee shall designate. If Mortgagee shall receive and retain such insurance proceeds, the lien of this Mortgage shall be reduced only by the amount thereof received and retained by Mortgagee and actually applied by Mortgagee in reduction of the Debt. The provisions of subsection 4 of Section 254 of the Real Property Law of New York covering the insurance of buildings against loss by fire shall not apply to the terms of this Mortgage.

4. Payment of Taxes, etc. Mortgagor shall pay all taxes, assessments, water rates, sewer rents and other charges, including vault charges and license fees for the use of vaults, chutes and similar areas adjoining the premises on which the leasehold is located now or hereafter levied or assessed against the Mortgaged Property (hereinafter referred to as the "Taxes") prior to the date upon which any fine, penalty, interest or cost may be added thereto or imposed by law for the nonpayment thereof. Mortgagor shall deliver to Mortgagee, upon request, receipted bills, cancelled checks and other evidence satisfactory to Mortgagee evidencing the payment of the Taxes prior to the date upon which any fine, penalty, interest or cost may be added thereto or imposed by law of the nonpayment thereof.

5. Escrow Fund. Mortgagor will, at the option of the Mortgagee, pay to Mortgagee, on the first day of each calendar month one-twelfth of an amount (hereinafter referred to as the Escrow Fund) which would be sufficient to pay the Taxes payable, or estimated by Mortgagee to be payable, during the ensuing twelve (12) months. Mortgagee will apply the Escrow Fund to payments required to be made by Mortgagor pursuant to paragraph 4 hereof. If the amount of the Escrow Fund shall exceed the amounts due pursuant to paragraph 4 hereof, Mortgagee shall, in its discretion, (a) return any excess to Mortgagor, (b) credit such excess against the Debt in such priority and proportions as Mortgagee in its discretion shall deem proper, or (c) credit such excess against future payments to be made to the Escrow Fund. In allocating such excess, Mortgagee may deal with the person shown on the records of Mortgagee to be the owner of the Mortgaged Property. If the Escrow Fund is not sufficient to pay the Taxes, as the same becomes payable, Mortgagor shall pay to Mortgagee, upon request, an amount which Mortgagee shall estimate as sufficient to make up the deficiency. Until expended or applied as above provided, any amounts in the Escrow Fund may be commingled with the general funds of Mortgagee and shall constitute additional security for the Debt and shall not bear interest.

6. Condemnation. Notwithstanding any taking by any public or quasi-public authority through eminent domain or otherwise, Mortgagor shall continue to pay the Debt at the time and in the manner provided for its payment in the Note and in this Mortgage and the Debt shall not be reduced until any award or payment therefor shall have been actually received and applied by Mortgagee to the discharge of the Debt. Mortgagee may apply any such award or payment to the discharge of the Debt whether or not then due and payable in such priority and proportions and Mortgagee in its discretion shall deem proper. If the Mortgaged Property is sold, through foreclosure or otherwise, prior to the receipt by Mortgagee of such award or payment, Mortgagee shall have the right, whether or not a deficiency judgment on the Note shall have been sought, recovered or denied, to receive such award or payment, or a portion thereof sufficient to pay the debt, whichever is less. Mortgagor shall file and prosecute its claim or claims for any such award or payment in good faith and due diligence and cause the same to be collected and paid over to Mortgagee, and hereby irrevocably authorizes and empowers Mortgagee, in the name of Mortgagor or otherwise, to collect and receipt for any such award or payment and to file and prosecute such claim or claims, and although it is hereby expressly agreed that the same shall not be necessary in any event, Mortgagor shall, upon demand of Mortgagee, make, execute and deliver any and all assignments and other instruments sufficient for the purpose of assigning any such award or payment to Mortgagee, free and clear of any encumbrances of any kind or nature whatsoever.

7. Leases and Rents. Subject to the term of this paragraph, Mortgagee waives the right to enter the Mortgaged Property for the purpose of collecting the rents and grants

Mortgagor the right to collect the Rents. Mortgagor shall hold the Rents, or an amount sufficient to discharge all current sums due on the Debt, in trust of or use in payment of the Debt. The right of Mortgagor to collect the Rents may be revoked by Mortgagee upon any default by Mortgagor as shall be set forth in the notice of such revocation. Following such notice Mortgagee may retain and apply the Rents toward payment of the Debt in such priority and proportions as Mortgagee, in its discretion, shall deem proper, or to the operation, maintenance and repair of the Mortgaged Property. Mortgagor shall not, without the consent of Mortgagee, make, or suffer to be made, any Leases or cancel or modify any Leases or accept prepayments of instalments of the Rents for a period of more than one (1) month in advance or further assign the whole or any part of the Rents. Mortgagee shall have all of the rights against tenants of the Mortgaged Property as set forth in Section 291-f of the Real Property Law of New York. Mortgagor shall (a) fulfill or perform each and every provision of the Leases on the part of Mortgagor to be fulfilled or performed, (b) promptly send copies of all notices of default which Mortgagor shall send or receive under the Leases to Mortgagee, and (c) enforce, short of termination of the Leases, the performance or observance of the provisions thereof by the tenants thereunder. In addition to the rights which Mortgagee may have herein, in the event of default under this Mortgage, Mortgagee, at its option, may require Mortgagor to pay monthly in advance to Mortgagee, or any receiver appointed to collect the Rents, the fair and reasonable rental value for the use and occupation of such part of the Mortgaged Property as may be in possession of Mortgagor. Upon default in any such payment, Mortgagor will vacate and surrender possession of the Mortgaged Property to Mortgagee, or to such receiver and, in default thereof, Mortgagor may be evicted by summary proceedings or otherwise. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed as imposing on Mortgagee any of the obligations of the lessor under the Leases.

8. Maintenance of the Mortgaged Property. Mortgagor shall caused the Mortgaged Property to be maintained in good condition and repair and will not commit or suffer to be committed any waste of the Mortgaged Property. The Improvements shall not be removed, demolished or materially altered, without the consent of Mortgagee. Mortgagor shall promptly comply with all laws, orders and ordinances affecting the Mortgaged Property, or the use thereof, and shall promptly repair, replace or rebuild any part of the Mortgaged Property which may be damaged or destroyed by any casualty (including any casualty for which insurance was not obtained or obtainable) or which may be affected by any proceeding of the character referred to in paragraph 6 hereof and shall complete and pay for, within a reasonable time, any structure at any time in the process of construction or repair on the Premises. If such casualty shall be covered by the Policies, Mortgagor's obligation to repair, replace or rebuild such portion of the Mortgaged Property shall be contingent upon Mortgagee paying Mortgagor the proceeds of the Policies, or such portion thereof as shall be sufficient to complete such repair, replacement or rebuilding, whichever is less. Mortgagor will not, without obtaining the prior consent of Mortgagee, initiate, join in or consent to any private restrictive covenant, zoning ordinance, or other public or private restrictions, limiting or defining the uses which may be made of the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof.

9. Estoppel Certificates. Mortgagor, within ten (10) days after request by Mortgagee and at its expense, will furnish Mortgagee with a statement, duly acknowledged and certified, setting forth the amount of the Debt and the offsets or defenses thereof, if any.

10. Transfer or Encumbrance of the Mortgaged Property. No part of the Mortgaged Property shall in any manner be further encumbered, sold, transferred or conveyed, or permitted to be further encumbered, sold, transferred or conveyed, without the consent of Mortgagee. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to each and every such further encumbrance, sale, transfer or conveyance, regardless of whether or not Mortgagee has consented thereto, or waived by its action or inaction its rights hereunder with respect to any such previous further encumbrance, sale, transfer or conveyance.

11. Notice. Any notice, request, demand, statement or consent made hereunder shall be in writing and shall be sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall be deemed given when postmarked and addressed as follows:

If to Mortgagor:

305-313 East 47th Street Associates
In care of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc.,
230 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10169

If to Mortgagee:

Corporate Property Investors
230 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10169

Each party may designate a change of address by notice to the other party, given at least five (5) days before such change of address is to become effective.

12. Sale of Mortgaged Property. If this Mortgage is foreclosed, the Mortgaged Property, or any interest therein, may, at the discretion of Mortgagee, be sold in one or more parcels or in several interests or portions and in any order or manner.

13. Changes in Laws Regarding Taxation. In the event of the passage after the date of this Mortgage of any law of the State of New York deducting from the value of real property for the purpose of taxation any lien or encumbrance thereon or changing in any way the laws for the taxation of mortgages or debts secured by mortgage for state or local purposes or the manner of the collection of any such taxes, and imposing a tax, either directly or indirectly, on this Mortgage, the Note or the Debt, Mortgagee shall have the right, at its option, to declare the Debt due and payable on a date specified in a prior notice to Mortgagor of not less than thirty (30) days.

14. No Credits on Account of the Debt. Mortgagor will not claim or demand or be entitled to any credit or credits on account of the Debt for any part of the Taxes assessed against the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof and no deduction shall otherwise be made or claimed from the taxable value of the Mortgaged Property, or any part thereof, by reason of this Mortgage or the Debt.

15. Offsets, Counterclaims and Defenses. Any assignee of this Mortgage and the Note shall take the same free and clear of all offsets, counterclaims or defenses of any nature whatsoever which Mortgagor may have against any assignor of this Mortgage and the Note and no such offset, counterclaim or defense shall be interposed or asserted by Mortgagor in any action or proceeding brought by any such assignee upon this Mortgage and/or the Note and any such right to interpose or assert any such offset, counterclaim or defense in any such action or proceeding is hereby expressly waived by Mortgagor.

16. Other Security for the Debt. Mortgagor shall observe and perform all of the terms, covenants and provisions contained in the Note and in all other mortgages and other instruments or documents evidencing, securing or guaranteeing payment of the Debt, in whole or in part, or otherwise executed and delivered in connection with the Note, this Mortgage or the loan evidenced and secured thereby.

17. Documentary Stamps. If at any time the United States of America, any state thereof or any governmental subdivision of any such state, shall require revenue or other stamps to be affixed to the Note or this Mortgage, Mortgagor will pay for the same, with interest and penalties thereof, if any.

18. Right of Entry. Mortgagee and its agents shall have the right to enter and inspect the Mortgaged Property at all reasonable times.

19. Books and Records. Mortgagor will keep and maintain or will cause to be kept and maintained on a fiscal year basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting practices consistently applied proper and accurate books, records and accounts reflecting all of the financial affairs of Mortgagor and all items of income and expense in connection with the operation of the Mortgaged Property or in connection with any services, equipment or furnishings provided in connection with the operation of the Mortgaged Property, whether such income or expense be realized by Mortgagor or by any other person whatsoever excepting lessees unrelated to and unaffiliated with Mortgagor who have leased from Mortgagor portions of the Mortgaged Property for the purpose of occupying the same. Mortgagee shall have the right from time to time at all times during normal business hours to examine such books, records and accounts at the office of Mortgagor or other person maintaining such books, records and accounts and to make copies or extracts thereof as Mortgagee shall desire. Mortgagor will furnish Mortgagee annually, within sixty (60) days next following the end of each fiscal year of Mortgagor, with (i) a complete executed copy of an audited financial statement prepared by a certified public accountant acceptable to Mortgagee covering the operation of the Mortgaged Property for such fiscal year and containing a fully itemized statement of profit and loss and of surplus and a balance sheet, and (ii) a complete executed copy of an audited financial statement of Mortgagor for such fiscal year prepared by a certified public accountant acceptable to Mortgagee and containing a fully itemized statement of profit and loss and of surplus and a balance sheet. The fiscal year of Mortgagor presently runs from November 1st to October 31st and the fiscal year of Mortgagor shall not be subsequently changed without prior notice to Mortgagor. Within sixty (60) days after the end of each fiscal year of Mortgagor, Mortgagor shall furnish to Mortgagee a certificate signed by a duly authorized representative of Mortgagor certifying on the date thereof either that there does not or does not exist an event which constitutes, or which upon notice or lapse of time or both would constitute, a default under the Note or this Mortgage and if such event exists, the nature thereof and the period of time it has existed. Mortgagor shall furnish to Mortgagee, within ten (10) days after request, such further detailed information covering the operation of the Mortgaged Property and the financial affairs of Mortgagor, or any affiliate of Mortgagor, as may be requested by Mortgagee.

20. Performance of Other Agreements. Mortgagor shall observe and perform each and every term to be observed or performed by Mortgagor pursuant to the terms of any agreement or recorded instrument affected or pertaining to the Mortgaged Property.

21. Defaults. The Debt shall become due at the option of Mortgagee upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(a) if any portion of the Debt is not paid within twenty (20) days after the same is due;

(b) if Mortgagor shall fail to pay within twenty (20) days of notice and demand by Mortgagee, any instalment of any assessment against the Mortgaged Property for local improvements heretofore or hereafter laid, which assessment is or may become payable in annual or periodic instalments and is or may become a lien on the Mortgaged Property, notwithstanding the fact that such instalment may not be due and payable at the time of such notice and demand;

(c) if any Federal tax lien is filed against Mortgagor and/or the Mortgaged Property and the same is not discharged of record within thirty (30) days;

(d) if without the consent of Mortgagee any part of the Mortgaged Property or any interest therein is in any manner further encumbered, sold, transferred or conveyed, or if any Improvement or the Equipment (except for normal replacement of the Equipment) is removed, demolished or materially altered, or if the Mortgaged Property is not kept in good condition and repair;

(e) if the Policies are not kept in full force and effect, or if the Policies are not assigned and delivered to Mortgagee upon request;

(f) if without the consent of Mortgagee any Leases are made, cancelled or modified or if any portion of the Rents is paid for a period of more than one (1) month in advance or if any of the Rents are further assigned;

(g) if any representation or warranty of Mortgagor, or of any person (hereinafter referred to as a Guarantor) guaranteeing payment of the Debt or any portion thereof or performance by Mortgagor of any of the terms of this Mortgage made herein or in any such guaranty, or in any certificate, report, financial statement or other instrument furnished in connection with the making of the Note, this Mortgage, or any such guaranty, shall prove false or misleading in any material respect;

(h) if Mortgagor or any Guarantor shall make an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(i) if a receiver, liquidator or trustee of Mortgagor or any Guarantor shall be appointed or if Mortgagor or any Guarantor shall be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or if any petition for bankruptcy, reorganization or arrangement pursuant to the Federal Bankruptcy Act, or any similar Federal or state statute, shall be filed by or against Mortgagor or any Guarantor or if any proceeding for the dissolution or liquidation of Mortgagor or any Guarantor shall be instituted and, if such appointment, adjudication, petition or proceeding was involuntary and not consented to by Mortgagor or such Guarantor upon the same not being discharged, stayed or dismissed within sixty (60) days;

(j) if Mortgagor shall be in default under the Note or under any other mortgage, instrument or document evidencing, securing or guaranteeing payment of the Debt, in whole or in part, or otherwise executed and delivered in connection with the Note, this Mortgage or the loan evidenced and secured thereby, or otherwise secured by the Mortgaged Property;

(k) if Mortgagor shall continue to be in default under any of the other terms, covenants or conditions of this Mortgage for five (5) days after notice from Mortgagee, in the case of any default which can be cured by the payment of a sum of money, or for ten (10) days after notice from Mortgagee, in the case of any other default, provided that if such default cannot reasonably be cured within such ten (10) day period and Mortgagor shall have commenced to cure such default within such ten (10) day period and thereafter diligently and expeditiously proceeds to cure the same, such ten (10) day period shall be extended for so long as it shall require Mortgagor in the exercise of due diligence to cure such default;

(l) if Mortgagor shall be in default under any mortgage or deed of trust covering any part of the Mortgaged Property which is superior in lien to this Mortgage; or

(m) if the Mortgaged Property shall become subject (i) to any tax lien, other than a lien for local real estate taxes and assessments not due and payable, or (ii) to any mechanic's, materialman's or other lien and such lien shall remain undischarged or unbonded for thirty (30) days.

22. Right to Cure Defaults. If default in the performance of any of the covenants of Mortgagor herein occurs, Mortgagee may, at its discretion, remedy the same and for such purpose shall have the right to enter upon the Mortgaged Property or any portion thereof without thereby becoming liable to Mortgagor or any person in possession thereof holding under Mortgagor. If Mortgagee shall remedy such a default or appear in, defend, or bring any action or proceeding to protect its interest in the Mortgaged Property or to foreclose this Mortgage or collect the Debt, the costs and expenses thereof (including reasonable attorneys' fees to the extent permitted by law), with interest as provided in this paragraph, shall be paid by Mortgagor to Mortgagee upon demand. All such costs and expenses incurred by Mortgagee in remedying such default or in appearing in, defending, or bringing any such action or proceeding shall be paid by Mortgagor to Mortgagee upon demand, with interest at 15% per annum, or at the maximum interest rate which Mortgagor may by law pay, whichever is lower, for the period after notice from Mortgagee that such costs or expenses were incurred to the date of payment to Mortgagee. All such costs and expenses incurred by Mortgagee pursuant to the terms of this Mortgage, with interest, shall be secured by this Mortgage.

23. Late Payment Charge. If any portion of the Debt is not paid within fifteen (15) days after the date on which it is due, Mortgagor shall pay to Mortgagee upon demand an amount equal to 3% of such unpaid portion of the Debt as a late payment charge, and such amount shall be secured by this Mortgage.

24. Appointment of Receiver. Mortgagee, in any action to foreclose this Mortgage or upon the actual or threatened waste to any part of the Mortgaged Property or upon the occurrence of any default hereunder, shall be at liberty, without notice, to apply for the appointment of a receiver of the Rents, and shall be entitled to the appointment of such receiver as a matter of right, without regard to the value of the Mortgaged Property as security for the Debt, or the solvency or insolvency of any person then liable for the payment of the Debt.

25. Non-Waiver. The failure of Mortgagee to insist upon strict performance of any term of this Mortgage shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any term of this Mortgage. Mortgagor shall not be relieved of Mortgagor's obligation to pay the Debt at the time and in the manner provided for its payment in the Note and this Mortgage by reason of (i) failure of Mortgagee to comply with any request of Mortgagor to take any action to foreclose this Mortgage or otherwise enforce any of the provisions hereof or of the Note or any other mortgage, instrument or document evidencing, securing or guaranteeing payment of the Debt or any portion thereof, (ii) the release, regardless of consideration, of the whole or any part of the Mortgaged Property or any other security for the Debt, or (iii) any agreement or stipulation between Mortgagee and any subsequent owner or owners of the Mortgaged Property or other person extending the time of payment or otherwise modifying or supplementing the terms of the Note, this Mortgage or any other mortgage, instrument or document evidencing, securing or guaranteeing payment of the Debt or any portion thereof, without first having obtained the consent of Mortgagor, and in the latter event, Mortgagor shall continue to be obligated to pay the Debt at the time and in the manner provided in the Note and this Mortgage, as so extended, modified and supplemented, unless expressly released and discharged by Mortgagee. Regardless of consideration, and without the necessity for any notice to or consent by the holder of any subordinate lien, encumbrance, right, title or interest in or to the Mortgaged Property, Mortgagee may release any person at any time liable for the payment of the Debt or any portion thereof or any part of the security held for the Debt and may extend the time of payment or otherwise modify the terms of the Note and/or this Mortgage, including, without limitation, a modification of the interest rate payable on the principal balance of the Note, without in any manner impairing or affecting this Mortgage or the lien thereof or the priority of this Mortgage, as so extended and modified, as security for the Debt over any such subordinate lien, encumbrance, right, title or interest. Mortgagee may resort for the payment of the Debt to any other security held by Mortgagee in such order and manner as Mortgagee, in its discretion, may elect. Mortgagee may take action to recover the Debt, or any portion thereof, or to enforce any covenant hereof without prejudice to the right of Mortgagee thereafter to foreclose this Mortgage. Mortgagee shall not be limited exclusively to the rights and remedies herein stated but shall be entitled to every additional right and remedy now or hereafter afforded by law. The rights of Mortgagee under this Mortgage shall be separate, distinct and cumulative and none shall be given effect to the exclusion of the others. No act of Mortgagee shall be construed as an election to proceed under any one provision herein to the exclusion of any other provision.

26. Liability. If Mortgagor consists of more than one person, the obligations and liabilities of each such person hereunder shall be joint and several.

27. Construction. The terms of this Mortgage shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

28. Security Agreement. This Mortgage is both a Real Property Mortgage and a Security Agreement. The Mortgage Property includes both real and personal property and all other rights and interests, whether tangible or intangible in nature, of Mortgagor in the Mortgaged Property.

29. Further Acts, etc. Mortgagor will, at the cost of Mortgagor, and without expense to Mortgagee, do, execute, acknowledge and deliver all and every such further acts, deeds, conveyances, mortgages, assignments, notices of assignments, transfers and assurances as Mortgagee shall, from time to time, require, for the better assuring, conveying, assigning, transferring and confirming unto Mortgagee the property and rights hereby mortgaged or intended now or hereafter so to be, or which Mortgagor may be or may hereafter become bound to convey or assign to Mortgagee, or for carrying out the intention of facilitating the performance of the terms of this Mortgage or for filing, registering or recording this Mortgage and, on demand, will execute and deliver and hereby authorizes Mortgagee to execute in the name of Mortgagor to the extent Mortgagee may lawfully do so, one or more financing statements, chattel mortgages or comparable security instruments, to evidence more effectively the Lien hereof upon the Mortgaged Property.

30. Headings, etc. The headings and captions of various paragraphs of this Mortgage are for convenience of reference only and are not to be construed as defining or limiting, in any way, the scope or intent of the provisions hereof.

31. Filing of Mortgage, etc. Upon notice by the Mortgagee, Mortgagor will cause forthwith, and thereafter from time to time, this Mortgage and any security instrument evidencing the lien hereof or creating a lien upon the Mortgaged Property, and each instrument of further assurance, to be filed, registered or recorded in such manner and in such places as may be required by any present or future law in order to publish notice of and fully to protect the lien hereof upon, and the interest of Mortgagee in the Mortgaged Property. Mortgagor will pay all filing, registration or recording fees, and all expenses incident to the preparation, execution and acknowledgment of this Mortgage, any mortgage supplemental hereto, any security instrument with respect to the Mortgaged Property and any instrument of further assurance, and all Federal, state, county and municipal taxes, duties, imposts, assessments and charges arising out of or in connection with the execution and delivery of this Mortgage, any mortgage supplemental hereto, any security instrument with respect to the Mortgaged Property or any instrument of further assurance. Mortgagor shall hold harmless and indemnify Mortgagee, its successors and assigns, against any liability incurred by reason of the imposition of any tax on the making and recording of this Mortgage.

32. Usury Laws. This Mortgage and the Note are subject to the express condition that at no time shall Mortgagor be obligated or required to pay interest on the principal balance due under the Note at a rate which could subject the holder of the Note to either civil or criminal liability as a result of being in excess of the maximum interest rate which Mortgagor is permitted by law to contract or agree to pay. If by the terms of this Mortgage or the Note Mortgagor is at any time required or obligated to pay interest on the principal balance due under the Note at a rate in excess of such maximum rate, the rate of interest under the Note shall be deemed to be immediately reduced to such maximum rate and the interest payable shall be computed at such maximum rate and all prior interest payments in excess of such maximum rate shall be applied and shall be deemed to have been payments in reduction of the principal balance of the Note.

33. Sole Discretion of Mortgagee. Wherever pursuant to this Mortgage, Mortgagee exercises any right given to it to approve or disapprove, or any arrangement or term is to be satisfactory to Mortgagee, the decision of Mortgagee to approve or disapprove or to decide that arrangements or terms are satisfactory or not satisfactory shall be in the sole discretion of Mortgagee and shall be final and conclusive.

34. Recovery of Sums Required To Be Paid. Mortgagee shall have the right from time to time to take action to recover any sum or sums which constitute a part of the Debt as the same become due, without regard to whether or not the balance of the Debt shall be due, and without prejudice to the right of Mortgagee thereafter to bring an action of foreclosure, or any other action, for a default or defaults by Mortgagor existing at the time such earlier action was commenced.

35. Marshalling. Mortgagor waives and releases any right to have the Mortgaged Property marshalled.

36. Authority. Mortgagor (and the undersigned representative of Mortgagor, if any) has full power, authority and legal right to execute this Mortgage and to mortgage, give, grant, bargain, sell, alien, enfeoff, convey, confirm and assign the Mortgaged Property pursuant to the terms hereof and to keep and observe all of the terms of this Mortgage on Mortgagor's part to be performed.

37. Actions and Proceedings. Mortgagee shall have the right to appear in and defend any action or proceeding brought with respect to the Mortgaged Property and to bring any action or proceeding, in the name and on behalf of Mortgagor, which Mortgagee, in its discretion, feels should be brought to protect its interest in the Mortgaged Property.

38. Inapplicable Provisions. If any term, covenant or condition of this Mortgage shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, this Mortgage shall be construed without such provision.

39. Duplicate Originals. This Mortgage may be executed in any number of duplicate originals and each such duplicate original shall be deemed to constitute but one and the same instrument.

40. Certain Definitions. Unless the context clearly indicates a contrary intent or unless otherwise specifically provided herein, words used in this Mortgage shall be used interchangeably in singular or plural form and the word "Mortgagor" shall mean "each Mortgagor and/or any subsequent owner or owners of the Mortgaged Property or any part thereof or interest therein", the word "Mortgagee" shall mean "Mortgagee or any subsequent holder of the Note", the word "Note" shall mean "the Note or any other evidence of indebtedness secured by this Mortgage", the word "person" shall include an individual, corporation, partnership, trust, unincorporated association, government, governmental authority, or other entity, the words "Mortgaged Property" shall include any portion of the Mortgaged Property or interest therein, and the word "Debt" shall mean all sums secured by this Mortgage. Whenever the context may require, any pronouns used herein shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine or neuter forms, and the singular form of nouns and pronouns shall include the plural and vice versa.

41. Waiver of Notice. Mortgagor shall not be entitled to any notices of any nature whatsoever from Mortgagee except with respect to matters for which this Mortgage specifically and expressly provides for the giving of notice by Mortgagee to Mortgagor, and Mortgagor hereby expressly waives the right to receive any notice from Mortgagee with respect to any matter for which this Mortgage does not specifically and expressly provide for the giving of notice by Mortgagee to Mortgagor.

42. No Oral Change. This Mortgage may not be modified, amended, changed, discharged or terminated orally, but only by an agreement in writing signed by the party against whom the enforcement of the modification, amendment, change, discharge or termination is sought.

43. Trust Fund. Pursuant to Section 13 of the Lien Law of New York, Mortgagor shall receive the advances secured hereby and shall hold the right to receive such advances as a trust fund to be applied first for the purpose of paying the cost of any improvement and shall apply such advances first to the payment of the cost of any such improvement on the Mortgaged Property before using any part of the total of the same for any other purpose.

44. Building Loan. To the extent of the future advances provided for hereunder, this Mortgage shall constitute a building loan mortgage, the proceeds of which are loaned for the purpose of financing the construction of certain improvements on the Premises. The proceeds of the building loan advances secured hereby are to be advanced by Mortgagee to Mortgagor from time to time as requested by Mortgagor and as required for such construction.

45. Prepayment After Event of Default. If following the occurrence of any default under this Mortgage remaining uncured beyond the expiration of any applicable grace period and an exercise by Mortgagee of its option to declare the Debt immediately due, Mortgagor shall tender payment of an amount sufficient to satisfy the entire Debt at any time prior to a sale of the Mortgaged Property, and if at the time of such tender prepayment of the principal balance of the Note is prohibited, Mortgagor shall, in addition to the entire Debt, also pay to Mortgagee any amount equal to the difference between (a) interest which would have accrued on the principal balance of the Note at the rate specified in the Note from the date of such exercise of Mortgagee's option as aforesaid to the Maturity Date specified in the Note and (b) interest which Beneficiary would receive if the principal balance of the Note would have been invested, on the date of such exercise, in United States Treasury Securities having a maturity on (or as close as possible to) the Maturity Date.

46. Corporate Property Investors. Corporate Property Investors refers to the trustees under the Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, dated June 15, 1978, as amended, and filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The obligations of Mortgagee do not constitute personal obligations of the trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents. All persons dealing with Mortgagee shall look solely to the assets of Mortgagee for satisfaction of any liability of Mortgagee in respect of this Agreement, and will not seek recourse against such trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents or any of them or any of their personal assets for such satisfaction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Mortgagor has duly executed this Mortgage the day and year first above written.

LEASE AGREEMENT

This Lease Agreement, made and entered into this 22 day of June, 1982, by and between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust (hereinafter referred to as "Lessor"), and 305-313 EAST 47TH STREET ASSOCIATES, a New York Partner ship, consisting of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CRC") and CRC Advisory Corp., a Delaware corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Lessee").

W I T N E S S E T H :

Lessor is the owner of the land known as 305-313 East 47th Street, New York, New York as described on Exhibit A attached hereto (the "Land"). Lessee has simultaneously with the execution of this Lease purchased the buildings and improvements located on the Land (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Improvements" and individually as an "Improvement"). Lessor desires to lease the Land to Lessee and Lessee desires to lease the Land from Lessor on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE ONE TERM AND USE

Section 1.1. The term of this Lease shall begin on June 22, 1982, and shall continue for ninety-nine (99) years, ending May 31, 2081. The Land may be used, occupied and enjoyed by the Lessee for any and all lawful purposes, subject to earlier termination as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE TWO RENTAL

Section 2.1. Lessee hereby covenants and agrees to pay to Lessor at the address set forth in Section 11.1, annual rent for the Land, effective as of January 1 of each calendar year, equal to the sum of (i) $780,000 and (ii) 10% of any increase in the fair market value of the Improvements located on the Land in excess of $15,000,000. The rent shall be paid in equal monthly installments in advance on the first day of each month; provided, however, in the event that the annual rent for the new calendar year is not yet known due to the fact that the fair market value of the Improvements has not yet been determined for such year, then, in such event, Lessee shall continue to pay to Lessor the previous year's rent in monthly installments until notified by Lessor of the rent for the new calendar year. After notice by Lessor to Lessee of the new fair market value of the Improvements and of a change in the annual rent, Lessee shall pay, at such time as the next monthly installment of rent shall be due, the sum of the new monthly rent and the total amount of any increase in monthly rent that had accrued. In the event of any decrease in the annual rent as a result of a decrease in the fair market value of the Improvements, the total amount of such decrease that had accrued shall be credited against the monthly rent that shall next fall due; provided that in no event shall the annual rent be less than $780,000.

Section 2.2. The fair market value of the Improvements shall be calculated as of December 31 of each year by capitalizing the cash flow of the Improvements after operating expenses, but prior to the payment by the Lessee of (i) any rent payable hereunder or (ii) debt service on any mortgage encumbering the Improvements or Lessee's interest in the Land, at the rate of 12.5% per annum.

ARTICLE THREE TAXES

Section 3.1. As additional rent, Lessee further covenants and agrees to bear, pay and discharge all taxes, governmental charges, assessments and all levies, general and special, ordinary and extraordinary, of any name, nature and kind whatsoever, which may be fixed, charged, levied, assessed or otherwise imposed upon the Land, except any income, capital gains, franchise tax and any tax imposed on the rentals and revenues received by Lessor hereunder that may be payable by Lessor under any existing or future tax law of the United States or any other country or the State or City of New York, or any other state, or any subdivision thereof. Lessee shall pay such taxes, charges, assessments and levies to the public officers charged with the collection thereof before the same shall become delinquent; provided, however, that Lessee shall have the right in good faith, at its sole cost and expense (in its own name or in the name of Lessor) to contest any such taxes, charges, assessments and levies in accordance with, and subject to the provisions of Section 5.1 hereof.

Lessee at its expense shall upon demand by Lessor secure a surety bond satisfactory in form to Lessor to secure payment of any contested item or items, in an amount not less than the entire contested amount, including any interest or penalties relating thereto.

Section 3.2. Lessee shall at all times save Lessor and the Land and Improvements harmless from all such taxes, assessments and charges, and from all liens, penalties and interest in connection therewith, and from all public requirements as to reconstruction or repair of streets, curbs or sidewalks.

ARTICLE FOUR CONSTRUCTION
TRANSFER UPON TERMINATION OF LEASE

Section 4.1. All construction work in or about the Land shall at all times be done in conformance with and in observance of all valid and applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations concerning such construction; provided, however, that Lessee shall have the right in good faith to contest any such law, ordinance, rule or regulation.

Section 4.2. Lessee covenants and agrees that any alteration, renovation or reconstruction of the Improvements shall be at Lessee's sole cost and expense and at no cost or expense to Lessor.

Section 4.3. The Improvements and all machinery, equipment or fixtures that may be attached to or used in connection with the operation, maintenance and protection of the Improvements as such, or the plumbing, heating, cooling, ventilation or air-conditioning thereof, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all elevators, escalators, dynamos and engines, refrigerating, ventilating, air-conditioning, sanitary and plumbing fixtures, machinery and equipment, and fire prevention and extinguishing apparatus, but expressly excluding trade fixtures of Lessee, furnishings, floor covering and lighting equipment that may be removed without damage to the realty, shall remain upon and be surrendered with the Land as a part thereof at the termination of this Lease and Lessee agrees to execute and deliver a deed conveying title to the Improvements to Lessor at such time; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent or preclude Lessee from demolishing any Improvement located on the Land subject to the provisions of Section 4.4 or making alterations, renovations, replacements or changes in the interior or exterior of any Improvement and the machinery, equipment and fixtures therein, or removing same.

Section 4.4. Lessee shall have the right to alter, add to, demolish or reconstruct any Improvement as often and whenever it deems proper in its sole discretion, all of which shall be performed in accordance with applicable laws, ordinances and other governmental regulations; provided that in the event of any demolition, reconstruction or alteration the rent payable by Lessee to Lessor for the remainder of the term of this lease shall not be less than the rent payable by Lessee immediately prior to such demolition, reconstruction or alteration.

ARTICLE FIVE LIENS

Section 5.1. Except such mortgage lien or liens as are expressly permitted under the terms of this Article

Five, Lessee shall not permit any involuntary lien or other encumbrance to be placed against Lessee's leasehold interest, and if any such involuntary lien or encumbrance shall be attempted to be affixed against Lessee's leasehold interest, Lessee shall pay and discharge any indebtedness to which such lien or other encumbrance relates; provided, however, Lessee shall have the right in its discretion in good faith in accordance with Section 3.1 hereof to contest any and all such liens and encumbrances, and Lessee shall not be obligated to pay the contested item or items unless and until it has been finally determined to be valid and enforceable against Lessee or Lessee's interest in the Land.

Section 5.2. Upon obtaining the consent of Lessor, which consent Lessor agrees shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, Lessee shall at all times have the right to encumber by mortgage or other proper instrument in the nature thereof as security for any actual bona fide debt its leasehold estate hereby created or any portion thereof; provided, that any and all such encumbrances shall at all times be inferior and subject to the prior right, title and interest of Lessor under this Lease. Nothing in this Lease shall be deemed or construed in any way as constituting the consent or request of Lessor, express or implied by inference or otherwise, to any contractor, subcontractor, laborer or materialman for the performance of any labor or the furnishing of any materials for any improvement, alteration to or repair of the Land or the Improvements or any part thereof or any building or improvement at any time situated thereon, nor as giving Lessee any right, power or authority to contract for or permit the rendering of any services or the furnishing of any materials that would give rise to the filing of any lien against the interest of the Lessor in the Land or any part thereof.

Section 5.3. If at any time after the execution and recording in the City Register for the County of New York, of any such mortgage, the mortgagee therein shall notify Lessor in writing that such mortgage has been executed and delivered by Lessee and at the same time furnish Lessor with the address to which said mortgagee desires copies of notices to be mailed, Lessor hereby agrees that it will thereafter mail to such mortgagee at the address so given a duplicate copy of any and all notices in writing which Lessor may from time to time give or serve upon Lessee under and pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Lease.

Section 5.4. Such mortgagee may, at its option, at any time before the rights of Lessee shall have been terminated as provided in Article Thirteen pay any of the rental due hereunder, or do any other act or thing required of or permitted to Lessee by the terms of this Lease, and all payments so made and all things so done and performed by or for any such mortgagee shall be as effective to prevent a forfeiture of the rights of Lessee hereunder as though the same had been done and performed by Lessee. Any such mortgage so given by Lessee may, if Lessee desires, be so conditioned as to provide that as between such mortgagee and Lessee, said mortgagee, on making good and performing any such default or defaults on the part of Lessee, shall be thereby subrogated to or be in the position of an assignee of any and all of the rights of Lessee under the terms and provisions of this Lease. Lessor shall be furnished with either a duplicate original or a certified copy of any such mortgage which provides that any such mortgagee on making good and performing any such default or defaults on the part of Lessee shall be thereby subrogated to or be in the position of an assignee of any and all of said rights of Lessee.

Section 5.5. No such mortgagee of the rights and interests of Lessee hereunder shall be or become liable to Lessor as an assignee of this Lease, or otherwise, unless it expressly assumes the liability, and no assumption shall be inferred from or shall be the result of foreclosure or other appropriate proceedings in the nature thereof or shall be the result of any other action or remedy provided for by such mortgage or by proper conveyance from Lessee pursuant to which the purchaser at foreclosure or grantee shall acquire the rights and interest of Lessee under the terms of this Lease. The rights of any such mortgagee, purchaser or grantee shall be subject to the unperformed obligations of Lessee, and in the event of a subsequent default in the performance of one or more of said obligations as hereinafter provided, Lessor may enforce the performance of this Lease as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE SIX
MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF PREMISES
COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS OPERATION

Section 6.1. Lessee agrees during the term of this Lease to take good care of the Land. Lessee further agrees that, at the end or other expiration of the term of this Lease, it will deliver up the Land and the Improvements then existing thereon in good order and condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted. All expenses arising out of Lessee's operation or use of the Land or the Improvements shall be borne by Lessee.

Section 6.2. Lessee shall at its expense promptly execute and fulfill all ordinances of the City of New York, or other governmental agency applicable to the Land, and all orders and requirements imposed by the Board of Health, Sanitation, Fire and Police Departments, or other governmental authority, for the correction, prevention and abatement of nuisances in or upon or connected with the Land because of Lessee's use thereof during the term of this Lease.

Section 6.3. If Lessee shall fail to pay before same become delinquent any tax, assessment or charge which it is required to pay by Article Three, or any bill for materials or labor furnished or performed in connection with the repair or maintenance of the Land as required hereunder, or shall fail to perform any obligation of Lessee required in other Sections of this Lease, Lessor after thirty (30) days' written notice to Lessee (Lessor having the right to reduce the time of such notice in order to permit it to make any payment or perform any obligation of Lessee prior to delinquency or default) shall have the right, but not the obligation, in addition to all other rights and remedies to make any or all of such payments and perform any or all of such obligations of Lessee, and if it does so Lessor shall be subrogated to the rights, titles and interests of all persons whose claims it has paid, and Lessee agrees forth with to repay to Lessor, all sums thus paid by Lessor in order to perform Lessee's obligations, together with inter est at the rate of 2% above the prime rate charged by Citibank N.A., from the date of each such payment; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section shall impair or affect Lessee's right to dispute or contest the validity or amount of any claim as hereinafter set forth; and provided further, that the performance by Lessor of an obligation of Lessee as herein permitted shall not impair or affect the right of Lessor to terminate this Lease in the event of an act of default by Lessee as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE SEVEN ASSIGNMENT INDEMNITY

Section 7.1. Lessee may not sublease the Land in whole or in part without the consent of Lessor. Lessee may also not assign this Lease without the consent of Lessor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. It shall be deemed reasonable for Lessor to withhold its consent to any proposed assignee, if any such assignee does not (i) have a recognized reputation and capability for the management of first class office buildings in the Borough of Manhattan and (ii) have a net worth substantially comparable to Lessee under generally accepted accounting practices as certified by a certified public accountant. In addition, any assignee of this Lease shall expressly assume all of the terms and conditions hereof. If at any time after the execution and delivery of an instrument whereby this Lease is assigned, or the Land or any part thereof is sublet, if the assignee or sublessee therein shall notify Lessor in writing that such an instrument of assignment or subletting has been executed and delivered by Lessee and at the same time furnish Lessor with the address to which said assignee or sublessee desires copies of notices to be mailed or designate some person or corporation in the City of New York, as the agent and representative of the assignee or sublessee for the purpose of receiving copies of notices, Lessor hereby agrees that it will thereafter mail either to such assignee or sublessee at the address so given a copy of any and all notices in writing which Lessor may from time to time give or serve upon Lessee under and pursuant to the terms of this Lease; provided, however, that in no event shall Lessor be required to give such notice to more than three addressees who may be assignees or sublessees. If notices to more than three addresses would otherwise be required under this provision, such addressees shall be required to designate an agent or agents, but not more than three, for the purposes of such notice. Each such assignee or sublessee, immediate or remote, unless restrained by the muniments of title under which he holds, shall have like power of assignment and subletting on the same conditions and subject to the same restrictions as those imposed herein on Lessee.

Section 7.2. All property of every kind which may be placed upon the Land during the lease term shall be at the sole risk of Lessee or those claiming under it and Lessor shall not be liable to Lessee, or to any other person whatsoever, for any injury, loss or damage to any person or property upon the Land, or upon the sidewalks contiguous thereto. Lessee hereby covenants and agrees to assume all liability for or on account of any injury, loss or damage above described, and to save Lessor harmless therefrom. Lessor shall not be liable for injury or damage which may be sustained by person or property by Lessee or any other person caused (i) by the street or subsurface, (ii) by interference with light or other incorporeal hereditaments, (iii) by operations by or for governmental agencies in the construction of any public or quasi-public work, or (iv) from any other source or by any cause whatsoever.

Section 7.3. Lessee shall at its own expense provide and keep in force for the protection of Lessor and Lessee, comprehensive general liability insurance in which Lessor shall be named as an additional assured in such limits of liability in respect of bodily injury for each person and for each occurrence and in respect of property damage for each occurrence in such amounts as shall reason ably protect both Lessor and Lessee against the risks described in Section 7.2, but not less than $2,000,000 coverage for bodily injury to each person and not less than $10,000,000 coverage for bodily injury for each occurrence.

Such policy or policies shall cover the Land and any side walks, streets and ways adjoining the Land or any of the situations named in Section 7.2, and shall be issued by a reputable insurance company or companies reasonably accept able to Lessor, and copies of such policies or certificates shall be delivered to Lessor.

ARTICLE EIGHT CONDEMNATION AND EMINENT DOMAIN

Section 8.1. If during the term of this Lease the Land shall be taken by any public authority for any public use or by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, and such taking relates to the entire fee simple estate in the Land as well as the right, title and interest of Lessee, then this Lease shall terminate as of the date of such taking, and all rights, titles, interests, covenants, agreements and obligations of the parties hereto thereafter accruing shall cease and terminate except as hereinafter set forth. In the event of such taking the entire compensation and damages (if not apportioned by the condemnation decree) shall be fairly and equitably apportioned between Lessor and Lessee in accordance with the respective damage and loss sustained by the fee simple estate (subject to the leasehold estate) and the leasehold estate granted hereunder.

Section 8.2. If during the term of this Lease a material part of the Land shall be taken and the remaining portion of the Land cannot reasonably be used or utilized for the purposes for which the Land were being used at the time of the taking, Lessee shall have the right and option upon thirty (30) days' written notice to Lessor to terminate this Lease, in which event the provisions of Section 8.1 shall be applicable as of the date of such termination.

Section 8.3. If during the term of this Lease a portion of the Land shall be temporarily taken, and this Lease is not terminated pursuant to Section 8.2, or if any condemnation for a temporary period ending before the expiration of the term of this Lease shall be made, it is agreed that in such event the rights, duties and obligations of the parties under the terms of this Lease shall then be modified fairly and equitably with such abatement of rent and other payments and obligations as shall fairly and equitably adjust the rights, duties and obligations of the parties hereto under the changed circumstances. Any compensation and damages that may be awarded as the result of any such taking shall be fairly and equitably apportioned between Lessor and Lessee in accordance with the respective damage and loss sustained by the fee simple estate (subject to the leasehold estate) and the leasehold estate granted hereunder. In the event that a permanent taking of a portion of the Land occurs, the rent thereafter payable shall be reduced in the same proportion as the area of the portion taken shall bear to the total area of the Land immediately prior to the taking, said rent reduction to be based on the then effective rental rate, subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms of this Lease.

ARTICLE NINE
NOTICES

Section 9.1. All notices, demands, consents, approvals or other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given (i) 72 hours after the same are sent by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, or (ii) when delivered, in each case, to the parties at the following addresses:

Lessor: CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS
230 Park Avenue
New York, New York 10169

Lessee: 305-313 EAST 47TH STREET ASSOCIATES
c/o Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc.
230 Park Avenue

or at such other addresses as each party may designate by notice to the other party.

Section 9.2. The word "Lessor" as used in this Lease shall extend to and include all other persons, whether natural or artificial, who at any time or from time to time during the term of this Lease shall succeed to the interest and estate of Lessor in the Land, and all of the covenants, agreements, conditions and stipulations herein contained shall inure to the benefit of and shall be jointly and severally binding upon Lessor and its successors, assigns, grantees, heirs, executors and administrators, and of any and all persons who at any time or from time to time during the term of this Lease shall succeed to the interest and estate of Lessor in the Land. "Lessee" as used in this instrument shall extend to and include the party executing this instrument as Lessee, as well as all other persons, whether natural or artificial, who at any time or from time to time during the term of this Lease shall succeed to the interest and estate of Lessee in the Land, and all of the covenants, agreements, conditions, and stipulations herein contained shall inure to the benefit of and shall be binding upon the party executing this instrument as Lessee (subject to the limitation as provided in Article Twelve) and its successors, assigns, grantees, heirs, executors and administrators, and of any and all persons who shall, at any time or from time to time during the term of this Lease succeed to the interest and estate of Lessee hereby created in the Land.

ARTICLE TEN EXISTING AGREEMENTS
RIGHTS AND LEASES
QUIET ENJOYMENT

Section 10.1. Lessor represents and warrants that it owns good and indefeasible fee simple title to the Land and Lessor further warrants that Lessee shall have a good and indefeasible leasehold estate in and to the Land subject to any easements or restrictions of record, and covenants that Lessee, on paying the rent and performing his agreements and obligations as aforesaid, shall and may at all times peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Land during the term of this Lease.

Section 10.2. Lessor warrants that there are no existing deed restrictions or encroachments. Lessor further warrants to Lessee that there are no persons or tenants in possession of the Land under leases or otherwise other than those set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto.

ARTICLE ELEVEN WAIVERS

Section 11.1. Any and all waivers by Lessor or Lessee shall be in writing. No waiver by Lessor or Lessee of any default or breach by the other of any covenant, condition, agreement, provision or stipulation herein contained shall be deemed as a waiver of any other or subsequent default or breach of the same or any other covenant, condition, agreement, provision or stipulation hereof.

ARTICLE TWELVE
LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF LESSEE

Section 12.1. In the event of assignment of this Lease to an assignee in accordance with the terms and conditions of Section 7.1 and an assumption by such assignee of the obligations of the Lessee hereunder, the assignor shall be released from liability, provided that Lessee shall have given to Lessor an assignment instrument, or true copy thereof, evidencing the assignment of this Lease and the agreement of the assignee to accept the assignment unconditionally and to be bound by all the terms, conditions and covenants of Lessee hereunder.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN DEFAULT REMEDIES

Section 13.1 In the event of a default on the part of Lessee in the payment of rent, or ad valorem taxes, governmental charges, assessments or levies, or default on the part of Lessee (i) pursuant to the terms of any mortgage or note between Lessor and Lessee or (ii) in the satisfaction of any other lien created or suffered to be created by Lessee (other than the lien permitted by Section 5.2 hereof), if Lessor shall execute and deliver to Lessee and each mortgagee in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3 of this Lease a written notice specifying such default, and if the default thus specified by such notice shall continue for a period of sixty (60) days from and after the date of such notice, then in such event Lessor shall have the full right at its election to forfeit this Lease or pursue any other legal remedy; provided, however, that if Lessee shall have executed and delivered, in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.2 of this Lease, a mortgage, or other proper security instrument, and the mortgagee therein shall have notified Lessor of such fact and furnished Lessor with the address to which copies of notices shall be sent in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3 of this Lease, then insofar, and only insofar, as the rights of any such mortgagee or trustee authorized under the provisions of Section 5.2 of this Lease are concerned, Lessor shall have the right to declare this Lease forfeited only if the default specified by said notice shall continue for an additional period (in addition to the original sixty (60) day period) of thirty (30) days after the date of said original notice.

Section 13.2. In the event of any breach of any covenant of this Lease by Lessee other than those mentioned in Section 13.1 above, then Lessor shall have the right to execute and deliver to Lessee and to each mortgagee in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3 of this Lease a written notice specifying such default, and unless within ninety (90) days from and after the date of said notice Lessee or any mortgagee shall have commenced to remove or to cure such default and shall thereafter proceed with reasonable diligence to completely remove or cure such default, then in such event Lessor shall have the full right at its election to forfeit this Lease or pursue any other legal remedy; provided, however, that if any mortgagee of Lessee's interest under a mortgage or other encumbrance created under Section 5.2 of this Lease is not in actual possession of the Land at the time of such default, then the time within which such mortgagee may commence to cure such default shall be extended until such mortgagee can obtain actual possession; provided that during such interim the mortgagee under a mortgage of the leasehold estate authorized by Section 5.2 shall pay or cause to be paid all rents, taxes, governmental charges, assessments and levies and all liens created or suffered to be created by Lessee (other than the lien held by it) and provided for hereunder as and when same shall become due under the terms of this Lease.

Section 13.3. In the event it shall become necessary for Lessor to employ an attorney to collect any rent due under this Lease or to enforce any of the other covenants of the Lessee, Lessee shall be liable and responsible for the payment of reasonable attorneys' fees to Lessor's attorneys.

ARTICLE FOURTEEN
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Each party hereto agrees that upon the request of the other it will forthwith execute and deliver for recording in the City Register for the County of

New York, a short form lease agreement designating the parties, describing the Land and setting out the term of this Lease, and incorporating all the terms hereof by reference hereto.

Section 14.2. All titles or captions of Articles herein are used for convenience only, and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction to be placed on the language contained in the various Articles of this Lease.

Section 14.3. It is understood and agreed that Lessor expressly reserves the right to mortgage Lessor's interest in the Land.

Section 14.4. Rent on Net Return Basis. It is intended that the rent provided for in this Lease shall be an absolutely net return to Lessor for the term of this Lease, free of any loss, expenses, charges, or other deduction with respect to the Land, including without limitation maintenance, repairs, insurance, taxes and assessments imposed upon or related to the Land, except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, no abatement, diminution or reduction of the annual rent or of other charges required to be paid by Lessee pursuant to the terms of this Lease shall be claimed by, or allowed to, Lessee for any inconvenience, interruption, cessation or loss of business or otherwise, caused, directly or indirectly, by any present or future laws, rules, requirements, orders, directions, ordinances or regulations of the United States of America, or of the state, county or city governments, or of any other municipal, governmental or lawful authority whatsoever, or by priorities, rationing or curtailment of labor or materials, or by war, civil commotion, strikes or riots, or any matter or thing resulting therefrom, or by any other cause or causes beyond the control of Lessor, nor shall this Lease be affected by any such causes.

Section 14.5. Corporate Property Investors. Corporate Property Investors refers to the trustees under the Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, dated June 15, 1978, as amended, and filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The obligations of Lessor do not constitute personal obligations of the trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents. All persons dealing with Lessor shall look solely to the assets of Lessor for satisfaction of any liability of Lessor in respect of this Agreement, and will not seek recourse against such trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents or any of them or any of their personal assets for such satisfaction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Lease is executed as of the date set forth above.

GUARANTEE

GUARANTEE dated as of April 4, 1997, made by GWINNETT PRADO, L.P., a Georgia limited partnership ("Guarantor"), in favor of Mill Creek Land, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability Company (the "Company") and CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC., a Delaware corporation (collectively, the "Beneficiaries"), pursuant to the Limited Liability Company Agreement dated as of the date hereof, between BUFORD ACQUISITION COMPANY, L.L.C., a Georgia limited liability company (the "Member"), and CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC., as the same may be amended, supplemented or modified from time to time (the "LLC Agreement").

WHEREAS, the parties to the LLC Agreement have entered into a venture to acquire and develop certain land located in Gwinnett County, Georgia;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the LLC Agreement, the parties thereto have agreed to make certain capital contributions to the Company as specified in Article III of the LLC Agreement; and

WHEREAS, as an inducement to the parties to enter into the LLC Agreement and as a requirement thereunder, each party thereof has agreed to have certain affiliates guarantee certain of its capital obligations.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the covenants contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Guarantor hereto agrees as follows:

1. Defined Terms. (a) Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms used in this Guarantee shall have the meanings assigned to them in the LLC Agreement and the following terms have the following meanings:

"Guarantee" means this Guarantee, as the same may be amended, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Obligations" means the due and punctual payment and performance of the obligations of the Member under Section 3.02(b) and 3.03(a) of the LLC Agreement.

(b) The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Guarantee shall refer to this Guarantee as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Guarantee, and section and paragraph references are to this Guarantee unless otherwise specified.

(c) The meanings given to terms defined herein shall be equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of such terms.

2. Guarantee. (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to the Beneficiaries, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries and their respective successors and assigns, the prompt and complete payment and performance by the Member when due of the Obligations. Guarantor further agrees to pay any and all expenses (including, without limitation, all reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel) which may be reasonably paid or incurred by the Beneficiaries in enforcing, or obtaining advice of counsel in respect of, any rights with respect to, or collecting, any or all of the Obligations and/or enforcing any rights with respect to, or collecting against, Guarantor under this Guarantee. This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect until the Obligations have been satisfied or discharged in full.

(b) No payment or payments made by any Person other than the Guarantor or received or collected by the Company from the Member, any other guarantor or any other Person by virtue of any action or proceeding or any set-off or appropriation or application at any time or from time to time in reduction of or in payment of the Obligations shall be deemed to modify, reduce, release or otherwise affect the liability of Guarantor hereunder which shall, notwithstanding any such payment or payments, remain liable for the Obligations up to the maximum liability of such Guarantor hereunder until the Obligations have been satisfied or discharged in full.

3. Right of Set-Off. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any failure of the Member to make a capital contribution as and when required pursuant to Section 3.02(b) of the LLC Agreement, the Company is hereby irrevocably authorized at any time and from time to time without notice to Guarantor, any such notice being expressly waived by Guarantor to the extent permitted by applicable law, to set-off and appropriate and apply any and all sums of money and other property at any time held or owing by the Company to or for the credit or the account of Guarantor or the Member, or any part thereof in such amounts as the Company may elect, against and on account of the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor to the Company hereunder, and claims of every nature and description of the Company against Guarantor, whether arising hereunder, under the LLC Agreement, or otherwise, as the Company shall elect, whether or not the Company has made any demand for payment and although such obligations, liabilities and claims may be contingent or unmatured. The Company shall notify Guarantor promptly of any such set-off and the application made by the Company of the proceeds thereof; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application. The rights of the Company under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (which the Company may have under the LLC Agreement).

4. Limits on Subrogation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the LLC Agreement and notwithstanding any payment or payments made by Guarantor hereunder or pursuant to the LLC Agreement or any right of set-off of the Company against Guarantor, Guarantor shall not be entitled to be subrogated to any of the rights of the Beneficiaries against the Member or any collateral security or guarantee or right of offset held by any Beneficiaries for the payment of the Obligations, nor shall Guarantor seek or be entitled to seek any contribution or reimbursement from the Member in respect of payments made by Guarantor hereunder or under the LLC Agreement, until all amounts owing to the Company by the Member on account of the Obligations are paid in full. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid in full, such amount shall be held by Guarantor in trust for the Beneficiaries, segregated from other funds of Guarantor, and shall, forthwith upon receipt by Guarantor, be turned over to the Company in the exact form received by Guarantor (duly indorsed by Guarantor to the Company, if required), to be applied against the Obligations.

5. Amendments, etc. With Respect to the Obligations, Waiver of Rights. Guarantor shall remain obligated hereunder notwithstanding that, without any reservation of rights against Guarantor and without notice to or further assent by Guarantor, any demand for payment of any of the Obligations made by the Company may be rescinded by the Company and any of the Obligations continued, and the Obligations, or the liability of any other Person upon or for any part thereof, may, from time to time, in whole or in part, be renewed, extended, amended, modified, accelerated, compromised, waived, surrendered or released by the Company, and the LLC Agreements and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith may be amended, modified, supplemented or terminated, in whole or in part, as the Company may deem advisable from time to time. When making any demand hereunder against the Guarantor, the Company may, but shall be under no obligation to, make a similar demand on the Member, and any failure by the Company to make any such demand or to collect any payments from the Member shall not relieve Guarantor of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, express or implied, or as a matter of law, of the Company against Guarantor. For the purposes hereof, "demand" shall include the commencement and continuance of any legal proceedings.

6. Guarantee Absolute and Unconditional. Guarantor waives any and all notice of the creation, renewal, extension or accrual of any of the Obligations and notice of or proof or reliance by the Beneficiaries upon this Guarantee or acceptance of this Guarantee; the Obligations shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred, or renewed, extended, amended or waived, in reliance upon this Guarantee; and all dealings between the Member and the Guarantor, on the one hand, and the Beneficiaries, on the other hand, likewise shall be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Guarantee. Guarantor waives diligence, presentment, protest, demand for payment and notice of default or nonpayment to or upon the Member or the Guarantor with respect to the Obligations. Guarantor understands and agrees that this Guarantee shall be construed as a continuing, absolute and unconditional guarantee of payment without regard to (a) the validity or enforceability of the LLC Agreement, (b) any defense, set-off or counterclaim which may at any time be available to or be asserted by the Member against the Company or (c) any other circumstance whatsoever (with or without notice to or knowledge of the Member or Guarantor) which constitutes, or might be construed to constitute, an equitable or legal discharge of the Member for the Obligations, or of Guarantor under this Guarantee, in bankruptcy or in any other instance. When pursuing its rights and remedies hereunder against Guarantor, the Company may, but shall be under no obligation to, pursue such rights and remedies as it may have against the Member or any other Person, and any failure by the Company to pursue such other rights or remedies or to collect any payments from the Member or any such other Person or shall not relieve Guarantor of any liability hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, whether express, implied or available as a matter of law, of the Company against Guarantor.

7. Reinstatement. This Guarantee shall continue to be effective, or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of any of the Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned by the Beneficiaries upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of the Member or Guarantor, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, the Member or Guarantor or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payments had not been made.

8. Payments. Guarantor hereby agrees that payments hereunder will be paid to the Company without set-off or counterclaim in U.S. Dollars at the office of the Company.

9. Representations and Warranties. (a) Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that:

(i) it is a limited partnership duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its formation and has the power and authority and the legal right to own and operate its property, to lease the property it operates and to conduct the business in which it is currently engaged;

(ii) it has the power and authority and the legal right to execute and deliver, and to perform its obligations under, this Guarantee, and has taken all necessary action to authorize its execution, delivery and performance of this Guarantee;

(iii) this Guarantee has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of Guarantor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Guarantor enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally, general equitable principles (whether enforcement is sought by proceedings in equity or at law) and an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing;

(iv) the execution, delivery and performance of this Guarantee will not violate any provision of any requirement of law or contractual obligation of Guarantor in any respect that, in the aggregate for all such violations, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor and will not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of the properties or revenues of Guarantor pursuant to any such requirement of law or contractual obligation of Guarantor;

(v) no consent or authorization of, filing with, or other act by or in respect of, any arbitrator or governmental authority and no consent of any other Person (including, without limitation, any stockholder or creditor of Guarantor) is required in connection with the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of this Guarantee, other than those which have been duly obtained or made and are in full force and effect on the date of this agreement and except for those the absence of which in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor;

(vi) no litigation, investigation or proceeding of or before any arbitrator or governmental authority is pending or, to the knowledge of Guarantor, threatened by or against Guarantor or against any of its properties or revenues (1) with respect to this Guarantee or any of the transactions contemplated hereby by (2) which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor.

10. Covenants; Further Assurances. Guarantor hereby covenants and agrees with the Beneficiaries that, from and after the date of this Guarantee until payment in full of the Obligations at any time and from time to time, upon the written request of the Company, and at the sole expense of Guarantor, Guarantor will promptly and fully execute and deliver such further instruments and documents and take such further actions as the Company may reasonably request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of this Guarantee and of the rights and powers herein granted.

11. Notices. All notices, requests and demands to or upon the Beneficiaries or Guarantor to be effective shall be in writing (or by telex, fax or similar electronic transfer confirmed in writing) and, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, shall be deemed to have been duly given or made (1) when delivered by hand or (2) if given by mail, three days after being deposited in the mails by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid or (3) if by telex, fax or similar electronic transfer, when sent and receipt has been confirmed, addressed as follows:

(a) if to the Beneficiaries, at their address or transmission number for notices provided in the LLC Agreement; and

(b) if to Guarantor, at its address or transmission number for notices set forth under its signature below or to such other address as may be hereafter notified by the respective parties hereto.

The Beneficiaries and Guarantor may change their address and transmission numbers for notices by notice in the manner provided in this Section.

Guarantor agrees that any notice delivered to the Beneficiaries shall be deemed to be received by the Beneficiaries.

12. Counterparts. This Guarantee may be executed by counterpart, and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument.

13. Severability. Any provision of this Guarantee which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

14. Integration. This Guarantee represents the entire agreement of Guarantor with respect to the subject matter hereof and there are no promises or representations by Guarantor or the Beneficiaries relative to the subject matter hereof not reflected or referred to herein.

15. Amendments in Writing; No Waiver, Cumulative Remedies. (a) None of the terms or provisions of this Guarantee may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by Guarantor and the Beneficiaries; provided that any provision of this Guarantee may be waived by the Beneficiaries in a letter or agreement executed by the Beneficiaries or by telex or facsimile transmission from the Beneficiaries.

(b) The Beneficiaries shall not by any act (except by a written instrument pursuant to paragraph 15(a) hereof), delay, indulgence, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Beneficiaries any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Beneficiaries of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Beneficiaries would otherwise have on any future occasion.

(c) The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently and are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies provided by law.

16. Section Headings. The section headings used in this Guarantee are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction hereof or be taken into consideration in the interpretation hereof.

17. Submission to Jurisdiction; Waivers. (a) Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally:

(i) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Guarantee to which it is a party, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the non-exclusive general jurisdiction of the Courts of the State of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof;

(ii) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(iii) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to Guarantor at its address referred to in Section 11

or at such other address of which the Beneficiaries shall have been notified pursuant thereto; and

(iv) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right to effect service or process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right to sue in any other jurisdiction.

(b) Guarantor and the Beneficiaries hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waive, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right they may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

18. Acknowledgments. Guarantor hereby acknowledges that:

(a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Guarantee; and

(b) the Beneficiaries has no fiduciary relationship with or duty to it or the Member arising out of or in connection with this Guarantee, and the relationship between the Beneficiaries, on one hand, and the Guarantor and the Member, on the other hand, in connection herewith is solely that of debtor and creditor.

19. WAIVERS OF JURY TRIAL. GUARANTOR HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING RELATING TO THIS GUARANTEE AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN.

20. Successors and Assigns. This Guarantee shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of Guarantor, shall inure to the benefit of the Beneficiaries and its respective indorsees, transferees, successors and assigns. The Guarantor may not assign, transfer or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this Guarantee without the prior written consent of the Beneficiaries.

21. GOVERNING LAW. THIS GUARANTEE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

10

EXECUTION COPY

GUARANTEE

GUARANTEE dated as of April 4, 1997, made by BEN CARTER COMPANIES, L.L.C., a Georgia limited liability company ("Guarantor"), in favor of Mill Creek Land, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company") and CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC., a Delaware corporation (collectively, the "Beneficiaries"), pursuant to the Limited Liability Company Agreement dated as of the date hereof, between BUFORD ACQUISITION COMPANY, L.L.C., a Georgia limited liability company (the "Member"), and CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC., as the same may be amended, supplemented or modified from time to time (the "LLC Agreement").

WHEREAS, the parties to the LLC Agreement have entered into a venture to acquire and develop certain land located in Gwinnett County, Georgia;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the LLC Agreement, the parties thereto have agreed to make certain capital contributions to the Company as specified in Article III of the LLC Agreement; and

WHEREAS, as an inducement to the parties to enter into the LLC Agreement and as a requirement thereunder, each party thereof has agreed to have certain affiliates guarantee certain of its capital obligations.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the covenants contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Guarantor hereto agrees as follows:

1. Defined Terms. (a) Unless otherwise defined herein, capitalized terms used in this Guarantee shall have the meanings assigned to them in the LLC Agreement and the following terms have the following meanings:

"Guarantee" means this Guarantee, as the same may be amended, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Obligations" means the due and punctual payment and performance of the obligations of the Member under Section 3.02(b) and 3.03(a) of the LLC Agreement.

(b) The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Guarantee shall refer to this Guarantee as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Guarantee, and section and paragraph references are to this Guarantee unless otherwise specified.

(c) The meanings given to terms defined herein shall be equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of such terms.

2. Guarantee. (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2(b), the Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to the Beneficiaries, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries and their respective successors and assigns, the prompt and complete payment and performance by the Member when due of the Obligations. Guarantor further agrees to pay any and all expenses (including, without limitation, all reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel) which may be reasonably paid or incurred by the Beneficiaries in enforcing, or obtaining advice of counsel in respect of, any rights with respect to, or collecting, any or all of the Obligations and/or enforcing any rights with respect to, or collecting against, Guarantor under this Guarantee. This Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect until the Obligations have been satisfied or discharged in full.

(b) No payment or payments made by any Person other than the Guarantor or received or collected by the Company from the Member, any other guarantor or any other Person by virtue of any action or proceeding or any set-off or appropriation or application at any time or from time to time in reduction of or in payment of the Obligations shall be deemed to modify, reduce, release or otherwise affect the liability of Guarantor hereunder which shall, notwithstanding any such payment or payments, remain liable for the Obligations up to the maximum liability of such Guarantor hereunder until the Obligations have been satisfied or discharged in full.

a capital contribution as and when required pursuant to Section 3.02(b) of the LLC Agreement, the Company is hereby irrevocably authorized at any time and from time to time without notice to Guarantor, any such notice being expressly waived by Guarantor to the extent permitted by applicable law, to set-off and appropriate and apply any and all sums of money and other property at any time held or owing by the Company to or for the credit or the account of Guarantor or the Member, or any part thereof in such amounts as the Company may elect, against and on account of the obligations and liabilities of Guarantor to the Company hereunder, and claims of every nature and description of the Company against Guarantor, whether arising hereunder, under the LLC Agreement, or otherwise, as the Company shall elect, whether or not the Company has made any demand for payment and although such obligations, liabilities and claims may be contingent or unmatured. The Company shall notify Guarantor promptly of any such set-off and the application made by the Company of the proceeds thereof; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such set-off and application. The rights of the Company under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (which the Company may have under the LLC Agreement).

4. Limits on Subrogation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the LLC Agreement and notwithstanding any payment or payments made by Guarantor hereunder or pursuant to the LLC Agreement or any right of set-off of the Company against Guarantor, Guarantor shall not be entitled to be subrogated to any of the rights of the Beneficiaries against the Member or any collateral security or guarantee or right of offset held by any Beneficiaries for the payment of the Obligations, nor shall Guarantor seek or be entitled to seek any contribution or reimbursement from the Member in respect of payments made by Guarantor hereunder or under the LLC Agreement, until all amounts owing to the Company by the Member on account of the Obligations are paid in full. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time when all of the Obligations shall not have been paid in full, such amount shall be held by Guarantor in trust for the Beneficiaries, segregated from other funds of Guarantor, and shall, forthwith upon receipt by Guarantor, be turned over to the Company in the exact form received by Guarantor (duly indorsed by Guarantor to the Company, if required), to be applied against the Obligations.

to or further assent by Guarantor, any demand for payment of any of the Obligations made by the Company may be rescinded by the Company and any of the Obligations continued, and the Obligations, or the liability of any other Person upon or for any part thereof, may, from time to time, in whole or in part, be renewed, extended, amended, modified, accelerated, compromised, waived, surrendered or released by the Company, and the LLC Agreements and any other documents executed and delivered in connection therewith may be amended, modified, supplemented or terminated, in whole or in part, as the Company may deem advisable from time to time. When making any demand hereunder against the Guarantor, the Company may, but shall be under no obligation to, make a similar demand on the Member, and any failure by the Company to make any such demand or to collect any payments from the Member shall not relieve Guarantor of its obligations or liabilities hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, express or implied, or as a matter of law, of the Company against Guarantor. For the purposes hereof, "demand" shall include the commencement and continuance of any legal proceedings.

6. Guarantee Absolute and Unconditional. Guarantor waives any and all notice of the creation, renewal, extension or accrual of any of the Obligations and notice of or proof or reliance by the Beneficiaries upon this Guarantee or acceptance of this Guarantee; the Obligations shall conclusively be deemed to have been created, contracted or incurred, or renewed, extended, amended or waived, in reliance upon this Guarantee; and all dealings between the Member and the Guarantor, on the one hand, and the Beneficiaries, on the other hand, likewise shall be conclusively presumed to have been had or consummated in reliance upon this Guarantee. Guarantor waives diligence, presentment, protest, demand for payment and notice of default or nonpayment to or upon the Member or the Guarantor with respect to the Obligations. Guarantor understands and agrees that this Guarantee shall be construed as a continuing, absolute and unconditional guarantee of payment without regard to (a) the validity or enforceability of the LLC Agreement, (b) any defense, set-off or counterclaim which may at any time be available to or be asserted by the Member against the Company or (c) any other circumstance whatsoever (with or without notice to or knowledge of the Member or Guarantor) which constitutes, or might be construed to constitute, an equitable or legal discharge of the Member for the Obligations, or of Guarantor under this Guarantee, in bankruptcy or in any other instance. When pursuing its rights and remedies hereunder against Guarantor, the Company may, but shall be under no obligation to, pursue such rights and remedies as it may have against the Member or any other Person, and any failure by the Company to pursue such other rights or remedies or to collect any payments from the Member or any such other Person or shall not relieve Guarantor of any liability hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, whether express, implied or available as a matter of law, of the Company against Guarantor.

7. Reinstatement. This Guarantee shall continue to be effective, or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of any of the Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned by the Beneficiaries upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, dissolution, liquidation or reorganization of the Member or Guarantor, or upon or as a result of the appointment of a receiver, intervenor or conservator of, or trustee or similar officer for, the Member or Guarantor or any substantial part of its property, or otherwise, all as though such payments had not been made.

8. Payments. Guarantor hereby agrees that payments hereunder will be paid to the Company without set-off or counterclaim in U.S. Dollars at the office of the Company.

9. Representations and Warranties. (a) Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that:

(i) it is a limited liability company duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its formation and has the power and authority and the legal right to own and operate its property, to lease the property it operates and to conduct the business in which it is currently engaged;

(ii) it has the power and authority and the legal right to execute and deliver, and to perform its obligations under, this Guarantee, and has taken all necessary action to authorize its execution, delivery and performance of this Guarantee;

(iii) this Guarantee has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of Guarantor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Guarantor enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally, general equitable principles (whether enforcement is sought by proceedings in equity or at law) and an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing;

(iv) the execution, delivery and performance of this Guarantee will not violate any provision of any requirement of law or contractual obligation of Guarantor in any respect that, in the aggregate for all such violations, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor and will not result in or require the creation or imposition of any lien on any of the properties or revenues of Guarantor pursuant to any such requirement of law or contractual obligation of Guarantor;

(v) no consent or authorization of, filing with, or other act by or in respect of, any arbitrator or governmental authority and no consent of any other Person (including, without limitation, any stockholder or creditor of Guarantor) is required in connection with the execution, delivery, performance, validity or enforceability of this Guarantee, other than those which have been duly obtained or made and are in full force and effect on the date of this agreement and except for those the absence of which in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor;

(vi) no litigation, investigation or proceeding of or before any arbitrator or governmental authority is pending or, to the knowledge of Guarantor, threatened by or against Guarantor or against any of its properties or revenues (1) with respect to this Guarantee or any of the transactions contemplated hereby by (2) which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Guarantor.

10. Covenants; Further Assurances. Guarantor hereby covenants and agrees with the Beneficiaries that, from and after the date of this Guarantee until payment in full of the Obligations at any time and from time to time, upon the written request of the Company, and at the sole expense of Guarantor, Guarantor will promptly and fully execute and deliver such further instruments and documents and take such further actions as the Company may reasonably request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the full benefits of this Guarantee and of the rights and powers herein granted.

11. Notices. All notices, requests and demands to or upon the Beneficiaries or Guarantor to be effective shall be in writing (or by telex, fax or similar electronic transfer confirmed in writing) and, unless otherwise expressly provided herein, shall be deemed to have been duly given or made (1) when delivered by hand or (2) if given by mail, three days after being deposited in the mails by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid or (3) if by telex, fax or similar electronic transfer, when sent and receipt has been confirmed, addressed as follows:

(a) if to the Beneficiaries, at their address or transmission number for notices provided in the LLC Agreement; and

(b) if to Guarantor, at its address or transmission number for notices set forth under its signature below or to such other address as may be hereafter notified by the respective parties hereto.

The Beneficiaries and Guarantor may change their address and transmission numbers for notices by notice in the manner provided in this Section.

Guarantor agrees that any notice delivered to the Beneficiaries shall be deemed to be received by the Beneficiaries.

12. Counterparts. This Guarantee may be executed by counterpart, and all of said counterparts taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument.

13. Severability. Any provision of this Guarantee which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

14. Integration. This Guarantee represents the entire agreement of Guarantor with respect to the subject matter hereof and there are no promises or representations by Guarantor or the Beneficiaries relative to the subject matter hereof not reflected or referred to herein.

15. Amendments in Writing; No Waiver, Cumulative Remedies. (a) None of the terms or provisions of this Guarantee may be waived, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified except by a written instrument executed by Guarantor and the Beneficiaries; provided that any provision of this Guarantee may be waived by the Beneficiaries in a letter or agreement executed by the Beneficiaries or by telex or facsimile transmission from the Beneficiaries.

(b) The Beneficiaries shall not by any act (except by a written instrument pursuant to paragraph 15(a) hereof), delay, indulgence, omission or otherwise be deemed to have waived any right or remedy hereunder or to have acquiesced in any breach of any of the terms and conditions hereof. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of the Beneficiaries any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. A waiver by the Beneficiaries of any right or remedy hereunder on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar to any right or remedy which the Beneficiaries would otherwise have on any future occasion.

(c) The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative, may be exercised singly or concurrently and are not exclusive of any other rights or remedies provided by law.

16. Section Headings. The section headings used in this Guarantee are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction hereof or be taken into consideration in the interpretation hereof.

17. Submission to Jurisdiction; Waivers. (a) Guarantor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally:

(i) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Guarantee to which it is a party, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the non-exclusive general jurisdiction of the Courts of the State of New York, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof;

(ii) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same;

(iii) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy

thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail), postage prepaid, to Guarantor at its address referred to in Section 11 or at such other address of which the Beneficiaries shall have been notified pursuant thereto; and

(iv) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right to effect service or process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right to sue in any other jurisdiction.

(b) Guarantor and the Beneficiaries hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waive, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right they may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

18. Acknowledgments. Guarantor hereby acknowledges that:

(a) it has been advised by counsel in the negotiation, execution and delivery of this Guarantee; and

(b) the Beneficiaries has no fiduciary relationship with or duty to it or the Member arising out of or in connection with this Guarantee, and the relationship between the Beneficiaries, on one hand, and the Guarantor and the Member, on the other hand, in connection herewith is solely that of debtor and creditor.

20. Successors and Assigns. This Guarantee shall be binding upon the successors and assigns of Guarantor, shall inure to the benefit of the Beneficiaries and its respective indorsees, transferees, successors and assigns. The Guarantor may not assign, transfer or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this Guarantee without the prior written consent of the Beneficiaries.

21. GOVERNING LAW. THIS GUARANTEE SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE INTERNAL LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

22. No Third Party Beneficiaries. None of the provisions of this Guarantee shall be for the benefit or enforceable by any creditor of the Company. Except as expressly provided for herein, nothing in this Guarantee shall be deemed to create any right in any Person not a party hereto, and this instrument shall not be construed in any respect to be a contract in whole or in part for the benefit of any third Person.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has caused this Guarantee to be duly executed and delivered by its duly authorized officer as of the day and year first above written.

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, L.P.

1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

INCENTIVE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

THIS INCENTIVE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement"), effective the _____ day of_____, [1998] [1999] by and between SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation (formerly Corporate Property Investors, Inc.) (the "Company"), and HANS C. MAUTNER ("Employee").

BACKGROUND

By action of its Board of Directors and Stockholders, the Company has adopted the Simon Property Group, L.P. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), under which the Company may grant stock options and other stock awards to employees of the Company. The Plan is administered by a committee ("Committee") appointed by Simon Property Group, L.P. (the "Partnership") that has authority to grant stock options to officers and other key employees of the Company and, subject to the provisions of the Plan, to determine the employees to whom and the time or times at which options will be granted, the number of shares to be covered by each option, the period of time and requisite conditions for exercising an option and the terms and provisions of the option agreements.

THE OPTION

The Committee has determined to grant a stock option to Employee, and Employee, by his execution of this Agreement, agrees to accept the stock option, subject to the following terms and conditions of the Plan:

SECTION 1. Grant of Option.

a. Number of Shares. The Company grants to Employee the right and option to purchase, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Plan, a total of _____ shares of common stock of the Company, par value $.0001) per share ("Common Stock"), which shares are designated as shares granted under an incentive stock option (as that term is described in Section 1(d) below).

b. Option Price. The purchase price of all such shares of Common Stock shall be $ per share.

c. "Option" Defined. The option granted hereby and all of Employee's rights under this Agreement and the Plan are referred to collectively as the "Option."

d. Tax Status of Option. The Option is designated as constituting an "incentive stock option" that is qualified under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

SECTION 2. Vesting of Options. [Such Option vests as to 1/3 of the total amount of shares of Common Stock covered by such Option on the anniversary of the date of grant in each of the years 1999-2001. In addition, such Option immediately vests as to all of the shares of Common Stock in the event of Employee's death during employment with the Company, Disability, retirement from the Company or any of its affiliates after attaining age 62 ("Retirement"), or discharge without Cause or the Employee's voluntary termination of employment for Good Reason, or upon a Change of Control (each such term as defined in Section 3 below).]1 [Such Option vests as to 1/2 of the total amount of shares of Common Stock covered by the Option on the anniversary of the date of grant in each of the years 2000-2001.]2

SECTION 3. Definitions. (a) "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason." For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason" shall have the meanings attributed to them in the Employee's Employment Agreement dated as of , 1998 ("Employment Agreement").

(b) "Change of Control". For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Change of Control" shall have the meaning attributed to it in Section 4.5 of the Plan.

SECTION 4. Termination of Option.

a. Termination for Cause or Resignation without Good Reason. If Employee's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or he voluntarily resigns without Good Reason (other than as a result of death, Retirement or Disability) the Option to the extent unexercised shall expire on the date of such termination.

1 To be used for options granted on the Effective Date of the Merger.

2 To be used for options granted on the first anniversary of the Effective Date of the Merger.

3

b. Other Termination. If, before the Option vests as provided in Section 2 above, Employee's employment with the Company terminates as a result of death, Disability, Retirement, or discharge without Cause, or the Employee's voluntary termination of employment for Good Reason, the Option shall become vested in accordance with Section 2 and be exercised in accordance with Section 6.

SECTION 5. Exercise of Option.

a. Exercise Period - General. Subject to the provisions of Sections 5(b) below, Employee may exercise the Option to purchase the vested shares at any time (whether while serving as an employee of the Company or after ceasing to be an employee of the Company), and from time to time (but not as to less than 50 shares at any one time), on and after the date such shares have vested as provided in Section 2 above through and including _____ ___, [2008] [2009] [ten year anniversary] (the "Expiration Date").

b. Exercise Period - Death or Disability or Retirement. If Employee (i) voluntarily terminates employment for Good Reason, (ii) terminates employment due to a discharge without Cause, (iii) dies or incurs a Disability either while serving as an employee of the Company or after ceasing to be an employee of the Company while the Option is still outstanding, or (iv) terminates due to Retirement, the Option may be exercised with respect to the vested optioned shares by Employee or by the executor, administrator or personal representative of Employee's estate or other person entitled by law to Employee's rights under the Option at any time through and including the Expiration Date.

c. Exercise before the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in no event may the Option or any portion of the Option be exercised after _____ __, [2008] [ten year anniversary].

SECTION 6. Manner of Exercise; Notices. The Option shall be exercised by filing with the Partnership a written notice of Employee's intention to purchase such shares, specifying the number of shares (but not less than 50 shares at any one time) and the date that the purchase is to occur. Payment of the option price may be made (i) by certified or official bank check payable to the Company (or the equivalent thereof acceptable to the Committee) or, with the consent of the Committee, by personal check (subject to collection), (ii) through the delivery of previously owned Common Stock that has been owned by Employee for at least six months and that has a fair market value equal to the option price, or (iii) with the consent of the Committee, by the promissory note and agreement of the Employee providing for payment with interest on the unpaid balance accruing at a rate not less than that needed to avoid the imputation of income under Code section 7872 and upon such terms and conditions (including the security, if any, therefor) as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion; or (iv) by a combination of the foregoing. Full payment must be made for all shares to be purchased before the shares will be released to Employee. Payment in accordance with clause (i) above may be deemed to be satisfied, by delivery to the Company of an assignment of a sufficient amount of the proceeds from the sale of Common Stock acquired upon exercise to pay for all of the Common Stock acquired upon exercise and an authorization to the broker or selling agent to pay that amount to the Company, which sale shall be made at the Employee's direction at the time of exercise, provided that the Committee may require the Employee to furnish an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Committee to the effect that such delivery would not result in the grantee incurring any liability under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and does not require any consent (as defined in Section 5.3 of the Plan).

The exercise notice shall be addressed to the [General Counsel of the Partnership at 115 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204], or at such other address as the Company designates in writing to Employee. Any notice to Employee shall be sent to his address as shown in the records of the Company or at such other address as Employee designates in writing to the Company. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been duly given if it is personally delivered or registered and deposited, postage and registry fee prepaid, in a United States Post Office.

For purposes of this Section 6, the "fair market value" of any shares of Common Stock that are delivered in payment of the option price shall be equal to (i) the last sale price for Common Stock for the business day immediately preceding the date on which any portion of the Option is exercised as reported on the New York Stock Exchange, or, if Common Stock is not traded on the New York Stock Exchange, on the exchange on which such Common Stock is principally traded, or, if no sale price is reported for such day, the first preceding business day for which a sale price for Common Stock is reported.

SECTION 7. Reload Option. If Employee delivers shares of Common Stock in payment of the option price of the Option, Employee shall be issued a new stock option (the "Reload Option"), under the Plan or any subsequently adopted Company stock incentive or stock option plan (collectively, the "Plans") that has Common Stock available for option grant, upon the following terms: (i) the number of option shares of Common Stock granted under the Reload Option shall be equal to the number of shares of Common Stock that were delivered in payment of the option price of the Option plus, if so provided by the Committee, the shares retained by the Company to satisfy any Federal, state or local tax withholding requirements in connection with the exercise of the Option; (ii) the option exercise price of the Reload Option shall be equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the day on which the Reload Option was granted, or, if Common Stock is not then traded on the New York Stock Exchange, on the exchange on which such Common Stock is principally traded; (iii) the Reload Option shall have a term equal to the remaining term of the original Option to which it relates (subject to earlier termination as provided in the Plan and this Agreement); (iv) the Reload Option shall vest immediately, and (v) no Reload Option may be exercised within one year from the date on which the Reload Option was granted.

SECTION 8. Tax Provisions. At the request of Employee, the Company shall retain or accept a sufficient number of shares in connection with the receipt or exercise of the Option or a sale of the underlying shares to satisfy the Company's tax withholding obligations, if any, or Employee's tax liabilities with respect to such transactions.

SECTION 9. Adjustments upon Certain Changes in the Common Stock. If and to the extent specified by the Committee, the number of shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Option, the Option exercise price, and the amount payable by the Employee as the exercise price, shall be appropriately adjusted (as the Committee may determine) for any change in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from the subdivision or combination of shares of Common Stock or other capital adjustments, or the payment of a stock dividend or other change in such shares of Common Stock effected without receipt of consideration by the Company; provided that any awards covering fractional shares of Common Stock resulting from any such adjustment shall be eliminated.

SECTION 10. Employee's Rights Prior to Issuance of Shares. Employee shall not be, nor shall Employee have any of the rights or privileges of, a stockholder of the Company with regard to any of the shares issuable upon exercise of the Option unless and until a physical stock certificate for such shares has been issued or such shares have been credited to Employee's account under a book entry or comparable system.

SECTION 11. Assignment or Transfer. The Option shall not be transferable by the Employee other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution and may be exercised during the Employee's lifetime only by the Employee. No assignment or transfer of this Option, or of the rights represented thereby, whether voluntary or involuntary, by operation of law or otherwise, shall vest in the purported assignee or transferee any interest or right herein whatsoever.

SECTION 12. Continued Employment. Employee shall have no duty or obligation to remain in the employ of the Company. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to confer upon Employee any right to continue in the employ of the Company or to interfere in any way with the right of the Company to terminate the employment of Employee, which is at will, at any time, subject to the terms of his Employment Agreement.

SECTION 13. Binding on Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and Employee and their respective successors, representatives and assigns.

SECTION 14. Captions. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience and reference only and in no way define, describe, extend or limit the scope or intent of any of its provisions.

SECTION 15. Amendments. This Agreement may only be amended in writing and with the mutual consent of the Company and Employee.

SECTION 16. Applicable Law. This Agreement and any disputes arising under this Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware and any applicable laws of the United States of America.

7

1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

INCENTIVE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

THIS INCENTIVE STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement"), effective the _____ day of _____, [1998] [1999] by and between SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation (formerly Corporate Property Investors, Inc.) (the "Company"), and MARK S. TICOTIN ("Employee").

BACKGROUND

By action of its Board of Directors and Stockholders, the Company has adopted the Simon Property Group, L.P. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), under which the Company may grant stock options and other stock awards to employees of the Company. The Plan is administered by a committee ("Committee") appointed by Simon Property Group, L.P. (the "Partnership") that has authority to grant stock options to officers and other key employees of the Company and, subject to the provisions of the Plan, to determine the employees to whom and the time or times at which options will be granted, the number of shares to be covered by each option, the period of time and requisite conditions for exercising an option and the terms and provisions of the option agreements.

THE OPTION

The Committee has determined to grant a stock option to Employee, and Employee, by his execution of this Agreement, agrees to accept the stock option, subject to the following terms and conditions of the Plan:

SECTION 1. Grant of Option.

a. Number of Shares. The Company grants to Employee the right and option to purchase, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Plan, a total of shares of common stock of the Company, par value $.0001 per share ("Common Stock"), which shares are designated as shares granted under an incentive stock option (as that term is described in Section 1(d) below).

b. Option Price. The purchase price of all such shares of Common Stock shall be $ per share.

c. "Option" Defined. The option granted hereby and all of Employee's rights under this Agreement and the Plan are referred to collectively as the "Option."

d. Tax Status of Option. The Option is designated as constituting an "incentive stock option" under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

SECTION 2. Vesting of Options. [Such Option vests as to 1/3 of the total amount of shares of Common Stock covered by such Option on the anniversary of the date of grant in each of the years 1999-2001. In addition, such Option immediately vests as to all of the shares of Common Stock in the event of Employee's death during employment with the Company, Disability, retirement from the Company or any of its affiliates after attaining age 62 ("Retirement"), or discharge without Cause or the Employee's voluntary termination of employment for Good Reason, or upon a Change of Control (each such term as defined in Section 3 below).]1 [Such Option vests as to 1/2 of the total amount of shares of Common Stock covered by the Option on the anniversary of the date of grant in each of the years 2000-2001.]2

SECTION 3. Definitions. (a) "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason." For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason" shall have the meanings attributed to them in the Employee's Employment Agreement dated as of _____, 1998 ("Employment Agreement").

(b) "Change of Control". For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Change of Control" shall have the meaning attributed to it in Section 4.5 of the Plan.

SECTION 4. Termination of Option.

a. Termination for Cause or Resignation without Good Reason. If Employee's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or he voluntarily resigns without Good Reason (other than as a result of death, Retirement or Disability) all unexercised rights under the Option shall expire on the date of such termination.

(1) To be used for options granted on the Effective Date of the Merger.

(2) To be used for options granted on the first anniversary of the Effective Date of the Merger.

b. Other Termination. If, before the Option vests as provided in Section 2 above, Employee's employment with the Company terminates as a result of death, Disability, Retirement, or discharge without Cause, or the Employee's voluntary termination of employment for Good Reason, the Option shall become vested in accordance with Section 2 and be exercised in accordance with Section 6.

SECTION 5. Exercise of Option.

a. Exercise Period - General. Subject to the provisions of Sections 5(b) below, Employee may exercise the Option to purchase the vested shares at any time (whether while serving as an employee of the Company or after ceasing to be an employee of the Company), and from time to time (but not as to less than 50 shares at any one time), on and after the date such shares have vested as provided in Section 2 above through and including _____ ___, [2008] [2009] [ten year anniversary] (the "Expiration Date"), notwithstanding that Employee may forfeit the favorable tax treatment afforded the Option if Employee exercises the Option later than three (3) months after such termination.

b. Exercise Period - Death or Disability or Retirement. If Employee (i) voluntarily terminates employment for Good Reason, (ii) terminates employment due to a discharge without Cause, (iii) dies or incurs a Disability either while serving as an employee of the Company or after ceasing to be an employee of the Company while the Option is still outstanding, or (iv) terminates due to Retirement, the Option may be exercised with respect to the vested optioned shares by Employee or by the executor, administrator or personal representative of Employee's estate or other person entitled by law to Employee's rights under the Option at any time through and including the Expiration Date.

c. Exercise before the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in no event may the Option or any portion of the Option be exercised after _____ __, [2008] [2009] [ten year anniversary].

SECTION 6. Manner of Exercise; Notices. The Option shall be exercised by filing with the Partnership a written notice of Employee's intention to purchase such shares, specifying the number of shares (but not less than 50 shares at any one time) and the date that the purchase is to occur. Payment of the option price may be made (i) by certified or official bank check payable to the Company (or the equivalent thereof acceptable to the Committee) or, with the consent of the Committee, by personal check (subject to collection), (ii) through the delivery of previously owned Common Stock that has been owned by Employee for at least six months and that has a fair market value equal to the option price, or (iii) with the consent of the Committee, by the promissory note and agreement of the Employee providing for payment with interest on the unpaid balance accruing at a rate not less than that needed to avoid the imputation of income under Code section 7872 and upon such terms and conditions (including the security, if any, therefor) as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion; or (iv) by a combination of the foregoing. Full payment must be made for all shares to be purchased before the shares will be released to Employee. Payment in accordance with clause (i) above may be deemed to be satisfied, by delivery to the Company of an assignment of a sufficient amount of the proceeds from the sale of Common Stock acquired upon exercise to pay for all of the Common Stock acquired upon exercise and an authorization to the broker or selling agent to pay that amount to the Company, which sale shall be made at the Employee's direction at the time of exercise, provided that the Committee may require the Employee to furnish an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Committee to the effect that such delivery would not result in the grantee incurring any liability under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and does not require any consent (as defined in Section 5.3 of the Plan).

The exercise notice shall be addressed to the General Counsel of the Partnership at 115 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, or at such other address as the Company designates in writing to Employee. Any notice to Employee shall be sent to his address as shown in the records of the Company or at such other address as Employee designates in writing to the Company. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been duly given if it is personally delivered or registered and deposited, postage and registry fee prepaid, in a United States Post Office.

For purposes of this Section 6, the "fair market value" of any shares of Common Stock that are delivered in payment of the option price shall be equal to (i) the last sale price for Common Stock for the business day immediately preceding the date on which any portion of the Option is exercised as reported on the New York Stock Exchange, or, if Common Stock is not traded on the New York Stock Exchange, on the exchange on which such Common Stock is principally traded, or, if no sale price is reported for such day, the first preceding business day for which a sale price for Common Stock is reported.

SECTION 7. Reload Option. If Employee delivers shares of Common Stock in payment of the option price of the Option, Employee shall be issued a new stock option (the "Reload Option"), under the Plan or any subsequently adopted Company stock incentive or stock option plan (collectively, the "Plans") that has Common Stock available for option grant, upon the following terms: (i) the number of option shares of Common Stock granted under the Reload Option shall be equal to the number of shares of Common Stock that were delivered in payment of the option price of the Option plus, if so provided by the Committee, the shares retained by the Company to satisfy any Federal, state or local tax withholding requirements in connection with the exercise of the Option; (ii) the option exercise price of the Reload Option shall be equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the day on which the Reload Option was granted, or, if Common Stock is not then traded on the New York Stock Exchange, on the exchange on which such Common Stock is principally traded; (iii) the Reload Option shall have a term equal to the remaining term of the original Option to which it relates (subject to earlier termination as provided in the Plan and this Agreement); (iv) the Reload Option shall vest immediately, and (v) no Reload Option may be exercised within one year from the date on which the Reload Option was granted.

SECTION 8. Tax Provisions. At the request of Employee, the Company shall retain or accept a sufficient number of shares in connection with the receipt or exercise of the Option or a sale of the underlying shares to satisfy the Company's tax withholding obligations, if any, or Employee's tax liabilities with respect to such transactions.

SECTION 9. Adjustments upon Certain Changes in the Common Stock. If and to the extent specified by the Committee, the number of shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Option, the Option exercise price, and the amount payable by the Employee as the exercise price, shall be appropriately adjusted (as the Committee may determine) for any change in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from the subdivision or combination of shares of Common Stock or other capital adjustments, or the payment of a stock dividend or other change in such shares of Common Stock effected without receipt of consideration by the Company; provided that any awards covering fractional shares of Common Stock resulting from any such adjustment shall be eliminated and provided further, that each Option shall not be adjusted in a manner that causes such Option to fail to continue to qualify as an incentive stock option within the meaning of Code Section 422.

SECTION 10. Employee's Rights Prior to Issuance of Shares. Employee shall not be, nor shall Employee have any of the rights or privileges of, a stockholder of the Company with regard to any of the shares issuable upon exercise of the Option unless and until a physical stock certificate for such shares has been issued or such shares have been credited to Employee's account under a book entry or comparable system.

SECTION 11. Assignment or Transfer. The Option shall not be transferable by the Employee other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution and may be exercised during the Employee's lifetime only by the Employee. No assignment or transfer of this Option, or of the rights represented thereby, whether voluntary or involuntary, by operation of law or otherwise, shall vest in the purported assignee or transferee any interest or right herein whatsoever.

SECTION 12. Continued Employment. Employee shall have no duty or obligation to remain in the employ of the Company. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to confer upon Employee any right to continue in the employ of the Company or to interfere in any way with the right of the Company to terminate the employment of Employee, which is at will, at any time, subject to the terms of his Employment Agreement.

SECTION 13. Binding on Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and Employee and their respective successors, representatives and assigns.

SECTION 14. Captions. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience and reference only and in no way define, describe, extend or limit the scope or intent of any of its provisions.

SECTION 15. Amendments. This Agreement may only be amended in writing and with the mutual consent of the Company and Employee.

SECTION 16. Applicable Law. This Agreement and any disputes arising under this Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware and any applicable laws of the United States of America.

7

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, L.P.

1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

NONQUALIFIED STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

THIS NONQUALIFIED STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement"), effective the _____ day of _____, [1998] [1999] by and between SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation (formerly Corporate Property Investors, Inc.) (the "Company"), and HANS C. MAUTNER ("Employee").

BACKGROUND

By action of its Board of Directors and Stockholders, the Company has adopted the Simon Property Group, L.P. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), under which the Company may grant stock options and other stock awards to employees of the Company. The Plan is administered by a committee ("Committee") appointed by Simon Property Group, L.P. (the "Partnership") that has authority to grant stock options to officers and other key employees of the Company and, subject to the provisions of the Plan, to determine the employees to whom and the time or times at which options will be granted, the number of shares to be covered by each option, the period of time and requisite conditions for exercising an option and the terms and provisions of the option agreements.

THE OPTION

The Committee has determined to grant a stock option to Employee, and Employee, by his execution of this Agreement, agrees to accept the stock option, subject to the following terms and conditions of the Plan:

SECTION 1. Grant of Option.

a. Number of Shares. The Company grants to Employee the right and option to purchase, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Plan, a total of shares(1) of common stock of the Company, par value $.0001 per share ("Common Stock"), which shares are designated as shares granted under a nonqualified stock option (as that term is described in Section 1(d) below).

- -------- (1) 300,000 reduced by the number of incentive stock options granted.

b. Option Price. The purchase price of all such shares of Common Stock shall be $ per share.

c. "Option" Defined. The option granted hereby and all of Employee's rights under this Agreement and the Plan are referred to collectively as the "Option."

d. Tax Status of Option. The Option is designated as constituting a "nonqualified stock option" that is not qualified under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

SECTION 2. Vesting of Options. [Such Option vests as to 1/3 of the total amount of shares of Common Stock covered by such Option on the anniversary of the date of grant in each of the years 1999- 2001. In addition, such Option immediately vests as to all of the shares of Common Stock in the event of Employee's death during employment with the Company, Disability, retirement from the Company or any of its affiliates after attaining age 62 ("Retirement"), or discharge without Cause or the Employee's voluntary termination of employment for Good Reason, or upon a Change of Control (each such term as defined in Section 3 below).] (1)Such Option vests as to 1/2 of the total amount of shares of Common Stock covered by the Option on the anniversary of the date of grant in each of the years 2000-2001.

SECTION 3. Definitions. (a) "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason." For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason" shall have the meanings attributed to them in the Employee's Employment Agreement dated as of _____, 1998 ("Employment Agreement").

(b) "Change of Control". For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Change of Control" shall have the meaning attributed to it in Section 4.5 of the Plan.

SECTION 4. Termination of Option.

a. Termination for Cause or Resignation without Good Reason. If Employee's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or he voluntarily resigns without Good Reason (other than as a result of death, Retirement or Disability, all unexercised rights under the Option shall expire on the date of such termination.

(1) To be used for options granted on the Effective Date of the Merger.
(2) To be used for options granted on the first anniversary of the Effective Date of the Merger.

3

b. Other Termination. If, before the Option vests as provided in Section 2 above, Employee's employment with the Company terminates as a result of death, Disability, Retirement, or discharge without Cause, or the Employee's voluntary termination of employment for Good Reason, the Option shall become vested in accordance with Section 2 and be exercised in accordance with Section 6.

SECTION 5. Exercise of Option.

a. Exercise Period - General. Subject to the provisions of Sections 5(b) below, Employee may exercise the Option to purchase the vested shares at any time (whether while serving as an employee of the Company or after ceasing to be an employee of the Company), and from time to time (but not as to less than 50 shares at any one time), on and after the date such shares have vested as provided in Section 2 above through and including _____ ___, [2008] [2009] [ten year anniversary] (the "Expiration Date").

b. Exercise Period - Death or Disability or Retirement. If Employee (i) voluntarily terminates employment for Good Reason, (ii) terminates employment due to a discharge without Cause, (iii) dies or incurs a Disability either while serving as an employee of the Company or after ceasing to be an employee of the Company while the Option is still outstanding, or (iv) terminates due to Retirement, the Option may be exercised with respect to the vested optioned shares by Employee or by the executor, administrator or personal representative of Employee's estate or other person entitled by law to Employee's rights under the Option at any time through and including the Expiration Date.

c. Exercise before the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in no event may the Option or any portion of the Option be exercised after _____ __, [2008] [2009] [ten year anniversary].

SECTION 6. Manner of Exercise; Notices. The Option shall be exercised by filing with the Partnership a written notice of Employee's intention to purchase such shares, specifying the number of shares (but not less than 50 shares at any one time) and the date that the purchase is to occur. Payment of the option price may be made (i) by certified or official bank check payable to the Company (or the equivalent thereof acceptable to the Committee) or, with the consent of the Committee, by personal check (subject to collection), (ii) through the delivery of previously owned Common Stock that has been owned by Employee for at least six months and that has a fair market value equal to the option price, or (iii) with the consent of the Committee, by the promissory note and agreement of the Employee providing for payment with interest on the unpaid balance accruing at a rate not less than that needed to avoid the imputation of income under Code section 7872 and upon such terms and conditions (including the security, if any, therefor) as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion; or (iv) by a combination of the foregoing. Full payment must be made for all shares to be purchased before the shares will be released to Employee. Payment in accordance with clause (i) above may be deemed to be satisfied, by delivery to the Company of an assignment of a sufficient amount of the proceeds from the sale of Common Stock acquired upon exercise to pay for all of the Common Stock acquired upon exercise and an authorization to the broker or selling agent to pay that amount to the Company, which sale shall be made at the Employee's direction at the time of exercise, provided that the Committee may require the Employee to furnish an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Committee to the effect that such delivery would not result in the grantee incurring any liability under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and does not require any consent (as defined in Section 5.3 of the Plan).

The exercise notice shall be addressed to the General Counsel of the Partnership at 115 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, or at such other address as the Company designates in writing to Employee. Any notice to Employee shall be sent to his address as shown in the records of the Company or at such other address as Employee designates in writing to the Company. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been duly given if it is personally delivered or registered and deposited, postage and registry fee prepaid, in a United States Post Office.

For purposes of this Section 6, the "fair market value" of any shares of Common Stock that are delivered in payment of the option price shall be equal to (i) the last sale price for Common Stock for the business day immediately preceding the date on which any portion of the Option is exercised as reported on the New York Stock Exchange, or, if Common Stock is not traded on the New York Stock Exchange, on the exchange on which such Common Stock is principally traded, or, if no sale price is reported for such day, the first preceding business day for which a sale price for Common Stock is reported.

"Reload Option"), under the Plan or any subsequently adopted Company stock incentive or stock option plan (collectively, the "Plans") that has Common Stock available for option grant, upon the following terms: (i) the number of option shares of Common Stock granted under the Reload Option shall be equal to the number of shares of Common Stock that were delivered in payment of the option price of the Option plus, if so provided by the Committee, the shares retained by the Company to satisfy any Federal, state or local tax withholding requirements in connection with the exercise of the Option; (ii) the option exercise price of the Reload Option shall be equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the day on which the Reload Option was granted, or, if Common Stock is not then traded on the New York Stock Exchange, on the exchange on which such Common Stock is principally traded; (iii) the Reload Option shall have a term equal to the remaining term of the original Option to which it relates (subject to earlier termination as provided in the Plan and this Agreement); (iv) the Reload Option shall vest immediately, and (v) no Reload Option may be exercised within one year from the date on which the Reload Option was granted.

SECTION 8. Tax Provisions. At the request of Employee, the Company shall retain or accept a sufficient number of shares in connection with the receipt or exercise of the Option or a sale of the underlying shares to satisfy the Company's tax withholding obligations, if any, or Employee's tax liabilities with respect to such transactions.

SECTION 9. Adjustments upon Certain Changes in the Common Stock. If and to the extent specified by the Committee, the number of shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Option, the Option exercise price, and the amount payable by the Employee as the exercise price, shall be appropriately adjusted (as the Committee may determine) for any change in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from the subdivision or combination of shares of Common Stock or other capital adjustments, or the payment of a stock dividend or other change in such shares of Common Stock effected without receipt of consideration by the Company; provided that any awards covering fractional shares of Common Stock resulting from any such adjustment shall be eliminated.

SECTION 10. Employee's Rights Prior to Issuance of Shares. Employee shall not be, nor shall Employee have any of the rights or privileges of, a stockholder of the Company with regard to any of the shares issuable upon exercise of the Option unless and until a physical stock certificate for such shares has been issued or such shares have been credited to Employee's account under a book entry or comparable system.

SECTION 11. Assignment or Transfer. The Option shall not be transferable by the Employee other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution and may be exercised during the Employee's lifetime only by the Employee or by his or her guardian or legal representative, except that the Option may be transferred by gift to any member of the Optionee's immediate family or to a trust for the benefit of one or more of such immediate family members. "Immediate family" shall mean the Optionee's spouse, parents, children or grandchildren. Any transferee of the Option shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. No such transfer of the Option shall be effective to bind the Company unless the Company shall have been furnished with written notice thereof and a copy of the will and/or such other evidence as the Company may deem necessary to establish the validity of the transfer and the acceptance by the transferee or transferees of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Except as described above, no assignment or transfer of this Option, or of the rights represented thereby, whether voluntary or involuntary, by operation of law or otherwise, shall vest in the purported assignee or transferee any interest or right herein whatsoever.

SECTION 12. Continued Employment. Employee shall have no duty or obligation to remain in the employ of the Company. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to confer upon Employee any right to continue in the employ of the Company or to interfere in any way with the right of the Company to terminate the employment of Employee, which is at will, at any time, subject to the terms of his Employment Agreement.

SECTION 13. Binding on Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and Employee and their respective successors, representatives and assigns.

SECTION 14. Captions. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience and reference only and in no way define, describe, extend or limit the scope or intent of any of its provisions.

SECTION 15. Amendments. This Agreement may only be amended in writing and with the mutual consent of the Company and Employee.

SECTION 16. Applicable Law. This Agreement and any disputes arising under this Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware and any applicable laws of the United States of America.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and Employee have executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

NONQUALIFIED STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT

THIS NONQUALIFIED STOCK OPTION AGREEMENT ("Agreement"), effective the _____ day of _____, [1998] [1999] by and between SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC., a Delaware corporation (formerly Corporate Property Investors, Inc.) (the "Company"), and MARK S. TICOTIN ("Employee").

BACKGROUND

By action of its Board of Directors and Stockholders, the Company has adopted the Simon Property Group, L.P. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), under which the Company may grant stock options and other stock awards to employees of the Company. The Plan is administered by a committee ("Committee") appointed by Simon Property Group, L.P. (the "Partnership") that has authority to grant stock options to officers and other key employees of the Company and, subject to the provisions of the Plan, to determine the employees to whom and the time or times at which options will be granted, the number of shares to be covered by each option, the period of time and requisite conditions for exercising an option and the terms and provisions of the option agreements.

THE OPTION

The Committee has determined to grant a stock option to Employee, and Employee, by his execution of this Agreement, agrees to accept the stock option, subject to the following terms and conditions of the Plan:

SECTION 1. Grant of Option.

a. Number of Shares. The Company grants to Employee the right and option to purchase, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Plan, a total of shares(1) of common stock of the Company, par value $.0001 per share ("Common Stock"), which shares are designated as shares granted under a nonqualified stock option (as that term is described in Section 1(d) below).

- --------

(1) 180,000 reduced by the number of incentive stock options granted.

b. Option Price. The purchase price of all such shares of Common Stock shall be $ per share.

d. Tax Status of Option. The Option is designated as constituting a "nonqualified stock option" that is not qualified under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

SECTION 2. Vesting of Options. [Such Option vests as to 1/3 of the total amount of shares of Common Stock covered by such Option on the anniversary of the date of grant in each of the years 1999- 2001. In addition, such Option immediately vests as to all of the shares of Common Stock in the event of Employee's death during employment with the Company, Disability, retirement from the Company or any of its affiliates after attaining age 62 ("Retirement"), or discharge without Cause or the Employee's voluntary termination of employment for Good Reason, or upon a Change of Control (each such term as defined in Section 3 below).] (1)Such Option vests as to 1/2 of the total amount of shares of Common Stock covered by the Option on the anniversary of the date of grant in each of the years 2000-2001.

SECTION 3. Definitions. (a) "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason." For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Cause", "Disability" and "Good Reason" shall have the meanings attributed to them in the Employee's Employment Agreement dated as of , 1998 ("Employment Agreement").

(b) "Change of Control". For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Change of Control" shall have the meaning attributed to it in Section 4.5 of the Plan.

SECTION 4. Termination of Option.

a. Termination for Cause or Resignation without Good Reason. If Employee's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause or he voluntarily resigns without Good Reason (other than as a result of death, Retirement or Disability, all unexercised rights under the Option shall expire on the date of such termination.

(1) To be used for options granted on the Effective Date of the Merger.
(2) To be used for options granted on the first anniversary of the Effective Date of the Merger.

3

b. Other Termination. If, before the Option vests as provided in Section 2 above, Employee's employment with the Company terminates as a result of death, Disability, Retirement, or discharge without Cause, or the Employee's voluntary termination of employment for Good Reason, the Option shall become vested in accordance with Section 2 and be exercised in accordance with Section 6.

SECTION 5. Exercise of Option.

a. Exercise Period - General. Subject to the provisions of Sections 5(b) below, Employee may exercise the Option to purchase the vested shares at any time (whether while serving as an employee of the Company or after ceasing to be an employee of the Company), and from time to time (but not as to less than 50 shares at any one time), on and after the date such shares have vested as provided in Section 2 above through and including _____ ___, [2008] [2009] [ten year anniversary] (the "Expiration Date").

b. Exercise Period - Death or Disability or Retirement. If Employee (i) voluntarily terminates employment for Good Reason, (ii) terminates employment due to a discharge without Cause, (iii) dies or incurs a Disability either while serving as an employee of the Company or after ceasing to be an employee of the Company while the Option is still outstanding, or (iv) terminates due to Retirement, the Option may be exercised with respect to the vested optioned shares by Employee or by the executor, administrator or personal representative of Employee's estate or other person entitled by law to Employee's rights under the Option at any time through and including the Expiration Date.

c. Exercise before the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in no event may the Option or any portion of the Option be exercised after _____ __, [2008] [2009] [ten year anniversary].

SECTION 6. Manner of Exercise; Notices. The Option shall be exercised by filing with the Partnership a written notice of Employee's intention to purchase such shares, specifying the number of shares (but not less than 50 shares at any one time) and the date that the purchase is to occur. Payment of the option price may be made (i) by certified or official bank check payable to the Company (or the equivalent thereof acceptable to the Committee) or, with the consent of the Committee, by personal check (subject to collection), (ii) through the delivery of previously owned Common Stock that has been owned by Employee for at least six months and that has a fair market value equal to the option price, or (iii) with the consent of the Committee, by the promissory note and agreement of the Employee providing for payment with interest on the unpaid balance accruing at a rate not less than that needed to avoid the imputation of income under Code section 7872 and upon such terms and conditions (including the security, if any, therefor) as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion; or (iv) by a combination of the foregoing. Full payment must be made for all shares to be purchased before the shares will be released to Employee. Payment in accordance with clause (i) above may be deemed to be satisfied, by delivery to the Company of an assignment of a sufficient amount of the proceeds from the sale of Common Stock acquired upon exercise to pay for all of the Common Stock acquired upon exercise and an authorization to the broker or selling agent to pay that amount to the Company, which sale shall be made at the Employee's direction at the time of exercise, provided that the Committee may require the Employee to furnish an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Committee to the effect that such delivery would not result in the grantee incurring any liability under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and does not require any consent (as defined in Section 5.3 of the Plan).

The exercise notice shall be addressed to the General Counsel of the Partnership at 115 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, or at such other address as the Company designates in writing to Employee. Any notice to Employee shall be sent to his address as shown in the records of the Company or at such other address as Employee designates in writing to the Company. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been duly given if it is personally delivered or registered and deposited, postage and registry fee prepaid, in a United States Post Office.

For purposes of this Section 6, the "fair market value" of any shares of Common Stock that are delivered in payment of the option price shall be equal to (i) the last sale price for Common Stock for the business day immediately preceding the date on which any portion of the Option is exercised as reported on the New York Stock Exchange, or, if Common Stock is not traded on the New York Stock Exchange, on the exchange on which such Common Stock is principally traded, or, if no sale price is reported for such day, the first preceding business day for which a sale price for Common Stock is reported.

"Reload Option"), under the Plan or any subsequently adopted Company stock incentive or stock option plan (collectively, the "Plans") that has Common Stock available for option grant, upon the following terms: (i) the number of option shares of Common Stock granted under the Reload Option shall be equal to the number of shares of Common Stock that were delivered in payment of the option price of the Option plus, if so provided by the Committee, the shares retained by the Company to satisfy any Federal, state or local tax withholding requirements in connection with the exercise of the Option; (ii) the option exercise price of the Reload Option shall be equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the day on which the Reload Option was granted, or, if Common Stock is not then traded on the New York Stock Exchange, on the exchange on which such Common Stock is principally traded; (iii) the Reload Option shall have a term equal to the remaining term of the original Option to which it relates (subject to earlier termination as provided in the Plan and this Agreement); (iv) the Reload Option shall vest immediately, and (v) no Reload Option may be exercised within one year from the date on which the Reload Option was granted.

SECTION 8. Tax Provisions. At the request of Employee, the Company shall retain or accept a sufficient number of shares in connection with the receipt or exercise of the Option or a sale of the underlying shares to satisfy the Company's tax withholding obligations, if any, or Employee's tax liabilities with respect to such transactions.

SECTION 9. Adjustments upon Certain Changes in the Common Stock. If and to the extent specified by the Committee, the number of shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Option, the Option exercise price, and the amount payable by the Employee as the exercise price, shall be appropriately adjusted (as the Committee may determine) for any change in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from the subdivision or combination of shares of Common Stock or other capital adjustments, or the payment of a stock dividend or other change in such shares of Common Stock effected without receipt of consideration by the Company; provided that any awards covering fractional shares of Common Stock resulting from any such adjustment shall be eliminated.

SECTION 10. Employee's Rights Prior to Issuance of Shares. Employee shall not be, nor shall Employee have any of the rights or privileges of, a stockholder of the Company with regard to any of the shares issuable upon exercise of the Option unless and until a physical stock certificate for such shares has been issued or such shares have been credited to Employee's account under a book entry or comparable system.

SECTION 11. Assignment or Transfer. The Option shall not be transferable by the Employee other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution and may be exercised during the Employee's lifetime only by the Employee or by his or her guardian or legal representative, except that the Option may be transferred by gift to any member of the Optionee's immediate family or to a trust for the benefit of one or more of such immediate family members. "Immediate family" shall mean the Optionee's spouse, parents, children or grandchildren. Any transferee of the Option shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. No such transfer of the Option shall be effective to bind the Company unless the Company shall have been furnished with written notice thereof and a copy of the will and/or such other evidence as the Company may deem necessary to establish the validity of the transfer and the acceptance by the transferee or transferees of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Except as described above, no assignment or transfer of this Option, or of the rights represented thereby, whether voluntary or involuntary, by operation of law or otherwise, shall vest in the purported assignee or transferee any interest or right herein whatsoever.

SECTION 12. Continued Employment. Employee shall have no duty or obligation to remain in the employ of the Company. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to confer upon Employee any right to continue in the employ of the Company or to interfere in any way with the right of the Company to terminate the employment of Employee, which is at will, at any time, subject to the terms of his Employment Agreement.

SECTION 13. Binding on Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and Employee and their respective successors, representatives and assigns.

SECTION 14. Captions. The captions of this Agreement are for convenience and reference only and in no way define, describe, extend or limit the scope or intent of any of its provisions.

SECTION 15. Amendments. This Agreement may only be amended in writing and with the mutual consent of the Company and Employee.

SECTION 16. Applicable Law. This Agreement and any disputes arising under this Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware and any applicable laws of the United States of America.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and Employee have executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This employment agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into this day of , 1998, by and between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, INC., a Delaware corporation and successor by merger to CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust (such entities collectively, the "Company") and HANS C. MAUTNER (the "Executive").

RECITALS

The Executive is currently the Chairman of the Board of Directors (the "Board") and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Company intends to merge with Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., a Maryland corporation ("Simon"), pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of February 18, 1998 among the Company, Simon and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Merger"). The Company desires to retain the Executive as an officer of the Company following the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment, Term and Duties.

1.1 Employment. The Company hereby employs the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment by the Company on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

1.2 Term. The Executive's employment under this Agreement shall commence on the effective date of the Merger (the "Effective Date") and shall terminate on the last day of the month in which the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date occurs (the "Termination Date"), unless earlier terminated as provided in Section 4 below (the "Term").

1.3 Positions and Duties. During the Term, the Executive shall serve as Vice Chairman of the Company and shall be a member of the Executive Committee of the Company (the "Executive Committee"), which committee shall be composed of members appointed by the Board whose employment positions are at the level of Senior Executive Vice President or more senior in the Company. The parties hereto agree that the Executive Committee shall consist of the senior most officers of the Company and shall participate in substantially all major initiatives and decisions made in respect of the Company's day-to-day management and those matters delegated to it by the Board; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prejudice the rights and duties of the person serving as the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), as determined by the Board in accordance with the Company's by-laws. During the Term, the Executive shall report directly to the Co-Chairmen of the Board or the CEO. The parties hereto agree that the Executive, in his capacity as Vice Chairman, shall serve in the most senior position in the Company following the Co-Chairmen of the Board and the CEO. In connection therewith, the Executive's principal focus shall be to assist in the operation of the Company at its most senior level in a manner determined from time to time by the CEO or the Board of Directors. If elected by the Company's shareholders, the Executive shall be and serve as a director of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive may engage in the following activities (and shall be entitled to retain all economic benefits thereof including fees paid in connection therewith) as long as they do not (without the approval of the Company) substantially interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder: (i) serve on corporate, civic, religious, educational and/or charitable boards or committees, (ii) deliver lectures, fulfill speaking engagements or teach on a part-time basis at educational institutions and (iii) make investments in businesses or enterprises and manage his personal investments in accordance with the Company's business and ethics policy. The parties acknowledge that the Executive's participation (and continuing participation) as a director of the commercial corporations listed on Schedule I attached hereto have been approved by the Company. Notwithstanding the above, the Executive shall not be required to perform any duties and responsibilities which would be likely to result in a non-compliance with or violation of any applicable law or regulation.

2. Compensation and Other Benefits.

2.1 Base Compensation. As compensation for services rendered during the Term, the Company shall pay to the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") initially equal to $762,000 subject to increase from time to time by the Board. The Board shall review the Executive's annual Base Salary no less frequently than annually to determine whether any such increase should be made. The Base Salary shall be payable in accordance with the payroll policies of the Company as from time to time in effect, less such amounts as shall be required to be deducted or withheld therefrom by applicable law and regulations.

2.2 Annual Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Executive shall be eligible to receive, for each calendar year or portion thereof occurring during the Term, a targeted annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in an amount up to one hundred thirty-five percent (135%) of the Executive's Base Salary for such calendar year or portion thereof. The amount of any such Annual Bonus shall be determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Committee") in accordance with the standard practice of such Committee relating to the incentive compensation program of the Company. The Annual Bonus shall be paid to the Executive, less such amounts as shall be required to be deducted or withheld therefrom by applicable law and regulations, at such time or times as is in accordance with the then prevailing policy of the Company relating to incentive compensation payments.

2.3 Stock Options. As of the Effective Date, the Company shall grant Executive a stock option to acquire 237,500 shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan ("Stock Incentive Plan"). Such option shall have an option price equal to the fair market value of the Simon Common Stock on the Effective Date and shall vest in equal installments on the anniversary of the date of grant in years 1999-2001. As of the first anniversary of the Effective Date, the Company shall grant Executive a stock option to acquire 62,500 shares of Common Stock of Simon Property Group, Inc. pursuant to the Stock Incentive Plan. Such option shall have an option price equal to fair market value of the Common Stock of Simon Property Group, Inc. on the date of grant and shall vest in equal installments on the anniversary of such date in years 2000-2001. In the event of Executive's termination of employment prior to the first anniversary of the Effective Date for any reason other than for Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason, such option shall be granted as of the date of termination of employment and shall be fully vested as of the date of grant. The maximum number of such options which qualify as "incentive stock options" under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), shall be granted as "incentive stock options" and the remainder of such options shall be non-qualified stock options. The terms, conditions and restrictions with regard to said stock options shall be evidenced by an Incentive Stock Option Agreement (as to the incentive stock options) and a Nonqualified Stock Option Agreement (as to the non-qualified stock options), substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit C-1 and Exhibit C-2 respectively which shall be incorporated herein by reference and their terms, conditions and restrictions shall be considered a part of this Agreement.

2.4 Retirement and Savings Plans. During the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to participate as of the Effective Date in all incentive, pension, retirement, savings, 401(k) and other employee pension benefit plans and programs maintained by the Company from time to time for the benefit of senior executives and/or other employees.

2.5 Welfare Benefit Plans. During the Term, the Executive, the Executive's spouse, if any, and their eligible dependents, if any, shall be eligible to participate as of the Effective Date in and be covered under all the welfare benefit plans or programs maintained by the Company from time to time including, without limitation, all medical, hospitalization, dental, disability, life, estate and financial planning, accidental death and dismemberment and travel accident insurance plans and programs including, without limitation, the split-dollar insurance arrangement between the Company and the Executive, in each case on terms no less favorable than as in effect for senior executive employees of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

2.6 General Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for all expenses that are consistent with the Company's policy and reasonably and necessarily incurred by the Executive during the Term in the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement. Such expenses shall include the cost of a car and driver and any and all Company-related business expenses arising out of activities at clubs at which the Executive is a member. Such payment shall be made upon presentation of such documentation as the Company has, as of the date hereof, customarily required of its senior executive employees prior to making such payments or reimbursements.

2.7 Vacation. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to five weeks of vacation per year. The Executive shall not be permitted to accumulate and carryover unused vacation time or pay from year to year except to the extent permitted in accordance with the Company's vacation policy for senior executives.

2.8 Fringe Benefits. In addition, during the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to use any aircraft owned by the Company for his personal use, provided such aircraft is not otherwise in use by the Company; and such other fringe benefits and perquisites as in effect and as provided from time to time to the senior executives of the Company. The Executive shall reimburse the Company for his personal use of the Company aircraft at a rate equal to the rate the Executive would pay for first class airfare for travel to the same destination on a commercial airline.

2.9 Office and Support Staff. Unless the Executive otherwise agrees in writing, during the Term the Executive shall be entitled to executive secretarial and other administrative assistance of a type and extent, and to an office or offices (with furnishings and other appointments) of a type and size, at least equal to that provided to the Executive immediately prior to the Effective Date.

2.10 Option Plan Participation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Executive shall not be entitled to any new grants of stock options or other awards (other than the grant provided in Section 2.3 hereof) under the Company's Stock Incentive Plan until January 1, 2002 unless the Committee otherwise determines.

3. Non-Competition.

3.1 Covenants Against Competition. The Executive acknowledges that as of the execution of this Employment Agreement (i) the Company is engaged in the business of shopping center and other retail project acquisition, operation and development (the "Business"); (ii) the Company's Business is conducted in various markets throughout the United States; (iii) his employment with the Company will have given him access to confidential information concerning the Company; and (iv) the agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement are essential to protect the business and goodwill of the Company. Accordingly, the Executive covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) Non-Compete. Without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Executive shall not during the Restricted Period (as defined below) within any metropolitan area in which the Company owns any commercial real estate, directly (except in the Executive's capacity as an officer of the Company or any of its affiliates): (i) engage or participate in the Business; (ii) enter the employ of, or render any services (whether or not for a fee or other compensation) to, any person engaged in the Business; or (iii) acquire an equity interest in any such person in any capacity; provided, that the foregoing restrictions shall not apply at any time if the Executive's employment is terminated during the Term by the Executive for Good Reason (as defined below) or by the Company without Cause (as defined below); provided, further, that during the Restricted Period the Executive may own, directly or indirectly, solely as a passive investment, securities of any company traded on any national securities exchange or on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System. As used herein, the "Restricted Period" shall mean the period commencing with the Effective Date and ending on the first anniversary of the last day of the Term.

(b) Confidential Information; Personal Relationships. The Executive acknowledges that the Company has a legitimate and continuing proprietary interest in the protection of its confidential information and has invested substantial sums and will continue to invest substantial sums to develop, maintain and protect confidential information. The Executive agrees that, during and after the Restricted Period, without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Executive shall keep secret and retain in strictest confidence, and shall not knowingly use for the benefit of himself or others all confidential matters relating to the Company's Business including, without limitation, operational methods, marketing or development plans or strategies, business acquisition plans, joint venture proposals or plans, and new personnel acquisition plans, learned by the Executive heretofore or hereafter (such information shall be referred to herein collectively as "Confidential Information"); provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Executive from disclosing or using any Confidential Information (A) in the performance of his duties hereunder, (B) as required by applicable law, regulatory authority, recognized subpoena power or any court of competent jurisdiction, (C) in connection with the enforcement of his rights under this Agreement or any other agreement with the Company, or (D) in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, suit or action brought or threatened against the Executive by or in the right of the Company. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, the term "Confidential Information" shall not be deemed to include any general knowledge, skills or experience acquired by the Executive or any knowledge or information known or available to the public in general (other than as a result of a breach of this provision by the Executive). Moreover, the Executive shall be permitted to retain copies of, or have access to, all such Confidential Information relating to any disagreement, dispute or litigation (pending or threatened) involving the Executive.

(c) Employee of the Company and its Affiliates. During the Restricted Period, without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, hire or solicit, or cause others to hire or solicit, for employment by any person other than the Company or any affiliate or successor thereof, any employee of, or person employed within the two years preceding the Executive's hiring or solicitation of such person by, the Company and its affiliates or successors or encourage any such employee to leave his employment. For this purpose, any person whose employment has been terminated involuntarily by the Company (or any predecessor of the Company) shall be excluded from those persons protected by this Section 3.1(c) for the benefit of the Company.

(d) Business Relationship. During the Restricted Period, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, request or advise a person that has a business relationship with the Company to curtail or cancel such person's business relationship with the Company.

3.2 Rights and Remedies Upon Breach. If the Executive breaches, or threatens to commit a breach of, any of the provisions contained in Section 3.1 of this Agreement (the "Restrictive Covenants"), the Company shall have the following rights and remedies, each of which rights and remedies shall be independent of the others and severally enforceable, and each of which is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to the Company under law or in equity.

(a) Specific Performance. The right and remedy to have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction, it being agreed that any breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants would cause irreparable injury to the Company and that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy to the Company.

(b) Accounting. The right and remedy to require the Executive to account for and pay over to the Company all compensation, profits, monies, accruals, increments or other benefits derived or received by the Executive as the result of any action constituting a breach of Restrictive Covenants.

3.3 Severability of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are reasonable and valid in duration and geographical scope and in all other respects. If any court determines that any of the Restrictive Covenants, or any part thereof, is invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the Restrictive Covenants shall not thereby be affected and shall be given full effect without regard to the invalid portions.

4. Termination.

4.1 Termination Due to Death or Disability. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder due to Disability (as defined below). In the event of the Executive's death or a termination of the Executive's employment by the Company due to Disability, the Executive, his estate or his legal representative, as the case may be, shall be entitled to:

(a) (i) in the case of death, a death benefit in an amount equal to twenty-four months of monthly Base Salary at the rate in effect (as provided for by Section 2.1 of this Agreement but not beyond age 65) on the date of termination plus any amounts paid pursuant to the group and/or individual life insurance policies referred to in Section 2.5 of this Agreement, and (ii) in the case of Disability, an amount equal to twenty-four months of monthly Base Salary at the rate in effect plus any payments received under any long-term disability plan or policy maintained by the Company) for so long as the Executive is subject to a Disability, but not beyond age 65;

(b) any Base Salary accrued or any Annual Bonus for any calendar year prior to the calendar year in which death or Disability occurs that was earned but not yet paid as of the Date of Termination (as defined herein);

(c) a pro rata Annual Bonus for the calendar year in which death or Disability occurs (determined and payable in accordance with Section 2.2 of this Agreement);

(d) any accrued vacation pay;

(e) reimbursement for expenses incurred but not yet paid prior to such death or Disability;

(f) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Stock under the Company's option plans (or under any option plan of any predecessor to the Company) shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to the Executive's termination of employment;

(g) in the case of death, any other compensation and benefits, including deferred compensation, as may be provided in accordance with the terms and provision of any applicable plans and programs of the Company; and

(h) in the case of Disability, (i) continuation of the Executive's health and welfare benefits (as described in Section 2.5 of this Agreement) at the level in effect (as provided for by Section 2.5) on the date of termination through the end of the three-year period following the termination of the Executive's employment (or, to the extent that any welfare benefit plan, program or arrangement in which the Executive participates provides for a longer continuation period, such longer period in accordance with such plan, program or arrangement) due to Disability (or the Company shall provide the economic equivalent thereof), and (ii) any other compensation and benefits as may be provided in accordance with the terms and provisions of any applicable plans and programs of the Company.

For purposes of this Section 4.1 and Section 2.3, "Disability" means the Executive's inability to render, for a period of six consecutive months, services hereunder by reason of permanent disability, as determined by the written medical opinion of an independent medical physician mutually acceptable to the Executive and the Company. If the Executive and the Company cannot agree as to such an independent medical physician, each shall appoint one medical physician and those two physicians shall appoint a third physician who shall make such determination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Executive, in his sole discretion, shall so elect, the Executive shall be considered disabled for the purposes of this Agreement if the Executive is deemed disabled pursuant to the Company's long-term disability plan.

4.2 Termination by the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as defined below) as provided in this Section 4.2. If the Company terminates the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Executive shall be entitled to:

(a) Base Salary at the rate in effect (as provided for by Section 2.1 of this Agreement) at the time of such termination through the Date of Termination;

(b) any Annual Bonus earned but not yet paid as of the Date of Termination;

(c) any accrued vacation pay;

(d) reimbursement for expenses incurred, but not yet paid prior to such termination of employment; and

(e) any other compensation and benefits, including deferred compensation, as may be provided in accordance with the terms and provisions of any applicable plans and programs of the Company.

In any case described in this Section 4.2, the Executive shall be given written notice authorized by a vote of at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors that the Company intends to terminate the Executive's employment for Cause. Such written notice shall specify the particular act or acts, or failure to act, which is or are the basis for the decision to so terminate the Executive's employment for Cause. The Executive shall be given the opportunity within 30 calendar days of the receipt of such notice to meet with the Board of Directors to defend such act or acts, or failure to act, and the Executive shall be given 15 business days after such meeting to correct such act or failure to act. Upon failure of the Executive, within such latter 15 day period, to correct such act or failure to act, the Executive's employment by the Company shall automatically be terminated under this Section 4.2 for Cause. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, if, following a termination of the Executive's employment by the Company for Cause based upon the conviction of the Executive for a felony involving actual dishonesty as against the Company, such conviction is overturned on appeal, the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and the economic equivalent of the benefits that the Executive would have received as a result of a termination of the Executive's employment by the Company without Cause.

For purposes of this Section 4.2 and Section 2.3, "Cause" means (a) the Executive is convicted of a felony involving actual dishonesty as against the Company, or (b) the Executive, in carrying out his duties and responsibilities under this Agreement, voluntarily engages in conduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company, monetarily or otherwise, unless such act, or failure to act, was believed by the Executive in good faith to be in the best interests of the Company.

4.3 Termination Without Cause or Termination For Good Reason. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause and the Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason. If the Company terminates the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause, other than due to death or Disability, or if the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, the Executive shall be entitled to:

(a) the amount equal to the product of (1) three times (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Base Salary and (y) the Executive's then Annual Bonus (but not less than the highest annual bonus paid to the Executive with respect to the three years preceding the date of the Executive's termination of employment); and

(b) the Company will contribute within 30 calendar days after the Termination Date an amount to the Amended and Restated Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors equal to 33% of the amount set forth in clause (2) of Section 4.3(a) above.

(c) for three years after the Executive's Date of Termination, or such longer period as may be provided by the terms of the appropriate plan, program, practice or policy, the Company shall continue benefits to the Executive and/or the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents (as defined herein) at least equal to those which would have been provided to them in accordance with the plans, programs, practices and policies described in Section 2 if the Executive's employment had not been terminated or, if more favorable to the Executive and the Dependents, as in effect for senior executive employees and their Dependents generally at any time thereafter. "Dependents", as of any date, means the members of the Executive's family who under the eligibility rules (as in effect on a date that is six months prior to the Effective Date) of the plans or programs of the Company (or any successor) which provide medical benefits, would, by virtue of such status as family members, be eligible for benefits under such plans or programs on such date.

(d) the Executive and the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents shall continue to be eligible to participate in and shall receive all benefits under any plan or program of the Company providing medical benefits as are in effect on the date six months prior to the Effective Date or under any plan or program of a successor to the Company which provides medical benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents than such plans or programs of the Company until the date the Executive and the Dependents are all eligible for Medicare benefits (by reason of attaining the minimum age for such benefits without regard to whether an application has been made therefor); provided, however, that (A) in no event will a Dependent be eligible for benefits as described in this clause (d) after the date he ceases to be a Dependent and (B)at all times after the expiration of the three-year period described in clause (c) above, the Executive shall pay for such coverage at the same rate as is charged to other similarly situated individuals electing continuation coverage under Section 4980B of the Code;

(e) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Stock under the Company's option plans (or under any option plan of any predecessor to the Company) shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to Executive's termination of employment;

(f) the Company will continue to pay any premiums due on split-dollar life insurance policies (if any) in effect on the life of the Executive for three years following the date of termination after which time the Company shall distribute such policy to the Executive without requiring the Executive to repay any premium paid by the Company;

(g) notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary under any outstanding recourse note issued under the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan or any other agreement providing for the acceleration or prepayment of any such note payments under such note shall not be accelerated as a result of Executive's termination of employment but shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms of such note determined as if Executive's employment had not terminated;

(h) the Company will transfer any car made available to the Executive for his use by the Company to the Executive for no consideration provided that the Executive pays any and all transfer taxes and agrees to be solely responsible for insurance and the cost of insurance after the date of transfer; and

(i) the Executive shall be entitled to keep any computer and/or software provided to the Executive by the Company for home or travel use for no consideration; and

(j) any Base Salary accrued or Annual Bonus earned but not yet paid as of the Date of Termination;

(k) any accrued vacation pay;

(l) reimbursement for expenses incurred, but not paid prior to such termination of employment;

(m) any other compensation and benefits, including deferred compensation, as may be provided in accordance with the terms and provisions of any applicable plans or programs of the Company (including, but not limited to, those plans described in Section 2).

For purposes of this Section 4.3 and Section 2.3, "Good Reason" means and shall be deemed to exist if, without the prior express written consent of the Executive, (a) the Executive is assigned any duties or responsibilities inconsistent in any material respect with the scope of the duties or responsibilities associated with the Executive's titles or positions, as set forth and described in Section 1.3 of this Agreement; (b) the Executive suffers a reduction in the duties, responsibilities or effective authority associated with his titles and positions, as set forth and described in Section 1.3 of this Agreement (including, without limitation, if the Executive Committee ceases to have the powers or reporting responsibilities described in Section 1.3 of this Agreement or if the Executive Committee is expanded beyond eight members); (c) the Executive is not appointed to, or is removed from, the offices or positions provided for in Section 1.3 of this Agreement; (d) the Executive's compensation is decreased by the Company, or the Executive's benefits under employee benefit or health or welfare plans or programs of the Company are in the aggregate materially decreased; (e) the Company fails to obtain the full assumption of this Agreement by a successor entity in accordance with Section 6.4 of this Agreement; (f) the Company fails to use its reasonable best efforts to maintain, or cause to be maintained, adequate directors and officers liability insurance coverage for the Executive; (g) without the Executive's express written consent, the Company's requiring the Executive's work location to be other than in the County of New York, New York, or, if mutually agreed in connection with the expansion of the Company's overseas operations, London, England; or (h) the Company purports to terminate the Executive's employment for Cause and such purported termination of employment is not effected in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement.

4.4 Voluntary Termination. The Executive may effect a Voluntary Termination of his employment hereunder. A "Voluntary Termination" shall mean a termination of employment by the Executive on his own initiative other than (a) a termination due to death or Disability, or (b) a termination for Good Reason. A Voluntary Termination shall not be, nor shall it be deemed to be, a breach of this Agreement and shall entitle the Executive to all of the rights and benefits which the Executive would be entitled in the event of a termination of his employment by the Company for Cause.

4.5 Non-exclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any benefit, bonus, incentive or other plan or program provided or maintained by the Company and for which the Executive may qualify, nor shall anything herein limit or otherwise prejudice such rights as the Executive may have under any other existing or future agreements with the Company. Except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Agreement, amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plans or programs of the Company at or subsequent to the date of termination shall be payable in accordance with such plans or programs. If the Company is unable, for any reason, to provide the Executive with the stock option grant described in Section 2.3 to which he is then entitled (either with respect to the option grant or the delivery of Company shares upon exercise of such options), it will take all necessary action to provide the Executive with the economic value thereof (including, if appropriate, through a cashless exercise program in respect of such stock options).

4.6 Stock Grant and Stock Options. In the event of any termination described in Sections 4.1, 4.2, 4.3 and 4.4 above, Executive's rights with regard to his stock grant, loan agreement and stock options shall be as set forth in the respective agreement containing the terms and conditions pertaining thereto.

4.7 Certain Additional Payments by the Company. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event it shall be determined that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive, whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise (a "Payment"), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or that any interest or penalties with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then the Executive shall be entitled to receive an additional payment (a "Gross-Up Payment") in an amount such that after payment by the Executive of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes), including any Excise Tax imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, the Executive retains an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the Payments. Subject to the provisions of this Section 4.7, all determinations required to be made hereunder, including whether a Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Gross-Up Payment, shall be made by Arthur Andersen LLP or by another nationally recognized certified public accounting firm that is mutually selected by the Executive and the Company (the "Accounting Firm") at the sole expense of the Company, which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and the Executive within 15 business days of the date of termination of the Executive's employment under this Agreement, if applicable, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company or the Executive. If the Accounting Firm determines that no Excise Tax is payable by the Executive, the Accounting Firm shall furnish the Executive with an opinion that he has substantial authority not to report any Excise Tax on his federal income tax return. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon the Company and the Executive. As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of the initial determination by the Accounting Firm hereunder, it is possible that Gross-Up Payments, which will not have been made by the Company should have been made (an "Underpayment"), consistent with the calculations required to be made hereunder. If the Company exhausts its remedies pursuant hereto and the Executive thereafter is required to make a payment of any Excise Tax, the Accounting Firm shall determine the amount of the Underpayment that has occurred and any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive.

The Executive shall notify the Company in writing of any claim by the Internal Revenue Service that, if successful, would require the payment by the Company of the Gross-Up Payment. Such notification shall be given as soon as practicable but no later than ten business days after the Executive knows of such claim and shall apprise the Company of the nature of such claim and the date on which such claim is requested to be paid. The Executive shall not pay such claim prior to the expiration of the 30-day period following the date on which it gives such notice to the Company (or such shorter period ending on the date that any payment of taxes with respect to such claim is due). If the Company notifies the Executive in writing prior to the expiration of such period that it desires to contest such claim, the Executive shall:

(i) give the Company any information reasonably requested by the Company relating to such claim,

(ii) take such action in connection with contesting such claim as the Company shall reasonably request in writing from time to time, including (without limitation) accepting legal representation with respect to such claim by an attorney reasonably selected by the Company,

(iii) cooperate with the Company in good faith to contest effectively such claim, and

provided that the Company shall bear and pay directly all costs and expenses (including additional interest and penalties) incurred in connection with such contest and shall indemnify and hold the Executive harmless, on an after-tax basis, for any Excise Tax or income tax, including interest and penalties with respect thereto, imposed as a result of such representation and payment of costs and expenses. Without limitation on the foregoing provisions hereof the Company shall control all proceedings taken in connection with such contest and, at its sole option, may pursue or forgo any and all administrative appeals, proceedings, hearings and conferences with the taxing authority in respect of such claim and may, at its sole option, either direct the Executive to pay the tax claimed and sue for a refund or contest the claim in any permissible manner, and the Executive agrees to prosecute such contest to a determination before any administrative tribunal, in a court of initial jurisdiction and in one or more appellate courts, as the Company shall determine, provided that if the Company directs the Executive to pay such claim and sue for a refund, the Company shall advance the amount of such payment to the Executive, on an interest-free basis and shall indemnify and hold the Executive harmless, on an after-tax basis, from any Excise Tax or income tax, including interest or penalties with respect thereto, imposed with respect to such advance or with respect to any imputed income with respect to such advance, and further provided that any extension of the statute of limitations relating to payment of taxes for the taxable year of the Executive with respect to which such contested amount is claimed to be due is limited solely to such contested amount. Furthermore, the Company's control of the contest shall be limited to issues with respect to which a Gross-Up Payment would be payable hereunder and the Executive shall be entitled to settle or contest, as the case may be, any other issue raised by the Internal Revenue Service or any other taxing authority.

If, after the receipt by the Executive of an amount advanced by the Company pursuant hereto, the Executive becomes entitled to receive any refund with respect to such claim, the Executive shall (subject to the Company's complying with the requirements hereof) promptly pay to the Company the amount of such refund (together with any interest paid or credited thereon after taxes applicable thereto). If, after the receipt by the Executive of an amount advanced by the Company pursuant hereto, a determination is made that the Executive shall not be entitled to any refund with respect to such claim and the Company does not notify the Executive in writing of its intent to contest such denial of refund prior to the expiration of 30 days after such determination, then such advance shall be forgiven and shall not be required to be repaid and the amount of such advance shall offset, to the extent thereof, the amount of Gross-Up Payment required to be paid.

4.8 Payment. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any payments to which the Executive shall be entitled under this Section 4, including, without limitation, any economic equivalent of any benefit, shall be made as promptly as possible following the date of termination. If the amount of any payment due to the Executive cannot be finally determined within 90 days after the Date of Termination, such amount shall be estimated on a good faith basis by the Company and the estimated amount shall be paid no later than 90 days after such Date of Termination. As soon as practicable thereafter, the final determination of the amount due shall be made and any adjustment requiring a payment to or from the Executive shall be made as promptly as practicable.

4.9 Date of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Date of Termination" shall mean the date on which Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate for any reason.

5. Indemnification.

Contemporaneously herewith, the Company and the Executive shall execute an indemnification agreement which, by its terms, shall indemnify the Executive to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and by the Company's certification of incorporation and by-laws. Such indemnification agreement shall contain terms no less favorable to the Executive than the terms of any other indemnification agreement provided to any other senior officer of the Company (including senior officers of Simon).

6. Other Provisions.

6.1 Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally, telegraphed, telexed, sent by facsimile transmission or sent by certified, registered or express mail, postage prepaid. Any such notice shall be deemed given when so delivered personally, telegraphed, telexed or sent by facsimile transmission or, if mailed, on the date of actual receipt thereof, as follows:

(i) If to the Company to:

National City Center
115 West Washington Street
Indianapolis, IN 46204
Attn: General Counsel

With a copy to:

Frank A. Daniele, Esq.
Willkie Farr & Gallagher
787 Seventh Avenue
New York, NY 10019

If to the Executive, to:

Mr. Hans C. Mautner
1088 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10028

Any party may change its address for notice hereunder by notice to the other party hereto.

6.2 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the attached Schedules which are a part hereof for all purposes, contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, with respect thereto.

6.3 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

6.4 Assignment. The obligations of the Executive hereunder are personal and may not be assigned or delegated by him or transferred in any manner whatsoever, nor are such obligations subject to involuntary alienation, assignment or transfer. The Company shall have the right to assign this Agreement and to delegate all rights, duties and obligations hereunder, either in whole or in part, to any parent, affiliate, successor or subsidiary organization or company of the Company, so long as the obligations of the Company under this Agreement remain the obligations of the Company, provided, that the Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company, by agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Executive, to assume expressly and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform it if no such succession had taken place.

7. Resolution of Disputes.

7.1 Negotiation. The parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement promptly by negotiations between the Executive and an executive officer of the Company who has authority to settle the controversy. Any party may give the other party written notice of any dispute not resolved in the normal course of business. Within 10 days after the effective date of such notice, the Executive and an executive officer of the Company shall meet at a mutually acceptable time and place within the New York City metropolitan area, and thereafter as often as they reasonably deem necessary, to exchange relevant information and to attempt to resolve the dispute. If the matter has not been resolved within 30 days of the disputing party's notice, or if the parties fail to meet within 10 days, either party may initiate arbitration of the controversy or claim as provided hereinafter. If a negotiator intends to be accompanied at a meeting by an attorney, the other negotiator shall be given at least three business days' notice of such intention and may also be accompanied by an attorney. All negotiations pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations for the purposes of the federal and state rules of evidence and procedure.

7.2 Arbitration. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach, termination or validity thereof, which has not been resolved by nonbinding means as provided in Section 7.1 within 60 days of the initiation of such procedure, shall be finally settled by arbitration conducted expeditiously in New York City, New York in accordance with the Center for Public Resources, Inc. ("CPR") Rules for Non- Administered Arbitration of Business Disputes by three independent and impartial arbitrators, of whom each party shall appoint one, provided that if one party has requested the other to participate in a non-binding procedure and the other has failed to participate, the requesting party may initiate arbitration before the expiration of such period. Any such party shall be appointed from the CPR Panels of Neutrals. The arbitration shall be governed by the United States Arbitration Act and any judgment upon the award decided upon the arbitrators may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitrators are not empowered to award damages in excess of compensatory damages and each party hereby irrevocably waives any damages in excess of compensatory damages. Each party hereby acknowledges that compensatory damages include (without limitation) any benefit or right of indemnification given by another party to the other under this Agreement.

7.3 Expenses. The Company shall promptly pay or reimburse the Executive for all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, court or arbitration costs and attorneys' and accountants' fees and disbursements incurred by the Executive as a result of any claim, action or proceeding (including, without limitation, a claim, action or proceeding by the Executive against the Company) arising out of, or challenging the validity or enforceability of, this Agreement or any provision hereof or any other agreement or entitlement referred to herein.

8. Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Executive and his heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns.

9. No Mitigation or Set-Off. The provisions of this Agreement are not intended to, nor shall they be construed to, require that the Executive mitigate the amount of any payment provided for in this Agreement by seeking or accepting other employment, nor shall the amount of any payment provided for in this Agreement be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as a result of his employment by another employer or otherwise. The Company's obligations to make the payments to the Executive required under this Agreement and otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not be affected by any set off, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other claim, right or action that the Company may have against the Executive.

11. Beneficiaries/References. The Executive shall be entitled to select (and change) a beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive any compensation or benefit payable hereunder following the Executive's death, and may change such election, in either case by giving the Company written notice thereof. In the event of the Executive's death or a judicial determination of his incompetence, reference in this Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed, where appropriate, to refer to his beneficiary(ies), estate or other legal representative(s), as the case may be.

12. Representation. The Company represents and warrants that it is fully authorized and empowered to enter into this Agreement and that the performance of its obligations under this Agreement will not violate any agreement between the Company and any other person, firm or organization or any applicable laws or regulations.

13. Survivorship. The respective rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall survive any termination of this Agreement or the Executive's employment hereunder to the extent necessary to the intended preservation of such rights and obligations.

14. As of the Effective Date, this Agreement shall supersede all prior employment and severance agreements between the Company (or its predecessors) and the Executive, including the Executive Agreement dated as of August 7, 1997.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement effective for all purposes as of the date first above written.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This employment agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into this day of , 1998, by and between CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, INC., a Delaware corporation and successor by merger to CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust (such entities collectively, the "Company") and MARK S. TICOTIN (the "Executive").

RECITALS

The Executive is currently the President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company. The Company intends to merge with Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., a Maryland corporation ("Simon"), pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of February 18, 1998 among the Company, Simon and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Merger"). The Company desires to retain the Executive as an officer of the Company following the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Employment, Term and Duties.

1.1 Employment. The Company hereby employs the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment by the Company on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

1.2 Term. The Executive's employment under this Agreement shall commence on the effective date of the Merger (the "Effective Date") and shall terminate on the last day of the month in which the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date occurs (the "Termination Date"), unless earlier terminated as provided in Section 4 below (the "Term"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Term shall automatically be extended for an additional term of one (1) year as of each December 31 occurring during the Term unless, prior to such December 31, the Company shall give the Executive notice that the Term shall not be extended in which event the Term shall expire on the Termination Date in effect as of the date of such notice. In the event that the Effective Date has not occurred by June 30, 1999, then this Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force and effect.

1.3 Positions and Duties. During the Term, the Executive shall serve as the sole Senior Executive Vice President of the Company and shall be a member of the Executive Committee of the Company (the "Executive Committee"), which committee shall be composed of members appointed by the Board whose employment positions are at the level of Senior Executive Vice President or more senior in the Company. The parties hereto agree that the Executive Committee shall consist of the senior most officers of the Company and shall participate in substantially all major initiatives and decisions made in respect of the Company's day-to-day management and those matters delegated to it by the Board; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prejudice the rights and duties of the person serving as the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), as determined by the Board in accordance with the Company's by-laws. During the Term, the Executive shall report directly to the CEO of the Company. The parties hereto agree that the Executive, in his capacity as Senior Executive Vice President, shall serve in the most senior position in the Company following the Co-Chairmen of the Board, the Vice Chairman, the CEO, the President and the Chief Operating Officer ("COO") of the Company. In connection therewith, the Executive's principal focus shall be to assist in the operation of the Company at its most senior level in a manner determined from time to time by the CEO or the Board of Directors. The Executive may engage in the following activities (and shall be entitled to retain all economic benefits thereof including fees paid in connection therewith) as long as they do not (without the approval of the Company) substantially interfere with the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder: (i) serve on corporate, civic, religious, educational and/or charitable boards or committees, (ii) deliver lectures, fulfill speaking engagements or teach on a part-time basis at educational institutions and (iii) make investments in businesses or enterprises and manage his personal investments in accordance with the Company's business and ethics policy. The parties acknowledge that the Executive's participation (and continuing participation) as a director of the commercial corporations listed on Schedule I attached hereto have been approved by the Company. Notwithstanding the above, the Executive shall not be required to perform any duties and responsibilities which would be likely to result in a non-compliance with or violation of any applicable law or regulation.

2. Compensation and Other Benefits.

2.1 Base Compensation. As compensation for services rendered during the Term, the Company shall pay to the Executive a base salary (the "Base Salary") initially equal to $500,000, subject to increase from time to time by the Board. The Board shall review the Executive's annual Base Salary no less frequently than annually to determine whether any increase should be made. The Base Salary shall be payable in accordance with the payroll policies of the Company as from time to time in effect, less such amounts as shall be required to be deducted or withheld therefrom by applicable law and regulations.

2.2 Annual Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Executive shall be eligible to receive, for each calendar year or portion thereof occurring during the Term, a targeted annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in an amount not less than 100% of the Executive's Base Salary for such calendar year or portion thereof. The amount of any such Annual Bonus shall be determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Committee"), in accordance with the standard practice of such Committee relating to the incentive compensation program of the Company. The Annual Bonus shall be paid to the Executive, less such amounts as shall be required to be deducted or withheld therefrom by applicable law and regulations, at such time or times as is in accordance with the then prevailing policy of the Company relating to incentive compensation payments.

2.3 Stock Options. As of the Effective Date, the Company shall grant Executive a stock option to acquire 142,500 shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan ("Stock Incentive Plan"). Such option shall have an option price equal to the fair market value of the Simon Common Stock on the Effective Date and shall vest in equal installments on the anniversary of the date of grant in years 1999-2001. As of the first anniversary of the Effective Date, the Company shall grant Executive a stock option to acquire 37,500 shares of Common Stock of Simon Property Group, Inc. pursuant to the Stock Incentive Plan. Such option shall have an option price equal to fair market value of the Common Stock of Simon Property Group, Inc. on the date of grant and shall vest in equal installments on the anniversary of such date in years 2000-2001. In the event of Executive's termination of employment prior to the first anniversary of the Effective Date for any reason other than for Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason, such option shall be granted as of the date of termination of employment and shall be fully vested as of the date of grant. The maximum number of such options which qualify as "incentive stock options" under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), shall be granted as "incentive stock options" and the remainder of such options shall be non-qualified stock options. The terms, conditions and restrictions with regard to said stock options shall be evidenced by an Incentive Stock Option Agreement (as to the incentive stock options) and a Nonqualified Stock Option Agreement (as to the non-qualified stock options), substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit C-1 and Exhibit C-2 respectively which shall be incorporated herein by reference and their terms, conditions and restrictions shall be considered a part of this Agreement.

2.4 Retirement and Savings Plans. During the Term, the Executive shall be eligible to participate as of the Effective Date in all incentive, pension, retirement, savings, 401(k) and other employee pension benefit plans and programs maintained by the Company from time to time for the benefit of senior executives and/or other employees.

2.5 Welfare Benefit Plans. During the Term, the Executive, the Executive's spouse, if any, and their eligible , if any, shall be eligible to participate as of the Effective Date in and be covered under all the welfare benefit plans or programs maintained by the Company from time to time including, without limitation, all medical, hospitalization, dental, disability, life, estate and financial planning, accidental death and dismemberment and travel accident insurance plans and programs including, without limitation, the split-dollar insurance arrangement between the Company and the Executive, in each case on terms no less favorable than as in effect for senior executive employees of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Date.

2.6 General Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for all expenses that are consistent with the Company's policy and reasonably and necessarily incurred by the Executive during the Term in the performance of the Executive's duties under this Agreement. Such expenses shall include the cost of a car and driver and any and all Company-related business expenses arising out of activities at clubs at which the Executive is a member. Such payment shall be made upon presentation of such documentation as the Company has, as of the date hereof, customarily required of its senior executive employees prior to making such payments or reimbursements.

2.7 Vacation. During the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to five weeks of vacation per year. The Executive shall not be permitted to accumulate and carryover unused vacation time or pay from year to year except to the extent permitted in accordance with the Company's vacation policy for senior executives.

2.8 Fringe Benefits. In addition, during the Term, the Executive shall be entitled to use any aircraft owned by the Company for his personal use, provided such aircraft is not otherwise in use by the Company; and such other fringe benefits and perquisites as in effect and as provided from time to time to the senior executives of the Company. The Executive shall reimburse the Company for his personal use of the Company aircraft at a rate equal to the rate the Executive would pay for first class airfare for travel to the same destination on a commercial airline.

2.9 Office and Support Staff. Unless the Executive otherwise agrees in writing, during the Term the Executive shall be entitled to executive secretarial and other administrative assistance of a type and extent, and to an office or offices (with furnishings and other appointments) of a type and size, at least equal to that provided to the Executive immediately prior to the Effective Date.

2.10 Option Plan Participation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Executive shall not be entitled to any new grants of stock options or other awards

(other than the grant provided in Section 2.3 hereof) under the Company's Stock Incentive Plan until January 1, 2002 unless the Committee otherwise determines.

3. Non-Competition.

3.1 Covenants Against Competition. The Executive acknowledges that as of the execution of this Employment Agreement (i) the Company is engaged in the business of shopping center and other retail project acquisition, operation and development (the "Business"); (ii) the Company's Business is conducted in various markets throughout the United States; (iii) his employment with the Company will have given him access to confidential information concerning the Company; and (iv) the agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement are essential to protect the business and goodwill of the Company. Accordingly, the Executive covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) Non-Compete. Without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Executive shall not during the Restricted Period (as defined below) within any metropolitan area in which the Company owns any commercial real estate, directly (except in the Executive's capacity as an officer of the Company or any of its affiliates): (i) engage or participate in the Business; (ii) enter the employ of, or render any services (whether or not for a fee or other compensation) to, any person engaged in the Business; or (iii) acquire an equity interest in any such person in any capacity; provided, that the foregoing restrictions shall not apply at any time if the Executive's employment is terminated during the Term by the Executive for Good Reason (as defined below) or by the Company without Cause (as defined below); provided, further, that during the Restricted Period the Executive may own, directly or indirectly, solely as a passive investment, securities of any company traded on any national securities exchange or on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System. As used herein, the "Restricted Period" shall mean the period commencing with the Effective Date and ending on the first anniversary of the last day of the Term.

(b) Confidential Information; Personal Relationships. The Executive acknowledges that the Company has a legitimate and continuing proprietary interest in the protection of its confidential information and has invested substantial sums and will continue to invest substantial sums to develop, maintain and protect confidential information. The Executive agrees that, during and after the Restricted Period, without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Executive shall keep secret and retain in strictest confidence, and shall not knowingly use for the benefit of himself or others all confidential matters relating to the Company's Business including, without limitation, operational methods, marketing or development plans or strategies, business acquisition plans, joint venture proposals or plans, and new personnel acquisition plans, learned by the Executive heretofore or hereafter (such information shall be referred to herein collectively as "Confidential Information"); provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Executive from disclosing or using any Confidential Information (A) in the performance of his duties hereunder, (B) as required by applicable law, regulatory authority, recognized subpoena power or any court of competent jurisdiction, (C) in connection with the enforcement of his rights under this Agreement or any other agreement with the Company, or (D) in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, suit or action brought or threatened against the Executive by or in the right of the Company. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, the term "Confidential Information" shall not be deemed to include any general knowledge, skills or experience acquired by the Executive or any knowledge or information known or available to the public in general (other than as a result of a breach of this provision by the Executive). Moreover, the Executive shall be permitted to retain copies of, or have access to, all such Confidential Information relating to any disagreement, dispute or litigation (pending or threatened) involving the Executive.

(c) Employee of the Company and its Affiliates. During the Restricted Period, without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, hire or solicit, or cause others to hire or solicit, for employment by any person other than the Company or any affiliate or successor thereof, any employee of, or person employed within the two years preceding the Executive's hiring or solicitation of such person by, the Company and its affiliates or successors or encourage any such employee to leave his employment. For this purpose, any person whose employment has been terminated involuntarily by the Company (or any predecessor of the Company) shall be excluded from those persons protected by this Section 3.1(c) for the benefit of the Company.

(d) Business Relationship. During the Restricted Period, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, request or advise a person that has a business relationship with the Company to curtail or cancel such person's business relationship with the Company.

3.2 Rights and Remedies Upon Breach. If the Executive breaches, or threatens to commit a breach of, any of the provisions contained in Section 3.1 of this Agreement (the "Restrictive Covenants"), the Company shall have the following rights and remedies, each of which rights and remedies shall be independent of the others and severally enforceable, and each of which is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights and remedies available to the Company under law or in equity.

(a) Specific Performance. The right and remedy to have the Restrictive Covenants specifically enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction, it being agreed that any breach or threatened breach of the Restrictive Covenants would cause irreparable injury to the Company and that money damages would not provide an adequate remedy to the Company.

(b) Accounting. The right and remedy to require the Executive to account for and pay over to the Company all compensation, profits, monies, accruals, increments or other benefits derived or received by the Executive as the result of any action constituting a breach of Restrictive Covenants.

3.3 Severability of Covenants. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Restrictive Covenants are reasonable and valid in duration and geographical scope and in all other respects. If any court determines that any of the Restrictive Covenants, or any part thereof, is invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the Restrictive Covenants shall not thereby be affected and shall be given full effect without regard to the invalid portions.

4. Termination.

4.1 Termination Due to Death or Disability. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder due to Disability (as defined below). In the event of the Executive's death or a termination of the Executive's employment by the Company due to Disability, the Executive, his estate or his legal representative, as the case may be, shall be entitled to:

(a) (i) in the case of death, a death benefit in an amount equal to twenty-four months of monthly Base Salary at the rate in effect (as provided for by Section 2.1 of this Agreement but not beyond age 65) on the date of termination plus any amounts paid pursuant to the group and/or individual life insurance policies referred to in Section 2.5 of this Agreement, and (ii) in the case of Disability, an amount equal to twenty-four months of monthly Base Salary at the rate in effect plus any payments received under any long-term disability plan or policy maintained by the Company) for so long as the Executive is subject to a Disability, but not beyond age 65;

(b) any Base Salary accrued or any Annual Bonus for any calendar year prior to the calendar year in which death or Disability occurs that was earned but not yet paid as of the Date of Termination (as defined herein);

(c) a pro rata Annual Bonus for the calendar year in which death or Disability occurs (determined and payable in accordance with Section 2.2 of this Agreement);

(d) any accrued vacation pay;

(e) reimbursement for expenses incurred but not yet paid prior to such death or Disability;

(f) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Stock under the Company's option plans (or under any option plan of any predecessor to the Company) shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to Executive's termination of employment;

(g) in the case of death, any other compensation and benefits, including deferred compensation, as may be provided in accordance with the terms and provision of any applicable plans and programs of the Company; and

(h) in the case of Disability, (i) continuation of the Executive's health and welfare benefits (as described in Section 2.5 of this Agreement) at the level in effect (as provided for by Section 2.5) on the date of termination through the end of the three-year period following the termination of the Executive's employment (or, to the extent that any welfare benefit plan, program or arrangement in which the Executive participates provides for a longer continuation period, such longer period in accordance with such plan, program or arrangement) due to Disability (or the Company shall provide the economic equivalent thereof), and (ii) any other compensation and benefits as may be provided in accordance with the terms and provisions of any applicable plans and programs of the Company.

For purposes of this Section 4.1 and Section 2.3, "Disability" means the Executive's inability to render, for a period of six consecutive months, services hereunder by reason of permanent disability, as determined by the written medical opinion of an independent medical physician mutually acceptable to the Executive and the Company. If the Executive and the Company cannot agree as to such an independent medical physician, each shall appoint one medical physician and those two physicians shall appoint a third physician who shall make such determination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Executive, in his sole discretion, shall so elect, the Executive shall be considered disabled for the purposes of this Agreement if the Executive is deemed disabled pursuant to the Company's long-term disability plan.

4.2 Termination by the Company for Cause. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause (as defined below) as provided in this Section 4.2. If the Company terminates the Executive's employment hereunder for Cause, the Executive shall be entitled to:

(a) Base Salary at the rate in effect (as provided for by Section 2.1 of this Agreement) at the time of such termination through the Date of Termination;

(b) any Annual Bonus earned but not yet paid as of the Date of Termination;

(c) any accrued vacation pay;

(d) reimbursement for expenses incurred, but not yet paid prior to such termination of employment; and

(e) any other compensation and benefits, including deferred compensation, as may be provided in accordance with the terms and provisions of any applicable plans and programs of the Company.

In any case described in this Section 4.2, the Executive shall be given written notice authorized by a vote of at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors that the Company intends to terminate the Executive's employment for Cause. Such written notice shall specify the particular act or acts, or failure to act, which is or are the basis for the decision to so terminate the Executive's employment for Cause. The Executive shall be given the opportunity within 30 calendar days of the receipt of such notice to meet with the Board of Directors to defend such act or acts, or failure to act, and the Executive shall be given 15 business days after such meeting to correct such act or failure to act. Upon failure of the Executive, within such latter 15 day period, to correct such act or failure to act, the Executive's employment by the Company shall automatically be terminated under this Section 4.2 for Cause. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, if, following a termination of the Executive's employment by the Company for Cause based upon the conviction of the Executive for a felony involving actual dishonesty as against the Company, such conviction is overturned on appeal, the Executive shall be entitled to the payments and the economic equivalent of the benefits that the Executive would have received as a result of a termination of the Executive's employment by the Company without Cause.

For purposes of this Section 4.2 and Section 2.3, "Cause" means (a) the Executive is convicted of a felony involving actual dishonesty as against the Company, or (b) the Executive, in carrying out his duties and responsibilities under this Agreement, voluntarily engages in conduct which is demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company, monetarily or otherwise, unless such act, or failure to act, was believed by the Executive in good faith to be in the best interests of the Company.

4.3 Termination Without Cause or Termination For Good Reason. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause and the Executive may terminate his employment hereunder for Good Reason. If the Company terminates the Executive's employment hereunder without Cause, other than due to death or Disability, or if the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, the Executive shall be entitled to:

(a) the amount equal to the product of (1) three times (2) the sum of (x) the Executive's then Base Salary and (y) the Executive's then Annual Bonus (but not less than the highest annual bonus paid to the Executive with respect to the three years preceding the date of the Executive's termination of employment); and

(b) the Company will contribute within 30 calendar days after the Termination Date an amount to the Amended and Restated Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan of Corporate Property Investors equal to 33% of the amount set forth in clause (2) of Section 4.3(a) above.

(c) for three years after the Executive's Date of Termination, or such longer period as may be provided by the terms of the appropriate plan, program, practice or policy, the Company shall continue benefits to the Executive and/or the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents (as defined herein) at least equal to those which would have been provided to them in accordance with the plans, programs, practices and policies described in Section 2 if the Executive's employment had not been terminated or, if more favorable to the Executive and the Dependents, as in effect for senior executive employees and their Dependents generally at any time thereafter. "Dependents", as of any date, means the members of the Executive's family who under the eligibility rules (as in effect on a date that is six months prior to the Effective Date) of the plans or programs of the Company (or any successor) which provide medical benefits, would, by virtue of such status as family members, be eligible for benefits under such plans or programs on such date.

(d) the Executive and the persons who from time to time thereafter are Dependents shall continue to be eligible to participate in and shall receive all benefits under any plan or program of the Company providing medical benefits as are in effect on the date six months prior to the Effective Date or under any plan or program of a successor to the Company which provides medical benefits that are not less favorable to the Executive and the Dependents than such plans or programs of the Company until the date the Executive and the Dependents are all eligible for Medicare benefits (by reason of attaining the minimum age for such benefits without regard to whether an application has been made therefor); provided, however, that (A) in no event will a Dependent be eligible for benefits as described in this clause (d) after the date he ceases to be a Dependent and (B)at all times after the expiration of the three-year period described in clause (c) above, the Executive shall pay for such coverage at the same rate as is charged to other similarly situated individuals electing continuation coverage under Section 4980B of the Code;

(e) all outstanding options granted to Executive to purchase Common Stock under the Company's option plans (or under any option plan of any predecessor to the Company) shall, to the extent not already vested, become immediately fully vested and shall remain exercisable until the end of the original term of such option without regard to Executive's termination of employment;

(f) the Company will continue to pay any premiums due on split-dollar life insurance policies (if any) in effect on the life of the Executive for three years following the date of termination after which time the Company shall distribute such policy to the Executive without requiring the Executive to repay any premium paid by the Company;

(g) notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary under any outstanding recourse note issued under the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan or any other agreement providing for the acceleration or prepayment of any such note payments under such note shall not be accelerated as a result of Executive's termination of employment but shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms of such note determined as if Executive's employment had not terminated;

(h) the Company will transfer any car made available to the Executive for his use by the Company to the Executive for no consideration provided that the Executive pays any and all transfer taxes and agrees to be solely responsible for insurance and the cost of insurance after the date of transfer; and

(i) the Executive shall be entitled to keep any computer and/or software provided to the Executive by the Company for home or travel use for no consideration; and

(j) any Base Salary accrued or Annual Bonus earned but not yet paid as of the Date of Termination;

(k) any accrued vacation pay;

(l) reimbursement for expenses incurred, but not paid prior to such termination of employment;

(m) any other compensation and benefits, including deferred compensation, as may be provided in accordance with the terms and provisions of any applicable plans or programs of the Company (including, but not limited to, those plans described in Section 2).

For purposes of this Section 4.3 and Section 2.3, "Good Reason" means and shall be deemed to exist if, without the prior express written consent of the Executive, (a) the Executive is assigned any duties or responsibilities inconsistent in any material respect with the scope of the duties or responsibilities associated with the Executive's titles or positions, as set forth and described in Section 1.3 of this Agreement; (b) the Executive suffers a reduction in the duties, responsibilities or effective authority associated with his titles and positions, as set forth and described in Section 1.3 of this Agreement (including, without limitation, if the Executive Committee ceases to have the powers or reporting responsibilities described in Section 1.3 of this Agreement or if the Executive Committee is expanded beyond eight members); (c) the Executive is not appointed to, or is removed from, the offices or positions provided for in Section 1.3 of this Agreement; (d) the Executive's compensation is decreased by the Company, or the Executive's benefits under employee benefit or health or welfare plans or programs of the Company are in the aggregate materially decreased; (e) the Company fails to obtain the full assumption of this Agreement by a successor entity in accordance with Section 6.4 of this Agreement; (f) the Company fails to use its reasonable best efforts to maintain, or cause to be maintained, adequate directors and officers liability insurance coverage for the Executive; (g) without the Executive's express written consent, the Company's requiring the Executive's work location to be other than in the County of New York, New York; or (h) the Company purports to terminate the Executive's employment for Cause and such purported termination of employment is not effected in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement.

4.4 Voluntary Termination. The Executive may effect a Voluntary Termination of his employment hereunder. A "Voluntary Termination" shall mean a termination of employment by the Executive on his own initiative other than (a) a termination due to death or Disability, or (b) a termination for Good Reason. A Voluntary Termination shall not be, nor shall it be deemed to be, a breach of this Agreement and shall entitle the Executive to all of the rights and benefits which the Executive would be entitled in the event of a termination of his employment by the Company for Cause.

4.5 Non-exclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any benefit, bonus, incentive or other plan or program provided or maintained by the Company and for which the Executive may qualify, nor shall anything herein limit or otherwise prejudice such rights as the Executive may have under any other existing or future agreements with the Company. Except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Agreement, amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plans or programs of the Company at or subsequent to the date of termination shall be payable in accordance with such plans or programs. If the Company is unable, for any reason, to provide the Executive with the stock option grant described in Section 2.3 to which he is then entitled (either with respect to the option grant or the delivery of Company shares upon exercise of such options), it will take all necessary action to provide the Executive with the economic value thereof (including, if appropriate, through a cashless exercise program in respect of such stock options).

4.6 Stock Grant and Stock Options. In the event of any termination described in Sections 4.1, 4.2, 4.3 and 4.4 above, Executive's rights with regard to his stock grant, loan agreement and stock options shall be as set forth in the respective agreement containing the terms and conditions pertaining thereto.

4.7 Certain Additional Payments by the Company. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in the event it shall be determined that any payment or distribution by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive, whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise (a "Payment"), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or that any interest or penalties with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), then the Executive shall be entitled to receive an additional payment (a "Gross-Up Payment") in an amount such that after payment by the Executive of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes), including any Excise Tax imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, the Executive retains an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the Payments. Subject to the provisions of this Section 4.7, all determinations required to be made hereunder, including whether a Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Gross-Up Payment, shall be made by Arthur Andersen LLP or by another nationally recognized certified public accounting firm that is mutually selected by the Executive and the Company (the "Accounting Firm") at the sole expense of the Company, which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and the Executive within 15 business days of the date of termination of the Executive's employment under this Agreement, if applicable, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company or the Executive. If the Accounting Firm determines that no Excise Tax is payable by the Executive, the Accounting Firm shall furnish the Executive with an opinion that he has substantial authority not to report any Excise Tax on his federal income tax return. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon the Company and the Executive. As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code at the time of the initial determination by the Accounting Firm hereunder, it is possible that Gross-Up Payments, which will not have been made by the Company should have been made (an "Underpayment"), consistent with the calculations required to be made hereunder. If the Company exhausts its remedies pursuant hereto and the Executive thereafter is required to make a payment of any Excise Tax, the Accounting Firm shall determine the amount of the Underpayment that has occurred and any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for the benefit of the Executive.

The Executive shall notify the Company in writing of any claim by the Internal Revenue Service that, if successful, would require the payment by the Company of the Gross-Up Payment. Such notification shall be given as soon as practicable but no later than ten business days after the Executive knows of such claim and shall apprise the Company of the nature of such claim and the date on which such claim is requested to be paid. The Executive shall not pay such claim prior to the expiration of the 30-day period following the date on which it gives such notice to the Company (or such shorter period ending on the date that any payment of taxes with respect to such claim is due). If the Company notifies the Executive in writing prior to the expiration of such period that it desires to contest such claim, the Executive shall:

(i) give the Company any information reasonably requested by the Company relating to such claim,

(ii) take such action in connection with contesting such claim as the Company shall reasonably request in writing from time to time, including (without limitation) accepting legal representation with respect to such claim by an attorney reasonably selected by the Company,

(iii) cooperate with the Company in good faith to contest effectively such claim, and

provided that the Company shall bear and pay directly all costs and expenses (including additional interest and penalties) incurred in connection with such contest and shall indemnify and hold the Executive harmless, on an after-tax basis, for any Excise Tax or income tax, including interest and penalties with respect thereto, imposed as a result of such representation and payment of costs and expenses. Without limitation on the foregoing provisions hereof the Company shall control all proceedings taken in connection with such contest and, at its sole option, may pursue or forgo any and all administrative appeals, proceedings, hearings and conferences with the taxing authority in respect of such claim and may, at its sole option, either direct the Executive to pay the tax claimed and sue for a refund or contest the claim in any permissible manner, and the Executive agrees to prosecute such contest to a determination before any administrative tribunal, in a court of initial jurisdiction and in one or more appellate courts, as the Company shall determine, provided that if the Company directs the Executive to pay such claim and sue for a refund, the Company shall advance the amount of such payment to the Executive, on an interest-free basis and shall indemnify and hold the Executive harmless, on an after-tax basis, from any Excise Tax or income tax, including interest or penalties with respect thereto, imposed with respect to such advance or with respect to any imputed income with respect to such advance, and further provided that any extension of the statute of limitations relating to payment of taxes for the taxable year of the Executive with respect to which such contested amount is claimed to be due is limited solely to such contested amount. Furthermore, the Company's control of the contest shall be limited to issues with respect to which a Gross-Up Payment would be payable hereunder and the Executive shall be entitled to settle or contest, as the case may be, any other issue raised by the Internal Revenue Service or any other taxing authority.

If, after the receipt by the Executive of an amount advanced by the Company pursuant hereto, the Executive becomes entitled to receive any refund with respect to such claim, the Executive shall (subject to the Company's complying with the requirements hereof) promptly pay to the Company the amount of such refund (together with any interest paid or credited thereon after taxes applicable thereto). If, after the receipt by the Executive of an amount advanced by the Company pursuant hereto, a determination is made that the Executive shall not be entitled to any refund with respect to such claim and the Company does not notify the Executive in writing of its intent to contest such denial of refund prior to the expiration of 30 days after such determination, then such advance shall be forgiven and shall not be required to be repaid and the amount of such advance shall offset, to the extent thereof, the amount of Gross-Up Payment required to be paid.

4.8 Payment. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any payments to which the Executive shall be entitled under this Section 4, including, without limitation, any economic equivalent of any benefit, shall be made as promptly as possible following the date of termination. If the amount of any payment due to the Executive cannot be finally determined within 90 days after the Date of Termination, such amount shall be estimated on a good faith basis by the Company and the estimated amount shall be paid no later than 90 days after such Date of Termination. As soon as practicable thereafter, the final determination of the amount due shall be made and any adjustment requiring a payment to or from the Executive shall be made as promptly as practicable.

4.9 Date of Termination. For purposes of this Agreement, "Date of Termination" shall mean the date on which Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate for any reason.

5. Indemnification.

Contemporaneously herewith, the Company and the Executive shall execute an indemnification agreement which, by its terms, shall indemnify the Executive to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and by the Company's certification of incorporation and by-laws. Such indemnification agreement shall contain terms no less favorable to the Executive than the terms of any other indemnification agreement provided to any other senior officer of the Company (including senior officers of Simon).

6. Other Provisions.

6.1 Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally, telegraphed, telexed, sent by facsimile transmission or sent by certified, registered or express mail, postage prepaid. Any such notice shall be deemed given when so delivered personally, telegraphed, telexed or sent by facsimile transmission or, if mailed, on the date of actual receipt thereof, as follows:

(i) If to the Company to:

National City Center
115 West Washington Street
Indianapolis, IN 46204
Attn: General Counsel

With a copy to:

Frank A. Daniele, Esq.
Willkie Farr & Gallagher
787 Seventh Avenue
New York, NY 10019

(ii) If to the Executive, to:

Mr. Mark S. Ticotin
12 Collingswood Road
New City, NY 10956

Any party may change its address for notice hereunder by notice to the other party hereto.

6.2 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the attached Schedules which are a part hereof for all purposes, contains the entire agreement and understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, with respect thereto.

6.3 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

6.4 Assignment. The obligations of the Executive hereunder are personal and may not be assigned or delegated by him or transferred in any manner whatsoever, nor are such obligations subject to involuntary alienation, assignment or transfer. The Company shall have the right to assign this Agreement and to delegate all rights, duties and obligations hereunder, either in whole or in part, to any parent, affiliate, successor or subsidiary organization or company of the Company, so long as the obligations of the Company under this Agreement remain the obligations of the Company, provided, that the Company will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company, by agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Executive, to assume expressly and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform it if no such succession had taken place.

7. Resolution of Disputes.

7.1 Negotiation. The parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement promptly by negotiations between the Executive and an executive officer of the Company who has authority to settle the controversy. Any party may give the other party written notice of any dispute not resolved in the normal course of business. Within 10 days after the effective date of such notice, the Executive and an executive officer of the Company shall meet at a mutually acceptable time and place within the New York City metropolitan area, and thereafter as often as they reasonably deem necessary, to exchange relevant information and to attempt to resolve the dispute. If the matter has not been resolved within 30 days of the disputing party's notice, or if the parties fail to meet within 10 days, either party may initiate arbitration of the controversy or claim as provided hereinafter. If a negotiator intends to be accompanied at a meeting by an attorney, the other negotiator shall be given at least three business days' notice of such intention and may also be accompanied by an attorney. All negotiations pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall be treated as compromise and settlement negotiations for the purposes of the federal and state rules of evidence and procedure.

7.2 Arbitration. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach, termination or validity thereof, which has not been resolved by nonbinding means as provided in Section 7.1 within 60 days of the initiation of such procedure, shall be finally settled by arbitration conducted expeditiously in New York City, New York in accordance with the Center for Public Resources, Inc. ("CPR") Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration of Business Disputes by three independent and impartial arbitrators, of whom each party shall appoint one, provided that if one party has requested the other to participate in a non-binding procedure and the other has failed to participate, the requesting party may initiate arbitration before the expiration of such period. Any such party shall be appointed from the CPR Panels of Neutrals. The arbitration shall be governed by the United States Arbitration Act and any judgment upon the award decided upon the arbitrators may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitrators are not empowered to award damages in excess of compensatory damages and each party hereby irrevocably waives any damages in excess of compensatory damages. Each party hereby acknowledges that compensatory damages include (without limitation) any benefit or right of indemnification given by another party to the other under this Agreement.

7.3 Expenses. The Company shall promptly pay or reimburse the Executive for all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, court or arbitration costs and attorneys' and accountants' fees and disbursements incurred by the Executive as a result of any claim, action or proceeding (including, without limitation, a claim, action or proceeding by the Executive against the Company) arising out of, or challenging the validity or enforceability of, this Agreement or any provision hereof or any other agreement or entitlement referred to herein.

8. Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Executive and his heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns.

9. No Mitigation or Set-Off. The provisions of this Agreement are not intended to, nor shall they be construed to, require that the Executive mitigate the amount of any payment provided for in this Agreement by seeking or accepting other employment, nor shall the amount of any payment provided for in this Agreement be reduced by any compensation earned by the Executive as a result of his employment by another employer or otherwise. The Company's obligations to make the payments to the Executive required under this Agreement and otherwise to perform its obligations hereunder shall not be affected by any set off, counterclaim, recoupment, defense or other claim, right or action that the Company may have against the Executive.

11. Beneficiaries/References. The Executive shall be entitled to select (and change) a beneficiary or beneficiaries to receive any compensation or benefit payable hereunder following the Executive's death, and may change such election, in either case by giving the Company written notice thereof. In the event of the Executive's death or a judicial determination of his incompetence, reference in this Agreement to the Executive shall be deemed, where appropriate, to refer to his beneficiary(ies), estate or other legal representative(s), as the case may be.

12. Representation. The Company represents and warrants that it is fully authorized and empowered to enter into this Agreement and that the performance of its obligations under this Agreement will not violate any agreement between the Company and any other person, firm or organization or any applicable laws or regulations.

13. Survivorship. The respective rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall survive any termination of this Agreement or the Executive's employment hereunder to the extent necessary to the intended preservation of such rights and obligations.

14. As of the Effective Date, this Agreement shall supersede all prior employment and severance agreements between the Company (or its predecessors) and the Executive, including the Executive Agreement dated as of August 7, 1997.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement effective for all purposes as of the date first above written.

EXECUTIVE SEVERANCE POLICY

As Amended and Restated Effective as of August 11, 1998 1/

PREAMBLE

Corporate Property Investors establishes this Corporate Property Investors Executive Severance Policy (the "Policy") as of February 18, 1998, in order to provide severance benefits to selected executives on their Termination (as defined below).

Said Policy is intended to be an unfunded plan maintained primarily for the purpose of providing deferred compensation for a select group of management or highly compensated employees as described in Section 201(2) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

SECTION 1. Definitions. As used in this Policy, the following terms have the following meanings:

"Annual Compensation" of an Employee shall mean the sum of (i) such Employee's annualized base salary for the year in which the Termination occurs and (ii) the highest annual bonus paid or awarded to such Employee by the Company with respect to any of the three calendar years preceding the Employee's Termination (regardless of the year in which actually paid).

"Cause" shall mean (i) the willful and continued failure of an Employee to perform substantially the Employee's duties owed to the Company after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to the Employee which specifically identifies the nature of such non-performance, (ii) the willful engaging by the Employee

- --------

1/ This Policy has been amended and restated to reflect the elimination of the cutback in benefits to avoid the excise tax imposed on excess parachute payments pursuant to Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. This elimination of the cutback was approved by at least 75% of CPI's shareholders on August 10, 1998.

in gross misconduct significantly and demonstrably injurious to the Company or (iii) conduct by the Employee in the course of his or her employment which is a felony or fraud that results in material harm to the Company or a third party.

"Class 1 Employee" shall mean an Employee who is an officer of Company with the title of Chairman, President, Senior Vice President, Vice President or Treasurer.

"Class 2 Employee" shall mean an Employee who is not a Class I Employee with the title of Assistant Controller, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, Chief Information Officer, Director of Development, Executive Director of Leasing, Regional Marketing Manager or Regional Property Manager.

"Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

"Company" shall mean Corporate Property Investors and its successors and affiliates.

"Employee" shall mean a non-probationary salaried employee of the Company expected to work at least 30 hours per week in the normal work-week.

"Policy" means this Corporate Property Investors Executive Severance Policy as in effect from time to time.

"Service" of an Employee shall mean the number of anniversaries that have occurred since the date of initial hire of such Employee, as a salaried employee expected to work at least 30 hours per week in a normal work-week for the Company, plus one. For purposes of the foregoing, employment by Pembrook Management, Inc. shall be deemed to constitute employment by the Company.

"Termination" shall mean the termination of an Employee's employment with the Company other than (i) as the result of such Employee's death or disability (in the case of disability, to the extent such termination shall occur in accordance with the Company's Policy Regarding Absences from the Workplace as in effect on the date hereof, and as described in a memorandum dated June 8, 1995), (ii) as the result of such Employee's resignation, unless such resignation (A) shall have been requested by the Company, (B) shall have followed a reduction in such Employee's annualized base salary or (C) if such Employee's principal workplace is the Company's New York City headquarters, shall have followed the Company's requirement that such Employee relocate such Employee's principal workplace to a location outside of the Borough of Manhattan, New York or (iii) for Cause.

SECTION 2. Severance Payments Generally. An Employee shall not be entitled to receive any severance or other payments or benefits from the Company in connection with the Termination of such Employee's employment, except for:

(i) payment of vested and accrued pension, savings and vacation benefits, including payment for unused vacation days in accordance with the Company's vacation policy on the date hereof, and continuation of health insurance benefits to the extent required by applicable law;

(ii) payments pursuant to written contracts signed by such Employee and the Company; and

(iii) the payments described in this Policy, but only if such Employee executes a general release in the form of Exhibit A.

SECTION 3. Payments to Class 1 Employees. A Class 1 Employee with respect to whom Termination has occurred shall receive a cash payment as soon as practicable following such Termination equal to three times such Employee's Annual Compensation.

SECTION 4. Payments to Class 2 Employees. A Class 2 Employee with respect to whom Termination has occurred shall receive a cash payment as soon as practicable following such Termination equal to two times such Employee's Annual Compensation; provided, however, that if such Employee's Service is less than three, such Employee shall instead receive a cash payment equal to such Employee's Annual Compensation.

SECTION 5. Amendment and Termination. The Company may terminate or amend this Policy at any time and from time to time, for any reason or no reason; provided, however, that any such termination or amendment of this Policy that is adverse to the interests of any Employee under this Policy shall be effective only (i) as to any Employee first becoming an Employee after the date of such amendment or termination or (ii) as to any other Employee, as of February 18, 2001.

SECTION 6. Coordination with Written Contracts or other Plans. If at any time an Employee shall be entitled to payments in connection with the Termination of such Employee both under this Policy and (i) under a written contract between such Employee and the Company, then the terms of such contract, and not this Policy, shall apply, unless such contract expressly refers to this Section of this Policy and provides for a different result or (ii) another severance plan or policy established by the Company, then the terms of this Policy shall apply.

SECTION 7. Payment of Benefits. Severance Payments due under this Policy will be automatically paid following an Employee's Termination. If an Employee believes he is entitled to Severance Payments but does not receive such Severance Payments hereunder or he contests the amount of such payment, he or she may file a claim with the Company. If such claim is denied, the Employee will receive a full written explanation of such denial. The Employee may file an appeal of such denial with the Company within 60 days of receipt of the denial of the original claim. Within 60 days of receipt of the appeal, the Company will review the claim, and if it denies the appeal, will provide written notice of the denial within 60 days of the Company's receipt of the appeal. The Company shall have complete discretion to determine eligibility for Severance Payments hereunder and its decision will be binding.

SECTION 8. Statement of Company's Rights. An Employee's eligibility for benefits under this Policy shall not be considered a guarantee of continued or lifetime employment with the Company and shall not change the fact that an Employee shall be considered an Employee at will. An Employee's employment by the Company may be terminated by the Company whenever the Company, in its sole discretion, considers that to be in its best interest, subject to applicable law.

SECTION 9. Enforceability. This Policy is intended to have binding legal effect on the Company, and an Employee's continued service as an Employee of the Company after the date hereof shall be deemed to be in reliance on this Policy and shall constitute consideration for this Policy. This Policy shall be construed in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of New York.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Policy has been adopted by the Company as of February 18, 1998.

EXHIBIT A

WAIVER AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

This Agreement ("Agreement") is between Corporate Property Investors (the "Company") and _____ (the "Employee"). In consideration for the Severance Payments described in the attached Policy, the Employee hereby agrees as follows:

a. Employee's resignation will be effective on his date of Termination. Employee acknowledges that effective as of such date, any right or authority on Employee's part to act as an agent or employee of the Company, in any manner whatsoever, shall be terminated.

b. Employee agrees to release and discharge the Company and any related company, and their respective agents, employees, directors and officers from any and all actions, causes of action, claims, awards, damages, demands or suits, at law or in equity, or liabilities of any kind or nature whatsoever, which Employee now has or hereafter may have against the Company or such other entities or individuals at any time in the past and at any time through his date of Termination. This release and discharge is specifically understood to apply to, but is not limited to, claims of wrongful discharge, claims of discriminatory treatment based upon any one or combination of the factors of sex, race, religion, sexual orientation, handicap, national origin and any and all other claims arising under federal, state or local law, whether such claims arise due to common law (whether arising in tort or contract) or by constitution, statute or ordinance. This release and discharge also includes a waiver of any rights or claims which Employee may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, arising on or prior to the date of execution of this Agreement but does not include any such rights or claims arising after the date of this Agreement.

c. Employee acknowledges that he is entering into this Agreement voluntarily and of his own free will.

The parties hereto agree that this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. The parties further agree that should any part or provision of this Agreement be held unenforceable or in conflict with controlling law, the validity of the remaining parts and provisions shall be unaffected.

Employee acknowledges that he was provided a copy of this Agreement on [ ], and that he has until [ ], to sign and return it to the Company. Employee shall have seven days from the date this Agreement is executed by the Employee to revoke this Agreement. It is agreed that this Agreement shall become effective and enforceable at end of the seven-day revocation period unless the Employee exercises his right to revoke this Agreement within such period. Employee is advised to consult with an attorney prior to executing this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the day and year written below.

IMPORTANT TAX INFORMATION

In order to ensure compliance with federal income tax requirements, each holder of shares of SDG Common Stock is requested to provide the Exchange Agent with his or her correct TIN and to certify whether he or she is subject to backup federal income tax withholding by completing and sign the Substitute Form W-9 below.

Federal income tax law requires that a holder whose tendered Certificate(s) are accepted for exchange must provide the Exchange Agent (as payor) with his or her correct taxpayer identification number ("TIN"), which, in the case of a holder who is an individual, is his or her social security number. If the Exchange Agent is not provided with the correct TIN, the holder may be subject to a $50 penalty imposed by the Internal Revenue Service. In addition, delivery to the holder of the Certificate(s) may be subject to back-up withholding. (If withholding results in overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained.) Exempt holders (including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) are not subject to these back-up withholding and reporting requirements.

Under federal income tax laws, payments that may be made by SDG on account of certificates of Simon Group Common Stock may be subject to back-up withholding at a rate of 31%. In order to prevent back-up withholding, each tendering holder must provide his or her correct TIN by completing the "Substitute Form W-9" referred to above, certifying that the TIN provided is correct (or that the holder is awaiting a TIN) and that: (i) the holder has not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service that he or she is subject to back-up withholding as a result of failure to report all interest or dividends; or (ii) the Internal Revenue Service has notified the holder that he or she is no longer subject to back-up withholding; or (iii) certify in accordance with the Guidelines that such holder is exempt from back-up withholding. If the Certificate(s) are in more than one name or are not in the name of the actual owner, consult the enclosed Guidelines for information on which TIN to report.

NOTE: FAILURE TO COMPLETE AND RETURN THIS FORM MAY RESULT IN BACKUP WITHHOLDING OF 31% OF ANY PAYMENTS MADE TO YOU PURSUANT TO THE OFFER. PLEASE REVIEW THE ENCLOSED GUIDELINES FOR CERTIFICATION OF TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER ON SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9 FOR ADDITIONAL DETAILS.

This Letter of Transmittal is to accompany certificates formerly representing shares of Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Common Stock"), Class B Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Class B Common Stock") and Class C Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Class C Common Stock" and together with SDG Common Stock and SDG Class B Common Stock, "SDG Equity Stock") in connection with the merger (the "Merger") of SPG Merger Sub, Inc. ("SPG Merger Sub"), a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of Corporate Property Investors, Inc. ("CPI"), with and into SDG.

By delivering certificates formerly representing shares of SDG Common Stock (the "Certificate(s)"), the registered holder of such certificates releases SDG, CPI, SPG Merger Sub, and their respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees, partners, agents, advisors and representatives, and their respective successors and assigns, from any and all claims arising from or in connection with the purchase or ownership of such SDG Common Stock or the exchange of such SDG Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement (as defined herein).

This Letter of Transmittal should be promptly (i) completed and signed in the space provided and on the Substitute Form W-9 and (ii) mailed or delivered with your certificate(s) formerly representing shares of SDG Common Stock to First Chicago Trust Company of New York acting as exchange agent (the "Exchange Agent") at the following address:

DELIVERY OF THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL TO AN ADDRESS OTHER THAN AS SET FORTH ABOVE DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A VALID DELIVERY. YOU MUST SIGN THIS FORM WHERE INDICATED BELOW.

PLEASE DO NOT SEND STOCK CERTIFICATES TO SIMON DEBARTOLO GROUP, INC.

Capitalized terms used in this Letter of Transmittal and not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (as defined herein).

[ ]If any SDG Common Stock Certificate(s) which you own have been lost, stolen or destroyed, check this box and see Instruction 4. Please fill out the remainder of this Letter of Transmittal and indicate here the number of shares of each class of SDG Common Stock formerly represented by such Certificate(s). _____ shares of SDG Common Stock.

The undersigned has been advised that the stockholders of SDG representing more than 66-2/3% of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Class C Common Stock have approved the Merger of SPG Merger Sub, Inc., a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of CPI, with and into SDG and that such Merger has been consummated and became effective on _____, 1998 (the "Effective Time").

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Merger Agreement") by and among SDG, Corporate Property Investors (predecessor to CPI and, renamed Simon Property Group, Inc. ("Simon Group") at the Effective Time) and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., the undersigned surrenders the enclosed Certificate(s), which immediately prior to the Merger represented shares of SDG Common Stock, SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock in exchange for shares of Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Simon Group ("Simon Group Common Stock"), Class B Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Simon Group ("Simon Group Class B Common Stock") and Class C Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Simon Group ("Simon Group Class C Common Stock") (collectively referred to as "Simon Group Equity Stock"), respectively.

It is understood that for a holder of a Certificate to receive certificates for Simon Group Common Stock, the Exchange Agent must receive (i) this Letter of Transmittal properly completed, (ii) Certificate(s) formerly representing such holder's shares of SDG Common Stock and (ii) any other documents required by this Letter of Transmittal. It is further understood that this Letter of Transmittal is subject to (a) the terms, conditions and limitations set forth in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, dated _____ __, 1998, relating to the Merger (the "Proxy Statement/Prospectus"), receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by the undersigned, (b) the terms, conditions and limitations set forth in the Merger Agreement and (c) the instructions herein. The acceptance by the Exchange Agent on behalf of SDG of the Certificate(s), delivered pursuant to this Letter of Transmittal will constitute a binding agreement between the undersigned and SDG upon the terms and subject to the conditions of (a), (b) and (c) listed above.

The undersigned represents and warrants that the undersigned has full power and authority to surrender the Certificate(s) surrendered herewith or covered by an affidavit and indemnification for mutilated, lost, destroyed or stolen Certificate(s), free and clear of any liens, claims, charges or encumbrances whatsoever. The undersigned understands and acknowledges that the method of delivery of the Certificate(s) and all other required documents is at the option and risk of the undersigned and that the risk of loss and title to such Certificate(s) shall pass only after the Exchange Agent has actually received the Certificate(s). All questions as to the surrender of Certificate(s) hereunder shall be determined by the Exchange Agent in its reasonable discretion, and such determination shall be binding and conclusive. No authority hereby conferred or agreed to be conferred hereby shall be affected by, and all such authority shall survive, the death or incapacity of the undersigned. All obligations of the undersigned hereunder shall be binding upon the heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns of the undersigned.

Unless otherwise indicated in the box entitled "Special Payment Instructions," please register any certificate for Simon Group Common Stock in the name of the registered holder(s) of the shares of SDG Common Stock appearing in the box entitled "Description of Shares Surrendered." In the event that the boxes entitled "Special Delivery Instructions" and "Special Delivery Instructions" are both completed, please register any certificates for Simon Group Common Stock in the name(s) of and mail such certificate to the person(s) so indicated.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. EXECUTION AND DELIVERY. This Letter of Transmittal or a facsimile hereof must be properly filled in, dated and signed in BOX IV, and must be delivered, together with all Certificate(s) for such shares of SDG Common Stock held by such holder, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in form acceptable for transfer on the books of SDG.

THE METHOD OF DELIVERY OF ALL DOCUMENTS IS AT THE OPTION AND RISK OF THE HOLDERS, BUT IF SENT BY MAIL, REGISTERED MAIL, RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, PROPERLY INSURED, IS SUGGESTED.

2. INADEQUATE SPACE. If there is insufficient space on this Letter of Transmittal to list all your Certificate(s), please attach a separate signed schedule containing the information in BOX I.

3. SIGNATURES ON THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL; ASSIGNMENTS; GUARANTEE OF SIGNATURES. The signature (or signatures, in the case of Certificate(s) owned by two or more joint holders) on this Letter of Transmittal must correspond with the name(s) as written on the face of the Certificate(s) for the Certificate(s) submitted, without alteration, enlargement or any change whatsoever unless the shares of SDG Common Stock described in this Letter of Transmittal have been assigned by the registered holder(s), in which event this Letter of Transmittal should be signed in exactly the same form as the name of the last transferee indicated on the transfers attached to or endorsed on the Certificate(s).

If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by a person or person other than the registered owners of the Certificate(s) listed, the Certificate(s) must be endorsed or accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name(s) of the registered owner(s) appear on such Certificate(s).

If this Letter of Transmittal or any Certificate(s) or stock power(s) are signed by a trustee, executor administrator, guardian, officer of a corporation, attorney-in-fact or any other person acting in a representative or fiduciary capacity, the person signing must give such person's full title in such capacity and appropriate evidence of authority to act in such capacity must be forwarded with this Letter of Transmittal.

4. MUTILATED, LOST, STOLEN OR DESTROYED CERTIFICATE(S). If your Certificate(s) have been mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, please make note of this fact on this Letter of Transmittal and the appropriate forms for replacement will be sent to you. You will then be instructed as to the steps you must take in order to receive a stock certificate representing a share of Simon Group Common Stock.

5. SPECIAL ISSUANCE AND DELIVERY INSTRUCTIONS. If the section entitled "Special Payment Instructions" (BOX II) is completed, then signatures on this Letter of Transmittal must be guaranteed by a firm that is a bank, broker, dealer, credit union, savings association or other entity which is a member in good standing of the Securities Transfer Agents' Medallion Program (each an "Eligible Institution"). If the surrendered Certificate(s) are registered in the name of a person other than the signer of this Letter of Transmittal, or if the issuance is to be made to a person other than the registered owner(s), then the surrendered Certificate(s) must be endorsed or accompanied by duly executed stock power, in either case signed exactly as the name(s) of the registered owner(s) appear on such Certificate(s) or stock power(s), with the signatures on the Certificate(s) or stock power(s) guaranteed by an Eligible Institution as provided herein.

If the Certificate(s) are to be registered in the name of the registered holder(s) of a share of SDG Common Stock, but are to be sent to someone other than the registered holder(s) or to an address other than the address of the registered holder, it will be necessary to indicate such person or address in the section entitled "Special Delivery Instructions" (BOX III).

6. SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9. Each surrendering stockholder is required to provide the Exchanges Agent with such holder's correct TIN on the Substitute Form W-9, which is a part of this Letter of Transmittal, and to certify whether the stockholder is subject to backup withholding. Failure to provide such information or an adequate basis for exemption on the form may subject the surrendering stockholder to 31% Federal income tax withholding on payments made to such surrendering stockholder with respect to the certificate(s). If such holder is an individual, the TIN is his or her social security number. A holder must check the box in Part 2 of Substitute Form W-9 if such holder is subject to backup withholding. The box in Part 3 of the form should be checked if the surrendering holder has not been issued a TIN and has applied for a TIM or intends to apply for a TIN in the near future. If box 3 is checked, the surrendering holder must also complete the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number in order to avoid backup withholding. Notwithstanding that the box i Part 3 is checked and the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number is complete, the Exchange Agent will withhold 31% on all payments made prior to the time a properly certified TIN is provided to the Exchange Agent. However, such amount will be refunded to such surrendering holder if a TIN is provided to the Exchange Agent within 60 days.

7. TRANSFER TAXES. SDG will pay all transfer taxes, if any, applicable to the transfer of Certificate(s) to it. If, however, Certificate(s) not exchanged are to be delivered to, or are to be issued in the name of, any person other than the record holder, or if tendered certificates are recorded in the name of any person other than the person signing this Letter of Transmittal, or if a transfer tax is imposed by any reason other than the transfer of Certificate(s) to SDG, then the amount of such transfer taxes (whether imposed on the record holder or any other person) will be payable by the tendering holder. If satisfactory evidence of payment of taxes or exemption from taxes is not submitted with this Letter of Transmittal, the amount of transfer taxes will be billed directly to the tendering holder. Except as provided in this Instruction 7, it will not be necessary for transfer tax stamps to be affixed to the certificates listed in this Letter.

8. WAIVER OF CONDITIONS. SDG reserves the absolute right to amend or waive any of the specified conditions in the exchange offer in the case of any Certificate(s) surrendered.

9. REQUESTS FOR ASSISTANCE OR ADDITIONAL COPIES. Questions relating to the procedure for tendering, as well as requests for additional copies of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or this Letter of Transmittal, may be directed to the Exchange Agent.
