SECTION 1.09. Governing Law. This Indenture and each of the Notes shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

SECTION 1.10. Legal Holidays. In any case where the Stated Maturity of any Note or the date on which any installment of interest is due and payable shall be a day which is not a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture or the Notes) payment of interest, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or principal need not be made on such day but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day, with the same force and effect as if made at the Stated Maturity or due date and no interest shall accrue on such payment for the intervening period after such Stated Maturity or due date to such next succeeding Business Day.

SECTION 1.11. Consent to Jurisdiction and Service of Process. The Issuer waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection which it may have to the laying of the venue in any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Indenture or any Note brought in any New York State or United States Federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in the City of New York and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The Issuer agrees that final judgment in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such a court shall be conclusive and binding upon the Issuer and may be enforced in any court to the jurisdiction of which the Issuer is subject by a suit upon such judgment, provided that service of process is effected upon the Issuer in the manner specified in the following paragraph or as otherwise permitted by law.

As long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, the Issuer will at all times during which the Issuer does not maintain an office in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York have an authorized agent in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York upon whom process may be served in any legal action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Indenture or any Note and will upon the appointment of such agent promptly notify the Trustee in writing of the name and address of such agent. Service of process upon such agent and written notice of such service mailed or delivered to the Issuer shall to the extent permitted by law be deemed in every respect effective service of process upon the Issuer in any such legal action or proceeding.

Nothing in this Section shall affect the right of the Trustee or any Noteholder to serve process in any manner permitted by law or limit the right of the Trustee to bring proceedings against the Issuer in the courts of any jurisdiction or jurisdictions.

SECTION 1.12. Disclaimer of Liability of Shareholders and Others. Corporate Property Investors refers to the Trustees for the time being under an Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust dated as of June 15, 1978, as amended, on file in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Declaration of Trust provides that the obligations of Corporate Property Investors shall not constitute personal obligations of its Trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents, and that all persons dealing with Corporate Property Investors shall look solely to the assets of Corporate Property Investors for satisfaction of any liability of Corporate Property Investors, and will not seek recourse against such Trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents or any of them or any of their personal assets for such satisfaction.

ARTICLE TWO

ISSUE, EXECUTION, FORM AND REGISTRATION OF SECURITIES

SECTION 2.01. Form Generally; Title and Terms.

(a) The Notes, including the face of the Notes, the reverse of the Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be in substantially the forms set forth above, with such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Indenture and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon as may be required to comply with the rules of any securities exchange or as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the officers executing such Notes, as evidenced by such execution.

The definitive Notes shall be printed, lithographed, engraved or otherwise produced as determined by the officers executing such Notes as evidenced by such execution.

(b) Except for Notes authenticated and delivered in exchange for or in lieu of Notes pursuant to Section 2.04, 2.05 or 8.05, the aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to $150,000,000 principal amount.

The Notes shall be known and designated as the 7 3/4% Notes Due 2004 of the Issuer. Their Stated Maturity shall be August 15, 2004. The Notes shall bear interest as provided in the form of Note.

(c) The Notes and transfers thereof shall be registered as provided in Section 2.04.

(d) Each Note shall be dated the date of its authentication.

(e) The Notes shall not be entitled to any mandatory sinking fund. The Notes shall be redeemable by the Issuer as provided for in Article Nine.

(f) The Notes may be issued in whole or in part in the form of one or more global notes (the "Global Notes"). The Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall, in accordance herewith and upon the Order of the Issuer, authenticate and deliver one or more Global Notes that (i) shall represent and shall be denominated in an aggregate principal or face amount of the Outstanding Notes to be represented by such Global Note or Notes, (ii) shall be registered in the name of the Depositary or the nominee of the Depositary, (iii) shall be delivered by the Trustee to the Depositary or pursuant to the Depositary's instructions and (iv) shall bear the legend set forth below.

The Issuer initially designates The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") as the depositary for the Global Notes. The Issuer and the Trustee shall enter into a customary letter of representation with DTC, providing for, among other things, a legend restricting transfer of the Global Notes.

The Depositary may be treated by the Issuer as the owner of such Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by or to the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of any Note.

The Holder of any Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, and the Trustee agree that such Global Note shall be transferred pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof only in whole and not in part to a nominee of DTC, a successor to DTC or a nominee of such successor which is another clearing agency registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

If at any time DTC (or any successor Depositary) notifies the Issuer that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depositary for the Global Note or at any time DTC (or such successor Depositary) shall no longer be eligible under this Section 2.01, the Issuer shall appoint a successor Depositary with respect to the Global Notes and such successor shall enter into a customary letter of representation with the Issuer and the Trustee. If a successor Depositary for the Global Notes is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days after the Issuer receives such notice or becomes aware of such ineligibility, or if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Notes shall thereafter no longer be in the form of the Global Notes and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee upon receipt of an Order of the Issuer for the authentication and delivery of certificated Notes, will authenticate and deliver certificated Notes in any authorized denominations in an aggregate principal amount of the Global Notes in exchange for the Global Notes, such certificated Notes to be in denominations and registered in the names specified by the Depositary; provided that if such Event of Default is waived pursuant to Section 5.01 or is no longer continuing, such certificated Notes need not be issued and if already issued may, at the Holder's request, be represented again by a Global Note in accordance with this Section 2.01.

SECTION 2.02. Denominations. The Notes are issuable in registered form in denominations of $250,000 and integral multiples thereof.

SECTION 2.03. Execution, Authentication and Delivery of Notes. The Notes shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer by a duly authorized officer of the Issuer. Any such signature may be manual or facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signature of any Person who was, at the actual date of execution thereof, a duly authorized officer of the Issuer shall bind the Issuer, notwithstanding that such Person has ceased to be a duly authorized officer prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes. At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer may deliver to the Trustee for authentication Notes executed by the Issuer and, upon written Request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver such Notes as in this Indenture provided and not otherwise.

Except as otherwise provided in Sections 3.03 and 4.14 of this Indenture with respect to amounts deposited by the Issuer with the Trustee to effect a defeasance of the Notes or certain covenants and provisions in the Indenture, all monies paid by the Issuer to the Trustee or other Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, Make-Whole Amount or interest shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Issuer and, to the extent permitted by law, the Holder of such Note thereafter shall look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amount shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 2.04. Registration, Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee a register (the register maintained in such office and in any other office or agency designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose being herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Notes and for transfers of Notes. The Issuer hereby appoints Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as the Registrar. The registration of transfer of a Note by the Registrar shall be deemed to be the acknowledgment of such transfer on behalf of the Issuer. Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note at an office or agency of the Issuer designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose, the Issuer shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of any authorized denomination and of a like aggregate principal amount.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.04 (a), the following procedures and restrictions with respect to the registration of any transfer of any Note other than a Global Note shall apply:

(i) The Registrar shall register the transfer of any Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if the requested transfer is (x) to the Issuer, or (y) by a Holder that certifies that it was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer and such transfer is at least three years after the later of (A) the issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (B) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(ii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if each of (i) the Holder of such Note and (ii) the proposed transferee (if so required by the Certificate of Transfer) has properly completed the Certificate of Transfer, or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer, and has delivered such Certificate to the Registrar, together, in the case of a transfer to an Accredited Investor, with a letter from the transferee in the form of Exhibit A hereto.

(iii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note to or from a depositary organization for any other institutional trading system designated by the Issuer in a Notice of Issuance or otherwise set forth in a written notice to the Registrar. In connection with any such transfer to such depositary organization for deposit in such other institutional trading system, no further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied to the Registrar in respect thereof. In connection with any such transfer out of such other institutional trading system, the Registrar shall receive such documents, certifications or other evidence from the transferor or transferee as are specified in such Notice of Issuance or other written notice.

(iv) If so specified in the Notice of Issuance with respect to the Notes, the Registrar shall register the transfer of the Notes, from or through any dealer, placement agent or other person specified by the Issuer in such Notice of Issuance which has agreed in writing to offer, sell and effect transfers of Notes only to a prospective purchaser who such dealer, placement agent or other person has reasonable grounds to believe and does believe is a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who will make representations with respect to itself substantially to the same effect as set forth in the Certificate of Transfer. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(v) With respect to any requested transfer of a Note not provided for in clauses (i) through (iv) above, the Registrar shall, subject to such additional procedures as the Issuer may establish, register such transfer upon surrender of such Note. Such additional procedures may include, without limitation, (x) the delivery by the transferor or the proposed transferee of an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to the effect that such transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act and (y) the delivery by the proposed transferee of representation letters in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act.

(vi) Upon receipt of the duly completed Note and any required instruments of transfer, transfer notices or other written statements or documents, the Registrar shall register the transfer and complete, countersign and deliver in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of authorized denominations in the principal amount specified on such Note.

(vii) The Registrar shall have no liability whatsoever to any party so long as it registers the transfer in accordance with the instructions described here.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, so long as a Global Note remains Outstanding, and is held by the Registrar, as custodian for the Depositary, unless the transferee shall otherwise request in writing to the Registrar, no certificated Note shall be issued or authenticated in connection with the transfer of any certificated Note pursuant to the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A. Instead, upon acceptance for transfer of any certificated Note, the Registrar shall cancel such certificated Note and shall, in lieu of issuing a new certificated Note in exchange for the certificated Note surrendered for registration of transfer, endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of such certificated Note. All provisions of this Section 2.04 relating to the transfer of Notes (other than those relating to the issuance and authorization of a new Note) shall apply to any transfer resulting in an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any increase in the principal amount of any Global Note.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, resales or other transfers of Notes represented by a Global Note made in compliance with Rule 144A or made on or subsequent to the date that is three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (ii) the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, by a beneficial owner that was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer will be conducted according to the rules and procedures of the Depositary applicable to U.S. corporate debt obligations and without notice to, or action by, the Registrar. Upon notice from the beneficial owner (or an agent of the beneficial owner) of Notes represented by a Global Note that such beneficial owner intends to resell or transfer such Notes (x) otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A prior to three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Notes (or any predecessor of such Notes) and (ii) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or (y) otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A if such beneficial owner was at the proposed date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such proposed date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer, and upon satisfaction by the transferor and, if applicable, the transferee, of the conditions necessary for the registration of transfer of a Note set out in Section 2.04(b), the Registrar shall and is authorized by the holder of such Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, to endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and the reduction in the principal amount of such Global Note equal to the principal amount of the portion of the Global Note being transferred and shall authenticate and deliver a certificated Note registered in the name of the transferee or its nominee in an equal aggregate principal amount. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any decrease in the principal amount of any Global Note.

(d) Except as otherwise provided on the face of the Notes with respect to the payment of interest on Notes transferred between Record Dates and Interest Payment Dates, each Note authenticated and delivered upon any transfer or exchange for or in lieu of the whole or any part of any Note shall carry all the rights to interest, if any, accrued and unpaid and to accrue which were carried by the whole or such part of such Note.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to exchange or register the transfer of any Note during the period-of 15 days preceding (i) the due date for any payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, on the Notes or (ii) the date on which Notes are scheduled for redemption.

(f) Transfer, registration and exchange shall be permitted and executed as provided in this Section without any charge other than any stamp or other taxes or governmental charges or insurance charges payable on transfers or any expenses of delivery but subject to such reasonable regulations as the Issuer and the Registrar may prescribe.

(g) Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes not bearing the legend set forth in the form of Note (the "Private Placement Legend"), the Trustee shall deliver Notes that do not bear the Private Placement Legend. Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes bearing the Private Placement Legend, the Trustee shall deliver only Notes that bear the Private Placement Legend unless the circumstances contemplated by Section 2.O4(b)(i)(y) above exist.

(h) Any Note or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes in other authorized denominations, in an equal aggregate principal amount. Notes to be exchanged shall be surrendered at an office or agency to be maintained by the Issuer for such purpose as provided in Section 4.02, and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver in exchange therefor the Note or Notes which the Noteholder making the exchange shall be entitled to receive, bearing numbers not contemporaneously outstanding.

All Notes presented for registration of transfer, exchange, redemption or payment shall (if so required by the Issuer or the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee duly executed by, the Holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

All Notes issued upon any transfer or exchange of Notes shall be valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

(i) The Issuer agrees to make available such information as is required by Rule 144A(d)(iv) as in effect on the original issue date of the Notes. Further, the Notes and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time in accordance with Section 8.01 (i) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (ii) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form). Each Holder of any Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of such Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

(j) For purposes of determining the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of a Note, the Registrar and the Issuer shall rely on the representations as to "Affiliation with Issuer" set forth on the Certificate or Certificates of Transfer delivered to it from and after the date of issuance of such Note (or any predecessor Note) in connection with transfers of such Note. The Registrar, the Issuer and all Holders of Notes shall be entitled to rely without further investigation on any certification by any transferor on the Certificate of Transfer. Unless a transferor required to provide a Certificate of Transfer shall certify thereon that it is or at some time during which it held such Note was an Affiliate of the Issuer, such transferor shall be deemed to have represented that it is not nor has it been at any time during which it held such Note an Affiliate of the Issuer.

SECTION 2.05. Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost and Stolen Notes. In case any Note shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and upon the written request of any officer of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced Note, or in lieu of and substitution for the Note so apparently destroyed, lost or stolen. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith. In case any Note which has matured or has been called for redemption in full, shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer may, instead of issuing a substitute Note, with the Holder's consent in the case that the Note is called for redemption, pay or authorize the payment of the same (without surrender thereof except in the case of a mutilated or defaced Note), if the applicant for such payment shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as any of them may require to save each of them harmless from all risks, however remote, and, in every case of apparent destruction, loss or theft, the applicant shall also furnish to the Issuer and the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Every substitute Note issued pursuant to the provisions of this Section by virtue of the fact that any Note is apparently destroyed, lost or stolen shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Issuer, whether or not the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone and shall be entitled to all the benefits of (but shall be subject to all the limitations of rights set forth in) this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Notes shall be held and owned upon the express condition that, to the extent permitted by law, the foregoing provisions are exclusive with respect to the replacement or payment or conversion of mutilated, defaced, or apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Notes and shall preclude any and all other rights or remedies notwithstanding any law or statute existing or hereafter enacted to the contrary with respect to the replacement or payment of negotiable instruments or other securities without their surrender.

SECTION 2.06. Persons Deemed Owners. The Issuer, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee may treat the person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and (subject to the provisions for payment of interest set forth in the form of Note) Interest on such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note be overdue, and neither the Issuer, the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary to the extent permitted by applicable law.

SECTION 2.07. Cancellation of Notes; Destruction Thereof. All Notes surrendered for payment, redemption, or registration of transfer or exchange, if surrendered to the Issuer or any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee, shall be delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or, if surrendered to the Trustee, shall be cancelled by it; and no Notes shall be issued in lieu thereof except as expressly permitted by any of the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee shall destroy cancelled Notes held by it and deliver a certificate of destruction to the Issuer. If the Issuer shall acquire any of the Notes, such acquisition shall not operate as a redemption or satisfaction of the indebtedness represented by such Notes unless and until the same are delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

ARTICLE THREE

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE; DEPOSITED MONEYS

SECTION 3.01. Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture. This Indenture shall cease to be of further effect (except as to any surviving rights of transfer or exchange herein expressly provided for), and the Trustee, upon Request of the Issuer at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, when

(a) either

(i) all Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than Notes which have been destroyed, lost or stolen and which have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 2.04), have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation and 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date of delivery of the last such Note for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (l) have become due and payable, (2) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, (3) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuer, or (4) are deemed paid and discharged pursuant to Section 3.03, as applicable, and in the case of (l), (2) or (3) above, 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date on which the Issuer has deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent, in trust for the purpose, an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest accrued to the date of such deposit or to the Stated Maturity or Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Issuer; and

(c) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, the obligations of the Issuer to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06 and, if money shall have been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to subclause (ii) of clause (a) of this Section or if money or obligations shall have been deposited with or received by the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03, the obligations of the Trustee under Sections 3.02 and 6.06 shall survive.

SECTION 3.02. Application of Trust Money. Subject to Section 4.02, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.01, all money and U.S. Government Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 or 4.14 and all money received by the Trustee in respect of U.S. Governmental Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through the Paying Agent as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of the Notes for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee, of all sums due and to become due thereon for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with or received by the Trustee or to make payments as contemplated by Section 3.03; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

SECTION 3.03. Satisfaction, Discharge and Defeasance of Notes. The Issuer shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness on all the Notes on the 91st day after the date of the deposit referred to in subparagraph (d) hereof, and the provisions of this Indenture shall no longer be in effect (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, shall, upon receipt of a Request of the Issuer, execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except as to:

(a) the rights of Holders of Notes to receive, from the trust funds described in subparagraph (d) of this Section 3.03, payment of the principal of and each installment of or interest on the Notes on the Stated Maturity of such principal or installment of principal or interest;

(b) the Issuer's obligations with respect to the Notes under Section 2.04, 2.05 and 4.02; and

provided that, the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(d) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defease the Notes under this Section 3.03 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably with the Trustee as trust funds in trust for the purpose of making the following payments, specifically pledged as security for and dedicated solely to the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants expressed in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(e) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(f) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such date;

(g) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (l) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (2) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (l) or (2), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit, defeasance and discharge and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit, defeasance and discharge had not occurred;

(h) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble to this Section 3.03 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 3.03 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 3.03, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 3.03 have been complied with.

ARTICLE FOUR

COVENANTS OF THE ISSUER
AND THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 4.01. Payment of Principal and Interest. The Issuer will duly and punctually pay the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes, in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Indenture.

Payment of principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on Notes will be made in accordance with the terms of the Notes against surrender of the Notes at the Corporate Trust Office of the Paying Agent in the City of New York. Payment of interest on the Notes will be made, in accordance with the terms of the Notes, to the respective persons in whose name the Notes are registered at the close of business on the Record Date prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date.

The Issuer will on or before 3:00 P.M., the City of New York time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the due date of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes, pay to the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds a sum sufficient to pay the principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes.

SECTION 4.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency; Appointment of Paying Agent. So long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, the Issuer will maintain in the City of New York the following: (a) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for payment, (b) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for registration of transfer and for exchange as in this Indenture provided and (c) an office or agency where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes or of this Indenture may be served. The Issuer will give to the Trustee written notice of the location of any such office or agency and of any change of location thereof. The Issuer hereby initially designates the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee as the office or agency for each such purpose. In case the Issuer shall fail to maintain any such office or agency or shall fail to give such notice of the location or of any change in the location thereof, presentations and demands may be made and notices may be served at the Corporate Trust Office.

The Issuer hereby appoints Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), for the payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes on behalf of the Issuer. The Issuer reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent, transfer agent or Registrar or to appoint any additional or other Paying Agent or agencies or transfer agent or agencies or Registrar.

Whenever the Issuer shall appoint a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, it will cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such agent shall agree with the Trustee, subject to the provisions of this Section 4.02, that it will hold all sums held by it as such agent for the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, that it will give the Trustee notice of any failure by the Issuer to make any payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes when the same shall be due and payable and that, at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, it will forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held by it in trust.

Anything in this Section 4.02 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Issuer may, at any time, for the purpose of obtaining a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, or for any other reason, cause to be paid to the Trustee all sums held in trust by any Paying Agent hereunder as required by this Section 4.02, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the trust herein contained. Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent for the payment of the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer, and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amounts shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 4.03. Existence of Issuer. The Issuer will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, rights and franchises; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to preserve the existence of the Issuer or any such right or franchise if the Board of Trustees of the Issuer

Trustee, so that there shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder.

SECTION 4.07. Compliance with Laws. The Issuer will comply, and, will cause each Subsidiary to comply, in all material respects, with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and requirements of governmental authority, except where the necessity of compliance therewith is contested in good faith or where the failure to comply would not have a material adverse effect upon the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 4.08. Limitations on Debt. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit:

(a) Consolidated Debt to exceed 50% of Gross Assets, or

(b) Consolidated Secured Debt to exceed 35% of the Gross Assets.

SECTION 4.09. Minimum Net Worth. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit Consolidated Net Worth to be less than $2,000,000,000 (Two Billion Dollars).

SECTION 4.10. Debt Service Coverage. The Issuer shall not, at the end of any fiscal quarter, permit the sum of (i) Cash Flow for the four fiscal quarters then ended plus (ii) Consolidated Interest Expense (but only to the extent such Consolidated Interest Expense shall have been deducted in computing Consolidated Net Income) for such four fiscal quarters to be less than 150% of the sum of (x) Consolidated Interest Expense for such four fiscal quarters plus (y) all payments of principal with respect to Consolidated Debt payable during such four fiscal quarters (other than optional prepayments and any other lump sum or bullet payments).

SECTION 4.11. Annual Real Property Appraisal. Prior to February 28 of each year, the Issuer will (a) cause the fair market value of the equity of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries in all interests in Real Property as of the December 31 next preceding such February 28 to be appraised by the Appraiser in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute, (b) calculate as of such December 31 the value of Gross Assets, (c) cause the Appraiser to review such calculation of Gross Assets and (d) cause to be filed with the Trustee a report from the Appraiser containing the Appraiser's opinion on the value of Gross Assets as of such

December 31 and its opinion on the reasonableness of the Issuer's calculation of the value of Gross Assets as of such December 31 and stating that the appraisal referred to in clause (a) above was made in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute.

SECTION 4.12. File Statement Annually with the Trustee. Within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year, the Issuer will file with the Trustee an Officers' Certificate, stating that in the course of the performance by the signers of their duties as officers of the Issuer, they would normally obtain knowledge of any default by the Issuer in the performance or fulfillment of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Indenture, that they have made a review with a view to determining whether there is any default under this Indenture, and stating whether or not they have obtained knowledge of any such default, and, if so, specifying each default of which the signers have knowledge and the nature thereof.

At the time such Officers' Certificate is filed, the Issuer will also file with the Trustee a letter or statement of the independent accountants who shall have certified the consolidated financial statements of the Issuer for its preceding fiscal year to the effect that, in making the examination necessary for certification of such financial statements, nothing has come to their attention to cause them to believe that the Issuer failed to comply with the covenants in Sections 4.01, 4.08, 4.09 and 4.10 which failure remains uncured at the date of such letter or statement, or, if they shall have obtained knowledge of any such failure, specifying in such letter or statement the nature thereof.

SECTION 4.13. Further Assurances. From time to time whenever requested by the Trustee, the Issuer will execute and deliver such further instruments and assurances and do such further acts as may be reasonably necessary or proper to carry out more effectually the purposes of this Indenture or to secure the rights and remedies hereunder of the Holders of the Notes.

SECTION 4.14. Defeasance of Certain Obligations. From and after the 91st day after the date the Issuer deposits funds with the Trustee as described in paragraph (1) of this Section 4.14, the Issuer may omit to comply with any term, provision or condition set forth in Sections 4.04, 4.05, 4.07, 4.08 to 4.11, inclusive, and Section 5.01(c) and (d) and (e) and (f) (but only insofar as such paragraphs (e) and (f) relate to Subsidiaries of the Issuer), inclusive, and Article Nine shall be deemed deleted, provided that the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(1) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defeasance under this Section 4.14 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably (except as provided in Section 3.03) with the Trustee as trust funds in trust, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(2) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(3) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such deposit;

(4) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (a) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (b) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (a) or (b), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations had not occurred;

(5) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble of this Section 4.14 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 4.14 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 4.14, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(6) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 4.14 have been complied with.

ARTICLE FIVE

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01. Events of Default Defined; Acceleration of Maturity; Waiver of Default. The following events or conditions constitute Events of Default hereunder (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order, rule or regulation of any administrative body):

(a) default in the payment of any installment of interest upon any Note when it becomes due and payable and continuance of such default for a period of 10 Business Days; or

(b) default in the payment of principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any of the Notes when due, whether at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise; or

(c) default in the performance, or breach, of any covenant or agreement of the Issuer in this Indenture or the Notes (other than a covenant or agreement a default in the performance of which or the breach of which is elsewhere in this Section specifically dealt with or default in the payment of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest), and continuance of such default or breach for a period of 30 days after there shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such default or breach and requiring it to be remedied and stating that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder; or

(d) acceleration of, or failure to pay at maturity, Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) of the Issuer or any Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount in excess of $1O,000,000 which acceleration is not rescinded or annulled or which Debt is not discharged, in either case, within 30 days after there shall have been given to the

Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such acceleration or failure to pay and requiring the Issuer to remedy the same; or

(e) the entry of a decree or order for relief in respect of the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) by a court having jurisdiction in the premises in an involuntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of 60 consecutive days; or

(f) the commencement by the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) of a voluntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or the consent by it (or any such Subsidiary) to the entry of an order for relief in an involuntary case under any such law as to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of corporate action by the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) in furtherance of any such action.

If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(a) or (b) occurs and is continuing, then and in every such case (i) the Trustee by a notice in writing to the Issuer may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately or (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee declare the Notes to be due and payable immediately, and upon any such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(c) or (d) occurs and is continuing, then in every such case the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately by a notice in writing to the Issuer (and to the Trustee if given by Holders) and upon such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(e) or (f) occurs, the Notes shall automatically become due and payable at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid without any action or declaration upon the part of the Trustee or Noteholders.

The preceding paragraph, however, is subject to the condition that if, at any time after the principal of the Notes shall have so become due and payable, before any judgment or decree for the payment of moneys due shall have been obtained or entered as hereinafter provided, the Issuer shall pay or shall deposit with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay all matured installments of interest upon all the Notes and the expenses of the Trustee, and any and all defaults under this Indenture, other than the non-payment of Notes which shall have become due by such declaration, shall have been remedied, then in every such case the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof), by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may waive all defaults and rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences; but no waiver and rescission and annulment shall extend to or shall affect any default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of the Notes or any subsequent default or shall impair any right consequent thereon.

SECTION 5.02. Collection of Debt and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee. The Issuer covenants that if:

(i) in case default is made in the payment of any installment of interest on any Note when such interest becomes due and payable and such default continues for a period of 10 Business Days, or

(ii) default is made in the payment of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any Note at the Maturity thereof,

then the Issuer will, upon demand of the Trustee, pay to it, for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes, the principal amount thereof, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any, with interest upon the overdue principal and the Make-Whole Amount and, to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable, upon overdue installments of interest, at the rate borne by the Notes, and, in addition thereto, such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection and all amounts payable to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

If the Issuer fails to pay any amounts required under this Section 5.02 forthwith upon such demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, may institute a judicial proceeding for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid and may prosecute such proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes and collect the moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the property of the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes, wherever situated.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of Notes by such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem most effectual to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein or to enforce any other proper remedy.

SECTION 5.03. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes or the property of the Issuer or such other obligor, the Trustee (irrespective of whether the principal of the Notes shall then be due and payable as therein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand on the Issuer for the payment of overdue principal or interest) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise,

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and to file such other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee (including, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer, any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee, their agents and counsel) and of the Holders of Notes allowed in such judicial proceeding,

(b) to collect and receive any moneys or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same, and

(c) unless prohibited by law or applicable regulations, to vote on behalf of Holders of Notes in any election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions;

and any receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder of Notes to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders of Notes, to pay, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer or to the Trustee any amount due to it or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept, or adopt on behalf of any Holder of Notes, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder of Notes in any such proceeding, except, as aforesaid, for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions.

SECTION 5.04. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes. All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee (to the extent permitted by applicable law) without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes in respect of which judgment has been recovered, subject to the provisions of this Indenture.

SECTION 5.05. Application of Money Collected. Any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, upon presentation of the Notes, and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

FIRST: To the payment of all amounts due the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06;

SECOND: In case the principal of the Outstanding Notes shall not have become due and be unpaid, to the payment of interest on the Notes, in the order of the maturity of the installments of such interest, with interest upon the overdue installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes, such payments to be made ratably to the persons entitled thereto, without discrimination or preference;

THIRD: In case the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on the Outstanding Notes shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, to the payment of the whole amount then owing and unpaid upon the Notes for principal the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, with interest on the overdue principal and installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes; and in case such moneys shall be insufficient to pay in full the whole amount so due and unpaid upon the Notes, then to the payment of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, without preference or priority of principal or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, over interest, or of interest over principal, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, ratably to the aggregate of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest; and

FOURTH: To the payment of the remainder, if any, to the Issuer or any other person lawfully entitled thereto.

SECTION 5.06. Limitation on Suits by Noteholders. No Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy hereunder, unless:

(1) such Holder has previously given written notice to the Trustee of a continuing Event of Default;

(2) the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute proceedings in respect of such Events of Default set forth in Sections 5.01(c) or (d);

(3) such Holder or Holders have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with such request;

(4) the Trustee for 60 days after its receipt of such notice, request and offer of indemnity has failed to institute any such proceeding; and

(5) no direction inconsistent with such written request has been given to the Trustee during such 60-day period by the Holders of a majority (or 66-2/3% where expressly provided herein) in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes;

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders of Notes shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders of Notes, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes.

SECTION 5.07. Unconditional Rights of Holders to Receive Principal and Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of, and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on such Note on the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder.

SECTION 5.08. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Trustee or any Holder of Notes has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall, subject to any determination in such proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

SECTION 5.09. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

SECTION 5.10. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders of Notes, as the case may be.

SECTION 5.11. Control by Holders. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Notes, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, provided that:

(l) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture,

(2) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction, and

(3) the Trustee shall have the right to decline to follow any such action if the Trustee in good faith by its board of directors or executive committee or a trust committee of directors and/or Responsible Officers shall determine the actions or proceedings so directed would involve the Trustee in personal liability or would be unduly prejudicial to Holders not joining in such direction.

SECTION 5.12. Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of not less than 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past default hereunder and its consequences, except a default in the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note.

Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or impair any right consequent thereto.

SECTION 5.13. Undertaking for Costs. All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court of competent jurisdiction may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; but the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any suit instituted against the Issuer by the Trustee, by any Holder of Notes, or group of Holders of Notes, holding in the aggregate more than 10% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, or by any Holder of any Note for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on such Note on or after the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes.

SECTION 5.14. Notice of Default to Holders of Notes. The Trustee shall at the Issuer's expense, within 90 days after any Event of Default becomes known to a Responsible Officer of it, give the Holders of Notes notice thereof, unless such default shall have been cured or waived.

ARTICLE SIX

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 6.01. Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee; During Default; Prior to Default. The Trustee, prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default which may have occurred, undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture. In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his own affairs.

No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own wilful misconduct, except that

(i) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all such Events of Default which may have occurred: the duties and obligations of the Trustee shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; this Subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of this Section 6.01;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes (or 66-2/3% or 25% in principal amount where expressly provided herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) none of the provisions of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

SECTION 6.02. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Subject to the provisions of Section 6.01:

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, Officers' Certificate or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request, direction, order or demand of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Officers' Certificate (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein specifically prescribed) and any resolution of the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) the Trustee may consult with counsel and any advice or Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such Opinion of Counsel;

(d) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request, order or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, unless such Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted by it in good faith and reasonably believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture;

(f) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default, the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, or bond, debenture or other paper or document, unless requested in writing so to do by the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then Outstanding; provided that, if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of the investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not reasonably assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of this Indenture, the Trustee may require reasonable indemnity against such expenses or liabilities as a condition to proceeding; the reasonable expenses of every such examination shall be paid by the Issuer or, if paid by the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee, shall be repaid by the Issuer upon demand; and

(g) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder.

SECTION 6.03. Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes. The recitals contained herein and in the Notes (except the Trustee's certificate of authentication) shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes; provided that the Trustee shall not be relieved of its duty to authenticate Notes as authorized by this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of Notes or the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 6.04. Trustee and Agents May Hold Notes. The Trustee, the Paying Agent or any other agent of the Issuer, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes, collections, proceeds, and may otherwise deal with the Issuer and may receive, collect, hold and retain collections from the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee, Paying Agent or such other agent.

SECTION 6.05. Moneys Held in Trust. Money held by the Trustee or the Paying Agent in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds, except to the extent required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed with the Issuer.

SECTION 6.06. Compensation and Indemnification of Trustee And Its Prior Claim. The Issuer covenants and agrees:

(a) to pay to the Trustee from time to time such compensation as shall from time to time be agreed upon in writing by the Trustee and the Issuer or, if there be no agreement, reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(b) to reimburse each of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including the reasonable compensation and the reasonable expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except to the extent any such expense, disbursement or advance may be attributable to its negligence or bad faith; and

(c) to indemnify each of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability or expense arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust or the performance of its duties hereunder, including the reasonable costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim of liability or investigating any claim of liability in the premises, except to the extent any such loss, liability or expense may be attributable to negligence or bad faith on its own part.

To ensure the performance of the obligations of the Trustee under this Section, the Trustee shall have a claim prior to the Notes upon all property and funds held or collected by the Trustee as such, except funds held in trust for the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes. The rights of the Trustee under this Section 6.06 shall survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

SECTION 6.07. Right of Trustee to Rely on Officers' Certificate, etc. Subject to Sections 6.01 and 6.02, whenever in the administration of the trusts of this Indenture the Trustee shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking or suffering or omitting any action hereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein prescribed) may, in the absence of negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by an Officers' Certificate delivered to the Trustee, and such certificate, in the absence of negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, shall be full warrant to the Trustee for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it under the provisions of this Indenture upon the good faith thereof.

SECTION 6.08. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility. The Trustee shall at all times be a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $75,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by Federal or State authority and having its principal office in the United States. If such corporation publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published.

SECTION 6.09. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer and by mailing notice thereof by first-class mail to Holders of Notes at their last addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. If an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, delivered to the Trustee and to the Issuer.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.08 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (A) the Issuer by a Board Resolution may remove the Trustee, or (B) subject to Section 5.13, any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, by an Issuer Order, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If, within one year after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer or by the Holders of Notes or pursuant to Section 6.09(b) and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided in Section 6.10, any Holder of a Note who has been a

Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months may, subject to Section 5.13, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee in the manner set forth in paragraph 8 on the Form of Reverse of Note. The notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

(g) The rights of a Trustee pursuant to Section 6.06 shall survive its resignation or removal and the appointment of successor Trustees hereunder.

SECTION 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor. Any successor Trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.09 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and to the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment to it of all fees, expenses and other amounts owing to it hereunder, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder, subject nevertheless to its claim, if any, provided for in Section 6.06. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Trustee shall be eligible and qualified under this Article.

SECTION 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business. Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder, provided that such corporation shall be otherwise eligible and qualified under Section 6.08, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

In case at any time such successor to the Trustee shall succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture, any of the Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor, by merger, conversion or consolidation or by succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes; provided, that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or to authenticate Notes in the name of any predecessor shall apply only to its successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation.

ARTICLE SEVEN

CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, SALE OF ASSETS

SECTION 7.01. Issuer May Consolidate, etc., on Certain Terms. The Issuer covenants that it will not merge or consolidate with any other Person or sell or convey (including by way of lease) all or substantially all of its assets to any Person (other than the sale, transfer or conveyance (including by way of lease) of all or substantially all of the Issuer's assets in a single transaction or a series of transactions to one or more wholly-owned Subsidiaries), unless (i) either (A) the Issuer shall be the continuing entity or (B) the successor entity or the Person which acquires by sale or conveyance all or substantially all the assets of the Issuer (if other than the Issuer) shall (1) expressly assume the due and punctual payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on all the Notes, according to their tenor, and the due and punctual performance and observance of all of the covenants and conditions of this Indenture and the Notes to be performed or observed by the Issuer, by supplemental indenture satisfactory to the Trustee, executed and delivered to the Trustee by such Person, and (2) if such Person is not organized under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, agree in such supplemental indenture that any amount to be paid by such Person to Holders of the Notes shall be paid without deduction or withholding for any taxes, levies, imposts or charges whatsoever imposed by or for the account of the country in which any such Person is organized or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, or if deduction or withholding of any such taxes, levies, imposts or charges shall at any time be required by such country as aforesaid, or any of its political subdivisions or taxing authorities, such Person will pay any such additional amount in respect of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest as may be necessary in order that the net amounts paid to the Holders of the Notes or the Trustee, as the case may be, after such deduction or withholding, shall equal the respective amounts of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest as specified in the Notes to which such Holders or the Trustee are entitled, and (ii) the Issuer or such successor Person or acquiring Person shall not, immediately after such merger or consolidation, or such sale or conveyance, be in default in the performance of any such covenant or condition.

SECTION 7.02. Successor Issuer Substituted. In the case of any such consolidation, merger, sale or conveyance, and following such an assumption by the successor entity, such successor entity shall succeed to and be substituted for the Issuer, with the same effect as if it had been named herein. Such successor entity may cause to be signed, and may issue either in its own name or in the name of the Issuer prior to such succession, any or all of the Notes issuable hereunder, which theretofore shall not have been signed by the Issuer and delivered to the Trustee; and, upon the order of such successor entity instead of the Issuer and subject to all the terms, conditions and limitations in this Indenture prescribed, the Trustee shall authenticate and shall deliver any Notes which previously shall have been signed and delivered by the officers of the Issuer to the Trustee for authentication and any Notes which such successor entity thereafter shall cause to be signed and delivered to the Trustee for that purpose. All of the Notes so issued shall in all respects have the same legal rank and benefit under this Indenture as the Notes theretofore or thereafter issued in accordance with the terms of this Indenture as though all of such Notes had been issued at the date of the execution hereof.

In case of any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or conveyance such changes in phraseology and form (but not in substance) may be made in the Notes thereafter to be issued as may be appropriate.

In the event of any such sale or conveyance (other than a conveyance by way of lease) the Issuer or any successor entity which shall theretofore have become such in the manner described in this Article shall be discharged from all obligations and covenants under this Indenture and the Notes and may be liquidated and dissolved.

SECTION 7.03. Opinion of Counsel to Trustee. The Trustee, subject to the provisions of Section 6.01 and 6.02, may rely on an Opinion of Counsel and an Officers' Certificate, as conclusive evidence that any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or conveyance, and any such assumption, and any such liquidation or dissolution, complies with the applicable provisions of this Indenture.

ARTICLE EIGHT

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

SECTION 8.01. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders. Without the consent of the Holders of any Notes, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto, for any of the following purposes:

(a) to evidence the assumption by any successor entity to the Issuer of the covenants of the Issuer herein and in the Notes contained; or

(b) to add to the covenants of the Issuer, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Issuer; or

(c) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally; or

(d) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note Outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form); or

(e) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision herein which may be inconsistent with any other provision herein, to make any provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Indenture, or to make any other changes herein that shall not materially adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes.

The Trustee is hereby authorized to join with the Issuer in the execution of any such supplemental indenture, to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations which may be therein contained and to accept the conveyance, transfer, assignment, mortgage or pledge of any property thereunder, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Any supplemental indenture authorized by the provisions of this Section may be executed without the consent of the Holders of any of the Notes at the time Outstanding notwithstanding any of the provisions of Section 8.02.

SECTION 8.02. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders; Waiver of Future Compliance. With the consent of the Holders of 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by Act of said Holders delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Indenture or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture or to waive future compliance with the Indenture or the provisions of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture or waiver shall, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby,

(a) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or the due date for any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or the interest thereon or any amount payable upon redemption or acceleration thereof, or

(b) change the coin or currency in which any Note or the interest thereon is payable, or

(c) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or with respect to any Note, or

(d) reduce the above-stated percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is required to modify or amend the Indenture or the provisions of any Note, or

(e) modify any of the provisions of this Section or Section 5.12, except to increase any of the percentages set forth herein or therein or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Note affected thereby, or

(f) reduce the quorum requirements or the percentage of votes required for the adoption of any action at a meeting of Noteholders.

A supplemental indenture which changes or eliminates any covenant or other provision of this Indenture which has expressly been included solely for the benefit of the Notes, or which modifies the rights of Noteholders, with respect to such covenant or provision, shall be deemed not to affect the rights under this Indenture of the Noteholders.

Upon the request of the Issuer, accompanied by a copy of a resolution of the Board of Trustees certified by the secretary or an assistant secretary of the Issuer authorizing the execution of any such supplemental indenture, and upon the filing with the Trustee of evidence of the consent of Noteholders as aforesaid and other documents, if any, required by Section 8.01, the Trustee shall join with the Issuer in the execution of such supplemental indenture unless such supplemental indenture affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, in which case the Trustee may in its discretion, but shall not be obligated to, enter into such supplemental indenture.

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Noteholders under this Section to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof.

Promptly after the execution by the Issuer and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to the provisions of this Section, the Trustee shall mail a notice thereof to the Holders of then Outstanding Notes by first-class mail to such Holders at their addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. Any failure of the Issuer to mail such notice, or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such supplemental indenture.

SECTION 8.03. Execution of Supplemental Indentures. In executing, or accepting the additional trusts created by, any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article or the modifications thereby of the trust created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Sections 6.01 and 6.02) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, obligations or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

SECTION 8.04. Effect of Supplemental Indentures. Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article, this Indenture shall be and shall be deemed modified in accordance therewith and the respective rights, obligations, duties and immunities under this Indenture of the Trustee, the Issuer and the Holders of Notes affected thereby shall thereafter be determined, exercised and enforced hereunder subject in all respects to such modifications and amendments, and all other terms and conditions of any such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes.

SECTION 8.05. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures. Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article may, and shall if required by the Trustee, bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer shall so determine, new Notes so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Issuer and the Trustee, to any such supplemental indenture may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and such Notes shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

ARTICLE NINE

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

SECTION 9.01. Optional Redemption. The Issuer at its option may, at any time, redeem all, or from time to time any part, of the Notes upon payment of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued interest to the date of redemption, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any (the "Redemption Price"). If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee at least 45 days prior to the Redemption Date (or such shorter period as the Trustee may accept) an Officers' Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be redeemed.

If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall select, in such manner as it shall deem appropriate and fair, Notes to be redeemed in whole or in part. Notes may be redeemed in part in multiples equal to the minimum authorized denomination for Notes. Unless the Trustee has been requested to notify Holders of redemption pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 9.02, the Trustee shall promptly (but in no event after the later of (a) the date that is ten days after the date of receipt by the Trustee of the Officers' Certificate referred to in the first paragraph of this Section 9.01 and (b) the date that is five days before the date identified by the Issuer in such Officers' Certificate as the date on which the Issuer intends to give notice of redemption) notify the Issuer in writing of the Notes selected for redemption and, in the case of any Notes selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to the redemption of Notes, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, relates to the portion of the principal amount of such Note which has been or is to be redeemed.

SECTION 9.02. Notice of Redemption. Notice of redemption to the Holders of Notes to be redeemed as a whole or in part at the option of the Issuer shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, at least 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the date of redemption (the "Redemption Date") at their last addresses as they shall appear upon the Note Register. Any notice which is mailed in the manner herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Holder receives the notice. Failure to give notice by mail, or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Note as a whole or in part, shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other Note.

The notice of redemption to each such Holder shall specify the principal amount of each Note held by such Holder to be redeemed, the date fixed for redemption, the Redemption Price (or the method of calculating thereof in the case of the Make-Whole Amount component, if any, of the Redemption Price), the place or places of payment and that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of such Notes. In the case of the redemption of Notes that are to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed and shall state that on and after the Redemption Date, upon surrender of such Note, a new Note or Notes in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued.

The notice of redemption of Notes at the option of the Issuer shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer.

SECTION 9.03. Deposit of Redemption Price. Prior to 3:00 p.m., New York City time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the Redemption Date, the Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds an amount of money sufficient to pay on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price of all the Notes so called for redemption.

SECTION 9.04. Payment of Notes Called for Redemption. If notice of redemption has been given as aforesaid, the Notes shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified, and on and after such date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price) such Notes shall cease to bear interest.

If the Issuer defaults on the Redemption Date in the payment of the Redemption Price such Notes shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Notes.

SECTION 9.05. Mandatory Redemption. The Notes shall be subject to redemption in whole, at any time, at the Redemption Price within five Business Days following any Mandatory Redemption Event in accordance with the provisions of Sections 9.02, 9.03 and 9.04, except that the notice referred to in Section 9.02 shall be mailed within two Business Days of the Mandatory Redemption Event.

ARTICLE TEN

SECTION 10.01. Notice; Quorum; Actions Taken.

(a) The Issuer may at any time call a meeting of the Noteholders, such meeting to be held at such time and at such place as the Issuer shall determine, for the purposes provided in Section 8.02 hereof, or for the purpose of taking action with respect to any Event of Default under Article Five hereof. Notice of any meeting of Noteholders, setting forth the time and place of such meeting, in general terms the action proposed to be taken at such meeting and the record date for determining Holders entitled to take action at such meeting, shall be mailed to the registered address of such Holders not less than 20 nor more than 180 days prior to the date fixed for such meeting. To be entitled to vote at any meeting of Noteholders, a person must be (i) a Holder of one or more Notes on such record date or (ii) a person appointed by an instrument in writing as proxy by the Holder of one or more Notes on such record date. The only persons who shall be entitled to be present or to speak at any meeting of Noteholders shall be the persons entitled to vote at such meeting and their counsel and any representatives of the Issuer or the Trustee and their respective counsel.

(b) Persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of any such meeting. No business shall be transacted in the absence of a quorum, unless a quorum is present when the meeting is called to order. In the absence of a quorum within 30 minutes of the time appointed for any such meeting, a meeting which has been called by the Issuer or the Trustee shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days as determined by the chairman of the meeting. In the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting shall be further adjourned for a period of not less than 10 additional days as determined by the chairman of the meeting. Notice of the reconvening of any adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section 10.01. Subject to the foregoing, at the reconvening of any meeting further adjourned for lack of a quorum, the persons entitled to vote 25% in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the taking of any action set forth in the notice of the original meeting. Notice of the reconvening of an adjourned meeting shall state expressly the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes which shall constitute a quorum.

(c) At a meeting or an adjourned meeting duly convened and at which a quorum is present as aforesaid, any resolution for any purpose provided in Article Eight hereof or for the purpose of taking any action with respect to any Event of Default under Article Five hereof shall be effectively passed and decided if passed and decided by the persons entitled to vote the lesser of (i) a majority in principal amount of Notes then Outstanding and (ii) 75% in principal amount of the Notes represented and voting at the meeting. Any Noteholder who has executed an instrument in writing appointing a person as proxy shall be deemed to be present for the purpose of determining a quorum and be deemed to have voted, provided that such Noteholder shall be considered as present or voting only with respect to the matters covered by such instrument in writing (which may include authorization to vote on any other matters as may come before the meeting). Any resolution passed or decision taken at any meeting of Noteholders duly held in accordance with this Section shall be binding on all the Noteholders whether or not present or represented at the meeting.

(d) The Issuer shall appoint a temporary chairman of the meeting. A permanent chairman and a permanent secretary of the meeting shall be elected by vote of Persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Notes represented at the meeting. At any meeting each Noteholder or proxy shall be entitled to one vote for each $250,000 principal amount of Notes as to which he is a Noteholder or proxy; provided, however that no vote shall be cast or counted at any meeting in respect of any Note challenged as not Outstanding and ruled by the chairman of the meeting to be not Outstanding. The chairman of the meeting shall have no right to vote except as a Noteholder or proxy. Any meeting of Noteholders duly called at which a quorum is present may be adjourned from time to time, and the meeting may be held as so adjourned without further notice.

(e) The vote upon any resolution submitted to any meeting of Noteholders shall be by written ballot on which shall be subscribed the signatures of the Noteholders or proxies and on which shall be inscribed an identifying number or numbers or to which shall be attached a list of identifying numbers of the Notes entitled to be voted by them. The permanent chairman of the meeting shall appoint two inspectors of votes who shall count all votes cast at the meeting for or against any resolution and who shall make and file with the secretary of the meeting their verified written reports in duplicate of all votes cast at the meeting. A record in duplicate of the proceedings of each meeting of Noteholders shall be prepared by the secretary of the meeting and there shall be attached to said record the original reports of the inspectors of votes on any vote by ballot taken thereat and affidavits by one or more persons having knowledge of the acts setting forth a copy of the notice of the meeting and showing that said notice was published as provided above. The record shall be signed and verified by the permanent chairman and secretary of the meeting and one of the duplicates shall be delivered to the Issuer and the other to the Trustee to be preserved by the Trustee, the latter to have attached thereto the ballots voted at the meeting. Any record so signed and verified shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein stated.

This instrument may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Indenture to be duly executed, and their respective seals to be hereunto affixed and attested, all as of the day and year first above written.

or if we are at the proposed date of such transfer or were during the three months preceding such proposed date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer, we will be required to furnish to the Indenture Trustee such certification and other information (including, without limitation, an opinion of counsel) as the Indenture Trustee or CPI may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed sale complies with the foregoing restrictions. We further understand that certificates evidencing Notes purchased by us will bear a legend to the foregoing effect until the third anniversary of the later of the original issuance of the Notes (or any predecessor Notes thereof) or the sale thereof by CPI or an Affiliate of CPI (computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) and for so long as we are or during the preceding three months have been an Affiliate of the Issuer.

(b) Should the Issuer at any time default in the payment of any principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on this Note, the Issuer will pay interest on the amount in default (to the extent permitted by law in the case of interest on interest) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes.

(c) The Issuer covenants that as long as this Note shall be outstanding it shall at all times maintain a paying agency in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York for payments with respect to Notes. 7. The Issuer agrees to provide the Holder hereof and any prospective purchaser hereof designated by such Holder, upon request of such Holder or such prospective purchaser, such information required by Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act as will enable resales of this Note to be made pursuant to Rule 144A; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to provide more information pursuant to this paragraph 7 than is required by Rule 144A as in effect on the date of the Indenture, but may elect to do so if necessary as a result of subsequent amendments to such Rule. Further, this Note and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time (x) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedure in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (y) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of this Note in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that this Note, if it is outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective, be placed in book-entry form). The Holders of this Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of this Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

8. All notices to the Noteholders will be mailed to Holders of Notes at their registered addresses.

9. (a) In case any Note shall become mutilated, defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and, upon the request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced Note, or in lieu of and in substitution for the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof. Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith.

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, and subject to paragraph 9(e), a

Note or Notes, duly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of assignment and transfer, may be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of Notes in different authorized denominations or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes of authorized denominations by surrender of such Note or Notes at the corporate trust office of the Trustee in the City of New York, together with a written request for the exchange.

Upon presentation of this Note for registration of transfer as provided herein, the Registrar shall register the transfer of this Note only if (i) the Registrar shall have received written instructions from the Issuer to effect such transfer, (ii) the Note is presented for registration of transfer at least three years after the later of the issuance of this Note (or any predecessor Note hereto) and the sale hereof (or any predecessor Note hereof) by the Issuer or an affiliate (within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto, hereinafter referred to as an "Affiliate") of the Issuer (computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) by a Holder that certifies that it was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer or (iii) the Holder hereof shall have properly completed the Certificate of Transfer below or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer and have delivered such Certificate of Transfer or transfer instrument (together with any transferee certification required as part of the Certificate of Transfer and any letter required by the Issuer or the Trustee to be delivered by the transferee with such certificate of transfer or transfer instrument) to the Trustee.

(d) The costs and expenses of effecting any exchange or registration of transfer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, except for the expenses of delivery by mail and except, if the Issuer shall so require, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in relation thereto, will be borne by the Issuer.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to accept any request for an exchange or registration of transfer during the period of 15 days preceding the due date for any payment of principal of or interest on the Notes.

The Indenture provides that in certain events such declaration and its consequences may be waived by the Holders of 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding and that, prior to any such declaration, such Holders may waive any default under the Indenture and its consequences, except a default in the payment of principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any of the Notes. Any such consent or waiver by the Holder of this Note (unless revoked as provided in the Note) shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future holders and owners of this Note and any Note which may be issued in exchange or substitution herefor, whether or not any notation thereof is made upon this Note or such other Notes.

At any subsequent reconvening of any meeting of Holders of Notes adjourned for lack of a quorum, persons entitled to vote 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum. Any action which may be taken by a meeting of Holders of Notes requires a vote of the Holders of the lesser of (a) a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding or (b) 75% in aggregate principal amount of the Holders of Notes represented and voting at the meeting.

13. No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture shall alter or impair the obligation of the Issuer, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and rate herein prescribed.

14. The Indenture provides that the Issuer may merge or consolidate with, or sell or convey all or substantially all its assets to, any corporation or other entity and that such corporation or other entity may assume the obligations of the Issuer under the Indenture and the Notes without the consent of the Noteholders provided that certain conditions are met.

15. The Indenture provides that, upon satisfaction of certain terms and conditions as set forth in the Indenture, the Issuer (a) will be discharged from any and all obligations in respect of this Note (except for certain obligations to register the transfer or exchange of Notes, to replace any stolen, lost or mutilated Note, to maintain paying agencies and hold monies in trust) and (b) has the option to omit to comply with certain covenants and certain provisions of the Indenture shall cease to apply, in the case of each of (a) and (b) above, 91 days after the deposit with the Trustee, in trust, of money and/or U.S. Government Obligations (as defined in the Indenture), which through the payment of interest and principal thereof in accordance with their terms will provide money in sufficient amount to pay the principal of and interest on this Note on the Stated Maturity of such payments in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Note.

Service of process upon such agent and written notice of such service mailed or delivered to the Issuer shall to the extent permitted by law be deemed in every respect effective service of process upon the Issuer in any such legal action or proceeding.

Nothing in this Section shall affect the right of the Trustee or any Noteholder to serve process in any manner permitted by law or limit the right of the Trustee to bring proceedings against the Issuer in the courts of any jurisdiction or jurisdictions.

ARTICLE TWO

SECTION 2.01. Form Generally; Title and Terms.

(a) The Notes, including the face of the Notes, the reverse of the Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be in substantially the forms set forth above, with such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Indenture and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon as may be required to comply with the rules of any securities exchange or as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the officers executing such Notes, as evidenced by such execution.

The definitive Notes shall be printed, lithographed, engraved or otherwise produced as determined by the officers executing such Notes as evidenced by such execution.

(b) Except for Notes authenticated and delivered in exchange for or in lieu of Notes pursuant to Section 2.04, 2.05 or 8.05, the aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to $100,000,000 principal amount.

The Notes shall be known and designated as the 7.05% Notes Due 2003 of the Issuer. Their Stated Maturity shall be April 1, 2003. The Notes shall bear interest as provided in the form of Note.

(c) The Notes and transfers thereof shall be registered as provided in Section 2.04.

(d) Each Note shall be dated the date of its authentication.

(e) The Notes shall not be entitled to any mandatory sinking fund. The Notes shall be redeemable by the Issuer as provided for in Article Nine.

(f) The Notes may be issued in whole or in part in the form of one or more global notes (the "Global Notes"). The Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall, in accordance herewith and upon the Order of the Issuer, authenticate and deliver one or more Global Notes that (i) shall represent and shall be denominated in an aggregate principal or face amount of the Outstanding Notes to be represented by such Global Note or Notes, (ii) shall be registered in the name of the Depositary or the nominee of the Depositary, (iii) shall be delivered by the Trustee to the Depositary or pursuant to the Depositary's instructions and (iv) shall bear the legend set forth below.

The Issuer initially designates The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") as the depositary for the Global Notes. The Issuer and the Trustee shall enter into a customary letter of representation with DTC, providing for, among other things, a legend restricting transfer of the Global Notes.

The Depositary may be treated by the Issuer as the owner of such Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by or to the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of any Note.

The Holder of any Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, and the Trustee agree that such Global Note shall be transferred pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof only in whole and not in part to a nominee of DTC, a successor to DTC or a nominee of such successor which is another clearing agency registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

If at any time DTC (or any successor Depositary) notifies the Issuer that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depositary for the Global Note or at any time DTC (or such successor Depositary) shall no longer be eligible under this Section 2.01, the Issuer shall appoint a successor Depositary with respect to the Global Notes and such successor shall enter into a customary letter of representation with the Issuer and the Trustee. If a successor Depositary for the Global Notes is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days after the Issuer receives such notice or becomes aware of such ineligibility, or if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Notes shall thereafter no longer be in the form of the Global Notes and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee upon receipt of an Order of the Issuer for the authentication and delivery of certificated Notes, will authenticate and deliver certificated Notes in any authorized denominations in an aggregate principal amount of the Global Notes in exchange for the Global Notes, such certificated Notes to be in denominations and registered in the names specified by the Depositary; provided that if such Event of Default is waived pursuant to Section 5.01 or is no longer continuing, such certificated Notes need not be issued and if already issued may, at the Holder's request, be represented again by a Global Note in accordance with this Section 2.01.

SECTION 2.02. Denominations. The Notes are issuable in registered form in denominations of $250,000 and integral multiples thereof.

SECTION 2.03. Execution, Authentication and Delivery of Notes. The Notes shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer by a duly authorized officer of the Issuer. Any such signature may be manual or facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signature of any Person who was, at the actual date of execution thereof, a duly authorized officer of the Issuer shall bind the Issuer, notwithstanding that such Person has ceased to be a duly authorized officer prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes. At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer may deliver to the Trustee for authentication Notes executed by the Issuer and, upon written Request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver such Notes as in this Indenture provided and not otherwise.

Except as otherwise provided in Sections 3.03 and 4.14 of this Indenture with respect to amounts deposited by the Issuer with the Trustee to effect a defeasance of the Notes or certain covenants and provisions in the Indenture, all monies paid by the Issuer to the Trustee or other Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, Make-Whole Amount or interest shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Issuer and, to the extent permitted by law, the Holder of such Note thereafter shall look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amount shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 2.04. Registration, Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee a register (the register maintained in such office and in any other office or agency designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose being herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Notes and for transfers of Notes. The Issuer hereby appoints Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as the Registrar. The registration of transfer of a Note by the Registrar shall be deemed to be the acknowledgment of such transfer on behalf of the Issuer. Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note at an office or agency of the Issuer designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose, the Issuer shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of any authorized denomination and of a like aggregate principal amount.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.04(a), the following procedures and restrictions with respect to the registration of any transfer of any Note other than a Global Note shall apply:

(i) The Registrar shall register the transfer of any Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if the requested transfer is (x) to the Issuer, or (y) by a Holder that certifies that it was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer and such transfer is at least three years after the later of (A) the issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (B) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(ii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if each of (i) the Holder of such Note and (ii) the proposed transferee (if so required by the Certificate of Transfer) has properly completed the Certificate of Transfer, or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer, and has delivered such Certificate to the Registrar, together, in the case of a transfer to an Accredited Investor, with a letter from the transferee in the form of Exhibit A hereto.

(iii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note to or from a depositary organization for any other institutional trading system designated by the Issuer in a Notice of Issuance or otherwise set forth in a written notice to the Registrar. In connection with any such transfer to such depositary organization for deposit in such other institutional trading system, no further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied to the Registrar in respect thereof. In connection with any such transfer out of such other institutional trading system, the Registrar shall receive such documents, certifications or other evidence from the transferor or transferee as are specified in such Notice of Issuance or other written notice.

(iv) If so specified in the Notice of Issuance with respect to the Notes, the Registrar shall register the transfer of the Notes, from or through any dealer, placement agent or other person specified by the Issuer in such Notice of Issuance which has agreed in writing to offer, sell and effect transfers of Notes only to a prospective purchaser who such dealer, placement agent or other person has reasonable grounds to believe and does believe is a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who will make representations with respect to itself substantially to the same effect as set forth in the Certificate of Transfer. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(v) With respect to any requested transfer of a Note not provided for in clauses (i) through (iv) above, the Registrar shall, subject to such additional procedures as the Issuer may establish, register such transfer upon surrender of such Note. Such additional procedures may include, without limitation, (x) the delivery by the transferor or the proposed transferee of an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to the effect that such transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act and (y) the delivery by the proposed transferee of representation letters in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act.

(vi) Upon receipt of the duly completed Note and any required instruments of transfer, transfer notices or other written statements or documents, the Registrar shall register the transfer and complete, countersign and deliver in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of authorized denominations in the principal amount specified on such Note.

(vii) The Registrar shall have no liability whatsoever to any party so long as it registers the transfer in accordance with the instructions described here.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, so long as a Global Note remains Outstanding, and is held by the Registrar, as custodian for the Depositary, unless the transferee shall otherwise request in writing to the Registrar, no certificated Note shall be issued or authenticated in connection with the transfer of any certificated Note pursuant to the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A. Instead, upon acceptance for transfer of any certificated Note, the Registrar shall cancel such certificated Note and shall, in lieu of issuing a new certificated Note in exchange for the certificated Note surrendered for registration of transfer, endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of such certificated Note. All provisions of this Section 2.04 relating to the transfer of Notes (other than those relating to the issuance and authorization of a new Note) shall apply to any transfer resulting in an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any increase in the principal amount of any Global Note.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, resales or other transfers of Notes represented by a Global Note made in compliance with Rule 144A or made on or subsequent to the date that is three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (ii) the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, by a beneficial owner that was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer will be conducted according to the rules and procedures of the Depositary applicable to U.S. corporate debt obligations and without notice to, or action by, the Registrar. Upon notice from the beneficial owner (or an agent of the beneficial owner) of Notes represented by a Global Note that such beneficial owner intends to resell or transfer such Notes (x) otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A prior to three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Notes (or any predecessor of such Notes) and (ii) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or (y) otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A if such beneficial owner was at the proposed date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such proposed date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer, and upon satisfaction by the transferor and, if applicable, the transferee, of the conditions necessary for the registration of transfer of a Note set out in Section 2.04(b), the Registrar shall and is authorized by the holder of such Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, to endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and the reduction in the principal amount of such Global Note equal to the principal amount of the portion of the Global Note being transferred and shall authenticate and deliver a certificated Note registered in the name of the transferee or its nominee in an equal aggregate principal amount. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any decrease in the principal amount of any Global Note.

(d) Except as otherwise provided on the face of the Notes with respect to the payment of interest on Notes transferred between Record Dates and Interest Payment Dates, each Note authenticated and delivered upon any transfer or exchange for or in lieu of the whole or any part of any Note shall carry all the rights to interest, if any, accrued and unpaid and to accrue which were carried by the whole or such part of such Note.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to exchange or register the transfer of any Note during the period of 15 days preceding (i) the due date for any payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, on the Notes or (ii) the date on which Notes are scheduled for redemption.

(f) Transfer, registration and exchange shall be permitted and executed as provided in this Section without any charge other than any stamp or other taxes or governmental charges or insurance charges payable on transfers or any expenses of delivery but subject to such reasonable regulations as the Issuer and the Registrar may prescribe.

(g) Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes not bearing the legend set forth in the form of Note (the "Private Placement Legend"), the Trustee shall deliver Notes that do not bear the Private Placement Legend. Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes bearing the Private Placement Legend, the Trustee shall deliver only Notes that bear the Private Placement Legend unless the circumstances contemplated by Section 2.04(b)(i)(y) above exist.

(h) Any Note or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes in other authorized denominations, in an equal aggregate principal amount. Notes to be exchanged shall be surrendered at an office or agency to be maintained by the Issuer for such purpose as provided in Section 4.02, and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver in exchange therefor the Note or Notes which the Noteholder making the exchange shall be entitled to receive, bearing numbers not contemporaneously outstanding.

All Notes presented for registration of transfer, exchange, redemption or payment shall (if so required by the Issuer or the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee duly executed by, the Holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

All Notes issued upon any transfer or exchange of Notes shall be valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

(i) The Issuer agrees to make available such information as is required by Rule 144A(d)(iv) as in effect on the original issue date of the Notes. Further, the Notes and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time in accordance with Section 8.01 (i) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (ii) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form). Each Holder of any Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of such Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

(j) For purposes of determining the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of a Note, the Registrar and the Issuer shall rely on the representations as to "Affiliation with Issuer" set forth on the Certificate or Certificates of Transfer delivered to it from and after the date of issuance of such Note (or any predecessor Note) in connection with transfers of such Note. The Registrar, the Issuer and all Holders of Notes shall be entitled to rely without further investigation on any certification by any transferor on the Certificate of Transfer. Unless a transferor required to provide a Certificate of Transfer shall certify thereon that it is or at some time during which it held such Note was an Affiliate of the Issuer, such transferor shall be deemed to have represented that it is not nor has it been at any time during which it held such Note an Affiliate of the Issuer.

SECTION 2.05. Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost and Stolen Notes. In case any Note shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and upon the written request of any officer of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced Note, or in lieu of and substitution for the Note so apparently destroyed, lost or stolen. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith. In case any Note which has matured or has been called for redemption in full, shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer may, instead of issuing a substitute Note, with the Holder's consent in the case that the Note is called for redemption, pay or authorize the payment of the same (without surrender thereof except in the case of a mutilated or defaced Note), if the applicant for such payment shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as any of them may require to save each of them harmless from all risks, however remote, and, in every case of apparent destruction, loss or theft, the applicant shall also furnish to the Issuer and the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Every substitute Note issued pursuant to the provisions of this Section by virtue of the fact that any Note is apparently destroyed, lost or stolen shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Issuer, whether or not the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone and shall be entitled to all the benefits of (but shall be subject to all the limitations of rights set forth in) this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Notes shall be held and owned upon the express condition that, to the extent permitted by law, the foregoing provisions are exclusive with respect to the replacement or payment or conversion of mutilated, defaced, or apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Notes and shall preclude any and all other rights or remedies notwithstanding any law or statute existing or hereafter enacted to the contrary with respect to the replacement or payment of negotiable instruments or other securities without their surrender.

SECTION 2.06. Persons Deemed Owners. The Issuer, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee may treat the person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and (subject to the provisions for payment of interest set forth in the form of Note) interest on such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note be overdue, and neither the Issuer, the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary to the extent permitted by applicable law.

SECTION 2.07. Cancellation of Notes; Destruction Thereof. All Notes surrendered for payment, redemption, or registration of transfer or exchange, if surrendered to the Issuer or any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee, shall be delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or, if surrendered to the Trustee, shall be cancelled by it; and no Notes shall be issued in lieu thereof except as expressly permitted by any of the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee shall destroy cancelled Notes held by it and deliver a certificate of destruction to the Issuer. If the Issuer shall acquire any of the Notes, such acquisition shall not operate as a redemption or satisfaction of the indebtedness represented by such Notes unless and until the same are delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

ARTICLE THREE

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE; DEPOSITED MONEYS

SECTION 3.01. Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture. This Indenture shall cease to be of further effect (except as to any surviving rights of transfer or exchange herein expressly provided for), and the Trustee, upon Request of the Issuer at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, when

(a) either

(i) all Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than Notes which have been destroyed, lost or stolen and which have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 2.04), have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation and 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date of delivery of the last such Note for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (1) have become due and payable, (2) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, (3) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuer, or (4) are deemed paid and discharged pursuant to Section 3.03, as applicable, and in the case of (1), (2) or (3) above, 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date on which the Issuer has deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent, in trust for the purpose, an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest accrued to the date of such deposit or to the Stated Maturity or Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Issuer; and

(c) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, the obligations of the Issuer to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06 and, if money shall have been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) of this Section or if money or obligations shall have been deposited with or received by the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03, the obligations of the Trustee under Sections 3.02 and 6.06 shall survive.

SECTION 3.02. Application of Trust Money. Subject to Section 4.02, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.01, all money and U.S. Government Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 or 4.14 and all money received by the Trustee in respect of U.S. Governmental Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through the Paying Agent as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of the Notes for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee, of all sums due and to become due thereon for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with or received by the Trustee or to make payments as contemplated by Section 3.03; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

SECTION 3.03. Satisfaction, Discharge and Defeasance of Notes. The Issuer shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness on all the Notes on the 91st day after the date of the deposit referred to in subparagraph (d) hereof, and the provisions of this Indenture shall no longer be in effect (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, shall, upon receipt of a Request of the Issuer, execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except as to:

(a) the rights of Holders of Notes to receive, from the trust funds described in subparagraph (d) of this Section 3.03, payment of the principal of and each installment of or interest on the Notes on the Stated Maturity of such principal or installment of principal or interest;

(b) the Issuer's obligations with respect to the Notes under Section 2.04, 2.05 and 4.02; and

provided that, the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(d) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defease the Notes under this Section 3.03 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably with the Trustee as trust funds in trust for the purpose of making the following payments, specifically pledged as security for and dedicated solely to the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants expressed in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(e) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(f) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such date;

(g) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (1) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (2) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (1) or (2), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit, defeasance and discharge and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit, defeasance and discharge had not occurred;

(h) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble to this Section 3.03 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 3.03 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 3.03, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 3.03 have been complied with.

ARTICLE FOUR

COVENANTS OF THE ISSUER AND THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 4.01. Payment of Principal and Interest. The Issuer will duly and punctually pay the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes, in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Indenture.

Payment of principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on Notes will be made in accordance with the terms of the Notes against surrender of the Notes at the Corporate Trust Office of the Paying Agent in the City of New York. Payment of interest on the Notes will be made, in accordance with the terms of the Notes, to the respective persons in whose name the Notes are registered at the close of business on the Record Date prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date.

The Issuer will on or before 3:00 P.M., the City of New York time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the due date of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes, pay to the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds a sum sufficient to pay the principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes.

SECTION 4.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency; Appointment of Paying Agent. So long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, the Issuer will maintain in the City of New York the following: (a) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for payment, (b) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for registration of transfer and for exchange as in this Indenture provided and (c) an office or agency where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes or of this Indenture may be served. The Issuer will give to the Trustee written notice of the location of any such office or agency and of any change of location thereof. The Issuer hereby initially designates the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee as the office or agency for each such purpose. In case the Issuer shall fail to maintain any such office or agency or shall fail to give such notice of the location or of any change in the location thereof, presentations and demands may be made and notices may be served at the Corporate Trust Office.

The Issuer hereby appoints Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), for the payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes on behalf of the Issuer. The Issuer reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent, transfer agent or Registrar or to appoint any additional or other Paying Agent or agencies or transfer agent or agencies or Registrar.

Whenever the Issuer shall appoint a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, it will cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such agent shall agree with the Trustee, subject to the provisions of this Section 4.02, that it will hold all sums held by it as such agent for the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, that it will give the Trustee notice of any failure by the Issuer to make any payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes when the same shall be due and payable and that, at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, it will forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held by it in trust.

Anything in this Section 4.02 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Issuer may, at any time, for the purpose of obtaining a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, or for any other reason, cause to be paid to the Trustee all sums held in trust by any Paying Agent hereunder as required by this Section 4.02, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the trust herein contained. Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent for the payment of the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer, and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amounts shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 4.03. Existence of Issuer. The Issuer will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, rights and franchises; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to preserve the existence of the Issuer or any such right or franchise if the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall determine that the failure to preserve such existence, right or franchise is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders of Notes and in the case of such right or franchise, is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of the Issuer.

SECTION 4.04. Information. The Issuer will deliver to the Trustee and to each Holder of Notes upon the request of such Holder:

(a) within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Issuer, a consolidated balance sheet of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries as of the end of such fiscal year and the related consolidated statements of cash flows, income and shareholders' equity for such fiscal year, in each case prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, setting forth in each case in comparative form the figures for the previous fiscal year, and a report and opinion thereon of independent public accountants of recognized national standing; and

(b) within 60 days after the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters, unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries for the portion of the Issuer's fiscal year then ended, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as provided to the Issuer's shareholders.

SECTION 4.05. Maintenance of Property; Insurance.

(a) The Issuer will keep, and will cause each Subsidiary to keep, all material property useful and necessary in its business in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

(b) The Issuer will maintain, and will cause each Subsidiary to maintain, in full force and effect at all times with financially sound and reputable insurance companies, insurance on all of its property in at least such amounts and against at least such risks as are usually insured against in the same general area by companies engaged in similar businesses.

SECTION 4.06. Trustee. The Issuer whenever necessary to avoid or fill a vacancy in the office of Trustee, will appoint, in the manner provided in Section 6.09, a Trustee, so that there shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder.

SECTION 4.07. Compliance with Laws. The Issuer will comply, and, will cause each Subsidiary to comply, in all material respects, with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and requirements of governmental authority, except where the necessity of compliance therewith is contested in good faith or where the failure to comply would not have a material adverse effect upon the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 4.08. Limitations on Debt. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit:

(a) Consolidated Debt to exceed 50% of Gross Assets, or

(b) Consolidated Secured Debt to exceed 35% of the Gross Assets.

SECTION 4.09. Minimum Net Worth. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit Consolidated Net Worth to be less than $2,000,000,000 (Two Billion Dollars)

SECTION 4.10. Debt Service Coverage. The Issuer shall not, at the end of any fiscal quarter, permit the sum of (i) Cash Flow for the four fiscal quarters then ended plus (ii) Consolidated Interest Expense (but only to the extent such Consolidated Interest Expense shall have been deducted in computing Consolidated Net Income) for such four fiscal quarters to be less than 150% of the sum of (x) Consolidated Interest Expense for such four fiscal quarters plus (y) all payments of principal with respect to Consolidated Debt payable during such four fiscal quarters (other than optional prepayments and any other lump sum or bullet payments).

SECTION 4.11. Annual Real Property Appraisal. Prior to February 28 of each year, the Issuer will (a) cause the fair market value of the equity of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries in all interests in Real Property as of the December 31 next preceding such February 28 to be appraised by the Appraiser in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute, (b) calculate as of such December 31 the value of Gross Assets, (c) cause the Appraiser to review such calculation of Gross Assets and (d) cause to be filed with the Trustee a report from the Appraiser containing the Appraiser's opinion on the value of Gross Assets as of such

December 31 and its opinion on the reasonableness of the Issuer's calculation of the value of Gross Assets as of such December 31 and stating that the appraisal referred to in clause (a) above was made in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute.

SECTION 4.12. File Statement Annually with the Trustee. Within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year, the Issuer will file with the Trustee an Officers' Certificate, stating that in the course of the performance by the signers of their duties as officers of the Issuer, they would normally obtain knowledge of any default by the Issuer in the performance or fulfillment of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Indenture, that they have made a review with a view to determining whether there is any default under this Indenture, and stating whether or not they have obtained knowledge of any such default, and, if so, specifying each default of which the signers have knowledge and the nature thereof.

At the time such Officers' Certificate is filed, the Issuer will also file with the Trustee a letter or statement of the independent accountants who shall have certified the consolidated financial statements of the Issuer for its preceding fiscal year to the effect that, in making the examination necessary for certification of such financial statements, nothing has come to their attention to cause them to believe that the Issuer failed to comply with the covenants in Sections 4.01, 4.08, 4.09 and 4.10 which failure remains uncured at the date of such letter or statement, or, if they shall have obtained knowledge of any such failure, specifying in such letter or statement the nature thereof.

SECTION 4.13. Further Assurances. From time to time whenever requested by the Trustee, the Issuer will execute and deliver such further instruments and assurances and do such further acts as may be reasonably necessary or proper to carry out more effectually the purposes of this Indenture or to secure the rights and remedies hereunder of the Holders of the Notes.

SECTION 4.14. Defeasance of Certain Obligations. From and after the 91st day after the date the Issuer deposits funds with the Trustee as described in paragraph (1) of this Section 4.14, the Issuer may omit to comply with any term, provision or condition set forth in Sections 4.04, 4.05, 4.07, 4.08 to 4.11, inclusive, and Section 5.01(c) and (d) and (e) and (f) (but only insofar as such paragraphs (e) and (f) relate to Subsidiaries of the Issuer), inclusive, and Article Nine shall be deemed deleted, provided that the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(1) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defeasance under this Section 4.14 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably (except as provided in Section 3.03) with the Trustee as trust funds in trust, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(2) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(3) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such deposit;

(4) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (a) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (b) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (a) or (b), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations had not occurred;

(5) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble of this Section 4.14 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 4.14 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 4.14, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(6) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 4.14 have been complied with.

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01. Events of Default Defined; Acceleration of Maturity; Waiver of Default. The following events or conditions constitute Events of Default hereunder (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order, rule or regulation of any administrative body):

(a) default in the payment of any installment of interest upon any Note when it becomes due and payable and continuance of such default for a period of 10 Business Days; or

(b) default in the payment of principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any of the Notes when due, whether at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise; or

(c) default in the performance, or breach, of any covenant or agreement of the Issuer in this Indenture or the Notes (other than a covenant or agreement a default in the performance of which or the breach of which is elsewhere in this Section specifically dealt with or default in the payment of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest), and continuance of such default or breach for a period of 30 days after there shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such default or breach and requiring it to be remedied and stating that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder; or

(d) acceleration of, or failure to pay at maturity, Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) of the Issuer or any Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000 which acceleration is not rescinded or annulled or which Debt is not discharged, in either case, within 30 days after there shall have been given to the

Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such acceleration or failure to pay and requiring the Issuer to remedy the same; or

(e) the entry of a decree or order for relief in respect of the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) by a court having jurisdiction in the premises in an involuntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of 60 consecutive days; or

(f) the commencement by the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) of a voluntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or the consent by it (or any such Subsidiary) to the entry of an order for relief in an involuntary case under any such law as to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of corporate action by the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) in furtherance of any such action.

If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(a) or (b) occurs and is continuing, then and in every such case (i) the Trustee by a notice in writing to the Issuer may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately or (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee declare the Notes to be due and payable immediately, and upon any such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(c) or (d) occurs and is continuing, then in every such case the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately by a notice in writing to the Issuer (and to the Trustee if given by Holders) and upon such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(e) or (f) occurs, the Notes shall automatically become due and payable at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid without any action or declaration upon the part of the Trustee or Noteholders.

The preceding paragraph, however, is subject to the condition that if, at any time after the principal of the Notes shall have so become due and payable, before any judgment or decree for the payment of moneys due shall have been obtained or entered as hereinafter provided, the Issuer shall pay or shall deposit with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay all matured installments of interest upon all the Notes and the expenses of the Trustee, and any and all defaults under this Indenture, other than the non-payment of Notes which shall have become due by such declaration, shall have been remedied, then in every such case the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof), by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may waive all defaults and rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences; but no waiver and rescission and annulment shall extend to or shall affect any default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of the Notes or any subsequent default or shall impair any right consequent thereon.

SECTION 5.02. Collection of Debt and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee. The Issuer covenants that if:

(i) in case default is made in the payment of any installment of interest on any Note when such interest becomes due and payable and such default continues for a period of 10 Business Days, or

(ii) default is made in the payment of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any Note at the Maturity thereof,

then the Issuer will, upon demand of the Trustee, pay to it, for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes, the principal amount thereof, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any, with interest upon the overdue principal and the Make-Whole Amount and, to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable, upon overdue installments of interest, at the rate borne by the Notes, and, in addition thereto, such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection and all amounts payable to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

If the Issuer fails to pay any amounts required under this Section 5.02 forthwith upon such demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, may institute a judicial proceeding for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid and may prosecute such proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes and collect the moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the property of the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes, wherever situated.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of Notes by such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem most effectual to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein or to enforce any other proper remedy.

SECTION 5.03. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes or the property of the Issuer or such other obligor, the Trustee (irrespective of whether the principal of the Notes shall then be due and payable as therein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand on the Issuer for the payment of overdue principal or interest) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise,

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and to file such other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee (including, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer, any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee, their agents and counsel) and of the Holders of Notes allowed in such judicial proceeding,

(b) to collect and receive any moneys or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same, and

(c) unless prohibited by law or applicable regulations, to vote on behalf of Holders of Notes in any election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions;

and any receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder of Notes to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders of Notes, to pay, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer or to the Trustee any amount due to it or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept, or adopt on behalf of any Holder of Notes, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder of Notes in any such proceeding, except, as aforesaid, for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions.

SECTION 5.04. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes. All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee (to the extent permitted by applicable law) without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes in respect of which judgment has been recovered, subject to the provisions of this Indenture.

SECTION 5.05. Application of Money Collected. Any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, upon presentation of the Notes, and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

FIRST: To the payment of all amounts due the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06;

SECOND: In case the principal of the Outstanding Notes shall not have become due and be unpaid, to the payment of interest on the Notes, in the order of the maturity of the installments of such interest, with interest upon the overdue installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes, such payments to be made ratably to the persons entitled thereto, without discrimination or preference;

THIRD: In case the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on the Outstanding Notes shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, to the payment of the whole amount then owing and unpaid upon the Notes for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, with interest on the overdue principal and installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes; and in case such moneys shall be insufficient to pay in full the whole amount so due and unpaid upon the Notes, then to the payment of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, without preference or priority of principal or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, over interest, or of interest over principal, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, ratably to the aggregate of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest; and

FOURTH: To the payment of the remainder, if any, to the Issuer or any other person lawfully entitled thereto.

SECTION 5.06. Limitation on Suits by Noteholders. No Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy hereunder, unless:

(1) such Holder has previously given written notice to the Trustee of a continuing Event of Default;

(2) the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute proceedings in respect of such Events of Default set forth in Sections 5.01(c) or (d);

(3) such Holder or Holders have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with such request;

(4) the Trustee for 60 days after its receipt of such notice, request and offer of indemnity has failed to institute any such proceeding; and

(5) no direction inconsistent with such written request has been given to the Trustee during such 60-day period by the Holders of a majority (or 66-2/3% where expressly provided

herein) in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes;

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders of Notes shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders of Notes, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes.

SECTION 5.07. Unconditional Rights of Holders to Receive Principal and Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of, and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on such Note on the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder.

SECTION 5.08. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Trustee or any Holder of Notes has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall, subject to any determination in such proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

SECTION 5.09. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

SECTION 5.10. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders of Notes, as the case may be.

SECTION 5.11. Control by Holders. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Notes, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, provided that:

(1) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture,

(2) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction, and

(3) the Trustee shall have the right to decline to follow any such action if the Trustee in good faith by its board of directors or executive committee or a trust committee of directors and/or Responsible Officers shall determine the actions or proceedings so directed would involve the Trustee in personal liability or would be unduly prejudicial to Holders not joining in such direction.

SECTION 5.12. Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of not less than 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past default hereunder and its consequences, except a default in the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note.

Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or impair any right consequent thereto.

SECTION 5.13. Undertaking for Costs. All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court of competent jurisdiction may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; but the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any suit instituted against the Issuer by the Trustee, by any Holder of Notes, or group of Holders of Notes, holding in the aggregate more than 10% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, or by any Holder of any Note for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on such Note on or after the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes.

SECTION 5.14. Notice of Default to Holders of Notes. The Trustee shall at the Issuer's expense, within 90 days after any Event of Default becomes known to a Responsible Officer of it, give the Holders of Notes notice thereof, unless such default shall have been cured or waived.

ARTICLE SIX

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 6.01. Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee; During Default; Prior to Default. The Trustee, prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default which may have occurred, undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture. In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his own affairs.

No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that

(i) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all such Events of Default which may have occurred: the duties and obligations of the Trustee shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; this Subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of this Section 6.01;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes (or 66-2/3% or 25% in principal amount where expressly provided herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) none of the provisions of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

SECTION 6.02. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Subject to the provisions of Section 6.01:

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, Officers' Certificate or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request, direction, order or demand of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Officers' Certificate (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein specifically prescribed) and any resolution of the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) the Trustee may consult with counsel and any advice or Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such Opinion of Counsel;

(d) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request, order or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, unless such Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted by it in good faith and reasonably believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture;

(f) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default, the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, or bond, debenture or other paper or document, unless requested in writing so to do by the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then Outstanding; provided that, if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of the investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not reasonably assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of this Indenture, the Trustee may require reasonable indemnity against such expenses or liabilities as a condition to proceeding; the reasonable expenses of every such examination shall be paid by the Issuer or, if paid by the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee, shall be repaid by the Issuer upon demand; and

(g) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder.

SECTION 6.03. Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes. The recitals contained herein and in the Notes (except the Trustee's certificate of authentication) shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes; provided that the Trustee shall not be relieved of its duty to authenticate Notes as authorized by this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of Notes or the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 6.04. Trustee and Agents May Hold Notes. The Trustee, the Paying Agent or any other agent of the Issuer, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes, collections, proceeds, and may otherwise deal with the Issuer and may receive, collect, hold and retain collections from the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee, Paying Agent or such other agent.

SECTION 6.05. Moneys Held in Trust. Money held by the Trustee or the Paying Agent in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds, except to the extent required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed with the Issuer.

SECTION 6.06. Compensation and Indemnification of Trustee And Its Prior Claim. The Issuer covenants and agrees:

(a) to pay to the Trustee from time to time such compensation as shall from time to time be agreed upon in writing by the Trustee and the Issuer or, if there be no agreement, reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(b) to reimburse each of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including the reasonable compensation and the reasonable expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except to the extent any such expense, disbursement or advance may be attributable to its negligence or bad faith; and

(c) to indemnify each of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability or expense arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust or the performance of its duties hereunder, including the reasonable costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim of liability or investigating any claim of liability in the premises, except to the extent any such loss, liability or expense may be attributable to negligence or bad faith on its own part.

To ensure the performance of the obligations of the Trustee under this Section, the Trustee shall have a claim prior to the Notes upon all property and funds held or collected by the Trustee as such, except funds held in trust for the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes. The rights of the Trustee under this Section 6.06 shall survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

SECTION 6.07. Right of Trustee to Rely on Officers' Certificate, etc. Subject to Sections 6.01 and 6.02, whenever in the administration of the trusts of this Indenture the Trustee shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking or suffering or omitting any action hereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein prescribed) may, in the absence of negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by an Officers' Certificate delivered to the Trustee, and such certificate, in the absence of negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, shall be full warrant to the Trustee for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it under the provisions of this Indenture upon the good faith thereof.

SECTION 6.08. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility. The Trustee shall at all times be a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $75,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by Federal or State authority and having its principal office in the United States. If such corporation publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published.

SECTION 6.09. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer and by mailing notice thereof by first-class mail to Holders of Notes at their last addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. If an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, delivered to the Trustee and to the Issuer.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.08 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation,

then, in any such case, (A) the Issuer by a Board Resolution may remove the Trustee, or (B) subject to Section 5.13, any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, by an Issuer Order, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If, within one year after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer or by the Holders of Notes or pursuant to Section 6.09(b) and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided in Section 6.10, any Holder of a Note who has been a

Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months may, subject to Section 5.13, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee in the manner set forth in paragraph 8 on the Form of Reverse of Note. The notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

(g) The rights of a Trustee pursuant to Section 6.06 shall survive its resignation or removal and the appointment of successor Trustees hereunder.

SECTION 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor. Any successor Trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.09 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and to the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment to it of all fees, expenses and other amounts owing to it hereunder, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder, subject nevertheless to its claim, if any, provided for in Section 6.06. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Trustee shall be eligible and qualified under this Article.

SECTION 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business. Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder, provided that such corporation shall be otherwise eligible and qualified under Section 6.08, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

In case at any time such successor to the Trustee shall succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture, any of the Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor, by merger, conversion or consolidation or by succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes; provided, that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or to authenticate Notes in the name of any predecessor shall apply only to its successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation.

CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, SALE OF ASSETS

SECTION 7.01. Issuer May Consolidate, etc., on Certain Terms. The Issuer covenants that it will not merge or consolidate with any other Person or sell or convey (including by way of lease) all or substantially all of its assets to any Person (other than the sale, transfer or conveyance (including by way of lease) of all or substantially all of the Issuer's assets in a single transaction or a series of transactions to one or more wholly-owned Subsidiaries), unless (i) either (A) the Issuer shall be the continuing entity or (B) the successor entity or the Person which acquires by sale or conveyance all or substantially all the assets of the Issuer (if other than the Issuer) shall (1) expressly assume the due and punctual payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on all the Notes, according to their tenor, and the due and punctual performance and observance of all of the covenants and conditions of this Indenture and the Notes to be performed or observed by the Issuer, by supplemental indenture satisfactory to the Trustee, executed and delivered to the Trustee by such Person, and (2) if such Person is not organized under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, agree in such supplemental indenture that any amount to be paid by such Person to Holders of the Notes shall be paid without deduction or withholding for any taxes, levies, imposts or charges whatsoever imposed by or for the account of the country in which any such Person is organized or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, or if deduction or withholding of any such taxes, levies, imposts or charges shall at any time be required by such country as aforesaid, or any of its political subdivisions or taxing authorities, such Person will pay any such additional amount in respect of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest as may be necessary in order that the net amounts paid to the Holders of the Notes or the Trustee, as the case may be, after such deduction or withholding, shall equal the respective amounts of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest as specified in the Notes to which such Holders or the Trustee are entitled, and (ii) the Issuer or such successor Person or acquiring Person shall not, immediately after such merger or consolidation, or such sale or conveyance, be in default in the performance of any such covenant or condition.

SECTION 7.02. Successor Issuer Substituted. In the case of any such consolidation, merger, sale or conveyance, and following such an assumption by the successor entity, such successor entity shall succeed to and be substituted for the Issuer, with the same effect as if it had been named herein. Such successor entity may cause to be signed, and may issue either in its own name or in the name of the Issuer prior to such succession, any or all of the Notes issuable hereunder, which theretofore shall not have been signed by the Issuer and delivered to the Trustee; and, upon the order of such successor entity instead of the Issuer and subject to all the terms, conditions and limitations in this Indenture prescribed, the Trustee shall authenticate and shall deliver any Notes which previously shall have been signed and delivered by the officers of the Issuer to the Trustee for authentication and any Notes which such successor entity thereafter shall cause to be signed and delivered to the Trustee for that purpose. All of the Notes so issued shall in all respects have the same legal rank and benefit under this Indenture as the Notes theretofore or thereafter issued in accordance with the terms of this Indenture as though all of such Notes had been issued at the date of the execution hereof.

In case of any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or conveyance such changes in phraseology and form (but not in substance) may be made in the Notes thereafter to be issued as may be appropriate.

In the event of any such sale or conveyance (other than a conveyance by way of lease) the Issuer or any successor entity which shall theretofore have become such in the manner described in this Article shall be discharged from all obligations and covenants under this Indenture and the Notes and may be liquidated and dissolved.

SECTION 7.03. Opinion of Counsel to Trustee. The Trustee, subject to the provisions of Section 6.01 and 6.02, may rely on an Opinion of Counsel and an Officers' Certificate, as conclusive evidence that any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or conveyance, and any such assumption, and any such liquidation or dissolution, complies with the applicable provisions of this Indenture.

ARTICLE EIGHT

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

SECTION 8.01. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders. Without the consent of the Holders of any Notes, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto, for any of the following purposes:

(a) to evidence the assumption by any successor entity to the Issuer of the covenants of the Issuer herein and in the Notes contained; or

(b) to add to the covenants of the Issuer, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Issuer; or

(c) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally; or

(d) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note Outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form); or

(e) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision herein which may be inconsistent with any other provision herein, to make any provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Indenture, or to make any other changes herein that shall not materially adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes.

The Trustee is hereby authorized to join with the Issuer in the execution of any such supplemental indenture, to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations which may be therein contained and to accept the conveyance, transfer, assignment, mortgage or pledge of any property thereunder, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Any supplemental indenture authorized by the provisions of this Section may be executed without the consent of the Holders of any of the Notes at the time Outstanding notwithstanding any of the provisions of Section 8.02.

SECTION 8.02. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders; Waiver of Future Compliance. With the consent of the Holders of 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by Act of said Holders delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Indenture or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture or to waive future compliance with the Indenture or the provisions of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture or waiver shall, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby,

(a) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or the due date for any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or the interest thereon or any amount payable upon redemption or acceleration thereof, or

(b) change the coin or currency in which any Note or the interest thereon is payable, or

(c) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or with respect to any Note, or

(d) reduce the above-stated percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is required to modify or amend the Indenture or the provisions of any Note, or

(e) modify any of the provisions of this Section or Section 5.12, except to increase any of the percentages set forth herein or therein or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Note affected thereby, or

(f) reduce the quorum requirements or the percentage of votes required for the adoption of any action at a meeting of Noteholders.

A supplemental indenture which changes or eliminates any covenant or other provision of this Indenture which has expressly been included solely for the benefit of the Notes, or which modifies the rights of Noteholders, with respect to such covenant or provision, shall be deemed not to affect the rights under this Indenture of the Noteholders.

Upon the request of the Issuer, accompanied by a copy of a resolution of the Board of Trustees certified by the secretary or an assistant secretary of the Issuer authorizing the execution of any such supplemental indenture, and upon the filing with the Trustee of evidence of the consent of Noteholders as aforesaid and other documents, if any, required by Section 8.01, the Trustee shall join with the Issuer in the execution of such supplemental indenture unless such supplemental indenture affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, in which case the Trustee may in its discretion, but shall not be obligated to, enter into such supplemental indenture.

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Noteholders under this Section to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof.

Promptly after the execution by the Issuer and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to the provisions of this Section, the Trustee shall mail a notice thereof to the Holders of then Outstanding Notes by first-class mail to such Holders at their addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. Any failure of the Issuer to mail such notice, or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such supplemental indenture.

SECTION 8.03. Execution of Supplemental Indentures. In executing, or accepting the additional trusts created by, any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article or the modifications thereby of the trust created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Sections 6.01 and 6.02) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, obligations or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

SECTION 8.04. Effect of Supplemental Indentures. Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article, this Indenture shall be and shall be deemed modified in accordance therewith and the respective rights, obligations, duties and immunities under this Indenture of the Trustee, the Issuer and the Holders of Notes affected thereby shall thereafter be determined, exercised and enforced hereunder subject in all respects to such modifications and amendments, and all other terms and conditions of any such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes.

SECTION 8.05. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures. Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article may, and shall if required by the Trustee, bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer shall so determine, new Notes so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Issuer and the Trustee, to any such supplemental indenture may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and such Notes shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

ARTICLE NINE

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

SECTION 9.01. Optional Redemption. The Issuer at its option may, at any time, redeem all, or from time to time any part, of the Notes upon payment of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued interest to the date of redemption, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any (the "Redemption Price"). If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee at least 45 days prior to the Redemption Date (or such shorter period as the Trustee may accept) an Officers' Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be redeemed.

If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall select, in such manner as it shall deem appropriate and fair, Notes to be redeemed in whole or in part. Notes may be redeemed in part in multiples equal to the minimum authorized denomination for Notes. Unless the Trustee has been requested to notify Holders of redemption pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 9.02, the Trustee shall promptly (but in no event after the later of (a) the date that is ten days after the date of receipt by the Trustee of the Officers' Certificate referred to in the first paragraph of this Section 9.01 and (b) the date that is five days before the date identified by the Issuer in such Officers' Certificate as the date on which the Issuer intends to give notice of redemption) notify the Issuer in writing of the Notes selected for redemption and, in the case of any Notes selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to the redemption of Notes, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, relates to the portion of the principal amount of such Note which has been or is to be redeemed.

SECTION 9.02. Notice of Redemption. Notice of redemption to the Holders of Notes to be redeemed as a whole or in part at the option of the Issuer shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, at least 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the date of redemption (the "Redemption Date") at their last addresses as they shall appear upon the Note Register. Any notice which is mailed in the manner herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Holder receives the notice. Failure to give notice by mail, or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Note as a whole or in part, shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other Note.

The notice of redemption to each such Holder shall specify the principal amount of each Note held by such Holder to be redeemed, the date fixed for redemption, the Redemption Price (or the method of calculating thereof in the case of the Make-Whole Amount component, if any, of the Redemption Price), the place or places of payment and that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of such Notes. In the case of the redemption of Notes that are to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed and shall state that on and after the Redemption Date, upon surrender of such Note, a new Note or Notes in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued.

The notice of redemption of Notes at the option of the Issuer shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer.

Prior to sending to the Holder of any Note any notice of redemption of such Note at a Redemption Price which may include a Make-Whole Amount in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the Issuer shall compute the Make-Whole Amount, if any, with respect thereto in accordance with the foregoing provisions, and shall have delivered to the Trustee a certificate executed by an officer of the Issuer having responsibility for the calculations of Make-Whole Amounts and setting forth the applicable Make-Whole Amount, if any, and showing in reasonable detail the calculations thereof and the facts upon which such calculations are based.

SECTION 9.03. Deposit of Redemption Price. Prior to 3:00 p.m., New York City time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the Redemption Date, the Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds an amount of money sufficient to pay on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price of all the Notes so called for redemption.

SECTION 9.04. Payment of Notes Called for Redemption. If notice of redemption has been given as aforesaid, the Notes shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified, and on and after such date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price) such Notes shall cease to bear interest.

If the Issuer defaults on the Redemption Date in the payment of the Redemption Price such Notes shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Notes.

SECTION 9.05. Mandatory Redemption. The Notes shall be subject to redemption in whole, at any time, at the Redemption Price within five Business Days following any Mandatory Redemption Event in accordance with the provisions of Sections 9.02, 9.03 and 9.04, except that the notice referred to in Section 9.02 shall be mailed within two Business Days of the Mandatory Redemption Event.

ARTICLE TEN

SECTION 10.01. Notice; Quorum; Actions Taken.

(a) The Issuer may at any time call a meeting of the Noteholders, such meeting to be held at such time and at such place as the Issuer shall determine, for the purposes provided in Section 8.02 hereof, or for the purpose of taking action with respect to any Event of Default under Article Five hereof. Notice of any meeting of Noteholders, setting forth the time and place of such meeting, in general terms the action proposed to be taken at such meeting and the record date for determining Holders entitled to take action at such meeting, shall be mailed to the registered address of such Holders not less than 20 nor more than 180 days prior to the date fixed for such meeting. To be entitled to vote at any meeting of Noteholders, a person must be (i) a Holder of one or more Notes on such record date or (ii) a person appointed by an instrument in writing as proxy by the Holder of one or more Notes on such record date. The only persons who shall be entitled to be present or to speak at any meeting of Noteholders shall be the persons entitled to vote at such meeting and their counsel and any representatives of the Issuer or the Trustee and their respective counsel.

(b) Persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of any such meeting. No business shall be transacted in the absence of a quorum, unless a quorum is present when the meeting is called to order. In the absence of a quorum within 30 minutes of the time appointed for any such meeting, a meeting which has been called by the Issuer or the Trustee shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days as determined by the chairman of the meeting. In the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting shall be further adjourned for a period of not less than 10 additional days as determined by the chairman of the meeting. Notice of the reconvening of any adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section 10.01. Subject to the foregoing, at the reconvening of any meeting further adjourned for lack of a quorum, the persons entitled to vote 25% in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the taking of any action set forth in the notice of the original meeting. Notice of the reconvening of an adjourned meeting shall state expressly the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes which shall constitute a quorum.

(c) At a meeting or an adjourned meeting duly convened and at which a quorum is present as aforesaid, any resolution for any purpose provided in Article Eight hereof or for the purpose of taking any action with respect to any Event of Default under Article Five hereof shall be effectively passed and decided if passed and decided by the persons entitled to vote the lesser of (i) a majority in principal amount of Notes then Outstanding and (ii) 75% in principal amount of the Notes represented and voting at the meeting. Any Noteholder who has executed an instrument in writing appointing a person as proxy shall be deemed to be present for the purpose of determining a quorum and be deemed to have voted, provided that such Noteholder shall be considered as present or voting only with respect to the matters covered by such instrument in writing (which may include authorization to vote on any other matters as may come before the meeting). Any resolution passed or decision taken at any meeting of Noteholders duly held in accordance with this Section shall be binding on all the Noteholders whether or not present or represented at the meeting.

(d) The Issuer shall appoint a temporary chairman of the meeting. A permanent chairman and a permanent secretary of the meeting shall be elected by vote of Persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Notes represented at the meeting. At any meeting each Noteholder or proxy shall be entitled to one vote for each $250,000 principal amount of Notes as to which he is a Noteholder or proxy; provided, however that no vote shall be cast or counted at any meeting in respect of any Note challenged as not Outstanding and ruled by the chairman of the meeting to be not Outstanding. The chairman of the meeting shall have no right to vote except as a Noteholder or proxy. Any meeting of Noteholders duly called at which a quorum is present may be adjourned from time to time, and the meeting may be held as so adjourned without further notice.

(e) The vote upon any resolution submitted to any meeting of Noteholders shall be by written ballot on which shall be subscribed the signatures of the Noteholders or proxies and on which shall be inscribed an identifying number or numbers or to which shall be attached a list of identifying numbers of the Notes entitled to be voted by them. The permanent chairman of the meeting shall appoint two inspectors of votes who shall count all votes cast at the meeting for or against any resolution and who shall make and file with the secretary of the meeting their verified written reports in duplicate of all votes cast at the meeting. A record in duplicate of the proceedings of each meeting of Noteholders shall be prepared by the secretary of the meeting and there shall be attached to said record the original reports of the inspectors of votes on any vote by ballot taken thereat and affidavits by one or more persons having knowledge of the acts setting forth a copy of the notice of the meeting and showing that said notice was published as provided above. The record shall be signed and verified by the permanent chairman and secretary of the meeting and one of the duplicates shall be delivered to the Issuer and the other to the Trustee to be preserved by the Trustee, the latter to have attached thereto the ballots voted at the meeting. Any record so signed and verified shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein stated.

This instrument may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

1. We have received a copy of the Offering Memorandum dated March 26, 1993, relating to the Notes and understand that the Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and may not be sold except as permitted in the following sentence. We agree, on our own behalf and on behalf of any accounts for which we are acting as hereinafter stated, that if we should sell any Notes within three years of the later of the original issuance of the Notes or the sale thereof by the Issuer or an affiliate (within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto, hereinafter referred to as an "Affiliate") of CPI (computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) or if we are at the proposed date of such transfer or were during the three months preceding such proposed date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer, we will do so only (A) to CPI, (B) in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act (as indicated by the box checked by the transferor on the form of assignment on the reverse of the Note), (C) outside the United States in accordance with Rule 904 of Regulation S under the Securities Act (as indicated by the box checked by the transferor on the form of assignment on the reverse of the Note) or (D) to an institutional investor that is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) (1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act which delivers a certificate in the form hereof to the trustee under the Indenture dated as of April 1, 1993 between CPI and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as trustee (the "Indenture Trustee"), and we further agree, in the capacities stated above, to provide to any person purchasing any of the Notes from us a notice advising such purchaser that resales of the Notes are restricted as stated herein.

In addition, we understand that, upon any proposed resale of any Note within three years of the later of the original issuance of such Note (or any predecessor Note thereof) or the sale of such Note (or any predecessor Note thereof) by CPI or an Affiliate of CPI (computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) or if we are at the proposed date of such transfer or were during the three months preceding such proposed date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer, we will be required to furnish to the Indenture Trustee such certification and other information (including, without limitation, an opinion of counsel) as the Indenture Trustee or CPI may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed sale complies with the foregoing restrictions. We further understand that certificates evidencing Notes purchased by us will bear a legend to the foregoing effect until the third anniversary of the later of the original issuance of the Notes (or any predecessor Notes thereof) or the sale thereof by CPI or an Affiliate of CPI (computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) and for so long as we are or during the preceding three months have been an Affiliate of the Issuer.

2. We are an institutional investor and an "accredited investor" (within the meaning of Rule 501(a) (1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act) and have such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of our investment in the Notes, and we and any account for which we are acting are each able to bear the economic risk of our or its investment.

3. We are acquiring the Notes purchased by us for our own account or for one or more accounts (each of which is an institutional "accredited investor") as to each of which we exercise sole investment discretion and for each of which we are acquiring not less than $250,000 aggregate principal amount of Notes.

4. We have received such information as we deem necessary in order to make our investment decision.

You and CPI are entitled to rely upon this letter and are irrevocably authorized to produce this letter or a copy hereof to any interested party in any administrative or

1. This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of Notes of the Issuer designated as its 7.18% Notes Due 2013 (herein called the "Notes"), limited (except as otherwise provided in the Indenture referred to below), in aggregate principal amount to $75,000,000. The Notes are issued and to be issued under the Indenture, dated as of September 1, 1993 (herein called the "Indenture"), between the Issuer and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Trustee (herein called the "Trustee", which term includes any successor trustee under the Indenture), to which Indenture and all indentures supplemental thereto reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights thereunder of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders (as defined in the Indenture) of the Notes. The Holders of the Notes will be entitled to the benefits of, be bound by, and be deemed to have notice of, all of the provisions of the Indenture. A copy of the Indenture is on file and may be inspected at the offices of the paying agent referred to below.

2. The Notes are direct unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank equally with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer. The Notes are issuable in fully registered form without coupons in denominations of $250,000 and integral multiples thereof.

3. (a) The Notes are not entitled to any mandatory sinking fund. The Notes may be redeemed at the Issuer's option, in whole at any time or from time to time in part, upon notice as described below, at a redemption price equal to the sum of (i) the principal amount of the Note, plus interest through the date of redemption, and (ii) the Make-Whole Amount (as defined in the Indenture), if any (the "Redemption Price").

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) below, notice of redemption of the Notes, in whole or in part, as the case may be, shall be given in accordance with paragraph 8, at least once not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, all as provided in the Indenture. Notice having been given, the Notes so called for redemption shall become due and payable on the date fixed for redemption and upon presentation and surrender thereof will be paid at the Redemption Price at the place or places of payment and in the manner specified herein.

(c) The Notes will be subject to mandatory redemption, as described below, at the Redemption Price upon the occurrence of a Mandatory Redemption Event (as defined in the Indenture). The Issuer will be required to redeem the Notes within five Business Days (as defined in the Indenture) of any Mandatory Redemption Event.

4. Pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, the Issuer has initially appointed Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), as transfer agent for the exchange and transfer of the Notes, and as Registrar. The Issuer shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to terminate any such appointment and to appoint any substitute or additional paying agents, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Indenture.

5. (a) Principal and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on the Notes will be payable against surrender of such Notes at the Corporate Trust Office of the Paying Agent in the City of New York. Payment of interest on the Notes will be made to the person in whose name such Note is registered at the close of business in the City of New York on the Record Date next preceding the relevant Interest Payment Date notwithstanding the cancellation of such Note upon any transfer or exchange thereof subsequent to such Record Date and prior to such Interest Payment Date; provided that if and to the extent the Issuer shall default in the payment of interest due on such payment date, such defaulted interest shall be paid to the persons in whose names the Notes are registered at the close of business on a subsequent Record Date established by notice given by mail by or on behalf of the Issuer to the Holders of Registered Notes not less than 15 days preceding such subsequent Record Date, such Record Date to be not less than ten days preceding the date of payment of such defaulted interest. Payment of such interest will be made (i) by dollar check drawn on a bank in the City of New York sent to the Holder's registered address or (ii) to any Holder of $5,000,000 or more aggregate principal amount of the Notes, upon written instructions to the Paying Agent not later than the relevant Record Date, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a dollar account maintained by such Holder, as the case may be, with a bank in the United States designated by such Holder (but only if such bank shall have appropriate facilities therefor). Interest payments on this Note shall include interest accrued from and including the date indicated on the face hereof, or from but excluding the most recent date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, to but excluding the related Interest Payment Date or date of Maturity as the case may be. Interest payments for this Note shall be computed and paid on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months and, in the case of an incomplete month, the actual number of days elapsed.

(b) Should the Issuer at any time default in the payment of any principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on this Note, the Issuer will pay interest on the amount in default (to the extent permitted by law in the case of interest on interest) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes.

(c) The Issuer covenants that as long as this Note shall be outstanding it shall at all times maintain a paying agency in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York for payments with respect to Notes. Notice of any termination or appointment and of any change in the office through which any Paying Agent, transfer agent or Registrar will act will be promptly given once in the manner described in paragraph 8.

6. Except as otherwise provided in the Indenture with respect to amounts deposited by the Issuer with the Trustee to effect a defeasance of the Notes or certain covenants and provisions in the Indenture, all moneys paid by the Issuer to the Trustee or any other Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Issuer and, to the extent permitted by law, the Holder of such Note thereafter shall look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amount shall thereupon cease.

7. The Issuer agrees to provide the Holder hereof and any prospective purchaser hereof designated by such Holder, upon request of such Holder or such prospective purchaser, such information required by Rule 144A (d) (4) under the Securities Act as will enable resales of this Note to be made pursuant to Rule 144A; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to provide more information pursuant to this paragraph 7 than is required by Rule 144A as in effect on the date of the Indenture, but may elect to do so if necessary as a result of subsequent amendments to such Rule. Further, this Note and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time (x) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedure in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (y) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of this Note in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that this Note, if it is outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective, be placed in book-entry form). The Holders of this Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of this Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

8. All notices to the Noteholders will be mailed to Holders of Notes at their registered addresses.

9. (a) In case any Note shall become mutilated, defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and, upon the request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced

Note, or in lieu of and in substitution for the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof. In case any Note which has matured or is about to mature shall become mutilated, defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer may, instead of issuing a substitute Note pay or authorize the payment of the same, if the applicant for such payment shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee security or indemnity and, in every case of apparent destruction, loss or theft, satisfactory evidence, in each case as set forth in the preceding sentence. Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith.

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, and subject to paragraph 9(e), a Note or Notes, duly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of assignment and transfer, may be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of Notes in different authorized denominations or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes of authorized denominations by surrender of such Note or Notes at the corporate trust office of the Trustee in the City of New York, together with a written request for the exchange.

(c) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, and subject to paragraph 9(e), a Note may be transferred in whole or in part (in the amount of U.S. $250,000 and integral multiples thereof) by the Holder or Holders surrendering the Note for registration of transfer at the office of any transfer agent or at the office of the Registrar, duly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of assignment and transfer. Upon presentation of this Note for registration of transfer as provided herein, the Registrar shall register the transfer of this Note only if (i) the Registrar shall have received written instructions from the Issuer to effect such transfer, (ii) the Note is presented for registration of transfer at least three years after the later of the issuance of this Note (or any predecessor Note hereto) and the sale hereof (or any predecessor Note hereof) by the Issuer or an affiliate (within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto, hereinafter referred to as an "Affiliate") of the Issuer (computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) by a Holder that certifies that it was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer or (iii) the Holder hereof shall have properly completed the Certificate of Transfer below or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer and have delivered such Certificate of Transfer or transfer instrument (together with any transferee certification required as part of the Certificate of Transfer and any letter required by the Issuer or the Trustee to be delivered by the transferee with such certificate of transfer or transfer instrument) to the Trustee.

(d) The costs and expenses of effecting any exchange or registration of transfer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, except for the expenses of delivery by mail and except, if the Issuer shall so require, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in relation thereto, will be borne by the Issuer.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to accept any request for an exchange or registration of transfer during the period of 15 days preceding the due date for any payment of principal of or interest on the Notes.

(f) Each purchaser of this Note will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows: (i) it is purchasing this Note for its own account or an account with respect to which it exercises sole investment discretion and it or such account is (x) a "Qualified Institutional Buyer" (as defined in Rule 144A of the Securities Act) and is aware that the sale to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act; or (y) an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(l), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act and in the case of each of (x) and (y) it is acquiring this Note for investment and not with a view to, or for offer or sale in connection with, any distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) or fractionalization thereof or with any intention of reselling this Note or any part hereof, subject to any requirement of law that the disposition of its property or the property of such investor account or accounts to be at all times within its or their control and subject to its or their ability to resell this Note pursuant to Rule 144A, Regulation S or other exemption from registration available under the

If it is acquiring this Note as a fiduciary or agent for one or more investor accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

10. In case an Event of Default, as defined in the Indenture, shall have occurred and be continuing, the principal of all of the Notes may be declared due and payable, in the manner and with the effect, and subject to the conditions, provided in the Indenture. The Indenture provides that in certain events such declaration and its consequences may be waived by the Holders of 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding and that, prior to any such declaration, such Holders may waive any default under the Indenture and its consequences, except a default in the payment of principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any of the Notes. Any such consent or waiver by the Holder of this Note (unless revoked as provided in the Note) shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future holders and owners of this Note and any Note which may be issued in exchange or substitution herefor, whether or not any notation thereof is made upon this Note or such other Notes.

11. The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Issuer and the Trustee, with the consent of the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a Noteholders' meeting pursuant to Article Ten of the Indenture), evidenced as in the Indenture provided, to execute supplemental indentures adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture or modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; Provided that no such supplemental indenture shall without the consent of each Holder of an Outstanding Note affected thereby (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date for any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or the interest thereon or on any amount payable upon redemption or acceleration thereof, (ii) change the coin or currency in which any Note or interest thereon is payable, (iii) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to any Note, (iv) reduce the above-stated percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is required to modify or amend the Indenture or the provisions of the Notes, (v) modify any of the provisions of Section 5.12 or 8.02 of the Indenture, except to increase any of the percentages set forth therein or to provide that certain other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Note affected thereby or (vi) reduce the quorum requirements or the percentage of votes required for the adoption of any

Each Holder of this Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of such Note, to have agreed to any amendment or supplement described in the immediately preceding sentence.

12. The Indenture provides that persons entitled to vote a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of Holders of Notes. In the absence of such a quorum at a meeting of Holders of Notes called by the Issuer, such meeting shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days and, in the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting shall be further adjourned for another period of not less than 10 days. At any subsequent reconvening of any meeting of Holders of Notes adjourned for lack of a quorum, persons entitled to vote 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum. Any action which may be taken by a meeting of Holders of Notes requires a vote of the Holders of the lesser of (a) a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding or (b) 75% in aggregate principal amount of the Holders of Notes represented and voting at the meeting.

13. No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture shall alter or impair the obligation of the Issuer, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and rate herein prescribed.

14. The Indenture provides that the Issuer may merge or consolidate with, or sell or convey all or substantially all its assets to, any corporation or other entity and that such corporation or other entity may assume the obligations of the Issuer under the Indenture and the Notes without the consent of the Noteholders provided that certain conditions are met.

15. The Indenture provides that, upon satisfaction of certain terms and conditions as set forth in the Indenture, the Issuer (a) will be discharged from any and all obligations in respect of this Note (except for certain obligations to register the transfer or exchange of Notes, to replace any stolen, lost or mutilated Note, to maintain paying agencies and hold monies in trust) and (b) has the option to omit to comply with certain covenants and certain provisions of the Indenture shall cease to apply, in the case of each of (a) and (b) above, 91 days after the deposit with the Trustee, in trust, of money and/or U.S. Government Obligations (as defined in the Indenture), which through the payment of interest and principal thereof in accordance with their terms will provide money in sufficient amount to pay the principal of and interest on this Note on the Stated Maturity of such payments in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Note.

16. The Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee may deem and treat the person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner thereof for all purposes and neither the Issuer, the Trustee nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

The Issuer agrees that final judgment in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such a court shall be conclusive and binding upon the Issuer and may be enforced in any court to the jurisdiction of which the Issuer is subject by a suit upon such judgment, provided that service of process is effected upon the Issuer in the manner specified in the following paragraph or as otherwise permitted by law.

As long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, the Issuer will at all times during which the Issuer does not maintain an office in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York have an authorized agent in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York upon whom process may be served in any legal action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Indenture or any Note and will upon the appointment of such agent promptly notify the Trustee in writing of the name and address of such agent. Service of process upon such agent and written notice of such service mailed or delivered to the Issuer shall to the extent permitted by law be deemed in every respect effective service of process upon the Issuer in any such legal action or proceeding.

Nothing in this Section shall affect the right of the Trustee or any Noteholder to serve process in any manner permitted by law or limit the right of the Trustee to bring proceedings against the Issuer in the courts of any jurisdiction or jurisdictions.

SECTION 1.12. Disclaimer of Liability of Shareholders and Others. Corporate Property Investors refers to the Trustees for the time being under an Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust dated as of June 15, 1978, as amended, on file in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Declaration of Trust provides that the obligations of Corporate Property Investors shall not constitute personal obligations of its Trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents, and that all persons dealing with Corporate Property Investors shall look solely to the assets of Corporate Property Investors for satisfaction of any liability of Corporate Property Investors, and will not seek recourse against such Trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents or any of them or any of their personal assets for such satisfaction.

ARTICLE TWO

ISSUE, EXECUTION, FORM AND REGISTRATION OF NOTES

SECTION 2.01. Form Generally; Title and Terms.

(a) The Notes, including the face of the Notes, the reverse of the Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be in substantially the forms set forth above, with such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Indenture and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon as may be required to comply with the rules of any securities exchange or as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the officers executing such Notes, as evidenced by such execution.

The definitive Notes shall be printed, lithographed, engraved or otherwise produced as determined by the officers executing such Notes as evidenced by such execution.

(b) Except for Notes authenticated and delivered in exchange for or in lieu of Notes pursuant to Section 2.04, 2.05 or 8.05, the aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to $75,000,000 principal amount.

The Notes shall be known and designated as the 7.18% Notes Due 2013 of the Issuer. Their Stated Maturity shall be September 1, 2013. The Notes shall bear interest as provided in the form of Note.

(c) The Notes and transfers thereof shall be registered as provided in Section 2.04.

(d) Each Note shall be dated the date of its authentication.

(e) The Notes shall not be entitled to any mandatory sinking fund. The Notes shall be redeemable by the Issuer as provided for in Article Nine.

(f) The Notes may be issued in whole or in part in the form of one or more global notes (the "Global Notes"). The Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall, in accordance herewith and upon the Order of the Issuer, authenticate and deliver one or more Global Notes that (i) shall represent and shall be denominated in an aggregate principal or face amount of the Outstanding Notes to be represented by such Global Note or Notes, (ii) shall be registered in the name of the Depositary or the nominee of the Depositary, (iii) shall be delivered by the Trustee to the Depositary or pursuant to the Depositary's instructions and (iv) shall bear the legend set forth below.

The Issuer initially designates The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") as the depositary for the Global Notes. The Issuer and the Trustee shall enter into a customary letter of representation with DTC, providing for, among other things, a legend restricting transfer of the Global Notes.

The Depositary may be treated by the Issuer as the owner of such Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by or to the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of any Note.

The Holder of any Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, and the Trustee agree that such Global Note shall be transferred pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof only in whole and not in part to a nominee of DTC, a successor to DTC or a nominee of such successor which is another clearing agency registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

If at any time DTC (or any successor Depositary) notifies the Issuer that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depositary for the Global Note or at any time DTC (or such successor Depositary) shall no longer be eligible under this Section 2.01, the Issuer shall appoint a successor Depositary with respect to the Global Notes and such successor shall enter into a customary letter of representation with the Issuer and the Trustee. If a successor Depositary for the Global Notes is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days after the Issuer receives such notice or becomes aware of such ineligibility, or if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Notes shall thereafter no longer be in the form of the Global Notes and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee upon receipt of an Order of the Issuer for the authentication and delivery of certificated Notes, will authenticate and deliver certificated Notes in any authorized denominations in an aggregate principal amount of the Global Notes in exchange for the Global Notes, such certificated Notes to be in denominations and registered in the names specified by the Depositary; provided that if such Event of Default is waived pursuant to Section 5.01 or is no longer continuing, such certificated Notes need not be issued and if already issued may, at the Holder's request, be represented again by a Global Note in accordance with this Section 2.01.

SECTION 2.02. Denominations. The Notes are issuable in registered form in denominations of $250,000 and integral multiples thereof.

SECTION 2.03. Execution. Authentication and Delivery of Notes. The Notes shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer by a duly authorized officer of the Issuer. Any such signature may be manual or facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signature of any Person who was, at the actual date of execution thereof, a duly authorized officer of the Issuer shall bind the Issuer, notwithstanding that such Person has ceased to be a duly authorized officer prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes. At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer may deliver to the Trustee for authentication Notes executed by the Issuer and, upon written Request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver such Notes as in this Indenture provided and not otherwise.

Except as otherwise provided in Sections 3.03 and 4.14 of this Indenture with respect to amounts deposited by the Issuer with the Trustee to effect a defeasance of the Notes or certain covenants and provisions in the Indenture, all monies paid by the Issuer to the Trustee or other Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, Make-Whole Amount or interest shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Issuer and, to the extent permitted by law, the Holder of such Note thereafter shall look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amount shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 2.04. Registration, Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee a register (the register maintained in such office and in any other office or agency designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose being herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Notes and for transfers of Notes. The Issuer hereby appoints Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as the Registrar. The registration of transfer of a Note by the Registrar shall be deemed to be the acknowledgment of such transfer on behalf of the Issuer. Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note at an office or agency of the Issuer designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose, the Issuer shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of any authorized denomination and of a like aggregate principal amount.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.04(a), the following procedures and restrictions with respect to the registration of any transfer of any Note other than a Global Note shall apply:

(i) The Registrar shall register the transfer of any Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if the requested transfer is (x) to the Issuer, or (y) by a Holder that certifies that it was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer and such transfer is at least three years after the later of (A) the issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (B) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(ii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if each of (i) the Holder of such Note and (ii) the proposed transferee (if so required by the Certificate of Transfer) has properly completed the Certificate of Transfer, or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer, and has delivered such Certificate to the Registrar, together, in the case of a transfer to an Accredited Investor, with a letter from the transferee in the form of Exhibit A hereto.

(iii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note to or from a depositary organization for any other institutional trading system designated by the Issuer in a Notice of Issuance or otherwise set forth in a written notice to the Registrar. In connection with any such transfer to such depositary organization for deposit in such other institutional trading system, no further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied to the Registrar in respect thereof. In connection with any such transfer out of such other institutional trading system, the Registrar shall receive such documents, certifications or other evidence from the transferor or transferee as are specified in such Notice of Issuance or other written notice.

(iv) If so specified in the Notice of Issuance with respect to the Notes, the Registrar shall register the transfer of the Notes, from or through any dealer, placement agent or other person specified by the Issuer in such Notice of Issuance which has agreed in writing to offer, sell and effect transfers of Notes only to a prospective purchaser who such dealer, placement agent or other person has reasonable grounds to believe and does believe is a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who will make representations with respect to itself substantially to the same effect as set forth in the Certificate of Transfer. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(v) With respect to any requested transfer of a Note not provided for in clauses (i) through (iv) above, the Registrar shall, subject to such additional procedures as the Issuer may establish, register such transfer upon surrender of such Note. Such additional procedures may include, without limitation, (x) the delivery by the transferor or the proposed transferee of an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to the effect that such transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act and (y) the delivery by the proposed transferee of representation letters in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act.

(vi) Upon receipt of the duly completed Note and any required instruments of transfer, transfer notices or other written statements or documents, the Registrar shall register the transfer and complete, countersign and deliver in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of authorized denominations in the principal amount specified on such Note.

(vii) The Registrar shall have no liability whatsoever to any party so long as it registers the transfer in accordance with the instructions described here.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, so long as a Global Note remains Outstanding, and is held by the Registrar, as custodian for the Depositary, unless the transferee shall otherwise request in writing to the Registrar, no certificated Note shall be issued or authenticated in connection with the transfer of any certificated Note pursuant to the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A. Instead, upon acceptance for transfer of any certificated Note, the Registrar shall cancel such certificated Note and shall, in lieu of issuing a new certificated Note in exchange for the certificated Note surrendered for registration of transfer, endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of such certificated Note. All provisions of this Section 2.04 relating to the transfer of Notes (other than those relating to the issuance and authorization of a new Note) shall apply to any transfer resulting in an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any increase in the principal amount of any Global Note.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, resales or other transfers of Notes represented by a Global Note made in compliance with Rule 144A or made on or subsequent to the date that is three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (ii) the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, by a beneficial owner that was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer will be conducted according to the rules and procedures of the Depositary applicable to U.S. corporate debt obligations and without notice to, or action by, the Registrar. Upon notice from the beneficial owner (or an agent of the beneficial owner) of Notes represented by a Global Note that such beneficial owner intends to resell or transfer such Notes (x) otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A prior to three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Notes (or any predecessor of such Notes) and (ii) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or (y) otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A if such beneficial owner was at the proposed date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such proposed date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer, and upon satisfaction by the transferor and, if applicable, the transferee, of the conditions necessary for the registration of transfer of a Note set out in Section 2.04(b), the Registrar shall and is authorized by the holder of such Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, to endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and the reduction in the principal amount of such Global Note equal to the principal amount of the portion of the Global Note being transferred and shall authenticate and deliver a certificated Note registered in the name of the transferee or its nominee in an equal aggregate principal amount. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any decrease in the principal amount of any Global Note.

(d) Except as otherwise provided on the face of the Notes with respect to the payment of interest on Notes transferred between Record Dates and Interest Payment Dates, each Note authenticated and delivered upon any transfer or exchange for or in lieu of the whole or any part of any Note shall carry all the rights to interest, if any, accrued and unpaid and to accrue which were carried by the whole or such part of such Note.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to exchange or register the transfer of any Note during the period of 15 days preceding (i) the due date for any payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, on the Notes or (ii) the date on which Notes are scheduled for redemption.

(f) Transfer, registration and exchange shall be permitted and executed as provided in this Section without any charge other than any stamp or other taxes or governmental charges or insurance charges payable on transfers or any expenses of delivery but subject to such reasonable regulations as the Issuer and the Registrar may prescribe.

(g) Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes not bearing the legend set forth in the form of Note (the "Private Placement Legend"), the Trustee shall deliver Notes that do not bear the Private Placement Legend. Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes bearing the Private Placement Legend, the Trustee shall deliver only Notes that bear the Private Placement Legend unless the circumstances contemplated by Section 2.04(b) (i) (y) above exist.

(h) Any Note or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes in other authorized denominations, in an equal aggregate principal amount. Notes to be exchanged shall be surrendered at an office or agency to be maintained by the Issuer for such purpose as provided in Section 4.02, and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver in exchange therefor the Note or Notes which the Noteholder making the exchange shall be entitled to receive, bearing numbers not contemporaneously outstanding.

All Notes presented for registration of transfer, exchange, redemption or payment shall (if so required by the Issuer or the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer in, form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee duly executed by, the Holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

All Notes issued upon any transfer or exchange of Notes shall be valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

(i) The Issuer agrees to make available such information as is required by Rule 144A(d) (iv) as in effect on the original issue date of the Notes. Further, the Notes and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time in accordance with Section 8.01 (i) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (ii) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form). Each Holder of any Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of such Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

(j) For purposes of determining the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of a Note, the Registrar and the Issuer shall rely on the representations as to "Affiliation with Issuer" set forth on the Certificate or Certificates of Transfer delivered to it from and after the date of issuance of such Note (or any predecessor Note) in connection with transfers of such Note. The Registrar, the Issuer and all Holders of Notes shall be entitled to rely without further investigation on any certification by any transferor on the Certificate of Transfer. Unless a transferor required to provide a Certificate of Transfer shall certify thereon that it is or at some time during which it held such Note was an Affiliate of the Issuer, such transferor shall be deemed to have represented that it is not nor has it been at any time during which it held such Note an Affiliate of the Issuer.

SECTION 2.05. Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost and Stolen Notes. In case any Note shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and upon the written request of any officer of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced Note, or in lieu of and substitution for the Note so apparently destroyed, lost or stolen. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith. In case any Note which has matured or has been called for redemption in full, shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer may, instead of issuing a substitute Note, with the Holder's consent in the case that the Note is called for redemption, pay or authorize the payment of the same (without surrender thereof except in the case of a mutilated or defaced Note), if the applicant for such payment shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as any of them may require to save each of them harmless from all risks, however remote, and, in every case of apparent destruction, loss or theft, the applicant shall also furnish to the Issuer and the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Every substitute Note issued pursuant to the provisions of this Section by virtue of the fact that any Note is apparently destroyed, lost or stolen shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Issuer, whether or not the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone and shall be entitled to all the benefits of (but shall be subject to all the limitations of rights set forth in) this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Notes shall be held and owned upon the express condition that, to the extent permitted by law, the foregoing provisions are exclusive with respect to the replacement or payment or conversion of mutilated, defaced, or apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Notes and shall preclude any and all other rights or remedies notwithstanding any law or statute existing or hereafter enacted to the contrary with respect to the replacement or payment of negotiable instruments or other securities without their surrender.

SECTION 2.06. Persons Deemed Owners. The Issuer, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee may treat the person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and (subject to the provisions for payment of interest set forth in the form of Note) interest on such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note be overdue, and neither the Issuer, the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary to the extent permitted by applicable law.

SECTION 2.07. Cancellation of Notes; Destruction Thereof. All Notes surrendered for payment, redemption, or registration of transfer or exchange, if surrendered to the Issuer or any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee, shall be delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or, if surrendered to the Trustee, shall be cancelled by it; and no Notes shall be issued in lieu thereof except as expressly permitted by any of the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee shall destroy cancelled Notes held by it and deliver a certificate of destruction to the Issuer. If the Issuer shall acquire any of the Notes, such acquisition shall not operate as a redemption or satisfaction of the indebtedness represented by such Notes unless and until the same are delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE; DEPOSITED MONEYS

SECTION 3.01. Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture. This Indenture shall cease to be of further effect (except as to any surviving rights of transfer or exchange herein expressly provided for), and the Trustee, upon Request of the Issuer at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, when

(a) either

(i) all Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than Notes which have been destroyed, lost or stolen and which have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 2.04), have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation and 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date of delivery of the last such Note for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (1) have become due and payable, (2) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, (3) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuer, or (4) are deemed paid and discharged pursuant to Section 3.03, as applicable, and in the case of (1), (2) or (3) above, 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date on which the Issuer has deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent, in trust for the purpose, an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest accrued to the date of such deposit or to the Stated Maturity or Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Issuer; and

(c) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, the obligations of the Issuer to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06 and, if money shall have been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to subclause (ii) of clause (a) of this Section or if money or obligations shall have been deposited with or received by the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03, the obligations of the Trustee under Sections 3.02 and 6.06 shall survive.

SECTION 3.02. Application of Trust Money. Subject to Section 4.02, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.01, all money and U.S. Government Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 or 4.14 and all money received by the Trustee in respect of U.S. Governmental Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through the Paying Agent as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of the Notes for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee, of all sums due and to become due thereon for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with or received by the Trustee or to make payments as contemplated by Section 3.03; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

SECTION 3.03. Satisfaction, Discharge and Defeasance of Notes. The Issuer shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness on all the Notes on the 91st day after the date of the deposit referred to in subparagraph (d) hereof, and the provisions of this Indenture shall no longer be in effect (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, shall, upon receipt of a Request of the Issuer, execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except as to:

(a) the rights of Holders of Notes to receive, from the trust funds described in subparagraph (d) of this Section 3.03, payment of the principal of and each installment of or interest on the Notes on the Stated Maturity of such principal or installment of principal or interest;

(b) the Issuer's obligations with respect to the Notes under Section 2.04, 2.05 and 4.02; and

provided that, the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(d) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defease the Notes under this Section 3.03 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably with the Trustee as trust funds in trust for the purpose of making the following payments, specifically pledged as security for and dedicated solely to the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants expressed in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(e) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(f) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such date;

(g) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (1) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (2) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (1) or (2), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit, defeasance and discharge and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit, defeasance and discharge had not occurred;

(h) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble to this Section 3.03 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 3.03 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 3.03, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547 (b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 3.03 have been complied with.

ARTICLE FOUR

COVENANTS OF THE ISSUER AND THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 4.01. Payment of Principal and Interest. The Issuer will duly and punctually pay the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes, in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Indenture.

Payment of principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on Notes will be made in accordance with the terms of the Notes against surrender of the Notes at the Corporate

Trust Office of the Paying Agent in the City of New York. Payment of interest on the Notes will be made, in accordance with the terms of the Notes, to the respective persons in whose name the Notes are registered at the close of business on the Record Date prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date.

The Issuer will on or before 3:00 P.M., the City of New York time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the due date of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes, pay to the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds a sum sufficient to pay the principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes.

SECTION 4.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency; Appointment of Paying Agent. So long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, the Issuer will maintain in the City of New York the following: (a) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for payment, (b) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for registration of transfer and for exchange as in this Indenture provided and (c) an office or agency where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes or of this Indenture may be served. The Issuer will give to the Trustee written notice of the location of any such office or agency and of any change of location thereof. The Issuer hereby initially designates the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee as the office or agency for each such purpose. In case the Issuer shall fail to maintain any such office or agency or shall fail to give such notice of the location or of any change in the location thereof, presentations and demands may be made and notices may be served at the Corporate Trust Office.

The Issuer hereby appoints Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), for the payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes on behalf of the Issuer. The Issuer reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent, transfer agent or Registrar or to appoint any additional or other Paying Agent or agencies or transfer agent or agencies or Registrar.

Whenever the Issuer shall appoint a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, it will cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such agent shall agree with the Trustee, subject to the provisions of this Section 4.02, that it will hold all sums held by it as such agent for the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, that it will give the Trustee notice of any failure by the Issuer to make any payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes when the same shall be due and payable and that, at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, it will forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held by it in trust.

Anything in this Section 4.02 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Issuer may, at any time, for the purpose of obtaining a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, or for any other reason, cause to be paid to the Trustee all sums held in trust by any Paying Agent hereunder as required by this Section 4.02, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the trust herein contained. Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent for the payment of the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer, and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amounts shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 4.03. Existence of Issuer. The Issuer will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, rights and franchises; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to preserve the existence of the Issuer or any such right or franchise if the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall determine that the failure to preserve such existence, right or franchise is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders of Notes and in the case of such right or franchise, is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of the Issuer.

SECTION 4.04. Information. The Issuer will deliver to the Trustee and to each Holder of Notes upon the request of such Holder:

(a) within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Issuer, a consolidated balance sheet of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries as of the end of such fiscal year and the related consolidated statements of cash flows, income and shareholders' equity for such fiscal year, in each case prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, setting forth in each case in comparative form the figures for the previous fiscal year, and a report and opinion thereon of independent public accountants of recognized national standing; and

(b) within 60 days after the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters, unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries for the portion of the Issuer's fiscal year then ended, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as provided to the Issuer's shareholders.

SECTION 4.05. Maintenance of Property; Insurance.

(a) The Issuer will keep, and will cause each Subsidiary to keep, all material property useful and necessary in its business in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

(b) The Issuer will maintain, and will cause each Subsidiary to maintain, in full force and effect at all times with financially sound and reputable insurance companies, insurance on all of its property in at least such amounts and against at least such risks as are usually insured against in the same general area by companies engaged in similar businesses.

SECTION 4.06. Trustee. The Issuer whenever necessary to avoid or fill a vacancy in the office of Trustee, will appoint, in the manner provided in Section 6.09, a Trustee, so that there shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder.

SECTION 4.07. Compliance with Laws. The Issuer will comply, and, will cause each Subsidiary to comply, in all material respects, with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and requirements of governmental authority, except where the necessity of compliance therewith is contested in good faith or where the failure to comply would not have a material adverse effect upon the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 4.08. Limitations on Debt. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit:

(a) Consolidated Debt to exceed 50% of Gross Assets, or

(b) Consolidated Secured Debt to exceed 35% of the Gross Assets.

SECTION 4.09. Minimum Net Worth. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit Consolidated Net Worth to be less than $2,000,000,000 (Two Billion Dollars).

SECTION 4.10. Debt Service Coverage. The Issuer shall not, at the end of any fiscal quarter, permit the sum of (i) Cash Flow for the four fiscal quarters then ended plus (ii) Consolidated Interest Expense (but only to the extent such Consolidated Interest Expense shall have been deducted in computing Consolidated Net Income) for such four fiscal quarters to be less than 150% of the sum of (x) Consolidated Interest Expense for such four fiscal quarters plus (y) all payments of principal with respect to Consolidated Debt payable during such four fiscal quarters (other than optional prepayments and any other lump sum or bullet payments).

SECTION 4.11. Annual Real Property Appraisal. Prior to February 28 of each year, the Issuer will (a) cause the fair market value of the equity of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries in all interests in Real Property as of the December 31 next preceding such February 28 to be appraised by the Appraiser in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute, (b) calculate as of such December 31 the value of Gross Assets, (c) cause the Appraiser to review such calculation of Gross Assets and (d) cause to be filed with the Trustee a report from the Appraiser containing the Appraiser's opinion on the value of Gross Assets as of such December 31 and its opinion on the reasonableness of the Issuer's calculation of the value of Gross Assets as of such December 31 and stating that the appraisal referred to in clause (a) above was made in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute.

SECTION 4.12. File Statement Annually with the Trustee. Within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year, the Issuer will file with the Trustee an Officers' Certificate, stating that in the course of the performance by the signers of their duties as officers of the Issuer, they would normally obtain knowledge of any default by the Issuer in the performance or fulfillment of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Indenture, that they have made a review with a view to determining whether there is any default under this Indenture, and stating whether or not they have obtained knowledge of any such default, and, if so, specifying each default of which the signers have knowledge and the nature thereof.

At the time such Officers' Certificate is filed, the Issuer will also file with the Trustee a letter or statement of the independent accountants who shall have certified the consolidated financial statements of the Issuer for its preceding fiscal year to the effect that, in making the examination necessary for certification of such financial statements, nothing has come to their attention to cause them to believe that the Issuer failed to comply with the covenants in Sections 4.01, 4.08, 4.09 and 4.10 which failure remains uncured at the date of such letter or statement, or, if they shall have obtained knowledge of any such failure, specifying in such letter or statement the nature thereof.

SECTION 4.13. Further Assurances. From time to time whenever requested by the Trustee, the Issuer will execute and deliver such further instruments and assurances and do such further acts as may be reasonably necessary or proper to carry out more effectually the purposes of this Indenture or to secure the rights and remedies hereunder of the Holders of the Notes.

SECTION 4.14. Defeasance of Certain Obligations. From and after the 91st day after the date the Issuer deposits funds with the Trustee as described in paragraph (1) of this Section 4.14, the Issuer may omit to comply with any term, provision or condition set forth in Sections 4.04, 4.05, 4.07, 4.08 to 4.11, inclusive, and Section 5.01(c) and (d) and (e) and (f) (but only insofar as such paragraphs (e) and (f) relate to Subsidiaries of the Issuer), inclusive, and Article Nine shall be deemed deleted, provided that the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(1) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defeasance under this Section 4.14 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably (except as provided in Section 3.03) with the Trustee as trust funds in trust, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(2) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(3) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such deposit;

(4) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (a) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (b) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (a) or (b), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations had not occurred;

(5) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble of this Section 4.14 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 4.14 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 4.14, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(6) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 4.14 have been complied with.

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01. Events of Default Defined; Acceleration of Maturity; Waiver of Default. The following events or conditions constitute Events of Default hereunder (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order, rule or regulation of any administrative body):

(a) default in the payment of any installment of interest upon any Note when it becomes due and payable and continuance of such default for a period of 10 Business Days; or

(b) default in the payment of principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any of the Notes when due, whether at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise; or

(c) default in the performance, or breach, of any covenant or agreement of the Issuer in this Indenture or the Notes (other than a covenant or agreement a default in the performance of which or the breach of which is elsewhere in this Section specifically dealt with or default in the payment of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest), and continuance of such default or breach for a period of 30 days after there shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such default or breach and requiring it to be remedied and stating that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder; or

(d) acceleration of, or failure to pay at maturity, Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) of the Issuer or any Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000 which acceleration is not rescinded or annulled or which Debt is not discharged, in either case, within 30 days after there shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such acceleration or failure to pay and requiring the Issuer to remedy the same; or

(e) the entry of a decree or order for relief in respect of the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) by a court having jurisdiction in the premises in an involuntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of 60 consecutive days; or

(f) the commencement by the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) of a voluntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or the consent by it (or any such Subsidiary) to the entry of an order for relief in an involuntary case under any such law as to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of corporate action by the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) in furtherance of any such action.

If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(a) or (b) occurs and is continuing, then and in every such case (i) the Trustee by a notice in writing to the Issuer may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately or (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee declare the Notes to be due and payable immediately, and upon any such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(c) or (d) occurs and is continuing, then in every such case the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately by a notice in writing to the Issuer (and to the Trustee if given by Holders) and upon such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(e) or (f) occurs, the Notes shall automatically become due and payable at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid without any action or declaration upon the part of the Trustee or Noteholders.

The preceding paragraph, however, is subject to the condition that if, at any time after the principal of the Notes shall have so become due and payable, before any judgment or decree for the payment of moneys due shall have been obtained or entered as hereinafter provided, the Issuer shall pay or shall deposit with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay all matured installments of interest upon all the Notes and the expenses of the Trustee, and any and all defaults under this Indenture, other than the non-payment of Notes which shall have become due by such declaration, shall have been remedied, then in every such case the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof), by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may waive all defaults and rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences; but no waiver and rescission and annulment shall extend to or shall affect any default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of the Notes or any subsequent default or shall impair any right consequent thereon.

SECTION 5.02. Collection of Debt and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee. The Issuer covenants that if:

(i) in case default is made in the payment of any installment of interest on any Note when such interest becomes due and payable and such default continues for a period of 10 Business Days, or

(ii) default is made in the payment of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any Note at the Maturity thereof,

then the Issuer will, upon demand of the Trustee, pay to it, for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes, the principal amount thereof, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any, with interest upon the overdue principal and the Make-Whole Amount and, to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable, upon overdue installments of interest, at the rate borne by the Notes, and, in addition thereto, such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection and all amounts payable to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

If the Issuer fails to pay any amounts required under this Section 5.02 forthwith upon such demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, may institute a judicial proceeding for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid and may prosecute such proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes and collect the moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the property of the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes, wherever situated.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of Notes by such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem most effectual to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein or to enforce any other proper remedy.

SECTION 5.03. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes or the property of the Issuer or such other obligor, the Trustee (irrespective of whether the principal of the Notes shall then be due and payable as therein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand on the Issuer for the payment of overdue principal or interest) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise,

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and to file such other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee (including, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer, any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee, their agents and counsel) and of the Holders of Notes allowed in such judicial proceeding,

(b) to collect and receive any moneys or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same, and

and any receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder of Notes to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders of Notes, to pay, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer or to the Trustee any amount due to it or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept, or adopt on behalf of any Holder of Notes, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder of Notes in any such proceeding, except, as aforesaid, for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions.

SECTION 5.04. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes. All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee (to the extent permitted by applicable law) without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes in respect of which judgment has been recovered, subject to the provisions of this Indenture.

SECTION 5.05. Application of Money Collected. Any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, upon presentation of the Notes, and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

FIRST: To the payment of all amounts due the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06;

SECOND: In case the principal of the Outstanding Notes shall not have become due and be unpaid, to the payment of interest on the Notes, in the order of the maturity of the installments of such interest, with interest upon the overdue installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes, such payments to be made ratably to the persons entitled thereto, without discrimination or preference;

THIRD: In case the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on the Outstanding Notes shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, to the payment of the whole amount then owing and unpaid upon the Notes for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, with interest on the overdue principal and installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes; and in case such moneys shall be insufficient to pay in full the whole amount so due and unpaid upon the Notes, then to the payment of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, without preference or priority of principal or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, over interest, or of interest over principal, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, ratably to the aggregate of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest; and

FOURTH: To the payment of the remainder, if any, to the Issuer or any other person lawfully entitled thereto.

SECTION 5.06. Limitation on Suits by Noteholders. No Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy hereunder, unless:

(1) such Holder has previously given written notice to the Trustee of a continuing Event of Default;

(2) the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute proceedings in respect of such Events of Default set forth in Sections 5.01(c) or (d);

(3) such Holder or Holders have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with such request;

(4) the Trustee for 60 days after its receipt of such notice, request and offer of indemnity has failed to institute any such proceeding; and

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders of Notes shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders of Notes, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes.

SECTION 5.07. Unconditional Rights of Holders to Receive Principal and Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of, and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on such Note on the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder.

SECTION 5.08. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Trustee or any Holder of Notes has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall, subject to any determination in such proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

SECTION 5.09. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

SECTION 5.10. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders of Notes, as the case may be.

SECTION 5.11. Control by Holders. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Notes, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, provided that:

(1) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture,

(2) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction, and

(3) the Trustee shall have the right to decline to follow any such action if the Trustee in good faith by its board of directors or executive committee or a trust committee of directors and/or Responsible Officers shall determine the actions or proceedings so directed would involve the Trustee in personal liability or would be unduly prejudicial to Holders not joining in such direction.

SECTION 5.12. Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of not less than 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past default hereunder and its consequences, except a default in the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note.

Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or impair any right consequent thereto.

SECTION 5.13. Undertaking for Costs. All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court of competent jurisdiction may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; but the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any suit instituted against the Issuer by the Trustee, by any Holder of Notes, or group of Holders of Notes, holding in the aggregate more than 10% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, or by any Holder of any Note for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of, the

Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on such Note on or after the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes.

SECTION 5.14. Notice of Default to Holders of Notes. The Trustee shall at the Issuer's expense, within 90 days after any Event of Default becomes known to a Responsible Officer of it, give the Holders of Notes notice thereof, unless such default shall have been cured or waived.

ARTICLE SIX

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 6.01. Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee; During Default; Prior to Default. The Trustee, prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default which may have occurred, undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture. In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his own affairs.

No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own wilful misconduct, except that

(i) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all such Events of Default which may have occurred: the duties and obligations of the Trustee shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; this Subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of this Section 6.01;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes (or 66-2/3% or 25% in principal amount where expressly provided herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) none of the provisions of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

SECTION 6.02. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Subject to the provisions of Section 6.01:

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, Officers' Certificate or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request, direction, order or demand of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Officers' Certificate (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein specifically prescribed) and any resolution of the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) the Trustee may consult with counsel and any advice or Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such Opinion of Counsel;

(d) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request, order or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, unless such Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted by it in good faith and reasonably believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture;

(f) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default, the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, or bond, debenture or other paper or document, unless requested in writing so to do by the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then Outstanding; provided that, if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of the investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not reasonably assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of this Indenture, the Trustee may require reasonable indemnity against such expenses or liabilities as a condition to proceeding; the reasonable expenses of every such examination shall be paid by the Issuer or, if paid by the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee, shall be repaid by the Issuer upon demand; and

(g) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder.

SECTION 6.03. Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes. The recitals contained herein and in the Notes (except the Trustee's certificate of authentication) shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes; provided that the Trustee shall not be relieved of its duty to authenticate Notes as authorized by this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of Notes or the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 6.04. Trustee and Agents May Hold Notes. The Trustee, the Paying Agent or any other agent of the Issuer, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes, collections, proceeds, and may otherwise deal with the Issuer and may receive, collect, hold and retain collections from the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee, Paying Agent or such other agent.

SECTION 6.05. Moneys Held in Trust. Money held by the Trustee or the Paying Agent in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds, except to the extent required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed with the Issuer.

SECTION 6.06. Compensation and Indemnification of Trustee And Its Prior Claim. The Issuer covenants and agrees:

(a) to pay to the Trustee from time to time such compensation as shall from time to time be agreed upon in writing by the Trustee and the Issuer or, if there be no agreement, reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(b) to reimburse each of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including the reasonable compensation and the reasonable expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except to the extent any such expense, disbursement or advance may be attributable to its negligence or bad faith; and

(c) to indemnify each of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability or expense arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust or the performance of its duties hereunder, including the reasonable costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim of liability or investigating any claim of liability in the premises, except to the extent any such loss, liability or expense may be attributable to negligence or bad faith on its own part.

To ensure the performance of the obligations of the Trustee under this Section, the Trustee shall have a claim prior to the Notes upon all property and funds held or collected by the Trustee as such, except funds held in trust for the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes. The rights of the Trustee under this Section 6.06 shall survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

SECTION 6.07. Right of Trustee to Rely on Officers' Certificate, etc. Subject to Sections 6.01 and 6.02, whenever in the administration of the trusts of this Indenture the Trustee shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking or suffering or omitting any action hereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein prescribed) may, in the absence of negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by an Officers' Certificate delivered to the Trustee, and such certificate, in the absence of negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, shall be full warrant to the Trustee for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it under the provisions of this Indenture upon the good faith thereof.

SECTION 6.08. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility. The Trustee shall at all times be a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $75,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by Federal or State authority and having its principal office in the United States. If such corporation publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published.

SECTION 6.09. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer and by mailing notice thereof by first-class mail to Holders of Notes at their last addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. If an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, delivered to the Trustee end to the Issuer.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.08 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (A) the Issuer by a Board Resolution may remove the Trustee, or (B) subject to Section 5.13, any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, by an Issuer Order, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If, within one year after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer or by the Holders of Notes or pursuant to Section 6.09(b) and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided in Section 6.10, any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months may, subject to Section 5.13, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee in the manner set forth in paragraph 8 on the Form of Reverse of Note. The notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

(g) The rights of a Trustee pursuant to Section 6.06 shall survive its resignation or removal and the appointment of successor Trustees hereunder.

SECTION 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor. Any successor Trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.09 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and to the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment to it of all fees, expenses and other amounts owing to it hereunder, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder, subject nevertheless to its claim, if any, provided for in Section 6.06. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Trustee shall be eligible and qualified under this Article.

SECTION 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business. Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder, provided that such corporation shall be otherwise eligible and qualified under Section 6.08, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

In case at any time such successor to the Trustee shall succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture, any of the Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor, by merger, conversion or consolidation or by succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes; provided, that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or to authenticate Notes in the name of any predecessor shall apply only to its successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation.

CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, SALE OF ASSETS

SECTION 7.01. Issuer May Consolidate, etc., on Certain Terms. The Issuer covenants that it will not merge or consolidate with any other Person or sell or convey (including by way of lease) all or substantially all of its assets to any Person (other than the sale, transfer or conveyance (including by way of lease) of all or substantially all of the Issuer's assets in a single transaction or a series of transactions to one or more wholly-owned Subsidiaries), unless (i) either (A) the Issuer shall be the continuing entity or (B) the successor entity or the Person which acquires by sale or conveyance all or substantially all the assets of the Issuer (if other than the Issuer) shall (1) expressly assume the due and punctual payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on all the Notes, according to their tenor, and the due and punctual performance and observance of all of the covenants and conditions of this Indenture and the Notes to be performed or observed by the Issuer, by supplemental indenture satisfactory to the Trustee, executed and delivered to the Trustee by such Person, and (2) if such Person is not organized under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, agree in such supplemental indenture that any amount to be paid by such Person to Holders of the Notes shall be paid without deduction or withholding for any taxes, levies, imposts or charges whatsoever imposed by or for the account of the country in which any such Person is organized or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, or if deduction or withholding of any such taxes, levies, imposts or charges shall at any time be required by such country as aforesaid, or any of its political subdivisions or taxing authorities, such Person will pay any such additional amount in respect of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest as may be necessary in order that the net amounts paid to the Holders of the Notes or the Trustee, as the case may be, after such deduction or withholding, shall equal the respective amounts of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest as specified in the Notes to which such Holders or the Trustee are entitled, and (ii) the Issuer or such successor Person or acquiring Person shall not, immediately after such merger or consolidation, or such sale or conveyance, be in default in the performance of any such covenant or condition.

SECTION 7.02. Successor Issuer Substituted. In the case of any such consolidation, merger, sale or conveyance, and following such an assumption by the successor entity, such successor entity shall succeed to and be substituted for the Issuer, with the same effect as if it had been named herein. Such successor entity may cause to be signed, and may issue either in its own name or in the name of the Issuer prior to such succession, any or all of the Notes issuable hereunder, which theretofore shall not have been signed by the Issuer and delivered to the Trustee; and, upon the order of such successor entity instead of the Issuer and subject to all the terms, conditions and limitations in this Indenture prescribed, the Trustee shall authenticate and shall deliver any Notes which previously shall have been signed and delivered by the officers of the Issuer to the Trustee for authentication and any Notes which such successor entity thereafter shall cause to be signed and delivered to the Trustee for that purpose. All of the Notes so issued shall in all respects have the same legal rank and benefit under this Indenture as the Notes theretofore or thereafter issued in accordance with the terms of this Indenture as though all of such Notes had been issued at the date of the execution hereof.

In case of any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or conveyance such changes in phraseology and form (but not in substance) may be made in the Notes thereafter to be issued as may be appropriate.

In the event of any such sale or conveyance (other than a conveyance by way of lease) the Issuer or any successor entity which shall theretofore have become such in the manner described in this Article shall be discharged from all obligations and covenants under this Indenture and the Notes and may be liquidated and dissolved.

SECTION 7.03. Opinion of Counsel to Trustee. The Trustee, subject to the provisions of Section 6.01 and 6.02, may rely on an Opinion of Counsel and an Officers' Certificate, as conclusive evidence that any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or conveyance, and any such assumption, and any such liquidation or dissolution, complies with the applicable provisions of this Indenture.

ARTICLE EIGHT

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

SECTION 8.01. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders. Without the consent of the Holders of any Notes, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto, for any of the following purposes:

(a) to evidence the assumption by any successor entity to the Issuer of the covenants of the Issuer herein and in the Notes contained; or

(b) to add to the covenants of the Issuer, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Issuer; or

(c) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally; or

(d) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note Outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form); or

(e) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision herein which may be inconsistent with any other provision herein, to make any provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Indenture, or to make any other changes herein that shall not materially adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes.

The Trustee is hereby authorized to join with the Issuer in the execution of any such supplemental indenture, to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations which may be therein contained and to accept the conveyance, transfer, assignment, mortgage or pledge of any property thereunder, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Any supplemental indenture authorized by the provisions of this Section may be executed without the consent of the Holders of any of the Notes at the time Outstanding notwithstanding any of the provisions of Section 8.02.

SECTION 8.02. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders; Waiver of Future Compliance. With the consent of the Holders of 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by Act of said Holders delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Indenture or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture or to waive future compliance with the Indenture or the provisions of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture or waiver shall, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby,

(a) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or the due date for any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or the interest thereon or any amount payable upon redemption or acceleration thereof, or

(b) change the coin or currency in which any Note or the interest thereon is payable, or

(c) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or with respect to any Note, or

(d) reduce the above-stated percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is required to modify or amend the Indenture or the provisions of any Note, or

(e) modify any of the provisions of this Section or Section 5.12, except to increase any of the percentages set forth herein or therein or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Note affected thereby, or

(f) reduce the quorum requirements or the percentage of votes required for the adoption of any action at a meeting of Noteholders.

A supplemental indenture which changes or eliminates any covenant or other provision of this Indenture which has expressly been included solely for the benefit of the Notes, or which modifies the rights of Noteholders, with respect to such covenant or provision, shall be deemed not to affect the rights under this Indenture of the Noteholders.

Upon the request of the Issuer, accompanied by a copy of a resolution of the Board of Trustees certified by the secretary or an assistant secretary of the Issuer authorizing the execution of any such supplemental indenture, and upon the filing with the Trustee of evidence of the consent of Noteholders as aforesaid and other documents, if any, required by Section 8.01, the Trustee shall join with the Issuer in the execution of such supplemental indenture unless such supplemental indenture affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, in which case the Trustee may in its discretion, but shall not be obligated to, enter into such supplemental indenture.

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Noteholders under this Section to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof.

Promptly after the execution by the Issuer and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to the provisions of this Section, the Trustee shall mail a notice thereof to the Holders of then Outstanding Notes by first-class mail to such Holders at their addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. Any failure of the Issuer to mail such notice, or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such supplemental indenture.

SECTION 8.03. Execution of Supplemental Indentures. In executing, or accepting the additional trusts created by, any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article or the modifications thereby of the trust created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Sections 6.01 and 6.02) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, obligations or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

SECTION 8.04. Effect of Supplemental Indentures. Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article, this Indenture shall be and shall be deemed modified in accordance therewith and the respective rights, obligations, duties and immunities under this Indenture of the Trustee, the Issuer and the Holders of Notes affected thereby shall thereafter be determined, exercised and enforced hereunder subject in all respects to such modifications and amendments, and all other terms and conditions of any such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes.

SECTION 8.05. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures. Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article may, and shall if required by the Trustee, bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer shall so determine, new Notes so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Issuer and the Trustee, to any such supplemental indenture may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and such Notes shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

ARTICLE NINE

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

SECTION 9.01. Optional Redemption. The Issuer at its option may, at any time, redeem all, or from time to time any part, of the Notes upon payment of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued interest to the date of redemption, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any (the "Redemption Price"). If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee at least 45 days prior to the Redemption Date (or such shorter period as the Trustee may accept) an Officers' Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be redeemed.

If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall select, in such manner as it shall deem appropriate and fair, Notes to be redeemed in whole or in part. Notes may be redeemed in part in multiples equal to the minimum authorized denomination for Notes. Unless the Trustee has been requested to notify Holders of redemption pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 9.02, the Trustee shall promptly (but in no event after the later of (a) the date that is ten days after the date of receipt by the Trustee of the Officers' Certificate referred to in the first paragraph of this Section 9.01 and (b) the date that is five days before the date identified by the Issuer in such Officers' Certificate as the date on which the Issuer intends to give notice of redemption) notify the Issuer in writing of the Notes selected for redemption and, in the case of any Notes selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to the redemption of Notes, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, relates to the portion of the principal amount of such Note which has been or is to be redeemed.

SECTION 9.02. Notice of Redemption. Notice of redemption to the Holders of Notes to be redeemed as a whole or in part at the option of the Issuer shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, at least 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the date of redemption (the "Redemption Date") at their last addresses as they shall appear upon the Note Register. Any notice which is mailed in the manner herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Holder receives the notice. Failure to give notice by mail, or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Note as a whole or in part, shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other Note.

The notice of redemption to each such Holder shall specify the principal amount of each Note held by such Holder to be redeemed, the date fixed for redemption, the Redemption Price (or the method of calculating thereof in the case of the Make-Whole Amount component, if any, of the Redemption Price), the place or places of payment and that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of such Notes. In the case of the redemption of Notes that are to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed and shall state that on and after the Redemption Date, upon surrender of such Note, a new Note or Notes in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued.

The notice of redemption of Notes at the option of the Issuer shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer.

Prior to sending to the Holder of any Note any notice of redemption of such Note at a Redemption Price which may include a Make-Whole Amount in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the Issuer shall compute the Make-Whole Amount, if any, with respect thereto in accordance with the foregoing provisions, and shall have delivered to the Trustee a certificate executed by an officer of the Issuer having responsibility for the calculations of Make-Whole Amounts and setting forth the applicable Make-Whole Amount, if any, and showing in reasonable detail the calculations thereof and the facts upon which such calculations are based.

SECTION 9.03. Deposit of Redemption Price. Prior to 3:00 p.m., New York City time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the Redemption Date, the Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds an amount of money sufficient to pay on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price of all the Notes so called for redemption.

SECTION 9.04. Payment of Notes Called for Redemption. If notice of redemption has been given as aforesaid, the Notes shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified, and on and after such date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price) such Notes shall cease to bear interest.

If the Issuer defaults on the Redemption Date in the payment of the Redemption Price such Notes shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Notes.

SECTION 9.05. Mandatory Redemption. The Notes shall be subject to redemption in whole, at any time, at the Redemption Price within five Business Days following any Mandatory Redemption Event in accordance with the provisions of Sections 9.02, 9.03 and 9.04, except that the notice referred to in Section 9.02 shall be mailed within two Business Days of the Mandatory Redemption Event.

SECTION 10.01. Notice; Quorum; Actions Taken.

(a) The Issuer may at any time call a meeting of the Noteholders, such meeting to be held at such time and at such place as the Issuer shall determine, for the purposes provided in Section 8.02 hereof, or for the purpose of taking action with respect to any Event of Default under Article Five hereof. Notice of any meeting of Noteholders, setting forth the time and place of such meeting, in general terms the action proposed to be taken at such meeting and the record date for determining Holders entitled to take action at such meeting, shall be mailed to the registered address of such Holders not less than 20 nor more than 180 days prior to the date fixed for such meeting. To be entitled to vote at any meeting of Noteholders, a person must be (i) a Holder of one or more Notes on such record date or (ii) a person appointed by an instrument in writing as proxy by the Holder of one or more Notes on such record date. The only persons who shall be entitled to be present or to speak at any meeting of Noteholders shall be the persons entitled to vote at such meeting and their counsel and any representatives of the Issuer or the Trustee and their respective counsel.

(b) Persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of any such meeting. No business shall be transacted in the absence of a quorum, unless a quorum is present when the meeting is called to order. In the absence of a quorum within 30 minutes of the time appointed for any such meeting, a meeting which has been called by the Issuer or the Trustee shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days as determined by the chairman of the meeting. In the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting shall be further adjourned for a period of not less than 10 additional days as determined by the chairman of the meeting. Notice of the reconvening of any adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section 10.01. Subject to the foregoing, at the reconvening of any meeting further adjourned for lack of a quorum, the persons entitled to vote 25% in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the taking of any action set forth in the notice of the original meeting. Notice of the reconvening of an adjourned meeting shall state expressly the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes which shall constitute a quorum.

(c) At a meeting or an adjourned meeting duly convened and at which a quorum is present as aforesaid, any resolution for any purpose provided in Article Eight hereof or for the purpose of taking any action with respect to any Event of Default under Article Five hereof shall be effectively passed and decided if passed and decided by the persons entitled to vote the lesser of (i) a majority in principal amount of Notes then Outstanding and (ii) 75% in principal amount of the Notes represented and voting at the meeting. Any Noteholder who has executed an instrument in writing appointing a person as proxy shall be deemed to be present for the purpose of determining a quorum and be deemed to have voted, provided that such Noteholder shall be considered as present or voting only with respect to the matters covered by such instrument in writing (which may include authorization to vote on any other matters as may come before the meeting). Any resolution passed or decision taken at any meeting of Noteholders duly held in accordance with this Section shall be binding on all the Noteholders whether or not present or represented at the meeting.

(d) The Issuer shall appoint a temporary chairman of the meeting. A permanent chairman and a permanent secretary of the meeting shall be elected by vote of Persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Notes represented at the meeting. At any meeting each Noteholder or proxy shall be entitled to one vote for each $250,000 principal amount of Notes as to which he is a Noteholder or proxy; provided, however that no vote shall be cast or counted at any meeting in respect of any Note challenged as not Outstanding and ruled by the chairman of the meeting to be not Outstanding. The chairman of the meeting shall have no right to vote except as a Noteholder or proxy. Any meeting of Noteholders duly called at which a quorum is present may be adjourned from time to time, and the meeting may be held as so adjourned without further notice.

s (e) The vote upon any resolution submitted to any meeting of Noteholders shall be by written ballot on which shall be subscribed the signatures of the Noteholders or proxies and on which shall be inscribed an identifying number or numbers or to which shall be attached a list of identifying numbers of the Notes entitled to be voted by them. The permanent chairman of the meeting shall appoint two inspectors of votes who shall count all votes cast at the meeting for or against any resolution and who shall make and file with the secretary of the meeting their verified written reports in duplicate of all votes cast at the meeting. A record in duplicate of the proceedings of each meeting of Noteholders shall be prepared by the secretary of the meeting and there shall be attached to said record the original reports of the inspectors of votes on any vote by ballot taken thereat and affidavits by one or more persons having knowledge of the acts setting forth a copy of the notice of the meeting and showing that said notice was published as provided above. The record shall be signed and verified by the permanent chairman and secretary of the meeting and one of the duplicates shall be delivered to the Issuer and the other to the Trustee to be preserved by the Trustee, the latter to have attached thereto the ballots voted at the meeting. Any record so signed and verified shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein stated.

This instrument may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Indenture to be duly executed; and their respective seals to be hereunto affixed and attested, all as of the day and year first above written.

The Holders of this Note Shall be deemed, by the acceptance of this Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

8. All notices to the Noteholders will be mailed to Holders of Notes at their registered addresses.

The Declaration of Trust provides that the obligations of Corporate Property Investors shall not constitute personal obligations of its Trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents, and that all persons dealing with Corporate Property Investors shall look solely to the assets of Corporate Property Investors for satisfaction of any liability of Corporate Property Investors, and will not seek recourse against such Trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents or any of them or any of their personal assets for such satisfaction. The foregoing limitation of liability is in addition to, and not exclusive of, any limitation of liability applicable to such persons by operation of law. Each Holder by accepting a Note waives and releases all such liability. Such waiver and release are part of the consideration for the issue of the Notes.

SECTION 2.01. Form Generally; Title and Terms.

(a) The Notes, including the face of the Notes, the reverse of the Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be in substantially the forms set forth above, with such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Indenture and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon as may be required to comply with the rules of any securities exchange or as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the officers executing such Notes, as evidenced by such execution.

The definitive Notes shall be printed, lithographed, engraved or otherwise produced as determined by the officers executing such Notes as evidenced by such execution.

(b) Except for Notes authenticated and delivered in exchange for or in lieu of Notes pursuant to Section 2.04, 2.05 or 8.05, the aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to $250,000,000 principal amount.

The Notes shall be known and designated as the 7 7/8% Notes Due 2016 of the Issuer. Their Stated Maturity shall be March 15, 2016. The Notes shall bear interest as provided in the form of Note.

(c) The Notes and transfers thereof shall be registered as provided in Section 2.04.

(d) Each Note shall be dated the date of its authentication.

(e) The Notes shall not be entitled to any mandatory sinking fund. The Notes shall be redeemable by the Issuer as provided for in Article Nine.

(f) The Notes may be issued in whole or in part in the form of one or more global notes (the "Global Notes"). The Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall, in accordance herewith and upon the Order of the Issuer, authenticate and deliver one or more Global Notes that (i) shall represent and shall be denominated in an aggregate principal or face amount of the Outstanding Notes to be represented by such Global Note or Notes, (ii) shall be registered in the name of the Depositary or the nominee of the Depositary, (iii) shall be delivered by the Trustee to the Depositary or pursuant to the Depositary's instructions and (iv) shall bear the legend set forth below.

The Issuer initially designates The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") as the depositary for the Global Notes. The Issuer and the Trustee shall enter into a customary letter of representation with DTC, providing for, among other things, a legend restricting transfer of the Global Notes.

The Depositary nay be treated by the Issuer as the owner of such Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by or to the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of any Note.

The Holder of any Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, and the Trustee agree that such Global Note shall be transferred pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof only in whole and not in part to a nominee of DTC, a successor to DTC or a nominee of such successor which is another clearing agency registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

If at any time DTC (or any successor Depositary) notifies the Issuer that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depositary for the Global Note or at any time DTC (or such successor Depositary) shall no longer be eligible under this Section 2.01, the Issuer shall appoint a successor Depositary with respect to the Global Notes and such successor shall enter into a customary letter of representation with the Issuer and the Trustee. If a successor Depositary for the Global Notes is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days after the Issuer receives such notice or becomes aware of such ineligibility, or if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Notes shall thereafter no longer be in the form of the Global Notes and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee upon receipt of an Order of the Issuer for the authentication and delivery of certificated Notes, will authenticate and deliver, certificated Notes in any authorized denominations in an aggregate principal amount of the Global Notes in exchange for the Global Notes, such certificated Notes to be in denominations and registered in the names specified by the Depositary; provided that if such Event of Default is waived pursuant to Section 5.01 or is no longer continuing, such certificated Notes need not be issued and if already issued may, at the Holder's request, be represented again by a Global Note in accordance with this Section 2.01.

SECTION 2.02. Denominations. The Notes are issuable in registered form in denominations of $250,000 and integral multiples thereof.

SECTION 2.03. Execution. Authentication and Delivery of Notes. The Notes shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer by a duly authorized officer of the Issuer. Any such signature may be manual or facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signature of any Person who was, at the actual date of execution thereof, a duly authorized officer of the Issuer shall bind the Issuer, notwithstanding that such Person has ceased to be a duly authorized officer prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes. At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer may deliver to the Trustee for authentication Notes executed by the Issuer and, upon written Request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver such Notes as in this Indenture provided and not otherwise.

Except as otherwise provided in Sections 3.03 and 4.14 of this Indenture with respect to amounts deposited by the Issuer with the Trustee to effect a defeasance of the Notes or certain covenants and provisions in the Indenture, all monies paid by the Issuer to the Trustee or other Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, Make-Whole Amount or interest shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Issuer and, to the extent permitted by law, the Holder of such Note thereafter shall look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amount shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 2.04. Registration, Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee a register (the register maintained in such office and in any other office or agency designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose being herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Notes and for transfers of Notes. The Issuer hereby appoints Chemical Bank as the Registrar. The registration of transfer of a Note by the Registrar shall be deemed to be the acknowledgment of such transfer on behalf of the Issuer. Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note at an office or agency of the Issuer designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose, the Issuer shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of any authorized denomination and of a like aggregate principal amount.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.04(a), the following procedures and restrictions with respect to the registration of any transfer of any Note other than a Global Note shall apply:

(i) The Registrar shall register the transfer of any Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if the requested transfer is (x) to the Issuer, or (y) by a Holder that certifies that it was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer and such transfer is at least three years after the later of (A) the issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (B) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(ii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if each of (i) the Holder of such Note and (ii) the proposed transferee (if so required by the Certificate of Transfer) has properly completed the Certificate of Transfer, or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer, and has delivered such Certificate to the Registrar, together, in the case of a transfer to an Accredited Investor, with a letter from the transferee in the form of Exhibit A hereto.

(iii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note to or from a depositary organization for any other institutional trading system designated by the Issuer in a Notice of Issuance or otherwise set forth in a written notice to the Registrar. In connection with any such transfer to such depositary organization for deposit in such other institutional trading system, no further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied to the Registrar in respect thereof. In connection with any such transfer out of such other institutional trading system, the Registrar shall receive such documents, certifications or other evidence from the transferor or transferee as are specified in such Notice of Issuance or other written notice.

(iv) If so specified in the Notice of Issuance with respect to the Notes, the Registrar shall register the transfer of the Notes, from or through any dealer, placement agent or other person specified by the Issuer in such Notice of Issuance which has agreed in writing to offer, sell and effect transfers of Notes only to a prospective purchaser who such dealer, placement agent or other person has reasonable grounds to believe and does believe is a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who will make representations with respect to itself substantially to the same effect as set forth in the Certificate of Transfer. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(v) With respect to any requested transfer of a Note not provided for in clauses (i) through (iv) above, the Registrar shall, subject to such additional procedures as the Issuer may establish, register such transfer upon surrender of such Note. Such additional procedures may include, without limitation, (x) the delivery by the transferor or the proposed transferee of an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to the effect that such transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act and (y) the delivery by the proposed transferee of representation letters in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act.

(vi) Upon receipt of the duly completed Note and any required instruments of transfer, transfer notices or other written statements or documents, the Registrar shall register the transfer and complete, countersign and deliver in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of authorized denominations in the principal amount specified on such Note.

(vii) The Registrar shall have no liability whatsoever to any party so long as it registers the transfer in accordance with the, instructions described here.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, so long as a Global Note remains Outstanding, and is held by the Registrar, as custodian for the Depositary, unless the transferee shall otherwise request in writing to the Registrar, no certificated Note shall be issued or authenticated in connection with the transfer of any certificated Note pursuant to the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A. Instead, upon acceptance for transfer of any certificated Note, the Registrar shall cancel such certificated Note and shall, in lieu of issuing a new certificated Note in exchange for the certificated Note surrendered for registration of transfer, endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of such certificated Note. All provisions of this Section 2.04 relating to the transfer of Notes (other than those relating to the issuance and authorization of a new Note) shall apply to any transfer resulting in an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any increase in the principal amount of any Global Note.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, resales or other transfers of Notes represented by a Global Note made in compliance with Rule 144A or made on or subsequent to the date that is three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (ii) the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, by a beneficial owner that was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer will be conducted according to the rules and procedures of the Depositary applicable to U.S. corporate debt obligations and without notice to, or action by, the Registrar. Upon notice from the beneficial owner (or an agent of the beneficial owner) of Notes represented by a Global Note that such beneficial owner intends to resell or transfer such Notes (x) otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A prior to three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Notes) and (ii) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof and computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or (y) otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A if such beneficial owner was at the proposed date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such proposed date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer, and upon satisfaction by the transferor and, if applicable, the transferee, of the conditions necessary for the registration of transfer of a Note set out in Section 2.04(b), the Registrar shall and is authorized by the holder of such Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, to endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and the reduction in the principal amount of such Global Note equal to the principal amount of the portion of the Global Note being transferred and shall authenticate and deliver a certificated Note registered in the name of the transferee or its nominee in an equal aggregate principal amount. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any decrease in the principal amount of any Global Note.

(d) Except as otherwise provided on the face of the Notes with respect to the payment of interest on Notes transferred between Record Dates and Interest Payment Dates, each Note authenticated and delivered upon any transfer or exchange for or in lieu of the whole or any part of any Note shall carry all the rights to interest, if any, accrued and unpaid and to accrue which were carried by the whole or such part of such Note.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to exchange or register the transfer of any Note during the period of 15 days preceding (i) the due date for any payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, on the Notes or (ii) the date on which Notes are scheduled for redemption.

(f) Transfer, registration and exchange shall be permitted and executed as provided in this Section without any charge other than any stamp or other taxes or governmental charges or insurance charges payable on transfers or any expenses of delivery but subject to such reasonable regulations as the Issuer and the Registrar may prescribe.

(g) Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes not bearing the private placement legend set forth in the form of Note (the "Private Placement Legend"), the Trustee shall deliver Notes that do not bear the Private Placement Legend. Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes bearing the Private Placement Legend, the Trustee shall deliver only Notes that bear the Private Placement Legend unless the circumstances contemplated by Section 2.04(b)(i)(y) above exist.

(h) Any Note or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes in other authorized denominations, in an equal aggregate principal amount. Notes to be exchanged shall be surrendered at an office or agency to be maintained by the Issuer for such purpose as provided in Section 4.02, and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver in exchange therefor the Note or Notes which the Noteholder making the exchange shall be entitled to receive, bearing numbers not contemporaneously outstanding.

All Notes presented for registration of transfer, exchange, redemption or payment shall (if so required by the Issuer or the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee duly executed by, the Holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

All Notes issued upon any transfer or exchange of Notes shall be valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

(i) The Issuer agrees to make available such information as is required by Rule 144A(d)(iv) as in effect on the original issue date of the Notes. Further, the Notes and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time in accordance with Section 8.01 (i) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (ii) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form). Each Holder of any Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of such Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

(j) For purposes of determining the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of a Note, the Registrar and the Issuer shall rely on the representations as to "Affiliation with Issuer" set forth on the Certificate or Certificates of Transfer delivered to it from and after the date of issuance of such Note (or any predecessor Note) in connection with transfers of such Note. The Registrar, the Issuer and all Holders of Notes shall be entitled to rely without further investigation on any certification by any transferor on the Certificate of Transfer. Unless a transferor required to provide a Certificate of Transfer shall certify thereon that it is or at some time during which it held such Note was an Affiliate of the Issuer, such transferor shall be deemed to have represented that it is not nor has it been at any time during which it held such Note an Affiliate of the Issuer.

SECTION 2.05. Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost and Stolen Notes. In case any Note shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and upon the written request of any officer of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced Note, or in lieu of and substitution for the Note so apparently destroyed, lost or stolen. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith. In case any Note which has matured or has been called for redemption in full, shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer may, instead of issuing a substitute Note, with the Holder's consent in the case that the Note is called for redemption, pay or authorize the payment of the same (without surrender thereof except in the case of a mutilated or defaced Note), if the applicant for such payment shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as any of them may require to save each of them harmless from all risks, however remote. and, in every case of apparent destruction, loss or theft, the applicant shall also furnish to the Issuer and the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Every substitute Note issued pursuant to the provisions of this Section by virtue of the fact that any Note is apparently destroyed, lost or stolen shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Issuer, whether or not the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone and shall be entitled to all the benefits of (but shall be subject to all the limitations of rights set forth in) this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Notes shall be held and owned upon the express condition that, to the extent permitted by law, the foregoing provisions are exclusive with respect to the replacement or payment or conversion of mutilated, defaced, or apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Notes and shall preclude any and all other rights or remedies notwithstanding any law or statute existing or hereafter enacted to the contrary with respect to the replacement or payment of negotiable instruments or other securities without their surrender.

SECTION 2.06. Persons Deemed Owners. The Issuer, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee may treat the person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and (subject to the provisions for payment of interest set forth in the form of Note) interest on such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note be overdue, and neither the Issuer, the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary to the extent permitted by applicable law.

SECTION 2.07. Cancellation of Notes; Destruction Thereof. All Notes surrendered for payment, redemption, or registration of transfer or exchange, if surrendered to the Issuer or any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee, shall be delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or, if surrendered to the Trustee, shall be cancelled by it; and no Notes shall be issued in lieu thereof except as expressly permitted by any of the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee shall destroy cancelled Notes held by it and deliver a certificate of destruction to the Issuer. If the Issuer shall acquire any of the Notes, such acquisition shall not operate as a redemption or satisfaction of the indebtedness represented by such Notes unless and until the same are delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE; DEPOSITED MONEYS

SECTION 3.01. Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture. This Indenture shall cease to be of further effect (except as to any surviving rights of transfer or exchange herein expressly provided for), and the Trustee, upon Request of the Issuer at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, when

(a) either

(i) all Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other thou Notes which have been destroyed, lost or stolen and which have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 2.04), have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation and 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date of delivery of the last such Note for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (1) have become due and payable, (2) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, (3) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuer, or (4) are deemed paid and discharged pursuant to Section 3.03, as applicable, and in the case of (1), (2) or (3) above, 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date on which the Issuer has deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent, in trust for the purpose, an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest accrued to the date of such deposit or to the Stated Maturity or Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Issuer; and

(c) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

SECTION 3.02. Application of Trust Money. Subject to Section 4.02, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.01, all money and U.S. Government Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 or 4.14 and all money received by the Trustee in respect of U.S. Governmental Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through the Paying Agent as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of the Notes for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee, of all sums due and to become due thereon for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with or received by the Trustee or to make payments as contemplated by Section 3.03; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

SECTION 3.03. Satisfaction, Discharge and Defeasance of Notes. The Issuer shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness on all the Notes on the 91st day after the date of the deposit referred to in subparagraph (d) hereof, and the provisions of this Indenture shall no longer be in effect (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, shall, upon receipt of a Request of the Issuer, execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except as to:

(a) the rights of Holders of Notes to receive, from the trust funds described in subparagraph (d) of this Section 3.03, payment of the principal of and each installment of or interest on the Notes on the Stated Maturity of such principal or installment of principal or interest;

(b) the Issuer's obligations with respect to the Notes under Section 2.04, 2.05 and 4.02; and

provided that, the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(d) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defease the Notes under this Section 3.03 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably with the Trustee as trust funds in trust for the purpose of making the following payments, specifically pledged as security for and dedicated solely to the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants expressed in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(e) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(f) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such date;

(g) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (1) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (2) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (1) or (2), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit, defeasance and discharge and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and, in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit, defeasance and discharge had not occurred;

(h) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble to this Section 3.03 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 3.03 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 3.03, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 3.03 have been complied with.

COVENANTS OF THE ISSUER
AND THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 4.01. Payment of Principal and Interest. The Issuer will duly and punctually pay the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes, in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Indenture.

Payment of principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on Notes will be made in accordance with the terms of the Notes against surrender of the Notes at the Corporate Trust Office of the Paying Agent in the City of New York. Payment of interest on the Notes will be made, in accordance with the terms of the Notes, to the respective persons in whose name the Notes are registered at the close of business on the Record Date prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date.

The Issuer will on or before 3:00 P.M., the City of New York time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the due date of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes, pay to the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds a sum sufficient to pay the principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest, so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes.

SECTION 4.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency; Appointment of Paying Agent. So long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, the Issuer will maintain in the City of New York the following: (a) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for payment, (b) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for registration of transfer and for exchange as in this Indenture provided and (c) an office or agency where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes or of this Indenture may be served. The Issuer will give to the Trustee written notice of the location of any such office or agency and of any change of location thereof. The Issuer hereby initially designates the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee as the office or agency for each such purpose. In case the Issuer shall fail to maintain any such office or agency or shall fail to give such notice of the location or of any change in the location thereof, presentations and demands may be made and notices may be served at the Corporate Trust Office.

The Issuer hereby appoints Chemical Bank as Paying Agent (the "Paying Agent"), for the payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes on behalf of the Issuer. The Issuer reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent, transfer agent or Registrar or to appoint any additional or other Paying Agent or agencies or transfer agent or agencies or Registrar.

Whenever the Issuer shall appoint a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, it will cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such agent shall agree with the Trustee, subject to the provisions of this Section 4.02, that it will hold all sums held by it as such agent for the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, that it will give the Trustee notice of any failure by the Issuer to make any payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes when the same shall be due and payable and that, at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, it will forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held by it in trust.

Anything in this Section 4.02 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Issuer may, at any time, for the purpose of obtaining a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, or for any other reason, cause to be paid to the Trustee all sums held in trust by any Paying Agent hereunder as required by this Section 4.02, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the trust herein contained. Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent for the payment of the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer, and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amounts shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 4.03. Existence of Issuer. The Issuer will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, rights and franchises; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to preserve the existence of the Issuer or any such right or franchise if the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall determine that the failure to preserve such existence, right or franchise is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders of Notes and in the case of such right or franchise, is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of the Issuer.

SECTION 4.04. Information. The Issuer will deliver to the Trustee and to each Holder of Notes upon the request of such Holder:

(a) within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Issuer, a consolidated balance sheet of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries as of the end of such fiscal year and the related consolidated statements of cash flows, income and shareholders' equity for such fiscal year, in each case prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, setting forth in each case in comparative form the figures for the previous fiscal year, and a report and opinion thereon of independent public accountants of recognized national standing; and

(b) within 60 days after the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters, unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries for the portion of the Issuer's fiscal year then ended, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as provided to the Issuer's shareholders.

SECTION 4.05. Maintenance of Property; Insurance.

(a) The Issuer will keep, and will cause each Subsidiary to keep, all material property useful and necessary in its business in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

(b) The Issuer wi11 maintain, and will cause each Subsidiary to maintain, in full force and effect at all times with financially sound and reputable insurance companies, insurance on all of its property in at least such amounts and against at least such risks as are usually insured against in the same general area by companies engaged in similar businesses.

SECTION 4.06. Trustee. The Issuer whenever necessary to avoid or fill a vacancy in the office of Trustee, will appoint, in the manner provided in Section 6.09, a Trustee, so that there shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder.

SECTION 4.07. Compliance with Laws. The Issuer will comply, and, will cause each Subsidiary to comply, in all material respects, with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and requirements of governmental authority, except where the necessity of compliance therewith is contested in good faith or where the failure to comply would not have a material adverse effect upon the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 4.08. Limitations on Debt. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit:

(a) Consolidated Debt (excluding Excludable Non-Recourse and Subsidiary Debt) to exceed 50% of Gross Assets, or

(b) Consolidated Secured Debt (excluding Excludable Non-Recourse and Subsidiary Debt) to exceed 35% of Gross Assets.

SECTION 4.09. Minimum Net Worth. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit Consolidated Net Worth to be less than $2,000,000,000 (Two Billion Dollars).

SECTION 4.10. Debt Service Coverage. The Issuer shall not permit Cash Flow plus Consolidated Interest Expense (but only to the extent such Consolidated Interest Expense shall have been deducted in computing Consolidated Net Income) calculated at the end of any fiscal quarter, for the four fiscal quarters then ended to be less than 150% of the sum of (x) Consolidated Interest Expense for such four fiscal quarters plus (y) all payments of principal with respect to Consolidated Debt payable during such four fiscal quarters (other than optional prepayments and any other nonperiodic payments, including lump sum or bullet payments).

SECTION 4.11. Annual Real Property Appraisal. Prior to February 28 of each year, the Issuer will (a) cause the fair market value of the equity of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries in all interests in Real Property as of the December 31 next preceding such February 28 to be appraised by the Appraiser in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute, (b) calculate as of such December 31 the value of Gross Assets, (c) cause the Appraiser to review such calculation of Gross Assets and (d) cause to be filed with the Trustee a report from the Appraiser containing the Appraiser's opinion on the value of Gross Assets as of such December 31 and its opinion on the reasonableness of the Issuer's calculation of the value of Gross Assets as of such December 31 and stating that the appraisal referred to in clause (a) above was made in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute.

SECTION 4.12. File Statement Annually with the Trustee. Within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year, the Issuer will file with the Trustee an Officers' Certificate, stating that in the course of the performance by the signers of their duties as officers of the Issuer, they would normally obtain knowledge of any default by the Issuer in the performance or fulfillment of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Indenture, that they have made a review with a view to determining whether there is any default under this Indenture, and stating whether or not they have obtained knowledge of any such default, and, if so, specifying each default of which the signers have knowledge and the nature thereof.

At the time such Officers' Certificate is filed, the Issuer will also file with the Trustee a letter or statement of the independent accountants who shall have certified the consolidated financial statements of the Issuer for its preceding fiscal year to the effect that, in making the examination necessary for certification of such financial statements, nothing has come to their attention to cause them to believe that the Issuer failed to comply with the covenants in Sections 4.01, 4.08, 4.09 and 4.10 which failure remains uncured at the date of such letter or statement, or, if they shall have obtained knowledge of any such failure, specifying in such letter or statement the nature thereof.

SECTION 4.13. Further Assurances. From time to time whenever requested by the Trustee, the Issuer will execute and deliver such further instruments and assurances and do such further acts as may be reasonably necessary or proper to carry out more effectually the purposes of this Indenture or to secure the rights and remedies hereunder of the Holders of the Notes.

SECTION 4.14. Defeasance of Certain Obligations. From and after the 91st day after the date the Issuer deposits funds with the Trustee as described in paragraph (1) of this Section 4.14, the Issuer may omit to comply with any term, provision or condition set forth in Sections 4.04, 4.05, 4.07, 4.08 to 4.11, inclusive, and Section 5.01(c) and (d) and (e) and (f) (but only insofar as such paragraphs (e) and (f) relate to Subsidiaries of the Issuer), inclusive, and Article Nine shall be deemed deleted, provided that the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(1) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defeasance under this Section 4.14 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably (except as provided in Section 3.03) with the Trustee as trust funds in trust, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(2) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(3) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such deposit;

(4) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (a) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (b) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (a) or (b), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations had not occurred;

(5) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble of this Section 4.14 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 4.14 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 4.14, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01. Events of Default Defined; Acceleration of Maturity; Waiver of Default. The following events or conditions constitute Events of Default hereunder (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order, rule or regulation of any administrative body):

(a) default in the payment of any installment of interest upon any Note when it becomes due and payable and continuance of such default for a period of 10 Business Days; or

(b) default in the payment of principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on, any of the Notes when due, whether at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise; or

(c) default in the performance, or breach, of any covenant or agreement of the Issuer in this Indenture or the Notes (other than a covenant or agreement a default in the performance of which or the breach of which is elsewhere in this Section specifically dealt with or default in the payment of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest), and continuance of such default or breach for a period of 30 days after there shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such default or breach and requiring it to be remedied and stating that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder; or

(d) acceleration of, or failure to pay at maturity, Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) of the

Issuer or any Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000 which acceleration is not rescinded or annulled or which Debt is not discharged, in either case, within 30 days after there shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, by the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such acceleration or failure to pay and requiring the Issuer to remedy the same; or

(e) the entry of a decree or order for relief in respect of the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) by a court having jurisdiction in the premises in an involuntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of 60 consecutive days; or

(f) the commencement by the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) of a voluntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or the consent by it (or any such Subsidiary) to the entry of an order for relief in an involuntary case under any such law as to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, seqestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of corporate action by the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) in furtherance of any such action.

If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(a) or (b) occurs and is continuing, then and in every such case (i) the Trustee by a notice in writing to the Issuer may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately or (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee declare the Notes to be due and payable immediately, and upon any such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(c) or (d) occurs and is continuing, then in every such case the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately by a notice in writing to the Issuer (and to the Trustee if given by Holders) and upon such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(e) or (f) occurs, the Notes shall automatically become due and payable at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid without any action or declaration upon the part of the Trustee or Noteholders.

The preceding paragraph, however, is subject to the condition that if, at any time after the principal of the Notes shall have so become due and payable, before any judgment or decree for the payment of moneys due shall have been obtained or entered as hereinafter provided, the Issuer shall pay or shall deposit with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay all matured installments of interest upon all the Notes and the expenses of the Trustee, and any and all defaults under this Indenture, other than the non-payment of Notes which shall have become due by such declaration, shall have been remedied, then in every such case the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof), by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may waive all defaults and rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences; but no waiver and rescission and annulment shall extend to or shall affect any default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of the Notes or any subsequent default or shall impair any right consequent thereon.

SECTION 5.02. Collection of Debt and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee. The Issuer covenants that if:

(i) in case default is made in the payment of any installment of interest on any Note when such interest

becomes due and payable and such default continues for a period of 10 Business Days, or

(ii) default is made in the payment of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any Note at the Maturity thereof,

then the Issuer will, upon demand of the Trustee, pay to it, for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes, the principal amount thereof, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any, with interest upon the overdue principal and the Make-Whole Amount and, to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable, upon overdue installments of interest, at the rate borne by the Notes, and, in addition thereto, such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection and all amounts payable to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

If the Issuer fails to pay any amounts required under this Section 5.02 forthwith upon such demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, may institute a judicial proceeding for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid and may prosecute such proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes and collect the moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the property of the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes, wherever situated.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of Notes by such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem most effectual to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein or to enforce any other proper remedy.

SECTION 5.03. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes or the property of the Issuer or such other obligor, the Trustee (irrespective of whether the principal of the Notes shall then be due and payable as therein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand on the Issuer for the payment of overdue principal or interest) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise,

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and to file such other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee (including, in the case of. any such proceeding relating to the Issuer, any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee, their agents and counsel) and of the Holders of Notes allowed in such judicial proceeding,

(b) to collect and receive any moneys or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same, and

and any receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder of Notes to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders of Notes, to pay, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer or to the Trustee any amount due to it or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept, or adopt on behalf of any Holder of Notes, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder of Notes in any such proceeding, except, as aforesaid, for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions.

SECTION 5.04. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes. All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee (to the extent permitted by applicable law) without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes in respect of which judgment has been recovered, subject to the provisions of this Indenture.

SECTION 5.05. Application of Money Collected. Any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, upon presentation of the Notes, and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

FIRST: To the payment of all amounts due the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06;

SECOND: In case the principal of the Outstanding Notes shall not have become due and be unpaid, to the payment of interest on the Notes, in the order of the maturity of the installments of such interest, with interest upon the overdue installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes, such payments to be made ratably to the persons entitled thereto, without discrimination or preference;

THIRD: In case the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on the Outstanding Notes shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, to the payment of the whole amount then owing and unpaid upon the Notes for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, with interest on the overdue principal and installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes; and in case such moneys shall be insufficient to pay in full the whole amount so due and unpaid upon the Notes, then to the payment of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, without preference or priority of principal or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, over interest, or of interest over principal, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, ratably to the aggregate of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest; and

FOURTH: To the payment of the remainder, if any, to the Issuer or any other person lawfully entitled thereto.

SECTION 5.06. Limitation on Suits by Noteholders. No Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy hereunder, unless:

(1) such Holder has previously given written notice to the Trustee of a continuing Event of Default;

(2) the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute proceedings in respect of such Events of Default set forth in Sections 5.01(c) or (d);

(3) such Holder or Holders have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with such request;

(4) the Trustee for 60 days after its receipt of such notice, request and offer of indemnity has failed to institute any such proceeding; and

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders of Notes shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders of Notes, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes.

SECTION 5.07. Unconditional Rights of Holders to Receive Principal and Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture (but subject to the following sentence), the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of, and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on such Note on the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture or any Note, the Issuer may deduct or withhold taxes or other governmental charges from or in respect of any payment required to be made under this Indenture or any Note to the extent required by applicable law.

SECTION 5.08. Restoration of Rights and Remedies. If the Trustee or any Holder of Notes has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall, subject to any determination in such proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

SECTION 5.09. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

SECTION 5.10. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders of Notes, as the case may be.

SECTION 5.11. Control by Holders. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Notes, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, provided that:

(1) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture.

(2) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction, and

(3) the Trustee shall have the right to decline to follow any such action if the Trustee in good faith by its board of directors or executive committee or a trust committee of directors and/or Responsible Officers shall determine the actions or proceedings so directed would involve the Trustee in personal liability or would be unduly prejudicial to Holders not joining in such direction.

SECTION 5.12. Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of not less than 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past default hereunder and its consequences, except a default in the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note.

Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or impair any right consequent thereto.

SECTION 5.13. Undertaking for Costs. All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court of competent jurisdiction may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; but the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any suit instituted against the Issuer by the Trustee, by any Holder of Notes, or group of Holders of Notes, holding in the aggregate more than 10% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, or by any Holder of any Note for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on such Note on or after the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes.

SECTION 5.14. Notice of Default to Holders of Notes. The Trustee shall at the Issuer's expense, within 90 days after any Event of Default becomes known to a Responsible Officer of it, give the Holders of Notes notice thereof, unless such default shall have been cured or waived.

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 6.01. Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee; During Default; Prior to Default. The Trustee, prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default which may have occurred, undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture. In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his own affairs.

No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee for liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that

(i) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all such Events of Default which may have occurred: the duties and obligations of the Trustee shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; this Subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of this Section 6.01;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes (or 66-2/3% or 25% in principal amount where expressly provided herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) none of the provisions of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

SECTION 6.02. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Subject to the provisions of Section 6.01:

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, Officers' Certificate or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request, direction, order or demand of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Officers' Certificate (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein specifically prescribed) and any resolution of the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) the Trustee may consult with counsel and any advice or Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such Opinion of Counsel;

(d) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request, order or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, unless such Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision herein which may be inconsistent with any other provision herein, to make any provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Indenture, or to make any other changes herein that shall not materially adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes.

The Trustee is hereby authorized to join with the Issuer in the execution of any such supplemental indenture, to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations which may be therein contained and to accept the conveyance. transfer, assignment, mortgage or pledge of any property thereunder, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

SECTION 8.02. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders: Waiver of Future Compliance. With the consent of the Holders of 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by Act of said Holders delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Indenture or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture or to waive future compliance with the Indenture or the provisions of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture or waiver shall, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby,

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Noteholders under this Section to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof.

Promptly after the execution by the Issuer and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to the provisions of this Section, the Trustee shall mail a notice thereof to the Holders of then Outstanding Notes by first-class mail to such Holders at their addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. If notice of redemption has been given as aforesaid, the Notes shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified, and on and after such date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price) such Notes shall cease to bear interest.

If the Issuer defaults on the Redemption Date in the payment of the Redemption Price such Notes shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Notes.

Corporate Property Investors, Inc.
Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc.
Registration Statement on Form S-4

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel for Corporate Property Investors, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CPI"), and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CRC"), in connection with the registration by CPI and CRC under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act") of up to (i) 111,766,862 shares of Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share, of CPI (the "CPI Common Stock"), paired with 1/100th of a share of Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share, of CRC (the "CRC Common Stock"), (ii) 3,200,000 shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share, of CPI (the "CPI Class B Common Stock"), paired with 1/100th of a share of CRC Common Stock and (iii) 4,000 shares of Class C Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share, of CPI (the "CPI Class C Common Stock"), paired with 1/100th of a share of CRC Common Stock, being registered under a registration statement on Form S-4 (the "Registration Statement"), to which this opinion is being filed as an exhibit. Such shares of CPI Common Stock, CPI Class B Common Stock, CPI Class C Common Stock and CRC Common Stock (collectively, the "Common Stock") are proposed to be issued pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998, among Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., Corporate Property Investors (predecessor to CPI) and CRC (the "Merger Agreement").

In that connection, we have examined originals, or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, corporate records and other instruments as we have deemed necessary or appropriate for the purposes of this opinion, including (a) the Certificate of Incorporation of CPI; (b) the By-laws of CPI; (c) the Certificate of Incorporation of CRC; (d) the By-laws of CRC; and (d) the Merger Agreement.

Based upon the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, when the shares of Common Stock are issued in the manner referred to in the Registration Statement, then the shares of Common Stock will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

We are admitted to practice in the State of New York, and we express no opinion as to matters governed by any laws other than the laws of the State of New York, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the Federal laws of the United States of America.

We hereby consent to the inclusion of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the reference to us under the caption "Legal Matters" in the Registration Statement.

We are furnishing this opinion to you solely for your benefit in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. This opinion may not be relied upon by any other person or for any other purpose or used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose.

Very truly yours,

Re: Registration Statement on Form S-4
File Nos.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as your counsel in connection with the proposed merger (the 'Merger') of a subsidiary of Corporate Property Investors, Inc., a Delaware corporation ('CPI'), with and into Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., a Maryland corporation ('SDG'), pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the 'Agreement'), dated as of February 18, 1998 by and among SDG, CPI, and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ('CRC'). In that connection we have participated in the preparation of a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (the 'Registration Statement'), including a Proxy Statement/Prospectus (the 'Proxy Statement'), under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. In particular, we have prepared the sections entitled 'THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS-Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of SDG Equity Stock' and 'THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS-Federal Income Tax Considerations Relating to the Simon Group' contained in the Proxy Statement. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement.

We have examined the Agreement, the Proxy Statement, representation letters received from CPI and SDG and such other documents and records as we have deemed necessary or appropriate for purposes of this opinion. To the extent that we have examined and relied upon original documents or copies thereof in rendering this opinion, we have assumed and relied upon (i) the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, (ii) the conformity to authentic original documents of all documents submitted to us as copies, (iii) the genuineness of all signatures and (iv) that all obligations imposed by the relevant documents on the parties thereto have been or will be performed or satisfied in accordance with their terms. We have also assumed (i) that the Voting Preferred Amendment will be adopted prior to consummation of the Merger, (ii) the Merger will be consummated in the manner contemplated in the Proxy Statement and in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and CPI and SDG will at all times be organized and operated in accordance with the terms of their respective organizational documents, (iii) the factual statements concerning the Merger set forth in the Proxy Statement are accurate and complete and (iv) the factual representations made to us by CPI and SDG in their respective representation letters to us are accurate and complete and that any representation or statement made as a belief or made 'to the knowledge of' or similarly qualified is correct and accurate without such qualification.

Our opinion is based on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the 'Code'), regulations under the Code, judicial authority and current administrative rulings and practice, all as of the date of this letter, and all of which may change at any time.

Based on the foregoing, it is our opinion that the Merger will be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as a 'reorganization' within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Assuming the Merger qualifies as a tax-free reorganization, the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger will be as follows:

(i) Subject to the discussion in (vii) below, and except as described in (ii) below, the exchange in the Merger of SDG Equity Stock for Simon Group Equity Stock will not result in the recognition of gain or loss to SDG stockholders with respect to such exchange.

(ii) Each SDG stockholder who receives cash proceeds in lieu of Fractional Shares will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between such proceeds and the tax basis allocated to such stockholder's Fractional Share interests. Each dissenting stockholder who receives cash proceeds for the shares not voted in favor of the Merger will recognize a taxable gain or loss equal to the difference between such proceeds and the tax basis allocated to such shares. Any such gain or loss recognized as described in this paragraph will constitute capital gain or loss if such stockholder's shares of SDG Equity Stock were held as a capital asset at the Effective Time.

(iii) The tax basis of the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock (including fractional share interests for which cash is ultimately received) received by a SDG stockholder will be equal to the tax basis of the shares of SDG Equity Stock exchanged therefor, decreased by the amount of cash received by such stockholder, and increased by the amount of gain (if any) recognized by such stockholder in the Merger.

(iv) A stockholder's holding period with respect to the Simon Group Equity Stock received in the Merger will include the holding period of the SDG Equity Stock exchanged in the Merger if such SDG Equity Stock was held as a capital asset at the Effective Time.

(v) The aggregate tax basis of the beneficial interests in CRC Common Stock received by a SDG stockholder will equal the fair market value of such beneficial interests as of the Effective Time. The holding period for such beneficial interests received by a stockholder will begin on the day it is distributed.

(vi) No gain or loss will be recognized by SDG, the subsidiary of CPI formed to merge with SDG, or CPI as a result of the Merger.

(vii) The treatment of the receipt of beneficial interests in CRC Common Stock is not completely clear. Willkie Farr & Gallagher is of the opinion that the receipt of such beneficial interests should be treated as a distribution from SDG governed by Section 301 of the Code, and not as 'boot' or 'other property' received in the reorganization. If the IRS were to successfully contend that such beneficial interests are properly treated as 'boot' or 'other property,' SDG stockholders would recognize gain, but not loss, on the exchange of shares of SDG Equity Stock for Paired Shares pursuant to the Merger in an amount equal to the lesser of (a) the fair market value of the beneficial interests in the CRC Common Stock, as of the Effective Time, that they receive, or (b) the amount by which the fair market value of the Paired Shares as of the Effective Time, exceeds the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the SDG Equity Stock exchanged therefor. Any such gain would be characterized as capital gain (assuming the SDG Equity Stock exchanged was a capital asset in the hands of the stockholder) unless the boot received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend.

In addition, based on the foregoing, it is our opinion that the above-referenced sections of the Proxy Statement accurately describe the material U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to holders of SDG Equity Stock and Simon Group.

We hereby consent to the use of this opinion as Exhibit 8.1 to the Registration Statement and related Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and to the reference to us under the caption 'THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS-Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of SDG Equity Stock' and 'LEGAL MATTERS' therein.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Willkie Farr & Gallagher

Corporate Property Investors, Inc.

Dear Sirs:

We have acted as your counsel in connection with the merger contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") dated as of February 18, 1998, among Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., a Maryland corporation ("SDG"), Corporate Property Investors, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CPI"), and Corporate Realty Consultants, a Delaware corporation ("CRC"). In that connection, you have asked for our opinion regarding CPI's current qualification as a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") within the meaning of Section 856(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended to date (the "Code") for purposes of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus dated August 13, 1998 (the "Proxy Statement"), to be distributed to stockholders of SDG in connection with their approval of the Merger Agreement.

For purposes of this opinion, we have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of (a) the Declaration of Trust dated June 24, 1971, pursuant to which CPI was previously organized, and the Trustees' Regulations of CPI adopted as authorized in the Declaration of Trust, in each case as in effect prior to CPI's incorporation as a Delaware corporation, (b) the Certificate of Incorporation of CPI dated March 10, 1998, and the Bylaws of CPI (c) certain information statements, offering circulars and similar documents that were prepared in connection with CPI securities offerings and borrowing transactions, (d) the records of the proceedings of the Directors and Trustees, as applicable, of CPI and the Investment Committee thereof, (e) certain Annual Reports issued by CPI, (f) an audited annual financial statement of CPI showing the nature and amount of its assets for the calendar year 1997 and the nature and amount of the income realized by it in the calendar year 1997 and unaudited financial statements showing such information for each quarter in 1997 and the first two quarters of 1998, (g) a schedule showing certain information concerning the owner ship of shares of CPI in 1997, (h) a representation letter from CPI dated August 13, 1998 regarding certain factual matters and (i) such other documents and records as we deemed necessary for purposes of rendering such opinion. We also have relied upon certain additional information as to matters of fact furnished by officers and representatives of CPI.

Based upon the foregoing, we are of opinion that, subject to compliance by CPI with the requirement of timely filing a return as a REIT for its taxable year ended December 31, 1997, the making of an appropriate dividends paid election therein and the distribution of sufficient dividends attributable to such taxable year to satisfy Section 857(a) of the Code, (i) CPI qualified as a REIT within the meaning of Section 856(a) of the Code for its taxable year ended December 31, 1997, and that, if CPI continues its operations in the same manner as its operations from January 1, 1997 to the date hereof, CPI will continue to so qualify and (ii) subject to the provisions of Section 7002 of the IRS Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998, CPI and CRC are grandfathered from the application of Section 269B(a)(3) of the Code pursuant to Section 136(c)(3) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984. As part of the foregoing opinion, we have reached the opinion that CPI has qualified as a REIT in each of the five years preceding 1997.

Although we have assumed for purposes of this opinion that CPI will continue its operations in the same manner as its operations from January 1, 1997 to the date hereof, we note that CPI's operations are expected to change as a result of the merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement. We express no opinion as to the effect of any such change in CPI's ability to qualify as a REIT or otherwise express any opinion regarding CPI's qualification as a REIT after such merger.

We consent to the filing of this opinion as Exhibit 8.2 to the Proxy Statement and to the reference to our firm name therein. In giving this consent, we do not admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the rules or regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder.

Very truly yours,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have asked for our opinion concerning whether Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. (the "Company") is qualified for taxation as a "real estate investment trust" ("REIT") under Sections 856- 860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). This opinion is being issued in connection with the merger and related transactions (the "Merger") contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among the Company, Corporate Property Investors, Inc. ("CPI") and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC").

In connection with the opinions expressed herein, we have reviewed the Proxy Statement/Prospectus dated August 13, 1998 to be distributed to stockholders of the Company in connection with their approval of the Merger Agreement (the "Proxy Statement/Prospectus") as filed on July 31, 1998; and the related Registration Statement on Form S-4, filed by CPI and CRC (the "Registration Statement") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "1933 Act"), of which the Proxy Statement/Prospectus is a part. All capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined have the meanings given them in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

We have also examined and, with your consent, relied upon the following: (i) the Fifth Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of Simon DeBartolo Group, L.P. (the "SDG Operating Partnership"); (ii) the Fourth Amended and Restated Partnership Agreement of Shopping Center Associates ("SCA") as amended by the First Amendment dated April 8, 1992, the Second Amendment dated December 30, 1992, and the Third Amendment dated March 19, 1993;

(iii) the opinions of Willkie Farr & Gallagher, dated as of August 9, 1996, relating to the qualification of DeBartolo Realty Corporation as a REIT; (iv) the opinions of Cravath, Swaine & Moore filed as Exhibit 8.2 to the Registration Statement relating to the qualification of CPI as a REIT; (v) the Merger Agreement; and (vi) such other documents, records and instruments as we have deemed necessary in order to enable us to render the opinions expressed herein.

In our examination of documents, we have assumed, with your consent, (i) that all documents submitted to us are authentic originals, or if submitted as photocopies, that they faithfully reproduce the originals thereof; (ii) that all such documents have been or will be duly executed to the extent required; (iii) that all representations and statements set forth in such documents are true and correct; (iv) that any representation or statement made as a belief or made "to the knowledge of," or similarly qualified is correct and accurate without such qualification; (v) that all obligations imposed on any parties by their organizational documents have been or will be performed or satisfied in accordance with their terms; (vi) that the Company, SD Property Group, Inc., formerly DeBartolo Realty Corporation ("SD Property"), Retail Property Trust ("RPT" and, together with the Company and SD Property, the "REIT Members of the Simon Group"), the SDG Operating Partnership, SCA, the Management Companies and partnerships in which the Company or SD Property have direct or indirect interests ("Subsidiary Partnerships") and, after the Effective Time, CPI, which will be renamed Simon Property Group, Inc. ("Simon Group") at all times will be operated in accordance with the terms of their organizational documents; (vii) that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the Merger Agreement; and (viii) that, after the Effective Time, the SDG Operating Partnership, the Subsidiary Partnership, RPT, SCA, the partnerships in which SCA owns an equity interest and the other REIT Members of the Simon Group as constituted after the Effective Time will conduct their operations as described in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. We have further assumed that, except for any exceptions set forth in the representations letter described in the following paragraph, the statements and descriptions of the businesses, properties, and intended activities of the REIT Members of the Simon Group, the SDG Operating Partnership, the Management Companies and the Subsidiary Partnerships as described in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the documents incorporated in the Registration Statement by reference are accurate and complete.

For purposes of rendering the opinions expressed herein, we also have assumed, with your consent, the accuracy of the representations as to certain factual matters contained in the representations letters from the Company and CRC. The representations of the Company relate to the qualification of each of the REIT Members of the Simon Group as a REIT and the organization and operation of affiliated entities. The representations of CRC relate to its assets and income and the services that it performs in connection with its assets and on behalf of other entities.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that:

1. At all times from and after December 31, 1993 through December 31, 1997, the Company has qualified for taxation as a REIT and if the Company conducts its operations in the manner described in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the Company will continue to qualify for taxation as a REIT under the Code.

2. After the Effective Time, Simon Group (formerly CPI) will continue to qualify for taxation as a REIT under the Code.

This opinion is given as of the date hereof and is based on various statutory provisions, regulations promulgated thereunder and interpretations thereof by the Internal Revenue Service and the courts having jurisdiction over such matters, all of which are subject to change either prospectively or retroactively. Further, any variation or difference in the facts from those set forth in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus may affect the conclusions stated herein. Moreover, the Company's and Simon Group's qualifications as REITs depend upon the ability of each of the REIT Members of the Simon Group (as constituted both before and after the Effective Time) to meet, through actual annual operating results, requirements under the Code regarding income, assets, distributions and diversity of stock ownership. Because each of the REIT Members of the Simon Group's satisfaction of these requirements depends upon future events, no assurance can be given that the actual results of its operations for any one taxable year will satisfy the tests necessary to qualify as or be taxed as a REIT under the Code.

This opinion is furnished to you solely for use in connection with the Registration Statement. We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as Exhibit 8.3 to the Registration Statement and to the use of our name under the captions "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of SDG Equity Stock," and "--Opinions of SDG's and CPI's Counsel," in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. In giving this consent we do not thereby admit that we come within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the 1933 Act or the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder.

We express no opinions as to any federal income tax issues or other matters except those set forth or confirmed above.

Very truly yours,

/s/ BAKER & DANIELS

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by and may be changed at any time and from time to time in the discretion of, the Partnership, by action of its General Partner(s).

(b)The Committee shall have the authority (i) to exercise all of the powers granted to it under the Plan, (ii) to construe, interpret and implement the Plan and any Plan agreements executed pursuant to the Plan, (iii) to prescribe, amend and rescind rules relating to the Plan, (iv) to make any determination necessary or advisable in administering the Plan, and (v) to correct any defect, supply any omission and reconcile any inconsistency in the Plan.

(c) The determination of the Committee on all matters relating to the Plan or any Plan agreement shall be conclusive.

(d) No member of the Committee shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any award hereunder.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein: (i) until the Partnership shall appoint the members of the Committee, the Plan shall be administered by the General Partner(s), and (ii) the General Partner(s) may, in their sole discretion, at any time and from time to time, resolve to administer the Plan. In either of the foregoing events, the term Committee as used herein shall be deemed to mean the General Partner(s).

1.3 Persons Eligible for Awards.

Awards under Articles 2 and 3 of the Plan may be made to such officers, employee-directors, Eligible Directors, executive, managerial, professional or other employees, advisors and consultants ("key personnel") of the Partnership or its Affiliates, other than Melvin Simon and Herbert Simon, as the Committee shall from time to time in its sole discretion select. Eligible Directors shall also receive awards as provided in Article 4 of the Plan.

1.4 Types of Awards Under Plan.

(a) Awards may be made under the Plan in the form of (i) stock options ("options"), (ii) stock appreciation rights related to an option ("related stock appreciation rights"), (iii) stock appreciation rights not related to any option ("unrelated stock appreciation rights"), (iv) restricted stock awards and (v) performance units, all as more fully set forth in Articles 2, 3 and 4.

(b) Options granted under the Plan may be either (i) "nonqualified" stock options subject to the provisions of section 83 of the Code or (ii) options intended to qualify for incentive stock option treatment described in Code section 422.

(c) All options when granted are intended to be nonqualified stock options, unless the applicable Plan agreement explicitly states that the option is intended to be an incentive stock option. If an option is intended to be an incentive stock option, and if for any reason such option (or any portion thereof) shall not qualify as an incentive stock option, then, to the extent of such nonqualification, such option (or portion) shall be regarded as a nonqualified stock option appropriately granted under the Plan provided that such option (or portion) otherwise meets the Plan's requirements relating to nonqualified stock options.

(d) In the event the Company or an Affiliate consummates a transaction described in Code section 424(a), persons who become key personnel or directors on account of such transaction may be granted options in substitution or as a replacement for options granted by the former employer. The Committee, in its sole discretion and consistent with Code section 424(a), shall determine the exercise price of the substitute options.

1.5 Shares Available for Awards.

(a) Subject to Section 5.6 (relating to adjustments upon changes in capitalization), the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock (as defined in Section 1.6) which may be delivered under the Plan pursuant to awards hereunder shall not exceed 10,000,000 shares. The number of unrestricted shares acquired pursuant to the exercise of any related stock appreciation right pursuant to the Plan shall be deemed to be equal to the number of shares surrendered, or as to which the grantee's right to purchase, acquire or receive is surrendered, in connection with such exercise, and, to the extent that any payment to a grantee upon exercise of any stock appreciation right is made in the form of restricted shares, the portion of the shares surrendered, or as to which such grantee's right to purchase, acquire or receive is surrendered, which is related to payment in the form of restricted shares shall not be deemed to be unrestricted shares acquired pursuant to the Plan until such restricted shares become unrestricted. Upon unconditional vesting of the right of any grantee to payment pursuant to any performance unit in cash or any other form (other than restricted or unrestricted shares), a number of unrestricted shares, equal to the portion of the shares subject to such performance unit to which such payment relates, shall be deemed to be delivered pursuant to the Plan in connection therewith. The number of shares delivered in full or partial payment of any option exercise price under the Plan shall be deducted from the number of shares delivered to the grantee pursuant to such option for purposes of determining the number of unrestricted shares delivered pursuant to the Plan. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shares of Common Stock covered by awards granted under the Plan which expire or terminate for any reason (other than an option or part thereof which is canceled by the Committee and for which cash is paid in respect thereof pursuant to Section 2.5(f)) shall again become available for award under the Plan.

(b) Shares of Common Stock that shall be subject to issuance pursuant to the Plan shall be authorized and unissued or treasury shares of Common Stock.

(c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee may, with the grantee's consent, cancel any award under the Plan and issue a new award in substitution therefor upon such terms as the Committee may in its sole discretion determine, provided that the substituted award shall satisfy all applicable Plan requirements as of the date such new award is made.

1.6 Definitions of Certain Terms.

(a) The term "Affiliate" as used herein means any person or entity which, at the time of reference, directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Partnership, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion; provided, however, that the Company and Affiliates of the Company shall be considered Affiliates of the Partnership.

(b) The term "Common Stock" as used herein means the shares of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Simon Property Group, Inc., as constituted on the effective date of the Plan, all rights which trade with or are paired with such shares of common stock, including beneficial interests in one or more trusts which own all of the common stock of SPG Realty Consultants, Inc., and any other shares into which such common stock shall thereafter be changed by reason of a recapitalization, merger, consolidation, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or the like.

(c) The term "Eligible Director" means a director of the Company who is not an employee of the Partnership or any of its Affiliates.

(d) Except as otherwise determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, the "fair market value" as of any date and in respect of any share of Common Stock shall be the mean between the high and low sales prices of a share of Common Stock as reported on the New York Stock Exchange if shares of Common Stock are then trading upon such exchange, or if not, then such average on such other stock exchange on which shares of the Common Stock are principally trading, on such date. In no event shall the fair market value of any share be less than its par value.

(e) The term "Performance Cycle" means the period of time established by the Committee within which Performance Goals are required to be attained or satisfied.

(f) The term "Performance Goals" means the performance goals established by the Committee with respect to the Company, the Partnership or any Affiliates, in the Committee's sole discretion, in writing, based on any one or any combination of the following business criteria: (a) earnings per share; (b) return on equity; (c) return on assets; (d) market value per share; (e) funds from operations; (f) return to stockholders (including dividends); (g) revenues; (h) market share; (i) cash flow; and (j) cost reduction goals. Awards shall be delivered only after it is certified, in writing, by the Committee that the Performance Goals as established by the Committee have been attained or otherwise satisfied within the Performance Cycle.

1.7 Agreements Evidencing Awards

(a) Options, stock appreciation rights and restricted stock awards granted under the Plan shall be evidenced by written agreements. Other awards granted under the Plan shall be evidenced by written agreements to the extent the Committee may in its sole discretion deem necessary or desirable. Any such written agreements shall (i) contain such provisions not inconsistent with the terms of the Plan as the Committee may in its sole discretion deem necessary or desirable and (ii) be referred to herein as "Plan Agreements."

(b) Each Plan agreement shall set forth the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the award granted thereby.

(c) Each Plan agreement with respect to the granting of a related stock appreciation right shall set forth the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the related option which shall also be subject to the related stock appreciation right granted thereby.

(d) Each Plan agreement with respect to the granting of an option shall set forth the amount (the "option exercise price") payable by the grantee in connection with the exercise of the option evidenced thereby. The option exercise price per share shall not be less than the fair market value of a share of Common Stock on the date the option is granted.

(e) Each Plan agreement with respect to a stock appreciation right shall set forth the amount (the "appreciation base") over which appreciation will be measured upon exercise of the stock appreciation right evidenced thereby. The appreciation base per share of Common Stock subject to a stock appreciation right shall not be less than (i) in the case of an unrelated stock appreciation right, the fair market value of a share of Common Stock on the date the stock appreciation right is granted, or (ii) in the case of a related stock appreciation right, the option exercise price per share of Common Stock subject to the related option.

STOCK OPTIONS AND STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

2.1 Grants of Stock Options.

The Committee may grant options to purchase shares of Common Stock in such amounts and subject to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall from time to time in its sole discretion determine, subject to the terms of the Plan; provided, however, that the maximum number of shares subject to all awards granted to any Plan participant pursuant to the Plan shall not exceed 600,000 in any calendar year.

2.2 Grant of Reload Options.

The Committee may, subject to Sections 1.5 and 2.1, grant a Reload Option to any grantee holding an unexercised option. For purposes of the Plan. a "Reload Option" shall mean an option to purchase a number of shares of Common Stock granted in connection with the exercise of the grantee's option (the "Exercised Options") upon the payment of the option exercise price for such Exercised Option with shares of Common Stock that have a fair market value equal to not less than 100% of the option exercise price for such Exercised Option. The Reload Option with respect to an Exercised Option shall be for a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the number of shares of Common Stock tendered to exercise the Exercised Option plus, if so provided by the Committee, the number of shares of Common Stock, if any, retained by the Partnership in connection with the exercise of the Exercised Option to satisfy any federal, state, or local tax withholding requirements. Reload options shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(i) the grant date for each Reload Option shall be the date of exercise of the Exercised Option to which it relates;

(ii) the Reload Option may be exercised at any time during the unexpired term of the original Exercised Option to which it relates (subject to earlier termination thereof as provided in the Plan and in the applicable Plan agreement); and

(iii) the terms of the Reload Option shall be the same as the terms of the Exercised Option to which it relates, except that (1) the option exercise price shall be the fair market value of the Common Stock on the grant date of the Reload Option and (2) no Reload Option may be exercised within one year from the date on which such Reload Option was granted.

2.3 Grant of Stock Appreciation Rights.

(a) Related Stock Appreciation Rights. The Committee may grant a related stock appreciation right in connection with all or any part of an option granted under the Plan, either at the time the related option is granted or any time thereafter prior to the exercise, termination or cancellation of such option, and subject to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall from time to time in its sole discretion determine, subject to the terms of the Plan. The grantee of a related stock appreciation right shall, subject to the terms of the Plan and the applicable Plan agreement, have the right to surrender to the Partnership for cancellation all or a portion of the related option granted under the Plan, but only to the extent that such option is then exercisable, and to be paid therefor an amount equal to the excess (if any) of(i) the aggregate fair market value of the shares of Common Stock subject to such option or portion thereof (determined as of the date of exercise of such stock appreciation right), over (ii) the aggregate appreciation base (determined pursuant to Section 1.7(e)) of the shares of Common Stock subject to such stock appreciation right or portion thereof.

(b) Unrelated Stock Appreciation Rights. The Committee may grant an unrelated stock appreciation right in such amount and subject to such terms and conditions, as the Committee shall from time to time in its sole discretion determine, subject to the terms of the Plan. The grantee of an unrelated stock appreciation right shall, subject to the terms of the Plan and the applicable Plan agreement, have the right to surrender to the Partnership for cancellation all or a portion of such stock appreciation right, but only to the extent that such stock appreciation right is then exercisable, and to be paid therefor an amount equal to the excess (if any) of (i) the aggregate fair market value of the shares of Common Stock subject to such stock appreciation right or portion thereof (determined as of the date of exercise of such stock appreciation right), over (ii) the aggregate appreciation base (determined pursuant to Section 1.7(e)) of the shares of Common Stock subject to such stock appreciation right or portion thereof.

(c) Payment. Unless the Plan agreement provides otherwise, payment due to the grantee upon exercise of a stock appreciation right shall be made in cash and/or in Common Stock (valued at the fair market value thereof as of the date of exercise) as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion.

2.4 Exercise of Related Stock Appreciation Right Reduces Shares Subject to Option.

Upon any exercise of a related stock appreciation right or any portion thereof, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the related option shall be reduced by the number of shares of Common Stock in respect of which such stock appreciation right shall have been exercised.

2.5 Exercisability of Options and Stock Appreciation Rights.

Subject to the other provisions of the Plan:

(a) Exercisability Determined by Plan Agreement. Each Plan agreement shall set forth the period during which and the conditions subject to which the option or stock appreciation right evidenced thereby shall be exercisable, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion.

(b) Default Provisions. Unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise specifies:

(i) no option or stock appreciation right shall be exercisable prior to the first anniversary of the date of grant;

(ii) each option or stock appreciation right granted under the Plan shall become cumulatively exercisable with respect to 40% of the shares of Common Stock subject thereto, rounded down to the next lower full share, on the first anniversary of the date of grant, and with respect to an additional 30% of shares of Common Stock subject thereto, rounded down to the next lower full share, on the second anniversary of the date of the grant;

(iii) each option or stock appreciation right shall become 100% exercisable on the third anniversary of the date of grant;

(iv) except as provided in Section 2.7 each option or stock appreciation right shall remain 100% exercisable through the day prior to the tenth anniversary of the date of grant, after which such option or stock appreciation right shall terminate and cease to be exercisable; and

(v) no option or stock appreciation right shall be exercisable to the extent that such exercise will cause the Partnership or Affiliate to pay any amount that would be nondeductible by the Partnership or such Affiliate by reason of Code section 162(m).

(c) Exercise of Related Stock Appreciation Right. Unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise provides, a related stock appreciation right shall be exercisable at any time during the period that the related option may be exercised.

(d) Partial Exercise Permitted. Unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise provides, an option or stock appreciation right granted under the Plan may be exercised from time to time as to all or part of the full number of shares as to which such option or stock appreciation right shall then be exercisable. No option shall be exercised with respect to less than 50 shares of Common Stock unless the option is being exercised with respect to the full number of shares issuable hereunder.

(e) Notice of Exercise; Exercise Date.

(i) An option or stock appreciation right shall be exercisable by the filing of a written notice of exercise with the Partnership, on such form and in such manner as the Committee shall in its sole discretion prescribe, and by payment in accordance with Section 2.6.

(ii) Unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise provides or the Committee in its sole discretion otherwise determines, the date of exercise of an unrelated stock appreciation right shall be the date the Partnership receives such written notice of exercise.

(iii) For purposes of the Plan, the "option exercise date" shall be deemed to be the sixth business day immediately following the date written notice of exercise is received by the Partnership.

(f) Cashout of Options. If and to the extent that the applicable Plan agreement so provides: At any time after receipt of written notice of exercise of an option and prior to the "option exercise date" (as defined in Section 2.5(e)), the Committee in its sole discretion may by written notice to the grantee, cancel the option or any part thereof if the Committee in its sole discretion determines that tax, legal or contractual restrictions or brokerage or other market considerations would make the acquisition of Common Stock, or the grantee's sale of Common Stock to the public markets illegal, impracticable or inadvisable. If the Committee cancels such option or any part thereof, the Partnership shall pay to the grantee, as soon as practicable thereafter, an amount equal in cash to the excess of (i) the aggregate fair market value of the shares of Common Stock subject to the option or part thereof canceled (determined as of the option exercise date), over (ii) the aggregate option exercise price of the shares of Common Stock subject to the option or part thereof canceled.

2.6 Payment of Option Price.

(a) Tender Due Upon Notice of Exercise. Unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise provides or the Committee in its sole discretion otherwise determines, (i) any written notice of exercise of an option shall be accompanied by payment of the full purchase price for the shares being purchased, and (ii) the grantee shall have no right to receive shares of Common Stock with respect to an option exercise prior to the option exercise date.

(b) Manner of Payment. Payment of the option exercise price shall be made in any combination of the following:

(i) by certified or official bank check payable to the Company (or the equivalent thereof acceptable to the Committee);

(ii) with the consent of the Committee in its sole discretion, by personal check (subject to collection), which may in the Committee's sole discretion be deemed conditional;

(iii) if and to the extent provided in the applicable Plan agreement, by delivery of previously acquired shares of Common Stock owned by the grantee for at least six months (or such other period as the Committee may prescribe) having a fair market value (determined as of the option exercise date) equal to the portion of the option exercise price being paid thereby, provided that the Committee may require the grantee to furnish an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Committee to the effect that such delivery would not result in the grantee incurring any liability under Section 16(b) of the Act and does not require any Consent (as defined in Section 5.3);

(iv) with the consent of the committee in its sole discretion, by the promissory note and agreement of the grantee providing for payment with interest on the unpaid balance accruing at a rate not less than that needed to avoid the imputation of income under Code section 7872 and upon such terms and conditions (including the security, if any, therefor) as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion; or

(v) by any other means which the Committee, in its sole discretion, determines to be consistent with the purposes of the Plan.

(c) Cashless Exercise. Payment in accordance with clause (i) of Section 2.6(b) may be deemed to be satisfied, if and to the extent provided in the applicable Plan agreement, by delivery to the Company of an assignment of a sufficient amount of the proceeds from the sale of Common Stack acquired upon exercise to pay for all of the Common Stock acquired upon exercise and an authorization to the broker or selling agent to pay that amount to the Company, which sale shall be made at the grantee's direction at the time of exercise, provided that the Committee may require the grantee to furnish an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Committee to the effect that such delivery would not result in the grantee incurring any liability under Section 16(b) of the Act and does not require any Consent (as defined in Section 5.3).

(d) Issuance of Shares. As soon as practicable after receipt of full payment, the Company shall, subject to the provisions of Section 5.3, deliver to the grantee one or more certificates for the shares of Common Stock so purchased, which certificates may bear such legends as the Company may deem appropriate concerning restrictions on the disposition of the shares in accordance with applicable securities laws, rules and regulations or otherwise.

2.7 Termination of Service.

For purposes of the Plan, "termination of service" means, in the case of an employee, the termination of the employment relationship between the employee and the Partnership and all Affiliates; and in the case of an individual who is not an employee, the termination of the service relationship between the individual and the Partnership and all Affiliates. Subject to the other provisions of the Plan and unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise provides:

(a) General Rule. All options and stock appreciation rights granted to a grantee shall terminate upon his termination of service for any reason (including death) except to the extent post-service exercise of the vested portion of an option or stock appreciation right is permitted in accordance with this Section 2.7. The "vested portion" of any option or stock appreciation right shall mean the portion thereof which is exercisable immediately prior to the grantee's termination of service for any reason.

(b) Improper Activity. All options and stock appreciation rights granted to a grantee shall terminate and expire on the day of the grantee's termination of service for cause, whether or not the grantee is a party to a written service contract. For purposes of this Section 2.7, a grantee's service shall be deemed to be terminated for "cause" if he is discharged (i) on account of fraud, embezzlement or other unlawful or tortious conduct, whether or not involving or against the Partnership or any Affiliate, (ii) for violation of a policy of the Partnership or any Affiliate, (iii) for serious and willful acts of misconduct detrimental to the business or reputation of the Partnership or any Affiliate or (iv)for "cause" or any like term as defined in any written contract with the grantee.

(c) Regular Termination; Leaves of Absence. If the grantee's service terminates for reasons other than as provided in subsection (b) or (d) of this Section 2.7, the portion of options and stock appreciation rights granted to such grantee which were exercisable immediately prior to such termination of service may be exercised until the earlier of (i) 30 days after his termination of service or (ii) the date on which such options and stock appreciation rights terminate or expire in accordance with the provisions of the Plan (other than this Section 2.7) and the Plan agreement; provided, that the Committee may in its sole discretion determine such other period for exercise in the case of an individual whose service terminates solely because the employer ceases to be an Affiliate or the grantee transfers employment with the Partnership's consent to a purchaser of a business disposed of by the Partnership. The Committee may in its sole discretion determine (i) whether any leave of absence (including short-term or long-term disability or medical leave) shall constitute a termination of service for purposes of the Plan, and (ii) the impact, if any, of any such leave on outstanding awards under the Plan.

(d) Death; Disability; Retirement. If a grantee's service terminates by reason of death, disability, or retirement at or after age 65, the portion of options and stock appreciation rights granted to such grantee which were exercisable immediately prior to such termination of service may be exercised until the earlier of (i) one year after his termination of service in the case of death or disability or three years after his termination of service by reason of retirement, or (ii) the date on which such options and stock appreciation rights terminate or expire in accordance with the Plan agreement. For purposes of this Section 2.7, the term "disability" shall mean, with respect to any grantee, a "permanent and total disability" as defined in section 22(e)C3) of the Code.

2.8 Special ISO Requirements.

In order for a grantee to receive special tax treatment with respect to stock acquired under an option intended to be an incentive stock option, the grantee of such option must be, at all times during the period beginning on the date of grant and ending on the day three months before the date of exercise of such option, an employee of the Company or any of the Company's parent or subsidiary corporations (within the meaning of Code section 424), or of a corporation or a parent or subsidiary corporation of such corporation issuing or assuming a stock option in a transaction to which Code section 424(a) applies. The aggregate fair market value, determined as of the date an option is granted, of the Common Stock for which any grantee may be awarded incentive stock options which are first exercisable by the grantee during any calendar year under the Plan (and any other stock option plan to be taken into account under Code section 422(d)) shall not exceed $100,000. If an option granted under the Plan is intended to be an incentive stock option, and if the grantee, at the time of grant, owns stock possessing 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the grantee's employer corporation or of its parent or subsidiary corporation, then (i) the option exercise price per share shall in no event be less than 110% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of such grant and (ii) such option shall not be exercisable after the expiration of five years after the date such option is granted.

AWARDS OTHER THAN STOCK OPTIONS AND

3.1 Restricted Stock Awards.

(a) Grant of Awards. The Committee may grant restricted stock awards, alone or in tandem with other awards, under the Plan in such amounts and subject to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall from time to time in its sole discretion determine. The vesting of a restricted stock award granted under the Plan may be conditioned upon the completion of a specified period of service with the Partnership or any Affiliate, upon the attainment of specified Performance Goals within specified Performance Cycles, and/or upon such other criteria as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion.

(b) Payment. Each Plan agreement with respect to a restricted stock award shall set forth the amount (if any) to be paid by the grantee with respect to such award. If a grantee makes any payment for a restricted stock award which does not vest, appropriate payment may be made to the grantee following the forfeiture of such award on such terms and conditions as the Committee may determine.

(c) Forfeiture Upon Termination of Service. Unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise provides or the Committee otherwise determines, (i) if a grantee's service terminates for any reason (other than death) before all of his restricted stock awards have vested, such unvested awards shall terminate and expire upon such termination of service, and (ii) in the event any condition to the vesting of restricted stock awards is not satisfied within the period of time permitted therefor, such restricted shares shall be returned to the Partnership. If a grantee's service terminates by reason of death, any unvested portion of a restricted stock award which has been earned as a result of the attainment of applicable Performance Goals shall be fully vested as of the awardee's date of death.

(d) Issuance of Shares. The Committee may provide that one or more certificates representing restricted stock awards shall be registered in the grantee's name and bear an appropriate legend specifying that such shares are not transferable and are subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and the applicable Plan agreement, or that such certificate or certificates shall be held in escrow by the Partnership on behalf of the grantee until such shares vest or are forfeited, all on such terms and conditions as the Committee may determine. Unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise provides, no share of restricted stock may be assigned, transferred, otherwise encumbered or disposed of by the grantee until such share has vested in accordance with the terms of such award. Subject to the provisions of Section 5.4, as soon as practicable after any restricted stock award shall vest, the Partnership shall issue or reissue to the grantee (or to his designated beneficiary in the event of the grantee's death) one or more certificates for the Common Stock represented by such restricted stock award without such restricted legend.

(e) Grantees' Rights Regarding Restricted Stock. Unless the applicable Plan agreement otherwise provides, (i) a grantee may vote and receive dividends on restricted stock awarded under the Plan, and (ii) any stock received as a dividend on, or in connection with a stock split of, a restricted stock award shall be subject to the same restrictions as such restricted stock.

3.2 Common Stock Awards.

The Committee may issue awards under the Plan, payable in Common Stock, including, but not limited to awards of Common Stock equal to dividends declared on Common Stock, alone or in tandem with other awards, in such amounts and subject to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall from time to time in its sole discretion determine. Such Common Stock awards under the Plan shall relate to a specified maximum number of shares granted as, or in payment of, a bonus, or to provide incentives or recognize special achievements or contributions.

3.3 Performance Units.

(a) Grant of Units. The Committee may grant performance units under the Plan to acquire shares of Common Stock in such amounts and subject to such terms and conditions as the Committee shall from time to time in its sole discretion determine, subject to the terms of the Plan.

(b) Performance Units. Each performance unit under the Plan shall relate to a specified maximum number of shares, and shall be exchangeable for all or a portion of such shares, or cash (or such other form of consideration as may be determined by the Committee in its sole discretion equivalent in value thereto) in up to an amount equal to the fair market value of an equal number of unrestricted shares, at the end of a specified Performance Cycle as may be established by the Committee. The number of such shares which may be deliverable pursuant to such performance unit shall be based upon the degree of attainment of Performance Goals over a Performance Cycle as may be established by the Committee. The Committee may provide for full or partial credit, prior to completion of such Performance Cycle or achievement of the degree of attainment of the Performance Goals specified in connection with such performance unit, in the event of the participant's death, normal retirement, early retirement, or total or permanent disability, or in such other circumstances as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion to be fair and equitable to the participant or in the interest of the Partnership and its Affiliates.

OPTION GRANTS TO ELIGIBLE DIRECTORS

4.1 Grants to Eligible Directors.

Each Eligible Director of the Company shall be granted options in accordance with this Article 4. All options granted pursuant to this Article 4 shall constitute "non-qualified" stock options.

4.2 Amount of Grants. Each person who is hereafter elected as an Eligible Director shall receive the following options:

(a) Initial Election. Each Eligible Director who is elected or appointed a director of the Company and who has not previously served as a director of Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., or Corporate Property Investors, Inc., shall be granted options to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock on the first day of the first calendar month following the month in which such person first becomes an Eligible Director.

(b) Reelection. As of the date of each annual meeting of the Company's stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") held after January 1, 1999, each Eligible Director shall be granted options to purchase 3,000 shares of Common Stock multiplied by the member of calendar years that have elapsed since such person was previously elected a director of the Company, Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., or Corporate Property Investors, Inc. (the "Subsequent Awards"); provided, however, that if a person is elected, appointed or otherwise becomes an Eligible Director during a period 60 days prior to the Annual Meeting in any year, then such Eligible Director will receive no Subsequent Awards, and provided, further, that each Eligible Director receiving Subsequent Awards must continue to serve as a director of the Company after such Annual Meeting.

4.3 Terms of Options.

(a) Exercise Price and Exercise Period. The exercise price of all options granted pursuant to this Article 4 shall be equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. All options granted pursuant to this Article 4 shall become exercisable on the first anniversary of the date of grant or such earlier time as a Change in Control, as hereinafter defined, of the Company and will remain exercisable through the tenth anniversary of the date of grant (the "Expiration Date"). Prior to the Expiration Date, options granted pursuant to this Article 4 shall terminate 30 days after the optionee ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors of the Company.

(b) Payment. An optionee may pay the exercise price of any options granted pursuant to this Article 4 (i) by certified or official bank check payable to the Company; (ii) by delivery of previously acquired shares of Common Stock held by such optionee for at least six months having a fair market value equal to the purchase of the option exercise price being paid thereby; or (iii) or any combination of the foregoing.

4.4 Transfer of Options.

No option granted pursuant to this Article 4 may be sold, assigned or otherwise transferred by an Eligible Director other than by will or the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised during the Eligible Director's lifetime only by such Eligible Director.

4.5 Change of Control.

In the event of a Change of Control prior to the date an option granted under this Article 4 terminates, each option not previously vested shall become immediately vested and exercisable in full. For this purpose, a "Change of Control" shall mean (i) a merger or consolidation of the Company with another corporation, whether or nor the Company is the surviving corporation, where there is a change in the shares of stock by reason of such merger or consolidation, (ii) an acquisition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company by another person, or (iii) a reorganization or liquidation of the Company.

MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 Amendment of the Plan; Modification of Awards.

(a) Plan Amendments. The Partnership, by action of its General Partner(s), may, without approval of other partners in the Partnership, at any time and from time to time suspend, discontinue or amend the Plan in any respect whatsoever, except that no such amendment shall impair any rights under any award theretofore made under the Plan without the consent of the grantee of such award. Furthermore, shareholder approval of any Plan amendment shall be obtained in such a manner and to such a degree as is required by applicable law or regulation.

(b) Award Modifications. With the consent of the grantee and subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan (including Section 5.1(a)), the Committee may amend outstanding Plan agreements with such grantee, including, without limitation, any amendment which would (i) accelerate the time or times at which an award may vest or become exercisable and/or (ii) extend the scheduled termination or expiration date of the award.

5.2 Limitation on Exercise. No option or stock appreciation right shall be exercisable to the extent that such exercise will cause the Partnership or any Affiliate to pay any amount which would be nondeductible by the Partnership or such Affiliate by reason of Code section 162(m).

5.3 Restrictions.

(a) Consent Requirements. If the Committee shall at any time determine in its sole discretion that any Consent (as hereinafter defined) is necessary or desirable as a condition of, or in connection with, the granting of any award under the Plan, the acquisition, issuance or purchase of shares or other rights hereunder or the taking of any other action hereunder (each such action being hereinafter referred to as a "Plan Action"), then such Plan Action shall not be taken, in whole or in part, unless and until such Consent shall have been effected or obtained to the full satisfaction of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if (i) the Committee may make any payment under the Plan in cash, Common Stock or both, and (ii) the Committee determines that Consent is necessary or desirable as a condition of, or in connection with, payment in any one or more of such forms, then the Committee shall be entitled to determine not to make any payment whatsoever until such Consent has been obtained.

(b) Consent Defined. The term "Consent" as used herein with respect to any Plan Action means (i) any and all listings, registrations or qualifications in respect thereof upon any securities exchange or other self-regulatory organization or under any federal, state or local law, rule or regulation, (ii) the expiration, elimination or satisfaction of any prohibitions, restrictions or limitations under any federal, state or local law, rule or regulation or the rules of any securities exchange or other self-regulatory organization, (iii) any and all written agreements and representations by the grantee with respect to the disposition of shares, or with respect to any other matter, which the Committee shall deem necessary or desirable to comply with the terms of any such listing, registration or qualification or to obtain an exemption from the requirement that any such listing, qualification or registration be made, and (iv) any and all consents, clearances and approvals in respect of a Plan Action by any governmental or other regulatory bodies or any parties to any loan agreements or other contractual obligations of the Partnership or any Affiliate.

5.4 Nontransferability.

Except as expressly authorized by the Committee in the Plan agreement, no award granted to any grantee under the Plan shall be assignable or transferable by the grantee other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution and during the lifetime of the grantee, all rights with respect to any option or stock appreciation right granted to the grantee under the Plan shall be exercisable only by the grantee.

5.5 Withholding Taxes.

(a) Whenever under the Plan shares of Common Stock are to be delivered pursuant to an award, the Committee may require as a condition of delivery that the grantee remit an amount sufficient to satisfy all federal, state and other governmental withholding tax requirements related thereto. Whenever cash is to be paid under the Plan (whether upon the exercise of stock appreciation right or otherwise), the Partnership may, as a condition of its payment, deduct therefrom, or from any salary or other payments due to the grantee, an amount sufficient to satisfy all federal, state and other governmental withholding tax requirements related thereto or to the delivery of any shares of Common Stock under the Plan.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (i) a grantee may elect to satisfy all or part of the foregoing withholding requirements by delivery of unrestricted shares of Common Stock owned by the grantee for at least six months (or such other period as the Committee may determine in its sole discretion) having a fair market value (determined as of the date of such delivery by the grantee) equal to all or part of the amount to be so withheld, provided that the Committee may require, as a condition of accepting any such delivery, the grantee to furnish an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Committee to the effect that such delivery would not result in the grantee incurring any liability under Section 16(b) of the Act; and (ii) the Committee may permit any such delivery to be made by withholding shares of Common Stock from the shares otherwise issuable pursuant to the award giving rise to the tax withholding obligation (in which event the date of delivery shall be deemed the date such award was exercised).

5.6 Adjustments Upon Changes in Capitalization.

If and to the extent specified by the Committee, the number of shares of Common Stock which may be issued pursuant to awards under the Plan, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to awards, the option exercise price and appreciation base of options and stock appreciation rights theretofore granted under the Plan, and the amount payable by a grantee in respect of an award, shall be appropriately adjusted (as the Committee may determine) for any change in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from the subdivision or combination of shares of Common Stock or other capital adjustments, or the payment of a stock dividend after the effective date of the Plan, or other change in such shares of Common Stock effected without receipt of consideration by the Company; provided that any awards covering fractional shares of Common Stock resulting from any such adjustment shall be eliminated and provided further, that each incentive stock option granted under the Plan shall not be adjusted in a manner that causes such option to fail to continue to qualify as an "incentive stock option" within the meaning of Code section 422. Adjustments under this Section shall be made by the Committee, whose determination as to what adjustments shall be made, and the extent thereof, shall be final, binding and conclusive.

5.7 Right of Discharge Reserved.

Nothing in the Plan or in any Plan agreement shall confer upon any person the right to continue in the service of the Partnership or any Affiliate or affect any right which the Partnership or any Affiliate may have to terminate the service of such person.

5.8 No Rights as a Stockholder.

No grantee or other person shall have any of the rights of a stockholder of the Company with respect to shares subject to an award until the issuance of a stock certificate to him for such shares. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.6, no adjustment shall be made for dividends, distributions or other rights (whether ordinary or extraordinary, and whether in cash, securities or other property) for which the record date is prior to the date such stock certificate is issued. In the case of a grantee of an award which has not yet vested, the grantee shall have the rights of a stockholder of the Company if and only to the extent provided in the applicable Plan agreement.

5.9 Nature of Payments.

(a) Any and all awards or payments hereunder shall be granted, issued, delivered or paid, as the case may be, in consideration of services performed for the Partnership or its Affiliates by the grantee.

(b) No such awards and payments shall be considered special incentive payments to the grantee or, unless otherwise determined by the Committee, be taken into account in computing the grantee's salary or compensation for the purposes of determining any benefits under (i) any pension, retirement, life insurance or other benefit plan of the Partnership or any Affiliate or (ii) any agreement between the Partnership or any Affiliate and the grantee.

(c) By accepting an award under the Plan, the grantee shall thereby waive any claim to continued exercise or vesting of an award or to damages or severance entitlement related to non-continuation of the award beyond the period provided herein or in the applicable Plan agreement, notwithstanding any contrary provision in any written contract with the grantee, whether any such contract is executed before or after the grant date of the award.

5.10 Non-Uniform Determinations.

The Committee's determinations under the Plan need not be uniform and may be made by it selectively among persons who receive, or are eligible to receive, awards under the Plan (whether or not such persons are similarly situated). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Committee shall be entitled, among other things, to make non-uniform and selective determinations, and to enter into non-uniform and selective Plan agreements, as to (a) the persons to receive awards under the Plan, (b) the terms and provisions of awards under the Plan, (c) the exercise by the Committee of its discretion in respect of the exercise of stock appreciation rights pursuant to the terms of the Plan, and (d) the treatment of leaves of absence pursuant to Section 2.7(c).

5.11 Other Payments or Awards.

Nothing contained in the Plan shall be deemed in any way to limit or restrict the Partnership, any Affiliate or the Committee from making any award or payment to any person under any other plan, arrangement or understanding, whether now existing or hereafter in effect.

5.12 Reorganization.

(a) In the event that the Company is merged or consolidated with another corporation and, whether or not the Company shall be the surviving corporation, there shall be any change in the shares of Common Stock by reason of such merger or consolidation, or in the event that all or substantially all of the assets of the Company are acquired by another person, or in the event of a reorganization or liquidation of the Company (each such event being hereinafter referred to as a "Reorganization Event") or in the event that the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") shall propose that the Company enter into a Reorganization Event, then the Committee may in its sole discretion, by written notice to a grantee, provide that his options and stock appreciation rights will be terminated unless exercised within 30 days (or such longer period as the committee shall determine in its sole discretion) after the date of such notice; provided that if the Committee takes such action the Committee also shall accelerate the dates upon which all outstanding options and stock appreciation rights of such grantee shall be exercisable. The Committee also may in its sole discretion by written notice to a grantee provide that all or some of the restrictions on any of his awards may lapse in the event of a Reorganization Event upon such terms and conditions as the Committee may determine.

(b) Whenever deemed appropriate by the Committee, the actions referred to in Section 5.12(a) may be made conditional upon the consummation of the applicable Reorganization Event.

5.13 Section Headings.

The section headings contained herein are for the purposes of convenience only and are not intended to define or limit the contents of said sections.

5.14 Effective Date and Term of Plan.

(a) The Plan shall be deemed adopted upon approval by the stockholders of Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. and Corporate Property Investors, Inc., but shall not become effective until the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of February 18, 1998, among Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., Corporate Property Investors, Inc., and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc.

(b) The Plan shall terminate 10 years after the date on which it is adopted and no awards shall thereafter be made under the Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all awards made under the Plan prior to such termination date shall remain in effect until such awards have been satisfied or terminated in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan and the applicable Plan agreement.

5.15 Governing Law.

THE PLAN SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE APPLICABLE TO AGREEMENTS MADE AND TO BE PERFORMED ENTIRELY WITHIN SUCH STATE.

FORM OF INDEMNITY AGREEMENT

THIS INDEMNITY AGREEMENT ("Agreement") dated as of August , 1998, by and between Simon Property Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Corporation"), and (the "Indemnitee").

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation (the "Charter") and the Restated By-laws of the Corporation (the "By-laws"), as the same have been restated, provide for indemnification by the Corporation of its directors and officers as provided therein, and the Indemnitee has agreed to serve as a director and/or officer of the Corporation or has agreed to continue to serve as a director and/or officer of the Corporation;

WHEREAS, to provide the Indemnitee with additional contractual assurance of protection against personal liability in connection with certain proceedings described below, the Corporation desires to enter into this Agreement;

WHEREAS, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") expressly recognizes that the indemnification provisions of the DGCL are not exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under the Charter or By-laws, a resolution of stockholders or directors, an agreement or otherwise, and this Agreement is being entered into pursuant to and in furtherance of the Charter and By-laws, as permitted by the DGCL and as authorized by the Charter and the Board of Directors of the Corporation;

WHEREAS, in order to induce the Indemnitee to serve or continue to serve as a director and/or officer of the Corporation and in consideration of the Indemnitee so serving, the Corporation desires to indemnify the Indemnitee and to make arrangements pursuant to which the Indemnitee may be advanced or reimbursed expenses incurred by the Indemnitee in certain proceedings described below, according to the terms and conditions set forth below;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the Indemnitee's agreement to serve or continue to serve as a director and/or officer of the Corporation and of other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Corporation has agreed to the covenants set forth herein for the purpose of further securing to the Indemnitee the indemnification provided by the Charter and the By-laws:

1. Indemnification.

(a) In accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this Section 1, the Corporation shall hold harmless and indemnify the Indemnitee against any and all expenses, liabilities and losses (including, without limitation, investigation expenses, expert witnesses' and attorneys' fees and expenses, judgments, penalties, fines, ERISA excise taxes, amounts paid or to be paid in settlement and any federal, state, local or foreign taxes imposed on the Indemnitee as a result of the actual or deemed receipt of any payments under this Agreement, including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of such expenses, liabilities and losses) actually incurred by the Indemnitee (net of any related insurance proceeds or other amounts received by the Indemnitee or paid by or on behalf of the Corporation on the Indemnitee's behalf) in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, arbitration or proceeding or any hearing, inquiry or investigation, whether brought by or in the right of the Corporation or otherwise, that the Indemnitee in good faith believes might lead to the institution of any such action, suit, arbitration or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other, or any appeal therefrom, in which the Indemnitee was, is or becomes a party, witness or other participant, or was, is or becomes threatened to be made a party, witness or other participant, (a "Proceeding") based upon, arising from, relating to, or by reason of the fact that the Indemnitee is, was, shall be, or shall have been a director and/or officer of the Corporation (or any subsidiary of the Corporation) or is or was serving, shall serve, or shall have served at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary or agent ("Affiliate Indemnitee") of another foreign or domestic corporation or non-profit corporation, cooperative, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other incorporated or unincorporated enterprise (each, a "Corporation Affiliate"). All amounts payable by the Corporation pursuant to this Section 1 and Section 2 hereof are herein referred to as "Indemnified Amounts."

(b) In providing the foregoing indemnification, the Corporation shall, with respect to a Proceeding, hold harmless and indemnify the Indemnitee to the fullest extent required by the DGCL (including, without limitation, Section 145(c) of the DGCL) and to the fullest extent permitted by the Express Permitted Indemnification Provisions (as hereinafter defined) of the DGCL. For purposes of this Agreement, the Express Permitted Indemnification Provisions of the DGCL shall mean indemnification as permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL or by any amendment thereof or other statutory provisions expressly permitting such indemnification which is adopted after the date hereof (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law required or permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment).

(c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to the rights of indemnification provided in this Section 1 for any expenses actually incurred in any Proceeding initiated by or in the right of the Corporation unless the Indemnitee shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation; provided, however, that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the Indemnitee shall be entitled to any indemnification by the Corporation that the court or other decision maker of any Proceeding deems proper, as permitted by Section 145(b) of the DGCL.

(d) If the Indemnitee is entitled under this Agreement to indemnification by the Corporation for some or a portion of the Indemnified Amounts but not, however, for all of the total amount thereof, the Corporation shall nevertheless indemnify the Indemnitee for the portion thereof to which the Indemnitee is entitled.

2. Other Indemnification Arrangements. The DGCL and the Charter and By-laws permit the Corporation to purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection or make other arrangements, including, but not limited to, providing a trust fund, letter of credit, or surety bond ("Indemnification Arrangements") on behalf of the Indemnitee against any liability asserted against him or her or incurred by or on behalf of him or her in such capacity as a director or officer of the Corporation or an Affiliated Indemnitee, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Agreement or under the DGCL, as it may then be in effect. The purchase, establishment, and maintenance of any such Indemnification Arrangement shall not in any way limit or affect the rights and obligations of the Corporation or of the Indemnitee under this Agreement except as expressly provided herein, and the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Corporation and the Indemnitee shall not in any way limit or affect the rights and obligations of the Corporation or the other party or parties thereto under any such Indemnification Arrangement.

3. Advance Payment of Indemnified Amounts.

(a) The Indemnitee hereby is granted the right to receive in advance of a final, non-appealable judgment or other final adjudication of a Proceeding (a "Final Determination") the amount of any and all expenses, including, without limitation, investigation expenses, expert witnesses' and attorneys' fees and expenses and other expenses expended or incurred, or expected to be expended or incurred, by the Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding or otherwise expended or incurred by the Indemnitee (such amounts so expended or incurred, or expected to be expended or incurred, being referred to as "Advanced Amounts").

(b) In making any written request for Advanced Amounts, the Indemnitee shall submit to the Corporation a schedule setting forth in reasonable detail the dollar amount expended or incurred and expected to be expended or incurred. Each such listing shall be supported by the bill, agreement, or other documentation relating thereto, each of which shall be appended to the schedule as an exhibit. In addition, before the Indemnitee may receive Advanced Amounts from the Corporation, the Indemnitee shall provide to the Corporation (i) a written affirmation of the Indemnitee's good faith belief that the applicable standard of conduct required for indemnification by the Corporation has been satisfied by the Indemnitee, and (ii) a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnitee to repay the Advanced Amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the Indemnitee has not satisfied any applicable standard of conduct and is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation. The written undertaking required from the Indemnitee shall be an unlimited general obligation of the Indemnitee but need not be secured. The Corporation shall pay to the Indemnitee all Advanced Amounts within twenty (20) days after receipt by the Corporation of all information and documentation required to be provided by the Indemnitee pursuant to this paragraph.

4. Procedure for Payment of Indemnified Amounts.

(a) To obtain indemnification under this Agreement, the Indemnitee shall submit to the Corporation a written request for payment of the appropriate Indemnified Amounts, including with each request documentation and information as is reasonably available to the Indemnitee and reasonably necessary to determine whether and to what extent the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification. The Secretary of the Corporation shall, promptly upon receipt of such a request for indemnification, advise the Board of Directors in writing that the Indemnitee has requested indemnification.

(b) The Corporation shall pay the Indemnitee the appropriate Indemnified Amounts unless it is established that the Indemnitee has not met any applicable standard of conduct of the Express Permitted Indemnification Provisions. For purposes of determining whether the Indemnitee is entitled to Indemnified Amounts, in order to deny indemnification to the Indemnitee the Corporation has the burden of proof in establishing that the Indemnitee did not meet the applicable standard of conduct. In this regard, a termination of any Proceeding by judgment, order or settlement does not create a presumption that the Indemnitee did not meet the requisite standard of conduct; provided, however, that the termination of any criminal proceeding by a conviction, a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent or an entry of an order of probation prior to judgment, creates a rebuttable presumption that the Indemnitee did not meet the applicable standard of conduct.

(c) Any determination that the Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct required to qualify for indemnification shall be made (i) either by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties of such action, suit or proceeding; or (ii) by independent legal counsel (who may be the outside counsel regularly employed by the Corporation); provided that the manner in which (and, if applicable, the counsel by which) the right to indemnification is to be determined shall be approved in advance in writing by both the highest ranking executive officer of the Corporation who is not party to such action (sometimes hereinafter referred to as "Senior Officer") and by the Indemnitee. In the event that such parties are unable to agree on the manner in which any such determination is to be made, such determination shall be made by independent legal counsel retained by the Corporation especially for such purpose, provided that such counsel be approved in advance in writing by both the said Senior Officer and the Indemnitee and provided further, that such counsel shall not be outside counsel regularly employed by the Corporation. The fees and expenses of counsel in connection with making said determination contemplated hereunder shall be paid by the Corporation, and, if requested by such counsel, the Corporation shall give such counsel an appropriate written agreement with respect to the payment of their fees and expenses and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by counsel.

(d) The Corporation will use its reasonable best efforts to conclude as soon as practicable any required determination pursuant to subparagraph (c) above and promptly will advise the Indemnitee in writing with respect to any determination that the Indemnitee is or is not entitled to indemnification, including a description of any reason or basis for which indemnification has been denied. Payment of any applicable Indemnified Amounts will be made to the Indemnitee within ten (10) days after any determination of the Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnitee may, at any time after sixty (60) days after a request for Indemnified Amounts has been submitted to the Corporation (or upon receipt of written notice that a request for Indemnified Amounts has been rejected, if earlier) and before three (3) years after a request for Indemnified Amounts has been filed, petition a court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under the provisions of this Agreement, and such court shall thereupon have the exclusive authority to make such determination unless and until such court dismisses or otherwise terminates such action without having made such determination. The court shall, as petitioned, make an independent determination of whether the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification as provided under this Agreement, irrespective of any prior determination made by the Board of Directors or independent counsel. If the court shall determine that the Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification as to any claim, issue or matter involved in the Proceeding with respect to which there has been no prior determination pursuant to this Agreement or with respect to which there has been a prior determination that the Indemnitee was not entitled to indemnification hereunder, the Corporation shall pay all expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements) actually incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with such judicial determination.

(f) Excluded Coverage. The Corporation shall have no obligation to indemnify the Indemnitee for and hold him or her harmless from any loss or expense which has been determined, by final adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction, to constitute an Excluded Claim (as hereinafter defined). For purposes of this Agreement, an Excluded Claim shall mean any payment for losses or expenses in connection with any claim:

(i) Based upon or attributable to the Indemnitee gaining in fact any personal profit or advantage to which the Indemnitee is not entitled;

(ii) For the return by the Indemnitee of any remuneration paid to the Indemnitee without the previous approval of the stockholders of the Corporation which is illegal;

(iii) For an accounting of profits in fact made from the purchase or sale by the Indemnitee of securities of the Corporation within the meaning of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or similar provisions of any state law;

(iv) Resulting from the Indemnitee's knowingly fraudulent, dishonest or willful misconduct; or

(v) The payment of which by the Corporation under this Agreement is not permitted by applicable law.

5. Agreement Not Exclusive; Subrogation etc.

(a) This Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of and shall not diminish any other rights the Indemnitee may have to be indemnified or insured or otherwise protected against any liability, loss, or expense by the Corporation, any subsidiary of the Corporation, or any other person or entity under any charter, by-laws, law, agreement, policy of insurance or similar protection, vote of stockholders or directors, disinterested or not, or otherwise, whether or not now in effect, both as to actions in the Indemnitee's official capacity, and as to actions in another capacity while holding such office. The Corporation's obligations to make payments of Indemnified Amounts hereunder shall be satisfied to the extent that payments with respect to the same Proceeding (or part thereof) have been made to or for the benefit of the Indemnitee by reason of the indemnification of the Indemnitee pursuant to any other arrangement made by the Corporation for the benefit of the Indemnitee; provided, however, that in no event shall the Indemnitee be required to maintain any other such arrangement or request payment pursuant to any other such arrangement before seeking to be indemnified hereunder.

(b) In the event the Indemnitee shall receive payment from any insurance carrier or from the plaintiff in any Proceeding against such Indemnitee in respect of Indemnified Amounts after payments on account of all or part of such Indemnified Amounts have been made by the Corporation pursuant hereto, such Indemnitee shall promptly reimburse to the Corporation the amount, if any, by which the sum of such payment by such insurance carrier or such plaintiff and payments by the Corporation or pursuant to arrangements made by the Corporation to the Indemnitee exceeds such Indemnified Amounts; provided, however, that such portions, if any, of such insurance proceeds that are required to be reimbursed to the insurance carrier under the terms of its insurance policy, such as deductible or co-insurance payments, shall not be deemed to be payments to the Indemnitee hereunder. In addition, upon payment of Indemnified Amounts hereunder, the Corporation shall be subrogated to the rights of the Indemnitee receiving such payments to the extent thereof against any insurance carrier (to the extent permitted under such insurance policies) or in respect of such Indemnified Amounts and the Indemnitee shall execute and deliver any and all instruments and documents and perform any and all other acts or deeds which the Corporation deems necessary or advisable to secure such rights. Such right of subrogation shall be terminated upon receipt by the Corporation of the amount to be reimbursed by the Indemnitee pursuant to the first sentence of this paragraph (b).

6. Insurance Coverage. In the event that the Corporation maintains directors and officers liability insurance to protect itself and any director or officer of the Corporation against any expense, liability or loss, such insurance shall cover the Indemnitee to at least the same extent as any other director or officer of the Corporation.

7. Establishment of Trust. In the event of a potential business combination or change in control of the Corporation of the type required to be reported under Item 1 of Form 8-K promulgated under the Exchange Act (collectively, a "Change in Control"), the Corporation shall, upon written request by the Indemnitee, create a trust (the "Trust") for the benefit of the Indemnitee and from time to time upon written request of the Indemnitee shall fund the Trust in an amount sufficient to satisfy any and all Indemnified Amounts (including, without limitation, Advanced Amounts) which are actually paid (but not as yet reimbursed) or which the Indemnitee reasonably determines from time to time may be payable by the Corporation under this Agreement. The amount or amounts to be deposited in the Trust pursuant to the foregoing funding obligation shall be determined by the independent legal counsel appointed under Section 4 hereof. The terms of the Trust shall provide that following its establishment: (i) the Trust shall not be revoked or the principal thereof invaded without the written consent of the Indemnitee; (ii) the trustee of the Trust shall advance, within twenty (20) days of a request by the Indemnitee, any and all Advanced Amounts to the Indemnitee (and the Indemnitee hereby agrees to reimburse the Trust under the circumstances under which the Indemnitee would be required to reimburse the Corporation under Section 3(b)(ii) hereof; (iii) the Corporation shall continue to fund the Trust from time to time in accordance with the funding obligations set forth above; (iv) the trustee of the Trust shall promptly pay to the Indemnitee all Indemnified Amounts for which the Indemnitee shall be entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Agreement; and (v) all unexpended funds in the Trust shall revert to the Corporation upon a final determination by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final decision from which there is no further right of appeal that the Indemnitee has been fully Indemnified under the terms of this Agreement. The trustee of the Trust shall be chosen by the Indemnitee.

8. Continuation of Indemnity. All agreements and obligations of the Corporation contained herein shall continue during the period the Indemnitee is a director or officer, as the case may be, of the Corporation (or is serving at the request of the Corporation as an Affiliate Indemnitee) and shall continue thereafter so long as the Indemnitee shall be subject to any possible Proceeding by reason of the fact that the Indemnitee was a director or officer of the Corporation or was serving in any other capacity referred to herein.

9. Successors; Binding Agreement. This Agreement shall be binding on and shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties hereto, by the Corporation's successors and assigns and by the Indemnitee's personal or legal representatives, executors, administrators, successors, assigns, heirs, spouses, distributees, devisees, and legatees. The Corporation shall require and cause any successor or assignee (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise) to all, substantially all or a substantial part of the business and/or assets of the Corporation, by written agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Corporation and to the Indemnitee, expressly to assume and agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Corporation would be required to perform if no such succession or assignment had taken place.

10. Enforcement. The Corporation has entered into this Agreement and assumed the obligations imposed on the Corporation hereby in order to induce the Indemnitee to act as a director or officer, as the case may be, of the Corporation, and acknowledges that the Indemnitee is relying upon this Agreement in continuing in such capacity.

(a) The Indemnitee's right to indemnification shall be enforceable by the Indemnitee only in the Chancery Court of the State of Delaware and shall be enforceable notwithstanding any adverse determination, other than a determination which has been made by a final adjudication of a court of competent jurisdiction. In any such action, if a prior adverse determination has been made, the burden of proving that indemnification is required under this Agreement shall be on the Indemnitee. The Corporation shall have the burden of proving that indemnification is not required under this Agreement if no prior adverse determination shall have been made.

(b) In the event the Indemnitee is required to bring any action to enforce rights or to collect moneys due under this Agreement and is successful in such action, the Corporation shall reimburse the Indemnitee for all of the Indemnitee's fees and expenses (including attorney's fees and expenses) in bringing and pursuing such action. The Indemnitee shall be entitled to the advancement of Indemnified Amounts to the full extent contemplated by Section 3 hereof in connection with such proceeding.

11. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement (including any provision within a single section, paragraph or sentence) is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to require the Corporation to do or to fail to do an act which is in violation of applicable law, such provision shall be limited or modified in its application to the minimum extent necessary to avoid a violation of law, and, as so limited or modified, such provision and the balance of this Agreement shall be enforceable in accordance with their terms.

12. Miscellaneous. No provision of this Agreement may be modified, waived, or discharged unless such modification, waiver, or discharge is agreed to in writing signed by the Indemnitee and either the Chairman of the Board or the President of the Corporation or another officer of the Corporation specifically designated by the Board of Directors. No waiver by either party at any time of any breach by the other party of, or of compliance with, any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same time or at any prior or subsequent time. This Agreement sets forth the entire understanding between the parties hereto and supersedes and merges all previous negotiations, representations, commitments, understandings and agreements (written, oral or otherwise, express or implied) with respect to the subject matter hereof between the parties hereto. The validity, interpretation, construction, and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of laws thereof. The Indemnitee may bring an action seeking resolution of disputes or controversies arising under or in any way related to this Agreement in the state or federal court jurisdiction in which the Indemnitee resides or in which his or her place of business is located, and in any related appellate courts, and the Corporation consents to the jurisdiction of such courts and to such venue.

13. Notices. For the purposes of this Agreement, notices and all other communications provided for in the Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when delivered or mailed by United States registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, as follows:

Tenant's plans and specifications shall provide for the installation of such water saving devices as low flow flush valves for toilets, self-closing faucets, flow restrictors for faucets and any other devices needed to comply with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts plumbing code in effect at the time Tenant's Work is performed. Tenant agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to construct and make such improvements in the Premises in accordance with the approved plans and specifications. Tenant has inspected the Premises, is familiar with their condition and accepts same "as is': and in their present condition and Landlord shall not be obligated to do any further construction or to make any additional improvements in the Premises. except as may otherwise be expressly provided herein. Tenant understands that Landlord's approval of its plans and specifications is primarily for conceptual purposes and such approval shall not constitute a representation or warranty of any kind with respect thereto, including, without limitation, the cost of Tenant's Work, compliance with Governmental Requirements or suitability of design. Tenant acknowledges receipt of the Shopping Center Tenant Information Manual and Design Criteria, the provisions of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Section 2.2. Performance of Tenant's Work. As soon as practicable after Landlord shall have approved Tenant's plans and specifications and possession of the Premises shall be made available to Tenant and Tenant shall have obtained all necessary approvals with respect to commencement of Tenant's Work, Tenant shall enter the Premises and shall proceed with due diligence and dispatch to make improvements and install fixtures and other equipment and a full stock of inventory therein, in accordance with the approved plans and specifications and all Governmental Requirements. Except for Landlord's negligence and willfull acts (subject, however, to the waiver of subrogation elsewhere set-forth in this Lease), Landlord shall have no responsibility or liability whatsoever for any loss of or damage to any fixtures or other equipment or inventory installed or left in the Premises, and Tenant's entry on and occupancy of the Premises shall be governed by and subject to all the provisions, covenants and conditions of this Lease other than those requiring payment of Rent. Prior to commencing any construction work in the Premises, Tenant shall obtain a building permit and furnish a copy of same to Landlord. Tenant shall also obtain and furnish to Landlord, to be delivered not later than the end of Tenant's Work Period, lien waivers from all contractors, subcontractors and materialmen, and all licenses, certificates and approvals with respect to work done and installations made by Tenant that may be required from the Governmental Authorities with respect to Tenant's Work, use and occupancy. Tenant shall complete Tenant's Work and open for business to the public not later than the expiration of Tenant's Work Period. Landlord and Tenant agree that the timely performance of Tenant's obligations under this Article 2 is a material inducement to the execution and delivery of this Lease by Landlord.

Section 2.3. Remedies for Tenant's Failure or Delay to Submit Plans or Perform Work. ARTICLE 3

Rent

Section 3.1. Payment. Tenant covenants and agrees, at all times during the Term, to perform promptly all of the obligations of Tenant set forth in this Lease and to pay when due all Rent, charges, costs and other sums (all of which shall be deemed to be Additional Rent) which, by the terms of this Lease are to be paid by Tenant. All Rent shall be paid in lawful money of the United States which shall be legal tender for payment of all debts and dues, public and private, at the time of payment, at the address of Landlord set forth in this Lease oral such other place as Landlord in writing may designate, without (except as may be otherwise herein expressly provided) any set-off or deduction whatsoever and without any prior demand or notice therefor.

Section 3.2. Fixed Rent. Tenant shall pay the annual Fixed Rent in equal monthly installments in advance on the first (1st) day of each calendar month included in the Term. If the Shopping Center shall, at any time during the Term of this Lease, contain in excess of the number of Department Stores set forth in Article 1, the Fixed Rent herein provided for shall automatically be increased by ten (10%) percent upon the date each additional Department Store is opened for business.

Section 3.3. Percentage Rent.

A. Tenant shall also pay, as "Percentage Rent" for each Lease Year included in the Term, payable as hereinafter provided, the amount, if any, by which Tenant's Gross Sales transacted during such Lease Year, multiplied by the Percentage Rent Rate, shall exceed the Fixed Rent payable for the same period; provided, however, that there shall be excluded from such computation any Fixed Rent payable for any part of such period during which Tenant was not open for business in violation of this Lease.

B. The term "Gross Sales" as used herein is defined to mean the total amount in dollars of the actual prices charged, whether for cash or on credit or trade-in or partly for cash, credit or trade-in, for all sales or leases of merchandise, food, beverages and services (including finance or service charges thereon), redeemed gift or merchandise certificates, irrespective of where sold, and all other receipts of business conducted at, in, on, about or from the Premises, including, but not limited to, all mail or telephone orders received or filled at, in, on, about or from the Premises, and including all deposits not refunded, all orders taken at, in, on, about or from the Premises, whether or not said orders are filled elsewhere; total receipts of sales through any vending machine or other coin or token operated device, other than not more than two (2) vending machines used exclusively by Tenant's employees, and total sales by any sublessee, concessionaire or licensee or any other occupant otherwise at, in, on, about or from the Premises, and sales and receipts occurring or arising as a result of solicitation off the Premises conducted by personnel operating from, or reporting to, or under the supervision of any employee of Tenant located at the Premises. Provided that Tenant keeps proper evidence thereof, Gross Sales shall not, however, include (i) any sums collected and paid out for any retail sales tax or retail excise tax imposed by any Governmental Authority and paid directly by Tenant to that Governmental Authority and separately stated, (ii) any exchange of goods or merchandise between the stores or warehouses of Tenant where such exchange of goods or merchandise is made solely for the convenient operation of the business of Tenant and not for the purpose of consummating a sale which had theretofore been made at, in, on, about or from the Premises, nor for the purpose of depriving Landlord of the benefits of a sale which otherwise would be made at, in, on, about or from the Premises (iii) the amount of returns to shippers or manufacturers, (iv) the amount of any cash or credit refund, limited to the sales prices, made upon any sale where the merchandise sold, or some part thereof, is thereafter returned by the purchaser and accepted by Tenant, (v) sales of fixtures (after use thereof) which are not a part of Tenant's stock-in-trade, (vi) the amount of any discount on sales to employees of the Premises, (vii) to the extent that the amount thereof was previously included in Gross Sales, bad debts, not exceeding two (2%) percent of Gross Sales per Lease Year, (viii) to the extent such charges do not materially exceed Tenant's costs, separately stated charges for alterations, repairs, giftwrapping and delivery services rendered to Tenant's customers, and (ix) sales of gift certificates. Each layaway sale shall be treated as a sale (to the extent of the amount received) when Tenant shall receive any payment from its customer. Each sale upon installment or credit shall be treated as a sale for the full amount when Tenant shall receive any payment from its customer, and subject to the limitation set forth above, no deduction shall be allowed for uncollectible credit accounts. Each lease of merchandise shall be treated as a sale in the month in which made for a price equal to the total rent payable during the term of the lease. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Subsection with respect to inclusion in Gross Sales of all receipts of sales made through any vending machine or other coin or token operated device, the operation of any such device shall be subject to the prior written consent of Landlord, as provided in Subsection 6.2E hereof.

C. Tenant shall utilize, and cause to be utilized, cash registers equipped with sealed continuous totals or such other devices for recording sales as Landlord shall reasonably approve to record all sales, and Tenant shall keep at its principal office in the continental United States for at least thirty-six (36) months after expiration of each Lease Year full, true and accurate books of account and records conforming to generally accepted accounting principles showing all of the Gross Sales transacted at, in, on, about or from the Premises for such Lease Year, including all sales or similar tax reports and returns, dated cash register tapes, sales checks, sales books, bank deposit records, computer tapes, disc, chips, printouts or ether storage media and any other records normally maintained by Tenant and other supporting data. Landlord shall have the right, from time to time, to inspect Tenant's recordkeeping system and, in connection therewith, to make test audits of Gross Sales. Within fifteen (15) days after the end of each calendar month, or portion thereof, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord a statement signed and verified by Tenant (or by an authorized officer if Tenant be a corporation) of the Gross Sales transacted during such month or portion thereof; and within sixty (60) days after the end of each Lease Year and within sixty (60) days after the end of the Term, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord a statement, hereinafter called the annual statement, certified to Landlord by an executive officer of Tenant, of Gross Sales transacted during the preceding Lease Year included in the Term. The certification by said officer shall expressly state that the Gross Sales shown on said statement conform with and are computed in compliance with the definition thereof contained in Subsection 3.3B hereof. In the event Gross Sales for each of two (2) Lease Years are misstated by more than two (2%) percent, thereafter the annual statement of Gross Sales must be certified by an independent certified public accountant Landlord shall have the right, from time to time, by its accountants or representatives, to audit Tenant's Gross Sales and, in connection with such audits, to examine all of Tenant's records (including sales or similar tax returns, an actual inventory of Tenant's stock-in-trade and all supporting data and any other records from which Gross Sales may be tested or determined) of Gross Sales disclosed in any statement given to Landlord by Tenant and Tenant shall make all such records readily available at Tenant's main office, for such examination. If any such audit discloses that the Gross Sales transacted by Tenant exceed those reported, Tenant shall forthwith pay to Landlord such additional Percentage Rent as may be so shown to be payable and, if the actual Gross Sales exceed the Gross Sales reported by Tenant by more than two (2%) percent, or if Tenant's records or systems do not comply with the requirements of this Subsection, Tenant shall also then pay the reasonable cost of such audit and examination, including travel, food and lodging and related expenses of Landlord's auditors. In the event Tenant has understated Gross Sales by four (4%) percent or more, Landlord may, in addition to any other remedies, terminate this Lease but Tenant shall remain liable hereunder as set forth in Article 8; provided, however, that Landlord shall not exercise its right to terminate this Lease if Tenant shall demonstrate to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction that such understatement was made inadvertently. Any information obtained by Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this Subsection shall be treated as confidential, except in any litigation or arbitration proceedings between the parties and, except further, that Landlord may disclose such information to prospective buyers, to prospective or existing lenders, in any registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or other similar body or in compliance with subpoenas and judicial orders. In no event shall this Subsection be deemed to limit Landlord's rights of pre-trial discovery and disclosure in any action or proceeding.

D. If Tenant fails to submit a monthly statement of Gross Sales within fifteen (15) days following Landlord's request therefor, then until such statement is received by Landlord, Gross Sales for such month shall be deemed equal to Tenant's highest previously reported monthly Gross Sales (or, if Tenant has never previously reported, to the Gross Sales reasonably estimated by Landlord), and if such failure shall occur twice in any Lease Year, Landlord may, at Tenant's expense, conduct an audit of Tenant's Gross Sales as set forth in Subsection 3.3C above.

E. Percentage Rent shall be payable by Tenant not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each calendar month for and in respect to the preceeding calendar month. Such payment shall be a sum equal to the amount by which Tenant's Gross Sales for the then current Lease Year, through the last day of the preceding month, multiplied by the Percentage Rent Rate, shall exceed the Fixed Rent payable for said period, less payments previously made with respect to such Lease Year. Upon receipt by Landlord of the certified annual statement of Gross Sales to be furnished as hereinabove provided, there shall be an adjustment between Landlord and Tenant with payment to or credit by Landlord, as the case may be, to the end that Landlord shall receive the entire amount of Percentage Rent payable under this Lease for the preceding Lease Year and no more.

Section 3.4. Tax Rent.

A. Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, Tax Rent in an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying Taxes by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Floor Space of the Premises excluding basement space, if any, not used as retail sales area, and the denominator of which shall be the portion of the Gross Leaseable Area of the Shopping Center which is included in the assessment which constitutes the basis for the Taxes, but excluding buildings or areas occupied by Department Stores, and stores occupying Gross Leaseable Area not fronting on the enclosed mall. Tax Rent shall be payable at least thirty (30) days prior to the due date of any Taxes or installment thereof; however, Landlord may, if it so elects, collect Tax Rent from Tenant on a monthly basis, in which event Tenant shall pay, with each monthly installment of Fixed Rent, one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual amount estimated by Landlord to be due hereunder. In the event Taxes for the then current tax year are not known, monthly installments shall be based on the preceding tax year with immediate adjustment as soon as current taxes become known. If at the time any Taxes or installments are required to be paid, the amount of Tenant's previously made monthly payments is insufficient to pay Tenant's share, Tenant shall pay such deficiency within ten (10) days after demand therefor. In the event of any excess, it shall be credited and applied to future Tax Rent payments, except that any excess in the last year of the Term shall be refunded at the end of the Term.

B. Should the taxing authority include in Taxes as a separately stated item the value of any improvements made by Tenant, or include machinery, equipment, fixtures, inventory or other personal property or assets of Tenant, then Tenant shall pay the entire tax attributable to such items.

C. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to include as a tax which shall be the basis of Tax Rent, any inheritance, estate, succession, transfer, gift, franchise, corporation, income or profit tax or capital levy that is or may be imposed upon Landlord, provided, however, that if, at any time during the Term, the method of taxation prevailing at the Commencement Date of this Lease shall be altered so that in lieu of or as a substitute for the whole or any part of the taxes now levied, assessed or imposed on real estate as such, there shall be levied, assessed or imposed (i) a tax on the rents received from real estate, or (ii) a tax or license fee imposed on Landlord which is otherwise measured by or based, in whole or in part, upon the Shopping Center or any portion thereof, then the same shall be included in the computation of Tax Rent hereunder, computed as if the amount of such tax or fee so payable were that due if the Shopping Center were the only property of Landlord subject thereto.

D. For the purpose of this Section 3.4, the term 'Taxes" shall include all real estate taxes, assessments, license fees or charges, excise on rent, water and sewer rents, any sums including interest or any payments in lieu or in substitution thereof on any bonds or debt (except industrial revenue bonds or similar indebtedness incurred for construction of nonpublic facilities) incurred by any Governmental Authority and payable by Landlord in connection with the Shopping Center and other governmental impositions, payments and charges of every kind and nature whatsoever, extraordinary as well as ordinary, foreseeable and unforeseeable, and each and every installment thereof which shall or may during the Term of this Lease be levied, assessed, imposed, become due and payable, or liens upon or arising in connection with the use, occupancy or possession of or grow due or payable out of, or for, the Shopping Center, or any part thereof or any land, building or other improvements therein, including any and all fees or expenses incurred in connection with the institution, prosecution, conduct and maintenance of any negotiations, settlements, actions or proceedings with respect to the amount of any Taxes, less the contributions or payments, if any, paid to Landlord with respect to Taxes by Department Stores and stores occupying Gross Leaseable Area not fronting on the enclosed mall, such deduction to be credited to the year in which actually received. Taxes shall not include any of the foregoing relating to any parcel or improvement included in the Shopping Center which, except for insignificant portions thereof, comprises a separate tax lot or is separately assessed or valued for the purpose of real estate taxes to the extent the taxes thereon are paid by a single tenant or occupant thereof, and further excluding any charge such as a water meter charge, sewer rent, if any, based thereon, which is measured by the consumption by the actual user of the item or service for which the charge is made. Whether or not Landlord shall take the benefit of the provisions of any statute or ordinance permitting an assessment for public betterment or improvements to be paid over a period of time, Landlord shall, nevertheless, be deemed to have taken such benefit so that the term Taxes shall include only the current annual installment of any such assessment and the interest on unpaid installments. A tax bill or copy thereof submitted by Landlord to Tenant shall be conclusive evidence of the amount of taxes or installments thereof.

E. In the event Landlord shall obtain a tax refund as a result of tax reduction proceedings or other proceedings of similar nature, then Tenant shall, provided Tenant is not then in default beyond any opportunity to cure elsewhere set forth in this Lease, and after the final conclusion of all appeals or other remedies, be entitled to its pro rata share of the net refund obtained based upon Tax Rent paid by Tenant which is the subject of the refund. As used herein, the term "net refund" means the refund plus interest, if any, thereon, less appraisal, engineering, expert testimony, attorneys', printing and filing fees and all other costs and expenses of the proceeding, to the extent such fees, costs and expenses have not been previously included in Taxes under Subsection 3.4D, and less an administrative fee to Landlord in the amount of not more than fifteen (15%) percent of the original refund. Tenant shall not have the right to institute or participate in any such proceedings, it being understood that the commencement, maintenance, settlement or conduct thereof shall be in the sole discretion of Landlord.

Section 3.5. Common Area Rent.

A. Tenant shall pay to Landlord as Additional Rent, an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying Common Area Operating Costs for each fiscal year adopted by Landlord by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Floor Space of the Premises excluding basement space, if any, not used as retail sales area, and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate of all leased and occupied Floor Space in the Shopping Center, excluding the Floor Space of stores whose public entrances do not front on the enclosed mall, basement space, if any, not used as retail sales area and any buildings or areas occupied by Department Stores; provided, however, that the denominator of said fraction shall never be less than seventy (70%) percent of the Gross Leaseable Area of the Shopping Center, exclusive of Department Stores and stores whose public entrances do not front on the enclosed mall. Tenant shall pay, with each monthly installment of Fixed Rent, one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual amount estimated by Landlord to be due hereunder, subject to adjustment.

B. As used in this Lease, the term Common Area Operating Costs shall mean all costs, expenses and expenditures incurred by Landlord in maintaining, managing, operating, repairing, replacing and protecting the Common Areas, all in a manner consistent with the highest shopping center standards, including the cost of all work necessary to preserve and maintain the value, utility and appearance of the Common Areas. Common Area Operating Costs shall specifically include, without limitation, all costs, expenses and expenditures incurred in connection with the following: heating, ventilating, lighting and air conditioning the Common Areas and providing snow and ice removal; maintenance, repair and replacement of all parking lot surfaces, including striping, repaving and sealcoating; gardening and landscaping, including planting and replacing flowers, shrubbery and trees; painting and decorating non-leaseable areas; policing and regulating vehicular and pedestrian traffic; compliance with environmental, health and safety regulations and standards promulgated by applicable Governmental Authorities; providing offsite employee parking facilities, including transportation to and from such facilities; sanitary control, including extermination; maintenance, repair and replacement of sewer and storm drainage systems, waste disposal facilities, lift stations, retention ponds or basins and sump facilities; removal of rubbish, garbage and other refuse; contracted security personnel, security systems and all other security measures; acquisition (including rental fees), maintenance, repair and replacement of fixtures, machinery, equipment, vehicles and supplies used in the operation and maintenance of the Common Areas, and all personal property taxes and/or fees payable with respect to such items; maintenance, repair and replacement of Shopping Center signs, curbs, walkways, ceilings, elevators, escalators and utility systems; maintenance, repair and replacement of all roofs over non-leaseable areas in the Shopping Center, acquisition, maintenance, repair and replacement of cost saving devices commonly used in properties comparable to the Shopping Center; music program services and loud speaker systems; cleaning of non-leaseable areas; maintenance, repair and replacement of decorations in non-leasable areas; water for fountains, if any; acquisition, maintenance, repair and replacement of seasonal decorations; salaries and other costs (including training costs, employee benefits and workers' compensation insurance) of Shopping Center personnel, such as security and maintenance people, the Shopping Center manager, assistant manager, bookkeeper, secretaries and office staff; resolution of disputes or litigation with Persons attempting to use the Common Areas for non-commercial purposes; professional and technical fees and all other disbursements incurred in connection with the performance of any of the foregoing; other similar direct costs of the type incurred in the operation of comparable properties; and fifteen (15%) percent of all of the foregoing costs to cover Landlord's administrative and overhead expenses. From the aggregate of the aforementioned costs and expenses, there shall be deducted the payments, if any, made with respect to common area charges by Department Stores, stores whose public entrances do not front on the enclosed mall and temporary kiosks, such deduction to be credited to the year for which such payments are applicable irrespective of the fiscal year in which such payments are actually received. With respect to costs which Landlord may elect to depreciate (or amortize) in lieu of including such costs in Common Area Operating Costs for the year in which they are incurred, only that portion of the depreciation (or amortization) allocable to the year for which Common Area Operating Costs are being determined shall be included in then current Common Area Operating Costs, it being understood, however, that interest (at a rate equal to the prime rate being charged from time to time by Citibank, N.A. during the year for which Common Area Operating Costs are being determined) on the then undepreciated (or unamortized) portion of such costs shall be included in Common Area Costs. In no event shall Common Area Operating Costs include the costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in constructing new buildings in the Shopping Center or expanding or improving leasable area or the costs and expenses incurred by Landlord for repairs and replacements with respect to which Landlord receives insurance proceeds or condemnation awards.

C. In addition to the costs and expenses enumerated in Subsection B above, Common Area Operating Costs shall also include the cost of acquiring, maintaining and administering such 'all risk" insurance (including rental income, flood and earthquake), boiler and machinery insurance, comprehensive general and umbrella liability insurance and such other insurance for the Shopping Center as Landlord may, from time to time, deem necessary. In lieu thereof or in combination therewith, Landlord shall have the right to self-insure in whole or in part. In the event Landlord shall self-insure in whole or in part, the costs attributable to the self-insured portion of the coverage shall be included in common Area Operating Costs, including the cost of administering Landlord's self-insurance program. From the aggregate of the aforesaid insurance costs and expenses, there shall be deducted the payments, if any, made with respect to the cost of Landlord's insurance by Department Stores, stores whose public entrances do not front on the enclosed mall and temporary kiosks, such deduction to be credited to the year for which such payments are applicable, irrespective of the fiscal year in which such payments are actually received.

D. After the end of each fiscal year adopted by Landlord, Landlord shall furnish to Tenant a statement showing in reasonable detail the information relevant or necessary to the calculation and determination of Landlord's actual Common Area Operating Costs, as hereinabove defined, for the fiscal year in question. If the monthly charges paid by Tenant during such fiscal year, as hereinabove provided, shall be less than Landlord's said actual Common Area Operating Costs for such fiscal year as shown by such statement, multiplied by the same fraction referred to in Subsection 3.5 A, Tenant shall pay to Landlord the excess within thirty (30) days after service of such statement. If, however, the said monthly charges shall exceed Landlord's said actual costs multiplied by said fraction, Landlord shall, with the submission of said statement, credit or refund to Tenant the excess.

Section 3.6. Additional Rent. Unless another time shall be herein expressly provided, Additional Rent shall be due and payable within ten (10) days following demand or together with the next-succeeding installment of Fixed Rent, whichever shall first occur, and Landlord shall have the same remedies for failure to pay the Additional Rent as for a non-payment of Fixed Rent. Tenant's failure to object to any final statement, invoice or billing rendered by Landlord within a period of one hundred twenty (120) days after receipt thereof shall constitute Tenant's acquiescence with respect thereto and shall render such statement, invoice or billing an account stated between Landlord and Tenant.

Section 3.7. Rent for a Partial Month. For any portion of a calendar month included at the beginning or end of the Term, Tenant shall pay one-thirtieth (1/30) of each monthly installment of Rent for each day of such portion, payable in advance at the beginning of such portion, except that Percentage Rent for such portion shall be computed and paid as provided in Section 3.3 hereof.

Section 3.8. Interest. As of the tenth (10th) day following service of notice by Landlord that a payment of Rent is overdue, interest shall accrue on the overdue amount, retroactive to the original due date, at the lesser of the highest rate permitted to be paid by Tenant in the state in which the Shopping Center is located or an annual rate of four (4%) percent more than the prime interest rate of Citibank N.A., located in New York, New York.

Section 3.9. Taxes. Tenant shall pay, as Additional Rent, for any documentary stamps or other transfer fees or any other sales or use taxes or other taxes, impositions or levies of or required by any Governmental Authority, including interest or penalties thereon, arising out of or by reason of this Lease or the amount of Rent payable hereunder.

Common Areas

Section 4.1. Common Areas. Landlord hereby grants to Tenant a non-exclusive license to use (i) the parking areas provided by Landlord in the Shopping Center for the accommodation and parking of vehicles of Tenant and its officers, agents and employees and customers while such customers are shopping in the Premises or in any other portion of the Shopping Center, (ii) the public conveniences of the Shopping Center, including any connecting passageways and lobbies used in conjunction with hotels and/or office buildings, and (iii) all other areas in the Shopping Center, including the so-called "mall", to be used in common by tenants of the Shopping Center, such parking areas, public conveniences and other common areas being hereafter collectively referred to as "Common Areas". Notwithstanding any of the provisions herein contained, Landlord retains and reserves the non-exclusive right to the use of the Common Areas.

A. Exhibit A sets forth the general layout of the Shopping Center, but shall not be deemed to be a warranty, representation or agreement on the part of Landlord that the Shopping Center will be or will continue to be exactly as indicated on said diagram, and Landlord reserves the right to (i) increase, eliminate, reduce or change the number, type, size, location, elevation, nature and use of any of the Common Areas or the buildings comprising the Shopping Center, (ii) make changes, additions, subtractions, alterations or improvements in or to such Common Areas, including, but not limited to, the construction of decked or subsurface parking, (iii) withdraw portions of the Shopping Center from Common Area or add Common Area to the Shopping Center, including non-contiguous parcels for parking and other related Shopping Center purposes and (iv) construct buildings, additional Department Stores, kiosks and other improvements in the Common Areas. Tenant shall have no rights with respect to the land or improvements below floor slab level or above the interior surface of the ceiling of the Premises or air rights above the Premises.

B. Landlord shall not, pursuant to Subsection 4.1 A, create any permanent, substantial, adverse interference with access to or visibility of the Premises from the covered mall upon which the front of the Premises abuts. However, this provision shall not preclude Landlord from installing carts or erecting kiosks or similar improvements anywhere in the covered mall, so long as any kiosks or similar improvements which are located in front of the Premises are approximately centered in the mall. Tenant's sole remedy in the event of Landlord's failure to comply with this Subsection 4.1 B shall be to terminate this Lease. In the event Tenant, as the result of Landlord's failure to so comply, shall exercise its right to terminate this Lease, Landlord shall pay, within ninety (90) days following the date Tenant vacates and surrenders the Premises, the then unamortized cost of the permanent leasehold improvements (excluding, inter alia, trade fixtures and equipment, furnishings, decorations, inventory and other items of personal property) initially made by Tenant pursuant to Article 2 of this Lease, assuming a useful life equal to the length of the original Term of this Lease and amortization on a straight line basis. Tenant shall, not later than sixty (60) days following the Commencement Date, deliver an affidavit of an officer of Tenant and a certificate of Tenant's architect accompanied by such bills, contracts, receipts, invoices, cancelled checks and the like as Landlord may reasonably require, specifying the cost of the Tenant's leasehold improvements, which amount shall, unless disputed by Landlord, thereupon be the basis for the amount to be paid by Landlord pursuant to this Subsection. Failure to timely deliver such affidavit, certificate and supporting data shall constitute a waiver of Tenant's rightto such payment.

C. Tenant, its officers, agents and employees shall park their vehicles only in areas from time to time designated by Landlord as the area for such parking, provided that such areas shall be located in or not more than one-half (1/2) mile from the perimeter boundary of the Shopping Center. Tenant shall, within ten (10) days following written notice from Landlord, furnish Landlord, or its authorized agent, the state automobile license numbers assigned to its automobiles and the automobiles of all its employees employed in the Premises. Tenant shall not at any time park any trucks or any delivery vehicles in the parking area. Landlord shall have the right, after service of two (2) or more notices to Tenant regarding improper parking, to levy an assessment payable by Tenant in a sum not to exceed $10.00 per day for each and every car belonging to Tenant, its agents, servants, contractors, licensees or employees which shall thereafter park in an area other than that designated by Landlord as a parking area for such vehicles. Such assessment shall be payable by Tenant on the next due date for Fixed Rent and shall be considered Additional Rent.

D. Common Areas shall be subject to such reasonable rules and regulations, including the right to impose parking charges or fees and to allocate parking areas on a uniform or non-discriminatory basis and to prohibit the use of the Shopping Center by such Persons as Landlord determines, as the same may be amended or modified, as Landlord may, from time no time, adopt as provided in this Lease.

E. Landlord reserves the right to close, if necessary, all or any portion of the Common Areas for the minimum length of time as may, in the reasonable opinion of Landlord's counsel, be legally sufficient to prevent a dedication thereof or the accrual of the right of the public therein, to close temporarily, if necessary, all or any part of the parking areas to discourage non-customer parking and to do and perform such other acts in and to the Common Areas as in the use of good business judgment of Landlord will improve the use thereof.

Landlord's Additional Covenants

Section 5.1. Repairs by Landlord. Landlord shall keep the exterior walls, foundations, downspouts, gutters and roofs of the buildings, and the plumbing, electrical and other utility system serving but which are located outside of the Premises, in good order, condition and repair and shall make necessary structural repairs to the exterior walls of the buildings (excluding, however, repairs to windows, doors, saddles, plate glass, store fronts and air conditioning and heating installations and wiring, pipes and other utility installations located outside of the Premises which are used exclusively by Tenant), the dividing walls between the Premises and space occupied or to be occupied by others and the load-bearing walls and load-bearing columns, if any, within the Premises, provided that Landlord shall not be obligated hereby to do any work required to be done because of any damage caused by any act, omission or negligence of Tenant and its invitees, licensees, their respective officers, agents and employees or their customers. Except where Landlord has actual notice of the necessity for such repair, Landlord shall not be required to commence any such repair until after notice from Tenant that the same is necessary, which notice, except in case of any emergency, shall be in writing and shall allow Landlord ten (10) days in which to commence such repair. The fact that the costs incurred by Landlord in connection with any of the foregoing are includable in Common Area Operating Costs pursuant to Subsection 3.5B shall not affect Landlord's performance obligations under this Section 5.1. When necessary by reason of accident or other cause occurring in the Premises or elsewhere in the Shopping Center, or in order to make any repairs or alterations or improvements in or relating to the Premises or to other portions of the Shopping Center, Landlord reserves the right to interrupt the supply to the Premises of steam, condenser water or cooled air for air conditioning, electricity, water and gas and also to suspend the operation of the heating and air conditioning system, if any, until said repairs, alterations or improvements shall have been completed. If, as a result of Landlord's performance of its obligations or exercise of its rights under this Section 5.1, there is created a substantial and material interference with Tenant's ability to conduct its business in the Premises and Tenant therefor closes for more than three (3) consecutive business days, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Fixed Rent for each day after the third (3rd) business day during which the condition continues. Other than the aforesaid, there shall be no abatement of Rent because of any such interruption or suspension; however, Landlord shall pursue such work with reasonable continuity, diligence and dispatch and in such a manner as (consistent with good practice) to cause a minimum of interference with Tenant's use of the Premises.

Section 5.2. Quiet Enjoyment. Landlord covenants that Tenant, on paying the Rent and performing Tenant's obligations in this Lease, shall peacefully and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises and the appurtenances throughout the Term without hindrance, ejection or molestation by any Person lawfully claiming under Landlord subject to the other terms and provisions of this Lease and to any agreements to which this Lease may be or become subject and subordinate.

Tenant's Additional Covenants

Section 6.1. Affirmative Covenants. Tenant covenants, at its expense, at all times during the Term:

A. To use the Premises only for the Permitted Use: to operate its business in the Premises under Tenant's Trade Name (or such other trade name as is adopted by a majority of stores operating under the Trade Name); and to conduct its business at all times in a dignified manner and in conformity with the highest standards of practice obtaining among superior type stores, shops or concerns dealing in the same or similar merchandise and in such manner as to produce the maximum volume of Gross Sales and to help establish and maintain a high reputation for the Shopping Center.

B. To continuously and uninterruptedly use, occupy and operate for retail sales purposes, all of the Premises other than such minor portions thereof as are reasonably required for storage and office purposes; to use such storage and office space only in connection with the business conducted by Tenant in the Premises; to furnish and install all trade fixtures and permitted signs; to carry a complete stock of seasonal merchandise; to maintain an adequate number of trained personnel for efficient service to customers; to open for business and remain open during the entire Term from at least 10:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. Mondays through Saturdays and 12:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. on Sundays, and to light its display windows and signs during those hours and on those days when the covered mall is kept illuminated by Landlord (but Tenant shall not be obligated to keep the same illuminated beyond 11.00 P.M. on any day). Tenant shall, if not in conflict with any Governmental Requirements, and providing that (i) at least one Department Store is open on such days or for such hours and (ii) Landlord shall agree to cause the Shopping Center to remain open for such days or for such hours, also open for business on such days or for such additional hours.

C. To store in the Premises only such merchandise as is to be offered for sale at retail within a reasonable time after receipt; to store all trash and refuse in appropriate containers within the Premises so as not to be visible to the shopping public and to attend to the daily disposal thereof in the manner approved by Landlord; to keep all drains inside the Premises open; and to receive, deliver, load and unload goods, merchandise, supplies, fixtures, equipment, furniture and rubbish through proper service doors and at times established by Landlord, provided, however, that if Landlord shall furnish or designate trash removal service, Tenant shall accept and use such service and pay Landlord or the Person designated by Landlord, monthly for such service at a rate which shall be no greater than the prevailing competitive rate for equivalent service in the locale. If Landlord shall implement a refuse recycling program for the Shopping Center, Tenant shall participate in such a program and shall comply with all rules and regulations promulgated by Landlord in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, the sorting of refuse by type for deposit in designated containers.

D. Except for repairs hereunder to be made by Landlord, to take good care of the Premises and the fixtures and appurtenances therein and make all other necessary repairs and replacements thereto, of every kind whatsoever (including, without limitation, repairs and replacements to windows, doors, saddles, plate glass, store fronts, air conditioning and heating installations and plumbing inside the Premises or located outside but exclusively serving the Premises and any exterior installation peculiar to the conduct of Tenant's business such as, but not limited to, signs, displays or exterior devices of any nature) which repairs and replacements shall be in quality and class at least equal to the original work. If Tenant fails to make any such repairs or replacements, Landlord may after reasonable notice (other than in the case of an emergency) to Tenant make same for the account of Tenant, at Tenant's expense, which amount shall be considered Additional Rent and shall be due and payable by Tenant when billed by Landlord. Tenant shall not be required to make structural repairs unless the necessity therefor arises by reason of Tenant's Work, installations or alterations made by Tenant, the manner of Tenant's use or occupancy or any other cause created by Tenant.

E. To make all repairs, alterations, additions or replacements to the Premises, including appurtenances, equipment, facilities and fixtures therein, arising out of the manner of Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises or necessary to satisfy any Governmental Requirement: to keep the Premises equipped with all safety appliances so required because of such use or occupancy; and otherwise to comply with the orders and regulations of any Governmental Authority. Tenant shall not be required to make structural alterations unless the necessity therefor arises by reason of Tenant's Work, installations or alterations made by Tenant, the manner of Tenant's use or occupancy or any other cause created by Tenant.

F. To pay promptly when due the entire cost of any work to the Premises, including equipment, facilities and fixtures therein, so that the Premises and all of Tenant's fixtures and equipment shall, at all times, be free of encumbrances or liens, including liens for labor and materials; to procure all Necessary Approvals before undertaking such work; to permit Landlord to post and keep posted on the Premises, sufficient, conspicuous notices stating that any improvements are not being made at Landlord's instance; to do all such work in a good and workmanlike manner acceptable to Landlord, employing materials of good quality; no perform such work in such a manner as to insure proper maintenance of good and harmonious labor relationships; to comply with any Governmental Requirement relating thereto. Tenant understands that as part of the rules and regulations promulgated by Landlord in connection with Tenant's Work, Landlord requires a construction barrier which fulfills Landlord's construction criteria to be erected around the mall exposure of the Premises. In the event that such a barrier is already in place at the time Tenant takes possession of the Premises to prosecute Tenant's Work, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as consideration for Landlord having provided the barrier and thereby having relieved Tenant of responsibility for erecting same, an amount equal to the product of the multiplication of the sum set forth on page 1-1 by the number of linear feet constituting the length of the barrier. Said amount shall be payable to Landlord not later than ten (10) days following the date on which Tenant commences Tenant's Work and shall constitute Additional Rent under the Lease. Tenant shall within ten (10) days after completion of any work performed by Tenant, file for record in the appropriate public records, a "notice of completion."

G. To defend and save Landlord harmless and indemnified from all injury, loss, claims or damage (including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by Landlord in conducting an investigation and preparing for and conducting a defense) to any Person (including Tenant's employees) or property, arising from, related to, or in any way connected with the use or occupancy of the Premises or the conduct or operation of Tenant's business, unless such injury, loss, claims or damage be attributable to the negligence or willful acts of Landlord or its agents, servants or employees.

H. To maintain with responsible companies approved by Landlord (said approval not to be unreasonably withheld), (i) commercial general liability insurance (or comparable coverage, including products liability and blanket contractual liability insurance) against all claims, demands or actions for personal injury, bodily injury or property damage arising from, related to, or in any way connected with Tenant's Work, Tenant's occupation of the Premises, or the conduct and operation of Tenant's business, or caused by actions or omissions to act, where there is a duty to act, of Tenant, its agents, servants and contractors, to the limits of not less than $3,000,000.00 per claim and in the aggregate, which limits may be provided by any combination of primary and umbrella or excess insurance, and which insurance shall be on an occurrence basis and shall be endorsed to name Landlord, its agents and employees as additional insureds; (ii) "All-Risk" property insurance, including such flood and earthquake coverage as Landlord may, from time to time, require covering all of Tenant's real and personal property values, such as fixtures and equipment, stock-in-trade, furniture, furnishings, finishes, improvements and betterments installed or made by or on behalf of Tenant in, on or about the Premises, to the extent of their replacement cost without deduction for depreciation, as well as loss of business income (so-called business interruption) coverage, to include the Fixed Rent and Additional Rent payable under this Lease; (iii) if there is air conditioning or refrigeration equipment valued in excess of $50,000.00, boiler and machinery coverage at replacement cost, or if there is a boiler or pressure vessel or other similar equipment in the Premises, boiler and machinery coverage in the minimum amount of $500,000.00; and (iv) workers' compensation, disability and such other similar insurance covering all persons employed by Tenant in connection with Tenant's Work and the operation of Tenant's business and with respect to whom death or bodily injury claims could be asserted against Tenant, Landlord or the Shopping Center. All of said insurance shall be in form and with deductibles reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and shall provide that it shall not be subject to cancellation, termination or change except after at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice to Landlord. In the case of boiler and machinery insurance, the policy or policies shall cover Landlord or any designee of Landlord as a loss payee and shall provide that losses sustained by Landlord shall be adjusted by and payable to Landlord. Certificates of insurance evidencing the coverage required pursuant to this Subsection H. together with certificates evidencing coverage on the part of Tenant's contractors, shall be deposited with Landlord not less than ten (10) days prior to the day Tenant begins Tenant's Work and upon renewals of said policies not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of the term of such coverage. All such policies shall be delivered with satisfactory evidence of the payment of the premium therefor. Landlord and Tenant mutually agree that with respect to any loss which is covered by "All-Risk" property insurance then being carried by them respectively, or required to be carried, the party carrying or required to carry such insurance and suffering said loss, releases the other of and from any and all claims with respect to such loss, including amounts within the deductibles, and they further mutually agree that their respective insurance companies shall have no right of subrogation against the other on account thereof.

I. In the event of any action or proceeding arising out of or pursuant to this Lease, the successful party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and all other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the action or proceeding.

J. Within twenty (20) days following receipt of actual notice thereof, to cause to be discharged of record by bonding, payment or otherwise, any mechanic's or similar lien, judgment, encumbrance, security interest, chattel mortgage or notice thereof at any time filed in any public office against the Shopping Center or the Premises (including any fixtures or equipment located therein) or the owner of any interest therein for any work, labor, services, materials, fixtures, equipment or property claimed to have been performed at or furnished to the Shopping Center or Premises for or on behalf of Tenant or any agent or contractor of Tenant, or anyone holding the Premises through or under Tenant. Nothing contained in this Lease shall be construed as a consent on the part of Landlord to subject Landlord's estate in the Premises to any lien or liability under applicable law.

K. Upon the expiration or other termination of the Term to quit and surrender the Premises to Landlord, broom clean, in good order and condition, ordinary wear and tear and casualty damages excepted, and to remove all property of Tenant and each alteration, addition and improvement made by Tenant as to which Landlord shall have made the election provided for in Section 2.4 hereof, to repair all damage to the Premises caused by such removal and restore the Premises to the condition in which they were prior to the installation of the articles so removed. Any property not so removed and as to which Landlord shall not have made said election, shall be deemed to have been abandoned by Tenant and may be retained or disposed of by Landlord, as Landlord shall desire. However, Tenant shall be responsible for the cost of removal and disposal. If the last day of the Term falls on a day the Shopping Center is closed, the Term shall expire on the business day immediately preceding and Tenant's obligation to observe or perform this covenant shall survive the expiration or termination of the Term. Immediately upon the failure of Tenant to perform any covenant of this Subsection K. Landlord may, without notice, do so, and shall be entitled to receive from Tenant the then cost of performance of such convenant, such damages to be paid in addition to and separate and independently from damages accruing by reason of breach of any other covenant of this Lease.

L. (1) Tenant shall join the Shopping Center's Merchants' Association (the "Association") and remain a member thereof throughout the Term of this Lease and comply with its rules and regulations and by-laws and promptly pay, when due, all dues and assessments levied or charged by the Association, which dues and assessments may be collected by the Association as third party beneficiary hereunder, or by Landlord as agent for and on behalf of the Association as if such dues and assessments were Additional Rent. The annual dues payable to the Association shall be the greater of (i) the amount set forth in Article 1, which amount shall be increased on each anniversary of the Commencement Date by ten (10%) percent of the amount payable by Tenant for the immediately preceding twelve (12) month period, or (ii) the amount established from time to time by the Association. Tenant shall participate in the Association's Shopping Center-wide sales and on-site promotions, as well as gift certificate, credit card and other marketing programs. If the Merchants' Association is, at Landlord's option, discontinued, Tenant shall participate in such substitute promotional and/or marketing programs as Landlord may, from time to time, establish and shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, for deposit in the Promotion Fund (as defined in paragraph (6), an initial, annual amount equal to the Association dues payable by Tenant at the time of the discontinuance of the Association, said amount to be increased on each subsequent anniversary of the Commencement Date by ten (10%) percent of the amount payable by Tenant for the immediately preceding twelve (12) month period.

(2) Tenant shall, at Tenant's cost and expense, advertise in at least four (4) Association (or, if there is no Association, Landlord sponsored) catalogues, newspapers, magazines or similar publications (collectively, "Publications") every calendar year, each such advertisement to be the size specified for the relevant Publication in the Association's (or Landlord's) annual marketing plan for the Shopping Center. If, at the end of a calendar year, it is determined that Tenant has failed to advertise in four (4) such Publications, Tenant shall pay to Landlord, as Additional Rent, with respect to each failure to participate, a sum equal to the average cost of one (1) full-page color advertisement in a promotional catalogue. Said sum shall be deposited by Landlord in the Promotion Fund and used for the purposes described in paragraph (6).

(3) The Association (or, if there is no Association, then Landlord) may, from time to time, decrease the number of Publications in which Tenant is required to advertise each year or eliminate such advertising requirement entirely for a specified period. In such event, Tenant shall pay to the Association (or, if there is no Association, then to the Promotion Fund) an amount equal to the product of the multiplication of (i) the average cost for the then current year of a one-half (1/2) page color advertisement in a promotional catalogue, by (ii) the remainder resulting from the subtraction of the number of advertisements required of Tenant for the then current year from four (4). Such amount shall be used by the Association (or if there is no Association, then by Landlord) for the purposes described in paragraph (6).

(4) In the event Tenant shall place an advertisement in a Publication sponsored by the Association (or by Landlord) and shall then fail to pay the cost of such advertisement (whether to the Association or to the third-party publisher, as the case may be), Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, upon five (5) days' prior written notice to Tenant, to pay such cost for and on behalf of Tenant. The amount so paid by Landlord shall constitute Additional Rent hereunder and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord in such amount within ten (10) days following Landlord's demand therefor.

(5) The failure of any other tenant or occupant of the Shopping Center to become a member of or contribute to the Association (or participate in Landlord's substitute promotional and/or marketing programs or contribute to the Promotion Fund) shall in no way release Tenant from its obligations to do so; nor shall the failure of any tenant or occupant to advertise in any Publication release Tenant from its obligation to so advertise.

(6) The Promotion Fund shall be used by Landlord to pay all costs and expenses (including the costs of administration) associated with the formulation and carrying out of an ongoing program for the promotion of the Shopping Center, which program may include, without limitation, special events, shows, displays, institutional advertising for the Shopping Center, promotional literature to be distributed within the general trade area of the Shopping Center, and other activities designed to attract customers to the Shopping Center.

(7) If the Shopping Center shall be expanded by adding a Department Store and/or ten (10%) percent or more to the gross leasable area of the Shopping Center (an "Expansion"), Tenant shall pay to Landlord's Promotion Fund a one-time charge for each such Expansion. Such Expansion charge shall be an amount equal to the annual Merchants' Association Dues payable by Tenant for the Lease Year immediately preceding the year in which work on the Expansion commences and shall be payable upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice from Landlord given at any time subsequent to the commencement of construction. A like amount shall also be payable by Tenant to Landlord's Promotion Fund in the event that the Shopping Center shall be substantially renovated. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "substantial renovation" or any variation thereof shall be deemed to mean a redecoration of the covered mall portion of the common area of the Shopping Center to the extent of at least fifty (50%) percent thereof, including new flooring and the painting and/or recovering of the walls. The amount payable to Landlord's Promotion Fund in connection with a substantial renovation of the Shopping Center shall be due upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice from Landlord to Tenant, but in no event prior to commencement of the renovation. In the event of a contemporaneous Expansion and renovation of the Shopping Center, Tenant shall be assessed only the one-time Expansion charge.

(8) If the Shopping Center shall be expanded or renovated as aforesaid, Tenant, upon the request of Landlord or the Association (as the case may be), shall advertise in one additional Publication designed to publicize and/or coordinate with such Expansion or renovation. The provisions of paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) shall apply with respect to Tenant's advertisement in such additional Publication.

M. Tenant shall furnish to Landlord an annual statement at the end of each Lease Year showing the amounts spent by Tenant on white space advertising or other advertising media. Each such annual statement shall be made a part of the annual report required to be furnished by Tenant under Section 3.3. If Tenant's annual statement shows that Tenant has expended for such advertising, during the preceding Lease Year, less than the Percentage of Advertising Required, Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days after the required delivery date of its annual statement, pay to the Merchants' Association (or substitute Promotion Fund) the difference between the amount actually expended for such advertising and the Percentage of Advertising Required. Dues or other payments made by Tenant to the Merchants' Association shall not be deemed an amount expended for advertising within the meaning of this Subsection M, but amounts expended pursuant to paragraph 6.1L(2) shall be deemed an expenditure for the purpose of this Subsection M. All expenditures made by Tenant for advertising in connection with Tenant's other stores, if any, within the trade area of the Shopping Center, may be included by Tenant to comply with this Subsection provided such advertising in all instances includes the Premises and is distributed to the geographical trade area in which the Shopping Center is located.

N. To refer to the Shopping Center by its name above stated in designating the location of the Premises in all newspaper or other advertising in the general trade area in which the Shopping Center is located. With respect to any advertisement in which the location of another similar business activity conducted by Tenant in the trade area shall be mentioned, Tenant shall also mention or cause to be mentioned the Trade Name and location of the business conducted at the Premises.

0. To obtain all Necessary Approvals.

P. To provide in accordance with Landlord's sign criteria, a suitable identification sign or signs, bearing Tenant's Trade Name, of such size, design and character as Landlord shall approve and install said sign or signs at a place or places designated by Landlord. Tenant shall maintain any such signs or other installations in good condition and repair.

Q. To conform to all reasonable rules and regulations which Landlord may make for management and use of the Shopping Center, requiring such conformance by Tenant and Tenant's employees. Such rules and regulations shall be uniform and shall not discriminate against Tenant.

R. To deliver to Landlord, within twenty (20) days after a request for same, all or any of the following items, in such form and containing such evidence of authenticity and regularity as Landlord may reasonably require.

(l) Balance sheet, annual report and related financial statements of Tenant, Guarantor, if any, Tenant's parent and all subsidiaries of Tenant for the previous annual period, same to have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(2) A list of all Affiliates, officers, directors and stockholders of Tenant, including name, title, number and type of shares owned.

(3) If Tenant or any Person from whom information as aforesaid is required to be submitted is a corporation whose shares are traded on the "over the counter", American or New York Stock Exchanges then the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) above may be satisfied by submission of Tenant's most recent annual report and form 10K together with all other current filings with the Securities Exchange Commission or otherwise made pursuant to Federal securities laws.

(4) Certificates executed by the appropriate chief financial officers (or executives) of any entity from whom information is required pursuant to this Subsection to the effect that there has been no material adverse change in its financial status since the date of the most recent information provided to Landlord.

(5) A list of all stores operated by any of the Persons from whom information is required as aforesaid (including shareholders of such Persons) or their licensees, franchises, concessionaires or the like within a radius of five (5) miles of the Shopping Center.

Tenant represents that Tenant has the right, power and authority to execute and deliver this Lease, that such execution, delivery and performance of Tenant's obligations shall not cause, create or constitute a default or breach of or under any agreement to which Tenant is a party or by which it is bound. Tenant further represents that the information concerning its financial status, stockholders, parent, subsidiaries and Affiliates, if any, prior to the execution and delivery of this Lease is unchanged, true and correct, accurately represents the financial status of the Person for whom submitted and that there has been no material or adverse change in the financial status of Tenant or said Persons.

Section 6.2. Negative Covenants. Tenant convenants at all times during the Term and such further time as Tenant occupies the Premises or any part thereof:

A. Except for existing stores, Tenant shall not, nor shall any officer, director, shareholder, Affiliate, franchisee or licensee or the like of Tenant, directly or indirectly operate, manage or have any interest in any other store or facility for the sale at retail of merchandise or services similar to that which is permitted under "Permitted Use", within five (5) miles of the Shopping Center (the Retail Restriction Limit). For purposes of this Subsection A, the Retail Restriction Limit shall be measured along a straight line, the beginning of which is the point on the outer perimeter of the Shopping Center which is closest to such other store and the end of which is a point on the main entry doors of such other store. Without limiting Landlord's remedies in the event Tenant should violate this covenant, Landlord may include the Gross Sales of such other store in the Gross Sales transacted in the Premises, for the purpose of computing Percentage Rent due hereunder. In the event Landlord so elects, all of the provisions of Section 3.3 hereof shall be applicable to all records pertaining to such other store.

B. Unless specifically set forth in the Permitted Use, not to sell, display or distribute (i) any alcoholic liquors or beverages for consumption on or off the Premises or (ii) any pornographic or obscene or sexually erotic goods, wares, printed material or services or (iii) any drugs or other substances whose use or sale is prohibited or controlled by Governmental Authority, including any merchandise which, although not per se violative of Governmental Requirements, is designed or may reasonably be inferred to have been designed for use in connection with such prohibited or controlled items.

C. Not to injure, overload, deface or otherwise harm the Premises or any part thereof or any equipment or installation therein; nor commit any nuisance; nor permit the emission of any objectionable noise or odor nor, unless specifically permitted by the Permitted Use, burn anything within the Shopping Center; nor permit the collection of trash or refuse contrary to rules and regulations established by Landlord or by any Person not approved or designated by Landlord; nor install or cause to be installed any automatic garbage disposal equipment; nor conduct business at, in, on, about or from all or any part of the Premises on any days or hours that Landlord does not open the Shopping Center for business to the public; nor make any use of the Premises or of any part thereof or equipment therein which is improper, offensive or contrary to any Governmental Requirement or to the rules and regulations of Landlord as such may be promulgated from time to time; nor use any advertising medium that may constitute a nuisance, such as loudspeakers, sound amplifiers or phonographs in a manner to be heard outside the Premises; nor conduct any auction, fire, "going out of business" or bankruptcy sales except under conditions approved by Landlord in writing; nor use or occupy the Premises, or suffer or permit them to be used or occupied in whole or in part, as a surplus store, salvage or "odd lot" store, or for any similar business or activity; nor do any act tending to injure the reputation of the Shopping Center; nor sell or display merchandise on, or otherwise obstruct, the Common Areas or anywhere else in the Shopping Center or distribute handbills or other advertising matter in the Shopping Center outside of the confines of the Premises; nor carry on or permit any business conduct or practice which, in Landlord's judgment, may harm the business reputation of Landlord or reflect unfavorably on the Shopping Center, Landlord or other tenants or which might confuse or mislead the public. Tenant shall, upon notice from Landlord, immediately discontinue any violation of the foregoing provisions.

D. Except for those which are interior, non-structural and do not affect the heating, ventilation, air conditioning, mechanical or utility systems of the Premises or Shopping Center and the aggregate cost of which does not exceed $15,000.00, not to make any repairs, installations, alterations or additions or improvements or work to the Premises without, on each occasion, obtaining the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld (it being understood that Landlord's withholding of consent shall not be deemed unreasonable where Tenant is unable to demonstrate, to Landlord's reasonable satisfaction, the ability to pay for the proposed work); nor attach interior signs, placards or other advertising media or other objects to the windows, doors, valances or ceiling or locate the same either outside of or within the Premises in such manner as to obstruct the view of Tenant's store from the mall area or from the outside other than in-substantially. If Landlord's consent is required, Tenant shall not commence any work as aforesaid until Tenant shall have filed with Landlord plans and specifications for such work and Landlord shall have approved same, said approval not to be unreasonably withheld. Tenant shall perform such work in accordance with such approved plans and specifications using labor not incompatible with other labor at the Shopping Center and such as will not create any labor disputes or work stoppages. Any work performed by Tenant shall at all times be subject to Landlord's inspection and approval after completion to determine whether same complies with the requirements of the applicable provisions of this Lease. Tenant shall, preceding and during the course of any alteration, addition, enlargement, improvement or construction, post or permit Landlord to post and keep posted in conspicuous places on the Premises, and in addition, serve all Persons who are expected to perform work or supply materials, such notices as are now or hereafter permitted or required to be posted to protect Landlord from having its interest in the Premises made subject to a mechanics' or materialmen's lien arising from such alteration, enlargement, improvement or construction. Prior to commencing construction, Tenant shall give Landlord a list of names and addresses for all such Persons.

E. Except those for the sole use of Tenant's employees, not to operate any coin or token operated vending machine or similar device for the sale of any goods, wares, merchandise, food, beverage or services, including, but not limited to, pay telephones, pay lockers, pay toilets, scales, amusement devices and machines for the sale of beverages, foods, candy, cigarettes or toilet commodities, without the prior written consent or Landlord.

F. Unless Tenant shall first have received Landlord's written consent with respect thereto, not to assign, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, encumber, pledge, or in any manner transfer this Lease or any interest therein, or sublet the Premises or any part or parts thereof, or grant any concession or license or otherwise permit occupancy of all or any part thereof by anyone with, through or under it; nor shall Tenant grant or create any security interest or mortgage, hypothecate, encumber or pledge any equipment, or improvements located in or about the Premises. A transfer of any of Tenant's or Guarantor's stock or a transfer or change of "control" (as such term is defined under the heading "Affiliate" in Article I of this Lease) of Tenant or Guarantor, if Tenant or Guarantor is a corporation or a change in the composition of Persons owning any interest in any non-corporate Tenant shall be deemed an assignment for the purpose of this Subsection F. In the event of the occurrence of any of the foregoing events without Landlord's prior consent, this Lease shall, at Landlord's option, be deemed to have been cancelled, terminated and expired as of the date of the occurrence of said event. Neither the consent by Landlord to any of the foregoing, nor any references in this Lease to concessionaires or licensees shall be construed to relieve Tenant from obtaining the express consent of Landlord to any further act which is prohibited herein, nor shall the collection of Rent by Landlord from any assignee, subtenant or other occupant, after default by Tenant, be deemed a waiver of this covenant or the acceptance of the assignee, subtenant or occupant as Tenant or a release of Tenant from the further performance by Tenant of the covenants in this Lease on Tenant's part to be performed.

(1) The provisions of this Subsection 6.2F shall not be deemed to prohibit (i) transfers of stock among existing stockholders or among spouse, children or grandchildren of existing stockholders or inter vivos or testamentary transfers to trusts established for the benefit of such persons, (ii) a public offering of the stock of Tenant or Guarantor or (iii) the transfer of outstanding voting stock registered under applicable securities laws of Tenant or Guarantor which are traded on a recognized national securities exchange. For the purposes of the preceding clause (iii), the term "voting stock" shall mean shares or stock regularly entitled to vote for the election of all directors of the corporation.

(2) Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold its consent to an assignment of this Lease or sublease of the entire Premises to a parent, Affiliate or wholly-owned subsidiary of Tenant or to any entity with which or into which Tenant may consolidate or merge and who shall assume for Landlord's benefit the performance of all of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Lease; provided, however, that the merged or consolidated entity shall have a net worth at least equal to the net worth of Tenant at the time of such consolidation or merger or at the time of the Commencement Date of this Lease, whichever shall be greater, and further provided that the assignee or sublessee shall use the Premises under the Trade Name and only for the Permitted Use.

(3) Except for the transactions described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Subsection, Tenant may not assign or sublet the Premises until Tenant completes Tenant's Work and opens for business. When Tenant requests Landlord's consent to a transaction other than the types of transactions described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Subsection, such requests shall include the name of the proposed transferee of stock, assignee or subtenant and its officers, directors and stockholders and such information as to the financial responsibility. business and reputation of the proposed assignee, transferee of stock or subtenant and its officers, directors and stockholders as Landlord may reasonably require. Upon the receipt of such request and information from Tenant, Landlord shall have the right, to be exercised in writing within thirty (30) days after such receipt, to cancel and terminate this Lease, as of the date set forth in Landlord's notice of exercise of such option, which effective date of termination in Landlord's said notice shall not be less than sixty (60) nor more than one hundred twenty (120) days following the service of such notice. Tenant shall have the right to negate Landlord's cancellation by withdrawing its request within ten (10) days after service of Landlord's notice, whereupon, this Lease and the occupancy hereunder shall continue unchanged and in full force and effect.

(a) In the event Landlord shall exercise such cancellation right, Tenant shall surrender possession of the Premises on the date set forth in Landlord's notice and in accordance with the provisions of this Lease relating to surrender of the Premises at the expiration of the Term. In no event shall the Premises be subdivided or partially sublet nor any request made for permission to do so.

(b) In the event Landlord shall not exercise its right to cancel this Lease as provided above, then Landlord's consent to such request shall not be unreasonably withheld in accordance with subparagraph (c) of this paragraph, (3), provided such consent to sublease or assignment is effected by a legal document in form and substance satisfactory to Landlord. In no event shall any assignment or subletting to which Landlord may have consented release or relieve Tenant from its obligations fully to perform all of the terms, convenants and conditions of the Lease on its part to be performed. Any assignee or subtenant shall be bound by, subject to and deemed to have assumed performance of all of the terms, conditions and covenants of this Lease, including, but not limited to, the Permitted Use set forth in Article I and the Retail Restriction Limit and any and all defaults shall be cured prior to the assignment or subletting.

(c) In determining reasonableness, Landlord may take into consideration all relevant factors surrounding the proposed sublease and assignment, including, without limitation, the following:

(i) The business reputation of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its officers, directors and stockholders;

(ii) The nature of the business of the proposed assignee or subtenant in relation to the tenant mix or balance of the Shopping Center;

(iii) The source of the Rent due under this Lease, the financial condition and operating performance of the proposed assignee or subtenant and its guarantors, if any;

(iv) Restrictions, if any, contained in lease or other agreements affecting the Shopping Center;

(v) The extent to which the proposed assignee or subtenant and Tenant provide Landlord with assurance of future performance hereunder, including, without limitation, the payment of Percentage Rent; and

(vi) The number of other stores operated by the proposed assignee or subtenant in the vicinity in which the Shopping Center is located.

(4) This paragraph (4) shall not apply to any transactions described in paragraphs (1) and (2) above but shall apply to all other transactions. In the event Tenant shall assign its interest in this Lease or sublet the Premises, these the Fixed Rent specified in Article I shall be increased, effective as of the date of such assignment or subletting, to the greater of (i) the rentals payable by any such assignee or sublessee pursuant to such assignment or sublease, or (ii) an amount equal to the total of the Fixed Rent, plus Percentage Rent, required to be paid by Tenant pursuant to this Lease for the Lease Year immediately preceding such assignment or subletting. In no event shall the Fixed Rent, after such assignment or subletting, be less than the Fixed Rent specified in Article I. In addition to the foregoing, Tenant agrees that in the event or an assignment or subletting, Tenant shall pay to Landlord any and all consideration, money or thing of value received by Tenant or payable to Tenant in connection with the transaction, except Tenant shall not be required to pay to Landlord consideration received in connection with the sale of Tenant's trade fixtures, equipment, inventory or leasehold improvements.

(5) Except for transactions of the types described in paragraphs (1) and (2), in the event of any assignment or subletting, Landlord shall have the right to require that there be deposited with and held by Landlord, in addition to any other security then held by Landlord, an amount equal to three (3) months' rent ensuing.

(6) Use of the terms "assignments or "subletting" shall be deemed to include stock or share transfers as to corporations, and transfers of ownership interests in the case of non-corporate entities.

(7) Tenant shall pay to Landlord a reasonable fee and all reasonable expenses incurred by Landlord for the processing of any assignment, sublease or other transaction covered or affected by this Subsection 6.2F.

G. Not to permit commercial or piped in music to be played other than in the Premises or in a manner which can be heard outside the Premises or, except for work performed by its own employees during reasonable hours designated by Landlord, not to permit rubbish or garbage removal, window cleaning, janitorial or maintenance services in or about the Premises, except in each such case, by a Person, if any, designated by Landlord. Landlord agrees that the prices to be charged by the Person, if any, so designated to supply or perform any or all of the services referred to in this Subsection G shall be competitive.

H. Not to place or install or suffer to be placed or installed or maintain any graphics or sign in, upon or outside the Premises or in the Shopping Center unless it complies with Landlord's sign criteria and is approved by Landlord pursuant to Subsection P of Section 6.1, nor any awning, canopy, banner, flag, pennant, aerial, antenna or the like in or on the Premises. Tenant shall not place in the windows or at or near the entrance to the Premises any sign, graphics, decoration, lettering, advertising matter, shade or blind or other thing of any kind, other than neatly lettered signs of reasonable size placed on the floor thereof identifying articles offered for sale and the prices thereof, without first obtaining Landlord's written approval and consent in each instance, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Tenant further agrees that Landlord shall have the right to disapprove and require the removal of any sign, graphics, lettering, lights, advertising or other forms of inscription located in the front five (5) feet of the Premises. Any signs, lights, lettering or other forms of inscription displayed without prior written approval of Landlord may be removed forthwith by Landlord. The cost of such removal shall be paid by Tenant and Tenant shall thereafter restore the Premises and the building to the condition existing immediately prior to the installation of the removed signs, lettering or inscription.

I. Not to place a load upon any floor of the Premises which exceeds the floor load per square foot area which such floor was designated to carry. If Tenant shall desire a floor load in excess of that for which the floor or any portion of the Premises is designed, upon submission to Landlord of plans showing the location of and the desired floor live load for the area in question, Landlord may, at its option, strengthen and reinforce the same, at Tenant's sole expense, so as to carry the live load desired. Business machines and mechanical equipment used by Tenant which cause vibration or noise that may be transmitted to the building or to any occupiable space to such a degree as to be reasonably objectionable to Landlord or to any tenants in the building shall be placed and maintained by Tenant at its expense, in settings of cork, rubber or spring-type vibration eliminators sufficient to eliminate such vibration or noise.

Destruction: Condemnation

Section 7.1. Fire or Other Casualty

A. Tenant shall give prompt notice to Landlord in case of fire or other damage to the Premises.

B. If (i) the Shopping Center or the building in which the Premises are located (whether or not the Premises were damaged) shall be damaged to the extent of more than twenty-five (25%) percent of the cost of replacement thereof, respectively, or (ii) the proceeds of Landlord's insurance recovered or recoverable as a result of' the damage described in subsection (i) preceding shall be substantially insufficient to pay fully for the cost of replacement of such buildings, or (iii) the Premises or the building shall be damaged as a result of a risk which is not covered by Landlord's insurance, Landlord may terminate this Lease by notice given within ninety (90) days after such event and upon the date specified in such notice, which shall be not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after the giving of said notice, this Lease shall terminate. If the Premises shall be damaged in whole or in part during the last two (2) years of the Term, then either Landlord or Tenant may terminate this Lease by notice given to the other within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of such damage, and upon the date specified in such notice, which shall not be less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after the giving of said notice, this Lease shall terminate. If the casualty, or Landlord's repair and restoration work shall render the Premises untenantable, in whole or in part, then, a proportionate credit against Rent (except Percentage Rent, Tax Rent and that portion of Common Area Rent attributable to the cost of insurance) shall be allowed from the date when the damage occurred until the earlier of (i) the day after Landlord has substantially completed the work required to repair and restore the Premises, as set forth in Subsection C of this Section, or (ii) the date Tenant shall have opened for business, or (iii) the date of termination by Landlord, in the event Landlord elects to terminate this Lease. Said proportion shall be computed on the basis of the ratio which the amount of Floor Space rendered untenantable bears to the total Floor Space. If there is a credit against Fixed Rent, in computing the "break even" for Percentage Rent purposes, the amount of Fixed Rent less such credit shall be applied, or if the "break even" is expressed herein as a fixed dollar amount, such amount shall be proratably reduced.

C. If this Lease shall not be terminated as provided in Subsection B hereof, Landlord shall, at its expense, repair or restore the Premises with reasonable diligence and dispatch, to the condition obtaining immediately prior to the casualty except that Landlord shall not be required to repair or restore any of Tenant's leasehold improvements or betterments, furniture, furnishings, finishes, decorations or any other installations made by Tenant. Upon the completion by Landlord of repair or restoration, Tenant shall prepare the Premises for occupancy by Tenant in the manner obtaining immediately prior to the damage or destruction in accordance with plans and specifications approved by Landlord. All work of restoration or repair by Tenant shall be subject to the provisions of Article 2.

D. The provisions of this Section 7.1 shall supersede and are in lieu of the provisions of any present or future statute or law to the contrary of the state in which the Shopping Center is located.

E. The "cost of replacement", as such term is used in Subsection B hereof, shall be determined by the company or companies insuring Landlord against the casualty in question, or if there shall be no insurance, then, by an independent engineer selected and paid for by Landlord.

Section 7.2. Eminent Domain.

A. If twenty-five (25%) percent or more of the Floor Space of the Premises shall be taken or condemned by any competent authority for any public or quasi-public use or purpose, either party may elect, by giving notice to the other not more than sixty (60 days) after the date on which title shall vest in such authority, to terminate this Lease, and, in either such event, the Term of this Lease shall cease and terminate as of the said date of title vesting. In case of any taking or condemnation, whether or not the Term of this Lease shall cease and terminate, the entire award shall be the property of Landlord and Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord all its right, title and interest in and to any such award. Tenant shall, however, be entitled to claim, prove and receive in the condemnation proceeding such awards as may be allowed for loss of lease, moving expense, fixtures and other equipment installed by it but only if such awards shall be made by the condemnation court in addition to the award made by it for the land and the building or part thereof so taken.

B. The current Rent (except Percentage Rent) in the case of any taking or condemnation, shall be apportioned as of the date of vesting of title and, if the Term of the Lease shall not have ceased and have been terminated as of said date, Tenant shall be entitled to a pro rata reduction in the Rent (except Percentage Rent) payable hereunder based on the proportion which the Floor Space of the space taken bears to the entire Floor Space of the Premises immediately prior to such taking.

C. If more than fifty (50%) percent of the Floor Space of the building, or if more than twenty-five (25%) percent of the total Floor Space in the Shopping Center shall be so taken or conveyed, or if so much of the parking facilities shall be so taken or conveyed that a reasonable number of parking spaces necessary, in Landlord's judgment, for the continued operation of the Shopping Center shall not be available for use by patrons of the Shopping Center, then, in, any such event, Landlord may, by notice in writing to Tenant delivered on or before the day of surrendering possession to the Governmental Authority, terminate this Lease, and Rent shall be paid or refunded as of the date of termination.

D. If this Lease is not terminated pursuant to the provisions of this Section 7.2, Landlord shall, at its expense, but only to the extent of an equitable proportion of the net award or other compensation (after deducting legal and all other fees in connection with obtaining said award) for the portion taken or conveyed, of the building of which the Premises are a part (excluding award for land) make such repairs or alterations as are in Landlord's reasonable judgment necessary to constitute the building a complete architectural and tenantable unit.

ARTICLE 8

Defaults and Remedies

Section 8.1. Bankruptcy, Insolvency.

A. If (i) Tenant or Guarantor shall become insolvent or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or (ii) if there shall be filed against or by Tenant or Guarantor in any court, pursuant to any statute either of the United States or of any state, a petition in bankruptcy or insolvency or for arrangement or reorganization or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee of all or portion of Tenant's or Guarantor's property and it is not discharged within thirty (30) days after filing; or (iii) in the case of a filing under Title 11 of the United States Code (the Federal Bankruptcy Act), if this Lease is not assumed within sixty (60) days after filing; then upon the occurrence of any of such foregoing events, this Lease shall, automatically and as a matter of law, be deemed to have been cancelled, terminated, expired and rejected in which event neither Tenant nor any Person claiming through or under Tenant by virtue of any statute or of an order of any court shall be entitled to acquire or remain in possession of the Premises, and Landlord shall have no further liability hereunder and Tenant or any such Person, if in possession, shall forthwith quit and surrender the Premises. If this Lease shall be so cancelled or terminated, Landlord, in addition to the other rights and remedies of Landlord by virtue of any other provision herein or elsewhere in this Lease contained or by virtue of any statute or rule of law, may retain and apply to damages incurred by Landlord, any Rent, Security Deposit or monies received by Landlord from Tenant or on behalf of Tenant.

B. In the event of the termination or rejection of this Lease pursuant to Subsection A hereof, Landlord shall be entitled to recover from Tenant an amount equal to the maximum allowed by any statute, law or rule of law in effect at the time when, and governing the proceeding in which, such damages are to be proved. If this Lease shall have been terminated pursuant to Section 8.2 or otherwise, prior to the occurrence of any of the events described in Subsection 8.1A above, then Landlord's rights under this Lease shall not be affected or prejudiced by this Section 8.1.

Section 8.2. Default.

A. If Tenant defaults in fulfilling any of the covenants or provisions of this Lease, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the covenants for the payment of Rent when due or any part thereof or for the making of any other payment herein provided or for the performance of any other covenant on Tenant's part to be performed hereunder, and such default shall continue for ten (10) days in the case of a default in the payment of Rent or other monies, after service by Landlord of written notice upon Tenant specifying the nature of said default, or, twenty (20) days as to any other default except that if a non-monetary default or omission shall be of such a nature that the same cannot be reasonably cured or remedied within said twenty (20) days, if Tenant shall not in good faith have commenced the curing or remedying of such default within such twenty-day period, and shall not thereafter diligently proceed therewith to completion, or if any levy, execution or attachment shall be issued against Tenant or any of Tenant's property at the Premises, or if the Premises become abandoned, vacant or deserted, or if Tenant shall default with respect to any other lease between Landlord (or any Affiliate of Landlord) and Tenant (or any Affiliate of Tenant), Landlord may serve upon Tenant a written notice that this Lease and the Term will terminate on a date to be specified therein, which shall be not less than five (5) days after the giving of such notice, and upon the date so specified, this Lease and the Term shall terminate and come to an end as fully and completely as if such date were the date herein definitely fixed for the end and expiration of this Lease and the Term, and Tenant shall then quit and surrender the Premises to Landlord, but Tenant shall remain liable as hereinafter set forth; provided, however, that if Tenant shall default (i) in the timely payment of any item of Rent or the timely reporting of Gross Sales as required by Section 3.3 hereof and any such default shall continue or be repeated for three (3) consecutive months or for a total of four (4) months in any period of twelve (12) months or (ii) in performance of any other particular convenant of this Lease more than four (4) times in any period of six (6) months, then, notwithstanding that such defaults shall have each been cured within the period after notice as above provided, any further similar default shall be deemed to be deliberate and Landlord thereafter may serve the said written five (5) days' notice of termination without affording to Tenant an opportunity to cure such further default.

B. If this Lease shall have been terminated pursuant to Section 8.1 or 8.2, or if Tenant has defaulted (beyond any opportunity to cure hereinabove set forth) in the payment of Rent or in observing any other term, condition or covenant, then, in any of such events, Landlord may institute summary proceedings, re-enter the Premises, dispossess Tenant and the legal representative of Tenant or other occupants of the Premises, and remove their effects and hold the Premises as if this Lease had not been made.

Section 8.3. Remedies of Landlord.

A. In case of any such default, re-entry, expiration and/or dispossess by summary proceedings or otherwise, (i) the Rent shall become due thereupon and be paid up to the time of such re-entry, dispossess and/or expiration; (ii) Landlord may relet the Premises or any part or parts thereof, either in the name of Landlord or otherwise, for a term which may at Landlord's option be less than or exceed the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term, and may grant commercially reasonable concessions including free rent; and (iii) Tenant or the legal representative of Tenant shall also pay Landlord, for the failure of Tenant to observe and perform Tenant's covenants herein contained, the maximum amount of damages recoverable or at Landlord's option, for each month of the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term, any deficiency between (x) the sum of (a) one (1) monthly installment of Fixed Rent, (b) one-twelfth (1/12) of the average annual Percentage Rent payable hereunder based upon the three (3) Lease Years immediately preceding (or the entire preceding portion of the Term if less than three

(3) Lease Years), (c) one twelfth (1/12) the Tax Rent that would have been payable for the year in question but for such re-entry or termination, (d) the current monthly Common Area Rent and (e) any other Rent or monies payable under this Lease, and (y) the net amount, if any, of the rents collected on account of the lease or leases of the Premises for each month of the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the Term. The failure of Landlord to relet the Premises or any part or parts thereof shall not release or affect Tenant's liability for damages. In computing damages there shall be included such commercially reasonable expenses as Landlord may incur in connection with reletting, such as court costs, attorneys' fees and disbursements, brokerage fees, other costs and expenses incurred by Landlord and for putting and keeping the Premises in good order or for preparing the same for reletting as hereinafter provided. Any such damages shall, at Landlord's option, be paid in monthly installments by Tenant on the rent day specified in this Lease and any suit brought to collect the amount of the deficiency for any month shall not prejudice in any way the rights of Landlord to collect the deficiency for any subsequent month by a similar proceeding or, at Landlord's option, in advance, discounted to the then present value. Landlord, at Landlord's option, may make such alterations, repairs, replacements and/or decorations in the Premises as Landlord in Landlord's reasonable judgment considers advisable and necessary for the purpose of reletting the Premises; and the making of such alterations and/or decorations shall not operate or be construed to release Tenant from liability hereunder as aforesaid. Provided that Landlord makes the same effort to relet the Premises as other space in the Shopping Center, Landlord shall in no event be liable in any way whatsoever for failure to relet the Premises, or in the event that the Premises are relet, for failure to collect the rent under such reletting. Landlord shall not, in reletting the Premises, be required to prefer the letting of the Premises over any other space in the Shopping Center. Landlord shall have in addition to any statutory or other liens or rights, if any, and not in lieu thereof, a lien on all fixtures, equipment and leasehold improvements located at the Premises.

B. In the event of a breach or threatened breach by Tenant of any of the covenants or provisions hereof, Landlord shall have the right of injunction and the right to invoke any remedy allowed at law or in equity as if re-entry, summary proceedings and other remedies were not herein provided for. Mention in this Lease of any particular remedy shall not preclude Landlord from any other remedy.

Section 8.4. Waiver of Trial by Jury: Tenant Not to Counter-Claim. It is mutually agreed by and between Landlord and Tenant that the respective parties hereto shall and they hereby do waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counter-claim or other claim brought by either of the parties hereto against the other on any matters not relating to negligently caused personal injury or property damage, but otherwise arising out of or in any way connected with this Lease, the relationship of Landlord and Tenant, Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises, and any emergency statutory or any other statutory remedy. Tenant further agrees that unless the failure to do so would constitute a waiver of its right to institute a separate action or proceeding against Landlord, it shall not interpose any within thirty (30) days. If Landlord shall sell the Shopping Center, or shall lease the Shopping Center, in either case subject to this Lease, or shall otherwise assign or dispose of this Lease, Landlord may assign and turn over the Security Deposit or any balance thereof to Landlord's grantee, lessee or assignee, and Tenant hereby releases and relieves Landlord from any and all liability for the return of said deposit and shall look solely to said grantee, lessee or assignee; it being expressly agreed that this provision shall apply to each and every sale, conveyance or lease of the Shopping Center or assignment or disposition of this Lease. Landlord shall not be required to place the Security Deposit in an interest-bearing account and said fund shall be returned to Tenant without interest.

Additional Provisions

Section 9.1. Notices from One Parry to the Other. Any notice or demand from Landlord to Tenant or from Tenant to Landlord shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly served if mailed by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed, if to Tenant, at the address of Tenant set forth herein, or to such other address as Tenant shall have last designated by notice in writing to Landlord, and if to Landlord, at the address of Landlord set forth herein or such other address as Landlord shall have designated by notice in writing to Tenant. Notice shall be deemed served when mailed.

Section 9.2. Brokerage. Tenant warrants that it has had no dealings with any broker or agent in connection with this Lease other than the Broker, if any, named elsewhere in this Lease and covenants to pay, hold harmless and indemnify Landlord from and against any and all costs, expense or liability for any compensation, commissions and charges claimed by the Broker or by any other broker or agent with respect to this Lease or the negotiation thereof with whom Tenant had dealings.

Section 9.3. Estoppel Certificates. Each of the parties agrees that it will, at any time and from time to time, within twenty (20) business days following written notice by the other party herein specifying that it is given pursuant to this Section, execute, acknowledge and deliver to the party who gave such notice a statement in writing certifying that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if there have been modifications, that the same is in full force and effect as modified and stating the modifications), and the dates to which the Rent and any other payments due hereunder from Tenant have been paid in advance, if any, and stating whether or not to the best knowledge of the signer of such certificate the other party is in default in performance of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Lease, and if so, specifying each such default of which the signer may have knowledge.

Section 9.4. Applicable Low and Construction. The laws of the state in which the Shopping Center is located shall govern the validity, performance and enforcement of this Lease. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Lease shall not affect or impair any other provision. All negotiations, considerations, representations and understandings between the parties are incorporated in this Lease. Landlord or Landlord's agents have made no representations or promises with respect to the Shopping Center or the Premises, except as herein expressly set forth. Tenant further understands that this Lease and every other lease agreement with every other tenant or occupant of the Shopping Center is negotiated on its own merits and Landlord does not make any representation as to the similarity of the terms of this Lease with any other such lease or agreement. The headings of the several articles and sections contained herein are for convenience only and do not define, limit or construe the contents of such articles or sections, it being understood that the so-called "Recital" constitutes part of the agreement between Landlord and Tenant. Whenever herein the singular number is used, the same shall include the plural, and the neuter gender shall include the masculine and feminine genders.

Section 9.5. Relationship of the Parties. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed or construed by the parties hereto, or any third party, as creating the relationship of principal and agent or partnership or joint venture between the parties hereto, it being understood and agreed that neither the method of computation of Rent nor any other provision contained herein, nor any acts of the parties hereto, shall be deemed to create any relationship between the parties hereto other than the relationship of landlord and tenant.

Section 9.6. Limitations on Liability. Landlord and Landlord's agents and employees shall not be liable for, and Tenant waives all claims for, loss or damage to Tenant's business or damage to any Person or property sustained by Tenant resulting from any accident or occurence (unless, subject, however, to the waiver of subrogation provision hereof, caused by or resulting from the negligence or willful acts of Landlord) in or upon the Premises or any other part of the Shopping Center, including, but not limited to, claims for damage resulting from: (i) any equipment or appurtenances becoming out of repair; (ii) injury done or occasioned by wind; (iii) any defect in or failure of plumbing, heating or air conditioning equipment, electric wiring or installation thereof, gas, water and steam pipes, stairs, porches, railings or walks; (iv) broken glass; (v) the backing up of any sewer pipe or downspout; (vi) the bursting, leaking or running of any tank, tub, washstand, water closet, waste pipe, drainor any other pipe or tank in, upon or about the building or the Premises; (vii) the escape of steam or hot water; (viii) water, snow, or ice being upon or coming through the roof, skylight, trapdoor, stairs, doorways, show windows, walks or any other place upon or near the building or the Premises or otherwise; (ix) the falling of any fixture, plaster, tile or stucco; and (x) any act, omission or negligence of other tenants, licensees or of any other Persons or occupants of the Shopping Center.

Section 9.7. Landlord's Entry Rights. Landlord or Landlord's agents shall have the right to enter upon the Premises at all reasonable times to examine same and to make such repairs, alterations, improvements or additions to the Premises or to the building as may be necessary, and Landlord shall be allowed to take all materials into and upon the Premises that may be required therefor without the same constituting an eviction of Tenant, in whole or in part, and the Rent shall in nowise abate while such repairs, alterations, improvements or additions are being made by reason of loss or interruption of the business of Tenant because of the prosecution of any such work. However, if as the result of the exercise by Landlord of its rights under this Section 9.7, there is created a substantial and material interference with Tenant's ability to conduct business in the Premises, and Tenant therefore closes for more than three (3) consecutive business days, Tenant shall be entitled to an abatement of Fixed Rent for each day after the third (3rd) business day during which the condition continues. Except in emergencies such entry shall be during business hours and on reasonable oral notice to the Person then in charge of the Premises for Tenant. Landlord shall use all reasonable efforts not to unreasonably interfere with or interrupt the conduct and operation of Tenant's business but in no event shall Landlord be required to incur any additional expenses for work to be done during hours or days other than regular business hours or days. Landlord or Landlord's agents shall also have the right to enter upon the Premises after notice as set forth above, at reasonable times to show them to prospective lessees or purchasers of the Shopping Center. During the one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the expiration of the Term, Landlord may show the Premises to prospective tenants. If, prior to the end of the Term, Tenant shall have removed all or substantially all of Tenant's property therefrom, Landlord may immediately enter, renovate and redecorate the Premises without elimination or abatement of Rent or the payment of other compensation to Tenant and such action shall have no effect upon this lease.

Section 9.8. Subordination.

A. This Lease is and all of Tenant's rights hereunder are subject and subordinate to (i) any ground or underlying (including operation) leases that now exist or may hereafter be placed on the Shopping Center or any part thereof, and (ii) any mortgages or deeds of trust that now exist or may hereafter be placed upon the Shopping Center or the interest under any ground or underlying leases and to any and all advances made thereunder and the interest thereon and to all renewals, replacements, amendments, modifications, consolidations and extensions of any of the foregoing. Tenant covenants and agrees that if any mortgagee of Landlord's interest in any underlying lease or any fee mortgagee succeeds to Landlord's interest under this Lease by foreclosure or otherwise, Tenant will, if requested, attorn to such mortgagee and will recognize such mortgagee as Tenant's landlord under this Lease. At the option of the landlord or any successor landlord thereunder, Tenant agrees that neither the cancellation nor termination of any ground or underlying lease to which this Lease is now or may hereafter become subject or subordinate, nor any foreclosure of a mortgage either affecting the fee title of the Premises or the ground or underlying lease, nor the institution of any suit, action, summary or other proceeding by the landlord or any successor landlord thereof, or any foreclosure proceeding brought by the holders of any such mortgage to recover possession of the leased property, shall by operation of law or otherwise result in the cancellation or termination of this Lease or the obligations of Tenant hereunder, and Tenant covenants and agrees to attorn to the landlord or to any successor to Landlord's interest in the Premises. Tenant shall execute and deliver in recordable form, whatever instruments may be required to acknowledge or further effectuate the provisions of this Subsection, and in the event Tenant fails to do so within twenty (20) days after demand in writing, such failure shall be deemed a material default hereunder. Any mortgagee or trustee under any such mortgage or deed of trust or the lessor under any such ground or underlying lease may elect that this Lease shall have priority over its mortgage, deed of trust or lease and upon notification of such election by such mortgagee, trustee or lessor to Tenant, this Lease shall be deemed to have priority over said mortgage, deed of trust or ground or underlying lease whether this Lease is dated prior to or subsequent to the date of said mortgage, deed of trust or lease. If the holder of any mortgage, deed of trust or security agreement shall forward to Tenant written notice of the existence of such lien or lease, then Tenant shall, so long as such lien or lease continues, give to such lienholder or lessor the same notice and opportunity to correct any default as is required to be given to Landlord under this Lease but such notice of default may be given to Landlord and such lienholder or lessor concurrently.

B. If so requested by Tenant, Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to obtain non-disturbance and attornment agreements from any ground or underlying lessors or present or future mortgagees of Landlord's interest in the Premises, which efforts shall consist only of Landlord's making a written request for such agreements on behalf of Tenant. Tenant shall cooperate in all respects with Landlord's efforts, shall provide any information reasonably required by such mortgagees or lessors and shall pay such fees or expenses as may be requested by such parties in connection with such agreements. Landlord shall not be required to institute any legal action or proceeding in order to obtain said agreements. The foregoing shall not be deemed a condition to the effectiveness or continuing effectiveness of this Lease.

Section 9.9. Construction on Adjacent Premises or Buildings. If any construction, excavation or other building operation shall be about to be made or shall be made on any premises adjoining or above or below the Premises or on any other portion of the building or the Shopping Center, Tenant shall permit Landlord, or the adjoining owner, and their respective agents, employees, licensees and contractors, to enter the Premises and to strengthen, add to or shore the foundations, walls, columns or supporting members thereof, and to erect scaffolding and/or protective barricades around and about the Premises (but not so as to preclude entry thereto) and to do any act or thing necessary for the safety or preservation of the Premises. Except as may be expressly set forth to the contrary in this Section 9.9, Tenant's obligations under this Lease shall not be affected by any of the foregoing or any such construction or excavation work, shoring-up, scaffolding or barricading. Landlord shall not be liable in any such case for any inconvenience, disturbance, loss of business or any other annoyance arising from any such construction, excavation, shoring-up, scaffolding or barricades, but Landlord shall use its best efforts so that such work will cause as little inconvenience, annoyance and disturbance to Tenant as possible, consistent with accepted construction practice in the vicinity, and so that such work shall be expeditiously completed. It is understood by Tenant that shopping centers are at times expanded or reconfigured by the addition of new or reconfigured buildings, improvements or structures (including multi-level, decked or subsurface parking structures) and if the foregoing occurs, Landlord shall have the right of access to enter upon the Premises to perform construction work and shall use its reasonable efforts to complete all construction in the Premises as promptly as possible (considering the nature and extent of the construction and subject to prudent construction practices). Landlord shall have the right to require Tenant to temporarily curtail its business or to temporarily close the Premises if necessary in connection with the construction work. Accordingly, (i) if Landlord requires Tenant to temporarily suspend business or to temporarily close the Premises because of any such changes or (ii) if Tenant's use and occupancy of the Premises or Tenant's access to the covered mall in front of the Premises is materially, adversely interfered with and Tenant temporarily closes for business, Tenant shall receive an abatement of Rent (except Percentage Rent) on a per diem basis for the number of days for which Tenant is required to close. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall have no right to seek damages or to cancel and terminate this Lease because of the proposed expansion, nor shall Tenant have the right to restrict, inhibit or prohibit said expansion.

Section 9.10. Mall Expansion.

A. In the event Landlord shall add additional buildings to the Shopping Center or expand or reconfigure any of the buildings currently contained therein, Landlord shall have the right to relocate Tenant's operation to other premises (the "New Premises") in another part of the Shopping Center in accordance with the following provisions: the New Premises shall be substantially the same in size and configuration as the Premises described in this Lease and, to the extent reasonably possible, shall be located in an area having, in Landlord's reasonable judgment, comparable pedestrian traffic. Landlord shall deliver the New Premises to Tenant in a state substantially similar to the state then existing at the Premises described in this Lease, exclusive of trade fixtures and equipment, furnishings, decorations and other items of personal property. The cost of removing Tenant's trade fixtures and equipment, inventory and items of personal property from the Premises herein demised and installing them in the New Premises shall be borne by Landlord. Landlord shall give Tenant at least one hundred twenty (120) days' notice of Landlord's intention to relocate Tenant's operation to the New Premises. To the extent determined by Landlord to be practicable, Tenant's Work in the New Premises shall be prosecuted while Tenant is open for business in the Premises herein demised and the physical move shall take place during non-business hours, if reasonably possible, or during such other period as shall be mutually agreed upon by Landlord and Tenant. Rent (except Percentage Rent) shall abate for any period during which Tenant's operation shall be closed to the public as a result of the relocation and there shall be excluded from the computation set forth in Subsection 3.3A of this Lease the amount of Fixed Rent which would otherwise be payable for such period. The incidental costs incurred by Tenant as a result of the relocation, including, without limitation, costs incurred in changing addresses on stationery, business cards, directories, advertising and other such items, shall be paid by Landlord, in a sum not to exceed $1,500.00. Landlord shall not have the right to relocate Tenant's operation more than once during the Term. If the New Premises are smaller or larger than the Premises described in this Lease, Fixed Rent shall be adjusted to a sum computed by multiplying the Fixed Rent specified in Article I, by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the total number of square feet of Floor Space in the New Premises and the denominator of which shall be the total number of square feet of Floor Space in the Premises described in this Lease. All other charges based upon Floor Space shall likewise be adjusted proportionately. The parties shall immediately execute an amendment to this Lease stating the relocation of Tenant to the New Premises and the modifications hereinabove required.

B. In the event Landlord shall not exercise the aforedescribed right to relocate Tenant's operation, then provided that as of the date Landlord substantially completes the addition, expansion and/or reconfiguration, not less than three (3) nor more than seven (7) years shall remain in the Term, Landlord shall have the right to require Tenant, at Tenant's sole expense, to construct a new storefront, in accordance with plans and specifications approved by Landlord. If Landlord shall elect to exercise said right, Tenant's construction work shall be completed not later than ninety (90) days following notice from Landlord that the addition, expansion and/or reconfiguration has been substantially completed.

C. In the event the New Premises described in Landlord's relocation notice are unacceptable to Tenant, Tenant shall have the right, as its sole and only remedy, exerciseable by written notice to Landlord given within thirty (30) days following receipt of Landlord's relocation notice, to terminate this Lease, such termination to be effective as of the proposed relocation date set forth in Landlord's notice. Failure by Tenant to timely exercise such right shall be deemed a waiver with respect thereto and confirmation that the New Premises are acceptable to Tenant. Such termination shall be Tenant's sole and only remedy in the event of Tenant's refusal to accept relocation to the New Premises, it being understood that should Tenant refuse for any reason to relocate, but fail to terminate this Lease in accordance with the foregoing, this Lease shall nevertheless expire on the date set forth in Landlord's relocation notice.

Section 9.11. Short Form Lease. Tenant agrees not to record this Lease. Either party shall, at the request of the other, execute, acknowledge and deliver, at any time after the date of this Lease, a memorandum or notice of lease prepared by the requesting party, but the provisions of this Lease shall control the rights and obligations of the parties.

Section 9.12. Binding Effect of Lease. The covenants, agreements and obligations herein contained, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, shall extend to, bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective personal representatives, heirs, successors and permitted assigns. In particular the provisions of Subsection F of Section 6.2 shall bind the executors, administrators or other personal representatives of Tenant, if an individual. or its successors, if Tenant is a corporation or partnership. Each covenant, agreement, obligation or other provisions herein contained shall be deemed and construed as a separate and independent covenant of the party bound by, undertaking or making the same, not dependent on any other provision of this Lease unless otherwise expressly provided.

Section 9.13. Effect of Unavoidable Delays. The provisions of this Section shall be applicable if there shall occur, during the Term, or prior to the commencement thereof, any (i) strike(s), lockout(s) or labor dispute(s); (ii) inability to obtain labor or materials, or reasonable substitutes therefor; or (iii) acts of God, governmental restrictions, regulations or controls, enemy or hostile governmental action, civil commotion, fire or other casualty, or other conditions similar or dissimilar to those enumerated in this item (iii) beyond the reasonable control of the party obligated to perform. If Landlord or Tenant shall, as the result of any of the above-described events, fail punctually to perform any obligation on its part to be performed under this Lease, then such failure shall be excused and not be a breach of this Lease by the party in question, but only to the extent occasioned by such event. If any right or option of either party to take any action under or with respect to this Lease is conditioned upon the same being exercised within any prescribed period of time and such named date, then such prescribed period of time and such named date shall be deemed to be extended or delayed, as the case may be, for a period equal to the period of the delay occasioned by any above-described event. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the provisions of this Section shall not be applicable to or in determining the date of commencement of or the continuance of Tenant's obligation to pay Rent or its obligations to pay any other sums, moneys, costs, charges or expenses required to be paid by Tenant hereunder.

Section 9.14. No Oral Changes. Neither this Lease nor any provision hereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated orally, but only by an instrument in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of the change, waiver, discharge or termination is sought.

Section 9.15. Executed Counterparts of Lease. This Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts and each of such counterparts shall for all purposes be deemed to be an original; and all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same Lease.

Section 9.16. Landlord's Liability.

A. In the event of sale or transfer of all or any portion of the Shopping Center or any undivided interest therein, or in the event of the making of a lease of all or substantially all of the Shopping Center, or in the event of a sale or transfer of the leasehold estate under any such lease, the grantor, transferor or lessor, as the case may be, shall thereafter be entirely relieved of all terms, covenants and obligations thereafter to be performed by Landlord under this Lease to the extent of the interest or portion so sold, transferred or leased, provided that (i) any amount then due and payable to Tenant or for which Landlord or the then grantor, transferor or lessor would otherwise then be liable to pay to Tenant (it being understood that the owner of an undivided interest in the fee or any such lease shall be liable only for his or its proportionate share of such amount) shall be paid to Tenant; (ii) the interest of the grantor, transferor or lessor, as Landlord, in any funds then in the bands of Landlord or the then grantor, transferor or lessor in which Tenant has an interest, shall be turned over, subject to such interest, to the then grantee, transferee or lessee; (iii) notice of such sale, transfer or lease shall be delivered to Tenant and (iv) the grantee, transferee or lessee shall assume in writing all of Landlord's obligations under this Lease accruing from the date of the transaction.

B. Tenant agrees that it shall look solely to the estate and property of Landlord in the land and buildings comprising the Shopping Center and the income therefrom (subject to prior rights of the holder of any mortgage or deed of trust on any part of the Shopping Center) for the collection of any judgment (or other judicial process) requiring the payment of money by Landlord in the event of any default or breach by Landlord with respect to any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease to be observed or performed by Landlord; and no other assets of Landlord, its members or shareholders shall be subject to levy, execution or other procedures for the satisfaction of Tenant's remedies.

C. Corporate Property Investors is the designation of the Trustees under a Declaration of Trust, as amended and restated, on file with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and neither the shareholders nor the Trustees, officers, employees or agents of the Trust created thereby, nor any of their personal assets, shall be liable hereunder and, subject to Subsection 9.16B above, all persons dealing with the Trust shall look solely to the Trust estate for the payment of any claims hereunder or for the performance hereof.

Section 9.17. Managing Agent. Landlord has advised Tenant that it has appointed Pembrook Management, Inc. as managing agent of the Shopping Center (said managing agent and any successor or substitute managing agent is hereinafter referred to as Managing Agent). Tenant shall, until otherwise notified by Landlord, direct all payments of Rent required to be made pursuant to this Lease to the Managing Agent payable to the Landlord.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Landlord and Tenant have hereunto executed this Lease as of the day and year first above written.

RIDERS TO LEASE AGREEMENT dated AUG 27 1997, by and between BELLWETHER PROPERTIES OF MASSACHUSETTS, LIMITED PARTNERSHIP as Landlord, and THE LIMITED STORES, INC., d/b/a "The Limited", as Tenant, for Store No. 1101 & 1102 at Burlington Ma1l, Burlington, MA

- ---

In the event of any inconsistences between this Rider and the printed form of this Lease, the Riders shall be deemed to control.

Rider #1 - amending Recital

Tenant's Work Period shall commence upon receipt of written notice from Landlord granting Tenant possession of the Premises; however, Tenant shall not be required to accept possession prior to August 11, 1997.

Rider #2 - amending Article 1 - Size of Premises

Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that the Fixed Rent set forth on page 1-1 and all Additional Rent has been calculated assuming that the Premises shall consist of 5,250 square feet of Floor Space. As soon as practicable after the Commencement Date, the parties shall cause the Premises to be measured and the Floor Space of the Premises to be determined in accordance with the definition thereof set forth in Article 1. In the event the Floor Space of the Premises varies from 5,250 square feet, the Fixed Rent shall be adjusted on the basis of $45.00 per square foot per year for each of the first (1st) sixty (60) full months plus the initial partial month, if any, at the beginning of the Term; and $50.00 per square foot per year for the remainder of the Term. The Merchants' Association Dues set forth on page 1-1, the payment pursuant to Rider #44 E and all Additional Rent based on the Size of the Premises shall also be adjusted to reflect such variance. Landlord and Tenant shall execute, acknowledge and deliver a supplemental agreement specifying the adjusted annual Fixed Rent, Merchants' Association Dues, and payment pursuant to Rider #44 E.

Rider #3 - amending Article 1 - Term

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, if the Term of this Lease is scheduled to end on a day other than the 31st of January, the Term of this Lease is hereby automatically extended from such termination to the following January 31st.

Rider #4 - amending Article 1 - Lease Year

(A) Delete the definition of Lease Year in its entirety and insert the following in place thereof:

"For the purposes of Percentage Rent only, the period of twelve (12) consecutive months from January 1 to December 31 of each year during the Term. If the date Tenant opens for business does not coincide with the beginning of a Lease Year, then Percentage Rent for that portion of a Lease Year from the date Tenant opens for business to the December 31 next ensuing (the "initial partial Lease Year") shall be calculated as follows: The aggregate Gross Sales from the date Tenant opens for business to the expiration of the three hundred and sixty-fifth (365th) day thereafter shall be determined and then multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days in the initial partial Lease Year, and the denominator of which is 365. The product of said multiplication shall be deemed Tenant's Gross Sales for the initial partial Lease Year, and Tenant shall pay for such initial partial Lease Year the amount by which five (5%) percent of the Gross Sales attributed to such period shall exceed the Fixed Rent payable for such period. If the expiration date of the Term does not coincide with the end of a Lease Year, then Percentage Rent for that portion of a Lease Year from the January 1st immediately preceding the expiration of the Term to the expiration date of the Term (the "final partial Lease Year") shall be the amount by which five (5%) percent of the Gross Sales for the final partial Lease Year shall exceed the Fixed Rent payable for such period. The foregoing notwithstanding, the parties understand that the Tern of this Lease shall be measured from the Commencement Date and each twelve (12) month anniversary thereof."

(B) Delete each occurrence of "January 1" and insert "February 1".

(C) Delete each occurrence of "December 31" and insert "January 31".

Rider #5 - amending Article 1 - Shopping Center

Line 6, delete "or related".

Rider #6 - amending Section 2.1

(A) Provided that the area thereof does not count for purposes of computing floor area ratios with respect to any Governmental Requirements or automobile parking requirements with respect to any Governmental Requirements or under any agreement with a Department Store, Tenant has the right, subject to Landlord's approval of plans and specifications (not to be unreasonably withheld) to install, use and maintain a double-decked stock grid system in the stock area of the Premises; such system shall not be construed for any purpose as a mezzanine or additional leased or leasable area.

(C) Page 2-1, line 18, delete "design" and substitute the following in place thereof: "the installation of Tenant's Work".

(E) (i) All construction, improvements, additions, property and fixtures required by Tenant to occupy the Premises, except for Tenant's point-of-sale equipment, security systems, free-standing display racks and goods held for sale to the public (the "Leasehold Improvements"), shall at all times be the sole property of Landlord, and Tenant shall have absolutely no ownership interest in the Leasehold Improvements. Any funds designated in this Lease as a construction contribution, either by way of a cash payment, Rent reduction, Rent credit, Rent abatement or the like, shall be paid or credited by Landlord to Tenant as set forth in this Lease and shall be used exclusively toward the design and construction of the Leasehold Improvements located in the Premises. It is the intention of Landlord and Tenant that the Leasehold Improvements shall constitute "leasehold improvements" within the meaning of Section 168(i) (8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(ii) It is understood and agreed that Landlord has, pursuant to other provisions of this Lease, certain rights to approve plans and specifications for the initial installation of the Leasehold Improvements. Landlord acknowledges and agrees that Landlord's approval of the plans and specifications indicates that the Leasehold Improvements, upon installation in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, are acceptable to Landlord.

(i) finance or service or layaway charges if separately stated but not credit card fees or discounts which shall be included;

(F) It is understood that Tenant's records shall contain data to support exclusions from Gross Sales.

Rider #13 - amending Section 3.3 C

(A) Provided the Tenant in possession is the Tenant named on the Recital Page or any of its Affiliates, this Section is deleted in its entirety and the following inserted in place thereof:

"C. Tenant shall utilize, and cause to be utilized, cash registers equipped with sealed continuous totals or such other devices for recording sales as Landlord shall approve to record all sales, and Tenant shall keep at it principal office in the continental United States and, make available at such office for at least twenty-four (24) months after expiration of each Lease Year full, true and accurate books of account and records conforming to generally accepted accounting principles showing all of the Gross Sales transacted at, in, on, about or from the Premises for such Lease Year, including all tax reports and returns, sales check, sales books, computer tapes and printouts and any other records normally maintained by Tenant and other supporting data. Landlord shall have the right, from time to time, to make test audits of Gross Sales. Within twenty (20) days after the end of each calendar month, or portion thereof, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord a statement signed and verified by Tenant (or by an authorized employee if Tenant be a corporation) of the Gross Sales transacted during such month or portion thereof; and within sixty (60) days after the end of each Lease Year and within sixty (60) days after the end of the Lease Term, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord a statement, hereinafter called the annual statement, certified to Landlord by an independent certified public accountant, of Gross Sales transacted during the preceding Lease Year included in the Term. The certification by said certified public accountant shall expressly state that the Gross Sales shown on said statement conform with and are computed in compliance with the definition thereof contained in Section 3.3 B hereof. In the event the Tenant in possession is the Tenant named on Page 1 or an Affiliate of the Guarantor (if any), the annual statement of Gross Sales may be certified by a financial officer of the Tenant, however, it is agreed that in the event Gross Sales for any Lease Year are misstated by more than 5% then Gross Sales shall thereafter be certified by an independent certified public accountant Landlord shall have the right, from time to time, by its accountants or representatives, to audit Tenant's Gross Sales and, in connection with such audits, to examine all of Tenant's records (including tax returns, an actual inventory of Tenant's stock in trade and all supporting data and any other records from which Gross Sales may be tested or determined) of Gross Sales disclosed in any statement given to Landlord by Tenant and Tenant shall make all such records readily available at Tenant's main office, for such examination. If any such audit discloses that the Gross Sales transacted by Tenant exceed those reported, Tenant shall forthwith pay to Landlord such additional Percentage Rent as may be so shown to be payable and, if the Gross Sales exceed the Gross Sales reported by Tenant by more than three percent (3%), or if Tenant's records or systems do not comply with the requirements of this Section, Tenant shall also then pay the reasonable cost of such audit and examination, including travel, food and lodging, and related expenses of Landlord's auditors, in the event the audit or any part thereof is conducted more than fifty (50) miles from the Shopping Center. In the event Tenant has understated Gross Sales by eight percent (8%) or more Landlord may, in addition to any other remedies, cancel and terminate this Lease but Tenant shall remain liable hereunder as set forth in Article 8. Any information obtained by Landlord pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall be treated as confidential, except in any litigation or arbitration proceedings between the parties and, except further, that Landlord may disclose such' information to prospective buyers, to prospective or existing lenders, in any registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission or other similar body or in compliance with subpoenas and judicial orders. In no event shall this Section be deemed to limit Landlord's rights of pre-trial discovery and disclosure in any action or proceeding."

(B) Landlord hereby approves the Tenant's use of a point of sale data system at the Premises.

(C) It is understood that Landlord's audit requests and audits shall be at reasonable times during business hours and upon ten (10) days prior written notice to Tenant.

(D) It is understood that Landlord shall only be permitted to review non-consolidated tax returns or other records and in no event shall Landlord be permitted to audit records of Tenant's other stores, however, it is understood that this provision is not intended to limit Landlord's rights of discovery and inspection in any litigation which may ensue between Landlord and Tenant. Tenant shall keep separate books and records of Gross Sales for the Premises.

(E) It is understood that audits shall take place at Tenant's corporate headquarters provided they are located within the continental United States.

(F) Any overpayment of Percentage Rent disclosed by an audit shall be promptly refunded to Tenant.

Landlord shall have the right to require Tenant to temporarily curtail its business or to close the Premises if necessary in connection with the construction work. Accordingly, (i) if Landlord requires Tenant to temporarily suspend business or to close the Premises because of any such changes or (ii) if Tenant's use and occupancy of the Premises or Tenant's access to the covered mall in front of the Premises is materially, adversely and unreasonably interfered with, and Tenant temporarily closes for business, Tenant shall receive an abatement of Rent on a per diem basis for the number of days for which Tenant is required to close. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall have no right to seek damages or to cancel and terminate this Lease because of the proposed expansion nor shall Tenant have the right to restrict, inhibit or prohibit said expansion."

(B) Unless the reason for the entry is to satisfy any emergency condition Landlord shall give prior notice to Tenant of its intention to enter the Premises pursuant to this Section. Such notice may be given to the employee in charge of the Premises, either orally or in writing. Tenant shall be responsible for any damages which may arise by reason of failure to perform access to the. Premises.

(C) Landlord shall give Tenant reasonable prior notice before entering the Premises to perform construction work.

(D) Landlord shall not require Tenant to close the Premises between November 1 and December 31 of any given Lease Year during the Term of this Lease.

(F) Landlord shall at its sole cost and expense restore the Premises to its original condition, prior to Landlord's exercise of its rights hereunder.

Rider #71 - amending Section 9.10

This Section is hereunder deleted in its entirety and the following shall be substituted in lieu thereof:

Landlord shall have the right to relocate Tenant's operation to other premises (the "New Premises") in another part of the Shopping Center in accordance with the following:

(B) The New Premises shall be substantially the same in size, approximate frontage on the enclosed mall, and configuration as the Premises described in this Lease. In addition, the New Premises shall be located on a main enclosed mall of the Shopping Center in an area comparable in location to the present location on the enclosed mall of the original Premises described herein. It is understood that unless the Premises are presently in such a location, the New Premises shall not be in an area within fifty (50) lineal feet (50') of a Department Store or located in a mall area without a Department Store as an anchor.

(C) Landlord shall deliver the New Premises to Tenant and Tenant shall construct therein a new store substantially similar to the stores Tenant ii then constructing in other similar enclosed mall locations. Upon completion of Tenant's construction, Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for the full cost of Tenant's Work (in an amount not to exceed the original cost of Tenant's improvements constructed in the original Premises herein demised), exclusive of trade fixtures and equipment, furnishings, decorations and other items of personal property. It shall be a condition precedent to Tenant's right to receive such sum for the New Premises that Tenant shall', not later than sixty (60) days following the completion of Tenant's Work, deliver an affidavit of an officer of Tenant and a certificate of Tenant's architect accompanied by a list of invoices and expenses specifying the cost of Tenant's leasehold improvements, which shall thereupon be a basis for the amount to be paid by Landlord pursuant to this provision.

(D) The cost of moving Tenant's trade fixtures and equipment, inventory and items of personal property into the New Premises shall be borne by Landlord.

(E) Landlord shall give Tenant at least on hundred eighty (180) days' prior notice of Landlord's intention to relocate Tenant's operation to the New Premises.

(F) The physical move shall take place during non-business hours if reasonably possible or during such other period as shall be mutually agreed upon by Landlord and Tenant.

(G) Fixed Rent and all other rents and charges payable hereunder shall abate for any period during which Tenant's operation shall be closed to the public as a result of the relocation.

In addition, subject to Unavoidable Delays, Tenant shall not in any event by required to cease its operations in the Premises herein demised for a period of greater than ninety (90) days prior to Tenant's opening for business in the New Premises.

(I) The incidental costs, incurred by Tenant as a result of the relocation, including, without limitation, costs incurred in changing addresses on stationery, business cards, directories, advertising and other such items, shall be paid by Landlord,' in a sum not to exceed One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00).

(J) Landlord shall not have the right to relocate Tenant's operation more than once during the Term.

(K) If the New Premises are smaller or larger than the Premises described in this Lease, Fixed Rent shall be adjusted to a sum computed by multiplying the Fixed Rent specified in Article 1, by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the total number of square feet of Floor Space in the New Premises and denominator of which shall be the total number of square feet of Floor Space in the Premises described in this Lease. In the event a specific annual minimum sales base for purposes of paying Percentage Rent is set forth herein, then in the event of an adjustment of Fixed Rent, the annual minimum sales base shall be proportionately adjusted. All other charged based upon Floor Space shall likewise be proportionately adjusted. The parties shall immediately execute an amendment to this Lease stating the relocation of Tenant to the New Premises and the modifications hereinabove required.

(L) It is understood that Landlord's right to relocate pursuant to this Section is a significant inducement of Landlord to enter into this Lease and further, in the event of any dispute arising out of or relating to this Rider, Tenant shall, nevertheless, be required to vacate and surrender the Premises as of the date set forth in Landlord's notice reserving, however, the right to seek damages through arbitration based upon the contention to the effect that Landlord did not comply with this Rider.

(M) Tenant shall have the right, by notice to Landlord served not later than ninety (90) days after the service of Landlord's notice. of intention to relocate to cancel and terminate this Lease as of the date set forth in Landlord's notice and if Tenant alleges that Landlord has failed to comply with the provisions herein with regard to whether the New Premises proposed by Landlord is "comparable" to the location of the Premises herein demised, the parties hereto agree that Tenant's sole and only remedy shall be to institute the arbitration proceeding described below alleging failure to comply with the provisions of this Rider. Failure by Tenant to timely reject the proposed New Premises shall be deemed an acceptance thereof and a waiver by Tenant of any right to seek damages or other remedies.

(N) Tenant shall have the right to dispute the comparability of the New Premises relative to the existing Premises by final and binding arbitration before a panel of three neutral arbitrators who shall be acknowledged experts in the shopping center industry. Notice of intent to arbitrate shall be given within the ninety (90) day period following Landlord's notice of its intention to relocate Tenant and the parties shall prosecute the arbitration proceeding with diligence and dispatch. The arbitrators shall consider only whether or not the New Premises is substantially the same in size, approximate frontage on the enclosed mall, and configuration as the Premises described in this Lease and whether the New Premises is in an area comparable in location to the Premises described in this Lease considering visibility, traffic flow, market segment and such other factors as the arbitrators' customarily use to aid them in making their decision. The fees and expenses of the American Arbitration Association, the fees and expenses of conducting the arbitration shall be borne equally by the parties except that the arbitrators shall have the right as part of their award to assess all or any part of the above against either of the parties. The arbitration shall be conducted under rules and regulations of the American Arbitration Association and the hearings shall take place in the county or city where the Shopping Center is located.

(0) Despite the existence of any dispute between Landlord and Tenant, Tenant shall cease operations within the Premises herein demised one-hundred and eighty (180) days following the initial relocation notification to Tenant and Landlord may repossess the Premises for its own purposes.

(P) If the arbitration panel by a majority vote decides that Landlord has not offered Tenant a comparable location of substantially the same size and character as the Premises described in this Lease, the Tenant shall be entitled to damages equal to the present value of Tenant's lost pre-tax profits from the date Tenant was required to cease operations in the Premises until the, end of the Term of this Lease calculated in the manner described below and discounted at the interest rate then in effect for 1O year U.S. Treasury Bills. Landlord agrees that in the event Tenant prevails in such proceeding that Tenant shall be entitled to the foregoing described damages as agreed final and liquidated damages. Tenant's lost profits for the remaining Term of this Lease shall be calculated by taking the average annual pre-tax profits from Tenant's operation at the Premises for the Tenant's previous three (3) full fiscal years (or if the period of Tenant's occupancy has not yet continued for three (3) full fiscal years, then the average annual profits from the Commencement Date to the date of Landlord's initial relocation notice shall be determined) and multiplying the average annual profit by a fraction the numerator of which shall be the number of months for which lost profits are to .be paid and the denominator of which shall be twelve (12). Tenant's profits shall be calculated using the generally accepted accounting procedures that are consistent with those used in all other stores operated by Tenant."

Landlord may. at its option and its own cost and expense, construct and operate a system (hereinafter referred to as the Central System) for the production and/or distribution to the Premises of electricity. gas, heat and cooling agents o and/or domestic hot and cold water (hereinafter referred to collectively as Services). In such event. Tenant shall, upon notice from Landlord, discontinue use of any other means of obtaining those Services. Exhibit 10.28

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT

REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT, dated as of August __, 1998 (the "Agreement"), by and among Simon Property Group, Inc. (the "Company") and the persons set forth on Schedule A (the "Rights Holders"). The Rights Holders and their respective successors-in-interest and permitted assigns are hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Holders."

Upon execution of the Sixth Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership (the "Partnership Agreement") of Simon Property, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the "Operating Partnership"), dated as of the date hereof, among the Company, SPG Properties, Inc., SD Property Group, Inc. and its limited partners (the "Limited Partners"), the Limited Partners have the right at any time to exchange all or any portion of their units of partnership interest ("Units") in the Operating Partnership for shares ("Shares") of the Company's common stock, par value $.0001 per share (the "Common Stock"), or cash, at the election of the Company, and, except as provided herein, any Shares issued upon such exchange will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

Upon execution of this Agreement and upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. (the predecessor to SPG Properties, Inc.), Corporate Property Investors, Inc. (the predecessor to the Company) and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., the Company has agreed to provide certain registration rights with respect to the Shares held by certain former stockholders of Corporate Property Investors, Inc.

In consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein and for good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Securities Subject to this Agreement. The securities entitled to the benefits of this Agreement are (a) the Shares issued by the Company to the Holders, (b) the Shares issued by the Company to the Holders upon conversion of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.0001 per share ("Series A Preferred Stock"), of the Company, and (c) the Shares issued by the Company to the Holders upon exchange of the Units pursuant to the Partnership Agreement (collectively, the "Registrable Securities") but, with respect to any particular Registrable Security, only so long as it continues to be a Registrable Security. Registrable Securities shall include any securities issued as a dividend or distribution on account of Registrable Securities or resulting from a subdivision of the outstanding shares of Registrable Securities into a greater number of shares (by reclassification, stock split or otherwise). For the purposes of this Agreement, a security that was at one time a Registrable Security shall cease to be a Registrable Security when (a) such security has been effectively registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), other than pursuant to Section 4 of this Agreement, and either (i) the registration statement with respect thereto has remained continuously effective for 150 days or (ii) such security has been disposed of pursuant to such registration statement, (b) such security is sold to the public in reliance on Rule 144 (or any similar provision then in force) under the Securities Act, (c) such security has been otherwise transferred, [except in connection with the exercise of the EJDC Option (as defined in the Partnership Agreement), and (i) the Company has delivered a new certificate or other evidence of ownership not bearing the legend set forth on the Shares upon the initial issuance thereof (or other legend of similar import) and (ii) in the opinion of counsel to the Company reasonably acceptable to the Holders and addressed to the Company and the holder of such security, the subsequent disposition of such security shall not require the registration or qualification under the Securities Act, or (d) such security has ceased to be outstanding.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any Limited Partner may exercise any of its rights hereunder prior to its receipt of Shares, provided that such Holder, simultaneously with the delivery of any notice requesting registration hereunder, shall deliver an Exercise Notice to the Company requesting (i) exchange of Units exchangeable into such number of Shares as such Limited Partner has requested to be registered, or (ii) conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock into such number of Shares as such Holder has requested to be registered. Any such Exercise Notice so delivered shall be (a) conditioned on the effectiveness of the requested registration in connection with which it was delivered and (b) deemed to cover only such number of Units as are exchangeable into the number of Shares actually sold pursuant to the requested registration. Any Shares to be issued in connection with any such Exercise Notice shall be issued upon the closing of the requested registration. In the event that the Company elects to issue all cash in lieu of Shares upon the exchange of the Units covered by any such Exercise Notice, the registration requested by the Limited Partner that delivered such Exercise Notice, if a Demand Registration, shall not constitute a Demand Registration under Section 2.1 hereof.

Nothing contained herein shall create any obligation on the part of the Company to issue Shares, rather than cash, upon the exchange of any Units.

2. Demand Registration.

2.1. Request for Registration. At any time, each Holder (or, with respect to each Holder that is a member of the DeBartolo Group, the DeBartolo Representative) may make a written request per 12-month period (specifying the intended method of disposition) for registration under the Securities Act (each, a "Demand Registration") of all or part of such Holder's Registrable Securities (but such part, together with the number of securities requested by other Holders to be included in such Demand Registration pursuant to this Section 2.1, shall have an estimated market value at the time of such request (based upon the then market price of a share of Common Stock of the Company) of at least $10,000,000). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required to file any registration statement on behalf of any Holder within six months after the effective date of any earlier registration statement so long as the Holder requesting the Demand Registration was given a notice offering it the opportunity to sell Registrable Securities under the earlier registration statement and such Holder did not request that, all of its Registrable Securities be included; provided, however, that if a Holder requested that all of its Registrable Securities be included in the earlier registration statement but not all were so included through no fault of the Holder, such Holder may, but shall not be obligated to, require the Company to file another registration statement pursuant to a Demand Registration (subject, in the event of a Demand Registration for less than all such remaining Registrable Securities, to the same $10,000,000 limitation set forth above) exercised by such Holder within six months of the effective date of such earlier registration statement. Within ten days after receipt of a request for a Demand Registration, the Company shall give written notice (the "Notice") of such request to all other Holders and shall include in such registration all Registrable Securities that the Company has received written requests for inclusion therein within 15 days after the Notice is given (the "Requested Securities"). Thereafter, the Company may elect to include in such registration additional shares of Common Stock to be issued by the Company. In such event for purposes only of Section 2.3 (other than the first sentence thereof) and not for purposes of any other provision or Section hereof (including, without limitation, Section 3), (a) such shares to be issued by the Company in connection with a Demand Registration shall be deemed to be Registrable Securities and (b) the Company shall be deemed to be a Holder thereof. All requests made pursuant to this Section 2.1 shall specify the aggregate number of Registrable Securities to be registered.

2.2. Effective Registration and Expenses. A registration shall not constitute a Demand Registration under Section 2.1 hereof until it has become effective. In any registration initiated as a Demand Registration, the Company shall pay all Registration Expenses (as defined in Section 8) incurred in connection therewith, whether or not such Demand Registration becomes effective, unless such Demand Registration fails to become effective as a result of the fault of one or more Holders other than the Company, in which case the Company will not be required to pay the Registration Expenses incurred with respect to the offering of such Holder or Holders' Registrable Securities. The Registration Expenses incurred with respect to the offering of such Holder or Holders' Registrable Securities shall be the product of (a) the aggregate amount of all Registration Expenses incurred in connection with such registration and (b) the ratio that the number of such Registrable Securities bears to the total number of Registrable Securities included in the registration.

2.3. Priority on Demand Registrations. The Holder making the Demand Registration may elect whether the offering of such Registrable Securities pursuant to such Demand Registration shall be in the form of a firm commitment underwritten offering or otherwise; provided, however, that such Holder may not elect that such offering be made on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act. In any case in which an offering is in the form of a firm commitment underwritten offering, if the managing underwriter or underwriters of such offering advise the Company in writing that in its or their opinion the number of Registrable Securities proposed to be sold in such offering exceeds the number of Registrable Securities that can be sold in such offering without adversely affecting the market for the Company's common stock, the Company will include in such registration the number of Registrable Securities that in the opinion of such managing underwriter or underwriters can be sold without adversely affecting the market for the Company's common stock. In such event, the number of Registrable Securities, if any, to be offered for the accounts of Holders (including the Holder making the Demand Registration) shall be reduced pro rata on the basis of the relative number of any Registrable Securities requested by each such Holder to be included in such registration to the extent necessary to reduce the total number of Registrable Securities to be included in such offering to the number recommended by such managing underwriter or underwriters. In the event the Holder making the Demand shall receive notice pursuant to this Section 2.3 that the amount of Registrable Securities to be offered for the account of such Holder shall be reduced, such Holder shall be entitled to withdraw the Demand by written notice to the Company within seven (7) days after receipt of such notice, with the effect that such Demand shall be deemed not to have been made.

2.4. Selection of Underwriters. If any of the Registrable Securities covered by a Demand Registration are to be sold in an underwritten offering, the Holders, in the aggregate, that own or will own a majority of the Registrable Securities that the Company has been requested to register (including the Requested Securities but excluding any securities to be issued by the Company), shall have the right to select the investment banker or investment bankers and manager or managers that will underwrite the offering; provided, however, that such investment bankers and managers must be reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

3. Piggyback Registration. Whenever the Company proposes to file a registration statement under the Securities Act with respect to an underwritten public offering of Common Stock by the Company for its own account or for the account of any stockholders of the Company (other than a registration statement filed pursuant to either Section 2 or 4 hereof), the Company shall give written notice (the "Offering Notice") of such proposed filing to each of the Holders at least 30 days before the anticipated filing date. Such Offering Notice shall offer all such Holders the opportunity to register such number of Registrable Securities as each such Holder may request in writing, which request for registration (each, a "Piggyback Registration") must be received by the Company within 15 days after the Offering Notice is given. The Company shall use all reasonable efforts to cause the managing underwriter or underwriters of a proposed underwritten offering, if any, to permit the holders of the Registrable Securities requested to be included in the registration for such offering to include such Registrable Securities in such offering on the same terms and conditions as the common stock of the Company or, if such offering is for the account of other stockholders, the common stock of such stockholders included therein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the managing underwriter or underwriters of a proposed underwritten offering advise the Company in writing that in its or their opinion the number of Registrable Securities proposed to be sold in such offering exceeds the number of Registrable Securities that can be sold in such offering without adversely affecting the market for the Common Stock, the Company will include in such registration the number of Registrable Securities that in the opinion of such managing underwriter or underwriters can be sold without adversely affecting the market for the Common Stock. In such event, the number of Registrable Securities, if any, to be offered for the accounts of Holders shall be reduced pro rata on the basis of the relative number of. any Registrable Securities requested by each such Holder to be included in such registration to the extent necessary to reduce the total number of Registrable Securities to be included in such offering to the number recommended by such managing underwriter or underwriters. The Company shall pay all Registration Expenses incurred in connection with any Piggyback Registration.

4. Shelf Registration. Following the Effective Time, the Company shall use reasonable efforts to qualify for registration on Form S-3 for secondary sales. The Company agrees that, upon the request of any Holder, the Company shall promptly after receipt of such request notify each other Holder of receipt of such request and shall cause to be filed on or as soon as practicable thereafter, but not sooner than 35 days after the receipt of such notice from such Holder, a registration statement (a "Shelf Registration Statement") on Form S-1, Form S-3 or any. other appropriate form under the Securities Act for an offering to be made on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 thereunder or any similar rule that may be adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") and permitting sales in any manner not involving an underwritten public offering (and shall register or qualify the shares to be sold in such offering under such other securities or "blue sky" laws as would be required pursuant to Section 7(g) hereof) covering up to the aggregate number of (a) Shares to be issued to such Holder and all other Holders who request that the shares to be issued to them upon the exchange of Units held by them be included in the shelf registration statement upon the exchange of Units so that the Shares issuable upon the exchange of such Units will be registered pursuant to the Securities Act and (b) the Shares to be issued to them upon the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock held by them be included in the shelf registration statement upon the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock so that the Shares issuable upon the conversion will be registered pursuant to the Securities Act, and (c) Registrable Securities held by such Holders. The Company shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the Shelf Registration Statement to be declared effective by the Commission within three months after the filing thereof. The Company shall use its reasonable efforts to keep the Shelf Registration Statement continuously effective (and to register or qualify the shares to be sold in such offering under such other securities or "blue sky" laws as would be required pursuant to Section 7(g) hereof) for so long as any Holder holds any Shares, Units that may be exchanged for Shares under the Partnership Agreement or Series A Preferred Stock that may be converted into Shares or until the Company, has caused to be delivered to each Holder an opinion of counsel, which counsel must be reasonably acceptable to such Holders, stating that such Shares or Shares issued upon such exchange or conversion may be sold by the Holders pursuant to Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act without regard to any volume limitations and that the Company has satisfied the informational requirements of Rule 144. The Company shall file any necessary listing applications or amendments to existing applications to cause the Shares issuable upon exchange of Units or conversion of Series A Preferred Stock to be listed on the primary exchange on which the Common Stock is then listed, if any. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company determines that it is necessary to amend or supplement such Shelf Registration Statement and if the Company shall furnish to the Holders a certificate signed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company stating that in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors of the Company it would be significantly disadvantageous to the Company and its stockholders for any such Shelf Registration Statement to be amended or supplemented, the Company may defer such amending or supplementing of such Shelf Registration Statement for not more than 45 days and in such event the Holders shall be required to discontinue disposition of any Registrable Securities covered by such Shelf Registration Statement during such period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company irrevocably elects prior to the filing of any Shelf Registration Statement to issue all cash in lieu of Shares upon the exchange of Units by the Holder requesting the filing of such Shelf Registration Statement, the Company shall not be obligated to file such Shelf Registration Statement.

5. Rights of Other Stockholders. The Company shall not grant any person, for so long as any securities convertible into or exchangeable for Registrable Securities are outstanding, any rights to have their securities included in any registration statement to be filed by the Company if such rights are greater than the rights of the Holders granted herein without extending such greater rights to the Holders. Subject to the penultimate sentence of Section 2.3 and the last sentence of Section 3, to the extent the securities of such other stockholders are entitled to be included in any such registration statement and the managing underwriter or underwriters believe that the number of securities proposed to be sold in such offering exceeds the number of securities that can be sold in such offering without adversely affecting the market for the Company's common stock, the number of securities to be offered for the accounts of such other stockholders shall be reduced to zero before the number of securities to be offered for the accounts of the Holders is reduced.

6. Holdback Agreements.

6.1. Restrictions on Public Sale by Holders of Registrable Securities. Each Holder (a) participating in an underwritten offering covered by any Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration or (b) in the event the Company is issuing shares of its capital stock to the public in an underwritten offering, agrees, if requested by the managing underwriter or underwriters for such underwritten offering, not to effect (except as part of such underwritten offering or pursuant to Article XII of the Partnership Agreement) any public sale or distribution of Registrable Securities or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such Registrable Securities, including a sale pursuant to Rule 144 (or any similar provision then in force) under the Securities Act, during the period (a "Lock-Out Period") commencing 14 days prior to and ending no more than 90 days subsequent to the date (an "Execution "Date") specified in the Lock-Out Notice (as defined below) as the anticipated date of the execution and delivery of the underwriting agreement (or, if later, a pricing or terms agreement signed pursuant to such underwriting agreement) to be entered into in connection with such Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration or other underwritten offering. The Execution Date shall be no fewer than 21 days subsequent to the date of delivery of written notice (a "Lock-Out Notice") by the Company to each Holder of the anticipated execution of an underwriting agreement (or pricing or terms agreement), and the Execution Date shall be specified in the Lock-Out Notice. The Company may not deliver a Lock-Out Notice unless it is making a good faith effort to effect the offering with respect to which such Lock-Out Notice has been delivered. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may not (a) establish Lock-Out Periods in effect for more than 208 days in the aggregate within any of the consecutive fifteen-month periods commencing on August 7, 1997 and (b) cause any Lock-Out Period to commence (i) during the 45-day period immediately following the expiration of any Lock-Out Period, such 45-day period to be extended by one day for each day of delay pursuant to Section 7(a); provided, however, that in no event shall such extension exceed 90 days; provided, further, however, that such 90-day limit on extensions shall terminate on December 31, 1998; or (ii) if the Company shall have been requested to file a Registration Statement pursuant to Section 2 during such 45-day period (as extended), until the earlier of (x) the date on which all Registrable Securities thereunder shall have been sold and (y) 45 days after the effective date of such Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Lock-Out Period may be shortened at the Company's sole discretion by written notice to the Holders, and the applicable Lock-Out Period shall be deemed to have ended on the date such notice is received by the Holders. For the purposes of this Section 6.1, a Lock-Out Period shall be deemed to not have occurred, and a Lock-Out Notice shall be deemed to not have been delivered, if, within 30 days of the delivery of a Lock-Out Notice, the Company delivers a written notice (the "Revocation Notice") to the Holders stating that the offering (the "Aborted Offering") with respect to which such Lock-Out Notice was delivered has not been, or shall not be, consummated; provided, however, that any Lock-Out Period that the Company causes to commence within 45 days of the delivery of such Revocation Notice shall be reduced by the number of days pursuant to which the Holders were subject to restrictions on transfer pursuant to this Section 6.1 with respect to such Aborted Offering.

6.2. Restrictions on Public Sale by the Company. If, but only if, the managing underwriter or underwriters for any underwritten offering of Registrable Securities made pursuant to a Demand Registration so request, the Company agrees not to effect any public sale or distribution of any of its securities similar to those being registered, or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for such securities (except pursuant to registrations on Form S-4 or S-8 or any successor or similar forms thereto) during the 14 days prior to, and during the 180-day period beginning on, the effective date of such Demand Registration.

7. Registration Procedures. Whenever the Holders have requested that any Registrable Securities be registered pursuant to Section 2 or 3, the Company shall use its reasonable efforts to effect the registration of Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method of disposition thereof as expeditiously as practicable, and in connection with any such request, the Company shall as expeditiously as possible:

(a) in connection with a request pursuant to Section 2, prepare and file with the Commission, not later than 40 days (or such longer period as may be required in order for the Company to comply with the provisions of Regulation S-X under the Securities Act) after receipt of a request to file a registration statement with respect to Registrable Securities, a registration statement on any form if or which the Company then qualifies or which counsel for the Company shall deem appropriate and which form shall be available for the sale of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended method of distribution thereof and, if the offering is an underwritten offering, shall be reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriter or underwriters, and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective; provided, however, that if the Company shall within five (5) Business Days after receipt of such request furnish to the Holders making such a request a certificate signed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company stating that in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors of the Company it would be significantly disadvantageous to the Company and its stockholders for such a registration statement to be filed on or before the date filing would be required, the Company shall have an additional period of not more than 45 days within which to file such registration statement (provided that only one such notice may be given during any 12 month period); and provided, further, that before filing a registration statement or prospectus or any amendments or supplements thereto, the Company shall (a) furnish to the counsel selected by the Holder making the demand, or if no demand, then, by the Holders, in the aggregate, that own or will own a majority of the Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement, copies of all such documents proposed to be filed, which documents will be subject to the review of such counsel, and (b) notify each seller or prospective seller of Registrable Securities of any stop order issued or threatened by the Commission or withdrawal of any state qualification and take all reasonable actions required to prevent such withdrawal or the entry of such stop order or to remove it if entered;

(b) in connection with a registration pursuant to Section 2, prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective for a period of not less than 150 days (or such shorter period that will terminate when all Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement have been sold, but not before the expiration of the applicable period referred to in Section 4(3) of the Securities Act and Rule 174 thereunder, if applicable), and comply with the provisions of the Securities Act applicable to it with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement during such period in accordance with the intended method of disposition by the sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement;

(c) notify each seller of Registrable Securities and the managing underwriter, if any, promptly, and (if requested by any such Person) confirm such advice in writing,

(i) when the prospectus or any supplement thereto or amendment or post-effective amendment to the registration statement has been filed, and, with respect to the registration statement or any post-effective amendment, when the same has become effective,

(ii) of any request by the Commission for amendments or post-effective amendments to the registration statement or supplements to the prospectus or for additional information,

(iii) of the issuance by the Commission of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement or the initiation or threatening of any proceedings for that purpose,

(iv) if at any time during the distribution of securities by the managing underwriter the representations and warranties of the Company to be contained in the underwriting agreement cease to be true and correct in all material respects, and

(v) of the receipt by the Company of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the Registrable Securities for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose;

(d) use its reasonable efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement or any state qualification or any order preventing or suspending the use of any preliminary prospectus, and use its reasonable efforts to obtain the withdrawal of any order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement or any state qualification or of any order preventing or suspending the use of any preliminary prospectus at the earliest possible moment;

(e) if requested by the managing underwriter or a seller of Registrable Securities, promptly incorporate in a prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment to the registration statement such information as the managing underwriter or a seller of Registrable Securities reasonably request to have included therein relating to the plan of distribution with respect to the Registrable Securities, including, without limitation, information with respect to the amount of Registrable Securities being sold to such underwriters, the purchase price being paid therefor by such underwriters and with respect to any other terms of the underwritten offering of the Registrable Securities to be sold in such offering; and make all required filings of such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment promptly after being notified of the matters to be incorporated in such prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment;

(f) furnish to each seller of Registrable Securities and the managing underwriter one signed copy of the registration statement and each amendment thereto as filed with the Commission, and such number of copies of such registration statement, each amendment (including post-effective amendments) and supplement thereto (in each case including all documents incorporated by reference and all exhibits thereto whether or not incorporated by reference), the prospectus included in such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus) and such other documents as each seller may reasonably request in order to facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by such seller;

(g) use reasonable efforts to register or qualify such Registrable Securities under such other securities or "blue sky" laws of such jurisdictions as any seller or underwriter reasonably requests in writing and to do any and all other acts and things that may be reasonably necessary or advisable to register or qualify for sale in such jurisdictions the Registrable Securities owned by such seller; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to (a) qualify generally to do business in any jurisdiction where it is not then so qualified, (b) subject itself to taxation in any such jurisdiction, (c) consent to general service of process in any such jurisdiction or (d) provide any undertaking required by such other securities or "blue sky" laws or make any change in its charter or bylaws that the Board of Directors determines in good faith to be contrary to the best interest of the Company and its stockholders;

(h) use reasonable efforts to cause the Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be necessary by virtue of the business and operations of the Company to enable the seller or sellers thereof or the underwriters, if any, to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Securities;

(i) notify each seller of such Registrable Securities at any time when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act of the happening of any event as a result of which the prospectus included in such registration statement contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and prepare and file with the Commission a supplement or amendment to such prospectus so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such Registrable Securities, such prospectus will not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(j) enter into customary agreements (including an underwriting agreement in customary form, if the offering is an underwritten offering) and take such other actions as are reasonably required in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of such Registrable Securities and in such connection:

(i) make such representations and warranties to the underwriters in form, substance and scope, reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriter, as are customarily made by issuers to underwriters in primary underwritten offerings on the form of registration statement used in such offering;

(ii) obtain opinions and updates thereof of counsel, which counsel and opinions to the Company (in form, scope and substance) shall be reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriter, addressed to the managing underwriter, covering the matters customarily covered in opinions requested in primary underwritten offerings on the form of registration statement used in such offering and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the managing underwriter;

(iii) obtain so-called "cold comfort" letters and updates thereof from the Company's independent public accountants addressed to the managing underwriter in customary form and covering matters of the type customarily covered in "cold comfort" letters to underwriters in connection with primary underwritten offerings and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by the managing underwriter;

(iv) cause the underwriting agreements to set forth in full the indemnification provisions and procedures of Section 9 (or such other substantially similar provisions and procedures as the managing underwriter shall reasonably request) with respect to all parties to be indemnified pursuant to said Section; and

(v) deliver such documents and certificates as may be reasonably requested by the Participating Holder or Holders to evidence compliance with the provisions of this Section 7(j) and with any customary conditions contained in the underwriting agreement or other agreement entered into by the Company.

The above shall be done at the effectiveness of such registration statement (when consistent with customary industry practice), each closing under any underwriting or similar agreement as and to the extent required thereunder and from time to time as may reasonably be requested by the sellers of Registrable Securities, all in a manner consistent with customary industry practice.

(k) make available for inspection by any seller of Registrable Securities, any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to such registration statement, the counsel referred to in clause (a) of Section 7(a) and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such seller or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company (collectively, the "Records") as shall be reasonably necessary to enable them to exercise their due diligence responsibility, and cause the Company's officers, directors, employees and agents to supply all information reasonably requested by any such Inspector in connection with such registration statement. Records that the Company determines, in good faith, to be confidential and that it notifies the Inspectors are confidential shall not be disclosed by the Inspectors unless (a) the disclosure of such Records is, in the reasonable judgment of any Inspector, necessary to avoid or correct a misstatement or omission of a material fact in the registration statement or (b) the release of such Records is ordered pursuant to a subpoena or other order from a court or governmental agency of competent jurisdiction or required (in the written opinion of counsel to such seller or underwriter, which counsel shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company) pursuant to applicable state or federal law. Each seller of Registrable Securities agrees that it will, upon learning that disclosure of such Records are sought by a court or governmental agency, give notice to the Company and allow the Company, at the Company's expense, to undertake appropriate action to prevent disclosure of the Records deemed confidential;

(l) if such sale is pursuant to an under-written offering, use reasonable efforts to obtain a "cold comfort" letter and updates thereof from the Company's independent public accountants in customary form and covering such matters of the type customarily covered by "cold comfort" letters as the holders, in the aggregate, of a majority of the Registrable securities being sold and the managing underwriter or underwriters reasonably request;

(m) otherwise use reasonable efforts to comply with the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission and all applicable state securities and real estate syndication laws, and make generally available to its security holders, as soon as reasonably practicable, an earnings statement covering a period of 12 months, beginning within three months after the effective date of the registration statement, which earnings statement shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act;

(n) use reasonable efforts to cause a1 Registrable Securities covered by the registration statement to be listed on each securities exchange, if any, on which similar securities issued by the Company are then listed, provided that the applicable listing requirements are satisfied;

(o) cooperate with the sellers of Registrable Securities and the managing underwriter to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing Registrable Securities to be sold and not bearing any restrictive legends; and enable such Registrable Securities to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the managing underwriter may reasonably request at least 2 business days prior to any sale of Registrable Securities to the underwriters;

(p) cooperate and assist in any filings required to be made with the NASD and in the performance of any due diligence investigation by any underwriter;

(q) prior to the filing of any document which is to be incorporated by reference into the registration statement or the prospectus (after the initial filing of the registration statement) provide copies of such document to the sellers of Registrable Securities, the underwriters and their respective counsel, make the Company representatives available for discussion of such document with such persons and, to the extent changes may be made to such document without the consent of a third party (other than the Company's accountants or any affiliate of the Company), make such changes in such document prior to the filing thereof as any such persons may reasonably request to the extent and only to the extent that such changes relate to a description of a DeBartolo Group Holder or the Plan or Distribution being effected by a DeBartolo Group Holder; and

(r) participate, if so requested, in a "road show" in connection with the sale of the Registrable Securities but only to the extent reasonably requested by the managing underwriter, if such sale is pursuant to an underwritten offering.

The Company may require each seller or prospective seller of Registrable Securities as to which any registration is being effected to furnish to the Company such information regarding the distribution of such securities and other matters as may be required to be included in the registration statement.

Each holder of Registrable Securities agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from the Company of the happening of any event of the kind described in Paragraph (i) of this Section 7, such holder shall forthwith discontinue disposition of Registrable Securities pursuant to the registration statement covering such Registrable Securities until such holder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by Paragraph (i) of this Section 7, and, if so directed by the Company, such holder shall deliver to the Company (at the Company's expense) all copies, other than permanent file copies then in such holder's possession, of the prospectus covering such Registrable Securities current at the time of receipt of such notice. If the Company shall give any such notice, the Company shall extend the period during which such registration statement shall be maintained effective pursuant to this Agreement (including the period referred to in Paragraph (b) of this Section 7) by the number of days during the period from and including the date of the giving of such notice pursuant to Paragraph (i) of this Section 7 to and including the date when each seller of Registrable Securities covered by such registration statement shall have received the copies of the supplemented or amended prospectus contemplated by Paragraph (i) of this Section 7.

The Company shall keep the sellers of Registrable Securities to be offered in a given registration advised of the status of any registration in which they are participating. In addition, the Company and each such seller of Registrable Securities may enter into understandings in writing whereby such seller of Registrable Securities will agree in advance as to the acceptability of the price or range of prices per share at which the Registrable Securities included in such registration are to be offered to the public. Furthermore, the Company shall establish pricing notification procedures reasonably acceptable to each such seller of Registrable Securities and shall, as promptly as practicable after learning the same from the managing underwriter, use reasonable efforts to give oral notice to each such seller of Registrable Securities of the anticipated date on which the Company expects to receive a notification from the managing underwriter (and any changes in such anticipated date) of the price per share at which the Registrable Securities included in such registration are to be offered to the public.

8. Registration Expenses. The Company shall pay all expenses incident to its performance of or compliance with this Agreement, including, without limitation, (a) all Commission, stock exchange and National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. registration, filing and listing fees, (b) all fees and expenses incurred in complying with securities or "blue sky" laws (including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel in connection with "blue sky" qualifications of the Registrable Securities), (c) all printing, messenger and delivery expenses, (d) all fees and disbursements of the Company's independent public accountants and counsel and (e) all fees and expenses of any special experts retained by the Company in connection with any Demand Registration or Piggyback Registration pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, regardless of whether such registration becomes effective; provided, however, that the Company shall not pay the costs and expenses of any Holder relating to underwriters' commissions and discounts relating to Registrable Securities to be sold by such Holder (but such costs and expenses shall be paid by the Holders on a pro rata basis), brokerage fees, transfer taxes, or the fees or expenses of any counsel, accountants or other representatives retained by the Holders, individually or in the aggregate. All of the expenses described in this Section 8 that are to be paid by the Company are herein called "Registration Expenses."

9. Indemnification; Contribution.

9.1. Indemnification by the Company. The Company agrees to indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by law, each Holder and each secured creditor referred to in Section 12.4(c) (ii) hereof (a "Secured Creditor"), each of their respective officers, directors, agents, advisors, employees and trustees, and each person, if any, who controls such Holder or Secured Creditor (within the meaning of the Securities Act), against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and expenses caused by any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in any registration statement, prospectus or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a prospectus, in light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, except insofar as the same are caused by or contained in any information with respect to such Holder or Secured Creditor furnished in writing to the Company by such Holder or Secured Creditor expressly for use therein or by such Holder's or Secured Creditor's failure to deliver a copy of the prospectus or any supplements thereto after the Company has furnished such Holder or Secured Creditor with a sufficient number of copies of the same or by the delivery of prospectuses by such Holder or Secured Creditor after the Company notified such Holder or Secured Creditor in writing to discontinue delivery of prospectuses. The Company also shall indemnify any underwriters of the Registrable Securities, their officers and directors and each person who controls such underwriters (within the meaning of the Securities Act) to the same extent as provided above with respect to the indemnification of the Holders.

9.2. Indemnification by Holders. In connection with any registration statement in which a Holder is participating, each such Holder shall furnish to the Company in writing such information and affidavits with respect to such Holder as the Company reasonably requests for use in connection with any such registration statement or prospectus and agrees to indemnify, severally and not jointly, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers, directors and agents and each person, if any, who controls the Company (within the meaning of the Securities Act) against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and expenses resulting from any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated in any registration statement, prospectus or preliminary prospectus or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a prospectus, in light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue or alleged untrue statement or omission is contained in or omitted from, as the case may be, any information or affidavit with respect to such Holder so furnished in writing by such Holder specifically for use in the Registration Statement. Each Holder also shall indemnify any underwriters of the Registrable Securities, their officers and directors and each person who controls such underwriters (within the meaning of the Securities Act) to the same extent as provided above with respect to the indemnification of the Company.

9.3. Conduct of Indemnification Proceedings. Any party that proposes to assert the right to be indemnified under this Section 9 shall, promptly after receipt of notice of commencement of any action against such party in respect of which a claim is to be made against an indemnifying party or parties under this Section 9, notify each such indemnifying party of the commencement of such action, enclosing a copy of all papers served, but the omission so to notify such indemnifying party will not relieve it from any liability that it may have to any indemnified party under the foregoing provisions of this Section 9 unless, and only to the extent that, such omission results in the forfeiture of substantive rights or defenses by the indemnifying party. If any such action is brought against any indemnified party and it notifies the indemnifying party of its commencement, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate in and, to the extent that it elects by delivering written notice to the indemnified party promptly after receiving notice of the commencement of the action from the indemnified party, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified, to assume the defense of the action, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party, and after notice from the indemnifying party to the indemnified party of its election to assume the defense, the indemnifying party will not be liable to the indemnified party for any legal or other expenses except as provided below and except for the reasonable costs of investigation subsequently incurred by the indemnified party in connection with the defense. If the indemnifying party assumes the defense, the indemnifying party shall have the right to settle such action without the consent of the indemnified party; provided, however, that the indemnifying party shall be required to obtain such consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) if the settlement includes any admission of wrongdoing on the part of the indemnified party or any decree or restriction on the indemnified party or its officers or directors; provided, further, that no indemnifying party, in the defense of any such action, shall, except with the consent of the indemnified party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such indemnified party of a release from all liability with respect to such action. The indemnified party will have the right to employ its own counsel in any such action, but the fees, expenses and other charges of such counsel will be at the expense of such indemnified party unless (a) the employment of counsel by the indemnified party has been authorized in writing by the indemnifying party, (b) the indemnified party has reasonably concluded (based on advice of counsel) that there may be legal defenses available to it or other indemnified parties that are different from or in addition to those available in the indemnifying party, (c) a conflict or potential conflict exists (based on advice of counsel to the indemnified party) between the indemnified party and the indemnifying party (in which case the indemnifying party will not have the right to direct the defense of such action on behalf of the indemnified party) or (d) the indemnifying party has not in fact employed counsel to assume the defense of such action within a reasonable time after receiving notice of the commencement of the action, in each of which cases the reasonable fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel will be at the expense of the indemnifying party or parties. It is understood that the indemnifying party or parties shall not, in connection with any proceeding or related proceedings in the same jurisdiction, be liable for the reasonable fees, disbursements and other charges of more than one separate firm admitted to practice in such jurisdiction at any one time from all such indemnified party or parties unless (a) the employment of more than one counsel has been authorized in writing by the indemnifying party or parties, (b) an indemnified party has reasonably concluded (based on advice of counsel) that there may be legal defenses available to it that are different from or in addition to those available to the other indemnified parties or (c) a conflict or potential conflict exists (based on advice of counsel to an indemnified party) between such indemnified party and the other indemnified parties, in each of which cases the indemnifying party shall be obligated to pay the, reasonable fees and expenses of such additional counsel or counsels. An indemnifying party will not be liable for any settlement of any action or claim effected without its written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld).

9.4. Contribution. If the indemnification provided for in this Section 9 from the indemnifying party is unavailable to an indemnified party hereunder in respect of any losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses referred to herein, then the indemnifying party, to the extent such indemnification is unavailable, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party, shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party and indemnified parties in connection with the actions that resulted in such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses. The relative fault of such indemnifying party and indemnified parties shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether any action in question, including any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact, has been made by, or relates to information supplied by, such indemnifying party or indemnified parties, and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such action. The amount paid or payable by a party as a result of the losses, claims, damages, liabilities and expenses referred to above shall be deemed to include, subject to the limitations set forth in Section 9.3, any legal or other fees or expenses reasonably incurred by such party in connection with any investigation or proceeding.

The parties hereto agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section 9.4 were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation that does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to in the immediately preceding paragraph. No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any person.

If indemnification is available under this Section 9, the indemnifying parties shall indemnify each indemnified party to the full extent provided in Section 9.1 and 9.2 without regard to the relative fault of said indemnifying parties or indemnified party.

10. Participation in Underwritten Registrations. No person may participate in any underwritten registration hereunder unless such person (i) agrees to sell such person's securities on the basis provided in any underwriting agreements approved by the persons entitled hereunder to approve such arrangements and (ii) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents reasonably required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements.

11. Rule 144. The Company covenants that it shall use its reasonable efforts to file the reports required to be filed by it under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder if and when the Company becomes obligated to file such reports (or, if the Company ceases to be required to file such reports, it shall, upon the request of any Holder, make publicly available other information), and it shall, if feasible, take such further action as any Holder may reasonably request, all to the extent required from time to time to enable such Holder to sell Registrable Securities without registration under the Securities Act within the limitation of the exemptions provided by (i) Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as such Rule may be amended from time to time or (ii) any similar rules or regulations hereafter adopted by the Commission. Upon the written request of any Holder, the Company shall deliver to such Holder a written statement as to whether it has complied with such requirements.

12. Miscellaneous.

12.1. Remedies. Each Holder, in addition to being entitled to exercise all rights granted by law, including recovery of damages, will be entitled to specific performance of its rights under this Agreement. The Company agrees that monetary damages would not be adequate compensation for any loss incurred by reason of a breach by it of the provisions of this Agreement and hereby agrees to waive the defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate.

12.2. Amendments and Waivers. Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of this Agreement may not be amended, modified or supplemented, and waivers or consents to departures from the provisions hereof may not be given unless the Company has obtained the written consent of all Holders.

12.3. Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be delivered personally, or sent by certified or registered or express mail, postage prepaid. Any such notice shall be deemed given when so delivered personally, or, if mailed, five days (or, in the case of express mail, one day) after the date of deposit in the United States mail, as follows:

12.4. Successors and Assigns.

(a) This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Holders and their respective successors and assigns and the successors and assigns of the Company; provided, however, that, except as otherwise provided in Sections 12.4(b) and (c) hereof, no Holder may assign its rights hereunder to any person who is not a permitted transferee of such Holder pursuant to the terms of the Partnership Agreement; provided further, that, except as otherwise provided in Section 12.4(b) or (c) hereof, no Holder may assign its rights hereunder to any person who does not acquire all or substantially all of such Holder's Registrable Securities or Units, as the case may be, or, (i) in the case of the Simon Family Entities, to any person who does not acquire at least $10,000,000 worth of the Simon Family Entities' Registrable Securities or Units and (ii) in the case of the DeBartolo Group to any person who does not acquire at least $10,000,000 worth of DeBartolo Group's Registrable Securities or Units.

(b) Affiliates. It is understood that JCP Realty, Inc. ("JCP") and Brandywine Realty, Inc. ("Brandywine") are affiliates and that under the terms of the Partnership Agreement, Limited Partners have the right to assign their partnership interests, in whole or in part, to their affiliates. The JCP Rights may be exercised by the Assignee after the Assignee has become a substitute Limited Partner of the Operating Partnership and only if the Assignee provides the Company at the time it exercises the JCP Rights with such indemnification and certifications as are reasonably satisfactory to the Company in form and substance as to its authorization to exercise such JCP Rights. It is further expressly understood and agreed that (i) the Company shall not be required in any way to determine the validity or sufficiency, whether in form, or in substance, of any certification from the Assignee that it is authorized to exercise the JCP Rights so transferred to it, (ii) the Company shall have no liability to such Holder for acting in accordance with any such certification and (iii) except as set forth above in this paragraph, no further indemnification to the Company shall be required pursuant to this Section 12.4(c).

(b) To the extent the Partnership does not borrow all of the Required Funds (and whether or not the Partnership is able to borrow all or part of the Required Funds), the Managing General Partner or any of the Non-Managing General Partners (or an Affiliate thereof) (i) may itself borrow such Required Funds, in which case the Managing General Partner or such Non-Managing General Partner shall lend such Required Funds to the Partnership

Any Required Funds raised from the sale of Preferred Shares shall either be contributed to the Partnership as Contributed Funds or loaned to the Partnership pursuant to Section 4.3(c) below. In the event the Managing General Partner or a Non-Managing General Partner advances Required Funds to the Partnership pursuant to this Section 4.3(b) as Contributed Funds, then the Partnership shall assume and pay (or reflect on its books as additional Contributed Funds) the expenses (including any applicable underwriting discounts) incurred by the Managing General Partner or a Non-Managing General Partner (or such Affiliate) in connection with raising such Required Funds through a public offering of its securities or otherwise. If the Managing General Partner advances Required Funds to the Partnership as Contributed Funds pursuant to this Section 4.3(b) from any offering or sale of Shares (including, without limitation, any issuance of Shares pursuant to the exercise of options, warrants, convertible securities or similar rights to acquire Shares), the Partnership shall issue additional Partnership Units to the Managing General Partner to reflect its contribution of the Contributed Funds equal in number to such number of Shares issued in such offering or sale.

(c) In the event any General Partner contributes to the Partnership any Required Funds obtained from the sale of Preferred Shares ("Preferred Contributed Funds"), then the Partnership shall assume and pay the expenses (including any applicable underwriter discounts) incurred by the Managing General Partner in connection with raising such Required Funds. In addition, the Managing General Partner shall be issued Preferred Units of a designated class or series to reflect its contribution of such funds. Each class or series of Preferred Units so issued shall be designated by the Managing General Partner to identify such class or series with the class or series of Preferred Shares which constitutes the Related Issue. Each class or series of Preferred Units shall be described in a written document (the "Preferred Unit Designation") attached as Exhibit B that shall set forth, in sufficient detail, the economic rights, including dividend, redemption and conversion rights and sinking fund provisions, of the class or series of Preferred Units and the Related Issue. The number of Preferred Units of a class or series shall be equal to the number of shares of the Related Issue sold. The Preferred Unit Designation shall provide for such terms for the class or series of preferred Units that shall entitle the Managing General Partner to substantially the same economic rights as the holders of the Related Issue. Specifically, the Managing General Partner shall receive distributions on the class or series of Preferred Units pursuant to Section 6.2 equal to the aggregate dividends payable on the Related Issue at the times such dividends are paid (the "Preferred Distribution Requirement"). The Partnership shall redeem the class or series of Preferred Units for a redemption price per Preferred Unit equal to the redemption price per share of the Related Issue, exclusive of any accrued unpaid dividends (the "Preferred Redemption Price") upon the redemption of any shares of the Related Issue. Each class or series of Preferred Units shall also be converted into additional Partnership Units at the time and on such economic terms and conditions as the Related Issue is converted into Shares. Upon the issuance of any class or series of Preferred Units pursuant to this Section 4.3(c), the Managing General Partner shall provide the Limited Partners with a copy of the Preferred Unit Designation relating to such class or series. The Managing General Partner shall have the right, in lieu of contributing to the Partnership proceeds from the sale of Preferred Shares as Preferred Contributed Funds, to lend such proceeds to the Partnership. Any such loan shall be on the same terms and conditions as the Related Issue except that dividends payable on the Related Issue shall be payable by the Partnership to the Managing General Partner as interest, any mandatory redemptions shall take the form of principal payments and no Preferred Units shall be issued to the Managing General Partner. If any such loan is made, the Partnership shall promptly reimburse the Managing General Partner for all expenses (including any applicable underwriter discounts) incurred by the Managing General Partner in connection with raising the Required Funds. Any such loan made by the Managing General Partner to the Partnership may at any time be contributed to the Partnership as Preferred Contributed Funds in exchange for Preferred Units as above provided; and if the Related Issue is by its terms convertible into Shares, such loan shall be so contributed to the Partnership prior to the effectuation of such conversion.

4.4 Redemption; Change in Number of Shares Outstanding.

(a) If the Managing General Partner shall redeem any of its outstanding Shares, the Partnership shall concurrently therewith redeem an equal number of Units held by the Managing General Partner for the same price as paid by the Managing General Partner for the redemption of such Shares.

(b) In the event of any change in the outstanding number of Shares by reason of any share dividend, split, reverse split, recapitalization, merger, consolidation or combination, the number of Units held by each Partner (or assignee) shall be proportionately adjusted such that, to the extent possible, one Unit remains the equivalent of one Share without dilution.

4.5 Stock Option Plan; Dividend Reinvestment Plan. (a) If at any time a stock option granted by the Partnership in connection with a stock option plan is exercised in accordance with its terms, and the Partnership chooses not to acquire any or all of the stock required to satisfy such option through open market purchases, the Managing General Partner shall, as soon as practicable after such exercise, sell to the Partnership for use in satisfying such stock option, at a purchase price equal to the Current Per Share Market Price on the date such stock option is exercised, the number of newly issued Shares for which such option is exercised (or, if such stock option is to be satisfied in part through open market purchases, the remaining number of newly issued Shares) and the Managing General Partner shall contribute to the capital of the Partnership, in exchange for additional Partnership Units, an amount equal to the price paid to the Managing General Partner by the Partnership in connection with the Partnership's purchase of newly issued Shares upon exercise of such stock option. The number of Partnership Units to be so issued shall be determined by dividing the amount of such capital contribution by the Deemed Partnership Unit Value, computed as of the Trading Day immediately preceding the date of such capital contribution. The Managing General Partner shall promptly give each Limited Partner written notice of the number of Partnership Units so issued. The Partnership shall retain the exercise or purchase price paid by the holder of such option for the Shares such holder is entitled to receive upon such exercise.

(b) All amounts received by the Managing General Partner in respect of its dividend reinvestment plan, if any, either (a) shall be utilized by the Managing General Partner to effect open market purchases of Paired Shares, or (b) if the Managing General Partner elects instead to issue new shares with respect to such amounts, shall be contributed by the Managing General Partner to the Partnership in exchange for additional Partnership Units. The number of Partnership Units so issued shall be determined by dividing the amount of funds so contributed by the Deemed Partnership Unit Value, computed as of the Trading Day immediately preceding the date such funds are contributed. The Managing General Partner shall promptly give each Limited Partner written notice of the number of Partnership Units so issued.

4.6 No Third Party Beneficiary. No creditor or other Third Party having dealings with the Partnership shall have the right to enforce the right or obligation of any Partner to make Capital Contributions or to pursue any other right or remedy hereunder or at law or in equity, it being understood and agreed that the provisions of this Agreement shall be solely for the benefit of, and may be enforced solely by, the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. None of the rights or obligations of the Partners herein set forth to make Capital Contributions to the Partnership shall be deemed an asset of the Partnership for any purpose by any creditor or other third party, nor may such rights or obligations be sold, transferred or assigned by the Partnership or pledged or encumbered by the Partnership to secure any debt or other obligation of the Partnership or of any of the Partners.

4.7 No Interest; No Return. No Partner shall be entitled to interest on its Capital Contribution or on such Partner's Capital Account. Except as provided herein or by law, no Partner shall have any right to withdraw any part of its Capital Account or to demand or receive the return of its Capital Contribution from the Partnership.

4.8 Capital Accounts.

(a) The Partnership shall establish and maintain a separate capital account ("Capital Account") for each Partner, including a Partner who shall pursuant to the provisions hereof acquire a Partnership Interest, which Capital Account shall be:

(1) credited with the amount of cash contributed by such Partner to the capital of the Partnership; the initial Gross Asset Value (net of liabilities secured by such contributed property that the Partnership assumes or takes subject to) of any other property contributed by such Partner to the capital of the Partnership; such Partner's distributive share of Profits; and any other items in the nature of income or gain that are allocated to such Partner pursuant to Section 6.1 hereof, but excluding tax items described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(i); and

(2) debited with the amount of cash distributed to such Partner pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; the Gross Asset Value (net of liabilities secured by such distributed property that such Partner assumes or takes subject to) of any Partnership property distributed to such Partner pursuant to any provision of this Agreement; the amount of unsecured liabilities of such Partner assumed by the Partnership; such Partner's distributive share of Losses; in the case of the General Partners, payments of REIT Expenses by the Partnership; and any other items in the nature of expenses or losses that are allocated to such Partner pursuant to Section 6.1 hereof, but excluding tax items described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(i).

In the event that any or all of a Partner's Partnership Units or Preferred Units are transferred within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(l), the transferee shall succeed to the Capital Account of the transferor to the extent that it relates to the Units so transferred.

In the event that the Gross Asset Values of Partnership assets are adjusted pursuant to Section 4.8(b)(ii) hereof, the Capital Accounts of the Partners shall be adjusted to reflect the aggregate net adjustments as if the Partnership sold all of its properties for their fair market values and recognized gain or loss for federal income tax purposes equal to the amount of such aggregate net adjustment.

A Limited Partner shall be liable unconditionally to the Partnership for all or a portion of any deficit in its Capital Account if it so elects to be liable for such deficit or portion thereof. Such election may be for either a limited or unlimited amount and may be amended or withdrawn at any time. The election, and any amendment thereof, shall be made by written notice to the Managing General Partner (and the Managing General Partner shall promptly upon receipt deliver copies thereof to the other Partners) stating that the Limited Partner elects to be liable, and specifying the limitations, if any, on the maximum amount or duration of such liability. Said election, or amendment thereof, shall be effective only from the date 25 days after written notice thereof is received by the Managing General Partner, and shall terminate upon the date, if any, specified therein as a termination date or upon delivery to the Managing General Partner of a subsequent written notice terminating such election. A termination of any such election, or an amendment reducing the Limited Partner's maximum liability thereunder or the duration thereof, shall not be effective to avoid responsibility for any loss incurred prior to such termination or the effective date of such amendment. Except as provided in this Section 4.8 or as required by law, no Limited Partner shall be liable for any deficit in its Capital Account or be obligated to return any distributions of any kind received from the Partnership.

The foregoing provisions and the other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Section 1.704-1(b) of the Regulations, and shall be interpreted and applied as provided in the Regulations.

(b) The term "Gross Asset Value" or "Gross Asset Values" means, with respect to any asset of the Partnership, such asset's adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes, except as follows:

(i) the initial Gross Asset Value of any asset contributed by a Partner to the Partnership shall be the gross fair market value of such asset as reasonably determined by the Managing General Partner;

(ii) the Gross Asset Values of all Partnership assets shall be adjusted to equal their respective gross fair market values, as reasonably determined by the General Partner, immediately prior to the following events:

(A) a Capital Contribution (other than a de minimis Capital Contribution, within the meaning of Section l.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(f)(5)(i) of the Regulations) to the Partnership by a new or existing Partner as consideration for Partnership Units;

(B) the distribution by the Partnership to a Partner of more than a de minimis amount (within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f)(5)(ii) of the Regulations) of Partnership property as consideration for the redemption of Partnership Units; and

(C) the liquidation of the Partnership within the meaning of Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g) of the Regulations; and

(iii) the Gross Asset Values of Partnership assets distributed to any Partner shall be the gross fair market values of such assets as reasonably determined by the Managing General Partner as of the date of distribution. At all times, Gross Asset Values shall be adjusted by any Depreciation taken into account with respect to the Partnership's assets for purposes of computing Profits and Losses. Any adjustment to the Gross Asset Values of Partnership property shall require an adjustment to the Partners' Capital Accounts as described in Section 4.8(a) above.

Representations, Warranties and Acknowledgment

5.1 Representations and Warranties by Managing General Partner. The Managing General Partner represents and warrants to the Limited Partners, the other General Partners and to the Partnership that (i) it is a corporation duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its state of incorporation, with full right, corporate power and authority to fulfill all of its obligations hereunder or as contemplated herein; (ii) all transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary action; (iii) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by and is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Managing General Partner and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by (a) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or transfer or other laws of general application affecting the rights and remedies of creditors and (b) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); (iv) no authorization, approval, consent or order of any court or governmental authority or agency or any other Entity is required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Managing General Partner, except as may have been received prior to the date of this Agreement; (v) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Managing General Partner and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not conflict with or constitute a breach or violation of, or a default under, any contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease, joint venture or partnership agreement or other instrument or agreement to which either the Managing General Partner or the Partnership is a party; and (vi) the Partnership Units, upon payment of the consideration therefore pursuant to this Agreement, will be validly issued, fully paid and, except as otherwise provided in accordance with applicable law, non-assessable.

5.2 Representations and Warranties by Non-Managing General Partners. Each of the Non-Managing General Partners represents and warrants to the Limited Partners, the other General Partners and to the Partnership that (i) it is a corporation duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its state of incorporation, with full right, corporate power and authority to fulfill all of its obligations hereunder or as contemplated herein; (ii) all transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary action; (iii) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by and is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Non-Managing General Partner and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by (a) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or transfer or other laws of general application affecting the rights and remedies of creditors and (b) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); (iv) no authorization, approval, consent or order of any court or governmental authority or agency or any other Entity is required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Non-Managing General Partner, except as may have been received prior to the date of this Agreement; and (v) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Non-Managing General Partner and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not conflict with or constitute a breach or violation of, or default under, any contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease, joint venture or partnership agreement or other instrument or agreement to which the Non-Managing General Partner is a party.

5.4 Representations and Warranties by the Limited Partners. Each Limited Partner, for itself only, represents and warrants to the General Partners, the other Limited Partners and the Partnership that (i) all transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be performed by such Limited Partner have been duly authorized by all necessary action; and (ii) this Agreement is binding upon, and enforceable against, such Limited Partner in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by (a) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or transfer or other laws of general application affecting the rights and remedies of creditors and (b) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

5.5 Acknowledgment by Each Partner. Each Partner hereby acknowledges that no representations as to potential profit, cash flows or yield, if any, in respect of the Partnership or any one or more or all of the Projects owned, directly or indirectly, by the Partnership have been made to it by any other Partner or its Affiliates or any employee or representative of any other Partner or its Affiliates, and that projections and any other information, including, without limitation, financial and descriptive information and documentation, which may have been in any manner submitted to such Partner shall not constitute a representation or warranty, express or implied.

ARTICLE VI

Allocations, Distributions and Other Tax and Accounting Matters

6.1 Allocations.

(a) For the purpose of this Agreement, the terms "Profits" and "Losses" mean, respectively, for each Partnership Fiscal Year or other period, the Partnership's taxable income or loss for such Partnership Fiscal Year or other period, determined in accordance with Section 703(a) of the Code (for this purpose, all items of income, gain, loss or deduction required to be stated separately pursuant to Section 703(a)(l) of the Code shall be included in taxable income or loss), adjusted as follows:

(1) any income of the Partnership that is exempt from federal income tax and not otherwise taken into account in computing Profits or Losses pursuant to this Section 6.1(a) shall be added to such taxable income or loss;

(2) in lieu of the depreciation, amortization and other cost recovery deductions taken into account in computing such taxable income or loss, there shall be taken into account Depreciation for such Partnership Fiscal Year or other period;

(3) any items that are specially allocated pursuant to Section 6.1(d) hereof shall not be taken into account in computing Profits or Losses; and

(4) any expenditures of the Partnership described in Section 705(a)(2)(B) of the Code (or treated as such under Regulation Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(i)) and not otherwise taken into account in computing Profits or Losses pursuant to this Section 6.1(a) shall be deducted in calculating such taxable income or loss.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.1(d) hereof and this Section 6.1(b), the Profits and Losses of the Partnership (and each item thereof) for each Partnership Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Partners in the following order of priority:

(1) First, Profits shall be allocated to the holder of Preferred Units in an amount equal to the excess of (A) the amount of Net Operating Cash Flow distributed to such holder pursuant to Sections 6.2(b)(i) and (ii) and Section 6.2(c)(but only to the extent of the Preferred Distribution Requirement and Preferred Distribution Shortfalls) for the current and all prior Partnership Fiscal Years over (B) the amount of Profits previously allocated to such holder pursuant to this subparagraph (1).

(2) Second, for any Partnership Fiscal Year ending on or after a date on which Preferred Units are redeemed, Profits (or Losses) shall be allocated to the holder of such Preferred Units in an amount equal to the excess (or deficit) of the sum of the applicable Preferred Redemption Amounts for the Preferred Units that have been or are being redeemed during such Partnership Fiscal Year over the Preferred Unit Issue Price of such Preferred Units. In addition, in the event that the Partnership is liquidated pursuant to Article VIII, the allocation described above shall be made to the holder of Preferred Units with respect to all Preferred Units then outstanding.

(3) Third, any remaining Profits and Losses shall be allocated among the Partners in accordance with their proportionate ownership of Partnership Units except as otherwise required by the Regulations.

(4) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), Profits and Losses from a Liquidation Transaction shall be allocated as follows:

First, Profits (or Losses) shall be allocated to the holder of Preferred Units in an amount equal to the excess (or deficit) of the sum of the applicable Preferred Redemption Amounts of the Preferred Units which have been or will be redeemed with the proceeds of the Liquidation Transaction over the Preferred Unit Issue Price of such Preferred Units;

Second, Profits (or Losses) shall be allocated among the Partners so that the Capital Accounts of the Partners (excluding from the Capital Account of any Partner the amount attributable to its Preferred Units) are proportional to the number of Partnership Units held by each Partner; and

Third, any remaining Profits and Losses shall be allocated among the Partners in accordance with their proportionate ownership of Partnership Units.

(c) For the purpose of Section 6.1(b) hereof, gain or loss resulting from any disposition of Partnership property shall be computed by reference to the Gross Asset Value of the property disposed of, notwithstanding that the adjusted tax basis of such property for federal income tax purposes differs from its Gross Asset Value.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.1, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) A Partner shall not receive an allocation of any Partnership deduction that would result in total loss allocations attributable to "Nonrecourse Liabilities" (as defined in Regulations Section 1.704-2(b)(3)) in excess of such Partner's share of Minimum Gain (as determined under Regulations Section 1.704-2(g)). The term "Minimum Gain" means an amount determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(d) by computing, with respect to each Nonrecourse Liability of the Partnership, the amount of gain, if any, that the Partnership would realize if it disposed of the property subject to such liability for no consideration other than full satisfaction thereof, and by then aggregating the amounts so computed. If the Partnership makes a distribution allocable to the proceeds of a Nonrecourse Liability, in accordance with Regulation Section 1.704-2(h), the distribution will be treated as allocable to an increase in Partnership Minimum Gain to the extent the increase results from encumbering Partnership property with aggregate Nonrecourse Liabilities that exceeds the property's adjusted tax basis. If there is a net decrease in Partnership Minimum Gain for a Partnership Fiscal Year, in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(f) and the exceptions contained therein, the Partners shall be allocated items of Partnership income and gain for such Partnership Fiscal Year (and, if necessary, for subsequent Partnership Fiscal Years) equal to the Partners' respective shares of the net decrease in Minimum Gain within the meaning of Regulations Section l.704-2(g)(2) (the "Minimum Gain Chargeback"). The items to be allocated pursuant to this Section 6.1(d)(1) shall be determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(f) and (j).

(2) Any item of "Partner Nonrecourse Deduction" (as defined in Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)) with respect to a "Partner Nonrecourse Debt" (as defined in Regulations Section l.704-2(b)(4)) shall be allocated to the Partner or Partners who bear the economic risk of loss for such Partner Nonrecourse Debt in accordance with Regulations Section l.704-2(i)(l). If the Partnership makes a distribution allocable to the proceeds of a Partner Nonrecourse Debt, in accordance with Regulation Section l.704-2(i)(6) the distribution will be treated as allocable to an increase in Partner Minimum Gain to the extent the increase results from encumbering Partnership property with aggregate Partner Nonrecourse Debt that exceeds the property's adjusted tax basis. Subject to Section 6.1(d)(1) hereof, but notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event that there is a net decrease in Minimum Gain attributable to a Partner Nonrecourse Debt (such Minimum Gain being hereinafter referred to as "Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain") for a Partnership Fiscal Year, then after taking into account allocations pursuant to Section 6.1(d)(1) hereof, but before any other allocations are made for such taxable year, and subject to the exceptions set forth in Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4), each Partner with a share of Partner Non-recourse Debt Minimum Gain at the beginning of such Partnership Fiscal Year shall be allocated items of income and gain for such Partnership Fiscal Year (and, if necessary, for subsequent Partnership Fiscal Years) equal to such Partner's share of the net decrease in Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain as determined in a manner consistent with the provisions of Regulations Section l.704-2(g)(2). The items to be allocated pursuant to this Section 6.1(d)(2) shall be determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4) and (j).

(3) Pursuant to Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3), for the purpose of determining each Partner's share of excess nonrecourse liabilities of the Partnership, and solely for such purpose, each Partner's interest in Partnership profits is hereby specified to be the quotient of (i) the number of Partnership Units then held by such Partner, and (ii) the aggregate amount of Partnership Units then outstanding.

(4) No Limited Partner shall be allocated any item of deduction or loss of the Partnership if such allocation would cause such Limited Partner's Capital Account to become negative by more than the sum of (i) any amount such Limited Partner is obligated to restore upon liquidation of the Partnership, plus (ii) such Limited Partner's share of the Partnership's Minimum Gain and Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain. An item of deduction or loss that cannot be allocated to a Limited Partner pursuant to this Section 6.1(d)(4) shall be allocated to the General Partners in accordance with the number of Partnership Units held by each General Partner. For this purpose, in determining the Capital Account balance of such Limited Partner, the items described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) and (6) shall be taken into account. In the event that (A) any Limited Partner unexpectedly receives any adjustment, allocation, or distribution described in Regulations Sections 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5), or (6), and (B) such adjustment, allocation, or distribution causes or increases a deficit balance (net of amounts which such Limited Partner is obligated to restore or deemed obligated to restore under Regulations Section 1.704-2(g)(l) and l.704-2(i)(5) and determined after taking into account any adjustments, allocations, or distributions described in Regulations Sections 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5), or (6) that, as of the end of the Partnership Fiscal Year, reasonably are expected to be made to such Limited Partner) in such Limited Partner's Capital Account as of the end of the Partnership Fiscal Year to which such adjustment, allocation, or distribution relates, then items of Gross Income (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Gross Income) for such Partnership Fiscal Year and each subsequent Partnership Fiscal Year shall be allocated to such Limited Partner until such deficit balance or increase in such deficit balance, as the case may be, has been eliminated. In the event that this Section 6.1(d)(4) and Section 6.1(d)(1) and/or (2) hereof apply, Section 6.1(d)(1) and/or (2) hereof shall be applied prior to this Section 6.l(d)(4).

(5) The Regulatory Allocations shall be taken into account in allocating other items of income, gain, loss, and deduction among the Partners so that, to the extent possible, the cumulative net amount of allocations of Partnership items under this Section 6.1 shall be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each Partner if the Regulatory Allocations had not been made. This Section 6.1(d)(5) is intended to minimize to the extent possible and to the extent necessary any economic distortions which may result from application of the Regulatory Allocations and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent therewith. For purposes hereof, "Regulatory Allocations" shall mean the allocations provided under this Section 6.1(d) (other than this Section 6.l(d)(5)).

(e) In accordance with Sections 704(b) and 704(c) of the Code and the Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Partnership shall, solely for federal income tax purposes, be allocated among the Partners on a property by property basis so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Partnership for federal income tax purposes and the initial Gross Asset Value of such property. If the Gross Asset Value of any Partnership property is adjusted as described in the definition of Gross Asset Value, subsequent allocations of income, gains or losses from taxable sales or other dispositions and deductions with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for federal income tax purposes and the Gross Asset Value of such asset in the manner prescribed under Sections 704(b) and 704(c) of the Code and the Regulations thereunder. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Partnership shall employ the method prescribed in Regulation S 1.704-3(b) (the "traditional method") or the equivalent successor provision(s) of proposed, temporary or final Regulations. The Partnership shall allocate items of income, gain, loss and deduction allocated to it by a Subsidiary Entity to the Partner or Partners contributing the interest or interests in such subsidiary Entity, so that, to the greatest extent possible and consistent with the foregoing, such contributing Partner or Partners are allocated the same amount and character of items of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such Subsidiary Entity that they would have been allocated had they contributed undivided interests in the assets owned by such Subsidiary Entity to the Partnership in lieu of contributing the interest or interests in the Subsidiary Entity to the Partnership.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.1, the allocation of Profits and Losses for any Partnership Fiscal Year during which a Person acquires a Partnership Interest (other than upon formation of the Partnership) pursuant to Section 4.3(b) or otherwise, shall take into account the Partners' varying interests for such Partnership Fiscal Year pursuant to any method permissible under Section 706 of the Code that is selected by the Managing General Partner (notwithstanding any agreement between the assignor and assignee of such Partnership Interest although the Managing General Partner may recognize any such agreement), which method may take into account the date on which the Transfer or an agreement to Transfer becomes irrevocable pursuant to its terms, as determined by the Managing General Partner; provided, that the allocation of Profits and Losses with respect to a Partnership Unit acquired during a fiscal quarter of the Partnership shall be appropriately adjusted in accordance with Section 6.2(c)(ii) below.

(g) If any portion of gain from the sale of property is treated as gain which is ordinary income by virtue of the application of Code Sections 1245 or 1250 ("Affected Gain"), then (A) such Affected Gain shall be allocated among the Partners in the same proportion that the depreciation and amortization deductions giving rise to the Affected Gain were allocated and (B) other tax items of gain of the same character that would have been recognized, but for the application of Code Sections 1245 and/or 1250, shall be allocated away from those Partners who are allocated Affected Gain pursuant to clause (A) so that, to the extent possible, the other Partners are allocated the same amount, and type, of capital gain that would have been allocated to them had Code Sections 1245 and/or 1250 not applied. For purposes hereof, in order to determine the proportionate allocations of depreciation and amortization deductions for each Fiscal Year or other applicable period, such deductions shall be deemed allocated on the same basis as Profits or Losses for such respective period.

(h) The Profits, Losses, gains, deductions and credits of the Partnership (and all items thereof) for each Partnership Fiscal Year shall be determined in accordance with the accounting method followed by the Partnership for federal income tax purposes.

(i) Except as provided in Sections 6.1(e) and 6.1(g) hereof, for federal income tax purposes, each item of income, gain, loss, or deduction shall be allocated among the Partners in the same manner as its correlative item of "book" income, gain, loss or deduction has been allocated pursuant to this Section 6.1.

(j) To the extent permitted by Regulations Sections 1.704-2(h)(3) and 1.704-2(i)(6), the Managing General Partner shall endeavor to treat distributions as having been made from the proceeds of Nonrecourse Liabilities or Partner Nonrecourse Debt only to the extent that such distributions would cause or increase a deficit balance in any Partner's Capital Account that exceeds the amount such Partner is otherwise obligated to restore (within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(c)) as of the end of the Partnership's taxable year in which the distribution occurs.

(k) If any Partner sells or otherwise disposes of any property, directly or indirectly, to the Partnership, and as a result thereof, gain on a subsequent disposition of such property by the Partnership is reduced pursuant to Section 267(d) of the Code, then, to the extent permitted by applicable law, gain for federal income tax purposes attributable to such subsequent disposition shall first be allocated among the Partners other than the selling Partner in an amount equal to such Partners' allocations of "book" gain on the property pursuant to this Section 6.1, and any remaining gain for federal income tax purposes shall be allocated to the selling Partner.

6.2 Distributions. (a) Except with respect to the liquidation of the Partnership and subject to the priority set forth in Sections 6.2(b) and (c), the Managing General Partner shall cause the Partnership to distribute all or a portion of Net Operating Cash Flow to the Partners who are such on the relevant Partnership Record Date from time to time as determined by the Managing General Partner, but in any event not less frequently than quarterly, in such amounts as the Managing General Partner shall determine in its sole discretion; provided, however, that, except as provided in Sections 6.2(b) and (c) below, all such distributions shall be made pro rata in accordance with the outstanding Partnership Units on the relevant Partnership Record Date. In no event may a Limited Partner receive a distribution of Net Operating Cash Flow with respect to a Partnership Unit that such Partner has exchanged on or prior to the relevant Partnership Record Date for a Share, pursuant to the Rights granted under Section 11.1 (a "Post-Exchange Distribution"); rather, all such Post-Exchange Distributions shall be distributed to the Managing General Partner.

(b) Except to the extent Net Operating Cash Flow is distributed pursuant to Section 6.2(c), and except with respect to the liquidation of the Partnership, distributions of Net Operating Cash Flow shall be made in the following order of priority;

(i) First, to the extent that the amount of Net Operating Cash Flow distributed to the holder of Preferred Units for any prior quarter was less than the Preferred Distribution Requirement for such quarter, and has not been subsequently distributed pursuant to this Section 6.2(b)(i) (a "Preferred Distribution Shortfall"), Net Operating Cash Flow shall be distributed to the holder of Preferred Units in an amount necessary to satisfy such Preferred Distribution Shortfall for the current and all prior Partnership Fiscal Years. In the event that the Net Operating Cash Flow distributed for a particular quarter is less than the Preferred Distribution Shortfall, then all Net Operating Cash Flow for the current quarter shall be distributed to the holder of Preferred Units.

(ii) Second, Net Operating Cash Flow shall be distributed to the holder of Preferred Units in an amount equal to the Preferred Distribution Requirement for the then current quarter for each outstanding Preferred Unit. In the event that the amount of Net Operating Cash Flow distributed for a particular quarter pursuant to this subparagraph (b)(ii) is less than the Preferred Distribution Requirement for such quarter, then all such Net Operating Cash Flow for such quarter shall be distributed to the holder of Preferred Units.

(iii) The balance of the Net Operating Cash Flow to be distributed, if any, shall be distributed to holders of Partnership Units, in proportion to their ownership of Partnership Units.

(c) (i) If in any quarter the Partnership redeems any outstanding Preferred Units, unless and except to the extent that such redemption is effected out of borrowed funds, Capital Contributions or other sources, Net Operating Cash Flow shall be distributed to the Managing General Partner in an amount equal to the applicable Preferred Redemption Amount for the Preferred Units being redeemed before being distributed pursuant to Section 6.2(b).

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.2, the distribution of Net Operating Cash Flow with respect to a Partnership Unit acquired during a fiscal quarter of the Partnership shall be an amount equal to the product of (i) the amount of Net Operating Cash Flow otherwise distributable to a Partnership Unit held during such fiscal quarter and (ii) (a) the number of days remaining in such fiscal quarter, determined as of the date such Partnership Unit was acquired, divided by (b) the total number of days in such fiscal quarter.

(d) Notwithstanding the provision of the first sentence of Section 6.2(a), (i) the Managing General Partner shall use its best efforts to cause the Partnership to distribute sufficient amounts, in accordance with Section 6.2(a) above, to enable the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners to pay shareholder dividends that will (A) satisfy the REIT Requirements, and (B) avoid any federal income or excise tax liability of the Managing General Partner or any of the Non-Managing General Partners; and (ii) in the event of a Covered Sale which occurs on a date on or after August 9, 1996, and before but not including August 9, 2001, and which gives rise to a special allocation of taxable income or gain to one or more Limited Partners pursuant to Section 6.1(e), (A) the Managing General Partner shall cause the Partnership to distribute to all of the Partners, pro rata in accordance with ownership of Partnership Units, the Net Sale Proceeds therefrom up to an amount sufficient to enable each such Limited Partner, from the share of such distribution made to it, to pay in full any income tax liability, computed at the maximum applicable federal and state statutory rates, with respect to the income or gain so specially allocated and on the distribution required by this Section 6.2(d) (or, if any such Limited Partner is a partnership or Subchapter S corporation, to enable such Limited Partner to distribute sufficient amounts to its equity owners to enable such owners to pay in full any income tax liability, computed at the maximum applicable federal and state statutory rates, with respect to their share of such taxable income or gain and such distributions) and (B) if the amounts distributed to each such Limited Partner in accordance with the preceding clause (A) are insufficient to enable it to pay in full such income tax liabilities, the Managing General Partner shall cause the Partnership to distribute sufficient funds from other sources to all of the Partners, pro rata in accordance with ownership of Partnership Units, in an amount sufficient to enable each such Limited Partner to pay in full such income tax liabilities and any income tax liabilities of such Limited Partner(s) with respect to such additional distribution. As used in this Section 6.2, the term "Covered Sale" means a sale or other taxable disposition of any Property described on Exhibit C.

6.3 Books of Account; Segregation of Funds

(a) At all times during the continuance of the Partnership, the Managing General Partner shall maintain or cause to be maintained full, true, complete and correct books of account in accordance with GAAP wherein shall be entered particulars of all monies, goods or effects belonging to or owing to or by the Partnership, or paid, received, sold or purchased in the course of the Partnership's business, and all of such other transactions, matters and things relating to the business of the Partnership as are usually entered in books of account kept by Persons engaged in a business of a like kind and character. In addition, the Partnership shall keep all records as required to be kept pursuant to the Act. The books and records of account shall be kept at the principal office of the Partnership, and each Partner and its representatives shall at all reasonable times have access to such books and records and the right to inspect and copy the same.

(b) The Partnership shall not commingle its funds with those of any other Person or Entity; funds and other assets of the Partnership shall be separately identified and segregated; all of the Partnership's assets shall at all times be held by or on behalf of the Partnership and, if held on behalf of the Partnership by another Entity, shall at all times be kept identifiable (in accordance with customary usages) as assets owned by the Partnership; and the Partnership shall maintain its own separate bank accounts, payroll and books of account. The foregoing provisions of this Section 6.3(b) shall not apply with respect to funds or assets of any Subsidiary Entities of the Partnership.

6.4 Reports. Within ninety (90) days after the end of each Partnership Fiscal Year, the Partnership shall cause to be prepared and transmitted to each Partner an annual report of the Partnership relating to the previous Partnership Fiscal Year containing a balance sheet as of the year then ended, a statement of financial condition as of the year then ended, and statements of operations, cash flow and Partnership equity for the year then ended, which annual statements shall be prepared in accordance with GAAP and shall be audited by the Accountants. The Partnership shall also cause to be prepared and transmitted to each Partner within forty-five (45) days after the end of each of the first three (3) quarters of each Partnership Fiscal Year a quarterly unaudited report containing a balance sheet, a statement of the Partnership's financial condition and statements of operations, cash flow and Partnership equity, in each case relating to the fiscal quarter then just ended, and prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Partnership shall further cause to be prepared and transmitted to the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners (i) such reports and/or information as are necessary for each to fulfill its obligations under the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and the applicable stock exchange rules, and under any other regulations to which such Partners or the Partnership may be subject, and (ii) such other reports and/or information as are necessary for each of the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners to determine and maintain its qualification as a REIT under the REIT Requirements, its earnings and profits derived from the Partnership, its liability for a tax as a consequence of its Partnership Interest and distributive share of taxable income or loss and items thereof, in each case in a manner that will permit the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners to comply with their respective obligations to file federal, state and local tax returns and information returns and to provide their shareholders with tax information. The Managing General Partner shall provide to each Partner copies of all reports it provides to its stockholders at the same time such reports are distributed to such stockholders. The Managing General Partner shall also promptly notify the Partners of all actions taken by the Managing General Partner for which it has obtained the Consent of the Limited Partners.

6.6 Tax Returns.

(a) Consistent with all other provisions of this Agreement, the Managing General Partner shall determine the methods to be used in the preparation of federal, state, and local income and other tax returns for the Partnership in connection with all items of income and expense, including, but not limited to, valuation of assets, the methods of Depreciation and cost recovery, credits and tax accounting methods and procedures and, with the consent of the Non-Managing General Partners, all tax elections.

(b) The Managing General Partner shall, at least 30 days prior to the due dates (as extended) for such returns, but in no event later than July 15 of each year, cause the Accountants to prepare and submit to the DeBartolo Designee, the Simon Designee and the JCP Limited Partner for their review, drafts of all federal and state income tax returns of the Partnership for the preceding year, and the Managing General Partner shall consult in good faith with the DeBartolo Designee, the Simon Designee and the JCP Limited Partner regarding any proposed modifications to such tax returns of the Partnership.

(c) The Partnership shall timely cause to be prepared and transmitted to the Partners federal and appropriate state and local Partnership Income Tax Schedules "K-l" or any substitute therefor, with respect to each Partnership Fiscal Year on appropriate forms prescribed. The Partnership shall make reasonable efforts to prepare and submit such forms before the due date for filing federal income tax returns for the fiscal year in question (determined without extensions), and shall in any event prepare and submit such forms on or before July 15 of the year following the fiscal year in question.

6.7 Tax Matters Partner

The Managing General Partner is hereby designated as the Tax Matters Partner within the meaning of Section 6231(a)(7) of the Code for the Partnership; provided, however, that (i) in exercising its authority as Tax Matters Partner it shall be limited by the provisions of this Agreement affecting tax aspects of the Partnership; (ii) the Managing General Partner shall give prompt notice to the Partners of the receipt of any written notice that the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority intends to examine Partnership income tax returns for any year, receipt of written notice of the beginning of an administrative proceeding at the Partnership level relating to the Partnership under Section 6223 of the Code, receipt of written notice of the final Partnership administrative adjustment relating to the Partnership pursuant to Section 6223 of the Code, and receipt of any request from the Internal Revenue Service for waiver of any applicable statute of limitations with respect to the filing of any tax return by the Partnership; (iii) the Managing General Partner shall promptly notify the Partners if it does not intend to file for judicial review with respect to the Partnership; and (iv) as Tax Matters Partner, the Managing General Partner shall not be entitled to bind a Partner by any settlement agreement (within the meaning of Section 6224 of the Code) unless such Partner consents thereto in writing and shall notify the Partners in a manner and at such time as is sufficient to allow the Partners to exercise their rights pursuant to Section 6224(c)(3) of the Code; (v) the Managing General Partner shall consult in good faith with the Simon Designee, the DeBartolo Designee and the JCP Limited Partner regarding the filing of a Code Section 6227(b) administrative adjustment request with respect to the Partnership or a Property before filing such request, it being understood, however, that the provisions hereof shall not be construed to limit the ability of any Partner, including the Managing General Partner, to file an administrative adjustment request on its own behalf pursuant to Section 6227(a) of the Code; and (vi) the Managing General Partner shall consult in good faith with the Simon Designee, the DeBartolo Designee and the JCP Limited Partner regarding the filing of a petition for judicial review of an administrative adjustment request under Section 6228 of the Code, or a petition for judicial review of a final partnership administrative judgment under Section 6226 of the Code relating to the Partnership before filing such petition.

6.8 Withholding. Each Partner hereby authorizes the Partnership to withhold or pay on behalf of or with respect to such Partner any amount of federal, state, local or foreign taxes that the Managing General Partner determines the Partnership is required to withhold or pay with respect to any amount distributable or allocable to such Partner pursuant to this Agreement, including, without limitation, any taxes required to be withheld or paid by the Partnership pursuant to Code Sections 1441, 1442, 1445, or 1446. Any amount paid on behalf of or with respect to a Partner shall constitute a loan by the Partnership to such Partner, which loan shall be due within fifteen (15) days after repayment is demanded of the Partner in question, and shall be repaid through withholding of subsequent distributions to such Partner. Nothing in this Section 6.8 shall create any obligation on the Managing General Partner to advance funds to the Partnership or to borrow funds from Third Parties in order to make payments on account of any liability of the Partnership under a withholding tax act. Any amounts payable by a Limited Partner hereunder shall bear interest at the lesser of (i) the base rate on corporate loans at large United States money center commercial banks, as published from time to time in The Wall Street Journal, or (ii) the maximum lawful rate of interest on such obligation, such interest to accrue from the date such amount is due (i.e., fifteen (15) days after demand) until such amount is paid in full. To the extent the payment or accrual of withholding tax results in a federal, state or local tax credit to the Partnership, such credit shall be allocated to the Partner to whose distribution the tax is attributable.

ARTICLE VII

Rights, Duties and Restrictions of the General Partners

7.1 Expenditures by Partnership. The Managing General Partner is hereby authorized to pay compensation for accounting, administrative, legal, technical, management and other services rendered to the Partnership. All of the aforesaid expenditures shall be made on behalf of the Partnership and the Managing General Partner shall be entitled to reimbursement by the Partnership for any expenditures incurred by it on behalf of the Partnership which shall have been made other than out of the funds of the Partnership. The Partnership shall also assume, and pay when due, the Administrative Expenses and such portion of the Managing General Partners', the Non-Managing General Partners' and their respective subsidiaries' REIT Expenses as shall be appropriately allocated to the Partnership by the Managing General Partner in the exercise of its reasonable business judgment.

7.2 Powers and Duties of the General Partners. The Managing General Partner shall be responsible for the management of the Partnership's business and affairs. Except as otherwise herein expressly provided, and subject to the limitations contained in Section 7.3 hereof with respect to Major Decisions, the Managing General Partner shall have, and is hereby granted, full and complete power, authority and discretion to take such action for and on behalf of the Partnership and in its name as the Managing General Partner shall, in its sole and absolute discretion, deem necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes for which the Partnership was organized. Any action by the Managing General Partner relating to (i) transactions between the Partnership or a Subsidiary Entity and M.S. Management Associates, Inc., Simon MOA Management Company, Inc. and/or M.S. Management Associates (Indiana), Inc., (ii) transactions between the Partnership or a Subsidiary Entity and DeBartolo Properties Management, Inc. or (iii) transactions involving the Partnership or a Subsidiary Entity in which the Simons, the DeBartolos or any Affiliate of the Simons or the DeBartolos has an interest (other than a non-controlling minority equity interest, which has no management or veto powers, in a Person, other than the Partnership or a Subsidiary entity, which is engaged in such transaction) other than through ownership of Partnership Units, shall require the prior approval of a majority of the Independent Directors. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein and subject to Section 7.3 hereof, the Managing General Partner shall have, for and on behalf of the Partnership, the right, power and authority:

(a) To manage, control, hold, invest, lend, reinvest, acquire by purchase, lease, sell, contract to purchase or sell, grant, obtain, or exercise options to purchase, options to sell or conversion rights, assign, transfer, convey, deliver, endorse, exchange, pledge, mortgage or otherwise encumber, abandon, improve, repair, construct, maintain, operate, insure, lease for any term and otherwise deal with any and all property of whatsoever kind and nature, and wheresoever situated, in furtherance of the purposes of the Partnership, and in addition, without limiting the foregoing, upon the affirmative vote of no fewer than three (3) of the Independent Directors of the Managing General Partner who are not Affiliates of the DeBartolos, the Managing General Partner shall authorize and require the sale of any property owned by the Partnership or a Subsidiary Entity.

(b) To acquire, directly or indirectly, interests in real or personal property (collectively, "property") of any kind and of any type, and any and all kinds of interests therein, and to determine the manner in which title thereto is to be held; to manage, insure against loss, protect and subdivide any property, interests therein or parts thereof; to improve, develop or redevelop any property; to participate in the ownership and development of any property; to dedicate for public use, to vacate any subdivisions or parts thereof, to resubdivide, to contract to sell, to grant options to purchase or lease and to sell on any terms; to convey, to mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber any property, or any part thereof; to lease any property or any part thereof from time to time, upon any terms and for any period of time, and to renew or extend leases, to amend, change or modify the terms and provisions of any leases and to grant options to lease and options to renew leases and options to purchase; to partition or to exchange any property, or any part thereof, for other property; to grant easements or charges of any kind; to release, convey or assign any right, title or interest in or about or easement appurtenant to any property or any part thereof; to construct and reconstruct, remodel, alter, repair, add to or take from buildings on any property; to insure any Person having an interest in or responsibility for the care, management or repair of any property; to direct the trustee of any land trust to mortgage, lease, convey or contract to convey any property held in such land trust or to execute and deliver deeds, mortgages, notes and any and all documents pertaining to the property subject to such land trust or in any matter regarding such trust; and to execute assignments of all or any part of the beneficial interest in such land trust;

(c) To employ, engage or contract with or dismiss from employment or engagement Persons to the extent deemed necessary by the Managing General Partner for the operation and management of the Partnership business, including but not limited to, employees, contractors, subcontractors, engineers, architects, surveyors, mechanics, consultants, accountants, attorneys, insurance brokers, real estate brokers and others;

(d) To enter into contracts on behalf of the Partnership;

(e) To borrow or lend money, procure loans and advances from any Person for Partnership purposes, and to apply for and secure from any Person credit or accommodations; to contract liabilities and obligations, direct or contingent and of every kind and nature with or without security; and to repay, discharge, settle, adjust, compromise or liquidate any such loan, advance, credit, obligation or liability (including by deeding property to a lender in lieu of foreclosure);

(f) To Pledge, hypothecate, mortgage, assign, deposit, deliver, enter into sale and leaseback arrangements or otherwise give as security or as additional or substitute security or for sale or other disposition any and all Partnership property, tangible or intangible, including, but not limited to, real estate and beneficial interests in land trusts, and to make substitutions thereof, and to receive any proceeds thereof upon the release or surrender thereof; to sign, execute and deliver any and all assignments, deeds and other contracts and instruments in writing; to authorize, give, make, procure, accept and receive moneys, payments, property, notices, demands, vouchers, receipts, releases, compromises and adjustments; to waive notices, demands, protests and authorize and execute waivers of every kind and nature; to enter into, make, execute, deliver and receive written agreements, undertakings and instruments of every kind and nature; to give oral instructions and make oral agreements; and generally to do any and all other acts and things incidental to any of the foregoing or with reference to any dealings or transactions which any attorney for the Partnership may deem necessary, proper or advisable;

(g) To acquire and enter into any contract of insurance which the Managing General Partner deems necessary or appropriate for the protection of the Partnership or any Affiliate thereof, for the conservation of the Partnership's assets (or the assets of any Affiliate thereof) or for any purpose convenient or beneficial to the Partnership or any Affiliate thereof;

(h) To conduct any and all banking transactions on behalf of the Partnership; to adjust and settle checking, savings and other accounts with such institutions as the Managing General Partner shall deem appropriate; to draw, sign, execute, accept, endorse, guarantee, deliver, receive and pay any checks, drafts, bills of exchange, acceptances, notes, obligations, undertakings and other instruments for or relating to the payment of money in, into or from any account in the Partnership's name; to execute, procure, consent to and authorize extensions and renewals of the same; to make deposits and withdraw the same and to negotiate or discount commercial paper, acceptances, negotiable instruments, bills of exchange and dollar drafts;

(i) To demand, sue for, receive, and otherwise take steps to collect or recover all debts, rents, proceeds, interests, dividends, goods, chattels, income from property, damages and all other property to which the Partnership may be entitled or which are or may become due the Partnership from any Person; to commence, prosecute or enforce, or to defend, answer or oppose, contest and abandon all legal proceedings in which the Partnership is or may hereafter be interested; and to settle, compromise or submit to arbitration any accounts, debts, claims, disputes and matters which may arise between the Partnership and any other Person and to grant an extension of time for the payment or satisfaction thereof on any terms, with or without security;

(j) To make arrangements for financing, including the taking of all action deemed necessary or appropriate by the Managing General Partner to cause any approved loans to be closed;

(k) To take all reasonable measures necessary to insure compliance by the Partnership with contractual obligations and other arrangements entered into by the Partnership from time to time in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, including periodic reports as required to lenders and using all due diligence to insure that the Partnership is in compliance with its contractual obligations;

(1) To maintain the Partnership's books and records;

(m) To create or maintain Affiliates engaged in activities that the Partnership could itself undertake; and

(n) To prepare and deliver, or cause to be prepared and delivered by the Accountants, all financial and other reports with respect to the operations of the Partnership, and preparation and filing of all federal, state and local tax returns and reports.

Except as otherwise provided herein, to the extent the duties of the Managing General Partner require expenditures of funds to be paid to Third Parties, the Managing General Partner shall not have any obligations hereunder except to the extent that Partnership funds are reasonably available to it for the performance of such duties, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or require the Managing General Partner, in its capacity as such, to expend its individual funds for payment to Third Parties or to undertake any individual liability or obligation on behalf of the Partnership.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement or the Act, any action of the Managing General Partner on behalf of the Partnership or any decision of the Managing General Partner to refrain from acting on behalf of the Partnership, undertaken in the good faith belief that such action or omission is necessary or advisable in order (i) to protect or further the ability of the Managing General Partner, the Non-Managing General Partners and their respective subsidiaries to continue to qualify as REITs or (ii) to avoid the Managing General Partner's or the Non-Managing General Partners' incurring any taxes under Section 857 or Section 4981 of the Code, is expressly authorized under this Agreement and is deemed approved by all of the Limited Partners. Nothing, however, in this Agreement shall be deemed to give rise to any liability on the part of a Limited Partner for the Managing General Partner's, the Non-Managing General Partner's or their respective subsidiaries' failure to qualify or continue to qualify as a REIT or a failure to avoid incurring any taxes under the foregoing sections of the Code, unless such failure or failures result from an act of the Limited Partner which constitutes a breach of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Section 10.4(b)).

7.3 Major Decisions.

(a) The Managing General Partner shall not, without the Consent of the Limited Partners, and the consent of the Non-Managing General Partners, (y) on behalf of the Partnership, amend, modify or terminate this Agreement other than to reflect (A) the admission of Additional Limited Partners pursuant to Section 9.4 hereof, (B) the making of additional Capital Contributions and the issuance of additional Partnership Units by reason thereof, all in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, (C) the withdrawal or assignment of the interest of any Partner in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or (D) any changes necessary to satisfy the REIT Requirements, or (z) permit the Partnership, on behalf of any Subsidiary Partnership, to amend, modify or terminate the organizing agreement pursuant to which such Subsidiary Partnership operates other than to reflect (A) the admission of additional limited partners therein pursuant to the terms thereof, (B) the making of additional capital contributions thereto pursuant to the terms thereof, (C) the withdrawal or assignment of the interest of any partner thereof pursuant to the terms thereof, or (D) any changes necessary to satisfy the REIT Requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement shall not be modified or amended without the prior written consent of each Partner adversely affected if such modification or acquisition would (i) convert a Limited Partner's interest in the Partnership to a general partnership interest, (ii) modify the limited liability of a Limited Partner, (iii) reduce the interest of any Partner in the Partnership, (iv) reduce any Partner's share of distributions made by the Partnership, (v) amend this Section 7.3 or Section 7.5 or (vi) create any obligations for any Limited Partner or deprive any Limited Partner of (or otherwise impair) any other rights it may have under this Agreement (including in respect of tax allocations, rights to indemnification under Section 7.8, rights of the Limited Partner or a Secured Creditor of a Limited Partner under Section 9.3 (which rights are subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 9.5), rights of a Limited Partner under Section 9.6 or Article XI, or the rights of a Limited Partner under Section 10.4(a) or 10.5); provided, however, that an amendment that reduces the percentage ownership interest of any Partner in the Partnership or reduces any Partner's share of distributions made by the Partnership (including tax allocations in respect of such distributions) shall not require the consent of any Partner if such change is made on a uniform or pro-rata basis with respect to all Partners.

(b) The Managing General Partner shall not, without the consent of the Non-Managing General Partners, and for all periods during which the Simons hold at least ten percent of the Partnership Units then outstanding, the Managing General Partner shall not, without the prior Consent of the Simons, and for all periods during which the DeBartolos hold at least ten percent of the Partnership Units then outstanding, the Managing General Partner shall not, without the prior Consent of the DeBartolos, on behalf of the Partnership, undertake any of the following actions (together with any act described in paragraph (a) hereof, the "Major Decisions"):

(i) Make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors (or cause or permit (if permission of the Partnership or any Subsidiary Partnership is required) such an assignment to be made on behalf of a Subsidiary Partnership) or appoint or acquiesce in the appointment of a custodian, receiver or trustee for all or any part of the assets of the Partnership (or any Subsidiary Partnership);

(ii) take title to any personal or real property, other than in the name of the Partnership or a Subsidiary Entity or pursuant to Section 7.7 hereof;

(iii) institute any proceeding for Bankruptcy on behalf of the Partnership, or cause or permit (if permission of the Partnership or any Subsidiary Partnership is required) the institution of any such proceeding on behalf of any Subsidiary Partnership;

(iv) act or cause the taking or refraining of any action with respect to the dissolution and winding up of the Partnership (or any Subsidiary Partnership) or an election to continue the Partnership (or any Subsidiary Partnership) or to continue the business of the Partnership (or any Subsidiary Partnership); or

(v) sell, exchange, Transfer or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the Partnership's assets.

(c) The Managing General Partner shall not, without the prior Consent of the Limited Partners,

(i) after the Effective Time, amend the Charter of the Managing General Partner to increase or decrease the Ownership Limit or alter any other provision of said Article or of any of the definitions of defined terms contained in such article which would have the effect of changing the Ownership Limit in any way;

(ii) except in connection with the dissolution and winding-up of the Partnership by the Liquidation Agent, agree to or consummate the merger or consolidation of the Partnership or the voluntary sale or other Transfer of all or substantially all of the Partnership's assets in a single transaction or related series of transactions (without limiting the transactions which will not be deemed to be a voluntary sale or Transfer, the foreclosure of a mortgage lien on any Property or the grant by the Partnership of a deed in lieu of foreclosure for such Property shall not be deemed to be such a voluntary sale or other Transfer); or

(iii) dissolve the Partnership.

Without the consent of all the Limited Partners, the Managing General Partner shall have no power to do any act in contravention of this Agreement or applicable law.

7.4 Managing General Partner and Non-Managing General Partners Participation. The Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners agree that (a) substantially all activities and business operations of the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners, including but not limited to, activities pertaining to the acquisition, development, redevelopment and ownership of properties, shall be conducted directly or indirectly through the Partnership or any Subsidiary Partnership and (b) except as provided below any funds raised by the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners, whether by issuance of stock, borrowing or otherwise, will be made available to the Partnership whether as capital contributions, loans or otherwise, as appropriate. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding sentence, each of the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners shall have the right to form Qualified REIT subsidiaries to act as general partners of Subsidiary Partnerships of the Partnership. The Managing General Partner and the Non Managing General Partner agree to conduct their respective affairs, to the extent they are so able to do, in a manner which will preserve the equivalence in value between a Share and a Partnership Unit.

7.5 Proscriptions. The Managing General Partner shall not have the authority to:

(a) Do any act in contravention of this Agreement;

(b) Possess any Partnership property or assign rights in specific Partnership property for other than Partnership purposes; or.

(c) Do any act in contravention of applicable law.

Nothing herein contained shall impose any obligation on any Person doing business with the Partnership to inquire as to whether or not the Managing General Partner has properly exercised its authority in executing any contract, lease, mortgage, deed or any other instrument or document on behalf of the Partnership, and any such Person shall be fully protected in relying upon such authority.

7.7 Title Holder. To the extent allowable under applicable law, title to all or any part of the Properties of the Partnership may be held in the name of the Partnership or any other individual, corporation, partnership, trust or otherwise, the beneficial interest in which shall at all times be vested in the Partnership. Any such title holder shall perform any and all of its respective functions to the extent and upon such terms and conditions as may be determined from time to time by the Managing General Partner.

7.8 Waiver and Indemnification. Neither the Managing General Partner, the Non-Managing General Partners nor any of their Affiliates, directors, trust managers, officers, shareholders, nor any Person acting on their behalf pursuant hereto, shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Partnership or to any Partner for any acts or omissions performed or omitted to be performed by them within the scope of the authority conferred upon the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners by this Agreement and the Act, provided that the Managing General Partner's, the Non-Managing General Partners' or such other Person's conduct or omission to act was taken in good faith and in the belief that such conduct or omission was in the best interests of the Partnership and, provided further, that the Managing General Partner, the Non-Managing General Partners or such other Person shall not be guilty of fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. The Managing General Partner acknowledges that it owes fiduciary duties both to its shareholders and to the Limited Partners and it shall use its reasonable efforts to discharge such duties to each; provided, however, that in the event of a conflict between the interests of the shareholders of the Managing General Partner and the interests of the Limited Partners, the Limited Partners agree that the Managing General Partner shall discharge its fiduciary duties to the Limited Partners by acting in the best interests of the Managing General Partner's shareholders. Nothing contained in the preceding sentence shall be construed as entitling either the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners to realize any profit or gain from any transaction between such Partner and the Partnership (except as may be required by law upon a distribution to the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners), including from the lending of money by the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners to the Partnership or the contribution of property by the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners to the Partnership, it being understood that in any such transaction the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners, as the case may be, shall be entitled to cost recovery only. The Partnership shall, and hereby does, indemnify and hold harmless each of the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners and its Affiliates, their respective directors, officers, shareholders and any other individual acting on its or their behalf to the extent such Persons would be indemnified by the Managing General Partner pursuant to the Charter of the Managing General Partner if such persons were directors, officers, agents or employees of the Managing General Partner (or the Charter of SDG or the Amended and Restated Regulations of SD Property, if such Persons were directors, officers, agents or employees of the Non-Managing General Partners); provided, however, that no Partner shall have any personal liability with respect to the foregoing indemnification, any such indemnification to be satisfied solely out of the assets of the Partnership. The Partnership shall, and hereby does, indemnify each Limited Partner and its Affiliates, their respective directors, officers, shareholders and any other individual acting on its or their behalf, from and against any costs (including costs of defense) incurred by it as a result of any litigation or other proceeding in which any Limited Partner is named as a defendant or any claim threatened or asserted against any Limited Partner, in either case which relates to the operations of the Partnership or any obligation assumed by the Partnership, unless such costs are the result of misconduct on the part of, or a breach of this Agreement by, such Limited Partner; provided, however, no Partner shall have any personal liability with respect to the foregoing indemnification, any such indemnification to be satisfied solely out of the assets of the Partnership.

7.9 Limitation of Liability of Directors Shareholders and Officers of the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners. Any obligation or liability whatsoever of the General Partners which may arise at any time under this Agreement or any other instrument, transaction, or undertaking contemplated hereby shall be satisfied, if at all, out of the assets of the General Partners or the Partnership only. No such obligation or liability shall be personally binding upon, nor shall resort for the enforcement thereof be had to, any of the General Partners' directors, shareholders, officers, employees, or agents, regardless of whether such obligation or liability is in the nature of contract, tort or otherwise.

7.10 Distribution to Limited Partners of the SRC Partnership. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement of Limited Partnership of the SRC Partnership, the Partnership will contribute assets to the SRC Partnership, become a limited partner of the SRC Partnership and receive SRC Partnership Units, which the Partnership will, in turn, distribute pro rata to all Limited Partners other than any General Partner who also holds SRC Partnership Units, whereupon the Limited Partners shall become limited partners of the SRC Partnership.

ARTICLE VIII

Dissolution, Liquidation and Winding-Up

8.1 Accounting. In the event of the dissolution, liquidation and winding-up of the Partnership, a proper accounting (which shall be certified by the Accountants) shall be made of the Capital Account of each Partner and of the Profits or Losses of the Partnership from the date of the last previous accounting to the date of dissolution. Financial statements presenting such accounting shall include a report of the Accountants.

8.2 Distribution on Dissolution. In the event of the dissolution and liquidation of the Partnership for any reason, the assets of the Partnership shall be liquidated for distribution in the following rank and order:

(a) Payment of creditors of the Partnership (other than Partners) in the order of priority as provided by law;

(b) Establishment of reserves as determined by the Managing General Partner to provide for contingent liabilities, if any;

(c) Payment of debts of the Partnership to Partners, if any, in the order of priority provided by law;

(d) To the Partners in accordance with the positive balances in their Capital Accounts after giving effect to all contributions, distributions and allocations for all periods, including the period in which such distribution occurs (other than those distributions made pursuant to this Section 8.2(d), Section 8.3 or Section 8.4 hereof).

If upon dissolution and termination of the Partnership the Capital Account of any Partner is less than zero, then such Partner shall have no obligation to restore the negative balance in its Capital Account unless and except to the extent that such Partner has so elected under Section 4.8. Whenever the Liquidation Agent reasonably determines that any reserves established pursuant to paragraph (b) above are in excess of the reasonable requirements of the Partnership, the amount determined to be excess shall be distributed to the Partners in accordance with the above provisions.

8.3 Sale of Partnership Assets. In the event of the liquidation of the Partnership in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Liquidation Agent may sell Partnership property; provided, however, that all sales, leases, encumbrances or transfers of Partnership assets shall be made by the Liquidation Agent solely on an "arm's length" basis, at the best price and on the best terms and conditions as the Liquidation Agent in good faith believes are reasonably available at the time and under the circumstances and on a non-recourse basis to the Limited Partners. The liquidation of the Partnership shall not be deemed finally terminated until the Partnership shall have received cash payments in full with respect to obligations such as notes, purchase money mortgages, installment sale contracts or other similar receivables received by the Partnership in connection with the sale of Partnership assets and all obligations of the Partnership have been satisfied or assumed by the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners. The Liquidation Agent shall continue to act to enforce all of the rights of the Partnership pursuant to any such obligations until paid in full or otherwise discharged or settled.

8.4 Distributions in Kind. In the event that it becomes necessary to make a distribution of Partnership property in kind in connection with the liquidation of the Partnership, the Managing General Partner may, if it determines that to do so would be in the best interest of the Partners and obtains the Consent of the Limited Partners and consent of the Non-Managing General Partners, transfer and convey such property to the distributees as tenants in common, subject to any liabilities attached thereto, so as to vest in them undivided interests in the whole of such property in proportion to their respective rights to share in the proceeds of the sale of such property (other than as a creditor) in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.2 hereof. Immediately prior to the distribution of Partnership property in kind, the Capital Account of each Partner shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss and deduction inherent in such property (to the extent not previously reflected in the Capital Accounts) would be allocated among the Partners if there were a taxable disposition of such property for its fair market value as of the date of the distribution.

8.5 Documentation of Liquidation. Upon the completion of the dissolution and liquidation of the Partnership, the Partnership shall terminate and the Liquidation Agent shall have the authority to execute and record any and all documents or instruments required to effect the dissolution, liquidation and termination of the Partnership.

8.6 Liability of the Liquidation Agent. The Liquidation Agent shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Partnership from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, costs, damages and causes of action of any nature whatsoever arising out of or incidental to the Liquidation Agent's taking of any action authorized under or within the scope of this Agreement; and provided, however, that no Partner shall have any personal liability with respect to the foregoing indemnification, any such indemnification to be satisfied solely out of the assets of the Partnership; and provided further, however, that the Liquidation Agent shall not be entitled to indemnification, and shall not be held harmless, where the claim, demand, liability, cost, damage or cause of action at issue arose out of:

(a) A matter entirely unrelated to the Liquidation Agent's action or conduct pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; or

(b) The proven misconduct or gross negligence of the Liquidation Agent.

ARTICLE IX

Transfer of Partnership Interests and Related Matters

9.1 Non-Managing General Partners Transfers and Deemed Transfers. Each of the Non-Managing General Partners shall not (i) withdraw from the Partnership, (ii) merge, consolidate or engage in any combination with another Person, (iii) sell all or substantially all of its assets or (iv) sell, assign, pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of its Partnership Units except where such merger, consolidation, sale, assignment, pledge or other disposal is to another General Partner as its sole successor. In the event of the withdrawal by a General Partner from the Partnership, in violation of this Agreement or otherwise, or the dissolution, termination or Bankruptcy of a General Partner, within 90 days after the occurrence of any such event, the remaining General Partners or a majority in interest of the remaining Partners may elect in writing to continue the Partnership business and may, or if there is then no General Partner other than one that has withdrawn or as to which dissolution, termination or Bankruptcy has occurred shall, select a substitute general partner effective as of the date of the occurrence of any such event.

9.2 Managing General Partner Transfers and Deemed Transfers. The Managing General Partner shall not (i) withdraw from the Partnership, (ii) merge, consolidate or engage in any combination with another Person other than to another General Partner, (iii) sell all or substantially all of its assets or (iv) sell, assign, pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of its Partnership Units or Preferred Units except to the Partnership, in each case without the Consent of the Limited Partners. Upon any transfer of any Partnership Units (not Preferred Units) in accordance with the provisions of this Section 9.2, the transferee General Partner shall become vested with the powers and rights of the transferor General Partner with respect to the Partnership Units transferred, and shall be liable for all obligations and responsible for all duties of the transferor General Partner, once such transferee has executed such instruments as may be necessary to effectuate such admission and to confirm the agreement of such transferee to be bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement with respect to the Partnership Units so acquired. It is a condition to any transfer otherwise permitted hereunder that the transferee assumes by operation of law or express agreement all of the obligations of the transferor Managing General Partner under this Agreement with respect to such transferred Partnership Units and no such transfer (other than pursuant to a statutory merger or consolidation wherein all obligations and liabilities of the transferor General Partner are assumed by a successor corporation by operation of law) shall relieve the transferor General Partner of its obligations under this Agreement accruing prior to the date of such transfer.

9.3 Transfers by Limited Partners. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 9.3, the Limited Partners shall not Transfer all or any portion of their Partnership Units to any transferee without the consent of the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners, which consent may be withheld in their sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be considered a limitation on the ability of the Limited Partners to exercise their Rights pursuant to Article XI hereof.

(a) Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to the provisions of Section 9.5 hereof, any Limited Partner may at any time, without the consent of the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners, (i) Transfer all or a portion of its Partnership Units to an Affiliate of such Limited Partner, or (ii) Pledge some or all of its Partnership Units to any Institutional Lender. Any Transfer to an Affiliate pursuant to clause (i) and any Transfer to a pledgee of Partnership Units Pledged pursuant to clause (ii) may be made without the consent of the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners but, except as provided in subsequent provisions of this Section 9.3, such transferee or such pledgee shall hold the Units so transferred to it (and shall be admitted to the Partnership as a Substitute Limited Partner) subject to all the restrictions set forth in this Section 9.3. It is a condition to any Transfer otherwise permitted under any provision of this Section 9.3 that the transferee assumes by operation of law or express agreement all of the obligations of the transferor Limited Partner under this Agreement with respect to such transferred Partnership Units arising after the effective date of the Transfer and no such Transfer (other than pursuant to a statutory merger or consolidation wherein all obligations and liabilities of the transferor Partner are assumed by a successor corporation by operation of law, and other than pursuant to an exercise of the Rights pursuant to Article XI wherein all obligations and liabilities of the transferor Partner arising from and after the date of such Transfer shall be assumed by the Managing General Partner) shall relieve the transferor Partner of its obligations under this Agreement prior to the effective date of such Transfer. Upon any such Transfer or Pledge permitted under this Section 9.3, the transferee or, upon foreclosure on the Pledged Partnership Units, each Institutional Lender which is the pledgee shall be admitted as a Substituted Limited Partner as such term is defined in the Act and shall succeed to all of the rights, including rights with respect to the Rights, of the transferor Limited Partner under this Agreement in the place and stead of such transferor Limited Partner; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, any transferee of any transferred Partnership Unit shall, unless the Ownership Limit is waived in writing by the Managing General Partner, be subject to the Ownership Limit applicable to Persons other than the Limited Partners and/or their Affiliates which may limit or restrict such transferee's ability to exercise the Limited Partner's Rights, if any. Any transferee, whether or not admitted as a Substituted Limited Partner, shall take subject to the obligations of the transferor hereunder. No transferee pursuant to a Transfer which is not expressly permitted under this Section 9.3 and is not consented to by the General Partners, whether by a voluntary Transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, shall have any rights hereunder, other than the right to receive such portion of the distributions and allocations of Profits and Losses made by the Partnership as are allocable to the Partnership Units so transferred.

(b) In addition to the Rights granted to the JCP Limited Partner and any other Transfers permitted under this Article IX, the JCP Limited Partner shall have the right to transfer all of its Partnership Units to a single accredited investor, as defined in Rule 501 promulgated under the Securities Act, subject to the provisions of Section 9.5, and such transferee shall be admitted to the Partnership as a Substitute Limited Partner. Any transferee of the Partnership Units owned by the JCP Limited Partner shall be subject to all of the restrictions set forth in Section 9.3(a) above; provided, however, that if the JCP Limited Partner hereafter Pledges its Partnership Units pursuant to Section 9.3(a), then provided that the JCP Limited Partner has not previously exercised the right provided for above in this Section 9.3(c), the Institutional Lender or Lenders which are the pledgee(s) may exercise such right, whether by taking title to the JCP Limited Partner's Partnership Units and then transferring the same or by effecting such transfer upon foreclosure of the Pledge.

(c) The Limited Partners acknowledge that the Partnership Units have not been registered under any federal or state securities laws and, as a result thereof, they may not be sold or otherwise transferred, except in accordance with Article XI or otherwise in compliance with such laws. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no Partnership Units may be sold or otherwise transferred except pursuant to Article XI unless such Transfer is exempt from registration under any applicable securities laws or such Transfer is registered under such laws, it being acknowledged that the Partnership has no obligation to take any action which would cause any such interests to be registered.

9.4 Issuance of Additional Partnership Units and Preferred Units. At any time after the date hereof, subject to the provisions of Section 9.5 hereof, the Managing General Partner may, with the consent of the Non-Managing General Partners, upon its determination that the issuance of additional Partnership Units ("Additional Units") is in the best interests of the Partnership, cause the Partnership to issue Additional Units to any existing Partner or issue Additional Units to and admit as a partner in the Partnership any Person in exchange for the contribution by such Person of cash and/or property which the Managing General Partner determines is desirable to further the purposes of the Partnership under Section 2.3 hereof and which the Managing General Partner determines has a value that justifies the issuance of such Additional Units. In the event that Additional Units are issued by the Partnership pursuant to this Section 9.4, the number of Partnership Units issued shall be determined by dividing the Gross Asset Value of the property contributed (reduced by the amount of any indebtedness assumed by the Partnership or to which such property is subject) as of the date of contribution to the Partnership (the "Contribution Date") by the Contribution Deemed Partnership Unit Value, computed as of the Trading Day immediately preceding the Contribution Date.

In addition, the Managing General Partner may, upon its determination that the issuance of Preferred Units is in the best interests of the Partnership, issue Preferred Units in accordance with Sections 4.1(c) and 4.3(c) hereof.

The Managing General Partner shall be authorized on behalf of each of the Partners to amend this Agreement to reflect the admission of any Partner or any increase in the Partnership Units or Preferred Units of any Partner in accordance with the provisions of this Section 9.4, and the Managing General Partner shall promptly deliver a copy of such amendment to the Non-Managing General Partners and each Limited Partner. The Limited Partners hereby irrevocably appoint the Managing General Partner as their attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, solely for the purpose of executing and delivering such documents, and taking such actions, as shall be reasonably necessary in connection with the provisions of this Section 9.4 or making any modification to this Agreement permitted by Section 7.3 (including, without limitation, any modification which, under Section 7.3 hereof, requires the Consent of the Limited Partners where such consent has been obtained). Nothing contained in this Section 9.4 shall be construed as authorizing the Managing General Partner to grant any consent on behalf of the Limited Partners, or any of them.

9.5 Restrictions on Transfer.

(a) In addition to any other restrictions on Transfer herein contained, in no event may any Transfer or assignment of a Partnership Unit or Preferred Unit by any Partner be made nor may any new Partnership Unit or Preferred Unit be issued by the Partnership (i) to any Person which lacks the legal right, power or capacity to own a Partnership Unit or Preferred Unit; (ii) in violation of applicable law; (iii) if such Transfer would immediately or with the passage of time cause either the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners to fail to comply with the REIT Requirements, such determination to be made assuming that such Partners do comply with the REIT Requirements immediately prior to the proposed Transfer; (iv) if such Transfer would cause the Partnership to become, with respect to any employee benefit plan subject to Title I of ERISA, a "party-in-interest" (as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA) or a "disqualified person" (as defined in Section 4975(e) of the Code); (v) if such Transfer would, in the opinion of counsel to the Partnership, cause any portion of the underlying assets of the Partnership to constitute assets of any employee benefit plan pursuant to Department of Labor Regulations Section 2510.3-101; (vi) if such Transfer would result in a deemed distribution to any Partner attributable to a failure to meet the requirements of Regulations Section l.752-2(d)(l), unless such Partner consents thereto, (vii) if such Transfer would cause any lender to the Partnership to hold in excess of ten (10) percent of the Partnership Interest that would, pursuant to the regulations under Section 752 of the Code or any successor provision, cause a loan by such a lender to constitute Partner Nonrecourse Debt, (viii) if such Transfer, other than to an Affiliate, is of a Partnership Interest the value of which would have been less than $20,000 when issued, (ix) if such Transfer would, in the opinion of counsel to the Partnership, cause the Partnership to cease to be classified as a Partnership for federal income tax purposes or (x) if such Transfer is effectuated through an "established securities market" or a "secondary market (or the substantial equivalent thereof)" within the meaning of Section 7704(b) of the Code.

(b) No Preferred Unit may be transferred by the Managing General Partner to any Person who is not a General Partner of the Partnership.

(c) No Partnership Unit may be transferred by any Partner without a transfer of the corresponding SRC Partnership Unit.

9.6 Shelf Registration Rights. The Managing General Partner agrees that, upon the request of any Limited Partner that has not entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with the Managing General Partner substantially in the form of Exhibit D hereto (each, a "Shelf Rights Holder"), made at any time, the Managing General Partner will, if it has not already done so, within 60 days thereafter file a "shelf" registration statement (the "Shelf Registration"), on an appropriate form pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or any similar rule that may be adopted by the SEC, with respect to the sale of Registrable Securities (as defined below) by the Shelf Rights Holders in ordinary course brokerage or dealer transactions not involving an underwritten public offering. The Managing General Partner shall use all reasonable efforts to have the Shelf Registration declared effective as soon as practicable after such filing and to keep such Shelf Registration continuously effective following the date on which such Shelf Registration is declared effective for so long as any Units are outstanding. The Managing General Partner further agrees, if necessary, to supplement or make amendments to the Shelf Registration, if required by the registration form used by the Managing General Partner for the Shelf Registration or by the instructions applicable to such registration form or by the Securities Act or the rules and regulations thereunder, and the Managing General Partner agrees to furnish to each Shelf Rights Holder copies of any such supplement or amendment at least three days prior to its being used and/or filed with the SEC. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Managing General Partner shall furnish to the Unit holder a certificate signed by the Chief Executive Officer of the Managing General Partner stating that in the good faith judgment of the Directors it would be significantly disadvantageous to the Managing General Partner and its stockholders for any such Shelf Registration to be amended or supplemented, the Managing General Partner may defer such amending or supplementing of such Shelf Registration for not more than 45 days and in such event the Unit holder shall be required to discontinue disposition of any Registrable Securities covered by such Shelf Registration during such period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Managing General Partner irrevocably elects, or the Partnership is so required under Section 11.3, prior to the filing of any Shelf Registration to issue all cash in lieu of Shares upon the exchange of Units by the holder requesting the tiling of such Shelf Registration, the Managing General Partner shall not be obligated to file such Shelf Registration Statement. The Managing General Partner shall make available to its security holders, as soon as reasonably practicable, a statement of operations covering a period of twelve (12) months, commencing on the first day of the fiscal quarter next succeeding each sale of any Registrable Securities pursuant to the Shelf Registration, in a manner which shall satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act.

(a) Securities Subject to this Section 9.6. The securities entitled to the benefits of this Section 9.6 are the Shares that have been or may be issued from time to time upon the exchange of Units pursuant to Article XI hereof and any other securities issued by the Managing General Partner in accordance with the terms of this Agreement in exchange for any of the Shares (collectively, the "Registrable Securities") but, with respect to any particular Registrable Security, only so long as it continues to be a Registrable Security. Registrable Securities shall include any securities issued in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as a dividend or distribution on account of Registrable Securities or resulting from a subdivision of the outstanding Shares of Registrable Securities into a greater number of shares (by reclassification, stock split or otherwise). For the purposes of this Agreement, a security that was at one time a Registrable security shall cease to be a Registrable Security when (i) such security has been effectively registered under the Securities Act, and either (A) the registration statement with respect thereto has remained continuously effective for 150 days or (B) such security has been disposed of pursuant to such registration statement, (ii) such security is or can be immediately sold to the public in reliance on Rule 144 (or any similar provision then in force) under the Securities Act, (iii) such security has been otherwise transferred and (a) the Managing General Partner has delivered a new certificate or other evidence of ownership not bearing the legend set forth on the Shares upon the initial issuance thereof (or other legend of similar import) and (b) in the opinion of counsel to the Managing General Partner, the subsequent disposition of such security would not require the registration or qualification under the Securities Act or any similar state law then in force, or (iv) such security has ceased to be outstanding.

(b) Registration Expenses. The Managing General Partner shall pay, as REIT Expenses, all expenses incident to the Shelf Registration, including, without limitation, (i) all SEC, stock exchange and National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. registration, filing and listing fees, (ii) all fees and expenses incurred in complying with securities or "blue sky" laws (including reasonable tees and disbursements of counsel in connection with "blue sky" qualifications of the Registrable Securities), (iii) all printing, messenger and delivery expenses, (iv) all fees and disbursements of the Managing General Partner's independent public accountants and counsel and (v) all fees and expenses of any special experts retained by the Managing General Partner in connection with the Shelf Registration pursuant to the terms of this Section 9.6, regardless of whether such Shelf Registration becomes effective, unless such Shelf Registration fails to become effective as a result of the fault of the Shelf Rights Holders; provided, however, that the Managing General Partner shall not pay the costs and expenses of any Shelf Rights Holder relating to brokerage or dealer fees, transfer taxes or the fees or expenses of any counsel's accountants or other representatives retained by the Shelf Rights Holders, individually or in the aggregate.

ARTICLE X

Rights and Obligations of the Limited Partners

10.1 No Participation in Management. Except as expressly permitted hereunder, the Limited Partners shall not take part in the management of the Partnership's business, transact any business in the Partnership's name or have the power to sign documents for or otherwise bind the Partnership; provided, that the foregoing shall not be deemed to limit the ability of a Limited Partner (or any officer or director thereof) who is an officer, director or employee of the Partnership, either the Managing General Partner or Non-Managing General Partners, or any Affiliate thereof, to act in such capacity.

10.2 Bankruptcy of a Limited Partner. The Bankruptcy of any Limited Partner shall not cause a dissolution of the Partnership, but the rights of such Limited Partner to share in the Profits or Losses of the Partnership and to receive distributions of Partnership funds shall, on the happening of such event, devolve to its successors or assigns, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and the Partnership shall continue as a limited partnership. However, in no event shall such assignee(s) become a Substituted Limited Partner except in accordance with Article IX.

10.3 No Withdrawal. No Limited Partner may withdraw from the Partnership without the prior written consent of the Managing General Partner and of the Non-Managing General Partners, other than as expressly provided in this Agreement.

10.4 Duties and Conflicts. (a) The Partners recognize that each of the other Partners and their Affiliates have or may have other business interests, activities and investments, some of which may be in conflict or competition with the business of the Partnership, and that such Persons are entitled to carry on such other business interests, activities and investments. In addition, the Partners recognize that certain of the Limited Partners and their Affiliates are and may in the future be tenants of the Partnership, Subsidiary Entities or other Persons or own anchor or other stores in the Properties of the Partnership, or Subsidiary Entities or other properties and in connection therewith may have interests that conflict with those of the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities. In deciding whether to take any actions in such capacity, such Limited Partners and their Affiliates shall be under no obligation to consider the separate interests of the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities and shall have no fiduciary obligations to the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities and shall not be liable for monetary damages for losses sustained liabilities incurred or benefits not derived by the other Partners in connection with such acts; nor shall the Partnership, the Non-Managing General Partners, the Managing General Partner or any Subsidiary Entities be under any obligation to consider the separate interests of the Limited Partners and their Affiliates in such Limited Partners' independent capacities or have any fiduciary obligations to the Limited Partners and their Affiliates in such capacity or be liable for monetary damages for losses sustained, liabilities incurred or benefits not derived by the Limited Partners and their Affiliates in such independent capacities arising from actions or omissions taken by the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities. The Limited Partners and their Affiliates may engage in or possess an interest in any other business or venture of any kind, independently or with others, on their own behalf or on behalf of other Entities with which they are affiliated or associated, and such Persons may engage in any activities, whether or not competitive with the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities, without any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities or to any Partner or otherwise. Neither the Partnership nor any Partner shall have any right, by virtue of this Agreement, in or to such activities, or the income or profits derived therefrom, and the pursuit of such activities, even if competitive with the business of the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, without the prior consents of the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners, no Limited Partner shall knowingly take any action, including acquiring, directly or indirectly, an interest in any tenant of a Property which would have, through the actual or constructive ownership of any tenant of any Property, the effect of causing the percentage of the gross income of either of the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners that fails to be treated as "rents from real property" within the meaning of Section 856(d) of the Code to exceed such percentage on the date hereof. Each Limited Partner shall have a duty to notify the Managing General Partner and the Non-Managing General Partners on a timely basis of any potential acquisition or change in ownership that could reasonably be expected to have such effect.

10.5 Guaranty and Indemnification Agreements.

(a) The Partnership shall notify the Limited Partners no less than 45 days (or, if the Partnership itself has less than 45 days' prior notice, as promptly as practicable) prior to the occurrence of any event that the Partnership reasonably expects will reduce the amount of Partnership liabilities (including liabilities of any other Subsidiary Partnership) that the Limited Partners may include in their individual tax bases of their respective Partnership Interests pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.752-2 and Treasury Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(2) and (3). Upon receipt of such notice, each Limited Partner shall inform the Partnership of any action it desires to take in its sole and absolute discretion in order to increase the "economic risk of loss" (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation 5 1.752-2) (the "Incurrence") that it has with respect to liabilities of the Partnership or any other Subsidiary Partnerships. The Partnership shall cooperate with each Limited Partner to facilitate the Incurrence by such Limited Partner with respect to Partnership Liabilities or liabilities of any Subsidiary Partnerships in such a way that the Incurrence has the least amount of real economic risk to such Limited Partner and provided that the Incurrence does not have a material adverse impact on any other Partner in the Partnership or any such Partner's Affiliates.

No direct or indirect Partner in the Partnership or any partnership which is the obligor on a JCP Property Liability shall incur the "economic risk of loss" (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 752-2) with respect to any JCP Property Liability without the prior written consent of the JCP Limited Partner.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10.5(a) above, no Limited Partners shall have any right to negotiate directly with any lender of the Partnership or any other Subsidiary Partnership, any such negotiation to be undertaken in good faith by the Managing General Partner or the Non-Managing General Partners on behalf of, and at the request of, all affected Limited Partners.

ARTICLE XI

Grant of Rights to the Limited Partners

11.1 Grant of Rights. The Managing General Partner does hereby grant to each of the Limited Partners and each of the Limited Partners does hereby accept the right, but not the obligation (hereinafter such right sometimes referred to as the "Rights"), to convert all or a portion of such Limited Partner's Partnership Units into Shares or cash, as selected by the Managing General Partner, at any time or from time to time, on the terms and subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in this Article XI; provided, however, that no Partnership Unit may be converted pursuant to this Article XI without a conversion of the corresponding SRC Partnership Unit; and provided, further that each Partnership Unit converted pursuant to this Article XI shall be converted into the same form of consideration as the corresponding SRC Partnership Unit. The Rights granted hereunder may be exercised by a Limited Partner, on the terms and subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in this Article XI, upon delivery to the Managing General Partner of a notice in the form of Exhibit E (an "Exercise Notice"), which notice shall specify the number of such Limited Partner's Partnership Units to be converted by such Limited Partner (the "Offered Units"). Once delivered, the Exercise Notice shall be irrevocable, subject to payment by the Managing General Partner or the Partnership of the Purchase Price for the Offered Units in accordance with the terms hereof and subject to Section 1 of the Registration Rights Agreements. In the event the Managing General Partner elects to cause the Offered Units to be converted into cash, the Managing General Partner shall effect such conversion by causing the Partnership to redeem the Offered Units for cash.

11.2 Limitation on Exercise of Rights. If an Exercise Notice is delivered to the Managing General Partner but, as a result of the Ownership Limit or as a result of other restrictions contained in the Charter of the Managing General Partner, the Rights cannot be exercised in full for Shares, the Exercise Notice, if the Purchase Price is to be payable in Shares, shall be deemed to be modified such that the Rights shall be exercised only to the extent permitted under the Ownership Limit or under other restrictions in the Charter of the Managing General Partner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Person shall be permitted to exercise its Rights hereunder during the first half of a taxable year of the Managing General Partner even if upon conversion of the Offered Units into Shares, the Shares held by such Person will exceed the Ownership Limit, so long as such Person shall immediately following such conversion sell so many of such Shares as shall cause the Ownership Limit not to be exceeded upon consummation of such sale. The Managing General Partner hereby agrees to exercise its right pursuant to its Charter to permit the Ownership Limit to be exceeded in the circumstances described in the preceding sentence.

11.3 Computation of Purchase Price/Form of Payment. The purchase price ("Purchase Price") payable to a tendering Limited Partner shall be equal to the Deemed Partnership Unit Value multiplied by the number of Offered Units computed as of the date on which the Exercise Notice was delivered to the Managing General Partner (the "Computation Date"). Subject to the following paragraph, the Purchase Price for the Offered Units shall be payable, at the option of the Managing General Partner, by causing the Partnership to redeem the Offered Units for cash in the amount of the Purchase Price, or by the issuance by the Managing General Partner of the number of Shares equal to the number of Offered Units (adjusted as appropriate to account for stock splits, stock dividends or other similar transactions between the Computation Date and the closing of the purchase and sale of the Offered Units in the manner specified in Section 11.7(d) below).

Where a Limited Partner exercising its rights pursuant to this Section on or after August 9, 2001, up to, but not including, August 9, 2004, is a DeBartolo, and such Limited Partner has received a special allocation of taxable income or gain from a Covered Sale pursuant to Section 6.1(e) within 90 days prior to the date of such exercise, then to the extent of any tax due on such allocation and on the redemption of such Limited Partner's Units, the Managing General Partner shall, if such Limited Partner so requests in the Exercise Notice, cause the Partnership to redeem its Units for cash in accordance with this Section 11.3.

11.4 Closing. The closing of the acquisition or redemption of Offered Units shall, unless otherwise mutually agreed, be held at the principal offices of the Managing General Partner, on the date agreed to by the Managing General Partner and the relevant Limited Partner, which date (the "Settlement Date") shall in no event be on a date which is later than the later of (i) ten (10) days after the date of the Exercise Notice and (ii) five (5) days after the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable to the Limited Partner, if any, under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act (the "HSR Act"). The Managing General Partner agrees to use its best efforts to obtain an early termination of the waiting period applicable to any such acquisition, if any, under the HSR Act. Until the Settlement Date, each tendering Partner shall continue to own his Offered Units, and will continue to be treated as the holder of such Offered Units for all purposes of this Agreement, including, without limitation, for purposes of voting, consent, allocations and distributions. Offered Units will be transferred to the Managing General Partner only upon receipt by the tendering Partner of Shares or cash in payment in full therefor.

11.5 Closing Deliveries. At the closing of the purchase and sale or redemption of Offered Units, payment of the Purchase Price shall be accompanied by proper instruments of transfer and assignment and by the delivery of (i) representations and warranties of (A) the tendering Limited Partner with respect to its due authority to sell all of the right, title and interest in and to such Offered Units to the Managing General Partner or the Partnership, as applicable, and with respect to the ownership by of the Limited Partner of such Units, free and clear of all Liens, and (B) the Managing General Partner with respect to its due authority to acquire such Units for Shares or to cause the Partnership to redeem such Units for cash and, in the case of payment by Shares, (ii) (A) an opinion of counsel for the Managing General Partner, reasonably satisfactory to such Limited Partner, to the effect that such Shares have been duly authorized, are validly issued, fully-paid and non-assessable, and (B) a stock certificate or certificates evidencing the Shares to be issued and registered in the name of the Limited Partner or its designee.

11.6 Term of Rights. The rights of the parties with respect to the Rights shall remain in effect, subject to the terms hereof, throughout the existence of the Partnership.

11.7 Covenants of the Managing General Partner. To facilitate the Managing General Partner's ability fully to perform its obligations hereunder, the Managing General Partner covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) At all times while the Rights are in existence, the Managing General Partner shall reserve for issuance such number of Shares as may be necessary to enable the Managing General Partner to issue such Shares in full payment of the Purchase Price in regard to all Partnership Units which are from time to time outstanding and held by the Limited Partners.

(b) As long as the Managing General Partner shall be obligated to file periodic reports under the Exchange Act, the Managing General Partner will timely file such reports in such manner as shall enable any recipient of Shares issued to a Limited Partner hereunder in reliance upon an exemption from registration under the Securities Act to continue to be eligible to utilize Rule 144 promulgated by the SEC pursuant to the Securities Act, or any successor rule or regulation or statute thereunder, for the resale thereof.

(c) During the pendency of the Rights, the relevant Limited Partners shall receive in a timely manner all reports filed by the Managing General Partner with the SEC and all other communications transmitted from time to time by the Managing General Partner to the owners of its Shares.

(d) Under no circumstances shall the Managing General Partner declare any stock dividend, stock split, stock distribution or the like, unless fair and equitable arrangements are provided, to the extent necessary, fully to adjust, and to avoid any dilution in, the Rights of any Limited Partner under this Agreement.

11.8 Limited Partners' Covenant. Each of the Limited Partners covenants and agrees with the Managing General Partner that all Offered Units tendered to the Managing General Partner or the Partnership, as the case may be, in accordance with the exercise of Rights herein provided shall be delivered free and clear of all Liens and should any Liens exist or arise with respect to such Offered Units, the Managing General Partner or the Partnership, as the case may be, shall be under no obligation to acquire the same unless, in connection with such acquisition, the Managing General Partner has elected to cause the Partnership to pay such portion of the Purchase Price in the form of cash consideration in circumstances where such consideration will be sufficient to cause such existing Lien to be discharged in full upon application of all or a part of such consideration and the Partnership is expressly authorized to apply such portion of the Purchase Price as may be necessary to satisfy any indebtedness in full and to discharge such Lien in full. In the event any transfer tax is payable by the Limited Partner as a result of a transfer of Partnership Units pursuant to the exercise by a Limited Partner of the Rights, the Limited Partner shall pay such transfer tax.

11.9 Dividends. If a Limited Partner shall exchange any Partnership Units for Shares pursuant to this Article XI on or prior to the Partnership Record Date for any distribution to be made on such Partnership Units, in accordance with the Charter of the Managing General Partner such Limited Partner will be entitled to receive the corresponding distribution to be paid on such Shares and shall not be entitled to receive the distribution made by the Partnership in respect of the exchanged Partnership Units.

SPG REALTY CONSULTANTS, L.P.

THIS LIMITED PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, dated as of August __, 1998, is made by and among SPG REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC., a Delaware corporation, as managing general partner (the "Managing General Partner"), and those parties who have executed this Agreement as limited partners and whose names and addresses are set forth on Exhibit A hereto as limited partners (the "Limited Partners").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution hereof, SPG Merger Sub, Inc., a Maryland corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Simon Property Group, Inc. (b) To the extent the Partnership does not borrow all of the Required Funds (and whether or not the Partnership is able to borrow all or part of the Required Funds), the Managing General Partner (or an Affiliate thereof) (i) may itself borrow such Required Funds, in which case the Managing General Partner shall lend such Required Funds to the Partnership on the same economic terms and otherwise on substantially identical terms, or (ii) may raise such Required Funds in any other manner, in which case, unless such Required Funds are raised by the Managing General Partner through the sale of Preferred Shares, the Managing General Partner shall contribute to the Partnership as an additional Capital Contribution the amount of the Required Funds so raised ("Contributed Funds") (hereinafter, each date on which the Managing General Partner so contributes Contributed Funds pursuant to this Section 4.3(b) is referred to as an "Adjustment Date"). Any Required Funds raised from the sale of Preferred Shares shall either be contributed to the Partnership as Contributed Funds or loaned to the Partnership pursuant to Section 4.3(c) below. In the event the Managing General Partner advances Required Funds to the Partnership pursuant to this Section 4.3(b) as Contributed Funds, then the Partnership shall assume and pay (or reflect on its books as additional Contributed Funds) the expenses (including any applicable underwriting discounts) incurred by the Managing General Partner (or such Affiliate) in connection with raising such Required Funds through a public offering of its securities or otherwise. If the Managing General Partner advances Required Funds to the Partnership as Contributed Funds pursuant to this Section 4.3(b) from any offering or sale of Shares (including, without limitation, any issuance of Shares pursuant to the exercise of options, warrants, convertible securities or similar rights to acquire Shares), the Partnership shall issue additional Partnership Units to the Managing General Partner to reflect its contribution of the Contributed Funds equal in number to the number of Shares issued in such offering or sale.

(c) In the event the Managing General Partner contributes to the Partnership any Required Funds obtained from the sale of Preferred Shares ("Preferred Contributed Funds"), then the Partnership shall assume and pay the expenses (including any applicable underwriter discounts) incurred by the Managing General Partner in connection with raising such Required Funds. In addition, the Managing General Partner shall be issued Preferred Units of a designated class or series to reflect its contribution of such funds. Each class or series of Preferred Units so issued shall be designated by the Managing General Partner to identify such class or series with the class or series of Preferred Shares which constitutes the Related Issue. Each class or series of Preferred Units shall be described in a written document (the "Preferred Unit Designation") attached as Exhibit B that shall set forth, in sufficient detail, the economic rights, including dividend, redemption and conversion rights and sinking fund provisions, of the class or series of Preferred Units and the Related Issue. The number of Preferred Units of a class or series shall be equal to the number of shares of the Related Issue sold. The Preferred Unit Designation shall provide for such terms for the class or series of preferred Units that shall entitle the Managing General Partner to substantially the same economic rights as the holders of the Related Issue. Specifically, the Managing General Partner shall receive distributions on the class or series of Preferred Units pursuant to Section 6.2 equal to the aggregate dividends payable on the Related Issue at the times such dividends are paid (the "Preferred Distribution Requirement"). The Partnership shall redeem the class or series of Preferred Units for a redemption price per Preferred Unit equal to the redemption price per share of the Related Issue, exclusive of any accrued unpaid dividends (the "Preferred Redemption Price") upon the redemption of any shares of the Related Issue. Each class or series of Preferred Units shall also be converted into additional Partnership Units at the time and on such economic terms and conditions as the Related Issue is converted into Shares. Upon the issuance of any class or series of Preferred Units pursuant to this Section 4.3(c), the Managing General Partner shall provide the Limited Partners with a copy of the Preferred Unit Designation relating to such class or series. The Managing General Partner shall have the right, in lieu of contributing to the Partnership proceeds from the sale of Preferred Shares as Preferred Contributed Funds, to lend such proceeds to the Partnership. Any such loan shall be on the same terms and conditions as the Related Issue except that dividends payable on the Related Issue shall be payable by the Partnership to the Managing General Partner as interest, any mandatory redemptions shall take the form of principal payments and no Preferred Units shall be issued to the Managing General Partner. If any such loan is made, the Partnership shall promptly reimburse the Managing General Partner for all expenses (including any applicable underwriter discounts) incurred by the Managing General Partner in connection with raising the Required Funds. Any such loan made by the Managing General Partner to the Partnership may at any time be contributed to the Partnership as Preferred Contributed Funds in exchange for Preferred Units as above provided; and if the Related Issue is by its terms convertible into Shares, such loan shall be so contributed to the Partnership prior to the effectuation of such conversion.

4.4 Redemption; Change in Number of Shares Outstanding.

(a) If the Managing General Partner shall redeem any of its outstanding Shares, the Partnership shall concurrently therewith redeem the number of Units underlying the Trust Interests holding such Shares held by the Managing General Partner for the same price as paid by the Managing General Partner for the redemption of such Shares.

(b) In the event of any change in the outstanding number of Shares by reason of any share dividend, split, reverse split, recapitalization, merger, consolidation or combination, the number of Units held by each Partner (or assignee) shall be proportionately adjusted such that, to the extent possible, one Unit remains the equivalent of one Trust Interest without dilution.

4.5 Dividend Reinvestment Plan. All amounts received by the Managing General Partner in respect of its dividend reinvestment plan, if any, either (a) shall be utilized by the Managing General Partner to effect open market purchases of Paired Shares, or (b) if the Managing General Partner elects instead to issue new shares with respect to such amounts, shall be contributed by the Managing General Partner to the Partnership in exchange for additional Partnership Units. The number of Partnership Units so issued shall be determined by dividing the amount of funds so contributed by the Deemed Partnership Unit Value. The Managing General Partner shall promptly give each Limited Partner written notice of the number of Partnership Units so issued.

4.6 No Third Party Beneficiary. No creditor or other Third Party having dealings with the Partnership shall have the right to enforce the right or obligation of any Partner to make Capital Contributions or to pursue any other right or remedy hereunder or at law or in equity, it being understood and agreed that the provisions of this Agreement shall be solely for the benefit of, and may be enforced solely by, the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns. None of the rights or obligations of the Partners herein set forth to make Capital Contributions to the Partnership shall be deemed an asset of the Partnership for any purpose by any creditor or other third party, nor may such rights or obligations be sold, transferred or assigned by the Partnership or pledged or encumbered by the Partnership to secure any debt or other obligation of the Partnership or of any of the Partners.

4.7 No Interest; No Return. No Partner shall be entitled to interest on its Capital Contribution or on such Partner's Capital Account. Except as provided herein or by law, no Partner shall have any right to withdraw any part of its Capital Account or to demand or receive the return of its Capital Contribution from the Partnership.

4.8 Capital Accounts.

(a) The Partnership shall establish and maintain a separate capital account ("Capital Account") for each Partner, including a Partner who shall pursuant to the provisions hereof acquire a Partnership Interest, which Capital Account shall be:

(1) credited with the amount of cash contributed by such Partner to the capital of the Partnership; the initial Gross Asset Value (net of liabilities secured by such contributed property that the Partnership assumes or takes subject to) of any other property contributed by such Partner to the capital of the Partnership; such Partner's distributive share of Profits; and any other items in the nature of income or gain that are allocated to such Partner pursuant to Section 6.1 hereof, but excluding tax items described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(i); and

(2) debited with the amount of cash distributed to such Partner pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; the Gross Asset Value (net of liabilities secured by such distributed property that such Partner assumes or takes subject to) of any Partnership property distributed to such Partner pursuant to any provision of this Agreement; the amount of unsecured liabilities of such Partner assumed by the Partnership; such Partner's distributive share of Losses; in the case of the General Partners, payments of GP Expenses by the Partnership; and any other items in the nature of expenses or losses that are allocated to such Partner pursuant to Section 6.1 hereof, but excluding tax items described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(i).

In the event that any or all of a Partner's Partnership Units or Preferred Units are transferred within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(l), the transferee shall succeed to the Capital Account of the transferor to the extent that it relates to the Units so transferred.

In the event that the Gross Asset Values of Partnership assets are adjusted pursuant to Section 4.8(b)(ii) hereof, the Capital Accounts of the Partners shall be adjusted to reflect the aggregate net adjustments as if the Partnership sold all of its properties for their fair market values and recognized gain or loss for federal income tax purposes equal to the amount of such aggregate net adjustment.

A Limited Partner shall be liable unconditionally to the Partnership for all or a portion of any deficit in its Capital Account if it so elects to be liable for such deficit or portion thereof. Such election may be for either a limited or unlimited amount and may be amended or withdrawn at any time. The election, and any amendment thereof, shall be made by written notice to the Managing General Partner (and the Managing General Partner shall promptly upon receipt deliver copies thereof to the other Partners) stating that the Limited Partner elects to be liable, and specifying the limitations, if any, on the maximum amount or duration of such liability. Said election, or amendment thereof, shall be effective only from the date 25 days after written notice thereof is received by the Managing General Partner, and shall terminate upon the date, if any, specified therein as a termination date or upon delivery to the Managing General Partner of a subsequent written notice terminating such election. A termination of any such election, or an amendment reducing the Limited Partner's maximum liability thereunder or the duration thereof, shall not be effective to avoid responsibility for any loss incurred prior to such termination or the effective date of such amendment. Except as provided in this Section 4.8 or as required by law, no Limited Partner shall be liable for any deficit in its Capital Account or be obligated to return any distributions of any kind received from the Partnership.

The foregoing provisions and the other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Section 1.704-1(b) of the Regulations, and shall be interpreted and applied as provided in the Regulations.

(b) The term "Gross Asset Value" or "Gross Asset Values" means, with respect to any asset of the Partnership, such asset's adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes, except as follows:

(i) the initial Gross Asset Value of any asset contributed by a Partner to the Partnership shall be the gross fair market value of such asset as reasonably determined by the Managing General Partner;

(ii) the Gross Asset Values of all Partnership assets shall be adjusted to equal their respective gross fair market values, as reasonably determined by the General Partner, immediately prior to the following events:

(A) a Capital Contribution (other than a de minimis Capital Contribution, within the meaning of Sections l.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(f)(5)(i) of the Regulations) to the Partnership by a new or existing Partner as consideration for Partnership Units;

(B) the distribution by the Partnership to a Partner of more than a de minimis amount (within the meaning of Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f)(5)(ii) of the Regulations) of

Partnership property as consideration for the redemption of Partnership Units; and

(C) the liquidation of the Partnership within the meaning of Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g) of the Regulations; and

(iii) the Gross Asset Values of Partnership assets distributed to any Partner shall be the gross fair market values of such assets as reasonably determined by the Managing General Partner as of the date of distribution. At all times, Gross Asset Values shall be adjusted by any Depreciation taken into account with respect to the Partnership's assets for purposes of computing Profits and Losses. Any adjustment to the Gross Asset Values of Partnership property shall require an adjustment to the Partners' Capital Accounts as described in Section 4.8(a) above.

ARTICLE V

Representations, Warranties and Acknowledgment

5.1 Representations and Warranties by Managing General Partner. The Managing General Partner represents and warrants to the Limited Partners and to the Partnership that (i) it is a corporation duly formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its state of incorporation, with full right, corporate power and authority to fulfill all of its obligations hereunder or as contemplated herein; (ii) all transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be performed by it have been duly authorized by all necessary action; (iii) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by and is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Managing General Partner and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by (a) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or transfer or other laws of general application affecting the rights and remedies of creditors and (b) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law); (iv) no authorization, approval, consent or order of any court or governmental authority or agency or any other Entity is required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Managing General Partner, except as may have been received prior to the date of this Agreement; (v) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Managing General Partner and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not conflict with or constitute a breach or violation of, or a default under, any contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease, joint venture or partnership agreement or other instrument or agreement to which either the Managing General Partner or the Partnership is a party; and (vi) the Partnership Units, upon payment of the consideration therefore pursuant to this Agreement, will be validly issued, fully paid and, except as otherwise provided in accordance with applicable law, non-assessable.

5.2 Representations and Warranties by the Limited Partners. Each Limited Partner, for itself only, represents and warrants to the Managing General Partner, the other Limited Partners and the Partnership that (i) all transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be performed by such Limited Partner have been duly authorized by all necessary action; and (ii) this Agreement is binding upon, and enforceable against, such Limited Partner in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement may be limited by (a) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or transfer or other laws of general application affecting the rights and remedies of creditors and (b) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

5.3 Acknowledgment by Each Partner. Each Partner hereby acknowledges that no representations as to potential profit, cash flows or yield, if any, in respect of the Partnership or any assets owned, directly or indirectly, by the Partnership have been made to it by any other Partner or its Affiliates or any employee or representative of any other Partner or its Affiliates, and that projections and any other information, including, without limitation, financial and descriptive information and documentation, which may have been in any manner submitted to such Partner shall not constitute a representation or warranty, express or implied.

ARTICLE VI

Allocations, Distributions and Other Tax and Accounting Matters

6.1 Allocations.

(a) For the purpose of this Agreement, the terms "Profits" and "Losses" mean, respectively, for each Partnership Fiscal Year or other period, the Partnership's taxable income or loss for such Partnership Fiscal Year or other period, determined in accordance with Section 703(a) of the Code (for this purpose, all items of income, gain, loss or deduction required to be stated separately pursuant to Section 703(a)(l) of the Code shall be included in taxable income or loss), adjusted as follows:

(1) any income of the Partnership that is exempt from federal income tax and not otherwise taken into account in computing Profits or Losses pursuant to this Section 6.1(a) shall be added to such taxable income or loss;

(2) in lieu of the depreciation, amortization and other cost recovery deductions taken into account in computing such taxable income or loss, there shall be taken into account Depreciation for such Partnership Fiscal Year or other period;

(3) any items that are specially allocated pursuant to Section 6.1(d) hereof shall not be taken into account in computing Profits or Losses; and

(4) any expenditures of the Partnership described in Section 705(a)(2)(B) of the Code (or treated as such under Regulation Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(iv)(i)) and not otherwise taken into account in computing Profits or Losses pursuant to this Section 6.1(a) shall be deducted in calculating such taxable income or loss.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in Section 6.1(d) hereof and this Section 6.1(b), the Profits and Losses of the Partnership (and each item thereof) for each Partnership Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Partners in the following order of priority:

(1) First, Profits shall be allocated to the holder of Preferred Units in an amount equal to the excess of (A) the amount of Net Operating Cash Flow distributed to such holder pursuant to Sections 6.2(b)(i) and (ii) and Section 6.2(c)(but only to the extent of the Preferred Distribution Requirement and Preferred Distribution Shortfalls) for the current and all prior Partnership Fiscal Years over (B) the amount of Profits previously allocated to such holder pursuant to this subparagraph (1).

(2) Second, for any Partnership Fiscal Year ending on or after a date on which Preferred Units are redeemed, Profits (or Losses) shall be allocated to the holder of such Preferred Units in an amount equal to the excess (or deficit) of the sum of the applicable Preferred Redemption Amounts for the Preferred Units that have been or are being redeemed during such Partnership Fiscal Year over the Preferred Unit Issue Price of such Preferred Units. In addition, in the event that the Partnership is liquidated pursuant to Article VIII, the allocation described above shall be made to the holder of Preferred Units with respect to all Preferred Units then outstanding.

(3) Third, any remaining Profits and Losses shall be allocated among the Partners in accordance with their proportionate ownership of Partnership Units except as otherwise required by the Regulations.

(4) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), Profits and Losses from a Liquidation Transaction shall be allocated as follows:

First, Profits (or Losses) shall be allocated to the holder of Preferred Units in an amount equal to the excess (or deficit) of the sum of the applicable Preferred Redemption Amounts of the Preferred Units which have been or will be redeemed with the proceeds of the Liquidation Transaction over the Preferred Unit Issue Price of such Preferred Units;

Second, Profits or Losses shall be allocated among the Partners so that the Capital Accounts of the Partners (excluding from the Capital Account of any Partner the amount attributable to its Preferred Units) are proportional to the number of Partnership Units held by each Partner; and

Third, any remaining Profits and Losses shall be allocated among the Partners in accordance with their proportionate ownership of Partnership Units.

(c) For the purpose of Section 6.1(b) hereof, gain or loss resulting from any disposition of Partnership property shall be computed by reference to the Gross Asset Value of the property disposed of, notwithstanding that the adjusted tax basis of such property for federal income tax purposes differs from its Gross Asset Value.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.1, the following provisions shall apply:

(1) A Partner shall not receive an allocation of any Partnership deduction that would result in total loss allocations attributable to "Nonrecourse Liabilities" (as defined in Regulations Section 1.704-2(b)(3)) in excess of such Partner's share of Minimum Gain (as determined under Regulations Section 1.704-2(g)). The term "Minimum Gain" means an amount determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(d) by computing, with respect to each Nonrecourse Liability of the Partnership, the amount of gain, if any, that the Partnership would realize if it disposed of the property subject to such liability for no consideration other than full satisfaction thereof, and by then aggregating the amounts so computed. If the Partnership makes a distribution allocable to the proceeds of a Nonrecourse Liability, in accordance with Regulation Section 1.704-2(h), the distribution will be treated as allocable to an increase in Partnership Minimum Gain to the extent the increase results from encumbering Partnership property with aggregate Nonrecourse Liabilities that exceeds the property's adjusted tax basis. If there is a net decrease in Partnership Minimum Gain for a Partnership Fiscal Year, in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(f) and the exceptions contained therein, the Partners shall be allocated items of Partnership income and gain for such Partnership Fiscal Year (and, if necessary, for subsequent Partnership Fiscal Years) equal to the Partners' respective shares of the net decrease in Minimum Gain within the meaning of Regulations Section l.704-2(g)(2) (the "Minimum Gain Chargeback"). The items to be allocated pursuant to this Section 6.1(d)(1) shall be determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(f) and (j).

(2) Any item of "Partner Nonrecourse Deduction" (as defined in Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)) with respect to a "Partner Nonrecourse Debt" (as defined in Regulations Section l.704-2(b)(4)) shall be allocated to the Partner or Partners who bear the economic risk of loss for such Partner Nonrecourse Debt in accordance with Regulations Section l.704-2(i)(l). If the Partnership makes a distribution allocable to the proceeds of a Partner Nonrecourse Debt, in accordance with Regulation Section

l.704-2(i)(6) the distribution will be treated as allocable to an increase in Partner Minimum Gain to the extent the increase results from encumbering Partnership property with aggregate Partner Nonrecourse Debt that exceeds the property's adjusted tax basis. Subject to Section 6.1(d)(1) hereof, but notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event that there is a net decrease in Minimum Gain attributable to a Partner Nonrecourse Debt (such Minimum Gain being hereinafter referred to as "Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain") for a Partnership Fiscal Year, then after taking into account allocations pursuant to Section 6.1(d)(1) hereof, but before any other allocations are made for such taxable year, and subject to the exceptions set forth in Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4), each Partner with a share of Partner Non-recourse Debt Minimum Gain at the beginning of such Partnership Fiscal Year shall be allocated items of income and gain for such Partnership Fiscal Year (and, if necessary, for subsequent Partnership Fiscal Years) equal to such Partner's share of the net decrease in Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain as determined in a manner consistent with the provisions of Regulations Section l.704-2(g)(2). The items to be allocated pursuant to this Section 6.1(d)(2) shall be determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4) and (j).

(3) Pursuant to Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3), for the purpose of determining each Partner's share of excess nonrecourse liabilities of the Partnership, and solely for such purpose, each Partner's interest in Partnership profits is hereby specified to be the quotient of (i) the number of Partnership Units then held by such Partner, and (ii) the aggregate amount of Partnership Units then outstanding.

(4) No Limited Partner shall be allocated any item of deduction or loss of the Partnership if such allocation would cause such Limited Partner's Capital Account to become negative by more than the sum of (i) any amount such Limited Partner is obligated to restore upon liquidation of the Partnership, plus (ii) such Limited Partner's share of the Partnership's Minimum Gain and Partner Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain. An item of deduction or loss that cannot be allocated to a Limited Partner pursuant to this Section 6.1(d)(4) shall be allocated to the General Partners in accordance with the number of Partnership Units held by each General Partner. For this purpose, in determining the Capital Account balance of such Limited Partner, the items described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) and (6) shall be taken into account. In the event that (A) any Limited Partner unexpectedly receives any adjustment, allocation, or distribution described in Regulations Sections 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5), or (6), and (B) such adjustment, allocation, or distribution causes or increases a deficit balance (net of amounts which such Limited Partner is obligated to restore or deemed obligated to restore under Regulations Section 1.704-2(g)(l) and l.704-2(i)(5) and determined after taking into account any adjustments, allocations, or distributions described in Regulations Sections 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5), or (6) that, as of the end of the Partnership Fiscal Year, reasonably are expected to be made to such Limited Partner) in such Limited Partner's Capital Account as of the end of the Partnership Fiscal Year to which such adjustment, allocation, or distribution relates, then items of Gross Income (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Gross Income) for such Partnership Fiscal Year and each subsequent Partnership Fiscal Year shall be allocated to such Limited Partner until such deficit balance or increase in such deficit balance, as the case may be, has been eliminated. In the event that this Section 6.1(d)(4) and Section 6.1(d)(1) and/or (2) hereof apply, Section 6.1(d)(1) and/or (2) hereof shall be applied prior to this Section 6.l(d)(4).

(5) The Regulatory Allocations shall be taken into account in allocating other items of income, gain, loss, and deduction among the Partners so that, to the extent possible, the cumulative net amount of allocations of Partnership items under this Section 6.1 shall be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each Partner if the Regulatory Allocations had not been made. This Section 6.1(d)(5) is intended to minimize to the extent possible and to the extent necessary any economic distortions which may result from application of the Regulatory Allocations and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent therewith. For purposes hereof, "Regulatory Allocations" shall mean the allocations provided under this Section 6.1(d) (other than this Section 6.l(d)(5)).

(e) In accordance with Sections 704(b) and 704(c) of the Code and the Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Partnership shall, solely for federal income tax purposes, be allocated among the Partners on a property by property basis so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Partnership for federal income tax purposes and the initial Gross Asset Value of such property. If the Gross Asset Value of any Partnership property is adjusted as described in the definition of Gross Asset Value, subsequent allocations of income, gains or losses from taxable sales or other dispositions and deductions with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for federal income tax purposes and the Gross Asset Value of such asset in the manner prescribed under Sections 704(b) and 704(c) of the Code and the Regulations thereunder. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Partnership shall employ the method prescribed in Regulation S 1.704-3(b) (the "traditional method") or the equivalent successor provision(s) of proposed, temporary or final Regulations. The Partnership shall allocate items of income, gain, loss and deduction allocated to it by a Subsidiary Entity to the Partner or Partners contributing the interest or interests in such subsidiary Entity, so that, to the greatest extent possible and consistent with the foregoing, such contributing Partner or Partners are allocated the same amount and character of items of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such Subsidiary Entity that they would have been allocated had they contributed undivided interests in the assets owned by such Subsidiary Entity to the Partnership in lieu of contributing the interest or interests in the Subsidiary Entity to the Partnership.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.1, the allocation of Profits and Losses for any Partnership Fiscal Year during which a Person acquires a Partnership Interest (other than upon formation of the Partnership) pursuant to Section 4.3(b) or otherwise, shall take into account the Partners' varying interests for such Partnership Fiscal Year pursuant to any method permissible under Section 706 of the Code that is selected by the Managing General Partner (notwithstanding any agreement between the assignor and assignee of such Partnership Interest although the Managing General Partner may recognize any such agreement), which method may take into account the date on which the Transfer or an agreement to Transfer becomes irrevocable pursuant to its terms, as determined by the Managing General Partner; provided, that the allocation of Profits and Losses with respect to a Partnership Unit acquired during a fiscal quarter of the Partnership shall be appropriately adjusted in accordance with Section 6.2(c)(ii) below.

(g) If any portion of gain from the sale of property is treated as gain which is ordinary income by virtue of the application of Code Sections 1245 or 1250 ("Affected Gain"), then (A) such Affected Gain shall be allocated among the Partners in the same proportion that the depreciation and amortization deductions giving rise to the Affected Gain were allocated and (B) other tax items of gain of the same character that would have been recognized, but for the application of Code Sections 1245 and/or 1250, shall be allocated away from those Partners who are allocated Affected Gain pursuant to clause (A) so that, to the extent possible, the other Partners are allocated the same amount, and type, of capital gain that would have been allocated to them had Code Sections 1245 and/or 1250 not applied. For purposes hereof, in order to determine the proportionate allocations of depreciation and amortization deductions for each Fiscal Year or other applicable period, such deductions shall be deemed allocated on the same basis as Profits or Losses for such respective period.

(h) The Profits, Losses, gains, deductions and credits of the Partnership (and all items thereof) for each Partnership Fiscal Year shall be determined in accordance with the accounting method followed by the Partnership for federal income tax purposes.

(i) Except as provided in Sections 6.1(e) and 6.1(g) hereof, for federal income tax purposes, each item of income, gain, loss, or deduction shall be allocated among the Partners in the same manner as its correlative item of "book" income, gain, loss or deduction has been allocated pursuant to this Section 6.1.

(j) To the extent permitted by Regulations Sections 1.704-2(h)(3) and 1.704-2(i)(6), the Managing General Partner shall endeavor to treat distributions as having been made from the proceeds of Nonrecourse Liabilities or Partner Nonrecourse Debt only to the extent that such distributions would cause or increase a deficit balance in any Partner's Capital Account that exceeds the amount such Partner is otherwise obligated to restore (within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-l(b)(2)(ii)(c)) as of the end of the Partnership's taxable year in which the distribution occurs.

(k) If any Partner sells or otherwise disposes of any property, directly or indirectly, to the Partnership, and as a result thereof, gain on a subsequent disposition of such property by the Partnership is reduced pursuant to Section 267(d) of the Code, then, to the extent permitted by applicable law, gain for federal income tax purposes attributable to such subsequent disposition shall first be allocated among the Partners other than the selling Partner in an amount equal to such Partners' allocations of "book" gain on the property pursuant to this Section 6.1, and any remaining gain for federal income tax purposes shall be allocated to the selling Partner.

6.2 Distributions. (a) Except with respect to the liquidation of the Partnership and subject to the priority set forth in Sections 6.2(b) and (c), the Managing General Partner shall cause the Partnership to distribute all or a portion of Net Operating Cash Flow to the Partners who are such on the relevant Partnership Record Date from time to time as determined by the Managing General Partner, but in any event not less frequently than quarterly, in such amounts as the Managing General Partner shall determine in its sole discretion; provided, however, that, except as provided in Sections 6.2(b) and (c) below, all such distributions shall be made pro rata in accordance with the outstanding Partnership Units on the relevant Partnership Record Date. In no event may a Limited Partner receive a distribution of Net Operating Cash Flow with respect to a Partnership Unit that such Partner has exchanged on or prior to the relevant Partnership Record Date for a Share, pursuant to the Rights granted under Section 11.1 (a "Post-Exchange Distribution"); rather, all such Post-Exchange Distributions shall be distributed to the Managing General Partner.

(b) Except to the extent Net Operating Cash Flow is distributed pursuant to Section 6.2(c), and except with respect to the liquidation of the Partnership, distributions of Net Operating Cash Flow shall be made in the following order of priority;

(i) First, to the extent that the amount of Net Operating Cash Flow distributed to the holder of Preferred Units for any prior quarter was less than the Preferred Distribution Requirement for such quarter, and has not been subsequently distributed pursuant to this Section 6.2(b)(i) (a "Preferred Distribution Shortfall"), Net Operating Cash Flow shall be distributed to the holder of Preferred Units in an amount necessary to satisfy such Preferred Distribution Shortfall for the current and all prior Partnership Fiscal Years. In the event that the Net Operating Cash Flow distributed for a particular quarter is less than the Preferred Distribution Shortfall, then all Net Operating Cash Flow for the current quarter shall be distributed to the holder of Preferred Units.

(ii) Second, Net Operating Cash Flow shall be distributed to the holder of Preferred Units in an amount equal to the Preferred Distribution Requirement for the then current quarter for each outstanding Preferred Unit. In the event that the amount of Net Operating Cash Flow distributed for a particular quarter pursuant to this subparagraph (b)(ii) is less than the Preferred Distribution Requirement for such quarter, then all such Net Operating Cash Flow for such quarter shall be distributed to the holder of Preferred Units.

(iii) The balance of the Net Operating Cash Flow to be distributed, if any, shall be distributed to holders of Partnership Units, in proportion to their ownership of Partnership Units.

(c) (i) If in any quarter the Partnership redeems any outstanding Preferred Units, unless and except to the extent that such redemption is effected out of borrowed funds, Capital Contributions or other sources, Net Operating Cash Flow shall be distributed to the Managing General Partner in an amount equal to the applicable Preferred Redemption Amount for the Preferred Units being redeemed before being distributed pursuant to Section 6.2(b).

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.2, the distribution of Net Operating Cash Flow with respect to a Partnership Unit acquired during a fiscal quarter of the Partnership shall be an amount equal to the product of (i) the amount of Net Operating Cash Flow otherwise distributable to a Partnership Unit held during such fiscal quarter and (ii) (a) the number of days remaining in such fiscal quarter, determined as of the date such Partnership Unit was acquired, divided by (b) the total number of days in such fiscal quarter.

6.3 Books of Account; Segregation of Funds

(a) At all times during the continuance of the Partnership, the Managing General Partner shall maintain or cause to be maintained full, true, complete and correct books of account in accordance with GAAP wherein shall be entered particulars of all monies, goods or effects belonging to or owing to or by the Partnership, or paid, received, sold or purchased in the course of the Partnership's business, and all of such other transactions, matters and things relating to the business of the Partnership as are usually entered in books of account kept by Persons engaged in a business of a like kind and character. In addition, the Partnership shall keep all records as required to be kept pursuant to the Act. The books and records of account shall be kept at the principal office of the Partnership, and each Partner and its representatives shall at all reasonable times have access to such books and records and the right to inspect and copy the same.

(b) The Partnership shall not commingle its funds with those of any other Person or Entity; funds and other assets of the Partnership shall be separately identified and segregated; all of the Partnership's assets shall at all times be held by or on behalf of the Partnership and, if held on behalf of the Partnership by another Entity, shall at all times be kept identifiable (in accordance with customary usages) as assets owned by the Partnership; and the Partnership shall maintain its own separate bank accounts, payroll and books of account. The foregoing provisions of this Section 6.3(b) shall not apply with respect to funds or assets of any Subsidiary Entities of the Partnership.

6.4 Reports. Within ninety (90) days after the end of each Partnership Fiscal Year, the Partnership shall cause to be prepared and transmitted to each Partner an annual report of the Partnership relating to the previous Partnership Fiscal Year containing a balance sheet as of the year then ended, a statement of financial condition as of the year then ended, and statements of operations, cash flow and Partnership equity for the year then ended, which annual statements shall be prepared in accordance with GAAP and shall be audited by the Accountants. The Partnership shall also cause to be prepared and transmitted to each Partner within forty-five (45) days after the end of each of the first three (3) quarters of each Partnership Fiscal Year a quarterly unaudited report containing a balance sheet, a statement of the Partnership's financial condition and statements of operations, cash flow and Partnership equity, in each case relating to the fiscal quarter then just ended, and prepared in accordance with GAAP. The Partnership shall further cause to be prepared and transmitted to the Managing General Partner such reports and/or information as are necessary for the Managing General Partner to determine its earnings and profits derived from the Partnership, its liability for a tax as a consequence of its Partnership Interest and distributive share of taxable income or loss and items thereof, in each case in a manner that will permit the Managing General Partner to comply with its obligations to file federal, state and local tax returns and information returns and to provide its shareholders with tax information. The Managing General Partner shall provide to each Partner copies of all reports it provides to its stockholders at the same time such reports are distributed to such stockholders. The Managing General Partner shall also promptly notify the Partners of all actions taken by the Managing General Partner for which it has obtained the Consent of the Limited Partners.

6.5 Audits. Not less frequently than annually, the books and records of the Partnership shall be audited by the Accountants.

6.6 Tax Returns.

(a) Consistent with all other provisions of this Agreement, the Managing General Partner shall determine the methods to be used in the preparation of federal, state, and local income and other tax returns for the Partnership in connection with all items of income and expense, including, but not limited to, valuation of assets, the methods of Depreciation and cost recovery, credits and tax accounting methods and procedures and all tax elections.

(b) The Managing General Partner shall, at least 30 days prior to the due dates (as extended) for such returns, but in no event later than July 15 of each year, cause the Accountants to prepare and submit to the DeBartolo Designee, the Simon Designee and the JCP Limited Partner for their review, drafts of all federal and state income tax returns of the Partnership for the preceding year, and the Managing General Partner shall consult in good faith with the DeBartolo Designee, the Simon Designee and the JCP Limited Partner regarding any proposed modifications to such tax returns of the Partnership.

(c) The Partnership shall timely cause to be prepared and transmitted to the Partners federal and appropriate state and local Partnership Income Tax Schedules "K-l" or any substitute therefor, with respect to each Partnership Fiscal Year on appropriate forms prescribed. The Partnership shall make reasonable efforts to prepare and submit such forms before the due date for filing federal income tax returns for the fiscal year in question (determined without extensions), and shall in any event prepare and submit such forms on or before July 15 of the year following the fiscal year in question.

6.7 Tax Matters Partner

The Managing General Partner is hereby designated as the Tax Matters Partner within the meaning of Section 6231(a)(7) of the Code for the Partnership; provided, however, that (i) in exercising its authority as Tax Matters Partner it shall be limited by the provisions of this Agreement affecting tax aspects of the Partnership; (ii) the Managing General Partner shall give prompt notice to the Partners of the receipt of any written notice that the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority intends to examine Partnership income tax returns for any year, receipt of written notice of the beginning of an administrative proceeding at the Partnership level relating to the Partnership under Section 6223 of the Code, receipt of written notice of the final Partnership administrative adjustment relating to the Partnership pursuant to Section 6223 of the Code, and receipt of any request from the Internal Revenue Service for waiver of any applicable statute of limitations with respect to the filing of any tax return by the Partnership; (iii) the Managing General Partner shall promptly notify the Partners if it does not intend to file for judicial review with respect to the Partnership; and (iv) as Tax Matters Partner, the Managing General Partner shall not be entitled to bind a Partner by any settlement agreement (within the meaning of Section 6224 of the Code) unless such Partner consents thereto in writing and shall notify the Partners in a manner and at such time as is sufficient to allow the Partners to exercise their rights pursuant to Section 6224(c)(3) of the Code; (v) the Managing General Partner shall consult in good faith with the Simon Designee, the DeBartolo Designee and the JCP Limited Partner regarding the filing of a Code Section 6227(b) administrative adjustment request with respect to the Partnership before filing such request, it being understood, however, that the provisions hereof shall not be construed to limit the ability of any Partner, including the Managing General Partner, to file an administrative adjustment request on its own behalf pursuant to Section 6227(a) of the Code; and (vi) the Managing General Partner shall consult in good faith with the Simon Designee, the DeBartolo Designee and the JCP Limited Partner regarding the filing of a petition for judicial review of an administrative adjustment request under Section 6228 of the Code, or a petition for judicial review of a final partnership administrative judgment under Section 6226 of the Code relating to the Partnership before filing such petition.

6.8 Withholding. Each Partner hereby authorizes the Partnership to withhold or pay on behalf of or with respect to such Partner any amount of federal, state, local or foreign taxes that the Managing General Partner determines the Partnership is required to withhold or pay with respect to any amount distributable or allocable to such Partner pursuant to this Agreement, including, without limitation, any taxes required to be withheld or paid by the Partnership pursuant to Code Sections 1441, 1442, 1445, or 1446. Any amount paid on behalf of or with respect to a Partner shall constitute a loan by the Partnership to such Partner, which loan shall be due within fifteen (15) days after repayment is demanded of the Partner in question, and shall be repaid through withholding of subsequent distributions to such Partner. Nothing in this Section 6.8 shall create any obligation on the Managing General Partner to advance funds to the Partnership or to borrow funds from Third Parties in order to make payments on account of any liability of the Partnership under a withholding tax act. Any amounts payable by a Limited Partner hereunder shall bear interest at the lesser of (i) the base rate on corporate loans at large United States money center commercial banks, as published from time to time in The Wall Street Journal, or (ii) the maximum lawful rate of interest on such obligation, such interest to accrue from the date such amount is due (i.e., fifteen (15) days after demand) until such amount is paid in full. To the extent the payment or accrual of withholding tax results in a federal, state or local tax credit to the Partnership, such credit shall be allocated to the Partner to whose distribution the tax is attributable.

ARTICLE VII

Rights, Duties and Restrictions of the Managing General Partners

7.1 Expenditures by Partnership. The Managing General Partner is hereby authorized to pay compensation for accounting, administrative, legal, technical, management and other services rendered to the Partnership. All of the aforesaid expenditures shall be made on behalf of the Partnership and the Managing General Partner shall be entitled to reimbursement by the Partnership for any expenditures incurred by it on behalf of the Partnership which shall have been made other than out of the funds of the Partnership. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein and subject to Section 7.3 hereof, the Managing General Partner shall have, for and on behalf of the Partnership, the right, power and authority:

(c) To employ, engage or contract with or dismiss from employment or engagement Persons to the extent deemed necessary by the Managing General Partner for the operation and management of the Partnership business, including but not limited to, employees, contractors, subcontractors, engineers, architects, surveyors, mechanics, consultants, accountants, attorneys, insurance brokers, real estate brokers and others;

(d) To enter into contracts on behalf of the Partnership;

(e) To borrow or lend money, procure loans and advances from any Person for Partnership purposes, and to apply for and secure from any Person credit or accommodations; to contract liabilities and obligations, direct or contingent and of every kind and nature with or without security; and to repay, discharge, settle, adjust, compromise or liquidate any such loan, advance, credit, obligation or liability (including by deeding property to a lender in lieu of foreclosure);

(f) To Pledge, hypothecate, mortgage, assign, deposit, deliver, enter into sale and leaseback arrangements or otherwise give as security or as additional or substitute security or for sale or other disposition any and all Partnership property, tangible or intangible, including, but not limited to, real estate and beneficial interests in land trusts, and to make substitutions thereof, and to receive any proceeds thereof upon the release or

(j) To make arrangements for financing, including the taking of all action deemed necessary or appropriate by the Managing General Partner to cause any approved loans to be closed;

(k) To take all reasonable measures necessary to insure compliance by the Partnership with contractual obligations and other arrangements entered into by the Partnership from time to time in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, including

(l) To maintain the Partnership's books and records;

(m) To create or maintain Affiliates engaged in activities that the Partnership could itself undertake; and

(n) To prepare and deliver, or cause to be prepared and delivered by the Accountants, all financial and other reports with respect to the operations of the Partnership, and preparation and filing of all federal, state and local tax returns and reports.

Except as otherwise provided herein, to the extent the duties of the Managing General Partner require expenditures of funds to be paid to Third Parties, the Managing General Partner shall not have any obligations hereunder except to the extent that Partnership funds are reasonably available to it for the performance of such duties, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or require the Managing General Partner, in its capacity as such, to expend its individual funds for payment to Third Parties or to undertake any individual liability or obligation on behalf of the Partnership.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement or the Act, any action of the Managing General Partner on behalf of the Partnership or any decision of the Managing General Partner to refrain from acting on behalf of the Partnership, undertaken in the good faith belief that such action or omission is necessary or advisable in order (i) to protect or further the ability of Simon Group and its REIT subsidiaries to continue to qualify as REITs or (ii) to avoid Simon Group and its REIT subsidiaries incurring any taxes under Section 857 or Section 4981 of the Code, is expressly authorized under this Agreement and is deemed approved by all of the Limited Partners. The Managing General Partner agrees and acknowledges that it shall take all reasonable actions necessary to satisfy the REIT Requirements.

7.3 Major Decisions.

(a) The Managing General Partner shall not, without the Consent of the Limited Partners, (y) on behalf of the Partnership, amend, modify or terminate this Agreement other than to reflect (A) the admission of Additional Limited Partners pursuant to Section 9.4 hereof, (B) the making of additional Capital Contributions and the issuance of additional Partnership Units by reason thereof, all in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, (C) the withdrawal or assignment of the interest of any Partner in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, or (D) any changes necessary to satisfy the REIT Requirements, or (z) permit the Partnership, on behalf of any Subsidiary Partnership, to amend, modify or terminate the organizing agreement pursuant to which such Subsidiary Partnership operates other than to reflect (A) the admission of additional limited partners therein pursuant to the terms thereof, (B) the making of additional capital contributions thereto pursuant to the terms thereof, (C) the withdrawal or assignment of the interest of any partner thereof pursuant to the terms thereof, or (D) any changes necessary to satisfy the REIT Requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement shall not be modified or amended without the prior written consent of each Partner adversely affected if such modification or acquisition would (i) convert a Limited Partner's interest in the Partnership to a general partnership interest, (ii) modify the limited liability of a Limited Partner, (iii) reduce the interest of any Partner in the Partnership, (iv) reduce any Partner's share of distributions made by the Partnership, (v) amend this Section 7.3 or Section 7.5 or (vi) create any obligations for any Limited Partner or deprive any Limited Partner of (or otherwise impair) any other rights it may have under this Agreement (including in respect of tax allocations, rights to indemnification under Section 7.8, rights of the Limited Partner or a Secured Creditor of a Limited Partner under Section 9.3 (which rights are subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 9.5), rights of a Limited Partner under Article XI, or the rights of a Limited Partner under Section 10.4(a) or 10.5); provided, however, that an amendment that reduces the percentage ownership interest of any Partner in the Partnership or reduces any Partner's share of distributions made by the Partnership (including tax allocations in respect of such distributions) shall not require the consent of any Partner if such change is made on a uniform or pro-rata basis with respect to all Partners.

(b) The Managing General Partner shall not, for all periods during which the Simons hold at least ten percent of the Partnership Units then outstanding, and the Managing General Partner shall not, without the prior Consent of the Simons, and for all periods during which the DeBartolos hold at least ten percent of the Partnership Units then outstanding, the Managing General Partner shall not, without the prior Consent of the DeBartolos, on behalf of the Partnership, undertake any of the following actions (together with any act described in paragraph (a) hereof, the "Major Decisions"):

(i) Make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors (or cause or permit (if permission of the Partnership or any Subsidiary Partnership is required) such an assignment to be made on behalf of a Subsidiary Partnership) or appoint or acquiesce in the appointment of a custodian, receiver or trustee for all or any part of the assets of the Partnership (or any Subsidiary Partnership);

(ii) take title to any personal or real property, other than in the name of the Partnership or a Subsidiary Entity or pursuant to Section 7.7 hereof;

(iii) institute any proceeding for Bankruptcy on behalf of the Partnership, or cause or permit (if permission of the Partnership or any Subsidiary Partnership is required) the institution of any such proceeding on behalf of any Subsidiary Partnership;

(iv) act or cause the taking or refraining of any action with respect to the dissolution and winding up of the Partnership (or any Subsidiary Partnership) or an election to continue the Partnership (or any Subsidiary Partnership) or to continue the business of the Partnership (or any Subsidiary Partnership); or

(v) sell, exchange, Transfer or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the Partnership's assets.

(c) The Managing General Partner shall not, without the prior Consent of the Limited Partners:

(i) except in connection with the dissolution and winding-up of the Partnership by the Liquidation Agent, agree to or consummate the merger or consolidation of the Partnership or the voluntary sale or other Transfer of all or substantially all of the Partnership's assets in a single transaction or related series of transactions (without limiting the transactions which will not be deemed to be a voluntary sale or Transfer, the foreclosure of a mortgage lien on any property or the grant by the Partnership of a deed in lieu of foreclosure for such property shall not be deemed to be such a voluntary sale or other Transfer); or

(ii) dissolve the Partnership.

Without the consent of all the Limited Partners, the Managing General Partner shall have no power to do any act in contravention of this Agreement or applicable law.

7.4 Managing General Partner Participation. The Managing General Partner agrees that (a) substantially all activities and business operations of the Managing General Partner shall be conducted directly or indirectly through the Partnership or any Subsidiary Partnership and (b) except as provided below any funds raised by the Managing General Partner, whether by issuance of stock, borrowing or otherwise, will be made available to the Partnership whether as capital contributions, loans or otherwise, as appropriate.

7.5 Proscriptions. The Managing General Partner shall not have the authority to:

(a) Do any act in contravention of this Agreement;

(b) Possess any Partnership property or assign rights in specific Partnership property for other than Partnership purposes; or

(c) Do any act in contravention of applicable law.

Nothing herein contained shall impose any obligation on any Person doing business with the Partnership to inquire as to whether or not the Managing General Partner has properly exercised its authority in executing any contract, lease, mortgage, deed or any other instrument or document on behalf of the Partnership, and any such Person shall be fully protected in relying upon such authority.

7.7 Title Holder. To the extent allowable under applicable law, title to all or any part of the Properties of the Partnership may be held in the name of the Partnership or any other individual, corporation, partnership, trust or otherwise, the beneficial interest in which shall at all times be vested in the Partnership. Any such title holder shall perform any and all of its respective functions to the extent and upon such terms and conditions as may be determined from time to time by the Managing General Partner.

7.8 Waiver and Indemnification. Neither the Managing General Partner nor any of its Affiliates, directors, trust managers, officers, shareholders, nor any Person acting on their behalf pursuant hereto, shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Partnership or to any Partner for any acts or omissions performed or omitted to be performed by them within the scope of the authority conferred upon the Managing General Partner by this Agreement and the Act, provided that the Managing General Partner's or such other Person's conduct or omission to act was taken in good faith and in the belief that such conduct or omission was in the best interests of the Partnership and, provided further, that the Managing General Partner or such other Person shall not be guilty of fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. The Managing General Partner acknowledges that it owes fiduciary duties both to its shareholders and to the Limited Partners and it shall use its reasonable efforts to discharge such duties to each; provided, however, that in the event of a conflict between the interests of the shareholders of the Managing General Partner and the interests of the Limited Partners, the Limited Partners agree that the Managing General Partner shall discharge its fiduciary duties to the Limited Partners by acting in the best interests of the Managing General Partner's shareholders. Nothing contained in the preceding sentence shall be construed as entitling the Managing General Partner to realize any profit or gain from any transaction between such Partner and the Partnership (except as may be required by law upon a distribution to the Managing General Partner), including from the lending of money by the Managing General Partner to the Partnership or the contribution of property by the Managing General Partner to the Partnership, it being understood that in any such transaction the Managing General Partner shall be entitled to cost recovery only. The Partnership shall, and hereby does, indemnify and hold harmless each of the Managing General Partner and its Affiliates, their respective directors, officers, shareholders and any other individual acting on its or their behalf to the extent such Persons would be indemnified by the Managing General Partner pursuant to the Charter of the Managing General Partner if such persons were directors, officers, agents or employees of the Managing General Partner; provided, however, that no Partner shall have any personal liability with respect to the foregoing indemnification, any such indemnification to be satisfied solely out of the assets of the Partnership. The Partnership shall, and hereby does, indemnify each Limited Partner and its Affiliates, their respective directors, officers, shareholders and any other individual acting on its or their behalf, from and against any costs (including costs of defense) incurred by it as a result of any litigation or other proceeding in which any Limited Partner is named as a defendant or any claim threatened or asserted against any Limited Partner, in either case which relates to the operations of the Partnership or any obligation assumed by the Partnership, unless such costs are the result of misconduct on the part of, or a breach of this Agreement by, such Limited Partner; provided, however, no Partner shall have any personal liability with respect to the foregoing indemnification, any such indemnification to be satisfied solely out of the assets of the Partnership.

7.9 Limitation of Liability of Directors, Shareholders and Officers of the Managing General Partner. Any obligation or liability whatsoever of the General Partners which may arise at any time under this Agreement or any other instrument, transaction, or undertaking contemplated hereby shall be satisfied, if at all, out of the assets of the General Partners or the Partnership only. No such obligation or liability shall be personally binding upon, nor shall resort for the enforcement thereof be had to, any of the General Partners' directors, shareholders, officers, employees, or agents, regardless of whether such obligation or liability is in the nature of contract, tort or otherwise.

ARTICLE VIII

Dissolution, Liquidation and Winding-Up

8.1 Accounting. In the event of the dissolution, liquidation and winding-up of the Partnership, a proper accounting (which shall be certified by the Accountants) shall be made of the Capital Account of each Partner and of the Profits or Losses of the Partnership from the date of the last previous accounting to the date of dissolution. Financial statements presenting such accounting shall include a report of the Accountants.

8.2 Distribution on Dissolution. In the event of the dissolution and liquidation of the Partnership for any reason, the assets of the Partnership shall be liquidated for distribution in the following rank and order:

(a) Payment of creditors of the Partnership (other than Partners) in the order of priority as provided by law;

(b) Establishment of reserves as determined by the Managing General Partner to provide for contingent liabilities, if any;

(c) Payment of debts of the Partnership to Partners, if any, in the order of priority provided by law;

(d) To the Partners in accordance with the positive balances in their Capital Accounts after giving effect to all contributions, distributions and allocations for all periods, including the period in which such distribution occurs (other than those distributions made pursuant to this Section 8.2(d), Section 8.3 or Section 8.4 hereof).

If upon dissolution and termination of the Partnership the Capital Account of any Partner is less than zero, then such Partner shall have no obligation to restore the negative balance in its Capital Account unless and except to the extent that such Partner has so elected under Section 4.8. Whenever the Liquidation Agent reasonably determines that any reserves established pursuant to paragraph (b) above are in excess of the reasonable requirements of the Partnership, the amount determined to be excess shall be distributed to the Partners in accordance with the above provisions.

8.3 Sale of Partnership Assets. In the event of the liquidation of the Partnership in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Liquidation Agent may sell Partnership property; provided, however, that all sales, leases, encumbrances or transfers of Partnership assets shall be made by the Liquidation Agent solely on an "arm's length" basis, at the best price and on the best terms and conditions as the Liquidation Agent in good faith believes are reasonably available at the time and under the circumstances and on a non-recourse basis to the Limited Partners. The liquidation of the Partnership shall not be deemed finally terminated until the Partnership shall have received cash payments in full with respect to obligations such as notes, purchase money mortgages, installment sale contracts or other similar receivables received by the Partnership in connection with the sale of Partnership assets and all obligations of the Partnership have been satisfied or assumed by the Managing General Partner. The Liquidation Agent shall continue to act to enforce all of the rights of the Partnership pursuant to any such obligations until paid in full or otherwise discharged or settled.

8.4 Distributions in Kind. In the event that it becomes necessary to make a distribution of Partnership property in kind in connection with the liquidation of the Partnership, the Managing General Partner may, if it determines that to do so would be in the best interest of the Partners and obtains the Consent of the Limited Partners, transfer and convey such property to the distributees as tenants in common, subject to any liabilities attached thereto, so as to vest in them undivided interests in the whole of such property in proportion to their respective rights to share in the proceeds of the sale of such property (other than as a creditor) in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.2 hereof. Immediately prior to the distribution of Partnership property in kind, the Capital Account of each Partner shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, to reflect the manner in which the unrealized income, gain, loss and deduction inherent in such property (to the extent not previously reflected in the Capital Accounts) would be allocated among the Partners if there were a taxable disposition of such property for its fair market value as of the date of the distribution.

8.5 Documentation of Liquidation. Upon the completion of the dissolution and liquidation of the Partnership, the Partnership shall terminate and the Liquidation Agent shall have the authority to execute and record any and all documents or instruments required to effect the dissolution, liquidation and termination of the Partnership.

8.6 Liability of the Liquidation Agent. The Liquidation Agent shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Partnership from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, costs, damages and causes of action of any nature whatsoever arising out of or incidental to the Liquidation Agent's taking of any action authorized under or within the scope of this Agreement; and provided, however, that no Partner shall have any personal liability with respect to the foregoing indemnification, any such indemnification to be satisfied solely out of the assets of the Partnership; and provided further, however, that the Liquidation Agent shall not be entitled to indemnification, and shall not be held harmless, where the claim, demand, liability, cost, damage or cause of action at issue arose out of:

(a) A matter entirely unrelated to the Liquidation Agent's action or conduct pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; or

(b) The proven misconduct or gross negligence of the Liquidation Agent.

ARTICLE IX

Transfer of Partnership Interests and Related Matters

9.1 [INTENTIONALLY OMITTED].

9.2 Managing General Partner Transfers and Deemed Transfers. The Managing General Partner shall not (i) withdraw from the Partnership, (ii) merge, consolidate or engage in any combination with another Person, (iii) sell all or substantially all of its assets or (iv) sell, assign, pledge, encumber or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of its Partnership Units or Preferred Units except to the Partnership, in each case without the Consent of the Limited Partners. Upon any transfer of any Partnership Units (not Preferred Units) in accordance with the provisions of this Section

9.2, the transferee Managing General Partner shall become vested with the powers and rights of the transferor Managing General Partner with respect to the Partnership Units transferred, and shall be liable for all obligations and responsible for all duties of the Transferor Managing General Partner, once such transferee has executed such instruments as may be necessary to effectuate such admission and to confirm the agreement of such transferee to be bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement with respect to the Partnership Units so acquired. It is a condition to any transfer otherwise permitted hereunder that the transferee assumes by operation of law or express agreement all of the obligations of the transferor Managing General Partner under this Agreement with respect to such transferred Partnership Units and no such transfer (other than pursuant to a statutory merger or consolidation wherein all obligations and liabilities of the transferor Managing General Partner are assumed by a successor corporation by operation of law) shall relieve the transferor Managing General Partner of its obligations under this Agreement accruing prior to the date of such transfer.

9.3 Transfers by Limited Partners. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 9.3, the Limited Partners shall not Transfer all or any portion of their Partnership Units to any transferee without the consent of the Managing General Partner, which consent may be withheld in their sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be considered a limitation on the ability of the Limited Partners to exercise their Rights pursuant to Article XI hereof.

(a) Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to the provisions of Section 9.5 hereof, any Limited Partner may at any time, without the consent of the Managing General Partner, (i) Transfer all or a portion of its Partnership Units to an Affiliate of such Limited Partner, or (ii) Pledge some or all of its Partnership Units to any Institutional Lender. Any Transfer to an Affiliate pursuant to clause (i) and any Transfer to a pledgee of Partnership Units Pledged pursuant to clause (ii) may be made without the consent of the Managing General Partner but, except as provided in subsequent provisions of this Section 9.3, such transferee or such pledgee shall hold the Units so transferred to it (and shall be admitted to the Partnership as a Substitute Limited Partner) subject to all the restrictions set forth in this Section 9.3. It is a condition to any Transfer otherwise permitted under any provision of this Section 9.3 that the transferee assumes by operation of law or express agreement all of the obligations of the transferor Limited Partner under this Agreement with respect to such transferred Partnership Units arising after the effective date of the Transfer and no such Transfer (other than pursuant to a statutory merger or consolidation wherein all obligations and liabilities of the transferor Partner are assumed by a successor corporation by operation of law, and other than pursuant to an exercise of the Rights pursuant to Article XI wherein all obligations and liabilities of the transferor Partner arising from and after the date of such Transfer shall be assumed by the Managing General Partner) shall relieve the transferor Partner of its obligations under this Agreement prior to the effective date of such Transfer. Upon any such Transfer or Pledge permitted under this Section 9.3, the transferee or, upon foreclosure on the Pledged Partnership Units, each Institutional Lender which is the pledgee shall be admitted as a Substituted Limited Partner as such term is defined in the Act and shall succeed to all of the rights, including rights with respect to the Rights, of the transferor Limited Partner under this Agreement in the place and stead of such transferor Limited Partner. Any transferee, whether or not admitted as a Substituted Limited Partner, shall take subject to the obligations of the transferor hereunder. No transferee pursuant to a Transfer which is not expressly permitted under this Section 9.3 and is not consented to by the Managing General Partner, whether by a voluntary Transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, shall have any rights hereunder, other than the right to receive such portion of the distributions and allocations of Profits and Losses made by the Partnership as are allocable to the Partnership Units so transferred.

(b) In addition to the Rights granted to the JCP Limited Partner and any other Transfers permitted under this Article IX, the JCP Limited Partner shall have the right to transfer all of its Partnership Units to a single accredited investor, as defined in Rule 501 promulgated under the Securities Act, subject to the provisions of Section 9.5, and such transferee shall be admitted to the Partnership as a Substitute Limited Partner. Any transferee of the Partnership Units owned by the JCP Limited Partner shall be subject to all of the restrictions set forth in Section 9.3(a) above; provided, however, that if the JCP Limited Partner hereafter Pledges its Partnership Units pursuant to Section 9.3(a), then provided that the JCP Limited Partner has not previously exercised the right provided for above in this Section 9.3(c), the Institutional Lender or Lenders which are the pledgee(s) may exercise such right, whether by taking title to the JCP Limited Partner's Partnership Units and then transferring the same or by effecting such transfer upon foreclosure of the Pledge.

(c) The Limited Partners acknowledge that the Partnership Units have not been registered under any federal or state securities laws and, as a result thereof, they may not be sold or otherwise transferred, except in accordance with Article XI or otherwise in compliance with such laws. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no Partnership Units may be sold or otherwise transferred except pursuant to Article XI unless such Transfer is exempt from registration under any applicable securities laws or such Transfer is registered under such laws, it being acknowledged that the Partnership has no obligation to take any action which would cause any such interests to be registered.

9.4 Issuance of Additional Partnership Units and Preferred Units. At any time after the date hereof, subject to the provisions of Section 9.5 hereof, the Managing General Partner may, upon its determination that the issuance of additional Partnership Units ("Additional Units") is in the best interests of the Partnership, cause the Partnership to issue Additional Units to any existing Partner or issue Additional Units to and admit as a partner in the Partnership any Person in exchange for the contribution by such Person of cash and/or property which the Managing General Partner determines is desirable to further the purposes of the Partnership under Section 2.3 hereof and which the Managing General Partner determines has a value that justifies the issuance of such Additional Units. In the event that Additional Units are issued by the Partnership pursuant this Section 9.4, the number of Partnership Units issued shall be determined by dividing the Gross Asset Value of the property contributed (reduced by the amount of any indebtedness assumed by the Partnership or to which such property is subject) as of the date of contribution to the Partnership (the "Contribution Date") by the Deemed Partnership Unit Value.

In addition, the Managing General Partner may, upon its determination that the issuance of Preferred Units is in the best interests of the Partnership, issue Preferred Units in accordance with Sections 4.1(c) and 4.3(c) hereof.

The Managing General Partner shall be authorized on behalf of each of the Partners to amend this Agreement to reflect the admission of any Partner or any increase in the Partnership Units or Preferred Units of any Partner in accordance with the provisions of this Section 9.4, and the Managing General Partner shall promptly deliver a copy of such amendment to each Limited Partner. The Limited Partners hereby irrevocably appoint the Managing General Partner as their attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, solely for the purpose of executing and delivering such documents, and taking such actions, as shall be reasonably necessary in connection with the provisions of this Section 9.4 or making any modification to this Agreement permitted by Section 7.3 (including, without limitation, any modification which, under Section 7.3 hereof, requires the Consent of the Limited Partners where such consent has been obtained). Nothing contained in this Section 9.4 shall be construed as authorizing the Managing General Partner to grant any consent on behalf of the Limited Partners, or any of them.

9.5 Restrictions on Transfer.

(a) In addition to any other restrictions on Transfer herein contained, in no event may any Transfer or assignment of a Partnership Unit or Preferred Unit by any Partner be made nor may any new Partnership Unit or Preferred Unit be issued by the Partnership (i) to any Person which lacks the legal right, power or capacity to own a Partnership Unit or Preferred Unit; (ii) in violation of applicable law; (iii) if such Transfer would immediately or with the passage of time violate the REIT Requirements, such determination to be made assuming that the REIT Requirements are satisfied immediately prior to the proposed Transfer; (iv) if such Transfer would cause the Partnership to become, with respect to any employee benefit plan subject to Title I of ERISA, a "party-in-interest" (as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA) or a "disqualified person" (as defined in Section 4975(e) of the Code); (v) if such Transfer would, in the opinion of counsel to the Partnership, cause any portion of the underlying assets of the Partnership to constitute assets of any employee benefit plan pursuant to Department of Labor Regulations Section 2510.3-101; (vi) if such Transfer would result in a deemed distribution to any Partner attributable to a failure to meet the requirements of Regulations Section l.752-2(d)(l), unless such Partner consents thereto, (vii) if such Transfer would cause any lender to the Partnership to hold in excess of ten (10) percent of the Partnership Interest that would, pursuant to the regulations under Section 752 of the Code or any successor provision, cause a loan by such a lender to constitute Partner Nonrecourse Debt, (viii) if such Transfer, other than to an Affiliate, is of a Partnership Interest the value of which would have been less than $20,000 when issued, (ix) if such Transfer would, in the opinion of counsel to the Partnership, cause the Partnership to cease to be classified as a Partnership for federal income tax purposes or (x) if such Transfer is effectuated through an "established securities market" or a "secondary market (or the substantial equivalent thereof)" within the meaning of Section 7704(b) of the Code.

(b) No Preferred Unit may be transferred by the Managing General Partner to any Person who is not a General Partner of the Partnership.

(c) No Partnership Unit may be transferred by any Partner without a transfer of the corresponding Simon Group Partnership Unit.

ARTICLE X

Rights and Obligations of the Limited Partners

10.1 No Participation in Management. Except as expressly permitted hereunder, the Limited Partners shall not take part in the management of the Partnership's business, transact any business in the Partnership's name or have the power to sign documents for or otherwise bind the Partnership; provided, that the foregoing shall not be deemed to limit the ability of a Limited Partner (or any officer or director thereof) who is an officer, director or employee of the Partnership, either the Managing General Partner or any Affiliate thereof, to act in such capacity.

10.2 Bankruptcy of a Limited Partner. The Bankruptcy of any Limited Partner shall not cause a dissolution of the Partnership, but the rights of such Limited Partner to share in the Profits or Losses of the Partnership and to receive distributions of Partnership funds shall, on the happening of such event, devolve to its successors or assigns, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and the Partnership shall continue as a limited partnership. However, in no event shall such assignee(s) become a Substituted Limited Partner except in accordance with Article IX.

10.3 No Withdrawal. No Limited Partner may withdraw from the Partnership without the prior written consent of the Managing General Partner, other than as expressly provided in this Agreement.

10.4 Duties and Conflicts. The Partners recognize that each of the other Partners and their Affiliates have or may have other business interests, activities and investments, some of which may be in conflict or competition with the business of the Partnership, and that such Persons are entitled to carry on such other business interests, activities and investments. In addition, the Partners recognize that certain of the Limited Partners and their Affiliates are and may in the future be tenants of the Partnership, Subsidiary Entities or other Persons or own anchor or other stores in the Properties of the Partnership, or Subsidiary Entities or other properties and in connection therewith may have interests that conflict with those of the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities. In deciding whether to take any actions in such capacity, such Limited Partners and their Affiliates shall be under no obligation to consider the separate interests of the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities and shall have no fiduciary obligations to the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities and shall not be liable for monetary damages for losses sustained liabilities incurred or benefits not derived by the other Partners in connection with such acts; nor shall the Partnership, the Managing General Partner or any Subsidiary Entities be under any obligation to consider the separate interests of the Limited Partners and their Affiliates in such Limited Partners' independent capacities or have any fiduciary obligations to the Limited Partners and their Affiliates in such capacity or be liable for monetary damages for losses sustained, liabilities incurred or benefits not derived by the Limited Partners and their Affiliates in such independent capacities arising from actions or omissions taken by the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities. The Limited Partners and their Affiliates may engage in or possess an interest in any other business or venture of any kind, independently or with others, on their own behalf or on behalf of other Entities with which they are affiliated or associated, and such Persons may engage in any activities, whether or not competitive with the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities, without any obligation to offer any interest in such activities to the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities or to any Partner or otherwise. Neither the Partnership nor any Partner shall have any right, by virtue of this Agreement, in or to such activities, or the income or profits derived therefrom, and the pursuit of such activities, even if competitive with the business of the Partnership or Subsidiary Entities, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper.

10.5 Guaranty and Indemnification Agreements.

(a) The Partnership shall notify the Limited Partners no less than 45 days (or, if the Partnership itself has less than 45 days' prior notice, as promptly as practicable) prior to the occurrence of any event that the Partnership reasonably expects will reduce the amount of Partnership liabilities (including liabilities of any other Subsidiary Partnership) that the Limited Partners may include in their individual tax bases of their respective Partnership Interests pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.752-2 and Treasury Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(2) and (3). Upon receipt of such notice, each Limited Partner shall inform the Partnership of any action it desires to take in its sole and absolute discretion in order to increase the "economic risk of loss" (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation 5 1.752-2) (the "Incurrence") that it has with respect to liabilities of the Partnership or any other Subsidiary Partnerships. The Partnership shall cooperate with each Limited Partner to facilitate the Incurrence by such Limited Partner with respect to Partnership Liabilities or liabilities of any Subsidiary Partnerships in such a way that the Incurrence has the least amount of real economic risk to such Limited Partner and provided that the Incurrence does not have a material adverse impact on any other Partner in the Partnership or any such Partner's Affiliates.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10.5(a) above, no Limited Partners shall have any right to negotiate directly with any lender of the Partnership or any other Subsidiary Partnership, any such negotiation to be undertaken in good faith by the Managing General Partner on behalf of, and at the request of, all affected Limited Partners.

ARTICLE XI

Grant of Rights to the Limited Partners

11.1 Grant of Rights. The Managing General Partner does hereby grant to each of the Limited Partners and each of the Limited Partners does hereby accept the right, but not the obligation (hereinafter such right sometimes referred to as the "Rights"), to convert all or a portion of such Limited Partner's Partnership Units into Shares (which will be contributed by the Managing General Partner to the Trust in consideration for Trust Interests attached to the Simon Group Common Stock issued upon the concurrent conversion of the Simon Group Partnership Unit referred to in the proviso below) or cash, as selected by the Managing General Partner, at any time or from time to time, on the terms and subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in this Article XI; provided, however, that no Partnership Unit may be converted pursuant to this Article XI without a conversion of the corresponding Simon Group Partnership Unit; and provided, further that each Partnership Unit converted pursuant to this Article XI shall be converted into the same form of consideration as the corresponding Simon Group Partnership Unit. The Rights granted hereunder may be exercised by a Limited Partner, on the terms and subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in this Article XI, upon delivery to the Managing General Partner of a notice in the form of Exhibit E (an "Exercise Notice"), which notice shall specify the number of such Limited Partner's Partnership Units to be converted by such Limited Partner (the "Offered Units"). Once delivered, the Exercise Notice shall be irrevocable, subject to payment by the Managing General Partner or the Partnership of the Purchase Price for the Offered Units in accordance with the terms hereof. In the event the Managing General Partner elects to cause the Offered Units to be converted into cash, the Managing General Partner shall effect such conversion by causing the Partnership to redeem the Offered Units for cash.

11.2 [INTENTIONALLY OMITTED].

11.3 Computation of Purchase Price/Form of Payment. The purchase price ("Purchase Price") payable to a tendering Limited Partner shall be equal to the Deemed Partnership Unit Value multiplied by the number of Offered Units computed as of the date on which the Exercise Notice was delivered to the Managing General Partner (the "Computation Date"). Subject to the following paragraph, the Purchase Price for the Offered Units shall be payable, at the option of the Managing General Partner, by causing the Partnership to redeem the Offered Units for cash in the amount of the Purchase Price, or by the issuance by the Managing General Partner of the number of Shares (which will be contributed by the Managing General Partner to the Trusts in return for Trust Interests attached to the Simon Group Common Stock issued upon the concurrent conversion of a Simon Group Partnership Unit) equal to the number of Offered Units (adjusted as appropriate to account for stock splits, stock dividends or other similar transactions between the Computation Date and the closing of the purchase and sale of the Offered Units in the manner specified in Section 11.7(d) below).

11.4 Closing. The closing of the acquisition or redemption of Offered Units shall, unless otherwise mutually agreed, be held at the principal offices of the Managing General Partner, on the date agreed to by the Managing General Partner and the relevant Limited Partner, which date (the "Settlement Date") shall in no event be on a date which is later than the later of (i) ten (10) days after the date of the Exercise Notice and (ii) five (5) days after the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable to the Limited Partner, if any, under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act (the "HSR Act"). The Managing General Partner agrees to use its best efforts to obtain an early termination of the waiting period applicable to any such acquisition, if any, under the HSR Act. Until the Settlement Date, each tendering Partner shall continue to own his Offered Units, and will continue to be treated as the holder of such Offered Units for all purposes of this Agreement, including, without limitation, for purposes of voting, consent, allocations and distributions. Offered Units will be transferred to the Managing General Partner only upon receipt by the tendering Partner of Shares or cash in payment in full therefor.

11.5 Closing Deliveries. At the closing of the purchase and sale or redemption of Offered Units, payment of the Purchase Price shall be accompanied by proper instruments of transfer and assignment and by the delivery of (i) representations and warranties of (A) the tendering Limited Partner with respect to its due authority to sell all of the right, title and interest in and to such Offered Units to the Managing General Partner or the Partnership, as applicable, and with respect to the ownership by of the Limited Partner of such Units, free and clear of all Liens, and (B) the Managing General Partner with respect to its due authority to acquire such Units for Shares or to cause the Partnership to redeem such Units for cash and, in the case of payment by Shares, (ii) an opinion of counsel for the Managing General Partner, reasonably satisfactory to such Limited Partner, to the effect that such Shares have been duly authorized, are validly issued, fully-paid and non-assessable.

11.6 Term of Rights. The rights of the parties with respect to the Rights shall remain in effect, subject to the terms hereof, throughout the existence of the Partnership.

11.7 Covenants of the Managing General Partner. To facilitate the Managing General Partner's ability fully to perform its obligations hereunder, the Managing General Partner covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) At all times while the Rights are in existence, the Managing General Partner shall reserve for issuance such number of Shares as may be necessary to enable the Managing General Partner to issue such Shares underlying the Trust Interests in full payment of the Purchase Price in regard to all Partnership Units which are from time to time outstanding and held by the Limited Partners.

(b) Under no circumstances shall the Managing General Partner declare any stock dividend, stock split, stock distribution or the like, unless fair and equitable arrangements are provided, to the extent necessary, fully to adjust, and to avoid any dilution in, the Rights of any Limited Partner under this Agreement.

11.8 Limited Partners' Covenant. Each of the Limited Partners covenants and agrees with the Managing General Partner that all Offered Units tendered to the Managing General Partner or the Partnership, as the case may be, in accordance with the exercise of Rights herein provided shall be delivered free and clear of all Liens and should any Liens exist or arise with respect to such Offered Units, the Managing General Partner or the Partnership, as the case may be, shall be under no obligation to acquire the same unless, in connection with such acquisition, the Managing General Partner has elected to cause the Partnership to pay such portion of the Purchase Price in the form of cash consideration in circumstances where such consideration will be sufficient to cause such existing Lien to be discharged in full upon application of all or a part of such consideration and the Partnership is expressly authorized to apply such portion of the Purchase Price as may be necessary to satisfy any indebtedness in full and to discharge such Lien in full. In the event any transfer tax is payable by the Limited Partner as a result of a transfer of Partnership Units pursuant to the exercise by a Limited Partner of the Rights, the Limited Partner shall pay such transfer tax.

11.9 Dividends. If a Limited Partner shall exchange any Partnership Units for Shares pursuant to this Article XI on or prior to the Partnership Record Date for any distribution to be made on such Partnership Units, in accordance with the Charter of the Managing General Partner such Limited Partner will be entitled to receive the corresponding distribution to be paid on such Shares and shall not be entitled to receive the distribution made by the Partnership in respect of the exchanged Partnership Units.

ARTICLE XIII

Each Limited Partner represents that (i) it is acquiring such Partnership Units for investment only and without any view toward distribution thereof, and it will not sell or otherwise dispose of such Partnership Units except pursuant to the exercise of the Rights or otherwise in accordance with the terms hereof and in compliance with the registration requirements or exemption provisions of any applicable state securities laws, (ii) its economic circumstances are such that it is able to bear all risks of the investment in the Partnership Units for an indefinite period of time including the risk of a complete loss of its investment in the Units and (iii) it has knowledge and experience in financial and business matters sufficient to evaluate the risks of investment in the Partnership Units. 12.7 Partners Not Agents. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to constitute any Partner the agent of another Partner, except as specifically provided herein, or in any manner to limit the Partners in the carrying on of their own respective businesses or activities.

12.8 Entire Understanding; Etc. This Agreement and the other agreements referenced herein or therein or to which the signatories hereto or thereto are parties constitute the entire agreement and understanding among the Partners and supersede any prior understandings and/or written or oral agreements among them respecting the subject matter within.

12.9 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application of such provision to any Person or circumstance, shall be held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such provision to Persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held invalid by such court, shall not be affected thereby.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN OPERATING PARTNERSHIPS

This Agreement Between Operating Partnerships (this "Agreement") is made as of August ___, 1998 by and among Simon Property Group, L.P. (formerly known as Simon-DeBartolo Group, L.P.), a Delaware limited partnership (the "Simon Group Partnership"), SPG Realty Consultants, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (the "SRC Partnership"), Simon Property Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Simon Group"), and SPG Realty Consultants, Inc. (formerly known as Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc.), a Delaware corporation ("SPG Realty"). Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms used herein are used herein as defined in Section 3.

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are entering into this Agreement in connection with the rights held by the limited partners of Simon Group Partnership and the SRC Partnership to tender Units of the Simon Group Partnership ("Simon Group Units") and Units of the SRC Partnership ("SRC Units" and, together with the Simon Group Units, the "Simon Units"), respectively, in exchange for either Paired Shares or cash;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants set forth herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

SECTION 1. AGREEMENT UPON EXCHANGE.

Within nine (9) days after the valid tender pursuant to each Partnership Agreement of Simon Units, Simon Group and SPG Realty shall make an election to pay for any of such Simon Units by delivering either Paired Shares or cash. Such election shall be made pursuant to an agreement as to such election between Simon Group and SPG Realty. If Simon Group and SPG Realty do not agree upon the form of consideration for any Simon Unit within such 9-day period, they shall be deemed to have elected to pay for such Simon Units by delivering cash.

SECTION 2. DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN.

With respect to Section 4.5 of each of the Simon Group Partnership Agreement and the SRC Partnership Agreement, Simon Group and SPG Realty agree that all amounts received by each of Simon Group and SPG Realty in respect of its dividend reinvestment plan shall be, pursuant to an agreement between such parties, either (i) used to effect open market purchases of Paired Shares or (ii) upon issuance of additional Paired Shares, contributed to the respective parties in exchange for additional Simon Units. If Simon Group and SPG Realty do not agree within a reasonable period of time, they shall be deemed to have elected to use such amounts to effect open market purchases of Paired Shares.

SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS. For purposes of this Agreement:

"Paired Share" means one share of Simon Group Common Stock and a pro rata Trust Interest.

"Partnership Agreements" mean the Simon Group Partnership Agreement and the SRC Partnership Agreement.

"Simon Group Common Stock" means the shares of Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Simon Group.

"SRC Shares" means the Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SPG Realty.

"Trust" shall mean the trust owning all of the outstanding SRC Shares subject to a trust agreement between certain stockholders of Simon Group, a trustee and SPG Realty pursuant to which all shareholders of Simon Group are beneficiaries of such Trust.

"Trust Interest" shall mean a beneficial interest in one or more Trusts associated with or attached to a SRC Share.

SECTION 4. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective permitted successors or assigns. In addition, and whether or not any express assignment shall have been made, the provisions of this Agreement which are for the benefit of the parties hereto other than Simon Group, SPG Realty, Simon Group Partnership and SRC Partnership, shall also be for the benefit of and enforceable by any subsequent holder of any Simon Units.

SECTION 5. EXECUTION IN COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be considered an original counterpart, and shall become a binding agreement when Simon Group, SPG Realty, Simon Group Partnership, and SRC Partnership shall have each executed a counterpart of this Agreement.

SECTION 6. TITLES AND HEADINGS. Titles and headings to Articles and Sections herein are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be a part of or to affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

SECTION 7. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement, and the application or interpretation thereof, shall be governed exclusively by its terms and by the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws as applied in the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction which, if applied, would result in the application of any laws other than the internal laws of the State of Delaware.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the parties hereto or by their duly authorized officers, all as of the date first above written.

"Unfunded Liabilities" means, with respect to any Plan at any time, the amount (if any) by which (i) the present value of all benefits under such Plan exceeds (ii) the fair market value of all Plan assets allocable to such benefits (excluding any accrued but unpaid contributions), at any such time, but only to the extent that such excess represents a potential liability of a member of the ERISA Group to the PBGC or any other Person under Title IV of ERISA.

"Unleveraged Assets" means at any time the sum of (i) (x) the Appraised Value at such time of all Real Property owned by the Borrower that is not subject to a Lien securing Debt for Borrowed Money plus (y) the value at such time, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, of all assets of the Borrower (other than Real Property and intangible assets (determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles)) that are not subject to any Lien securing Debt for Borrowed Money and (ii) for each Consolidated Subsidiary that does not have Debt for Borrowed Money (other than Debt for Borrowed Money owing to the Borrower or any Wholly-Owned Consolidated Subsidiary and other than Non-Recourse Debt) the sum of: (s) the Appraised Value at such time of Real Property owned by such Consolidated Subsidiary that is not subject to a Lien securing Debt for Borrowed Money and (t) the value at such time, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, of all assets of such Consolidated Subsidiary (other than Real Property and intangible assets (determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles)) that are not subject to any Lien securing Debt for Borrowed Money. For purposes of the preceding sentence only, the term "Non-Recourse Debt" of any Person (the "Obligor") will be deemed to include any lease of office equipment by the Obligor, as lessee, to the extent that, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, it is required to be capitalized on a balance sheet of the lessee, regardless of whether such obligation may be enforced out of assets other than such office equipment.

"Wholly-Owned Consolidated Subsidiary" means any Consolidated Subsidiary all of the shares of capital stock or beneficial interest or other ownership interests of which (except directors' qualifying shares) are at the time directly or indirectly owned by the Borrower.

SECTION 1.02. Accounting Terms and Determinations. Unless otherwise specified herein, all accounting terms used herein shall be interpreted, all accounting determinations hereunder shall be made, and all financial statements required to be delivered hereunder shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles as in effect from time to time, applied on a basis consistent (except for changes concurred in by the Borrower's independent public accountants) with the most recent audited consolidated financial statements of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries delivered to the Banks.

SECTION 1.03. Types of Borrowings. The term "Borrowing" denotes the aggregation of Loans of one or more Banks to be made to the Borrower pursuant to Article II on a single date and for a single Interest Period. Borrowings are classified for purposes of this Agreement either by reference to the pricing of Loans comprising such Borrowing (e.g., a "Fixed Rate Borrowing" is a Euro-Dollar Borrowing or a Money Market Borrowing (excluding any such Borrowing consisting of Money Market LIBOR Loans bearing interest at the Base Rate pursuant to Section 8.01(a)), and a "Euro-Dollar Borrowing" is a Borrowing comprised of Euro-Dollar Loans) or by reference to the provisions of Article II under which participation therein is determined (i.e., a "Committed Borrowing" is a Borrowing under Section 2.01 in which all Banks participate in proportion to their Commitments, while a "Money Market Borrowing" is a Borrowing under Section 2.03 in which the Bank participants are determined on the basis of their bids in accordance therewith).

ARTICLE II

THE CREDITS

SECTION 2.01. Commitments to Lend. During the Revolving Credit Period each Bank severally agrees, on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, to lend to the Borrower from time to time amounts not to exceed in the aggregate at any one time outstanding the amount of its Commitment. Each Borrowing under this Section shall be in an aggregate principal amount of $5,000,000 or any larger multiple of $1,000,000 (except that any such Borrowing may be in the aggregate amount of the unused Commitments). Within the foregoing limits, the Borrower may borrow under this Section, repay, or to the extent permitted by Section 2.12, prepay Loans and reborrow at any time during the Revolving Credit Period under this Section.

SECTION 2.02. Notice of Committed Borrowing. The Borrower shall give the Administrative Agent and the Documentation Agent notice (a "Notice of Committed Borrowing") at least three Domestic Business Days before each Base Rate Borrowing and at least three Euro-Dollar Business Days before each Euro-Dollar Borrowing, specifying:

(i) the date of such Borrowing, which shall be a Domestic Business Day in the case of a Base Rate Borrowing or a Euro-Dollar Business Day in the case of a Euro-Dollar Borrowing,

(ii) the aggregate amount of such Borrowing,

(iii) whether the Loans comprising such Borrowing are to be Base Rate Loans or Euro-Dollar Loans,

(iv) in the case of a Fixed Rate Borrowing, the duration of the Interest Period applicable thereto, subject to the provisions of the definition of Interest Period, and

(v) the purpose of such Borrowing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no more than ten Committed Borrowings shall be outstanding at any one time.

SECTION 2.03. Money Market Borrowings. (a) The Money Market Option. In addition to Committed Borrowings pursuant to Section 2.01, the Borrower may, as set forth in this Section, request the Banks during the Revolving Credit Period to make offers to make Money Market Loans to the Borrower, provided that prior to the first such request the Borrower shall obtain the unanimous consent of the Banks to the inclusion of the facility under this Section 2.03 for the making of Money Market Loans (which consent may be granted or withheld in each Bank's sole discretion and which may be conditioned on satisfactory revision of the fees referred to in Section 2.08(b)). At any time after such unanimous consent, if any, is granted, the Banks may, but shall have no obligation to, make such offers and the Borrower may, but shall have no obligation to, accept any such offers in the manner set forth in this Section.

(b) Money Market Quote Request. When the Borrower wishes to request offers to make Money Market Loans under this Section, it shall transmit to the Administrative Agent by telex or facsimile transmission a Money Market Quote Request substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto so as to be received no later than 10:30 A.M. (New York City time) on (x) the fifth Euro-Dollar Business Day prior to the date of Borrowing proposed therein, in the case of a LIBOR Auction or (y) the Domestic Business Day next preceding the date of Borrowing proposed therein, in the case of an Absolute Rate Auction (or, in either case, such other time or date as the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall have mutually agreed and shall have notified to the Banks not later than the date of the Money Market Quote Request for the first LIBOR Auction or Absolute Rate Auction for which such change is to be effective) specifying:

(i) the proposed date of Borrowing, which shall be a Euro-Dollar Business Day in the case of a LIBOR Auction or a Domestic Business Day in the case of an Absolute Rate Auction,

(ii) the aggregate amount of such Borrowing, which shall be $5,000,000 or a larger multiple of $1,000,000,

(iii) the duration, of the Interest Period applicable thereto, subject to the provisions of the definition of Interest Period, and

(iv) whether the Money Market Quotes requested are to set forth a Money Market Margin or a Money Market Absolute Rate.

The Borrower may request offers to make Money Market Loans for more than one Interest Period in a single Money Market Quote Request. No Money Market Quote Request shall be given within five Euro-Dollar Business Days (or such other number of days as the Borrower and the Administrative Agent may agree) of any other Money Market Quote Request.

(c) Invitation for Money Market Quotes. Promptly upon receipt of a Money Market Quote Request, the Administrative Agent shall send to the Banks by telex or facsimile transmission an Invitation for Money Market Quotes substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto, which shall constitute an invitation by the Borrower to each Bank to submit Money Market Quotes offering to make the Money Market Loans to which such Money Market Quote Request relates in accordance with this Section.

(d) Submission and Contents of Money Market Quotes. (i) Each Bank may submit a Money Market Quote containing an offer or offers to make Money Market Loans in response to any Invitation for Money Market Quotes. Each Money Market Quote must comply with the requirements of this subsection (d) and must be submitted to the Administrative Agent by telex or facsimile transmission at its offices specified in or pursuant to Section 9.01 not later than (x) 2:00 P.M. (New York City time) on the fourth Euro-Dollar Business Day prior to the proposed date of Borrowing, in the case of a LIBOR Auction or (y) 9:30 A.M. (New York City time) on the proposed date of Borrowing, in the case of an Absolute Rate Auction (or, in either case, such other time or date as the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall have mutually agreed and shall have notified to the Banks not later than the date of the Money Market Quote Request for the first LIBOR Auction or Absolute Rate Auction for which such change is to be effective); provided that Money Market Quotes submitted by the Administrative Agent (or any affiliate of the Administrative Agent) in the capacity of a Bank may be submitted, and may only be submitted, if the Administrative Agent or such affiliate notifies the Borrower of the terms of the offer or offers contained therein not later than (x) one hour prior to the deadline for the other Banks, in the case of a LIBOR Auction or (y) 15 minutes prior to the deadline for the other Banks, in the case of an Absolute Rate Auction. Subject to Articles III and VI, any Money Market Quote so made shall be irrevocable except with the written consent of the Administrative Agent given on the instructions of the Borrower.

(ii) Each Money Market Quote shall be in substantially the form of Exhibit D hereto and shall in any case specify:

(A) the proposed date of Borrowing,

(B) the principal amount of the Money Market Loan for which each such offer is being made, which principal amount (w) may be greater than or less than the Commitment of the quoting Bank, (x) must be $5,000,000 or a larger multiple of $1,000,000, (y) may not exceed the principal amount of Money Market Loans for which offers were requested, and (z) may be subject to an aggregate limitation as to the principal amount of Money Market Loans for which offers being made by such quoting Bank may be accepted,

(C) in the case of a LIBOR Auction, the margin above or below the applicable London Interbank Offered Rate (the "Money Market Margin") offered for each such Money Market Loan, expressed as a percentage (specified to the nearest 1/10,000th of 1%) to be added to or subtracted from such base rate,

(D) in the case of an Absolute Rate Auction, the rate of interest per annum (specified to the nearest 1/10,000th of 1%) (the "Money Market Absolute Rate") offered for each such Money Market Loan, and

(E) the identity of the quoting Bank.

A Money Market Quote may set forth up to five separate offers by the quoting Bank with respect to each Interest Period specified in the related Invitation for Money Market Quotes.

(iii) Any Money Market Quote shall be disregarded if it:

(A) is not substantially in conformity with Exhibit D hereto or does not specify all of the information required by subsection (d)(ii);

(B) contains qualifying, conditional or similar language;

(C) proposes terms other than or in addition to those set forth in the applicable Invitation for Money Market Quotes; or

(D) arrives after the time set forth in subsection (d)(i).

(e) Notice to the Borrower. The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify the Borrower of the terms (x) of any Money Market Quote submitted by a Bank that is in accordance with subsection (d) and (y) of any Money Market Quote that amends, modifies or is otherwise inconsistent with a previous Money Market Quote submitted by such Bank with respect to the same Money Market Quote Request. Any such subsequent Money Market Quote shall be disregarded by the Administrative Agent unless such subsequent Money Market Quote is submitted solely to correct a manifest error in such former Money Market Quote. The Administrative Agent's notice to the Borrower shall specify (A) the aggregate principal amount of Money Market Loans for which offers have been received for each Interest Period specified in the related Money Market Quote Request, (B) the respective principal amounts and Money Market Margins or Money Market Absolute Rates, as the case may be, so offered and (C) if applicable, limitations on the aggregate principal amount of Money Market Loans for which offers in any single Money Market Quote may be accepted.

(f) Acceptance and Notice by Borrower. Not later than 10:30 A.M. (New York City time) on (x) the third Euro-Dollar Business Day prior to the proposed date of Borrowing, in the case of a LIBOR Auction or (y) the proposed date of Borrowing, in the case of an Absolute Rate Auction (or, in either case, such other time or date as the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall have mutually agreed and notified to the Banks not later than the date of the Money Market Quote Request for the first LIBOR Auction or Absolute Rate Auction for which such change is to be effective), the Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent of its acceptance or non-acceptance of the offers so notified to it pursuant to subsection (e). In the case of acceptance, such notice (a "Notice of Money Market Borrowing") shall specify the aggregate principal amount of offers for each Interest Period that are accepted. The Borrower may accept any Money Market Quote in whole or in part; provided that:

(i) the aggregate principal amount of each Money Market Borrowing may not exceed the applicable amount set forth in the related Money Market Quote Request;

(ii) the principal amount of each Money Market Borrowing must be $5,000,000 or a larger multiple of $1,000,000;

(iii) acceptance of offers may only be made on the basis of ascending Money Market Margins or Money Market Absolute Rates, as the case may be, and;

(iv) the Borrower may not accept any offer that is described in subsection (d)(iii) or that otherwise fails to comply with the requirements of this Agreement.

(g) Allocation by Administrative Agent. If offers are made by two or more Banks with the same Money Market Margins or Money Market Absolute Rates, as the case may be, for a greater aggregate principal amount than the amount in respect of which such offers are accepted for the related Interest Period, the principal amount of Money Market Loans in respect of which such offers are accepted shall be allocated by the Administrative Agent among such, Banks as nearly as possible (in multiples of $1,000,000 as the Administrative Agent may deem appropriate) in proportion to the aggregate principal amounts of such offers.

Determinations by the Administrative Agent of the amounts of Money Market Loans shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

SECTION 2.04. Notice to Banks: Funding of Loans. (a) Upon receipt of a Notice of Borrowing, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Bank of the contents thereof and of such Bank's share of such Borrowing and such Notice of Borrowing shall not thereafter be revocable by the Borrower.

(b) Not later than 11:00 A.M. (New York City time) on the date of each Borrowing, each Bank shall (except as provided in subsection (c) of this Section) make available its ratable share of such Borrowing, in Federal or other funds immediately available in New York City, to the Administrative Agent at its address specified in or pursuant to Section 9.01. Unless the Administrative Agent determines, or is notified by the Documentation Agent prior to the date of such Borrowing that the Documentation Agent has determined, that any applicable condition specified in Article III has not been satisfied, the Administrative Agent will make the funds so received from the Banks available to the Borrower at the Administrative Agent's aforesaid address.

(c) If any Bank makes a new Loan hereunder on a day on which the Borrower is to repay all or any part of an outstanding Loan from such Bank, such Bank shall apply the proceeds of its new Loan to make such repayment and only an amount equal to the difference (if any) between the amount being borrowed and the amount being repaid shall be made available by such Bank to the Administrative Agent as provided in subsection (b) of this Section, or remitted by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent as provided in Section 2.12, as the case may be.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Bank prior to the date of any Borrowing that such Bank will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Bank's share of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Bank has made such share available to the Administrative Agent on the date of such Borrowing in accordance with subsections (b) and (c) of this Section and the Administrative Agent may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrower on such date a corresponding amount. If and to the extent that such Bank shall not have so made such share available to the Administrative Agent, such Bank and the Borrower severally agree to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such corresponding amount together with interest thereon, for each day from the date such amount is made available to the Borrower until the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent, at (i) in the case of the Borrower, a rate per annum equal to the higher of the Federal Funds Rate and the interest rate applicable thereto pursuant to Section 2.07 and (ii) in the case of such Bank, the Federal Funds Rate. If such Bank shall repay to the Administrative Agent such corresponding amount, such amount so repaid shall constitute such Bank's Loan included in such Borrowing for purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 2.05. Notes. (a) The Loans of each Bank shall be evidenced by a single Note payable to the order of such Bank for the account of its Applicable Lending Office in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid principal amount of such Bank's Loans.

(b) Each Bank may, by notice to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, request that its Loans of a particular type be evidenced by a separate Note in an amount equal to the aggregate unpaid principal amount of such Loans. Each such Note shall be in substantially the form of Exhibit A hereto with appropriate modifications to reflect the fact that it evidences solely Loans of the relevant type. Each reference in this Agreement to the "Note" of such Bank shall be deemed to refer to and include any or all of such Notes, as the context may require.

(c) Upon receipt of each Bank's Note pursuant to Section 3.01(b), the Administrative Agent shall mail such Note to such Bank. Each Bank shall record the date, amount, type and maturity of each Loan made by it and the date and amount of each payment of principal made by the Borrower with respect thereto, and prior to any transfer of its Note shall endorse on the schedule forming a part thereof appropriate notations to evidence the foregoing information with respect to each such Loan then outstanding; provided that the failure of any Bank to make any such recordation or endorsement shall not affect the obligations of the Borrower hereunder or under the Notes. Each Bank is hereby irrevocably authorized by the Borrower so to endorse its Note and to attach to and make a part of its Note a continuation of any such schedule as and when required.

SECTION 2.06. Maturity of Loans. Each Loan included in any Borrowing shall mature, and the principal amount thereof shall be due and payable, on the last day of the Interest Period applicable to such Borrowing.

SECTION 2.07. Interest Rates. (a) Each Base Rate Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof, for each day from the date such Loan is made until it becomes due, at a rate per annum equal to the sum of (x) the Base Rate Margin for such day plus (y) the Base Rate for such day. Such interest shall be payable for each Interest period on the last day thereof. Any overdue principal of or interest on any Base Rate Loan shall bear interest, payable on demand, for each day until paid at a rate per annum equal to the sum of 3% plus the rate otherwise applicable to Base Rate Loans for such day.

(b) Each Euro-Dollar Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof, for each day during the Interest Period applicable thereto, at a rate per annum equal to the sum of the Euro-Dollar Margin for such day plus the applicable Adjusted London Interbank Offered Rate. Such interest shall be payable for each Interest Period on the last day thereof and, if such Interest Period is longer than three months, at intervals of three months after the first day thereof.

The "Adjusted London Interbank Offered Rate" applicable to any Interest Period means a rate per annum equal to the quotient obtained (rounded upward, if necessary, to the next higher 1/100 of 1%) by dividing (i) the applicable London Interbank Offered Rate by (ii) 1.00 minus the Euro-Dollar Reserve Percentage.

The "London Interbank Offered Rate" applicable to any Interest Period means the average (rounded upward, if necessary, to the next higher 1/16 of 1%) of the respective rates per annum at which deposits in dollars are offered to each of the Reference Banks in the London interbank market at approximately 11:00 A.M. (London time) two Euro-Dollar Business Days before the first day of such Interest Period in an amount approximately equal to the principal amount of the Euro-Dollar Loan of such Reference Bank to which such Interest Period is to apply and for a period of time comparable to such Interest Period.

"Euro-Dollar Reserve Percentage" means for any day that percentage (expressed as a decimal) which is in effect on such day, as prescribed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (or any successor) for determining the maximum reserve requirement for a member bank of the Federal Reserve System in New York City with deposits exceeding five billion dollars in respect of "Eurocurrency liabilities" (or in respect of any other category of liabilities which includes deposits by reference to which the interest rate on Euro-Dollar Loans is determined or any category of extensions of credit or other assets which includes loans by a non-United States office of any Bank to United States residents). The Adjusted London Interbank Offered Rate shall be adjusted automatically on and as of the effective date of any change in the Euro-Dollar Reserve Percentage.

(c) Any overdue principal of or interest on any Euro-Dollar Loan shall bear interest, payable on demand, for each day from and including the date payment thereof was due to but excluding the date of actual payment, at a rate per annum equal to the sum of 3% plus the sum of the Euro-Dollar Margin plus the Adjusted London Interbank Offered Rate applicable to such Loan on the date such default shall have occurred.

(d) Subject to Section 8.01(a), each Money Market LIBOR Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof, for the Interest Period applicable thereto, at a rate per annum equal to the sum of the London Interbank Offered Rate for such Interest Period (determined in accordance with Section 2.07(b) as if the related Money Market LIBOR Borrowing were a Committed Euro-Dollar Borrowing) plus (or minus) the Money Market Margin quoted by the Bank making such Loan in accordance with Section 2.03. Each Money Market Absolute Rate Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof, for the Interest Period applicable thereto, at a rate per annum equal to the Money Market Absolute Rate quoted by the Bank making such Loan in accordance with Section 2.03. Such interest shall be payable for each Interest Period on the last day thereof and, if such Interest Period is longer than three months, at intervals of three months after the first day thereof. Any overdue principal of or interest on any Money Market Loan shall bear interest, payable on demand, for each day until paid at a rate per annum equal to the sum of 3% plus the Base Rate for such day.

(e) The Administrative Agent shall determine each interest rate applicable to the Loans hereunder. The Administrative Agent shall give prompt notice to the Borrower and the Banks by telex, cable or facsimile of each rate of interest so determined, and its determination thereof shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

(f) Each Reference Bank agrees to use its best efforts to furnish quotations to the Administrative Agent as contemplated hereby. If any Reference Bank does not furnish a timely quotation, the Administrative Agent shall determine the relevant interest rate on the basis of the quotation or quotations furnished by the remaining Reference Bank or Banks or, if none of such quotations is available on a timely basis, the provisions of Section 8.01 shall apply.

SECTION 2.08. Fees. (a) On or before the Effective Date, the Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Banks a participation fee in an amount equal to (x) if such Bank's initial bid for a commitment (as set forth in such Bank's commitment letter) was less than $25,000,000, 0.15% of the amount of such Bank's Commitment or (y) if such Bank's initial bid for a commitment (as set forth in such Bank's commitment letter) was greater than or equal to $25,000,000, 0.20% of the amount of such Bank's Commitment.

(b) During the Revolving Credit Period, the Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Bank ratably in accordance with their respective Commitments a commitment fee at the Commitment Fee Rate (determined daily in accordance with the Pricing Schedule) on the daily amount by which the aggregate amount of the Commitments exceeds the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Loans. Such commitment fees shall accrue from and including the Effective Date to but excluding the last day of the Revolving Credit Period and shall be payable quarterly in arrears on each January 15, April 15, July 15 and October 15 during the Revolving Credit Period (commencing October 15, 1996) and on the date of the termination of the Commitments in their entirety.

SECTION 2.09. Optional Termination or Reduction of Commitment. During the Revolving Credit Period, the Borrower may, upon at least 15 calendar days' notice to the Administrative Agent, (a) terminate the Commitments at any time, if no Loans are outstanding at such time or (b) ratably reduce from time to time by an aggregate amount of $1,000,000 or any larger multiple of $1,000,000, the unused portion of the Commitments. If the Commitments are terminated in their entirety, all accrued commitment fees shall be payable on the effective date of such termination.

SECTION 2.10. Mandatory Termination of Commitment. The Commitments shall terminate on the Termination Date, and any Loans then outstanding (together with accrued interest thereon) shall be due and payable on such date.

SECTION 2.11. Mandatory Prepayments and Termination of Commitment. (a) Promptly following any determination by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries to consummate a Mandatory Prepayment Transaction, and in any event at least 90 days prior to the consummation by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries of a Mandatory Prepayment Transaction, the Borrower shall send a notice prepared by its chief financial officer to each of the Banks (i) specifying the date on which the Borrower or its Subsidiary, as the case may be, proposes to consummate such Mandatory Prepayment Transaction and (ii) describing such Mandatory Prepayment Transaction in reasonable detail.

(b) Prior to, or simultaneously with, the consummation by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries of any Mandatory Prepayment Transaction, and upon five Domestic Business Days' notice to each of the Banks stating the proposed date of the prepayment, the Borrower shall prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Loans in full, together with accrued interest thereon to the date of such prepayment and any amounts payable to the Banks as a result of such prepayment pursuant to Section 2.14 and all accrued fees pursuant to Section 2.08(b). The Commitments shall terminate on the earlier of (i) the date of such prepayment and (ii) the date of consummation by the Borrower or any of the Subsidiaries of such Mandatory Prepayment Transaction.

(c) Promptly, and in any event within two Domestic Business Days, following the occurrence of a Mandatory Prepayment Event, the Borrower shall give notice thereof to each of the Banks and the Administrative Agent.

(d) The Borrower shall, on a date specified by the Administrative Agent following the occurrence of a Mandatory Prepayment Event (which date shall be no less than two Domestic Business Days and no more than twenty Domestic Business Days after the date the Administrative Agent receives the notice referred to in subsection (c) above), prepay the outstanding principal amount of the Loans in full, together with accrued interest thereon to the date of such prepayment and any amounts payable to the Banks as a result of such prepayment pursuant to Section 2.14 and all accrued fees pursuant to Section 2.08(b). The Commitments shall terminate on the date of such prepayment.

(e) The term "Mandatory Prepayment Transaction" means:

(i) (x) any consolidation or merger by the Borrower with or into any other Person or (y) any sale, lease or other transfer by the Borrower, directly or indirectly, in one or a series of related transactions, of all or substantially all of the assets of the Borrower and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, to any Person (other than the Borrower or any Wholly-Owned Consolidated Subsidiary of the Borrower); provided that a merger by the Borrower with another Person shall not constitute a Mandatory Prepayment Transaction if (A) the Borrower is the entity surviving such merger and (B) immediately after giving effect to such merger, neither a Default, a Mandatory Prepayment Transaction (other than one referred to in this clause (i)) nor a Mandatory Prepayment Event shall have occurred and be continuing;

(ii) the making of any Restricted Payment by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries if, after giving effect thereto, the aggregate amount of all Restricted Payments made by the Borrower and its Subsidiaries on or subsequent to the date hereof and on or before the date of such Restricted Payment, would equal or exceed the Restricted Payment Threshold;

(iii) the making of any Asset Disposition by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries prior to the date (if any) on which the Security Acceptance shall occur if, after giving effect thereto, (A) the aggregate amount of Gross Assets allocable to Real Property disposed of by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries on or after the Effective Date (determined in each case as of the date of such disposition) equals or exceeds (B) 50% of the sum of (i) $4,230,000,000 (Four Billion Two Hundred and Thirty Million Dollars) plus (ii) the excess, if any, of (x) the net proceeds received by the Borrower of any Subordinated Securities issued after the Effective Date over (y) the sum of (I) the portion of such proceeds not invested by the Borrower in Real Property (for purposes of clause (y)(I), proceeds used to repay Debt incurred to invest in Real Property being deemed to have been invested in Real Property) plus (II) the aggregate amount of Restricted Payments made by the Borrower and its Subsidiaries in respect of redemptions or repurchases of Subordinated Securities issued by the Borrower after the Effective Date; or the making of any Restricted Payment referred to in clause (y)(II) at any time prior to the date (if any) on which the Security Acceptance shall occur, if, after giving effect thereto, the amount determined pursuant to clause (A) above equals or exceeds the amount determined pursuant to clause (B) above at such time;

(iv) the making by the Borrower or any Consolidated Subsidiary of any Investment (other than an Investment in the Borrower or in a Wholly-Owned Consolidated Subsidiary) in any Person if, after giving effect thereto, the aggregate fair market value of all Investments of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries (A) in such Person (and its Affiliates (other than the Borrower and its Subsidiaries)) would exceed 25% of Gross Assets or (B) in such Person (and its Affiliates (other than the Borrower and its Subsidiaries)) and any two other Persons (and their respective Affiliates (other than the Borrower and its Subsidiaries)) would exceed 50% of Consolidated Net Worth;

(v) the making by the Borrower or any Consolidated Subsidiary of any Investment in Real Property if, after giving effect thereto, the Appraised Value of any single or contiguous Real Property held by the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries would exceed 25% of Gross Assets; or

(vi) the making by the Borrower or any Consolidated Subsidiary of any Investment in any Person if, after giving effect thereto, the aggregate fair market value of all Investments of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries that constitute Minority Ownership Interests would exceed 10% of Gross Assets.

(f) The term "Mandatory Prepayment Event" means:

(i) failure by the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries (other than Subsidiaries that are considered, for Federal income tax purposes, partnerships, non-entities or joint ventures) to qualify, at any time, as a "real estate investment trust" or "qualified REIT subsidiary", as the case may be, under Sections 856-859 of the Code, or any successor provision;

(ii) failure by the Borrower to qualify, at any time, as either a "real estate operating company" or a "venture capital operating company", in each case, as defined in Section 2510.3-101 of the Regulations of the Department of Labor;

(iii) the Existing Shareholders shall cease, for any reason, to own, directly or indirectly, shares of beneficial interest in the Borrower representing at least 55% of the voting power of all then outstanding shares of beneficial interest of the Borrower; or

(iv) during any period of 12 consecutive calendar months, individuals who were members of the Board of Trustees of the Borrower on the first day of such period shall cease to constitute a majority of the Board of Trustees of the Borrower, other than as a result of death, incapacity or mandatory retirement based on age.

SECTION 2.12. Optional Prepayments. (a) The Borrower may (i) upon at least three Domestic Business Days' notice (or with respect to a Base Rate Borrowing made pursuant to Sections 8.01, 8.02 or 8.04, upon at least one Domestic Business Day's notice) to the Administrative Agent, prepay any Base Rate Borrowing (or any Money Market Borrowing bearing interest at the Base Rate pursuant to Section 8.01(a)) and (ii) upon at least three Euro-Dollar Business Days' notice to the Administrative Agent, subject to Section 2.14, prepay any Euro-Dollar Borrowing, in whole at any time, or from time to time in part in amounts aggregating $1,000,000 or any larger multiple of $1,000,000, by paying the principal amount to be prepaid together with accrued interest thereon to the date of prepayment. Each such optional prepayment shall be applied to prepay ratably the Loans of the several Banks included in such Borrowing.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (a) above, the Borrower may not prepay all or any portion of the principal amount of any Money Market Loan prior to the maturity thereof.

SECTION 2.13. General Provisions as to Payments. (a) The Borrower shall make each payment of principal of, and interest on, the Loans and of commitment fees hereunder, not later than 11:00 A.M. (New York City time) on the date when due, in Federal or other funds immediately available in New York City, to the Administrative Agent at its address referred to in Section 9.01. The Administrative Agent will promptly distribute to each Bank its ratable share of each such payment received by the Administrative Agent for the account of the Banks. Whenever any payment of principal of, or interest on, the Base Rate Loans or of commitment fees shall be due on a day which is not a Domestic Business Day, the date for payment thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Domestic Business Day. Whenever any payment of principal of, or interest on, the Euro-Dollar Loans shall be due on a day which is not a Euro-Dollar Business Day, the date for payment thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Euro-Dollar Business Day unless such Euro-Dollar Business Day falls in another calendar month, in which case the date for payment thereof shall be the next preceding Euro-Dollar Business Day. Whenever any payment of principal of, or interest on, the Money Market Loans shall be due on a day which is not a Euro-Dollar Business Day, the date for payment thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Euro-Dollar Business Day. If the date for any payment of principal is extended by operation of law or otherwise, interest thereon shall be payable for such extended time.

(b) The Banks agree that, unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Banks hereunder that the Borrower will not make such payment in full, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrower has made such payment in full to the Administrative Agent on such date and the Administrative Agent may, in reliance upon such assumption, cause to be distributed to each Bank on such due date an amount equal to the amount then due such Bank. If and to the extent that the Borrower shall not have so made such payment, each Bank shall repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand such amount distributed to such Bank together with interest thereon, for each day from the date such amount is distributed to such Bank until the date such Bank repays such amount to the Administrative Agent, at the Federal Funds Rate.

SECTION 2.14. Funding Losses. If the Borrower makes any payment of principal with respect to any Fixed Rate Loan (pursuant to Article II, VI or VIII or otherwise) on any day other than the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto or if the Borrower fails to borrow any Fixed Rate Loans after notice has been given to any Bank in accordance with Section 2.02, the Borrower shall reimburse each Bank within 15 days after demand for any resulting loss or expense incurred by such Bank (or by an existing or prospective Participant in the related Fixed Rate Loan), including (without limitation) any loss incurred in obtaining, liquidating or employing deposits from third parties, but excluding loss of margin for the period after any such payment or failure to borrow, provided that such Bank shall have delivered to the Borrower a certificate as to the amount of such loss or expense, which certificate shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.

SECTION 2.15. Computation of Interest and Fees. Interest based on the Prime Rate hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year) and paid for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day). All other interest and fees shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and paid for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day).

SECTION 2.16. Withholding Tax Exemption. At least five Domestic Business Days prior to the first date on which any amount is payable hereunder for the account of any Bank, each Bank that is not incorporated under the laws of the United States of America or a state thereof will deliver to each of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent two duly completed copies of United States Internal Revenue Service Form 1001 or 4224, certifying in either case that such Bank is entitled to receive all payments under this Agreement and the Notes without deduction or withholding of any United States federal income taxes. Each Bank which is required so to deliver a Form 1001 or 4224 will, in addition, deliver to each of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent two additional copies of such form (or a successor form) on or before the date that such form expires or becomes obsolete or after the occurrence of any event requiring a change in the most recent form so delivered by it, and such amendments thereto or extensions or renewals thereof as may be reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, in each case certifying that such Bank is entitled to receive all payments under this Agreement and the Notes without deduction or withholding of any United States federal income taxes, unless any change in a tax treaty to which the United States is a party or any change in law or regulation of the United States has occurred after the Effective Date (or, in the case of any bank that is not a Bank on the Effective Date, after the date such bank becomes a Bank hereunder) and prior to the date on which any such delivery would otherwise be required which renders all such forms inapplicable or which would prevent such Bank from duly completing and delivering any such form with respect to it and such Bank advises the Borrower and the Administrative Agent that it is not capable of receiving payments without any deduction or withholding of United States federal income tax. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Borrower shall not be obliged to pay any additional amount in respect of any United States federal income tax (including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 8.03 hereof) if the obligation to withhold with respect to such tax results from, or would not have occurred but for, the failure of any Bank to deliver the forms specified in this Section 2.16 in the manner and at the times specified herein (unless such failure is due to a change in treaty, law or regulation occurring subsequent to the date on which such form originally was required to be provided).

decree or other instrument binding upon the Borrower or result in the creation or imposition of (or the obligation to create or impose) any Lien on any asset of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries.

SECTION 4.03. Binding Effect. This Agreement constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Borrower and the Note, when executed and delivered in accordance with this Agreement, will constitute a valid and binding obligation of the Borrower.

SECTION 4.04. Financial Information. (a) The consolidated balance sheet of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries as of December 31, 1995 and the related consolidated statements of cash flows, income and shareholders' equity for the fiscal year then ended, reported on by Ernst & Young and set forth in the Borrower's 1995 Annual Report, a copy of which has been delivered to the Banks, fairly present, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, the consolidated financial position of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries as of such date and their consolidated results of operations and cash flows for such fiscal year.

(c) Since March 31, 1996, there has been no material adverse change in the business, financial position, results of operations or prospects of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, considered as a whole.

SECTION 4.05. Litigation. Except as described in subparagraph (2) of Commitments, Contingencies and Other Comments of Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries for the three months ended March 31, 1996, there is no action, suit or proceeding pending against, or to the knowledge of the Borrower threatened against or affecting, the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries before any court or arbitrator or any governmental body, agency or official in which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse decision which could materially adversely affect the business, consolidated financial position or consolidated results of operations of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, considered as a whole, or which in any manner draws into question the validity of this Agreement or the Note.

SECTION 4.06. Compliance with ERISA. Except for any of the following, the failure to fulfill or comply with which would not in the aggregate materially adversely affect the business, financial condition or results of operations of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, considered as a whole, each member of the ERISA Group has fulfilled its obligations under the minimum funding standards of ERISA and the Code with respect to each Plan and is in compliance in all material respects with the presently applicable provisions of ERISA and the Code with respect to each Plan. No member of the ERISA Group has (i) sought a waiver of the minimum funding standard under Section 412 of the Code in respect of any Plan, (ii) failed to make any required contribution or payment to any Plan or Multiemployer Plan or in respect of any Benefit Arrangement, or made any amendment to any Plan or Benefit Arrangement, which has resulted or could result in the imposition of a Lien or the posting of a bond or other security under ERISA or the Code (except for such a failure with respect to a Multiemployer Plan which has resulted or could result in the posting of a bond or other security which would not be material to the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, considered as a whole) or (iii) incurred any liability under Title IV of ERISA material to the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, considered as a whole, other than a liability to the PBGC for premiums under Section 4007 of ERISA.

thereat and any actual or potential liabilities to third parties, including employees, and any related costs and expenses). SECTION 4.08. Taxes. All United States Federal income tax returns of the Borrower and its Subsidiaries (other than Subsidiaries that are partnerships, non-entities or joint ventures and that have a fiscal year that does not correspond to the calendar year) that have been required to be filed have been filed. case may be, under Sections 856-859 of the Code for the Borrower's tax years through December 31, 1994.

SECTION 5.11. Use of Proceeds. The proceeds of the Loans made under this Agreement will be used by the Borrower for general business purposes. None of such proceeds will be used in violation of any applicable law or regulation, including without limitation Regulation U.

SECTION 5.12. Real Property Appraisals. Prior to February 28 in each year and at any other time at the Borrower's option, the Borrower will (i) cause the fair market value of the equity of the Borrower and its Subsidiaries in all interests in Real Property as of the December 31 next preceding such February 28 or, in the case of an optional appraisal, a date not more than 60 days preceding the date of such appraisal (the "as of" date for any such appraisal, the "Valuation Date"), to be appraised by the Appraiser in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute, (ii) calculate as of such Valuation Date the value of Gross Assets, (iii) cause the Appraiser to review such calculation of Gross Assets and (iv) cause to be filed with each Bank a report from the Appraiser containing the Appraiser's opinion on the value of Gross Assets as of such Valuation Date and its opinion on the reasonableness of the Borrower's calculation of the value of Gross Assets as of such Valuation Date and stating that the appraisal referred to in clause (i) above was made in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute.

SECTION 5.13. Transactions with Affiliates. The Borrower will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, enter into or consummate any transaction prohibited by the Borrower's "Trustees" under Section 6.06 of the Borrower's Second Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, as in effect on the date hereof.

ARTICLE VI

(g) the Borrower or any Significant Subsidiary shall commence a voluntary case or other proceeding seeking liquidation, reorganization or other relief with respect to itself or its debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law now or hereafter in effect or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, custodian or other similar official of it or any substantial part of its

ARTICLE VII

THE AGENTS

SECTION 7.01. Appointment and Authorization. Each Bank irrevocably appoints and authorizes each Agent to take such action as agent on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement and the Notes as are delegated to such Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with all such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

SECTION 7.02. Agents and Affiliates. Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York and Chemical Bank shall have the same rights and powers under this Agreement as any other Bank and may exercise or refrain from exercising the same as though it were not an Agent, and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York and Chemical Bank and their respective affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or affiliate of the Borrower as if it were not an Agent hereunder.

SECTION 7.03. Action by Agents. The obligations of the Agents hereunder are only those expressly set forth herein. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither Agent shall be required to take any action with respect to any Default, except as expressly provided in Article VI.

SECTION 7.04. Consultation with Experts. Either Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the borrower), independent public accountants and other experts selected by it and neither Agent shall be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the advice of such counsel, accountants or experts.

SECTION 7.05. Liability of Agents. Neither Agent shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in connection herewith (i) with the consent or at the request of the Required Banks (or, when expressly required hereby, such different number of Banks required to consent to or request such action or inaction) or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct, and no director, officer, agent or employee of either Agent shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in connection with this Agreement. Neither an Agent nor any of its directors, officers, agents or employees shall be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain, inquire into or verify (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in connection with this Agreement or any borrowing hereunder; (ii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants or agreements of the Borrower; (iii) the satisfaction of any condition specified in Article III, except, in the case of the Administrative Agent, receipt of items required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent; or (iv) the validity, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, the Notes or any other instrument or writing furnished in connection herewith. Neither Agent shall incur any liability by acting in reliance upon any notice, consent, certificate, statement, or other writing (which may be a bank wire, telex or similar writing) believed by it to be genuine or to be signed by the proper party or parties.

SECTION 7.06. Indemnification. Each Bank shall, ratably in accordance with its Commitment, indemnify each Agent (to the extent not reimbursed by the Borrower) against any cost, expense (including counsel fees and disbursements), claim, demand, action, loss or liability (except such as result from such Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct) that such Agent may suffer or incur in connection with this Agreement or any action taken or omitted by such Agent hereunder.

SECTION 7.07. Credit Decision. Each Bank acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon either Agent or any other Bank, and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Bank also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon either Agent or any other Bank, and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking any action under this Agreement.

SECTION 7.08. Successor Agents. Either Agent (including the Administrative Agent) may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Banks and the Borrower. Upon any such resignation, the Required Banks shall have the right to appoint a successor Agent. If no successor Agent shall have been so appointed by the Required Banks, and shall have accepted such appointment, within 30 days after the retiring Agent gives notice of resignation, then the retiring Agent may, on behalf of the Banks, appoint a successor Agent, which shall be a commercial bank organized or licensed under the laws of the United States of America or of any State thereof and having a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000. Upon the acceptance of its appointment as Agent hereunder by a successor Agent, such successor Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights and duties of the retiring Agent, and the retiring Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. After any retiring Agent's resignation hereunder as Agent, the provisions of this Article shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was Agent.

SECTION 7.09. Agents' Fee. On or prior to the Effective Date, the Borrower shall pay to each Agent for its own account fees in the amounts and at the times previously agreed upon between the Borrower and the Agents.

ARTICLE VIII

CHANGE IN CIRCUMSTANCES

SECTION 8.01. Basis for Determining Interest Rate Inadequate or Unfair. If on or prior to the first day of any Interest Period for any Fixed Rate Borrowing or Money Market LIBOR Loan:

(a) the Administrative Agent is advised by the Reference Banks that deposits in dollars (in the applicable amounts) are not being offered to the Reference Banks in the relevant market for such Interest Period, or

(b) in the case of a Committed Borrowing, Banks having, 50% or more of the aggregate amount of the Commitments advise the Administrative Agent that the Adjusted London Interbank Offered Rate as determined by the Administrative Agent will not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Banks of funding their Euro-Dollar Loans for such Interest Period, the Administrative Agent shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Borrower and the Banks, whereupon until the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such suspension no longer exist, the obligations of the Banks to make Euro-Dollar Loans shall be suspended. Unless the Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent at least two Domestic Business Days before the date of any Fixed Rate Borrowing for which a Notice of Borrowing has previously been given that it elects not to borrow on such date, (i) if such Fixed Rate Borrowing is a Committed Borrowing, such Borrowing shall instead be made as a Base Rate Borrowing and (ii) if such Fixed Rate Borrowing is a Money Market LIBOR Borrowing, the Money Market LIBOR Loans comprising such Borrowing shall bear interest for each day from and including the first day to but excluding the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto at the rate applicable to Base Rate Loans for such day.

SECTION 8.02. Illegality. If, on or after the date of this Agreement, the adoption of any applicable law, rule or regulation, or any change therein, or any change in the interpretation or administration thereof by any governmental authority, central bank or comparable agency charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, or compliance by any Bank (or its Euro-Dollar Lending Office) with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) of any such authority, central bank or comparable agency shall make it unlawful or impossible for any Bank (or its Euro-Dollar Lending Office) to make, maintain or fund its Euro-Dollar Loans and such Bank shall so notify the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent shall forthwith give notice thereof to the other Banks and the Borrower, whereupon until such Bank notifies the Borrower and the Administrative Agent that the circumstances giving rise to such suspension no longer exist, the obligation of such Bank to make Euro-Dollar Loans shall be suspended. Before giving any notice to the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section, such Bank shall use reasonable efforts to designate a different Euro-Dollar Lending Office if such designation will avoid the need for giving such notice and will not, in the judgment of such Bank, be otherwise disadvantageous to such Bank. If such Bank shall determine that it may not lawfully continue to maintain and fund any of its outstanding Euro-Dollar Loans to maturity and shall so specify in such notice, the Borrower shall immediately prepay in full the then outstanding principal amount of each such Euro-Dollar Loan, together with accrued interest thereon. Concurrently with prepaying each such Euro-Dollar Loan, the Borrower shall borrow a Base Rate Loan in an equal. principal amount from such Bank (on which interest and principal shall be payable contemporaneously with the related Euro-Dollar Loans of the other Banks), and such Bank shall make such a Base Rate Loan.

SECTION 8.03. Increased Cost and Reduced Return. (a) If on or after (x) the date hereof in the case of any Committed Loan or any obligation to make Committed Loans or (y) the date of the related Money Market Quote, in the case of any Money Market Loan, the adoption of any applicable law, rule or regulation, or any change therein, or any change in the interpretation or administration thereof by any governmental authority, central bank or comparable agency charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, or compliance by any Bank (or its Applicable Lending Office) with any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) of any such authority, central bank or comparable agency with which it shall not have been required (or requested or directed, as the case may be) to comply prior to the date hereof:

(i) shall subject any Bank (or its Applicable Lending Office) to any tax, duty or other charge imposed by the United States or any other jurisdiction from which payment is made by the Borrower (or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing thereof) with respect to its Fixed Rate Loans, its Note or its obligation to make Fixed Rate Loans, or shall change the basis of taxation by the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) of payments to any Bank (or its Applicable Lending Office) of the principal of or interest on its Fixed Rate Loans or any other amounts due under this Agreement in respect of its Fixed Rate Loans or its obligation to make Fixed Rate Loans (but excluding in any event any changes in any tax on or measured by the income of such Bank or its Applicable Lending Office imposed by the jurisdiction in which such Bank is organized or such Bank's principal executive office or Applicable Lending Office is located or any political subdivision of any such jurisdiction); or

(ii) shall impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve (including, without limitation, any such requirement imposed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, but excluding with respect to any Euro-Dollar Loan any such requirement included in an applicable Euro-Dollar Reserve Percentage), special deposit, insurance assessment or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Bank (or its Applicable Lending. Office) or shall impose on any Bank (or its Applicable Lending Office) or the London interbank market any other condition affecting its Fixed Rate Loans, its Note or its obligation to make Fixed Rate Loans; and the result of any of the foregoing is to increase the cost to such Bank (or its Applicable Lending Office) of making or maintaining any Fixed Rate Loan, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Bank (or its Applicable Lending Office) under this Agreement or under its Note with respect thereto, by an amount deemed by such Bank to be material, then, within 15 days after demand by such Bank (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), the Borrower shall pay to such Bank such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Bank for such increased cost or reduction.

(b) If any Bank shall have determined that, after the date hereof, the adoption of any applicable law, rule or regulation regarding capital adequacy, or any change therein, or any change in the interpretation or administration thereof by any governmental authority, central bank or comparable agency charged with the interpretation or administration thereof, or any request or directive regarding capital adequacy (whether or not having the force of law) of any such authority, central bank or comparable agency, has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on capital of such Bank (or its Parent) as a consequence of such Bank's obligations hereunder to a level below that which such Bank (or its Parent) could have achieved but for such adoption, change, request or directive (taking into consideration its policies with respect to capital adequacy) by an amount deemed by such Bank to be material, then from time to time, within 15 days after demand by such Bank (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), the Borrower shall pay to such Bank such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Bank (or its Parent) for such reduction.

(c) Each Bank will promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent of any event of which it has knowledge, occurring after the date hereof, which will entitle such Bank to compensation pursuant to this Section and will use reasonable efforts to designate a different Applicable Lending Office if such designation will avoid the need for, or reduce the amount of, such compensation and will not, in the judgment of such Bank, be otherwise disadvantageous to such Bank. A certificate of any Bank claiming compensation under this Section and setting forth in reasonable detail its calculation of the additional amount or amounts to be paid to it hereunder shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error. In determining such amount, such Bank may use any reasonable averaging and attribution methods. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 8.03, the Borrower shall only be obligated to compensate any Bank for any amount arising or accruing during (i) any time or period commencing not more than six months prior to the date (or, if earlier, commencing the first day of any Interest Period in effect on such date) on which such Bank notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that it proposes to demand such compensation and identifies the statute, regulation or other basis upon which the claimed compensation is or will be based and (ii) any time or period during which, because of the retroactive application of such statute, regulation or other basis, such Bank did not know that such amount would arise or accrue.

SECTION 8.04. Base Rate Loans Substituted for Affected Fixed Rate Loans. If (i) the obligation of any Bank to make Euro-Dollar Loans has been suspended pursuant to Section 8.02 or (ii) any Bank has demanded compensation under Section 8.03(a) and the Borrower shall, by at least five Euro-Dollar Business Days' prior notice to such Bank through the Administrative Agent, have elected that the provisions of this Section shall apply to such Bank, then, unless and until such Bank notifies the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such suspension or demand for compensation no longer apply:

(a) all Loans which would otherwise be made by such Bank as Euro-Dollar Loans shall be made instead as Base Rate Loans (on which interest and principal shall be payable contemporaneously with the related Euro-Dollar Loans of the other Banks), and

(b) after each of its Euro-Dollar Loans has been repaid, all payments of principal which would otherwise be applied to repay such Euro-Dollar Loans shall be applied to repay its Base Rate Loans instead.

SECTION 8.05. Election to Terminate. (a) If any Bank has demanded compensation under Section 8.03 with respect to United States Federal income tax, or the Borrower reasonably believes that such compensation will be demanded or required by any Bank on the next date for payment of any relevant amount hereunder, the Borrower shall have the right, with the assistance of the Agents, to cause a mutually satisfactory substitute bank or banks (which may be one or more of the Banks) to purchase the Note and assume the Commitment of such Bank.

(b) If any Bank has demanded compensation under Section 8.03 with respect to United States Federal income tax and no substitute bank or banks has purchased the Note and assumed the Commitment of such Bank pursuant to clause (a) above, the Borrower may elect to terminate this Agreement as to such Bank and to repay or prepay all Loans made by such Bank, provided that the Borrower (i) notifies such Bank through the Administrative Agent of such election at least three Euro-Dollar Business Days before any further Borrowings or payments of any Loan hereunder, (ii) repays or prepays all of such Bank's outstanding Loans on the dates specified by the Borrower in such notice, which dates shall be not later than the end of the respective Interest Periods applicable thereto and (iii) the Borrower shall reimburse such Bank for any loss or expense incurred by it in accordance with Section 2.14 as a result of any prepayment of a Fixed Rate Loan on a date other than the last day of an Interest Period. Upon receipt by the Administrative Agent of such notice, the Commitment of such Bank shall terminate.

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 9.01. Notices. All notices, requests and other communications to any party hereunder shall be in writing (including bank wire, facsimile transmission or similar writing) and shall be given to such party: (x) in the case of the Borrower or either Agent, at its address or facsimile transmission number set forth on the signature pages hereof, (y) in the case of any Bank, at its address or facsimile transmission number set forth in its Administrative Questionnaire or (z) in the case of any party, such other address or facsimile transmission number as such party may hereafter specify for the purpose by notice to either Agent and the Borrower. Each such notice, request or other communication shall be effective (i) if given by facsimile transmission, when such facsimile is transmitted to the facsimile transmission number specified in this Section and telephonic confirmation of receipt thereof is received, (ii) if given by mail, 72 hours after such communication is deposited in the mails with first class postage prepaid, addressed as aforesaid or (iii) if given by any other means, when delivered at the address specified in this Section; provided that notices to the Administrative Agent under Article II or Article VIII shall not be effective until received.

SECTION 9.02. No Waivers. No failure or delay by either Agent or any Bank in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any Note shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

SECTION 9.03. Expenses; Documentary Taxes; Indemnification. (a) The Borrower shall pay (i) all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the Agents, including reasonable fees and disbursements of special counsel for the Agents, in connection with the preparation of this Agreement, any waiver or consent hereunder or any amendment hereof or any Default or alleged Default hereunder or any consideration of a Security Offer and (ii) if an Event of Default occurs, all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Agents and each Bank, including fees and disbursements of counsel, in connection with such Event of Default and collection, bankruptcy, insolvency and other enforcement proceedings resulting therefrom. The Borrower shall indemnify each Bank against any transfer `taxes, documentary taxes, assessments or charges made by any governmental authority with respect to the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Notes, except for transfer taxes imposed as a result of a voluntary transfer, assignment or granting of a participation pursuant to Section 9.05.

(b) The Borrower agrees to indemnify each Bank and hold each Bank harmless from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses of any kind, including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel, which may be incurred by any Bank (or by each Agent in connection with its actions as Agent hereunder) in connection with any investigative, administrative or judicial proceeding (whether or not such Bank shall be designated a party thereto) relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any actual or proposed use of proceeds of Loans hereunder; provided that no Bank shall have the right to be indemnified hereunder for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 9.04. Amendments and Waivers. Any provision of this Agreement or the Notes may be amended or waived if, but only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and is signed by the Borrower and the Required Banks (and, if the rights or duties of the Administrative Agent or the Documentation Agent are affected thereby, by the Administrative Agent or the Documentation Agent, as the case may be); provided that (i) no such amendment or waiver shall, unless signed by all the Banks, (A) increase or decrease the Commitment of any Bank (except for a ratable decrease in the Commitments of all Banks) or subject any Bank to any additional obligation, (B) reduce the principal of or rate of interest on any Loan or any fees hereunder, (C) postpone the date fixed for any scheduled payment of principal of or interest on any Loan or any fees hereunder or for any reduction or termination of any Commitment, provided that the date on which Loans must be prepaid pursuant to Section 2.11 is not a "date fixed" for purposes of this Section 9.04, (D) change the aggregate amount by which or to which the Commitments are required to be reduced on or prior to any date set forth in Section 2.10 or (E) change the percentage of the Commitments or of the aggregate unpaid principal amount of the Notes, or the number of Banks, which shall be required for the Banks or any of them to take any action under this Section or any other provision of this Agreement (including without limitation Section 2.03) and (ii) no such amendment or waiver shall, unless signed by all of the Banks, result in the waiver of the condition to Borrowing set forth in Section 3.02(c) if the failure to satisfy such condition is the result of a Default under Section 6.01(a) with respect to the payment of principal of or interest on any Loan.

SECTION 9.05. Successors and Assigns. (a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, except that the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights under this Agreement without the prior written consent of all Banks.

(b) Any Bank may at any time grant to one or more banks or other institutions (each a "Participant") participating interests in its Commitment or any or all of its Loans with (and subject to) the written consent of the Borrower. In the event of any such grant by a Bank of a participating interest to a Participant, whether or not upon notice to the Borrower and the Agents, such Bank shall remain responsible for the performance of its obligations hereunder, and the Borrower and the Agents shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Bank in connection with such Bank's rights and obligations under this Agreement as if such grant of a participating interest has not occurred. Any agreement pursuant to which any Bank may grant such a participating interest shall provide that such Bank shall retain the sole right and responsibility to enforce the obligations of the Borrower hereunder including, without limitation, the right to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such participation agreement may provide that such Bank will not agree to any modification, amendment or waiver of this Agreement described in subclauses (A), (B), (C) or (D) of clause (i) of Section 9.04 without the consent of the Participant. The Borrower agrees that each Participant shall, to the extent provided in its participation agreement, be entitled to the benefits of Article VIII with respect to its participating interest.

(c) Any Bank may at any time assign to one or more banks or other institutions (each an "Assignee") all, or a proportionate part of all, of its rights and obligations under this Agreement and the Notes, and such Assignee shall assume such rights and obligations, pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption Agreement in substantially the form of Exhibit H hereto executed by such Assignee and such transferor Bank, with (and subject to) the subscribed consent of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent and the Documentation Agent; provided that if (i) an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or (ii) an Assignee (x) is a bank and a Bank Affiliate of such transferor Bank and (y) has a rating from one or more of S&P and Moody's of its senior unsecured public debt or commercial paper, or from Duff & Phelps, Inc. or Fitch Investors Service, Inc. not less than that of such transferor Bank at the time of such transfer, no such consent shall be required and provided further that such assignment may, but need not, include rights of the transferor Bank in respect of outstanding Money Market Loans. Upon execution and delivery of such instrument and payment by such Assignee to such transferor Bank of an amount equal to the purchase price agreed between such transferor Bank and such Assignee, such Assignee shall be a Bank party to this Agreement and shall have all the rights and obligations of a Bank with a Commitment as set forth in such instrument of assumption, and the transferor Bank shall be released from its obligations hereunder to a corresponding extent, and no further consent or action by any party shall be required. Upon the consummation of any assignment pursuant to this subsection (c), the transferor Bank, the Administrative Agent and the Borrower shall make appropriate arrangements so that, if required, a new Note is issued to the Assignee. In connection with any such assignment, the transferor Bank shall pay to the Administrative Agent an administrative fee f or processing such assignment in the amount of $2,000. If the Assignee is not incorporated under the laws of the United States of America or a state thereof, it shall, prior to the first date on which interest or fees are payable hereunder for its account, deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent certification as to exemption from deduction or withholding of any United States federal income taxes in accordance with Section 2.16.

(d) Any Bank may at any time assign all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement and its Note to a Federal Reserve Bank. No such assignment shall release the transferor Bank from its obligations hereunder.

(e) No Assignee, Participant or other transferee of any Bank's rights shall be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 8.03 than such Bank would have been entitled to receive with respect to the rights transferred, unless such transfer is made with the Borrower's prior written consent or by reason of the provisions of Section 8.02 or 8.03 requiring such Bank to designate a different Applicable Lending Office under certain circumstances or at a time when the circumstances giving rise to such greater payment did not exist.

(f) Any consent of the Borrower provided for in this Section 9.05 may be withheld in the Borrower's sole discretion.

SECTION 9.06. Collateral. Each of the Banks represents to the Administrative Agent and each of the other Banks that it in good faith is not relying upon any "margin stock" (as defined in Regulation U) as collateral in the extension or maintenance of the credit provided for in this Agreement.

SECTION 9.07. Offer to Secure the Obligations. (a) The Borrower may offer (a "Security Offer") to grant to the Administrative Agent for the ratable benefit of the Banks a continuing security interest in one or more Specified Assets in order to secure the full and punctual payment of the Obligations in accordance with the terms thereof and to secure the performance of all of the obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement.

(b) If at the time such Security Offer is delivered to the Administrative Agent, (i) the Appraised Value of the Specified Assets subject to such proposed Security Offer exceeds 175% of the aggregate amount of Commitments, and (ii) the aggregate income (or loss) before nonrecurring items for the four fiscal quarters then most recently ended, plus depreciation and amortization expense for such quarters (to the extent deducted in determining such income or loss for such quarters) of such Specified Assets (determined on a stand-alone basis) exceeds 150% of the aggregate interest expense of the Borrower in respect of the Loans during such four fiscal quarters plus (if the Commitments were not fully utilized at all times during such period) the amount of additional interest expense that would have accrued during such four fiscal quarters on a pro forma basis, determined as if the aggregate principal amount of Loans outstanding during such period had been equal to the aggregate amount of the Commitments in effect from time to time during such period and assuming that such additional principal amount of Loans accrued interest during such period at the rate that would have been applicable to Euro-Dollar Loans with Interest Periods of three months, each beginning on the first day of such fiscal quarter (such rate to be determined by the Administrative Agent using any reasonable method and notified to the Borrower promptly upon any request therefor, and which determination shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error), then the Administrative Agent shall notify each of the Banks of such Security Offer. If within 45 days after delivery of such Security Offer to the Banks, the Super Required Banks have accepted such Security Offer by notice to the Administrative Agent (the "Delivery Time"), and if the Borrower and any relevant Subsidiary owning any relevant Specified Asset shall have (w) entered into and delivered to the Administrative Agent mortgages or deeds of trust securing the Obligations, together with appropriate guarantees of the Obligations by any such Subsidiary, (x) caused appropriate filings and recordings to be made, and other actions to be taken, to perfect the security interests of the Banks in such Specified Assets, (y) delivered to the Banks opinions of counsel covering the transactions contemplated by such documents and other documents relating to the existence of the Borrower and any such Subsidiary and the authority for such transactions and (z) delivered to the Banks any other documents or information that either Agent may reasonably request, including but not limited to mortgagee title insurance policies in an amount equal to the Appraised Value of such Specified Assets, environmental reports, surveys and appraisals, all of the foregoing in form and substance satisfactory to the Super Required Banks, then upon such delivery there shall have occurred the "Security Acceptance".

SECTION 9.08. Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Agreement and each Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. The Borrower and each Bank hereby submits to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and of any New York State court sitting in New York City for purposes of all legal proceedings arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. The Borrower irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such proceeding brought in such a court and any claim that any such proceeding brought in such a court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

SECTION 9.09. Counterparts; Integration. This Agreement may be signed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, with the same effect as if the signatures thereto and hereto were upon the same instrument. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement and understanding among the parties hereto and supersedes any and all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof.

SECTION 9.10. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE BORROWER, THE AGENTS AND THE BANKS HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

SECTION 9.11. Limitation of Liability. Corporate Property Investors is the designation of the Trustees under a Second Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, as amended, on file with the Secretary of State of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and neither the shareholders nor the Board of Trustees, officers, employees or agents of the Borrower, nor any of their personal assets, shall be liable hereunder, and all Persons dealing with the Borrower shall look solely to the assets of the Borrower for the payment of any claims hereunder or for the performance hereof.

SECTION 9.12. Confidentiality. Each of the Agents and Banks represents that it will maintain the confidentiality of any written or oral information provided under this Agreement by or on behalf of the Borrower that has been identified by its source as confidential (hereinafter collectively called "Confidential Information"), subject to such Agent's or Bank's (a) obligation to disclose any such Confidential Information pursuant to a request or order under applicable laws and regulations or pursuant to a subpoena or other legal process, (b) right to disclose any such Confidential Information to its bank examiners, Bank Affiliates, auditors, counsel and other professional advisors and to other Banks, (c) right to disclose any such Confidential Information in connection with any litigation or dispute involving the Banks and the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries and Affiliates and (d) right to provide such information to Participants, prospective Participants to which sales of participating interests are permitted pursuant to subsection 9.05(b) and prospective Assignees to which assignments of interests are permitted pursuant to subsection 9.05(c) if such Participant, prospective Participant or prospective Assignee agrees to maintain the confidentiality of such information on terms substantially similar to those of this Section as if it were a "Bank" party hereto (and, unless an assignment to any such prospective Assignee does not require the consent of the Borrower, with the prior written consent of the Borrower). Notwithstanding the foregoing, any such information supplied to an Agent, Bank, Participant, prospective Participant or prospective Assignee under this Agreement shall cease to be Confidential Information if it is or becomes known to such Person by other than unauthorized disclosure, or if it becomes a matter of public knowledge.

SECTION 9.13. Adjustments. If any Bank (a "Benefitted Bank") shall at any time receive payment of a proportion of the aggregate amount of principal and interest then due and payable with respect to its Committed Loans, or receive any collateral in respect thereof (whether voluntarily or involuntarily, by set-off, pursuant to events or proceedings of the nature referred to in Section 6.01(g) or (h) or otherwise), which is greater than the proportion thereof received by any other Bank in respect of the aggregate amount of principal and interest then due and payable with respect to the Committed Loans of such other Bank, the Benefitted Bank shall purchase for cash from such other Bank a participating interest in such portion of such other Bank's Committed Loans, or shall provide such other Bank with the benefits of any such collateral, or the proceeds thereof, as may be required so that all such payments of principal and interest with respect to the Committed Loans or the benefits of such collateral shall be shared by the Banks pro rata in accordance with their respective Commitments; provided that if all or any portion of such excess payment or benefits is thereafter recovered from such Benefitted Bank, such purchase shall be rescinded, and the purchase price and benefits returned, to the extent of such recovery, but without interest; and provided further that nothing in this Section shall impair the right of any Bank to exercise any right of set-off or counterclaim it may have and to apply the amount subject to such exercise to the payment of indebtedness of the Borrower other than its indebtedness under the Notes.

SECTION 9.14. Existing Credit Agreement. The Borrower, Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Administrative Agent hereunder and as agent under the Existing Credit Agreement and each of the Banks, as a bank hereunder and, to the extent applicable, as a bank party to the Existing Credit Agreement (the banks party to the Existing Credit Agreement, the "Existing Credit Agreement Banks"), agree that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Existing Credit Agreement, the "Commitments" (as defined therein) of the Existing Credit Agreement Banks under the Existing Credit Agreement shall terminate on the Effective Date (any advance notice of such termination being hereby waived by each Bank which is an Existing Credit Agreement Bank).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed by their respective authorized officers as of the day and year first above written.

PRICING SCHEDULE

Each of "Euro-Dollar Margin", "Base Rate Margin", and "Commitment Fee Rate" means, for any date, the rates set forth below in the row opposite such term and in the column corresponding to the "Pricing Level" that applies at such date:

	Level I	Level II	Level III	Level IV	Level V	Level VI
Euro-Dollar Margin	0.625%	0.75%	1.20%	1.325%	1.50%	2.125%
Commitment Fee Rate If Utilization is less than or equal to 33.3%	0.20%	0.25%	0.30%	0.30%	0.30%	0.35%
Commitment Fee Rate If Utilization exceeds 33.3%	0.125%	0.15%	0.20%	0.20%	0.20%	0.25%

For purposes of this Schedule, the following terms have the following meanings:

"Level I Pricing" applies at any date if, at such date, the Borrower's long-term debt is rated A+ or higher by S&P or Al or higher by Moody's.

"Level II Pricing" applies at any date if, at such date, the Borrower's long-term debt is rated A- or higher by S&P and A3 or higher by Moody's and Level I Pricing does not apply.

"Level III Pricing" applies at any date if, at such date, the Borrower's long-term debt is rated BBB+ or higher by S&P or Baal or higher by Moody's and neither Level I nor II Pricing applies.

"Level IV Pricing" applies at any date if, at such date, the Borrower's long-term debt is rated BBB or higher by S&P or Baa2 or higher by Moody's and none of Level I, II, and III Pricing applies.

"Level V Pricing" applies at any date if, at such date, the Borrower's long-term debt is rated BBB- or higher by S&P or Baa3 or higher by Moody's and none of Level I, II, III and IV Pricing applies.

"Level VI Pricing" applies at any date if, at such date, the Borrower's long-term debt is rated BB+ or lower by S&P or Bal or lower by Moody's.

"Pricing Level" refers to the determination of which of Level I, Level II, Level III, Level IV, Level V or Level VI Pricing applies at any date.

"Utilization" means at any date the percentage equivalent of a fraction (i) the numerator of which is the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Loans at such date, after giving effect to any borrowing or payment on such date, and (ii) the denominator of which is the aggregate amount of the Commitments at such date, after giving effect to any reduction of the Commitments on such date.

The credit ratings to be utilized for purposes of this Schedule are those assigned by S&P or Moody's to the senior unsecured long-term debt securities of the Borrower without third-party credit enhancement, and any rating assigned to any other debt security of the Borrower shall be disregarded. The rating in effect at any date is that in effect at the close of business on such date. For the avoidance of doubt, in the case of split ratings from S&P and Moody's, the rating to be used to determine Pricing Level is the higher of the two (e.g. BBB+/Baa2 results in Level III Pricing), except that if either rating falls below investment grade (e.g. below BBB-/Baa3), the rating to be used to determine Pricing Level is the lower of the two (e.g. BBB-/Ba1 results in Level VI Pricing).

To the Banks and the Agents Referred to Below
c/o Morgan Guaranty Trust Company
of New York, as Administrative Agent
60 Wall Street
New York, New York 10260

Dear Sirs;

I am the Vice President and General Counsel of Corporate Property Investors (the Borrower) and have acted in such capacity in connection with the Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement") dated as of June 26, 1996, among the Borrower, the Banks listed therein, Chemical Bank, as Documentation Agent, and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Administrative Agent (the "Agents") Terms defined in the Credit Agreement are used herein as therein defined. This opinion is being rendered to you pursuant to Section 3.01(c) of the Credit Agreement.

In connection with the rendering of this opinion, I have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to my satisfaction, of such documents, business records, certificates of public officials and other instruments and have conducted such other investigations of fact and law as I have deemed necessary or advisable for purposes of this opinion.

Upon the basis of the foregoing, I am of the opinion that:

1. The Borrower is an unincorporated Massachusetts business trust duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and has all powers and all material governmental licenses, authorizations, consents and approvals required to carry on its business as now conducted.

2. The execution, delivery and performance by the Borrower of the Credit Agreement and the Notes are within the Borrower's powers, have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Borrower, require no action by or in respect of, or filing with, any governmental body, agency or official (other than such reports to United States governmental authorities regarding international capital and foreign currency transactions as may be required pursuant to 31 C.F.R. Part 128) and do not contravene, or constitute a default under, any provision of applicable law or regulation or of the Second Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust or Trustees' Regulations of the Borrower or of any debt or other material agreement, judgment, injunction, order, decree or other instrument binding upon the Borrower or result in the creation or imposition of any Lien on any asset of the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries. In connection with the foregoing, I wish to point out that certain of the debt and other material agreements referred to in the preceding sentence are or may be governed by laws other than those of the State of New York; for purposes of this opinion, however, I have assumed that all such debt and other material agreements would be governed by the laws of the State of New York.

3. The Credit Agreement and the Notes have been duly executed and delivered by the Borrower. The Credit Agreement constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Borrower and each Note constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Borrower, in each case enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent transfer and other similar laws relating to or affecting creditor's rights generally from time to time in effect and to general principles of equity (including, without limitation, concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing), regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law. With respect to the foregoing opinion, (i) insofar as provisions contained in the Credit Agreement provide for indemnification, the enforceability thereof may be limited by public policy considerations, (ii) the availability of a decree for specific performance or an injunction is subject to the discretion of the court requested to issue any such decree or injunction and (iii) I express no opinion as to the effect of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of New York where any lender may be located or where enforcement of the Credit Agreement or the Notes may be sought that limits the rates of interest legally chargeable or collectible.

4. Except as described in subparagraph (2) of Commitments, Contingencies and Other Comments of Notes of Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements of the Borrower arid its Consolidated Subsidiaries for the three months ended March 31, 1996, there is no action, suit or proceeding pending against, or to the best of my knowledge threatened against or affecting, the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries before any court or arbitrator or any governmental body, agency or official, in which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse decision which could materially adversely affect the business, consolidated financial position or consolidated results of operations of the Borrower and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, considered as a whole, or which in any manner draws into question the validity of the Credit Agreement or the Notes.

I express no opinion herein as to (i) Section 9.09 of the Credit Agreement insofar as such Section relates to the subject matter jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York to adjudicate any controversy related to the Credit Agreement or the Notes, (ii) the waiver of an inconvenient forum set forth in Section 9.08 of the Credit Agreement or (iii) Section 9.13 of the Credit Agreement insofar as it relates to setoffs in respect to participations purchased in Loans.

I am a member of the Bar of the State of New York and express no opinion as to any laws other than the laws of the State of New York and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the federal laws of the United States of America. In giving the opinions in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 above, I have relied, as to all matters governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, upon the opinion of Peabody & Arnold dated of even date herewith, a copy of which has been delivered to you.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Harold Rolfe

We have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, business records, certificates of public officials and other instruments and have conducted such other investigations of fact and law as we have deemed necessary or advisable for purposes of this opinion. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed the authenticity and completeness of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies, and the accuracy of all statements contained in all documents reviewed by us. Corporate Property Investors
$250,000,000 Credit Agreement

Dear Sirs:

We have acted as special counsel for Corporate Property Investors (the "Borrower") for the purpose of rendering this opinion pursuant to Section 3.01(e) of the Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement") dated as of June 26, 1996 among the Borrower, the Banks listed therein, Chemical Bank, as Documentation Agent and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Administrative Agent (the "Agents"). Terms defined in the Credit Agreement are used herein as therein defined.

We have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, business records, certificates of public officials and other instruments and have conducted such other investigations of fact and law as we have deemed necessary or advisable for purposes of this opinion.

Upon the basis of the foregoing and certain information as to matters of fact furnished to us by officers of the Borrower, we are of the opinion that:

1. The organization of each of the Borrower and its Subsidiaries and their respective methods of operation will permit (i) the Borrower to meet the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended to date, and the regulations and rulings thereunder as in effect on the date hereof (the "Code"), for qualification as a "real estate investment trust" within the meaning of Section 856 of the Code and (ii) the Subsidiaries of the Borrower (other than subsidiaries that are considered, for Federal income tax purposes, as partnerships, non-entities or joint ventures) to meet the requirements of the Code for qualification as "real estate investment trusts" or "qualified REIT subsidiaries"), as the case may be. Each of the Borrower and its Subsidiaries (other than Subsidiaries that were considered, for tax purposes, as partnerships, non-entities or joint ventures) was qualified as a real estate investment trust or a qualified REIT subsidiary, as the case may be, for the Borrower's tax years through December 31, 1994.

2. The Borrower is a "real estate operating company" as defined in Section 2510.3-101 of the Regulations of the Department of Labor, as currently in effect.

[Effective Date]

To the Banks and the Agents Referred to Below,
c/o Morgan Guaranty Trust Company
60 Wall Street

Dear Sirs:

We have participated in the preparation of the Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") dated as of June 26, 1996 among Corporate Property Investors, an unincorporated Massachusetts business trust (the "Borrower"), the Banks listed therein (the "Banks"), Chemical Bank, as Documentation Agent (the "Documentation Agent") and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Administrative Agent (the "Administrative Agent" and, together with the Documentation Agent, the "Agents"), and have acted as special counsel for the Administrative Agent for the purpose of rendering this opinion pursuant to Section 3.01(f) of the Credit Agreement. Terms defined in the Credit Agreement are used herein as therein defined.

We have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, business records, certificates of public officials and other instruments and have conducted such other investigations of fact and law as we have deemed necessary or advisable for purposes of this opinion.

Upon the basis of the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, assuming that the execution, delivery and performance by the Borrower of the Credit Agreement and the Notes are within the Borrower's powers and have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Borrower and that the Credit Agreement and the Notes have been duly executed and delivered by the Borrower (as to which matters you have received the opinions of Harold E. Rolfe, Esq., general counsel to the Borrower, and Peabody & Arnold, special Massachusetts counsel to the Borrower, each dated of even date herewith), the Credit Agreement constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Borrower and the Notes constitute valid and binding obligations of the Borrower in each case enforceable in accordance with its respective terms, except as any of the foregoing may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar laws affecting creditor's rights generally and by general principles of equity.

We are members of the Bar of the State of New York and the foregoing opinion is limited to the laws of the State of New York and the federal laws of the United States of America. (i) No payment or prepayment of any principal, premium (if any) or interest on account of and no repurchase, redemption or other retirement (whether at the option of the holder or otherwise) of Subordinated Debt (other than the conversion of any convertible Subordinated Debt into common stock of the Borrower) shall be made, if at the time of such payment, prepayment, repurchase, redemption or retirement or immediately after giving effect thereto (1) there shall exist a default in the payment or prepayment of any principal, interest, fees or any other amount then due with respect to any Senior Debt or (2) a Standstill Period shall be in effect;

(ii) In the event of any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, and any receivership, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceedings in connection therewith, relative to the Borrower or to its creditors, as such, or to its property, and in the event of any proceedings for voluntary liquidation, dissolution or other winding up of the Borrower, whether or not involving insolvency or bankruptcy, then the holders of Senior Debt shall be entitled to receive payment in full in cash of all principal, premium (if any), interest and fees on all Senior Debt (including interest thereon accruing after the commencement of any such proceedings, whether or not allowed or allowable as a claim in such proceedings) before the holders of the Subordinated Debt are entitled to receive any payment or other distribution on account of principal, premium (if any) or interest upon the Subordinated Debt, and to that end the holders of Senior Debt shall be entitled to receive distributions of any kind or character, whether in cash or property or securities, which may be payable or deliverable in any such proceedings in respect of the Subordinated Debt, except for distributions in the form of securities which are subordinate and junior in right of payment to the payment of all Senior Debt then outstanding to the same or a greater extent than the Subordinated Debt hereunder;

(iii) In the event that any Subordinated Debt is declared due and payable before its expressed maturity because of the occurrence of an event of default (under circumstances when the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs (i) or (ii) are not applicable), the holders of the Senior Debt outstanding at the time such Subordinated Debt so becomes due and payable because of such occurrence of such an event of default shall be entitled to receive payment in full in cash of all principal, premium (if any), interest and fees on all Senior Debt before the holders of the Subordinated Debt are entitled to receive any payment or other distribution on account of the principal, premium (if any) or interest upon the Subordinated Debt;

(v) No holder of Senior Debt shall be prejudiced in his right to enforce subordination of the

provided, that the Subordinated Debt may provide that the foregoing provisions are solely for the purpose of defining the relative rights of the holders of Senior Debt, on the one hand, and the holders of Subordinated Debt, on the other hand, and that nothing therein shall impair, as between the Borrower and the holders of the Subordinated Debt, the obligation of the Borrower, which may be unconditional and absolute, to pay to the holders of the Subordinated Debt the principal and premium (if any) thereof and interest thereon in accordance with its terms, nor shall anything therein prevent the holders of the Subordinated Debt from exercising all remedies otherwise permitted by applicable law or the instruments pursuant to which the Subordinated Debt was issued upon default thereunder, subject to the rights under paragraphs (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) above of holders of Senior Debt to receive cash, property or securities otherwise payable or deliverable to the holders of the Subordinated Debt.

If a Nonpayment Default has occurred and is continuing but no Standstill Period is in effect, no holder of Subordinated Debt will demand, accept or receive, and the Borrower shall not make, any payment with respect to the Subordinated Debt without giving the Administrative Agent at least 10 business days' prior written notice of such action.

Equitable shall convey and Purchaser shall accept fee simple title to the Land and Improvements in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, subject only to the Permitted Encumbrances.

ARTICLE III

Purchase Price

SECTION 3.01. Purchase Price. The purchase price (the "Purchase Price") for the Mall is One Hundred Eighty-eight Million Five Hundred Thousand and no/100 Dollars ($188,500,000.00), and shall be payable as follows:

(a) One Million Nine Hundred Thousand and no/100 Dollars ($1,900,000) (the "Deposit") shall be paid by Purchaser to Escrow Agent within one (1) Business Day after the date of this Agreement, such payment to be made by wire transfer of immediately available federal funds to an account to be designated by Escrow Agent.

(b) The balance of the Purchase Price, plus or minus adjustments and credits provided for in Article VI and any other applicable provisions of this Agreement, shall be paid by Purchaser to Equitable prior to 2:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on the Closing Date by wire transfer of immediately available federal funds to an account designated by Equitable.

The notice given by Escrow Agent pursuant to clause (ii) above shall state in capital letters that failure of the addressee to object to the disposition of the Deposit described in such notice within ten (10) days after the giving thereof shall constitute a waiver of the addressee's right to contest or object to such disposition. In addition, in the event of any such dispute, Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to commence an action in interpleader and to deposit the Deposit and the Income with the clerk of a court of appropriate jurisdiction in the State of New York. Upon the commencement of such action and the making of such deposit, Escrow Agent shall be released and discharged from and of all further obligations and responsibilities hereunder. For the purposes of this Section 3.02(c), no dispute shall be deemed to exist as to the entitlement of either party to the Deposit and Income if the party receiving notice from Escrow Agent pursuant to clause (ii) of this Section 3.02(c) objects to disposition of the Deposit and Income provided for in such notice more than ten (10) days after the giving of such notice by Escrow Agent.

(d) The parties hereto acknowledge that Escrow Agent is acting solely as a stakeholder at their request and for their convenience, that with respect to the Deposit and the Income, Escrow Agent shall not be deemed to be the agent of either of the parties hereto and that Escrow Agent shall not be liable to either of the parties hereto for any act or omission on its part unless taken or suffered in bad faith, in willful disregard of this Agreement or involving gross negligence on the part of Escrow Agent. Escrow Agent may act upon any instrument or other writing and upon signatures believed by it to be genuine, without any duty of independent verification. Escrow Agent shall not be bound by any modification of this Agreement unless the same is in writing and signed by the parties hereto and a counterpart thereof is delivered to Escrow Agent and, if Escrow Agent's duties, rights or liabilities hereunder are affected, unless Escrow Agent shall have given its prior consent thereto in writing. Escrow Agent shall not be required or obligated to determine any questions of law or fact. The parties hereto shall jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless Escrow Agent from and against all costs, claims and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation costs, incurred by Escrow Agent in connection with the performance of its duties under this Section 3.02 (including, without limitation, in an interpleader action or other litigation regarding the disposition of the Deposit and the Income), except with respect to acts or omissions taken or suffered by Escrow Agent in bad faith, in willful disregard of this Agreement or involving gross negligence on the part of Escrow Agent.

(e) Escrow Agent shall have no liability for the selection of any particular account or investment made by the parties hereto, for fluctuations in the value of said account or investment, for the amount of Income earned on said account or investment or for any loss incurred in connection therewith.

(f) Escrow Agent has acknowledged its agreement to the provisions of this Section 3.02 by signing this Agreement, and Escrow Agent has executed this Agreement solely for such purpose.

(g) References in succeeding provisions of this Agreement to the Deposit shall be deemed to be references both to the Deposit and the Income.

SECTION 5.01. Closing Date. The Closing shall be held at 10:00 a.m. on December 12, 1997 (as the same may be adjourned or advanced pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the "Closing Date"), at the offices of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison, 1285 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10019. Time shall be of the essence with respect to the Closing Date, subject to the following: (i) Purchaser shall have the right to adjourn the Closing Date one or more times for an aggregate of not more than thirty (30) days; (ii) Equitable shall have the right to adjourn the Closing Date one or more times for an aggregate of not more than thirty (30) days to cure exceptions to title, obtain estoppel letters or satisfy other closing conditions; and (iii) such other extensions as are expressly provided for in this Agreement. If either party elects to adjourn the Closing Date pursuant to this Section 5.01, it shall do so on notice to the other given on or before the Closing Date, as the same may have been previously adjourned.

SECTION 5.02. Actions at Closing. At the Closing, the parties shall deliver and accept the documents and instruments and take all other action required of them pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

Apportionments

At the Closing (except where a later date is specifically provided for in this Article), the parties hereto shall adjust the items set forth below as of 11:59 p.m. on the day preceding the Closing Date (the "Adjustment Point"), and the net amount thereof shall be paid by Purchaser to Equitable, or credited by Equitable to Purchaser, as the case may be, at the Closing.

SECTION 6.01. Rents. Rents shall be apportioned as and when collected. Any Rents collected by Purchaser (which, for purposes of this Section 6.01, shall include Rents collected by the Managing Agent or other agent acting for Purchaser) subsequent to the Closing (whether due and payable prior to or subsequent to the Adjustment Point) shall be adjusted as of the Adjustment Point, and any portion thereof properly allocable to periods prior to the Adjustment Point, net of costs of collection properly allocable thereto, if any, shall be paid by Purchaser to Equitable promptly after the collection thereof by Purchaser, but subject to the further provisions of this Section 6.01 in the case of Rents due prior to the Adjustment Point. If prior to the Closing Equitable shall have collected, or if subsequent to the Closing Equitable shall collect, any Rents (which, for the purposes of this Section 6.01, shall include Rents collected by the Managing Agent or other agent acting for Equitable) which are properly allocable in whole or in part to periods subsequent to the Adjustment Point, the portion thereof so allocable to periods subsequent to the Adjustment Point, net of costs of collection properly allocable thereto, if any, shall be credited to Purchaser by Equitable at the Closing or, if collected after the Closing, promptly remitted by Equitable to Purchaser. As used in this Section 6.01 the term "costs of collection" shall mean and include reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs incurred by Purchaser or Equitable in collecting any Rents, but shall not include (1) the regular fees payable to any property manager for the Mall or (2) the payroll costs of any employees of Equitable, Purchaser or its or their affiliates or agents or any other internal costs or overhead of Equitable or Purchaser.

(a) One week prior to the Closing Equitable shall deliver to Purchaser (i) a list of all Tenants that are delinquent in payment of Rents as at the Adjustment Point, which list shall set forth the amount of each such delinquency, the period to which each such delinquency relates and the nature of the amount due, itemizing separately fixed monthly rent, escalation charges or reimbursements, common area maintenance, electric charges, charges for tenant services, charges for overtime services, percentage rent and other charges, if any, and (ii) a list of each Tenant that paid percentage or overage rent based on sales or gross income during the fiscal year in which the Closing Date occurs and the amount so paid by each such Tenant through the Adjustment Point. All amounts collected by Purchaser from each delinquent Tenant within 30 days after the Closing, net of costs of collection, if any, shall be deemed to be in payment of Rents (or the specific components of Rents) for the month in which the Closing occurs, next in payment of Rents (or the specific components of Rents) then due on account of any month after the month in which the Closing occurs and finally in payment of delinquent Rents (or the specific components of Rents) which are in arrears as of the first day of the month in which the Closing occurs, as set forth on such list. All amounts collected by Purchaser from each delinquent Tenant more than 30 days after the Closing, net of costs of collection, if any, shall be deemed to be in payment of Rents (or the specific components of Rents) then due on account of each month after the month in which the Closing occurs, next in payment of Rents (or the specific components of Rents) due for the month in which the Closing occurs and finally in payment of delinquent Rents (or the specific components of Rents) which are in arrears as of the first day of the month in which the Closing occurs, as set forth on the aforesaid list. Any amounts collected by Purchaser from each delinquent Tenant which, in accordance with the preceding two sentences, are allocable to the month in which the Closing occurs (as adjusted as of the Adjustment Point) or any prior month, net of costs of collection properly allocable thereto, if any, shall be paid promptly by Purchaser to Equitable.

(b) Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to bill and collect any delinquencies set forth on the list delivered by Equitable pursuant to Section 6.01(a) for a period of one (1) year after the Closing and the amount thereof, as, when and to the extent collected by Purchaser, shall, if due to Equitable pursuant to the provisions of Section 6.01(a), be paid by Purchaser to Equitable, net of costs of collection, if any, properly allocable thereto, promptly after the collection thereof by Purchaser. In no event shall Purchaser be obligated to institute any actions or proceedings or to seek the eviction of any Tenant in order to collect any such delinquencies.

(c) Following the Closing, Purchaser shall submit or cause to be submitted to Equitable, within 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter up to and including the calendar quarter ending on December 31, 1998, but only so long as any delinquencies shall be owed to Equitable, a statement which sets forth all collections made by Purchaser from the Tenants which owe such delinquencies through the end of such calendar quarter. Equitable shall have the right from time to time following the Closing until 90 days after receipt by Equitable of the last quarterly statement required hereunder, at Equitable's expense, to examine and audit so much of the books and records of Purchaser as relate to such delinquencies in order to verify the collections reported by Purchaser in such quarterly statements.

(d) Nothing contained in this Section 6.01 shall be deemed to prohibit Equitable, at its own expense, from instituting any actions or proceedings in its own name against any Tenant after the Closing in order to collect the amount of any delinquencies due in whole or in part to Equitable from such Tenant; provided, however, that in no event shall Equitable be entitled in any such action or proceeding to seek to evict any Tenant or to recover possession of its space. Purchaser agrees that prior to January 1, 1999, it will not waive or settle any delinquency owed in whole or in part to Equitable without the prior written consent of Equitable, which consent may be granted or withheld in Equitable's sole discretion. From and after January 1, 1999, Purchaser may waive or settle any delinquency (other than any delinquency as to which Equitable is conducting a litigation as of January 1, 1999) owed in whole or in part to Equitable without the prior written consent of Equitable.

(e) With respect to that portion of the Rents which constitute percentage or overage rents, or other amounts payable by Tenants based upon the sales or gross receipts of such entities, the following shall apply: (i) at the Closing and/or, in the case of percentage or overage rents which are in arrears or are payable in other than monthly installments, subsequent to the Closing, percentage or overage rents shall be apportioned as provided in the other subsections of this Section 6.01 in the case of Rents generally; and (ii) following the end of the fiscal year on account of which such percentage or overage rents are payable by each Tenant and receipt by Purchaser of any final payment on account thereof due from such Tenant (including, without limitation, any amount due as a result of an audit conducted by Equitable or Purchaser), Purchaser shall pay to Equitable, net of costs of collection and audit, if any, the excess, if any, of (x) the amount of percentage or overage rents paid by such Tenant on account of such entire fiscal year multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months (including any fraction of a month expressed as a fraction) of such fiscal year prior to the Adjustment Point and the denominator of which is 12 or such lesser number of months (including any fraction of a month expressed as a fraction) as may have elapsed in such fiscal year prior to the expiration of the Lease in question over (y) all amounts theretofore received by Equitable on account of the percentage or overage rents in question for such fiscal year. If in any case the amount provided for in (y) above exceeds the amount provided for in (x) above, Equitable shall pay the amount of such excess to Purchaser upon demand. If on the Closing Date Equitable shall be conducting any audits of payments of percentage or overage rents previously made by Tenants for fiscal years prior to the ones in effect on the Closing Date, Equitable shall have the right to continue all such audits until completion thereof and to collect and retain any amounts payable by reason thereof and in addition, Equitable shall have the right to initiate any such audit within one year subsequent to the Closing. A schedule of all such audits in progress at the date hereof is annexed hereto as Exhibit S. In addition, Equitable shall have until December 31, 1998, to commence any audit of payments of percentage or overage rents previously made by Tenants for the 1997 calendar year or fiscal year ending January 31, 1998, and Equitable shall have the right to continue all such audits until completion thereof and to collect and retain any amounts payable by reason thereof.

(f) With respect to that portion of Rents which are payable on an annual, semi-annual or other non-monthly basis, Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to bill and collect all such payments which become due after the Closing, which payments, to the extent allocable to periods prior to the Adjustment Period, shall be paid by Purchaser to Equitable promptly after receipt thereof, subject to costs of collection, if any, properly allocable thereto. With respect to that portion of Rents that are attributable to payment of expenses such as common area/mall maintenance charges, merchants' or other association charges or advertising and promotional charges, such Rents shall be apportioned based upon which party paid or will pay the correlating expenses for the relevant period. With respect to that portion of Rents which are billed on an index-based formula or on an estimated basis during the fiscal or other period for which paid, at the end of such fiscal or other period Purchaser shall determine whether the items in question have been overbilled or underbilled. If Purchaser determines that there has been an overbilling and an overbilled amount has been received, Equitable shall, promptly after request by Purchaser, pay to Purchaser the portion of such overbilled amount which is allocable (as provided for such Rent in this Section 6.01) to the period prior to the Adjustment Point, and promptly thereafter Purchaser shall reimburse the entire overbilled amount to the Tenants which paid the same. If Purchaser determines that there has been an underbilling, the additional amount shall be billed by Purchaser to the Tenants, and any amount received by Purchaser, net of costs of collection, if any, to the extent allocable (as provided for such Rent in this Section 6.01) to periods prior to the Adjustment Point shall promptly be paid by Purchaser to Equitable.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 6.01, Equitable shall be entitled to receive, and Purchaser shall pay to Equitable promptly after the receipt thereof, net of costs of collection, if any, properly allocable thereto, (i) all amounts payable by Tenants on account of Impositions which, pursuant to the terms of Section 6.03(a), it is Equitable's obligation to pay and discharge, which amounts shall be apportioned between Equitable and Purchaser in the same manner as the Impositions to which they relate and (ii) all amounts payable by Tenants on account of utilities which, pursuant to the terms of Sections 6.03(b) and/or 6.03(c), it is Equitable's obligation to pay and discharge, which amounts shall be apportioned between Equitable and Purchaser in the same manner as the utilities to which they relate.

(h) Any advance rental deposits or payments held by Equitable on the Closing Date and applicable to periods of time subsequent to the Adjustment Point, and any security deposits held by Equitable on the Closing Date, together with interest thereon, if any, which under the terms of the applicable Leases, is payable to the Tenants thereunder, shall be paid or credited to Purchaser at the Closing.

SECTION 6.02. Leasing Costs. Equitable shall pay and indemnify Purchaser in respect of all leasing commissions, costs of tenant alterations and improvements performed or to be performed for Tenants at the expense of the landlord thereof (or allowances payable by the landlord in lieu thereof), moving and other allowances and inducements, if any, and fees and disbursements of architects, engineers and attorneys (collectively, "Leasing Costs") in respect of (i) all Leases executed by or on behalf of all parties thereto prior to the date of this Agreement other than any actual or proposed Lease identified on Exhibit N and any Lease approved by Purchaser in accordance with Article XIII, (ii) any renewal of any Lease executed by all parties thereto prior to the date of this Agreement and not resulting from the exercise of any extension option by the Tenant thereunder and (iii) any amendment to a lease increasing the space demised thereby executed by all parties thereto prior to the date of this Agreement. Purchaser shall and hereby does assume and agree to pay and indemnify Equitable in respect of all Leasing Costs payable in respect of Leases, renewals and amendments of the nature described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above with respect to the actual or proposed Lease identified on Exhibit N and any Lease approved by Purchaser in accordance with Article XIII. If any Leasing Costs shall be paid by Equitable prior to the Closing, which, in accordance with this Section 6.02, it is Purchaser's obligation to pay, Purchaser shall reimburse Equitable for the documented amount thereof at the Closing. Purchaser shall receive credit at Closing for unpaid Leasing Costs that are Equitable's obligation to pay to the extent such unpaid Leasing Costs can be identified at Closing.

SECTION 6.03. Additional Items. At the Closing, the following additional items shall be apportioned between the parties hereto as of the Adjustment Point, with Equitable to be obligated for or entitled to amounts apportioned to the period through the Adjustment Point and Purchaser to be obligated for or entitled to amounts apportioned to the period following the Adjustment Point:

(a) Impositions payable by Equitable in respect of the Mall for the calendar year 1997. In the case of special assessments payable in installments, the installment for the fiscal year in which the Closing Date occurs shall be apportioned as of the Adjustment Point and Purchaser shall be responsible for paying all subsequent installments thereof. If any Tenant in occupancy at the Closing Date is obligated to pay any Impositions directly to the applicable taxing authority, such Impositions shall not be apportioned. Any refund obtained by either Equitable or Purchaser for real estate taxes for which an apportionment is made pursuant to this Section 6.03(a), net of the costs of obtaining such refund and the amount thereof payable to Tenants, shall be apportioned as of the Adjustment Point.

(b) Water and sewer charges, if any, payable by Equitable on the basis of the periods for which the same are payable. If there are water meters at the Mall, Equitable shall furnish readings to date not more than thirty (30) days prior to the Closing Date, and the unfixed meter charges and the unfixed sewer charges, if any, based thereon for the intervening time shall be apportioned on the basis of such last readings. Any water and sewer charges payable by Tenants in occupancy on the Closing Date directly to the entity or the entities furnishing such services shall not be apportioned.

(c) Utilities and fuel payable by Equitable, including without limitation electricity and gas. Equitable shall endeavor to have the meters for such utilities read the day on which the Adjustment Period occurs and will pay the bills rendered to it on the basis of such readings. If Equitable does not obtain such a meter reading with respect to any such utility, the adjustment therefor shall be made on the basis of the most recently issued bills therefore which are based on meter readings not earlier than thirty (30) days prior to the Adjustment Point. Equitable will receive a credit in the full amount of any cash security deposits held by any utility companies (with interest thereon, if any, in the amount accrued on such security deposits), and shall assign to Purchaser at the Closing all of Equitable's right, title and interest in and to such security deposits. Purchaser will make its own arrangements for any security bonds required by any utility companies within 60 days following the Closing Date, and Equitable will thereafter cancel any bonds previously furnished. If fuel oil, propane or other fuel is used at the Mall, Equitable shall deliver to Purchaser at the Closing statements of the suppliers of such fuel dated within three days of the Adjustment Point setting forth the quantity of fuel on hand and the cost paid by Equitable therefor, and Purchaser shall pay to Equitable at the Closing the cost of such fuel (including taxes thereon, if any) as shown on such statements. Charges for any utilities payable by Tenants in occupancy on the Closing Date directly to the utility companies furnishing the same shall not be apportioned.

(d) Charges payable by Equitable under the Other Agreements.

(e) Ancillary income receivable by Equitable in connection with the licensing of the name of the Mall to third parties, the furnishing of utilities from the Mall to third parties, the leasing of kiosks, antennae, baby strollers and other items and the like.

(f) Contributions payable by Equitable to merchants' and other associations, and to promotional activities at the Mall.

(g) Any other items of income or expense of the Mall which, in accordance with generally accepted business practices, should be apportioned between Equitable and Purchaser.

SECTION 6.04. Adjustment Statement. Equitable will deliver to Purchaser prior to the Closing a copy of proposed adjustment statement showing all adjustments to be made at the Closing. The parties shall then endeavor to agree upon such statement or any modification thereof so that it or such modification can be executed by them at the Closing. To the extent that there is an error or omission in any of the adjustments made pursuant to such statement and the same is discovered following the Closing, the parties agree to rectify the same as promptly as possible following such discovery.

SECTION 6.05. Survival. The provisions of this Article VI shall survive the Closing.

Mall Conveyed As Is; Representations and Warranties of Equitable

SECTION 8.01. No Implied Representations. Purchaser acknowledges that except as expressly set forth in this Agreement and in the documents and instruments delivered by Equitable at the Closing, neither Equitable nor any agent or representative or purported agent or representative of Equitable has made, and Equitable is not liable for or bound in any manner by, any express or implied warranties, guarantees, promises, statements, inducements, representations or information (including, without limitation, any information set forth in offering materials heretofore furnished to Purchaser) pertaining to the Mall or any part thereof, the physical condition thereof, environmental matters, income, expenses or operation thereof or of the Personal Property or Intangible Personal Property, the uses which can be lawfully made of the same under applicable zoning or other laws or any other matter or thing with respect thereto, including, without limitation, any existing or prospective Leases or Other Agreements. Without limiting the foregoing, Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that, except as expressly set forth in this Agreement and in the documents and instruments delivered by Equitable at the Closing, Equitable is not liable for or bound by (and Purchaser has not relied upon) any verbal or written statements, representations, real estate brokers' "set-ups" or offering materials or any other information respecting the Mall furnished by Equitable or any broker, employee, agent, consultant or other person representing or purportedly representing Equitable. Nothing contained in this Section 8.01 shall be deemed to impair, limit or otherwise affect Purchaser's rights under this Agreement in respect of the representations, warranties and covenants of Equitable set forth in this Agreement and the other provisions hereof binding upon Equitable.

SECTION 8.02. "As-Is" Purchase. Purchaser represents that it has inspected the Mall, the physical and environmental condition and the uses thereof and the fixtures, equipment and Personal Property included in this sale to its satisfaction, that it has independently investigated, analyzed and appraised the value and profitability thereof, the creditworthiness of Tenants and the presence of Hazardous Materials, if any, in or on the Mall, that it has received copies of and/or has reviewed the Leases, the Other Agreements and all other documents referred to herein, that it is thoroughly acquainted with all of the foregoing and that Purchaser, in purchasing the Mall, will rely upon its own investigations, analyses, studies and appraisals and not upon any information provided to Purchaser by or on behalf of Equitable with respect thereto (except in each case to the extent covered by any warranties or representations of Equitable set forth in this Agreement, in any Seller's Estoppel Letters (as defined in Section 17.02) or in any other document or instrument delivered by Equitable in connection with the Closing). Purchaser agrees to accept the Mall "as is" and in its condition as at the date hereof, reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire or other casualty (subject to the provisions of Article XII) between the date hereof and the Closing Date excepted, and Purchaser shall assume the risk that adverse matters, including, but not limited to, construction defects and adverse physical and environmental conditions may not have been revealed by Purchaser's investigations; and Purchaser, upon closing, shall be deemed to have waived, relinquished and released Equitable from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, losses, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and court costs) of any and every kind or character, known or unknown, which Purchaser might have asserted or alleged against Equitable by reason of or arising out of any latent or patent construction defects or physical conditions, violations of applicable laws (including, without limitation, environmental laws) and any and all other acts, omissions, events, circumstances or matters with respect to the Mall, subject, however, to Purchaser's rights and remedies provided for in this Agreement in the event of the breach of any of Equitable's warranties, representations or covenants contained herein, in any Seller's Estoppel Letter or in any other document or instrument delivered by Equitable in connection with the Closing. Nothing contained in this Section 8.02 shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by Purchaser of its rights at law or in equity, if any (to the extent such rights are not limited under any other applicable provision of this Agreement), to seek contribution or other recourse against Equitable in the event of a claim asserted against Purchaser by a third party with respect to liabilities arising from or relating to any circumstances or conditions which exist at or in respect of the Mall prior to the Closing. Nothing contained in this Section 8.02 shall be deemed to impair, limit or otherwise affect Purchaser's rights under this Agreement in respect of the representations, warranties and covenants of Equitable set forth in this Agreement and the other provisions hereof binding on Equitable. The provisions of this Section 8.02 shall survive the Closing.

SECTION 8.03. Representations and Warranties of Equitable. Equitable hereby represents and warrants to Purchaser as follows:

(a) Equitable is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of New York. Equitable has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms hereof. The execution, delivery and performance by Equitable of this Agreement and the documents to be executed by Equitable pursuant hereto have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Equitable. This Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of Equitable, enforceable against Equitable in accordance with its terms, subject as to enforceability to the effect of applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or other similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and to general principles of equity. No bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, arrangement or moratorium proceeding or allegation of fraudulent conveyance is now pending or, to Equitable's knowledge, threatened against Equitable or the Mall.

(b) Equitable is not a "foreign person" as defined in Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(c) Execution by Equitable of this Agreement and all documents provided for herein to be executed by Equitable, and performance by Equitable of the provisions hereof and thereof, will not (i) violate or result in any breach of, or constitute a default under, any law, regulation, rule, order or judgment of any governmental authority to which Equitable is subject, or any agreement, indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan, credit agreement or other instrument to which Equitable is a party or by which Equitable is bound, where such breach or default might adversely affect Equitable's ability to perform its obligations hereunder or under such other documents or (ii) require any approval or consent which has not been obtained of any Governmental Authority or any Tenant or (iii) require any approval or consent or other action by any pension or retirement plan which has an interest in Equitable's Separate Account No. 16-VII or any other person which has not been obtained or taken. Equitable is not in default under any note, evidence of indebtedness, lease, contract, license, undertaking or other Agreement where the liability thereunder might adversely affect Equitable's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any document executed by Equitable pursuant hereto.

(d) With respect to the Leases:

(i) Exhibit G annexed hereto is a list of all of the Leases in effect on the date of such exhibit setting forth, with respect to each Lease: (A) the date thereof and the date of each amendment or supplement thereto; (B) the name of the current Tenant thereunder; (C) the premises demised thereby; (D) the current term of each Lease, including commencement date and expiration date; (E) the amount, if any, of the security deposit held by Equitable thereunder; (F) the number of square feet of rentable or gross leasable area, as applicable; (G) the fixed rent currently payable under such Lease and the percentage rent percentage and breakpoint with respect to such Lease; (H) noting (by "y" or "n") whether any exclusive rights have been granted to the Tenant; and (I) in the case of the Anchors, the commencement date and expiration date of the operating covenant, if any. All of the information set forth on Exhibit G is true, correct and complete. As of the date of Exhibit G, there are no leases, licenses or other rights of occupancy or use of any portion of the Mall granted by Equitable or its predecessors in title other than the Leases set forth in said Exhibit. None of the Leases has been modified, amended or supplemented (whether orally or in writing) except as set forth in Exhibit G. No Tenant has any option to purchase the Mall or a right of first refusal in respect of the sale of the Mall to a third party and no Tenant has the right to purchase any portion of the Mall.

(ii) True, correct and complete copies of the Leases, and all amendments and supplements thereto, have heretofore been made available and/or delivered to Purchaser for review.

(iii) Exhibit M annexed hereto is a true, correct and complete list of Tenants that are delinquent in the payment of Rents as of the date of said schedule, which schedule sets forth the information specified in clause (i) of Section 6.01(a).

(iv) Except as set forth in Exhibit G annexed hereto, each of the Leases listed in Exhibit G is in full force and effect as of the date hereof. Equitable has received no written notice from any Tenant under a Lease listed in Exhibit G which is still outstanding

(x) that Equitable has defaulted in performing any of its material obligations under such Lease or (y) that such Tenant is entitled to any reduction in, refund of or counterclaim or offset against, or is otherwise disputing, any Rents paid, payable or to become payable by such Tenant thereunder or is entitled to cancel or terminate such Lease or to be released of any of its material obligations thereunder, except as set forth in Exhibit G. With the exception of the delinquencies in the payment to Rents specified in Exhibit M annexed hereto, to Equitable's knowledge no material default exists under any Lease by the Tenant thereunder except as set forth in Exhibit G. For purposes of this Section 8.03(d)(iv) the term "Lease" does not include licenses and concession agreements which have original terms, as they may be extended by renewal rights, of less than six (6) months.

(v) All leasing commissions in respect of the Leases listed in Exhibit G which were entered into before, and in respect of the terms in effect on the Execution Date (including in respect of any renewals) extensions or amendments thereof), have been, or by the Closing Date will have been, paid in full by Equitable.

(vi) All tenant alterations which are required to be performed by Equitable at its expense pursuant to the Leases listed in Exhibit G on or prior to the date hereof in order to prepare space for occupancy by Tenants have been performed by Equitable, and all allowances payable to such Tenants in lieu of such work which were payable in respect of such Leases prior to the date hereof have been paid.

(e) With respect to the Other Agreements:

(i) Exhibit D annexed hereto is a true, correct and complete list as of the date of such exhibit of all Other Agreements affecting the Mall, setting forth, with respect to such Other Agreements, the date thereof and of each amendment or supplement thereto, the name of each party thereto (other than Equitable) and a brief description of the services provided thereunder or property covered thereby. Except as specifically identified in Exhibit D, each Other Agreement can be terminated by Purchaser on not more than thirty (30) days' notice without penalty.

(ii) True, correct and complete copies of the Other Agreements, and all amendments and supplements thereto, have heretofore been made available and/or delivered to Purchaser for review.

(iii) To Equitable's knowledge, each of the Other Agreements is in full force and effect on the date hereof, and Equitable has received no written notice from any party to any Other Agreement which is still outstanding that Equitable has defaulted in performing any of its obligations under such Other Agreement, except as set forth in Exhibit D. None of the Other Agreements listed on Exhibit D has heretofore been amended or supplemented (whether orally or in writing), except as set forth on Exhibit D.

(f) Equitable has not received (i) any written notice of any Violation with respect to the Mall from any Governmental Authority which has not heretofore been complied with except as set forth in Exhibit H, or (ii) any written notice from any Governmental Authority which is still outstanding of any failure by Equitable to obtain any certificate, permit, license or approval with respect to the Mall, or any intended revocation, modification or cancelation of any of the same; and to Equitable's knowledge no notice of the nature described in this Section 8.03(f) is about to be issued.

(g) No condemnation, eminent domain, zoning, land-use or similar proceeding in which Equitable has been served with process or of which Equitable has otherwise received written notice is pending with respect to all or any part of the Mall or access thereto, and Equitable has no knowledge that any such proceeding is threatened or contemplated.

(h) Equitable has not received any written notice which is still outstanding of any violation of any restriction, condition, covenant or agreement contained in any easement, restrictive covenant or any similar instrument or agreement which constitutes a Permitted Encumbrance.

(i) There are no pending litigations or other proceedings against Equitable affecting the Mall in respect of which Equitable has been served with process or otherwise received written notice except for (i) claims for personal injury, property damage or worker's compensation for which the insurance carrier has been notified on a timely basis and has not disclaimed liability or reserved its rights and in which the amounts claimed do not exceed the applicable insurance policy limits and (ii) other litigations or proceedings shown on Exhibit I annexed hereto. Equitable has no knowledge of any threatened litigation or proceedings against Equitable affecting the Mall except litigation of the nature described in clause (i) above.

(j) All fixtures, equipment and articles of personal property attached or appurtenant to or used in connection with the Mall and located thereat, except those belonging to Tenants, subtenants of Tenants and independent contractors or utility companies, and items which are leased by Equitable, are owned or leased by Equitable, free from all liens and encumbrances (other than, in the case of leased property, the lessor's interest therein and any encumbrance on such lessor's interest), and Equitable's interest therein is included in this sale and shall be deemed conveyed from Equitable to Purchaser at the Closing. A schedule of the material items of such personal property, which in any event includes all items of such personal property having a cost of $5,000 or more, is attached hereto as Exhibit B, which Exhibit separately identifies any leased personal property, the leases for which are listed on Exhibit D annexed hereto.

(k) Equitable has no employees or agreements with any employees who will continue performing services after the Closing in connection with the operation of the Mall. All persons who regularly perform services at the Mall are employees of the Managing Agent or other independent contractors.

(l) Exhibit F annexed hereto lists all environmental reports relating to asbestos (whether or not friable and whether or not posing a threat to human health) or other Hazardous Materials at the Mall which Equitable caused to be prepared or otherwise has in its possession dated after January 1, 1986, each of which has heretofore been delivered to Purchaser. As used herein, the term "Hazardous Materials" means (i) toxic wastes, hazardous materials, hazardous substances or other substances which are defined, prohibited or regulated by, or listed in, any federal, state or local law or regulation addressing environmental protection or pollution control matters, (ii) asbestos in friable condition or otherwise posing a threat to human health, (iii) polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) and (iv) oil, petroleum and their by-products. Except as may be specifically disclosed in the reports listed on Exhibit F or in any environmental reports obtained by Purchaser, and except with respect to cleaning fluids and similar substances which may be used in the routine operation or maintenance of the Mall in accordance with Legal Requirements, (A) Equitable has not itself caused any Hazardous Materials to be utilized or stored in or on the Mall, or to be disposed of thereat or therefrom, except in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws and (B) to Equitable's knowledge, no Hazardous Materials are present in, on or under the Mall at levels or in quantities or amounts which would be in violation of, or would require investigation or cleanup under, applicable laws. Equitable has not received any written notice from any Governmental Authority or other person or entity that any condition exists at the Mall which constitutes or has resulted in a violation of any Legal Requirement relating to Hazardous Materials or which requires investigation or cleanup under any such Legal Requirements, or that any claim has been or may be asserted against Equitable by reason of any such violation.

(m) Equitable has not received any written notice from any insurer of the Mall requiring any work to be performed as a condition to the renewal of any insurance policy carried by Equitable in respect thereof which has not heretofore been complied with.

(n) Except as set forth on Exhibit F, no structural or other engineering reports dated after January 1, 1989 by a third party engineer relating to the condition or structural soundness of the entire Mall are in the possession or control of Equitable.

(o) The financial statements described on Exhibit C annexed hereto have previously been delivered to Purchaser and fairly present the results of operations and changes in financial position of the subjects thereof for the periods referred to therein, in each case in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied throughout the periods involved.

(p) The property to be conveyed and transferred to purchaser at the Closing constitutes all of the real property, personal property and other property owned or leased or otherwise used by Equitable in connection with its ownership and operation of the Mall, except for the Excepted Items.

(q) Equitable has not entered into any letter of intent with any Tenant which occupies or will occupy more than 10,000 square feet of gross leasable area in the Mall with respect to the entering into, amendment or termination of any Lease.

SECTION 8.04. No Independent Investigation. All representations and warranties made herein by Equitable which are based on Equitable's knowledge are made, and are hereby acknowledged by the Purchaser to be made, without independent investigation regarding the facts contained therein, other than due inquiry of the Managing Agent for the Mall, and are otherwise limited as provided in the definition of "knowledge" or "notice".

SECTION 8.05. Effect of Estoppels. If prior to the Closing a Tenant provides to Purchaser an estoppel letter addressed to Purchaser and delivered in response to a request made pursuant to this Agreement which sets forth information with respect to any item as to which Equitable has made a representation or warranty, then Equitable's representation and warranty in respect of such information shall thereafter be null and void and of no further force or effect, such representation and warranty shall not be deemed to have been remade as of the Closing and Purchaser shall rely solely on the information set forth in such estoppel letter. Nothing contained in this Section 8.05 shall affect or negate Purchaser's right to refuse to proceed with the Closing as provided in Section 17.03.

SECTION 8.06. Survival of Equitable's Warranties, etc. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8.05, all of Equitable's representations and warranties contained in this Article VIII (other than those contained in Sections 8.03(a), 8.03(b) and 8.03(c), which shall survive the Closing without limitation as to time), as remade as of the Closing as provided in Section 8.06(c) and subject to any modifications thereof made in any certificate provided for in said Section, and all certifications, representations and warranties made by Equitable in any Seller's Estoppel Letter delivered by Equitable to Purchaser, shall survive until 12 months after the date of the Closing; provided, however, that Equitable's liability for any breach of such warranties, representations and certifications shall not expire as to any breach or alleged breach thereof if notice of such breach or alleged breach is given by Purchaser to Equitable prior to 12 months after the date of the Closing and, if such notice is given, legal proceedings are instituted in respect of such breach or alleged breach within one (1) year after such notice is given.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Article VIII, Equitable shall have no liability to Purchaser for breach of any warranty and representation set forth in this Article VIII or in any Seller's Estoppel Letter or for breach by Equitable of any of its Agreements set forth in Article XIII unless and except to the extent that the damages due to Purchaser by reason of all such breaches exceed $100,000, and in no event shall Equitable be liable to Purchaser for consequential damages in respect of any such breach.

(c) All of Equitable's representations and warranties set forth in this Article VIII shall be deemed to have been remade on and as of the Closing Date, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 8.05 and facts disclosed on the updated Exhibits to this Agreement which are to be delivered by Equitable to Purchaser at the Closing pursuant to Section 7.01 (which updated Exhibits, upon their delivery by Equitable to Purchaser, shall for all purposes of this Agreement constitute the indicated Exhibit or a part thereof); provided, however, that if any matter or event shall have occurred between the date hereof and the date of the Closing which does not result from any intentional act or omission of Equitable (other than one permitted under this Agreement), and which makes any such warranty or representation untrue in any material respect as of the Closing Date, Equitable shall have the right to deliver a certificate to Purchaser at or prior to the Closing which discloses such matter or event, and if Equitable does so, Equitable shall not be liable to Purchaser following the Closing for the breach of the warranty or representation in question which results from the occurrence of such matter or thing, but in no event shall Purchaser be obligated to close hereunder unless the conditions precedent to Purchaser's obligation to close set forth in this Agreement (including, without limitation, in Section 11.01) shall have been fulfilled. If Equitable shall deliver such a certificate to Purchaser less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing, Purchaser shall have the right, by giving notice to Equitable of its electing so to do, to adjourn the Closing to a day which is the fifth (5th) Business Day after its receipt of such certificate (or if such day is not a Business Day, to the next Business Day). The right provided for in the preceding sentence shall be exercisable by Purchaser notwithstanding the fact that Purchaser may have theretofore utilized in full its right of adjournment under Section 5.01.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Article VIII or elsewhere in this Agreement, if prior to the Closing Purchaser has or obtains knowledge that any of Equitable's warranties or representations set forth in this Article VIII (except for those set forth in Sections 8.03(a), 8.03(b), 8.03(c), 8.03(k), 8.03(o) and 8.03(p)), or any of Equitable's certifications, warranties or representations made in any Seller's Estoppel Letter, is untrue in any respect, and Purchaser nevertheless proceeds with the Closing, then the breach by Equitable of the warranties, representations or certifications as to which Purchaser shall have such knowledge shall automatically be deemed waived by Purchaser and Equitable shall have no liability to Purchaser or its successors or assigns in respect thereof. For the purposes of this subsection 8.06(d), Purchaser shall be deemed to have or to have obtained knowledge of any such matter or thing only if such matter or thing (i) is set forth in any Lease, Other Agreement or estoppel certificate which (or a copy of which) is stated in this Agreement to have been delivered to and/or made available for review by Purchaser, (ii) was contained in any written studies or reports furnished to Purchaser by any third party consultants retained by it, (iii) was set forth in a letter, memorandum or other written communication from Cravath, Swaine & Moore in this transaction to Purchaser on or prior to the Closing Date or (iv) was set forth in a letter, memorandum or other written communication from Equitable or Equitable's agents to Jane A. Fortenberry. For purposes of this subsection 8.06(d), the term "Lease" shall include only those Leases listed on Exhibit G and those Leases that are approved by Purchaser in accordance with Article XIII.

ARTICLE IX

Representations and Warranties of Purchaser

SECTION 9.01. Purchaser's Warranties. Purchaser warrants and represents to Equitable as follows:

(a) Purchaser is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware.

(b) Purchaser has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and perform its obligations hereunder in accordance with the terms hereof. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Purchaser and the documents to be executed by Purchaser pursuant hereto have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary action on the part of the managers and members of Purchaser. This Agreement continues the legal, valid and binding obligation of Purchaser, enforceable against Purchaser in accordance with its terms, subject as to enforceability to the effect of applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and to general principles of equity. No bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement or moratorium proceeding, or allegation of fraudulent conveyance, is now pending or, to Purchaser's knowledge, threatened against Purchaser.

(c) Execution by Purchaser of this Agreement and all documents provided for herein to be executed by Purchaser, and performance by Purchaser of the provisions hereof and thereof, will not violate or result in any breach of, or constitute a default under, any law, regulation, order or judgment of any governmental authority to which Purchaser is subject, or any agreement, indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan, credit agreement or any other instrument to which Purchaser is a party or by which Purchaser is bound, where such breach or default might adversely affect Purchaser's ability to perform its obligations hereunder or under such other documents. Purchaser is not in default under any note, evidence of indebtedness, lease, contract, license, undertaking or other agreement where the liability thereunder might adversely affect Purchaser's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement or such other documents.

(d) Purchaser is not utilizing the assets of any employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended) for or in connection with its acquisition of the Mall.

SECTION 9.02. Remaking of Warranties; Survival. All of Purchaser's representations and warranties set forth in this Article IX shall be deemed to have been remade on and as of the Closing Date. Such representations and warranties, as remade, shall survive the Closing without limitation as to time.

ARTICLE X

Conditions to the Obligation of Equitable To Close Title

The obligation of Equitable to close title under this Agreement is expressly conditioned upon the fulfillment by and as of the Closing Date of each of the conditions listed below, provided that Equitable, at its election, may waive all or any of such conditions, which election shall be conclusively evidenced by Equitable's proceeding with and completing the closing of the transactions provided for herein:

(a) Purchaser shall have paid to Equitable the Purchase Price as provided in Article III hereof and all other amounts due to Equitable hereunder.

(b) All representations and warranties of Purchaser set forth in Article IX shall be true and correct in all material respects on and as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of such date.

(c) Purchaser shall have executed and/or delivered or caused to be delivered at the Closing all documents and executed counterparts of documents and instruments required by this Agreement to be executed and/or delivered by Purchaser and shall have taken all other actions and fulfilled all other covenants and conditions required of Purchaser under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI

Conditions to the Obligation of Purchaser To Close Title

The obligation of Purchaser to close title under this Agreement is conditioned upon the fulfillment by and as of the Closing Date of each of the conditions listed below, provided that Purchaser, at its election, may waive all or any of such conditions, which election shall be conclusively evidenced by Purchaser's proceeding with and completing the closing of the transactions provided for herein:

SECTION 11.01. Representations and Warranties. Subject to the provisions of Section 8.05, all representations and warranties of Equitable set forth in Section 8.03 shall be true and correct in all material respects on and as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of such date (without reference to any modifications thereof contained in any certificate delivered by Equitable to Purchaser pursuant to Section 8.06(c)), subject, however, to changes resulting from the operation of the Mall between the date hereof and the Closing Date in accordance with the provisions of Article XIII.

SECTION 11.02. Closing Documents. Equitable shall have executed and/or delivered or caused to be delivered at Closing all of the documents and executed counterparts of documents and instruments required by this Agreement to be executed and/or delivered by Equitable and shall have taken all other actions and fulfilled all other covenants and conditions required of Equitable under this Agreement.

SECTION 11.03. Condition of Title. Title to the Mall shall be in the condition called for by this Agreement.

SECTION 11.04. Estoppels. The conditions set forth in Sections 17.01 and 17.03 shall be satisfied.

SECTION 11.05. ALTA Title Policy. The Title Company shall be willing to issue to Purchaser an ALTA extended coverage owner's policy of title insurance (without regional exceptions) with respect to the Mall, together with such customary endorsements and affirmative coverage (including, without limitation, an ALTA 3.1-Zoning-completed structure endorsement) as Purchaser shall reasonably request, dated as of the Closing Date and insuring Purchaser's interest in the Mall in an amount equal to the Purchase Price, free of any exceptions other than Permitted Exceptions.

SECTION 11.06 Unified Control of Master Phipps Tract. Purchaser, Equitable and all other necessary parties shall have entered into a binding agreement satisfactory in all respects to Seller and Purchaser in their sole discretion sufficient (a) to ensure that upon sale of the Mall to Purchaser and upon any other or future sale of any other portion of the Master Phipps Tract, the Master Phipps Tract will continue to be under "unified control" for purposes of applicable City of Atlanta Zoning Ordinances, (b) to establish procedures in conformity with applicable City of Atlanta Ordinances for owners of the Master Phipps Tract to request future site plan amendments to portions of the Master Phipps Tract, which procedures shall protect and preserve the current zoning status of the Master Phipps Tract and (c) to require all owners of portions of the Master Phipps Tract to comply with all zoning conditions applicable to the Master Phipps Tract, or any portion thereof.

SECTION 11.07. Cross-Easement Agreements. Binding agreements satisfactory in all respects to Seller and Purchaser in their sole discretion shall be in effect on the Closing Date sufficient to ensure that (i) all easements and similar arrangements (including cost-sharing arrangements for roadways and similar common areas) and/or restrictions determined by Purchaser to be necessary or advisable in connection with its ownership of the Mall have been created with all relevant parties and (ii) persons other than the Purchaser have assumed responsibility for all costs and other obligations which (x) relate to, or arise out of or are caused by the construction of improvements on land other than the land described on Exhibit A and (y) are currently obligations imposed upon the landlord under one or more of the Leases.

ARTICLE XII

Risk of Loss

SECTION 12.01. Material Casualty or Condemnation. If prior to the Closing the Mall shall suffer any damage by fire or other casualty, the cost of which to repair exceeds $5,000,000, or if any proceeding shall be instituted for the taking in condemnation or by eminent domain of any material portion of the Mall, Purchaser shall have the right to terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to Equitable within thirty (30) days after Purchaser is first given written notice of such damage or taking. Equitable agrees to give Purchaser prompt notice of the occurrence of any such damage or taking. If this Agreement is so terminated by Purchaser, the Escrow Agent shall return the Deposit to Purchaser (and Equitable and Purchaser shall execute a written instruction to Escrow Agent to do so) and neither party shall have any further obligations or liabilities hereunder, or otherwise with respect to the subject matter hereof, except as otherwise expressly provided herein to the contrary.

SECTION 12.02. Election to Purchase After Casualty or Condemnation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if all or any portion of the Mall shall be damaged by fire or other casualty or taken in whole or in part in condemnation or by eminent domain, and if as a result of such damage or taking Purchaser shall be entitled to be relieved of its obligations under this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.01 above, Purchaser shall have the right, by giving written notice to Equitable within thirty (30) days after receipt by Purchaser from Equitable of written notice of such damage or taking, to elect nevertheless to purchase the Mall. If Purchaser makes such election (which election shall be deemed to have been made by Purchaser if it for any reason fails to give Equitable notice of its election to terminate this Agreement within the thirty (30)-day period provided for in Section 12.01) or if the damage or taking shall not be of sufficient magnitude to entitle Purchaser to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 12.01, this Agreement and the obligations of Equitable and Purchaser hereunder shall remain in full force and effect except that (i) Purchaser shall accept the Mall notwithstanding such damage or taking and shall pay the full Purchase Price therefor and (ii) at the Closing (a) Equitable shall assign to Purchaser all of its right, title and interest in and to all insurance proceeds (including, without limitation, business interruption or rent insurance proceeds) payable by reason of such damage or all awards payable by reason of such taking, and, in the case of insurance proceeds, shall credit against the Purchase Price the amount of any deductible under Equitable's insurance policies, (b) Equitable shall assign and pay over to Purchaser the amount of such proceeds or award, if any, received by Equitable prior to the date of the Closing, and (c) Equitable shall not settle or compromise any claim for such proceeds or award without the prior consent of Purchaser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Equitable shall be entitled to receive or retain (i) out of such casualty insurance proceeds or award, any amounts expended by Equitable to restore or protect the Mall and (ii) in the case of rental or business interruption proceeds allocable to periods prior to the Adjustment Point (apportioned consistent with Section 6.01), loss of rents by reason of the fire or other casualty suffered by Equitable prior to the closing, which entitlement shall survive the Closing.

ARTICLE XIII

Operation of the Mall Until Closing

SECTION 13.01. Standard of Operation. Equitable agrees to operate and maintain the Mall, or cause the Mall to be operated and maintained, between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past procedures and practices heretofore followed in connection with such operation and maintenance, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 13.01 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall require Equitable to make or undertake any capital improvements, repairs or replacements at the Mall between the date hereof and the Closing Date.

SECTION 13.02. Notice Requirements. Equitable will notify Purchaser of any of the following matters which occur between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date: (i) notices of default received or given by Equitable with respect to any Lease, any Operating Agreement or any material Other Agreement, (ii) litigation commenced by Equitable, or litigation of which Equitable has received notice commenced or threatened against Equitable, with respect to the Mall (other than litigation covered by insurance as to which the insurer has been notified on a timely basis and has not disclaimed liability or reserved its rights), (iii) notices of condemnation proceedings commenced or threatened against all or any portion of the Mall received by Equitable and (v) casualty losses to the Improvements of the Mall.

SECTION 13.03. Equitable's Rights and Covenants. (i) Between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Equitable shall maintain all insurance currently maintained by Equitable on the Mall in full force and effect, a true, correct and complete description of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit O; (ii) between the date of Exhibit D and the Closing Date, Equitable shall not without the prior written consent of Purchaser enter into any new Other Agreements for the Mall except those which can be canceled by Purchaser on thirty (30) days' notice without penalty; (iii) between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Equitable shall have the right, upon prior written notice to Purchaser, to take such action as is appropriate to collect Rents or damages in lieu of Rents under any Lease which shall be in default, whether or not such default existed prior to the date of this Agreement, provided that Equitable shall not seek to evict any Tenant without Purchaser's prior written consent; and (iv) between the date of Exhibit G and the Closing Date, Equitable shall not without the prior written consent of Purchaser (a) amend, modify or terminate any Lease or enter into any new agreement with a Tenant, (b) subject to Section 13.04, enter into any new Lease or (c) terminate any Lease except by reason of the default of the Tenant thereunder, and then only in accordance with clause (iii) of this Section 13.03.

SECTION 13.04. New Leases. If between the date hereof and the Closing Date, Equitable desires to enter into any new Lease, Equitable shall give Purchaser notice (the "New Lease Notice") which sets forth with respect to such proposed new Lease (i) the name of the prospective tenant, (ii) the term of the Lease, (iii) the Rents payable under the Lease, (iv) the location and size of the premises, (v) the permitted uses under the Lease, (vi) the expenses associated with the consummation of the Lease, including without limitation leasing commissions, tenant improvements costs, tenant allowances and the like, and (vii) any concessions or free Rent being granted, and which sets forth on its face the substance of the last sentence of this Section 13.04. No such Lease shall be entered into by Equitable without the prior written consent of Purchaser, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. If Purchaser does not respond to any New Lease Notice within ten (10) Business Days after its receipt thereof, Purchaser shall be conclusively deemed to have approved the new Lease which is the subject of such New Lease Notice and Equitable shall have the right to enter into such new Lease.

SECTION 13.05. Survival. The provisions of this Article XIII shall survive the Closing for a period of six (6) months; provided, however, that Equitable's liability for any breach of any of the provisions of this Article XIII shall not expire as to any breach or alleged breach thereof if notice of such breach or alleged breach is given by Purchaser to Equitable prior to 6 months after the date of the Closing and, if such notice is given, legal proceedings are instituted in respect of such breach or alleged breach within one (1) year after such notice is given. The liability of Equitable under this Article XIII shall be subject to the provisions of Section 8.06(b).

ARTICLE XIV

Title to Mall

SECTION 14.01. Title Defects. If, on the Closing Date, Equitable shall be unable to convey to Purchaser title to the Mall subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, Equitable shall be entitled, but shall not be obligated, to adjourn the Closing for one or more periods not to exceed thirty (30) days in the aggregate (taking into account any other adjournments taken by Equitable hereunder) for the purpose of causing title to be placed in the condition called for by this Agreement. If on the Closing Date, as the same may be adjourned as above provided, Equitable shall be unable to convey title to the Mall in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, Purchaser may terminate this Agreement by notice to Equitable delivered on or prior to the Closing Date, as the same may have been extended, in which event this Agreement shall be terminated and of no further effect and neither party shall have any obligations of any nature to the other hereunder or by reason hereof, except as to those obligations hereunder that are specifically stated to survive such termination, and the Deposit and the Income shall be returned to Purchaser by Escrow Agent (and Equitable shall join with Purchaser in executing a written instruction to Escrow Agent to do so). Equitable shall be under no obligation to take any steps or to institute or prosecute any action or proceedings, or expend any sums of money, to remove from title to the Mall any defect, encumbrance or objection to title; provided, however, that Equitable shall be responsible for discharging or causing the Title Company affirmatively to insure over any liens or encumbrances which do not constitute Permitted Encumbrances, which can be discharged solely by the payment of a sum of money and which arise on account of obligations undertaken or actions performed by, or at the direction of, Equitable. Equitable may use any part of the cash portion of the Purchase Price to discharge the same; provided, however, that Equitable shall deliver to Purchaser or the Title

Company at the Closing instruments in recordable form sufficient for the Title Company to discharge such liens and encumbrances of record or shall obtain the commitment of the Title Company affirmatively to insure over such liens or encumbrances. Except for Equitable's failure to discharge or cause the Title Company affirmatively to insure over such liens or encumbrances as aforesaid, Equitable shall not be deemed in default of this Agreement, and Purchaser shall not be entitled to damages of any kind, if Equitable shall be unable to convey title to the Mall in the condition called for by this Agreement, nor shall Purchaser in such circumstances be entitled to specific performance of this Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing provisions of this sentence shall not apply in respect of any exception to title which is created as a result of the intentional act of Equitable between the date hereof and the Closing Date and which is not permitted under the terms of Article XIII. In no event shall Equitable be obligated to discharge any mechanic's or similar lien created by a Tenant in occupancy, but Equitable shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Tenant to do so.

SECTION 14.02. Waiver by Purchaser. Purchaser, at its election, may at the Closing accept such title as Equitable can convey, without reduction of the Purchase price or any credit or allowance on account thereof or any claim against Equitable by reason thereof.

SECTION 14.03. Affirmative Insurance. Except as set forth in Section 14.01, Equitable shall not have the right, without the prior written consent of Purchaser (which consent may be withheld in Purchaser's sole discretion), and shall not have the obligation, to cause the Title Company affirmatively to insure over any defects in title which do not constitute Permitted Exceptions and which do not constitute defects which can be removed solely by the payment of a sum of money.

SECTION 14.04. Deed Full Performance; Survival. The acceptance of the Deed and other closing documents by Purchaser from Equitable shall be deemed full performance on the part of Equitable of all of its obligations under this Agreement, except as to any such obligation which is specifically stated in this Agreement to survive the Closing or is expressly contained in documents delivered at Closing. Except when otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, none of the provisions of this Agreement shall survive the Closing.

ARTICLE XV

Brokers, etc.

SECTION 15.01. Equitable's Representation. Equitable represents and warrants to Purchaser that Equitable dealt with no broker, finder or like agent who might claim a commission or fee in connection with the transaction contemplated in this Agreement or on account of introducing the parties, the preparation or submission of brochures, the negotiation or execution of this Agreement or the closing of the transaction contemplated herein other than ERE Yarmouth ("Broker"). The fee of Broker shall be paid by Equitable pursuant to a separate Agreement between Equitable and Broker. Equitable agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Purchaser and its successors and assigns from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, disbursements and charges, arising out of any claim or demand for commissions or other compensation for bringing about this transaction by any broker, finder or similar agent or party, including, without limitation, Broker, who claims to have dealt with Equitable or any affiliate thereof in connection with this transaction.

SECTION 15.02. Purchaser's Representation. Purchaser represents and warrants to Equitable that neither Purchaser, nor any affiliate thereof, has dealt with any broker, finder or like agent who might claim a commission or fee in connection with the transaction contemplated in this Agreement or on account of introducing the parties, the preparation or submission of brochures, the negotiation or execution of this Agreement or the closing of the transaction contemplated herein, other than Broker. Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Equitable and its successors and assigns from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, disbursements and charges, arising out of any claim or demand for commissions or other compensation for bringing about this transaction by any broker, finder or similar agent or party other than Broker who claims to have dealt with Purchaser or any affiliate thereof in connection with this transaction.

SECTION 15.03. Survival. The provisions of this Article XV shall survive the Closing or the termination of this Agreement.

Default; Remedies

SECTION 16.01. Purchaser's Default. If at the Closing Date the conditions to the obligation of Equitable to close title as set forth in Article X have not been fulfilled solely as a result of the default of Purchaser in performing any of its obligations hereunder, and the Closing does not occur as a result thereof, then Equitable shall be entitled as its sole and exclusive remedy to terminate this Agreement and receive the Deposit from the Escrow Agent as liquidated damages for Purchaser's default (and in such circumstances Purchaser shall join with Equitable in a written instruction to Escrow Agent to pay the Deposit to Equitable) and Equitable expressly waives any and all other rights and remedies which Equitable may have at law or in equity against Purchaser. Purchaser and Equitable agree that such liquidated damages are not intended as a penalty, and are their best estimate of the actual damages that would be incurred by Seller based in part upon the following damages which Equitable will suffer on account of a default by Purchaser and the failure of the Closing to occur, which damages Purchaser and Equitable agree are incapable of an exact determination of amount: the removal of the Mall from the real estate market from September 17, 1997 and the loss of the possibility of obtaining a new purchaser during such time at a higher amount; the possibility of being unable to find a new purchaser for the amount of the Purchase Price after Purchaser's default; various restrictions related to the management and maintenance of the Mall during the period of this Agreement; the inconvenience and expense of remarketing the Mall for sale; and the expense of negotiating and documenting a new transaction.

SECTION 16.02. Equitable's Default. If at the Closing Date the conditions to the obligation of Purchaser to close title as set forth in Article XI have not been fulfilled solely as a result of the default of Equitable hereunder, and the Closing shall not occur as a result thereof, then Purchaser shall be entitled to pursue, at its election, one of the following as its sole and exclusive remedy: (i) terminate this Agreement and have the Deposit returned to it by the Escrow Agent (and in such circumstances Equitable shall join with Purchaser in a written instruction to Escrow Agent to pay the Deposit to Purchaser), (ii) seek specific performance of Equitable's obligations under this Agreement or (iii) in the case of prior sale or mortgaging of the Mall to any person or entity (other than Purchaser or its successors or assigns) in breach of this Agreement, seek damages (but excluding consequential damages) but only if Purchaser has theretofore brought an action seeking specific performance of Equitable's obligations under this Agreement within six months after such prior sale or mortgaging. Except as provided in the preceding clause (iii), Purchaser hereby waives any right to sue Equitable for damages (including consequential damages) for any default by Equitable hereunder, but if the Closing occurs, subject to the provisions of Sections 8.05 and 8.06 such waiver shall not apply to damages to which Purchaser may be entitled hereunder by reason of any breach by Equitable of any of its warranties or representations hereunder which survive the Closing.

SECTION 16.03. Survival. The provisions of this Article XVI shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Estoppels

SECTION 17.01. Required Estoppels. At or before the Closing, Equitable shall deliver to Purchaser estoppel letters (a) from all Anchors and all other Tenants leasing 10,000 or more square feet of gross leasable area and (b) from 75% (by base rent and gross leasable area) of all Tenants at the Mall which are not Anchors or Tenants described in clause (a) above, such estoppel letters to be in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit P (in the case of Anchors) or Exhibit Q (in the case of all other Tenants); provided, however, that if any Lease provides for the form or content of an estoppel letter, Purchaser shall accept an estoppel letter as called for therein if any Tenant refuses to execute one in the applicable form annexed hereto as an exhibit after being requested to do so by Equitable. Each estoppel letter provided for above shall be dated no earlier than 45 days prior to the Closing Date. If Equitable shall deliver to Purchaser 50 or more estoppel letters within five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing, Purchaser shall have the right, by giving notice to Equitable of its election to do so, to adjourn the Closing to a day which is the fifth (5th) Business Day after its receipt of the last such estoppel letter (or if such day is not a Business Day, to the next Business Day). The right provided for in the preceding sentence shall be exercisable by Purchaser notwithstanding the fact that Purchaser may have theretofore fully utilized its rights of adjournment under Section 5.01. For purposes of this Section 17.01, the term "Tenant" shall not include Tenants under Leases that are licenses and concession agreements which have original terms, as they may be extended by renewal rights, of less than six (6) months.

SECTION 17.02. Seller's Estoppels. If Equitable shall be unable to obtain one or more of the estoppel letters which Equitable is obligated to deliver to Purchaser pursuant to Section 17.01, if Purchaser so agrees in its sole discretion Equitable may deliver to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall accept in lieu thereof, an estoppel letter signed by Equitable in the applicable form annexed hereto as Exhibit R ("Seller's Estoppel Letter") with respect to each of the parties from which it has not obtained an estoppel letter. Statements made by Equitable in a Seller's Estoppel Letter shall constitute warranties and representations by Equitable which shall survive the Closing for the period, and shall otherwise be subject to the limitations, set forth in Section 8.06. A Seller's Estoppel Letter shall be of no further force or effect as of the date on which there is delivered to Purchaser an estoppel letter from the party in respect of which such Seller's Estoppel Letter was given, but only to the extent that the estoppel letter executed by such party confirms the statements made in such Seller's Estoppel Letter. Except as otherwise provided in the following sentence, nothing contained in this Section 17.02 shall be construed as affording Equitable the right to substitute a Seller's Estoppel Letter for any estoppel letter required under this Article unless Purchaser agrees, in its sole discretion, to accept the same in lieu of the required estoppel letter. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 17.02, if Equitable shall obtain estoppel letters from at least 70%, but less than 75%, of the Tenants at the Mall of the nature specified in Section 17.01(b), Seller may deliver to Purchaser one or more Seller's Estoppel Letters in respect of any such Tenant or Tenants at the Mall which has or have not executed and delivered estoppel letter(s) and, for the purposes of satisfying the 75% requirement set forth in Section 17.01(b), each such Seller's Estoppel Letter shall be deemed to be an estoppel letter which has been executed and delivered by such a Tenant at the Mall.

SECTION 17.03. Variance between Estoppels and Forms Annexed as Exhibits. Equitable shall not be in default under this Agreement if one or more estoppel letters signed by Anchors, other Tenants or other third parties set forth allegations or facts at variance with statements in the forms annexed hereto as exhibits, but it shall be a condition to Purchaser's obligation to close the transactions provided for herein that such estoppel letters, taken as a whole, do not reveal facts which, in the commercially reasonable judgment of Purchaser, have a material adverse effect on the value of the Mall.

SECTION 17.04. All Estoppels To Be Delivered. Equitable agrees that notwithstanding the fact that estoppel letters are required from only 75% of the Tenants specified in clause (b) of Section 17.01, Equitable will request all Tenants (other than Anchors) to execute estoppel letters in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit Q. Equitable further agrees that all Estoppels received by it will be delivered to Purchaser promptly after receipt, whether or not such estoppels are required in order to satisfy any of the requirements of this Article XVII and whether or not such estoppels are received before or after the Closing. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall survive the Closing.

ARTICLE XVIII

Notices

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all notices, demands, requests, consents, approvals or other communications which are required or permitted to be given under this Agreement or which either party desires to give with respect to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered by hand or sent by telecopy (with the original sent by first-class mail, postage prepaid), or sent postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by reputable overnight courier service addressed to the party to be notified as follows (or to such other address as such party shall have specified at least ten (10) days prior thereto by like notice) and shall be deemed given when so delivered by hand or telecopied, and if mailed, three (3) Business Days after mailing (one (1) Business Day in case of overnight courier service), as follows:

Further Assurances

Each of Equitable and Purchaser agrees, at any time and from time to time after the Closing, to execute, acknowledge, where appropriate, and deliver such further instruments and documents and to take such other action as the other party may reasonably request in order to carry out the intents and purposes of this Agreement, provided that such request is made by notice given within two (2) years after the Closing Date. If required by the other party, the party making the request will bear the reasonable cost involved. Neither party shall be required to execute any instrument or document pursuant to this Article XIX which would increase the liability or obligations of such party over that provided for in this Agreement and the instruments and documents executed by such party pursuant hereto in any material respect. The provisions of this Article XIX shall survive the Closing.

ARTICLE XX

Captions

The article and section titles or captions in this Agreement and the Table of Contents and the Schedule of Exhibits prefixed hereto are for convenience only and shall not be deemed to be part of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXI

Governing Law; Construction

This Agreement shall be construed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts negotiated, executed and to be performed wholly within such State; provided, however, that matters relating to title to the Mall or instruments conveying or affecting such title shall be governed by the laws of the State of Georgia. Each party hereto acknowledges that it was represented by counsel in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein, that it and its counsel reviewed and participated in the preparation and negotiation of this Agreement and the documents and instruments to be delivered hereunder, and that any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party shall not be employed in the interpretation of this Agreement or the documents and instruments to be delivered hereunder.

ARTICLE XXII

Entire Agreement;
No Third Party Beneficiary, etc.

This Agreement, including all Exhibits, contains the entire Agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior understandings, if any, with respect thereto. The parties have made no representations with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and have given no warranties with respect to the subject matter hereof except as expressly provided herein and/or expressly provided in the documents delivered at Closing. This Agreement may not be modified, changed, supplemented or terminated, nor may any obligations hereunder be waived, except by written instrument signed by the party to be charged or by its agent duly authorized in writing or as otherwise expressly permitted herein. The parties do not intend to confer any benefit hereunder on any person, firm, corporation or other entity other than the parties hereto and their permitted assigns. The provisions of this Article XXII shall survive the Closing or termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXIII

Waivers; Extensions

No waiver of any breach of any Agreement or provision herein contained shall be deemed a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach thereof or of any other Agreement or provision herein contained. No extension of time for performance of any obligations or acts shall be deemed an extension of the time for performance of any other obligations or acts. Whenever in this Agreement it is provided that a document, such as an estoppel letter or good standing certificate, must be dated within a specified number of days prior to the Closing Date, the reference to be December 12, 1997 and not any date to which such Closing Date may be adjourned pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement or by Agreement of the parties hereto. The provisions of this Article XXIII shall survive the Closing or termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXIV

Pronouns

All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, as the identity of the parties may require.

ARTICLE XXV

Transaction Expenses; Other Expenses; Confidentiality; Indemnity

SECTION 25.01. Transaction Expenses. Each of Equitable and Purchaser shall pay 50% of the cost of updating the existing survey of the Mall described in Section 4.01(d), the cost of title insurance ordered by the Purchaser and all endorsements, extended coverage, affirmative insurance and all reinsurance or coinsurance costs in connection therewith (including reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with any legal opinions necessary to obtain the zoning endorsement contemplated by Section 11.05) and all recording fees and charges, transfer taxes payable in connection with the Deeds and transfer of title to the Mall and all sales or similar taxes, if any, on the transfer of the Personal Property and the Intangible Personal Property; provided, however, that Equitable shall pay 100% of any and all recording fees and charges for documents required to remove exceptions to title which do not constitute Permitted Exceptions and/or the cost of causing the Title Company to insure over any such exceptions that Purchaser has agreed in writing may be insured over or that are insured over in accordance with Section 14.01. Equitable shall pay 100% of the fees of the Broker.

SECTION 25.02. Other Expenses. Subject to Section 25.01, each party shall pay its own expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement, including the fees, disbursements and charges of its own counsel, accountants, consultants, experts and other advisors in connection with the negotiation and preparation of this Agreement and the Closing.

SECTION 25.03. Confidentiality. Neither Seller nor Purchaser (nor any officer, director, trustee, employee, agent, partner, member or affiliate thereof) shall disclose the existence or contents of this Agreement to any third party without the consent of both of the parties hereto. Prior to the Closing, all information respecting the Mall or Seller's operations or business (including documents, records, analyses, or other data or materials) either furnished to Purchaser or disclosed by Purchaser's due diligence (including all materials prepared by Purchaser based on such information) will be treated confidentially by Purchaser. If the transaction contemplated herein is terminated or does not close, Purchaser will promptly upon Seller's request either deliver all such information to Seller or destroy all such information (without retaining copies thereof) and shall certify in writing to Equitable that it has done so. Nothing contained in this Section shall limit the ability of either party (a) to disclose such information as may be required by law or (b) to disclose information to a party's (or in the case of Purchaser, Corporate Property Investors') partners, officers, shareholders, pension plan participants, trustees, directors, employees, lenders, rating agencies, accountants and lawyers and to other parties who reasonably need to be informed of such matters by a party hereto in order to evaluate the acquisition contemplated herein (but only to the extent necessary in connection therewith). All persons or entities to whom any information which is confidential hereunder is disclosed will first be informed of the confidential nature thereof and shall be instructed to keep such information confidential. No advertisement or other publicity concerning this transaction (including, without limitation, any tombstones or similar advertisements) will be made or disseminated by any party or any broker, and no evidence of or information with respect to the Purchase Price shall be (i) disclosed to third parties except as set forth above or (ii) placed of record in a deed or other instrument unless required by law, in the case of any period before the Closing hereunder without both parties' consent, or in the case of any period after the Closing hereunder, without Purchaser's consent (which consent may be withheld in any such party's sole discretion). Notwithstanding the foregoing, after the Closing, Seller may place tombstone or similar advertisements concerning the transaction contemplated by this Agreement, provided that such tombstone or similar advertisement is prepared in reasonable consultation with Purchaser.

SECTION 25.04. Indemnity. (a) Seller hereby indemnifies Purchaser (and its affiliates) for, and holds Purchaser (and its affiliates) harmless from and against, all costs, losses, damages, penalties, liabilities and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements (collectively, "Losses"), actually imposed upon or incurred by Purchaser (or any affiliate thereof) by reason of claims made by any person or entity for personal injury, death or property damage that arise from actions or omissions of Seller (or any of Seller's agents, employees or representatives) relating to the Mall and occurring prior to the Closing Date.

(b) Purchaser hereby indemnifies Seller (and its affiliates) for, and holds Seller (and its affiliates) harmless from and against, all Losses actually imposed upon or incurred by Seller (or any affiliate thereof) by reason of claims made by any person or entity for personal injury, death or property damage that arise from actions or omissions of Purchaser (or any of Purchaser's agents, employees or representatives) relating to the Mall and occurring on or after the Closing Date.

SECTION 25.05. Survival. The provisions of this Article XXV shall survive the Closing or termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXVI

Assignment

Purchaser shall not, without the prior written consent of Equitable, assign this Agreement or its rights hereunder, in whole or in part, to any other person or entity other than to one or more entities controlled by Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust.

ARTICLE XXVII

Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which (or any combination of which, signed by all of the parties) shall be deemed an original, but all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same instrument.

ARTICLE XXVIII

No Recording

The parties agree that neither this Agreement nor any memorandum or notice hereof shall be recorded or filed in any public records. If Purchaser violates the terms of this Article, Equitable, in addition to any other rights or remedies it may have, may immediately terminate this Agreement by giving notice to Purchaser of its election so to do and, in the event of such termination, Equitable shall be entitled to receive the Deposit from the Escrow Agent as liquidated damages for Purchaser's breach. The provisions of this Article shall not be construed as preventing Purchaser from filing a lis pendens against the Mall in the event it institutes any litigation against Equitable with respect to the transaction provided for herein and, under applicable law, it is entitled to file such lis pendens. The provisions of this Article shall survive the Closing or any termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXIX

Prevailing Party's Attorneys' Fees

In connection with any litigation, including appellate proceedings, initiated by a party hereto against the other party hereto and arising out of this Agreement or any instrument or document executed pursuant hereto, the party adjudicated to be the substantially prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements from the other party. The provisions of this Article shall survive the Closing or the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXX

Waiver of Trail by Jury

Equitable and Purchaser waive any right to trial by jury of any claim arising under or with respect to this Agreement, whether now existing or hereafter arising. Equitable and Purchaser hereby agree that any such claim shall be decided by a court trial without a jury and that any party hereto may file an original counterpart or a copy of this Section with any court as written evidence of the consent of the other party hereto to waiver of its right to trial by jury.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

The words "include" and "including" shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase "without limitation" when such phrase does not otherwise appear. The terms "herein", "hereof" and "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular section, paragraph or subdivision. The article and section titles appear as a matter of convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement. All article, section, paragraph, clause, exhibit or schedule references not attributed to a particular document shall be references to such parts of this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

Agreement to Sell and Purchase the Mall

Upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Seller agrees to sell and convey all of Seller's rights, title and interest in and to the Mall to Purchaser and Purchaser agrees to purchase all of Seller's right, title and interest in and to the Mall from Seller. Seller shall convey and Purchaser shall accept fee simple title to the Property in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, subject only to the Permitted Encumbrances.

ARTICLE III

Purchase Price, Deposits and Escrow

The purchase price which the Purchaser agrees to pay and the Seller agrees to accept for the Property shall be the sum of Eighty One Million Dollars ($81,000,000.00) (hereinafter referred to as the "Purchase Price"), payable as follows:

(a) On or before January 6, 1998, Purchaser shall deliver to Escrow Agent an irrevocable letter of credit in the stated amount of One Million Six Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars ($1,660,000), having terms and conditions (including the issuer thereof and the expiry date thereof) satisfactory in all respects to Seller (the "Letter of Credit"). The Letter of Credit, together with the proceeds of any drawing thereunder, is sometimes referred to in this Agreement as the "Deposit".

(b) The Purchase Price, plus or minus adjustments and credits provided for in Article VI and any other applicable provisions of this Agreement, shall be paid by Purchaser to Seller at the time of Closing by wire transfer of immediately available Federal funds through the Escrow Holder, with the transfer of funds to an account to be designated by Seller to be completed by 2:00 p.m. on the Closing Date.

In addition to the Deposit, Purchaser shall deposit three (3) fully executed copies of this Agreement with the Escrow Holder immediately after both parties have executed it. The Escrow Holder shall retain one copy of this Agreement and deliver one copy hereof to each of Purchaser and Seller. The parties acknowledge that (i) Escrow Holder is acting solely as a stakeholder at their request and for their convenience, (ii) Escrow Holder shall not be deemed to be the agent of either of the parties and (iii) Escrow Holder shall have no liability to any party on account of its failure to disburse the Deposit (beyond disbursing the Deposit and any earnings thereon as directed by the parties or a court of competent jurisdiction). As between Escrow Holder on the one hand, and Seller and Purchaser on the other hand, Seller and Purchaser shall jointly and severally indemnify and hold Escrow Holder harmless from and against all costs, claims and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in connection with the performance of Escrow Holder's duties hereunder, except with respect to actions or omissions taken or permitted by Escrow Holder in disregard of this Agreement or involving bad faith or negligence on the part of the Escrow Holder. As between Seller and Purchaser, the prevailing party in any dispute concerning the Deposit shall be indemnified and held harmless from payments due to the Escrow Holder under the preceding sentence.

ARTICLE IV

Failure to Close

SECTION 4.01. Purchaser's Default. (a) If Seller has complied with all of the covenants and conditions contained herein in all material respects and Purchaser fails to consummate this Agreement and take title by reason of a default on Purchaser's part, then the parties hereto recognize and agree that the damages that Seller will sustain as a result thereof will be substantial, but difficult if not impossible to ascertain. Therefore, the parties agree that, in the event of Purchaser's default as aforesaid, Seller shall, as its sole remedy, first demand payment from Purchaser in an amount equal to the Deposit as liquidated damages (in which event, following full payment, the Letter of Credit shall be returned to Purchaser), and if Seller has not received such amount by the earlier of five days after Seller's demand or the day prior to the expiry date of the Letter of Credit, then Seller shall be entitled to direct the Escrow Agent to draw under the Letter of Credit in the full amount thereof and pay the proceeds of such drawing to the Seller plus interest earned thereon, if any, as liquidated damages, and after such payment or drawing neither party shall have any further rights or obligations with respect to the other under this Agreement, except for the Surviving Covenants. Seller acknowledges and agrees (1) that the Deposit plus interest earned thereon is a reasonable estimate of and bears a reasonable relationship to the damages that would be suffered and costs incurred by Seller as a result of having withdrawn the Property from sale and the failure of closing to occur due to a default by Purchaser under this Agreement and (2) Purchaser seeks to limit its liability under this Agreement to the amount of the Deposit plus interest earned thereon in the event this Agreement is terminated and the transaction contemplated by this Agreement does not close due to a default by Purchaser hereunder.

(b) In the event that after the Closing Date (i) Purchaser is in default in the payment of any monetary obligation hereunder which continues for more than ten days or (ii) is in default in the performance of any other obligation hereunder which continues for more than 45 days, then Seller may seek damages (but excluding consequential damages) from Purchaser.

SECTION 4.02. Seller's Default. In the event that Purchaser has complied with all of the covenants and conditions contained herein and is ready, willing and able to take title to the Property in accordance with this Agreement, and Seller defaults in performance of its obligations in any material respect hereunder and fails to consummate this Agreement, then Purchaser shall be entitled to pursue, at its election, one of the following as its sole and exclusive remedy: (i) terminate this Agreement and recover the Deposit plus any interest accrued thereon, (ii) not terminate this Agreement and seek specific performance of this Agreement or (iii) in the case of prior sale or mortgaging of the Mall to any person or entity (other than Purchaser or its successors or assigns) in breach of this Agreement, seek damages (but excluding consequential damages) but only if Purchaser has theretofore brought an action seeking specific performance of Seller's obligations under this Agreement within six months after such prior sale or mortgaging. Except as provided in the preceding clause (iii), Purchaser hereby waives any right to sue Seller for damages (including consequential damages) for any default by Seller hereunder, but if the Closing occurs, subject to the provisions of Sections 10.06 and 10.07, such waiver shall not apply to damages to which Purchaser may be entitled hereunder by reason of any breach by Seller of any of its warranties or representations hereunder which survive the Closing.

SECTION 4.03. Survival. The provisions of this Article IV shall be Surviving Covenants.

ARTICLE V

(l) an affidavit that Seller is not a "foreign person" in the form attached as Exhibit O;

(m) a master key or duplicate key for all locks in the Improvements;

(n) such title affidavits and other customary documents are reasonably requested by the Title Company to issue the owner's title policy described in paragraph (g) above;

(o) an executed original of the closing statement in form and substance mutually agreeable to Seller and Purchaser;

(p) evidence of termination of the Management Agreement and all other agreements encumbering the Mall other than the Leases, the Operating Agreements and the Other Agreements; and

(q) a certificate of Seller certifying to Purchaser that, subject to Sections 10.06 and 10.07, the representations and warranties of Seller set forth herein are true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing Date as if made on such date.

SECTION 5.03. Purchaser's Performance. At the Closing, Purchaser will cause the Purchase Price to be paid to Seller, will execute and deliver the Tenant Notices, the Assignment and Assumption of Leases, the Assignment and Assumption of Other Agreements, the Assignment and Assumption of Operating Agreements and the Bill of Sale. Both parties will execute and deliver such Prorations of Rents, Taxes, Etc.

At the Closing (except where a later date is specifically provided for in this Article), the parties hereto shall adjust the items set forth below as of 11:59 p.m. on the day preceding the Closing Date (the "Adjustment Point"), and the net amount thereof shall be paid by Purchaser to Seller, or credited by Seller to Purchaser, as the case may be, at the Closing.

SECTION 6.01. Rents; Rents as and when Collected. Rents shall be apportioned as and when collected. Any Rents collected by Purchaser (which, for purposes of this Section 6.01, shall include Rents collected by any property manager or other agent acting for Purchaser) subsequent to the Closing (whether due and payable prior to or subsequent to the Adjustment Point) shall be adjusted as of the Adjustment Point, and any portion thereof properly allocable to periods prior to the Adjustment Point, net of costs of collection properly allocable thereto, if any, shall be paid by Purchaser to Seller promptly after the collection thereof by Purchaser, but subject to the further provisions of this Section 6.01 in the case of Rents due prior to the Adjustment Point. If prior to the Closing Seller shall have collected, or if subsequent to the Closing Seller shall collect, any Rents (which, for the purposes of this Section 6.01, shall include Rents collected by any property manager or other agent acting for Seller) which are properly allocable in whole or in part to periods subsequent to the Adjustment Point, the portion thereof so allocable to periods subsequent to the Adjustment Point net of costs of collection properly allocable thereto, if any, shall be credited to Purchaser by Seller at the Closing or, if collected after the Closing, promptly remitted by Seller to Purchaser. As used in this Section 6.01 the term "cost of collection" shall mean and include reasonable attorneys' fees, a reasonable allocation of Seller's internal collection costs and other costs incurred by Purchaser or Seller in collecting any Rents, but shall not include (1) the regular fees payable to any property manager for the Mall or (2) except for a reasonable allocation of Seller's internal collection costs, the payroll costs of any employees of Seller, Purchaser or its or their affiliates or agents or any other internal costs or overhead of Seller or Purchaser.

6.1.1 One week prior to the Closing Seller shall deliver to Purchaser (x) a list of all Tenants and Adjoining Owners which are delinquent in payment of Rents as of such date, which list shall set forth the amount of each such delinquency, whether such delinquency is (i) under 30 days, (ii) between 31 days and 60 days, (iii) between 61 days and 90 days or (iv) over 90 days and the nature of the amount due, and (y) a list of each Tenant and Adjoining Owner which paid percentage or overage rent based on sales or gross income during the fiscal year in which the Closing Date occurs and the amount so paid by each such Tenant or Adjoining Owner through the Adjustment Point. All amounts collected by Purchaser from each delinquent Tenant or Adjoining Owner within 30 days after the Closing, net of costs of collection, if any, shall be deemed to be in payment of Rents (or the specific components of Rents) for the month in which the Closing occurs, next in payment of Rents (or the specific components of Rents) then due on account of any month after the month in which the Closing occurs and finally in payment of delinquent Rents (or the specific components of Rents) which are in arrears as of the first day of the month in which the Closing occurs, as set forth on such list. All amounts collected by Purchaser from each delinquent Tenant or Adjoining Owner more than 30 days after the Closing, net of costs of collection, if any, shall be deemed to be in payment of Rents (or the specific components of Rents) then due on account of each month after the month in which the Closing occurs, next in payment of Rents (or the specific components of Rents) due for the months in which the Closing occurs and finally in payment of delinquent Rents (or the specific components of Rents) which are in arrears as of the first day of the month in which the Closing occurs, as set forth on the aforesaid list. Any amounts collected by Purchaser from each delinquent Tenant or Adjoining Owner which, in accordance with the preceding two sentences, are allocable to the month in which the Closing occurs (as adjusted as of the Adjustment Point) or any prior month, net of costs of collection properly allocable thereto, if any, shall be paid promptly by Purchaser to Seller.

6.1.2 Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to bill and collect any delinquencies set forth on the list delivered by Seller pursuant to subsection 6.1.1 for a period of one (1) year after the Closing and the amount thereof, as, when and to the extent collected by Purchaser, shall, if due to Seller pursuant to the provisions of subsection 6.1.1, be paid by Purchaser to Seller, net of costs of collection, if any, properly allocable thereto, promptly after the collection thereof by Purchaser. In no event shall Purchaser be obligated to institute any actions or proceedings or to seek the eviction of any Tenant or Adjoining Owner in order to collect any such delinquencies.

6.1.3 Following the Closing and upon Seller's written request, Purchaser shall submit or cause to be submitted to Seller, within 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter up to and including the calendar quarter ending on March 31, 1999, but only so long as any delinquencies shall be owed to Seller, a statement which sets forth all collections made by Purchaser from the Tenants and Adjoining Owners which owe such delinquencies through the end of such calendar quarter. Seller shall have the right from time to time following the Closing until 90 days after receipt by Seller of the last quarterly statement required hereunder, at Seller's expense, to examine and audit so much of the books and records of Purchaser as relate to such delinquencies in order to verify the collections reported by Purchaser in such quarterly statements.

6.1.4 Nothing contained in this Section 6.01 shall be deemed to prohibit Seller, at its own expense, from instituting after the Closing any actions or proceedings in its own name against any Tenant or Adjoining Owner that is delinquent in the payment of $5,000 or more to Seller in order to collect the amount of any delinquencies due in whole or in part to Seller from such Tenant or Adjoining Owner; provided, however, that in no event shall (1) Seller be entitled in any such action or proceeding to seek to evict any Tenant or Adjoining Owner or to recover possession of its space or (2) Seller be entitled to initiate or participate in any involuntary bankruptcy or similar proceeding against any Tenant or Adjoining Owner. Purchaser agrees not to waive or settle any delinquency owed in whole or in part to Seller without the prior written consent of Seller, which consent may be granted or withheld in Seller's sole discretion.

6.1.5 With respect to that portion of the Rents which constitute percentage or overage rents, or other amounts payable by Tenants based upon the sales or gross receipts of such entities, the following shall apply: (i) at the Closing and/or, in the case of percentage or overage rents which are in arrears or are payable in other than monthly installments, subsequent to the Closing, percentage or overage rents shall be apportioned as provided in the other subsections of this Section 6.01 in the case of Rents generally; and (ii) following the end of the fiscal year on account of which such percentage or overage rents are payable by each Tenant and receipt by Purchaser of any final payment on account thereof due from such Tenant (including, without limitation, any amount due as a result of an audit conducted by Seller or Purchaser), Purchaser shall pay to Seller, net of costs of collection and audit, if any, the excess, if any, of (x) the amount of percentage or overage rents paid by such Tenant on account of such entire fiscal year multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months (including any fraction of a month expressed as a fraction) of such fiscal year prior to the Adjustment Point and the denominator of which is 12 or such lesser number of months (including any fraction of a month expressed as a fraction) as may have elapsed in such fiscal year prior to the expiration of the Lease in question over (y) all amounts theretofore received by Seller on account of the percentage or overage rents in question for such fiscal year. If in any case the amount provided for in (y) above exceeds the amount provided for in (x) above, Seller shall pay the amount of such excess to Purchaser upon demand. If on the Closing Date Seller shall be conducting any audits of payments of percentage or overage rents previously made by Tenants for fiscal years prior to the ones in effect on the Closing Date, Seller shall have the right to continue all such audits until completion thereof and to collect and retain any amounts payable to Seller hereunder by reason thereof. A schedule of all such audits in progress at the date hereof is annexed hereto as Exhibit U. In addition, Seller shall have the right to initiate any such audit within six months subsequent to the Closing.

6.1.6 With respect to that portion of Rents which are payable on an annual, semi-annual or other non-monthly basis, Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to bill and collect all such payments which become due after the Closing, which payments, to the extent allocable to periods prior to the Adjustment Period, shall be paid by Purchaser to Seller promptly after receipt thereof, subject to costs of collection, if any, properly allocable thereto. With respect to that portion of Rents that are attributable to payment of expenses such as common area/mall maintenance charges, merchants' or other association charges or advertising and promotional charges, such Rents shall be apportioned based upon which party paid or will pay the correlating expenses for the relevant period. With respect to that portion of Rents which are billed on an index-based formula or on an estimated basis during the fiscal or other period for which paid, at the end of such fiscal or other period Purchaser shall determine whether the items in question have been overbilled or underbilled. If Purchaser determines that there has been an overbilling and an overbilled amount has been received, Seller shall, promptly after request by Purchaser, pay to Purchaser the portion of such overbilled amount which is allocable (as provided for such Rent in this Section 6.01) to the period prior to the Adjustment Point, and promptly thereafter Purchaser shall reimburse the entire overbilled amount to the Tenants which paid the same. If Purchaser determines that there has been an underbilling, the additional amount shall be billed by Purchaser to the Tenants, and any amount received by Purchaser, net of costs of collection, if any, to the extent allocable (as provided for such Rent in this Section 6.01) to periods prior to the Adjustment Point shall promptly be paid by Purchaser to Seller.

6.1.7 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 6.01, Seller shall be entitled to receive, and Purchaser shall pay to Seller promptly after the receipt thereof, net of costs of collection, if any, properly allocable thereto, (i) all amounts payable by Tenants on account of Impositions which, pursuant to the terms of Section 6.02, it is Seller's obligation to pay and discharge, which amounts shall be apportioned between Seller and Purchaser in the same manner as the Impositions to which they relate and (ii) all amounts payable by Tenants on account of utilities which, pursuant to the terms of Section 6.02, it is Seller's obligation to pay and discharge, which amounts shall be apportioned between Seller and Purchaser in the same manner as the utilities to which they relate.

6.1.8 Any advance rental deposits or payments held by Seller on the Closing Date and applicable to periods of time subsequent to the Adjustment Point, and any security deposits held by Seller on the Closing Date, together with interest thereon, if any, which, under the terms of the applicable Leases, is payable to the Tenants thereunder, shall be paid or credited to Purchaser at the Closing.

SECTION 6.02. Additional Items. At the Closing, the following additional items shall be apportioned between the parties hereto as of the Adjustment Point, with Seller to be obligated for or entitled to amounts apportioned to the period through the Adjustment Point and Purchaser to be obligated for or entitled to amounts apportioned to the period following the Adjustment Point:

6.2.1 Impositions payable by Seller in respect of the Mall in the calendar year 1998 regardless of the valuation date or lien affixation date associated with such payments. In the case of special assessments payable in installments specified in Exhibit W attached hereto, the installment for the fiscal year in which the Closing Date occurs shall be apportioned as at the Adjustment Point and Purchaser shall be responsible for paying all subsequent installments thereof. If any Tenant in occupancy at the Closing Date or Adjoining Owner is obligated to pay any Impositions directly to the applicable taxing authority, such Impositions shall not be apportioned. Any refund obtained by either Seller or Purchaser of real estate taxes for which an apportionment is made pursuant to this subsection 6.2.1, net of the costs of obtaining such refund and the amount thereof payable to Tenants and Adjoining Owners, shall be apportioned as of the Adjustment Point.

6.2.2 Water and sewer charges, if any, payable by Seller on the basis of the period or periods for which the same are payable. If there are water meters at the Mall, Seller shall furnish readings to a date not more than thirty (30) days prior to the Closing Date, and the unfixed meter charges and the unfixed sewer charges, if any, based thereon for the intervening time shall be apportioned on the basis of such last readings. Any water and sewer charges payable by Tenants in occupancy on the Closing Date or Adjoining Owners directly to the equity or entities furnishing such services shall not be apportioned.

6.2.3 Utilities and fuel payable by Seller, including without limitation electricity and gas. Seller shall endeavor to have the meters for such utilities read the day on which the Adjustment Point occurs and will pay the bills rendered to it on the basis of such readings. If Seller does not obtain such a meter reading with respect to any such utility, the adjustment therefor shall be made on the basis of the most recently issued bills therefor which are based on meter readings not earlier than thirty (30) days prior to the Adjustment Point. Seller will receive a credit in the full amount of any cash security deposits held by any utility companies (with interest thereon, if any, in the amount accrued on such security deposits) and shall assign to Purchaser at the Closing all of Seller's right, title and interest in and to such security deposits. Purchaser will make its own arrangements for any security bonds required by any utility companies by Closing and Seller will be entitled to cancel any bonds previously furnished. If fuel oil, propane or other fuel is used at the Mall, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser at the Closing statements of the suppliers of such fuel dated within three days of the Adjustment Point setting forth the quantity of fuel on hand and the cost paid by Seller therefor, and Purchaser shall pay to Seller at the Closing the cost of such fuel (including taxes thereon, if any) as shown on such statements. Charges for any utilities payable by Tenants in occupancy on the Closing Date and Adjoining Owners directly to the utility companies furnishing the same shall not be apportioned.

6.2.4 Charges payable by Seller under the Other Agreements.

6.2.5 Contributions payable by Seller to merchants' and other associations, and to promotional activities at the Mall, including gift certificates.

6.2.6 Any other items of income or expense of the Mall, which, in accordance with generally accepted business practices, should be apportioned between Seller and Purchaser.

All prorated items that are not subject to an exact determination shall be estimated by the parties with prorations adjusted to actual within 60 days after the Closing. The provisions of this Article VI shall be Surviving Covenants.

ARTICLE VII

Loss due to Casualty or Condemnation

SECTION 7.01. Loss due to Condemnation. In the event of a condemnation of all or a Substantial Portion (as hereinafter defined) of the Land and Improvements which condemnation shall render a Substantial Portion of the Land and Improvements untenantable or results in the Property not having sufficient parking to comply with applicable law or the specific requirement of any Lease or Operating Agreement, Purchaser may, upon written notice to Seller given within ten (10) days of receipt of notice of such event, cancel this Agreement, in which event the Escrow Holder at Purchaser's request shall return the Deposit plus all interest earned thereon, this Agreement shall terminate and neither party shall have any rights or obligations hereunder except for the Surviving Covenants. In the event that Purchaser does not elect to terminate, or if the condemnation affects less than a Substantial Portion and does not affect the parking area in the manner described above, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, the Purchase Price shall not be reduced and Purchaser shall be entitled to an assignment of all of Seller's share of the condemnation award (net of (1) the costs of collection incurred to the Closing Date, if any, and (2) if the condemnation is temporary, the portion of such award, if any, attributable to the period from and after the Closing Date, after deducting therefrom reasonable expenditures made by Seller as a result of the related taking, but only to the extent such portion was paid to Seller prior to the Closing Date). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall be entitled to receive or retain out of such condemnation award any reasonable amounts expended by Seller to restore or protect the Mall. In no event shall Seller be obligated to repair or restore the Land or Improvements. For purposes of this Section 7.01, a Substantial Portion shall mean a condemnation of the Land and Improvements in excess of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) in value of the Property.

SECTION 7.02. Loss due to Casualty. In the event of Substantial Loss or Damage (as hereinafter defined) to the Land and Improvements by fire or other casualty, Purchaser, upon written notice to Seller given within ten (10) days of receipt of notice of such event, may cancel this Agreement in which event the Escrow Holder at Purchaser's request shall return the Deposit plus all interest earned thereon to Purchaser and this Agreement shall terminate and neither party shall have any rights or obligations hereunder except for the Surviving Covenants. In the event that Purchaser elects not to terminate, or if the casualty results in less than Substantial Loss or Damage, then this Agreement shall remain in full force, the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the amount of any deductible or co-payment amount under the related insurance policy, Purchaser shall be entitled to an assignment of all of the proceeds of Seller's fire or other casualty insurance and Seller shall have no obligation to repair or restore the Land or Improvements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall be entitled to receive or retain (i) out of such casualty insurance proceeds, any reasonable amounts expended by Seller to restore or protect the Mall and (ii) in the case of rental or business interruption proceeds allocable to periods prior to the Adjustment Point (apportioned consistent with Article VI), loss of rents by reason of the fire or other casualty suffered by Seller prior to the closing, which entitlement shall survive the Closing. At the time of any assignment of insurance proceeds in accordance with this Section, Seller shall notify Purchaser of any disputes between Seller and the insurance carrier related to the claim giving rise to such proceeds. Seller will reasonably cooperate with Purchaser in attempting to collect such proceeds from the insurance carrier and if, in the reasonable judgment of Purchaser, a collection action is necessary to obtain such proceeds, the reasonable costs of such collection action will be paid by Seller. For purposes of this Section 7.02, "Substantial Loss or Damage" shall mean loss or damage to the Property the cost for repair of which exceeds One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) of the value of the Property.

ARTICLE VIII

Maintenance of the Property

Between October 28, 1997 and the Closing, Seller shall operate and maintain the Property (or caused the Property to be operated and maintained) in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past procedures and practices heretofore followed in connection with the operation and maintenance of the Property.

Between October 28, 1997 and the Closing, Seller shall not intentionally cause any lien or other encumbrances to attach to the Property, other then the lien for taxes not yet due and payable or any liens which Seller is contesting in good faith (provided that all liens are released of record or are adequately insured by Closing), and Seller shall not (i) lease any portion of the Property, (ii) terminate any Lease, (iii) amend any Major Lease in any manner or amend any other Lease if the effect thereof would be to reduce the Rent payable thereunder, increase landlord's obligations in any material respect, give rise to an obligation by Purchaser to pay any amounts in accordance with the last paragraph of this Article or alter the use of the premises by the Tenant or (iv) terminate any Operating Agreement or any Lease without first obtaining Purchaser's written approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably denied or delayed. Purchaser shall have ten (10) days from the date Seller provides Purchaser with written notice of the business terms of the new lease, or modification or termination of any existing lease, together with any information reasonably requested by Purchaser regarding such tenant, to approve or reject such lease, modification or termination. If Purchaser fails to respond within said time period, it shall be deemed to approve said lease, modification or termination, as applicable.

Seller hereby agrees that it will be solely responsible for paying all tenant improvement costs and leasing commissions incurred in connection with any Lease entered into prior to October 28, 1997, whether such costs or commissions are due and payable prior to or after the Closing Date whether or not conditional as of the Closing Date upon subsequent extension or renewal and Purchaser hereby agrees that it will be solely responsible for paying all tenant improvement costs and leasing commissions incurred in connection with any Leases entered into on or subsequent to October 28, 1997, whether such costs or commissions are due and payable prior to or after the Closing Date. The obligations of Seller under this Article VIII shall be Surviving Covenants.

Broker

Seller and Purchaser each represent to the other that it has dealt with no agent or broker who in any way has participated as a procuring cause of the sale of the Property. Each party agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the other party for any and all judgments, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and other reasonable expenses which the other may incur by reason of any action or claim against such party or the Property by any broker, agent, or finder with whom the indemnifying party has dealt arising out of this Agreement or any subsequent sale of the Property. The provisions of this Article IX shall be Surviving Covenants hereunder and shall survive the Closing and any termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE X

Representations and Warranties

SECTION 10.01. Representations and Warranties of Seller. Seller makes the following representations and warranties and agrees that Purchaser's obligations under this Agreement are conditioned upon the truth and accuracy of such representations and warranties in all material respects, both as of this date and as of the date of the Closing, subject to those limitations set forth in this Article X or otherwise in this Agreement:

(a) (i) The Seller is not a party to, subject to or bound by any agreement, contract, permit or other restriction of any nature, or any judgment, order, statute, rule or regulation of any court, governmental body, administrative agency or arbitrator, or any legal proceeding which would prevent or be violated by, or under which there would be a default, or which would result in creation of or claim of any lien, charge, or encumbrance upon any of the Property as a result of any of the items set forth below; and (ii) no registration or consent of, or payment of any premium, fee or penalty to, any governmental authority or any other person or entity, which has not been obtained or paid, is required for or will arise out of any of the items set forth below:

(1) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement or any other agreements, obligations or instruments referred to herein or contemplated hereby; and

(2) the transfer and assignment to the Purchaser in accordance with this Agreement of the Property and any agreements and liabilities to which the Purchaser is taking subject or assuming pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) Seller is a business trust, organized, existing, and in good standing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and has all power and authority to conduct the business of the Property and to enter into and perform its obligations hereunder under the laws of the State of Minnesota.

(c) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transaction contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary parties and no other proceedings on the part of Seller are necessary in order to permit them to consummate the transaction contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Seller and (assuming valid execution and delivery by the Purchaser) is a legal, valid and binding obligation of Seller enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

(d) With respect to the Leases:

(i) Exhibit N annexed hereto is a list of all of the Leases in effect on the date of such exhibit. All of the information set forth on Exhibit N is true, correct and complete. As of the date of Exhibit N, there are no leases, licenses or other rights of occupancy or use of any portion of the Mall granted by Seller or its predecessors in title and remaining in effect as of the date of Exhibit N other than the Leases set forth in said Exhibit. Except as set forth in the estoppel certificates transmitted by a letter dated December 16, 1997 from Seller to Purchaser, none of the Leases has been modified, amended or supplemented (whether orally or in writing). No Tenant has any option to purchase the Mall or a right of first refusal in respect of the sale of the Mall to a third party and no Tenant has the right to purchase any portion of the Mall;

(ii) True, correct and complete copies of the Leases, and all amendments and supplements thereto, have heretofore been made available and/or delivered to Purchaser for review;

(iii) Exhibit P annexed hereto is a true, correct and complete list of Tenants that are delinquent in the payment of Rents as of the date of said schedule, which schedule sets forth the information specified in clause (x) of Section 6.1.1; and

(iv) Each of the Leases listed in Exhibit N is in full force and effect as of the date hereof. Seller has received no written notice from any Tenant under a Lease listed in Exhibit N which is still outstanding (x) that Seller has defaulted in performing any of its material obligations under such Lease or (y) that such Tenant is entitled to any reduction in, refund of or counterclaim or offset against, or is otherwise disputing, any Rents paid, payable or to become payable by such Tenant thereunder or is entitled to cancel or terminate such Lease or to be released of any of its material obligations thereunder, except as set forth in Exhibit N. With the exception of the delinquencies in the payment to Rents specified in Exhibit P annexed hereto, to Seller's knowledge no material default exists under any Lease by the Tenant thereunder. For purposes of this Section 10.01(d)(iv) the term "Lease" does not include licenses and concession agreements which have original terms, including rights to renew or extend, of less than six (6) months.

(e) With respect to the Operating Agreements:

(i) Exhibit C annexed hereto is a true, correct and complete list of all documents which comprise all of the Operating Agreements, setting forth the date of each such Operating Agreement and each amendment or supplement thereto and the names of the parties thereto;

(ii) True, correct and complete copies of the Operating Agreements and all amendments and supplements thereto have heretofore been made available and/or delivered to Purchaser for review;

(iii) Each Operating Agreement is in full force and effect as of the date hereof;

(iv) None of the Operating Agreements have been modified, amended or supplemented (whether orally or in writing) except as set forth in Exhibit C; and

(v) Seller has received no written notice from any party to an Operating Agreement which is still in effect (x) that Seller has defaulted in performing any of its obligations under such Operating Agreement or (y) that such party is entitled to any reduction in, refund of or counterclaim or offset against, or is otherwise disputing, any Rents paid, payable or to become payable thereunder by such party or is entitled to cancel or terminate such Operating Agreement or to be released of any of its material obligations thereunder, except as set forth in Exhibit M. Except as set forth on Exhibit P, to Seller's knowledge no material default exists under any Operating Agreement on the part of the other parties thereto. There are no obligations of Seller under or in respect of any of the Operating Agreements for leasing or similar commissions and there are no unperformed obligations for the performance of work (or payment of allowances in lieu thereof) in the nature of tenant alterations under such agreements.

(f) With respect to the Other Agreements:

(i) Exhibit D annexed hereto is a true, correct and complete list as of the date of such exhibit of all Other Agreements, setting forth, with respect to such

Other Agreements, the date thereof and of each amendment or supplement thereto, the name of each party thereto (other than Seller) and a brief description of the services provided thereunder or property covered thereby. Except as specifically identified in Exhibit D, each Other Agreement can be terminated by Purchaser on not more than thirty (30) days' notice without penalty;

(ii) True, correct and complete copies of the Other Agreements, and all amendments and supplements thereto, have heretofore been made available and/or delivered to Purchaser for review; and

(iii) To Seller's knowledge, each of the Other Agreements is in full force and effect on the date hereof, and Seller has received no written notice from any party to any Other Agreement which is still outstanding that Seller has defaulted in performing any of its obligations under such Other Agreement, except as set forth in Exhibit D. None of the Other Agreements listed on Exhibit D has heretofore been amended or supplemented (whether orally or in writing), except as set forth on Exhibit D.

(g) To Seller's knowledge, there is no condemnation proceeding pending with regard to all or any part of the Property and there is no such proceeding threatened or contemplated by any governmental authority.

(h) Seller has not received written notice of any violation of building, health, safety, pollution control, fire or similar law, ordinance, order or regulation respecting the Property which has not heretofore been complied with.

(i) There are no pending litigations or other proceedings against Seller affecting the Mall in respect of which Seller has been served with process or otherwise received written notice except for (i) claims for death, personal injury, property damage or worker's compensation for which the insurance carrier has been notified on a timely basis and (ii) other litigations or proceedings shown on Exhibit Q annexed hereto. Seller has no knowledge of any threatened litigation or proceedings against Seller affecting the Mall except litigation of the nature described in clause (i) above.

(j) Seller is not a "foreign person" as defined in the Federal Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980 and the 1984 Tax Reform Act, as amended.

(k) The term "Hazardous Materials" means (i) toxic wastes, hazardous materials, hazardous substances or other substances which are defined, prohibited or regulated by, or listed in, any Federal, state or local law or regulation addressing environmental protection or pollution control matters, (ii) asbestos in friable condition or otherwise posing a threat to human health, (iii) polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) and (iv) oil, petroleum and their by-products. Except as may be specifically disclosed in the reports listed on Exhibit R or in any written environmental reports obtained by Purchaser, and except with respect to cleaning fluids and similar substances which may be used in the routine operation or maintenance of the Mall in accordance with Legal Requirements, (A) Seller has not itself caused any Hazardous Materials to be utilized or stored in or on the Mall, or to be disposed of thereat or therefrom, except in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws and (B) to Seller's knowledge, no Hazardous Materials are present in, on or under the Mall at levels or in quantities or amounts which would be in violation of, or would require investigation or cleanup under, applicable laws. Seller has not received any written notice from any Governmental Authority or other person or entity that any condition exists at the Mall which constitutes or has resulted in a violation of any Legal Requirement relating to Hazardous Materials or which requires investigation or cleanup under any such Legal Requirements, or that any claim has been or may be asserted against Seller by reason of any such violation.

(l) Seller has received a notice of proposed property taxes with respect to the Mall for 1998 of $3,967,482.58. There are no unpaid real estate taxes or special assessments with respect to the Mall except taxes not yet due and payable.

(m) The financial statements attached as Exhibit V hereto accurately and correctly reflect in all material respects the operation of the Mall for the periods covered thereby.

SECTION 10.02. Representations and Warranties of Purchaser. Purchaser makes the following representations and warranties and agrees that Seller's obligations under this Agreement are conditioned upon the truth and accuracy of such representations and warranties in all material respects, both as of this date and as of the date of Closing:

(a) Purchaser is a corporation organized, existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Wyoming, and has all power and authority to conduct the business of the Property and to enter into and perform its obligations hereunder under the laws of the State of Wyoming.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transaction contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary parties and no other proceedings on the part of Purchaser are necessary in order to permit them to consummate the transaction contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Purchaser and (assuming valid execution and delivery by the Seller) is a legal, valid and binding obligation of Purchaser enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

SECTION 10.03. No Implied Representations. Purchaser acknowledges that except as expressly set forth in this Agreement and in the documents and instruments delivered by Seller to Purchaser, neither Seller nor any agent or representative or purported agent or representative of Seller has made, and Seller is not liable for or bound in any manner by, any express or implied warranties, guarantees, promises, statements, inducements, representations or information (including any information set forth in offering materials heretofore furnished to Purchaser) pertaining to the Mall or any part thereof, the physical condition thereof, environmental matters, income, expenses or operation thereof or of the Personal Property or Intangible Personal Property, the uses which can be lawfully made of the same under applicable zoning or other laws or any other matter or thing with respect thereto, including, without limitation, any existing or prospective Leases, Operating Agreements or Other Agreements. Without limiting the foregoing, Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that, except as expressly set forth in this Agreement and in the documents and instruments delivered by Seller at the Closing, Seller is not liable for or bound by (and Purchaser has not relied upon) any verbal or written statements, representations, real estate brokers' "set-ups" or offering materials or any other information respecting the Mall furnished by Seller or any broker, employee, agent, consultant or other person representing or purportedly representing Seller. Nothing contained in this Section 10.03 shall be deemed to impair, limit or otherwise affect Purchaser's rights under this Agreement in respect of the representations, warranties and covenants of Seller set forth in this Agreement and the other provisions hereof binding upon Seller.

SECTION 10.04. "As-Is" Purchase. Purchaser represents that it has inspected the Mall, the physical and environmental condition and the uses thereof and the fixtures, equipment and Personal Property included in this sale to its satisfaction, that it has independently investigated, analyzed and appraised the value and profitability thereof, the creditworthiness of Tenants and Adjoining Owners and the presence of Hazardous Materials, if any, in or on the Mall, that it has received copies of and/or has reviewed the Leases, the Operating Agreements, the Other Agreements and all other documents referred to herein, that it is thoroughly acquainted with all of the foregoing and that Purchaser, in purchasing the Mall, will rely upon its own investigations, analyses, studies and appraisals and not upon any information provided to Purchaser by or on behalf of Seller with respect thereto (except in each case to the extent covered by any warranties or representations of Seller set forth in this Agreement, the Seller Estoppel or in any other document or instrument delivered by Seller in connection with the Closing). Purchaser agrees to accept the Mall "as is" and in its condition as at the date hereof, reasonable wear and tear and damage by fire or other casualty (subject to the provisions of Article VII) between the date hereof and the Closing Date excepted, and Purchaser shall assume the risk that adverse matters, including, but not limited to, construction defects and adverse physical and environmental conditions may not have been revealed by Purchaser's investigations; and Purchaser, upon closing, shall be deemed to have waived, relinquished and released Seller from and against any and all claims, demands, causes of action, losses, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and court costs) of any and every kind or character, known or unknown, which Purchaser might have asserted or alleged against Seller by reason of or arising out of any latent or patent construction defects or physical conditions, violations of applicable laws (including, without limitation, environmental laws) and any and all other acts, omissions, events, circumstances or matters with respect to the Mall, subject, however, to Purchaser's rights and remedies provided for in this Agreement in the event of the breach of any of Seller's warranties, representations or covenants contained herein, in Seller's estoppel certificate or in any other document or instrument delivered by Seller in connection with the Closing. Nothing contained in this Section 10.04 shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by Purchaser of its rights at law or in equity, if any (to the extent such rights are not limited under any other applicable provision of this Agreement), to seek contribution or other recourse against Seller in the event of a claim asserted against Purchaser by a third party with respect to liabilities arising from or relating to any circumstances or conditions which exist at or in respect of the Mall prior to the Closing. Nothing contained in this Section 10.04 shall be deemed to impair, limit or otherwise affect Purchaser's rights under this Agreement in respect of the representations, warranties and covenants of Seller set forth in this Agreement and the other provisions hereof binding on Seller. The provisions of this Section 10.04 shall survive the Closing.

SECTION 10.05. No Independent Investigation. All representations and warranties made herein by Seller which are based on Seller's knowledge are made, and are hereby acknowledged by the Purchaser to be made, without independent investigation regarding the facts contained therein, other than due inquiry of the Managing Agent for the Mall, and are otherwise limited as provided in the definition of "knowledge" or "notice".

SECTION 10.06. Effect of Estoppels. If prior to the Closing a Tenant or Adjoining Owner provides to Purchaser an estoppel letter addressed to Purchaser and delivered in response to a request made pursuant to this Agreement which sets forth information with respect to any item as to which Seller has made a representation or warranty or is otherwise set forth in the Seller Estoppel, then Seller's representation and warranty in respect of such information shall thereafter be null and void and of no further force or effect, such representation and warranty shall not be deemed to have been remade as of the Closing and Purchaser shall rely solely on the information set forth in such estoppel letter.

SECTION 10.07. Survival of Seller's Warranties, etc. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 10.06, all of Seller's representations and warranties contained in this Article X as remade as of the Closing as provided in Section 10.07(c) and subject to any modifications thereof made in any certificate provided for in said Section, and all certifications, representations and warranties made by Seller in the Seller Estoppel, shall survive until 14 months after the date of the Closing; provided, however, that (1) the representations and warranties set forth in Section 10.01(k) shall survive until 18 months after the date of the Closing and (2) Seller's liability for any breach of such warranties, representations and certifications shall not expire as to any breach or alleged breach thereof if notice of such breach or alleged breach is given by Purchaser to Seller prior to 14 months after the date of the Closing (or, in the case of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 10.01(k), 18 months after the date of the Closing) and, if such notice is given, legal proceedings are instituted in respect of such breach or alleged breach within one year after such notice is given.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Article X, Seller shall have no liability to Purchaser for breach of any warranty and representation set forth in this Article X or in the Seller Estoppel or for breach by Seller of any of its agreements set forth in Article VII unless and except to the extent that the damages due to Purchaser by reason of all such breaches exceed $50,000, and in no event shall Seller be liable to Purchaser for consequential damages in respect of any such breach. For purposes of determining whether the dollar figure set forth in the preceding sentence has been exceeded, Seller agrees that damages arising from a breach of any warranty or representation with respect to a Lease, Operating Agreement or Other Agreement shall be calculated over the entire term (without giving effect to unexercised renewals) of such Lease, Operating Agreement or Other Agreement.

(c) All of Seller's representations and warranties set forth in this Article X shall be deemed to have been remade on and as of the Closing Date, subject, however, to the provisions of Section 10.06 and facts disclosed on the updated Exhibits to this Agreement which are to be delivered by Seller to Purchaser at the Closing pursuant to Article V (which updated Exhibits, upon their delivery by Seller to Purchaser, shall for all purposes of this Agreement constitute the indicated Exhibit or a part thereof); provided, however, that if any matter or event shall have occurred between the date hereof and the date of the Closing which does not result from any intentional act or omission of Seller (other than one permitted under this Agreement), and which makes any such warranty or representation untrue in any material respect as of the Closing Date, Seller shall have the right to deliver a certificate to Purchaser at or prior to the Closing which discloses such matter or event, and if Seller does so, Seller shall not be liable to Purchaser following the Closing for the breach of the warranty or representation in question which results from the occurrence of such matter or thing, but in no event shall Purchaser be obligated to close hereunder unless the conditions precedent to Purchaser's obligation to close set forth in this Agreement (including in Section 5.02) shall have been fulfilled.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Article X or elsewhere in this Agreement, if prior to the Closing Purchaser has or obtains knowledge that any of Seller's warranties or representations set forth in this Article X or Seller's certifications, warranties or representations made in the Seller Estoppel, is untrue in any respect, and Purchaser nevertheless proceeds with the Closing, then the breach by Seller of the warranties, representations or certifications as to which Purchaser shall have such knowledge shall automatically be deemed waived by Purchaser and Seller shall have no liability to Purchaser or its successors or assigns in respect thereof. For the purposes of this Section 10.07(d), Purchaser shall be deemed to have or to have obtained knowledge of any such matter or thing only if such matter or thing (i) is set forth in any Lease, Operating Agreements, Other Agreement or estoppel certificate which (or a copy of which) is stated in this Agreement to have been delivered to and/or made available for review by Purchaser, (ii) was contained in any written studies or reports furnished to Purchaser by any third party consultants retained by it, (iii) was set forth in a letter, memorandum or other written communication from Purchaser's attorney to Purchaser in this transaction to Purchaser or (iv) was actually known (without independent investigation) by, or was contained in a written notice received by, John N. Foy or H. Jay Wiseman, Jr.

Indemnification

SECTION 11.01. Seller's Indemnification. Seller hereby indemnifies Purchaser (and its affiliates) for, and defends and holds Purchaser (and its affiliates) harmless from and against, all costs, losses, damages, penalties, liabilities and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements (collectively, "Losses"), actually imposed upon or incurred by Purchaser (or any affiliate thereof) by reason of claims accruing prior to the Closing Date that are made by any person or entity for personal injury, death or property damage relating to the Mall.

SECTION 11.02. Purchaser's Indemnification. Purchaser hereby indemnifies Seller (and its affiliates) for, and defends and holds Seller (and its affiliates) harmless from and against, all Losses actually imposed upon or incurred by Seller (or any affiliate thereof) by reason of claims accruing on or after the Closing Date made by any person or entity for personal injury, death or property damage.

SECTION 11.03. Surviving Covenants. The provisions of this Article XI shall be Surviving Covenants.

SECTION 11.04. No Limitations. Except as specifically limited herein, nothing contained in this Article XI is in any way intended to limit the rights of Seller or Purchaser to pursue any remedies as may exist at law or in equity against any unrelated third parties with respect to any liabilities covered by this Article XI.

ARTICLE XII

Inspection Period

Purchaser shall have until January 13, 1998 (the "Inspection Period") to (i) determine whether the aggregate annual income payable to the owner of the Property pursuant to the Leases and the Operating Agreements that does not qualify under the REIT income test set forth in Section 856(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, exceeds $100,000 and (ii) to conduct interviews of any and all tenants of the Property. If Purchaser shall determine in its sole discretion that the results of the determination described in (i) above are unsatisfactory or that the results of interviews conducted pursuant to (ii) above are unsatisfactory, in either such event prior to the end of the Inspection Period, Purchaser may elect to terminate this Agreement and abandon the transaction by written notice (a "Termination Notice") to Seller. Any Termination Notice shall include reasonable detail as to the nature of the conditions underlying Purchaser's determination. A Termination Notice shall automatically become effective to terminate this Agreement unless Seller, by delivery of written notice to Purchaser no more than three (3) Business Days following Purchaser's delivery of a Termination Notice, elects to suspend the effectiveness of any such Termination Notice by agreeing to cure all of the matters specified in such Termination Notice as the basis for Purchaser's termination within a period specified in such written notice, provided that (i) such specified period shall in no event be longer than 30 days and (ii) the matters specified in such Termination Notice could reasonably be expected to be cured in all material respects by Seller within such specified period. If such cure is not effected to Purchaser's satisfaction (as determined in Purchaser's sole discretion), as evidenced by a written acknowledgment of Purchaser, on or prior to the end of such 30-day period, the Termination Notice shall thereupon become automatically effective, this Agreement shall terminate without any further action of the parties hereto. Upon the effectiveness of any Termination Notice pursuant to this Article XII, the Deposit (including any interest earned thereon) shall be immediately returned to Purchaser by the Escrow Agent and Seller shall have no rights with respect thereto.

ARTICLE XIII

Within 45 days after the Closing Date, CPI shall prepare and deliver to Purchaser a statement (the "Statement") setting forth CPI's determination of the Total Working Capital Value, the Working Capital Value of each Partnership and the elements and calculation thereof, all as set forth in Schedule 1 hereto and consistent with the definitions related thereto, along with a Certificate of the Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer or Controller of CPI to the effect that the Statement was prepared substantially in accordance with the requirements therefor as provided herein. From the Closing Date through the date which is 30 days after receipt by the Purchaser of the Statement, CPI shall provide the Purchaser (and its representatives) with reasonable access to any books, records, working papers or other information reasonably necessary or useful in the preparation or calculation of the Statement or any Notice of Disagreement (as defined hereafter). The Statement shall become final and binding upon both parties hereto on the 31st day following delivery thereof to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser delivers written Notice of Disagreement (a "Notice of Disagreement") with the Statement to

CPI prior to such date. Any Notice of Disagreement shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of any disagreement so asserted and shall relate solely to the preparation of the Statement and the calculation of the Working Capital Values and the Total Working Capital Value.

SECTION 2.3.2. Disputes. If a Notice of Disagreement is received by CPI in a timely manner pursuant to Section 2.3.1, then the Total Working Capital Value set forth in the Statement, as adjusted pursuant hereto, shall become final and binding upon the parties hereto on the earlier of (i) the date Purchaser and CPI resolve, in writing, any differences they may have with respect to any matters specified in the Notice of Disagreement or (ii) the date any disputed matters are finally resolved in writing by the Arbitrator. During the 30-day period following the delivery of the Notice of Disagreement, CPI and the Purchaser shall seek in good faith to resolve, in writing, any differences which they may have with respect to any matter specified in the Notice of Disagreement and each shall provide the other (including any of their respective representatives) with reasonable access to any books, records, working papers or other information reasonably necessary or useful in the preparation or calculation of the Statement, any Notice of Disagreement, the Working Capital Values and the Total Working Capital Value or otherwise with respect to any thereof. At the end of such 30-day period, if there has been no resolution of the matters specified in the Notice of Disagreement, then CPI and the Purchaser shall submit to an arbitrator (the "Arbitrator") for review and resolution any and all matters (and only such matters) arising under this Section which remain in dispute. The Arbitrator shall be Arthur Andersen L.L.P., or if such firm is unable or unwilling to act, such other nationally recognized independent public accounting firm as shall be agreed upon, in writing, by CPI and the Purchaser. The Arbitrator shall render a decision resolving the matters submitted to the Arbitrator within 30 days following submission thereto. The costs of any arbitration (including the fees of the Arbitrator) shall be borne 50% by CPI and 50% by the Purchaser. Except as specified above, each

SECTION 2.3.3. Adjustment Mechanics. Within 7 days after the date that the Total Working Capital Value set forth in the Statement (as adjusted according to the procedures set forth in Section 2.3) becomes final and binding on the parties: (a) if the Total Working Capital Value is a positive number, then the number of Shares to be sold to, and purchased by, the Purchaser hereunder shall be increased by an amount equal to (i) the Total Working Capital Value (reduced by any amount paid pursuant to the proviso below) divided by (ii) the Purchase Price, and CPI shall deliver to the Purchaser a certificate, registered in the name of the Purchaser (or such other name as may be designated by the Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.2) representing such number of Shares (and, in connection therewith, CRC agrees to deliver to the Purchaser a number of CRC Shares equal to 10% of such number of Shares, which CRC Shares the Purchaser and CRC agree shall be issued directly to the trustee of the CRC Trust and deposited in the CRC Trust to be held thereafter for the ratable benefit of the holders of Common Shares pursuant to the terms of the CRC Trust Agreement); provided, however, that the Purchaser may elect, at its option, to receive up to $10,000,000 of the Total Working Capital Value in cash in lieu of all or any portion of the Shares otherwise deliverable pursuant to this Section 2.3.3(a), or

(b) if the Total Working Capital Value is a negative number, then the number of Shares sold to, and purchased by, the Purchaser hereunder shall be reduced by an amount equal to (i) the absolute value of the Total Working Capital Value divided by (ii) the Purchase Price, and the Purchaser shall deliver to CPI such number of Shares (and, in connection therewith, CPI and CRC shall cause a number of CRC Shares equal to 10% of such number of Shares to be withdrawn from the CRC Trust and delivered to CRC). In connection with any delivery of Shares by the Purchaser pursuant to this Section 2.3.3(b), the Purchaser shall deliver to CPI the certificate or certificates delivered pursuant to Section 2.2 hereof (together with an undated stock power executed in blank) and, upon receipt thereof, CPI shall deliver to the Purchaser one certificate, registered in the name of the Purchaser (or such other name as may be designated by the Purchaser pursuant to Section 2.2) representing 5,764,544 Shares less the number of Shares returned to CPI pursuant to this Section 2.3.3(b).

SECTION 2.4. Evaluation Material. CPI has delivered to the Purchaser its Annual Report for the year 1995, its Proxy Statement for the 1996 Annual Meeting of its shareholders and its Six Month Report for the six months ended June 30, 1996 (collectively called the "Evaluation Material").

(iv) the due execution and delivery by authorized representatives of CPI and CRC, respectively, of all instruments and documents signed by or on behalf of CPI and CRC and delivered to the Purchaser on the Closing Date.

(f) The purchase of and payment for the Shares to be purchased by the Purchaser on the Closing Date on the terms and conditions herein provided shall not violate any applicable law or governmental regulation and the Purchaser shall have received such certificates or other evidence as it may reasonably request to establish compliance with this condition.

(g) All proceedings in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and all documents and instruments incident to such transactions, shall be reasonably satisfactory in substance and form to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser shall have received all such counterpart originals or certified or other copies of such documents as the Purchaser may reasonably request.

SECTION 4. Covenants.

SECTION 4.1. CPI agrees with the Purchaser as follows:

SECTION 4.1.1 From the date of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement through the Closing Date, CPI shall not issue any Common Shares or Preference Shares by virtue of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, subdivision, declaration of a stock dividend or otherwise, except pursuant to plans, arrangements and agreements existing on the date hereof.

SECTION 4.1.2. CPI has not, either by itself or through any agent on its behalf, offered to sell any Common Shares, or solicited any offers to buy Common Shares and will not so offer or solicit offers, so as thereby to bring the issuance and sale of Shares pursuant to this Purchase and Exchange Agreement or any other securities in violation of the Securities Act, the Massachusetts Uniform Securities Act, the New Jersey Uniform Securities Law or the New York State Martin Act or any other state securities or real estate syndication or similar laws.

SECTION 4.1.3. Until a class of CPI's equity securities has been registered under Section 12 of the 1934 Act or CPI has become obligated to file reports under Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act, CPI shall, within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year of CPI, furnish to the Purchaser or any permitted transferee of the Shares, as long as it owns any Shares, the following statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied and reported upon by Ernst & Young LLP or such other independent public accountants of recognized standing as may be retained by CPI from time to time: (i) a balance sheet of CPI as of the end of such fiscal year and (ii) statements of income, cash flow and shareholders' equity for such fiscal year, in each case setting forth in comparative form the corresponding figures for the preceding fiscal year. Until a class of CPI's equity securities has been registered under Section 12 of the 1934 Act or CPI has become obligated to file reports under Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act, CPI shall, within 60 days after the close of each of the first three quarters of each fiscal year of CPI, furnish to the Purchaser or any permitted transferee of the Shares as long as it owns any Shares (1) a balance sheet of CPI as of the end of such quarter and (2) statements of income, cash flow and shareholders' equity for the portion of such fiscal year preceding the end of such quarter, in each case setting forth in comparative form the corresponding figures for the corresponding period of the preceding fiscal year.

SECTION 4.1.4. Until a class of CPI's equity securities has been registered under Section 12 of the 1934 Act or CPI has become obligated to file reports under Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act, CPI shall promptly furnish to the Purchaser or any transferee of the Shares such other information with respect to the finances, business, operations, affairs, prospects, condition, properties and assets of CPI and CRC as from time to time may be reasonably requested by the Purchaser or such transferee, it being understood that CPI shall determine whether or not any such request is reasonable, giving effect to all relevant circumstances.

SECTION 4.1.5. CPI will provide prior notice to the Purchaser of any change in the business of CPI or of any other event (including any issuance of securities of CPI, any acquisition or disposition or other material corporate event) which CPI, based upon its knowledge of Purchaser, believes would adversely affect the status under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") of the Purchaser's continued ownership of the Shares.

SECTION 4.1.6. From and after the Closing Date, CPI agrees (a) to consider the effects of any material acquisition of property, any material disposition of property or any material corporate reorganization upon CPI's status as a "real estate operating company" (a "REOC"), as defined in regulation 2910.3-101 of the United States Department of Labor promulgated under ERISA, prior to entering into any such transaction, (b) promptly to notify the Purchaser if CPI intends to consummate any such transaction that CPI reasonably believes would create a substantial risk that CPI no longer would qualify as a REOC,

(c) within 45 days after the end of any fiscal quarter of CPI with respect to which CPI reasonably believes that all or any portion of its dividends payable to Purchaser during such fiscal quarter would be treated as unrelated business taxable income pursuant to Section 856(h)(3)(C) of the Code, CPI shall deliver to the Purchaser a certificate of the Chief Financial Officer, Chief Accounting Officer, Treasurer or Controller of CPI setting forth such officer's reasonable estimate as to the amount of any such income and (d) to deliver to the Purchaser a copy of the annual opinion of counsel rendered to CPI with regard to CPI's status as a REOC promptly upon receipt thereof and to cause any such opinion expressly to permit the Purchaser's reliance thereon.

SECTION 4.1.7. Within 90 days after the Braintree Completion Date, CPI shall prepare and deliver to the Purchaser a written statement (the "Braintree Statement") setting forth the aggregate actual costs of the Braintree Expansion (the "Braintree Expansion Costs"). From the Braintree Completion Date through the date that is 30 days after the delivery of the Braintree Statement, CPI shall provide the Purchaser (and its representatives) with reasonable access to any books, records, working papers or other information reasonably necessary or useful in the preparation of the Braintree Statement. The Braintree Statement shall become final and binding upon the parties hereto on the 31st day following delivery thereof to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser delivers written notice of disagreement (a "Braintree Notice of Disagreement") with the Braintree Statement to CPI prior to such date. Any Notice of Disagreement shall specify in reasonable detail the nature of any disagreement so asserted and shall relate solely to the preparation of the Braintree Statement and the calculation of the Braintree Expansion Costs. If a Braintree Notice of Disagreement is received by CPI in a timely manner pursuant to this Section 4.1.7, then the Braintree Expansion Costs set forth in the Braintree Statement, as adjusted pursuant hereto, shall become final and binding upon the parties hereto on the earlier of (a) the date the Purchaser and CPI resolve, in writing, any differences they may have with respect to any matters specified in the Braintree Notice of Disagreement and (b) the date any disputed matters are finally resolved in writing by an arbitrator who shall be selected and compensated in the same manner as described in Section 2.3.2 hereof; provided, however, that if any audit by the Purchaser or an arbitrator pursuant to this Section 4.1.7 results in a final determination that the Braintree Expansion Costs were less than 95% of the costs initially asserted by CPI in the Braintree Statement, then CPI shall bear 100% of the costs of any such audit or arbitration.

SECTION 4.1.8. Upon final determination of the Braintree Expansion Costs in accordance with Section 4.1.7 hereof, CPI promptly shall reimburse the Purchaser in cash for 70% of the amount, if any, by which (a) the excess, if any, of $166,077,257 over the Braintree Expansion Costs exceeds (b) $3,750,000.

SECTION 5. Transfer and Registration.

SECTION 5.1. Investment Statements. The Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to CPI that (1) the Purchaser will purchase the Shares to be purchased by it hereunder for investment and not with a view to their public sale or distribution, nor with any present intention of selling or distributing any such Shares or beneficial interests in CRC Shares, (2) the Purchaser will purchase such Shares (a) for its own account (including any separate accounts maintained by the Purchaser) or (b) for the account of one or more pension or trust funds of which it either acts as sole trustee (or in any other fiduciary capacity) with sole investment discretion or otherwise has the authority to make the representations contained in this Section 5.1; and that in each case such Shares (and any CRC Shares delivered to the Purchaser upon a termination of the CRC Trust) will be acquired by it or such funds for the purpose of investment and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, the public distribution thereof, nor with any present intention of publicly distributing the same (other than in accordance with the registration provisions hereof) and (3) the Purchaser has conducted its own due diligence investigation with respect to the business and operations of CPI and CRC.

The Purchaser further represents and warrants to CPI (i) that the Purchaser understands that such Shares

(and any CRC Shares delivered to the Purchaser upon a termination of the CRC Trust) have not been registered under the Securities Act by reason of their issuance in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) thereof, (ii) that such Shares (and any CRC Shares delivered to the Purchaser upon a termination of the CRC Trust) will not be disposed of unless such disposition is either registered under the Securities Act or is exempt from registration under that Act and (iii) that CPI has no obligation to register such Shares (or CRC Shares so delivered to the Purchaser) other than as set forth herein.

The Purchaser also understands and agrees that, if any CRC Shares shall be delivered to the Purchaser upon a termination of the CRC Trust, the Purchaser shall be bound by and entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Article FOURTH of CRC's Certificate of Incorporation (a copy of which has been delivered to the Purchaser) restricting transfers of, and providing rights to registrations under the Securities Act of, any such CRC Shares. Each certificate for CRC Shares so delivered will bear the legend prescribed by said Article FOURTH.

SECTION 5.2. Permissible Transfers. Except in accordance with this Section 5, the Purchaser shall not effect any Transfer of Restricted Shares (both as hereinafter defined) or of any interest or right to purchase the same other than:

(a) a Transfer from the Purchaser to another person or persons acting as nominee or nominees or trustee or trustees for the Purchaser or, if the Purchaser is acting as nominee or trustee in making the purchases hereunder, to a different nominee or trustee for the same person as the Purchaser is so acting;

(b) a Transfer to the Purchaser from one or more other person or persons acting as nominee or nominees or trustee or trustees for the Purchaser;

(c) a Transfer by the Purchaser, if it is a trustee for a pension or trust fund, in connection with the dissolution of such fund or in connection with the Transfer or distribution of all or part of the assets of such fund to another pension or trust fund for which the Purchaser or another corporate trustee is acting as trustee; or

(d) a Transfer by a pension or trust fund to another pension or trust fund the investment discretion for which is exercised by the same trustee or other fiduciary or director.

In the event that the Purchaser shall Transfer any Restricted Shares in a manner contemplated by this Section 5.2, the Purchaser shall cause its transferee or transferees to agree in writing to take and hold such securities subject to the provisions of this Section 5.

SECTION 5.3. Certain Definitions. As used in this Section 5 (and elsewhere herein with reference to this Section 5), the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

"Transfer" means, as to any Restricted Shares, any sale, assignment or transfer of any of such Restricted Shares or of any interest therein or right to subscribe therefor, whether or not such transfer would constitute a "sale" as that term is defined in Section 2(3) of the Securities Act.

"Restricted Shares" means the Shares and any other securities issued as a dividend or other distribution on or as a result of a subdivision, combination or reclassification of any Shares, in each case, prior to the effective registration of the Transfer thereof under the Securities Act.

"Registration Expenses" means the expenses so described in Section 5.8.

"Selling Expenses" means the expenses so described in Section 5.8.

"Underwriter" means each person who is or may be deemed to be an "underwriter", as that term is defined in Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, in respect of Restricted Shares which shall have been registered by CPI under the Securities Act pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 5.

"CPI Counsel" means Cravath, Swaine & Moore, or such other counsel as shall at the time be serving as counsel to CPI.

"Holder's Counsel" shall mean counsel for the holder of the Restricted Shares in question, which counsel shall be reasonably satisfactory to CPI.

SECTION 5.4. Transfer Legends. Each certificate for Restricted Shares, including each certificate issued to any transferee, shall be stamped or otherwise imprinted with a legend (in addition to any legends otherwise required by the Declaration of Trust of CPI) in substantially the following form (unless otherwise permitted by the provisions of Section 5.5 or unless such Restricted Shares shall have been effectively registered under the Securities Act and sold or otherwise disposed of pursuant to the registration statement covering such Restricted Shares):

"The shares represented by this certificate were issued pursuant to a Purchase and Exchange Agreement dated as of November 15, 1996, between Corporate Property Investors and the original purchaser of such shares (copies of which Agreement are on file at the principal office of the issuer of such shares), have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and may not be sold, assigned or transferred until the applicable provisions of Section 5 of such Agreement have been complied with."

SECTION 5.5. Notice of Proposed Transfers; Requests for Registration. The holder of any Restricted Shares by acceptance thereof agrees, prior to any Transfer of any such Restricted Shares (other than a Transfer referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of Section 5.2), to give written notice to CPI of such holder's intention to effect such Transfer and to comply in all other respects with the provisions of this Section 5.5. Each notice shall describe in detail the manner, method of disposition and circumstances of the proposed Transfer and shall be accompanied by (i) a written opinion of Holder's Counsel addressed to CPI stating whether in the opinion of such counsel such proposed Transfer involves a transaction requiring registration of the Restricted Shares under the Securities Act, and (ii) if in the opinion of such counsel registration is required, a written request that CPI effect the registration of such Restricted Shares under the Securities Act, subject to the limitations contained in Section 5.10. Upon receipt by CPI of any such notice, opinion and, if necessary, request, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) Not more than 20 calendar days after such receipt, CPI Counsel shall render an opinion to CPI as to whether such counsel concurs in the opinion of Holder's Counsel. CPI Counsel shall furnish copies of such opinion to CPI, Holder's Counsel and the shareholder giving such notice. If CPI Counsel shall not render such opinion within such 20 calendar days, its opinion shall be deemed to concur with the opinion of Holder's Counsel.

(b) If in the opinion of Holder's Counsel and CPI Counsel the proposed Transfer of Restricted Shares may be effected without registration under the Securities Act, the shareholder shall thereupon be entitled to transfer such Restricted Shares in accordance with the terms of the notice delivered to CPI; provided, however, that the transferee of such Restricted Shares shall agree in writing to take and hold such securities subject to the applicable provisions of this Section 5. Each certificate evidencing the Restricted Shares issued upon the Transfer (and each certificate evidencing any untransferred balance of the original Restricted Shares) shall bear the legend set forth in Section 5.4 unless in the opinion of CPI Counsel such legend is not necessary.

(c) If in the opinion of both Holder's Counsel and CPI Counsel the proposed Transfer of the Restricted Shares may not be effected without registration under the Securities Act, CPI shall use its best efforts to effect such registration, all in accordance with the request of the prospective seller and the provisions and conditions of this Section 5. Upon the effectiveness of such registration the Restricted Shares may be transferred to the extent permitted by law and the legend thereon shall be removed promptly upon delivery of certificates therefor to CPI.

(d) If in the opinion of Holder's Counsel the proposed Transfer of Restricted Shares may be effected without registration under the Securities Act, but CPI Counsel shall not concur in such opinion, Holder's Counsel at their option may submit the question to the staff of the Commission for an advisory opinion and, in the event that the staff of the Commission shall issue a "no action" letter or other favorable advisory opinion which, in the view of CPI Counsel, shall be conclusive with respect to the proposed Transfer, the shareholder shall be entitled to transfer the Restricted Shares covered by such "no action" letter or other favorable advisory opinion on the basis and in accordance with the terms thereof; provided, however, that the transferee of such Restricted Shares shall agree in writing to take and hold such securities subject to the provisions of this Section 5.

The holder of Restricted Shares giving the notice under this Section 5.5 shall not Transfer such Restricted Shares unless and until (i) the favorable opinions of Holder's Counsel and CPI Counsel referred to in paragraph (b) shall have been given, (ii) registration of such Restricted Shares under the Securities Act shall have become effective or (iii) the "no action" letter or other favorable advisory opinion referred to in paragraph (d) shall have been received and reviewed by CPI Counsel and, in addition, in the case of (i) and (iii), the written agreement referred to in paragraphs (b) and (d), respectively, shall have been made. Nothing contained in this Section 5 shall preclude a holder of Restricted Shares from entering into an agreement to Transfer the same if such agreement requires compliance with the conditions set forth in this Section 5.5.

Section 5.6. Required Registration. Whenever CPI shall be required pursuant to Section 5.5 to effect the registration of any Restricted Shares under the Securities Act, CPI shall promptly give written notice of such proposed registration to all holders of outstanding Restricted Shares and, subject to the provisions of Section 5.10, shall use its best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of the Restricted Shares which CPI has been requested to register pursuant to Section 5.5 and all other Restricted Shares the holders of which shall have made written requests (stating the proposed method of disposition of such securities by the prospective seller) to CPI for the registration thereof within 20 calendar days after the mailing of such written notice by CPI.

Section 5.7. Incidental Registration. If CPI shall propose to register any Common Shares or other securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares (otherwise than pursuant to Section 5.6) on Form S-1, Form S-2, Form S-3, Form S-11 or any similar form then in effect, it shall give written notice to all holders of outstanding Restricted Shares of its intention and, upon the written request of the holder of any such Restricted Shares given within 20 calendar days after the mailing of such notice (which request shall state the proposed method of disposition of such Restricted Shares), CPI shall use its best efforts to cause all Restricted Shares the holders of which have requested registration to be included under the proposed registration for disposition in accordance with the proposed method thereof stated in the respective shareholder's request; provided, however, that CPI may, in lieu of including any of or all such Restricted Shares under the proposed registration, elect to effect a separate registration thereof if its proposed registration relates to an underwritten public offering and the Underwriters thereof object to the inclusion of any of or all such Restricted Shares under such registration. In the event CPI shall elect to effect a separate registration in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence, CPI shall use its best efforts to cause such separate registration to become effective not later than 90 days after the effectiveness of its originally proposed registration. If CPI determines, prior to the effectiveness of its originally proposed registration, not to proceed with such registration, CPI shall have no further obligation under this Section 5.7 to register any Restricted Shares.

SECTION 5.8. Registration Procedures and Expenses. If and whenever CPI is required by the provisions of this Section 5 to use its best efforts to effect the registration of any Restricted Shares under the Securities Act, CPI shall, as expeditiously as possible,

(a) select underwriters, counsel and independent accountants for CPI of recognized standing and competence in connection with such registration;

(b) prepare and file (or cause to be prepared and filed) with the Commission a registration statement with respect to such Restricted Shares and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become effective;

(c) prepare and file (or cause to be prepared and filed) with the Commission such amendments and supplements to such registration statement as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective for nine months from the date of its effectiveness;

(d) furnish each seller such number of copies of the registration statement and the prospectus forming a part of such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus) as such seller may reasonably request;

(e) use its best efforts to register or qualify (or cause to be registered or qualified) the securities covered by such registration statement under the securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as each seller shall reasonably request (including, without limitation, the New York State Real Estate Syndicate Act, the Massachusetts Uniform Securities Act and the New Jersey Real Estate Syndicate Offerings Law), and do any and all other acts and things which may be necessary or advisable to enable such seller to consummate the disposition of the Restricted Shares during the period provided in paragraph (c) of this Section 5.8; provided, however, that in no event shall CPI be obligated to qualify to do business in any jurisdiction where it is not now so qualified, to take any action which would subject it to the service of process in suits other than those arising out of the offer or sale of the securities covered by such registration statement in any jurisdiction where it is not now so subject or to conform the composition of its assets at the time to the securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdiction;

(f) notify each seller of any Restricted Shares covered by such registration statement, during the period when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event which causes the prospectus forming a part of such registration statement to include an untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, and at the request of any such seller prepare and furnish such seller a reasonable number of copies of any supplement to or any amendment of such prospectus necessary so as to render such prospectus, as amended or supplemented, in compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act;

(g) engage a transfer agent and registrar for the Restricted Shares at least by the effective date of the first registration of any of such Restricted Shares;

(h) give serious consideration to the listing of the Restricted Shares on an appropriate national securities exchange as promptly after the effectiveness of such first registration as the Trustees of CPI deem advisable;

(i) use its best efforts to procure a comfort letter or letters for the benefit of the underwriters of such registration which substantially conform with the requirements of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Statement of Auditing Standards No. 72 from independent accounts for CPI of recognized standing and competence in connection with such registration;

(j) use its best efforts to deliver customary closing opinions of counsel for CPI in connection with such registration; and

(k) make customary representations and warranties to the underwriters in connection with such registration.

All expenses (except for the compensation of regular employees of CPI, which shall be paid in any event by CPI) incurred by CPI in complying with this Section 5.8, including, without limitation, all registration and filing fees, printing expenses, expenses of complying with securities or blue sky laws (including fees and disbursements of counsel for CPI, counsel for the Underwriters and counsel representing selling shareholders owning a majority of the Restricted Shares being registered), all fees and disbursements of counsel for CPI and any accountants' fees and expenses incident to or required by any such registration are herein called "Registration Expenses", which shall be borne as provided in Section 5.9. All underwriting fees and commissions to be incurred by any seller and all fees and disbursements of counsel for any seller (other than counsel described in the second parenthetical phrase in the preceding sentence) are herein called "Selling Expenses", which shall be borne by the seller or sellers in such proportions as they may agree upon; provided, however, that if such sellers cannot otherwise agree, they shall bear such expenses (other than their individual counsel fees which shall be borne by them directly) in direct proportion to the number of Restricted Shares which they are having registered.

It shall be a condition precedent to the obligation of CPI to take any action pursuant to this Section 5.8 for the benefit of a prospective seller of Restricted Shares that (x) CPI shall have received an undertaking satisfactory to it from such seller (A) to pay all Registration Expenses required to be paid by such seller pursuant to Section 5.9 and all Selling Expenses to be incurred by or for account of such seller and (B) to notify CPI of the happening of any event within the knowledge of such seller which causes the prospectus referred to in Section 5.8(d), as it may be amended or supplemented, to include an untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, in each case with respect to such seller, and (y) such seller shall furnish to CPI such information regarding such seller, the Restricted Shares held by such seller and the intended method of disposition of such Restricted Shares as CPI shall reasonably request and as shall be required by applicable law in connection with the action to be taken by CPI.

SECTION 5.9. Allocation of Expenses. If and whenever CPI is required by the provisions of this Section 5 to use its best efforts to effect the registration of any of its securities under the Securities Act, CPI shall pay all Registration Expenses in connection with

(a) (i) the first two registrations of any Restricted Shares consummated pursuant to Sections 5.5 and 5.6 and (ii) each of the third, fourth, fifth and sixth registrations of any Restricted Shares consummated pursuant to Sections 5.5 and 5.6, so long as each such registration is effected pursuant to a request or requests from a prospective seller or sellers (including Purchaser) to register at least 5% of the outstanding Common Shares (including as "outstanding" for such purpose any Common Shares issuable upon conversion of any outstanding securities of CPI which may then be converted); provided, however, that if the full number of Restricted Shares covered by a request pursuant to Section 5.5 is not in fact sold pursuant to any such registration as a result of the inclusion of any additional outstanding or newly issued securities of CPI in such registration, such registration shall not be counted for purposes of this clause (a) of Section 5.9; and

(b) each registration pursuant to Section 5.7.

The Registration Expenses in connection with any other registration of its Restricted Shares which CPI shall be required to use its best efforts to effect pursuant to any of the provisions of this Section 5, and all Selling Expenses in connection with any registration of its Restricted Shares pursuant to this Section 5, shall be borne by the seller or sellers of such Restricted Shares in such proportions as they may agree upon; provided, however, that if such sellers cannot otherwise agree, they shall bear such expenses (other than their individual counsel fees which shall be borne by them directly) in direct proportion to the number of Restricted Shares which they are having registered.

SECTION 5.10. Limitations on Obligations to Register and Right To Sell Restricted Shares. Anything in this Section 5 to the contrary notwithstanding:

(a) if CPI has not theretofore registered an offering of Common Shares or other securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares under the Securities Act, CPI shall not be obligated to effect any registration under Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 unless it shall have received a request or requests pursuant to Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 or any similar provision of any other agreement from a prospective seller or sellers (including the Purchaser) to register at least 10% of the outstanding Common Shares (including as "outstanding" for such purpose any Common Shares issuable upon conversion of any outstanding securities of CPI which may then be converted);

(b) if CPI has theretofore registered an offering of Common Shares or other securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares under the Securities Act, CPI shall not be obligated to effect any registration under Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 unless it shall have received a request or requests from a prospective seller or sellers (including Purchaser) to register Common Shares with a minimum value of $15 million, based on the current value of shareholder's equity per Common Share as of the December 31 immediately preceding the date of the first such request. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the "current value of shareholder's equity per Common Share" shall be deemed to be the average of the daily closing prices for the thirty consecutive business days commencing no more than forty-five business days before the day in question. The closing price for each day shall be the last reported sale price regular way or, in case no such reported sale takes place on such day, the average of the last reported bid and asked prices regular way, in either case on the principal national securities exchange on which the Common Shares are admitted to trading or listed, or if not listed or admitted to trading on any national securities exchange, the average of highest reported bid and lowest reported asked prices on the over-the-counter market on the day in question as reported by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Automated Quotation System (or any successor to such system), or a similarly generally accepted reporting service, or if not so available, the "current value of shareholder's equity per Common Share" shall be determined in an appraisal conducted by Landauer Associates, Inc. or such other independent person of recognized standing as shall have been selected by the Trustees of CPI to determine the net asset value of CPI;

(c) CPI shall not be required to register Restricted Shares under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 more than once in any consecutive 12-month period; provided, that if the full number of Restricted Shares covered by a request pursuant to Section 5.5 is not in fact sold pursuant to any such registration as a result of the inclusion of any additional outstanding or newly issued securities of CPI in such registration, such registration shall not be counted for purposes of this clause (c) of Section 5.10;

(d) CPI shall not be obligated to effect any registration pursuant to Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 if such registration would require an audit of CPI as of a date other than its fiscal year end unless the seller requesting such registration agrees to bear responsibility for the expenses of such an audit; and

(e) any registration statement prepared pursuant to this Section 5 shall be subject to such restrictions or limitations as may be required by law to the sales price or sales method of the Restricted Shares included in such registration statement; provided, however, that, if upon the effectiveness of any such registration statement CPI will be engaged in a primary distribution of its securities, CPI may require the prospective seller or sellers whose Restricted Shares are included in such registration statement to agree not to sell any such Restricted Shares for a period of 90 days after the effective date of such registration statement.

SECTION 5.11. Indemnification. In the event of any registration of Restricted Shares pursuant to this Section 5, CPI shall indemnify and hold harmless the Purchaser, its officers, directors or trustees and each seller of Restricted Shares covered by a registration pursuant to this Section 5 and each Underwriter of such Restricted Shares and each person, if any, who controls the Purchaser or such seller or Underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities and any action in respect thereof, joint or several, to which the Purchaser or such seller, Underwriter or controlling person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any registration statement under which such securities were registered under the Securities Act, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading; and CPI will reimburse the Purchaser and each such seller, Underwriter and controlling person for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action; provided, however, that CPI will not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in such registration statement, preliminary prospectus, prospectus or amendment or supplement thereto in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished to CPI in writing by the Purchaser or such seller specifically for use therein, or by any Underwriter distributing or selling the Restricted Shares of such seller, specifically for use in the preparation thereof. This indemnity will be in addition to any liability which CPI may otherwise have.

A party from whom indemnity may be sought pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5.11 shall not be liable for such indemnity with respect to any claim as to which indemnity is sought unless the party seeking such indemnity shall have notified such indemnifying party in writing of the nature of such claim promptly after such indemnified party becomes aware of the assertion thereof; provided, however, that the failure so to notify such indemnifying party shall not relieve such party from any liability which it may have to such indemnified party otherwise than on account of the provisions of this Section 5.11 or if the failure to give such notice promptly shall not have been prejudicial to such indemnifying party. Any indemnifying party may participate (with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified party) in, and to the extent that it shall wish, may direct (at its own expense and either individually or jointly with any other indemnifying party), the defense of any suit brought to enforce such claim; provided, that if a party seeking such indemnity shall give notice to such indemnifying party that in its good faith judgment an important general interest of such party is involved in such proceeding, such party seeking indemnity shall have the right to control (at its own expense), with the participation of the indemnifying party, the defense against or settlement of any such proceeding. If any indemnifying party elects to assume the defense of any such suit and retains counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party, such indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense of such suit, other than reasonable costs of investigation. No indemnifying party shall be liable for any compromise or settlement of any such action effected without its consent.

Insofar as the foregoing indemnity agreement may permit indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act of any person who is a partner or controlling person of an Underwriter within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act and who, at the effective date of the registration statement, is, or is named to be, a Trustee of CPI, if a claim for indemnification for any such liabilities (except payment for expenses incurred in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such a person, CPI will submit to a court of competent jurisdiction (unless in the opinion of counsel for CPI the matter has already been settled by controlling precedent) the question of whether or not such indemnification is against public policy and unenforceable, and such person and CPI will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

It shall be a condition precedent to the obligation of CPI to take any action pursuant to Section 5.8 that CPI shall have received an undertaking satisfactory to it from each prospective seller of the Restricted Shares to be registered under each registration pursuant to this Section 5, and from any Underwriter of such Restricted Shares, to indemnify and hold harmless (in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 5.11) CPI and each of its Trustees, officers and "control" persons within the meaning of that term under the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which CPI or any such Trustee, officer or control person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished to CPI in writing by such seller or Underwriter, as the case may be, specifically for use therein; and such persons will reimburse CPI and each of its Trustees, officers and control persons for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action. This indemnity will be in addition to any liability which such seller or Underwriter may otherwise have.

SECTION 5.12. 1934 Act Registration. CPI shall cause at least one class of its securities to be registered pursuant to Section 12 of the 1934 Act within 90 calendar days after the effective date of the first registration statement pertaining to Common Shares or other securities which are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares filed by CPI under the Securities Act or as otherwise required by the 1934 Act and shall thereafter (i) cause such securities to remain registered under such Section 12, (ii) file within the requisite period of time all reports required to be filed by issuers having securities registered pursuant to such Section 12, (iii) file such other documents as may be required to be filed pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act as a condition to the sale of restricted or control securities and (iv) provide such other information as may be required to be provided pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act as in effect on the date of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement.

CPI covenants that, so long as the Purchaser shall hold any Common Shares or CRC Shares, it will give to the Purchaser prompt written notice of (i) the filing and effectiveness of any registration statement filed by CPI under the 1934 Act pursuant to the preceding paragraph, relating to any class of securities of CPI or CRC, and (ii) the number of shares of such class of securities outstanding at the time such registration statement becomes effective. CPI also covenants that it will furnish to the Purchaser any information which it may reasonably require for the purpose of completing Form 144, or any other comparable form, in connection with any proposed sale by the Purchaser pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as then in effect, or any other comparable rule, of any Common Share or any CRC Shares.

SECTION 5.13. More Favorable Rights. CPI agrees that if it shall hereafter afford to any person or entity registration rights with respect to Restricted Shares more favorable than those provided in this Section 5, it will forthwith make such more favorable rights available to the Purchaser with respect to the Restricted Shares held by the Purchaser.

SECTION 6. Representations and Warranties.

SECTION 6.1. Representations and Warranties of CPI. CPI (and, with respect to the representations and warranties applicable to it, CRC) represents and warrants to the Purchaser as follows:

SECTION 6.1.1. CPI is a voluntary association of the type commonly known as a business trust duly organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, has all the requisite power to own and deal with real and other property, conduct its business as it is now conducted and perform this Purchase and Exchange Agreement and is duly qualified to do business and in good standing in Massachusetts and in each jurisdiction, if any, in which the nature of the business transacted or the character of the property owned by it therein makes such qualification necessary. This Purchase and Exchange Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by CPI and constitutes CPI's legal, valid and binding agreement enforceable against CPI in accordance with its terms (subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally from time to time in effect and to general principles of equity, regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law, and except as the enforceability of the indemnification provisions hereof may be limited by federal securities law and public policy considerations).

SECTION 6.1.2. The Shares to be delivered to the Purchaser on the Closing Date in accordance with this Purchase and Exchange Agreement will have all the rights and privileges applicable to Series A Shares as provided in the Declaration of Trust and, when so delivered against payment therefor, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and the delivery to the Purchaser of certificates for the Shares will pass to the Purchaser good and valid title thereto, free of any Encumbrance.

SECTION 6.1.3. The Declaration of Trust and the Trustees' Regulations of CPI, in the forms certified by the Secretary of CPI and delivered to the Purchaser on the date hereof, are and at the Closing will be in full force and effect.

SECTION 6.1.4. The execution and delivery by CPI of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, each Assignment Agreement, the Release and the certificates representing the Shares and performance of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, each Assignment Agreement and the Release and compliance with the provisions hereof and thereof do not and, in the case of the Release and the Assignment Agreements, upon their execution and delivery will not (i) violate any provision of any applicable law or of the Declaration of Trust or Trustees' Regulations, (ii) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any Encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of CPI pursuant to, any material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument to which CPI is a party or by which it or any of its properties may be bound or (iii) require any consent under any such material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument other than consents (A) that have been obtained or the procurement of which is a condition to the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby or (B) the failure to obtain of which is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect upon the assets, business or operations of CPI, CRC and their subsidiaries taken as a whole or the ability of CPI and CRC to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.5. CPI has not, either directly or through any agent, offered any Common Shares or other securities for sale, or solicited any orders to buy the same, or otherwise approached or negotiated in respect thereof, in such manner as to require registration under the Securities Act, the Massachusetts Uniform Securities Act, the New Jersey Uniform Securities Law or the New York State Martin Act of such Common Shares, such other securities or any Shares to be sold hereunder.

SECTION 6.1.6. Except as described in the Evaluation Material, there is no action, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of CPI, threatened, against CPI in which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse decision that would materially adversely affect the condition, business or prospects of CPI or any of its properties or assets, or which questions the validity of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, the Shares, any Assignment Agreement, the Release or any action to be taken pursuant to this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, any Assignment Agreement or the Release.

SECTION 6.1.7. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any governmental or public body or authority on the part of CPI is required in connection with the valid execution, delivery and performance of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, any Assignment Agreement, the Release or the offer, sale and delivery of the Shares, as contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.8. CPI has no present intention of making any public distribution of any equity securities.

SECTION 6.1.9. Each of CPI, CPI's subsidiaries and CRC have filed all Federal tax returns and all material state and local income, franchise and other tax returns, reports and statements required to have been filed to date. All material taxes shown to be due on such returns have been paid. There is no material audit, examination, investigation, dispute or claim concerning any taxes of any of CPI, CPI's subsidiaries or CRC raised by any taxing authority in writing or as to which any of the Trustees and officers of CPI, other directors and officers of CPI's subsidiaries and the directors and officers of CRC have actual knowledge. There are no settlements or closing agreements with respect to any taxes of CPI or CRC with respect to which any material amounts remain to be paid. Neither CPI nor CRC is a party to any tax sharing agreement.

SECTION 6.1.10. CPI has endeavored and will endeavor to operate in such manner as to qualify as a real estate investment trust under Sections 856-860 of the Code.

SECTION 6.1.11. The Evaluation Material does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact. The balance sheets of CPI as at December 31, 1995, and June 30, 1996, and the related statements of income, cash flow and shareholders' equity for the twelve months then ended and six months then ended, respectively, included in the Evaluation Material, fairly present the financial condition of CPI as at such dates and the results of operations of CPI for the periods ended on such dates, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied. Since June 30, 1996, there has been no material adverse change in the business, operations, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of CPI and its subsidiaries. The balance sheets of the Partnerships (other than Hotel) as at December 31, 1995, and the related statements of income, cash flow and partner capital for the twelve months then ended, previously delivered to the Purchaser, fairly present the financial condition of such Partnerships (taken as a whole) as at such date, and all such balance sheets were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied. Since December 31, 1995, there has been no material adverse change in the business, operations, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of the Partnerships (other than Braintree and Hotel) taken as whole.

SECTION 6.1.12. As of the date of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, CPI is a REOC and, immediately following the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and based upon information available to CPI concerning the Purchaser and the holders of CPI's outstanding Common Shares and its other securities, CPI shall not be a "pension-held REIT" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code.

SECTION 6.1.13. CPI in its Federal income tax return for the taxable year ended December 31, 1995, elected to be treated as a Real Estate Investment Trust.

SECTION 6.1.14. CRC is a duly organized and validly existing corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware, has all the requisite power to own and deal with real and other property, and is duly qualified to do business and in good standing in the jurisdiction, if any, in which the nature of the business transacted or the character of the property owned by it therein makes such qualification necessary.

SECTION 6.1.15. Upon its acquisition of the Shares, the Purchaser will also acquire related beneficial interests in the CRC Shares held in the CRC Trust. The CRC Shares held in the CRC Trust are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, and the delivery to the Purchaser pursuant to this Purchase and Exchange Agreement of certificates for the Shares will pass to the Purchaser good and valid title to their related beneficial interests in the CRC Shares held in the CRC Trust, free of any Encumbrance except as set forth in Article FOURTH of CRC's Certificate of Incorporation. All but 74.3 of the outstanding CRC Shares are held by the CRC Trust or by the Bank of Montreal Trust Company, as trustee, ratably on behalf of the holders of CPI's outstanding Preference Shares.

SECTION 6.1.16. The execution and delivery by each of CPI and CRC of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement and the certificates representing the Shares and performance of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement and compliance with the provisions hereof do not (i) violate any provision of CRC's Certificate of Incorporation, its By-laws or the Trust Agreement establishing the CRC Trust or (ii) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of CRC pursuant to, any material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument to which CRC is a party or by which it or any of its properties may be bound or (iii) require any consent under any such material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument other than consents (A) that have been obtained or the procurement of which is a condition to the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby or (B) the failure to obtain of which is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect upon the assets, business or operations of CPI, CRC and their subsidiaries taken as a whole or the ability of CPI and CRC to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.17. CRC has not, either directly or through any agent, offered any CRC Shares or other securities for sale, or solicited any orders to buy the same, or otherwise approached or negotiated in respect thereof, in such manner as to require registration under the Securities Act, the Massachusetts Uniform Securities Act, the New Jersey Uniform Securities Law or the New York State Martin Act of such CRC Shares, such other securities or any Shares to be sold hereunder.

SECTION 6.1.18. Except as described in the Evaluation Material, there is no action, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of CPI, threatened, against CRC in which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse decision that would materially adversely affect the condition, business or prospects of CPI and CRC taken as a whole, or which questions the validity of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, the CRC Shares or any action taken by CPI or CRC pursuant to this Purchase and Exchange Agreement.

SECTION 6.1.19. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any governmental or public body or authority on the part of CRC is required in connection with the valid execution, delivery and performance of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement or the issuance for deposit in the CRC Trust of CRC Shares as contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.20. CRC has no present intention of making any public distribution of any CRC Shares.

SECTION 6.1.21. The financial information concerning CRC set forth in the Annual Report and Six Month Report of CPI included in the Evaluation Material fairly summarizes the financial condition of CRC at such dates and the results of operations of CRC for the periods indicated in such information, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied. Since June 30, 1996, there has been no adverse change in the business, operations, financial condition, results of operations or prospects of CRC and its subsidiaries that are material in the context of CPI (and its subsidiaries) and CRC, taken as a whole.

SECTION 6.1.22. CPI is not in violation of any provision of its Declaration of Trust or Trustees' Regulations. CRC is not in violation of any provision of the CRC Trust.

SECTION 6.1.23. CRC is not in violation of any provision of its Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws.

SECTION 6.1.24. The Certificate of Incorporation of CRC, as amended, in the form certified by the Secretary of CRC and heretofore delivered to the Purchaser, is and at the Closing will be in full force and effect.

SECTION 6.1.25. The CRC Trust Agreement in the form certified by the Secretary of CRC and heretofore delivered to the Purchaser, is and at the Closing will be in full force and effect.

SECTION 6.1.26. The total number of Preference Shares which CPI shall have authority to issue shall be 209,249 and the total number of Common Shares which CPI shall have authority to issue shall be 36,089,872 Common Shares plus such number (if any) of additional Common Shares as shall be required for issuance pursuant to Share

Purchase Contracts entered into under CPI's 1994 Plan for Shareholder Contractual Purchases of Shares (the "1994 Plan") and 1997 Plan for Shareholder Contractual Purchases of Shares (the "1997 Plan"); provided, however, that (a) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable pursuant to the terms of Share Purchase Contracts entered into under the 1994 Plan (the "1994 Contracts"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,105,894 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall then have been issued subsequent to November 1, 1996, pursuant to such 1994 Contracts; (b) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable pursuant to the terms of Share Purchase Contracts entered into under the 1997 Plan (the "1997 Contracts"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,100,000 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall then have been issued subsequent to January 1, 1997, pursuant to such 1997 Contracts; (c) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable pursuant to all Employee Share Purchase Plan Contracts entered into under CPI's Employee Share Purchase Plan, as amended ("Employee Contracts"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued as aforesaid shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 12,513 (as adjusted to reflect non-vested shares acquired by CPI) over the total number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall then have been issued subsequent to June 15, 1994, pursuant to Employee Contracts; (d) upon the issuance of all Common Shares issuable pursuant to Share Purchase Agreements providing for the issuance of up to 1,788,948 Common Shares directly, or upon the conversion or exchange of securities convertible into or exchangeable for Common Shares, the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,788,948 over the number of authorized but unissued Common Shares as shall have been issued subsequent to November 1, 1996 pursuant to such Share Purchase Agreements; (e) upon the termination or expiration of the Trust's 1993 Share Option Plan for Employees and all options granted thereunder ("1993 Share Options"), the number of Common Shares authorized to be issued as aforesaid shall be reduced by the excess (if any) of 1,000,000

SECTION 6.1.30. All conditions to the transfer of the Partnership Interests have been met and neither any such transfer nor any other transaction contemplated hereby is a violation or breach of any of the Partnership Agreements or any other agreement, contract or understanding to which any Partnership is a party or by which it or any of its assets may be bound.

SECTION 6.1.31. CPI (a) will acquire the Partnership Interests for the purpose of investment and not with a view to, or for sale in connection with, the public distribution thereof, nor with any present intention of publicly distributing the same and (b) is familiar with the business and operations of the Partnerships and has conducted its own due diligence investigation with respect thereto.

limited partner of the Purchaser's Partnerships. To the actual knowledge of CPI, in its capacity as general partner of the Partnerships, the Purchaser has satisfied all of its obligations under each of the Partnerships from which it is withdrawing in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 6.1.33. Each of CPI and CRC are in compliance in all material respects with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and requirements of governmental authorities except where the failure to comply therewith would not, together with all other such failures, reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the assets, business or operations of CPI, CRC and their subsidiaries taken as a whole.

SECTION 6.2. Representations and Warranties of Purchaser. The Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to CPI as follows:

SECTION 6.2.1. To the Purchaser's knowledge, Schedule 6.2.1 contains a correct and complete list of all of the organizational documents of each of the Partnerships. This SECTION 6.2.3. The execution and delivery by Purchaser of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, each of the Assignment Agreements and the Release and the performance of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, each of the Assignment Agreements and the Release, and compliance with the provisions hereof and thereof do not and, in the case of the Release and the Assignment Agreements, upon their execution and delivery will not (i) violate any provision of ERISA, or any other applicable law or of the organizational documents of the Purchaser or (ii) conflict with or result in any breach of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of or constitute a default under, or result in the creation or imposition of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any of the properties or assets of Purchaser pursuant to, any material indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan or credit agreement or other agreement or instrument to which Purchaser is a party or by which it or any of its properties may be bound.

SECTION 6.2.4. There is no action, proceeding or investigation pending or, to the knowledge of Purchaser, threatened, against Purchaser in which there is a reasonable possibility of an adverse decision that questions the validity of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, any Assignment Agreement, the Release, the Partnership Interests or any action to be taken pursuant to this Purchase and Exchange Agreement.

SECTION 6.2.5. No consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any governmental or public body or authority on the part of Purchaser is required in connection with the valid execution, delivery and performance of this Purchase and Exchange Agreement, any Assignment Agreement, the Release, Purchaser's sale, assignment, transfer and conveyance of the Partnership Interests or Purchaser's acquisition of the Shares, all as contemplated hereby.

SECTION 7. Applicability of Declaration of Trust. CPI and the Purchaser agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law. Nothing in this Purchase and Exchange Agreement shall affect any right that the Purchaser or CPI may otherwise have to bring any action or proceeding relating to this Purchase and Exchange Agreement against the other or its properties in the courts of any jurisdiction.

(b) CPI and the Purchaser hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waive, to the fullest extent they may legally and effectively do so, any objection which they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Purchase and Exchange Agreement in any New York State or Federal court sitting in New York City. SECTION 11. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any litigation directly or indirectly arising out of, under or in connection with this Purchase and Exchange Agreement. Each party hereto (a) certifies that no

2. Substitution of Assignee as Limited Partner. Assignor and Assignee intend that, effective as of the date hereof, Assignee shall be substituted as a limited partner in the Partnership in the place and stead of Assignor. Upon Assignee's request, Assignor shall execute and deliver to each of the remaining partners in the Partnership and to Assignee an amendment to the Partnership Agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to each of the remaining partners and Assignee, effecting the substitution of Assignee from and after the date hereof in the place and stead of Assignor as a partner of the Partnership.

3. Acceptance and Assumption. Effective as of the date hereof, Assignee hereby accepts the assignment to it of all of Assignor's right, title and interest in and to the Partnership Interest, hereby agrees to become a substituted limited partner in the Partnership from and after the date hereof in the place and stead of Assignor and, to the extent of the Partnership Interest and as otherwise provided by law, hereby assumes and agrees to be bound by all of the obligations of Assignor under the Partnership Agreement arising after the date hereof, whether known or unknown, fixed or contingent and howsoever arising; provided, however, that the liabilities and obligations assumed by Assignee hereunder do not include (i) any claims related to Federal, state or local income, franchise, sales, property, transfer, document recording or other taxes of Assignor or the Partnership accruing prior to the date hereof or by reason of the assignment and transfer contemplated hereby or (ii) any other liabilities or obligations of Assignor or the Partnership accruing prior to the date hereof.

5. Counterparts. This Assignment may be executed in counterparts with the same effect as if all parties hereto had executed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute a single Assignment.

6. Governing Law. This Assignment shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with, and governed and enforced in all respects by, the laws of the State of [ ] without giving effect to the conflict of laws principles of such State.
