August 13, 1998

To the Stockholders of Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc.:

In February of this year, Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. ("SDG") announced its intention to combine with Corporate Property Investors, Inc. ("CPI") and its "paired share" affiliate, Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC"), in order to solidify its position as the largest developer, owner and operator of super-regional and regional shopping centers in the country. This strategic combination will be accomplished by means of a reverse merger and the acquisition of beneficial interests in CRC for cash. The combined company will be renamed Simon Property Group, Inc. ("Simon Group") and substantially all the members of the current Board of Directors and senior management of SDG will become members of the new Board of Directors and senior management of Simon Group. All of SDG's practices and policies, including investment and financing policies, will continue as Simon Group's practices and policies. Based upon the current capitalization of SDG and CPI, the stockholders of SDG would own, in the aggregate, approximately 67% of the outstanding Simon Group common stock following the merger.

As an important step to consummating this strategic acquisition, you are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of stockholders of SDG which will be held at The Indianapolis Hyatt Regency, One South Capitol Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana on September 23, 1998, at 10:00 a.m., Indianapolis time (the "SDG Special Meeting"). At the SDG Special Meeting, we will seek your approval of two proposals (the "SDG Proposals"): (i) the adoption of an amendment to the SDG Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "SDG Charter") which will provide for the granting of voting rights to the holders of outstanding preferred stock of SDG and (ii) the adoption of an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among SDG, CPI and CRC, pursuant to which a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of CPI will merge with and into SDG and the stockholders of SDG will become stockholders of CPI (which will be renamed Simon Property Group, Inc.). The affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the outstanding SDG common stock is required to approve the amendment to the SDG Charter, and the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of all the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the outstanding SDG common stock is required to approve the Merger Agreement. As indicated in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as of March 31, 1998, the officers and directors of SDG beneficially own 51,403,696 shares of SDG common stock (including non-voting units of partnership interests convertible into SDG common stock), or approximately 32.7% of the total outstanding shares.

THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER, THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE SDG CHARTER AMENDMENT, DETERMINED THAT THE MERGER AND THE SDG CHARTER AMENDMENT ARE IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF SDG AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS, AND RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL AND ADOPTION OF THE SDG PROPOSALS. The SDG Board of Directors has obtained an opinion from its independent financial advisor, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, to the effect that, at the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to certain matters stated therein, the consideration to be received by the SDG stockholders in the merger was fair to SDG stockholders from a financial point of view.

You are also cordially invited to attend the 1998 annual meeting of stockholders of SDG (the "SDG Annual Meeting"), which will be held immediately following the SDG Special Meeting.

THE ACCOMPANYING NOTICE OF SPECIAL AND ANNUAL MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS, PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS, AND THE ANNEXES THERETO, PROVIDE DETAILED INFORMATION CONCERNING MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE SPECIAL AND ANNUAL MEETINGS, THE REASONS FOR YOUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION OF THE MERGER, THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE SDG CHARTER AMENDMENT AND CERTAIN ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, INFORMATION ON SDG, CPI AND CRC. YOU ARE URGED TO CAREFULLY CONSIDER ALL OF THE INFORMATION IN THE ACCOMPANYING MATERIAL.

We realize this transaction appears complex and requires that you review a substantial amount of proxy material. Even so, we believe our ability to complete this combination and preserve the existence of CPI's paired share affiliate, CRC, will ultimately inure to the benefit of SDG's stockholders, notwithstanding the enactment of recent legislation limiting the future use of paired share structures. We urge you to carefully consider the attached proxy materials and hope you will conclude, as we have, that the combination of SDG and CPI will improve and strengthen what is already the largest retail real estate company in the country.

It is important that your shares of SDG common stock be represented at the SDG Special Meeting and at the SDG Annual Meeting, regardless of the number of shares you hold. Therefore, please sign, date and return your proxy cards as soon as possible, whether or not you plan to attend the SDG Special Meeting or the SDG Annual Meeting. This will not prevent you from voting your shares in person if you subsequently choose to attend the SDG Special Meeting and/or the SDG Annual Meeting.

Very truly yours,

/s/ David Simon

NOTICE OF SPECIAL AND ANNUAL MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

To the Stockholders of Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc.:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a Special Meeting (the "SDG Special Meeting") of stockholders of Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. ("SDG") will be held at The Indianapolis Hyatt Regency, One South Capitol Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana, on September 23, 1998, at 10:00 a.m., Indianapolis time.

At the SDG Special Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon the following proposals (the "SDG Proposals"):

(1) The approval and adoption of an amendment (the "Voting Preferred Amendment") to SDG's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "SDG Charter") to provide certain voting rights to the holders of SDG preferred stock. Approval of the Voting Preferred Amendment is a condition for the consideration of the Merger Proposal discussed below.

(2) The approval and adoption of an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among SDG, Corporate Property Investors, Inc. ("CPI") and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC") (the "Merger Proposal"), pursuant to which, among other things, a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of CPI will merge with and into SDG (the "Merger") and the stockholders of SDG will become stockholders of CPI (which will be renamed Simon Property Group, Inc.).

(3) To transact such other business as may properly come before the SDG Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the outstanding SDG common stock is required to approve the Voting Preferred Amendment, and the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of all the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the outstanding SDG common stock is required to approve the Merger Proposal. As indicated in the Proxy Statement/ Prospectus, as of March 31, 1998, the officers and directors of SDG beneficially own 51,403,696 shares of SDG common stock (including non-voting units of partnership interests convertible into SDG common stock), or approximately 32.7% of the total outstanding shares. Each of the Voting Preferred Amendment and the Merger Proposal is more completely described in the accompanying Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and a copy of the Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Annex A.

The 1998 Annual Meeting (the "SDG Annual Meeting" and, together with the SDG Special Meeting, the "SDG Meetings") of stockholders of SDG will be held immediately following the SDG Special Meeting, at the same location as the SDG Special Meeting, to consider and vote upon the following proposals:

(1) To elect eleven directors (five to be elected by the holders of the outstanding Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Common Stock"), Class B Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Class B Common Stock") and Class C Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Class C Common Stock" and together with SDG Common Stock and SDG Class B Common Stock, "SDG Equity Stock"), four to be elected by the holders of SDG Class B Common Stock and two to be elected by the holders of SDG Class C Common Stock), each to serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders or until their successors are elected and qualified.

(2) To approve the Simon Property Group, L.P. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "1998 Stock Incentive Plan").

(3) To ratify the appointment of Arthur Andersen LLP as independent accountants for SDG for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1998.

(4) To transact such other business as may properly come before the SDG Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Only holders of SDG Equity Stock of record at the close of business on July 20, 1998 will be entitled to vote at the SDG Meetings or any adjournment or postponement thereof. In accordance with the Maryland General Corporation Law, this notice is being sent to all stockholders of SDG.

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO ATTEND THE SDG MEETINGS, BUT REGARDLESS OF WHETHER YOU PLAN TO BE PRESENT, PLEASE PROMPTLY DATE, MARK, SIGN AND MAIL THE ENCLOSED PROXY IN THE ENVELOPE PROVIDED, WHICH REQUIRES NO ADDITIONAL POSTAGE IF MAILED IN THE UNITED STATES. ANY STOCKHOLDER WHO EXECUTES AND DELIVERS A PROXY MAY REVOKE THE AUTHORITY GRANTED THEREUNDER AT ANY TIME PRIOR TO ITS USE BY GIVING WRITTEN NOTICE OF SUCH REVOCATION TO THE UNDERSIGNED AT 115 WEST WASHINGTON STREET, INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA 46204, BY EXECUTING AND DELIVERING A PROXY BEARING A LATER DATE OR BY ATTENDING AND VOTING AT THE SDG MEETINGS. YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT, REGARDLESS OF THE NUMBER OF SHARES YOU OWN.

Please do not send any stock certificates with your proxy card. If the Merger is approved and adopted by the stockholders and the Merger is consummated, you will receive a transmittal form and instructions for the surrender of the certificates previously representing your shares of SDG Equity Stock.

Dated: August 13, 1998.

By Order of the Board of Directors of Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc.

PROXY STATEMENT
for

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS OF
SIMON DEBARTOLO GROUP, INC.
Each To Be Held on September 23, 1998

PROSPECTUS
for

CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, INC.
(To Be Renamed Simon Property Group, Inc.)
and

CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC.
(To Be Renamed SPG Realty Consultants, Inc.)

This Proxy Statement/Prospectus relates to the proposed merger and related transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., a Maryland corporation ("SDG"), Corporate Property Investors, Inc., a Delaware corporation and successor by merger to Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust (such entities collectively, "CPI"), and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CRC"). CPI will be renamed Simon Property Group, Inc. ("Simon Group") upon consummation of the merger provided for in the Merger Agreement. As used in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the term "CPI" refers to CPI and, unless the context otherwise requires, CRC prior to the Merger and "Simon Group" shall refer to CPI and, unless the context otherwise requires, CRC from and after the effective time of the merger provided for in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement provides for (a) the merger of a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of CPI with and into SDG (the "Merger"), and (b) the conversion of each outstanding share of (x) Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Common Stock"), (y) Class B Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Class B Common Stock") and (z) Class C Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of SDG ("SDG Class C Common Stock"), other than shares as to which dissenters' rights have been perfected, into the right to receive one share of (x) Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Simon Group ("Simon Group Common Stock"), (y) Class B Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Simon Group ("Simon Group Class B Common Stock") and (z) Class C Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Simon Group ("Simon Group Class C Common Stock"), respectively, all as more fully described in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. With respect to CPI's stockholders, the Merger Agreement provides for, immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger, the declaration of a dividend for each outstanding share of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of CPI ("CPI Common Stock," which from and after the effective time of the Merger shall be referred to as "Simon Group Common Stock"), consisting of: (a) $90.00 cash (subject to adjustment); (b) 1.0818 shares of CPI Common Stock; and (c) 0.19 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, of CPI ("CPI Series B Preferred Stock," which from and after the effective time of the Merger shall be referred to as "Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock"), all as more fully described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Each share of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock, and Simon Group Class C Common Stock (together, the "Simon Group Equity Stock") outstanding or issued in connection with the Merger will be paired with a beneficial interest in shares of Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share, of CRC ("CRC Common Stock" and together with each share of Simon Group Equity Stock, "Paired Shares") held by the CRC Trusts (as defined below).

This Proxy Statement/Prospectus is being furnished to the stockholders of SDG in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of SDG from holders of outstanding shares of SDG Equity Stock for use at the special meeting ("SDG Special Meeting") and annual meeting of stockholders of SDG (the "SDG Annual Meeting" and, together with the SDG Special Meeting, the "SDG Meetings") and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The SDG Special Meeting is scheduled to be held on September 23, 1998, at The Indianapolis Hyatt Regency, One South Capitol Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana at 10:00 a.m., Indianapolis time, and the SDG Annual Meeting will be held at the same location immediately following the SDG Special Meeting.

CPI (to be renamed Simon Group) has filed a registration statement on Form S-4 (the "Registration Statement") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") covering up to 114,970,862 shares of Simon Group Equity Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger. This represents the estimated maximum number of shares that could be issued in the Merger. The number will vary depending upon the number of shares of SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock as to which appraisal rights have been exercised by the holders thereof. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus constitutes the Prospectus of CPI filed as part of the Registration Statement with respect to the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger other than insofar as it relates to the SDG Annual Meeting. Shares of SDG Common Stock currently trade on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"). Application will be made to the NYSE to have shares of Simon Group Common Stock issued in connection with the Merger trade on the NYSE from and after the effective time of the Merger.

SEE "RISK FACTORS" ON PAGE 24 FOR MATERIAL RISK FACTORS THAT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED RELATING TO THE MERGER.

This Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the accompanying form of proxy and the other enclosed documents are first being mailed to stockholders of SDG on or about August 13, 1998.

THE SECURITIES ISSUABLE IN THE MERGER HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION OR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION NOR HAS THE COMMISSION OR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

The date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is August 13, 1998.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

CPI (to be renamed Simon Property Group, Inc.) and CRC (to be renamed SPG Realty Consultants, Inc.) have filed with the Commission a Registration Statement (which term shall include all amendments, exhibits, annexes and schedules thereto) pursuant to the Securities Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, covering the Simon Group Equity Stock to be issued by CPI in connection with the Merger. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus does not contain all of the information set forth in the Registration Statement, certain parts of which are omitted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Commission. For further information, reference is hereby made to the Registration Statement. Statements made in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as to the contents of any contract, agreement or other document referred to are not necessarily complete. With respect to each such contract, agreement or other document filed as an exhibit to the Registration Statement or incorporated by reference herein, reference is made to the exhibit for a more complete description of the matters involved, and each such statement shall be deemed qualified in its entirety by such reference. CPI and CRC intend to continue to furnish their stockholders with annual reports containing financial statements audited by their independent public accountants. The information in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus concerning SDG, CPI and CRC has been furnished by SDG, CPI and CRC, respectively, and all pro forma information has been prepared by SDG.

SDG is subject to the informational requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and in accordance therewith files reports, proxy and information statements and other information with the Commission. Such reports and other information can be inspected and copied at the public reference facilities maintained by the Commission at Room 1024, Judiciary Plaza, 450 Fifth St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549, and at the Regional Offices of the Commission at 7 World Trade Center, 13th Floor, New York, New York 10048 and Citicorp Center, 500 West Madison Street, Suite 1400, Chicago, Illinois 60661-2511. Copies of such material can be obtained by mail from the Public Reference Section of the Commission at Room 1024, Judiciary Plaza, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549 at prescribed rates. The Commission maintains a Web site (http://www.sec.gov) that contains reports, proxy and information statements and other materials that are filed through the Commission's Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis and Retrieval (EDGAR) system. In addition, the SDG Common Stock is listed on the NYSE and SDG is required to file reports, proxy and information statements and other information with the NYSE. These documents can be inspected at the principal office of the NYSE, 11 Wall Street, New York, New York 10005.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements under the captions "RISK FACTORS" and "THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS" and elsewhere in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus constitute "forward-looking statements." Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of SDG, Simon Group, CPI or CRC or industry results to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the following: general economic and business conditions, which will, without limitation, affect demand for retail space or retail goods, availability and creditworthiness of prospective tenants, lease rents and the availability of financing; adverse changes in the real estate markets including, without limitation, competition with other companies; risks of real estate development and acquisition; the continuing ability of SDG, Simon Group, CPI or CRC to qualify as real estate investment trusts; adverse changes in federal income tax law (including the enactment of certain proposals currently pending in Congress); risks relating to Year 2000 issues; governmental actions and initiatives; environmental/safety requirements; and other changes and factors referenced in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. See "RISK FACTORS."

INCORPORATION OF CERTAIN DOCUMENTS BY REFERENCE

THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS INCORPORATES CERTAIN SDG DOCUMENTS BY REFERENCE WHICH ARE NOT PRESENTED HEREIN OR DELIVERED HEREWITH. DOCUMENTS OF SDG INCORPORATED HEREIN BY REFERENCE ARE AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST FROM JAMES M. BARKLEY, SECRETARY, SIMON DEBARTOLO GROUP, INC., 115 WEST WASHINGTON STREET, INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA 46204, (317) 636-1600. IN ORDER TO ENSURE TIMELY DELIVERY OF THE DOCUMENTS, ANY REQUESTS SHOULD BE MADE NO LATER THAN FIVE BUSINESS DAYS PRIOR TO THE DATE OF THE SDG MEETINGS.

The following documents of SDG filed with the Commission (File No. 1-12618) are incorporated herein by reference:

1. SDG's Annual Report on Form 10-K and Forms 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 1997;

2. SDG's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 1998;

3. SDG's Current Reports on Form 8-K dated February 19, 1998, March 27, 1998, May 27, 1998, June 9, 1998 and August 12, 1998; and

4. SDG's Annual Report on Form 11-K for the year ended December 31, 1997.

In addition, all reports and other documents subsequently filed by SDG pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), prior to the date of the SDG Meetings shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference herein and to be a part hereof from the date of filing of such reports and documents. Any statement contained in a document incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus to the extent that a statement contained in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed to constitute a part of this Proxy Statement/ Prospectus except as so modified or superseded.

SDG WILL PROVIDE, WITHOUT CHARGE, TO EACH PERSON WHO RECEIVES THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS, UPON THE WRITTEN OR ORAL REQUEST OF SUCH PERSON, A COPY OF SUCH DOCUMENTS INCORPORATED HEREIN BY REFERENCE (NOT INCLUDING EXHIBITS TO SUCH INFORMATION UNLESS THE EXHIBITS THEMSELVES ARE SPECIFICALLY INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE). REQUESTS FOR DOCUMENTS SHOULD BE MADE AS SPECIFIED ABOVE.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SUMMARY

The following is a summary of certain significant matters contained in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Annexes hereto. This summary is not intended to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the Annexes hereto and the other documents referred to herein. Terms used but not defined in this Summary have the meanings ascribed to them elsewhere in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Cross references in this Summary are to the captions of sections of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Stockholders of SDG should read carefully this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Annexes hereto in their entirety.

PARTIES TO THE MERGER

SDG

SDG, a Maryland corporation, is a self-administered and self-managed real estate investment trust ("REIT") under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). Simon DeBartolo Group, L.P. (the "SDG Operating Partnership") is a majority owned subsidiary partnership of SDG. SDG, through the SDG Operating Partnership, is engaged primarily in the ownership, operation, management, leasing, acquisition, expansion and development of real estate properties, primarily regional malls and community shopping centers.

As of March 31, 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership owned or held an interest in 217 income-producing properties, which consisted of 133 regional malls, 74 community shopping centers, three specialty retail centers, four mixed-use properties and three value-oriented super-regional malls located in 34 states ("SDG Properties"). As of that same date, the SDG Operating Partnership also owned direct or indirect interests in one specialty retail center and two community centers under construction, an additional two community centers in the final stages of preconstruction development and seven parcels of land either in preconstruction development or held for future development (collectively, "SDG Development Properties," and together with the SDG Properties, "SDG Portfolio Properties"). The SDG Operating Partnership self-manages SDG Properties wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by the SDG Operating Partnership. The SDG Operating Partnership holds substantially all of the economic interest in M.S. Management Associates, Inc. (the "SDG Management Company"), while substantially all of the voting stock of the SDG Management Company is held by Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon. The SDG Management Company manages SDG Properties not wholly owned by the SDG Operating Partnership and certain other properties, and also engages in certain property development activities. The SDG Operating Partnership also holds substantially all of the economic interest in, and the SDG Management Company holds substantially all of the voting stock of, DeBartolo Properties Management, Inc. ("DPMI"), which provides architectural, design, construction and other services to substantially all of the SDG Portfolio Properties, as well as certain other regional malls and community shopping centers owned by third parties. At March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, SDG's ownership interest in the SDG Operating Partnership was 63.1% and 63.9%, respectively, and the Simons (constituting Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon, David Simon, certain of their affiliates and includes certain other Simon family members and estates, trusts and other entities established for their benefit) and certain third parties (collectively, "SDG Limited Partners") held the remaining interests in the SDG Operating Partnership not held directly or indirectly by SDG.

As a result of the Merger, SDG will become a subsidiary of Simon Group. Based upon the capitalization of SDG and CPI on the date hereof, SDG stockholders would own in the aggregate approximately 67% of the outstanding shares of Simon Group Equity Stock following the Merger. Even though SDG stockholders will receive in the Merger new shares of common stock of a new entity -- Simon Group -- substantially all the members of the current Board of Directors and senior management of SDG will become members of the new Board of Directors and senior management of Simon Group. All of SDG's practices and policies, including investment and financing policies, will continue as Simon Group's practices and policies. The SDG Charter will be amended and restated upon consummation of the Merger to change the name of SDG to "SPG Properties, Inc." The principal executive offices of SDG are located at National City Center, 115 West Washington Street, Suite 15 East, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, telephone number (317) 636-1600.

CPI

CPI is a self-administered and self-managed, privately-held REIT that primarily owns interests in regional malls and also holds a portfolio of other commercial income-producing properties (collectively, the "CPI Portfolio Properties"). The 23 regional malls in which CPI owns interests contain an aggregate gross leasable area ("GLA") of approximately 27 million square feet. As used in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and unless the context requires otherwise, "GLA" for a property includes area owned by third parties other than SDG or CPI at that property. The largest of such malls is Roosevelt Field in Hempstead, New York which contains approximately 2.36 million square feet of GLA. CPI was organized as a Massachusetts business trust in 1971 and was incorporated as a Delaware corporation on March 10, 1998 (the "CPI Reorganization"). As used in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the term "CPI Board" refers to the CPI Board of Trustees prior to the CPI Reorganization and the CPI Board of Directors after the CPI Reorganization. The CPI Certificate of Incorporation will be amended and restated immediately prior to or upon consummation of the Merger to, among other things, change the name of CPI to "Simon Property Group, Inc." and accommodate the capital structure of Simon Group contemplated by the Merger. As used in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, "Simon Group" refers to CPI and unless the context otherwise requires, CRC from and after the Effective Time (as defined below) of the Merger. "Effective Time" refers to such date as the articles of merger or other appropriate documents, duly prepared and executed by SDG and a substantially wholly-owned subsidiary of CPI in accordance with Section 3-110 of the Maryland General Corporation Law ("MGCL"), are accepted for record by the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland ("Maryland State Department") as provided in Section 3-113 of the MGCL or at such other time as may be agreed upon by the parties and specified in the articles of merger in accordance with applicable law. The principal executive offices of CPI are currently located at Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, 305 East 47th Street, New York, New York 10017, telephone number (212) 421-8200. The principal executive offices of Simon Group will be located at National City Center, 115 West Washington Street, Suite 15 East, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, telephone number (317) 636-1600.

CRC

CRC was formed in October 1975 for the purpose of engaging in real estate activities that might be problematic for CPI because of its qualification as a REIT for federal income tax purposes. CPI and CRC are parties to an agreement pursuant to which CRC may not engage in any activity that could be engaged in by CPI without jeopardizing its status as a REIT unless CPI shall have been given a right of first refusal to engage in such activity, and CPI may not refer to any person other than CRC any business opportunity that could not be engaged in by CPI without jeopardizing its status as a REIT unless CRC shall have been given the right of first refusal to take advantage of such opportunity. Since the holders of CPI Common Stock own a proportionate beneficial interest in one or more trusts which own all the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock, CPI and CRC are treated as a "paired share REIT" for federal income tax purposes. Since the shares were paired prior to the effective date of the relevant Code provision that generally precludes such pairing, CPI and CRC are currently grandfathered from such provision with respect to assets acquired by either CPI or CRC prior to March 26, 1998. See "RISK FACTORS -- Certain Tax Risks -- REIT Classification; Legislation Limiting Benefits of Paired Share Status." CRC at the present time owns the office building in New York City where its principal executive offices are located and is developing approximately 144 acres of land surrounding CPI's Mall of Georgia project in Buford, Georgia. See "BUSINESS OF SDG, CPI AND CRC -- DEVELOPMENT -- Mall of Georgia." The CRC Certificate of Incorporation will be amended and restated immediately prior to, or upon consummation of, the Merger to, among other things, change the name of CRC to "SPG Realty Consultants, Inc." As used in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, "Simon Group" refers to CPI and unless the context otherwise requires, CRC from and after the Effective Time of the Merger. The principal executive offices of CRC are currently located at Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, 305 East 47th Street, New York, New York 10017, telephone number (212) 421-8200. The principal executive offices of CRC from and after the Effective Time of the Merger will be located at National City Center, 115 West Washington Street, Suite 15 East, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, telephone number (317) 636-1600.

BENEFITS AND DETRIMENTS OF THE MERGER

The Merger means that SDG stockholders will have a stake in the country's largest developer, owner and operator of super regional and regional shopping malls. The Merger will give Simon Group potentially greater access to the capital markets, expand the geographic diversification of SDG's ownership and operation of properties into Boston, Massachusetts and Atlanta, Georgia, and enhance SDG's operations in the New York metropolitan area, California and Florida. The combination of CPI's properties with SDG's properties could thus limit the impact that adverse economic or real estate conditions in a particular region might have on Simon Group as a whole. See "THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS -- Recommendation of the SDG Board of Directors; Reasons for the Merger."

Substantial management time and effort will be required to effectuate the Merger and integrate the businesses of SDG and CPI. The Merger will have a dilutive effect on the net income per share of Simon Group Common Stock on a pro forma basis of $0.10 for the three months ended March 31, 1998, after reducing pro forma net income for a gain totaling $44.3 million, or approximately $0.19 per share, related to a sale of real estate and may have a dilutive effect on net income per share in future periods. The Merger has a dilutive effect of $0.54 on the net income per share of Simon Group Common Stock on a pro forma basis for the year ended December 31, 1997 (after giving effect to the elimination of a $0.56 gain on sale of real estate) and may have a dilutive effect on net income per share in future periods. The Merger will increase the ratio of debt to market capitalization, excluding a pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness, of SDG from 45.8% as of March 31, 1998 to 46.4% for Simon Group as of March 31, 1998 on a pro forma basis. This increase in the ratio of debt to total market capitalization could adversely affect the ability of Simon Group to obtain debt financing for additional development and would subject Simon Group to the risks of higher leverage. See "RISK FACTORS -- Substantial Indebtedness of Simon Group."

STRUCTURE OF SIMON GROUP

As of March 31, 1998, SDG owned or held interests in the SDG Portfolio Properties through its 63.1% general partnership interest in the SDG Operating Partnership. As of March 31, 1998, the SDG Limited Partners held 64,059,705 units in the SDG Operating Partnership ("SDG Units"), representing the remaining 36.9% interest in the SDG Operating Partnership not held directly or indirectly by SDG. As of such date, the Simons beneficially owned 34,584,455 SDG Units, representing 19.9% of the outstanding SDG Units. The operations of SDG are carried out through the SDG Operating Partnership and the SDG Management Company. SDG Units held by SDG Limited Partners may be exchanged for shares of SDG Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or for cash at SDG's option (the "SDG Exchange Rights"). If all SDG Units held by SDG Limited Partners outstanding on March 31, 1998, including the Simons and the other SDG Limited Partners, were exchanged for SDG Common Stock, an aggregate 64,059,705 additional shares of SDG Common Stock would be issued.

CPI owns or holds interests in the CPI Portfolio Properties directly or indirectly through subsidiaries. At March 31, 1998, on a pro forma basis assuming the exercise of all CPI options and after giving effect to the per share dividends to be declared by CPI on the CPI Common Stock prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the Merger Agreement ("CPI Merger Dividends"), CPI would have had outstanding 54,412,100 shares of CPI Common Stock, 209,249 shares of 6.50% Convertible Preferred Stock of CPI ("CPI Series A Preferred Stock," which from and after the Effective Time shall be referred to as "Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock") and 4,966,038 shares of CPI Series B Preferred Stock. After giving effect to the Merger, the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock will be convertible into approximately 7,950,492 shares of Simon Group Common Stock and the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock will be convertible into approximately 12,842,426 shares of Simon Group Common Stock. See "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK -- PREFERRED STOCK -- Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock -- Conversion Rights." Each outstanding share of Simon Group Equity Stock from and after the Effective Time will be paired with beneficial interests in one or more trusts (the "CRC Trusts") which own all of the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger" and "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK -- COMMON STOCK; BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF CRC COMMON STOCK."

The Merger will result in the combination of the existing businesses and properties of SDG, CPI and CRC. The businesses will be conducted and substantially all of such properties will be held through the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more subsidiaries of the SDG Operating Partnership. The SDG Operating Partnership will be renamed Simon Property Group L.P. upon consummation of the Merger. In the Merger, a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of CPI will merge with and into SDG, with SDG being the surviving company and becoming a subsidiary of Simon Group (with Simon Group owning in excess of 99.9% of its outstanding common stock). In exchange for each of their shares of SDG Common Stock, SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock, the stockholders of SDG will receive one share of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock, respectively. Based upon the capitalization of SDG and CPI on March 31, 1998, the stockholders of SDG would own in the aggregate approximately 67% of the outstanding shares of Simon Group Equity Stock following the Merger.

The SDG Operating Partnership will continue in existence after the Merger under an amended and restated limited partnership agreement (the "Amended SPG Operating Partnership Agreement"). In accordance with the SDG Operating Partnership Agreement and the Amended SPG Operating Partnership Agreement, Simon Group is obligated to contribute substantially all of its assets and liabilities to the SDG Operating Partnership in exchange for additional partnership units. The partnership units may be exchanged for shares of Simon Group Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or for cash at Simon Group's option. At the Effective Time, Simon Group will transfer, or direct the transfer of, substantially all of its assets (i.e., all the assets other than assets valued at approximately $153.1 million, including Ocean County Mall valued at approximately $145.8 million) and liabilities (except that Simon Group will remain a co-obligor with the SDG Operating Partnership under a $1.4 billion senior unsecured term loan pursuant to a commitment letter with The Chase Manhattan Bank and Chase Securities, Inc.) to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more subsidiaries of the SDG Operating Partnership in consideration for 49,858,940 limited partnership interests (which equals the number of shares of CPI Common Stock outstanding after the CPI Merger Dividends, less the number of shares equal to the value of the former CPI assets and liabilities retained by Simon Group) and 5,175,287 preferred partnership interests (which equals the number of shares of CPI Series A Preferred Stock and CPI Series B Preferred Stock outstanding after the CPI Merger Dividends). The value of the assets and liabilities retained by Simon Group or transferred to the SDG Operating Partnership is based on the consideration to be received or retained by the stockholders of CPI in connection with the Merger and on the reported closing trading price per share of SDG Common Stock of $33 5/8 on February 18, 1998, the last trading date preceding public announcement of the Merger. The fair market value of the former CPI assets less liabilities to be transferred by Simon Group to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more of its subsidiaries is estimated at approximately $2.4 billion. See "PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA -- Note 3. Analysis of Stockholders' Equity." Such transfer will result in a reduction of the SDG Limited Partners' interests, in the aggregate, in the SDG Operating Partnership from 36.9% to 28.6%, assuming the Merger had occurred on March 31, 1998. On March 31, 1998, Melvin and Herbert Simon, Simon Group's Co-Chairmen, and David Simon, Simon Group's Chief Executive Officer, beneficially held 9.9%, 5.8% and 1.3%, respectively, of the SDG Operating Partnership, and after such transfer beneficially will hold 7.7%, 4.5% and 1.0%, respectively, assuming such transfer had occurred on March 31, 1998. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger -- The Operating Partnerships After the Merger; Simon Group Contribution Agreement." See also "RISK FACTORS -- Potential Conflicts of Interests Related to Operations," "-- Limits on Change of Control" and "-- Dependence on Key Personnel." Each of SDG and SD Property Group, Inc. (of which SDG owns in excess of 99.9% of its outstanding common stock) will continue as a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership. Simon Group, both directly and indirectly through its ownership of SDG, will own an approximate 71.4% interest in the SDG Operating Partnership assuming the Merger had occurred on March 31, 1998, and will be a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership.

The businesses and the assets of CRC will be held by a newly formed operating partnership (the "SRC Operating Partnership"), of which CRC will be the sole general partner. In connection with the formation of the SRC Operating Partnership, SDG, as a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership, Simon Group, CRC and the SDG Limited Partners will enter into a partnership agreement (the "SRC Operating Partnership Agreement"), pursuant to which, assuming the Merger had occurred on March 31, 1998, (i) CRC will contribute all of its assets and liabilities to the SRC Operating Partnership for an interest in the SRC Operating Partnership and (ii) the SDG Operating Partnership will contribute assets, including, without limitation, land held for future development, to the SRC Operating Partnership for units ("CRC Units") representing the remaining limited partnership interest in the SRC Operating Partnership. The SDG Operating Partnership will then distribute the CRC Units to the holders of SDG Units in proportion to their ownership interest in the SDG Operating Partnership, whereupon such holders also will become limited partners of the SRC Operating Partnership (the "CRC Limited Partners"); such that following such contributions and distribution, CRC will own a 71.4% interest and the SDG Limited Partners will own a 28.6% interest in the SRC Operating Partnership. Following the Merger, the CRC Units (together with the SDG Units, the "Units") will be paired with the SDG Units and may be exchanged (together with the SDG Units) for shares of Simon Group Equity Stock (together with beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock) on a one-for-one basis or for cash at Simon Group's option. Following the Merger, the SDG Units and CRC Units may not be exchanged or transferred separately, but only as a single unit.

After giving effect to the Merger and to the foregoing transactions, holders of SDG Equity Stock will own shares of Simon Group Equity Stock which are paired with beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock. Holders of SDG Units will own SDG Units which are paired with the CRC Units, and such paired Units will be exchangeable for shares of Simon Group Common Stock which are paired to beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock.

POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST RELATED TO THE MERGER AND OPERATIONS

The SDG Board of Directors and SDG management will not receive any consideration for their SDG Equity Stock different from consideration received by other holders of SDG Equity Stock in connection with the Merger. However, in considering the recommendation of the SDG Board of Directors with respect to the Merger, SDG stockholders should be aware that certain members of management and the SDG Board of Directors have certain interests as holders of SDG Units that are in addition to the interests of the SDG stockholders generally. At the Effective Time, Simon Group will transfer, or direct the transfer of, substantially all of its assets (i.e., all the assets other than assets valued at approximately $153.1 million, including Ocean County Mall valued at approximately $145.8 million) and liabilities (except that Simon Group will remain a co-obligor with the SDG Operating Partnership under a $1.4 billion senior unsecured term loan pursuant to a commitment letter with The Chase Manhattan Bank and Chase Securities, Inc.) to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more subsidiaries of the SDG Operating Partnership in consideration for 49,858,940 limited partnership interests (which equals the number of shares of CPI Common Stock outstanding after the CPI Merger Dividends, less the number of shares equal to the value of the former CPI assets and liabilities retained by Simon Group) and 5,175,287 preferred partnership interests (which equals the number of shares of CPI Series A Preferred Stock and CPI Series B Preferred Stock outstanding after the CPI Merger Dividends). The value of the assets and liabilities retained by Simon Group or transferred to the SDG Operating Partnership is based on the consideration to be received or retained by the stockholders of CPI in connection with the Merger and on the reported closing trading price per share of SDG Common Stock of $33 5/8 on February 18, 1998, the last trading date preceding public announcement of the Merger. The fair market value of the former CPI assets less liabilities to be transferred by Simon Group to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more of its subsidiaries is estimated at approximately $2.4 billion. Such transfer will result in a reduction of the SDG Limited Partners' interests, in the aggregate, in the SDG Operating Partnership from 36.9% to 28.6%, assuming the Merger had occurred on March 31, 1998. In accordance with the terms of the partnership the SDG Units may be exchanged for shares of Simon Group Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or for cash at Simon Group's option. Prior to the transfer of assets and liabilities, Melvin and Herbert Simon, Simon Group's Co-Chairmen, and David Simon, Simon Group's Chief Executive Officer, beneficially held 9.9%, 5.8% and 1.3%, respectively, of the SDG Operating Partnership and beneficially held 13.8%, 8.5% and 2.0%, respectively, of SDG (including SDG Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of SDG Units), and after such transfer beneficially will hold 7.7%, 4.5% and 1.0%, respectively, of the SDG Operating Partnership and beneficially will hold 9.6%, 5.8% and 1.4%, respectively of Simon Group (including Simon Group Common Stock issuable upon the conversion of SDG Units). See "RISK FACTORS -- Potential Conflicts of Interests Related to Operations" and "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger."

RISK FACTORS

The stockholders of SDG, in reaching a decision regarding the Merger Proposal, should consider carefully certain factors set forth herein under the heading "RISK FACTORS." Simon Group will be subject to substantial indebtedness and the risks associated with debt financing, including the risk that cash flow from operations will be insufficient to meet required payments of principal and interest, the risk that existing indebtedness will not be able to be refinanced or that terms of such refinancing will not be favorable. In connection with the Merger, Simon Group will incur a substantial amount of additional debt thereby increasing its exposure to the risks associated with debt financing. Assuming the Merger occurred on March 31, 1998 and excluding pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness, Simon Group would have an additional $2.405 billion of indebtedness, including the assumption of all of CPI and CRC's indebtedness of $858.8 million. SDG's obligations under the Merger Agreement are not conditioned on the obtaining of financing. Certain indentures governing notes of CPI require redemption of $575 million of the outstanding aggregate amount of $825 million of notes if substantially all of CPI's assets are transferred to a successor issuer that is not a REIT. As part of the Merger, SDG intends to transfer substantially all of CPI's assets to the SDG Operating Partnership, which is not a REIT. SDG intends to commence a consent solicitation to holders of the notes to, among other things, amend the indentures to permit the transfer to the SDG Operating Partnership. If the consent solicitation is not successfully completed prior to the Merger, substantially all of the assets will be transferred to The Retail Property Trust ("RPT"), which transfer certain holders of notes believe may require waivers. SDG believes that the assignment of CPI's assets to RPT fully complies with the provisions of the CPI indentures. SDG and CPI are large enterprises with operations nationwide. There can be no assurance that costs or other factors associated with the integration of the two companies will not adversely affect the benefits of estimated cost savings and future combined results of operations. The Merger has a dilutive effect of $0.10 on the net income per share of Simon Group Common Stock on a pro forma basis for the three months ended March 31, 1998 (after giving effect to the elimination of a $0.19 per share gain on a sale of real estate) and a dilutive effect of $0.54 on the net income per share of Simon Group Common Stock on a pro forma basis for the year ended December 31, 1997 (after giving effect to the elimination of a $0.56 gain on sale of real estate), and may have a dilutive effect on net income per share in future periods.

Other factors to be considered include the following: (i) possible subordination of rights of current holders of Simon Group Equity Stock and SDG Units; (ii) federal income tax consequences; (iii) potential conflicts of interest related to operations; (iv) certain tax risks, including proposed tax legislation; (v) REIT classification; legislation limiting benefits of paired share status; (vi) real estate investment risks, including factors affecting revenues and economic value of shopping centers, illiquidity of real estate, dependence on anchors and tenants, renewal of leases and reletting of space and failure to manage expansion and development growth strategy; (vii) limited control with respect to certain properties partially owned or managed by third parties; (viii) competition; (ix) possible liability relating to environmental matters; (x) limits on change of control; (xi) comparison of stockholders' rights; (xii) dependence on key personnel; (xiii) risks relating to year 2000 issue; (xiv) impact of interest rate fluctuations and other factors on stock price and borrowing costs; (xv) risks related to interest rate hedging arrangements; and (xvi) possible adverse effects on stock prices arising from shares available for future sale. See "RISK FACTORS" for a complete discussion of such factors.

TIME, PLACE AND DATE OF SDG MEETINGS; RECORD DATE

The SDG Special Meeting will be held at The Indianapolis Hyatt Regency, One South Capitol Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana, on September 23, 1998 at 10:00 a.m., Indianapolis time. The SDG Annual Meeting will be held immediately following the SDG Special Meeting at the same location as the SDG Special Meeting. Stockholders of record at the close of business on July 20, 1998 (the "Record Date") are entitled to one vote for each share of SDG Equity Stock held at the SDG Meetings or any adjournments or postponements thereof. As of the Record Date, 113,686,334 shares of SDG Equity Stock were issued and outstanding.

PURPOSE AND REQUIRED APPROVAL

The purpose of the SDG Special Meeting is to consider and vote on: (i) the approval and adoption of an amendment (the "Voting Preferred Amendment") to the SDG Charter to provide certain voting rights to holders of SDG's 8 3/4% Series B Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock ("SDG Series B Preferred Stock") and 7.89% Series C Cumulative Step-Up Premium Rate Preferred Stock ("SDG Series C Preferred Stock" and together with the SDG Series B Preferred Stock, the "SDG Preferred Stock"); (ii) the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the "Merger Proposal"); and (iii) such other business as may properly come before the SDG Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

The affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the outstanding SDG Equity Stock is required to approve the Voting Preferred Amendment. Consideration of the Merger Proposal is contingent upon approval of the Voting Preferred Amendment and, accordingly, effectiveness of the Merger Proposal is conditioned upon the approval of the Voting Preferred Amendment. The affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of all the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the outstanding SDG Equity Stock is required to approve the Merger Proposal.

In the event that there are not a sufficient number of votes to approve the Voting Preferred Amendment or the Merger Proposal at the time of the SDG Special Meeting, the persons present or named as proxies by a stockholder may propose and vote for one or more adjournments of the SDG Special Meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies. A proxy that withholds discretionary authority or that is voted against the Voting Preferred Amendment or the Merger Proposal will not be voted in favor of any adjournment or postponement of the SDG Special Meeting. The SDG Special Meeting may be adjourned by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present in person or by proxy.

The purpose of the SDG Annual Meeting is to consider and vote on: (i) the election of eleven directors (five to be elected by the holders of SDG Equity Stock, four to be elected by the holders of SDG Class B Common Stock and two to be elected by the holders of SDG Class C Common Stock); (ii) the approval of the Simon Property Group, L.P. 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "1998 Stock Incentive Plan"); (iii) the ratification of the appointment of Arthur Andersen LLP as independent accountants; and (iv) such other business as may properly come before the SDG Annual Meeting. Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast for the election of directors. The approval of the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan and the ratification of the appointment of the independent accountants each will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter.

TERMS OF MERGER; MERGER CONSIDERATION

The following description of the Merger Agreement summarizes the material terms of the Merger Agreement and does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Annex A and incorporated herein by reference. Stockholders of SDG are urged to read the Merger Agreement in its entirety.

General. The Merger Agreement provides that upon the terms and subject to the conditions described below, at the Effective Time, a subsidiary of CPI shall be merged with and into SDG in accordance with the MGCL with SDG continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger. As a result, SDG will become a subsidiary of Simon Group, with Simon Group owning in excess of 99.9% of its outstanding common stock. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS." The Board of Directors of Simon Group and CRC at the Effective Time will consist of 13 directors and will include 10 directors designated by SDG and three directors designated by CPI, which directors, in each case, will remain directors until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal.

The Merger Consideration. The Merger Agreement provides that each outstanding share of SDG Common Stock, SDG Class B Common Stock, and SDG Class C Common Stock (other than shares held by SDG as treasury stock, shares owned by CPI, CRC, any wholly owned entity of CPI or CRC or shares as to which appraisal rights have been perfected) shall be converted into the right to receive one share of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock, respectively.

Total consideration to be received and retained by a holder of CPI Common Stock at the time of the execution of the Merger Agreement was equal to approximately $179 per share, consisting of $90 in cash, subject to the collar provisions described in "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger -- The Merger Consideration," approximately $70 in Simon Group Common Stock (based on the reported closing trading price of SDG Common Stock of $33 5/8 on February 18, 1998, the last trading date preceding the announcement of the Merger, and a fixed ratio of 1.0818 additional shares of CPI Common Stock for each share of CPI Common Stock held) and approximately $19 in Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock. The trading price of the Simon Group Common Stock at the Effective Time may be higher or lower than $33 5/8, and if so, the value of the Simon Group Common Stock to be received by CPI stockholders will be more or less than approximately $70 depending upon the direction of the price movement. Specifically, the Merger Agreement provides that prior to the Effective Time CPI shall declare the CPI Merger Dividends on the shares of CPI Common Stock consisting of (i) the Cash Amount (as defined below); (ii) 1.0818 shares of CPI Common Stock and (iii) 0.19 shares of CPI Series B Preferred Stock. The holders of shares of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock outstanding or issued in connection with the Merger will receive a beneficial interest in shares of CRC Common Stock held by the CRC Trusts. The "Cash Amount" shall be $90.00 per share of CPI Common Stock if the Market Price for SDG Common Stock is greater than or equal to $28.58 and less than or equal to $38.67 and otherwise shall be adjusted as follows: (i) if the Market Price for the SDG Common Stock at the Effective Time exceeds $38.67, then the Cash Amount shall be reduced by an amount equal to such excess multiplied by 2.0818 and (ii) if the Market Price for SDG Common Stock at the Effective Time is less than $28.58, then the Cash Amount shall be increased by an amount equal to such deficiency multiplied by 2.0818. The "Market Price" shall be the average of the closing prices per share for the SDG Common Stock on the NYSE for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day prior to the Effective Time.

The following table sets forth the differing Cash Amounts using various sample SDG Market Prices:

SDG MARKET PRICE	CASH AMOUNT
$27.00	$93.29
$28.58 - $38.67	$90.00
$40.00	$87.23

If the Effective Time were August 12, 1998, the Market Price would be equal to $32.08 and the Cash Amount would be $90.00 per share of CPI Common Stock. The Cash Amount is set based upon the Market Price pursuant to the collar provisions described above, which only can be determined after the SDG Meetings and on the fifth trading day prior to the Effective Time. The Effective Time is anticipated to be on September 24, 1998. Interested parties may call MacKenzie Partners, Inc. at (800) 322-2885 to obtain the current anticipated Effective Time and a current example of the Cash Amount to be issued on a per share basis. Prior to the Merger, each of SDG and CPI shall declare a Special Distribution (as defined below) to their respective stockholders, the record date for which shall be the close of business on the last business day prior to the Effective Time. "Special Distribution" means the distribution to be made by each of SDG and CPI to their respective stockholders in amounts proportional to dividends paid to SDG's or CPI's (as the case may be) stockholders for the last full quarter preceding the Effective Time, prorated over the number of days elapsed in the quarter in which the Effective Time occurs from the beginning of such quarter to the Effective Time.

The consideration to be received by each of the SDG stockholders and each of the CPI stockholders was determined based on an arm's length negotiation of the Merger Agreement and the desired structure for the transaction.

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger. In addition to the adoption of the Voting Preferred Amendment, the consummation of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including, among others: (i) the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement by the requisite vote of the SDG stockholders; (ii) the approval of the issuance of shares and related beneficial interests by the requisite vote of the CPI and CRC stockholders (which approval will be given pursuant to the substantially similar stockholder voting agreements already entered into by certain CPI stockholders representing more than a majority of CPI Common Stock and more than two-thirds of the CPI Series A Preferred Stock, with SDG (the "Stockholder Voting Agreements") in which such stockholders agreed to vote in favor of the Merger and related transactions and which assure that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, other than the adoption of the Simon Group Charter which requires the vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding voting stock and is a condition to the Merger, will be approved by CPI and CRC stockholders at a vote on the matter); (iii) the Registration Statement having become effective in accordance with the Securities Act, no stop order suspending such effectiveness having been issued and remaining in effect and no proceeding seeking such an order being pending or threatened; (iv) the receipt of all state securities or "blue sky" permits and other authorizations necessary to issue securities pursuant to the Merger Agreement, including under the CPI Option Plan and the SDG Option Plans (collectively, the "Option Plans") after the Merger, and securities upon conversion of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock; (v) the Simon Group Common Stock issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement and the CPI Common Stock (which from and after the Effective Time shall be referred to as "Simon Group Common Stock") previously outstanding and issuable under the Option Plans or upon conversion of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock after the Merger having been authorized for listing on the NYSE; (vi) no court of competent jurisdiction or other competent governmental or regulatory authority having enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any law or order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) which is then in effect and has the effect of making illegal or otherwise restricting, preventing or prohibiting consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and (vii) each party shall have received a satisfactory opinion of its special counsel as to certain tax matters. All of the foregoing conditions to the consummation of the Merger are subject to the waiver by the parties to the Merger Agreement. Neither SDG nor CPI intends to waive any material condition to the consummation of the Merger, including the condition requiring the delivery of an opinion of their respective special tax counsel. In the event that a material condition is waived by either SDG or CPI, SDG and CPI intend to amend and recirculate the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Termination. The Merger Agreement may be terminated, and transactions contemplated thereby may be abandoned, at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether prior to or after the approvals required by the SDG, CPI and CRC stockholders: (a) by mutual written agreement of the parties duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of their respective boards of directors; or (b) by either SDG or CPI upon notification to the nonterminating party by the terminating party: (i) at any time after November 30, 1998, if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or prior to such date and such failure to consummate the Merger is not caused by a breach of the Merger Agreement by the terminating party or any of its affiliates; (ii) if the requisite approval of the stockholders of SDG, CPI or CRC shall not be obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the requisite vote upon a vote held at a meeting of such stockholders, or any adjournment thereof, called therefor; (iii) if there has been a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the nonterminating party set forth in the Merger Agreement, which breach is not curable or, if curable, has not been cured within 30 days following receipt by the nonterminating party of notice of such breach from the terminating party; or (iv) if any court of competent jurisdiction or other competent governmental or regulatory authority shall have issued an order making illegal or otherwise restricting, preventing or prohibiting the Merger and such order shall have become final and nonappealable. Any reference to any event, change or effect being "material" or "materially adverse" or having a "material adverse effect" on or with respect to an entity means such event, change or effect is material or materially adverse, as the case may be, to the business, properties, assets, liabilities, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of such entity.

Termination Fees. In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated by CPI due to a willful breach by SDG pursuant to clause (b)(iii) of the preceding paragraph, or as a result of the requisite SDG stockholder approval not being obtained at any time prior to November 30, 1998 pursuant to clause (b)(ii) of the preceding paragraph, SDG will be required to pay CPI a termination fee of $50 million, payable in annual installments over a two year period (subject to a limitation intended to prevent a violation of certain requirements for qualifying as a REIT under sections 856 through 860 of the Code and Applicable Treasury Regulations ("REIT Requirements")). In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated by SDG due to a willful breach by CPI pursuant to clause (b)(iii) of the preceding paragraph, CPI will be required to pay SDG a termination fee of $50 million, payable in annual installments over a two year period (subject to a limitation intended to prevent a violation of certain REIT Requirements). Any portion of either termination fee that is not paid by the end of the second year due to limitations of the REIT Requirements shall be forfeited.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE BOARDS OF DIRECTORS

SDG. On February 19, 1998, the SDG Board of Directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and determined that the Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby are fair to and in the best interests of SDG and its stockholders. The SDG Board of Directors recommends that the SDG stockholders VOTE FOR approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement. See "THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS -- Recommendation of the SDG Board of Directors; Reasons for the Merger."

CPI and CRC. On February 18, 1998, the CPI Board and CRC Board of Directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and determined that the Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby are fair to and in the best interests of CPI and CRC and their stockholders. See "THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS -- Recommendation of the CPI Board and the CRC Board of Directors; CPI's and CRC's Reasons for the Merger."

OPINIONS OF FINANCIAL ADVISORS

Opinion of Merrill Lynch. On February 19, 1998, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated ("Merrill Lynch") delivered its oral opinion (which was subsequently confirmed in writing) to the SDG Board of Directors to the effect that, as of February 19, 1998, the consideration to be received by the holders of SDG Equity Stock in the Merger was fair to such stockholders from a financial point of view. A copy of the written opinion of Merrill Lynch dated February 19, 1998, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of its review, is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex B. SDG has agreed to pay Merrill Lynch a fee equal to approximately $7 million in connection with the Merger, which fee is payable only upon consummation of the Merger. See "THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS -- Opinion of Financial Advisor to SDG."

Opinions of Lazard Freres and J.P. Morgan. On February 18, 1998, Lazard Freres & Co. LLC ("Lazard Freres") and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. ("J.P. Morgan") (collectively, the "CPI Financial Advisors") delivered their oral opinions (which were subsequently confirmed in writing) to the CPI Board to the effect that, as of February 18, 1998, the consideration to be received or retained by the holders of CPI Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. A copy of the written opinion of Lazard Freres dated February 18, 1998, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of its review, is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex C. A copy of the written opinion of J.P. Morgan dated February 18, 1998, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of its review, is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex D. CPI has agreed to pay each of the CPI Financial Advisors approximately $10 million in connection with the Merger, which fees are payable only upon consummation of the Merger. See "THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS -- Opinions of Financial Advisors to CPI."

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS AND AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE MERGER

In connection with the Merger Agreement and the Merger, certain additional agreements have been or will be entered into on or prior to the Effective Time.

CPI Stockholder Voting Agreements. At the time SDG and CPI entered into the Merger Agreement, certain stockholders of CPI, representing 15,811,456 shares (approximately 62.4%) of CPI Common Stock and 153,450 shares (approximately 73.3%) of the CPI Series A Preferred Stock, entered into the Stockholder Voting Agreements. Stockholder Voting Agreements were entered into by each of Stichting Pensioenfonds Voor De Gezondheid Geestelijke En Maatschappelijke Belangen ("PGGM"), the Kuwait Fund for Arab Economic Development, the Arab Fund for Economic and Social Development, the Kuwait Investment Authority, as Agent for the Government of Kuwait, and State Street Bank and Trust Company, not individually but solely in its capacity as Trustee of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust (collectively, the "Stockholders"). The Stockholder Voting Agreements are applicable to all CPI Common Stock, CPI Series A Preferred Stock and the related beneficial interests in shares of CRC Common Stock owned by each of the stockholders who have entered into the Stockholder Voting Agreements (collectively, the "Owned Shares"). Until the expiration of the "Voting Period" (the earliest of (x) the Effective Time, (y) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms or (z) November 30, 1998), each of the stockholders has agreed to vote its Owned Shares in favor of the Merger and the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and each of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The Stockholder Voting Agreements assure that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, other than the adoption of the Simon Group Charter which requires the vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding voting stock and is a condition to the Merger, will be approved by CPI and CRC stockholders at a vote on the matter.

The Operating Partnerships After the Merger; Simon Group Contribution Agreement. Pursuant to an agreement to be entered into between Simon Group and SDG, as the general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership (the "Contribution Agreement"), at the Effective Time Simon Group will transfer, or direct the transfer of, substantially all of its assets and liabilities to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more subsidiaries in consideration for limited partnership interests in the SDG Operating Partnership, as more fully described below under "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger -- The Operating Partnerships After the Merger; Simon Group Contribution Agreement" and "-- Structure of Simon Group."

Following the Merger and assuming the exercise of all CPI options and the contribution of assets and liabilities of Simon Group to the SDG Operating Partnership, Simon Group, directly and through its ownership of SDG, will own an approximate 71.4% interest in the SDG Operating Partnership and will be a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership. The SDG Limited Partners will own beneficially, in the aggregate, a 28.6% limited partnership interest in the SDG Operating Partnership.

In connection with the Merger, CRC will contribute all of its assets and liabilities to the newly-formed SRC Operating Partnership, will own a 71.4% interest in the SRC Operating Partnership and will be the sole general partner of the SRC Operating Partnership. The SDG Limited Partners also will become limited partners of the SRC Operating Partnership and will own beneficially, in the aggregate, the remaining 28.6% limited partnership interest in the SRC Operating Partnership. The Amended SDG Operating Partnership Agreement will provide for the pairing of SDG Units with CRC Units. The limited partnership agreement of the SDG Operating Partnership (the "SDG Operating Partnership Agreement") currently provides that the net proceeds of all offerings of shares of capital stock by SDG will be contributed to the SDG Operating Partnership in consideration for the issuance to SDG of additional interests in the SDG Operating Partnership. Following the Merger, the Amended SDG Operating Partnership Agreement and the SRC Operating Partnership Agreement will each provide that the net proceeds of all offerings of shares of capital stock by Simon Group, which shares (to the extent they consist of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock or convertible Simon Group Preferred Stock) will be paired with beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock, will be contributed to the operating partnerships. Upon such contribution, the SDG Operating Partnership will issue to Simon Group, and the SRC Operating Partnership will issue to CRC, an additional number of paired Units in such operating partnerships equal to the number of such shares and beneficial trust interests issued by Simon Group and CRC, respectively. The Amended SDG Operating Partnership Agreement and the SRC Operating Partnership Agreement also will provide that the net proceeds of all incurrences of indebtedness by Simon Group (or its subsidiaries) or CRC will be loaned to the SDG Operating Partnership or the SRC Operating Partnership, as the case may be. The SDG Operating Partnership Agreement currently provides that holders of SDG Units have the right to exchange all or any portion of their SDG Units for SDG Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or, at SDG's option, cash equal to the then market value of such shares, as determined by SDG. Following the Merger, each SDG Unit together with the paired CRC Unit will be exchangeable for cash or for a share of Simon Group Common Stock and a beneficial interest in CRC Common Stock, as determined by Simon Group and CRC.

Under the provisions of SDG's existing registration rights agreements, holders of SDG Units who receive shares of SDG Common Stock in exchange for such SDG Units have the right, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, to require that SDG register such shares for public distribution. As described below, New Registration Rights Agreements will be executed to provide that the holders of the SDG Units who receive shares of Simon Group Common Stock will have the right, under such circumstances and subject to such conditions, to require that Simon Group register such shares of Simon Group Common Stock for public distribution.

Simon Group Issuance Agreement. In connection with the Merger, Simon Group and CRC will enter into an issuance agreement (the "Issuance Agreement"), the purpose of which is to ensure that a portion of the consideration paid for any newly issued Simon Group Equity Stock is transferred to CRC as consideration for the beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts paired with such newly issued stock. Pursuant to the Issuance Agreement, whenever Simon Group issues shares of Simon Group Equity Stock or Simon Group Preferred Stock convertible into shares of Simon Group Common Stock (but only to the extent such preferred stock is designated as "Special Preferred Stock"), CRC shall issue to the CRC Trusts a number of shares of CRC Common Stock such that, immediately after such issuance of CRC Common Stock, the CRC Proportionate

Interest of each CRC Trust shall equal the Simon Group Proportionate Interest of the series of capital stock of Simon Group related to such CRC Trust. For purposes of the foregoing, the "CRC Proportionate Interest" for any CRC Trust at any date shall mean a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of CRC Common Stock held in such CRC Trust and the denominator of which shall be the number of shares of CRC Common Stock outstanding, and the "Simon Group Proportionate Interest" shall mean (i) with respect to the Simon Group Equity Stock at any date, a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock outstanding at such date and the denominator of which shall be the sum of the number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock outstanding and the aggregate number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock issuable upon conversion of all outstanding shares of all series of Simon Group Special Preferred Stock, and (ii) with respect to any series of Simon Group Special Preferred Stock, a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock issuable upon conversion of such series of Special Preferred Stock and the denominator of which shall be the sum of the number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock outstanding and the aggregate number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock issuable upon conversion of all outstanding shares of all series of Simon Group Special Preferred Stock. Pursuant to the Issuance Agreement, whenever CRC shall issue shares of CRC Common Stock, Simon Group shall simultaneously pay to CRC an amount equal to the greater of (i) the aggregate par value of the shares of CRC Common Stock issued and (ii) the amount determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of CRC to represent the fair market net asset value of the shares of CRC Common Stock issued (less the aggregate consideration paid to CRC by parties other than Simon Group in connection with such issuance of CRC Common Stock). See "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK -- COMMON STOCK; BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF CRC COMMON STOCK."

Issuance of Interests in CRC and SRC Operating Partnership. In accordance with the Issuance Agreement, the SDG Operating Partnership will arrange for cash to be contributed at the Effective Time on behalf of SDG's stockholders to CRC as payment (the "CRC Payment") for the beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts (which will be paired with the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock to be issued to SDG stockholders in the Merger). The SDG Operating Partnership will also simultaneously arrange for cash to be contributed at the Effective Time on behalf of the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership to the SRC Operating Partnership as payment (the "Operating Partnership Payment") for CRC Units which will, in turn, be received by the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership. This is intended to ensure that the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership have the same proportionate interest in the SRC Operating Partnership as they will have in the SDG Operating Partnership. The CRC Payment reflects the amount of cash required to be paid to CRC such that, following such contribution, SDG stockholders will hold the same proportionate interest in CRC as they will hold in Simon Group upon consummation of the Merger, without diluting the value of beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts paired with the previously outstanding shares of CPI Common Stock. Based upon a preliminary estimate of the value of CRC's net assets as determined by SDG's management, the amount of the CRC Payment is estimated to be approximately $14 million and the Operating Partnership Payment is estimated to be approximately $8 million. At the Effective Time, the Board of Directors of CRC will make a determination of the fair market value of CRC's net assets based upon information then available. SDG's management does not expect that the final amount will differ materially from the preliminary estimates. The CRC Payment will be contributed by CRC to the SRC Operating Partnership and all amounts will be used for working capital and general purposes, subject to restrictions described in the SRC Operating Partnership Agreement. See "CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE SDG OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SRC OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SIMON GROUP CHARTER, THE CRC CHARTER, SIMON GROUP BY-LAWS AND CRC BY-LAWS AND DELAWARE LAW."

To implement the CRC Payment, the following actions will be taken by the SDG Operating Partnership and its general partners. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the SDG Operating Partnership will distribute the CRC Payment to its general partners, SD Property Group, Inc. and SDG. SD Property Group, Inc. will, in turn, dividend the cash it receives from the SDG Operating Partnership to SDG and its other stockholders who own, in the aggregate, less than .01% of SD Property Group, Inc. The CRC Payment will be held by SDG, which will, at the Effective Time, transfer the cash dividend it holds to CRC as payment on behalf of its stockholders for the beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts to be paired with the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock to be issued to SDG stockholders in the Merger. Pursuant to the terms of the CRC Trusts, the beneficial interests of CRC will be automatically paired with the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock issued to SDG stockholders in the Merger. To implement the Operating Partnership Payment, the SDG Operating Partnership will make the Operating Partnership Payment in consideration for CRC Units, which will, in turn, be received by the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership.

New Registration Rights Agreements. Simon Group will enter into registration rights agreements or amendments to existing registration rights agreements, effective at or as promptly as practicable following the Effective Time ("New Registration Rights Agreements"), granting registration rights with respect to shares of Simon Group Equity Stock and Simon Group Preferred Stock, as applicable, held by certain existing stockholders of CPI and issuable upon exchange of SDG Units held by existing stockholders of SDG, including Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon. The terms and conditions of the New Registration Rights Agreements are substantially similar to those of SDG's existing registration rights agreements.

NEW REIT LEGISLATION

Legislation enacted in 1984 requires that paired entities be treated as one entity for purposes of determining whether either entity meets the REIT Requirements. This legislation does not apply to a paired REIT if the REIT and its paired operating company were paired as of June 30, 1983.

On July 22, 1998, President Clinton signed into law legislation that terminates the "grandfathering" rule described above with respect to assets ("Non-Grandfathered Assets") acquired (or substantially improved) by either paired entity after March 26, 1998. Assets acquired subject to a binding written contract in force on March 26, 1998 (such as the Merger Agreement) are deemed to be acquired on March 26, 1998 and therefore are excluded from Non-Grandfathered Assets. As a result of this legislation, Simon Group and CRC will be treated as one entity with respect to Non-Grandfathered Assets for purposes of determining whether either entity qualifies as a REIT. Consequently, the benefits of the "grandfathering" rule described above will be eliminated for any Non-Grandfathered Assets acquired by Simon Group or CRC.

There are no current plans to change the paired-share status of Simon Group. In addition, the management of Simon Group does not believe that this legislation will materially affect Simon Group. Because Simon Group is engaged primarily in owning and operating regional malls and community shopping centers, i.e., real estate of a type that can be owned and operated directly by a REIT, Simon Group has no present need, and would derive no material benefit from, conducting its operations by leasing its real estate to CRC or the SRC Operating Partnership. Furthermore, Simon Group has no current intention to acquire real estate of a type that cannot be operated directly by a REIT, and accordingly, does not believe that this legislation will adversely affect its current acquisition strategy. The legislation will, however, limit Simon Group's ability to change its current acquisition strategy to include the acquisition of real estate other than of a type that can be owned and operated directly by a REIT. For example, prior to enactment of the legislation, Simon Group could have acquired a hotel and leased it to the SRC Operating Partnership. After enactment of the legislation, such a transaction could, depending on its size, result in the loss of Simon Group's REIT status.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE LISTING OF SIMON GROUP COMMON STOCK

As a condition to the Merger, the Simon Group Common Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock will be listed on the NYSE. If the Merger is completed, Simon Group stockholders would be able to trade shares of Simon Group Common Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock on the NYSE. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger," "-- Conditions to Consummation of the Merger," "-- Termination; Termination Fees and Amendment," and "FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS CONSEQUENCES."

REGULATORY APPROVAL

Other than (i) the Commission's declaring effective the Registration Statement containing this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, (ii) approvals in connection with compliance with applicable blue sky or state securities laws, (iii) the filing of the articles of merger with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland, (iv) the filing of such reports under Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act as may be required in connection with the Merger Agreement and related transactions and (v) such filings as may be required in connection with the payment of any taxes or the transfer of properties, neither the management of SDG nor the management of CPI believes that any filing with or approval of any governmental authority is necessary in connection with the consummation of the Merger.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The Merger is expected to qualify for treatment as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, and the SDG stockholders who exchange their SDG Equity Stock for Simon Group Equity Stock will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange except that gain will be recognized where SDG stockholders receive cash proceeds in lieu of fractional interests in shares of Simon Group Equity Stock greater than the tax basis allocated to such stockholders' fractional share interests to the extent of such excess. Although the matter is not entirely clear, Simon Group intends to treat and report the receipt of beneficial interest in the CRC Common Stock by SDG stockholders as a distribution governed by Section 301 of the Code (governing dividends), and not as a payment of "other property" or "boot" in the tax-free reorganization. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of SDG Equity Stock." In the event that the Merger does not qualify as a tax-free reorganization, each SDG stockholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the stockholder's tax basis in the SDG Common Stock and the fair market value of the Simon Group Equity Stock received in the Merger. Upon receipt of cash in exchange for its shares, a dissenting stockholder will recognize a taxable gain or loss to the extent the cash received exceeds or is less than the dissenting stockholder's basis in its shares. See "-- Appraisal Rights" and "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of SDG Equity Stock."

COMPARATIVE RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS OF SDG AND SIMON GROUP

SDG is incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland and Simon Group will be incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. SDG stockholders will, upon consummation of the Merger, become stockholders of Simon Group and their rights as such will be governed by Delaware law, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Simon Group Charter") of Simon Group, the Restated By-laws (the "Simon Group By-laws") of Simon Group, the Restated Certificate of CRC (the "CRC Charter") and the Restated By-laws of CRC (the "CRC By-laws"). Important differences exist between the laws of Maryland and the rights of stockholders of SDG and the laws of Delaware and the rights of stockholders of Simon Group and CRC. For example, the SDG Charter provides that directors only may be removed for cause by the stockholders while the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter will provide that directors may be removed with or without cause by the stockholders. The MGCL provides that stockholders may take action by unanimous written consent while the Simon Group Charter will require that all actions by Simon Group Common Stock holders be taken at an annual or special meeting of the stockholders and the CRC Charter will provide that stockholders may take action by written consent. The SDG By-laws provide that written notice of every meeting of the stockholders be given not less than 10 nor more than 90 calendar days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote the such meeting, while the Simon Group By-laws and CRC By-laws limit the notice period to not less than 10 nor more than 60 calendar days before the date of the meeting. In addition, the SDG Charter imposes a limit of 24% on the ownership of SDG Equity Stock by a member of the Simon Family Group and a limit of 6% on the ownership of SDG Equity Stock by any other stockholder. The Simon Group Charter imposes a limit of 18% on the ownership of SDG Equity Stock by a member of the Simon Family Group and a limit of 8% on the ownership of SDG Equity Stock by any other stockholder. For a description of these and other differences between the rights of holders of SDG Equity Stock and Simon Group Equity Stock, see "RISK FACTORS -- Comparison of Stockholders' Rights" and "COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SDG COMMON STOCK AND SIMON GROUP AND CRC COMMON STOCK."

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

The MGCL sets forth the rights of stockholders who object to a merger to demand and receive fair value for their stock ("appraisal rights"). No appraisal rights are available to holders of SDG Common Stock and SDG Series B Preferred Stock because the SDG Common Stock and SDG Series B Preferred Stock are listed on a national securities exchange (i.e., the NYSE). In addition, no appraisal rights are available to holders of either SDG Series B Preferred Stock or SDG Series C Preferred Stock because the SDG Series B Preferred Stock and SDG Series C Preferred Stock are stock of the successor in the Merger (SDG), the Merger will not alter the contract rights of this stock and this stock will not be changed in the Merger into something other than stock in the successor or cash.

The holders of SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock have appraisal rights available to them because neither class of stock is listed on a national securities exchange and because the shares of each class will be converted in the Merger into Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock. The MGCL provides that these rights are available only if the stockholder (a) files with the corporation a written objection to the Merger at or before the meeting of stockholders at which the transaction will be considered and (b) does not vote in favor of the transaction. In addition, the stockholder must make a written demand on the successor corporation for payment for the stock within 20 days of the acceptance of the articles of merger by the Maryland State Department. The MGCL requires that the successor corporation, SDG, promptly notify each objecting stockholder in writing of the date the articles of merger are accepted for record by the Maryland State Department. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Appraisal Rights," "COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SDG COMMON STOCK AND SIMON GROUP AND CRC COMMON STOCK -- Appraisal Rights" and Annex E hereto.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On August 11, 1998, SDG announced results for the quarter and six months ended June 30, 1998. Total revenue for the quarter increased 26.6% to $310.4 million as compared to $245.1 million in 1997. Net income available to holders of SDG Common Stock for the quarter increased 10.1% to $27.5 million as compared to $25.0 million in 1997.

Total revenue for the six months increased 25.3% to $610.6 million as compared to $487.5 million in 1997. Net income available to holders of SDG Common Stock for the six months increased 54.9% to $51.4 million as compared to $33.2 million in 1997. Occupancy for mall and freestanding stores in the regional malls at June 30, 1998 increased 1.8% to 87.0%, as compared to 85.2% at June 30, 1997. Total retail sales generated in the regional mall portfolio for the first six months of 1998 increased 44.7% to $4.2 billion as compared to the prior year. Total retail sales per square foot in the regional mall portfolio increased 8.5% to $318, over the same period in 1997 while comparable retail sales per square foot increased 8.6%, to $328. Average base rents for mall and freestanding stores in the regional mall portfolio were $23.10 per square foot at June 30, 1998, an increase of $2.16, or 10.3%, from $20.94 at June 30, 1997. The average initial base rent for new leases signed in 1998 was $24.97, an increase of $5.45, or 27.9% over the tenants who closed or whose leases expired. The foregoing description of SDG's recent developments is more fully described in SDG's Current Report on Form 8-K dated August 12, 1998.

SUMMARY PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA

Simon Group Pro Forma Combined Condensed Financial Data

The following pro forma combined financial data for Simon Group prepared by the management of SDG are derived from the historical financial data of SDG, CPI and CRC.

The pro forma combined Balance Sheet Data as of March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, are presented as if the Merger and related transactions and the Other Property Transactions (as defined below) had occurred on March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, respectively. The pro forma combined Operating Data is presented as if the Merger and related transactions and the Other Property Transactions had occurred as of January 1, 1997, and carried forward therefrom.

Preparation of the pro forma financial information was based on assumptions deemed appropriate by the management of SDG. The assumptions give effect to the Merger being accounted for as a reverse purchase in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and the cash contributed to CRC and the CRC Operating Partnership as stock and partnership units for cash transactions. CRC assets and liabilities will continue to be reflected at historical costs as the SDG stockholders' beneficial interest in CRC will be less than 80% and the combined entity qualifying as a REIT, distributing all of its taxable income and, therefore, incurring no federal income tax expense during the periods presented. The pro forma financial information is not necessarily indicative of the results which actually would have occurred if the Merger and related transactions and the Other Property Transactions had been consummated at the beginning of the periods presented, nor does it purport to represent the future financial position and results of operations for future periods. The pro forma information should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements of SDG, incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and CPI and CRC, included elsewhere herein. See "PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA -- Simon Group Pro Forma Combined Condensed Financial Data."

(1) Prior to the acquisition by SDG on August 9, 1996 of the national shopping center business of DeBartolo Realty Corporation ("DRC") for an aggregate value of approximately $3.0 billion (the "DeBartolo Merger"), SDG was known as Simon Property Group, Inc. which completed its initial public offering of its common stock in December 1993. Simon Property Group was the predecessor of Simon Property Group, Inc.

(2) Refer to Note 3 to SDG's audited financial statements included in SDG's Form 10-K and Forms 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 1997 which are incorporated by reference herein to describe the DeBartolo Merger, which occurred on August 9, 1996, and the 1997, 1996, and 1995 real estate acquisitions and development.

(3) Per share data is reflected only for SDG, because the historical combined financial statements of the Predecessor are a combined presentation of partnerships and corporations.

(4) Represents distributions declared per period. A distribution of $0.1515 per share was declared on August 9, 1996, in connection with the DeBartolo Merger, designated to align the time periods of distributions of the merged companies. The current annual distribution rate is $2.02 per share.

(5) FFO, as defined by NAREIT, means the consolidated net income of the SDG Operating Partnership and its subsidiaries without giving effect to real estate related depreciation and amortization, gains or losses from extraordinary items, gains or losses on sales of real estate, gains or losses on investments in marketable securities and any provision/benefit for income taxes for such period, plus the allocable portion, based on the SDG Operating Partnership's ownership interest, of funds from operations of unconsolidated joint ventures, all determined on a consistent basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Management believes that FFO is an important and widely used measure of the operating performance of REITs, which provides a relevant basis for comparison among REITs. FFO is presented to assist investors in analyzing the performance of SDG. SDG's method of calculating FFO may be different from the methods used by other REITs. FFO: (i) does not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles; (ii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income as a measure of SDG's operating performance or to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities; and (iii) is not an alternative to cash flows as a measure of SDG's liquidity. In March 1995, NAREIT modified its definition of FFO. The modified definition provides that amortization of deferred financing costs and depreciation of nonrental real estate assets are no longer to be added back to net income in arriving at FFO. This modification was adopted by SDG beginning in 1996. Additionally the FFO for prior periods has been restated to reflect the modification in order to make the amounts comparative. Under the previous definition, FFO for the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1994, was $208.3 million and $176.4 million, respectively.

The following summarizes FFO of the SDG Operating Partnership and reconciles income of the SDG Operating Partnership before extraordinary items to FFO for the periods presented:

Summary Historical Financial Data of CPI

The following table sets forth summary historical financial data for CPI and should be read in conjunction with the audited and unaudited consolidated financial statements of CPI and the related notes, included elsewhere herein. The information under Balance Sheet Data as of March 31, 1998 and all other summary financial information for the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 has been derived from the unaudited consolidated financial statements of CPI included herein. The information under Balance Sheet Data as of December 31, 1997 and 1996 and all other summary financial information for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 has been derived from the annual audited consolidated financial statements of CPI included herein. Such statements account for the investments in real estate joint ventures under the equity method of accounting. The audited financial statements for other years and years-end were based on pro rata consolidation of CPI's investment in real estate joint ventures. The financial information presented below for such years has been derived from the audited financial statements after adjustments to reflect the investments in real estate joint ventures under the equity method. The information under Balance Sheet Data as of March 31, 1997 has been derived from the unaudited consolidated financial statements of CPI.

(1) CRC is not a REIT and accordingly it is a taxable entity. CRC computes Funds from Operations, as used in the above table, as consolidated net income without giving effect to depreciation and amortization (excluding amortization of deferred financing costs or assets other than those uniquely significant to the real estate industry and depreciation of non-rental real estate assets), gains or losses from extraordinary items, gains or losses on sales of real estate plus the allocable portion, based on CRC's ownership interest, of Funds from Operations of unconsolidated entities, all determined on a consistent basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. CRC's management believes that Funds from Operations is a widely used supplemental measure of the operating performance of real estate companies which provides a relevant basis for comparison among real estate companies. Funds from Operations is presented to assist investors in analyzing the performance of CRC. CRC's method of calculating Funds from Operations may be different from the methods used by other real estate companies and is different from the method used by CPI and SDG because a provision for income taxes is deducted from net income. Funds from Operations: (i) does not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles; (ii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income as a measure of operating performance or to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities; and (iii) is not an alternative to cash flows as a measure of liquidity.

RISK FACTORS

SDG stockholders should carefully consider all of the information contained in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including the following risk factors, before approving the Merger. Unless the context otherwise requires and except as otherwise specified, references to "Simon Group" include CRC and entities owned or controlled by Simon Group and CRC following consummation of the Merger, including SDG and entities owned or controlled by SDG, including the SDG Operating Partnership and the SRC Operating Partnership.

SUBSTANTIAL INDEBTEDNESS OF SIMON GROUP

Simon Group will be subject to the risks normally associated with debt financing, including the risk that Simon Group's cash flow from operations will be insufficient to meet required payments of principal and interest, the risk that existing indebtedness will not be able to be refinanced or that the terms of such refinancing will not be as favorable as the terms of such indebtedness and the risk that necessary capital expenditures for such purposes as renovations and other improvements will not be able to be financed on favorable terms or at all. Certain significant expenditures associated with a property (such as mortgage payments) generally will not be reduced when circumstances cause a reduction in income from such property. Should such events occur, Simon Group's Funds From Operations (as defined below) and its ability to make expected distributions to its stockholders may be adversely affected. If a property is mortgaged to secure payment of indebtedness and Simon Group is unable to make payments on such indebtedness, the property could be transferred to the mortgagee with a possible consequent loss of income and asset value to Simon Group. "Funds From Operations" means, except as otherwise specified in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, net income before depreciation and amortization of real estate property assets, gains or losses from extraordinary items, gains or losses on sales of real estate, gains or losses on investments in marketable securities and any provision/benefit for income taxes for such period, plus the allocable portion, based on ownership interest, of funds from operations of unconsolidated entities all determined on a consistent basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Certain of the indebtedness of Simon Group will contain cross-default and cross-collateralization features among various properties. Under cross-default provisions, a default under any mortgage included in the cross-defaulted package constitutes a default under all such mortgages and can lead to acceleration of the indebtedness due on each property within the collateral package. Pursuant to the cross-collateralization feature, the excess of the value of a property over the mortgage indebtedness specific to that property serves as additional collateral for indebtedness against each other property within that particular financing package.

Certain loans of Simon Group have and will have floating interest rates. In certain cases, Simon Group will continue to be a party to existing interest rate protection agreements with financial institutions whereby these institutions agree to indemnify Simon Group against the risk of increases in interest rates above certain levels. On a pro forma basis, assuming the Merger occurred on March 31, 1998, of the $3.4 billion total amount of the consolidated floating rate indebtedness of Simon Group on such date, $2.9 billion would not be covered by such arrangements.

In connection with the Merger, the SDG Operating Partnership will incur a substantial amount of additional debt, thereby increasing its exposure to the risks associated with debt financing. On June 22, 1998 the SDG Operating Partnership consummated a private placement of $1.075 billion aggregate principal amount of fixed rate notes, the proceeds of which were used primarily to repay amounts outstanding under the Credit Facilities. Simon Group has approximately $1.0 billion available under the terms of its unsecured revolving credit facilities (the "Credit Facilities") as of March 31, 1998 on a pro forma basis, as adjusted to reflect the consummation of the $1.075 billion private placement and the cancellation of a $300 million Credit Facility. A commitment letter with The Chase Manhattan Bank and Chase Securities Inc. (which acted as one of SDG's financial advisors in connection with the Merger) has been entered into for a $1.4 billion senior unsecured term loan to partially finance the CPI Merger Dividends, pursuant to which Simon Group and the SDG Operating Partnership will be co-obligors following consummation of the Merger. The remainder of the CPI Merger Dividends is expected to be financed from the proceeds of the sale of the General Motors Building (which sale has been consummated) and borrowing under existing credit facilities. SDG is exploring various means by which to obtain financing prior to the closing of the Merger. Such financing may consist of public or private offerings of equity or debt, or a combination thereof. No assurance can be given, however, that SDG will successfully obtain the financing necessary to consummate the Merger, or if obtained, that such financing will be on terms and conditions favorable to SDG. SDG's obligations under the Merger Agreement are not conditioned on the obtaining of financing. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Conditions to Consummation of Merger."

Assuming the Merger occurred on March 31, 1998 and excluding pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness, Simon Group would have had approximately $7.735 billion of pro forma combined consolidated indebtedness and an additional $2.405 billion of indebtedness including the assumption of all of CPI and CRC's indebtedness of $858.8 million as of such date, as compared to historical indebtedness of SDG of $5.330 billion. Such indebtedness will not cause SDG or Simon Group to fail to comply with any of SDG's current debt agreements. The pro forma ratio of debt to market capitalization of Simon Group as of March 31, 1998, assuming a consolidated indebtedness of approximately $7.735 billion and assuming the Merger occurred on March 31, 1998, would have been 46.4% as compared to 45.8% for SDG on a historical basis as of March 31, 1998. Assuming the Merger occurred March 31, 1998 and assuming consummation of the SDG Operating Partnership's $1.075 billion private placement, approximately $3.6 billion of Simon Group's consolidated debt will mature on or before December 31, 2002. Simon Group does not expect to have sufficient cash flow to make all of the balloon payments of principal when due under indebtedness secured by mortgages on certain properties. It is intended that Simon Group will refinance such debt at or before maturity. However, there can be no assurance that Simon Group will be able to refinance such indebtedness or otherwise to obtain funds by selling assets or by raising equity. An inability to make any such balloon payment when due would permit the mortgage lender to foreclose on such properties, which could have a material adverse effect on Simon Group. Interest rates on any debt issued to refinance such mortgage debt may be higher than the rates on such mortgage debt, which could adversely affect cash available for distribution before debt repayments and capital expenditures. See "SIMON GROUP PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA."

FAILURE TO CONSUMMATE CPI NOTES SOLICITATION

CPI currently has outstanding an aggregate of $825 million of notes (the "CPI Notes"). In connection with the Merger, SDG proposes that substantially all of CPI's assets will be transferred to the SDG Operating Partnership and SDG Operating Partnership will become the successor obligor to CPI under the indentures governing the CPI Notes (collectively, the "CPI Indentures"). Certain of the CPI Indentures contain provisions that would require the redemption of $575 million of the CPI Notes if substantially all of CPI's assets were to be transferred to a successor issuer that is not a REIT. The SDG Operating Partnership is not a REIT. Because the SDG Operating Partnership is not a REIT, and in order to permit it to become the successor obligor on the CPI Notes, SDG intends to commence a consent solicitation of the holders of the CPI Notes to amend the CPI Indentures to, among other things, (i) enable CPI to transfer all or substantially all of its assets to the SDG Operating Partnership in connection with the Merger, which will, in turn, assume the obligations of CPI under the CPI Indentures, and (ii) conform certain financial and other covenants contained in the CPI Indentures to similar provisions applicable to certain outstanding unsecured notes of the SDG Operating Partnership. If holders of at least 66 2/3% in outstanding principal amount of each issue of CPI Notes consent to the proposed amendments to the CPI Indentures prior to the Merger, the SDG Operating Partnership will become the successor obligor on the CPI Notes.

If the consent solicitation is not successfully completed prior to the Merger, substantially all of the assets of CPI will be transferred to RPT and RPT will assume CPI's obligations under the CPI Notes. RPT is a REIT subsidiary of the SDG Operating Partnership, more than 99.99% owned by the SDG Operating Partnership on a fully diluted basis. As a consequence of RPT's REIT status the redemption provisions described above will not be triggered in connection with the Merger.

SDG and CPI have received inquiries from the trustee under the CPI Indentures and certain holders of the CPI Notes as to the means being utilized to effect compliance with the terms of the CPI Indentures in connection with the Merger. Certain of such holders have expressed their view that they do not believe compliance may be effected without receiving waivers from the requisite percentage of holders of the CPI Notes. SDG believes that the transfer of CPI's assets to RPT and RPT's assumption of liabilities of CPI described above (including CPI's obligations under the CPI Notes) fully complies with the provisions of the CPI Indentures. In any event, even if the maturity of the $825 million of CPI Notes were to be accelerated, SDG and the SDG Operating Partnership believe that they will have adequate resources to refinance such CPI Notes, together with any "make whole" premium determined to be payable in connection therewith.

COSTS OF FAILURE TO INTEGRATE OPERATIONS

SDG and CPI are large enterprises with operations nationwide. There can be no assurance that costs or other factors associated with the integration of the two companies (including the failure to integrate the businesses and operating strategies and policies of the two companies on a timely basis and the substantial management time and effort required during the transition period) will not adversely affect the benefits of estimated cost savings (which SDG expects to increase Funds From Operations per share) and future combined results of operations. While SDG has successfully integrated other portfolios, such as in connection with the DeBartolo Merger, in the past, there can be no assurances that costs or timing associated with the integration of the two companies will not adversely affect the estimated cost savings and revenue synergies (which are expected to increase SDG's Funds From Operations) and future combined results of operations.

There can be no assurance that the estimated cost savings resulting from the Merger will be achieved and outweigh the costs and other factors associated with the integration of the two companies. Cost savings of approximately $30.4 million, representing approximately $21.0 million of overhead cost savings and approximately $9.4 million of operating cost savings, are estimated based on the elimination of corporate operating redundancies and mall operational inefficiencies, and revenue enhancements of approximately $19.4 million, representing approximately $6.0 million attributed to increased revenues from SDG marketing initiatives within the CPI property portfolio, approximately $8.2 million attributed to increased temporary tenant revenues and approximately $5.2 million attributed to other revenue opportunities (including insurance and rent), are estimated based on synergies resulting from the Merger. To the extent that these savings and revenue enhancements are not achieved, earnings and Funds From Operations of Simon Group will be negatively impacted.

DILUTION ON NET INCOME PER SHARE CAUSED BY THE MERGER

The Merger has a dilutive effect of $0.10 on the net income per share of Simon Group Common Stock on a pro forma basis for the three months ended March 31, 1998 (after giving effect to the elimination of a $0.19 per share gain on a sale of real estate) and a dilutive effect of $0.54 on the net income per share of Simon Group Common Stock on a pro forma basis for the year ended December 31, 1997 (after giving effect to the elimination of a $0.56 gain on sale of real estate) and may have a dilutive effect on net income per share in future periods. See "SIMON GROUP PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA." SDG management believes that if the expected cost savings and revenue synergies are not realized and if a dilutive effect on net income per share of SDG Common Stock occurs, Simon Group's Funds From Operations per share following the Merger will be lower than might be expected for SDG's Funds From Operations per share without the Merger.

POSSIBLE SUBORDINATION OF RIGHTS OF CURRENT HOLDERS OF SIMON GROUP EQUITY STOCK AND SDG UNITS

As is currently the case with SDG, following the Merger Simon Group will be authorized (i) to issue and sell preferred stock, which may have rights and preferences (including, but not limited to, the payment of dividends) senior to Simon Group Equity Stock and (ii) to use the proceeds of such issuances and sales to purchase preferred units in the SDG Operating Partnership which will have rights and preferences (including, but not limited to, the payment of distributions) senior to SDG Units, including SDG Units owned by Simon Group. The issuance of preferred stock in Simon Group and preferred units in the SDG Operating Partnership will not require further action by the holders of Simon Group Equity Stock.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The Merger is expected to qualify for treatment as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code; however, in the event that the Merger does not qualify as a tax-free reorganization, each SDG stockholder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the stockholder's tax basis in their current securities and the fair market value of the securities received in the Merger. Even if the Merger does qualify for treatment as a tax-free reorganization, the receipt of beneficial interests in CRC Common Stock will be taxable in whole or in part. Management of CRC believes that the value of the beneficial interests in CRC Common Stock will not exceed 1% of the value of the Paired Shares. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of SDG Equity Stock."

POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST RELATED TO OPERATIONS

The potential for conflicts of interest currently exist in the operations of SDG because the Simons and the DeBartolos historically have been interested parties on both sides of certain transactions involving the business and properties of SDG. These historical arrangements and therefore the potential for such conflicts of interest will survive the Merger. In accordance with the SDG Operating Partnership and the Amended SPG Operating Partnership Agreement, Simon Group is obligated to contribute its assets and liabilities to the SDG Operating Partnership in exchange for additional partnership units. The partnership units may be exchanged for shares of Simon Group Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or for cash at Simon Group's option. At the Effective Time, Simon Group will transfer, or direct the transfer of, substantially all of its assets and liabilities to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more subsidiaries of the SDG Operating Partnership in consideration for 49,858,940 limited partnership interests (which equals the number of shares of CPI Common Stock outstanding after the CPI Merger Dividends, less the number of shares equal to the value of the former CPI assets and liabilities retained by Simon Group) and 5,175,287 preferred partnership interests (which equals the number of shares of CPI Series A Preferred Stock and CPI Series B Preferred Stock outstanding after the CPI Merger Dividends). Such transfer will result in a reduction of the SDG Limited Partners' interests, in the aggregate, in the SDG Operating Partnership from 36.9% to 28.6%, assuming the Merger had occurred on March 31, 1998.

The value of the assets and liabilities retained by Simon Group or transferred to the SDG Operating Partnership is based on the consideration to be received or retained by the stockholders of CPI in connection with the Merger and on a trading price per share of SDG Common Stock of $33 5/8. The fair market value of the former CPI assets less liabilities to be transferred by Simon Group to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more of its subsidiaries is estimated at approximately $2.4 billion. Prior to the transfer of assets and liabilities, Melvin and Herbert Simon, Simon Group's Co-Chairmen, and David Simon, Simon Group's Chief Executive Officer, beneficially held 9.9%, 5.8% and 1.3%, respectively, of the SDG Operating Partnership, and after such transfer beneficially will hold 7.7%, 4.5% and 1.0%, respectively. See "SDG ANNUAL MEETING MATTERS -- Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management." Decisions regarding the enforcement of the terms of certain agreements of SDG and its affiliates with the Simons (which term means Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon, David Simon, certain of their affiliates and includes certain other Simon family members and estates, trusts and other entities established for their benefit) and/or the DeBartolos (which term means the Estate of Edward J. DeBartolo, Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., M. Denise DeBartolo York, certain of their affiliates and includes certain other DeBartolo family members and estates and trusts established for their benefit including certain entities which are directly or indirectly owned by the Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation ("EJDC")) including, but not limited to, partnership agreements and noncompetition agreements will be made only by the Independent Directors (as defined below). These agreements include the Noncompetition Agreement, dated as of December 1, 1993, between SDG and David Simon, the Option Agreement, dated December 1, 1993, between the SDG Management Company and Simon Property Group, L.P. and several corporate services agreements. "Independent Directors" are directors of Simon Group who are neither employed by Simon Group nor a member (or an affiliate of a member) of the Simon Family Group or the DeBartolo Family Group. The "Simon Family Group" constitutes Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon, other members of the immediate family of any of the foregoing, any estates of any of the foregoing, any trust established for the benefit of any of the foregoing or any other entity controlled by any of the foregoing. The "DeBartolo Family Group" constitutes the Estate of Edward J. DeBartolo, Sr., Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. and Marie Denise DeBartolo York, other members of the immediate family of any of the foregoing, any other lineal descendants of any of the foregoing, any estates of any of the foregoing, any trusts established for the benefit of any of the foregoing, and any other entity controlled by any of the foregoing. The failure to enforce the material terms of any such agreement, particularly the indemnification provisions and the remedy provisions for breaches of representations and warranties, could result in a substantial monetary loss to Simon Group.

CERTAIN TAX RISKS

LIMITS ON STOCK OWNERSHIP NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN REIT QUALIFICATION

In order to maintain Simon Group's, SDG's, SD Property Group, Inc.'s and The Retail Property Trust's ("RPT") (collectively, the "REIT Members") qualification as REITs under sections 856 through 860 of the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations, which are the requirements for qualifying as a REIT ("REIT Requirements"), not more than 50% in value of the outstanding capital stock of Simon Group may be owned, directly or indirectly, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Code to include certain entities) during the last half of a taxable year (other than the first year). The Simon Group Charter will prohibit ownership of more than 8% of the value of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Simon Group by any single stockholder (with an exception for the Simons, who generally may not own more than 18% of the value of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Simon Group).

REIT CLASSIFICATION; LEGISLATION LIMITING BENEFITS OF PAIRED SHARE STATUS

After consummation of the Merger, the REIT Members intend to continue to operate so as to qualify as REITs under the REIT Requirements. A REIT generally is not subject to federal income tax at the corporate level on income it currently distributes to its stockholders so long as it distributes at least 95% of its taxable income. Each of the REIT Members expects to continue to qualify as REITs, but no assurance can be given that they will so qualify or be able to remain so qualified. A failure on the part of any of the REIT Members to qualify as a REIT would, in turn, cause all of the other REIT Members to fail to qualify as REITs. For example, if RPT fails to qualify as a REIT, SD Property Group, Inc., SDG and Simon Group would fail to qualify as REITs. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Federal Income Tax Considerations Relating to Simon Group -- Requirements for Qualification -- Asset Tests." No assurance can be given that legislation, new regulations, administrative interpretations or court decisions will not significantly change the tax laws with respect to qualification as a REIT, the effect of the pairing agreement or the federal income tax consequences of such qualification.

Legislation enacted in 1984 requires that paired entities be treated as one entity for purposes of determining whether either entity meets the REIT Requirements. This legislation does not apply to a paired REIT if the REIT and its paired operating company were paired as of June 30, 1983. CPI was paired with CRC prior to and remained paired on June 30, 1983. Although CPI has obtained a ruling addressing the effect of the CPI Reorganization on CPI's grandfathered status, such ruling does not address the effect of the Merger, and there are no judicial or administrative authorities interpreting this "grandfathering" rule in the context of a merger or otherwise. CPI will obtain an opinion of counsel at the closing of the Merger and the related transactions to the effect that the Merger will not adversely affect Simon Group's and CRC's grandfathered status. If the Internal Revenue Service were to successfully contend that Simon Group and CRC no longer qualify as grandfathered from the 1984 legislation limiting paired share REITs, certain income of CRC would be treated as nonqualifying income of Simon Group, potentially jeopardizing Simon Group's status as a REIT.

On July 22, 1998, President Clinton signed into law legislation that terminates the "grandfathering" rule described above with respect to Non-Grandfathered Assets acquired (or substantially improved) by either paired entity after March 26, 1998. Assets acquired subject to a binding written contract in force on March 26, 1998 (such as the Merger Agreement) are deemed to be acquired on March 26, 1998 and therefore are excluded from Non-Grandfathered Assets. As a result of this legislation, Simon Group and CRC will be treated as one entity with respect to Non-Grandfathered Assets for purposes of determining whether either entity qualifies as a REIT. Consequently, the benefits of the "grandfathering" rule described above will be eliminated for any Non-Grandfathered Assets acquired by Simon Group or CRC.

There are no current plans to change the paired-share status of Simon Group. In addition, the management of Simon Group does not believe that this legislation will materially affect Simon Group. Because Simon Group is engaged primarily in owning and operating regional malls and community shopping centers, i.e., real estate of a type that can be owned and operated directly by a REIT, Simon Group has no present need, and would derive no material benefit from, conducting its operations by leasing its real estate to CRC or the SRC Operating Partnership. Furthermore, Simon Group has no current intention to acquire real estate of a type that cannot be operated directly by a REIT, and accordingly, does not believe that this legislation will adversely affect its current acquisition strategy. The legislation will, however, limit Simon Group's ability to change its current acquisition strategy to include the acquisition of real estate other than of a type that can be owned and operated directly by a REIT. For example, prior to enactment of the legislation, Simon Group could have acquired a hotel and leased it to the SRC Operating Partnership. After enactment of the legislation, such a transaction could, depending on its size, result in the loss of Simon Group's REIT status.

Current law prohibits a REIT from owning more than 10% of the voting stock of a corporation. On February 2, 1998, the Clinton Administration released the Administration's fiscal 1999 budget, which contains certain proposals that may adversely affect REITs (the "Administration Proposals"). The Administration Proposals, if adopted in their current form, would prohibit REITs from holding more than 10% of the value of all classes of stock of a corporation other than a wholly-owned subsidiary that is a REIT. The proposed effective date of this proposal generally is the date of the first Congressional committee action with respect to such proposal. However, to the extent that a REIT's stock ownership is grandfathered by virtue of this effective date, the grandfathered status will terminate if the subsidiary corporation engages in a trade or business that it is not engaged in on the date of first committee action or acquires substantial new assets on or after that date. If the Administration Proposals are enacted in their current form, Simon Group's ability to expand certain business activities through its partially owned corporate subsidiaries would be greatly restricted.

These proposals will not become effective unless legislation is duly passed by Congress and signed by the President. During the legislative process, these proposals will be reviewed by Congressional committees and staff and be subject to public scrutiny by affected companies and industry groups. It is uncertain whether these proposals will become law or, if either does, what the details of the implementing legislation will be. Consequently, it is impossible to determine at this time all of the ramifications which would result from the legislation based on these proposals. Other legislation, as well as administrative interpretations or court decisions, also could change the tax law with respect to Simon Group's qualification as a REIT and the federal income tax consequences of such qualification. The adoption of any such legislation, regulations or administrative interpretations could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations, financial condition and prospects of Simon Group. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Possible Federal Tax Developments."

If Simon Group or any of the other REIT Members fails to qualify as a REIT, the nonqualifying entity will be subject to federal income tax (including any applicable alternative minimum tax) on its taxable income at regular corporate rates. In addition, as discussed above, if any of the REIT Members fails to qualify as a REIT, all of the other REIT Members owning an interest in such REIT Member will also be disqualified and subject to federal income tax. Unless entitled to relief under certain statutory provisions, the REIT Members will be disqualified from treatment as REITs for the four taxable years following the year during which qualification is lost. The additional tax would significantly reduce the Funds From Operations of Simon Group. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Federal Income Tax Considerations Relating to Simon Group."

ADVERSE EFFECTS OF NOT MEETING REIT MINIMUM DISTRIBUTION REQUIREMENTS

To obtain and maintain their status as REITs, the REIT Members generally will be required each year to distribute at least 95% of their taxable income after certain adjustments. In addition, the REIT Members will be subject to a 4% nondeductible excise tax on the amount, if any, by which certain distributions paid by them during each calendar year are less than the sum of 85% of their ordinary income for such calendar year, 95% of their capital gain net income for the calendar year and any amount of such income that was not distributed in prior years. For the year ended 1997, CPI and SDG each distributed amounts substantially in excess of 95% of its taxable income.

REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT RISKS

FACTORS AFFECTING REVENUES AND ECONOMIC VALUE OF SHOPPING CENTERS

The revenues and value of shopping centers may be adversely affected by a number of factors, including: the national, regional and local economic climate; local real estate conditions; perceptions by retailers or shoppers of the safety, convenience and attractiveness of the shopping center; the proximity and quality of competing centers; trends in the retail industry, including contraction in the number of retailers and the number of locations operated; the quality and philosophy of management; changes in market rental rates; the inability to collect rent due to bankruptcy or insolvency of tenants or otherwise; the need periodically to renovate, repair and relet space and the costs thereof; the ability of an owner to provide adequate maintenance and insurance and increased operating costs. In addition, shopping center values are affected by such factors as changes in interest rates, the availability of financing, changes in governmental regulations, changes in tax laws or rates and potential environmental or other legal liabilities.

Simon Group's concentration in the retail shopping center real estate market subjects their portfolios to certain risks, including, among others, the following risks: demand for shopping center space in Simon Group's markets may decrease; Simon Group may be unable to re-let space upon lease expirations or to pay renovation and reletting costs in connection therewith; economic and other conditions may affect shopping center property cash flows and values; tenants may be unable to make lease payments or may become bankrupt; and a property may not generate revenue sufficient to meet operating expenses, including future debt service. The combined portfolio also has substantial concentration of properties in certain geographic markets, including Florida, Texas and the New York metropolitan area, increasing the susceptibility of the combined company to economic downturn in these regions.

LIMITED CONTROL WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN PROPERTIES PARTIALLY OWNED OR MANAGED BY THIRD PARTIES

On March 31, 1998, if the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the sale of the General Motors Building, had occurred on such date, Simon Group would beneficially own interests in 245 properties ("Simon Group Portfolio Properties") including 67 income-producing properties in which Simon Group holds, directly or indirectly, an interest not wholly owned directly or indirectly by the SDG Operating Partnership ("Joint Venture Properties"). With respect to these Joint Venture Properties, assuming consummation of the Merger, Simon Group will, directly or indirectly, be the sole general partner of 12 limited partnerships, a general partner of 23 limited partnerships, an indirect limited partner of one general partnership, a limited partner of two limited partnerships, a general partner of 23 general partnerships, a member of one limited liability company, a managing member of two limited liability companies and will hold two tenancy-in-common interests and one beneficial trust interest. In addition, Simon Group will have day-to-day operational control over 51 of such Joint Venture Properties. On a pro forma basis assuming the Merger occurred on March 31, 1998, in 1998 the Joint Venture Properties would have generated 15.5% of Simon Group's EBITDA. "EBITDA" means earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization for all properties. EBITDA after minority interest represents earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization for all properties after distribution to the third-party joint venture partners. EBITDA: (i) does not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles; (ii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income as a measure of operating performance or to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities; and (iii) is not an alternative to cash flows as a measure of liquidity. The third-party partners' ownership interests in Joint Venture Properties range from 1.7% to 85.3%.

With respect to limited partnerships owning Joint Venture Properties for which Simon Group will serve as general partner, Simon Group will not have sole control of certain major decisions relating to such Joint Venture Properties, although Simon Group generally will have a right of approval with respect to such matters. With respect to the limited or general partnerships owning Joint Venture Properties in which Simon Group will not be the managing or co-managing general partner, Simon Group will not have day-to-day operational control. These limitations may result in decisions by third parties with respect to such properties that do not fully reflect the interests of Simon Group at such time, including decisions relating to the requirements with which Simon Group must comply in order to maintain its status as a REIT for tax purposes. In addition, the sale or transfer of interests in certain of the partnerships is subject to rights of first refusal and buy-sell or similar arrangements. Such rights may be triggered at a time when Simon Group will not desire to sell but may be forced to do so because it does not have the cash to purchase the other party's interest. Simon Group will be contractually restricted from selling certain of these properties without the consent of certain unrelated parties. These limitations on sale may adversely affect Simon Group's ability to sell these properties at the most advantageous time for Simon Group.

COMPETITION

Shopping malls compete for tenants on the basis of the rent charged and location, and encounter competition from other retail properties in their respective market areas. However, the principal competition for the shopping malls may come from future shopping malls that will be located in the same market areas and from mail order and electronic retailers. There is also considerable competition to acquire equity interests in desirable real estate. The competition is provided by other real estate investment trusts, insurance companies, private pension plans and private developers. Additionally, Simon Group's credit rating and leverage will affect its competitive position in the public debt and equity markets.

Simon Group will face competition from other shopping mall developers for the acquisition of prime development sites and for tenants and will be subject to the risks of real estate development, including the lack of financing, construction delays, environmental requirements, budget overruns and lease-up. Numerous other developers, managers and owners of real estate compete with Simon Group in seeking management and leasing revenues, land for development and properties for acquisition. In addition, retailers at the Simon Group Portfolio Properties face increasing competition from discount shopping centers, outlet malls, catalogues, discount shopping clubs and telemarketing. With respect to certain of the Simon Group Portfolio Properties, there are other properties of the same type within the market area. The existence of competitive properties could have a material effect on the SDG Operating Partnership's ability to lease space and on the level of rents the SDG Operating Partnership can obtain. Renovations and expansions at competing malls could negatively affect a competing Simon Group Portfolio Property. Increased competition could adversely affect Simon Group's revenues.

ILLIQUIDITY OF REAL ESTATE

Real property investments are relatively illiquid. Simon Group's ability to vary its portfolio in response to changes in economic and other conditions therefore will be limited. If Simon Group wants to sell an investment, there is no assurance that it will be able to dispose of it in the desired time period or that the sales prices of any investment will recoup or exceed the amount of Simon Group's investment.

DEPENDENCE ON ANCHORS AND TENANTS

Simon Group's cash available for distribution would be adversely affected if GLA in the Simon Group Portfolio Properties could not be leased, if tenants or anchors failed to meet their contractual obligations or seek concessions in order to continue operations. If the sales of stores operating in the Simon Group Portfolio Properties were to decline sufficiently due to economic conditions, closing of anchors or for other reasons, tenants may be unable to pay their minimum rents or expense recovery charges. In the event of default by a tenant or anchor, the Simon Group Portfolio Property owner might experience delays and costs in enforcing its rights as landlord.

RENEWAL OF LEASES AND RELETTING OF SPACE

Simon Group will be subject to the risks that, upon expiration of leases for GLA located in the Simon Group Portfolio Properties, the premises may not be relet or the terms of reletting (including the cost of concessions to tenants) may be less favorable than current lease terms. If SDG Group were unable promptly to relet all or a substantial portion of this space or if the rental rates upon such reletting were significantly lower than expected rates, Simon Group's cash generated before debt repayments and capital expenditures and ability to make expected distributions to shareholders may be adversely affected.

FAILURE TO MANAGE EXPANSION AND DEVELOPMENT GROWTH STRATEGY

Growth of Simon Group's business through the development of additional shopping centers and other capital projects may be limited by risks associated with expansion and development activities generally. These risks include incurring expenses on projects which are not completed or, due to cost overruns, delays, lower occupancy levels or other factors, are unprofitable.

POSSIBLE LIABILITY RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

Under various federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations, a current or previous owner or operator of real property may be liable for the costs of removal or remediation of petroleum or hazardous or toxic substances on, under or in such property. Such laws often impose such liability without regard to whether the owner or operator knew of, or was responsible for, the presence of such substances. The costs of removal or remediation of such substances may be substantial, and the presence of such substances, or failure to promptly remove or remediate such substances, may, among other things, adversely affect the owner's or operator's ability to borrow using such property as collateral. Environmental laws, ordinances and regulations also impose requirements on conditions and activities at the properties that may affect the environment or the impact of the environment on human health and safety. The obligation to pay for the costs of complying with existing environmental laws, ordinances and regulations, as well as the cost of complying with future requirements, may affect the operating costs of Simon Group. Further, failure to comply with such requirements could result in the imposition of monetary penalties (in addition to the costs to achieve compliance) and potential liability to third parties. In connection with its business, Simon Group may be potentially liable for such costs or claims. Both SDG and CPI believe that their properties are in compliance in all material respects with all applicable environmental laws, ordinances and regulations and that adequate amounts have been reserved to cover the costs and expenses related to environmental conditions with respect to their properties. However, it is possible that there are material environmental conditions, liabilities or violations of which SDG, CPI and CRC are currently unaware.

GENERAL REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT RISKS

Simon Group also will be subject to other real estate investment risks including, without limitation, adverse changes in zoning laws, potential environmental liabilities, the ongoing need for capital improvements (particularly in older structures), changes in national or local economic conditions, changes in neighborhood characteristics and civil unrest, earthquakes and other natural disasters (which could result in uninsured losses). See "-- Environmental Matters." The ability of Simon Group to maintain or increase its Funds From Operations is dependent to a significant degree on the ability of Simon Group to manage the risks associated with the inability to lease or add GLA.

LIMITS ON CHANGE OF CONTROL

In order to facilitate compliance with REIT Requirements, the Simon Group Charter places restrictions on the accumulation of shares in excess of 8% of the capital stock of Simon Group (18% in the case of the Simons) (calculated based on the lower of outstanding shares, voting power or value), subject to certain exceptions permitted with the approval of the Simon Group Board of Directors to allow (i) underwritten offerings or (ii) the sale of equity securities in circumstances where the Simon Group Board of Directors determines Simon Group's ability to satisfy the REIT Requirements will not be jeopardized. Stock of Simon Group that is held by a "qualified trust" within the meaning of Section 856(h)(3) of the Code is treated as held proportionately by the beneficiaries of such trust. Simon Group has agreed to waive its charter provisions such that the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust may acquire up to 11% of the capital stock of Simon Group, provided that it remains treated as a "qualified trust," but will become subject to the 8% limitation if it fails to be so treated. This restriction on ownership and transferability may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a transaction or change in control of Simon Group that might involve a premium price for the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock or that otherwise might be in the best interest of Simon Group's stockholders. Certain other provisions of the Simon Group Charter and Simon Group By-laws could have the effect of delaying or preventing a change of control of Simon Group even if some of Simon Group's stockholders deem such a change to be in Simon Group's and their best interest. These include Simon Group Charter provisions preventing holders of Simon Group Common Stock from acting by written consent and requiring that up to six directors in the aggregate may be elected by holders of Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock. The stockholders of Simon Group will be governed by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL"). See "-- Comparison of Stockholders' Rights," "CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE SDG PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SRC PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SIMON GROUP CHARTER, THE CRC CHARTER, SIMON GROUP BY-LAWS AND CRC BY-LAWS AND DELAWARE LAW" and "COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SDG COMMON STOCK AND SIMON GROUP AND CRC COMMON STOCK."

COMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDERS' RIGHTS

SDG is currently incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland and CPI and CRC are both incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. If the Merger is consummated, the holders of SDG Equity Stock, whose rights as stockholders are currently governed by the MGCL, the SDG Charter and the SDG By-laws, will at the Effective Time become holders of Simon Group Equity Stock and their rights as such will be governed by the DGCL, the Simon Group Charter, the CRC Charter, the Simon Group By-Laws and the CRC By-laws.

SDG stockholders should be aware of the following differences in their rights as stockholders compared to the rights of stockholders of Simon Group and CRC: the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter will provide that directors may be removed with or without cause by the requisite affirmative vote of the stockholders; the Simon Group Charter will require that all actions by Simon Group Common Stock holders be taken at an annual or special meeting of the shareholders; and the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter will provide that written notice of every meeting of the stockholders be given not less than 10 nor more than 60 calendar days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. These provisions, in addition to other provisions located in both the SDG Charter, the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter, could have a potential anti-takeover effect following the Merger. In addition, the 8% ownership limit in the Simon Group Charter could have the effect of making the acquisition of control more difficult for a third party. See "-- Limits on Change of Control" and "COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SDG COMMON STOCK AND SIMON GROUP AND CRC COMMON STOCK."

DEPENDENCE ON KEY PERSONNEL

Simon Group will depend on the services of certain key personnel, including Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon, following the consummation of the Merger. Both SDG's management and CPI's management believe that the loss of the services of any of these key personnel could have an adverse effect on the results of Simon Group's operations. See "MANAGEMENT OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC FOLLOWING THE MERGER -- Management of Simon Group."

RISKS RELATING TO YEAR 2000 ISSUE

Many existing computer programs were designed to use only two digits to identify a year in the date field without considering the impact of the upcoming change in the century. If not corrected, many computer applications could fail or create erroneous results by or at the year 2000. Simon Group plans to address the "Year 2000" issue with respect to its operations. Substantially all of the computer systems and applications in use in SDG's home office in Indianapolis, Indiana have been, or are in the process of being, upgraded and modified. Failure of Simon Group or its tenants or lessees to properly or timely resolve the Year 2000 issue could have a material adverse effect on Simon Group's business. Simon Group believes that its software applications and operational programs will properly recognize calendar dates beginning in the year 2000. In addition, Simon Group will be initiating communications with its significant tenants and lessees to determine the extent to which Simon Group is vulnerable to third parties' failures to remediate their own potential problems related to the Year 2000. To date, no significant concerns have been identified; however, there can be no assurance that there will not be any Year 2000 related operating problems or expenses that will arise in connection with Simon Group's computer systems and software or with Simon Group's interface with the computer systems and software of its tenants and lessees.

IMPACT OF INTEREST RATE FLUCTUATIONS AND OTHER FACTORS ON STOCK PRICE AND BORROWING COSTS

Any significant increase in market interest rates from their current levels could lead holders of Simon Group Common Stock to seek higher yields through other investments, which could adversely affect the market price of the shares of Simon Group Common Stock. One of the factors that may influence the price of Simon Group Common Stock in public markets will be the annual distribution rate on Simon Group Common Stock as compared with the yields on alternative investments. Numerous other factors, such as governmental regulatory action and tax laws, could have a significant impact on the future market price of Simon Group Common Stock. In addition, increases in market interest rates could result in increased borrowing costs for Simon Group, which may adversely affect Simon Group's cash flow and the amounts available for distributions to its stockholders.

RISKS RELATED TO INTEREST RATE HEDGING ARRANGEMENTS

SDG employs, and Simon Group will continue to employ, standard risk management strategies to hedge exposures, primarily related to interest rate fluctuations. SDG has commonly entered into interest rate swaps to fix the costs of funding and eliminate interest rate volatility. Interest rate cap agreements are used as a protection against interest rate increases on variable rate debt. SDG also enters into hedging transactions based upon U.S. Treasury Bill rates to manage exposure of rising interest rates before anticipated bond offerings. Simon Group intends to continue to enter into such arrangements if management determines they are in the best interest of the stockholders.

Interest rate hedging arrangements may expose Simon Group to certain risks. Although Simon Group will try to minimize these risks, interest rate movements during the terms of interest rate hedging agreements may result in a gain or loss on Simon Group's investment in the hedging arrangement. Developing an effective strategy is complex and no strategy can completely insulate Simon Group from risks associated with interest rate fluctuations. There can be no assurance that Simon Group's hedging activities will have the desired beneficial impact on Simon Group's results of operations or financial condition. Such hedging agreements may involve certain costs, such as transaction fees or non-material breakage costs if they are terminated by Simon Group. In addition, nonperformance by the other party to the hedging arrangement may result in credit risks to Simon Group. In order to minimize counterparty credit risk, Simon Group's policy is to enter into hedging arrangements only with large creditworthy financial institutions.

POSSIBLE ADVERSE EFFECTS ON STOCK PRICES ARISING FROM SHARES AVAILABLE FOR FUTURE SALE

If the Merger would have occurred on March 31, 1998, Simon Group would have had outstanding at such date 160,902,609 shares of Simon Group Common Stock, 3,200,000 shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock, 4,000 shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock, 209,249 shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock, 4,966,038 shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock, 64,059,705 SDG Units and 1,310,190 stock options. In any given 365-day period, EJDC (or its affiliates or lenders) is permitted to dispose of the SDG Units held by EJDC (together with its affiliates) in order to satisfy up to $180 million of outstanding indebtedness of EJDC, until such indebtedness has been repaid. Affiliates of EJDC pledged certain SDG Units to secure such indebtedness. This indebtedness will not be an obligation of Simon Group and will not be secured by any of the assets of Simon Group. A default on such EJDC indebtedness may cause EJDC's lenders to foreclose on EJDC's SDG Units. In such an event, it is likely that the lenders or a single transferee from the lenders would attempt to dispose of these SDG Units. Such lenders or such single transferee from the lenders may be permitted to exchange these SDG Units for shares of Simon Group Common Stock or cash, at the option of Simon Group, and (if Simon Group elects to issue shares) to dispose of such shares. In addition, 22,635,977 shares of Simon Group Common Stock, 55,799 shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and 2,065,921 shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock held by stockholders of CPI after the Merger will be immediately tradeable after consummation of the Merger pursuant to Rule 144(k) under the Securities Act. See "FEDERAL SECURITIES LAW CONSEQUENCES."

Sales of substantial numbers of shares of Simon Group Common Stock or Units, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the prevailing market price for the Simon Group Common Stock. If such sales reduce the market price of the Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group's ability to raise additional capital in the equity market could be adversely affected. The existence of registration rights contained in various registration rights agreements also may adversely affect the terms upon which Simon Group can obtain additional capital in the equity markets in the future. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger."

(1) Giving effect to the CPI Merger Dividends and the Merger there were 164,096,352 and 155,773,755 pro forma weighted average shares of Simon Group Common Stock outstanding during the three months ended March 31, 1998 and the year ended December 31, 1997, respectively, and 164,106,609 pro forma shares of Simon Group Common Stock outstanding as of March 31, 1998.

(2) A CPI stockholder is entitled to 2.0818 shares of Simon Group Common Stock, which includes a beneficial interest in CRC, for each outstanding share of CPI Common Stock. The existing shares of CPI Common Stock also entitle the holder to a beneficial interest in CRC. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger" for a description of the additional consideration to which the CPI stockholders are entitled.

(3) SDG currently pays a quarterly distribution of $0.5050 per share of SDG Common Stock. SDG/Simon Group pro forma Cash Distributions per share are calculated by multiplying this quarterly distribution amount by four. Future distributions by Simon Group, however, will be at the discretion of the Simon Group Board of Directors and will depend on certain factors. See "POLICIES OF SIMON GROUP FOLLOWING THE MERGER -- Dividend and Distribution Policies."

(1) Represents a dividend declared in the third quarter of 1996 related to the DeBartolo Merger, designated to align the time periods of dividend payments of the merged companies in the DeBartolo Merger.

On February 18, 1998, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the Merger Agreement, the reported closing and high trading price per share of SDG Common Stock was $33 5/8 and the low trading price was $32 7/8. On August 12, 1998, the most recent date for which prices were available prior to printing this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the reported closing price per share of SDG Common Stock was $31 1/16. There is no established public trading market for the SDG Class B Common Stock or SDG Class C Common Stock. Distributions per share of SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock were identical to those for the SDG Common Stock. SDG stockholders are urged to obtain current market quotations. At the Record Date there were approximately 2,811 holders of record of SDG Common Stock. The shares of SDG Class B Common Stock are held entirely by a voting trust to which the Simons are parties and are exchangeable on a one-for-one basis into SDG Common Stock. The shares of SDG Class C Common Stock are held entirely by EJDC and are also exchangeable on a one-to-one basis into SDG Common Stock. See "POLICIES OF SIMON GROUP FOLLOWING MERGER -- Dividend and Distribution Policies."

CPI AND CRC

There is no established public trading market for shares of CPI Common Stock and CRC Common Stock. The following table sets forth the dividends paid or declared per share of CPI Common Stock for the periods indicated:

CPI (and, commencing in May 1989, CRC) has paid regular and uninterrupted quarterly cash distributions on its shares since it commenced operations in 1971. These distributions have increased from $1.99 per share in 1972 (the first full year of operations) to $7.73 per share ($7.69 per share of CPI Common Stock and $0.04 per beneficial interest in CRC Common Stock) in 1997. The present annual combined rate of distribution is $7.80 per share ($7.76 per share of CPI Common Stock and $.04 per beneficial interest in CRC Common Stock).

At July 29, 1998 there were approximately 247 holders of record of CPI Common Stock and one holder of record of CRC Common Stock. See "POLICIES OF SIMON GROUP FOLLOWING MERGER -- Dividend and Distribution Policies."

THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS

BACKGROUND OF THE MERGER

In May 1997, the CPI Board approved recommendations by the management of CPI as to the strategic objectives of CPI, including possibly becoming a publicly traded company, which would preserve CPI's paired-share structure, continue its strong growth in Funds From Operations, increase and diversify its asset base without significantly diluting its asset quality and increase its leverage in a rational fashion. In the summer and fall of 1997, representatives of CPI held discussions with representatives of several companies in the regional mall industry regarding engaging in a significant strategic transaction with CPI. No proposals for specific transactions were elicited or resulted from any of these discussions.

With the assistance of its advisors, CPI's management analyzed the potential benefits and disadvantages of a strategic transaction with the parties with which it had held such preliminary discussions in light of the strategic objectives approved by the CPI Board. At a CPI Board meeting on November 4, 1997, CPI's management and legal advisors reviewed with the CPI Board certain financial and other information about the potential parties to any such transaction and the results of discussions and analyses conducted to that time. Following the CPI Board's meeting, senior management of CPI continued to have discussions with the several parties interested in a potential transaction. It became clear to CPI management that, based on the discussions until then and the degree of interest expressed by the several parties, a transaction with The Rouse Company ("Rouse") satisfied the CPI Board's objectives and the additional objectives of certainty and swiftness of closing. In early December 1997, active negotiations with Rouse began. In late December 1997, Hans C. Mautner, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of CPI, received a letter from David Simon, Chief Executive Officer of SDG, wherein Mr. Simon expressed interest in a strategic transaction between CPI and SDG based on CPI's asset appraisal. CPI took no action based on such letter at that time.

Several meetings between representatives of CPI and its advisors and representatives of Rouse and its advisors occurred in December 1997 and January 1998 during which the terms and structure of a combination, the governance of the combined company and other issues were discussed. While negotiations were progressing, news reports concerning negotiations between CPI and Rouse began appearing in the media on January 15, 1998. On January 16, 1998, Mr. Mautner received another letter from Mr. Simon, stating that SDG was interested in a transaction with CPI and was prepared to offer substantial consideration to CPI stockholders. During the following several days, CPI received similar communications from other parties expressing interest in a potential transaction with CPI. Throughout this period, management kept the CPI Board and CPI's three principal stockholders apprised of the Rouse negotiations and the expressions of interest from other parties.

On January 26, 1998, a special meeting of the CPI Board, at which all trustees, certain members of CPI management and representatives of CPI's financial and legal advisors were present, was held to discuss the new expressions of interest. At this meeting CPI's financial advisors made an extensive presentation concerning the nature of the contacts with each of the parties expressing an interest in a transaction with CPI and setting forth certain financial and business information about those parties. CPI's legal advisors discussed the legal and fiduciary duties applicable to the trustees' consideration of any transaction involving CPI, including the new expressions of interest; in addition, they reviewed other legal, tax and logistical issues. The CPI Board reaffirmed the strategic objectives to be sought in reviewing any potential transaction, selected five interested parties, including SDG and Rouse, as presenting the most viable and attractive potential merger partners and decided that CPI's management and advisors should evaluate potential transactions with each of such parties. The CPI Board directed that the potential bidders be asked to submit a proposal for a transaction by Monday, February 2, 1998. CPI's advisors sent a letter and a draft of a merger agreement to the five potential bidders, inviting them to present a detailed proposal for a transaction with CPI by the morning of February 2, 1998. On February 2, 1998 proposals were received from SDG and one other bidder. In addition, Rouse delivered a letter stating that it was contemplating certain modifications to the transaction that had been under consideration by CPI and Rouse, including obtaining financial assistance from a third party which would participate in the Rouse proposal.

The CPI Board held a special meeting on Tuesday, February 3, 1998, to discuss the three proposals. Present at this meeting were all trustees of CPI, members of management of CPI and representatives of CPI's financial and legal advisors. Also present were representatives of the financial advisor to the largest CPI stockholder. Representatives of each of the three parties who had submitted proposals were invited to make presentations at the meeting. Each such party, together with its financial advisors, and in one case, legal advisors, separately presented its proposal along with other pertinent information to the CPI Board and responded to questions from the CPI Board, management and advisors. After completion of the presentations by the bidders, the three proposals, as well as financial and other information concerning each interested party, were discussed in detail by the CPI Board. CPI's financial advisors gave a presentation to the CPI Board concerning financial, business and other information regarding each proposal, and CPI's legal advisors discussed the legal and fiduciary duties of the trustees and certain structural, tax and other legal matters concerning the proposed transactions, including terms of the proposed merger agreements, employment agreements and other governance and compensation arrangements. Following such discussion, the CPI Board determined to encourage the bidders to submit their best and final offers in one further round of bidding and directed CPI's management and advisors to ask each interested party to improve its proposal and to communicate to such parties the process by which the final offers were to be submitted.

On Wednesday, February 4, 1998, CPI's advisors notified each interested party of the preliminary concerns of the CPI Board with such party's proposal. Each interested party was advised that best and final proposals would be sought.

The CPI Board held a regularly scheduled meeting on Thursday, February 5, 1998, where certain corporate business was transacted and the transaction proposals were again discussed. Present at the meeting were all the trustees of CPI, members of CPI's management, representatives of CPI's financial and legal advisors and representatives of the financial advisor to the largest CPI stockholder. CPI's financial and legal advisors made extensive presentations concerning the proposals and the interested parties. CPI's trustees, management and advisors also discussed how best to manage the bidding process and the substance of a letter to the bidders describing this process. At this meeting, trustees representing CPI's largest stockholders indicated the willingness of such stockholders to execute appropriate agreements obligating them to vote their CPI shares in favor of a transaction if it were unanimously approved by the CPI Board.

On the following day, a letter was delivered from CPI's financial advisors to each of the three interested parties stating that the CPI Board desired final proposals, including a fully negotiated merger agreement, to be submitted by Tuesday, February 17, 1998 and informed such parties of the willingness of CPI's largest stockholders to enter into some form of stockholder voting agreement. From February 6 until the proposals were due on February 17, CPI management and advisors assisted each interested party with its continuing due diligence investigation of CPI, and CPI and its advisors conducted due diligence investigations of each bidder. Management and legal advisors of CPI negotiated the terms of a merger agreement, forms of stockholder voting agreements and various employment and compensation arrangements separately with each bidder. No bidder was privy to the details of any other bidder's proposal.

Proposals were received substantially simultaneously from three bidders, including SDG and Rouse, before the deadline on February 17, 1998. In subsequent discussions thereafter, SDG and Rouse each modified its proposal in various ways, including offering greater consideration to the CPI stockholders. The proposal submitted by Rouse, as modified in subsequent discussions, consisted of $91.50 in cash and $91.50 in common stock of the combined company, subject to collar provisions, for a total face value of $183 per share of CPI Common Stock. The proposal of Rouse contemplated an agreement between Rouse and a third party for such third party to purchase $300 million of a new convertible preferred stock of the combined company, to acquire in the open market $100 million of combined company common stock and to receive warrants to purchase three million shares of common stock of the combined company and an option to purchase the General Motors Building. The proposal submitted by SDG, as modified in subsequent discussions, consisted of $90 in cash, subject to the collar provisions described in "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger -- The Merger Consideration," $70 in common stock of the combined company and $17 in Series A Preferred Stock, for a total face value of $177 per share of CPI Common Stock.

The aggregate consideration offered in the proposal submitted by the third bidder was significantly below those amounts.

On Wednesday, February 18, 1998, the CPI Board held a special meeting to consider the proposals submitted by the three final bidders. Present at this meeting were all the trustees of CPI, members of CPI management and representatives of CPI's financial and legal advisors. Present to confer with their clients (but not present at the meeting) were representatives of the legal advisors for each of CPI's three largest stockholders and representatives of the financial advisor for CPI's largest stockholder.

At this meeting, CPI's legal advisors advised the CPI Board of its legal and fiduciary duties in considering the three proposals. CPI's financial advisors gave an extensive presentation concerning the financial and other aspects and certain terms of each proposal as well as information concerning each bidder. CPI's legal advisors discussed certain structural, tax and other legal issues and described for the CPI Board the terms of each bidder's form of merger agreement, stockholder voting agreement, employment agreements, if any, and other proposed agreements and compensation arrangements. During the course of this meeting, SDG raised the face value of the preferred stock component of its offer to $19, resulting in a total face value for its offer of $179 per share of CPI Common Stock, and Rouse raised the cash component of its offer to $94.50, resulting in a total face value for its offer of $186 per share of CPI Common Stock. Following those presentations and discussions by CPI's advisors with the bidders, the CPI Board discussed at length the three bidders and their proposals. The CPI Board initially determined that the third bidder's proposal was substantially less favorable than those received from Rouse and SDG, and focused the discussion on the proposals of Rouse and SDG.

After such presentations and discussion, the trustees representing CPI's three largest stockholders conferred with their advisors, first separately and then together, to consider the proposals and the presentations made at the meeting. These trustees then returned to the meeting and, after further discussion, the CPI Board directed CPI's financial advisors to contact representatives of SDG to request several further modifications to its proposal. CPI's financial advisors left the meeting to have such discussion and, upon returning, reported that SDG was unwilling to make further modifications to its proposal. The CPI Board considered the terms proposed by Rouse and SDG at that time to be final and proceeded to evaluate such terms. An extensive discussion ensued involving the trustees, members of CPI management and CPI's advisors concerning the financial aspects and legal, tax and other terms of the proposals by Rouse and SDG, as well as the prospects for the combined company resulting from either transaction. The final proposal of Rouse offered consideration to CPI stockholders that was somewhat higher than that offered by SDG, but the CPI Board considered, among other things, that the resulting entity in a combination with SDG would be substantially stronger, both financially and as a real estate combination, than the resulting entity in a combination with Rouse and the possibility that, as a result, the performance of the stock of the combined company in a combination with SDG over the long term would result in more value. After much discussion, including deliveries of the oral opinions of Lazard Freres and J.P. Morgan on February 18, 1998, confirmed in each case by means of a written opinion dated as of such date (the "Lazard Freres Opinion" and the "J.P. Morgan Opinion", respectively, and collectively, the "CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions"), the CPI Board unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and authorized management and CPI's advisors to finalize and execute the Merger Agreement and other related agreements, including severance plans and new employment agreements with certain senior management of CPI, on the terms and conditions specifically approved by the CPI Board. On February 19, 1998, the Merger Agreement and the Stockholder Voting Agreements were executed and delivered by the parties thereto and a press release announcing the Merger was released.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS; REASONS FOR THE MERGER

On February 16, 1998, SDG's Board of Directors approved a proposal to enter into the Merger and authorized certain officers of SDG to negotiate modifications to the foregoing proposal (including the final price and form of the consideration) in consultation with members of the Executive Committee of SDG. On February 19, 1998, SDG's Board of Directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement, SDG's Board of Directors consulted with its financial advisors regarding the financial aspects and fairness of the Merger, and with its legal advisors regarding the legal terms of the transaction and the obligations of SDG's Board in its consideration of the Merger Agreement. The terms of the Merger Agreement, including the CPI Merger Dividends, were the result of arms' length negotiations between SDG and CPI. The SDG Board of Directors considered the Merger and the terms of the Merger Agreement in light of a variety of economic, financial, legal and market factors, relied upon the conclusions of the fairness opinion delivered by Merrill Lynch (discussed below) and concluded that the Merger and the related matters discussed herein, including the CPI Merger Dividends, are fair and in the best interests of SDG and its stockholders. Accordingly, the SDG Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders of SDG vote FOR approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement.

In reaching its determinations and recommendations with respect to the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, SDG's Board of Directors took into account numerous factors, including among other things, the following:

(i) The Merger would create the country's largest developer, owner and operator of super regional and regional shopping malls, providing Simon Group, in the SDG Board of Directors' opinion, with potentially greater access to capital markets and a larger and more diverse portfolio.

(ii) The combination of CPI's properties with SDG's properties would expand the geographic diversification of SDG's ownership and operation of properties into Boston, Massachusetts and Atlanta, Georgia, and enhance SDG's operations in the New York metropolitan area, California and Florida. In the SDG Board of Directors' view, this could limit the impact that adverse economic or real estate conditions in a particular region might have on Simon Group as a whole.

(iii) CPI has a significant tenant base and the Merger would improve the strength and quality of tenant relationships.

(iv) The opportunities for economies of scale and operating efficiencies that should result from the Merger would lead, in the estimation of SDG's management based on assumptions which it believes to be reasonable, to cost savings and revenue enhancements of approximately $49.8 million, which are expected to increase the SDG's Funds From Operations per share. See "RISK FACTORS -- Cost of Failure to Integrate Operations."

(v) The Merger would increase the revenue being realized by SDG's newly created Simon Brand Ventures consumer marketing division.

(vi) For federal income tax purposes, the Merger is expected to qualify as a tax-free reorganization.

(vii) The total market capitalization of Simon Group if the Merger and the related transactions occurred on March 31, 1998 would be, including a pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness, approximately $18 billion, which would be substantially greater than SDG's current total market capitalization, including a pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness, of approximately $12.7 billion as of March 31, 1998. The SDG Board of Directors believes that it would provide SDG's stockholders with enhanced liquidity through increased trading volume, which may improve SDG's public market valuation.

(viii) The oral opinion of Merrill Lynch on February 19, 1998, which was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated as of such date, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of review set forth therein, the consideration to be received by the holders of SDG Equity Stock in the Merger was fair to such stockholders from a financial point of view. See "-- Opinion of Financial Advisor to SDG."

SDG's Board of Directors considered each of the factors listed above during the course of its deliberations and negotiations prior to entering into the Merger Agreement. Each of the foregoing factors, which constitute all material factors considered by SDG's Board of Directors, was viewed positively by SDG's Board of Directors.

The SDG Board of Directors considered certain potentially negative factors that could arise from the Merger, including, among other things, the following:

(i) The significant costs involved in connection with consummating the Merger and the substantial management time and effort required to effectuate the Merger and integrate the businesses of SDG and CPI.

(ii) The increase of the ratio of debt to market capitalization, excluding a pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness, from 45.8% for SDG as of March 31, 1998 to 46.4% for Simon Group as of March 31, 1998 on a pro forma basis. The Merger has a dilutive effect on the net income per share of Simon Group Common Stock on a pro forma basis of $0.10 for the three months ended March 31, 1998, after reducing pro forma net income for a gain totaling $44.3 million, or approximately $0.19 per share, related to a sale of real estate and may have a dilutive effect on net income per share in future periods. The Merger has a dilutive effect of $0.54 on the net income per share of Simon Group Common Stock on a pro forma basis for the year ended December 31, 1997 (after giving effect to the elimination of a $0.56 gain on sale of real estate) and may have a dilutive effect on net income per share in future periods. See "RISK FACTORS -- Dilution on Net Income Per Share Caused by the Merger."

(iii) The potential that the foregoing increase could adversely affect the ability of Simon Group to obtain debt financing for additional development and would subject Simon Group to the risks of higher leverage. See "RISK FACTORS -- Substantial Indebtedness of Simon Group." The SDG Board of Directors concluded that the increase in debt would not be at an unacceptable level.

(iv) The risk that the anticipated benefits of the Merger might not be fully realized.

The SDG Board of Directors did not believe that the negative factors were sufficient, either individually or collectively, to outweigh the advantages of the Merger.

SDG's Board of Directors evaluated the factors listed above in light of its knowledge of the business and operations of CPI and its business judgment. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger, the SDG Board of Directors did not find it practicable to and did not quantify or otherwise attempt to assign relative weight to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination.

THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS BELIEVES THAT THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE CONSIDERATION TO BE RECEIVED BY THE SDG STOCKHOLDERS IN THE MERGER, IS FAIR TO SDG'S STOCKHOLDERS AND IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF SDG AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS, HAS APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT, AND RECOMMENDS THAT THE STOCKHOLDERS OF SDG VOTE FOR THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED THEREBY.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE CPI BOARD AND THE CRC BOARD OF DIRECTORS; CPI'S AND CRC'S REASONS FOR THE MERGER

THE CPI BOARD AND THE CRC BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAVE UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AND THE OTHER TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

The CPI Board believes that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are fair to and in the best interests of the stockholders of CPI. Accordingly, the CPI Board unanimously approved the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and recommended that the stockholders of CPI vote for approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. In reaching this determination, the CPI Board consulted with CPI management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors. In view of the variety of the factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the CPI Board did not find it practicable to and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the following factors or determine that any factor was of particular importance. Rather, the CPI Board views its recommendation as being based on the totality of the information presented and considered by it. The CPI Board considered the following factors, among others, in its determination to approve the Merger Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and to recommend that the CPI stockholders vote for the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement:

(i) The Merger would create the country's largest developer, owner and operator of super regional and regional shopping malls with one of the strongest management teams in the industry, including members of management of CPI who will have an ongoing role with Simon Group, and that CPI will have a continuing presence in Simon Group through this participation in senior management of Simon Group and the presence of three CPI designees on the Board of Directors of Simon Group.

(ii) The consideration to be received and retained by the holders of CPI Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement represents an attractive opportunity for CPI stockholders to continue their investment in the stock of a regional mall owner and operator, but with significantly expanded geographic diversification and a significantly larger portfolio of assets, as well as receive a substantial amount of cash for each share of CPI Common Stock.

(iii) The Merger serves the CPI Board's strategic objectives of allowing CPI to become a publicly traded company preserving its paired share structure, continuing CPI's strong growth in Funds From Operations and increasing and diversifying CPI's asset base within the retail real estate area without significantly diluting its asset quality and increasing CPI's leverage in a rational fashion.

(iv) The prospective benefits of an enlarged base to pursue marketing, sponsorship and other related initiatives underway at both CPI and SDG.

(v) The Merger would significantly increase the market capitalization of SDG or CPI alone, which may enhance the liquidity of the Simon Group Common Stock after the Merger as compared to the historical liquidity of the SDG Common Stock by increasing trading volumes.

(vi) The oral opinions of each of Lazard Freres and J.P. Morgan delivered on February 18, 1998, confirmed, in each case, by means of a written opinion of such party dated as of such date, that the consideration to be received or retained by the holders of CPI Common Stock, including the beneficial interests in CRC, was fair from a financial point of view to such holders, as described under "-- Opinions of Financial Advisors to CPI."

(vii) Presentations from, and discussions with, senior executives of CPI, representatives of its outside legal counsel and representatives of Lazard Freres and J.P. Morgan regarding the business, financial, accounting and legal due diligence with respect to SDG and the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, as well as the other bidders for CPI and the terms of their proposed transactions, and certain financial aspects of the Merger, including that it is expected to be accretive to Funds From Operations of CPI on a per share basis and result in an increase in distributions received by CPI stockholders.

(viii) The terms of the Merger Agreement, including the conditions to consummation of the Merger and the absence of a financing condition, the termination fee payable if the Merger is not approved by stockholders of SDG, the fact that the Merger Agreement contained a fixed exchange ratio for the stock component of the consideration to be received or retained by the holders of CPI Common Stock, the collar provisions described in "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger -- The Merger Consideration," historical trading prices for SDG Common Stock and the possibility that the cash component of the CPI Merger Dividends could rise above $90 per share or fall below $90 per share and the other representations, warranties, covenants and provisions of the Merger Agreement. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger" and "-- Conditions to Consummation of the Merger."

(ix) The Merger could allow opportunities to realize significant synergies, which are expected to have a positive effect on the financial results for Simon Group.

(x) General industry, economic and market conditions, both current and projected, the interests of CPI's stockholders and the potential impact of the Merger upon the interests of CPI's employees.

(xi) The fact that the three largest stockholders of CPI, which together own over 65% of the voting power of all the outstanding CPI capital stock, after carefully reviewing the terms of the Merger Agreement and the proposals received from the competing bidders, all agreed to enter into the Stockholder Voting Agreements obligating them to vote for the approval of the Merger Agreement as stockholders of CPI.

(xii) The Merger Agreement would preserve CPI's paired share structure.

(xiii) Alternatives to the Merger, including proposals by other bidders for CPI and remaining independent, and the CPI Board's conclusions that the resulting entity in a combination with SDG would be substantially stronger, both financially and as a real estate combination, than the resulting entity in a combination with the other bidders or as an independent entity.

In considering the Merger, the CPI Board considered certain factors that could have a potentially negative effect, including, among other things, the following:

(i) The leverage of Simon Group after the Merger will be greater than the leverage of CPI or SDG before the Merger and could adversely affect the ability of Simon Group to obtain additional financing and respond to changing market conditions. Assuming the Merger occurred on March 31, 1998, Simon Group would have had approximately $7.735 billion of pro forma combined consolidated indebtedness as of such date, as compared to historical consolidated indebtedness of SDG of $5.330 billion. Assuming the Merger occurred on March 31, 1998, Simon Group would have an additional $2.405 billion of indebtedness including the assumption of all of CPI and CRC's indebtedness of $858.8 million.

(ii) The costs associated with integrating the businesses of CPI and SDG could have an adverse effect on the expected benefits to CPI stockholders from the Merger and the financial condition and performance of Simon Group. SDG management believes that if the expected cost savings and revenue synergies are not realized and if a dilutive effect on net income per share of SDG Common Stock occurs, Simon Group's Funds From Operations per share following the Merger will be lower than might be expected for SDG's Funds From Operations per share without the Merger.

(iii) Certain terms of the Merger Agreement, including that CPI would be obligated to pay to SDG a termination fee in certain circumstances and that the cash component of the Merger Dividends could fall below $90 in certain circumstances.

(iv) The variability of the market price of SDG Common Stock and the fact that there is no market for Simon Group Common Stock.

The CPI Board determined that the positive effects of the factors considered by it significantly outweighed the negative effects in reaching its determination to approve the Merger and its conclusion that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are fair to and in the best interests of CPI stockholders.

The CRC Board of Directors, which consists of three directors, all of whom are also directors of CPI, met at the same time as the CPI Board and reached the same conclusions described above as were reached by the CPI Board for the same reasons.

OPINION OF FINANCIAL ADVISOR TO SDG

On February 19, 1998, Merrill Lynch delivered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated as of such date (the "Merrill Lynch Opinion"), to the SDG Board of Directors to the effect that, as of such date, and based upon the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of review set forth in the Merrill Lynch Opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of SDG Equity Stock in the Merger was fair to such stockholders from a financial point of view. Merrill Lynch has not been engaged to, and will not, update the Merrill Lynch Opinion prior to closing. In the opinion of the SDG Board of Directors, there have been no material events or developments since the date of the Merrill Lynch Opinion which might affect Merrill Lynch's analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of SDG Equity Stock in the Merger. In the event that the Merger Agreement is amended subsequent to the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the SDG Board of Directors will make a determination at the time of such amendment as to the desirability of requesting an update of the Merrill Lynch Opinion.

THE FULL TEXT OF THE MERRILL LYNCH OPINION, WHICH SETS FORTH THE ASSUMPTIONS MADE, MATTERS CONSIDERED AND CERTAIN LIMITATIONS ON THE SCOPE OF REVIEW UNDERTAKEN BY MERRILL LYNCH, IS ATTACHED AS ANNEX B TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS. EACH HOLDER OF SDG EQUITY STOCK IS URGED TO READ SUCH OPINION IN ITS ENTIRETY. THE MERRILL LYNCH OPINION WAS INTENDED FOR THE USE AND BENEFIT OF THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS, WAS DIRECTED ONLY TO THE FAIRNESS OF THE MERGER CONSIDERATION TO THE HOLDERS OF SDG EQUITY STOCK FROM A FINANCIAL POINT OF VIEW AND DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A RECOMMENDATION TO ANY STOCKHOLDER AS TO HOW SUCH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD VOTE WITH RESPECT TO THE MERGER AGREEMENT PROPOSAL OR ANY TRANSACTION RELATED THERETO. THE MERGER CONSIDERATION WAS DETERMINED ON THE BASIS OF NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN SDG AND CPI AND WAS APPROVED BY THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS. THE SUMMARY OF THE MERRILL LYNCH OPINION SET FORTH IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE FULL TEXT OF SUCH OPINION.

In arriving at the Merrill Lynch Opinion, Merrill Lynch among other things: (i) reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to SDG which Merrill Lynch deemed to be relevant; (ii) reviewed certain business and financial information relating to CPI which Merrill Lynch deemed to be relevant, including, but not limited to, CPI's Annual Report, dated December 31, 1996, CPI's Quarterly Report to Shareholders, dated September 30, 1997, and CPI's preliminary 1997 financial statements; (iii) reviewed certain information, including financial forecasts, relating to the business, earnings, funds from operations, cash flow, assets, liabilities and prospects of SDG, CPI and CRC, as well as the amount and timing of the cost savings and related expenses, synergies and revenue enhancements expected to result from the Merger (the "Expected Synergies"), furnished to Merrill Lynch by SDG, CPI and CRC, respectively; (iv) conducted discussions with members of senior management and representatives of SDG, CPI and CRC concerning the matters described in clauses (i) and (ii) above, as well as their respective businesses and prospects before and after giving effect to the Merger and the Expected Synergies; (v) reviewed the appraisal, dated February 5, 1998 (the "Appraisal"), of the assets of CPI and CRC as of December 31, 1997, as prepared by Landauer Associates, Inc. (the "Appraiser"); (vi) reviewed the results of operations of SDG, CPI and CRC and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that Merrill Lynch deemed to be relevant; (vii) compared the proposed financial terms of the Merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that Merrill Lynch deemed to be relevant; (viii) participated in certain discussions and negotiations among representatives of SDG, CPI and CRC and their financial and legal advisors; (ix) reviewed the potential pro forma impact of the Merger; (x) reviewed the Merger Agreement; and (xi) reviewed such other financial studies and analyses and took into account such other matters as Merrill Lynch deemed necessary, including its assessment of general economic, market and monetary conditions.

In preparing the Merrill Lynch Opinion, Merrill Lynch assumed and relied on the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied or otherwise made available to Merrill Lynch, discussed with or reviewed by or for Merrill Lynch, or publicly available. Merrill Lynch also did not assume any responsibility for independently verifying such information or undertaking an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of SDG, CPI or CRC, and Merrill Lynch has not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal other than the Appraisal. In addition, Merrill Lynch did not assume any obligation to conduct, nor has it conducted, any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of SDG, CPI or CRC. With respect to the financial forecast information and the Expected Synergies furnished to or discussed with Merrill Lynch by SDG, CPI or CRC, Merrill Lynch assumed that they have been reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and judgment of SDG's, CPI's or CRC's management as to the expected future financial performance of SDG, CPI or CRC, as the case may be, and the Expected Synergies. Additionally, Merrill Lynch assumed that the Appraisal has been reasonably prepared and reflects the best available estimates and judgments of the Appraiser as to the fair value of the assets of CPI and CRC as of the date thereof. Merrill Lynch has further assumed that the Merger, upon approval by the stockholders of SDG, will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Merrill Lynch's opinion was necessarily based upon market, economic and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on, and upon the information made available to Merrill Lynch as of February 18, 1998. Merrill Lynch has assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or other consents or approvals (contractual or otherwise) for the Merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger. Merrill Lynch has also assumed that the combined entity will continue to qualify after the Merger as a REIT for federal income tax purposes. In addition, Merrill Lynch has assumed that the consummation of the Merger will not adversely affect the status of Simon Group and CRC as a grandfathered paired REIT. If, following consummation of the Merger, it were determined that Simon Group and CRC failed to qualify for grandfathered paired REIT status as a result of the Merger, certain income of CRC would be treated as nonqualifying income of Simon Group, potentially jeopardizing Simon Group's status as a REIT. The Administration Proposals included a proposal that, if enacted, would limit the benefits of Simon Group's grandfathered status with respect to assets acquired after February 2, 1998; as a result, Merrill Lynch did not ascribe any incremental value to Simon Group's and CRC's status as a paired REIT with respect to future asset acquisitions.

Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion as to the prices at which the SDG Equity Stock will trade following the announcement of the Merger or as to the prices at which the Simon Group Common Stock, the Simon Group Class B Common Stock, the Simon Group Class C Common Stock or the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock will trade following the consummation of the Merger.

In arriving at the Merrill Lynch Opinion, Merrill Lynch performed certain financial and comparative analyses, the material portions of which are summarized below.

Valuation of CPI

CPI Capitalization. Merrill Lynch reviewed SDG's offer for CPI and, on the basis thereof, calculated an aggregate net offer value for the CPI Common Stock (the "Net Offer Value") of $4,802.6 million, based on the per share price as of February 18, 1998, of SDG Common Stock of $33.625, and a notional per share value of the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock of $19.00. Using an estimation of CPI's debt balances as of December 31, 1997 provided by CPI's management, Merrill Lynch also calculated an aggregate transaction value (the "Transaction Value") of $5,781.0 million, which consisted of the Net Offer Value plus net debt of $978.4 million. With respect to the Net Offer Value, Merrill Lynch calculated Funds From Operations multiples for 1998 and 1999 of 17.1x and 15.5x, respectively.

Analysis of Selected Comparable Publicly Traded Companies. Using publicly available information and estimates of future financial results published by First Call, an industry service provider of earnings estimates based on an average of earnings estimates published by various investment banks ("First Call"), and taken from Merrill Lynch Equity Research, Merrill Lynch compared certain financial and operating information and ratios for CPI with the corresponding financial and operating information for a group of publicly traded companies engaged primarily in the ownership, management, operation and acquisition of retail real estate. For the purpose of its analysis, the following companies were used as comparable companies to CPI: Rouse, Taubman Centers, Inc., General Growth Properties, Inc., Westfield America, Inc., The Macerich Company, The Mills Corporation and Urban Shopping Centers, Inc. (collectively, the "SDG Comparable Companies").

Merrill Lynch's calculations resulted in the following relevant ranges for the SDG Comparable Companies and for CPI as of February 18, 1998: a range of debt to total market capitalization of 37.8% to 51.8%, with a mean of 42.4% (as compared to the percentage for CPI implied by the Merger of 16.9%); a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1997 Funds From Operations of 11.7x to 13.3x, with a mean of 12.6x (as compared to the multiple for CPI implied by the Merger of 19.3x); a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1998 Funds From Operations of 11.0x to 12.2x, with a mean of 11.7x (as compared to the multiple for CPI implied by the Merger of 17.1x); a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1999 Funds From Operations of 10.3x to 10.9x, with a mean of 10.6x (as compared to the multiple for CPI implied by the Merger of 15.5x); and a range of market value to estimated net asset value of 104% to 143%, with a mean of 121% (as compared to the percentage for CPI implied by the Merger of 123%). Based upon (i) projected 1998 Funds From Operations multiples, the implied per share valuation of CPI Common Stock was estimated between $115.17 and $127.73, (ii) projected 1998 Funds From Operations multiples including the Expected Synergies, the implied per share valuation of CPI Common Stock was estimated between $140.45 and $155.78, and (iii) the estimated net asset value of CPI set forth in the Appraisal, the implied per share valuation of CPI Common Stock was estimated between $150.80 and $207.35, in each case compared to the implied value of the consideration to be received per share of CPI Common Stock (the "Implied Merger Consideration") of approximately $179 (consisting of $90 in cash, approximately $70 in Simon Group Common Stock (based on the reported closing trading price per share of SDG Common Stock of $33 5/8 on February 18, 1998, the last trading date preceding public announcement of the Merger, and a fixed ratio of 1.0818 additional shares of CPI Common Stock for each share of CPI Common Stock held) and approximately $19 liquidation preference of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock).

Comparable Transaction Analysis. Merrill Lynch also compared certain financial ratios of the Merger with those of selected other mergers and strategic transactions involving REITs. These transactions were: Starwood Lodging Trust's acquisition of ITT Corporation; Equity Office Properties Trust's acquisition of Beacon Properties Corporation; Simon Property Group, Inc.'s acquisition of DeBartolo Realty Corporation, SDG Operating Partnership's acquisition of RPT; Meditrust REIT's acquisition of La Quinta Inns, Inc.; Patriot American Hospitality, Inc.'s acquisition of Interstate Hotels Company; Crescent Real Estate Equities Company's acquisition of Station Casinos, Inc.; Equity Residential Property Trust's acquisition of Evans Withycombe Residential, Inc.; Equity Residential Property Trust's acquisition of Wellsford Residential Property Trust; Apartment Investment and Management Company's acquisition of Ambassador Apartments, Inc.; Post Properties, Inc.'s acquisition of Columbus Realty Trust; Camden Property Trust's acquisition of Paragon Group, Inc.; and Chateau Properties, Inc.'s acquisition of ROC Communities, Inc. (collectively, the "Transaction Comparables").

Using publicly available information and estimates of financial results as published by First Call, Merrill Lynch calculated the total transaction value, as of the day of the announcement of the respective transactions, as a multiple of the projected forward year Funds From Operations for the transaction. This analysis yielded a range of transaction Funds From Operations multiples of 10.1x to 15.1x, with a mean of 11.8x (as compared to the multiple for CPI implied by the Merger of 15.5x). Based on projected 1998 Funds From Operations multiples, the implied per share valuation of the CPI Common Stock was estimated between $105.75 and $158.10, compared to the Implied Merger Consideration of approximately $179 per share.

Discounted Cash Flow Analyses. Merrill Lynch performed discounted cash flow analyses (i.e., an analysis of the present value of the projected levered cash flows for the periods using the discount rates indicated) of CPI based upon projections provided by CPI's management for the years 1998 through 2002, inclusive, using discount rates reflecting an equity cost of capital ranging from 13.0% to 15.0% and terminal value multiples of calendar year 2002 Funds From Operations ranging from 12.5x to 13.5x. Using the discounted Funds From Operations method, the implied per share valuation of the CPI Common Stock was estimated between $138.70 to $158.16, compared to the Implied Merger Consideration of approximately $179 per share.

Merrill Lynch also performed a discounted synergies analysis (i.e., an analysis of the present value of the Expected Synergies for the periods using the discount rates indicated) for CPI based upon projections provided by CPI's management for the years 1998 through 2002, inclusive, using discount rates reflecting an equity cost of capital ranging from 13.0% to 15.0% and terminal value multiples of calendar year 2002 synergies ranging from 14.0x to 15.0x. Using the discounted synergies method, the implied value of the Expected Synergies per share of CPI Common Stock was estimated between $38.23 to $43.48. Based upon the foregoing analyses, the implied per share valuation of CPI Common Stock including the Expected Synergies was estimated between $176.93 to $201.64, compared to the Implied Merger Consideration of approximately $179 per share.

Valuation of SDG

Analysis of Selected Comparable Publicly Traded Companies. Using publicly available information and estimates of future financial results published by First Call and taken from Merrill Lynch Equity Research, Merrill Lynch compared certain financial and operating information and ratios for SDG with the corresponding financial and operating information for the SDG Comparable Companies.

Merrill Lynch's calculations resulted in the following relevant ranges for the SDG Comparable Companies and for SDG as of February 18, 1998: a range of debt to total market capitalization of 37.8% to 51.8%, with a mean of 42.4% (as compared to SDG at 46.5%); a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1997 Funds From Operations of 11.7x to 13.3x, with a mean of 12.6x (as compared to SDG at 13.0x); a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1998 Funds From Operations of 11.0x to 12.2x, with a mean of 11.7x (as compared to SDG at 11.8x); a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1999 Funds From Operations of 10.3x to 10.9x, with a mean of 10.6x (as compared to SDG at 10.6x); a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1997 Funds From Operations less recurring capital expenditures ("AFFO") of 12.6x to 15.3x, with a mean of 14.1x (as compared with SDG at 14.4x); and a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1998 AFFO of 11.9x to 14.1x, with a mean of 13.0x (as compared to SDG at 13.0x). Based upon publicly available projected 1998 Funds From Operations multiples published by First Call, the implied per share valuation of the SDG Equity Stock was estimated between $31.46 and $34.89, and based upon publicly available 1999 multiples published by First Call, the implied per share valuation of the SDG Equity Stock was estimated between $32.45 and $34.34.

Discounted Cash Flow Analyses. Merrill Lynch performed discounted cash flow analyses of SDG based upon projections provided by SDG's management for the years 1998 through 2002, inclusive, using discount rates reflecting an equity cost of capital ranging from 13.0% to 15.0% and terminal value multiples of calendar year 2002 Funds From Operations ranging from 12.5x to 13.5x. The implied value per share of SDG Equity Stock was estimated between $34.31 to $39.32 using the discounted dividend method and $36.21 to $41.26 using the discounted Funds From Operations method.

Pro Forma Merger Consequences. Merrill Lynch analyzed the pro forma effects resulting from the Merger, including the potential impact on SDG's projected standalone Funds From Operations per share and the anticipated accretion (i.e., the incremental increase) to SDG's per share Funds From Operations resulting from the Merger. Merrill Lynch observed that, after giving effect to the SDG Expected Synergies, the Merger would be dilutive in 1998 but accretive to SDG's projected Funds From Operations per share in each of the years 1999 through 2002, inclusive.

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete description of the analysis performed by Merrill Lynch in arriving at the Merrill Lynch Opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and not necessarily susceptible to partial or summary description. Merrill Lynch believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and of the factors considered by it, without considering all factors and analyses, could create a misleading view of the process underlying the Merrill Lynch Opinion. In its analyses, Merrill Lynch made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond SDG's, CPI's and Merrill Lynch's control. Any estimates contained in Merrill Lynch's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than as set forth therein. Estimated values do not purport to be appraisals and do not necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or companies may be sold in the future, and such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty.

None of the SDG Comparable Companies are, of course, identical to CPI or SDG. Accordingly, a complete analysis of the results of the foregoing calculations cannot be limited to a quantitative review of such results and involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the SDG Comparable Companies and other factors that could affect the public trading volume of the SDG Comparable Companies, as well as that of SDG. In addition, the multiples of market value to estimated 1997 and projected 1998 Funds From Operations and AFFO for the SDG Comparable Companies are based on projections prepared by research analysts using only publicly available information. Accordingly, such estimates may or may not prove to be accurate.

The SDG Board of Directors selected Merrill Lynch to render a fairness opinion because Merrill Lynch is an internationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the Merger and because it is familiar with SDG and its business. Merrill Lynch is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities and private placements.

Pursuant to a letter agreement dated as of February 18, 1998, SDG has agreed to pay Merrill Lynch a fee equal to approximately $7 million upon consummation of the Merger. In addition, SDG has agreed to reimburse Merrill Lynch for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, subject to certain limitations, and to indemnify Merrill Lynch and certain related persons against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement.

Merrill Lynch has, in the past, provided financial advisory services to SDG and may continue to do so and has received, and may receive, fees for the rendering of such services. In addition, on June 22, 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership consummated a private placement of $1.075 billion aggregate principal amount of notes, for which Merrill Lynch served as co-lead manager. In the ordinary course of its business, Merrill Lynch may actively trade in the securities of SDG or CPI, for its own account and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. As of February 18, 1998, affiliates of Merrill Lynch held approximately 8.4% of the outstanding shares of SDG Common Stock.

OPINIONS OF FINANCIAL ADVISORS TO CPI

Lazard Freres and J.P. Morgan were engaged by CPI to act as its investment bankers in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and related matters. On February 18, 1998, Lazard Freres and J.P. Morgan delivered their oral opinions, confirmed in each case by means of a written opinion dated as of such date (the "Lazard Freres Opinion" and the "J.P. Morgan Opinion", respectively, and collectively, the "CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions"), to the CPI Board stating that, as of such date, and based upon the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of review set forth therein, the consideration to be received or retained by the stockholders of CPI, including beneficial interests in CRC, in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement was fair to them from a financial point of view. Lazard Freres and J.P. Morgan have not been engaged to, and will not, update the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions prior to closing. In the opinion of the CPI Board, there have been no material events or developments since the date of the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions which might affect Lazard Freres' or J.P. Morgan's analyses of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received or retained by the stockholders of CPI in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. In the event that the Merger Agreement is amended subsequent to the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the CPI Board will make a determination at the time of such amendment as to the desirability of requesting an update of the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions.

THE FULL TEXTS OF THE LAZARD FRERES OPINION AND THE J.P. MORGAN OPINION, EACH OF WHICH SETS FORTH THE ASSUMPTIONS MADE, MATTERS CONSIDERED AND QUALIFICATIONS AND LIMITATIONS ON THE REVIEW UNDERTAKEN, ARE ATTACHED AS ANNEXES C AND D TO THIS PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS, RESPECTIVELY, AND ARE INCORPORATED HEREIN BY REFERENCE. THE DESCRIPTION OF THE CPI FINANCIAL ADVISORS' OPINIONS SET FORTH HEREIN IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY REFERENCE TO THE FULL TEXT OF SUCH OPINIONS. THE CPI FINANCIAL ADVISORS' OPINIONS ARE ADDRESSED TO THE CPI BOARD AND ARE DIRECTED ONLY TO THE CONSIDERATION TO BE RECEIVED OR RETAINED IN THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND DO NOT CONSTITUTE A RECOMMENDATION TO ANY STOCKHOLDER OF CPI AS TO HOW SUCH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD VOTE WITH RESPECT TO THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THE MERGER AGREEMENT. CPI STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE CPI FINANCIAL ADVISORS' OPINIONS IN THEIR ENTIRETY IN CONNECTION WITH THEIR CONSIDERATION OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

In connection with performing their analyses for rendering their respective opinions, the CPI Financial Advisors among other things (i) reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement; (ii) reviewed certain publicly available financial information concerning CPI, CRC and SDG; (iii) reviewed various financial forecasts and other data provided to them by CPI, CRC and SDG relating to their respective businesses; (iv) held discussions with members of the senior management of CPI, CRC and SDG concerning their respective businesses and prospects of CPI and CRC together on one hand and SDG on the other, the strategic objectives of each, and possible benefits which might be realized following the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (v) reviewed public information with respect to certain publicly-traded REITs and other companies in lines of business they believed to be generally comparable to the businesses of CPI and CRC together on one hand and SDG on the other; (vi) reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations involving REITs or companies in lines of businesses they believed to be generally comparable to those of CPI and CRC together on one hand and SDG on the other; (vii) reviewed the historical market prices and trading volume of the shares of SDG's Common Stock; (viii) analyzed the pro forma financial impact of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement on CPI and CRC together on one hand and SDG on the other; (ix) conferred with and relied upon the counsel to the CPI Board as to all legal matters pertaining to the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and (x) conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as they deemed appropriate.

The CPI Financial Advisors relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the information provided to them and did not assume any responsibility for any independent verification of such information or any independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of CPI, CRC or SDG. The CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions do not constitute valuations or appraisals of the shares of common stock, assets or liabilities of CPI, CRC or SDG. In addition, the CPI Financial Advisors did not express any opinions as to the price or range of prices at which the common stock of SDG, CPI or CRC may trade subsequent to the date of the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions. With respect to financial forecasts, the CPI Financial Advisors assumed that they had been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best available estimates and judgements of management of CPI and CRC together on one hand and SDG on the other. They assumed no responsibility for and expressed no view as to such forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. Further, the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions were necessarily based variously on economics, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to them as of, the date thereof. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions and that they do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions.

In rendering the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions, the CPI Financial Advisors assumed that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement would be consummated on the terms described in the Merger Agreement including with respect to the tax consequences thereof, without any waiver of any material terms or conditions by CPI or CRC and that obtaining the necessary approvals for the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement would not have an adverse effect on CPI, CRC or SDG. CPI Financial Advisors noted that the shares of CPI Series A Preferred Stock were immediately convertible, and they have treated them, for the purpose of their opinions, as though they had been converted into shares of CPI Common Stock and a related beneficial interest in CRC. As described above, CPI received proposals from other parties with respect to merger transactions involving CPI. See "-- Background of the Merger." In this regard, they expressed no opinions as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of CPI of the consideration proposed by any such other parties, and no opinions were expressed as to the relative values to be received by the stockholders of CPI under the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and under such other proposals.

In arriving at the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions, the CPI Financial Advisors performed certain financial and comparative analyses, the material portions of which are summarized below.

Valuation of SDG's Offer. The CPI Financial Advisors calculated the value of SDG's offer based on the per share closing price as of February 17, 1998 of SDG Common Stock of $33.00. The CPI Financial Advisors noted that, based primarily on its summary terms and conditions, the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock would be likely to have a fair market value of approximately $17.67 per share. On this basis, the CPI Financial Advisors calculated the total value of SDG's offer to be approximately $177.67 per share of CPI Common Stock which represented 19.6x 1997 Funds From Operations for CPI, 17.5x 1998 projected Funds From Operations and 15.9x 1999 projected Funds From Operations.

Analysis of CPI's Net Asset Value. The CPI Financial Advisors compared the value of SDG's offer with the net asset value ("NAV") for CPI as of December 31, 1997 of $146.84 per share as per the Appraisal. The NAV represented 15.8x 1997 Funds From Operations (as compared to the multiple implied by the Merger of 19.6x), 14.0x 1998 projected Funds From Operations (as compared to the multiple implied by the Merger of 17.5x) and 12.7x 1999 projected Funds From Operations (as compared to the multiple implied by the Merger of 15.9x).

Analysis of Selected Comparable Publicly Traded Companies. Using publicly available information and estimates of future financial results published by First Call, the CPI Financial Advisors compared certain financial and operating information and ratios for CPI with the corresponding financial and operating information for a group of publicly traded REITs engaged primarily in the ownership, management, operation and acquisition of regional malls. For the purpose of these analyses, the following companies were used as comparable companies to CPI: SDG, Rouse, and General Growth Properties, Inc. (collectively, the "CPI Comparable Companies").

The CPI Financial Advisors' calculations resulted in the following relevant ranges for the CPI Comparable Companies and for CPI as of February 17, 1998: a range of market value as a multiple of estimated 1997 Funds From Operations of 12.5x to 13.1x (as compared to the multiple for CPI implied by the Merger of 19.6x); a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1998 Funds From Operations of 11.6x to 12.1x (as compared to the multiple for CPI implied by the Merger of 17.5x); and a range of market value as a multiple of projected 1999 Funds From Operations of 10.4x to 11.0x (as compared to the multiple for CPI implied by the Merger of 15.9x).

Comparable Transaction Analysis. The CPI Financial Advisors also compared certain financial ratios of the Merger with those of the most comparable other merger involving REITs engaged primarily in the ownership, management, operation and acquisition of regional malls, SDG's acquisition of RPT (the "Comparable Transaction"). Using estimates of financial results as available to the CPI Financial Advisors, the CPI Financial Advisors calculated the total equity value as a multiple of both the trailing and forward year Funds From Operations for the transaction. This analysis yielded a transaction Funds From Operations multiple that was significantly lower than the multiples for CPI implied by the Merger.

Pro Forma Merger Consequences. The CPI Financial Advisors analyzed the pro forma effects resulting from the Merger, including the potential impact on Funds From Operations per share, based on projections for SDG prepared by research analysts using only publicly available information. The CPI Financial Advisors observed that, after giving effect to expected synergies, the Merger would be slightly dilutive to SDG in 1998 and 1999 but accretive to CPI in each of such years.

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by the CPI Financial Advisors in arriving at the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and not necessarily susceptible to partial or summary description. The CPI Financial Advisors believe that their analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of their analyses and of the factors considered by them, without considering all factors and analyses, could create a misleading view of the process underlying the CPI Financial Advisors' Opinions. In their analyses, the CPI Financial Advisors made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond SDG's, CPI's and each of the CPI Financial Advisor's control. Any estimates contained in the CPI Financial Advisors' analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than as set forth therein. Estimated values do not purport to be appraisals and do not necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or companies may be sold in the future, and such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty.

None of the CPI Comparable Companies are identical to CPI. Accordingly, a complete analysis of the results of the foregoing calculations cannot be limited to a quantitative review of such results and involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the CPI Comparable Companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of the CPI Comparable Companies. The projections furnished to the CPI Financial Advisors with respect to CPI were prepared by the management of CPI. CPI does not publicly disclose internal management projections of the type provided to the CPI Financial Advisors in connection with their analysis of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and such projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure. These projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond the control of management, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions and prevailing interest rates. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such projections. In addition, the multiples of market value to estimated 1997 and projected 1998 Funds From Operations for SDG and the CPI Comparable Companies are based on projections prepared by research analysts using only publicly available information. Accordingly, such estimates may or may not prove to be accurate.

Lazard Freres is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and for other purposes. CPI retained Lazard Freres to act as its investment banker in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and related matters based upon its qualifications, expertise and reputation in investment banking in general and mergers and acquisitions specifically. In the course of its activities, Lazard Freres has provided and may continue to provide investment banking services to CPI and SDG for which Lazard Freres has received or will receive customary compensation. CPI and its affiliates have paid a total of $2,375,000 in fees to Lazard Freres for such services since January 1996, excluding services provided in connection with the Merger. In the ordinary course of its business, Lazard Freres may actively trade the debt and equity securities of CPI or SDG for its own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may hold long or short positions in such securities at any time. In addition, a vice chairman of Lazard Freres is a director of CPI.

As part of its investment banking business, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates are continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, investments for passive and control purposes, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. J.P. Morgan was selected to advise CPI with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement on the basis of such experience and its familiarity with CPI. In the course of its activities, J.P. Morgan has provided and may continue to provide financial advisory services to CPI for which J.P. Morgan has received or will receive customary compensation. CPI has paid a total of $1,217,713 in fees to J.P. Morgan and $84,412 to J.P. Morgan's legal advisors in connection with such services, excluding services provided in connection with the Merger. In addition, in June 1998 Argo II, an investment fund established in part by J.P. Morgan, together with SDG and certain other investors committed to invest approximately $80 million in Groupe BEG, S.A., a retail real estate developer, lessor and manager headquartered in Paris, France. In the ordinary course of its business, J.P. Morgan may actively trade the debt and equity securities of CPI or SDG for its own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may hold long or short positions in such securities at any time.

Pursuant to letter agreements, dated October 20, 1997 and December 22, 1997, CPI agreed to pay each of the CPI Financial Advisors (i) $1.75 million, which has been paid, upon execution of the Merger Agreement and (ii) a fee contingent upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement equal to 0.17% of the aggregate value of CPI (generally, the enterprise value of CPI implied by the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement including cash and the market value of any stock retained, and all indebtedness less cash and cash equivalents immediately prior to consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement), which is expected to be approximately $10 million based on the market value of SDG Common Stock as of April 27, 1998. Any fees previously paid to each of the CPI Financial Advisors pursuant to the first clause above will be deducted from any fee to which each of the CPI Financial Advisors is entitled pursuant to the second clause. CPI has also agreed to reimburse each of the CPI Financial Advisors for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify each of the CPI Financial Advisors and their respective members, employees, agents, affiliates and controlling persons against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, relating to or arising out of their engagement.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS

The following describes the material terms of the Merger Agreement and related matters. The description set forth below does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Annex A and is incorporated herein by reference. Stockholders of SDG are urged to read the Merger Agreement in its entirety.

EFFECTS OF THE MERGER

The Merger Agreement provides that upon the terms and subject to the conditions described below, at the Effective Time, a wholly owned subsidiary of CPI shall be merged with and into SDG in accordance with the MGCL, with SDG continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger. As a result, SDG will become a subsidiary of Simon Group. The directors and officers of SDG immediately prior to the Effective Time will remain the initial directors and officers of SDG, in each case until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be. The Board of Directors of Simon Group and CRC at the Effective Time will consist of 13 directors and will include 10 directors designated by SDG and three directors designated by CPI, who, in each case, will remain directors until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. Immediately after the Effective Time, the officers of Simon Group and CRC shall include two current officers of CPI and CRC and such other officers designated by SDG, who, in each case, will remain officers until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. See "MANAGEMENT OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC FOLLOWING THE MERGER."

EFFECTIVE TIME

Following the adoption of the Merger Agreement and subject to satisfaction or waiver of certain terms and conditions contained in the Merger Agreement, the Merger will become effective on such date as the articles of merger or other appropriate documents, duly prepared and executed by SDG and a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of CPI in accordance with Section 3-110 of the MGCL, are accepted for record by the Maryland State Department as provided in Section 3-113 of the MGCL or at such other time as may be agreed upon by the parties and specified in the articles of merger in accordance with applicable law.

TERMS OF THE MERGER

The Merger Consideration. The Merger Agreement provides that each outstanding share of SDG Common Stock, SDG Class B Common Stock, and SDG Class C Common Stock (other than shares held by SDG as treasury stock, shares owned by Simon Group, CRC or any wholly owned entity of CPI or CRC or shares as to which appraisal rights have been perfected) shall be converted into the right to receive one share of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock, respectively. See "-- Certain Provisions Related to Employee Benefits and Incentive Plans -- Treatment of SDG Stock Plans." Each of such shares of Simon Group Equity Stock outstanding or issued in connection with the Merger will be paired with a beneficial interest in shares of CRC Common Stock held by the CRC Trusts.

Total consideration to be received and retained by a holder of CPI Common Stock at the time of the execution of the Merger Agreement was equal to approximately $179 per share, consisting of $90 in cash, subject to the collar provisions described in "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger -- The Merger Consideration," approximately $70 in Simon Group Common Stock (based on the reported closing trading price of SDG Common Stock of $33 5/8 on February 18, 1998, the last trading date preceding public announcement of the Merger, and a fixed ratio of 1.0818 additional shares of CPI Common Stock for each share of CPI Common Stock held) and approximately $19 in Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock. The trading price of the Simon Group Common Stock at the Effective Time may be higher or lower than $33 5/8, and if so, the value of the Simon Group Common Stock to be received by CPI stockholders will be more or less than approximately $70 depending upon the direction of the price movement. Specifically, the Merger Agreement provides that prior to the Effective Time CPI shall declare the CPI

Merger Dividends on the shares of CPI Common Stock consisting of (i) the Cash Amount; (ii) 1.0818 shares of CPI Common Stock; and (iii) 0.19 shares of CPI Series B Preferred Stock (which from and after the Effective Time shall be referred to as Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock). The "Cash Amount" shall be $90.00 per share of CPI Common Stock, if the Market Price for SDG Common Stock is greater than or equal to $28.58 and less than or equal to $38.67 and otherwise shall be adjusted as follows: (i) if the Market Price for the SDG Common Stock at the Effective Time exceeds $38.67, then the Cash Amount shall be reduced by an amount equal to such excess multiplied by 2.0818 and (ii) if the Market Price for SDG Common Stock at the Effective Time is less than $28.58, then the Cash Amount shall be increased by an amount equal to such deficiency multiplied by 2.0818. The "Market Price" shall be the average of the closing prices per share for the SDG Common Stock on the NYSE for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day prior to the Effective Time. The following table sets forth the Cash Amounts using various sample SDG Market Prices:

$28.58-$38.67	$90.00
$40.00	$87.23

If the Effective Time were August 12, 1998, the Market Price would be equal to $32.08 and the Cash Amount would be $90.00 per share of CPI Common Stock. The Cash Amount is set based upon the Market Price pursuant to the collar provisions described above, which only can be determined after the SDG Meetings and on the fifth trading day prior to the Effective Time. Interested parties may call MacKenzie Partners, Inc. at (800) 322-2885 to obtain the current anticipated Effective Time and a current example of the Cash Amount to be issued on a per share basis. Prior to the Merger, each of SDG and CPI shall declare a Special Distribution to their respective stockholders, the record date for which shall be the close of business on the last business day prior to the Effective Time. "Special Distribution" means the distribution to be made by each of SDG and CPI to their respective stockholders in amounts proportional to dividends paid to SDG's or CPI's (as the case may be) stockholders for the last full quarter preceding the Effective Time, prorated over the number of days elapsed in the quarter in which the Effective Time occurs from the beginning of such quarter to the Effective Time.

The consideration to be received by each of the SDG stockholders and each of the CPI stockholders was determined based on an arm's length negotiation of the Merger Agreement and the desired structure for the transaction.

CERTAIN PROVISIONS RELATING TO EMPLOYEE BENEFITS AND INCENTIVE PLANS

Employee Benefit Plans. In general, except with respect to SDG stock plans (described below), SDG shall retain its rights and obligations under the SDG Employee Benefit Plans and Simon Group shall retain the rights and obligations of CPI under the CPI Employee Benefit Plans in accordance with their respective terms. SDG and Simon Group shall honor without modification all employee severance plans (or policies) and employment and severance agreements of SDG, CPI and CRC and any of their respective subsidiaries and consolidated non-corporate affiliates (such party's "Entities") in existence on the date of the Merger Agreement as such agreements shall be in effect in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement at the Effective Time.

Treatment of SDG Stock Plans. As of the Effective Time, each outstanding option to purchase a share of SDG Common Stock and related interests (an "SDG Stock Option") under any of the stock option plans of SDG (the "SDG Option Plans"), whether theretofore vested or unvested, shall constitute an option to acquire a share of Simon Group Common Stock, together with the related beneficial interest in CRC Common Stock, and shall otherwise have the same terms and provisions as such SDG Stock Option (subject to the next sentence). The price per share of Simon Group Common Stock at which each such option is exercisable shall be the option exercise price per share of SDG Common Stock at which such option is exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that, in the case of an incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Code, the option terms shall be determined in order to comply with Section 424(a) of the Code. In addition, each outstanding right to earn shares of SDG Common Stock shall constitute a right to earn shares of Simon Group Common Stock.

Treatment of CPI Stock Plan. Each outstanding option to purchase a share of CPI Common Stock and related interests in CRC Common Stock (a "CPI Stock Option") under the 1993 Share Option Plan of CPI (the "CPI Option Plan") is immediately exercisable. The price per share of CPI Common Stock and the related beneficial interest in CRC Common Stock at which each such option is exercisable shall be the exercise price per share at which the CPI Stock Option is exercisable pursuant to the CPI Option Plan immediately prior to the Effective Time (adjusted for the CPI Merger Dividends); provided, however, that, in the case of an incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Code, the terms of such option shall be determined in order to comply with Section 424(a) of the Code. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, CPI will use its reasonable best efforts (except the expenditure of cash) to amend the CPI Option Plan and all related option contracts, (a) effective at the consummation of the Merger, (x) to remove all transfer restrictions on non-qualified stock options and shares issued upon the exercise of options and (y) to eliminate the "put" feature and (b) effective as of the date of the Merger Agreement, to provide that CPI will lend money to exercising optionees at the applicable federal rate, with such loan (A) to be fully recourse to the borrower and secured by all shares acquired upon exercise, (B) with respect to exercises occurring before the consummation of the Merger, to extend for up to 19 months, and with respect to any other exercise, to extend for up to ten days and (C) to be mandatorily prepayable to the extent of any extraordinary cash dividends or distributions receivable with respect to the option shares of such optionee (including in connection with the Merger).

Restricted Stock. Prior to the Effective Time, (i) CPI shall offer to the other party under each Employee Share Purchase Contract (the "CPI ESP Contract") under CPI's Employee Share Purchase Plan (the "ESPP"), and shall use its reasonable best efforts (it being understood that such efforts shall not require the expenditure of cash) to obtain the agreement of such party, to amend such CPI ESP Contract (x) to release the transfer restrictions on the securities issued pursuant thereto and remove any associated legends from the certificates evidencing such securities, (y) to eliminate the right of such party to cause CPI to repurchase such securities and (z) to provide that upon any transfer of such securities, the transferor shall either pay to CPI the applicable portion of the "Permanent Restriction" thereunder or obtain an undertaking of the transferee thereof to pay such amount or obtain a comparable undertaking upon any subsequent transfer by such transferee and (ii) CPI may pay to such party (through the forgiveness of indebtedness or otherwise) an amount equal to the principal of the indebtedness initially incurred, and any accrued interest subsequently added, to purchase the securities purchased thereunder, but only if the per-unit purchase price thereof exceeded $150 (before deduction for any Permanent Restriction).

For a description of Simon Group's benefit plans following consummation of the Merger, see "MANAGEMENT OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC FOLLOWING THE MERGER -- Simon Group Benefit Plans."

EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, Simon Group shall cause an exchange agent (who will be designated before the closing of the Merger by SDG and will be reasonably acceptable to CPI) (the "Exchange Agent") to mail to each holder of record of certificates representing shares of SDG Equity Stock ("Certificates") (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as Simon Group, may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the shares issuable in connection with the Merger and any cash payable pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal duly executed and completed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the aggregate consideration which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the Merger Agreement (the "Applicable Merger Consideration"), and the Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In no event shall the holder of any Certificate be entitled to receive interest on any funds to be received in the Merger. In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of SDG Equity Stock, which is not registered in the transfer records, a certificate representing that number of whole paired shares (as adjusted by any cash amount payable) may be issued to a transferee if the Certificate is presented to the Exchange Agent accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. Until surrendered, each Certificate shall be deemed after the Effective Time, except as limited by the following paragraph, to represent ownership of the shares into which the shares would have been converted as contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Certificates surrendered for exchange by any person deemed to be an "affiliate" of SDG for purposes of Rule 145 of the Securities Act shall not be exchanged until Simon Group has received an executed agreement from such persons ("Affiliate's Agreement").

No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to Simon Group Equity Stock with a record date on or after the Effective Time, and no distributions to be made to the beneficial owners of interests in CRC Common Stock arising out of a dividend or distribution declared or made by CRC after the Effective Time with a record date on or after the Effective Time, shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares represented thereby and no cash payment shall be paid to any such holder until the holder shall surrender such Certificate. Until paid to the holders of such unsurrendered Certificates, all such dividends and other distributions, and all cash payments to be paid, shall be delivered to the Exchange Agent and held by it as part of the Exchange Fund. The "Exchange Fund" includes such certificates and funds, together with earnings thereon, to be held by the Exchange Agent. Subject to applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, the record holder of the Certificates shall be paid, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of dividends or other distributions, if any, with a record date on or after the Effective Time which theretofore became payable, but which were not paid by reason of the immediately preceding sentence, with respect to such whole number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date on or after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date subsequent to surrender payable with respect to such whole number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock.

All cash and Simon Group Equity Stock which are paired to beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates shall be deemed to have been issued at the Effective Time in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of capital stock represented thereby, subject, however, to Simon Group's obligation to pay any dividends which may have been declared in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement and which remained unpaid at the Effective Time. From and after the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of SDG shall be closed and there shall be no further transfers on the stock transfer books of the shares of capital stock of SDG which were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to Simon Group for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided above. Any portion of the Exchange Fund and the net proceeds held in trust by the Exchange Agent for the holders of fractional Simon Group Equity Stock (any such fractional shares, the "Fractional Shares") (the "Stock Trust") which remains undistributed for six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Simon Group, upon demand, and any stockholders who have not theretofore complied with the terms described above shall thereafter look only to Simon Group for payment of their claims.

FRACTIONAL SHARES

No certificate or scrip representing the Fractional Shares will be issued in the Merger upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a stockholder of Simon Group.

As promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall determine the aggregate number of whole shares represented by Fractional Shares to which holders of Fractional Shares would be entitled but for the provisions of this paragraph (such number of shares being herein called the "Excess Shares"). As soon after the Effective Time as practicable, the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders of Fractional Shares, shall sell the Excess Shares at then prevailing prices on the NYSE, in the manner provided below. The sale of the Excess Shares by the Exchange Agent shall be executed on the NYSE and shall be executed in round lots to the extent practicable. Until the net proceeds of such sales have been distributed to the holders of Fractional Shares, the Exchange Agent will hold such proceeds in the Stock Trust. Simon Group shall pay all commissions, transfer taxes and other out-of-pocket transaction costs, including the expenses and compensation of the Exchange Agent, incurred in connection with such sale of the Excess Shares. The Exchange Agent shall determine the portion of the Stock Trust to which each holder of Fractional Shares shall be entitled, if any, by multiplying the amount of the aggregate net proceeds comprising the Stock Trust by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the fractional share interest to which such holder of Fractional Shares is entitled and the denominator of which is the aggregate amount of fractional share interests to which all holders of Fractional Shares of the same class or series are entitled. As soon as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of Fractional Shares, the Exchange Agent shall make available such amounts to such holders of Fractional Shares.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of the parties thereto, including representations and warranties by each of SDG, CPI and CRC as to its organization and qualification to conduct business; authorized and outstanding capital stock; authority relative to the Merger Agreement; the non-contravention of its governing documents, certain agreements and certain laws; the delivery of financial statements and other reports; the absence of certain changes or events; legal proceedings; information supplied; compliance with laws and orders; compliance with certain agreements; certain tax matters; certain employee benefit plans and ERISA matters; labor matters; certain environmental matters; intellectual property rights; real property; the required stockholder votes; and the receipt of a financial advisor opinion; except that CRC made no representations as to labor matters, real property or a financial advisor opinion. CPI and CRC also each represents and warrants to SDG that it does not own any shares of SDG Equity Stock.

COVENANTS

Conduct of Business by CPI and CRC Pending the Closing. Each of CPI and CRC and its Entities shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact in all material respects its present business organizations and reputation, to keep available the services of its key officers and employees, to maintain its assets and properties in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, to maintain insurance on its tangible assets and businesses in such amounts and against such risks and losses as are currently in effect, to preserve its relationships with tenants and other occupiers of properties, customers, suppliers, lenders, partners and others having significant business dealings with them and to comply in all material respects with all laws and orders of all governmental or regulatory authorities applicable to them, and neither CPI nor CRC shall, except as otherwise expressly provided for in the Merger Agreement, as contemplated by the operating, capital expenditure and leasing budgets approved by the CPI Board of Trustees prior to December 31, 1997 and the plans and projections of CPI and CRC included in the Merger Agreement and any expenditure required in an emergency situation to preserve the business or assets or personnel of CPI or CRC or their Entities from undue harm (the "CPI/CRC Business Plan") or with the prior written consent of SDG:

(a) incorporate or organize any new Entity of such party, unless such Entity shall be wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC, and SDG shall receive prompt notice of such incorporation or organization, including the information that would have been disclosed in the Merger Agreement had such Entity been in existence on the date thereof;

(b) amend or propose to amend its organizational or governance documents or permit the amendment of the organizational or governance documents of the Entities of CPI or CRC, except, in the case of Entities of CPI or CRC, for the amendment of the organizational or governance documents of such Entities as are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC, so long as such action shall be promptly disclosed to SDG;

(c)(w) declare, set aside or pay any dividends on or make other distributions in respect of any of the beneficial interests or capital stock of such party, except that CPI and CRC each may declare and pay

(1) quarterly cash dividends on CPI Common Stock and CRC Common Stock in an amount not to exceed $1.95 per share of CPI Common Stock and related beneficial interest in shares of CRC Common Stock, with usual record and payment dates for such dividends in accordance with past dividend practice, (2) cash dividends on CPI Common Stock and CRC Common Stock in amounts proportional to the dividends paid on CPI Common Stock and CRC Common Stock for the last full quarter preceding the Effective Time prorated over the number of days elapsed in the quarter in which the Effective Time occurs from the beginning of such quarter to the Effective Time and (3) cash dividends on CPI Preferred Stock in the amounts, and with the record and payment dates, required in accordance with the terms thereof, (x) split, combine, reclassify or take similar action with respect to any of its beneficial interests or capital stock or issue or authorize or propose the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of its beneficial interest or capital stock, or permit any of its Entities (other than Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC) to split, combine, reclassify or take similar action with respect to such Entities' capital stock or equity interests or issue or authorize or propose the issuance of any other securities or equity interests in respect of, in lieu of, or in substitution for such capital stock or equity interests, (y) adopt a plan of complete or partial liquidation or resolutions providing for or authorizing such liquidation or a dissolution, merger, consolidation, restructuring, recapitalization or other reorganization or permit any of such party's Entities (other than Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC) to take any such action, or (z) directly or indirectly redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire, or permit any Entity of CPI or CRC to redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire, directly or indirectly, any shares of capital stock of, or beneficial or other equity interests in, CPI or CRC or any of their Entities, or any option with respect thereto (other than in transactions solely involving CPI or CRC and their Entities that are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC) and other than pursuant to CPI permissible redemption arrangements;

(d) issue, deliver, sell or otherwise transfer, or authorize or propose the issuance, delivery, sale or other transfer of, or permit any of its Entities to issue, deliver, sell, or otherwise transfer or authorize or propose the issuance, delivery or sale of, any shares of capital stock of, or beneficial or other equity interests in, it or any of its Entities or any option with respect thereto (other than (x) issuances of CPI Common Stock or beneficial interests in CRC Common Stock in connection with issuance arrangements of CPI permitted by the Merger Agreement; provided that management of CPI shall use its best efforts to suspend sales of CPI Common Stock under the CPI 1997 Plan for Shareholder Contractual Purchases from the date hereof until the Effective Time or (y) the issuance, sale or transfer by an Entity that is wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC of such Entity's capital stock or other equity interests, or options with respect thereto, to CPI or CRC or other Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC), or modify or amend any right of any holder of outstanding options with respect thereto (other than the modification or amendment of the rights of CPI or CRC or an Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC under an option issued by CPI or CRC or an Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC);

(e) except, with respect to loans or capital contributions to any of CPI's or CRC's Entities, to the extent required under the express terms of any applicable organizational or governance documents, provide funds to, or make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in (or permit any of CPI's or CRC's Entities to take any such action with respect to), any Entity of CPI or CRC or other person (except for such Entities as shall be wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC), other than minority investments by CPI or CRC permitted by the Merger Agreement and certain other investments;

(f) in the case of CRC, amend, modify or terminate the CRC Trust Agreements or propose such amendment, modification or termination;

(g)(x) acquire (by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing a substantial equity interest in or a substantial portion of the assets of, or by any other manner) or permitting any of its Entities to acquire any business or any corporation, partnership, association or other business organization or division thereof or any significant assets, (y) mortgage or otherwise encumber or subject to any lien or sell, lease or otherwise dispose of, or permit any of its Entities to do any of the foregoing with respect to, any significant portion of its interest in one or more of certain properties or interests identified in the Merger Agreement or assign or encumber the right to receive income, dividends or distributions with respect thereto or (z) make or agree to make any new capital expenditures;

(h)(x) incur (which shall not be deemed to include entering into credit agreements, lines of credit or similar arrangements until borrowings are made or committed to be borrowed under such arrangements) any indebtedness for borrowed money or guarantee any such indebtedness, or permit any of its Entities to take any such action, other than to meet the current cash needs of its and its Entities' business in an aggregate amount not to exceed that which is contemplated by the CPI/CRC Business Plan, to permit it to perform its obligations hereunder or to effect a redemption of indebtedness permitted by clause (y), or (y) voluntarily purchase, cancel, prepay or otherwise provide for a complete or partial discharge in advance of a scheduled repayment date with respect to, or waive any right under, or otherwise modify the provisions of, any indebtedness, or guarantee of indebtedness, for borrowed money, or permit any of its Entities to take any of such actions;

(i) enter into, adopt, amend in any material respect (except as may be required by applicable law) or terminate any CPI Employee Benefit Plan or grant any options, awards or other benefits or increase compensation, except for increases in benefits and compensation to employees other than executive officers having a value in the aggregate of not greater than $250,000 and except for changes therein contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

(j) enter into any contract, or amend or modify any existing contract, or engage in any new transaction outside the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or not on an arm's-length basis, or permit any of its Entities to take such actions, with any affiliate of CPI or CRC other than transactions among CPI or CRC and Entities that are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI or CRC;

(k) make any change in the lines of business in which it and its Entities participate or are engaged; or

(l) enter into any contract, commitment or arrangement to do or engage in any action the consummation of which would be prohibited by the foregoing.

Conduct of Business by SDG Pending the Closing. Except as set forth in the Merger Agreement, during the period from the date of the Merger Agreement to the Effective Time, SDG shall, and shall cause each of the SDG Entities to, use all commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact in all material respects its present business organizations and reputation, to keep available the services of its key officers and employees, to maintain its assets and properties in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, to maintain insurance on its tangible assets and businesses in such amounts and against such risks and losses as are currently in effect, to preserve its relationships with tenants and other occupiers of properties, customers, suppliers, lenders, partners and others having significant business dealings with them and to comply in all material respects with all laws and orders of all governmental or regulatory authorities applicable to them, and SDG shall not, except as otherwise expressly provided for in the Merger Agreement or with the prior written consent of CPI: (a) declare, set aside or pay any dividends on or make other distributions, except that SDG may declare and pay (1) quarterly cash dividends on SDG Common Stock in an amount not to exceed $0.505 per share of SDG Common Stock, with usual record and payment dates for such dividends in accordance with past dividend practice, (2) cash dividends on SDG Common Stock in amounts proportional to the dividends paid on SDG Common Stock in the last full quarter preceding the Effective Time prorated over the number of days elapsed in the quarter in which the Effective Time occurs from the beginning of such quarter to the Effective Time and (3) cash dividends on SDG Preferred Stock in the amounts, and with the record and payment dates, required in accordance with the terms thereof; (b) enter into any contract, or amend or modify any existing contract, or engage in any new transaction outside the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or not on an arm's length basis, or permit any SDG Entity to take such actions, with any affiliate of such party other than transactions among SDG and Entities of SDG that are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by SDG or any SDG Entity; (c) make any change in the lines of business in which it and its Entities participate or are engaged; or (d) enter into any contract, commitment or arrangement to do or engage in any action the consummation of which would be prohibited by the foregoing.

Certain Mutual Covenants. Until the Effective Time, each party to the Merger Agreement covenants and agrees as follows: (i) no party shall take any action or omit to take any action reasonably within its power to take that would cause SDG to be disqualified as a REIT, would cause CPI to be disqualified as a REIT or would result in a loss of the status of CPI and CRC prior to the Merger or Simon Group and CRC from and after the Merger as grandfathered from the application of Section 269B(a)(3) of the Code pursuant to Section 136(c)(3) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984; (ii) each party shall confer on a regular and frequent basis with the others with respect to its business and operations and other matters relevant to the Merger, and shall promptly advise the others, orally and in writing, of any change or event, including, without limitation, any complaint, investigation or hearing by any governmental or regulatory authority (or communication indicating the same may be contemplated) or the institution or threat of litigation, having, or which, insofar as can be reasonably foreseen, could have, a material adverse effect on the SDG Entities taken as a whole or on the CPI/CRC Entities taken as a whole, as the case may be, or on the ability of any party to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; provided that no party shall be required to make any disclosure to the extent such disclosure would constitute a violation of any applicable law; (iii) each party will notify the others of, and will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cure before the closing of the Merger, any event, transaction or circumstance, as soon as practical after it becomes known to such party, that causes or will cause any covenant or agreement of such party under the Merger Agreement to be breached or that renders or will render untrue any representation or warranty of such party contained in the Merger Agreement; (iv) each party also will notify the others in writing of, and will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cure, before the closing, any violation or breach, as soon as practical after it becomes known to such party, of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by such party (no notice given pursuant to clauses (iii) or (iv) of this paragraph shall have any effect on the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Merger Agreement for purposes of determining satisfaction of any condition contained therein); and (v) subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, each party will take or cause to be taken all commercially reasonable steps necessary or desirable and proceed diligently and in good faith to satisfy each condition to the other's obligations contained in the Merger Agreement and to consummate making effective the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

No Solicitation. Prior to the Effective Time, each of CPI and CRC agree (a) that it shall, and shall direct and use its best efforts to cause its Entities, controlled affiliates and representatives to, immediately cease any discussion or negotiations with any parties that may be ongoing with respect to the purchase, acquisition or issuance of stock of CPI representing at least a majority of the voting power of all the outstanding stocks of beneficial interest in CPI (for purposes hereof, any such proposal or offer with respect to such merger, consolidation, other business combination, acquisition or similar transaction is hereinafter referred to as an "Alternative Proposal for CPI or CRC"); (b) that it shall not, and it shall use its best efforts to cause its Entities, controlled affiliates and representatives not to, initiate, solicit or encourage, directly or indirectly, any inquiries or the making or implementation of any proposal or offer (including, without limitation, any proposal or offer to its stockholders) with respect to a merger, consolidation or other business combination transaction involving it or any acquisition or similar transaction (including, without limitation, a tender or exchange offer) involving (i) the purchase of all or substantially all of the assets of the CPI/CRC Entities taken as a whole or (ii) an Alternative Proposal, or engage in any negotiations with or provide any confidential information or data to, any person or group relating to an Alternative Proposal for CPI or CRC (excluding the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement), or otherwise knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Alternative Proposal for CPI or CRC; and (c) that it will notify SDG promptly if any such inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any such information is requested from, or any such negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, it or any of such persons.

CERTAIN ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

The Merger Agreement provides that each party to the Merger Agreement will (i) provide the other parties access to personnel, properties and information regarding its business and hold in confidence information relating to the other parties (subject to the terms of a confidentiality agreement among the parties); (ii) cooperate with one another in preparing, responding to the Commission in respect of, and causing to be declared effective and mailed to SDG's stockholders, this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Registration Statement in which it is included; (iii) cooperate to coordinate the timing of its stockholder meetings regarding the Merger; (iv) use its best efforts to cause the Simon Group Common Stock and the related beneficial interests in CRC Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement or retained by CPI stockholders, and the Simon Group Common Stock and the paired interests in CRC Common Stock issuable under the Option Plans or upon conversion of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock after the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE; (v) not take or fail to take any action which would cause any party to the Merger Agreement or the stockholders of any party to recognize gain for federal income tax purposes as a result of the consummation of the Merger (subject to limited exceptions); (vi) proceed diligently and in good faith to obtain all consents and approvals required to consummate the Merger and to provide such information as may reasonably be requested in connection with the consents and approvals; (vii) pay its own costs and expenses, except that expenses incurred in connection with the printing and mailing of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Registration Statement (including filing fees) shall be shared equally by SDG and CPI; (viii) pay its own financial advisory and any other brokers or finders fees; (ix) take such action as is reasonably necessary so that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement may be consummated if any antitakeover statute becomes applicable; (x) cooperate in the preparation and filing of documents related to conveyance taxes; (xi) pay any real estate or stock transfer taxes payable in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement on behalf of the stockholders of SDG, CPI and CRC and cooperate to prepare documentation for such taxes; (xii) from the Effective Time until December 31, 1998, Simon Group shall not assign, sell or otherwise transfer to an unaffiliated third party any asset owned by SDG prior to the Effective Time if Simon Group would recognize a gain, without the approval of two-thirds of the Simon Group Board of Directors; and (xiii) negotiate in good faith with the holders of CPI Common Stock to modify their registration rights to appropriately reflect the nature of the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, SDG shall use its best efforts to deliver Affiliate's Agreements.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, CPI entered into an agreement to sell the General Motors Building located at 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York. The sale of the General Motors Building was consummated on July 31, 1998.

SDG and CPI also have agreed in the Merger Agreement to use their best efforts to obtain all necessary consents of third parties (i) to permit the contribution at or, at SDG's request, promptly following the Effective Time of substantially all the assets of CPI and its subsidiaries to the SDG Operating Partnership and/or to limited liability companies and/or limited partnerships, all the beneficial interests of which will be held by the SDG Operating Partnership, or (ii) at SDG's request to effectuate the transfer, effective as of the Effective Time or promptly following the Effective Time, of all or substantially all the economic benefits of such assets to the SDG Operating Partnership and/or such limited liability companies and/or such limited partnerships.

BEST EFFORTS TO OBTAIN APPROVALS OF STOCKHOLDERS

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the exercise of fiduciary obligations under applicable law as advised by outside counsel, (a) SDG shall, through its Board of Directors (i) duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of voting on the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement, (ii) include in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus the recommendation of the Board of Directors of SDG that the stockholders of SDG adopt and approve the Merger Agreement and (iii) use its best efforts to obtain such adoption and approval; and (b) each of CPI and CRC shall, through its Board of Directors, (i) duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of voting on the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the issuance of Simon Group Common Stock and CRC Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement and under the CPI Option Plan in accordance with the Merger Agreement, (ii) include in a proxy statement to its stockholders the recommendation of its Board of Directors that its stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement and approve such issuances, as applicable, and

(iii) use its best efforts to obtain such adoption and approval. Stockholders of CPI representing in excess of a majority of the total voting power of all the outstanding CPI Common Stock and CPI Preferred Stock and two thirds of the total voting power of all the outstanding CPI Preferred Stock have entered into Stockholder Voting Agreements obligating them to vote in favor of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. A vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding voting stock is required to adopt the Simon Group Charter and is a condition to the Merger. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger."

INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

From and after the Effective Time and until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time and for so long thereafter as any claim for indemnification asserted on or prior to such date has not been fully adjudicated, Simon Group (an "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of the Merger Agreement or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a trustee, director or officer of SDG, CPI or CRC or any of their respective Entities (the "Indemnified Parties") against (i) all losses, claims, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities, judgments and settlement amounts that are paid or incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time) that is based on, or arises out of, the fact that such Indemnified Party is or was a trustee, director or officer of SDG, CPI or CRC or any of their respective Entities and relates to or arises out of any action or omission occurring at or prior to the Effective Time ("Indemnified Liabilities"), and (ii) all Indemnified Liabilities based on, or arising out of, or pertaining to the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby, in each case to the full extent a corporation is permitted under applicable law to indemnify its own trustees, directors or officers, as the case may be; provided that no Indemnifying Party shall be liable for any settlement of any claim effected without its written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; and provided further that no Indemnifying Party shall be liable to an Indemnified Party for any Indemnified Liabilities which occur as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party.

Simon Group shall, until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time and for so long thereafter as any claim for insurance coverage asserted on or prior to such date has not been fully adjudicated, cause to be maintained in effect, to the extent commercially available, the policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by SDG, CPI and CRC, respectively (or policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms that are no less advantageous to the insured parties), with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or prior to the Effective Time; provided that Simon Group shall not be obligated to expend in order to maintain or procure insurance coverage any amount per annum in excess of 150 percent of the aggregate of the last annual premiums paid by SDG, CPI and CRC for such policies prior to the date of the Merger Agreement, but if the cost of maintaining such insurance (or providing such new policies) would but for this proviso exceed such aggregate amount, then Simon Group shall purchase as much coverage as possible for such amount.

CONDITIONS TO CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER

In addition to the approval and adoption of the Voting Preferred Amendment, the consummation of the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement is subject to certain conditions, including: (i) the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and certain related matters by the requisite vote of the SDG stockholders; (ii) the approval of the issuance of shares and related beneficial interests by the requisite vote of the CPI and CRC stockholders (which approval will be given pursuant to the Stockholder Voting Agreements in which such stockholders agreed to vote in favor of the Merger and related transactions, except that the adoption of the Simon Group Charter requires the vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding voting stock and is a condition to the Merger); (iii) the Registration Statement having become effective in accordance with the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued and remain in effect and no proceeding seeking such an order shall be pending or threatened; (iv) the receipt of all state securities or "blue sky" permits and other authorizations necessary to issue securities pursuant to the Merger Agreement, under the Option Plans after the Merger and upon conversion of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock; (v) the Simon Group Common Stock (and related beneficial interests in CRC) issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the CPI Common Stock previously outstanding and issuable under the Option Plans or upon conversion of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock after the Merger having been authorized for listing on the NYSE; (vi) no court of competent jurisdiction or other competent governmental or regulatory authority having enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any law or order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that is then in effect and has the effect of making illegal or otherwise restricting, preventing or prohibiting consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and (vii) each party shall have received a satisfactory opinion of its special counsel, including the opinion that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The obligation of SDG to consummate the Merger is further conditioned upon the following: (i) the continued accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties made by CPI and CRC in the Merger Agreement; (ii) the performance in all material respects of all agreements and covenants to be performed by CPI and CRC under the Merger Agreement; (iii) no change, event or occurrence which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the CPI/CRC Entities taken as a whole; (iv) the execution of the Stockholder Voting Agreements as required by the Merger Agreement (which were executed as of February 18, 1998); (v) the receipt of customary accountants "cold comfort letters"; and (vi) the receipt of consents and waivers which if not obtained could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on CPI, CRC or their Entities or on the ability of the parties to the Merger Agreement to consummate the transactions contemplated therein. The obligations of CPI and CRC to consummate the Merger are further conditioned upon the following: (i) the continued accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties made by SDG in the Merger Agreement; (ii) the performance in all material respects of all agreements and covenants to be performed by SDG under the Merger Agreement; (iii) no change, event or occurrence which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the SDG Entities taken as a whole; (iv) the receipt of customary accountants "cold comfort letters"; and (v) the receipt of consents and waivers which if not obtained could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on SDG or its Entities or on the ability of the parties to the Merger Agreement to consummate the transactions contemplated therein.

All of the foregoing conditions to the consummation of the Merger are subject to the waiver of the parties to the Merger Agreement. Neither SDG nor CPI intends to waive any material condition to consummation of the Merger, including the condition requiring the delivery of an opinion of their respective special tax counsel. In the event that a material condition is waived by either SDG or CPI, SDG and CPI intend to amend and recirculate the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

TERMINATION; TERMINATION FEES AND AMENDMENT

Termination. The Merger Agreement may be terminated, and transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned, at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether prior to or after the approvals required by the SDG, CPI and CRC stockholders: (a) by mutual written agreement of the parties duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of their respective boards of directors; or (b) by either SDG or CPI upon notification to the nonterminating party by the terminating party (i) at any time after November 30, 1998, if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or prior to such date and such failure to consummate the Merger is not caused by a breach of the Merger Agreement by the terminating party or any of its affiliates; (ii) if the requisite approval of the stockholders of SDG, CPI or CRC shall not be obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the requisite vote upon a vote held at a meeting of such stockholders, or any adjournment thereof, called therefor; (iii) if there has been a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the nonterminating party set forth in the Merger Agreement, which breach is not curable or, if curable, has not been cured within 30 days following receipt by the nonterminating party of notice of such breach from the terminating party; or (iv) if any court of competent jurisdiction or other competent governmental or regulatory authority shall have issued an order making illegal or otherwise restricting, preventing or prohibiting either the Merger and such order shall have become final and nonappealable. Any reference to any event, change or effect being "material" or "materially adverse" or having a "material adverse effect" on or with respect to an entity means such event, change or effect is material or materially adverse, as the case may be, to the business, properties, assets, liabilities, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of such entity.

Termination Fees. In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated by CPI due to a willful breach by SDG pursuant to clause (b)(iii) of the preceding paragraph, or as a result of the requisite SDG stockholder approval not being obtained at any time prior to November 30, 1998 pursuant to clause (b)(ii) of the preceding paragraph, SDG will be required to pay CPI a termination fee of $50 million, payable in annual installments over a two year period (in such a manner as to not violate certain REIT Requirements). In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated by SDG due to a willful breach by CPI pursuant to clause (b)(iii) of the preceding paragraph, CPI will be required to pay SDG a termination fee of $50 million, payable in annual installments over a two year period (in such a manner as to not violate certain REIT Requirements). Any portion of either termination fee that is not paid by the end of the second year due to limitations of the REIT Requirements shall be forfeited.

Amendment. The Merger Agreement provides that it may be amended, supplemented or modified by action taken by or on behalf of the respective boards of directors of the parties thereto at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether prior to or after the requisite stockholder adoption and approvals have been obtained, but after such adoption or approval only to the extent permitted by applicable law. No such amendment, supplement or modification shall be effective unless set forth in a written instrument duly executed by or on behalf of each party to the Merger Agreement.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

The MGCL sets forth the rights of stockholders who object to a merger to demand and receive fair value for their stock ("appraisal rights"). No appraisal rights are available to holders of SDG Common Stock and SDG Series B Preferred Stock because the SDG Common Stock and SDG Series B Preferred Stock are listed on a national securities exchange (i.e., the NYSE). In addition, no appraisal rights are available to holders of either SDG Series B Preferred Stock or SDG Series C Preferred Stock because the SDG Series B Preferred Stock and SDG Series C Preferred Stock are stock of the successor in the Merger (SDG), the Merger will not alter the contract rights of this stock and this stock will not be changed in the Merger into something other than stock in the successor or cash.

The holders of SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock have appraisal rights available to them because neither class of stock is listed on a national securities exchange and because the shares of each class will be converted in the Merger into Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock. The MGCL provides that these rights are available only if the stockholder (a) files with the corporation a written objection to the Merger at or before the meeting of stockholders at which the transaction will be considered and (b) does not vote in favor of the transaction. In addition, the stockholder must make a written demand on the successor corporation for payment for the stock within 20 days of the acceptance of the articles of merger by the Maryland State Department. The MGCL requires that the successor corporation, SDG, promptly notify each objecting stockholder in writing of the date the articles of merger are accepted for record by the Maryland State Department. A copy of Title 3, Subtitle 2 of the MGCL is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex E and is incorporated herein by reference thereto.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE LISTING OF SIMON GROUP COMMON STOCK

As a condition to the Merger, the Simon Group Common Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock will be listed on the NYSE. If the Merger is completed, Simon Group stockholders would be able to trade shares of Simon Group Common Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock on the NYSE. See "-- Conditions to Consummation of the Merger" and "FEDERAL SECURITIES LAW CONSEQUENCES."

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO HOLDERS OF SDG EQUITY STOCK

The following discussion summarizes the material federal income tax consequences applicable to holders of SDG Equity Stock that are expected to result from the Merger and certain transactions associated therewith. This discussion does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to particular stockholders in light of their personal investment or tax circumstances, or to certain types of stockholders (including insurance companies, financial institutions, broker-dealers, foreign corporations and persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States) subject to special treatment under the federal income tax laws, nor does it give detailed discussions of any state, local or foreign tax considerations. Accordingly, SDG STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THEM IN VIEW OF THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

The following discussion is based on the Code, applicable Treasury Regulations, judicial authority and administrative rulings and practice, all as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. There can be no assurance that future legislative, judicial or administrative changes or interpretations will not adversely affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth herein. Any such changes or interpretations could be applied retroactively and could affect the tax consequences of the Merger to SDG's stockholders.

The Merger has been structured to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Willkie Farr & Gallagher, counsel to SDG, has issued, and is expected to issue at the closing of the Merger, an opinion to such effect. In addition, Cravath, Swaine & Moore, counsel to CPI has issued, and is expected to issue at the closing of the Merger, an opinion addressing CPI's qualification as a REIT and certain other matters described herein, and Baker & Daniels has issued, and is expected to issue at the closing of the Merger, an opinion addressing SDG's qualification as a REIT and Simon Group's qualification as a REIT after the Effective Time. Such opinions are based, and will be based, upon the understanding that the relevant facts are as described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the annexes hereto, and in rendering such opinions such counsel will rely on the accuracy of the factual statements and representations in the foregoing documents and upon certain factual representations made in writing to such counsel. The issuance of such opinions at the closing of the Merger is based on assumptions about, and is also contingent upon, certain facts not ascertainable until after the SDG Special Meeting. The obligations of CPI and SDG to consummate the Merger are conditioned upon the receipt of such opinions. An opinion of counsel is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") or the courts. Except as to certain limited matters relating to the effect of the CPI Reorganization, neither CPI nor SDG have requested or will request an advance ruling from the IRS.

Assuming the Merger qualifies as a tax-free reorganization, the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger will be as follows:

(i) Subject to the discussion in (vii) below, and except as described in (ii) below, the exchange in the Merger of SDG Equity Stock for Simon Group Equity Stock will not result in the recognition of gain or loss to SDG stockholders with respect to such exchange.

(ii) Each SDG stockholder who receives cash proceeds in lieu of Fractional Shares will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between such proceeds and the tax basis allocated to such stockholder's Fractional Share interests. Each dissenting stockholder who receives cash proceeds for the shares not voted in favor of the Merger will recognize a taxable gain or loss equal to the difference between such proceeds and the tax basis allocated to such shares. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Appraisal Rights." Any such gain or loss recognized as described in this paragraph will constitute capital gain or loss if such stockholder's shares of SDG Equity Stock were held as a capital asset at the Effective Time.

(iii) The tax basis of the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock (including fractional share interests for which cash is ultimately received) received by a SDG stockholder will be equal to the tax basis of the shares of SDG Equity Stock exchanged therefor, decreased by the amount of cash received by such stockholder, and increased by the amount of gain (if any) recognized by such stockholder in the Merger.

(iv) A stockholder's holding period with respect to the Simon Group Equity Stock received in the Merger will include the holding period of the SDG Equity Stock exchanged in the Merger if such SDG Equity Stock was held as a capital asset at the Effective Time.

(v) The aggregate tax basis of the beneficial interests in the CRC Common Stock received by a SDG stockholder will equal the fair market value of such beneficial interests as of the Effective Time. The holding period for such beneficial interests received by a stockholder will begin on the day it is distributed.

(vi) No gain or loss will be recognized by SDG, the subsidiary of CPI formed to merge with SDG, or CPI as a result of the Merger. The Merger will not affect the qualifications of CPI and SDG as REITs, nor will it adversely affect the status of CPI and CRC as grandfathered from the application of Section 269B(a)(3) of the Code (the 1984 paired share REIT legislation) pursuant to Section 136(c)(3) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984.

(vii) The treatment of the receipt of beneficial interests in CRC Common Stock is not completely clear. Willkie Farr & Gallagher is of the opinion that the receipt of such beneficial interests should be treated as a distribution from SDG governed by Section 301 of the Code, and not as "boot" or "other property" received in the reorganization. If the IRS were to successfully contend that such beneficial interests are properly treated as "boot" or "other property," SDG stockholders would recognize gain, but not loss, on the exchange of shares of SDG Equity Stock for Paired Shares pursuant to the Merger in an amount equal to the lesser of (a) the fair market value of the beneficial interests in the CRC Common Stock, as of the Effective Time, that they receive, or (b) the amount by which the fair market value of the Paired Shares as of the Effective Time, exceeds the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the SDG Equity Stock exchanged therefor. Any such gain would be characterized as capital gain (assuming the SDG Equity Stock exchanged was a capital asset in the hands of the stockholder) unless the boot received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend. Although there can be no assurance that the IRS will agree, and valuations may change between the date hereof and the Effective Time, management of CRC believes that such value will not exceed 1% of the value of the Paired Shares.

Even if the Merger qualifies as a reorganization, a recipient of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock will recognize gain to the extent that such shares were considered to be received in exchange for services or property (other than solely shares of SDG Equity Stock). All or a portion of such gain may be taxable as ordinary income. Gain will also have to be recognized to the extent that a SDG stockholder is treated as receiving (directly or indirectly) consideration other than Paired Shares in exchange for such stockholder's SDG Equity Stock.

If the Merger is not a reorganization, then each SDG stockholder will recognize gain or loss with respect to each share of SDG Equity Stock equal to the difference between such stockholder's basis in such stock and the fair market value, as of the Effective Time, of the Paired Shares received in exchange therefor. In such event, an SDG stockholder's aggregate basis in any Paired Shares received will equal its fair market value, and the stockholder's holding period for such stock will begin the day after the Merger.

OPINIONS OF SDG'S AND CPI'S COUNSEL

In the opinion of Baker & Daniels, at all times from and after December 31, 1993 through December 31, 1997 SDG has qualified as a REIT, and if SDG continues its operations in the manner described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. SDG will continue to qualify as a REIT under the Code. In the opinion of Baker & Daniels, Simon Group will continue to qualify as a REIT after the Effective Time if Simon Group as constituted after the Effective Time conducts its operations in the manner described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. In the opinion of Cravath, Swaine & Moore, counsel to CPI, as of December 31, 1997, CPI qualified as a REIT, and, if CPI continues its operations in the same manner as the operations of CPI since January 1, 1997, CPI will continue to qualify as a REIT. It must be emphasized that counsels' opinions are based on various assumptions and are conditioned upon certain representations made by the companies as to factual matters, including representations of the companies concerning their businesses and properties, and the businesses and properties of the SDG Operating Partnership and other affiliates of SDG and CPI. Moreover, such qualification and taxation as a REIT depends upon the ability of each of the REIT Members to meet, through actual annual operating results, distribution levels, diversity of stock ownership, and the various other qualification tests imposed under the Code discussed below, the results of which have not and will not be reviewed by such counsel. No assurance can be given that the actual results of the REIT Members' operations for any one taxable year will satisfy such requirements. See "-- Federal Income Tax Consequences Relating to Simon Group -- Failure to Qualify."

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO SIMON GROUP

The following is a summary of the material federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to a prospective stockholder of Simon Group, is based upon current law, and is not tax advice. This discussion does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to particular stockholders in light of their personal investment or tax circumstances, or to certain types of stockholders (including insurance companies, tax exempt organizations, financial institutions, broker-dealers, foreign corporations and persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States) subject to special treatment under the federal income tax laws, nor does it give a detailed discussion of any state, local or foreign tax considerations. See "-- Federal Income Tax Consequences to Holders of SDG Equity Stock" for a discussion of certain tax consequences of the Merger to the SDG stockholders.

EACH PROSPECTIVE STOCKHOLDER OF SIMON GROUP IS ENCOURAGED TO CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO IT OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND SALE OF THE SHARES OF SIMON GROUP COMMON STOCK AND OF SIMON GROUP'S ELECTION TO BE TAXED AS A REIT, INCLUDING THE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OF SUCH PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP, SALE AND ELECTION AND OF POTENTIAL CHANGES IN APPLICABLE TAX LAWS.

General

SDG and CPI have each made elections to be taxed as a REIT for federal income tax purposes commencing with their taxable years ending December 31, 1994 and December 31, 1973, respectively, and other REIT Members of the Simon Group have made similar elections. Management of both companies believe that both companies are organized and operated in such a manner as to qualify for taxation as a REIT under the Code. Both companies intend to continue to operate in such a manner, but no assurance can be given that they will operate in a manner so as to qualify or remain qualified. See "POLICIES OF SIMON GROUP FOLLOWING THE MERGER -- Dividend and Distribution Policies."

The REIT Requirements relating to the federal income tax treatment of REITs and their stockholders are highly technical and complex. The following discussion sets forth only the material aspects of those requirements. This summary is qualified in its entirety by the applicable Code provisions, rules and Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof.

Taxation of Simon Group and the REIT Members

A REIT generally is not subject to federal corporate income taxes on that portion of its ordinary income or capital gain that is distributed currently to stockholders because the REIT provisions of the Code generally allow a REIT to deduct dividends paid to its stockholders. This deduction for dividends paid to stockholders substantially eliminates the federal "double taxation" on earnings (once at the corporate level and once again at the stockholder level) that generally results from investment in a corporation.

However, REITs may be subject to federal income tax in the following circumstances. First, a REIT will be taxed at regular corporate rates on any undistributed REIT taxable income and undistributed net capital gains. Second, under certain circumstances, a REIT may be subject to the "alternative minimum tax" on its items of tax preference, if any. Third, if the REIT has (i) net income from the sale or other disposition of "foreclosure property" (generally, property acquired by reason of a default on a lease or an indebtedness held by a REIT) that is held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business or (ii) other non-qualifying net income from foreclosure property, it will be subject to tax at the highest corporate rate on such income. Fourth, if the REIT has net income from a "prohibited transaction" (generally, a sale or other disposition of property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business, other than foreclosure property), such income will be subject to a 100% tax. Fifth, if the REIT should fail to satisfy the 75% gross income test or the 95% gross income test (as discussed below), and has nonetheless maintained its qualification as a REIT because certain other requirements have been met, it will be subject to a 100% tax on the net income attributable to the greater of the amount by which the REIT fails the 75% or 95% test, multiplied by a fraction intended to reflect the REIT's profitability. Sixth, if the REIT should fail to distribute with respect to each calendar year at least the sum of (i) 85% of its REIT ordinary income for such year, (ii) 95% of its REIT capital gain net income for such year, and (iii) any undistributed taxable income from prior periods, the REIT will be subject to a four percent excise tax on the excess of such required distribution over the amounts actually distributed (treating as distributed for this purpose capital gains retained by the REIT and subject to tax, as discussed below at "-- Capital Gain Dividends"). Seventh, if a REIT acquires any asset from a C corporation (i.e., a corporation generally subject to a full corporate-level tax, but not including a corporation, such as SDG, that also qualifies for treatment as a REIT) in a transaction in which the basis of the asset in the REIT's hands is determined by reference to the basis of the asset (or any other property) in the hands of the C corporation, and the REIT recognizes gain on the disposition of such asset during the 10-year period beginning on the date on which such asset was acquired by the REIT (the "Restriction Period"), then pursuant to guidelines issued by the IRS in IRS Notice 88-19 (the "Built-in Gain Rules"), the excess of the fair market value of such property at the beginning of the applicable Restriction Period over the REIT's adjusted basis in such asset as of the beginning of such Restriction Period (the "Built-in Gain") will be subject to a tax at the highest regular corporate rate. The Built-in Gain Rules may also apply with respect to SDG's share of Built-in Gains, if any, arising from assets disposed of by the SDG Operating Partnership during the Restriction Period and attributable to appreciation during periods in which SDG held interests in the SDG Operating Partnership and did not elect to be taxed as a REIT. The results described above with respect to the recognition of Built-in Gain assume that all REIT Members have made or will make elections pursuant to the Built-in Gain Rules or applicable future administrative rules or Treasury Regulations. Furthermore, the Administration Proposals propose that a REIT be required to pay tax on the difference between the fair market value and tax basis of assets it acquires after December 31, 1998 in such a transaction.

Requirements for Qualification

To qualify as a REIT, a corporation must elect to be so treated and must meet the requirements, discussed below, relating to its organization, sources of income, nature of assets, and distributions of income to stockholders.

Organizational Requirements. The Code defines a REIT as a corporation, trust or association: (i) that is managed by one or more trustees or directors; (ii) the beneficial ownership of which is evidenced by transferable shares or by transferable certificates of beneficial interest; (iii) that would be taxable as a domestic corporation but for its qualification to be taxable as a REIT; (iv) that is neither a financial institution nor an insurance company subject to certain provisions of the Code; (v) the beneficial ownership of which is held by 100 or more persons; and (vi) during the last half of each taxable year not more than 50% in value of the outstanding capital stock of which is owned, directly or indirectly through the application of certain attribution rules, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Code to include certain entities). In addition, certain other tests, described below, regarding the nature of a REIT's income and assets must also be satisfied. The Code provides that conditions (i) through (iv), inclusive, must be met during the entire taxable year and that condition (v) must be met during at least 335 days of a taxable year of 12 months, or during a proportionate part of a taxable year of less than 12 months.

Each of the REIT Members has satisfied the requirements set forth in (i) through (iv) above and have adopted charter provisions containing certain restrictions regarding transfer of their stock that are intended to assist in satisfying the stock ownership requirements described in (v) and (vi) above. See "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK -- Restrictions On Transfer."

In addition, a corporation may not elect to become a REIT unless its taxable year is the calendar year. Each of the REIT Members' taxable year is the calendar year.

The Simon Group will have several "qualified REIT subsidiaries." Code section 856(i) provides that a corporation that is a "qualified REIT subsidiary" will not be treated as a separate corporation, and all assets, liabilities and items of income, deduction, and credit of a "qualified REIT subsidiary" will be treated as assets, liabilities, and such items (as the case may be) of the REIT. In applying the requirements described herein, Simon Group's "qualified REIT subsidiaries" will be ignored, and all assets, liabilities, and items of income, deduction, and credit of such subsidiary will be treated as assets, liabilities and items of Simon Group.

In the case of a REIT which is a partner in a partnership, the REIT will be deemed to own its proportionate share of the assets of the partnership and will be deemed to be entitled to the income of the partnership attributable to such share. In addition, the character of the assets and gross income of the partnership shall retain the same character in the hands of the REIT for purposes of the REIT Requirements, including satisfying the income tests and asset tests. Thus, for example, SDG's proportionate share of the assets, liabilities and items of income of the SDG Operating Partnership will be treated as assets, liabilities and items of income of SDG for purposes of applying the requirements described herein. See "-- Income Taxation of the Partnerships, the Property Partnerships and their Partners."

Income Tests. For each of the REIT Members to maintain qualification as a REIT, there are two gross income requirements that each must satisfy annually. First, at least 75% of the REIT Member's gross income (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions) for each taxable year must be derived directly or indirectly from investments relating to real property or mortgages on real property (including "rents from real property," dividends from other REITs and, in certain circumstances, interest) or from "qualified temporary investment income" (described below). Second, at least 95% of the REIT Member's gross income (excluding gross income from prohibited transactions) for each taxable year must be derived from such real property investments and from dividends, interest, and gain from the sale or disposition of stock or securities or from any combination of the foregoing.

Rents received by each of the REIT Members will qualify as "rents from real property" only if several conditions are met. First, the amount of rent must not be based in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person. However, an amount received or accrued generally will not be excluded from the term "rents from real property" solely by reason of being based on a fixed percentage or percentages of receipts or sales. Second, the Code provides that rents received from a tenant will not qualify as "rents from real property" if the REIT, or an owner of ten percent or more of the REIT, directly or constructively owns ten percent or more of such tenant (a "Related Party Tenant"). Third, if rent attributable to personal property, leased in connection with a lease of real property, is greater than 15% of the total rent received under the lease, then the portion of rent attributable to such personal property will not qualify as "rents from real property." Finally, for rents received to qualify as "rents from real property," any services furnished by the REIT to its tenants must be services customarily provided by owners of real property in the geographic location where the REIT's property is located and of a type that may be rendered by tax-exempt entities without jeopardizing the treatment of the income derived as "rents from real property." Any amounts characterized as "impermissible tenant service income" will not qualify as "rent from real property." "Impermissible tenant service income" consists of amounts received or accrued by a REIT either for services furnished or rendered to the tenant or for managing or operating the property. The following types of income will not be classified as "impermissible tenant service income": (a) amounts received or accrued for services performed by an independent contractor from which the REIT derives no income, or (b) amounts received or accrued for services which would not be characterized as unrelated business taxable income if received or accrued by a tax-exempt organization.

If a REIT Member receives "impermissible service income" from any one property in an amount which exceeds 1% of the total amount received from such property during the taxable year, all amounts received or accrued from such property during such taxable year will be characterized as nonqualifying income for the 75% and 95% income tests. For purposes of this de minimis test, amounts equal to at least 150% of the direct cost of providing such service (or management or operation) will be deemed received for any service (or management or operation) provided by the REIT Member to its tenants.

A person qualifies as an independent contractor if such person does not own, directly or indirectly, more than 35% of the shares of the REIT, and at least 35% of such person is not owned, directly or indirectly, by one or more persons which also own at least 35% of the REIT.

It is expected that each of the REIT Member's real estate investments will give rise to income that will enable them to satisfy all of the income tests described above.

None of the REIT Members presently charge, nor do any of them anticipate charging, more than a de minimis amount of rent that is based in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person (except by reason of being based on a percentage of receipts or sales, as described above).

The determination of whether a tenant is a Related Party Tenant is made after the application of complex attribution rules. Accordingly, none of the REIT Members can be absolutely certain whether all Related Party Tenants have been or will be identified. However, none of the REIT Members anticipate receiving rents in excess of a de minimis amount from Related Party Tenants, nor do they anticipate holding a lease on any property in which rents attributable to personal property constitute greater than 15% of the total rents received under the lease.

None of the REIT Members will knowingly directly perform services considered to be rendered to the occupant of property. Although the REIT Members, through the SDG Operating Partnership and other Simon Group affiliates, will perform all development, construction and leasing services for, and will operate and manage, wholly-owned properties directly without using an "independent contractor," management believes that, in almost all instances, the only services to be provided to lessees of these properties will be those usually or customarily rendered in connection with the rental of space for occupancy only, and that in any event, the amounts received for noncustomary services that may constitute "impermissible tenant service income" from any one property will not exceed 1% of the total amount collected from such property during the taxable year. If Simon Group discovers that "impermissible tenant service income" from any one property may exceed the 1% de minimis test, it will contract with an independent contractor from whom it will derive no income to perform such services.

The IRS has issued private rulings holding that if a partnership in which a REIT is a partner provides management services to properties not wholly owned by such partnership, the income received from such services or properties should qualify as "rents from real property" to the extent of such REIT's interest in such property. (For example, if the SDG Operating Partnership provides management services to a property in which it holds a 75% interest, 75% of the income received from the provision of such services should qualify as "rents from real property.") It is not intended that the SDG Operating Partnership will provide such services as of the Effective Time, but it or other REIT Members may provide such services in the future.

The term "interest" generally does not include any amount received or accrued (directly or indirectly) if the determination of such amount depends in whole or in part on the income or profits of any Person. An amount received or accrued generally will not be excluded from the term "interest," however, solely by reason of being based on a fixed percentage or percentages of receipts or sales. The SDG Operating Partnership may advance money from time to time to tenants for the purpose of financing tenant improvements, but does not intend to charge interest that will depend in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person.

If any REIT Member fails to satisfy one or both of the 75% or 95% gross income tests for any taxable year, it may nevertheless qualify as a REIT for such year if it is entitled to relief under certain provisions of the Code. These relief provisions will be generally available if (i) the failure to meet such tests was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, (ii) a schedule of the sources of income is attached to that REIT Member's tax return, and (iii) any incorrect information on the schedule was not due to fraud with intent to evade tax. It is not possible, however, to state whether in all circumstances the REIT Members would be entitled to the benefit of these relief provisions. Even if these relief provisions apply, a tax would be imposed with respect to the excess net income.

Asset Tests. In order for each of the REIT Members to individually qualify as a REIT, at the close of each quarter of its taxable year each REIT Member must also satisfy three tests relating to the nature of its assets. First, at least 75% of the value of the REIT Member's total assets must be represented by real estate assets (which for this purpose includes (i) its allocable share of real estate assets held by partnerships in which the REIT Member or a "qualified REIT subsidiary" of the REIT Member owns an interest, and (ii) stock or debt instruments purchased with the proceeds of a stock offering or a long-term (at least five years) debt offering of the REIT Member and held for not more than one year from the date the REIT Member receives such proceeds), cash, cash items, government securities and shares in qualified REITs. Second, not more than 25% of the REIT Member's total assets may be represented by securities other than those in the 75% asset class. Third, of the investments included in the 25% asset class, the value of any one issuer's securities owned by the REIT Member may not exceed five percent of the value of the REIT Member's total assets, and the REIT Member may not own more than ten percent of any one issuer's outstanding voting securities (excluding securities of a qualified REIT subsidiary or another REIT). The Administration has proposed legislation that would prohibit a REIT from owning more than ten percent of the voting securities or value of any one issuer (excluding a qualified REIT subsidiary or another REIT). See "RISK FACTORS -- Certain Tax Risks -- REIT Classification; Legislation Limiting Benefits of Paired Share Status."

All of the REIT Members expect that they will be able to comply with these asset tests. Each are presently deemed to and will continue to be deemed to hold directly their proportionate shares of all real estate and other assets of the SDG Operating Partnership and/or other partnerships of which they are partners, and they should be considered to hold their proportionate share of all assets deemed owned by those partnerships through the partnerships' ownership of partnership interests in other partnerships. As a result, each REIT Member plans to hold more than 75% of its assets as real estate assets. In addition, no REIT Member plans to hold any securities representing more than ten percent of any one issuer's voting securities, other than any qualified REIT subsidiary, or securities of any one issuer exceeding five percent of the value of any such REIT Members gross assets (determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles).

The securities of each of the REIT Members will be treated as real estate assets and will not violate the 10% voting stock requirement so long as each such REIT Member qualifies as a REIT. If, however, one of the REIT Members fails to qualify as a REIT for any reason, any other REIT Member holding a direct or indirect interest in such REIT Member would then fail this asset test because the voting securities of such disqualified REIT would not be treated as real estate assets and would no longer be excludable. For example, loss of REIT status by SDG would cause Simon Group to be disqualified.

Substantially all of the nonvoting stock and 5% of the voting stock of certain corporate entities ("Management Companies") such as M.S. Management Associates, Inc. is owned by the SDG Operating Partnership or other members of the Simon Group. Pursuant to such arrangements, Simon Group will not own 10% of the voting stock of such entities. In addition, the value of the securities of each such entity will not exceed five percent of the value of the total assets of the REIT Member owning such securities. However, no independent appraisals have been obtained. In addition, proposed legislation would, if enacted, limit the ability of the Management Companies to expand future operations. See "RISK FACTORS -- Certain Tax Risks -- REIT Classification; Legislation Limiting Benefits of Paired Share Status."

After initially meeting the asset tests at the close of any quarter, none of the REIT Members will lose its status as a REIT for failure to satisfy the asset tests at the end of a later quarter solely by reason of changes in asset values. If the failure to satisfy the asset tests results from an acquisition of securities or other property during a quarter, the failure can be cured by disposition of sufficient nonqualifying assets within 30 days after the close of that quarter. It is intended that each of the REIT Members will maintain adequate records of the value of their assets to ensure compliance with the asset tests, and to take such other action within 30 days after the close of any quarter as may be required to cure any noncompliance. However, there can be no assurance that such other action will always be successful.

Annual Distribution Requirements. In order to be taxed as REITs, each of the REIT Members will be required to meet certain annual distribution requirements. Each REIT Member will have to distribute dividends (other than capital gain dividends) to its stockholders in an amount at least equal to (i) the sum of (a) 95% of the REIT Member's "REIT taxable income" (computed without regard to the dividends paid deduction and the REIT Member's net capital gain) and (b) 95% of the net income, if any, from foreclosure property in excess of the special tax on income from foreclosure property, minus (ii) the sum of certain items of noncash income. In addition, during the Restriction Period, if Simon Group disposes of any asset that is subject to the Built-in Gain Rules, Simon Group will be required, pursuant to guidelines issued by the IRS, to distribute at least 95% of the Built-in Gain (after tax), if any, recognized on the disposition of such asset. Such distributions must be paid in the taxable year to which they relate, or in the following taxable year if declared before the REIT Member timely files its tax return for such year and if paid on or before the first regular dividend payment after such declaration.

To the extent that any REIT Member does not distribute all of its net capital gain or distributes at least 95% (but less than 100%) of its REIT taxable income, as adjusted, it will be subject to tax on the undistributed portion, at regular ordinary and capital gains corporate tax rates. Furthermore, if any REIT Member fails to distribute during each calendar year at least the sum of (a) 85% of its REIT ordinary income for such year, (b) 95% of its REIT capital gain net income for such year, and (c) any undistributed taxable income from prior periods, the company will be subject to a 4% excise tax on the excess of such required distribution over the amounts actually distributed. Each of the REIT Members intend to make timely distributions sufficient to satisfy this annual distribution requirement and avoid the imposition of any income or excise tax. It is expected that Simon Group's taxable income will be less than its cash flow, due to the allowance of depreciation and other noncash charges in computing Simon Group's taxable income. Accordingly, Simon Group anticipates that it will generally have sufficient cash or liquid assets to enable it to satisfy the 95% distribution requirement.

Pursuant to recently enacted legislation and if a REIT Member so elects, it may retain, rather than distribute, its net long-term capital gains and pay the tax on such gains. In such a case, the stockholders would include their proportionate share of the undistributed long-term capital gains in income. However, the stockholders would then be deemed to have paid their share of the tax, which would be credited or refunded to them. In addition, the stockholders would be able to increase their basis of their shares in the REIT Member by the amount of the undistributed long-term capital gains (less the amount of capital gains tax paid by the REIT Member) included in the stockholder's long-term capital gains.

It is possible that, from time to time, one or more of the REIT Members may not have sufficient cash or other liquid assets to meet the 95% distribution requirement due to timing differences between the actual receipt of income and actual payment of deductible expenses and the inclusion of such income and deduction of such expenses in arriving at taxable income of the REIT Member or if the amount of nondeductible expenses such as principal amortization or capital expenditures exceed the amount of noncash deductions. In the event that such situation occurs, in order to meet the 95% distribution requirement, the REIT Members may find it necessary to arrange for short-term, or possibly long-term, borrowings or to pay dividends in the form of taxable stock dividends.

Under certain circumstances, a REIT Member may be able to rectify a failure to meet the distribution requirement for a year by paying "deficiency dividends" to stockholders in a later year, which may be included in the REIT Member's deduction for dividends paid for the earlier year. Thus, a REIT Member may be able to avoid being taxed on amounts distributed as deficiency dividends; however, such REIT Member will be required to pay interest based upon the amount of any deduction taken for deficiency dividends.

Failure to Qualify

If any REIT Member fails to qualify for taxation as a REIT in any taxable year, and the relief provisions do not apply, such REIT Member would be subject to tax (including any applicable alternative minimum tax) on its taxable income at regular corporate rates. Distributions to stockholders in any year in which a REIT Member fails to qualify will not be deductible by the REIT Member nor will they be required to be made. In such event, to the extent of current or accumulated earnings and profits, all distributions to stockholders will be taxable as ordinary income, and subject to certain limitations of the Code, corporate distributees may be eligible for the dividends-received deduction. Unless entitled to relief under specific statutory provisions, the REIT Member will also be disqualified from taxation as a REIT for the four taxable years following the year during which qualification was lost. It is not possible to state whether in all circumstances a REIT Member would be entitled to such statutory relief. As discussed above, disqualification of one REIT Member will cause disqualification of other REIT Members owning an interest in the disqualified REIT Member.

Taxation of U.S. Stockholders

As used herein, the term "U.S. Stockholder" means a holder of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock that (for United States federal income tax purposes) (i) is a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) is a corporation, partnership, or other entity created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or of any political subdivision thereof, (iii) is an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source or (iv) is a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust. For any taxable year for which Simon Group qualifies for taxation as a REIT, amounts distributed to taxable U.S. Stockholders will be taxed as follows:

Distributions Generally

Distributions to U.S. Stockholders, other than capital gain dividends discussed below, will be taxable as ordinary income to such holders up to the amount of Simon Group's current or accumulated earnings and profits. Such distributions are not eligible for the dividends-received deduction for corporations. To the extent that Simon Group makes distributions in excess of its current or accumulated earnings and profits, such distributions will first be treated as a tax-free return of capital, reducing the adjusted tax basis in the U.S. Stockholders' shares of Simon Group Equity Stock, and distributions in excess of the U.S. Stockholders' tax basis in their respective shares of the Simon Group Equity Stock will be taxable as gain realized from the sale of such shares. Dividends declared by Simon Group in October, November, or December of any year payable to a stockholder of record on a specified date in any such month will be treated as both paid by Simon Group and received by the stockholder on December 31 of such year, provided that the dividend is actually paid by Simon Group during January of the following calendar year. Stockholders may not include on their own income tax returns any tax losses of Simon Group.

Capital Gain Dividends

Dividends to U.S. Stockholders that are properly designated by Simon Group as capital gain dividends will be treated as long-term capital gain (to the extent they do not exceed Simon Group's actual net capital gain) for the taxable year without regard to the period for which the stockholder has held his stock. Corporate stockholders, however, may be required to treat up to 20% of certain capital gain dividends as ordinary income.

Simon Group may elect to retain and pay income tax on some or all of its undistributed net capital gains, in which case Simon Group's stockholders will include such retained amount in their income. In that event the stockholders would be entitled to a tax credit or refund in the amount of the tax paid by Simon Group on the undistributed gain allocated to the stockholders and the stockholders would be entitled to increase their tax basis by the amount of undistributed capital gains allocated to such stockholders reduced by the amount of the credit. In addition, Notice 97-64 provides temporary guidance with respect to the taxation of capital gain dividends. Pursuant to Notice 97-64, forthcoming Temporary Regulations will provide that capital gains allocated to a stockholder by Simon Group may be designated as a 20% rate gain distribution, an unrecaptured Section 1250 gain distribution subject to a 25% rate, or a 28% rate gain distribution. In determining the amounts which may be designated as each class of capital gains dividends, a REIT must calculate its net capital gains as if it were an individual subject to a marginal tax rate of 28%. Unless specifically designated otherwise by Simon Group, a distribution designated as a capital gain distribution is presumed to be a 28% rate gain distribution. If Simon Group elects to allocate any undistributed net long-term capital gain to its stockholders, as discussed above, the undistributed long-term capital gains are considered to be designated as capital gain dividends for purposes of Notice 97-64.

Dispositions of Shares of Common Stock

A U.S. Stockholder will recognize gain or loss on the sale or exchange of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock to the extent of the difference between the amount realized on such sale or exchange and the holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares. Such gain or loss generally will constitute long-term capital gain or loss if the holder has held such shares for more than one year. Individual taxpayers are subject to a maximum tax rate of 28% on long-term capital gain (20% if the shares were held for more than 18 months). Losses incurred on the sale or exchange of shares of common stock held for six months or less (after applying certain holding period rules), however, will generally be deemed long-term capital loss to the extent of any long-term capital gain dividends received by the U.S. Stockholder and undistributed capital gains allocated to such U.S. Stockholder with respect to such shares.

Passive Activity and Loss; Investment Interest Limitations

Distributions from Simon Group and gain from the disposition of the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock will not ordinarily be treated as passive activity income, and therefore, U.S. Stockholders generally will not be able to apply any "passive losses" against such income. Dividends from Simon Group (to the extent they do not constitute a return of capital) generally will be treated as investment income for purposes of the investment interest limitation. Net capital gain from the disposition of Simon Group Equity Stock and capital gain dividends generally will be excluded from investment income unless the taxpayer elects to have the gain taxed at ordinary rates.

Treatment of Tax Exempt U.S. Stockholders

The IRS has ruled that amounts distributed by a REIT to a tax-exempt pension trust do not constitute unrelated business taxable income ("UBTI"). Although rulings are merely interpretations of law by the IRS and may not be relied on by anyone other than the taxpayer to whom it was addressed, based on this analysis, indebtedness incurred by Simon Group in connection with the acquisition of an investment will not cause any income derived from the investment to be treated as UBTI to a tax-exempt entity. A tax-exempt entity that incurs indebtedness to finance its purchase of shares, however, will be subject to UBTI by virtue of the acquisition indebtedness rules.

In addition, qualified trusts that hold more than ten percent (by value) of the interests in a REIT are required to treat a percentage of REIT dividends as UBTI. The requirement applies only if (i) the qualification of the REIT depends upon the application of a "look-through" exception to the restriction on REIT stockholdings by five or fewer individuals, including qualified trusts (see "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK") and (ii) the REIT is "predominantly held" by qualified trusts. It is not anticipated that Simon Group will be "predominantly held" by qualified trusts.

Special Tax Consideration for Foreign Stockholders

The rules governing United States federal income taxation of non-resident alien individuals, foreign corporations, foreign partnerships, and foreign trusts and estates (collectively, "Non-U.S. Stockholders") are complex, and the following discussion is intended only as a summary of such rules. Prospective Non-U.S. Stockholders should consult with their own tax advisors to determine the impact of federal, state, and local income tax laws on an investment in Simon Group, including any reporting requirements, as well as the tax treatment of such an investment under their home country laws.

In general, Non-U.S. Stockholders will be subject to regular United States federal income tax with respect to their investment in Simon Group if such investment is "effectively connected" with the Non-U.S. Stockholder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States. A corporate Non-U.S. Stockholder that receives income that is (or is treated as) effectively connected with a United States trade or business may also be subject to the branch profits tax under section 884 of the Code, which is payable in addition to regular United States corporate income tax. The following discussion will apply to Non-U.S. Stockholders whose investment in Simon Group is not so effectively connected. Simon Group expects to withhold United States income tax, as described below, on the gross amount of any distributions paid to a Non-U.S. Stockholder unless (i) a lower treaty rate applies and the required form evidencing eligibility for that reduced rate is filed with Simon Group, or (ii) the Non-U.S. Stockholder files an IRS Form 4224 with Simon Group, claiming that the distribution is "effectively connected" income.

A distribution by Simon Group that is not attributable to gain from the sale or exchange by Simon Group of a United States real property interest and that is not designated by Simon Group as a capital gain dividend will be treated as an ordinary income dividend to the extent made out of current or accumulated earnings and profits. Generally, an ordinary income dividend will be subject to a United States withholding tax equal to 30% of the gross amount of the distribution unless such tax is reduced or eliminated by an applicable tax treaty. A distribution of cash in excess of Simon Group's earnings and profits will be treated first as a return of capital that will reduce a Non-U.S. Stockholder's basis in its shares of the Simon Group Equity Stock (but not below zero) and then as gain from the disposition of such shares, the tax treatment of which is described under the rules discussed below with respect to dispositions of shares.

Distributions by Simon Group that are attributable to gain from the sale or exchange of a United States real property interest will be taxed to a Non-U.S. Stockholder under the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980 ("FIRPTA"). Beginning with payments made on or after January 1, 1999, newly issued Treasury Regulations require a corporation that is a REIT to treat as a dividend the portion of a distribution that is not designated as a capital gain dividend or return of basis and apply the 30% withholding tax (subject to any applicable deduction or exemption) to such portion, and to apply the provisions of the FIRPTA withholding rules discussed below with respect to the remainder of the distribution. Under FIRPTA, such distributions are taxed to a Non-U.S. Stockholder as if such distributions were gains "effectively connected" with a United States trade or business. Accordingly, a Non-U.S. Stockholder will be taxed at the normal capital gain rates applicable to a U.S. Stockholder (subject to any applicable alternative minimum tax and a special alternative minimum tax in the case of non-resident alien individuals). Distributions subject to FIRPTA may also be subject to a 30% branch profits tax in the hands of a foreign corporate stockholder that is not entitled to treaty exemption.

Simon Group will be required to withhold from distributions to Non-U.S. Stockholders, and remit to the IRS, (i) 35% of designated capital gain dividends (or, if greater, 35% of the amount of any distributions that could be designated as capital gain dividends) and (ii) 30% of ordinary dividends paid out of earnings and profits. In addition, if Simon Group designates prior distributions as capital gain dividends, subsequent distributions, up to the amount of such prior distributions not withheld against, will be treated as capital gain dividends for purposes of withholding. A distribution in excess of Simon Group earnings and profits may be subject to 30% dividend withholding if at the time of the distribution it cannot be determined whether the distribution will be in an amount in excess of Simon Group's current or accumulated earnings and profits. Tax treaties may reduce Simon Group's withholding obligations. If the amount withheld by Simon Group with respect to a distribution to a Non-U.S. Stockholder exceeds the stockholder's United States tax liability with respect to such distribution (as determined under the rules described in the two preceding paragraphs), the Non-U.S. Stockholder may file for a refund of such excess from the IRS. It should be noted that the 35% withholding tax rate on capital gain dividends currently corresponds to the maximum income tax rate applicable to corporations, but is higher than the 28% maximum rate on capital gains of individuals.

Unless the shares of Simon Group constitute a "United States real property interest" within the meaning of FIRPTA or are effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business, a sale of such shares by a Non-U.S. Stockholder generally will not be subject to United States taxation. The shares of Simon Group will not constitute a United States real property interest if Simon Group is a "domestically controlled REIT." A domestically controlled REIT is a REIT in which at all times during a specified testing period less than 50% in value of its shares is held directly or indirectly by Non-U.S. Stockholders. It is currently anticipated Simon Group will be a domestically controlled REIT, and therefore that the sale of shares in Simon Group will not be subject to taxation under FIRPTA. However, because the shares of Simon Group are publicly traded, no assurance can be given that Simon Group will continue to be a domestically controlled REIT. Notwithstanding the foregoing, capital gain not subject to FIRPTA will be taxable to a Non-U.S. Stockholder if the Non-U.S. Stockholder is a nonresident alien individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year and certain other conditions apply, in which case the nonresident alien individual will be subject to a 30% tax on such individual's capital gains. If Simon Group did not constitute a domestically controlled REIT, whether a Non-U.S. Stockholder's sale of shares of Simon Group would be subject to tax under FIRPTA as a sale of a United States real property interest would depend on whether the shares were "regularly traded" (as defined by applicable Treasury Regulations) on an established securities market (e.g., the NYSE, on which the shares of Simon Group Common Stock are listed) and on the size of the selling stockholder's interest in Simon Group (i.e., 5% or greater ownership). If the gain on the sale of Simon Group's shares were subject to taxation under FIRPTA, the Non-U.S. Stockholder would be subject to the same treatment as a U.S. Stockholder with respect to such gain (subject to applicable alternative minimum tax and a special alternative minimum tax in the case of nonresident alien individuals). In any event, a purchaser of shares of the Simon Group Common Stock from a Non-U.S. Stockholder will not be required under FIRPTA to withhold on the purchase price if the purchased shares of the Simon Group Common Stock are "regularly traded" on an established securities market or if Simon Group is a domestically controlled REIT. Otherwise, under FIRPTA the purchaser of shares of the Simon Group Common Stock may be required to withhold ten percent of the purchase price and remit such amount to the IRS.

INCOME TAXATION OF THE PARTNERSHIPS, THE PROPERTY PARTNERSHIPS AND THEIR PARTNERS

The following discussion summarizes certain federal income tax considerations applicable to Simon Group's investment in the SDG Operating Partnership and the Property Partnerships.

Classification of the Partnerships and the Property Partnerships as Partnerships

The REIT Members will be entitled to include in their income their distributive share of the income and to deduct their distributive share of the losses of SDG Operating Partnership and other partnerships in which they own interests only if such partnerships are classified for federal income tax purposes as partnerships rather than as associations taxable as corporations. Under applicable Treasury Regulations, such partnerships will be classified as partnerships for federal income tax purposes.

Partners, Not Partnerships, Subject to Tax

A partnership is not a taxable entity for federal income tax purposes. Rather, a partner is required to take into account its allocable share of a partnership's income, gains, losses, deductions, and credits for any taxable year of the partnership ending within or with the taxable year of the partner, without regard to whether the partner has received or will receive any distributions from the partnership.

Partnership Allocations

Although a partnership agreement will generally determine the allocation of income and losses among partners, such allocations will be disregarded for tax purposes under section 704(b) of the Code if they do not comply with the provisions of section 704(b) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder as to substantial economic effect.

If an allocation is not recognized for federal income tax purposes, the item subject to the allocation will be reallocated in accordance with the partners' interests in the partnership, which will be determined by taking into account all of the facts and circumstances relating to the economic arrangement of the partners with respect to such item. The allocations of taxable income and loss of the SDG Operating Partnership and property partnerships are intended to comply with the requirements of section 704(b) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

Sale of Property

Generally, any gain realized on the sale of real property by a REIT Member will be capital gain, except for any portion of such gain that is treated as depreciation or cost recovery recapture. However, under the REIT Requirements, a REIT Member's share, as a partner, of any gain realized by SDG Operating Partnership (or any other partnership) on the sale of any property held as inventory or other property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business will be treated as income from a prohibited transaction that is subject to a 100% penalty tax. See "-- Taxation of Simon Group." Such prohibited transaction income will also have an adverse effect upon the REIT Member's ability to satisfy the income tests for REIT status. See "-- Requirements for Qualification -- Income Tests." Whether property is held as inventory or primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of a trade or business is a question of fact that depends on all the facts and circumstances with respect to the particular transaction. A safe harbor to avoid classification as a prohibited transaction exists as to real estate assets held for the production of rental income by a REIT for at least four years where in any taxable year the REIT has made no more than seven sales of property or, in the alternative, the aggregate of the adjusted bases of all properties sold does not exceed ten percent of the adjusted bases of all of the REIT's properties during the year and the expenditures includible in a property's basis made during the four-year period prior to disposition must not exceed 30% of the property's net sales price. Simon Group intends to hold the Portfolio Properties for investment with a view to long-term appreciation, to engage in the business of acquiring, developing, owning, operating and leasing the Portfolio Properties and to make such occasional sales of the Portfolio Properties, including peripheral land, as are consistent with its investment objectives. No assurance can be given, however, that every property sale by Simon Group will constitute a sale of property held for investment.

Information Reporting Requirement and Backup Withholding Tax

Simon Group will report to its U.S. Stockholders and the IRS the amount of distributions paid during each calendar year and the amount of tax withheld, if any. Under certain circumstances, U.S. Stockholders may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 31% with respect to distributions paid. Backup withholding will apply only if the holder (i) fails to furnish its taxpayer identification number ("TIN") (which, for an individual, would be his Social Security number), (ii) furnishes an incorrect TIN, (iii) is notified by the IRS that it has failed properly to report payments of interest and dividends, or (iv) under certain circumstances, fails to certify, under penalty of perjury, that it has furnished a correct TIN and has not been notified by the IRS that it is subject to backup withholding for failure to report interest and dividend payments. Backup withholding will not apply with respect to payments made to certain exempt recipients, such as corporations and tax-exempt organizations. U.S. Stockholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding their qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining such an exemption. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the amount of any backup withholding with respect to a payment to a U.S. Stockholder will be allowed as a credit against such U.S. Stockholder's United States federal income tax liability and may entitle such U.S. Stockholder to a refund, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS.

Additional issues may arise pertaining to information reporting and backup withholding with respect to Non-U.S. Stockholders. For example, Simon Group may be required to withhold a portion of capital gain distributions to any stockholders who fail to certify their non-foreign status to Simon Group. Non-U.S. Stockholders should consult their tax advisors with respect to any such information reporting and backup withholding requirements.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO PAIRED SHARES

Separate Taxation

Notwithstanding that Paired Shares may only be transferred as a unit, holders of Paired Shares will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as holding equal numbers of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock and CRC Common Stock. It should also be noted that, although holders of Paired Shares own beneficial interests in CRC shares through the CRC Trusts, for federal income tax purposes such holders will be treated as owning the CRC shares underlying the CRC Trusts. The tax treatment of distributions to stockholders and of any gain or loss upon the sale or other disposition of the Paired Shares (as well as the amount of gain or loss) must therefore be determined separately with respect to each share of Simon Group Equity Stock and each share of CRC Common Stock contained within each Paired Share. The tax basis and holding period for each share of Simon Group Equity Stock and CRC Common Stock also must be determined separately. See "-- Tax Consequences of the Merger." Upon a taxable sale of a Paired Share, the amount realized should be allocated between the Simon Group and CRC stock based on their then-relative values. Since CRC is not a REIT but is instead a regular C corporation, it will be subject to corporate level tax, without the benefit of the dividend paid deduction available to REITs. In addition, recently enacted legislation will adversely affect the treatment of CRC. See "RISK FACTORS -- Certain Tax Risks -- REIT Classification; Legislation Limiting Benefits of Paired Share Status."

Distributions from CRC up to the amount of CRC's current or accumulated earnings and profits (less any earnings and profits allocable to distributions on any preferred stock of CRC) will be taken into account by U.S. Stockholders as ordinary income and generally will be eligible for the dividends-received deduction for corporations (subject to certain limitations). Distributions in excess of CRC's current and accumulated earnings and profits will not be taxable to a holder to the extent that they do not exceed the adjusted tax basis of the holder's CRC Common Stock, but rather will reduce the adjusted tax basis of such CRC Common Stock. To the extent such distributions exceed the adjusted tax basis of a holder's CRC Common Stock, they will be included in income as long-term capital gain (or, in the case of individuals, trusts and estates, mid-term capital gain if the CRC Common Stock has been held for more than one year but not more than 18 months, and in the case of all taxpayers short-term capital gain if the CRC Common Stock has been held for one year or less), assuming the shares are a capital asset in the hands of the stockholder. Such capital gain will be long-term capital gain if the shares have been held for more than one year. Individual taxpayers are subject to a maximum tax rate of 28% on long-term capital gain (20% if the shares were held for more than 18 months).

A sale of CRC Common Stock, if considered a sale or exchange of a United States real property interest, will be taxed to a non-U.S. stockholder under FIRPTA. It is unclear whether the assets of CRC would cause CRC to constitute a real property holding company, thereby causing CRC stock to be United States real property interests. Even if CRC is considered a real property holding company, whether a Non-U.S. Stockholder's sale of shares of CRC would be subject to tax under FIRPTA as a sale of a United States real property interest would depend on whether the shares are "regularly traded" (as defined by applicable Treasury Regulations) on an established securities market (e.g., the NYSE, on which the shares of Simon Group Common Stock will be listed) and on whether the selling stockholder owns or owned more than 5% of the CRC Common Stock. See "-- Special Tax Consideration for Foreign Stockholders."

STATE AND LOCAL TAX CONSIDERATIONS

Simon Group is and its stockholders may be subject to state or local taxation in various state or local jurisdictions where Simon Group, its affiliates and its stockholders transact business or reside. The state and local tax treatment of the Simon Group and its stockholders may not conform to the federal income tax consequences discussed above. Consequently, prospective stockholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the effect of state and local tax laws on their investment in the Simon Group.

POSSIBLE FEDERAL TAX DEVELOPMENTS

The rules dealing with federal income taxation are constantly under review by the IRS, the Treasury Department and Congress. New federal tax legislation or other provisions may be enacted into law or new interpretations, rulings or Treasury Regulations could be adopted, all of which could affect the taxation of Simon Group and its stockholders. See, for example, "RISK FACTORS -- Certain Tax Risks." No prediction can be made as to the likelihood of passage of any new tax legislation or other provisions either directly or indirectly affecting Simon Group or their stockholders. Consequently, the tax treatment described herein may be modified prospectively or retroactively by legislative action.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

Simon Group will account for the Merger between SDG and the CPI merger subsidiary as a reverse acquisition in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 16. Although Simon Group Equity Stock will be issued to SDG stockholders and SDG will become a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of Simon Group following the Merger, CPI is considered the business acquired for accounting purposes. SDG is the acquiring company because the SDG stockholders will represent in excess of a majority of the stockholders of Simon Group. The fair market value of the consideration given by the acquiring company will be used as the valuation basis for the combination of SDG and CPI. The assets and liabilities of CPI will be revalued by SDG to their respective fair market values at the Effective Time.

The SDG Operating Partnership will contribute cash to CRC and the newly formed SRC Operating Partnership on behalf of the SDG stockholders and the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership to obtain the beneficial interests in CRC which will be paired with the shares to be issued by Simon Group and to obtain units in the SRC Operating Partnership so that the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership will hold the same proportionate interest in the SRC Operating Partnership as they hold in the SDG Operating Partnership at the Effective Time of the Merger. The cash contributed to CRC and the CRC Operating Partnership represent stock and partnership units for cash transactions. The assets and liabilities of CRC will not be adjusted to fair market value but will be reflected at historical cost because the SDG stockholders' beneficial interest in CRC will be less than 80%.

Following the Merger and related transactions, the separate consolidated financial statements will be filed pursuant to the Exchange Act for each of Simon Group (formerly CPI) and SPG Realty Consultants, Inc. (formerly CRC) as required under Rule 3-01 and Rule 3-02 of Regulation S-X of the Securities Act. Management plans to submit the separate financial statements of Simon Group and SRC Realty Consultants, Inc. in a joint filing and may also include combined financial statements of Simon Group and SRC Realty Consultants, Inc. in those filings. Since SDG is the predecessor to Simon Group, the historical financial statements of Simon Group will be the historical financial statements of SDG.

REGULATORY APPROVAL

Other than (i) the Commission's declaring effective the Registration Statement containing this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, (ii) approvals in connection with compliance with applicable blue sky or state securities laws, (iii) the filing of the articles of merger with the Maryland State Department, (iv) the filing of such reports under Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act, as may be required in connection with the Merger Agreement and related transactions, and (v) such filings as may be required in connection with the payment of any taxes or the transfer of properties, neither the management of SDG nor the management of CPI believes that any filing with or approval of any governmental authority is necessary in connection with the consummation of the Merger.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS AND AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE MERGER

In connection with the Merger Agreement and the Merger, certain other transaction agreements have been or will be entered into on or prior to the Effective Time which provide for the consummation of the other transactions on or prior to the Effective Time.

CPI Stockholder Voting Agreements. At the time SDG and CPI entered into the Merger Agreement, certain stockholders of CPI, representing 15,811,456 shares (approximately 62.4%) of the CPI Common Stock and 153,450 shares (approximately 73.3%) of the CPI Series A Preferred Stock, entered into substantially similar Stockholder Voting Agreements as a condition to SDG entering into the Merger Agreement. The voting power of such stockholders represents more than the requisite number of votes necessary to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, except that the adoption of the Simon Group Charter requires the vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding voting stock and is a condition to the Merger. The following discusses the material terms of the Stockholder Voting Agreements.

Stockholder Voting Agreements, dated as of February 18, 1998, were entered into by each of Stichting Pensioenfonds Voor De Gezondheid Geestelijke En Maatschappelijke Belangen ("PGGM"), the Kuwait Fund for Arab Economic Development, the Arab Fund for Economic and Social Development, the Kuwait Investment Authority, as Agent for the Government of Kuwait, and State Street Bank and Trust Company, not individually but solely in its capacity as Trustee of the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust (collectively, the "Stockholders"). The Stockholder Voting Agreements are applicable to all CPI Common Stock, CPI Series A Preferred Stock and the related beneficial interests in shares of CRC Common Stock owned by each of the Stockholders (collectively, the "Owned Shares").

Until the expiration of the Voting Period (the earliest of (x) the Effective Time, (y) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms or (z) November 30, 1998), each of the Stockholders has agreed to vote its Owned Shares in favor of the Merger and the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and each of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Each of the Stockholders also has agreed to vote its Owned Shares against any action or agreement that would result in a material breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or other obligation or agreement of CPI or CRC under the Merger Agreement or of the Stockholder under the Stockholder Voting Agreement. Finally, each Stockholder has agreed to vote against any extraordinary corporate transaction and certain other actions involving CPI or CRC. Each of the Stockholders has further agreed that until the expiration of the Voting Period, it will not (i) transfer any Owned Shares, (ii) grant any proxies or powers of attorney, deposit any Owned Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement, understanding or arrangement with respect to Owned Shares that would conflict with the proxy granted under the Stockholder Voting Agreement or (iii) take any action that would make any representation or warranty untrue or incorrect or would result in a breach by the Stockholder of its obligations under the Stockholder Voting Agreement; provided, however, that the Stockholder shall not be prevented from transferring its Owned Shares to any person who executes and delivers to SDG an agreement substantially the same as the Stockholder Voting Agreement.

Each of the Stockholders also has agreed that until the expiration of the Voting Period, the Stockholder and its affiliates (other than CPI, CRC and their respective Entities) shall not, and shall instruct their respective officers, directors, employees, agents or other representative not to (i) directly or indirectly solicit, initiate or encourage, or take any other action to facilitate, any inquiries or proposals from any person that constitute, or may be reasonably be expected to lead to, an Alternative Proposal for CPI or CRC; (ii) enter into, maintain, or continue discussions or negotiations with any party, other than SDG, in furtherance of such inquiries or to obtain an Alternative Proposal for CPI or CRC; (iii) agree to or endorse any Alternative Proposal for CPI or CRC; or (iv) authorize or permit the representatives of the Stockholder or any of its affiliates to take any such action; provided, however, that neither the Stockholder nor its representatives on the Board of Directors of CPI or CRC are prevented from taking actions to the same extent and in the same circumstances permitted for the Boards of Directors of CPI and CRC in the Merger Agreement. The Stockholder Voting Agreements assure that the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, other than the adoption of the Simon Group Charter which requires the vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding voting stock and is a condition to the Merger, will be approved by CPI and CRC stockholders at a vote on the matter.

The Operating Partnerships After the Merger; Simon Group Contribution Agreement. Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, at the Effective Time Simon Group will transfer, or direct the transfer of, substantially all of its assets and liabilities to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more subsidiaries in consideration for limited partnership interests in the SDG Operating Partnership, as more fully described under "-- Structure of Simon Group."

Following the Merger and assuming the exercise of all CPI options and the contribution of assets and liabilities of Simon Group to the SDG Operating Partnership, Simon Group, directly and through its ownership of SDG, will own an approximate 71.4% interest in the SDG Operating Partnership and will be a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership. The SDG Limited Partners will own beneficially, in the aggregate, a 28.6% limited partnership interest in the SDG Operating Partnership.

In connection with the Merger, CRC will contribute all of its assets and liabilities to the newly-formed SRC Operating Partnership, will own a 71.4% interest in the SRC Operating Partnership and will be the sole general partner of the CRC Operating Partnership. The SDG Limited Partners also will become limited partners of the SRC Operating Partnership and will own beneficially, in the aggregate, the remaining 28.6% limited partnership interest in the SRC Operating Partnership. The Amended SDG Operating Partnership Agreement will provide for the pairing of the SDG Units with the CRC Units. The SDG Operating Partnership Agreement currently provides that the net proceeds of all offerings of shares of capital stock by SDG will be contributed to the SDG Operating Partnership in consideration for the issuance to SDG of additional interests in the SDG Operating Partnership. Following the Merger, the Amended SDG Operating Partnership Agreement and the SRC Operating Partnership Agreement will each provide that the net proceeds of all offerings of shares of capital stock by Simon Group, which shares (to the extent they consist of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock or convertible Simon Group Preferred Stock) will be paired with beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock, will be contributed to the operating partnerships. Upon such contribution, the SDG Operating Partnership will issue to Simon Group, and the SRC Operating Partnership will issue to CRC, an additional number of paired Units in such operating partnerships equal to the number of such shares and beneficial trust interests issued by Simon Group and CRC, respectively. The Amended SDG Operating Partnership Agreement and the SRC Operating Partnership Agreement also will provide that the net proceeds of all incurrences of indebtedness by Simon Group (or its subsidiaries) or CRC will be loaned to the SDG Operating Partnership or the CRC Operating Partnership, as the case may be. The SDG Operating Partnership Agreement currently provides that holders of SDG Units have the right to exchange all or any portion of their SDG Units for SDG Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or, at SDG's option, cash equal to the then market value of such shares, as determined by SDG. Following the Merger, each SDG Unit together with the paired CRC Unit will be exchangeable for cash or for a share of Simon Group Common Stock and a beneficial interest in CRC Common Stock, as determined by Simon Group and CRC.

Under the provisions of SDG's existing registration rights agreements, holders of SDG Units who receive shares of SDG Common Stock in exchange for such SDG Units have the right, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, to require that SDG register such shares for public distribution. As described below, New Registration Rights Agreements will be executed to provide that the holders of the SDG Units and CRC Units who receive shares of Simon Group Common Stock and beneficial trust interests in the CRC Common Stock owned by the CRC Trusts will have the right, under such circumstances and subject to such conditions, to require that Simon Group register the Simon Group Common Stock for public distribution.

Simon Group Issuance Agreement. In connection with the Merger, Simon Group and CRC will enter into the Issuance Agreement, the purpose of which is to ensure that a portion of the consideration paid for any newly issued Simon Group Equity Stock is transferred to CRC as consideration for the beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts paired with such newly issued stock. Pursuant to the Issuance Agreement, whenever Simon Group issues shares of Simon Group Common Stock or Simon Group Preferred Stock convertible into shares of Simon Group Equity Stock (but only to the extent such preferred stock is designated as "Special Preferred Stock"), CRC shall issue to the CRC Trusts a number of shares of CRC Common Stock such that, immediately after such issuance of CRC Common Stock, the CRC Proportionate Interest of each CRC Trust shall equal the Simon Group Proportionate Interest of the series of capital stock of Simon Group related to such CRC Trust. For purposes of the foregoing, the "CRC Proportionate Interest" for any CRC Trust at any date shall mean a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of CRC Common Stock held in such CRC Trust and the denominator of which shall be the number of shares of CRC Common Stock outstanding, and the "Simon Group Proportionate Interest" shall mean (i) with respect to the Simon Group Equity Stock at any date, a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock outstanding at such date and the denominator of which shall be the sum of the number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock outstanding and the aggregate number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock issuable upon conversion of all outstanding shares of all series of Simon Group Special Preferred Stock, and (ii) with respect to any series of Simon Group Special Preferred Stock, a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock issuable upon conversion of such series of Special Preferred Stock and the denominator of which shall be the sum of the number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock outstanding and the aggregate number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock issuable upon conversion of all outstanding shares of all series of Simon Group Special Preferred Stock. Pursuant to the Issuance Agreement, whenever CRC shall issue shares of CRC Common Stock Simon Group shall simultaneously pay to CRC an amount equal to the greater of (i) the aggregate par value of the shares of CRC Common Stock issued and (ii) the amount determined in good faith by the Board of Directors of CRC to represent the fair market net asset value of the shares of CRC Common Stock issued (less the aggregate consideration paid to CRC by parties other than Simon Group in connection with such issuance of CRC Common Stock). See "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK -- COMMON STOCK; BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF CRC COMMON STOCK."

Issuance of Interests in CRC and SRC Operating Partnership. In accordance with the Issuance Agreement, the SDG Operating Partnership will arrange for cash to be contributed at the Effective Time on behalf of SDG's stockholders to CRC as payment (the "CRC Payment") for the beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts (which will be paired with the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock to be issued to SDG stockholders in the Merger). The SDG Operating Partnership will also simultaneously arrange for cash to be contributed at the Effective Time on behalf of the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership to the SRC Operating Partnership as payment (the "Operating Partnership Payment") for units of the SRC Operating Partnership which will, in turn, be received by the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership. This is intended to ensure that the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership have the same proportionate interest in the SRC Operating Partnership as they will have in the SDG Operating Partnership. The CRC Payment reflects the amount of cash required to be paid to CRC such that, following such contribution, SDG stockholders will hold the same proportionate interest in CRC as they will hold in Simon Group upon consummation of the Merger, without diluting the value of beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts paired with the previously outstanding shares of CPI Common Stock. Based upon a preliminary estimate of the value of CRC's net assets as determined by SDG's management, the amount of the CRC Payment is estimated to be approximately $14 million and the Operating Partnership Payment is estimated to be approximately $8 million. At the Effective Time, the Board of Directors of CRC will make a determination of the fair market value of CRC's net assets based upon information then available. SDG's management does not expect that the final amount will differ materially from the preliminary estimates. The CRC Payment will be contributed by CRC to the SRC Operating Partnership and all amounts will be used for working capital and general purposes, subject to restrictions described in the SRC Operating Partnership Agreement. See "CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE SDG OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SRC OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SIMON GROUP CHARTER, THE CRC CHARTER, SIMON GROUP BY-LAWS AND CRC BY-LAWS AND DELAWARE LAW."

To implement the CRC Payment, the following actions will be taken by the SDG Operating Partnership and its general partners. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the SDG Operating Partnership will distribute the CRC Payment to its general partners, SD Property Group, Inc. and SDG. SD Property Group, Inc. will, in turn, dividend the cash it receives from the SDG Operating Partnership to SDG and its other stockholders who own, in the aggregate, less than .01% of SD Property Group, Inc. The CRC Payment will be held by SDG, which will, at the Effective Time, transfer the cash dividend it holds to CRC as payment on behalf of its stockholders for the beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts to be paired with the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock to be issued to SDG stockholders in the Merger. Pursuant to the terms of the CRC Trusts, the beneficial interests of CRC will be automatically paired with the shares of Simon Group Equity Stock issued to SDG stockholders in the Merger. To implement the Operating Partnership Payment, the SDG Operating Partnership will make the Operating Partnership Payment in consideration for units of the SRC Operating Partnership, which will, in turn, be received by the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership.

New Registration Rights Agreements. Simon Group will enter into the New Registration Rights Agreements or amendments to existing registration rights agreements, granting registration rights with respect to shares of Simon Group Equity Stock and Simon Group Preferred Stock, as applicable, held by certain existing stockholders of CPI and issuable upon exchange of SDG Units held by existing stockholders of SDG, including Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon. The terms and conditions of the New Registration Rights Agreements are substantially similar to those of SDG's existing registration rights agreements.

STRUCTURE OF SIMON GROUP

As of March 31, 1998, SDG owned or held interests in the SDG Portfolio Properties through its 63.1% general partnership interest in the SDG Operating Partnership. As of March 31, 1998, the Simons and the SDG Limited Partners held 64,059,705 SDG Units in the SDG Operating Partnership, representing the remaining 36.9% interest in the SDG Operating Partnership not held directly or indirectly by SDG. As of such date, the Simons beneficially owned 34,584,455 SDG Units, representing 19.9% of the outstanding SDG Units. The operations of SDG are carried on through the SDG Operating Partnership and the SDG Management Company. SDG Units held by SDG Limited Partners may be exchanged for shares of SDG Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or for cash at SDG's option (the "SDG Exchange Rights"). If all SDG Units held by SDG Limited Partners outstanding on March 31, 1998, including the Simons and the other SDG Limited Partners, were exchanged for SDG Common Stock, an aggregate 64,059,705 additional shares of SDG Common Stock would be issued.

CPI owns or holds interests in the CPI Portfolio Properties directly or indirectly through other subsidiaries. At March 31, 1998, on a pro forma basis assuming the exercise of all CPI options and after giving effect to the CPI Merger Dividends, CPI would have had outstanding 54,412,100 shares of CPI Common Stock, 209,249 shares of CPI Series A Preferred Stock and 4,966,038 shares of CPI Series B Preferred Stock. After giving effect to the Merger, the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock will be convertible into approximately 7,950,492 shares of Simon Group Common Stock and the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock will be convertible into approximately 12,842,426 shares of Simon Group Common Stock. See "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK -- PREFERRED STOCK -- Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock -- Conversion Rights." Each outstanding share of Simon Group Common Stock from and after the Effective Time will be paired with beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts which own all of the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger" and "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK -- COMMON STOCK; BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF CRC COMMON STOCK."

The Merger will result in the combination of the existing businesses and properties of SDG, CPI and CRC. The businesses will be conducted and substantially all of such properties will be held through the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more subsidiaries of the SDG Operating Partnership. In the Merger, a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of CPI will merge with and into SDG, with SDG being the surviving company and becoming a subsidiary of Simon Group (with Simon Group owning in excess of 99.9% of its outstanding common shares). In exchange for each of their shares of SDG Common Stock, SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock, the stockholders of SDG will receive one share of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock, respectively. Based upon the capitalization of SDG and CPI on March 31, 1998, the stockholders of SDG would own in the aggregate approximately 67% of the outstanding shares of Simon Group Equity Stock following the Merger.

The SDG Operating Partnership will continue in existence after the Merger under the Amended SDG Operating Partnership Agreement. In accordance with the SDG Operating Partnership Agreement and the Amended SPG Operating Partnership Agreement, Simon Group is obligated to contribute substantially all of its assets and liabilities to the SDG Operating Partnership in exchange for additional Partnership units. The partnership units may be exchanged for shares of Simon Group Common Stock on a one-for-one basis or for cash at Simon Group's option. At the Effective Time, Simon Group will transfer, or direct the transfer of, substantially all of its assets (i.e., all the assets other than assets valued at approximately $153.1 million, including Ocean County Mall valued at approximately $145.8 million) and liabilities (except that Simon Group will remain a co-obligor with the SDG Operating Partnership under a $1.4 billion senior unsecured term loan pursuant to a commitment letter with The Chase Manhattan Bank and Chase Securities, Inc.) to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more subsidiaries of the SDG Operating Partnership in consideration for 49,858,940 limited partnership interests (which equals the number of shares of CPI Common Stock outstanding after the Merger Dividends, less the number of shares equal to the value of the former CPI assets and liabilities retained by Simon Group) and 5,175,287 preferred partnership interests (which equals the number of shares of CPI Series A Preferred Stock and CPI Series B Preferred Stock outstanding after the CPI Merger Dividends). The value of the assets and liabilities retained by Simon Group or transferred to the SDG Operating Partnership is based on the consideration to be received or retained by the stockholders of CPI in connection with the Merger and on a reported closing trading price per share of SDG Common Stock of 33 5/8 on February 18, 1998, the last trading date preceding public announcement of the Merger. The fair market value of the former CPI assets less liabilities to be transferred by Simon Group to the SDG Operating Partnership and one or more of its subsidiaries is estimated at approximately $2.4 billion. See "PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA -- Note 3. Analysis of Stockholders' Equity." Such transfer will result in a reduction of the SDG Limited Partners' interests from 36.9% to 28.6%, assuming the Merger had occurred on March 31, 1998. On March 31, 1998, Melvin and Herbert Simon, Simon Group's Co-Chairmen, and David Simon, Simon Group's Chief Executive Officer, beneficially held 9.9%, 5.8% and 1.3%, respectively, of the SDG Operating Partnership, and after such transfer beneficially will hold 7.7%, 4.5% and 1.0%, respectively, assuming such transfer had occurred on March 31, 1998. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger -- The Operating Partnerships After the Merger; Simon Group Contribution Agreement." See also "RISK FACTORS -- Potential Conflicts of Interests Related to Operations," "-- Limits on Change of Control" and "-- Dependence on Key Personnel." Each of SDG and SD Property Group, Inc. (of which SDG owns in excess of 99.9% of its outstanding common stock) will continue as a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership. Simon Group, both directly through its ownership of SDG will own an approximate 71.4% interest in the SDG Operating Partnership and will be a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership assuming the Merger had occurred on March 31, 1998.

The businesses and the assets of CRC will be held by the SRC Operating Partnership, of which CRC will be the sole general partner. In connection with the formation of the SRC Operating Partnership, SDG, as a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership, Simon Group, SRC and the SDG Limited Partners will enter into the SRC Operating Partnership Agreement, pursuant to which assuming the Merger had occurred on March 31, 1998 (i) CRC will contribute all of its assets and liabilities to the SRC Operating Partnership for a 71.4% interest in the SRC Operating Partnership and (ii) SDG Operating Partnership will contribute assets including, without limitation, land held for future development, to the SRC Operating Partnership for CRC Units representing the remaining 28.6% limited partnership interest in the SRC Operating Partnership. The SDG Operating Partnership will then distribute the CRC Units to the holders of SDG Units in proportion to their ownership interest in the SDG Operating Partnership, whereupon such holders also will become limited partners of the SRC Operating Partnership. Following the Merger, the CRC Units will be paired with the SDG Units and may be exchanged (together with the SDG Units) for shares of Simon Group Equity Stock (together with beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock) on a one-for-one basis or for cash at Simon Group's option. Following the Merger, the SDG Units and CRC Units may not be exchanged or transferred separately, but only as a single unit.

After giving effect to the Merger and to the foregoing transactions, holders of SDG Equity Stock will own shares of Simon Group Equity Stock which are paired with beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock, and holders of SDG Units will own SDG Units which are paired with the CRC Units, and such paired Units will be exchangeable for shares of Simon Group Common Stock which are paired to beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts owning the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock.

AMENDMENT TO THE SDG CHARTER

At the SDG Special Meeting, stockholders of SDG will be asked to vote upon and approve an amendment to the SDG Charter as follows:

> To provide certain voting rights (the "Voting Preferred Amendment") to holders of SDG's 8 3/4% Series B Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock ("SDG Series B Preferred Stock") and 7.89%

Series C Cumulative Step-Up Premium Rate Preferred Stock ("SDG Series C Preferred Stock" and together with the SDG Series B Preferred Stock, the "SDG Preferred Stock").

The following summary of the Voting Preferred Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the proposed Voting Preferred Amendment to the SDG Charter, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Annex F.

The Voting Preferred Amendment provides that holders of SDG Series B Preferred Stock and SDG Series C Preferred Stock will be granted the right to vote with the SDG Equity Stock (of which Simon Group will own in excess of 99.9% following the Merger) solely for the election of directors to the Board of Directors of SDG. For the purposes of such a vote, the holders of SDG Equity Stock, SDG Series B Preferred Stock and SDG Series C Preferred Stock shall vote together as one class. Accordingly, following the Merger, the holders of SDG Preferred Stock will be entitled to one vote per share, representing approximately 9.0% of the aggregate voting power when voting together as a class with the shares of SDG Equity Stock. The voting rights for the holders of SDG Series B Preferred Stock and SDG Series C Preferred Stock shall become effective immediately upon the filing of the Voting Preferred Amendment with the Maryland State Department (which is expected to be filed as soon as practicable after the SDG Meetings but prior to the consummation of the Merger) and accordingly the voting rights will not be exercisable in connection with any of the proposals at the SDG Meetings. Approval of the Voting Preferred Amendment is necessary for approval of the Merger Proposal. In structuring the Merger, a goal of the SDG Board of Directors was to have the Merger qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Voting Preferred Amendment, by converting the SDG Preferred Stock to "voting stock" for purposes of U.S. federal income tax analysis, will facilitate tax-free reorganization treatment. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Conditions to Consummation of the Merger." The affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by holders of the outstanding SDG Equity Stock is required to approve this amendment.

THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS CONSIDERS THE VOTING PREFERRED AMENDMENT TO BE IN THE BEST INTEREST OF SDG AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS AND RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR ITS APPROVAL AND ADOPTION.

THE MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS OF SDG

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement/Prospectus is being furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the SDG Board of Directors for use in connection with the SDG Special Meeting and the SDG Annual Meeting and any adjournments or postponements of such meetings. It is anticipated that the mailing of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to SDG stockholders will commence on August 13, 1998.

DATE, TIME AND PLACE OF SDG MEETINGS

The SDG Special Meeting will be held at The Indianapolis Hyatt Regency, One South Capitol Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana, on September 23, 1998, at 10:00 a.m., Indianapolis time. The SDG Annual Meeting will be held immediately following the SDG Special Meeting at the same location as the SDG Special Meeting.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE SDG MEETINGS

SDG Special Meeting

At the SDG Special Meeting, the holders of SDG Equity Stock, voting together as a single class, will be asked to consider and vote upon each of the SDG Proposals:

(1) The approval and adoption of an amendment to the SDG Charter to provide certain voting rights to the holders of SDG Preferred Stock effective immediately upon the filing of the Voting Preferred Amendment with the Maryland State Department (as more fully described under "AMENDMENT TO THE SDG CHARTER"). Approval of the Voting Preferred Amendment is a condition to the consideration of the Merger Proposal.

(2) The approval and adoption of the Merger Proposal, as more fully described under "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS."

(3) To transact such other business as may properly come before the SDG Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

SDG Annual Meeting

At the SDG Annual Meeting, the holders of SDG Equity Stock voting together as a single class, will be asked to consider the following proposals:

(1) The election of eleven directors (five to be elected by the holders of SDG Equity Stock, four to be elected by the holders of SDG Class B Common Stock and two to be elected by the holders of SDG Class C Common Stock) each to serve until their successors are elected and have qualified.

(2) To approve the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan.

(3) The ratification of the appointment of Arthur Andersen LLP as independent accountants for SDG for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1998.

(4) Such other business as may properly come before the SDG Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

RECORD DATE AND VOTE REQUIRED

The SDG Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on July 20, 1998 as the Record Date for the SDG Annual Meeting and the SDG Special Meeting. At July 20, 1998, there were 110,482,334 shares of SDG Common Stock, 3,200,000 shares of SDG Class B Common Stock and 4,000 shares of SDG Class C Common Stock outstanding.

The Voting Preferred Amendment proposal requires approval by at least a majority of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast by holders of the outstanding SDG Equity Stock, voting together as a single class. The Merger Proposal requires approval by at least 66 2/3% of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast by holders of the outstanding SDG Equity Stock, voting together as a single class. The approval of the Merger Proposal is contingent upon approval of the Voting Preferred Amendment. Therefore, a vote against the Voting Preferred Amendment is effectively a vote against the Merger Proposal. At the SDG Annual Meeting, directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast for the election of directors. The approval of the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan and the ratification of the appointment of independent accountants each will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter at the SDG Annual Meeting.

In the event that there are not a sufficient number of votes to approve the Voting Preferred Amendment or the Merger Proposal at the time of the SDG Special Meeting, the persons present or named as proxies by a stockholder may propose and vote for one or more adjournments of the SDG Special Meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies. A proxy that withholds discretionary authority or that is voted against the Voting Preferred Amendment or the Merger Proposal will not be voted in favor of any adjournment or postponement of the SDG Special Meeting. The SDG Special Meeting may be adjourned by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes present in person or by proxy.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of SDG stockholders owning shares of SDG Equity Stock representing a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast by holders of SDG Equity Stock at the SDG Special Meeting and the SDG Annual Meeting, respectively, is necessary to constitute a quorum at each such meeting. As of July 31, 1998, directors and executive officers of SDG as a group beneficially held shares of SDG Equity Stock representing 32.7% of all the votes entitled to be cast by holders of SDG Equity Stock at the SDG Meetings and each such person has advised SDG that he or she intends to vote to approve and adopt the SDG Proposals.

A proxy may indicate that all or a portion of the shares represented by such proxy are not being voted with respect to a specific proposal. This could occur, for example, when a broker is not permitted to vote shares held in street name on certain proposals in the absence of instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes and abstentions will be considered present for purposes of determining a quorum. BECAUSE APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSALS AT THE SDG SPECIAL MEETING REQUIRES THE AFFIRMATIVE VOTE OF A PROPORTION OF THE OUTSTANDING SHARES OF SDG EQUITY STOCK AS DESCRIBED ABOVE, ANY BROKER NON-VOTES OR ABSTENTIONS ON THE PROPOSAL WILL HAVE THE SAME EFFECT AS VOTES "AGAINST" THE PROPOSAL. NONE OF THE MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE SDG ANNUAL MEETING -- THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS, THE APPROVAL OF THE 1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN AND THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS -- REQUIRES THE AFFIRMATIVE VOTE OF A SPECIFIED PROPORTION OF THE OUTSTANDING SHARES OF SDG EQUITY STOCK. ACCORDINGLY, BROKER NON-VOTES AND ABSTENTIONS WILL HAVE NO EFFECT ON THE RESULT OF THE VOTE ON SUCH MATTERS.

PROXY

Enclosed is a form of proxy which should be completed, dated, signed and returned by each SDG stockholder before the SDG Meetings to ensure that such stockholder's shares will be voted at the meetings. Any SDG stockholder signing and delivering a proxy has the power to revoke the proxy at any time prior to its use by filing with the Corporate Secretary of SDG a written revocation of the proxy or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending and voting in person at the meetings.

Shares represented by a properly executed proxy will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on such proxy with respect to the proposals at the SDG Special Meeting and the election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of independent accountants at the SDG Annual Meeting, and, at the discretion of the proxy holders, on all other matters to come properly before either meeting. If a stockholder executes a proxy with no instructions indicated thereon, shares represented by such proxy will be voted in favor of the proposals at the SDG Special Meeting and, at the SDG Annual Meeting, for the election as directors of all nominees listed on the form of proxy and for the ratification of the appointment of Arthur Andersen LLP as independent accountants for SDG for 1998.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

SDG will bear the expense of the proxy solicitation. Such solicitation will be by mail but also may be by telephone or in person by the directors, officers or employees of SDG who will not receive any additional compensation. In addition, SDG retained MacKenzie Partners, Inc., a proxy soliciting firm, to assist in the solicitation of proxies. SDG anticipates that the cost of such proxy soliciting firm to SDG will not exceed $12,500, plus expenses. The telephone number of MacKenzie Partners, Inc. is (212) 929-5500.

OTHER MATTERS

The SDG Board of Directors knows of no matters, other than those described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, which are to be brought before the SDG Special Meeting or the SDG Annual Meeting. However, if any other matters properly come before either meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy to vote such proxy in accordance with their discretion on such matters.

PLEASE DO NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY CARD. IF THE MERGER IS APPROVED AND ADOPTED BY THE STOCKHOLDERS AND THE MERGER IS CONSUMMATED, YOU WILL RECEIVE A TRANSMITTAL FORM AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SURRENDER OF THE CERTIFICATES PREVIOUSLY REPRESENTING YOUR SHARES OF SDG EQUITY STOCK.

POLICIES OF SIMON GROUP FOLLOWING THE MERGER

The following is a discussion of dividend and distribution policies, investment policies, financing policies, conflicts of interest policies and policies with respect to certain other activities of SDG which Simon Group expects to continue following the Merger. The policies may be amended or rescinded from time to time following the Merger at the discretion of the Board of Directors of Simon Group without a vote of the stockholders of Simon Group.

DIVIDEND AND DISTRIBUTION POLICIES

It is intended that following the Merger Simon Group will operate so as to qualify as a REIT under sections 856 through 860 of the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations. To obtain and maintain its status as a REIT, Simon Group generally will be required each year to distribute to its stockholders at least 95% of its taxable income after certain adjustments. In the event that Funds From Operations are insufficient to meet these distribution requirements, Simon Group could be required to borrow the amount of the deficiency or sell assets to obtain the cash necessary to make distributions required to retain REIT status.

While Simon Group does not intend to reduce quarterly distributions as a result of the Merger, future distributions paid by Simon Group will be at the discretion of its Board of Directors and will depend on its actual cash flow, financial condition, capital requirements, annual distribution requirements under the REIT provisions of the Code and such other factors as the Simon Group Board of Directors deems relevant. The next full quarterly dividend paid by Simon Group will be adjusted to take into account the Special Distribution to be declared by each of SDG and CPI prior to the Merger, the record date for which shall be the close of business on the last business day prior to the Effective Time. "Special Distribution" means the distribution to be made by each of SDG and CPI to their respective stockholders in amounts proportional to dividends paid to SDG's or CPI's (as the case may be) stockholders for the last full quarter preceding the Effective Time prorated over the number of days elapsed in the quarter in which the Effective Time occurs from the beginning of such quarter to the Effective Time. Assuming Simon Group continues to make regular quarterly distributions at the rate currently paid by SDG ($0.5050 per share), following the Merger each former stockholder of SDG, as a stockholder of Simon Group, would be entitled to receive a quarterly distribution from Simon Group equivalent to $0.5050 per share of SDG Equity Stock held prior to the Merger.

It is anticipated that Funds From Operations of Simon Group will exceed earnings and profits due to non-cash expenses, primarily depreciation and amortization, to be incurred by Simon Group. Distributions by Simon Group to the extent of current or accumulated earnings and profits for federal income tax purposes, other than capital gains dividends, will be taxable to stockholders as ordinary dividend income. Any dividend designated by Simon Group as a capital gain dividend generally will give rise to capital gain for stockholders. Distributions in excess of Simon Group's current or accumulated earnings and profits will be treated as a non-taxable reduction of a stockholder's adjusted tax basis in its share of Simon Group Equity Stock to the extent thereof, and thereafter as capital gain. Distributions treated as non-taxable reductions in adjusted tax basis will have the effect of deferring taxation until the sale of a stockholder's shares of Simon Group Equity Stock or future distributions in excess of the stockholder's basis in such share of Simon Group Equity Stock.

Simon Group will maintain a distribution reinvestment plan under which stockholders may elect to reinvest their distributions automatically in additional shares of Simon Group Equity Stock. To fulfill its obligations under the distribution reinvestment plan, Simon Group may, from time to time, elect to purchase shares of Simon Group Equity Stock in the open market on behalf of participating stockholders or issue new shares of Simon Group Equity Stock to such stockholders. Simon Group may suspend or amend such plan at any time. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus does not constitute an offer of any shares of Simon Group Equity Stock that may be issued by Simon Group in connection with a distribution reinvestment program, and such shares may be purchased only pursuant to a separate prospectus contained in an effective registration statement.

INVESTMENT POLICIES

Simon Group will conduct all its investment activities through the SDG Operating Partnership for as long as such partnership exists. Simon Group's primary business objective will be to increase Funds From Operations per share and the value of its properties and operations. It is intended that Simon Group will achieve these objectives by pursuing an aggressive leasing strategy; continuing to improve the performance of the Portfolio Properties through both traditional and innovative management techniques; where appropriate, renovating and/or expanding Portfolio Properties; developing new shopping centers whenever such development meets the economic criteria of Simon Group; and acquiring additional shopping centers and the portfolios of other retail real estate companies that meet its investment criteria, although no assurance can be given that Simon Group will achieve such objectives. Simon Group's policy will be to develop and acquire properties primarily for generation of current income and long-term value appreciation. Simon Group will not have a policy limiting the amount or percentage of assets that may be invested in any particular property or type of property or in any geographic area.

Simon Group may purchase or lease properties for long-term investment, develop or redevelop its properties or sell such properties, in whole or in part, when circumstances warrant. Simon Group currently participates and Simon Group may continue to participate with other entities in property ownership, through joint ventures or other types of co-ownership. Equity investments may be subject to existing mortgage financing and other indebtedness that have priority over the equity interest of Simon Group.

While Simon Group emphasizes equity real estate investments, Simon Group may, in its discretion, invest in mortgages (which may or may not be insured by a governmental agency) and other real estate interests consistent with its qualification as a REIT. It is not intended that Simon Group invest to a significant extent in mortgages or deeds of trust, but it may invest in participating or convertible mortgages if Simon Group concludes that it may benefit from the cash flow or any appreciation in the value of the property.

Subject to the percentage ownership limitations and gross income tests necessary for REIT qualification, Simon Group may also invest in securities of other entities engaged in real estate activities or securities of other issuers. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Federal Income Tax Considerations Relating to Simon Group -- Requirements for Qualification." Simon Group may invest in the securities of other issuers in connection with acquisitions of indirect interests in real estate (normally general or limited partnership interests in special purpose partnerships owning one or more properties). Simon Group may in the future acquire all or substantially all of the securities or assets of other REITs, management companies or similar entities where such investments would be consistent with its investment policies. It is not intended that Simon Group invest in securities of other issuers (other than the SDG Operating Partnership and certain wholly-owned subsidiaries and to acquire interests in real estate) for the purpose of exercising control. It is not intended that Simon Group's investments in securities will require it to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and it is intended that Simon Group divest securities before any such registration would be required.

FINANCING POLICIES

Similar to SDG, Simon Group will not maintain a policy of limiting its ratio of debt to Total Market Capitalization. Certain agreements relating to indebtedness of Simon Group and SDG do, however, set forth restrictions on the amount of indebtedness that each will be permitted to incur. If SDG's pro rata share of indebtedness of all unconsolidated Joint Venture Properties were included, Simon Group's ratio of debt to total market capitalization, including a pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness, would have been 49.8% on a pro forma basis as compared to 50.1% for SDG on an historical basis as of March 31, 1998. See "RISK FACTORS -- Indebtedness of Simon Group."

To the extent that its Board of Directors determines to seek additional capital, Simon Group may raise such capital through additional equity offerings, debt financing or retention of cash flow (subject to provisions in the Code requiring the distribution by a REIT of a certain percentage of taxable income and taking into account taxes that would be imposed on undistributed taxable income), or a combination of these methods. If Simon Group's Board of Directors determines to raise additional equity capital, it may, without stockholder approval, issue additional shares of Simon Group Common Stock or other capital stock of Simon Group up to the amount of its authorized capital in any manner (and on such terms and for such consideration) as it deems appropriate, including in exchange for property. Such securities may be senior to the outstanding classes of Simon Group common stock and may include additional classes of preferred stock (which may be convertible into SDG Common Stock). Existing stockholders will have no preemptive right to purchase shares in any subsequent offering of securities by Simon Group, and any such offering could cause a dilution of a stockholder's investment in Simon Group.

Following the Merger, as long as the SDG Operating Partnership is in existence, the proceeds of the sale of any common or preferred securities by Simon Group (after transferring a portion of such consideration to CRC in accordance with the Issuance Agreement) will be contributed to the SDG Operating Partnership in exchange for Units, which will dilute the ownership interest, if any, of the SDG Limited Partners. Any amounts received upon such issuance by CRC will, so long as the SRC Operating Partnership Agreement is in existence, be contributed to the SRC Operating Partnership in exchange for Units, which will dilute the ownership interest, if any, of the CRC Limited Partners. It is anticipated that, following the Merger, any additional borrowings would be made through the SDG Operating Partnership, although Simon Group might incur borrowings that would be reloaned to the SDG Operating Partnership. Borrowings may be in the form of bank borrowings, publicly and privately placed debt instruments, or purchase money obligations to the sellers of properties, any of which indebtedness may be unsecured or may be secured by any or all of the assets of Simon Group, CRC, the SDG Operating Partnership, the SRC Operating Partnership, or any existing or new property-owning partnership and may have full or limited recourse to all or any portion of the assets of any of the foregoing. Although Simon Group may borrow to fund the payment of dividends, it currently has no intention or expectation that it will do so.

Simon Group may seek to obtain unsecured or secured lines of credit or may determine to issue debt securities (which may be convertible into capital stock or be accompanied by warrants to purchase capital stock) or to sell or securitize its lease receivables. The proceeds from any borrowings may be used to finance acquisitions, to develop or redevelop properties, to refinance existing indebtedness, for working capital or capital improvements, or for meeting the income distribution requirements applicable to REITs if Simon Group has income without the receipt of cash sufficient to enable it to meet such distribution requirements. Simon Group also may determine to finance acquisitions through the exchange of properties or issuance of additional SDG Units in the SDG Operating Partnership, shares of Simon Group Common Stock, shares of preferred stock or other securities. The ability to offer SDG Units to transferors may result in a beneficial structure for the transferors because the exchange of SDG Units for properties may defer the recognition of gain for tax purposes by the transferor and may be an advantage for Simon Group since certain investors may be limited in the number of shares of Simon Group common stock that they may purchase. To the extent that Simon Group's Board of Directors determines to obtain additional debt financing, it is intended that Simon Group (or an entity owned or controlled by Simon Group) do so generally through mortgages on properties and drawings against revolving lines of credit in a manner consistent with its debt capitalization policy. These mortgages may be recourse, non-recourse or cross-collateralized. Simon Group will not have a policy limiting the number or amount of mortgages that may be placed on any particular property, but mortgage financing instruments usually limit additional indebtedness on such properties.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST POLICIES

Simon Group will maintain certain policies of SDG and enter into certain agreements designed to reduce or eliminate potential conflicts of interest. Any transaction between Simon Group and the Simons or the DeBartolos (including property acquisitions, service and property management agreements and retail space leases) must be approved by a majority of Simon Group's Independent Directors. The SDG Management Company has agreed with SDG that if in the future Simon Group is permitted by applicable tax law and regulations to conduct any or all of the activities that are now being conducted by the SDG Management Company, the SDG Management Company will not compete with SDG or Simon Group with respect to new or renewal business of this nature.

A majority of the members of Simon Group's Board of Directors (of which six must be Independent Directors) have the power to authorize and require the sale of any Portfolio Property because the sale of Portfolio Properties may have an adverse tax impact on the Simons or the DeBartolos and the other SDG Limited Partners and therefore may involve conflicts of interest that could have an adverse impact on the stockholders of Simon Group. The exercise of such powers is subject to applicable agreements with third parties. In addition, decisions with respect to the exercise of the options to acquire from the Simons or the DeBartolos and the enforcement of contracts between Simon Group and the Simons or the DeBartolos, will be made by the Independent Directors. The noncompetition agreements between SDG and each of Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon contain covenants limiting the ability of the Simons to participate in certain shopping center activities in North America.

POLICIES WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN OTHER ACTIVITIES

It is not intended that Simon Group make investments other than as previously described. It is intended that Simon Group make investments in such a manner as to be consistent with the REIT Requirements, unless, because of changing circumstances or changes in the REIT Requirements, Simon Group's Board of Directors determines that it is no longer in the best interests of Simon Group to qualify as a REIT. Simon Group has authority to offer shares of its capital stock or other securities in exchange for property and to repurchase or otherwise reacquire its shares or any other securities and may engage in such activities in the future. Simon Group may in the future issue shares of Simon Group Common Stock to holders of SDG Units in the SDG Operating Partnership and CRC Units in the SRC Operating Partnership upon exercise of their rights under the SDG Operating Partnership. Simon Group has not made loans to other entities or persons, including its officers and directors, other than the SDG Management Company. Simon Group may in the future make loans to joint ventures in which it participates. It is not intended that Simon Group engage in (i) trading, underwriting or agency distribution or sale of securities of other issuers and (ii) the active trade of loans and investments.

CERTAIN ACTIVITIES OF CPI PRIOR TO THE MERGER

The following were certain of CPI's activities prior to the Merger: During the past three years, CPI issued (i) 91,701 shares of CPI Common Stock pursuant to a plan under which distributions are used to purchase shares, (ii) 75,131 shares of CPI Common Stock in an original issuance for cash, (iii) 7,487,183 shares of CPI Common Stock in exchange for various partnership interests, (iv) 7,000 shares upon exercise of an employee's stock options and (v) $250 million of 7 7/8% Notes due 2016 in accordance with Rule 144A of the Securities Act. CPI also sold 3,550 shares of CPI Common Stock held in its treasury and issued 2,041 shares of CPI Common Stock from its treasury in connection with distributions under its Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan during that same period. During the past three years, the maximum amount that CPI borrowed under the Revolving Credit Agreement, dated as of June 26, 1996 among CPI, the Chase Manhattan Bank and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York and the lenders party thereto (the "CPI Revolving Credit Agreement") was $40,000,000. During that period, joint ventures in which CPI is a participant have also borrowed money in mortgage refinancing transactions aggregating approximately $92,100,000. In the ordinary course of business during the past three years, CPI has extended loans to various tenants in the aggregate amount of approximately $800,000. CPI also refinanced approximately $15.7 million of loans under CPI's Employee Share Purchase Plan, as amended, during that same time. CPI has not invested in the securities of other issuers for the purpose of exercising control. CPI has not underwritten securities of other issuers. During the past three years, CPI has not engaged in the purchase and sale (or turnover) of investments. During the past three years, CPI has acquired various partnership interests in exchange for 7,487,183 shares of CPI Common Stock. During the past three years, CPI has repurchased (i) 81,677 shares of CPI Common Stock from participants in CPI's Employee Share Purchase Plan, (ii) 2,603,158 shares of CPI Common Stock in exchange for property and (iii) 628,524 shares of CPI Common Stock for cash. CPI also reacquired 59,684 shares of CPI Common Stock in adjustment of an earlier issuance of CPI Common Stock in exchange for property. During the past three years, CPI has provided annual reports containing financial statements certified by independent public accountants and quarterly reports containing unaudited financial statements to its security holders.

In addition, each non-employee director of CPI who is a member of the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, Executive Committee, Investment Committee or Nominating Committee of the CPI Board currently receives compensation of $1,500 per committee meeting attended by such director.

David P. Feldman and Andrea Geisser, CRC's non-employee directors, receive annual compensation of $2,500 per year for being directors of CRC. Messrs. Feldman and Geisser also receive additional compensation of $300 per CRC Board of Directors meeting. Hans C. Mautner receives no compensation for serving on CRC's Board of Directors.

CPI and CRC Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The members of the compensation committee of the CPI Board during the year ended December 31, 1997 were David P. Feldman, Damon Mezzacappa and Daniel Rose.

CRC did not have a compensation committee for the year ended December 31, 1997.

For compensation arrangements of executive officers of SDG who will become executive officers of Simon Group at the Effective Time of the Merger if the Merger Proposal is approved and adopted, see "SDG ANNUAL MEETING MATTERS -- Executive Compensation."

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Employment Agreement between CPI and Hans C. Mautner

CPI and Hans C. Mautner will enter into an employment agreement prior to the Effective Time, which shall become effective as of the Effective Time and shall be assumed by Simon Group (the "Mautner Agreement"). The Mautner Agreement will have a term of five years following the Effective Time.

Under the Mautner Agreement, Mautner will receive an annual base salary of $762,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual bonus in an amount up to 135% of his annual base salary. The severance provisions in the Mautner Agreement provide that, in the event Mautner is terminated by Simon Group other than for "Cause", death or disability, or by Mautner for "Good Reason" (as such terms are defined therein), Simon Group will pay Mautner an amount equal to the product of three times the sum of (i) Mautner's then annual base salary and (ii) his then annual bonus and will contribute an amount to the CPI Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan, as amended and restated effective as of August 1, 1997 (the "SERP") equal to 33% of the sum of his annual base salary and bonus, as well as continue to provide certain employee benefits. In addition, all then outstanding unvested options granted to Mautner under the CPI Option Plan, or any other option plan, shall become immediately vested and exercisable and remain exercisable for their original term.

Simon Group will grant Mautner an option to acquire 237,500 shares of Simon Group Common Stock as of the Effective Time with an option price equal to the fair market value of SDG Common Stock on the date of grant. The stock option agreements provide that the stock options vest in equal installments on each of the first, second and third anniversaries of the date of grant. All outstanding options become immediately vested and exercisable in the event of Mautner's death, disability, discharge without "Cause," voluntary termination for "Good Reason" (as such terms are defined therein) or retirement from Simon Group after attaining age 62.

In addition, at or within one year of the Effective Time, Simon Group will grant Mautner an option to acquire 62,500 shares of Simon Group Common Stock with an option price equal to the fair market value of such stock on the date of grant. Such option shall vest in installments within three years of the date of grant.

The Mautner Agreement contains a golden parachute excise tax gross-up provision, under which Mautner will be entitled to be made whole on excise taxes imposed under Section 4999 of the Code.

As of the Effective Time, the Mautner Agreement will supersede the Executive Agreement between Mautner and CPI. See "-- Other Employment Agreements."

Employment Agreement between CPI and Mark Ticotin

CPI and Mark S. Ticotin will enter into an employment agreement prior to the Effective Time, which shall become effective as of the Effective Time and shall be assumed by Simon Group (the "Ticotin Agreement"). The Ticotin Agreement will have a term of five years following the Effective Time and provides for automatic one-year extensions of the term each December 31 unless either party gives the other party notice that the term will not be extended.

Under the Ticotin Agreement, Ticotin will receive an annual base salary of $500,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual bonus in an amount not less than 100% of his base salary.

The severance provisions in the Ticotin Agreement provide that, in the event Ticotin is terminated by Simon Group other than for "Cause", death or disability, or by the Executive for "Good Reason" (as such terms are defined therein), Simon Group will pay Ticotin an amount equal to the product of three times the sum of (i) Ticotin's then annual base salary and (ii) his then annual bonus, and will contribute an amount to the SERP equal to 33% of the sum of his annual base salary and bonus as well as continue to provide certain employee benefits. In addition, all then outstanding unvested options granted to Ticotin shall become immediately vested and exercisable and remain exercisable for their original term.

Simon Group will grant Ticotin an option to acquire 142,500 shares of Simon Group Common Stock as of the Effective Time with an option price equal to the fair market value of SDG Common Stock on the date of grant. The stock option agreements provide that the stock options vest in equal installments on each of the first, second and third anniversaries of the date of grant. All outstanding options will become immediately vested and exercisable in the event of Ticotin's death, disability, discharge without "Cause," voluntary termination for "Good Reason" (as such terms are defined therein) or retirement from Simon Group after attaining age 62.

In addition, at or within one year of the Effective Time, Simon Group will grant Ticotin an option to acquire 37,500 shares of Simon Group Common Stock with an option price equal to the fair market value of such stock on the date of grant. Such option shall vest in installments within three years of the date of grant.

The Ticotin Agreement contains a golden parachute excise tax gross-up provision, under which Ticotin will be entitled to be made whole on excise taxes imposed under Section 4999 of the Code.

As of the Effective Time, the Ticotin Agreement will supersede the Executive Agreement between Ticotin and CPI. See "-- Other Employment Agreements."

Other Employment Agreements

CPI entered into an identical executive agreement (the "Executive Agreement") effective August 7, 1997 with each of the following individuals: G. Martin Fell, Michael L. Johnson, J. Michael Maloney, Hans C. Mautner, Harold E. Rolfe and Mark S. Ticotin (each, an "Executive"). The Executive Agreement provides for the terms and conditions of the Executive's employment following a "Change in Control" (as defined therein). The Merger will constitute a Change in Control.

In the event the Executive is terminated by CPI other than for "Cause", death or "Incapacity", or by the Executive for "Good Reason" (as such terms are defined in the Executive Agreement) following a Change in Control, CPI will pay the Executive, in a lump sum, the aggregate of (i) any accrued but unpaid annual base salary, a pro-rata portion of the Executive's annual bonus (the "Pro-Rata Bonus"), accrued vacation pay to the extent not paid, and (ii) an amount equal to the product of three times the sum of (A) Executive's current annual base salary and (B) Executive's then annual bonus (not less than the highest annual bonus paid with respect to the three years prior to a Change in Control). In addition, CPI will continue to provide certain employee benefits for three years post-termination of employment (including an immediate lump sum contribution to the SERP equal to 11% of the amount determined in the preceding sentence (other than accrued vacation pay)), and all outstanding unvested options granted to the Executive under the CPI Option Plan, or any other option plan, shall become immediately vested and exercisable and remain exercisable for their original term.

The Executive Agreements contain a golden parachute excise tax gross-up provision, under which the Executives will be entitled to be made whole on excise taxes imposed under Section 4999 of the Code.

It is anticipated that each Executive, other than Messrs. Mautner and Ticotin, will terminate employment at or prior to the Effective Time under circumstances that will entitle them to the amounts payable upon termination under their respective Executive Agreements.

CPI SEVERANCE PLANS

CPI Executive Severance Policy

The CPI Executive Severance Policy (the "Executive Policy") applies to two tiers of employees: (a) officers with the title of Chairman, President, Senior Vice President, Vice President or Treasurer (each, a "Class 1 Employee") and (b) employees who are not Class 1 Employees and who hold the title of Assistant Controller, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, Chief Information Officer, Director of Development, Executive Director of Leasing, Regional Marketing Manager or Regional Property Manager (each, a "Class 2 Employee").

A Class 1 Employee who has had a "Termination" (as defined in the Executive Policy) will receive a cash severance payment as soon as practicable following such Termination equal to three times such Employee's "Annual Compensation" (defined in the Executive Policy as current salary plus largest bonus in last three years). A Class 2 Employee who has had a Termination will receive a cash severance payment as soon as practicable following such Termination equal to two times such employee's Annual Compensation; provided, however, that if such employee has less than three years of "Service" (as defined in the Executive Policy), such employee shall instead receive a cash payment equal to such employee's Annual Compensation.

Employees eligible for severance benefits under the Executive Policy and an individual written contract with CPI will not be entitled to benefits under the Executive Policy unless the individual contract expressly states otherwise.

CPI may amend or terminate the Executive Policy with respect to any person who was not an employee prior to the date of such amendment or termination. As to any other employee, no amendment or termination that is adverse to the interests of the employee will be effective until February 18, 2001.

CPI Staff Severance Policy

The CPI Staff Severance Policy (the "Staff Policy") was established in order to provide severance benefits to certain employees not covered under the Executive Policy in the event of their "Termination" (as defined in the Staff Policy). The Staff Policy applies to any employee who is not entitled to benefits under the Executive Policy and (a) whose principal workplace is the New York City headquarters, a regional leasing office or construction office of CPI, or (b) whose title is Building Manager, Mall Manager, General Manager or Marketing Director or Secretary ("Eligible Employees").

An Eligible Employee with respect to whom a "Termination" has occurred shall receive a cash severance payment equal to the product of (a) such Eligible Employee's "Annual Compensation" (defined in the Staff Policy as current salary and largest bonus in last three years) times (b) a fraction, the numerator of which is the lesser of such Eligible Employee's "Service" (as defined in the Staff Policy) and 24, and the denominator of which is 12.

Employees eligible for severance benefits under the Staff Policy and an individual written contract with CPI will not be entitled to benefits under the Staff Policy unless the individual contract expressly states otherwise.

CPI may amend or terminate the Staff Policy with respect to any person who was not an employee prior to the date of such amendment or termination. As to any other employee, no amendment or termination that is adverse to the interests of the employee will be effective until February 18, 2001.

CPI AND SIMON GROUP BENEFIT PLANS

After the Effective Time, Simon Group expects to freeze certain of the CPI benefit plans described below and pay all benefits then accrued thereunder in accordance with the terms thereof. All further benefits to be provided to CPI's employees will be provided under comparable SDG benefit plans, descriptions of which also are set forth below.

SDG Employee Plan

General. Under the SDG Operating Partnership's Employee Stock Plan (the "Employee Plan") a maximum of 4,595,000 shares of SDG Common Stock (subject to adjustment) are available for issuance to eligible officers and key employees. The Employee Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "SDG Compensation Committee") which consists of persons not eligible to participate in the Employee Plan. During the ten-year period following the adoption of the Employee Plan, the SDG Compensation Committee may, subject to the terms of the Employee Plan, grant to key employees (including officers and directors who are employees) of the SDG Operating Partnership or its "affiliates" (as defined in the Employee Plan) the following types of awards: incentive stock options ("ISOs") within the meaning of section 422 of the Code, "nonqualified stock options" ("NQSOs"), stock appreciation rights ("SARs"), performance units and shares of restricted or unrestricted SDG Common Stock.

Any stock option granted under the Employee Plan may be exercised over a period determined by the SDG Compensation Committee in its discretion. The exercise price of an option (the "Option Price") may not be less than the fair market value of the shares of the SDG Common Stock on the date of grant. The SDG Compensation Committee may, in its discretion, with the grantee's consent, amend, cancel, substitute, accelerate the exercisability of or extend the scheduled expiration date of any award, provided however, that no award may be exercisable more than ten years after the date of grant. The Board of Directors of SDG in its capacity as a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership may amend, suspend or discontinue the Employee Plan at any time. Certain specified amendments must be approved by stockholders.

Option Grants. No options were granted under the Employee Plan during 1997. All options granted to date under the Employee Plan are exercisable at the fair market value of the SDG Common Stock on the date of grant, have a ten-year term, generally vest 40% on the first anniversary of the grant date and an additional 30% on the second anniversary of the grant date, and generally become 100% vested three years after the grant date.

Stock Incentive Program. Under SDG's five-year stock-based incentive program (the "Stock Incentive Program"), an aggregate of 1,000,000 restricted shares of SDG Common Stock were allocated in March 1995 under the Employee Plan to a total of 50 executive officers and key employees. A percentage of the total number of shares allocated, ranging from 15% to 25%, may be earned in each of the five years of the program only if SDG attains annual and cumulative targets for growth in Funds From Operations. The determination of whether SDG has achieved its targets for a particular year is made in March of the following year (the "Determination Date") and, to the extent the targets have been achieved, a portion of the allocation of shares of restricted stock is deemed to be earned and is awarded as of the Determination Date. Although the participant is entitled to vote all earned shares and receive distributions paid thereon as of the Determination Date, earned shares vest in four installments of 25% each on January 1, of each year following the year in which the Determination Date occurs. The participant must be employed by SDG on the day prior to the vesting date to receive such shares, otherwise the earned shares are forfeited.

1998 Stock Incentive Plan. At the SDG Annual Meeting, SDG stockholders are being asked to approve the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. If the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is approved, after the Effective Time, no further awards will be made under the SDG Employee Plan; however, key employees of the SDG Operating Partnership and its affiliates will be eligible to receive similar awards under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. See "APPROVAL OF 1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN."

SDG Incentive Bonus Plan

The Incentive Bonus Plan (the "Bonus Plan") is intended to provide senior executives and key employees with opportunities to earn incentives based upon the performance of SDG, the participant's business unit and the individual participant. At the beginning of a year, the Committee specifies the maximum incentive pool available for distributions and approves performance measures for each participant and three levels of performance that must be attained in order to trigger the award of the bonuses. Each participant's bonus award for the year is expressed as a percentage of base salary, a fixed dollar amount, or a percentage of the available incentive pool. Bonus amounts for each year are determined in the following February with disbursement in March.

SDG Deferred Compensation Plan

The SDG Operating Partnership has a non-qualified deferred compensation plan (the "Deferred Compensation Plan") that provides deferred compensation to certain executives and key employees. Under the Deferred Compensation Plan, a participant may defer all or a part of his compensation. SDG, at its discretion, may contribute a matching amount equal to a rate selected by SDG, and an additional incentive contribution amount on such terms as SDG may specify. All participant deferrals and SDG matching and incentive contributions are credited to a participant's account and remain general assets of SDG. A participant's elective deferrals are fully vested. Except in the case of death or disability of the participant or insolvency or a change in control of SDG, a participant becomes vested in SDG matching and incentive contributions 20% after one year of service and an additional 20% for each year thereafter. Upon death or disability of the participant or insolvency or a change in control of SDG, a participant becomes 100% vested in his account.

All contributions under the Deferred Compensation Plan are deposited in what is commonly referred to as a "rabbi trust" arrangement pursuant to which the assets of the trust are subject to the claims of SDG's general creditors in the event of SDG's insolvency. The trust assets are invested by the trustee in its sole discretion. Payments of a participant's elective deferrals and vested matching contributions are made as elected by the participant. These amounts would be paid earlier in the event of termination of employment or death of the participant, an unforeseen emergency affecting the participant or a change in control of SDG.

SDG Retirement Plans

The SDG Operating Partnership and certain related entities maintain a tax-qualified retirement savings plan for eligible employees which contains a cash or deferred arrangement described in section 401(k) of the Code. Under the plan eligible employees may defer up to a maximum of 12% of their compensation (as defined in the plan), subject to certain limits imposed by the Code. Participants' salary deferrals are matched by participating employers in an amount equal to 100% of the first 2% of such deferrals and 50% of the next 4% of such deferrals. In addition, participating employers contribute annually 3% of eligible employees' compensation (as defined in the plan). Amounts deferred by employees are immediately vested; amounts contributed by participating employers become vested 30% after the completion of three years of service, 40% after the completion of four years of service and an additional 20% after the completion of each additional year of service until 100% vested after the completion of seven years of service.

CPI 1993 Share Option Plan

CPI maintains the 1993 Share Option Plan of CPI (the "CPI Option Plan") to provide for the grant of share options to directors, officers and salaried employees of CPI. The general purpose of the CPI Option Plan is to promote the interests of CPI by providing to directors and employees additional incentives to continue and increase their efforts with respect to, and in the case of employees, to remain in the employ of, CPI.

Under the CPI Option Plan 1,000,000 Series A Common Shares of beneficial interest in CPI (and related interests in CRC) are reserved for issuance to employees and directors upon exercise of options. The option prices are to be equal to the "Fair Market Value" (as defined in the CPI Option Plan) of the optioned shares at the date of grant. The term of each option is to be for such period as the Compensation Committee of the CPI Board (the "CPI Compensation Committee") will determine, but not more than ten years. The CPI Option Plan will terminate on, and no option will be granted after, December 1, 1998.

The CPI Option Plan is administered by the CPI Compensation Committee. Unless the CPI Compensation Committee otherwise determines, any option granted under the CPI Option Plan will become exercisable in equal installments on each of the first three or four anniversaries of the date of grant, such annual installments to be cumulative. All options granted pursuant to the CPI Option Plan are fully vested.

The CPI Option Plan provides that options may be exercised through use of a full recourse note.

CPI Employee Share Purchase Plan

The Employee Share Purchase Plan (the "ESPP") provides for the issuance of rights to purchase Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest of CPI (and related interests in CRC) at "Fair Market Value" (as defined in the ESPP). The consideration for each unit purchased is a combination of all or some of cash, or a recourse note receivable from the employee and a "Permanent Restriction" (as defined in the ESPP) payable to CPI upon transfer of the unit. All rights to purchase CPI Common Stock under the ESPP are now fully vested. Upon a transfer of CPI Common Stock, the transferor shall either pay CPI the amount of the permanent restriction or cause the transferee to pay such amount or obtain a comparable undertaking by the transferee upon any subsequent transfer.

CPI Employee 401(k) Savings Plan

The primary purpose of the CPI Employee 401(k) Savings Plan (the "401(k) Plan"), as amended and restated effective January 1, 1998, is to provide full-time employees with retirement benefits in recognition of the contribution of the employees to the successful operation of CPI. The 401(k) Plan is intended to be a profit-sharing plan, qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code which permits salary deferral contributions as provided by Section 401(k) of the Code and may provide discretionary matching contributions. Its affiliated trust (the "Trust") is intended to be exempt from tax under Section 501(a) of the Code. The 401(k) Plan is a prototype plan sponsored by Merrill Lynch.

CPI has overall responsibility for the termination, administration, and operation of the 401(k) Plan. CPI may at any time terminate the 401(k) Plan and Trust in accordance with the express provisions of the 401(k) Plan. CPI may at any time amend any options in the adoption agreement under the 401(k) Plan and may amend the prototype plan although, except for limited amendments, such an amendment would convert the plan to an individually designed plan.

CPI Amended and Restated Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

The SERP is intended to provide selected executives with benefits that are supplemental to those provided under CPI's Simplified Employee Pension Plan (the "SEPP"). The SERP is intended to be a "top-hat" plan as described in ERISA.

CPI determines whether or not a contribution will be made under the SERP for each calendar year. If a contribution is to be made, CPI will contribute, on behalf of each participant, an amount equal to:

(x) 7 1/2% of the participant's "Compensation" (as defined in the SERP) for such calendar year, up to the taxable wage base determined under Section 230 of the Social Security Act with respect to determining taxes under Section 3101(a) of the Code for such year (the "Taxable Wage Base"), plus 11% of Compensation for such year in excess of such Taxable Wage Base; reduced by

(y) the amount contributed on behalf of the participant under the SEPP for such year, and in the case of a participant who deferred compensation under the Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of CPI (the "DRP") for such year, any contribution to the DRP by CPI equivalent to amounts that would have been contributed under the SEPP on behalf of the participant for such year if such compensation had not been so deferred.

A participant entitled to a contribution under the SERP may elect that such contribution will be paid to him or her in cash on the contribution date so long as the participant furnishes proof satisfactory to the CPI Compensation Committee that such amounts (after being reduced by taxes) will be used to purchase an annuity, life insurance policy or similar investment vehicle approved by the CPI Compensation Committee. A participant's benefit under the SERP is fully vested and nonforfeitable at all times. All amounts owed under the SERP are or will be funded through a rabbi trust. The SERP is administered by the CPI Compensation Committee, and may not be amended without the consent of an affected participant, including with respect to the right to investment options.

CPI Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan

The Trustees' and Executives' Deferred Remuneration Plan of CPI, as amended and restated effective August 1, 1997 (the "DRP"), allows a Trustee and each employee of CPI whose annual remuneration rate is $100,000 (or such other amount determined by the CPI Compensation Committee to comply with regulations issued by the Department of Labor for "top-hat" plans) or more to elect to have a percentage of remuneration to be earned by him during each Fiscal Year or portion thereof deferred in accordance with the terms and conditions of the DRP.

In addition to elected deferrals, on December 31 of each calendar year (or such later date as is elected by the CPI Compensation Committee), the following amount will be credited to each participant's account(s) under the DRP:

(a) the amount that would have been contributed for such calendar year on such participant's behalf under the SEPP had such participant's compensation, as determined for purposes of the SEPP, included amounts deferred pursuant to the DRP; reduced by

(b) the amount actually contributed for such calendar year on such participant's behalf under the SEPP.

The DRP is unfunded (although CPI has periodically delineated specific assets to finance liabilities under the DRP) and is intended to be a "top-hat" plan as described in ERISA. The DRP is administered by the Committee, and may not be amended without the consent of an affected participant, including with respect to investment options.

CPI Simplified Employee Pension Plan

CPI's Simplified Employee Pension Plan, as amended and restated effective January 1, 1993 (the "SEPP"), is intended to provide simplified employee pensions to eligible employees in accordance with Section 408(k) of the Code. For each plan year, CPI determines whether a contribution will be made under the SEPP for that year. If a contribution is to be made, then the following will be contributed on behalf of each participant: (a) 7-1/2% of a participant's "Compensation" (as defined in the SEPP) for such plan year up to the Taxable Wage Base, plus (b) 11% of his Compensation for such plan year in excess of such Taxable Wage Base but subject to limitations on Compensation under the Code (currently $160,000 per annum). The contribution will be either paid directly to a participant's individual retirement account that meets the requirements of Section 408(a) of the Code ("IRA") or delivered to the participant by check made payable to the trustee of the participant's IRA. All contributions made on behalf of a participant are fully vested and nonforfeitable at all times.

CPI has reserved the right to terminate the SEPP at any time. In the event of a dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of CPI, the SEPP will terminate unless it is continued by a successor to CPI in accordance with the terms of the SEPP.

CRC has no employees, and accordingly, no employee benefit plans.

FEDERAL SECURITIES LAW CONSEQUENCES

All Simon Group Equity Stock newly-issued in connection with the Merger will be freely transferable, except that any Simon Group Equity Stock received by persons who are deemed to be "affiliates" (as such term is defined under the Securities Act) of SDG prior to the Merger may be sold by them only in transactions permitted by the resale provisions of Rule 145 under the Securities Act ("Rule 145") with respect to affiliates of SDG, or Rule 144 under the Securities Act ("Rule 144") with respect to persons who become affiliates of Simon Group, or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of SDG or Simon Group generally include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by or are under common control with, such person and generally include the executive officers and directors of such person as well as principal stockholders of such person.

In general, Rule 145 provides that for one year following the Effective Time an affiliate (together with certain related persons) of the acquired entity would be entitled to sell Simon Group Equity Stock acquired in connection with the Merger only through unsolicited "broker transactions" or in transactions directly with a "market maker," as such terms are defined in Rule 144. Additionally, the number of shares to be sold by an affiliate (together with certain related persons and certain persons acting in concert) within any three-month period for purposes of Rule 145 may not exceed the greater of 1% of the outstanding class of Simon Group Equity Stock or the average weekly trading volume of such shares during the four calendar weeks preceding such sale. Rule 145 will remain available to affiliates if Simon Group remains current with its informational filings with the Commission under the Exchange Act. One year after the Effective Time, an affiliate will be able to sell such Simon Group Equity Stock without being subject to such manner of sale or volume limitations provided that Simon Group is current with its Exchange Act informational filings and such person is not then an affiliate of Simon Group. 3,781,493 shares of Simon Group Equity Stock will be subject to Rule 145 immediately following the Merger. Two years after the Effective Time, an affiliate will be able to sell such Simon Group Equity Stock without any restrictions so long as such person had not been an affiliate of Simon Group for at least three months prior to the date of such sale. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Accounting Treatment."

The 52,732,845 shares of Simon Group Common Stock, 209,249 shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock which will be retained by the stockholders of CPI and 4,812,777 shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock which will be held by the stockholders of CPI immediately after the Merger (assuming no options are exercised prior to the Merger) will be "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144. As discussed below, 22,635,977 shares of Simon Group Common Stock, 55,799 shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and 2,065,921 shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock will be immediately tradeable after the consummation of the Merger pursuant to Rule 144(k). The remaining 30,096,868 shares of Simon Group Common Stock, 153,450 shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and 2,746,856 shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock retained by stockholders of CPI after the Merger, which includes shares held by persons who will be affiliates of Simon Group at the Effective Time, will be subject to Rule 144 immediately following the Merger. Similar to the resale restrictions discussed above under Rule 145, under Rule 144 as currently in effect, a person (or persons whose shares are aggregated), including an affiliate of Simon Group, who has beneficially owned shares for at least one year generally is entitled to sell, within any three-month period a number of shares that may not exceed the greater of 1% of the outstanding shares of such class or the average weekly trading volume of such shares during the four calendar weeks preceding such sale, subject to the filing of a Form 144 with respect to such sale and certain other limitations and restrictions. A person who is not deemed to have been an affiliate of Simon Group at any time during the three month period preceding a sale and who has beneficially owned the shares proposed to be sold for at least two years will be entitled to sell such shares under Rule 144(k) without regard to the requirements described above. Pursuant to certain agreements, certain of such holders have certain rights to cause Simon Group to register such shares of Simon Group Common Stock under the Securities Act. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger -- The Operating Partnerships After the Merger; Simon Group Contribution Agreement" and "-- New Registration Rights Agreements." All share numbers provided in this section entitled "FEDERAL SECURITIES LAWS CONSEQUENCES" assume no options to purchase shares of CPI Common Stock are exercised prior to the Merger.

PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA

SIMON GROUP PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The accompanying financial statements prepared by SDG present the pro forma combined condensed Balance Sheets of SDG, CPI and CRC, hereafter referred to as Simon Group, as of March 31, 1998 and the pro forma combined condensed Statements of Operations of Simon Group for the three months ended March 31, 1998 and for the year ended December 31, 1997. SDG's management has also included a pro forma combined condensed Balance Sheet of Simon Group as of December 31, 1997 which is in addition to the requirements of Rule 11 of Regulation S-X promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The pro forma combined condensed Balance Sheet as of December 31, 1997 and the related pro forma Statement of Operations have been examined by Arthur Andersen LLP, for which their report can be found elsewhere in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. An examination may only be performed when the historical financial information from which the pro forma financial information is derived has been audited. The most recent audited period is the period ended December 31, 1997. In light of the fact that in connection with the Merger and related transactions, CPI and CRC, previously private companies not subject to public disclosure requirements or reporting obligations, become the new public registrants, and the fact that the Merger of CPI and SDG is accounted for as a reverse merger and the assets and liabilities of CRC are reflected at historical cost, management believes that examined pro forma financial information enhances the reliability of pro forma data made available to assist stockholders in understanding and evaluating the effects of the Merger.

The pro forma combined condensed Balance Sheet as of March 31, 1998 is presented as if (i) the CPI Merger Dividends and the Merger of SDG, CPI and CRC and cash contributed by the SDG Operating Partnership to CRC and CRC's newly formed operating partnership on behalf of the SDG stockholders and limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership, (ii) the sale by CPI of the General Motors Building had occurred as of March 31, 1998. The pro forma combined condensed Balance Sheet as of December 31, 1997 is presented by SDG as if (i) the CPI Merger Dividends, the Merger of SDG, CPI and CRC and cash contributed by the SDG Operating Partnership to CRC and CRC's newly formed operating partnership on behalf of the SDG stockholders and limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership, (ii) the January 1998 acquisition by CPI of Phipps Plaza, (iii) the January 1998 sale by CPI of Burnsville Mall, (iv) the January 1998 acquisition by SDG of Cordova Mall, (v) the February 1998 acquisition by SDG of a 50% interest in a portfolio of twelve regional malls and (vi) the sale by CPI of the General Motors Building had occurred on December 31, 1997. The pro forma combined condensed Statement of Operations for the year ended December 31, 1997 is presented by SDG as if (i) the Merger of SDG, CPI and CRC and cash contributed by the SDG Operating Partnership to CRC and CRC's newly formed operating partnership on behalf of the SDG stockholders and limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership, (ii) the September and November 1997 transactions by SDG to acquire ten portfolio properties and a 50% ownership interest in an eleventh property of RPT, (iii) the December 1997 acquisition by SDG of the Fashion Mall at Keystone at the Crossing, (iv) the January 1998 acquisition by CPI of Phipps Plaza, (v) the January 1998 sale by CPI of Burnsville Mall, (vi) the January 1998 acquisition by SDG of Cordova Mall, (vii) the February 1998 acquisition by SDG of a 50% interest in a portfolio of twelve regional malls and (viii) the sale by CPI of the General Motors Building had occurred as of January 1, 1997 (collectively, the "Other Property Transactions").

Preparation by SDG of the pro forma financial information was based on assumptions deemed appropriate by the management of SDG. These assumptions give effect to the Merger being accounted for as a reverse purchase in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and the cash contributed to CRC and the CRC Operating Partnership as stock and partnership units for cash transactions. CRC assets and liabilities will continue to be reflected at historical costs as the SDG stockholders' beneficial interest in CRC will be less than 80% and the combined entity qualifying as a REIT, distributing all of its taxable income and, therefore, incurring no Federal income tax expense during the periods presented. The pro forma financial information is not necessarily indicative of the results which actually would have occurred if the transactions had been consummated at the beginning of the period presented, nor does it purport to represent the future financial position and results of operations for future periods. The pro forma information should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements of SDG incorporated by reference into this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and of CPI and CRC included elsewhere in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Management of
Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc.:

We have examined the pro forma adjustments reflecting the Merger and Other Property Transactions described in Note 1 and the application of those adjustments to the historical amounts in the accompanying pro forma combined condensed balance sheet of Simon Property Group, Inc. as of December 31, 1997, and the pro forma combined condensed statement of operations for the year then ended. The historical condensed financial statements are derived from the historical financial statements of Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., which were audited by us and are incorporated by reference herein, and of Corporate Property Investors, Inc. and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., which were audited by Ernst & Young LLP, and appear elsewhere herein. Such pro forma adjustments are based upon Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. management's assumptions described in the notes to the pro forma financial statements. Our examination was made in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included such procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The objective of this pro forma financial information is to show what the significant effects on the historical information might have been had the transactions occurred at an earlier date. However, the pro forma combined condensed financial statements are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations or related effects on financial position that would have been attained had the Merger and Other Property Transactions actually occurred earlier.

In our opinion, Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. management's assumptions provide a reasonable basis for presenting the significant effects directly attributable to the Merger and Other Property Transactions described in Note 1, the related pro forma adjustments give appropriate effect to those assumptions, and the pro forma columns reflect the proper application of those adjustments to the historical financial statement amounts in the pro forma combined condensed balance sheet as of December 31, 1997, and the pro forma combined condensed statement of operations for the year then ended.

SIMON GROUP -- NOTES AND SDG MANAGEMENT'S ASSUMPTIONS TO PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION (IN THOUSANDS, EXCEPT SHARE AND PER SHARE AMOUNTS, MARCH 31, 1998 INFORMATION UNAUDITED)

1. Basis of Presentation

SDG is a self-administered and self-managed REIT which through its subsidiaries is engaged primarily in the ownership, development, management, leasing, acquisition and expansion of income-producing properties, primarily regional malls and community shopping centers. At March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, it owned or had an interest in 217 and 202 properties, respectively. SDG, CPI and CRC entered into the Merger Agreement, which provides for the Merger of a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of CPI with and into SDG. Legally, SDG will become a majority-owned subsidiary of CPI. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the outstanding shares of SDG Common Stock will be exchanged for like shares of CPI. Beneficial interests in CRC will be acquired for cash. CPI's name will be changed to Simon Group. Immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger, the holders of CPI Common Stock will receive a dividend per share consisting of $90 in cash, 1.0818 shares of CPI Common Stock and 0.19 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock of CPI. The aggregate purchase price is estimated by SDG to be approximately $5.9 billion. See "THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS."

CPI is a self-administered and self-managed privately held REIT which invests in income-producing properties. At March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, CPI owned or held interests in 30 properties, 23 shopping centers and seven commercial properties. CRC is engaged in the ownership, operation, acquisition and development of income producing properties directly or through interests in joint ventures and other non-REIT qualifying activities.

Simon Group will account for the Merger between SDG and the CPI merger subsidiary as a reverse acquisition in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 16. Although Simon Group Equity Stock will be issued to SDG stockholders and SDG will become a substantially wholly owned subsidiary of Simon Group following the Merger, CPI is considered the business acquired for accounting purposes. SDG is the acquiring company because the SDG stockholders will represent in excess of a majority of the stockholders of Simon Group. The fair market value of the consideration given by the acquiring company will be used as the valuation basis for the combination of SDG and CPI. The assets and liabilities of CPI will be revalued by SDG to their respective fair market values at the Effective Time.

The SDG Operating Partnership will contribute cash to CRC and the newly formed SRC Operating Partnership on behalf of the SDG stockholders and the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership to obtain the beneficial interests in CRC which will be paired with the shares to be issued by Simon Group and to obtain units in the SRC Operating Partnership so that the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership will hold the same proportionate interest in the SRC Operating Partnership as they hold in the SDG Operating Partnership at the Effective Time of the Merger. The cash contributed to CRC and the CRC Operating Partnership represent stock and partnership units for cash transactions. The assets and liabilities of CRC will not be adjusted to fair market value but will be reflected at historical cost because the SDG stockholders' beneficial interest in CRC will be less than 80%.

Following the Merger and related transactions, the separate consolidated financial statements will be filed pursuant to the Exchange Act for each of Simon Group (formerly CPI) and SPG Realty Consultants, Inc. (formerly CRC) as required under Rule 3-01 and Rule 3-02 of Regulation S-X of the Securities Act. Management plans to submit the separate financial statements of Simon Group and SRC Realty Consultants, Inc. in a joint filing and may also include combined financial statements of Simon Group and SRC Realty Consultants, Inc. in those filings. Since SDG is the predecessor to Simon Group, the historical financial statements of Simon Group will be the historical financial statements of SDG.

Upon completion of the Merger and related transactions, the common stockholders of Simon Group will own a share of common stock of Simon Group and a beneficial interest in CRC. The shareholders' beneficial interests in CRC are in direct proportion to their ownership of Simon Group. The beneficial interest in CRC will be stapled to a share of Simon Group. Accordingly, a share of Simon Group cannot be transferred without a corresponding transfer of the beneficial interest in CRC. Simon Group and CRC will operate as a paired-share REIT structure for income tax purposes.

In addition to the CPI Merger Dividends and the Merger, the following transactions (the "Other Property Transactions") have been reflected in the accompanying unaudited pro forma financial statements using the purchase method of accounting. Investments in non-controlled joint ventures are reflected using the equity method. Controlled properties have been consolidated.

- On September 29, 1997, SDG completed its cash tender offer for all of the outstanding shares of beneficial interests of The Retail Property Trust ("RPT"). RPT owned 98.8% of Shopping Center Associates ("SCA"), which owned or had interests in twelve regional malls and one community shopping center. Following the completion of the tender offer, the SCA portfolio was restructured. SDG exchanged its 50% interest in two SCA properties with a third party for similar interests in two other SCA properties, in which SDG had 50% interests, with the result that SCA now owns interests in a total of eleven properties. Effective November 30, 1997, SDG also acquired the remaining 50% interest in another of the SCA properties. In addition, SDG acquired the remaining 1.2% interest in SCA. At the completion of these transactions, SDG held a 100% interest in ten of the eleven properties, and a noncontrolling 50% ownership interest in the remaining property. The total cost for the acquisition of RPT and related transactions was approximately $1,300,000, which includes SDG common stock issued valued at approximately $50,000, units of the SDG Operating Partnership valued at approximately $25,300, and the assumption of consolidated debt and SDG's pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness of approximately $475,300. The balance of the transaction costs was borrowed under SDG Operating Partnership's credit facility.

- On December 29, 1997, SDG completed the acquisition of the Fashion Mall at Keystone at the Crossing, a regional mall located in Indianapolis, Indiana, for $124,500. The purchase price was financed by additional borrowings under SDG's credit facility of approximately $59,700 and the assumption of approximately $64,800 in mortgage debt. The mortgage debt bears interest at 7.85%.

- In January 1998, CPI acquired Phipps Plaza, a super regional mall located in Atlanta, Georgia, for approximately $198,800. The transaction was financed with cash of $158,800 and debt of $40,000.

- In January 1998, CPI sold one of its shopping centers (Burnsville Mall) for $80,672 cash. The selling price exceeded Burnsville Mall's historical net assets of $37,581 at December 31, 1997, by $43,091. A portion ($40,000) of the proceeds received in the Burnsville transaction was used to repay the amount borrowed in connection with the acquisition of Phipps Plaza.

- In January 1998, SDG acquired Cordova Mall, a regional mall in Pensacola, Florida, for $94,000. This acquisition was financed by issuing units of the SDG Operating Partnership valued at $55,523, the assumption of mortgage debt of $28,935 and other liabilities of $6,842 and cash of $2,700. The mortgage debt, which bore interest at 12.125%, has been refinanced through the SDG Operating Partnership's credit facility.

- In February 1998, SDG, through a joint venture with another REIT, acquired an interest in a portfolio of twelve regional malls comprising approximately 10.7 million square feet of GLA. SDG's non-controlling 50% share of the total purchase price of $487,250 was financed with a $242,000 unsecured loan which bears interest at 6.4% per annum, accrued payables of $2,750 and the assumption of $242,500 of mortgage debt. The weighted average interest rate on the mortgage debt assumed was 6.94%.

- In May 1998, CPI entered into a contract to sell the General Motors Building for $800,000. The net proceeds of $798,000 will be used to pay off certain liabilities ($4,000) and the building's mortgage balance ($11,976 and $13,230 as of March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, respectively) with the remainder available to partially finance a portion of the CPI Merger Dividends.

Further, since the beneficial interests in CRC are stapled to the common stock of Simon Group and can only be transferred in tandem, the accompanying pro forma financial statements include the balance sheet and operating results of CRC on a combined basis. The accompanying pro forma combined condensed Balance Sheets were prepared by SDG as if the CPI Merger Dividends, the Merger and the Other Property Transactions described above which occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date had occurred as of March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997. The accompanying pro forma combined condensed Statements of Operations are presented by SDG as if the CPI Merger Dividends, the Merger and the Other Property Transactions previously described had occurred on January 1, 1997, and the combined entity qualified as a REIT, distributed all of its taxable income and, therefore, incurred no federal income tax for the period presented. Certain reclassifications have been made in CPI's and CRC's historical financial statements to conform them to SDG's historical presentation and certain reclassifications have been made in each companies' historical financial statements to conform them to the condensed combined pro forma presentation.

These pro forma financial statements should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements and notes thereto of SDG, CPI and CRC. In the opinion of management of SDG, all adjustments necessary to reflect the effects of the Merger and related transactions and the Other Property Transactions previously described have been made. Certain adjustments have been estimated by SDG based on information currently available. Final adjustments are not expected by SDG to materially impact the pro forma results reported.

The pro forma financial statements are not necessarily indicative of the actual financial position at March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, or what the actual results of operations would have been assuming the Merger and the Other Property Transactions had been completed as of January 1, 1997, nor are they indicative of the results of operations for future periods.

2. Pro Forma Adjustments by SDG to Pro Forma Combined Condensed Balance Sheets

(A) Certain reclassifications have been made by SDG to the SDG, CPI and CRC historical balance sheets to conform to the pro forma combined condensed balance sheet presentation.

(B) Adjustments to reflect the sale of the General Motors Building for $800,000, and $2,000 of transaction costs, resulting in net proceeds of $798,000. The historical carrying value of the building and improvements was $585,000 at March 31, 1998 and $580,000 at December 31, 1997. A portion of the net proceeds of $798,000 will be used to pay off certain liabilities ($4,000) and the building's mortgage balance ($11,976 and $13,230 as of March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, respectively) yielding net cash of $782,024 and $780,077 as of March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, respectively.

(C) Determination of Combined Purchase Price of CPI:

As described in "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Terms of the Merger -- The Merger Consideration," the stockholders of CPI will receive consideration in the Merger aggregating approximately $179 for each share of CPI common stock. The $179 consideration includes a $90 cash dividend, approximately $70 of value of Simon Group common stock and approximately $19 of value of Simon Group 6.5% Series B Preferred Stock. The common stock component of the Merger consideration is based upon a fixed exchange ratio using SDG's February 18, 1998 closing price of $33 5/8 per share and is subject to a 15% symmetrical collar based upon the price of SDG's common stock determined on the fifth trading day prior to closing. In the event SDG's stock price is outside the collar, an adjustment will be made in the cash dividend component of CPI Merger Dividends which will be increased or reduced by an amount equal to 2.0818 times the amount the SDG stock price at the measurement date falls outside the collar. As of March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, there were 25,323,409 and 25,326,855 shares of CPI common stock outstanding, respectively. As of both March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, there were approximately 814,000 exercisable options. The following recap of the Merger consideration assumes the options are exercised, therefore, 26,137,409 and 26,140,855 shares are assumed to be outstanding as if the Merger occurred on March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, respectively. The Series A Convertible Preferred Stock will remain outstanding after the completion of the Merger. The Series A Convertible Preferred Stock was convertible into 1,505,000 shares of CPI common stock pre-Merger. In connection with the Merger, they have been valued by multiplying the per-share Merger consideration of $179 by the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion. At the Effective Time, the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock will be convertible into 7,950,492 shares of Simon Group Common Stock.

	AS OF MARCH 31, 1998	AS OF DECEMBER 31, 1997
Merger Consideration distributed to CPI stockholders (assuming outstanding shares of 26,137,409 and 26,140,855, respectively)

SDG preferred stockholders hold an interest in SDG not in the combined entity. As a result of the Merger, SDG becomes a subsidiary of the combined entity.

(F) Adjustment required to reflect $22,000 cash contributed by the SDG Operating Partnership on behalf of the SDG stockholders ($14,000) and the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership ($8,000) to obtain beneficial interests in CRC to be paired with shares of common stock issued by Simon Group and to obtain units in the CRC Operating Partnership whereby the limited partners of the SDG Operating Partnership will hold the same proportionate interest in the CRC Operating Partnership as they hold in the SDG Operating Partnership. The amount of cash is based on a preliminary estimate of the fair value of the net assets of CRC. At the Effective Time, the Board of Directors of CRC will make a determination of the fair market value of CRC's net assets based upon information then available. SDG management does not expect that the final amount will differ materially from the preliminary estimates.

Generally accepted accounting principles, as specified in Financial Accounting Standards Board Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") 94-2 ("Treatment of Minority Interests in Certain Real Estate investment Trusts") and 95-7 ("Implementation Issues Relating to the Treatment of Minority Interests in Certain Real Estate Investment Trusts"), provide for the allocation of the pro forma financial reporting amounts of Simon Group Stockholder's Equity and the respective interests of Simon Group and the limited partners in the Operating Partnerships based upon their respective ownership percentages. The above tables compute the financial reporting pro forma equity amounts and allocations thereof in accordance with GAAP resulting in, for financial reporting purposes, an increase in the limited partners' minority interests and a reduction in capital in excess of par value in the amount of $305,413 at March 31, 1998 and $279,640 as of December 31, 1997. That financial reporting allocation is not determinative of the future allocation of the Operating Partnerships' distributions or the number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock into which the SDG Units are convertible, both of which will be determined by the actual number of SDG Units held by Simon Group and the SDG Limited Partners.

(H) The following adjustments by SDG are necessary to reflect the Other Property Transactions:

5.Pro forma Adjustments by SDG to Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Statements of Operations

In connection with the Merger, CPI will incur $68,600 of expenses which have not been included in the Pro Forma Combined Condensed Statement of Operations. Further, the estimated gain of $213,000 and $218,000, respectively, related to the probable sale of the General Motors Building has been excluded from the unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Statement of Operations.

(F) Other Property Transactions represent the historical operating results of the properties for the appropriate period to reflect a full year of activities in the unaudited pro forma statements of operations. The pro forma adjustments by SDG give effect when applicable to:

(1) An increase in depreciation expense as a result of recording the properties at SDG's estimate of fair value

(2) An increase in interest expense primarily resulting from debt incurred to finance the transactions

(3) The elimination of expenses included in the historical results incurred by the seller directly related to the transaction

(4) The elimination of the historical results to reflect the sale of Burnsville Mall

The Other Property Transactions include:

(1) The acquisition of the RPT portfolio in September and November 1997

(2) The acquisition of Fashion Mall Keystone at the Crossing in December 1997

(3) The acquisition of Phipps Plaza in January 1998

(4) The sale of Burnsville Mall in January 1998

6. New Accounting Pronouncement

On May 21, 1998, the Emerging Issues Task Force reached a final consensus regarding Issue 98-9, "Accounting for Contingent Rent in Interim Financial Periods." The final consensus requires that the lessor should defer recognition of contingent rental income (overage rent) until the specified targets are met. This consensus is not expected to have a material impact on Simon Group's annual results.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF PRO FORMA FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

PRO FORMA RESULTS OF OPERATIONS FOR SIMON GROUP (DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS EXCEPT PER SHARE AMOUNTS)

Pro forma results of operations are not necessarily indicative of what Simon Group's, including CRC, results of operations would have been had the Merger and Other Property Transactions been consummated on the dates indicated, nor do they purport to project future results of operations. The pro forma financial information is based on assumptions deemed appropriate by the management of SDG. The following discussion and analysis of pro forma financial condition and results of operations has been prepared by management of SDG and reflects such pro forma financial information.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the information set forth under PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA and SDG's, CPI's and CRC's historical financial statements and notes thereto incorporated by reference or included elsewhere herein. Certain statements made in this section may constitute "forward-looking statements." Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of Simon Group to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, among others, the following: general economic and business conditions, which will, without limitation, affect demand for retail space or retail goods, availability and creditworthiness of prospective tenants, lease rents and availability of financing; adverse changes in the real estate markets including, without limitation, competition with other companies; risks of real estate development and acquisition; risks relating to Year 2000 issues; governmental actions and initiatives; and environmental/safety requirements.

PRO FORMA FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 1998

On a pro forma basis for the three months ended March 31, 1998 revenues for Simon Group were $406,080. Total revenues include minimum rent, overage rent, tenant reimbursements and other income of $251,305, $12,749, $123,255, and $18,771, respectively.

Pro forma operating expenses for the quarter ended March 31, 1998 of $238,275 includes depreciation and amortization of $89,236.

Pro forma operating income and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (EBITDA) totaled $167,805 and $257,041 for the quarter March 31, 1998, respectively. Simon Group's consolidated pro forma operating margin (before depreciation and amortization) for the period was 63.3%.

Pro forma interest expense of $133,324 includes interest costs of $24,359 incurred to finance the CPI Merger Dividends.

Income of the SDG Operating Partnership of $89,662 includes a non-recurring gain on the sale of real estate of Burnsville Mall of $44,311. Income of the SDG Operating Partnership was allocated to Simon Group based on Simon Group's preferred unit preference and ownership interest in the Operating Partnerships during the period.

Pro forma preferred dividends of $18,832 include $8,070 of dividends associated with the issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock.

Pro forma net income on a per share basis (basic and diluted) for the period was $.31 for the three month period ended March 31, 1998. Excluding the gain on the sale of real estate, pro forma net income per share would have been $.12 as compared to historical earnings per share of $.22.

PRO FORMA FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1997

On a pro forma basis for the year ended December 31, 1997 revenues for Simon Group were $1,612,406. Total revenues include minimum rent, overage rent, tenant reimbursements and other income of $977,920, $53,882, $498,917, and $81,687, respectively.

Pro forma operating expenses for the year ended December 31, 1997 of $937,294 includes depreciation and amortization of $342,603.

Pro forma operating income and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (EBITDA) totaled $675,112 and $1,017,715 for the year ended December 31, 1997, respectively. Simon Group's consolidated pro forma operating margin (before depreciation and amortization) for the period was 63.1%.

Pro forma interest expense of $528,572 includes interest costs of $97,436 incurred to finance the CPI Merger Dividends.

Income of the SDG Operating Partnership of $315,444 includes gains on sale of assets of $123,689. Income of the Operating Partnerships was allocated to Simon Group based on Simon Group's preferred unit preference and ownership interest in the operating partnerships during the period.

Pro forma preferred dividends of $75,244 include $32,284 of dividends associated with the issuance of the Series B Preferred Stock.

Pro forma net income on a per share basis (basic and diluted) for the period was $1.10 for the year ended December 31, 1997. Excluding the gain on the sale of real estate, pro forma net income per share would have been $.54 as compared to historical earnings per share of $1.08.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of March 31, 1998, the Simon Group's pro forma balance of unrestricted cash and cash equivalents was $115,016. In addition to the cash balance, the Simon Group has unsecured revolving credit facilities (the "Credit Facilities") aggregating $1,550,000 which had $245,800 available after outstanding borrowings and letters of credit at March 31, 1998 on a pro forma basis. After taking into account $1,062,000 of net proceeds of SDG's $1,075,000 private offering and the cancellation of a $300,000 credit facility and on a pro forma basis, the Credit Facilities had $1,007,800 available after outstanding borrowings and letters of credit at March 31, 1998. Simon Group expects to have access to public and private equity and debt markets.

SDG management anticipates that cash generated from operating performance will provide the necessary funds on a short- and long-term basis for its operating expenses, interest expense on outstanding indebtedness, recurring capital expenditures, and distributions to shareholders in accordance with REIT requirements. Sources of capital for nonrecurring capital expenditures, such as major building renovations and expansions, as well as for scheduled principal payments, including balloon payments, on outstanding indebtedness are expected to be obtained from: (i) excess cash generated from operating performance; (ii) working capital reserves; (iii) additional debt financing; and (iv) additional equity raised in the public markets.

Financing and Debt

At March 31, 1998, the Simon Group had consolidated pro forma debt of $7,734,500, which includes $2.405 billion of indebtedness associated with the assumption of CPI and CRC's indebtedness and financing of the CPI Merger Dividends. Of this pro forma amount, $4,329,332 is fixed-rate debt and $3,405,168 is variable-rate debt. At March 31, 1998, the Simon Group had consolidated pro forma fixed-rate debt, after considering the net proceeds from the $1,075,000 debt offering, of $5,391,332 and consolidated variable-rate debt of $2,343,168.

On a pro forma basis, $245,800 was available under the Credit Facilities as of March 31, 1998. On June 22, 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership consummated a private placement of $1,075,000 aggregate principal amount of notes, the net proceeds of $1,062,000 were used primarily to repay amounts outstanding under the Credit Facilities. In connection with this transaction, a Credit Facility of $300,000 was cancelled. The combination of these transactions would have increased the amount available under the Credit Facilities to $1,007,800 on a pro forma basis.

Scheduled principal payments of pro forma consolidated mortgages and indebtedness after considering the $1,075,000 debt offering but prior to considering the fair value premium over the next five years is $3,599,826, with $4,077,946 thereafter. Simon Group's pro forma ratio of debt to market capitalization, excluding a pro rata share of joint venture indebtedness, was 46.4% at March 31, 1998.

New Accounting Pronouncement

On May 21, 1998, the Emerging Issues Task Force reached a final consensus regarding Issue 98-9 "Accounting for Contingent Rent in Interim Financial Periods." The final consensus requires that the lessor should defer recognition of contingent rental income (overage rent) until the specified targets are met. This consensus is not expected to have a material impact on Simon Group's annual results.

SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA OF SDG

The following table sets forth selected consolidated financial data for SDG and combined historical financial data of the Predecessor. The information under Balance Sheet Data as at March 31, 1998 and 1997 and all other selected financial data for the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 have been derived from the unaudited consolidated financial statements of SDG incorporated herein by reference. The selected historical balance sheet data of SDG as at December 31, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997 and all other selected historical financial data for SDG and the Predecessor, as applicable, for the years ended December 31, 1994, 1995, 1996 and 1997 and the periods ended December 19, 1993 and December 31, 1993 are derived from the audited financial statements of SDG and the Predecessor, as applicable, incorporated herein by reference. The financial data should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto and other financial data of SDG and the Predecessor incorporated herein by reference.

Other data management believes is important in understanding trends in the SDG's business is also included in the table.

(1) Refer to Note 3 to SDG's audited financial statements included in SDG's Form 10-K and Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 1997 which are incorporated by reference herein to describe the DeBartolo Merger, which occurred on August 9, 1996, and the 1997, 1996, and 1995 real estate acquisitions and development.

(2) Per share data is reflected only for SDG, because the historical combined financial statements of the Predecessor are a combined presentation of partnerships and corporations.

(3) Represents distributions declared per period. A distribution of $0.1515 per share was declared on August 9, 1996, in connection with the DeBartolo Merger, designated to align the time periods of distributions of the merged companies. The current annual distribution rate is $2.02 per share.

(4) FFO, as defined by NAREIT, means the consolidated net income of the SDG Operating Partnership and its subsidiaries without giving effect to real estate related depreciation and amortization, gains or losses from extraordinary items, gains or losses on sales of real estate, gains or losses on investments in marketable securities and any provision/benefit for income taxes for such period, plus the allocable portion, based on the SDG Operating Partnership's ownership interest, of funds from operations of unconsolidated joint ventures, all determined on a consistent basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Management believes that FFO is an important and the widely used measure of the operating performance of REITs, which provides a relevant basis for comparison among REITs. FFO is presented to assist investors in analyzing the performance of SDG. SDG's method of calculating FFO may be different from the methods used by other REITs. FFO: (i) does not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles; (ii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income as a measure of SDG's operating performance or to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities; and (iii) is not an alternative to cash flows as a measure of SDG's liquidity. In March 1995, NAREIT modified its definition of FFO. The modified definition provides that amortization of deferred financing costs and depreciation of nonrental real estate assets are no longer to be added back to net income in arriving at FFO. This modification was adopted by SDG beginning in 1996. Additionally the FFO for prior periods has been restated to reflect the modification in order to make the amounts comparative. Under the previous definition, FFO for the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1994, was $208.3 million and $176.4 million, respectively.

The following summarizes FFO of the SDG Operating Partnership and reconciles income of the SDG Operating Partnership before extraordinary items to FFO for the periods presented:

SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA OF CPI

The following table sets forth selected historical financial data for CPI and should be read in conjunction with the audited and unaudited consolidated financial statements of CPI and the related notes, included elsewhere herein. The information under Balance Sheet Data as at March 31, 1998 and all other selected financial information for the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 has been derived from the unaudited consolidated financial statements of CPI included herein. The information under Balance Sheet Data as at December 31, 1997 and 1996 and all other selected financial information for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 has been derived from the annual audited consolidated financial statements of CPI included herein. Such statements account for the investments in real estate joint ventures under the equity method of accounting. The audited financial statements for other years and years-end were based on pro rata consolidation of CPI's investment in real estate joint ventures. The financial information presented below for such years has been derived from the audited financial statements after adjustments to reflect the investments in real estate joint ventures under the equity method. The information under Balance Sheet Data as of March 31, 1997 has been derived from the unaudited consolidated financial statements of CPI.

(3) During 1994 a $1.00 extraordinary distribution relating to the sale of properties was paid.

(4) FFO, as used in the above table and as defined by NAREIT, means the consolidated net income of CPI without giving effect to depreciation and amortization (excluding amortization of deferred financing costs or assets other than those uniquely significant to the real estate industry and depreciation of non-rental real estate assets), gains or losses from extraordinary items, gains or losses on sales of real estate and gains or losses on investments in marketable securities, plus the allocable portion, based on CPI's ownership interest, of FFO of unconsolidated entities, all determined on a consistent basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. CPI's management believes that FFO is a widely used supplemental measure of the operating performance of REITs which provides a relevant basis for comparison of REITs. FFO is presented to assist investors with such comparisons and in analyzing the operating performance of CPI. CPI's method of calculating FFO may be different from the methods used by other REITs. FFO: (i) does not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles; (ii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income as a measure of operating performance or to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities; and (iii) is not an alternative to cash flows as a measure of liquidity.

(1) CRC is not a REIT and accordingly it is a taxable entity. CRC computes Funds from Operations, as used in the above table, as consolidated net income without giving effect to depreciation and amortization (excluding amortization of deferred financing costs or assets other than those uniquely significant to the real estate industry and depreciation of non-rental real estate assets), gains or losses from extraordinary items, gains or losses on sales of real estate plus the allocable portion, based on CRC's ownership interest, of Funds from Operations of unconsolidated entities, all determined on a consistent basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. CRC's management believes that Funds from Operations is a widely used supplemental measure of the operating performance of real estate companies which provides a relevant basis for comparison among real estate companies. Funds from Operations is presented to assist investors in analyzing the performance of CRC. CRC's method of calculating Funds from Operations may be different from the methods used by other real estate companies and is different from the method used by CPI and SDG because a provision for income taxes is deducted from net income. Funds from Operations: (i) does not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles; (ii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income as a measure of operating performance or to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities; and (iii) is not an alternative to cash flows as a measure of liquidity.

CPI MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the information set forth under "PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA" and CPI's historical consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included elsewhere herein. Certain statements made in this section may constitute "forward-looking statements." Any forward-looking statements contained herein do not take into account the Merger and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of CPI to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, among others, the following: general economic and business conditions, which will, without limitation, affect demand for retail space or retail goods, availability and creditworthiness of prospective tenants, lease rents and availability of financing; adverse changes in the real estate markets including, without limitation, competition with other companies; risks of real estate development and acquisition; risks relating to Year 2000 issues; governmental actions and initiatives; and environmental/safety requirements.

The financial results reported reflect:

1. 1994 through 1997 expansions and renovations of Roosevelt Field, Lenox Square, Burlington, Maplewood (sold at year-end 1996), Nanuet, Northlake and South Shore Plaza (wholly owned presently or at the time of the expansion(s)) and Crystal and Haywood malls ("joint ventures");

2. The purchases, in November and December 1996, of $984 million of partnership interests in seven super-regional or regional shopping centers, one mixed-use development and the General Motors Building, New York City in exchange for shares of CPI Common Stock and related interests in CRC ("Roll-ups");

3. The redemptions (in December 1996 and January 1997) at a cost of $343 million, of 2.6 million shares of CPI Common Stock (and related interests in CRC) in exchange for Countryside and Maplewood Mall shopping centers, a joint venture interest in North Star Mall and $13 million in cash ("Redemption");

4. The sale for $153 million, in December 1994, of Broadway Square, Orange Park and University Mall regional shopping centers ("Sale");

5. The purchase for $198 million of the Phipps Plaza, Atlanta, Georgia regional shopping center and peripheral land in January 1998; and

6. The sale for $81 million in cash of Burnsville Center, Minneapolis, Minnesota in January 1998.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Three Months Ended March 31, 1998 vs. Three Months Ended March 31, 1997

Total revenue increased by $9.3 million, or 7.8%, in the first quarter of 1998 as compared to the same period in 1997. Principal positive changes were the acquisition of Phipps Plaza regional shopping center ($4.6 million), the net effect of new leases commencing at an average effective rent (minimum and percentage rents) per square foot of $39 versus leases expiring at an average effective rent of $31 per square foot ($4.5 million), increased occupancy levels ($4.0 million) and promotion fund revenues previously received by independent merchants' associations ($1.8 million). Other revenue changes were a decrease in interest income (described below), and revenues ($3.1 million) resulting from the sales of Burnsville Center shopping center and the Roosevelt Field Office Building, and increases, aggregating approximately $2.6 million, in cost recoveries from tenants (principally real estate taxes and common area expenditures), percentage rents and expanded cart and credit card programs.

Interest income decreased by $5.1 million on a comparable basis principally as a result of the repayment, in March 1997, of mortgages receivable on two regional shopping centers in which CPI was also a joint venturer ($1.2 million) and a decrease in average outstanding short-term money market investments ($3.9 million).

Total expenses increased by .3% ($.3 million) principally as a result of new promotion fund costs ($2 million), increases in other property expenses ($.8 million) and a $2.5 million decrease in interest expense resulting from the repayment at maturity of $100 million of 8- 3/4% Notes in March 1997.

The sale, in January 1998, of Burnsville Center resulted in substantially all of the approximately $44 million gain on sales of property in the first quarter of 1998 and a portion of the Redemption resulted in substantially all of the approximately $116 million of such gains in the comparable quarter of 1997.

Merger related costs of $7.5 million were incurred in the first quarter of 1998.

Total revenue increased by $145 million, or 41.4%, in 1997 as compared to 1996. This increase is primarily the result of the net effect of the Roll-ups ($149 million increase) and Redemption ($15 million decrease). Expansions of Roosevelt Field and South Shore Plaza shopping centers resulted in $9 million of additional revenues. Other revenue changes were a decrease in interest income (described below), the net positive effect, aggregating approximately $11 million, of new leases commencing at an average effective rent (minimum and percentage rents) per square foot of $39 versus leases expiring at an average effective rent of $33 per square foot and increases in cost recoveries from tenants (principally real estate taxes and common area expenditures).

Interest income decreased by $9 million on a comparable basis principally as a result of the repayment, in March 1997, of mortgages receivable on two regional shopping centers in which CPI was also a joint venturer ($4 million) and a decrease in average outstanding short-term money market investments ($5 million).

Total expenses increased by $73 million, or 25.3%, from year-to-year. Excluding the effects of the Roll-ups ($87 million increase) and Redemption ($11 million decrease) the principal changes in expenses were an increase in depreciation and amortization expense ($3 million) resulting from expansion and renovation activities and a net $3 million increase in interest expense resulting from (i) the issuance, in March 1996, of $250 million of 7 7/8% Notes due 2016, (ii) the repayment at maturity of $100 million of 8 3/4% Notes in March 1997 and (iii) a decrease in interest capitalized to expansions and renovations in progress and the approximately $8 million write-down to estimated fair value, in 1996, of CPI's investment in another REIT.

Equity in earnings of joint ventures decreased by $27 million as a result of the Roll-ups ($17 million decrease), Redemption ($9 million decrease) and mortgage financing, in 1997, of two regional shopping centers in which CPI is a joint venturer ($3 million decrease) partially offset by an increase in joint venture rental revenues of which CPI's share was $2 million.

The Redemption resulted in substantially all of the approximately $48 million increase in gain on sales of properties inasmuch as the property exchanged for common shares in January 1997 resulted in a gain of $115 million versus the $72 million gain on exchange of two other properties in December 1996. Various other property sales resulted in net gains of $7 million and $2 million in 1997 and 1996, respectively.

Total revenue increased by $41 million, or 13.3%, in 1996 as compared to 1995. The Roll-ups accounted for $20 million of the increase and expansions of Lenox Square and Roosevelt Field resulted in approximately $8 million of additional revenue. Other revenue changes were a (i) $7 million increase in cost recoveries from tenants, (ii) $2 million increase in lease settlement receipts (principally as a result of a significantly higher level of tenant bankruptcies and abandonments in 1996), (iii) $2 million increase in leasing fees and (iv) $1 million increase in revenues from seasonal vendors.

Total expenses increased by approximately $47 million, or 19.8%, from year-to-year. Significant increases resulted from (i) the issuance, in March 1996, of $250 million of 7 7/8% Notes due 2016 resulting in an increase in interest expense of approximately $15 million, (ii) the Roll-ups ($12 million increase), (iii) the approximately $8 million write-down to estimated fair value in 1996 of CPI's investment in another real estate investment trust, (iv) increased depreciation and amortization expense ($4 million) resulting from expansion and renovation activities and (v) increased real estate taxes and common area costs ($3 million each).

Equity in earnings of joint ventures decreased by $2 million principally as a result of the Roll-ups.

The portion of the Redemption which closed in December 1996 resulted in $72 million of the over $73 million increase in gain on sales of property.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of December 31, 1997, cash, cash equivalents and short-term (money market) investments aggregated $165 million. In addition, at that date, CPI had an undrawn $250 million unsecured revolving credit agreement (the "CPI Revolving Credit Agreement").

In January 1998, CPI (i) purchased Phipps Plaza, a regional shopping center in Atlanta, Georgia, and adjacent land parcels for $198 million using substantially all of its cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments and $40 million borrowed under the CPI Revolving Credit Agreement and (ii) subsequently thereto, sold Burnsville Mall, a regional shopping center in Minneapolis, Minnesota, for net $81 million of which $40 million was used to repay all outstanding amounts under the CPI Revolving Credit Agreement and the remainder was invested in short-term investments.

CPI sold the General Motors Building which is located in New York City on July 31, 1998 for approximately $800 million. See "BUSINESS OF SDG, CPI AND CRC -- CPI -- Acquisitions and Distributions." Such sale resulted in a gain of $204 million ($8.05 per share of CPI Common Stock).

CPI management anticipates that, prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, cash generated from CPI stand-alone operations will provide necessary funds for operating expenses, periodic debt service on outstanding indebtedness, distributions on $209 million of outstanding CPI Series A Preferred Stock and periodic distributions to common stockholders (anticipated in August 1998 and immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger).

In the summer of 1997, because of the activities specified herein in "THE PROPOSED MERGER AND RELATED MATTERS -- BACKGROUND OF THE MERGER," CPI suspended all material capital raising activities with the exception of the (i) aforementioned sale of Burnsville Mall, (ii) construction and permanent financing of the Mall of Georgia in Buford, Georgia and (iii) sale of the General Motors Building, New York City (see above).

As of June 30, 1998, cash and cash equivalents aggregated $60 million, and $237 million of the CPI Revolving Credit Agreement remained undrawn. It is anticipated that future drawdowns, the proceeds from the sale of the General Motors Building and the anticipated construction financing for the Mall of Georgia development will be sufficient to fund all capital expenditures, principally construction, expansion, renovation and department store and mall tenant inducement costs, and scheduled balloon principal payments on outstanding indebtedness prior to the Effective Time of the Merger. Expenditures for realty projects previously approved by the CPI Board of Directors, are expected to aggregate $25 million prior to the anticipated Effective Time of the Merger and $185 million thereafter to completion. The following are significant anticipated capital expenditures and financings:

1. CPI is undertaking a complete renovation of Walt Whitman mall which is expected to be completed in fall 1998. Walt Whitman is presently a two department store shopping center with 285,000 square feet of mall GLA. The present department store anchors are Macy's, which opened a complete renovation of its 302,000 square foot store in October 1997, and Bloomingdales, which is in the process of completely renovating its 220,000 square foot store. Such renovated store is scheduled to re-open in August 1998. Lord & Taylor is presently constructing a new 120,000 square foot store anticipated to open in November 1998 and Saks Fifth Avenue is commencing construction of a 100,000 square foot specialty store projected to open in spring 1999. Projected capital expenditures by CPI aggregate approximately $66 million, of which approximately $25 million is anticipated to be funded prior to the Effective Time of the Merger;

2. CPI and local development partners have commenced construction of the Mall of Georgia -- a 1.6 million square foot regional shopping center in Buford, Georgia (a suburb of Atlanta) to be anchored by Nordstrom, Lord & Taylor, J.C. Penney and Dillard's department stores. Mall store space will approximate 500,000 square feet, a "village" area of 120,000 square feet will be dedicated to lifestyle uses and approximately 105,000 square feet of theater and IMAX complex space is to be built. Opening is projected for fall 1999 and spring 2000. On June 30, 1998 a $200 million construction and permanent loan, guaranteed by CPI, maturing July 1, 2010 with interest at 7.09% per annum has been issued by two lenders. Simultaneously the first draw down for $71 million was made.

3. The CPI Board has approved the expansion and renovation of Town Center at Boca Raton (Florida) an existing 1.3 million square foot regional mall presently anchored by Sears, Burdines, Saks Fifth Avenue, Bloomingdales and Lord & Taylor. The expansion and renovation which are projected to cost approximately $65 million, substantially all of which is anticipated to be funded subsequent to the Effective Time of the Merger, will include a new 170,000 square foot Nordstrom store (to open in 2000), approximately 94,000 square feet of additional enclosed mall GLA and approximately 50,000 square feet of additional space in existing department stores.

CPI has a number of smaller expansion and/or renovation projects currently in the predevelopment phase. Aggregate expenditures prior to the Effective Time of the Merger for such projects, department store and mall tenant inducements and a scheduled balloon debt payment are projected to be approximately $35 million.

Interest payable on the presently undrawn CPI Revolving Credit Agreement is based upon the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") and accordingly, CPI's future earnings, cash flows and future values relative to outstanding indebtedness may, to some extent, be dependent upon future indebtedness outstanding under the CPI Revolving Credit Agreement at floating interest rates. All presently outstanding indebtedness is at fixed interest rates.

Acquisitions, construction, expansion and renovation activities have been an integral part of CPI's activities. Capital expenditures, based upon CPI's share of joint venture expenditures, and financing related thereto for the period ended June 30, 1998 and years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively, are summarized in the table below.

EARNINGS BEFORE INTEREST, TAXES, DEPRECIATION AND AMORTIZATION ("EBITDA")

CPI management believes that there are several important factors that contribute to the ability of CPI to operate and improve its profitability, including aggregate tenant sales volume, sales per square foot, occupancy levels and tenant costs. Each of these factors has a significant effect on EBITDA from company operations. CPI management believes that EBITDA from company operations is, among others, a reasonable measure of operating performance because: (i) it is industry practice to evaluate real estate companies based on operating income before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, which is generally equivalent to EBITDA; and (ii) EBITDA is unaffected by the liquidity, debt and equity structure of the company. EBITDA: (i) does not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles; (ii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income as a measure of operating performance; (iii) is not indicative of cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities; and (iv) is not an alternative to cash flows as a measure of liquidity.

EBITDA (which excludes corporate level interest income resulting from the investment of CPI's significant past liquidity in short-term, money-market investments) increased from $210 million in 1993 to $315 million in 1997; a compound annual growth rate of 10.6%. The Roll-ups, Redemption and Sale had significant effects upon the change in EBITDA as follows:

	($ IN MILLIONS)	% OF TOTAL CHANGE
Total change	$105	100%
Roll-ups	(80)	(76)
Redemption	18	17
Sale	13	12
Remainder	$ 56	53%

The remainder specified above principally results from the addition of mall GLA resulting principally from expansions and increased rental rates. The following table summarizes CPI's EBITDA from operations and operating profit margin, defined as EBITDA from operations as a percentage of revenue (both excluding corporate level short-term interest income) and reconciles net income, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, to EBITDA from operations:

(1) Includes the effect of a $45 million write-down of department store and mall tenant inducements and expansion rights and a $4 million provision for retirement benefits to a former executive officer.

FUNDS FROM OPERATIONS ("FFO")

FFO is defined by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts ("NAREIT") as net income without giving effect to depreciation and amortization (excluding amortization of deferred financing costs or assets other than those uniquely significant to the real estate industry and depreciation of non-real estate assets), gains or losses from (i) extraordinary terms, (ii) sales of real estate, or (iii) investments in marketable securities, plus the allocable portion of FFO from unconsolidated entities, all determined on a consistent basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. CPI management believes that FFO is a widely used supplemental measure of the operating performance of REITs which provides a basis for comparison of REITs and is presented to assist investors with such comparisons and in analyzing the operating performance of CPI. CPI's method of calculating Funds From Operations may be different from the method used by other REITs. FFO: (i) does not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles; (ii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income as a measure of operating performance or to cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities: and (iii) is not an alternative to cash flows as a measure of liquidity.

The table below summarizes FFO allocable to holders of CPI Common Stock for the periods presented and reconciles net income, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, to FFO allocable to holders of CPI Common Stock.

MALL TENANT SALES

The average mall tenant sales productivity of shopping centers owned by CPI has been amongst the highest in the United States. The table below summarizes annualized sales data for those mall tenants-in-occupancy at each year-end at all shopping centers owned by CPI adjusted to eliminate the effect of mall tenants which CPI believes are atypical (Phipps Plaza, acquired in 1998, at which projected average annualized mall tenant sales per square foot exceed $500 has been excluded).

Combined per square foot of GLA	$388	$377	$358
of shopping centers:
-- over $500 per square foot	3	2	2
-- $400-$499 per square foot	3	4	3
-- $300-$399 per square foot	11	10	10
-- under $300 per square foot	5	6	7

The following illustrates the comparable, defined as tenants in occupancy for at least two years, and total dollar mall tenant sales at shopping centers presently owned by CPI. For comparison purposes, 1997 year to date data includes Phipps Plaza which was purchased in January of 1998.

	COMPARABLE		TOTAL
	$ IN BILLIONS	% CHANGE	$ IN BILLIONS	% CHANGE
For the five months ended May 1998.....	$0.94	3.3%	$1.10	7.8%
For the five months ended May 1997.....	$0.91		$1.02
1997.....	$2.29	1.3%	$2.91	7.4%
1996.....	$2.26	1.4%	$2.71	1.5%
1995.....	$2.23	(.9%)	$2.67	1.1%
1994.....	$2.25		$2.64

Mall retail sales levels affect future revenue and profitability because they are one of the most significant factors in the determination of the amounts of minimum rent that can be charged and the recoverable expenditures (principally real estate taxes and common area costs) that mall tenants can afford to pay. In addition, they determine the amount of percentage rents payable by tenants.

MALL TENANT OCCUPANCY LEVELS

Mall GLA occupied by tenants with an initial lease term under one-year is considered vacant by CPI for purposes of computing occupancy data. Average occupancy levels have been 88.2% (1997), 87.0% (1996) and 91.1% (1995). The trend in comparative (month-to-month) occupancy levels has been upward since July 1997. Indicative of such positive trends are occupancy levels for the following comparable periods:

	AVERAGE OCCUPANCY
	PERMANENT	TEMPORARY	TOTAL	PERMANENT	TEMPORARY	TOTAL
January 1-March 31.....	87.3%	1.5%	88.8%	91.3%	2.1%	93.4%
January 1-June 30.....	87.3%	1.4%	88.7%	91.5%	1.7%	93.2%
July 1-December 31.....	89.2%	2.0%	91.2%

Occupancy levels since July 1997 have benefited significantly from a reduced number of mall tenant bankruptcies and abandonments of space.

MALL TENANT OCCUPANCY COSTS

Average mall tenants' occupancy costs as a percentage of sales were 13.2% (1997), 12.8% (1996) and 12.6% (1995). A mall tenant's ability to pay rent is affected by the percentage of its sales represented by occupancy costs (including expense recoveries). CPI management believes that continuing efforts to increase sales, control property operating expenditures and remerchandise space will allow the continuance of the past trend of increasing minimum rents.

AVERAGE EFFECTIVE RENTS

Average effective (minimum and percentage) rents per square foot of mall tenant GLA increased from 1995 to 1997 as follows:

1995.....	$30.70

Such increase represents a compound annual growth rate of 4.6%. CPI management believes that CPI's average effective rents are amongst the highest charged in the industry and reflect the quality of the properties in the portfolio and the ability they afford to retailers to achieve attractive sales levels.

INFLATION

Inflation has remained relatively low during the past four years and has had a relatively low impact on the operating performance of CPI's properties. Nonetheless, substantially all of the mall tenants' leases contain provisions designed to lessen the impact of inflation. Such provisions include clauses providing for percentage rentals based on tenants' gross sales, which generally increase as prices rise, and/or escalation clauses, which generally increase rental rates during the terms of the leases. Substantially all of the shopping center leases, other than those for anchors, require the tenants to pay a proportionate share of operating expenses, including common area maintenance, real estate taxes and insurance, thereby reducing CPI's exposure to increases in costs and operating expenses resulting from inflation.

However, inflation may have a negative impact on some of CPI's other operating items. Interest and general and administrative expenses may be adversely affected by inflation as these specified costs could increase at a rate higher than rents. Presently a preponderant portion of CPI's indebtedness is long-term and all outstanding amounts are at fixed interest rates. Also, for tenant leases with stated rent increases, inflation may have a negative effect as the stated rent increases in these leases could be lower than the increase in inflation at any given time. Such effect, if it occurs, may be partially offset by increases in percentage rents resulting from inflation.

YEAR 2000 COST

CPI management continues to assess the impact of the Year 2000 Issue on its reporting systems and operations. The Year 2000 issue exists because many computer systems and applications abbreviate dates by eliminating the first two digits of the year, assuming that these two digits would always be "19". Unless corrected, this shortcut would cause problems when the century date occurs. On that date, some computer programs may misinterpret the date January 1, 2000 as January 1, 1900. This could cause systems to incorrectly process critical financial and operational information, or stop processing altogether.

To help facilitate CPI's future operations, substantially all of the computer systems and applications in use in its home office have been, or are in the process of being, upgraded and modified. CPI is of the opinion that, in connection with those upgrades and modifications, it has addressed applicable Year 2000 Issues as they might affect the computer systems and applications located in its home office. CPI continues to evaluate what effect, if any, the Year 2000 Issue might have at its properties. CPI anticipates that the process of reviewing this issue at its properties and the implementation of solutions to any Year 2000 Issue which it may discover may require the expenditure of sums which CPI does not expect to be material. CPI management expects to have all systems appropriately modified before any significant processing malfunctions could occur and does not expect the Year 2000 Issue will materially impact the financial condition or operations of CPI.

SEASONALITY

The shopping center industry is seasonal in nature, particularly in the fourth quarter during the holiday season, when tenant occupancy and retail sales are typically at their highest levels. In addition, shopping malls achieve most of their temporary tenant rents during the holiday season. As a result of the above, earnings are generally highest in the fourth quarter of each year.

CRC MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the information set forth under "PRO FORMA COMBINED AND SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA" and CRC's historical consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included elsewhere herein. Certain statements made in this section may constitute "forward-looking statements." Any forward-looking statements contained herein do not take into account the Merger and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of CRC to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, among others, the following: general economic and business conditions, which will, without limitation, affect demand for office and retail space, availability and creditworthiness of prospective tenants, lease rents and availability of financing; adverse changes in the real estate markets including, without limitation, competition with other companies, risks of real estate development and acquisition; risks relating to Year 2000 issues; governmental actions and initiatives; and environmental safety requirements.

The financial results reported reflect:

1. The sale for $2.36 million to CPI in April of 1997 of its minority partnership interests in Rockaway Townsquare Mall, the Rockaway Office Building and the Livingston Mall;

2. The issuance of shares in November and December 1996 of $3.29 million in conjunction with the CPI Roll-ups;

3. The redemption of shares in December 1996 and January 1997 of $1.15 million as part of the CPI Redemption;

4. The acquisition and development of the peripheral land in conjunction with local partners at the regional shopping center in Buford, Georgia (a suburb of Atlanta), being developed by CPI and local development partners; and

5. The ownership of the leasehold position of an office building at 305 East 47th Street in New York, New York, of which the principal tenant is CPI.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Three Months Ended March 31, 1998 vs. Three Months Ended March 31, 1997

Total revenue decreased by $0.7 million, or 38%, in the first quarter of 1998 as compared to the same period in 1997 resulting principally from (i) a decrease of approximately $0.4 million in revenue for providing property related services resulting from a decrease in properties managed and (ii) a decrease in minimum rent and expense recoveries of approximately $0.2 million as a result of increased vacancies, rental concessions and the renewal of CPI's lease at the 305 East 47th Street office building.

Total expenses decreased by approximately $0.5 million, or 26%, in the first quarter of 1998 compared to the first quarter of 1997. The principal change was a decrease in management fees paid to CPI as a result of a reduction in CRC's management services in 1998.

Equity in earnings of joint ventures have decreased by approximately $0.1 million primarily as a result of equity in earnings of Mill Creek Land, LLC (formed after the first quarter of 1997) which approximated $0.1 million and a decrease of approximately $0.2 million related to a decrease in the net income of Corporate Realty Capital, which ceased operations after the first quarter of 1997.

Total revenue decreased by approximately $3.6 million, or 37%, in 1997 as compared to 1996. The decrease is primarily related to a decrease of $2.9 million in fee income resulting from (i) the termination of an agreement to provide asset management services to the partners in the General Motors Building, resulting in a decrease of approximately $1.7 million and (ii) a decrease of approximately $1.2 million in revenue for providing property related services resulting from a decrease in properties managed. Other revenue changes include a decrease in minimum rent and expense recoveries of approximately $0.6 million as a result of increased vacancies, rental concessions and the renewal of CPI's lease at the 305 East 47th Street office building.

Total expenses decreased by approximately $3.8 million, or 34%, from 1996 to 1997. The principal changes in expenses are (i) a decrease in management fees paid to CPI of $1.3 million due to a decrease in the properties CRC managed in 1997, (ii) a decrease in asset management and other expenses of approximately $1.2 million associated with the management of the General Motors Building (see reduction in fee revenue specified above) and (iii) a $1.1 million write-down to estimated fair market value of land located in Putnam County, New York in 1996.

Equity in earnings of joint ventures increased by approximately $1.6 million primarily as a result of (i) equity in earnings of Mill Creek Land, LLC (formed in 1997) which approximated $0.6 million, (ii) an increase of approximately $0.6 million related to an increase in the net income of Corporate Realty Capital, which ceased its principal operations in 1997 and (iii) an increase of $0.4 million related to an increase in the net income of Cambridge Hotel Associates.

The increase in gain on sale of partnership interests of $1.3 million is the result of the sale to CPI of partnership interests in Rockaway Townsquare Mall, the Rockaway Office Building and the Livingston Mall.

The increase in the provision for income taxes is due to CRC recognizing a significantly higher net income in 1997, principally due to the sale of partnership interests.

Total revenue decreased by approximately $0.6 million, or 6%, primarily as a result of a decrease in the recovery of certain operating expenses in 1996.

Total expenses increased by approximately $0.6 million, or 6%, due to a $1.1 million write-down to estimated fair market value of land located in Putnam County, New York in 1996, offset by decreases in property operating expenses, management fees and administrative and other expenses, which aggregated approximately $0.5 million.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

As of March 31, 1998, cash and cash equivalents aggregated $3.9 million.

In 1997 and the first quarter of 1998, CRC invested $16.7 million and $1.1 million, respectively, in Mill Creek Land LLC partially funded by unsecured borrowings from CPI of $13.9 million and $1.0 million, respectively. During the second quarter of 1998 CRC invested an additional $1.7 million partially financed by an additional unsecured borrowing of $0.4 million from CPI.

CRC management anticipates that, prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, cash generated from CRC stand-alone operations will provide necessary funds for operating expenses, periodic debt service on outstanding indebtedness, and normal periodic distributions to CRC stockholders (anticipated in August 1998 and immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger).

CRC management anticipates that current cash and cash equivalents plus the construction financing of the Mill Creek Land project will be sufficient to fund all capital expenditures prior to the Effective Time of the Merger.

INFLATION

Inflation has remained relatively low during the past four years and has had a relatively low impact on the operating performance of CRC's properties. The interest rates payable on certain portions of CRC's indebtedness may be subject to increase as a result of inflation, however a preponderant portion of CRC's current indebtedness is owed to CPI.

With respect to CRC's office rental business, interest and general and administrative expenses may be adversely affected by inflation as these specified costs could increase at a higher rate than rents. Also, for tenant leases with stated rent increases, inflation may have a negative effect as the stated rent increases in these leases could be lower than the increase in inflation at any given time. Such effect, if it occurs, may be partially offset by increases in percentage rents resulting from inflation.

The effect of inflation on CRC's land development business is uncertain. Inflation may cause the value of CRC's land holdings to increase. However, the occurrence of inflation may also negatively impact the demand for undeveloped land, which would have an adverse effect on CRC.

YEAR 2000 COST

CRC management continues to assess the impact of the Year 2000 Issue on its reporting systems and operations. To help facilitate CRC's future operations, substantially all of the computer systems and applications in use in its home office (which computer systems and applications are shared with CPI) have been, or are in the process of being, upgraded and modified. See "CPI MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS -- Year 2000 Cost." CRC is of the opinion that, in connection with those upgrades and modifications, the applicable Year 2000 Issues as they might affect the computer systems and applications located in its home office have been addressed. CRC continues to evaluate what effect, if any, the Year 2000 Issue might have at its properties. CRC anticipates that the process of reviewing this issue at its properties and the implementation of solutions to any Year 2000 Issue which it may discover may require the expenditure of sums which CRC does not expect to be material. CRC management expects that all systems will have been appropriately modified before any significant processing malfunctions could occur and does not expect the Year 2000 Issue will materially impact the financial condition or operations of CRC.

SEASONALITY

CRC's principal businesses, office building rental and land development, are not subject to seasonality. However, income from its land development business is generated at irregular intervals and is unpredictable.

BUSINESS OF SDG, CPI AND CRC

SDG

The following is a summary description of SDG's business and properties. The description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to SDG's Annual Report on Form 10-K and Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 1997 and SDG's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 1998 which are incorporated herein by reference. Stockholders of SDG are urged to read SDG's Annual Report on Form 10-K and Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 31, 1997 and SDG's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 1998, in their entirety.

SDG, a Maryland corporation, is a self-administered and self-managed REIT under the Code. The SDG Operating Partnership is a majority-owned subsidiary partnership of SDG. SDG, through the SDG Operating Partnership, is engaged primarily in the ownership, operation, management, leasing, acquisition, expansion and development of real estate properties, primarily regional malls and community shopping centers.

As of March 31, 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership owned or held an interest in 217 income-producing properties, which consisted of 133 regional malls, 74 community shopping centers, three specialty retail centers, four mixed-use properties and three value-oriented super-regional malls located in 34 states. As of that same date, the SDG Operating Partnership also owned direct or indirect interests in one specialty retail center and two community centers under construction, an additional two community centers in the final stages of preconstruction development and seven parcels of land either in preconstruction development or held for future development. The SDG Operating Partnership self-manages the SDG Properties wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by the SDG Operating Partnership. The SDG Operating Partnership holds substantially all of the economic interest in the SDG Management Company, while substantially all of the voting stock of the SDG Management Company is held by Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon. The SDG Management Company manages SDG Properties not wholly owned by the SDG Operating Partnership and certain other properties, and also engages in certain property development activities. The SDG Operating Partnership also holds substantially all of the economic interest in, and the SDG Management Company holds substantially all of the voting stock of, DPMI, which provides architectural, design, construction and other services to substantially all of the SDG Portfolio Properties, as well as certain other regional malls and community shopping centers owned by third parties. At March 31, 1998 and December 31, 1997, SDG's ownership interest in the SDG Operating Partnership was 63.1% and 63.9%, respectively, and the SDG Limited Partners held the remaining interests in the SDG Operating Partnership not held directly or indirectly by SDG.

The DeBartolo Merger. On August 9, 1996, SDG acquired the national shopping center business of DRC for an aggregate value of approximately $3.0 billion (the "DeBartolo Merger"). The acquired portfolio consisted of 49 regional malls, 11 community centers and one mixed-use property. These properties include approximately 47.1 million square feet of retail GLA and approximately 550,000 of office GLA. Pursuant to the DeBartolo Merger, SDG issued a total of 37,873,965 shares of SDG Common Stock to the DRC stockholders and DRC became a subsidiary of SDG. In addition, the SDG Management Company purchased from EJDC all of the voting stock of DPMI for $2.5 million in cash.

The SDG Partnership Merger. On December 31, 1997, Simon Property Group, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("SPG, LP"), merged (the "SDG Partnership Merger") into the SDG Operating Partnership. Prior to the SDG Partnership Merger, the SDG Operating Partnership and SDG held all of the partnership interests of SPG, LP which in turn held interests in certain of the SDG Portfolio Properties. As a result of the SDG Partnership Merger, the SDG Operating Partnership now directly or indirectly owns or holds interests in all of the SDG Portfolio Properties and directly holds substantially all of the economic interest in the SDG Management Company. For periods prior to the DeBartolo Merger, references to the SDG Operating Partnership refer to SPG, LP only, unless otherwise indicated.

GENERAL

As of March 31, 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership owned or held interests in a diversified portfolio of 217 income-producing SDG Properties, which consisted of 133 enclosed regional malls, 74 community shopping centers, three specialty retail centers, four mixed-use SDG Properties and three value-oriented super-regional malls, located in 34 states. Regional malls, community centers and the remaining portfolio comprised 82.8%, 8.3%, and 8.9%, of total rent revenues and tenant reimbursements in 1997. The value-oriented super-regional malls are not included in consolidated rent revenues and tenant reimbursements as they are each accounted for using the equity method of accounting. The SDG Properties contain an aggregate of approximately 140.2 million square feet of GLA, of which 86.1 million square feet is owned by the SDG Operating Partnership ("Owned GLA"). Approximately 3,600 different retailers occupy more than 14,000 stores in the SDG Properties. Total estimated retail sales at the SDG Properties exceeded $25 billion in 1997.

SDG and certain of its subsidiaries are taxed as REITs under sections 856 through 860 of the Code and applicable Treasury regulations relating to REIT qualification. SDG is self-administered and self-managed and does not engage or pay a REIT advisor. SDG provides management, development, leasing, accounting, finance and legal, design and construction expertise through its own personnel or, where appropriate, through outside professionals.

OPERATING STRATEGIES

SDG's primary business objectives are to increase cash generated from operations per Unit and the value of the SDG Operating Partnership's properties and operations. SDG plans to achieve these objectives through a variety of methods discussed below, although no assurance can be made that such objectives will be achieved.

Leasing. The SDG Operating Partnership pursues an active leasing strategy, which includes aggressively marketing available space, renewing existing leases at higher base rents per square foot, and continuing to sign leases that provide for percentage rents and/or regular or periodic fixed contractual increases in base rents.

Management. Drawing upon the expertise gained through management of approximately 140 million square feet of retail and mixed-use SDG Properties, the SDG Operating Partnership seeks to maximize cash flow through a combination of an active merchandising program to maintain its shopping centers as inviting shopping destinations, continuation of its successful efforts to minimize overhead and operating costs, coordinated marketing and promotional activities, and systematic planning and monitoring of results.

Acquisitions. The SDG Operating Partnership intends to selectively acquire individual properties and portfolios of properties that meet its investment criteria. Currently, the SDG Operating Partnership is reviewing several acquisition opportunities to acquire both individual properties and portfolios of properties. Management believes that consolidation will continue to occur within the shopping center industry, creating further opportunities for the SDG Operating Partnership to acquire additional individual properties and portfolios of shopping centers and increase operating profit margins. Management also believes that its extensive experience in the shopping center business, access to capital markets, national operating scope, familiarity with real estate markets and advanced management systems will allow it to evaluate and execute acquisitions competitively. Additionally, the SDG Operating Partnership may be able to acquire properties on a tax-advantaged basis for the transferors.

During 1997, the SDG Operating Partnership, through the acquisition of RPT and other related transactions, acquired a portfolio of ten wholly owned SDG Properties and one 50%-owned SDG Property comprising in the aggregate approximately 12.0 million square feet of GLA in eight states. Subsequently, in February 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership sold the only community center included in the RPT acquisition. RPT is also a REIT. In addition, the SDG Operating Partnership made several other acquisitions in 1997 and 1998. The SDG Operating Partnership acquired a 50% ownership interest in Dadeland Mall and an additional 48% ownership interest in West Town Mall, increasing its ownership in that SDG Property to 50%. In addition, the SDG Operating Partnership acquired The Fashion Mall at Keystone at the Crossing, a 597,000 square-foot regional mall, along with an adjacent community center. Also acquired in 1997 was the remaining 30% ownership interest in Virginia Center Commons. On December 29, 1997, the SDG Operating Partnership formed a joint venture partnership with The Macerich Company ("Macerich") to acquire a portfolio of twelve regional malls comprising approximately 10.7 million square feet of GLA. This transaction closed on February 27, 1998, with the SDG Operating Partnership, through the SDG Management Company, assuming leasing and management responsibilities for six of the regional malls and Macerich assuming leasing and management for the remaining properties. On January 26, 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership acquired Cordova Mall, an 874,000 square foot regional mall.

Development. The SDG Operating Partnership's focus is to selectively develop new SDG Properties in major metropolitan areas that exhibit strong population and economic growth. During 1997, the SDG Operating Partnership opened one new regional mall, two value-oriented super-regional malls and one new community shopping center. On September 5, 1997, the SDG Operating Partnership opened The Source, a 730,000 square-foot regional mall in Westbury (Long Island), New York. On October 31, 1997 the SDG Operating Partnership opened Grapevine Mills, a 1.2 million square foot value-oriented super-regional mall in Grapevine (Dallas/Fort Worth), Texas, and on November 20, 1997, the SDG Operating Partnership opened Arizona Mills, a 1.2 million square foot value-oriented super-regional mall in Tempe, Arizona. In March 1997, the SDG Operating Partnership opened Indian River Commons, a 265,000 square foot community shopping center in Vero Beach, Florida.

During the first quarter of 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership opened the approximately $13.3 million Muncie Plaza in Muncie, Indiana. The SDG Operating Partnership owns 100% of this 196,000 square foot community center. In addition, the approximately $34 million Lakeline Plaza opened in April 1998 in Austin, Texas. The SDG Operating Partnership owns 65% of this 381,000 square foot community center. Each of these new community centers is adjacent to an existing regional mall in SDG's portfolio.

Construction continues on the following development projects: The Shops at Sunset Place, an approximately $150 million destination-oriented retail and entertainment project containing approximately 510,000 square feet of GLA is scheduled to open in December 1998 in South Miami, Florida and Concord Mills, an approximately $218 million, 50%-owned value-oriented super regional mall project, is scheduled to open in the fall of 1999 in Concord (Charlotte), North Carolina.

In addition, the SDG Operating Partnership is in the final stages of predevelopment on Houston Premium Outlets in Houston, Texas and The Shops at North East Plaza in Hurst, Texas. Houston Premium Outlets is the SDG Operating Partnership's first project in its joint venture partnership with Chelsea GCA to develop premium manufacturers' outlet shopping centers. This 50%-owned 462,000 square foot center is scheduled to begin construction in June 1998 and open in July 1999. The Shops at North East Plaza is a 359,000 square foot community center project adjacent to North East Mall. This wholly-owned project is scheduled to begin construction this summer, with a fall 1999 opening date.

Strategic Expansions and Renovations. A key objective of the SDG Operating Partnership is to increase the profitability and market share of the SDG Properties through the completion of strategic renovations and expansions. In 1997, the SDG Operating Partnership completed construction and opened fourteen expansion and/or renovation projects: Alton Square in Alton, Illinois; Aventura Mall in Miami, Florida; Chautauqua Mall in Jamestown, New York; Columbia Center in Kennewick, Washington; The Forum Shops at Caesar's in Las Vegas, Nevada; Knoxville Center in Knoxville, Tennessee; La Plaza in McAllen, Texas; Muncie Mall in Muncie, Indiana; Northfield Square in Bradley, Illinois; Northgate Mall in Seattle, Washington; Orange Park Mall in Jacksonville, Florida; Paddock Mall in Ocala, Florida; Richmond Square in Richmond, Indiana; and Southern Park Mall in Youngstown, Ohio.

The SDG Operating Partnership's share of projected costs to fund all renovation and expansion projects in 1998 is approximately $415 million. It is anticipated that the cost of these projects will be financed principally with the existing credit facilities, project-specific indebtedness, access to debt and equity markets, and cash flows from operations. The SDG Operating Partnership currently has 23 expansion and/or redevelopment projects under construction and in the preconstruction development stage with targeted 1998 completion dates. Included in consolidated investment properties at March 31, 1998 is approximately $200 million of construction in progress, with another $145 million in the unconsolidated joint venture investment properties.

Competition

SDG management believes that the SDG Properties are the largest, as measured by GLA, of any publicly traded REIT, with more regional malls than any other publicly traded REIT. SDG management believes that it competes favorably in the retail real estate business as a result of (i) its use of innovative retailing concepts, (ii) its management and operational expertise, (iii) its extensive experience and relationship with retailers and lenders, (iv) the size, quality and diversity of its SDG Properties and (v) the mall marketing initiatives of Simon Brand Ventures, which SDG believes is the most sophisticated initiative aimed at marketing mall space to retailers.

All of the SDG Portfolio Properties are located in developed areas. With respect to certain of such properties, there are other properties of the same type within the market area. The existence of competitive properties could have a material effect on the SDG Operating Partnership's ability to lease space and on the level of rents the SDG Operating Partnership can obtain.

There are numerous commercial developers, real estate companies and other owners of real estate that compete with the SDG Operating Partnership. This results in competition for both acquisition of prime sites (including land for development and operating properties) and for tenants to occupy the space that the SDG Operating Partnership and its competitors develop and manage.

SDG Portfolio Properties

The SDG Properties primarily consist of two types: regional malls and community shopping centers. Regional malls contain two or more anchors and a wide variety of smaller stores located in enclosed malls connecting the anchors. Additional stores are usually located along the perimeter of the parking area. The 133 regional malls in the SDG Properties range in size from approximately 200,000 to 1.6 million square feet of GLA, with 129 regional malls over 400,000 square feet. These regional malls contain in the aggregate over 14,000 occupied stores, including more than 530 anchors which are mostly national retailers. As of March 31, 1998, regional malls (including specialty retail centers, and retail space in the mixed-use SDG Properties) represented 83.0% of total GLA, 78.5% of Owned GLA and 82.9% of total annualized base rent of the SDG Properties.

Community shopping centers are generally unenclosed and smaller than regional malls. Most of the 74 community shopping centers in the SDG Properties range in size from approximately 100,000 to 400,000 square feet of GLA. Community shopping centers generally are of two types: (i) traditional community centers, which focus primarily on value-oriented and convenience goods and services, are usually anchored by a supermarket, drugstore or discount retailer and are designed to service a neighborhood area; and (ii) power centers, which are designed to serve a larger trade area and contain at least two anchors that are usually national retailers among the leaders in their markets and occupy more than 70% of the GLA in the center. As of March 31, 1998, community shopping centers represented 12.7% of total GLA, 14.8% of Owned GLA and 8.2% of the total annualized base rent of the SDG Properties.

The SDG Operating Partnership also has an interest in three specialty retail centers, four mixed-use SDG Properties and three value-oriented super-regional malls. The specialty retail centers contain approximately 760,000 square feet of GLA and do not have anchors; instead, they feature retailers and entertainment facilities in a distinctive shopping environment and location. The four mixed-use SDG Properties range in size from approximately 500,000 to 1,025,000 square feet of GLA. Two of these SDG Properties are regional malls with connected office buildings, and two are located in mixed-use developments and contain primarily office space. The value-oriented super-regional malls are each joint venture partnerships ranging in size from approximately 1.2 million to 1.3 million square feet of GLA. These include Arizona Mills, Grapevine Mills and Ontario Mills. These SDG Properties combine retail outlets, manufacturers, off-price stores and other value-oriented tenants. As of March 31, 1998, value-oriented super-regional malls represented 2.6% of total GLA, 4.2% of Owned GLA and 5.2% of the total annualized base rent of the SDG Properties.

As of March 31, 1998, approximately 86.1% of the mall and freestanding Owned GLA in regional malls, specialty retail centers and the retail space in the mixed use SDG Properties was leased, approximately 94.6% of the Owned GLA in the value-oriented super-regional malls was leased, and approximately 90.6% of Owned GLA in the community shopping centers was leased.

March 31, 1998, 157 of the 217 SDG Properties were owned 100% by the SDG Operating Partnership and the remainder were held as joint venture interests. The SDG Operating Partnership is a general partner of all but eight of the SDG Properties held as joint venture interests.

The following table summarizes on a combined basis, as of March 31, 1998, certain information with respect to the SDG Portfolio Properties, in total and by type of shopping center and retailer:

(1) In thousands of square feet.

(2) Occupancies for regional malls are generally lower in the initial part of the calendar year and higher in the latter part of the calendar year.

(3) Base rent does not include the effects of percentage rent or common area maintenance charges reimbursed by the tenants, nor does it consider the costs required to obtain new tenants.

(4) Includes the properties acquired in connection with the DeBartolo Merger.

Anchors

As of March 31, 1998, anchor space represented 28.2% of the Owned GLA in the SDG Operating Partnership's regional malls, of which 97.1% was occupied. The following table sets forth, as of March 31, 1998, certain information with respect to the five largest anchors (by occupied GLA) in the SDG Operating Partnership's regional malls:

ANCHOR	NUMBER OF STORES	ANCHOR-LEASED GLA	ANCHOR-OWNED OR LAND-LEASED GLA	TOTAL GLA
JC Penney Co., Inc.	105	8,255,390	6,507,648	14,763,038

Mall Stores and Freestanding Stores

There are over 14,000 mall and freestanding stores in the SDG Operating Partnership's regional malls. Substantially all of these stores lease space from the SDG Operating Partnership. Mall and freestanding stores represent over 41.6 million of the approximately 66.0 million square feet of total Owned GLA of these properties, with no single mall or freestanding store or chain occupying more than 4.2% of the total Owned GLA in all SDG Portfolio Properties or accounting for more than 6.0% of the total annualized base rent from the SDG Portfolio Properties.

The following table sets forth, as of March 31, 1998, certain information with respect to the five largest mall and freestanding store tenants (by occupied GLA) in the SDG Operating Partnership's regional malls:

TENANT	NUMBER OF STORES LEASED	TOTAL GLA (SQUARE FEET)	% OF TOTAL OWNED GLA LEASED BY TENANT

DEBT OF THE SDG OPERATING PARTNERSHIP

As of March 31, 1998, the SDG Operating Partnership's share of total consolidated debt and joint venture debt was approximately $6,206 million. As of such date, the weighted average interest rate for this debt was approximately 7.17%. Scheduled maturities of this debt for periods reflected are as follows:

YEAR OF MATURITY	MORTGAGE DEBT(1)	UNSECURED DEBT(1)	TOTAL DEBT(1)

Land Held for Development

The SDG Operating Partnership has direct or indirect ownership interests in nine parcels of land either in preconstruction development or being held for future development, containing an aggregate of approximately 677 acres located in eight states, and, through the SDG Management Company, interest in a mortgage on a parcel of land held for development containing approximately 134 acres. Management believes that the SDG Operating Partnership's significant base of commercially zoned land, together with the SDG Operating Partnership's status as a fully integrated real estate firm, gives it a competitive advantage in future development activities over other commercial real estate development companies in its principal markets.

The following table describes the acreage of the parcels of land either in preconstruction development or being held for future development in which the SDG Operating Partnership has an ownership interest, as well as the ownership percentage of the SDG Operating Partnership's interest in each parcel:

LOCATION	ACREAGE	OWNERSHIP INTEREST(1)
Bowie, MD	93.74	100%
Concord, NC	187.48	50%
Duluth, MN	11.17	100%
Hurst, TX	36.09	100%
Lafayette, IN	22.87	100%
Little Rock, AR	97.00	50%
Mt. Juliet, TN	109.26	100%
Sanford, FL	77.24	22.5%
Miami, FL	41.71	60%
	676.56

- ---

(1) The SDG Operating Partnership has a direct ownership interest in each parcel except Duluth, MN and Mt. Juliet, TN. The SDG Operating Partnership has the option to acquire those parcels from the SDG Management Company.

The SDG Management Company has granted options to the SDG Operating Partnership (for no additional consideration) to acquire for a period of ten years (expiring December 2003) the SDG Management Company's interest in the two parcels of land held for development, indicated in footnote (1) to the above table, at a price equal to the actual cost incurred to acquire and carry such properties. The SDG Management Company may not sell its interest in any parcel subject to option through December 1998 without the consent of the SDG Operating Partnership, and thereafter, may only sell its interest subject to certain notice and first purchase rights of the SDG Operating Partnership.

The SDG Management Company also holds indebtedness secured by 134 acres of land held for development, Lakeview at Gwinnett ("Lakeview") in Gwinnett County, Georgia, in which Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and certain of their affiliates hold a 64% partnership interest. In addition, the SDG Management Company holds unsecured debt owed by Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and certain of their affiliates as partners of this partnership. The SDG Management Company has an option to acquire the partnership interests of Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and certain of their affiliates in Lakeview for nominal consideration in the event the requisite partner consents to such transfers are obtained. The SDG Management Company is required to fund certain operating expenses and carrying costs of the partnership that are owed by the Simons as partners thereof. The SDG Management Company has granted to the SDG Operating Partnership the option to acquire (i) the partnership interests of Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and certain of their affiliates and the secured debt or (ii) the property, if the SDG Management Company forecloses the secured indebtedness, for nominal consideration plus the amount of all advances and outstanding debt.

JOINT VENTURES

At certain of the SDG Properties held as joint ventures, the SDG Operating Partnership and its partners each have rights of first refusal, subject to certain conditions, to acquire additional ownership in the SDG Property should the other partner decide to sell its ownership interest. In addition, certain of the SDG Properties held as joint ventures contain "buy-sell" provisions, which gives the partners the right to trigger a purchase or sale of ownership interest amongst the partners.

CPI AND CRC

CPI

CPI is a self-administered and self-managed, privately-held REIT that primarily owns interests in regional malls and also holds a portfolio of other commercial income-producing properties through investment in real estate and investments in joint ventures and partnerships that own or lease real estate. The 23 regional shopping malls in which CPI owns interests contain an aggregate GLA of approximately 27 million square feet. CPI also has investments in other properties.

CPI was organized as a Massachusetts business trust in 1971 and was incorporated in Delaware on March 10, 1998. Since its organization, CPI has operated in a manner intended to qualify as a REIT under the Code and predecessor statutory provisions. As a result of its REIT status, CPI has never paid or been assessed for any federal income taxes and has paid an immaterial amount of state income and franchise taxes in those few states in which a REIT is subject to taxation on a basis that is different than the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a REIT.

CRC

CRC was formed in October 1975 for the purpose of engaging in real estate activities that would be problematic for CPI because of CPI's qualification for federal income tax purposes as a REIT. CPI and CRC are parties to an agreement pursuant to which CRC may not engage in any activity that could be engaged in by CPI without jeopardizing its status as a REIT unless CPI shall have been given a right of first refusal to engage in such activity, and CPI may not refer to any person other than CRC any business opportunity that could not be engaged in by CPI without jeopardizing its status as a REIT unless CRC shall have been given the right of first refusal to take advantage of such opportunity. Since the holders of CPI Common Stock own a proportionate beneficial interest in one or more trusts that own all the outstanding shares of CRC Common Stock, CPI and CRC are treated as a "paired share REIT" for federal income tax purposes. Since the shares were paired prior to the effective date of the relevant Code provision that generally precludes such pairing, CPI and CRC are currently grandfathered from such provision with respect to assets acquired by either CPI or CRC prior to March 26, 1998. However, currently pending legislation may limit Simon Group's ability to acquire new property in CRC. See "RISK FACTORS -- REIT Classification; Legislation Limiting Benefits of Paired Share Status."

At the present time, CRC's principal business is the development and sale of approximately 144 acres of land through its 85% ownership interest in Mill Creek Land, LLC ("Mill Creek"), a joint venture between CRC and Buford Acquisition Company, L.L.C., an unaffiliated entity, and the ownership of an office building located at 305 East 47th Street in New York, New York. The land owned by Mill Creek surrounds CPI's Mall of Georgia project in Buford, Georgia. See "-- Development -- Mall of Georgia."

All of the shares of CRC Common Stock are held in trust under a Trust Agreement dated as of October 30, 1979, among the then stockholders of CPI, CRC and Bank of Montreal Trust Company, the current trustee (the "CRC Trust I") or under a Trust Agreement dated as of August 26, 1994, among certain holders of CPI Series A Preferred Stock, CRC and Bank of Montreal Trust Company (the "CRC Trust II", and together with the CRC Trust I, the "CRC Trusts"). The beneficial interests (the "CRC Interests") in the CRC Trusts are owned by participating CPI stockholders in proportion to their ownership of CPI shares. The CRC Interests are not evidenced by separate certificates and are not transferable separately from the associated CPI shares. The foregoing arrangements create a "paired-share REIT" structure for federal income tax purposes. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger -- Simon Group Issuance Agreement," "-- Federal Income Taxation Considerations Relating to Paired Shares;" and "-- Federal Income Tax Considerations Relating to Simon Group."

As of June 1, 1998, CRC had 22 officers, all of whom are also officers of CPI, and no employees. All directors of CRC must be directors of CPI.

CPI'S PROPERTIES

CPI owns direct or indirect interests in 23 regional malls, two office buildings, land intended to be developed as the Mall of Georgia and the land underlying (i) an additional office building, (ii) a hotel and (iii) a hotel, retail and office complex. All references to properties owned by CPI means properties owned by CPI or entities in which the beneficial ownership interests are owned, directly or indirectly, by CPI.

The malls contain two or more anchors other than the Walt Whitman Mall which currently has one operating anchor and three anchors under construction, and a wide variety of smaller stores. CPI's regional malls range in size from approximately 695,000 to 2.36 million square feet of GLA, and include over 95 anchors, most of which are national retailers. Rent received from The Limited, Inc., a national retail clothing chain, accounted for approximately 8% of CPI's revenue during fiscal 1997. Roosevelt Field, the largest mall owned by CPI, accounted for approximately 12.8% of CPI's total revenue (excluding equity in earnings of joint ventures and gain on sale of properties) during fiscal 1997. Of the 23 malls, 16 are owned 100% by CPI, and CPI owns a 50% interest in the other seven. Regional malls represented 75% of CPI's total annualized base rent during fiscal 1997. CPI also is currently developing a mall in Buford, Georgia pursuant to a limited liability company agreement with Buford Acquisition Company, L.L.C. See "-- Development -- Mall of Georgia."

CPI also owns two office buildings in New Jersey and Georgia containing an aggregate of approximately 440,000 square feet of rentable area as well as the land underlying another office building owned by CRC located at Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza in New York City where its principal executive offices are located. CPI leases its executive office space from CRC.

In addition, CPI owns the land underlying the 375 room JW Marriott Lenox hotel located in Atlanta, Georgia and land underlying the Charles Square, a hotel, retail and office complex located in Cambridge, Massachusetts. CPI also owns a convenience center located in Rockaway, New Jersey and an industrial property located near Roosevelt Field.

The following table summarizes on a combined basis, as of March 31, 1998, certain information with respect to the CPI Portfolio Properties, in total and by type of property:

Regional Malls

CPI's regional malls contain two or more anchors, other than the Walt Whitman Mall which currently has one operating anchor and three anchors under construction, and a wide variety of smaller stores. CPI's regional malls range in size from approximately 695,000 to 2.36 million square feet of GLA, and include over 95 anchors, most of which are national retailers. (1) All month to month tenants as of March 31, 1998 are considered to have a lease expiry in 1998.

(2) Total Leased Owned Mall and Freestanding GLA is 8,308,651 sq. ft. as of March 31, 1998.

Anchors

As of March 31, 1998, anchor space represented 63.3% of the GLA in CPI's regional malls, of which 100.0% was leased. The following table sets forth, as of March 31, 1998, certain information with respect to the five largest anchors (by occupied GLA) in CPI's regional malls:

ANCHOR	NUMBER OF STORES	ANCHOR-LEASED GLA	ANCHOR-OWNED OR LAND-LEASED GLA	TOTAL GLA

Dillards Department Stores, Inc.	4	80,000	592,000	672,000

Mall Stores and Freestanding Stores

There are nearly 2,900 mall and freestanding stores in CPI's regional malls. Substantially all of these stores lease space from CPI. Mall and freestanding stores represent approximately 9.5 million of the 13.0 million square feet of total Owned GLA of these properties, with no single mall or freestanding store or chain occupying more than 6.2% of the total Owned GLA in all CPI Portfolio Properties or accounting for more than 7.3% of the total annualized base rent from the CPI Portfolio Properties.

The following table sets forth, as of March 31, 1998, certain information with respect to the five largest mall and freestanding store tenants by Owned GLA occupied in CPI's regional malls:

TENANT	NUMBER OF STORES LEASED	TOTAL GLA (SQUARE FEET)	% OF TOTAL OWNED GLA LEASED BY TENANT

Roosevelt Field, CPI's most significant asset, is separately described in detail below. Additional information regarding this and CPI's other principal assets is set forth in the table that follows.

Roosevelt Field

Roosevelt Field is an enclosed regional mall situated on a 106-acre parcel located at the junction of the Meadowbrook Parkway and Old Country Road, in the Town of Hempstead, Nassau County, New York. Access to the shopping center is provided by the Meadowbrook Parkway which connects directly to the Northern and Southern State Parkways.

The Town of Hempstead is a mature, suburban Long Island community approximately 25 miles east of Manhattan at the center of a trade area with a population of approximately 1.3 million. This trade area extends to Nassau County's eastern border and into eastern Queens County.

Roosevelt Field was opened as an unenclosed mall in 1956 and the mall was enclosed in 1968. CPI acquired the leasehold interest in Roosevelt Field in 1973. In 1980, CPI acquired fee title to the mall, the underlying land and approximately 45 adjacent acres, which have been improved by a variety of commercial, office and industrial buildings.

A significant renovation and reconfiguration of Roosevelt Field was completed and opened in April 1993. This project consisted of construction of a 285,000-square foot A&S department store (which opened in October 1992), 165,000 square foot new second level mall store GLA, including a new food court, that houses approximately 62 new stores and a complete renovation of the remainder of the shopping center. The A&S department store and new mall stores replaced an Alexander's department store and approximately 120,000 square feet of obsolete small store space, which were demolished. A substantial remerchandising program accompanied this construction project. In 1995 Federated Department Stores closed all of its A&S department stores. Bloomingdale's replaced A&S at Roosevelt Field in November 1995. CPI added approximately 175,000 square feet of new mall store GLA in October 1996. Nordstrom opened its first Long Island store at Roosevelt Field with a total of 225,000 square feet of GLA in August 1997. CPI has preliminary plans to add a fashion department store and approximately 35,000 square feet of GLA to Roosevelt Field.

Roosevelt Field's primary competitors are two regional shopping centers, Sunrise Mall and Green Acres Shopping Center. Sunrise Mall contains three anchors and 190 mall stores and is located less than twelve miles southeast of Roosevelt Field. Green Acres Shopping Center contains four anchors and 212 mall stores and is located approximately eight miles southwest of Roosevelt Field. The Source, a 732,820 square foot mall, owned 25% by SDG and managed by an affiliate of SDG, opened in the third quarter of 1997 within five miles of Roosevelt Field. Roosevelt Field also competes with certain discount stores in the area. In addition, The Taubman Company has preliminary plans to develop an upscale mall located midway between Roosevelt Field and Walt Whitman Mall which could accommodate three department stores and approximately 120 mall stores; however, these plans have not been approved. The Company believes that Roosevelt Field is well positioned within its market due to its strong anchor stores and the high population density of the area.

The operating data for Roosevelt Field is as follows:

The principal business carried on in Roosevelt Field is retail.

The occupancy rate (based on a weighted average at year-end, excluding seasonal-in-line) for each of the years 1993 through 1997 and for the three-months ended March 31, 1998 is 94.6%, 97.0%, 95.1%, 93.0%, 95.2% and 96.6%, respectively.

Stores owned by The Limited, Inc., a retail apparel company, occupy 10% or more of the rentable square footage (excluding department stores) at Roosevelt Field. The principal lease provisions for such stores are as follows:

NAME	RENT/YR/SF	EXPIRATION	RENEWAL OPTION
The Limited, Inc. doing business as:
1. Lerner NY	$36.00	Nov-06	None
2. Victoria's Secret	49.50	Jan-04	None

The average effective annual rent per square foot for each of the years 1993 through 1997 is $34.20, $45.10, $49.90, $49.90 and $53.00, respectively.

The following is a schedule of lease expirations for stores located at Roosevelt Field:

The realty tax rate for Roosevelt Field is $67.50 per $100 of assessed value. Annual realty taxes are $13,454,216. Annual realty taxes for Roosevelt Field in 1999 are estimated to be $14,366,041.

DEVELOPMENT

Development activities are ongoing at several locations including:

Development of Mall of Georgia

In April 1997, CPI entered into a limited liability company agreement with Buford Acquisition Company, L.L.C., an unaffiliated entity, forming an entity, Mall of Georgia L.L.C., to develop a 1.5 million square foot regional mall on approximately 145 acres of land in Buford, Georgia. Mall of Georgia L.L.C. also owns a 45 acre parcel on which a power center of 390,000 square feet of GLA is planned. There are letters of intent with Nordstrom (160,000 square feet of GLA), Lord & Taylor (120,000 square feet of GLA), Dillard's (240,000 square feet of GLA), J.C. Penney (146,000 square feet of GLA), Galyan's (85,000 square feet of GLA), Regal Cinema (105,000 square feet of GLA), Barnes & Noble (26,000 square feet of GLA) and 180,885 square feet of GLA for smaller stores. Letters of intent for these smaller stores represent approximately 40% of the mall's GLA for smaller stores.

The project budget for the Mall of Georgia project is approximately $254 million, including land costs. CPI is funding 85% of the capital requirements for the project. CPI is the managing member of the entity developing the mall and is responsible for the development. The Mall of Georgia L.L.C. has obtained a construction and permanent loan for $200 million (which as of June 30, 1998 $71 million has been drawn down), which results in a project equity requirement of $54 million (of which CPI's share would be $45.9 million). CPI's interest in the mall is 50% after the return of its equity investment and a 9% return thereon. Construction of the mall building commenced in March 1998 for an anticipated opening of the mall and department stores in August 1999.

Town Center at Boca Raton Expansion/Renovation

An expansion plan for Town Center at Boca Raton, a wholly owned property located in Palm Beach County, Florida, was approved by the Palm Beach County Development Review Committee in April 1998. The plan includes a renovation of the food court and the mall common area, the relocation of Saks Fifth Avenue to a location which was once a Mervyn's store and the addition of 94,000 square feet of GLA for smaller stores in the space formerly occupied by the Saks store. It is expected that a new Nordstrom store of 170,000 square feet of GLA will anchor the expansion wing. The relocation of Saks will almost double the size of its store from 73,000 to 140,000 square feet of GLA. As part of this expansion plan, Bloomingdale's would add 37,000 square feet of GLA and Lord & Taylor 14,000 square feet of GLA to their existing stores. A letter of intent was signed with Nordstrom in May 1997. Management and Saks Fifth Avenue have agreed in principle upon the terms of its relocation and expansion. Saks is scheduled to open in August 1999 and Nordstrom in August 2000. The preliminary budget for this expansion/renovation project is estimated at $68.6 million.

Walt Whitman Mall Renovation

CPI expects that Walt Whitman Mall, with respect to which CPI owns 100% of the land and operating position and 98.3% of the tenants-in-common leasehold interest and which is currently anchored only by Macy's, will contain a Bloomingdale's store and a Lord & Taylor store in 1998 and a Saks Fifth Avenue store in 1999. The mall is in the process of being thoroughly renovated and approximately 25,000 square feet of GLA for smaller stores will be added. The total budget for the renovation project is approximately $81.3 million. The Town of Huntington, New York has completed its review and approved the final expansion plan.

Other Renovation and Development Projects

In addition to the developments and renovations at Mall of Georgia, Town Center at Boca Raton and Walt Whitman Mall, CPI is also conducting renovations and/or developments at Gwinnett Place Mall, Palm Beach Mall, Rockaway Townsquare and Town Center at Cobb. The total budget for these projects is approximately $62.5 million, of which CPI's share is estimated to be $35.8 million.

Simon Group intends to finance its share of the projects at Town Center at Boca Raton, Walt Whitman Mall and the other renovations and/or developments described above with cash on hand, cash flow from properties and borrowings under any then existing credit agreements.

ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSITIONS

In 1994, CPI sold three shopping centers: Broadway Square in Tyler, Texas; Orange Park Mall in Jacksonville, Florida; and University Mall in Pensacola, Florida to SDG. In that same year, CPI eliminated its investment in the developed portion of the Talleyrand Office Park in Westchester, New York and in First Union Financial Center in Miami, Florida. In late 1996 and early 1997, CPI sold its interests in Countryside Mall in Clearwater, Florida; Maplewood Mall in Maplewood, Minnesota; and Northstar Mall in San Antonio, Texas in exchange for shares of CPI Common Stock. In 1996, CPI acquired the interests of its partners in seven shopping centers, one mixed-use property and the General Motors Building in exchange for shares of CPI Common Stock. In early 1998, CPI sold Burnsville Mall in Burnsville, Minnesota and acquired Phipps Plaza in Atlanta, Georgia. In July 1998, CPI sold the General Motors Building in New York City, New York.

COMPETITION

With gross real estate assets as of December 31, 1997 of approximately $4.8 billion and $2.6 billion on appraisal and financial reporting bases, respectively, CPI management believes it is one of the largest regional mall REITs in the United States. CPI management believes that it competes favorably in the retail real estate business as a result of (i) its portfolio of quality assets, (ii) its concentration of large properties in major, geographically diverse markets and (iii) its management and operational expertise.

There are numerous commercial developers, real estate companies and other owners of real estate that compete with CPI in its trade areas. This results in competition for both acquisition of prime sites (including land for development and operating properties) and for tenants to occupy the space that CPI and its competitors develop and manage.

In addition, all of CPI's properties are located in developed areas, and there are other retail properties in such areas which currently or potentially compete with CPI's properties. The existence of competitive properties could have a material effect on CPI's ability to lease space and on the level of rents CPI can obtain.

ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

CPI is not aware of any environmental liability that it believes would have a material adverse effect on CPI. CPI believes that its properties are in compliance, in all material respects, with all Federal, state and local environmental laws, ordinances and regulations. However, no assurance can be given that all environmental liabilities have been identified or that no prior owner, prior tenant or current tenant has created any material environmental condition not known to CPI, that the current environmental condition of CPI's properties will not be affected by tenants and occupants, by the condition of nearby properties, or by unrelated third parties, or that future uses or conditions (including, without limitation, changes in applicable environmental laws and regulations or the interpretation thereof) will not result in the imposition of environmental liability.

Asbestos-Containing Materials

Asbestos-containing materials are present in most of CPI's properties, primarily in the form of vinyl asbestos tile, mastics and roofing materials, which are generally in good condition. Asbestos-containing materials in the form of spray-on fireproofing and thermal system insulation are also present in certain of CPI's properties in limited concentrations or in limited areas. The presence of such asbestos-containing materials does not violate currently applicable laws. Asbestos-containing materials are removed by CPI in the ordinary course of any renovation, reconstruction and expansion, and in connection with the retenanting of space. Although it is difficult to assess the costs of abatement or removal of such asbestos-containing materials at this time, and no assurance can be given as to the magnitude of such costs, CPI does not believe that such costs will be material to CPI's financial condition or results of operations. CPI has developed and is implementing an operations and maintenance program that establishes operating procedures with respect to asbestos-containing materials.

Underground Storage Tanks

Some of CPI's properties and certain adjacent properties contain, or at one time contained, underground storage tanks used to store heating oil for on-site consumption or petroleum products. At present, CPI is aware of three underground storage tanks owned and operated by CPI, and is either currently in compliance with applicable environmental regulations or has begun or scheduled appropriate compliance activities in all cases. CPI is also aware of additional underground storage tanks at its properties operated by tenants or subtenants that are also responsible for compliance with respect to such tanks. Upon any such tenant's or subtenant's failure to cause such compliance activities, CPI could become primarily responsible for such compliance.

In addition, CPI has begun soil remediation to address contamination associated with an underground storage tank which was located on a tract of undeveloped land owned by CPI near Roosevelt Field in Garden City, New York. Such remediation is being conducted in accordance with applicable environmental laws and is expected to be completed in the spring of 2001.

The costs of underground storage tank compliance, closure, removal and remediation activities are not expected to have a material adverse effect on CPI's financial condition or results of operations.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

There are no material legal proceedings pending or threatened against CPI.

EMPLOYEES

As of June 1, 1998, CPI employed a full-time staff of 502 persons and a part-time staff of 461 persons. Twenty-seven of CPI's employees are covered by collective bargaining agreements. CPI's management considers its union relations to be good.

INSURANCE

CPI has commercial general liability, fire, flood, extended coverage and rental loss insurance with respect to all its properties and believes that such insurance provides adequate coverage.

(5) Land under 375-room hotel.

CRC'S PROPERTIES

CRC owns (i) the building located at Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza in New York City where CPI's executive offices are currently located; (ii) a 200,000 square foot building in Norfolk, Virginia which is leased to the J.C. Penney Company; (iii) an 85% interest in land owned by Mill Creek in Buford, Georgia (see "-- CPI and CRC"); (iv) 37 acres of vacant land, zoned for retail business, being held for development adjacent to a shopping center owned by CPI in Rockaway, New Jersey and (v) 203 acres of vacant land zoned for single family housing in Putnam, New York which is being marketed for sale.

Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza ("305 East 47 Street") is located on the north side of East 47th Street between First and Second Avenue in New York City, New York. The building is a 12-story office structure containing 123,000 square feet of rentable area. Following remeasurement, the total rentable area of the building will increase to approximately 139,000 square feet. Extensive renovations to the building were completed in 1983 and the result is a modern office building of high quality. There is no asbestos present in the structure.

CRC holds a 100% leasehold interest in the multi-tenant office building that also serves as CPI and CRC headquarters in New York City. In addition, CPI holds a leasehold mortgage on the improvements which bears interest at 6% and requires annual interest payments to CPI of $1,233,907, and beginning January 1, 1999 through the maturity date of December 31, 2013 bears interest at 15% and requires annual interest and principal payments to CPI of $3,186,396. At maturity, a balloon payment of approximately $15 million is due. As of March 31, 1998, the principal amount outstanding on such loan was $20,565,000. CPI also owns a 100% fee interest in the land underlying the improvements.

The operating data for 305 East 47 Street is as follows:

The occupancy rate (based on a weighted average at year-end) for each of the years 1993 through 1997 and the three months ended March 31, 1998 is 100%, 88%, 83%, 83%, 81% and 77%, respectively. CPI is the only tenant occupying more than 10% of the rentable square feet of the building.

The principal provisions of the lease with CPI are as follows. CPI currently rents 61,086 square feet of the building at an average base rent of $23.94 per square foot pursuant to a lease, which expires December 31, 2005. Davis Polk & Wardwell, a law firm, has executed a lease at 305 East 47 Street. The lease commenced on June 22, 1998. Davis Polk & Wardwell will occupy 29,480 square feet of space at an average base rent of $24.00 per square foot. Davis Polk & Wardwell's lease expires on March 21, 2009.

(1) All month-to-month tenants as of March 31, 1998 are considered to have a lease expiring in 1998.

(2) Total Leased GLA is 46,366 square feet as of March 31, 1998 excluding 49,873 square feet leased to CPI.

(3) Total Annualized Rent is $1,216,428 as of March 31, 1998.

The following chart lists tax depreciation terms (for purposes of this chart, any construction allowances, deferred costs, development costs, leasing commissions, free rent and similar items are not included):

Building and Building Step-Up.....	$28,680,006	0.0286	Straight Line	35
Building Improvements.....	42,815	0.0286	Straight Line	35

The realty tax rate for 305 East 47 Street is $10.164 per $100 of assessed value. Annual realty taxes are $764,735. There are currently no proposed improvements anticipated to be made with respect to the building. Annual realty taxes for the 1999 tax year are estimated to be $766,569.

ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSITIONS

On April 1, 1997 CRC sold its limited partner interests in three partnerships, each of which owned property held for investment, to the general partner, CPI, for approximately $2.4 million.

In addition, CRC's asset management contract with respect to the General Motors Building ended in December of 1996 when the General Motors Building became wholly owned by CPI, and CRC no longer receives fees with respect to such contract. CRC received asset management fees of approximately $1.6 million and $1.4 million for 1996 and 1995, respectively in connection with its management of the General Motors Building.

COMPETITION

CRC management believes that it competes favorably in the office building and land development businesses primarily as a result of its management and operational expertise and its relationship with CPI. See "BUSINESS OF SDG, CPI and CRC -- CPI and CRC -- CRC."

There are numerous commercial developers, real estate companies and other owners of real estate that compete with CRC in its trade areas. This results in competition for both acquisition of prime sites (including land for development and operating properties) and for tenants to occupy the space that CRC and its competitors develop and lease.

The office building owned by CRC is located in midtown Manhattan in New York City, and there are other office buildings in the area which currently or potentially compete with the office building owned by CRC. The existence of competitive properties could have a material adverse effect on CRC's ability to lease space and on the level of rents CRC can obtain.

The land held by CRC for development is located in relatively undeveloped areas where other developers could potentially acquire nearby properties and compete with CRC. The existence of other available land in such areas could have a material adverse effect on CRC's ability to sell its land and on the price CRC can obtain.

ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

CRC is not aware of any environmental liability that it believes would have a material adverse effect on CRC. CRC believes that its properties are in compliance, in all material respects, with all federal, state and local environmental laws, ordinances and regulations. However, no assurance can be given that all environmental liabilities have been identified or that no prior owner, prior tenant or current tenant has created any material environmental condition not known to CRC, that the current environmental condition of CRC's properties will not be affected by tenants and occupants, by the condition of nearby properties, or by unrelated third parties, or that future uses or conditions (including, without limitation, changes in applicable environmental laws and regulations or the interpretation thereof) will not result in the imposition of environmental liability.

Asbestos-Containing Materials

Asbestos-containing materials are present in certain of CRC's properties, primarily in the form of vinyl asbestos tile, mastics and roofing materials, which are generally in good condition. Asbestos-containing materials in the form of spray-on fireproofing and thermal system insulation are also present in certain of CRC's properties in limited concentrations or in limited areas. The presence of such asbestos-containing materials does not violate currently applicable laws. Asbestos-containing materials are removed by CRC in the ordinary course of any renovation, reconstruction and expansion, and in connection with the retenanting of space. Although it is difficult to assess the costs of abatement or removal of such asbestos-containing materials at this time, and no assurance can be given as to the magnitude of such costs, CRC does not believe that such costs will be material to CRC's financial condition or results of operations.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

There are no material legal proceedings pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against CRC.

EMPLOYEES

As of June 1, 1998, CRC had no employees.

INSURANCE

CRC has commercial general liability, fire, flood, extended coverage and rental loss insurance with respect to all its properties and believes that such insurance provides adequate coverage.

JOINT VENTURES

At certain of CPI's properties held as joint ventures, CPI and its partners each have rights of first refusal, subject to certain conditions, to acquire additional ownership in such property should the other partner decide to sell its ownership interest. In addition, certain of CPI's properties held as joint ventures contain "buy-sell" provisions, which give the partners the right to trigger a purchase or sale of ownership interest amongst the partners.

MORTGAGE FINANCING ON PROPERTIES

See the table below which sets forth certain information regarding the mortgages and other debt encumbering the properties owned by CPI and CRC. All mortgages on the properties are non-recourse.

DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary is a description of certain provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Simon Group Charter"), the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of CRC (the "CRC Charter"), the Restated By-laws (the "Simon Group By-laws") of Simon Group and the Restated By-laws (the "CRC By-laws"), as each will be in effect at the consummation of the Merger. This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified by reference to the Simon Group Charter the CRC Charter and Simon Group By-laws the CRC By-laws, forms of which have been filed as exhibits to the Registration Statement of which this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is a part.

Under the Simon Group Charter, the total number of shares of all classes of capital stock that Simon Group will have authority to issue is 750,000,000 shares, par value $0.0001 per share, consisting of 400,000,000 shares of Simon Group Common Stock, 12,000,000 shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock, 4,000 shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock, 237,996,000 shares of Excess Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share ("Simon Group Excess Common Stock") and 100,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share ("Simon Group Preferred Stock"), of which 209,249 shares will be designated 6.50% Series A Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock"), 5,000,000 shares will be designated 6.50% Series B Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock"), 209,249 shares will be designated Series A Excess Preferred Stock (the "Simon Group Series A Excess Preferred Stock") and 5,000,000 shares have been designated Series B Excess Preferred Stock (the "Simon Group Series B Excess Preferred Stock" and, together with the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock, the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock and the Simon Group Series A Excess Preferred Stock, the "Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock").

Under the CRC Charter, CRC will have authority to issue 750,000 shares of Common Stock par value $0.0001 per share, of CRC ("CRC Common Stock").

COMMON STOCK; BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF CRC COMMON STOCK

SIMON GROUP COMMON STOCK, SIMON GROUP CLASS B COMMON STOCK AND SIMON GROUP CLASS C COMMON STOCK

As of March 31, 1998, after giving pro forma effect to the Merger and assuming the exercise of all CPI options, Simon Group will have 160,902,609 shares of Simon Group Common Stock outstanding, 3,200,000 shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock outstanding and 4,000 shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock outstanding. Holders of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders, other than the election of directors elected exclusively by the holders of Simon Group Class B Common Stock and the election of directors elected exclusively by the holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock. Holders of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock have no right to cumulative voting for the election of directors. Subject to preferential rights of holders of Simon Group Preferred Stock, the holders of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock are entitled to receive ratably such dividends as may be declared by the Simon Group Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor. If Simon Group is liquidated, subject to the right of the holders of Simon Group Preferred Stock (including any Simon Group Excess Preferred Stock (as defined below) into which shares such series has been converted) to receive preferential distributions, each outstanding share of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock, including shares of Simon Group Excess Common Stock, if any, will be entitled to participate pro rata in the assets remaining after payment of, or adequate provision for, all known debts and liabilities of Simon Group.

Special Rights of Simon Group Class B Common Stock

Upon consummation of the Merger, all outstanding shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock will be held by the Simons. The holders of Simon Group Class B Common Stock are entitled to elect four of the 13 directors of Simon Group, unless their portion of the aggregate equity interest of Simon Group (including Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and SDG Units considered on an as-converted basis) decreases to less than 50% of the amount that they owned as of August 9, 1996, in which case they will be entitled to elect only two directors of Simon Group.

Shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock may be converted at the holder's option into an equal number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock. If the Simons' aggregate equity interest in Simon Group on a fully diluted basis has been reduced to less than 5%, the outstanding shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock convert automatically into an equal number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock. Shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock also convert automatically into an equal number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock upon the sale or transfer thereof to a person not affiliated with the Simons. Holders of shares of Simon Group Common Stock and Simon Group Class B Common Stock have no sinking fund rights, redemption rights or preemptive rights to subscribe for any securities of Simon Group.

Special Rights of Simon Group Class C Common Stock

Upon consummation of the Merger, all outstanding shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock will be held by the DeBartolos. Except with respect to the right to elect directors, as summarized below, each share of Simon Group Class C Common Stock has the same rights and restrictions as a share of Simon Group Class B Common Stock.

The holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock are entitled to elect two of the 13 directors of Simon Group, unless their portion of the aggregate equity interest of Simon Group (including Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and SDG Units considered on an as-converted basis) decreases to less than 50% of the amount that they owned as of August 9, 1996, in which case they will be entitled to elect only one director of Simon Group. Shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock may be converted at the holder's option into an equal number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock. If the DeBartolos' aggregate equity interest in Simon Group on a fully diluted basis is reduced to less than 5%, the outstanding shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock convert automatically into an equal number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock. Shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock also convert automatically into an equal number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock upon the sale or transfer thereof to a person not affiliated with the DeBartolos. Holders of shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock have no sinking fund rights, redemption rights or preemptive rights to subscribe for any securities of Simon Group.

NUMBER OF DIRECTORS; INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS; VACANCIES; REMOVAL

Under the Simon Group Charter, so long as any shares of both Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock are outstanding, the number of members of the Simon Group Board of Directors shall be 13, so long as any shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock (but no Simon Group Class C Common Stock) are outstanding, or if any shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock (but no shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock) are outstanding, the number of members of the Simon Group Board of Directors shall be nine, and if no shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock or Simon Group Class C Common Stock are outstanding, the number of members of the Simon Group Board of Directors shall be fixed by the Simon Group Board of Directors from time to time. Under the Simon Group Charter, at least a majority of the directors shall be Independent Directors. The Simon Group Charter further provides that, subject to any separate rights of holders of Simon Group Preferred Stock or as described below, any vacancies on the Simon Group Board of Directors resulting from death, disability, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause of a director shall be filled by a vote of the stockholders or a majority of the directors then in office.

Any vacancies on the Simon Group Board of Directors with respect to a director elected by the holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock shall be filled as follows: (a) any vacancy resulting from the death, disability, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or other cause of Mr. Frederick W. Petri (and any person duly nominated and elected to serve as his replacement) shall be filled by the holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock, voting as a separate class, to elect as a replacement director a candidate who is an Independent Director, who has similar experience and standing in the business community to the Independent Directors and who has been approved by a majority of the Independent Directors elected by the holders of Simon Group Common Stock and other capital stock entitled to vote with the Simon Group Common Stock as a single class. If such Independent Directors do not approve such candidate, the holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock may propose another candidate for approval by a majority of such Independent Directors. The right of holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock to propose candidates to the Independent Directors shall continue until one such candidate is approved by a majority of such Independent Directors; (b) at any time prior to December 31, 2003, any vacancy in the seat on the Board of Directors occupied by Ms. Marie Denise DeBartolo York at the Effective Time other than one resulting from her death or disability shall reduce by such vacancy an equivalent number of the directors that holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock may, voting as a separate class, elect, and such vacancy shall be filled by a majority of the entire Board of Directors; and (c) any vacancy in the seat on the Board of Directors occupied by Ms. DeBartolo York at the Effective Time resulting from the death or disability of Ms. DeBartolo York, or (ii) at any time on or subsequent to December 31, 2003, shall be filled by holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock, voting as a separate class, to elect as a replacement director a candidate who is either (i) the Chief Executive Officer of EJDC (or any successor to such corporation), (ii) the Chief Financial Officer of EJDC (or any successor to such corporation), provided that such person was the Chief Financial Officer of EJDC at the Effective Time or (iii) an Independent Director, who has similar experience and standing in the business community to the Independent Directors and who has been approved by a majority of the Independent Directors elected by the holders of Simon Group Common Stock and other capital stock entitled to vote with the Simon Group Common Stock as a single class. If such Independent Directors do not approve such candidate, the holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock may propose another candidate for approval by a majority of such Independent Directors. The right of holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock to propose candidates to the Independent Directors shall continue until one such candidate is approved by a majority of such Independent Directors.

The Simon Group Charter provides that, subject to the right of holders of any class or series separately entitled to elect one or more directors, if any such right has been granted, directors may be removed with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all the then outstanding shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF CRC COMMON STOCK

All of the outstanding stock of CRC will be owned by the CRC Trusts for the benefit of Simon Group's stockholders, in proportion to the number of shares of common stock of Simon Group held by them, pursuant to a Trust Agreement, dated as of October 30, 1979 (the "Common Stock Trust Agreement"), a Trust Agreement, dated as of August 26, 1994 (the "Preference Shares Trust Agreement" and, together with the Common Stock Trust Agreement, the "Trust Agreements"). The Trust Agreements provide, and any CRC Trusts created in the future will provide, that all cash dividends and other assets received by the trustee for the relevant CRC Trust, exclusive of shares of stock, warrants and rights to purchase shares of stock, of CRC, will be distributed currently by such trustee to the beneficiaries of the CRC Trust in proportion to the respective number of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock held by them. Each of the Trust Agreements provides that the beneficial interest of the shares of CRC Common Stock held in trust are not transferable separately but only by and as part of a transfer of shares of Simon Group Equity Stock, and every sale or transfer of Simon Group Equity Stock shall include all or a proportionate part of such transferor's beneficial interest in the shares of stock of CRC or in any other assets held in the CRC Trust. Each of the Trust Agreements provides that the CRC Trusts shall terminate upon the earlier to occur of (i) the dissolution of Simon Group or (ii) upon notification to the trustee under the Trust Agreements of the vote to that effect, at a meeting or by proxy, of beneficiaries of the respective CRC Trust holding two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Simon Group Equity Stock. In addition, the Preference Shares Trust Agreement provides that shares held by the trustee thereunder will be transferred to the trustee under the Common Stock Trust Agreement as Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock is converted into Simon Group Common Stock.

Upon termination of any CRC Trust, the assets of such trust will be transferred and assigned to the beneficiaries of such CRC Trust.

Under the CRC Charter, the number of members of the CRC Board of Directors shall be 13 initially and may be fixed by the CRC Board of Directors in the future. The CRC Charter further provides that only directors of Simon Group may serve as directors of CRC. Under the CRC Charter, at least a majority of the directors shall be Independent Directors. Any vacancies on the CRC Board of Directors resulting from death, disability, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause shall be filled by a vote of the stockholders or a majority of the directors then in office. The CRC Charter provides that directors may be removed with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all of the then outstanding shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

Board of Directors of CRC. The trustee under each Trust Agreement is obligated under the Trust Agreement to which it is a party to vote the CRC Common Stock held by it so that each member of the Board of Directors of CRC is also a director of Simon Group.

PREFERRED STOCK

Subject to the restrictions prescribed by Delaware law and the Simon Group Charter, the Simon Group Board of Directors has the authority to issue the remaining authorized but unissued shares of Simon Group Preferred Stock in one or more series and to fix the designation, relative rights, preferences and limitations of shares of each series, including dividend rights, conversion rights, voting rights, terms of redemption, redemption prices, liquidation preferences and the number of shares constituting any series or the designation of such series, without further vote or action by the stockholders. The issuance of Simon Group Preferred Stock could decrease the amount of earnings and assets available for distribution to holders of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock and may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of Simon Group. Pursuant to the Simon Group Charter, whenever Simon Group designates a series of Simon Group Preferred Stock convertible into shares of Simon Group Common Stock, it must also designate an additional series of excess preferred stock of such series having substantially identical terms to such series of Simon Group Preferred Stock, but being subject to the transfer restrictions described below under "RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER". Any such series of excess preferred stock so designated, including the Simon Group Series A Excess Preferred Stock and the Simon Group Series B Excess Preferred Stock, are referred to herein collectively as "Simon Group Excess Preferred Stock."

SIMON GROUP CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

At March 31, 1998, after giving pro forma effect to the CPI Merger Dividends and assuming the exercise of all CPI options, based upon the number of shares of capital stock of CPI outstanding as of March 31, 1998, Simon Group would have had 209,249 shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and 4,966,038 shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock outstanding.

Priority

The Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock ranks, with respect to dividends, and the distribution of assets upon liquidation, senior to the Simon Group Equity Stock. The Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock rank on a parity with respect to each of such rights. Classification of authorized but unissued capital stock into additional shares of Simon Group Preferred Stock and issuance thereof, unless ranking junior to or on a parity with Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock, must be approved by two-thirds vote of the holders of each of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock.

Conversion Rights

Conversion Rate for Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock. Based upon the conversion price in effect at December 31, 1997, the holders of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock would have the right to convert their shares into the number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock obtained by dividing $1,000 (the liquidation preference) by $26.319 (the conversion price as adjusted for the Merger). The conversion price for the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock is subject to adjustment in connection with certain events discussed below under "-- Adjustments to Conversion Rates."

Conversion Rate for Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock. The holders of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock have the right to convert their shares into a number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock obtained by dividing $100 (the liquidation preference) by $38.669 (the conversion price). The conversion price for the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock is subject to adjustment in connection with certain events discussed below under "-- Adjustments to Conversion Rates."

Adjustments to Conversion Rates. The conversion prices for the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock and the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock are subject to adjustment in connection with certain events, including (i) any subdivision or combination of shares of Simon Group Common Stock or the declaration of a distribution payable to holders of Simon Group Common Stock in additional shares of Simon Group Common Stock, (ii) issuances of rights or warrants to all holders of Simon Group Common Stock having an exercise price less than the current market price per share of Simon Group Common Stock, and (iii) any consolidation or merger to which Simon Group is a party (other than in which Simon Group is the surviving person), any sale or conveyance to another person of all or substantially all the assets of Simon Group or any statutory exchange of securities with another person. In addition, the conversion price of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock is subject to adjustment in the event that Simon Group retains cash flow after the payment of distributions on Simon Group Equity Stock.

Dividends

Holders of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive cumulative annual cash dividends when, as and if declared by the Simon Group Board of Directors, in their sole discretion, of $65.53 per share (an approximately 6.50% annual dividend, based upon the $1,000 liquidation preference per share) payable in equal semiannual installments on March 31 and September 30 of each year. Holders of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to receive cumulative annual cash dividends when, as and if declared by the Simon Group Board of Directors, in their sole discretion, of $6.50 per share (an approximately 6.50% annual dividend, based upon the $100 liquidation preference per share) payable in equal quarterly installments on March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31 of each year.

Simon Group may not declare or pay any dividend on the Simon Group Common Stock, the Simon Group Class B Common Stock or the Simon Group Class C Common Stock or on any other class of stock ranking junior to Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock as to dividends and upon liquidation, distribution or winding up of Simon Group (the Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock, and Simon Group Class C Common Stock, and any other such junior class being referred to as the "Junior Stock"), other than in shares of Junior Stock or rights to purchase or acquire Junior Stock, and Simon Group may not redeem or make any payment on account of, or set apart money for, a sinking or other analogous fund for the purchase, redemption or other retirement of any Junior Stock or make any distribution in respect thereof, in each case, either directly or indirectly and whether in cash or property or in obligations or shares of Simon Group, unless and until such time as all accrued and unpaid dividends with respect to Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock have been paid (or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof is set apart for such payment) and sufficient funds have been set apart for the payment of the dividend for the current dividend period with respect to Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock.

Redemption of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock

Simon Group may redeem shares of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock for the purpose of maintaining or bringing the direct or indirect ownership of the capital stock of Simon Group into conformity with the requirements of Section 856(a)(6) of the Code at the greater of (i) a price equal to the liquidation preference of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock ($1,000 per share), plus dividends accrued and unpaid to the date of redemption, and (ii) the current market price of the Simon Group Common Stock issuable upon conversion of such shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock.

Redemption of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock

Simon Group may redeem shares of the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock at any time beginning on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Time at the following redemption prices (expressed as a percentage of the liquidation preference of the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock -- i.e., $100 per share), plus dividends accrued and unpaid to the date of redemption:

YEAR	%
2004	104%
2005	103%
2006	102%
2007	101%
2008 and thereafter	100%

Voting Rights of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock

The holders of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock have the right to vote with the holders of the Simon Group Common Stock on all matters, voting together with the holders of shares of Simon Group Common Stock as a single class, on an as-converted basis.

In addition, without the affirmative consent or approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock, Simon Group may not:

(i) authorize any class of stock ranking prior to the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock with respect to dividends or distribution of assets upon dissolution or winding up of Simon Group;

(ii) amend, alter or repeal any of the provisions of the Simon Group Charter so as to affect adversely the powers, preferences or rights of the holders of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock;

(iii) authorize or create, or increase the authorized amount of, any shares, or any security convertible into stock, of any class ranking prior to the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock with respect to dividends or distribution of assets upon dissolution or winding up of Simon Group;

(iv) merge or consolidate with or into any other person, unless each holder of shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock immediately preceding such merger or consolidation shall receive or continue to hold in the resulting person the same number of shares, with substantially the same rights and preferences, as correspond to the shares of Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock so held;

(v) increase the authorized number of shares of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock;

(vi) amend, alter or modify any of the provisions of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock; or

(vii) otherwise alter or change the powers, preferences, or rights, or qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the shares of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock so as to affect the holders thereof adversely.

Voting Rights of the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock

In the event dividends or amounts payable to the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock upon liquidation remain unpaid for six consecutive quarterly dividend periods, the size of the Board of Directors will automatically be increased by two and the holders of shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock will have the right to elect two directors to fill such vacant positions until such time as all dividends accrued and unpaid are paid in full.

In addition, without the affirmative consent or approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock, Simon Group may not:

(i) amend, alter or repeal any provision of the Simon Group Charter so as to materially adversely affect the rights, preferences, privileges or voting power of the holders of shares of Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock; or

(ii) authorize, create or increase the authorized or issued amount of any class or series of stock having rights senior to the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock with respect to the payment of distributions or amounts upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up the affairs of Simon Group or to create, authorize or issue any obligation or security convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase such shares.

Liquidation Rights

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of Simon Group (any or all of such events, a "liquidation"), the holders of Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock then outstanding shall be entitled to be paid out of the assets of Simon Group, before any payment shall be made to the holders of the Junior Stock, an amount equal to the relevant series of Simon Group Preferred Stock's liquidation preference -- $1,000 per share, in the case of the Simon Group Series A Preferred Stock, and $100 per share, in the case of the Simon Group Series B Preferred Stock -- plus an amount equal to any unpaid cumulative dividends on the Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock accrued to the date when such payment shall be made available to the holders thereof.

CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE SDG OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SRC OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SIMON GROUP CHARTER, THE CRC CHARTER, SIMON GROUP BY-LAWS AND CRC BY-LAWS AND DELAWARE LAW

SDG OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT AND THE SRC OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

The SDG Operating Partnership Agreement provides that Simon Group may not merge, consolidate or engage in any combination with another person other than a general partner of the SDG Operating Partnership or sell all or substantially all of its assets without the approval of the holders of a majority of the SDG Units held by the SDG Limited Partners. These voting requirements might limit the possibility for the acquisition or change in control of Simon Group, even if some of Simon Group's stockholders deem such a change to be in Simon Group's and their best interest.

The SRC Operating Partnership Agreement provides that CRC may not merge, consolidate or engage in any combination with another person or sell all or substantially all of its assets without the approval of the holders of a majority of the CRC Units held by the limited partners of the SRC Operating Partnership. These voting requirements might limit the possibility for the acquisition or change in control of CRC, even if some of the holders of beneficial interests in CRC deem such a change to be in CRC's and their best interest. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Certain Transactions and Agreements Relating to the Merger -- The Operating Partnerships; Simon Group Contribution Agreement."

DELAWARE LAW AND CERTAIN SIMON GROUP CHARTER, THE CRC CHARTER, SIMON GROUP BY-LAW AND CRC BY-LAW PROVISIONS

The Simon Group Charter and Simon Group By-laws and certain provisions of the DGCL may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect and that may delay, defer or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a stockholder might consider in its best interest, including an attempt that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by stockholders. These provisions are expected to discourage certain types of coercive takeover practices and inadequate takeover bids and to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of Simon Group to negotiate first with its Board of Directors. Simon Group's management believes that the benefits of these provisions outweigh the potential disadvantages of discouraging such proposals because, among other things, negotiation of such proposals might result in an improvement of their terms.

Delaware Anti-Takeover Law

Simon Group and CRC, Delaware corporations, are subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL ("Section 203"). In general, Section 203 prohibits a public Delaware corporation from engaging in a "business combination" with an "interested stockholder" for a period of three years after the time at which such person became an interested stockholder unless: (i) prior to such time, the Board of Directors approved either the business combination or transaction in which the stockholder became an interested stockholder; or (ii) upon becoming an interested stockholder, the stockholder owned at least 85% of the corporation's outstanding voting stock other than shares held by directors who are also officers and certain employee benefit plans; or (iii) the business combination is approved by both the Board of Directors and by holders of at least 66 2/3% of the corporation's outstanding voting stock (at a meeting and not by written consent), excluding shares owned by the interested stockholder. For these purposes, the terms "business combination" includes mergers, asset sales and other similar transactions with an "interested stockholder," and "interested stockholder" means a person who, together with its affiliates and associates, owns (or, under certain circumstances, has owned within the prior three years) more than 15% of the outstanding voting stock. Although Section 203 permits a corporation to elect not to be governed by its provisions, neither Simon Group nor CRC have made this election.

ADVANCE NOTICE PROVISIONS FOR STOCKHOLDER NOMINATIONS AND STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

The Simon Group By-laws and the CRC By-laws establish an advance notice procedure for stockholders to make nominations of candidates for election as directors or bring other business before an annual meeting of stockholders of Simon Group or CRC, as applicable. This procedure provides that (i) only persons who are nominated by, or at the direction of, the Board of Directors, or by a stockholder who has given timely written notice containing specified information to the Secretary prior to the meeting at which directors are to be elected, will be eligible for election as directors of Simon Group or CRC, as applicable, and (ii) at an annual meeting only such business may be conducted as has been brought before the meeting by, or at the direction of, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or by a stockholder who has given timely written notice to the Secretary of such stockholder's intention to bring such business before such meeting. In general, for notice of stockholder nominations or business to be made at an annual meeting to be timely, such notice must be received by Simon Group or CRC, as applicable, not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting. Such notice must contain information concerning the person or persons to be nominated or the matters to be brought before the meeting and concerning the stockholder submitting the proposal.

The purpose of requiring stockholders to give Simon Group or CRC advance notice of nominations and other business is to afford the Board of Directors a meaningful opportunity to consider the qualifications of the proposed nominees or the advisability of the other proposed business and, to the extent deemed necessary or desirable by the Board of Directors, to inform stockholders and make recommendations about such qualifications or business, as well as to provide a more orderly procedure for conducting meetings of stockholders. Although neither the Simon Group By-laws nor the CRC By-laws give the applicable Board of Directors any power to disapprove stockholder nominations for the election of directors or proposals for action, they may have the effect of precluding a contest for the election of directors or the consideration of stockholder proposals if the proper procedures are not followed, and of discouraging or deterring a third party from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect its own slate of directors or to approve its own proposal, without regard to whether consideration of such nominees or proposals might be harmful or beneficial to Simon Group and CRC and their stockholders.

DIRECTOR ACTION

The Simon Group Charter, CRC Charter, Simon Group By-laws, CRC By-laws and DGCL generally require that a majority of a quorum is necessary to approve any matter to come before the Simon Group or CRC Board of Directors; however, certain matters including sales of property, transactions with the Simons or the DeBartolos and certain affiliates and certain other matters will also require approval of a majority of the Independent Directors on the Simon Group and CRC Board of Directors.

DIRECTOR LIABILITY LIMITATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

Both the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter provide that no director of Simon Group will be personally liable to the corporation or to its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, however, that such provision will not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for: (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation and its stockholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith; (iii) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; or (iv) any matter in respect of which such director would be liable under Section 174 of the DGCL. These provisions may have the effect of discouraging stockholders' actions against directors. The personal liability of a director for violation of the federal securities laws is not limited or otherwise affected. In addition, these provisions do not affect the ability of stockholders to obtain injunctive or other equitable relief from the courts with respect to a transaction involving gross negligence on the part of a director.

The Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter provide that Simon Group shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of Simon Group or CRC, as applicable, or is or was serving at the request of Simon Group or CRC, as applicable, as a director, officer or trustee of or in any other capacity with another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Simon Group or CRC, as applicable, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The DGCL provides that indemnification is mandatory where a director, or officer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any proceeding covered by the indemnification statute.

The DGCL generally permits indemnification for expenses incurred in the defense or settlement of third-party actions or action by or in right of the corporation, and for judgments in third party actions, provided there is a determination by directors who were not parties to the action, or if directed by such directors, by independent legal counsel or by a majority vote of a quorum of the stockholders, that the person seeking indemnification acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, or in a criminal proceeding that the person had no reason to believe his or her conduct to be unlawful. Without court approval, however, no indemnification may be made in respect of any action by or in right of the corporation in which such person is adjudged liable. The DGCL states that the indemnification provided by statute shall not be deemed exclusive of any rights under any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise. In addition, the liability of officers may not be eliminated or limited under Delaware law.

The right of indemnification, including the right to receive payment in advance of expenses, conferred by each of the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter is not exclusive of any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification may otherwise be entitled.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER

The Simon Group Charter contains certain restrictions on the number of shares of capital stock of Simon Group (including the Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock, Simon Group Class C Common Stock, Simon Group Convertible Preferred Stock and any other series of Simon Group Preferred Stock convertible into any class of common stock of Simon Group) that individual stockholders may own. For Simon Group to qualify as a REIT under the Code, in addition to other requirements discussed in "Federal Income Tax Considerations," not more than 50% in value of the outstanding capital stock of Simon Group may be owned, directly or indirectly, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Code to include certain entities) during the last half of a taxable year (other than the first year) and the capital stock also must be beneficially owned by 100 or more persons during at least 335 days of a taxable year of 12 months or during a proportionate part of a shorter taxable year. In part because the management of Simon Group currently believes it is essential for Simon Group to maintain its status as a REIT, the provisions of the Simon Group Charter with respect to Simon Group Excess Stock contain restrictions on the acquisition of its capital stock intended to ensure compliance with these requirements.

The Simon Group Charter provides that, subject to certain specified exceptions, no stockholder may own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution provisions of the Code, more than the ownership limit (the "Ownership Limit"), which is equal to 8% (18% in the case of the Simons) of any class of capital stock of Simon Group (calculated based on the lower of outstanding shares, voting power or value). In the event of a purported transfer or other event that would, if effective, result in the ownership of shares of stock in violation of the Ownership Limit, such transfer or other event with respect to that number of shares that would be owned by the transferee in excess of the Ownership Limit would be deemed void ab initio and the intended transferee would acquire no rights in such shares of stock. Such shares of stock would automatically be converted into shares of Simon Group Excess Stock according to rules set forth in the Simon Group Charter, to the extent necessary to ensure that the purported transfer or other event does not result in ownership of shares of stock in violation of the Ownership Limit. The Simon Group Board of Directors may exempt a person from the Ownership Limit if they receive a ruling from the IRS or an opinion of tax counsel that such ownership will not jeopardize Simon Group's status as a REIT. Stock of Simon Group that is held by a "qualified trust" within the meaning of Section 856(h)(3) of the Code is treated as held proportionately by the beneficiaries of such trust. Simon Group has agreed to waive its charter provisions such that the Telephone Real Estate Equity Trust may acquire up to 11% of the capital stock of Simon Group, provided that it remains treated as a "qualified trust," but will become subject to the 8% limitation if it fails to be so treated.

Upon a purported transfer or other event that results in either Simon Group Excess Common Stock or Simon Group Excess Preferred Stock (collectively, "Simon Group Excess Stock"), the Simon Group Excess Stock will be deemed to have been transferred to a trustee to be held in trust for the exclusive benefit of a qualifying charitable organization designated by Simon Group. Such Simon Group Excess Stock will be issued and outstanding stock of Simon Group, and it will be entitled to dividends equal to any dividends which are declared and paid on such stock. Any dividend or distribution paid prior to the discovery by Simon Group that stock has been converted into Simon Group Excess Stock is to be repaid upon demand. The recipient of such dividend will be personally liable to the trust. Any dividend or distribution declared but unpaid will be rescinded as void ab initio with respect to such shares of stock and will automatically be deemed to have been declared and paid with respect to the shares of Simon Group Excess Stock into which such shares were converted. Such Simon Group Excess Stock will also be entitled to such voting rights as are ascribed to the stock from which such shares of Simon Group Excess Stock were converted. Any voting rights exercised prior to discovery by Simon Group that shares of stock were converted to Simon Group Excess Stock will be rescinded and recast as determined by the trustee.

While Simon Group Excess Stock is held in trust, an interest in that trust may be transferred by the purported transferee, or other purported holder with respect to such Simon Group Excess Stock only to a person whose ownership of the shares of stock would not violate the Ownership Limit, at which time the Simon Group Excess Stock will be automatically exchanged for the same number of shares of stock of the same type and class as the shares of stock for which the Simon Group Excess Stock was originally exchanged.

The Simon Group Charter contains provisions that are designed to ensure that the purported transferee or other purported holder of the Simon Group Excess Stock may not receive in return for such a transfer an amount that reflects any appreciation in the shares of stock for which such Simon Group Excess Stock was exchanged during the period that such Simon Group Excess Stock was outstanding. Any amount received by a purported transferee or other purported holder in excess of the amount permitted to be received must be paid over to the trust. If the foregoing restrictions are determined to be void or invalid by virtue of any legal decision, statute, rule or regulation, then the intended transferee or holder of any Simon Group Excess Stock may be deemed, at the option of Simon Group, to have acted as an agent on behalf of the trust in acquiring or holding such Simon Group Excess Stock and to hold such Simon Group Excess Stock on behalf of the trust.

The Simon Group Charter further provides that Simon Group may purchase, for a period of 90 days during the time the Simon Group Excess Stock is held by the trustee in trust, all or any portion of the Simon Group Excess Stock from the original transferee-stockholder at the lesser of the price paid for the stock by the purported transferee (or if no notice of such purchase price is given, at a price to be determined by the Simon Group Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, but no lower than the lowest market price of such stock at any time prior to the date Simon Group exercises its purchase option) and the closing market price for the stock on the date Simon Group exercises its option to purchase. The 90-day period begins on the date of the violative transfer or other event if the original transferee-stockholder gives notice to Simon Group of the transfer or (if no notice is given) the date the Simon Group Board of Directors determines that a violative transfer or other event has been made.

The Simon Group Charter further provides that in the event of a purported issuance or transfer that would, if effective, result in Simon Group being beneficially owned by fewer than 100 persons, such issuance or transfer would be deemed null and void ab initio, and the intended transferee would acquire no rights to the stock.

All certificates representing shares of any class of stock of Simon Group bear a legend referring to the restrictions described above.

All persons who own, directly or by virtue of the attribution provisions of the Code, more than 5% (or such other percentage as may be required by the Code or regulations promulgated thereunder) of the outstanding stock must file an affidavit with Simon Group containing the information specified in the Simon Group Charter before January 30 of each year. In addition, each stockholder shall, upon demand, be required to disclose to Simon Group in writing such information with respect to the direct, indirect and constructive ownership of shares as the Board of Directors deems necessary to comply with the provisions of the Simon Group Charter or the Code applicable to a REIT.

The Simon Group Excess Stock provision will not be removed automatically even if the REIT provisions of the Code are changed so as to no longer contain any ownership concentration limitation or if the ownership concentration limitation is increased. In addition to preserving Simon Group's status as a REIT, the Ownership Limit may have the effect of precluding an acquisition of control of Simon Group without the approval of the Simon Group Board of Directors.

Beneficial interests in the CRC Common Stock are not certificated and are not separately transferable from Simon Group Equity Stock.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SDG COMMON STOCK AND SIMON GROUP AND CRC COMMON STOCK

SDG is organized under the laws of the State of Maryland and Simon Group is organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. The following discussion summarizes certain material differences between the SDG Charter and SDG By-laws and the Simon Group Charter and Simon Group By-laws and the CRC Charter and CRC By-laws and between certain provisions of the MGCL and the DGCL affecting stockholders' rights. This summary of the comparative rights of the stockholders of SDG and the stockholders of Simon Group does not purport to be complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the MGCL and the DGCL and also to the SDG Charter, SDG By-laws, Simon Group Charter, Simon Group By-laws, CRC Charter and CRC By-laws. Copies of the SDG Charter, SDG By-laws, Simon Group Charter, Simon Group By-laws, CRC Charter and CRC By-laws are available for inspection at the principal executive offices of SDG and copies will be sent to holders of SDG Equity Stock upon request.

Number of Directors

Under the SDG Charter, the number of directors of SDG shall never be less than the minimum number permitted by the MGCL and so long as any shares of both SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock are outstanding, the number of directors of SDG shall be thirteen; so long as any shares of SDG Class B Common Stock (but no SDG Class C Common Stock) are outstanding, the number of directors of SDG shall be nine; and so long as any shares of SDG Class C Common Stock (but no SDG Class B Common Stock) are outstanding, the number of directors of SDG shall be nine. At least a majority of the directors shall be Independent Directors. There are currently 13 directors serving on the SDG Board of Directors.

Under the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter, the Simon Group Board of Directors and the CRC Board of Directors shall never be less than the minimum number permitted by the DGCL. In addition, so long as any shares of both Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock are outstanding, the number of directors of Simon Group shall be thirteen; so long as any shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock (but no Simon Group Class C Common Stock) are outstanding, the number of directors of Simon Group shall be nine; so long as any shares of Simon Group Class C Common Stock (but no Simon Group Class B Common Stock) are outstanding, the number of directors of Simon Group shall be nine; and so long as no shares of Simon Group Class B Common Stock or Simon Group Class C Common Stock are outstanding, the number of directors of Simon Group shall be fixed by the Simon Group Board of Directors from time to time. The number of directors of CRC shall be fixed by CRC Board of Directors from time to time. The CRC Charter further provides that only directors of Simon Group may serve as directors of CRC. At least a majority of the directors on each of the Simon Group Board of Directors and the CRC Board of Directors shall be Independent Directors. There are currently 13 directors serving on each of the Simon Group Board of Directors and the CRC Board of Directors. See "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP CAPITAL STOCK -- COMMON STOCK; BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF CRC COMMON STOCK -- Number of Directors; Independent Directors; Vacancies; Removal."

Removal of Directors

Under the MGCL, except as otherwise provided in a corporation's charter, the stockholders generally may remove any director, with or without cause, by the vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast in the election of the directors. The SDG Charter provides that, subject to the rights of the holders of any class of stock separately entitled to elect one or more directors, a director may only be removed for cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the holders of at least a majority of the combined voting power of all the votes entitled to be cast in the election of the directors.

Under the DGCL, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the election of directors is required to remove directors, with or without cause, except that whenever the holders of a class or series are entitled to elect one or more directors by the certificate of incorporation, then with respect to the removal without cause of a director or directors so elected, the vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of that class or series and not the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole shall be required. The Simon Group Charter provides that, subject to the rights of holders of any class separately entitled to elect one or more directors, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the combined voting power of all shares entitled to vote in the election for directors is required to remove a director with or without cause. The CRC Charter provides that directors may be removed with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all of the then outstanding shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

Under the MGCL, stockholders may elect a successor to fill a vacancy on the board of directors which results from the removal of a director. A director elected by the stockholders to fill a vacancy which results from the removal of a director serves for the balance of the term of the removed director. Otherwise, the MGCL provides that a majority of the remaining directors may fill a vacancy, unless it results from an increase in the size of the board. Any vacancy resulting from the increase in the number of directors may be filled by a majority of the entire board. A director elected by the board of directors to fill a vacancy serves until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his successor is elected and qualified. There is no provision in the MGCL providing for the filling of vacancies on the board of directors by Maryland courts.

The DGCL provides that vacancies and newly created directorships may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office or a sole remaining director (even though less than quorum) unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or by-laws. However, the DGCL also provides that if the directors then in office constitute less than a majority of the corporation's whole board of directors (as constituted prior to any such increase), then, upon application by stockholders representing at least 10% of outstanding shares entitled to vote for such directors, the Court of Chancery may order a stockholder election of directors to be held.

Each of the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter provides substantially the same provisions with respect to the filling of vacancies of the Board of Directors as the SDG Charter. See "DESCRIPTION OF SIMON GROUP CAPITAL STOCK -- COMMON STOCK; BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF CRC COMMON STOCK -- Number of Directors; Independent Directors; Vacancies; Removal."

Interested Director Transactions

Under both the MGCL and the DGCL, certain contracts or transactions in which one or more of a corporation's directors has an interest are not void or voidable solely because of such interest if such contract or transaction (a) is ratified by the stockholders (as set forth below) or a majority of disinterested members of the board of directors or a committee thereof if the material facts are disclosed or known thereto, or (b) was fair (and under the MGCL, reasonable) to the corporation at the time it was approved. Under the MGCL, such ratification must be made by a majority of the disinterested stockholders. Under the DGCL, any ratification of such a contract or transaction by the stockholders must be made by a majority of all stockholders in good faith.

Amendment to Charter or Certificate of Incorporation

Under the MGCL, the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter is required to amend a corporation's charter; however, the charter of the corporation may provide for a greater or lesser proportion of the votes entitled to be cast to approve a charter amendment as long as the vote is not less than a majority of the votes entitled to be cast.

Under the DGCL, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote is required to amend a corporation's certificate of incorporation. Under the DGCL, the holders of the outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled to vote as a class upon a proposed amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the certificate of incorporation, if the amendment would increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class, increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class, or alter or change the powers, preferences, or special rights of the shares of such class so as to affect them adversely. If any proposed amendment would alter or change the powers, preferences, or special rights of one or more series of any class so as to affect them adversely, but shall not so affect the entire class, then only the shares of the series so affected by the amendment shall be considered a separate class for the purposes of this provision.

The SDG Charter provides that the SDG Charter may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than a majority of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast thereon (considered for these purposes as a single class) at either a special or annual meeting of the stockholders. However, the SDG Charter provides that the affirmative vote of 80% of the aggregate votes entitled be cast, voting as a single class, is required to amend certain sections of the charter, including the provisions that require the SDG Board of Directors to consider constituencies other than stockholders when considering Business Combinations, eliminate the personal liability of a director to SDG, and address stockholder proposals. In addition, amendments with respect to (x) the composition of the SDG Board of Directors will require the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast thereon, voting as a single class, and the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast thereon by holders of each of the SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock, each voting as a separate class; and (y) rights or restrictions of SDG Class B Common Stock or SDG Class C Common Stock will require the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast thereon, voting as a single class, and the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast by the holders of SDG Class B Common Stock or SDG Class C Common Stock, as the case may be. The Simon Group Charter provides substantially the same provisions as the SDG Charter, except that there is no similar provision requiring the Simon Group Board of Directors to consider constituencies other than stockholders. The CRC Charter has substantially the same provisions as the Simon Group Charter except that there is only one class of common stock and so there are no special provision requiring the affirmative vote of holders of other classes of stock as discussed in clauses (x) and (y) above.

Amendment of By-laws

Under the MGCL, the power to adopt, amend, or repeal a corporation's by-laws is vested in the corporation's stockholders, except to the extent the corporation's charter or by-laws vest it in the board of directors. The SDG By-laws provide, subject to the certain provisions relating to the number and election of directors as contained in the SDG Charter, that the By-laws may be repealed, altered, amended or rescinded (a) by the stockholders (considered for this purpose as one class) by the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of all the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of directors which are cast on the matter at any meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose or (b) by a vote of two-thirds of the SDG Board of Directors (including at least a majority of the directors elected by the SDG Class B Common Stock and at least one director elected by SDG Class C Common Stock) at a meeting of the SDG Board of Directors (except for the provision in the SDG By-laws which requires the affirmative vote of six Independent Directors to cause the sale of property owned by partnerships in which SDG acts as a general partner).

Under the DGCL, the by-laws may be amended by the action of the stockholders and, if so provided in the charter, the directors. Both the Simon Group Charter and the CRC Charter provide that the By-laws may be amended, altered, or repealed only by the affirmative vote of 80% of the stockholders or by a vote of two-thirds of the Simon Group Board of Directors (including at least a majority of the directors elected by the Simon Group Class B Common Stock and at least one director elected by Simon Group Class C Common Stock) or the CRC Board of Directors, as applicable, at a meeting of such Board of Directors.

Stockholder Meetings and Provisions for Notices; Proxies

Under the MGCL and the DGCL, stockholder meetings may be held at any place, as provided in the by-laws. However, the MGCL requires the meetings to be held in the United States. The DGCL has no such requirement. Under both the MGCL and the DGCL, written notice of a stockholders meeting must state the place, date, and time of the meeting, and if a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is to be held. Under the SDG By-laws, not less than 10 days nor more than 90 days before the date of every stockholders' meeting, the SDG Secretary shall give, to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting and each other stockholder entitled to notice of the meeting, written or printed notice stating the time and place of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, either by mail or by presenting it to him personally or by leaving it at his residence or usual place of business. Both the Simon Group By-laws and the CRC By-laws provide that written notice of every meeting of the stockholders, stating the place, date, and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, will be given not less than 10 nor more than 60 calendar days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

Under the MGCL, proxies are valid for 11 months from their date, unless the proxy otherwise provides. Under the DGCL, however, stockholder proxies are valid for three years from their date unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

Voting by Stockholders

The SDG Charter provides that holders of SDG Common Stock, SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders, other than the election of directors elected exclusively by the holders of SDG Class B Common Stock and the election of directors elected exclusively by the holders of SDG Class C Common Stock. Holders of SDG Common Stock, SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock have no right to cumulative voting for the election of directors. The SDG By-laws provide that, in all elections for directors, every stockholder shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the shares owned of record by the stockholder. At all meetings of stockholders, the proxies and ballots shall be received by the chairman of the meeting. If demanded by stockholders entitled to cast 10% in number of votes entitled to be cast, or if ordered by the chairman of the meeting, the voting shall be conducted by two inspectors. The stockholders at any meeting may choose the inspectors, however, no candidate for election as a director at a meeting shall serve as an inspector at any meeting of stockholders.

The Simon Group Charter provides that holders of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders, other than the election of directors elected exclusively by the holders of Simon Group Class B Common Stock and the election of directors elected exclusively by the holders of Simon Group Class C Common Stock. Holders of Simon Group Common Stock, Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock have no right to cumulative voting for the election of directors. Under the CRC Charter, holders of CRC Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders and holders of CRC Common Stock have no right to cumulative voting for the election of directors. Under both the Simon Group By-laws and the CRC By-laws, at all meetings of stockholders the proxies and ballots shall be received by the chairman of the meeting. If demanded by stockholders entitled to cast 10% in number of votes entitled to be cast, or if ordered by the chairman, the voting shall be taken either by ballot or conducted by an inspector.

Stockholder Action Without a Meeting

Under the MGCL, stockholders may act by written consent only if all stockholders entitled to vote on the matter that is the subject of the written consent sign the consent. Under the DGCL, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, actions may be taken by the stockholders of a Delaware corporation by written consent, provided that the written consent is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take the action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the matter were present and voted. The Simon Group Charter provides that stockholder actions must be taken at an annual or special meeting and may not be taken by written consent, except that holders of Simon Group Class B Common Stock and Simon Group Class C Common Stock may act by written consent without a meeting on matters submitted exclusively to the vote of the holder of Simon Group Class B Common Stock or Simon Group Class C Common Stock. The CRC Charter provides for stockholder action to be taken by written consent without a meeting.

Business Combinations

Under the MGCL, certain "business combinations" (including a merger, consolidation, share exchange, or, in certain circumstances, an asset transfer or issuance or reclassification of equity securities) between a Maryland corporation and (i) any person who beneficially owns 10% or more of the voting power of the corporation's shares, (ii) an affiliate of such corporation who, at any time within the two-year period prior to the date in question, was the beneficial owner of 10% or more of the voting power of the then-outstanding voting stock of the corporation (in either case, an "Interested Stockholder"), or (iii) any affiliate of an Interested Stockholder, are prohibited for five years after the most recent date on which the Interested Stockholder became an Interested Stockholder, and thereafter must be recommended by the board of directors of the Maryland corporation and approved by the affirmative vote of at least (a) 80% of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of its outstanding voting shares, and (b) two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of such outstanding voting shares, other than shares held by the Interested Stockholder with whom (or with whose affiliate) the business combination is to be effected unless, among other conditions, the corporation's stockholders receive a minimum price (as defined in the MGCL) for their shares and the consideration is received in cash or in the same form as previously paid by the Interested Stockholder for its shares. These provisions of the MGCL do not apply to business combinations that are approved or exempted by the board of directors of the corporation prior to the time that the Interested Stockholder becomes an Interested Stockholder.

Under Section 203, certain "business combinations" with "interested stockholders" (each as defined in Section 203) of Delaware corporations are subject to a three-year moratorium unless specified conditions are met. See "CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE SDG PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, SRC PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SIMON GROUP CHARTER, THE CRC CHARTER, SIMON GROUP BY-LAWS AND CRC BY-LAWS AND DELAWARE LAW -- Delaware Law and Certain Simon Group Charter, CRC Charter, Simon Group By-law and CRC By-laws Provisions -- Delaware Anti-Takeover Law."

Appraisal Rights

Under the MGCL, holders of shares of SDG Class B Common Stock and SDG Class C Common Stock will be entitled to appraisal rights under Maryland law with respect to the Merger; however, holders of shares of SDG Common Stock, SDG Series B Preferred Stock and SDG Series C Preferred Stock will not have appraisal rights under Maryland law with respect to the Merger. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RELATED MATTERS -- Appraisal Rights" and Annex E.

Under the DGCL, stockholders of a corporation who do not consent to certain major corporate transactions may, under varying circumstances, be entitled to appraisal rights pursuant to which such stockholders may receive cash in the amount of the fair market value of their shares in lieu of the consideration which otherwise would have been received in the transaction. Unless the corporation's certificate of incorporation provides otherwise, such appraisal rights are not available in certain circumstances, including without limitation, (a) with respect to the sale, lease, or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation, (b) with respect to a merger or consolidation by a corporation the shares of which are either listed on a national securities exchange or are held of record by more than 2,000 holders if such stockholders receive only shares of the surviving corporation or shares of any other corporation which are either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares, or (c) to stockholders of a corporation surviving a merger if no vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation is required to approve the merger because the merger agreement does not amend the existing certificate of incorporation, each share of the surviving corporation outstanding prior to the merger is an identical outstanding or treasury share after the merger, and the number of shares to be issued in the merger does not exceed 20% of the shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately prior to the merger and if certain other conditions are met.

Dividends

The MGCL permits a corporation, subject to any provision in its charter, to make a distribution, including dividends, redemptions or stock repurchases, unless, after such distribution, the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business or the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its liabilities and, unless the charter provides otherwise, liquidation preferences of stock senior to the stock on which the distribution is proposed to be made. For purposes of determining whether a distribution is lawful, the corporation's assets may be based upon fair value or any other method of valuation that is reasonable under the circumstances.

The DGCL permits a corporation to declare and pay dividends out of surplus or, if there is no surplus, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or for the preceding fiscal year as long as the amount of capital of the corporation following the declaration and payment of the dividend is not less than the aggregate amount of the capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. In addition, the DGCL generally provides that a corporation may redeem or repurchase its shares only if such redemption or repurchase would not impair the capital of the corporation, except that it may repurchase shares having a preference upon the distribution of any of its assets or, if no shares entitled to a preference are outstanding, any of its shares if it retires such shares upon acquisition and reduces the corporation's capital in connection therewith (and provided, that after any reduction in capital made in connection with such retirement of shares, the corporation's remaining assets must be sufficient to pay any debts not otherwise provided for).

Limitation of Liability and Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The MGCL permits a Maryland corporation to include in its charter a provision limiting the liability of its directors and officers to the corporation and its stockholders for money damages except for liability resulting from (a) actual receipt of an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services or (b) active and deliberate dishonesty established by a final judgment as being material to the cause of action. The SDG Charter contains such a provision which eliminates such liability to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law.

The SDG Charter authorizes SDG, to the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law, to indemnify and to pay or reimburse reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding to any director or officer, whether serving SDG or, at its request, any other entity. The SDG Charter and SDG Bylaws also permit SDG to indemnify and advance expenses to any employee or agent of SDG.

The MGCL requires a corporation (unless its charter provides otherwise, which the SDG Charter does not) to indemnify a director or officer who has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he is made a party by reason of his service in that capacity. The MGCL permits a corporation to indemnify its present and former directors and officers, among others, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that (a) the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and (i) was committed in bad faith or (ii) was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty, (b) the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services or (c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. However, under the MGCL, a Maryland corporation may not indemnify for an adverse judgment in a suit by or in the right of the corporation or for a judgment of liability on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received, unless in either case a court orders indemnification and then only for expenses. In addition, the MGCL permits a corporation to advance reasonable expenses to a director or officer upon the corporation's receipt of (a) a written affirmation by the director or officer of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation and (b) a written undertaking by him or on his behalf to repay the amount paid or reimbursed by the corporation if it shall ultimately be determined that the standard of conduct was not met.

See "CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE SDG OPERATING PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT, THE SIMON GROUP CHARTER, CRC CHARTER, SIMON GROUP BY-LAWS AND CRC BY-LAWS AND DELAWARE LAW -- Director Liability Limitation and Indemnification" for a discussion of the director liability limitation and indemnification provisions in the Simon Group Charter, the CRC Charter, Simon Group By-laws and CRC By-laws and under Delaware law.

SDG ANNUAL MEETING MATTERS

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of SDG Equity Stock and SDG Units as of March 31, 1998, by (i) each director and nominee for director, (ii) the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, (iii) each person who is known by SDG to beneficially own more than 5% of SDG Equity Stock, and (iv) all current directors and executive officers of SDG as a group. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes, shares of SDG Equity Stock or SDG Units are owned directly, and the indicated person has sole voting and investment power.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the SDG Annual Meeting, eleven (11) directors are to be elected to serve until their successors are elected and have qualified. Five (5) Independent Directors are to be elected by the holders of SDG Equity Stock, four (4) directors are to be elected by the holders of SDG Class B Common Stock and two (2) directors are to be elected by the holders of SDG Class C Common Stock. It is the intention of the persons named in the Proxy hereby solicited to vote for the directors to be elected by the holders of SDG Equity Stock, named below, unless otherwise specified in the Proxy. Should any of these nominees become unable to accept nomination or election (which is not anticipated), it is the intention of the persons designated as proxies to vote for the election of the remaining nominees and for such substitute nominees as the SDG Board of Directors may designate.

By virtue of a voting trust agreement, the shares of SDG Class B Common Stock are held until December 20, 2003, by a voting trust and such trust is obligated to elect Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon as directors of SDG. A plurality of the votes cast is required to elect directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on such voting. Holders of SDG Class B Common Stock have informed SDG that they intend to cause all such shares to be voted in favor of Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon. Holders of SDG Class C Common Stock have informed SDG that they intend to cause all such shares to be voted in favor of Mr. Frederick W. Petri and Ms. M. Denise DeBartolo York.

Set forth below are the names of and certain other information regarding the nominees for the five (5) director positions to be elected by the holders of the SDG Equity Stock, the nominees for the four (4) director positions to be elected by the holders of SDG Class B Common Stock and the nominees for the two (2) director positions to be elected by the holders of SDG Class C Common Stock at the SDG Annual Meeting. Information about each nominee's ownership of equity securities of SDG appears in "-- Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management."

THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE NOMINEES NAMED BELOW

He served as the President and Chief Executive Officer and a director of DRC from its incorporation until the DeBartolo Merger. Prior to that he had served as Senior Vice President, Development of EJDC since 1986 and as Vice President and General Counsel since 1982. In addition, Mr. Sokolov is a trustee, the incoming chairman (commencing May 1998) and a member of the Executive Committee of the International Council of Shopping Centers.

NOMINEES FOR CLASS C DIRECTORS TO BE ELECTED BY HOLDERS OF SDG CLASS C COMMON STOCK

Fredrick W. Petri, 51, has been a director of SDG since the DeBartolo Merger. He is a partner of Petrone, Petri & Company, a real estate investment firm he founded in 1993, and an officer of Housing Capital Company since its formation in 1994. Prior thereto, he was an Executive Vice President of Wells Fargo Bank, where for over 18 years he held various real estate positions. Mr. Petri is currently a trustee of the Urban Land Institute and a director of Storage Trust Realty. He previously was a member of the Board of Governors and a Vice President of NAREIT and a director of the National Association of Industrial and Office Park Development. He is a director of the University of Wisconsin's Real Estate Center.

M. Denise DeBartolo York, 47, has been a director of SDG since the DeBartolo Merger. She served as a director of DRC from its incorporation until the DeBartolo Merger. She serves as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of EJDC and DeBartolo, Inc. Ms. DeBartolo York previously served EJDC as Executive Vice President of Personnel/Communications and has been associated with EJDC in an executive capacity since 1975. She is the daughter of the late Edward J. DeBartolo.

DIRECTORS CONTINUING IN OFFICE UNTIL 1999

J. Albert Smith, Jr., 58, has been a director of SDG since 1993. He is the President of Bank One, Indiana, NA, a commercial bank, a position he has held since September 30, 1994. Prior to his current position, he was the President of Banc One Mortgage Corporation, a mortgage banking firm, a position he held since 1975.

Philip J. Ward, 49, has been a director of SDG since the DeBartolo Merger. He has been Senior Managing Director, Head of Real Estate Investments, for CIGNA Investments, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of CIGNA Corporation since 1985. He is a member of the International Council of Shopping Centers, the Urban Land Institute, the National Association of Industrial and Office Parks and the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors. He is a director of the Connecticut Investment Fund and Wyndham Hotel Corporation.

ATTENDANCE AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The SDG Board of Directors held nine meetings during 1997. The SDG Board of Directors has established four standing committees: the SDG Compensation Committee, the SDG Audit Committee, the SDG Executive Committee and the SDG Nominating Committee. All incumbent directors attended 75% or more of the meetings of the SDG Board of Directors and each committee on which they served.

The SDG Compensation Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Bayh, DeBartolo, Prindiville, Herbert Simon and Ward, sets remuneration levels for officers of SDG, reviews significant employee benefit programs and establishes, as it deems appropriate, and administers executive compensation programs, including bonus plans, stock option and other equity-based programs, deferred compensation plans and any other cash or stock incentive programs. The SDG Compensation Committee met two times during 1997.

The SDG Audit Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Dillard, Miller, Petri and Smith, makes recommendations concerning the engagement of independent public accountants, reviews with the independent public accountants the scope of the audit engagement, reviews the independent public accountants' letter of comments and management's responses thereto, approves professional services provided by the independent public accountants, reviews the independence of the independent public accountants, reviews any major accounting changes made or contemplated, considers the range of audit and non-audit fees, and reviews the adequacy of SDG's internal accounting controls. The SDG Audit Committee met two times during 1997.

The SDG Executive Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. David Simon, Herbert Simon, Melvin Simon and Sokolov, approves the acquisition and disposition of real property, authorizes the execution of certain contracts and agreements, including those related to the borrowing of money by SDG, and generally exercises all other powers of the SDG Board of Directors between meetings of the SDG Board of Directors, except in cases where action of the entire SDG Board of Directors is required by the SDG Charter, the SDG By-laws or applicable law and except where action by SDG's Independent Directors (as defined in SDG's Charter) is required by SDG's conflict of interest policies. The SDG Executive Committee met four times during 1997.

The SDG Nominating Committee, which currently consists of Ms. DeBartolo York and Messrs. Bayh, Prindiville, David Simon and Herbert Simon, nominates persons to serve as directors who are elected by the holders of SDG Equity Stock. In considering persons to nominate, the SDG Nominating Committee will consider persons recommended by stockholders. The SDG Nominating Committee met one time in 1997.

The SDG By-laws require that each committee except the SDG Audit Committee and the SDG Nominating Committee must have at least one member who was elected by the SDG Class B Common Stock and at least one member elected by the SDG Class C Common Stock. The entire SDG Audit Committee and a majority of the SDG Compensation Committee must be composed of SDG's Independent Directors. Further, the SDG Nominating Committee is required to have five members, of which two shall be SDG's Independent Directors, with two members elected by the SDG Class B Common Stock and one member elected by the SDG Class C Common Stock.

At the meeting of directors to be held following the SDG Annual Meeting, the SDG Board of Directors will reappoint members of the SDG Board of Directors to the four standing committees.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

SDG pays its directors who are not employees of SDG annual compensation of $20,000 plus $1,000 for attendance (in person or by telephone) at each meeting of the SDG Board of Directors or a committee thereof. Directors of SDG who are employees of SDG do not receive any compensation for their services as directors. In addition, all directors are reimbursed for their expenses incurred in attending directors' meetings.

Each director who is not an employee of SDG also participates in SDG's Director Stock Option Plan (the "Director Plan"). Each eligible director is automatically granted options ("Director Options") to purchase at the fair market value on the date of grant (i) 5,000 shares of SDG Common Stock upon the director's initial election to the Board of Directors and (ii) 3,000 shares of SDG Common Stock upon each reelection of such director to the Board of Directors. Director Options become exercisable on the first anniversary of the date of grant or at such earlier time as a change in control of SDG (as defined in the Director Plan) occurs, and remain exercisable through the tenth anniversary of the date of grant (the "Expiration Date"). Director Options that are exercisable terminate 30 days after the optionee ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors. The SDG Board of Directors may amend, suspend or discontinue the Director Plan at any time. Certain specified amendments must be approved by the stockholders. In May 1997, in connection with the election of directors, Director Options to purchase an aggregate of 9,000 shares of SDG Common Stock were granted to the three directors reelected in 1997. Such Director Options will become exercisable one year from the date of grant, or such earlier time as a change in control occurs.

If the SDG stockholders approve the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, no further option awards will be made under the Director Plan; however, Eligible Directors of Simon Group will receive similar option awards under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. See "APPROVAL OF 1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN."

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(a) REPORTING

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the SDG's directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of more than 10% of SDG's capital stock to file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the Commission and the NYSE. Based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, and/or written representations from certain reporting persons, SDG believes that, during the year ended December 31, 1997, its directors, executive officers and beneficial owners of more than 10% of the SDG's Common Stock have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following table sets forth information concerning the compensation for services in all capacities to the SDG for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, for the Chief Executive Officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers of the SDG for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, (the "Named Executives"):

(1) Bonus awards are deemed earned in the year indicated, but generally are paid in the following year.

(2) Pursuant to SDG's five-year Stock Incentive Program, a total of 1,000,000 restricted shares of Common Stock were allocated to certain key employees of SDG on March 22, 1995, having a total value at the date of grant of $25.0 million. A portion of the restricted shares allocated are awarded and earned only if SDG attains annual and cumulative targets for growth in Funds From Operations. See "MANAGEMENT OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC FOLLOWING THE MERGER -- CPI and Simon Group Benefit Plans." The amounts indicated in the table represent the total amount of restricted shares allocated to the Chief Executive Officer and other named executive officers, which are subject to performance-based conditions before they are awarded and earned, and to subsequent vesting requirements. Dividends are paid on restricted shares that are earned. Earned shares vest in four equal annual installments beginning on January 1 of the year following the year in which the restricted shares are deemed earned and awarded; provided that the participant remains an employee immediately prior to the vesting date. At December 31, 1997, the total number of restricted shares (and value at such date) that have been earned by the persons named in the table, and have been issued and are outstanding, were as follows: David Simon -- 32,760 restricted shares ($1,070,843); William J. Garvey -- 32,760 restricted shares ($1,070,843); and James A. Napoli -- 29,560 restricted shares ($966,243); James M. Barkley -- 29,920 restricted shares ($978,010); and Richard S. Sokolov -- 24,163 restricted shares ($789,828).

(3) Represents annualized amounts of (i) employer paid contributions to SDG's 401(k) retirement plan and (ii) SDG paid employee and dependent life insurance premiums. Employer contributions to the 401(k) retirement plan become vested 30% after completion of three years of service, 40% after four years and an additional 20% after each additional year until fully vested after seven years.

(4) Although the SDG Compensation Committee approved an increase in Mr. Simon's annual salary to $600,000 effective May 1, 1997, the increase did not occur until February 28, 1998. Mr. Simon is entitled to a retroactive payroll adjustment for the period from May 1, 1997 to February 28, 1998.

(5) Does not include compensation paid by DRC prior to the DeBartolo Merger.

The following table sets forth information with respect to the unexercised stock options granted to the Named Executives under the Employee Plan and held by them at December 31, 1997. No stock options were granted to the Named Executives in 1997.

(1) The closing price of the SDG Common Stock as reported by the New York Stock Exchange on December 31, 1997 was $32.6875. Value is calculated on the basis of the difference between the exercise price and $32.6875, multiplied by the number of shares of SDG Common Stock underlying "in-the-money" options.

For a description of the employee benefit plans of SDG, see "MANAGEMENT OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC FOLLOWING THE MERGER -- CPI and Simon Group Benefit Plans."

REPORT OF SDG COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

General Principles. As a general matter, SDG has adopted a compensation philosophy which embraces the concept of pay-for-performance. SDG's strategy is to link executive management compensation with SDG's performance and stockholder return and to reward management for results that are consistent with the key goals of SDG. This is described further below under "-- 1997 Executive Officer Compensation." SDG believes that its compensation program attracts result-oriented employees and motivates them to achieve higher levels of performance.

It is SDG's policy to establish executive officer base salary at levels which are slightly below industry statistical norms for comparable REITs, while providing significant additional compensation opportunities through programs which are linked directly to SDG performance.

1997 CEO Compensation. David Simon earned a base salary of $534,100 for 1997 and a bonus of $450,000. No options were granted. At December 31, 1997, he held exercisable options to acquire 200,000 shares of SDG Common Stock. Of David Simon's total allocation under the Stock Incentive Program of 54,600 shares of restricted stock, 32,760 shares were earned and awarded as of December 31, 1997, because SDG met its targets for growth in Funds From Operations for 1994, 1995 and 1996. Based on information provided by SDG's compensation consultants, management believes that David Simon's total cash compensation in 1997 was below the 40th percentile for chief executive officers of companies with comparable market capitalizations.

1997 Executive Officer Compensation. SDG compensates its executive officers through four principal elements. The first element, base pay, is determined through a review and analysis of peers in the REIT industry in order to determine reasonable and competitive compensation levels. The second element is participation in a discretionary Bonus Plan. Under the Bonus Plan, participants have opportunities to participate in an incentive pool depending upon performance of SDG, the participant's business SDG Unit and the individual participant. Bonuses of $1,028,750 were paid in 1998 to the ten eligible executive officers with respect to 1997 performance. See "-- Executive Compensation -- Incentive Bonus Plan." The two remaining compensation elements are intended to link executive compensation more directly to increases in value of the SDG Common Stock. The third element consists of option awards under the Employee Plan, no options were granted during 1997. At March 31, 1998 the ten eligible executive officers held vested options to acquire an aggregate of 602,500 shares that were previously granted under the Employee Plan. The fourth element consists of allocation of restricted stock under SDG's five-year Stock Incentive Program. Under the Stock Incentive Program, allocations of restricted shares are earned and awarded if the performance-based goals of the program are met. Of the total 892,440 shares of restricted stock allocated to the ten eligible executive officers under the Stock Incentive Program, 291,443 shares were earned and awarded as of December 31, 1997 because SDG met its targets for growth in Funds From Operations for 1994, 1995 and 1996. See "MANAGEMENT OF SIMON GROUP AND CRC FOLLOWING THE MERGER -- CPI and Simon Group Benefit Plans." SDG believes that each element of its executive compensation program attracts results-oriented individuals and motivates them to achieve levels of performance which are consistent with the performance goals of SDG and its stockholders.

The SDG Compensation Committee does not presently have a specific policy with respect to compensation deduction limits imposed under Section 162(m) of the Code. However, to date, the deductibility of executive compensation has not been affected by the deduction limits.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following line graph sets forth a comparison of the percentage change in the cumulative total stockholder return on the SDG Common Stock compared to the cumulative total return of the S&P Composite -- 500 Stock Index and the NAREIT Equity REIT Total Return Index for the period December 14, 1993, the date on which trading of SDG's Common Stock commenced, through December 31, 1997. The graph assumes an investment of $100 on December 14, 1993, a reinvestment of dividends and actual increase of the market value of the SDG Common Stock relative to an initial investment of $100. The comparisons in this table are required by the Commission and are not intended to forecast or be indicative of possible future performance of the SDG Common Stock.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

Transactions With The Simons. SDG has entered into noncompetition agreements with Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon, all of whom are executive officers of SDG. Pursuant to such agreements and except as set forth below, Melvin Simon and Herbert Simon are prohibited from engaging in the shopping center business in North America other than through SDG or as passive investors until the later of (i) December 20, 2003, or (ii) the date that they are no longer directors or officers of SDG, and David Simon is prohibited from engaging in the shopping center business in North America other than through SDG and, with certain exceptions, for two years thereafter if he resigns or is terminated for cause. The foregoing restrictions will not prohibit Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon or David Simon from having an ownership interest in the properties in which they previously owned an interest that were not contributed to SDG or SPG, LP (the "Excluded Properties"), and in the SDG Management Company, and serving as directors and officers of the SDG Management Company. It is anticipated that such commitments will not, in the aggregate, involve a material amount of time, but no assurance can be given in this regard. In addition, Melvin Simon and Herbert Simon may pursue other investment activities in which they are currently engaged.

Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon continue to own, in whole or in part, the Excluded Properties. The SDG Management Company has entered into management agreements with the partnerships that hold the Excluded Properties, some of which agreements were not negotiated on an arm's-length basis. Management believes, however, that the terms of such management agreements are fair to SDG.

In connection with the use of the aggregate proceeds of the initial public offering of Simon Property Group, Inc. common stock in December 1993 and related financing to repay certain indebtedness encumbering the SDG Operating Partnership's properties, SDG repaid approximately $180 million of indebtedness owed to Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon, which represented loans made by Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon in lieu of third-party financing. Of this amount, approximately $110 million was used by Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon to pay income taxes and other third-party obligations associated with their real estate business. In addition, Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon were released from personal liability under guaranties provided by Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon by substituting guaranties by SDG, or the provision by SDG of back-up guaranties in favor of Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon, on approximately $111 million of such debt.

SDG Management Company. The SDG Management Company manages regional malls and community shopping centers not wholly-owned by the SDG Operating Partnership and certain other properties and also engages in certain property development activities. Of the outstanding voting common stock of the SDG Management Company, 95% is owned by Messrs. Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon, which will enable them to control the election of the board of directors of the SDG Management Company. The SDG Operating Partnership owns common stock representing 80% of the value of the outstanding stock of the SDG Management Company, all of the outstanding participating preferred stock of the SDG Management Company and a mortgage note of the SDG Management Company, which entitles SDG to more than 90% of the anticipated after-tax economic benefits, in the form of dividends and interest, of the SDG Management Company. The SDG Management Company must receive the approval of a majority of the Independent Directors in order to provide services for any property not currently managed by the SDG Management Company unless SDG owns at least a 25% interest in such property. The SDG Management Company has agreed with SDG that, if in the future SDG is permitted by applicable tax law and regulations to conduct any or all of the activities that are now being conducted by the SDG Management Company, the SDG Management Company will not compete with SDG with respect to new or renewal business of this nature.

Relationship With Oppenheimer, Wolff, Donnelly & Bayh LLP. During 1997, SDG engaged the Washington, D.C. law firm of Oppenheimer, Wolff, Donnelly & Bayh LLP (formerly Bayh, Connaughton & Stewart, P.C.) to provide certain legal services. Birch Bayh, a director of SDG, is a member of such firm.

Other Transactions. Phillip J. Ward, a director of SDG, is the Head of Real Estate Investments for CIGNA Investments, Inc., which has, or its affiliates have, made mortgage loans to SDG or its affiliates totaling approximately $290 million. These loans are considered to be arm's-length agreements.

An affiliate of SDG is a general partner in Lakeline Developers and Lakeline Plaza Developers, both Texas general partnerships in which Dillard's, Inc. is the other general partner. Mr. William Dillard II, a member of SDG's Board of Directors, is an officer, director and shareholder of Dillard's Inc. On January 31, 1998, Dillard's, Inc. contributed a 15% interest in both Lakeline Developers and Lakeline Plaza Developers to the SDG Operating Partnership in exchange for 191,634 SDG Units.

APPROVAL OF 1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

GENERAL

The SDG Board of Directors is proposing for approval by SDG stockholders the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan which will become effective upon consummation of the Merger. The 1998 Stock Incentive Plan has been approved by the CPI Board of Directors and CPI stockholders. If the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is approved by SDG stockholders, no further awards will be granted under the SDG Employee Plan or the SDG Director Plan after consummation of the Merger.

The following summary of the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is qualified in its entirety by express reference to the text of the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The 1998 Stock Incentive Plan provides for the grant of equity-based awards during the ten-year period following its adoption, in the form of options to purchase Simon Group Common Stock ("Options"), stock appreciation rights ("SARs"), restricted stock awards and performance unit awards (collectively, "Awards"). Options may be granted which are qualified as "incentive stock options" ("ISOs") within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code and Options which are not so qualified ("NQSOs").

PURPOSE AND ELIGIBILITY

The primary purpose of the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is to attract and retain the best available officers, key employees, "Eligible Directors" (as defined below), advisors and consultants for positions of substantial responsibilities with the SDG Operating Partnership and any of its "affiliates" (as defined in the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan) and to provide an additional incentive to such officers, key employees, Eligible Directors, advisors and consultants to exert their maximum efforts toward the success of the SDG Operating Partnership, its affiliates and Simon Group. "Eligible Directors" are directors of Simon Group who are not employees of the SDG Operating Partnership or its affiliates. All officers, key employees, advisors and consultants of the SDG Operating Partnership and its affiliates (except for Melvin Simon and Herbert Simon) and all Eligible Directors are eligible to be granted Awards under and participate in the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. In addition, Eligible Directors will receive automatic grants, as described below. The number of individuals eligible to participate in the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is approximately 150.

ADMINISTRATION

The 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is administered by a committee appointed by the General Partner(s) of the SDG Operating Partnership (the "Committee"). The Committee, in its sole discretion, determines which eligible individuals may participate in the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan ("Participants") and the type, extent and terms of the Awards to be granted to them. In addition, the Committee interprets the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan and makes all other determinations deemed advisable for the administration of the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. The Committee may, with the consent of the grantee of an Award, provide for the accelerated vesting and exercisability of an Award and/or extend the scheduled termination or expiration date of an Award upon the occurrence of such events as it deems appropriate.

SHARES SUBJECT TO THE 1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

The aggregate number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock that may be issued under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is 6,300,000 shares. No more than 600,000 shares of Simon Group Common Stock may be issued to any one individual pursuant to Awards during any one year.

It is expected that replacement or substitute Awards relating to an aggregate of approximately 2.2 million shares of Simon Group Common Stock will be made to the holders of unexercised Awards granted under the SDG Employee Plan and the SDG Director Plan.

DISCRETIONARY AWARDS

The terms and conditions of Options, SARs and restricted stock awards granted under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan will be set out in written agreements which will contain such provisions as the Committee from time to time deems appropriate.

The terms of Options granted under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan will generally be determined by the Committee within the terms of the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan. The exercise price for any Option will not be less than the fair market value of a share of Simon Group Common Stock on the date of grant. No Option will be exercisable after the expiration of ten years from the date of its grant. The 1998 Stock Incentive Plan provides that, unless otherwise determined by the Committee, Options generally vest 40% on the first anniversary of the date of grant, an additional 30% on the second anniversary of the date of grant and become 100% vested three years after the date of grant. The Option exercise price may be paid (i) by certified or official bank check, (ii) in the discretion of the Committee, by personal check, (iii) in shares of Simon Group Common Stock owned by the optionee for at least six months and which have a fair market value on the date of exercise equal to the exercise price, (iv) in the discretion of the Committee, by delivery to Simon Group of a promissory note and agreement providing for payment with interest on any unpaid balance, (v) through a brokered exercise, (vi) by any combination of the above, or (vii) by any other means permitted by the Committee, in its discretion.

A SAR may be granted in connection with all or any part of an Option granted under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan or may be granted independent of any Option. SARs granted in connection with an Option will become exercisable and lapse according to the same vesting schedule and lapse rules that are established for the corresponding Option. SARs granted independent of any Option will vest and lapse according to the terms and conditions set by the Committee. A SAR will entitle its holder to be paid an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the Simon Group Common Stock subject to the SAR on the date of exercise over the exercise price of the related Option, in the case of a SAR granted in connection with an Option, or the fair market value of the Simon Group Common Stock subject to the SAR on the date of exercise over the fair market value on the date of grant, in the case of a SAR granted independent of an Option.

Subject to the discretion of the Committee, certificates representing restricted stock awards may (i) be issued to a grantee bearing an appropriate legend specifying that such shares are subject to restrictions or (ii) be held in escrow until the end of the restricted period set by the Committee. During the restricted period, restricted stock will be subject to transfer restrictions and forfeiture in the event of termination of employment with the SDG Operating Partnership or any affiliate and such other restrictions and conditions established by the Committee at the time the restricted stock is granted.

To the extent deemed necessary and desirable by the Committee, the terms and conditions of performance unit awards granted under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan will be set out in written agreements. Performance unit awards provide for future payment of cash or shares of Simon Group Common Stock, or any other equivalent consideration deemed appropriate by the Committee, to the grantee upon the attainment of certain "Performance Goals" (as defined in the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan) established by the Committee over specified periods. At the end of each performance award period, the Committee decides the extent to which the Performance Goals have been attained and the amount of cash, Simon Group Common Stock, or other consideration, to be distributed to the grantee.

AUTOMATIC AWARDS FOR ELIGIBLE DIRECTORS

The 1998 Stock Incentive Plan provides for automatic grants of Options ("Director Options") to Eligible Directors. Upon the first day of the first calendar month following the month in which any person first becomes an Eligible Director, such person will be automatically granted without further action by the Board of Directors of Simon Group a Director Option to purchase 5,000 shares of Simon Group Common Stock (an "Initial Award"); provided, however, that an Eligible Director who previously served as a director of SDG or CPI shall not receive an Initial Award. Thereafter, on the date of each of Simon Group's annual meeting of stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") held after January 1, 1999, each Eligible Director who continues as an Eligible Director will automatically be granted each year, without further action by the Board of Directors of Simon Group, a Director Option to purchase 3,000 shares of Simon Group Common Stock multiplied by the number of calendar years that have elapsed since such person's last election to the Board of Directors of Simon Group, SDG or CPI (the "Annual Award"); provided, however, that if any person becomes an Eligible Director during the 60-day period prior to the Annual Meeting in any year, then such Eligible Director will not receive the Annual Award.

The exercise price per share of Director Options is 100% of the fair market value of the Simon Group Common Stock on the date the Director Option is granted. All Director Options shall become vested and exercisable on the first anniversary of the date of grant or such earlier time in the event of a "Change in Control" (as defined in the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan). Upon termination of any person's service as an Eligible Director, all Director Options granted will expire 30 days following the date of termination.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO ISOs

ISOs may not be granted under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan to a person who owns stock possessing more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the optionee's employer corporation or of its parent or subsidiary corporation unless (i) the exercise price of the ISO is at least 110% of the fair market value of the Simon Group Common Stock on the date of grant, and (ii) the term of the ISO is not longer than five years. If the fair market value of the Simon Group Common Stock with respect to which ISOs are exercisable for the first time by any optionee during any calendar year (under all plans of the SDG Operating Partnership or any affiliate) exceeds $100,000, such ISOs will be treated, to the extent of such excess, as NQSOs.

ADJUSTMENTS UPON CHANGES IN CAPITALIZATION

If any change is made to the Simon Group Common Stock by reason of any subdivision or combination of shares or other capital adjustments or the payment of a stock dividend or other change in such shares effected without receipt of consideration by Simon Group, appropriate adjustments will be made by the Committee to the number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock available under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, the number of shares of Simon Group Common Stock subject to Awards, the Option exercise price and appreciation base of Options and SARs previously granted, and the amount payable by a Participant in respect of an Award.

In the event Simon Group is merged or consolidated with another corporation and there is a change in the shares of Simon Group Common Stock by reason of such merger or consolidation, or in the event that all or substantially all of the assets of Simon Group are acquired by another person, or in the event of a reorganization or liquidation of Simon Group (each such event being hereinafter referred to as a "Corporate Event") or in the event that the Board of Directors of Simon Group shall propose that Simon Group enter into a Corporate Event, then the Committee may provide that Options and SARs will be terminated unless exercised within 30 days (or such longer period as the Committee determines) after notice; provided that if the Committee takes such action, it must also accelerate the dates upon which all outstanding Options and SARs will be exercisable. The Committee may also provide that all or some of the restrictions on any Award will lapse in the event of a Corporate Event.

TRANSFERABILITY OF AWARDS

Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, no Award granted under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, or any right or interest therein, is assignable or transferable except by will or the laws of descent and distribution and, during the lifetime of a grantee, Options and SARs are exercisable only by the grantee or his legal representative.

TERMINATION OR AMENDMENT

The 1998 Stock Incentive Plan will terminate 10 years after the date of its adoption by stockholders of SDG and CPI. The General Partner(s) of the SDG Operating Partnership may amend, suspend or discontinue the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan at any time; provided that certain specified amendments which, pursuant to applicable law or regulation, require shareholder approval, must be approved by the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Simon Group voting stock.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a brief discussion of the Federal income tax consequences of transactions under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan based on the Code, as in effect as of the date of this summary. This discussion is not intended to be exhaustive and does not describe the state or local tax consequences.

ISOs. No taxable income is realized by the optionee upon the grant or exercise of an ISO. If shares of Simon Group Common Stock are issued to an optionee pursuant to the exercise of an ISO, and if no disqualifying disposition of such shares is made by such optionee within two years after the date of grant or within one year after the transfer of such shares to such optionee, then (1) upon sale of such shares, any amount realized in excess of the Option price will be taxed to such optionee as a long-term capital gain and any loss sustained will be a long-term capital loss, and (2) no deduction will be allowed to the optionee's employer for federal income tax purposes.

If the Simon Group Common Stock acquired upon the exercise of an ISO is disposed of prior to the expiration of either holding period described above, generally (1) the optionee will realize ordinary income in the year of disposition in an amount equal to the excess (if any) of the fair market value of such shares at exercise (or, if less, the amount realized on the disposition of such shares) over the Option price paid for such shares, and (2) the optionee's employer will be entitled to deduct such amount for federal income tax purposes if the amount represents an ordinary and necessary business expense. Any further gain (or loss) realized by the optionee upon the sale of the Simon Group Common Stock will be taxed as short-term or long-term capital gain (or loss), depending on how long the shares have been held, and will not result in any deduction by the employer.

Subject to certain exceptions for disability or death, if an ISO is exercised more than three months following termination of employment, the exercise of the Option will generally be taxed as the exercise of a NQSO.

For purposes of determining whether an optionee is subject to any alternative minimum tax liability, an optionee who exercises an ISO generally would be required to increase his or her alternative minimum taxable income, and compute the tax basis in the stock so acquired, in the same manner as if the optionee had exercised an NQSO. Each optionee is potentially subject to the alternative minimum tax. In substance, a taxpayer is required to pay the higher of his/her alternative minimum tax liability or his/her "regular" income tax liability. As a result, a taxpayer has to determine his/her potential liability under the alternative minimum tax.

NQSOs. With respect to NQSOs, including Director Options: (1) no income is realized by the optionee at the time the Option is granted; (2) generally, at exercise, ordinary income is realized by the optionee in an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the shares on such date over the exercise price, and the optionee's employer is generally entitled to a tax deduction in the same amount, subject to applicable tax withholding requirements; and (3) at sale, appreciation (or depreciation) after the date of exercise is treated as either short-term or long-term capital gain (or loss) depending on how long the shares have been held.

Limitation on Deductions. Simon Group generally will be entitled to a tax deduction for Awards granted under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan only to the extent that the Participants recognize ordinary income from the Award. Code section 162(m) contains special rules regarding the federal income tax deductibility of compensation paid to Simon Group's Chief Executive Officer and to each of the other four most highly compensated executive officers The general rule is that annual compensation paid to any of these specified executives will be deductible only to the extent that it does not exceed $1,000,000 or it qualifies as "performance-based compensation" under Code section 162(m). The 1998 Stock Incentive Plan has been designed to permit the Committee to grant Awards which qualify as "performance-based compensation" under Code section 162(m).

NEW PLAN BENEFITS

Other than the automatic grant of Director Options to Eligible Directors, the grant of Awards under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is entirely within the discretion of the Committee. The SDG Operating Partnership cannot determine the extent of discretionary Award grants that will be made in the future; therefore, with respect to discretionary Awards, the tabular disclosure of the benefits or amounts allocated under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan has been omitted.

The following table sets forth the Director Options to be granted to Eligible Directors in 1999 pursuant to the automatic grant made at the Annual Meeting and discretionary awards of Options to persons who have served for more than one year as a director of SDG without receiving an automatic grant under the Director Plan, assuming such persons are elected to the Board of Directors of Simon Group at the Annual Meeting. Future grants will be made in accordance with the formula described above.

APPROVAL BY STOCKHOLDERS

The effectiveness of the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan and any Award granted thereunder is subject to approval by an affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the matter at the SDG Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy. Until such approval is obtained, the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan shall not be effective. If the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan is not approved, the Employee Plan and Director Plan will continue in operation and Awards may continue to be granted thereunder.

THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE 1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The SDG Board of Directors has selected Arthur Andersen LLP as SDG's independent accountants for 1998, subject to stockholder approval. Arthur Andersen LLP has served as SDG's independent accountants since SDG's inception. SDG expects that representatives of Arthur Andersen LLP will be present at the SDG Annual Meeting and will be afforded an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so. SDG also expects that such representatives of Arthur Andersen LLP will be available at that time to respond to appropriate questions addressed to the officer presiding at the SDG Annual Meeting.

THE SDG BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ARTHUR ANDERSEN LLP AS SDG'S INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS FOR 1998.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS AT 1999 ANNUAL MEETING

The date by which stockholder proposals must be received by Simon Group (if the Merger is consummated) or SDG (if the Merger is not consummated) for inclusion in the proxy materials relating to the 1999 annual meeting of stockholders is April 15, 1999. Notice of any other stockholder proposals must be received by Simon Group or SDG, as applicable, between June 25, 1999 and July 25, 1999, as more fully set forth in the Simon Group By-laws or the SDG By-laws. In the event that the 1999 annual meeting of stockholders is called for a date that is not within thirty (30) days before or after September 23, 1999, in order to be timely, notice by the stockholder must be received not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or such public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting was made, whichever first occurs. Such proposals must comply with all of the requirements set forth in the rules and regulations of the Commission. In addition, any stockholder interested in making a proposal is referred to the advance notification requirements set forth in the Simon Group By-laws or the SDG By-laws.

INDEX TO FINANCIAL PAGES

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Board of Trustees of Corporate Property Investors

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Corporate Property Investors as of December 31, 1997 and 1996, and the related consolidated statements of income, shareholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 1997. These financial statements are the responsibility of Corporate Property Investors' management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Corporate Property Investors at December 31, 1997 and 1996, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 1997, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Corporate Property Investors, Inc. ("CPI") is a self managed real estate investment trust ("REIT") under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. On March 13, 1998, CPI, formerly a Massachusetts business trust, reorganized into a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware. CPI engages in the ownership, operation, management, leasing, acquisition, development and expansion of income producing properties located throughout the United States. As of March 31, 1998, CPI owns interests in, directly or through interests in joint ventures, 23 super-regional and regional shopping centers, the General Motors Building, N.Y.C., three smaller office buildings and other properties.

The proportionate property revenues of CPI's lines of business are summarized as follows:

	MARCH 31,		DECEMBER 31,
	1998	1997	1997	1996	1995
	(UNAUDITED)
Super-regional and regional shopping centers	80%	78%	79%	87%	88%

Other office buildings	2	3	3	4	4
Other	1	1	1	1	1
	100%	100%	100%	100%	100%

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of CPI and its consolidated subsidiaries. Significant intercompany balances, transactions and accounts are eliminated in consolidation. CPI accounts for its investments in real estate joint ventures which represent non-controlling ownership interests under the equity method of accounting as CPI exercises significant influence over the operating and financial policies of such joint ventures.

On December 31, 1997, CPI changed its method of accounting for investments in real estate joint ventures from proportionate consolidation, whereby CPI's financial statements included its proportionate share of the individual assets, liabilities and items of income and expense of such partnerships, to the equity method of accounting, whereby CPI's investments in such ventures are recorded initially at cost and subsequently adjusted for net equity in income/(loss) and cash contributions and distributions. CPI is accounting for this change retroactively and, accordingly, has recast the 1997 quarterly and the 1996 and 1995 financial statements presented. This change did not affect CPI's reported net income or financial position.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION AND AMORTIZATION POLICY

Real estate to be held and used in operations is stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are computed utilizing the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the buildings and leaseholds.

Real estate held for sale is recorded at the lower of its carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell. Depreciation is not recorded during the period real estate is held for sale.

Interest, real property taxes, salaries and related costs, and other carrying costs are capitalized during periods of construction, development or improvement. Department store and tenant inducements and costs associated with leasing of operating properties are capitalized and amortized on a straight-line basis over the lives of the related operating covenants and tenant leases.

Interest costs capitalized during the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 (unaudited) and the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 were $1.2 million, $0.8 million, $3.7 million, $7.8 million, and $7.0 million, respectively.

Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to Be Disposed Of," requires impairment losses to be recognized for long-lived assets used in operations when indicators of impairment are present and the undiscounted cash flows are not sufficient to recover the assets' carrying amount. The impairment loss is measured by comparing the fair value of the asset less cost to sell to its carrying amount. Effective January 1, 1996, CPI adopted Statement 121 for which no provision was required.

DEFERRED CHARGES

Direct financing and issue costs on debt are deferred and amortized over the terms of the related debt as a component of interest expense.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Minimum rents are accrued on a straight-line basis over the terms of the respective leases. Overage rents are recognized when earned. Expense recoveries from tenants for real estate taxes and other recoverable operating expenses are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable expenditures are chargeable to tenants.

TAXES

CPI intends to continue to qualify as a real estate investment trust as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, and as such will not be taxed on that portion of its taxable income which is distributed to shareholders, provided that at least 95% of its real estate investment trust taxable income is distributed. CPI has distributed all of its taxable income for 1995 and 1996 and intends to distribute all of its 1997 and 1998 taxable income and, accordingly, no provision for Federal income taxes has been made in the financial statements.

INVESTMENTS IN REAL ESTATE JOINT VENTURES

During 1996 and 1995 CPI had interests ranging from 15% to 62 1/2% in twelve real estate joint ventures which operated and net leased real estate. In November and December 1996, CPI acquired its partners' interests in certain joint ventures and sold a joint venture interest in January 1997 (see "Acquisitions and Dispositions"). Accordingly, income and expenses shown below include amounts for such joint ventures for the respective period the joint ventures were owned by CPI.

As a result of the aforementioned transactions CPI has a 50% interest in seven real estate joint ventures each of which own and operate a shopping center. In addition, CPI has a 50% interest in a joint venture which is developing a super-regional shopping center in Georgia for which CPI is providing 85% of the construction funding. Generally, net income/(loss) for each joint venture is allocated consistent with the ownership interests held by each joint venturer. As of March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and December 31, 1997 and 1996, the unamortized excess of CPI's investment over its share of the equity in the underlying net assets of the joint ventures was approximately $42.1 million, $42.4 million and $45.6 million, respectively. This excess is amortized over the estimated lives of the related real estate assets. The combined condensed balance sheets of the real estate joint ventures, after elimination of mortgages payable to CPI in 1996, as of March 31, 1998 (unaudited), December 31, 1997 and 1996 and the related statements of net income for the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 (unaudited) and for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 follows:

INCOME PER COMMON SHARE

In February 1997, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No. 128, "Earnings per Share." Statement 128 replaced the calculation of primary and fully diluted earnings per share with basic and diluted earnings per share. Basic earnings per share excludes any dilutive effects of options, warrants and convertible securities. All earnings per share amounts for all periods have been presented to conform to Statement 128 requirements. The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per common share:

Diluted earnings per share	$ 3.01	$ 5.51	$ 10.14	$ 7.74	$ 5.00

The above computations are based upon the dilutive effects of agreements presently in effect. The basis for such computations is anticipated to change in the event the merger with Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. (see "Commitments, Contingencies and Other Comments") is completed.

SHORT TERM INVESTMENTS

At March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and December 31, 1997 and 1996, short-term investments, including cash equivalents, are stated at amortized cost (which equates to market) and consist principally of U.S. Government securities and repurchase agreements collateralized by U.S. Government securities which mature within one year and are intended to be held to maturity. CPI considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

EMPLOYEE STOCK BASED PLANS

CPI follows Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations in accounting for its stock based plans. Accordingly, because the purchase price under the employee share purchase plan and the exercise price under the share option plan equals the fair value of CPI's stock at the dates of purchase or grant, respectively, no compensation expense is recognized under the plans.

SEGMENT REPORTING

In June 1997, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No. 131, "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information," which is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. CPI is assessing the operating and reportable segment rules and is considering the impact of this Statement on its financial statement disclosures.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain reclassifications have been made to the prior year financial statements to conform to the presentation for the period ended March 31, 1998. These reclassifications have no significant impact on CPI's financial statements.

ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSITIONS

On November 15, 1996, CPI issued 5.76 million Series A Common Shares, and caused Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC") to issue related interests in CRC, to a shareholder in exchange for $757 million of partnership interests in certain operating properties holding interests in seven regional shopping centers, one mixed-use development and the General Motors Building. In addition, on December 13, 1996, CPI issued 1.72 million Series A Common Shares, and caused CRC to issue related interests in CRC, to an affiliate of a shareholder in exchange for a $227 million partnership interest holding the remaining interest in the General Motors Building. The transactions were accounted for using the purchase method of accounting and, accordingly, commencing on November 15, 1996, 100% of the assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses of the wholly-owned properties are included in CPI's financial statements. Prior thereto, CPI had accounted for its investment in these properties under the equity method of accounting.

On December 31, 1996 and January 2, 1997, respectively, CPI, at a cost of $198 million and $145 million, respectively, redeemed 1.51 million and 1.09 million Series A Common Shares (and acquired related interests in CRC) held by a shareholder in exchange for cash of $13 million and interests in three shopping center properties valued at $330 million. The exchanges resulted in gain on disposition of the properties of $186.7 million, of which $71.7 million was recognized in December 1996 and $115 million was recognized in January 1997.

On January 9, 1998, CPI purchased a super-regional shopping center and adjoining land parcels located in Atlanta, Georgia for $198 million. Approximately $40 million was borrowed under a revolving credit facility to partially fund the purchase.

On January 30, 1998, CPI sold a super-regional shopping center for $81 million. Proceeds from the sale were used to repay the aforementioned borrowing under the revolving credit facility.

The following unaudited pro forma results of operations assume the acquisitions and dispositions closed as of January 1, 1995, and give effect to adjustments for depreciation expense related to the interest in properties acquired and elimination of gain on the disposition of the properties.

Substantially all of the outstanding shares of CRC have been deposited in trusts, the beneficial interests in which are owned by participating CPI shareholders in proportion to their respective number of CPI shares.

For the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 (unaudited) CRC paid distributions of $268,000 and $276,000. Such distributions are equivalent to one cent per CPI common share for each period. For the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, CRC paid distributions of $1,095,000, $965,000 and $1,413,000, respectively. Such distributions are equivalent to 4, 4 1/4 and 6 1/4 cents, respectively, per CPI common share for each year.

LEASES

CPI has various interests in regional shopping centers, office buildings and other operating properties located primarily in the northeast and southern regions of the United States. Rental income from such properties is earned under leases that are classified and accounted for as operating leases. Leases with retail stores generally provide for minimum rentals plus overage rentals based on the tenants' sales volume and also require the tenant to pay a portion of property operating expenses. Office tenant leases provide for rent plus reimbursement of operating expenses. Terms of leases generally range from 5 to 30 years and contain various renewal options. Terms of net leases range from 15 to 30 years excluding various renewal options. In addition, CPI owns land under an office building net leased to CRC for a period of 99 years at an annual rental of $450,000.

At December 31, 1997, future minimum rentals to be received under the above-mentioned leases are:

	AMOUNT ($ IN THOUSANDS)
Years ending December 31,
1998	$ 302,830

2001	252,460
2002	228,520
Thereafter	893,030
Total	$2,223,760

At December 31, 1997, future minimum rentals to be paid under non-cancellable ground leases and shopping center operating leases (which expire principally in 2002, 2009 and 2070) are $.75 million for each of the years ending December 31, 1998 through December 31, 2001, $.6 million for the year ending December 31, 2002 and $8.5 million thereafter for a total of $12.1 million. The leases provide for renewals at the end of the initial lease terms for periods ranging from 5 to 60 years.

PREFERENCE SHARES

The 6.5% First Series Perpetual Preference Shares are convertible into voting Series A Common Shares at the adjusted conversion price of $139.07 per Common Share for years ended December 31, 1997 and 1996 and $138.87 per Common Share for year ended December 31, 1995, (subject to adjustment in certain events), at the option of the holder after the later of August 31, 2000, and the end of the first year in which distributions that would have been payable on the voting Series A Common Shares into which a single 6.5% First Series Perpetual Preference Share could have been converted on the preceding December 31 would have exceeded $65.53. Conversion may occur before such date if more than 50% of the outstanding 6.5% First Series Perpetual Preference Shares elect to convert. A total of 1,600,000 voting Series A Common Shares have been reserved for issuance upon conversion. The dividends on 6.5% First Series Perpetual Preference Shares are cumulative, computed on a compound quarterly basis and payable semi-annually on March 31 and September 30, when and as declared by CPI's Board of Directors.

LEASES -- (CONTINUED)

The dividends are payable solely out of operating cash flow, as defined. At December 31, 1997, accumulated dividends earned but not yet payable amounted to $3.4 million ($16.38 per share). The holders of 6.5% First Series Preference Shares are entitled to vote with voting Series A Common Shares as a single class; each First Series Preference Share is entitled to a number of votes equal to its par value divided by the conversion price. The 6.5% First Series Preference Shares have a liquidation preference of $1,000 par value plus accumulated and unpaid dividends.

COMMON SHARE PURCHASE PLAN

Certain shareholders have entered into contracts to purchase $4.1 million of units (Series A Common Shares and related interests in CRC) quarterly through November 1999. Such units:

(i) will have been tendered by shareholders at prices not to exceed the appraised net asset value per CPI/CRC unit as of the preceding December 31st (the "Appraised Value") and/or

(ii) will be newly issued at the Appraised Value.

CPI is not obligated to purchase tendered units in excess of units contracted to be sold to shareholders. The contracts are terminable by CPI at any time and by each participating shareholder, 30 days after notice to CPI. CPI has elected to suspend the operation of such contracts until further notice.

DEFERRED COMPENSATION PLAN

CPI has a deferred compensation program which permits trustees and certain management employees to defer portions of their compensation on a pretax basis. The participants designate the investment of the deferred funds, based on various alternatives and the Company historically purchases such investments which are included in receivables and other assets. Total deferred compensation liabilities at March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and December 31, 1997 and 1996 were $23.3 million, $22.2 million and $21.9 million, respectively.

401(K) SAVINGS PLAN

CPI is the sponsor of a defined contribution plan that provides retirement benefits for full time employees. The plan is administered by a third party. CPI does not contribute to the plan and plan costs are not significant for the periods presented.

EMPLOYEE SHARE PURCHASE PLAN

The Employee Share Purchase Plan, as amended, provides for the issuance of rights to purchase units (Series A Common Shares and related interests in CRC) at fair value, as defined. The Plan stipulates that consideration for each unit purchased will be any combination of cash, a recourse note receivable from the employee and a permanent restriction payable to CPI upon transfer of the unit. Sales of units issued pursuant to this plan are restricted during periods ranging up to 60 months following the issuance of rights. No rights were issued during the three months ended March 31, 1998 or 1997 (unaudited), nor the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995. As of March 31, 1998 (unaudited), $32.3 million of notes receivable and permanent restrictions relating to the 463,000 units purchased by employees has been deducted from "Capital in Excess of Par Value."

SHARE OPTION PLAN

Under CPI's 1993 Share Option Plan 1,000,000 Series A Common Shares of Beneficial Interest in CPI (and related interests in CRC) are reserved for issuance to employees and directors upon exercise of options. The option prices are to be equal to the fair value of the optioned shares at the date of grant and each option

The per share weighted average estimated fair value of options granted during 1997 was $1.23. The fair value was estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes (Minimum Value) option-pricing model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate of 6.74%; dividend yield of 6.5%; and expected life of five years.

Options outstanding at March 31, 1998 had exercise prices of $120.50 and $138.83 and have a weighted average remaining contractual life of 7.7 years.

The option prices were equal to the market prices at the date of grant and, accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for stock options in the financial statements. If CPI had applied a fair value-based method to account for options granted, net income for the three month period ended March 31, 1997 (unaudited) would have been $151.3 million ($5.67 per share of common stock) and net income for the year ended December 31, 1997, would have been $276.6 million ($10.18 per share of common stock). The pro forma amounts reflect only options granted in 1997. The full impact of calculating compensation cost for stock options under a fair value-based method is not reflected in the pro forma amounts because compensation cost is reflected over the options' vesting periods and compensation cost for options granted in 1993 is not required to be considered.

COMMITMENTS, CONTINGENCIES AND OTHER COMMENTS

(1) On February 19, 1998 CPI and CRC signed a definitive agreement to merge with Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. ("SDG"); a publicly-traded real estate investment trust. The transactions have been approved by all of the companies' Boards of Directors/Trustees. A majority of CPI's shareholders have agreed to approve the transaction which is subject to the approval of the shareholders of SDG, as well as customary regulatory and other conditions. The transaction is expected to be completed in the third quarter of 1998.

The transaction values CPI at approximately $5.8 billion, including the assumption of debt. Each CPI common share will be entitled to $90 in cash, $70 in combined REIT common stock and $19 of liquidation preference in 6 1/2% convertible preferred stock of the combined REIT. The common stock component of the consideration is based upon a fixed exchange ratio of 2.0818 combined REIT shares and is subject to a 15% symmetrical collar based upon the price of SDG common stock determined at closing. Adjustments related to such collar will be in cash.

COMMITMENTS, CONTINGENCIES AND OTHER COMMENTS -- (CONTINUED)

In the first quarter of 1998 CPI incurred approximately $7.5 million of merger-related costs, principally legal and advisory fees, which is presented on the accompanying statements of income. If the merger is effected, additional merger cost, including severance payments pursuant to CPI's present policies, professional fees and other transaction costs, payable by CPI or its successor are projected to be approximately $70.7 million.

(2) CPI has entered into commitments for future real estate investments aggregating approximately $122 million at March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and $122 million, $127 million and $271 million at December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

(3) In 1996, CPI determined that the decline in value of its $10 million investment in a real estate entity was not temporary and, accordingly, wrote down the investment by $8.2 million to estimated fair value based on an independent appraisal of the property.

(4) CPI is a defendant in various lawsuits arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, based upon the advice of both outside and corporate counsel, resolving these actions will not have a material effect upon CPI's financial condition.

(5) On May 7, 1998, the Directors declared distributions ($49.1 million) of $1.94 per common share to shareholders of record at the close of business on May 7, 1998, payable May 15, 1998.

(6) On May 7, 1998, the Directors of CRC declared distributions ($.27 million) of $.10 per CRC common share to shareholders of record at the close of business on May 7, 1998, payable May 15, 1998. Such distribution is equivalent to 1 cent per CPI common share.

(7) CPI has entered into a $250 million revolving credit agreement with 13 banks. The agreement terminates on June 26, 2001. Interest, at CPI's choice, is computed at (1) a rate determined by a competitive bidding process, (2) a rate equal to a spread (currently 5/8%) over the adjusted London interbank (LIBOR) rate or (3) a rate equal to a spread (currently 0%) over the higher of the prime rate or 1/2% over the Federal Funds rate. The interest rate on each LIBOR-based borrowing is fixed at the time of borrowing. As of June 15, 1998 (unaudited), $13 million at an average rate of 6.1% is outstanding pursuant to this agreement.

SUBSEQUENT EVENTS -- (UNAUDITED)

(1) In connection with the Merger, CPI anticipates soliciting consents from the holders of CPI's Notes to permit CPI to assign substantially all of its assets to the SDG Operating Partnership and the SDG Operating Partnership to assume CPI's Note liabilities. Certain of the Note Indentures governing the Notes would require the redemption of $575 million of the Notes if substantially all the assets were transferred to an entity that does not qualify as a REIT. If holders of at least 66 2/3% in outstanding principal amount of each issue of CPI Notes consent to the proposed amendments to the CPI Indentures prior to the Merger, the SDG Operating Partnership will become the successor obligor on the CPI Notes. As an alternative to transferring CPI's assets to the SDG Operating Partnership, SDG anticipates transferring substantially all of CPI's assets to The Retail Property Trust ("RPT"), a REIT subsidiary of the SDG Operating Partnership and RPT will assume CPI's obligations under the Notes. SDG and CPI have received inquiries from the trustee under the Note Indentures and certain note holders as to the means being utilized to effect compliance with the terms of the Note Indentures in connection with the Merger. Certain of such holders have expressed their view that they do not believe compliance may be effected without receiving waivers from the requisite percentage of CPI's note holders. CPI and SDG believe that the transfer of CPI's assets to RPT and RPT's assumption of CPI's liabilities fully complies with the provisions of the Note Indentures.

(2) On July 31, 1998 CPI sold the General Motors Building, New York City for $800 million, resulting in a gain of $204 million ($8.05 per Common Share).

The carrying amount of the General Motors Building of $585 million is separately classified in the March 31, 1998 (unaudited) consolidated balance sheet. Rentals and related property income and net income from this property included in the consolidated statements of income are summarized as follows:

Prior to November 15, 1996 CPI accounted for its 30% investment in the General Motors Building under the equity method of accounting. See "Acquisitions and Dispositions." Rentals and related property income of $24,420 and $27,316 and net operating income of $8,278 and $8,114 were included in equity in earnings of joint ventures for the period ended November 15, 1996 and the year ended December 31, 1995, respectively.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Board of Directors of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc.

We have audited the consolidated balance sheets of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. as of December 31, 1997 and 1996, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 1997. These financial statements are the responsibility of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. at December 31, 1997 and 1996, and the consolidated results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 1997, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

Description of Business

Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC"), a Delaware corporation, engages primarily in the ownership, operation, acquisition and development of real estate properties either directly or through interests in joint ventures.

All of the outstanding shares of CRC have been deposited in two trusts under (1) a Trust Agreement dated October 30, 1979, among CRC, Bank of Montreal Trust Company (the current trustee) and Corporate Property Investors ("CPI"), a self managed real estate investment trust (REIT) which engages in the ownership, operation, management, leasing, acquisition, development and expansion of income producing properties throughout the United States and (2) a Trust Agreement dated August 26, 1994, among CRC, Bank of Montreal Trust Company (the current trustee) and certain holders of CPI 6.5% First Series Preference Shares. The beneficial interests in the CRC Trusts are owned by shareholders of CPI in proportion to their respective number of CPI shares. Ownership of CRC shares is not evidenced by a separate stock certificate and cannot be transferred separately from the corresponding CPI shares. All directors of CRC must be directors of CPI and the senior executive officers of CPI are also officers of CRC. The foregoing arrangements create a "Paired-Share REIT" structure for federal income tax purposes.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of CRC and its wholly-owned consolidated subsidiaries. Significant intercompany balances, transactions and accounts are eliminated in consolidation. Investments in joint ventures which represent noncontrolling 25%, 50% and 85% ownership interests and in which CRC exercises significant influence over the joint ventures' operating and financial policies are accounted for under the equity method of accounting. Investments in partnerships in which CRC exercises no influence over the partnerships' operating and financial policies (reflected as other investments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets) are accounted for under the cost method of accounting. Generally, net income/(loss) for each joint venture and partnership is allocated consistent with the ownership interests held by each joint venturer and partner.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Real Estate and Depreciation and Amortization Policy

Real estate to be held and used in operations is stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are computed utilizing the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the buildings and leaseholds.

Land held for sale is recorded at the lower of its carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell.

Tenant inducements and costs associated with leasing of the buildings are capitalized and amortized on a straight-line basis over the lives of the related tenant leases which range from three to ten years.

Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to Be Disposed Of," requires impairment losses to be recognized for long-lived assets used in operations when indicators of impairment are present and the undiscounted cash flows are not sufficient to recover the assets' carrying amount. The impairment loss is measured by comparing the fair value of the asset less cost to sell to its carrying amount. Effective January 1, 1996 CRC adopted Statement 121 for which no provision was required.

Deferred Charges

Direct financing and issue costs on debt are deferred and amortized over the terms of the related debt as a component of interest expense.

Buildings

The investments in buildings consist of (1) a 100% leasehold interest in a 120,000 square foot, multi-tenanted office building in New York City ("NYC Office Building") which also serves as CPI and CRC headquarters and (2) a 100% leasehold interest in a 200,000 square foot building in Norfolk, Virginia which is leased to the J.C. Penney Company ("JCPenney Building"). At March 31, 1998, the NYC Office Building is 78% leased which includes approximately 60% that is leased to CPI.

Investments in Joint Ventures

At March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and December 31, 1997, CRC's investment in joint ventures consists of (1) an 85% noncontrolling interest in Mill Creek Land, L.L.C. ("Mill Creek") which was formed in 1997 to purchase, improve and sell land in Gwinnett County, Georgia and (2) a 25% limited partner interest in Cambridge Hotel Associates, a partnership which provides management and advisory services to the Cambridge Hotel in Cambridge, Massachusetts. CRC and its joint venture partner at Mill Creek share equally in all the development, operating and financial policy decision making of the joint venture. CRC funded approximately $14.9 million of its total contribution to Mill Creek of $17.9 million from notes payable to CPI (see "Mortgages and Notes Payable"). Mill Creek capitalizes all cost clearly associated with the acquisition, development and construction of its project and recognizes profit on land sales in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 66, "Accounting for Sales of Real Estate."

CRC also held a 50% interest in Corporate Realty Capital, a partnership which generated fee income by providing mortgage banking services. As of December 31, 1997, Corporate Realty Capital ceased its operations and liquidated partnership assets. CRC will make no further contributions and expects no further distributions from Corporate Realty Capital.

As of March 31, 1998 (unaudited), December 31, 1997 and 1996, the excess of CRC's investment over its share of the equity in the underlying net assets of the joint ventures was approximately $1.7 million, $1.3 million and $.2 million, respectively. The combined condensed balance sheets of the joint ventures as of March 31, 1998 (unaudited), December 31, 1997 and 1996 and the related statements of net income for the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 (unaudited) and for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 follows.

Land

CRC's land interest consists of (1) 37 acres of vacant land, zoned for retail business, being held for development adjacent to a shopping center owned by CPI in Rockaway, New Jersey and (2) a 203 acre vacant tract of land zoned for single family housing in Putnam, New York ("Putnam Land") which is being marketed for sale. CRC acquired the Putnam Land through the 1995 foreclosure of its mortgage receivable investment. On the date of foreclosure, CRC recorded the Putnam Land at management's estimate of fair value of $1.5 million, which was also the carrying amount of the mortgage receivable on such date. In 1996, CRC estimated a decline in the fair value of the Putnam Land and, accordingly, wrote down the investment by $1.1 million.

Revenue Recognition

Minimum rents are accrued on a straight-line basis over the terms of the respective leases. Expense recoveries from tenants for real estate taxes and other recoverable operating expenses are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable expenditures are chargeable to tenants.

Fee income is recognized when earned in accordance with the terms of the related partnership and management agreements.

Cash Equivalents

All highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased are considered cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are carried at cost, which equates to market, and principally consist of commercial paper.

Income Per Common Share

In February 1997, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement No. 128, "Earnings per Share." Statement 128 replaced the calculation of primary and fully diluted earnings per share with basic and diluted earnings per share. Basic earnings per share excludes any dilutive effects of options, warrants and convertible securities. The weighted average shares of common stock outstanding used in the basic calculation are 2,684,000 and 2,755,000 for the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 (unaudited), respectively, and 2,732,000, 2,353,000 and 2,264,000 for 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively. Exercise of outstanding stock options would result in an additional 23,700 and 800 shares outstanding for the three months ended March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and for the year ended December 31, 1997, respectively. For the three months ended March 31, 1998 (unaudited) diluted earnings per share exclude these options because the exercise of such options would have been antidilutive.

Income Taxes

CRC has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Statement 109 utilizes the asset and liability method for computing tax expenses. Under the asset and liability method, deferred income taxes are recognized for the tax consequences of "temporary differences" by applying statutory tax rates to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of existing assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets are recognized for temporary differences that will result in deductible amounts in future years and for carryforwards. A valuation allowance is recognized if it is more likely than not that some portion of the deferred asset will not be recognized. When evaluating whether a valuation allowance is appropriate, Statement 109 requires a company to consider such factors as previous operating results, future earnings potential, tax planning strategies and future reversals of existing temporary differences. The valuation allowance is increased or decreased in future years based on changes in these criteria.

MORTGAGES AND NOTES PAYABLE

The mortgages payable consists of (1) a $20.6 million mortgage payable to CPI with a maturity date of December 31, 2013 which, through December 31, 1998, bears interest at 6% and requires annual interest payments to CPI of $1.2 million; beginning January 1, 1999 through maturity bears interest at 15% and requires annual interest and principal payments to CPI of $3.2 million; requires a balloon payment at maturity of $14.9 million; and requires a contingent interest payment, as defined, upon the earlier of the sale of the property securing the mortgage or the loan maturity date and (2) a mortgage payable to Ameritas Life Insurance Corp., with an outstanding balance of $1.1 million, $1.2 million and $1.4 million at March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and December 31, 1997 and 1996, respectively, which bears interest at 8.5% and requires annual interest and principal payments of $.4 million through the maturity date of November 30, 2001. The mortgage payable to CPI is secured by the NYC Office Building and the mortgage payable to Ameritas Life Insurance Corp. is secured by the JCPenney Building.

The notes, in the aggregate principal amount of $14.9 million and $14 million at March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and December 31, 1997, respectively, are unsecured and payable to CPI, mature in 2007 and bear interest at 12%. The interest, which is compounded monthly and capitalized to the note balances, amounted to $1.6 million and $1.1 million, respectively, at March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and December 31, 1997. Principal and accrued interest payable on the notes are due at maturity.

As of December 31, 1997, principal payments required on all debt are:

	AMOUNT ($ IN THOUSANDS)
Years ending December 31,
1998	$ 260
1999	$ 392
2000	$ 434
2001	$ 481
2002	$ 170
Thereafter	$35,081

The fair value of the mortgages is estimated to be approximately $33 million and $32 million, respectively, at December 31, 1997 and 1996 and the fair value of the notes is estimated to be approximately $20 million at December 31, 1997 using discounted cash flow analyses based upon indications of market pricing for similar types of debt.

LEASE COMMITMENTS

CRC, as the lessor, receives rental income from the NYC Office Building and the JCPenney Building under leases that are classified and accounted for as operating leases. The office tenant leases provide for rent plus reimbursement of operating expenses and the lease terms range from three to ten years and contain various renewal options. The lease relating to the JCPenney Building expires in 2002 and has five renewal options, each for a period of five years. At December 31, 1997, future minimum rentals to be received under noncancellable leases are:

	AMOUNT ($ IN THOUSANDS)
Years ending December 31,
1998	$ 1,877
1999	2,192
2000	2,197
2001	2,212
2002	1,907
Thereafter	7,328
Total	$17,713

The above future minimum rentals do not include $1.5 million per year to be received from CPI for its rental space in the NYC Office Building, through December 31, 2005.

CRC, as the lessee, is obligated under two ground lease agreements with CPI. A ground lease relating to the NYC Office Building requires annual lease payments to CPI of $450,000 through May 31, 2081. A ground lease relating to the JCPenney Building provides for annual rent payments to CPI of approximately $81,000 through February 28, 2002 and thereafter, $91,000 through February 28, 2042. Pursuant to an amendment to the ground lease dated September 1, 1992, approximately $47,000 is deferred each year, with interest accruing at prime, until the related mortgage loan secured by the JCPenney Building is paid in full (see "Mortgages and Notes Payable"). At March 31, 1998 (unaudited), December 31, 1997 and 1996 deferred rent plus accrued interest payable to CPI amounted to $324,167, $306,903 and $240,756, respectively, and is included in other liabilities on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

NOTE RECEIVABLE

In 1995 a tenant in the NYC Office Building borrowed $700,000 from CRC. The note bears interest at 10% and provides for monthly interest and principal payments of $14,016 beginning October 1, 1997. The remaining outstanding balance is due and payable in September 2001. At March 31, 1998 (unaudited), December 31, 1997 and 1996 the note receivable balance was $535,844, $583,600 and $648,872, respectively.

INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are determined based upon differences between financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

The components of the income tax provision (benefit) are as follows:

	FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31,
	1997	1996	1995
	($ IN THOUSANDS)
Current federal tax	$151	$ --	$ 53
Current state tax	--	--	--
Deferred federal tax	298	(146)	(12)
Deferred state tax	221	(72)	20
	$670	$(218)	$ 61

The reconciliation of income tax computed at the U.S. federal statutory rate to income tax expense is as follows:

	FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31,
	1997		1996		1995
	AMOUNT	PERCENT	AMOUNT	PERCENT	AMOUNT	PERCENT
	($ IN THOUSANDS)
Tax at U.S. statutory rate	$524	34.0%	$(219)	-34.0%	$(12)	-34.0%

INCOME TAXES -- (CONTINUED)

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Significant components of the Company's net deferred income taxes are as follows:

	DECEMBER 31,
	1997	1996
	($ IN THOUSANDS)
Deferred tax assets:
General business credit	$ 1,461	$ 1,461
Bad debt expense	652	652
Net operating loss carryforward	648	783
AMT credit carryforward	525	374
Basis difference on future sale	--	209
Charitable contributions carryforward	171	199
	3,457	3,678
Less: valuation allowance	(1,632)	(1,660)
	$ 1,825	$ 2,018
Deferred tax liabilities:
Book/tax basis difference	$ 5,389	$ 5,063
Net deferred tax liability	$ 3,564	$ 3,045

Statement 109 requires a valuation allowance to reduce the deferred tax assets reported if, based on the weight of the evidence, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. After consideration of all the evidence, both positive and negative, management has determined that a $1.6 million and $1.7 million valuation allowance at December 31, 1997 and 1996, respectively, is necessary to reduce the deferred tax assets to the amount that will more likely than not be realized.

At December 31, 1997 and 1996, CRC has available unused net operating loss carryforwards totalling approximately $1.3 million and $1.6 million, respectively, which expire beginning in 2010.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Management and Consulting Services

CRC paid CPI for management and consulting services. Fees paid to CPI for the three months ended March 31, 1997 (unaudited) were approximately $.4 million and for the years ending December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995 were approximately $1.4 million, $2.6 million and $2.8 million, respectively. No fees were paid in 1998.

CRC also reimburses CPI for general and administrative expenses and payroll and related expenses incurred on CRC's behalf. Such reimbursements included in administrative and other on the accompanying consolidated statements of operations amounted to approximately $.04 million for each of the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 (unaudited) and $.15 million, $1.4 million and $1.5 million for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively.

Pembrook Management Inc. ("PMI") was the managing agent for all of CPI's wholly-owned properties and certain properties in which CPI holds a joint venture interest under various management agreements. PMI assigned certain property management aspects of these management agreements including leasing, legal and marketing services to CRC for which PMI paid CRC $.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 1997 (unaudited) and $1.7 million, $2.9 million and $3.3 million in 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively. Such fees are included in fee income on the accompanying consolidated statements of operations. PMI ceased continuing business operations on December 31, 1997 at which time CPI took over the management of the properties.

In connection with its management of the General Motors Building, a New York City office building located at 767 Fifth Avenue, CRC was paid an asset management fee in 1996 and 1995 from the partnership which owns the building and in which CPI held a partial interest until it became the 100% owner during 1996. The fees received were approximately $1.6 million and $1.4 million for 1996 and 1995, respectively, representing 1/4% of the average of the current and preceding year appraisal value of the General Motors Building. No fees were paid to CRC in 1997 as the General Motors Building became wholly-owned by CPI in 1996 and the asset management contract was ended.

Loan and Lease Commitments

CRC has a mortgage and notes payable to CPI (See "Mortgages and Notes Payable").

CRC receives rental and operating expense recovery income from CPI for space leased in the NYC Office Building (see "Lease Commitments"). Rental and operating expense recovery income earned from CPI amounted to approximately $.5 million and $.6 million, respectively, for the three months ended March 31, 1998 and 1997 (unaudited) and $1.9 million, $2.3 million and $2.9 million for the years ended December 31, 1997, 1996 and 1995, respectively. In addition, CRC has a payable to CPI for an overpayment of rent. This overpayment, which resulted from a lease modification effective January 1, 1997, amounted to $311,659 and $296,478, respectively, at March 31, 1998 (unaudited) and December 31, 1997 and is included in other liabilities in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

CRC is the lessee under two ground lease agreements with CPI (see "Lease Commitments").

Other

On April 1, 1997 CRC sold its approximately 1% limited partner interests in three partnerships, each which owned property held for investment, to the general partner, CPI, for approximately $2.4 million and realized a gain on the sale of approximately $1.3 million. Such interests are included in other investments on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 1996.

CPI has in effect a Common Share Purchase Plan, an Employee Share Purchase Plan and a Share Option Plan which provide for the right or option to purchase, as defined, CPI Series A Common Shares and related interests in CRC to certain shareholders, employees and directors. The purchase or redemption of CPI Series A Common Shares pursuant to the plans affects the related interests in CRC and is reflected in the accompanying consolidated statement of stockholders' equity.

COMMITMENTS, CONTINGENCIES AND OTHER COMMENTS

(1) On February 19, 1998 CPI and CRC signed a definitive agreement to merge with Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. ("SDG"), a publicly-traded real estate investment trust. The transactions have been approved by all of the companies' Boards of Directors/Trustees. A majority of CPI's shareholders have agreed to approve the transaction which is subject to the approval of the shareholders of SDG, as well as customary regulatory and other conditions. CRC is included as part of the merger agreement between CPI and SDG. The transaction is expected to be completed in the third quarter of 1998.

(2) On May 7, 1998, the Directors of CRC declared distributions ($.27 million) of $.10 per CRC common share to shareholders of record at the close of business on May 7, 1998, payable May 15, 1998.

(3) In November and December 1996 CPI issued common shares (and related interests in CRC) to a shareholder and an affiliate of a shareholder in exchange for each's respective partnership interests in certain operating properties of CPI. In connection with the aforementioned, CRC received in cash $2.53 million and $.76 million, respectively, and issued 576,454.4 and 172,263.9 shares, respectively, of common stock.

This AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER dated as of February 18, 1998 (this "Agreement") is made and entered into by and among Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc., a Maryland corporation ("A1"), Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust ("C1"), and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("C2").

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of A1 and the Board of Trustees of C1 have each determined that it is advisable and in the best interests of their respective stockholders and shareholders to consummate, and have approved, the business combination transaction provided for herein in which a newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary organized under the laws of the State of Maryland ("Merger Sub") of C1 Delaware (the successor to C1 by means of the C1 Delaware Reorganization (as defined herein)) would merge with and into A1 (the "Merger");

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of A1 and the Board of Trustees of C1 have each determined that the Merger is in furtherance of and consistent with their respective long-term business strategies and is fair to and in the best interests of their respective stockholders and shareholders;

WHEREAS, prior to the record date for the stockholder meeting of C1 referred to in Section 6.3.2, C1 intends to consummate its long-standing plan to reorganize as a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware on the terms described herein (the "C1 Delaware Reorganization");

WHEREAS, for Federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code");

WHEREAS, the Merger is intended to preserve C1's and C2's status as grandfathered from the application of Section 269B(a)(3) of the Code pursuant to Section 136(c)(3) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984;

WHEREAS, as an inducement to A1 to enter into this Agreement, each of the Board of Trustees of C1, the Board of Directors of C2 and certain shareholders of C1 and C2 have approved the terms of a Stockholder Voting Agreement in the form of Exhibit A (the "Stockholder Agreement") to be entered into by A1 and holders of C1 Common Shares (as defined herein) representing at least a majority of all the outstanding C1 Common Shares and C1 Preference Shares (as defined herein) and a majority of the total voting power of all the outstanding shares of C2 Common Stock (as defined herein) and by the holders of C1 Preference Shares representing at least two thirds of the total voting power of all the outstanding C1 Preference Shares, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, pursuant to which each of such shareholders has agreed to vote its capital stock holdings for approval of the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, A1, C1 and C2 desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with, and also to prescribe various conditions to, the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements set forth in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I.

THE REORGANIZATION AND DISTRIBUTION; THE MERGER

Section 1.1. The Reorganizations and Distributions.

1.1.1. Reorganizations of C1 and C2. (a) Prior to the record date for the stockholder meeting of C1 referred to in Section 6.3.2, C1 shall use its reasonable best efforts to effect the C1 Delaware Reorganization and thereby reorganize as a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware (C1, as so reorganized, is referred to herein as "C1 Delaware"). In connection with the C1 Delaware Reorganization, (i) C1 shall, subject to obtaining the requisite approval of its shareholders, merge with and into a newly formed corporation wholly owned by C1 and organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and (ii) immediately thereafter, the surviving corporation shall merge with and into a newly formed corporation wholly owned by such surviving corporation and organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, in each case on a basis that is a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and does not adversely affect C1's and C2's status as grandfathered from the application of Section 269B(a)(3) of the Code pursuant to Section 136(c)(3) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984. In connection with the C1 Delaware Reorganization, (i) each issued and outstanding C1 Common Share (as defined in Section 4.1.2) shall be converted into the right to receive one share of common stock, par value $.01 per share, of C1 Delaware ("C1 Delaware Common Stock") and (ii) each issued and outstanding 6.50% First Series Preference Share of C1 issued under a Certificate of Designation executed August 4, 1994 (the "C1 6.50% Preference Shares") shall be converted into one share of 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock, par value $1,000 per share, of C1 Delaware having rights, restrictions, privileges and preferences substantially the same as those provided for with respect to the C1 6.50% Preference Shares on the date hereof. In connection with the C1 Delaware Reorganization, C1 Delaware shall adopt a certificate of incorporation and by-laws that do not contain any restrictions on the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby that are substantially more burdensome to C1, C2 or A1 than are currently contained in the Declaration of Trust and Trustee's Regulations of C1. By virtue of the C1 Delaware Reorganization, C1 Delaware will succeed to all of the rights and obligations of C1 under this Agreement.

(b) Also in connection with the C1 Delaware Reorganization, (i) C1 Delaware and C2 shall enter into an Issuance Agreement in the form set forth as Exhibit B hereto (the "C1/C2 Issuance Agreement") and (ii) C2 shall engage in a merger (the "C2 Merger") with a wholly owned Subsidiary of C2 under the appropriate provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") pursuant to which (w) C2 shall be the surviving entity, (x) the shares of C2 Common Stock (as defined in Section 4.2.2) not held pursuant to the C2 Trust Agreements (as defined in Section 4.2.2) shall be canceled, the holders of any such canceled shares being entitled to receive cash in an amount equal to $10 times the number of shares so canceled, (y) each 100 shares of C2 Common Stock outstanding and held pursuant to the C2 Trust Agreements shall be converted into one such share and (z) the authorized share capitalization of C2 shall be fixed at 1,000,000 shares of C2 Common Stock and 1,000,000 shares of C2 Permitted Preferred Stock (as such term is defined in the C1/C2 Issuance Agreement).

1.1.2. Distributions and Recapitalization. Prior to the Effective Time the following actions shall be taken (without duplication):

(i) A1, with the cooperation and consent of C1 Delaware, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain financing in an amount sufficient to finance the cash distribution referred to in clause (ii) below;

(ii) C1 Delaware shall declare a per share dividend on the C1 Common Shares issued and outstanding prior to the distribution of C1 Common Shares set forth in clause (iii) of this Section 1.1.2, payable in cash to the holders of record of such C1 Common Shares as of the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the day of the Effective Time, consisting of an amount equal to the Cash Amount (as defined below);

(iii) C1 Delaware shall declare a per share dividend on the issued and outstanding C1 Common Shares, payable in new C1 Common Shares to the holders of record of such C1 Common Shares as of the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the day of the Effective Time, consisting of 1.0818 C1 Common Shares;

(iv) C1 Delaware shall declare a per share dividend on the C1 Common Shares issued and outstanding prior to the distribution of C1 Common Shares set forth in clause (iii) of this Section 1.1.2 payable in shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, of C1 Delaware having the rights, restrictions, privileges and preferences as set forth on Exhibit C hereto (the "C1 Series A Preferred Stock") to holders of record of such C1 Common Shares as of the close of business on the business day immediately preceding the day of the Effective Time, consisting of 0.19 of a share of C1 Series A Preferred Stock for each C1 Common Share; and

(v) C1 Delaware shall take such actions as shall be required to make the appropriate adjustments to all outstanding options and conversion rights to acquire C1 Common Shares to reflect the transactions described in clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) above in accordance with the terms of such options and rights (it being understood that in connection with the adjustment for the distributions set forth in clauses (ii) and (iv) above, for purposes of the Certificate of Designation for the C1 Preference Shares, the "current market price" per C1 Common Share shall be $177.67.

1.1.3. Cash Amount and Conversion Number. The amount of the cash dividend to be declared by C1 Delaware pursuant to Section 1.1.2(ii) above (the "Cash Amount") shall be $90.00 per C1 Common Share, subject to adjustment as follows:

(i) if the Market Price for the A1 Class A Stock (as defined in Section 3.1.2.) at the Effective Time exceeds $38.67, then the Cash Amount shall be reduced by an amount equal to such excess multiplied by 2.0818; and

(ii) if the Market Price for the A1 Class A Stock at the Effective Time is less than $28.58, then the Cash Amount shall be increased by an amount equal to such deficiency multiplied by 2.0818.

For purposes of this Section 1.1.3, the "Market Price for the A1 Class A Stock at the Effective Time" shall be the average of the closing prices per share for the A1 Class A Stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day prior to the Effective Time.

1.1.4. No Fractional Shares. (a) No certificate or scrip representing fractional C1 Common Shares will be issued pursuant to the dividend payments described in Section 1.1.2, and any such fractional share will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a stockholder of the C1 Delaware.

(b) As promptly as practicable following the dividend payments described in Section 1.1.2, C1 Delaware shall cause to be distributed to the holders of C1 Common Shares who are entitled to receive such dividends, in substantially the same manner described in Section 2.3.6, the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to such holders of in lieu of any fractional C1 Common Share.

Section 1.2. The Merger. (a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into A1 in accordance with the Maryland General Corporation Law (the "MGCL"). At the Effective Time, the separate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and A1 shall continue as the surviving corporation in the Merger (the "Surviving Corporation"). A1 and Merger Sub Delaware are sometimes referred to herein as the "Constituent Corporations". As a result of the Merger, the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Constituent Corporations shall remain outstanding or be converted or canceled in the manner provided in Section 2.1.

(b) A1 shall have the right, with the consent of C1 (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), for a period of 30 days from the date hereof, to request that the parties change the structure of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby such that a wholly owned subsidiary of A1 would merge with and into C1, with C1 as the surviving corporation. Such change would be set forth in an amendment to this Agreement which shall be reasonably acceptable to C1 and would provide that, among other things,

(x) each issued and outstanding C1 Common Share shall be converted into:

(i) a number of shares of A1 Common Stock equal to one plus the number of C1 Common Shares that would otherwise have been received with respect to each outstanding C1 Common Share pursuant to Article 1 hereof;

(ii) an amount in cash equal to the Cash Amount payable pursuant to Article I hereof with respect to each C1 Common Share, subject to adjustment as provided therein; and

(iii) shares of preferred stock of A1 having the rights, restrictions, privileges and preferences as set forth in Exhibit C hereto; and

(y) each issued and outstanding C1 6.50% Preference Share shall be converted into one share of a new series of preferred stock of A1 having economic terms and rights, restrictions, privileges and preferences substantially the same as those provided for with respect to the C1 6.50% Preferences Shares.

If A1 makes such request and C1 consents to such request within such 30-day period, the parties agree to use their best efforts to promptly prepare, execute and deliver an amendment to this Agreement that accomplishes the foregoing and containing other terms and conditions reasonably required therein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, until any such amendment to this Agreement is executed, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

Section 1.3. Closing. Unless this Agreement shall have been terminated and the transactions herein contemplated shall have been abandoned pursuant to Section 8.1, and subject to the satisfaction or waiver (where applicable) of the conditions set forth in Article VII, the closing of the Merger (the "Closing") will take place at the offices of Willkie Farr & Gallagher, New York, New York, at 10:00 a.m., local time, on the second business day following satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article VII, unless another date, time or place is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto (the "Closing Date"). At the Closing there shall be delivered to A1, C1 and C2 the certificates and other documents and instruments required to be delivered under Article VII.

Section 1.4. Effective Time. At the Closing, articles of merger or other appropriate documents shall be duly prepared and executed by the Constituent Corporations (the "Articles of Merger") in accordance with Section 3-110 of the MGCL and thereafter delivered to the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of the State of Maryland (the "Maryland Secretary of State") for filing as provided in Section 107 of the MGCL the Articles of Merger and the Articles of Merger also shall be filed with any local recording office as required, in each case, as soon as practicable on the Closing Date. The Merger will become effective at such time as the Articles of Merger have been filed with the Maryland Secretary of State or at such other time as may be agreed upon by the parties and specified in the Articles of Merger in accordance with applicable law. The date and time when the Merger becomes effective is referred to herein as the "Effective Time".

Section 1.5. Articles of Incorporation and By-laws.

1.5.1. C1 Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws. (a) At the Effective Time, (i) the certificate of incorporation of C1 Delaware in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended and restated in its entirety to be substantially in the form of Exhibit D hereto and, as so amended and restated, such certificate of incorporation shall be the certificate of incorporation of C1 (the "C1 Charter") until thereafter amended as provided by law and the C1 Charter and (ii) the By-laws of C1 Delaware shall be amended and restated in their entirety to be substantially in the form of Exhibit E hereto and, as so amended and restated, such by-laws shall be the By-laws of C1 (the "C1 By-laws") until thereafter amended as provided by law, the C1 charter and such By-laws.

(b) In order for C1 to meet the requirements to (i) qualify as a real estate investment trust which meets the requirements of Sections 856 through 860 of the Code (a "REIT", and the requirements for such qualification, the "REIT Requirements"), (ii) avoid any Federal income or excise tax liability and (iii) otherwise maintain the current Federal income tax treatment of the pairing arrangement for the shares of C2 Common Stock following the Merger, the C1 Charter will provide that, subject to the exceptions set forth therein, no person or entity shall own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution provisions of Section 544 of the Code (as modified by Section 856(h)(1)(B) of the Code) or Section 318 of the Code (as modified by Section 856(d)(5) of the Code), more than 6.8% of the outstanding Paired Shares (the "Ownership Limit") at or after the Effective Time. Accordingly, if any holder (other than a holder which is excepted from Ownership Limit restriction pursuant to the C1 Charter, but only to the extent of such exception) would receive in connection with the Merger a number of Paired Shares such that any person or entity would own, or be deemed to own under the applicable attribution rules of the Code referred to above, Paired Shares in excess of the Ownership Limit, then such holder shall acquire no right or interest in such number of Paired Shares which would cause such person or entity to exceed the Ownership Limit, but such holder shall, in lieu of receiving those Paired Shares which would cause the Ownership Limit to be exceeded

(the "Limited Shares"), have the right to be paid by C1 an amount in cash for such Limited Shares equal to the product of the Market Price multiplied by the number of such Limited Shares.

1.5.2. A1/MS Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws. At the Effective Time, (i) the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of A1 as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended so that the name of the Surviving Corporation shall be "SDG Properties, Inc." and, as so amended, such Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation shall be the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation (the "A1/MS Articles of Incorporation") until thereafter amended as provided by law and the A1/MS Articles of Incorporation and (ii) the Amended and Restated By-laws of A1 as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the By-laws of the Surviving Corporation (the "A1/MS By-laws") until thereafter amended as provided by law, the A1/MS Articles of Incorporation and such By-laws.

1.5.3. C2 Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws. At the Effective Time, (i) the Certificate of Incorporation of C2 as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended and restated in their entirety to be substantially in the form of Exhibit F hereto and, as so amended and restated, such Certificate of Incorporation shall be the Certificate of Incorporation of C2 (the "C2 Certificate of Incorporation") until thereafter amended as provided by law and the C2 Certificate of Incorporation and (ii) the By-laws of C2 as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be amended and restated in their entirety to be substantially in the form of Exhibit G hereto and, as so amended and restated, such By-laws shall be the By-laws of C2 (the "C2 By-laws") until thereafter amended as provided by law, the C2 Certificate of Incorporation and such By-laws.

Section 1.6. Directors and Officers.

1.6.1. Directors and Officers of C1. (a) At the Effective Time, the Board of Directors of C1 will consist of 13 directors and will include Hans C. Mautner and two other directors to be designated by C1 (which directors shall be "Independent Directors" (as defined in the C1 Charter)). Such directors of C1 will commence to serve at the Effective Time and will remain directors until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the C1 By-laws.

(b) Immediately after the Effective Time, Mr. Mautner shall serve as Vice Chairman and Mark S. Ticotin shall serve as an Executive Senior Vice President of C1 and the remaining officers of C1 shall be designated by A1. Such officers will commence to serve at the Effective Time and will remain officers until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the C1 By-laws.

1.6.2. Directors and Officers of C2. (a) At Effective Time, the Board of Directors of C2 will consist of 13 directors and will include Hans C. Mautner and two other directors to be designated by C1 (which directors shall be "Independent Directors" (as defined in the C1 Charter)). The directors of C2 will commence to serve at the Effective Time and will remain directors until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the C2 By-laws.

(b) Immediately after the Effective Time, Mr. Mautner shall serve as Vice Chairman and Mr. Ticotin shall serve as Executive Senior Vice President of C2 and the remaining officers of C2 shall be designated by A1. Such officers will commence to serve at the Effective Time and will remain officers until their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the C2 By-laws.

1.6.3. Directors and Officers of the Surviving Corporation. (a) The directors of A1 at the Effective Time shall be the directors of the Surviving Corporation until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be.

(b) The officers of A1 at the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be.

Section 1.7. Effects of the Merger. Subject to the foregoing, the effects of the Merger shall be as provided in the applicable provisions of the MGCL.

Section 1.8. Further Assurances. Each party hereto will, either prior to or after the Effective Time, execute such further documents, instruments, deeds, bills of sale, assignments and assurances and take such further actions as may reasonably be requested by one or more of the others to consummate the Merger, to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all assets, properties, privileges, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of the Constituent Corporations or to effect the other purposes of this Agreement.

Section 2. A1 Stock Issuance. At the Effective Time, A1 shall issue to such persons as may be jointly designated by C1 and A1 such number of whole or fractional shares of common stock of A1 for such consideration as may be mutually agreed by C1 and A1 as to preserve A1's status as a REIT.

ARTICLE II.

MERGER CONSIDERATION; CONVERSION OF SHARES

Section 2.1. Merger Consideration; Conversion of Capital Stock.

2.1.1. Conversion of A1 Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any holder of capital stock of A1:

(a) Each issued and outstanding share of (i) A1 Class A Stock (as defined in Section 3.12) (other than shares canceled in accordance with Section 2.1.1(b)) shall be converted into the right to receive from C1 one fully paid and nonassessable C1 Common Share, (ii) A1 Class B Stock (as defined in Section 3.1.2) (other than shares canceled in accordance with Section 2.1.1(b) or with respect to which a demand to receive payment of the fair value therefor in accordance with Section 3-203 of the MGCL has been perfected) shall be converted into the right to receive from C1 one fully paid and nonassessable C1 Class B Common Share, par value $.0001 per share (the "C1 Class B Common Shares"), and (iii) A1 Class C Stock (as defined in Section 3.1.2) (other than shares canceled in accordance with Section 2.1.1(b) or with respect to which a demand to receive payment of the fair value therefor in accordance with Section 3-203 of the MGCL has been perfected) shall be converted into the right to receive from C1 one fully paid and nonassessable C1 Class C Common Share, par value $.0001 per share (the "C1 Class C Common Shares"). Each issued and outstanding share of A1 Preferred Stock (as defined in Section 3.1.2) shall not be affected by the Merger and will remain one issued and outstanding share of preferred stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) All shares of A1 Common Stock that are owned by A1 as treasury stock and any shares of A1 Common Stock owned by C1 Delaware, C2, or any wholly owned Entity (as defined in Section 5.1) of C1 Delaware or C2 shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist and no stock of the C1 or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Each outstanding option to purchase shares of A1 Common Stock shall be converted in the manner described in Section 6.9.1.

Section 2.2. Pairing of Shares. At the Effective Time, C1 Delaware and C2 shall take the actions required of them pursuant to the C1/C2 Issuance Agreement so that each and every C1 Common Share, C1 Class B Common Share or C1 Class C Common Share, as the case may be, outstanding or issued in connection with the Merger or Section 1.1.2 will be entitled to a beneficial interest in shares of C2 Common Stock pursuant to the C2 Trust Agreements (the C1 Common Shares and the related beneficial interests in C2 Common Stock, the "Paired Shares").

Section 2.3. Exchange of Certificates.

2.3.1. Rights of Certificateholders. At the Effective Time all shares of A1 Common Stock converted in accordance with Section 2.1 will cease to be outstanding, will be canceled and retired and will cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate which, immediately prior to the Effective Time, represented any such shares (collectively, the "Certificates") will thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such Common Stock Certificates, except the right to receive, without interest, upon exchange of such Common Stock Certificates in accordance with this Section 2.3, certificates representing the number of shares of C1 Common Shares,

C1 Class B Common Shares or C1 Class C Common Shares, as the case may be, to which the holder thereof is entitled pursuant to Section 2.1, together with the payments to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Section 2.3. No holder of a Certificate shall have any rights as a stockholder of C1 or as the owner of beneficial interests in capital stock of C2 until such holder's Certificates have been exchanged for certificates representing the Paired Shares as provided herein.

2.3.2. Exchange Agent. Promptly following the Effective Time, C1 Delaware shall make available to an exchange agent to be designated before the Closing Date by A1 and reasonably acceptable to C1 (the "Exchange Agent"), (x) certificates representing the number of duly authorized whole Paired Shares issuable in connection with the Merger and (y) an amount of cash equal to the aggregate amount payable in accordance with Sections 1.5.1(b) and 2.3.6, to be held for the benefit of and distributed to the holders of Certificates in accordance with this Section. The Exchange Agent shall agree to hold such certificates and funds (such certificates and funds, together with earnings thereon, being referred to herein as the "Exchange Fund") for delivery as contemplated by this Section and upon such additional terms as may be agreed upon by the Exchange Agent and C1 Delaware.

2.3.3. Exchange Procedures. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, C1 shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of Certificates (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as C1, may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the shares issuable in connection with the Merger and the cash payable pursuant to Sections 1.5.1(b) and 2.3.6. Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancelation to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal duly executed and completed in accordance with its terms, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the aggregate consideration which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of this Article II (the "Applicable Merger Consideration"), as adjusted by the cash amount payable in accordance with Section 1.5.1(b) and plus the cash amount payable in accordance with Section 2.3.6, and the Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In no event shall the holder of any Certificate be entitled to receive interest on any funds to be received in the Merger. In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of A1 Common Stock, which is not registered in the transfer records of the issuer thereof, a certificate representing that number of whole Paired Shares (as adjusted by the cash amount payable in accordance with Section 1.5.1(b) and plus the cash amount payable in accordance with Section 2.3.6), may be issued to a transferee if the Certificate is presented to the Exchange Agent accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.3.3, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time for all corporate purposes of C1, except as limited by Section 2.3.4 below, to represent ownership of the shares into which the shares shown thereon have been converted as contemplated by this Article II. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Certificates surrendered for exchange by any person constituting an "affiliate" of A1 for purposes of Section 6.4 shall not be exchanged until C1 has received an Affiliate Agreement (as defined in Section 6.4) in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.4.

2.3.4. Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. No dividends or other distributions declared or made after the Effective Time with respect to C1 Common Shares, C1 Class B Common Shares of C1 Class C Common Shares, as the case may be, with a record date on or after the Effective Time, and no distributions to be made to the beneficial owners of interests in C2 Common Stock arising out of a dividend or distribution declared or made by C2 with respect to C2 Common Stock after the Effective Time with a record date on or after the Effective Time, shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares represented thereby and no cash payment shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Sections 1.5.1(b) and 2.3.6 until the holder of record of such Certificate shall surrender such Certificate in accordance with this Section. Until paid to the holders of such unsurrendered Certificates in accordance with this Section 2.3.4, all such dividends and other distributions, and all cash payments to be paid pursuant to Section 1.5.1(b) and 2.3.6, shall be delivered to the Exchange Agent and held by it as part of the Exchange Fund. Subject to the effect of applicable laws, following surrender of any such Certificate, there shall be paid to the record holder of the Certificates representing the Paired Shares issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of dividends or other distributions, if any, with a record date on or after the Effective Time which theretofore became payable, but which were not paid by reason of the immediately preceding sentence, with respect to such whole number of C1 Common Shares and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date on or after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date subsequent to surrender payable with respect to such whole number of C1 Common Shares, C1 Class B Common Shares of C1 Class C Common Shares, as the case may be.

2.3.5. No Further Ownership Rights in Capital Stock of A1. All cash and Paired Shares issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Sections 1.5.1(b) or 2.3.6) shall be deemed to have been issued at the Effective Time in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of capital stock represented thereby, subject, however, to C1's obligation to pay any dividends which may have been declared by A1, C1 or C2 on such shares of capital stock in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and which remained unpaid at the Effective Time. From and after the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of A1 shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of C1 of the shares of capital stock of A1 or Merger Sub which were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to C1 for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Section.

2.3.6. No Fractional Shares. (a) No certificate or scrip representing fractional C1 Common Shares, C1 Series A Preferred Shares, C1 Class B Common Shares or C1 Class C Common Shares, as applicable (any such fractional shares, the "Fractional Shares"), will be issued in the Merger upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates or issued pursuant to Section 1.1.2(iv), and such fractional share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a stockholder of C1.

(b) As promptly as practicable following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall determine the aggregate number of whole shares represented by Fractional Shares of any class or series to which holders of Fractional Shares would be entitled but for the provisions of clause (a) of this Section 2.3.6 (such number of shares being herein called the "Excess Shares"). As soon after the Effective Time as practicable, the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders of Fractional Shares, shall sell the Excess Shares at then prevailing prices on the NYSE, all in the manner provided in paragraph (c) of this Section 2.3.6.

(c) The sale of the Excess Shares by the Exchange Agent shall be executed on the NYSE through a member firm of the NYSE and shall be executed in round lots to the extent practicable. Until the net proceeds of such sale or sales have been distributed to the holders of Fractional Shares, the Exchange Agent will hold such proceeds in trust for the holders of Fractional Shares (the "Stock Trust"). C1 shall pay all commissions, transfer taxes and other out-of-pocket transaction costs, including the expenses and compensation of the Exchange Agent, incurred in connection with such sale of the Excess Shares. The Exchange Agent shall determine the portion of the Stock Trust to which each holder of Fractional Shares shall be entitled, if any, by multiplying the amount of the aggregate net proceeds comprising the Stock Trust by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the fractional share interest to which such holder of Fractional Shares is entitled and the denominator of which is the aggregate amount of fractional share interests to which all holders of Fractional Shares of the same class or series are entitled.

(d) As soon as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of Fractional Shares in lieu of any fractional share interests in accordance with the immediately preceding paragraph, the Exchange Agent shall make available such amounts to such holders of Fractional Shares.

2.3.7. Termination of Exchange Fund and Stock Trust. Any portion of the Exchange Fund and Stock Trust which remains undistributed to the holders of Certificates or C1 Common Shares, as applicable, for six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to C1, upon demand, and any stockholders who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to C1 (subject to abandoned property, escheat and other similar laws) as general creditors for payment of their claim for the Applicable Merger Consideration, any cash payable in respect thereof pursuant to Sections 2.3.1(b) or 2.3.6 and any dividends or distributions with respect thereto. C1 shall not be liable to any such holder of shares for Paired Shares (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash payable in respect thereof delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

ARTICLE III.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF A1

Section 3.1. Representations and Warranties of A1. A1 represents and warrants to C1 and C2 as follows:

3.1.1. Organization and Qualification. Each of A1 and the Subsidiaries (as defined in Section 9.11) of A1 is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation and has all requisite power and authority to conduct its business as and to the extent now conducted and to own, use and lease its assets and properties, except for such failures to be so incorporated, existing and in good standing or to have such power and authority which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on A1 and the Subsidiaries and Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates (as defined in Section 9.11) of A1 (collectively, the "A1 Entities") taken as a whole. Each of the Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates of A1 is a trust, limited liability company or partnership duly organized, validly existing and, if applicable, is in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization and has all requisite power and authority to conduct its business as and to the extent conducted and to own, use and lease its assets and properties, except for such failures to be so organized, existing or in good standing or to have such power and authority which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole. Each A1 Entity is duly qualified, licensed or admitted to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the ownership, use or leasing of its assets and properties, or the conduct or nature of its business, makes such qualification, licensing or admission necessary, except for such failures to be so qualified, licensed or admitted and in good standing which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole. Section 3.1.1 of the letter dated the date hereof and delivered by A1 to C1 concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement (the "A1 Disclosure Letter") sets forth, as of the date hereof, (i) with respect to each Subsidiary of A1, (A) the name of such Subsidiary and (B) if such Subsidiary is not wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by A1, (1) its authorized capital stock, (2) the number of issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock and (3) the record and beneficial owners of outstanding shares of its capital stock and (ii) with respect to each Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of A1, (A) the name, type of entity and jurisdiction of organization of such Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate and (B) the names of all parties other than A1 Entities that own equity interests therein. Except for interests in the A1 Entities and as disclosed in Section 3.1.1 of the A1 Disclosure Letter and as disclosed in the A1 SEC Reports (as defined below), as of the date hereof, neither A1 nor any other A1 Entity directly or indirectly owns any equity or similar interest in, or any interest convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any equity or similar interest in, (i) any corporation or (ii) any trust, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture or other non-corporate business association or entity (other than investments in such entities that (A) in the aggregate are reflected in the latest A1 Financial Statements (as defined herein) as having a value not exceeding $20,000,000, (B) by operation of law (including the interposition of a Subsidiary or Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate holding only such investments) expose no A1 Entity (other than such an interposed A1 Entity) to any liability with respect to the obligations of such entities, whether as a controlling person, partner, guarantor, surety or otherwise and (C) do not and could not reasonably be expected to cause A1 to fail to meet any REIT Requirement (the exceptions to the general representation set forth in this sentence, the "A1 Permitted Minority Investments")). A1 has previously delivered to C1 and C2 correct and complete copies of its articles of incorporation and By-laws, each as amended to the date hereof.

3.1.2. Capital Stock. (a) As of the date hereof, the authorized capital stock of A1 consists solely of 375,796,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "A1 Class A Stock"), 12,000,000 shares of Class B Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "A1 Class B Stock"), 4,000 shares of Class C Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "A1 Class C Stock" and together with the A1 Class A Stock and the A1 Class B Stock, the "A1 Common Stock"), 9,200,000 shares of 8 3/4% Series B Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "A1 Series B Preferred Stock"), 3,000,000 shares of 7.89% Series C Cumulative Step-Up Premium Rate Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "A1 Series C Preferred Stock" and together with the A1 Series B Preferred Stock and the A1 Series B Preferred Stock, the "A1 Preferred Stock"), and 250,000,000 shares of Excess Stock, par value $.0001 per share (the "Excess Stock"). As of February 17, 1998, (i) 106,482,222 shares of A1 Class A Stock, 3,200,000 shares of Class B Stock, 4,000 shares of Class C Stock, no shares of Series A Preferred Stock, 8,000,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, 3,000,000 shares of Series C Preferred Stock and no shares of Excess Stock were issued and outstanding, (ii) no shares of any of such classes of stock were held by A1 in its treasury and (iii) 4,595,000 and 100,000 shares of A1 Common Stock were reserved for issuance pursuant to A1's Employee Stock Option Plan and A1's Director Stock Option Plan, respectively (collectively, the "A1 Stock Plans") ((i), (ii) and (iii), collectively, the "A1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements"). Between such date and the date hereof, except as set forth in Section 3.1.2 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, there has been no change in the number of issued and outstanding shares of A1 Common Stock or shares of A1 Common Stock held in treasury or reserved for issuance other than pursuant to the A1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements. All of the issued and outstanding shares of A1 Common Stock and A1 Preferred Stock are, and all shares reserved for issuance will be, upon issuance in accordance with the terms specified in the instruments or agreements pursuant to which they are issuable, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable. Except pursuant to this Agreement and except as set forth in Section 3.1.2 of the A1 Disclosure Letter and as set forth in the A1 SEC Reports, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding subscriptions, options, warrants, rights (including "phantom" stock rights), preemptive rights or other contracts, commitments, understandings or arrangements, including any right of conversion or exchange under any outstanding security, instrument or agreement (together, "Options"), obligating any A1 Entity to issue or sell any equity interest in A1 or to grant, extend or enter into any Option with respect thereto other than pursuant to A1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements. Except pursuant to this Agreement and except as set forth in Section 3.1.2 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations of any A1 Entity to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any equity interest in A1.

(b) Except as disclosed in Section 3.1.2 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of each Subsidiary of A1 are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and are owned, beneficially and of record, by A1 or any other A1 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by A1, free and clear of any liens, claims, mortgages, deeds of trust, deeds to secure debt, encumbrances, pledges, security interests, equities and charges of any kind (each a "Lien"). Except as disclosed in Section 3.1.2 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, all equity interests in the Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates of A1 that are not owned by third parties (as disclosed in Section 3.1.1 of the A1 Disclosure Letter) are owned by other A1 Entities, free and clear of any Liens. Except as disclosed in Section 3.1.2 of the A1 Disclosure Letter and as set forth in the A1 SEC Reports, as of the date hereof, there are no (i) outstanding Options (other than Options in favor of A1 or any other A1 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by A1) obligating any A1 Entity to issue or sell any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interest in, any Subsidiary or Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of A1 or to grant, extend or enter into any such Option or (ii) voting trusts, proxies or other commitments, understandings, restrictions or arrangements in favor of any person other than A1 or an A1 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by A1 with respect to the voting of or the right to participate in dividends or other earnings on any capital stock of any Subsidiary of A1 or an any equity interest in any Consolidated NonCorporate Affiliate of A1, other than as set forth in such A1 Entity's Charter Documents.

(c) Except as disclosed in Section 3.1.2 of the A1 Disclosure Letter and as set forth in the A1 SEC Reports, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations (other than Options in favor of A1 or an A1 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by A1) of any A1 Entity to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interest in, any Subsidiary or Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of A1. Except as disclosed in Section 3.1.2 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations of any A1 Entity to provide funds to, or to make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in, any A1 Entity or other person (except for A1 and A1 Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by A1), other than in connection with A1 Permitted Minority Investments.

3.1.3. Authority Relative to this Agreement. A1 has full corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and, subject, with respect to the Merger, to obtaining the A1 Stockholders' Approval (as defined in Section 6.3.1), to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by A1 and the consummation by A1 of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly approved by its Board of Directors, the Board of Directors of A1 has recommended adoption of this Agreement by its stockholders and directed that this Agreement be submitted to its stockholders for their consideration, and no other corporate proceedings on the part of A1 or its stockholders are necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by A1 and the consummation by A1 of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than obtaining the A1 Stockholders' Approval. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by A1 and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of A1, enforceable against A1 in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

3.1.4. Non-Contravention; Approvals and Consents. (a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by A1 do not, and the performance by A1 of its obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, (i) conflict with, result in a violation or breach of, constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, result in or give to any person any right of payment or reimbursement, termination, cancelation, modification or acceleration of, or result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any of the assets or properties of any A1 Entity under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (x) the certificate or articles of incorporation or By-laws (in the case of a corporation), trust agreement, declaration of trust, deed or trustees' regulations (in the case of a trust), limited liability company or operating agreement or registration certificate (in the case of a limited liability company) or agreement or certificate of partnership or joint venture (in the case of a partnership or joint venture) (including, in each such case, all amendments, supplements, other modifications and assignments thereof) ("Charter Documents") of any A1 Entity, or (y) subject to the obtaining of the A1 Stockholders' Approval and the taking of the actions described in paragraph (b)of this Section and the obtaining of the consents and approvals, the making of the filings and the giving of the notices described in Section 3.1.4 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, (1) any statute, law, rule, regulation or ordinance (together, "laws"), or any judgment, decree, order, writ, permit or license (together, "orders"), of any court, tribunal, arbitrator, authority, agency, commission, official or other instrumentality of the United States, any foreign country or any domestic or foreign state, county, city or other political subdivision (a "Governmental or Regulatory Authority") applicable to any A1 Entity or any of its assets or properties, or (2) any note, bond, mortgage, deed of trust, deed to secure debt, security agreement, co-tenancy agreement, reciprocal easement agreement, management agreement, leasing agreement, indenture, license, franchise, permit, concession, contract, lease or other instrument, obligation or agreement of any kind (including, in each case, all amendments, supplements, other modifications and assignments thereof) (together, "Contracts") to which any A1 Entity is a party or by which any A1 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound, excluding from the foregoing clauses (1) and (2) conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults, rights of payment or reimbursement, terminations, cancellations, modifications, accelerations and creations and impositions of Liens which, individually or in the aggregate, could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of A1 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (ii) to the knowledge of A1, adversely affect the qualification of A1 as a REIT.

(b) Except (i) for the filing of the Proxy Statement (as defined in Section 3.1.9) and the Registration Statement (as defined in Section 4.1.9) with the SEC pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder (the "Exchange Act"), and the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder (the "Securities Act"), the declaration of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement by the SEC and filings with various state securities authorities that are required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) for the filing of the Articles of Merger and other appropriate merger documents required by the MGCL with the Maryland Secretary of State and, in each case, with any local recording office, and appropriate documents with the relevant authorities of other states in which any of the Constituent Corporations are qualified to do business, (iii) for such other consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings as may be required under (A) the laws of any foreign country in which any A1 Entity conducts any business or owns any property or assets or (B) any federal, state, local or foreign Environmental Law (as defined below) and (iv) as disclosed in Section 3.1.4 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, no consent, approval or action of, filing with or notice to any Governmental or Regulatory Authority or other public or private third party is necessary or required under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any law or order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority or any Contract to which any A1 Entity is a party or by which any A1 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound for the execution and delivery of this Agreement by A1, the performance by A1 of its obligations hereunder or the consummation by A1 of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than such consents, approvals, actions, filings and notices which the failure to make or obtain, as the case may be, individually or in the aggregate, could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of A1 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

3.1.5. SEC Reports and Financial Statements. A1 has delivered to C1 and C2 prior to the execution of this Agreement a true and complete copy of each form, report, schedule, registration statement (as declared effective and any posteffective amendments), definitive proxy statement and other document (together with all amendments thereof and supplements thereto, except as provided above with respect to registration statements) filed by A1 or any other A1 Entity with the SEC since January 1, 1996 (as such documents have since the time of their filing been amended or supplemented, the "A1 SEC Reports"), which are all the documents (other than preliminary material) that A1 or any other A1 Entity were required to file with the SEC since such date. As of their respective dates, the A1 SEC Reports (i) complied as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and (ii) did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The audited consolidated financial statements and unaudited interim consolidated financial statements (including, in each case, the notes, if any, thereto) included in the A1 SEC Reports (the "A1 Financial Statements") complied as to form in all material respects with the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto, were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except as may be indicated therein or in the notes thereto and except with respect to unaudited statements as permitted by Form 10-Q of the SEC) and fairly present (subject, in the case of the unaudited interim financial statements, to normal, recurring year-end audit adjustments (which are not expected to be, individually or in the aggregate, materially adverse to the A1 Entities taken as a whole)) the consolidated financial position of A1 and its consolidated subsidiaries as at the respective dates thereof and the consolidated results of their operations and cash flows for the respective periods then ended. Except as set forth in Section 3.1.5 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, each Subsidiary and Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of A1 in existence on the date hereof is fully consolidated with A1 in the A1 Financial Statements for all periods covered thereby.

3.1.6. Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Except as disclosed in the A1 SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement, between September 30, 1997 and the date hereof there has not been any change, event or development having, or that could be reasonably expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole.

3.1.7. [Intentionally Omitted].

3.1.8. Legal Proceedings. Except as disclosed in the A1 SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement or in Section 3.1.8 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, (i) there are no actions, suits, arbitrations or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of A1, threatened against, relating to or affecting, nor to the knowledge of A1 are there any Governmental or Regulatory Authority investigations or audits pending or threatened against, relating to or affecting any A1 Entity or any of its assets and properties which, individually or in the aggregate, could be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of A1 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) no A1 Entity is subject to any order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority which, individually or in the aggregate, is having or could be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of A1 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

3.1.9. Information Supplied. The joint proxy statement relating to the Stockholders' Meetings (as defined in Section 6.3.2), as amended or supplemented from time to time (as so amended and supplemented, the "Proxy Statement"), and any other documents to be filed by A1 with the SEC or any other Governmental or Regulatory Authority in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby will (in the case of the Proxy Statement and any such other documents filed with the SEC under the Exchange Act or the Securities Act) comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act and the Securities Act, as applicable, and will not, on the date of its filing or, in the case of the Proxy Statement, at the date it is first mailed to stockholders of A1 and at the time of the A1 Stockholders' Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, except that no representation is made by A1 with respect to information supplied by or on behalf of C1 or C2 or any of their respective Subsidiaries, shareholders or stockholders expressly for inclusion therein.

3.1.10. Compliance with Laws and Orders. The A1 Entities hold all permits, licenses, variances, exemptions, orders and approvals of all Governmental and Regulatory Authorities necessary for the lawful conduct of their respective businesses (the "A1 Permits"), except for failures to hold such permits, licenses, variances, exemptions, orders and approvals which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole. The A1 Entities are in compliance with the terms of the A1 Permits, except failures so to comply which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole. Except as disclosed in the A1 SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement or in Section 3.1.10 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, the A1 Entities are not in violation of or default under any law or order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority, except for such violations or defaults which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole.

3.1.11. Compliance with Agreements; Certain Agreements. Except as disclosed in the A1 SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement or in Section 3.1.11 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, neither any A1 Entity nor, to the knowledge of A1, any other party thereto is in breach or violation of, or in default in the performance or observance of any term or provision of, and no event has occurred which, with notice or lapse of time or both, could be reasonably expected to result in a default under, (i) the Charter Documents of any A1 Entity that is a corporation or (ii) any Contract to which any A1 Entity is a party or by which any A1 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound or any Charter Document of any A1 Entity that is not a corporation, except in the case of this clause (ii) for breaches, violations and defaults which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole.

3.1.12. Taxes. (a) Each A1 Entity has timely filed all material tax returns and reports required to be filed by it, or requests for extensions to file such returns or reports have been timely filed or granted and have not expired, and all such tax returns and reports are complete and accurate in all respects, except to the extent that such failures to timely file or failures to be complete and accurate in all respects, as applicable, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole. Each A1 Entity has paid (or A1 has paid on its behalf) all taxes shown as due on such tax returns and reports and all material taxes otherwise due. The most recent financial statements contained in the A1 SEC Reports reflect an adequate reserve for all taxes payable by the A1 Entities for all taxable periods and portions thereof accrued through the date of such financial statements, and no deficiencies for any taxes have been proposed, asserted or assessed against any A1 Entity that are not adequately reserved for, except for inadequately reserved taxes and inadequately reserved deficiencies that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole. Except as set forth in Section 3.1.12 of the A1

Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, no requests for waivers of the time to assess or collect any taxes against any A1 Entity have been granted or are pending, and no audits or examinations of any A1 Entity are being conducted or, to the knowledge of any A1 Entity, threatened by any taxing authority.

(b) No A1 Entity has taken any action that would create a material risk that the Merger would not qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(c) At all times since December 31, 1993, A1 has qualified as a REIT and its current method of operation will enable it to continue to qualify as a REIT.

(d) The execution or delivery by A1 of this Agreement and the consummation by A1 of the transactions contemplated hereby or compliance with or fulfillment of the terms and provisions hereof by A1, to the knowledge of A1, will not adversely affect the qualification of A1 as a REIT or adversely affect the qualification of C1 as a REIT after the Effective Time.

(e) Except as set forth in Section 3.1.12 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, no A1 Entity is bound by any effective private letter ruling, closing agreement or similar agreement with any taxing authority (an "A1 Tax Ruling"), no U.S. A1 Entity has any applications or requests outstanding for any such rulings or agreements and no such A1 Tax Ruling has been revoked or modified in any manner.

(f) A1 is not, and has not at any time been, a member of any consolidated, combined or unitary group for Federal, state, local and foreign tax purposes.

(g) As used in this Section 3.1.12 and in Sections 4.1.12 and 4.2.12, "taxes" shall include all Federal, state, local and foreign income, franchise, property, sales, use, excise and other taxes, including obligations for withholding taxes from payments due or made to any other person and any interest, penalties or additions to tax.

3.1.13. Employee Benefit Plans; ERISA. (a) Except as described in the A1 SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement or as would not have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole, as of the date hereof, (i) all A1 Employee Benefit Plans (as defined below) are in compliance with all applicable requirements of law, including ERISA and the Code, and (ii) no A1 Entity has any liabilities or obligations with respect to any such A1 Employee Benefit Plans, whether accrued, contingent or otherwise, nor to the knowledge of A1 are any such liabilities or obligations expected to be incurred.

(b) As used herein:

(i) "A1 Employee Benefit Plan" means any Plan entered into, established, maintained, sponsored, contributed to or required to be contributed to by any A1 Entity for the benefit of the current or former employees or directors of any A1 Entity and existing on the date of this Agreement or at any time subsequent thereto and on or prior to the Effective Time and, in the case of a Plan which is subject to Part 3 of Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder ("ERISA"), Section 412 of the Code or Title IV of ERISA, at any time during the five-year period preceding the date of this Agreement; and

(ii) "Plan" means any employment, bonus, incentive compensation, deferred compensation, pension, profit sharing, retirement, stock purchase, stock option, stock ownership, stock appreciation rights, phantom stock, leave of absence, layoff, vacation, day or dependent care, legal services, cafeteria, life, health, medical, accident, disability, workmen's compensation or other insurance, severance, separation, termination, change of control or other benefit plan, agreement, practice, policy, program or arrangement of any kind, whether written or oral, including, but not limited to any "employee benefit plan" within the meaning of Section 3(3) of ERISA.

(c) No part of the assets of Al or any Al Entity constitute "plan assets" within the meaning of 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.101.

3.1.14. Labor Matters. Except as disclosed in the A1 SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement or in Section 3.1.14 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, there are no material controversies pending or, to the knowledge of A1, threatened between any A1 Entity and any representatives of its employees, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole, and, to the knowledge of A1, there are no material organizational efforts presently being made involving any of the now unorganized employees of any A1 Entity except as could not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole.

3.1.15. Environmental Matters. (a) Except as disclosed in Section 3.1.15 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, each A1 Entity has obtained or submitted timely applications for all licenses, permits, authorizations, registrations approvals and consents from Governmental or Regulatory Authorities which are required under any applicable Environmental Law (as defined below) in respect of its business or operations ("Environmental Permits"), except for such failures to have Environmental Permits and to submit timely applications which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole. Each of such Environmental Permits obtained by such A1 Entity is in full force and effect and each A1 Entity is in compliance with the terms and conditions of all such Environmental Permits and with all applicable Environmental Laws, except for such failures to be in full force and effect or in compliance which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole.

(b) Except as disclosed in the A1 SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement or in Section 3.1.15 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, to the knowledge of A1 as of the date hereof, no site or facility now or previously owned, operated or leased by any A1 Entity is listed or proposed for listing on the National Priorities List promulgated pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder ("CERCLA"), or on any similar state or local list of sites requiring investigation or cleanup.

(c) Except as disclosed in the A1 SEC Reports filed prior to the date of this Agreement or in Section 3.1.15 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, no Liens have arisen under or pursuant to any Environmental Law on any site or facility owned, operated or leased by any A1 Entity, other than any such Liens not individually or in the aggregate material to the A1 Entities taken as a whole, and no action of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority has been taken or, to the knowledge of A1, is in process which could subject any of such properties to such Liens, except for such Liens which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole, and no A1 Entity is required to place any notice or restriction relating to the presence of Hazardous Materials at any such site or facility owned by it in any deed to the real property on which such site or facility is located, except for such notices or restrictions which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole.

(d) Except as disclosed in Section 3.1.15 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there have been no written reports, environmental investigations, studies, audits, tests, reviews or other analyses conducted by, or which are in the possession of, any A1 Entity in relation to any site or facility now or previously owned, operated or leased by any A1 Entity that both (i) conclude that any A1 Entity could have liability under Environmental Laws that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole, and (ii) have not been delivered to C1 and C2 prior to the execution of this Agreement.

(e) As used herein:

(i) "Environmental Law" means any law, regulation or order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority relating to the regulation or protection of human health, safety or the environment or to emissions, discharges, releases or threatened releases of pollutants, contaminants, chemicals or industrial, toxic or hazardous substances or wastes into the environment (including, without limitation, ambient air, soil, surface water, ground water, wetlands, land or subsurface strata), or otherwise relating to the manufacture, processing, distribution, use, treatment, storage, disposal, transport or handling of pollutants, contaminants, chemicals or industrial, toxic or hazardous substances or wastes; and insulation and transformers or other equipment that contain dielectric fluid containing levels of polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs); (B) any chemicals or other materials or substances which are now or hereafter become defined as or included in the definition of "hazardous substances", "hazardous wastes", "hazardous materials", "extremely hazardous wastes", "restricted hazardous wastes", "toxic substances", "toxic pollutants" or words of similar import under any Environmental Law; and (C) any other chemical or other material or substance, exposure to which is prohibited, limited or regulated by any Governmental or Regulatory Authority under any Environmental Law.

(ii) "Hazardous Material" means (A) any petroleum or petroleum products, flammable explosives, radioactive materials, asbestos in any form that is or could become friable, urea formaldehyde foam

3.1.16. Intellectual Property Rights. Each A1 Entity has all right, title and interest in, or a valid and binding license to use, all Intellectual Property (as defined below) individually or in the aggregate material to the conduct of the businesses of the A1 Entities taken as a whole. No A1 Entity is in default (or with the giving of notice or lapse of time or both, would be in default) under any license to use such Intellectual Property, such Intellectual Property is not, to the knowledge of A1, being infringed by any third party, and no A1 Entity is infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party, except for such defaults and infringements which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole. For purposes of this Agreement, "Intellectual Property" means patents and patent rights, trademarks and trademark rights, trade names and trade name rights, service marks and service mark rights, service names and service name rights, copyrights and copyright rights and other proprietary intellectual property rights and all pending applications for and registrations of any of the foregoing.

3.1.17. Real Property. Section 3.1.17 of the A1 Disclosure Letter sets forth a list of all principal properties owned or leased (as lessee) by the A1 Entities as of the date hereof.

3.1.18. Vote Required. Assuming the accuracy of the representation and warranty contained in Sections 4.1.20 and 4.2.19, the affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of A1 Common Stock with respect to the adoption of this Agreement is the only vote of the holders of any class or series of the capital stock of A1 required to approve the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

3.1.19. Opinion of Financial Advisor. The Board of Directors of A1 has received the opinion of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated ("Merrill Lynch"), financial advisor to A1, to the effect that, as of the date hereof, the consideration to be received by the holders of A1 Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

ARTICLE IV.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF C1 AND C2

Section 4.1. Representations and Warranties of C1. C1 represents and warrants to A1 as follows:

4.1.1. Organization and Qualification. Each of C1 and the Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates of C1 is a trust, limited liability company or partnership duly organized, validly existing and, if applicable, is in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization and has all requisite power and authority to conduct its business as and to the extent conducted and to own, use and lease its assets and properties, except for such failures to be so organized, existing or in good standing or to have such power and authority which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on C1 and the Subsidiaries and Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates of C1 (collectively, the "C1 Entities") and C2 and the Subsidiaries and Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates of C2 (collectively, the "C2 Entities"; and, together with the C1 Entities, the "C1/C2 Entities") taken as a whole. Each Subsidiary of C1 is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation and has all requisite power and authority to conduct its business as and to the extent now conducted and to own, use and lease its assets and properties, except for such failures to be so incorporated, existing and in good standing or to have such power and authority which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each C1 Entity is duly qualified, licensed or admitted to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the ownership, use or leasing of its assets and properties, or the conduct or nature of its business, makes such qualification, licensing or admission necessary, except for such failures to be so qualified, licensed or admitted and in good standing which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Section 4.1.1 of the letter dated the date hereof and delivered by C1 to A1 concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement (the "C1 Disclosure Letter") sets forth, as of the date hereof, (i) with respect to each Subsidiary of C1, (A) the name and jurisdiction of incorporation of such Subsidiary and (B) if such Subsidiary is not wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1, (1) its authorized capital stock, (2) the number of issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock and (3) the record and beneficial owners of outstanding shares of its capital stock and (ii) with respect to each Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C1, (A) the name, type of entity and jurisdiction of organization of such Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate, (B) the names of all parties that own equity interests therein and (C) the method of consolidation employed with respect to the consolidation of the accounts of such Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate in the financial statements of C1, including the percentage(s) employed in the case of proportional consolidation. Except for interests in the C1 Entities and as disclosed in Section 4.1.1 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, neither C1 nor any other C1 Entity directly or indirectly owns any equity or similar interest in, or any interest convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any equity or similar interest in, (i) any corporation (other than less than 9.8% of any series or class of capital stock acquired or held for the purpose of meeting C1's obligations under its Trustees' and Officers' Deferred Remuneration Plan and Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the "C1 Deferral Plans")) or (ii) any trust, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture or other non-corporate business association or entity (other than (x) as noncontrolling investments acquired or held for the purpose of meeting C1's obligations under the C1 Deferral Plans and (y) investments in such entities that (A) in the aggregate are reflected in the latest C1 Financial Statements (as defined herein) as having a value not exceeding $20,000,000, (B) by operation of law (including the interposition of a C1 Entity holding only such investments) expose no C1 Entity (other than such an interposed C1 Entity) to any liability with respect to the obligations of such entities, whether as a controlling person, partner, guarantor, surety or otherwise and (C) do not and could not reasonably be expected to cause C1 to fail to meet any REIT Requirement (the exceptions to the general representation set forth in this sentence, the "C1 Permitted Minority Investments")). C1 has previously delivered to A1 correct and complete copies of the Second Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust (C1's "Declaration of Trust") and Trustee's Regulations of C1, each as amended to the date hereof.

4.1.2. Capital Stock. (a) As of the date of this Agreement, the total number of preference shares of beneficial interest in C1 ("C1 Preference Shares") which C1 has the authority to issue is 209,249 and the total number of common shares of beneficial interest in C1 (the "C1 Common Shares") which C1 has the authority to issue is as set forth in Exhibit A of C1's Declaration of Trust, as amended through the date hereof. As of the date hereof, the C1 Preference Shares and the C1 Common Shares represent all the authorized shares of beneficial interest in C1. As of February 17, 1998, 209,249 C1 Preference Shares were issued and outstanding, consisting solely of the C1 6.50% Preference Shares. As of February 17, 1998, 25,326,909 C1 Common Shares were issued and outstanding 1,092,500, C1 Common Shares were held in the treasury of C1 and 2,600,000 C1 Common Shares were reserved for issuance pursuant to C1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements (as defined below) other than those described in clause (i) of the definition thereof. Between such date and the date hereof, except as set forth in Section 4.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, there has been no change in the number of issued and outstanding C1 Common Shares or the number of C1 Common Shares held in treasury or reserved for issuance other than pursuant to (i) contracts entered into pursuant to C1's 1997 Plan for Shareholder Contractual Purchases (the "C1 QSPP"), (ii) contracts (the "C1 ESPP Contracts") styled "Employee Share Purchase Plan Contract", or similarly styled, entered into before the date hereof, (iii) option agreements entered into in connection with grants of options under the 1993 Share Option Plan of C1 (the "C1 Option Plan") made before the date hereof, (iv) the C1 Deferral Plans, (v) the conversion provisions of the Certificate of Designation for the C1 Preference Shares and (vi) contracts ("C1 Termination Agreements") with individuals, other than executive officers, whose employment with C1 has been terminated in the ordinary course of business of the C1 Entities, which contracts provide for the repurchase of C1 Common Shares held by such individuals and/or the cancelation of options issued to such individuals under the C1 Option Plan (the contracts and arrangements described in clauses (i), (iii), (iv) and (v), the "C1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements"; the contracts and arrangements described in clauses (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi), the "C1 Permissible Redemption Arrangements"). All of the issued and outstanding C1 Common Shares and C1 Preference Shares are, and all such shares reserved for issuance will be, upon issuance in accordance with the terms specified in the instruments or agreements pursuant to which they are issuable, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and all C1 Common Shares issuable in exchange for shares of A1 Common Stock at the Effective Time and the related beneficial interests in shares of C2 Common Stock will be paired with each other pursuant to the C2 Trust Agreements in the same ratio as all other C1 Common Shares and related beneficial interests in shares of C2 Common Stock are paired, as such ratio may be changed from time to time. Except pursuant to this Agreement and except as set forth in Section 4.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding Options obligating any C1/C2 Entity to issue or sell any shares of beneficial interest or other equity interest in C1 or to grant, extend or enter into any Option with respect thereto other than pursuant to C1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements. Except pursuant to this Agreement and except as set forth in Section 4.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations of any C1/C2 Entity to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of beneficial interest or other equity interest in C1 other than pursuant to C1 Permissible Redemption Arrangements.

(b) Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of each Subsidiary of C1 are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and are owned, beneficially and of record, by C1 or another C1 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1, free and clear of any Liens. Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, all equity interests in the Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates of C1 that are not owned by third parties (as disclosed in Section 4.1.1 of the C1 Disclosure Letter) are owned by other C1 Entities, free and clear of any Liens. Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no (i) outstanding Options (other than Options in favor of C1 or a C1 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1) obligating any C1 Entity to issue, sell or otherwise transfer any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interest in, any Subsidiary or Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C1 or to grant, extend or enter into any such Option or (ii) voting trusts, proxies or other commitments, understandings, restrictions or arrangements in favor of any person other than C1 or another C1 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 with respect to the voting of or the right to participate in dividends or other earnings on any capital stock of any Subsidiary of C1 or any equity interest in any Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C1, other than as set forth in such C1 Entity's Charter Documents.

(c) Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations (other than Options in favor of C1 or a C1 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1) of any C1 Entity to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interest in, any Subsidiary or Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C1. Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations of any C1 Entity to provide funds to, or to make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in, any C1 Entity or other person (except for C1 and C1 Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1), other than in connection with C1 Permitted Minority Investments.

4.1.3. Authority Relative to this Agreement. C1 has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and, subject, (i) with respect to the C1 Delaware Reorganization, to obtaining the requisite approval of the shareholders of C1 and (ii) with respect to the Merger, to obtaining the C1 Stockholders' Approval (as defined in Section 6.3.2), to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by C1, and the consummation by C1 of the transactions contemplated hereby, have been duly and validly approved by its Board of Trustees, the Board of Trustees of C1 has recommended adoption of this Agreement by the shareholders of C1 and directed that this Agreement, the conduct of the C1 Delaware Reorganization and the issuance of C1 Common Shares in connection with the Merger and Section 1.1.2 be submitted to the shareholders of C1 for their consideration, and no other corporate or trust proceedings on the part of either of C1 or its shareholders are necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by C1 and the consummation by C1 of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than obtaining the requisite approval of the shareholders of C1 for the C1 Delaware Reorganization and obtaining the C1 Stockholders' Approval. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by C1 and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of C1 enforceable against C1 in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

4.1.4. Non-Contravention; Approvals and Consents. (a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by C1 do not, and the performance by C1 of its obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, (i) conflict with, result in a violation or breach of, constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, result in or give to any person any right of payment or reimbursement, termination, cancelation, modification or acceleration of, or result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any of the assets or properties of any C1 Entity under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (x) the Charter Documents of any C1 Entity, or (y) subject to the obtaining of requisite approval of the shareholders of C1 for the C1 Delaware Reorganization and the C1 Stockholders' Approval and the taking of the actions described in paragraph (b) of this Section and the obtaining of the consents and approvals, the making of the filings and the giving of the notices described in Section 4.1.4 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, (1) any laws or orders of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority applicable to any C1 Entity or any of its assets or properties, or (2) any Contracts to which any C1 Entity is a party or by which any C1 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound, excluding from the foregoing clauses (1) and (2) conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults, rights of payment or reimbursement, terminations, cancellations, modifications, accelerations and creations and impositions of Liens which, individually or in the aggregate, could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of C1 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (ii) to the knowledge of C1, adversely affect the qualification of C1 as a REIT.

(b) Except (i) for the filing of the Proxy Statement and the Registration Statement with the SEC pursuant to the Exchange Act and the Securities Act, the declaration of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement by the SEC and filings with various state securities authorities that are required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) for the filing by C1 of articles of merger and other appropriate merger documents required by the Massachusetts Business Corporation Law with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and a certificate of merger and other appropriate merger documents required by the DGCL with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (the "Delaware Secretary of State") and, in each case, with any local recording office in connection with the C1 Delaware Reorganization, and the filing of the Articles of Merger and other appropriate merger documents required by the MGCL with the Maryland Secretary of State and, in each case, with any local recording office, and appropriate documents with the relevant authorities of other states in which the Constituent Corporations are qualified to do business in connection with the Merger, (iii) for such other consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings as may be required under (A) the laws of any foreign country in which any C1 Entity conducts any business or owns any property or assets or (B) any federal, state, local or foreign Environmental Law and (iv) as disclosed in Section 4.1.4 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, no consent, approval or action of, filing with or notice to any Governmental or Regulatory Authority or other public or private third party is necessary or required under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any law or order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority or any Contract to which any C1 Entity is a party (including, without limitation, any Charter Documents of any C1 Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate) or by which any C1 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound for the execution and delivery of this Agreement by C1, the performance by C1 of its obligations hereunder or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than such consents, approvals, actions, filings and notices which the failure to make or obtain, as the case may be, individually or in the aggregate, could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of C1 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.1.5. C1 Financial Statements and Other Documents. (a) Prior to the execution of this Agreement, C1 has delivered to A1 true and complete copies of the audited balance sheets of C1 as of December 31, 1995, 1996 and 1997, and the related audited statements of income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for each of the fiscal years then ended, together with the notes thereto and a true and correct copy of the report on such audited information by Ernst & Young LLP (such financial statements, including the notes, if any, thereto, being referred to herein as the "C1 Financial Statements"). The C1 Financial Statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except as may be indicated therein or in the notes thereto) and fairly present the consolidated financial position of C1 as at the respective dates thereof and the related results of operations and cash flows for the respective periods indicated. Except as set forth in Section 4.1.1 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, each Subsidiary and Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C1 in existence on the date hereof is fully consolidated with C1 in the C1 Financial Statements for all periods covered thereby.

(b) C1 has delivered to A1 prior to the execution of this Agreement a true and complete copy of each letter, proxy and other document (together with all amendments thereof and supplements thereto) provided by C1 to its shareholders between December 31, 1996 and the date hereof (the "C1 Reports"). As of their respective dates, the C1 Reports did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact and did not omit any fact that directly conflicts with any material statement contained therein.

4.1.6. Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.6 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, (a) between December 31, 1997 and the date hereof there has not been any change, event or development having, or that could be reasonably expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, (b) between December 31, 1997 and the date hereof, no party to any Charter Document or co-tenancy agreement of any C1 Entity has exercised any "buy-sell", right of first refusal, right or first offer or other comparable right (each, a "Charter Document Right") pursuant to such Charter Document or co-tenancy agreement and (c) between December 31, 1997 and the date hereof no C1 Entity has taken any action which, if taken after the date hereof, would constitute a breach of any provision of paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k) or, solely with respect to the foregoing paragraphs, (l) of Section 5.1.2.

4.1.7. Undisclosed Liabilities. C1 has no liabilities that would be required to be shown on the financial statements, including the notes thereto, of C1 prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis with prior periods and that (a) are not disclosed in the C1 Financial Statements and (b) would, or would reasonably be expected to, have a material adverse effect on C1 and C2 taken as a whole.

4.1.8. Legal Proceedings. Except as disclosed in the C1 Financial Statements or in Section 4.1.8 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, (i) there are no actions, suits, arbitrations or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of C1, threatened against, relating to or affecting, nor to the knowledge of C1 are there any Governmental or Regulatory Authority investigations or audits pending or threatened against, relating to or affecting any C1 Entity or any of its assets and properties which, individually or in the aggregate, could be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of C1 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (ii) no C1 Entity is subject to any order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority which, individually or in the aggregate, is having or could be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of C1 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.1.9. Information Supplied. The registration statement to be filed with the SEC by C1 and C2 in connection with the issuance of C1 Common Shares and beneficial interests in C2 Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement, as amended or supplemented from time to time (as so amended and supplemented, the "Registration Statement"), and any other documents to be filed by C1 with the SEC or any other Governmental or Regulatory Authority in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, will (in the case of the Registration Statement and any such other documents filed with the SEC under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act) comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, as applicable, and will not, on the date of its filing or, in the case of the Registration Statement, at the time it becomes effective under the Securities Act, at the date the Proxy Statement is first mailed to stockholders of C1 and C2 and at the times of the Stockholders' Meetings, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, except that no representation is made by C1 with respect to information supplied by or on behalf of A1 or any of its Subsidiaries expressly for inclusion therein and information incorporated by reference therein from documents filed with the SEC by any A1 Entity.

4.1.10. Compliance with Laws and Orders. The C1 Entities hold all permits, licenses, variances, exemptions, orders and approvals of all Governmental and Regulatory Authorities necessary for the lawful conduct of their respective businesses (the "C1 Permits"), except for failures to hold such permits, licenses, variances, exemptions, orders and approvals which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. The C1 Entities are in compliance with the terms of the C1 Permits, except failures so to comply which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.10 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, the C1 Entities are not in violation of or default under any law or order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority, except for such violations or defaults which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

4.1.11. Compliance with Agreements; Certain Agreements. (a) Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.11 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, neither any C1 Entity nor, to the knowledge of C1, any other party thereto is in breach or violation of, or in default in the performance or observance of any term or provision of, and no event has occurred which, with notice or lapse of time or both, could be reasonably expected to result in a default under, (i) the Charter Documents of any C1 Entity that is a corporation, (ii) any Contract to which any C1 Entity is a party or by which any C1 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound or any Charter Document of any C1 Entity that is not a corporation, except in the case of this clause (ii) for breaches, violations and defaults which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each Charter Document or co-tenancy agreement of each C1 Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate and, to the knowledge of C1, each material Contract to which any C1 Entity is a party or by which any of its assets or properties is bound, is in full force and effect, other than invalidities and other defects (x) due to the actions of other parties to any such Charter Document or material Contract or (y) that have not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on C1 and C2 taken as a whole. C1 has made available to A1 correct and complete copies of all Charter Documents and co-tenancy agreements of the C1 Entities, except as would not, and would not reasonably be expected to, have a material adverse effect on the ability of C1, C2 or A1 to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) No C1 Entity other than C1 has employed any individuals, retained any current or former employees of C1 as consultants or reimbursed any current or former employees of C1 for any business related or other expenses (provided, however, that such C1 Entities may have reimbursed C1 for payments of such nature). No C1 Entity other than C1 has paid any trustees', directors' or similar fees to current or former trustees or directors of any C1 Entity other than C1. Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.11 of the C1 Disclosure Letter or as provided for in this Agreement, as of the date hereof, C1 is not a party to any oral or written (i) consulting agreement with any current or former employee of C1 not terminable on 30 days' or less notice involving the payment of more than $10,000 per annum or $100,000 per annum in the aggregate for all such agreements, (ii) union or collective bargaining agreement which covers more than 100 employees, (iii) agreement with any executive officer or other employee of C1 the benefits of which are contingent or vest, or the terms of which are materially altered, upon the occurrence of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iv) agreement with respect to any executive officer or other employee of C1 providing any term of employment or compensation guarantee that extends for a period longer than one year or (v) agreement or plan, including any stock option, stock appreciation right, restricted stock or stock purchase plan, any of the benefits of which will be increased (other than as a result of any change in market values of the securities of any party or the Surviving Corporation), or the vesting of the benefits under which will be accelerated by the occurrence of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.1.12. Taxes. (a) Each C1 Entity has timely filed all material tax returns and reports required to be filed by it, or requests for extensions to file such returns or reports have been timely filed or granted and have not expired, and all such tax returns and reports are complete and accurate in all respects, except to the extent that such failures to timely file or failures to be complete and accurate in all respects, as applicable, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each C1 Entity has paid (or C1 has paid on its behalf) all taxes shown as due on such tax returns and reports and all material taxes otherwise due. The most recent C1 Financial Statements reflect an adequate reserve for all taxes payable by the C1 Entities for all taxable periods and portions thereof accrued through the date of such financial statements, and no deficiencies for any taxes have been proposed, asserted or assessed against any C1 Entity that are not adequately reserved for, except for inadequately reserved taxes and inadequately reserved deficiencies that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Except as set forth in Section 4.1.12 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, no requests for waivers of the time to assess or collect any taxes against any C1 Entity have been granted or are pending, and no audits or examinations of any C1 Entity are being conducted or, to the knowledge of C1, threatened by any taxing authority.

(b) No C1 Entity has taken any action that would create a material risk that the Merger would not qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(c) At all times since December 31, 1971, C1 has qualified as a REIT and its current method of operation will enable it to continue to qualify as a REIT.

(d) Except as set forth in Section 4.1.12 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, no C1 Entity is bound by any effective private letter ruling, closing agreement or similar agreement with any taxing authority (a "C1 Tax Ruling"), no C1 Entity has any applications or requests outstanding for any such rulings or agreements and no C1 Tax Ruling has been revoked or modified in any manner.

4.1.13. Employee Benefit Plans; ERISA. (a) Except as reflected in the C1 Financial Statements or as disclosed in Section 4.1.13 of the C1 Disclosure Letter or as would not have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, as of the date hereof, (i) all C1 Employee Benefit Plans (as defined below) are in compliance with all applicable requirements of law, including ERISA and the Code, and (ii) no C1 Entity has any liabilities or obligations with respect to any such C1 Employee Benefit Plans, whether accrued, contingent or otherwise, nor to the knowledge of C1 are any such liabilities or obligations expected to be incurred. Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.13 of the C1 Disclosure Letter or as otherwise provided herein, no C1 Employee Benefit Plan in effect on the date hereof contains any provision that will or may result in any payment (whether of severance pay or otherwise), acceleration, forgiveness of indebtedness, vesting, distribution, increase in benefits or obligation to fund benefits with respect to any employee of C1 by virtue of the execution of, and performance of the transactions contemplated in, this Agreement (either alone or together with the occurrence of any additional of subsequent events). As of the date hereof, the only severance agreements or severance policies applicable to the employees, trustees or directors of any C1 Entity are the agreements and policies specifically referred to in Section 4.1.13 of the C1 Disclosure Letter. C1 has furnished to A1 correct and complete copies of all written C1 Employee Benefit Plans of each C1 Entity (or summary descriptions thereof) as in effect on the date hereof.

(b) As used herein "C1 Employee Benefit Plan" means any Plan entered into, established, maintained, sponsored, contributed to or required to be contributed to by any C1 Entity for the benefit of the current or former employees, trustees, or directors of any C1 Entity and existing on the date of this Agreement or at any time subsequent thereto and on or prior to the Effective Time and, in the case of a Plan which is subject to Part 3 of Title I of ERISA, Section 412 of the Code or Title IV of ERISA, at any time during the five-year period preceding the date of this Agreement.

(c) Except as reflected in Section 4.1.13 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, (i) no C1 Employee Benefit Plan provides retiree medical or retiree life insurance benefits to any person, (ii) no C1 Employee Benefit Plan is subject to Title IV of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code and (iii) no event has occurred with respect to which any C1 Entity could reasonably be expected to have liability under Title IV of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code.

(d) Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.13 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, no C1 entity is a party to or obligated under any agreement, plan, contract or other arrangement to make payments, nor have any payments been made, that would be considered "excess parachute payments" under Section 280G of the Code.

(e) Each of C1 and C2 presently qualify, have at all times in the past qualified, and shall continue to qualify until the Effective Time as a "real estate operating company" for purposes of ERISA as defined in 29 C.F.R. Section 2510.101.

4.1.14. Labor Matters. Except as disclosed in Section 4.1.14 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, there are no material controversies pending or, to the knowledge of C1, threatened between any C1 Entity and any representatives of its employees, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, and, to the knowledge of C1, there are no material organizational efforts presently being made involving any of the now unorganized employees of any C1 Entity, except as could not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

4.1.15. Environmental Matters. (a) Each C1 Entity has obtained or submitted timely applications for all Environmental Permits which are required under any applicable Environmental Law in respect of its business or operations, except for such failures to have Environmental Permits and to submit timely applications which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each of such Environmental Permits obtained by such C1 Entity is in full force and effect and each C1 Entity is in compliance with the terms and conditions of all such Environmental Permits and with all applicable Environmental Laws, except for such failures to be in effect or compliance which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

(b) To the knowledge of C1, as of the date hereof, no site or facility now or previously owned, operated or leased by any C1 Entity is listed or proposed for listing on the National Priorities List promulgated pursuant to CERCLA or on any similar state or local list of sites requiring investigation or clean-up.

(c) No Liens have arisen under or pursuant to any Environmental Law on any site or facility owned, operated or leased by any C1 Entity, other than Liens not individually or in the aggregate material to the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, and no action of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority has been taken or, to the knowledge of C1, is in process which could subject any of such properties to such Liens, except for such Liens which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, and no C1 Entity is required to place any notice or restriction relating to the presence of Hazardous Materials at any such site or facility owned by it in any deed to the real property on which such site or facility is located, except for such notices or restrictions which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

(d) As of the date hereof, there have been no written reports, environmental investigations, studies, audits, tests, reviews or other analyses conducted by, or which are in the possession of, any C1 Entity in relation to any site or facility now or previously owned, operated or leased by any C1 Entity that both (i) conclude that any C1 Entity could have liability under Environmental Laws that, individually or in the aggregate, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, and (ii) have not been delivered to A1 prior to the execution of this Agreement.

4.1.16. Intellectual Property Rights. Each C1 Entity has all right, title and interest in, or a valid and binding license to use, all Intellectual Property individually or in the aggregate material to the conduct of the businesses of the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. No C1 Entity is in default (or with the giving of notice or lapse of time or both, would be in default) under any license to use such Intellectual Property, such Intellectual Property is not, to the knowledge of C1, being infringed by any third party, and no C1 Entity is infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party, except for such defaults and infringements which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

4.1.17. Real Property. Section 4.1.17 of the C1 Disclosure Letter sets forth a list of all principal properties owned or leased by the C1 Entities or the C2 Entities (the "Principal Properties") and the department stores that own or lease space in such Principal Properties (the "Department Stores"), in each case, as of the date hereof. As of the date hereof, (i) there are no conditions or events relating to (x) the ability of C1 or C2 to continue to own, lease or operate any Principal Property and (y) the value of any Principal Property, in each case, that is not a result of forces beyond the control of C1 and C2, (ii) C1 and C2 have made available to A1 (A) the leases and all amendments or modifications thereto pursuant to which the applicable C1 Entities leases the land on which the Haywood mall and Highland mall are located, (B) all reciprocal easement agreements, construction, operating and reciprocal easement agreements, operating agreements, development agreements, leases with Department Stores and similar agreements and all amendments and modifications thereto between any C1 Entity and a Department Store operating at the Principal Properties identified in Section 4.1.17 of the C1 Disclosure Letter (collectively, "REAs") and (C) Contracts evidencing, securing or guaranteeing or otherwise relating to indebtedness that is secured by an interest in any of the Principal Properties identified in Section 4.1.17 of the C1 Disclosure Letter and (iii) no party to any REA has given written notice that it has ceased, or that it intends to cease, operating the Department Store that such REA contemplates that it will operate that, in the case of (i), (ii) or (iii) above, would, or would reasonably be expected to, have a material adverse effect on (1) the ability of C1, C2 or A1 to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby or (2) C1 and C2 taken as a whole.

4.1.18. Vote Required. The affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least a majority of the outstanding C1 Common Shares and the outstanding C1 Preference Shares, voting together as a single class with respect to the approval of the C1 Delaware Reorganization, the affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least a majority of the outstanding C1 Common Shares and the outstanding C1 Preference Shares, voting together as a single class, with respect to this Agreement and the issuance of C1 Common Shares pursuant to this Agreement, and the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding C1 6.50% Preference Shares, voting separately as a class, with respect to the matters set forth in Section 1.1.2(v) of this Agreement are the only votes of the holders of any class or series of the beneficial interests of C1 or capital stock of C1 Delaware required to approve the C1 Delaware Reorganization, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

4.1.19. Opinion of Financial Advisor. C1 has received the opinions of J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Lazard Freres & Co. LLC, to the effect that, as of the date hereof, the consideration to be received by the holders of C1 Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

4.1.20. Ownership of A1 Common Stock. No C1 Entity beneficially owns any shares of A1 Common Stock.

Section 4.2. Representations and Warranties of C2. C2 represents and warrants to A1 as follows:

4.2.1. Organization and Qualification. Each of C2 and the Subsidiaries of C2 is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation and has all requisite power and authority to conduct its business as and to the extent now conducted and to own, use and lease its assets and properties, except for such failures to be so incorporated, existing and in good standing or to have such power and authority which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C2 is a trust, limited liability company or partnership duly organized, validly existing and, if applicable, is in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization and has all requisite power and authority to conduct its business as and to the extent conducted and to own, use and lease its assets and properties, except for such failures to be so organized, existing or in good standing or to have such power and authority which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each C2 Entity is duly qualified, licensed or admitted to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the ownership, use or leasing of its assets and properties, or the conduct or nature of its business, makes such qualification, licensing or admission necessary, except for such failures to be so qualified, licensed or admitted and in good standing which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Section 4.2.1 of the letter dated the date hereof and delivered by C2 to A1 concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement (the "C2 Disclosure Letter") sets forth, as of the date hereof, (i) with respect to each Subsidiary of C2, (A) the name and jurisdiction of incorporation of such Subsidiary and (B) if such Subsidiary is not wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C2, (1) its authorized capital stock, (2) the number of issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock and (3) the record and beneficial owners of outstanding shares of its capital stock and (ii) with respect to each Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C2, (A) the name, type of entity and jurisdiction of organization of such Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate, (B) the names of all parties that own equity interests therein and (C) the method of consolidation employed with respect to the consolidation of the accounts of such Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate in the financial statements of C2, including the percentage(s) employed in the case of proportional consolidation. Except for interests in the C2 Entities and as disclosed in Section 4.2.1 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, neither C2 nor any other C2 Entity directly or indirectly owns any equity or similar interest in, or any interest convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for any equity or similar interest in, any corporation, trust, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture or other business association or entity (other than investments in such entities that as in the aggregate are reflected in the latest C2 Financial Statements (as defined herein) as having a value not exceeding $20,000,000, (ii) by operation of law (including the interposition of a C2 Entity holding only such investments) expose no C2 Entity (other than such an interposed C2 Entity) to any liability with respect to the obligations of such entities, whether as a controlling person, partner, guarantor, surety or otherwise and (iii) do not and could not reasonably be expected to cause C1 to fail to meet any REIT Requirement (the exceptions to the general representation set forth in this sentence, the "C2 Permitted Minority Investments")). C2 has previously delivered to A1 correct and complete copies of the Charter Documents of C2.

4.2.2. Capital Stock. (a) As of the date of this Agreement, the authorized capital stock of C2 consists solely of 3,542,767.5 shares of common stock, par value $.10 per share, of C2 ("C2 Common Stock"). As of February 17, 1998, 2,683,888.9 shares of C2 Common Stock were issued and outstanding, no shares were held in the treasury of C2 and 858,878.6 shares were reserved for issuance. Since such date, except as set forth in Section 4.2.2 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, there has been no change in the number of issued and outstanding shares of C2 Common Stock, or the number of shares of C2 Common Stock held in treasury or reserved for issuance, other than as a result of the stock dividend described in Section 1.1.2 and shares issuable in connection with the issuance of C1 Common Shares pursuant to the C1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements. All of the issued and outstanding shares of C2 Common Stock are, and all shares of C2 Common Stock reserved for issuance will be, upon issuance in accordance with the terms specified in the instruments or agreements pursuant to which they are issuable, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable. Except pursuant to this Agreement and except as set forth in Section 4.2.2 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding Options obligating any C1/C2 Entity to issue or sell any equity interest in C2 or to grant, extend or enter into any Option with respect thereto, other than in connection with the issuance of C1 Common Shares pursuant to C1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements. Except pursuant to this Agreement and except as set forth in Section 4.2.2 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations of any C1/C2 Entity to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any equity interest in C2 other than in connection with the redemption, repurchase or other acquisition of C1 Common Shares pursuant to C1 Permissible Redemption Arrangements.

(b) Except as disclosed in Section 4.2.2 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of each Subsidiary of C2 are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and are owned, beneficially and of record, by C2 or another C2 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C2, free and clear of any Liens. Except as disclosed in Section 4.2.2 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, all equity interests in the Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates of C2 that are not owned by third parties (as disclosed in Section 4.2.1 of the C2 Disclosure Letter) are owned by other C2 Entities, free and clear of any Liens. Except as disclosed in Section 4.2.2 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no (i) outstanding Options (other than Options in favor of C2 or a C2 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C2) obligating any C2 Entity to issue or sell any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interest in, any Subsidiary or Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C2 or to grant, extend or enter into any such Option or (ii) voting trusts, proxies or other commitments, understandings, restrictions or arrangements in favor of any person (other than C2 or another C2 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C2) with respect to the voting of or the right to participate in dividends or other earnings on any capital stock of any Subsidiary of C2 or an any equity interest in any Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C2, other than as set forth in such C2 Entity's Charter Documents.

(c) Except as disclosed in Section 4.2.2 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations (other than Options in favor of C2 or a C2 Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C2) of any C2 Entity to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of, or other equity interest in, any Subsidiary or Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C2. Except as disclosed in Section 4.2.2 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding contractual obligations of any C2 Entity to provide funds to, or to make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in, any C2 Entity or other person (except for C2 and C2 Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C2), other than in connection with C2 Permitted Minority Investments.

(d) As of the date hereof, substantially all the issued and outstanding shares of C2 Common Stock are held by a corporate trustee as trustee under two trust agreements (the "C2 Trust Agreements"), correct and complete copies of which have been delivered to A1 on or before the date hereof, for the ratable benefit of the holders of substantially all the issued and outstanding C1 Common Shares and C1 Preference Shares, respectively. The C2 Trust Agreements have been duly executed and delivered by C2 and the trustees thereunder, are legal, valid and binding obligations of C2 and such trustees, enforceable against C2 and such trustees, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law). The shares of C2 Common Stock held pursuant to the C2 Trust Agreements are owned of record by the trustees thereunder free and clear of any Liens (other than Liens in favor of such trustees related to their performance of their duties under the C2 Trust Agreements).

4.2.3. Authority Relative to this Agreement. C2 has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and, subject to obtaining the C2 Stockholders' Approval (as defined in Section 6.3.2), to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by C2, and the consummation by C2 of the transactions contemplated hereby, have been duly and validly approved by its Board of Directors, the Board of Directors of C2 has recommended adoption of this Agreement by the stockholders of C2 and directed that this Agreement and the issuance of C2 Common Stock in connection with the Merger be submitted to the stockholders of C2 for their consideration, and no other corporate proceedings on the part of either of C2 or its stockholders are necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by C2 and the consummation by C2 of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than the C2 Stockholders' Approval. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by C2 and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of C2 enforceable against C2 in accordance with its terms, except as enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and by general equitable principles (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

4.2.4. Non-Contravention; Approvals and Consents. (a) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by C2 do not, and the performance by C2 of its obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, conflict with, result in a violation or breach of, constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, result in or give to any person any right of payment or reimbursement, termination, cancelation, modification or acceleration of, or result in the creation or imposition of any Lien upon any of the assets or properties of any C2 Entity under, any of the terms, conditions or provisions of (x) the Charter Documents of any C2 Entity, or (y) subject to the obtaining of the C2 Stockholders' Approval and the taking of the actions described in paragraph (b) of this Section and the obtaining of the consents and approvals, the making of the filings and the giving of the notices described in Section 4.2.4 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, (1) any laws or orders of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority applicable to any C2 Entity or any of its assets or properties, or (2) any Contracts to which any C2 Entity is a party (including, without limitation, any Charter Document of any C1 Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate) or by which any C2 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound, excluding from the foregoing clauses (1) and (2) conflicts, violations, breaches, defaults, rights of payment or reimbursement, terminations, cancellations, modifications, accelerations and creations and impositions of Liens which, individually or in the aggregate, could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of C2 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Except (i) for the filing of the Proxy Statement and the Registration Statement with the SEC pursuant to the Exchange Act and the Securities Act, the declaration of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement by the SEC and filings with various state securities authorities that are required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) for the filing by C2 of a Certificate of Merger and other appropriate merger documents required by the DGCL with the Delaware Secretary of State and any local recording office in connection with the C2 Merger, (iii) such other consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, registrations, declarations and filings as may be required under (A) the laws of any foreign country in which any C2 Entity conducts any business or owns any property or assets or (B) any federal, state, local or foreign Environmental Law and (iv) as disclosed in Section 4.2.4 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, no consent, approval or action of, filing with or notice to any Governmental or Regulatory Authority or other public or private third party is necessary or required under any of the terms, conditions or provisions of any law or order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority or any Contract to which any C2 Entity is a party or by which any C2 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound for the execution and delivery of this Agreement by C2, the performance by C2 of its obligations hereunder or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, other than such consents, approvals, actions, filings and notices which the failure to make or obtain, as the case may be, individually or in the aggregate, could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of C2 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.2.5. C2 Financial Statements and Stockholder Reports. (a) Prior to the execution of this Agreement, C2 has delivered to A1 true and complete copies of the condensed balance sheets of C2 and its subsidiaries as of December 31, 1995, 1996 and 1997, and the related condensed consolidated statements of operations for each of the fiscal years then ended, together with the notes thereto, all such financial statements being in the form appearing in notes to the C1 Financial Statements (such financial statements, including the notes, if any, thereto, being referred to herein as the "C2 Financial Statements"). The C2 Financial Statements were condensed from financial statements that were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved. Except as set forth in Section 4.2.1 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, each Subsidiary and Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate of C2 in existence on the date hereof is fully consolidated with C2 in the C2 Financial Statements for all periods covered thereby.

(b) C2 has not delivered any letter, proxy or other document to the beneficiaries under the Trust Agreements between December 31, 1996 and the date hereof, other than as part of the C1 Reports.

4.2.6. Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Except as disclosed in Section 4.2.6 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, (a) between December 31, 1997 and the date hereof there has not been any change, event or development having, or that could be reasonably expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, (b) between December 31, 1997 and the date hereof, no party to any Charter Document or co-tenancy agreement of any C2 Entity has exercised any Charter Document Right pursuant to such Charter Document or co-tenancy agreement and (c) between December 31, 1997 and the date hereof no C2 Entity has taken any action which, if taken after the date hereof, would constitute a breach of any provision of paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (j), (k) or, solely with respect to the foregoing paragraphs, (l) of Section 5.1.2.

4.2.7. [Intentionally Omitted].

4.2.8. Legal Proceedings. Except as disclosed in the C1 Financial Statements or C2 Financial Statements or in Section 4.2.8 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof (i) there are no actions, suits, arbitrations or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of C2, threatened against, relating to or affecting, nor to the knowledge of C2 are there any Governmental or Regulatory Authority investigations or audits pending or threatened against, relating to or affecting any C2 Entity or any of its assets and properties which, individually or in the aggregate, could be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of C2 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (ii) no C2 Entity is subject to any order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority which, individually or in the aggregate, is having or could be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or on the ability of C2 to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.2.9. Information Supplied. The Registration Statement, and any other documents to be filed by C2 with the SEC or any other Governmental or Regulatory Authority in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, will (in the case of the Registration Statement and any such other documents filed with the SEC under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act) comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, as applicable, and will not, on the date of its filing or, in the case of the Registration Statement, at the time it becomes effective under the Securities Act, at the date the Proxy Statement is first mailed to stockholders of C1 and C2 and at the times of the Stockholders' Meetings, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, except that no representation is made by C2 with respect to information supplied by or on behalf of A1 or any of its Subsidiaries expressly for inclusion therein and information incorporated by reference therein from documents filed with the SEC by any A1 Entity.

4.2.10. Compliance with Laws and Orders. The C2 Entities hold all permits, licenses, variances, exemptions, orders and approvals of all Governmental and Regulatory Authorities necessary for the lawful conduct of their respective businesses (the "C2 Permits"), except for failures to hold such permits, licenses, variances, exemptions, orders and approvals which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. The C2 Entities are in compliance with the terms of the C2 Permits, except failures so to comply which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Except as disclosed in Section 4.2.10 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, the C2 Entities are not in violation of or default under any law or order of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority, except for such violations or defaults which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

4.2.11. Compliance with Agreements; Certain Agreements. (a) Except as disclosed in Section 4.2.11 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, neither any C2 Entity nor, to the knowledge of C2, any other party thereto is in breach or violation of, or in default in the performance or observance of any term or provision of, and no event has occurred which, with notice or lapse of time or both, could be reasonably expected to result in a default under, (i) the Charter Documents of any C2 Entity that is a corporation or (ii) any Contract to which any C2 Entity is a party or by which any C2 Entity or any of its assets or properties is bound or any Charter Document of any C1 Entity that is not a corporation, except in the case of this clause (ii) for breaches, violations and defaults which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each Charter Document of each C2 Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate and, to the knowledge of C2, each material Contract to which any C2 Entity is a party or by which any of its assets or property is bound, is in full force and effect, other than invalidities and other defects (x) due to the actions of other parties to any such Charter Document or Contract or (y) that have not had, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on C1 and C2 taken as a whole. C2 has made available to A1 correct and complete copies of all Charter Documents of the C2 Entities, except as would not, and would not reasonably be expected to, have a material adverse effect on the ability of C1, C2 or A1 to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Since January 1, 1988, neither C2 nor any other C2 Entity has employed any individual, retained any current or former employees of C1 as consultants or reimbursed any current or former employees of C1 for any business-related or other expenses (provided, however, that C2 and the other C2 Entities may have reimbursed C1 for payments of such nature). No C2 Entity has, since January 1, 1988, paid any directors' or similar fees to any directors of any C2 Entity other than C2.

4.2.12. Taxes. (a) Each C2 Entity has timely filed all material tax returns and reports required to be filed by it, or requests for extensions to file such returns or reports have been timely filed or granted and have not expired, and all such tax returns and reports are complete and accurate in all respects, except to the extent that such failures to timely file or failures to be complete and accurate in all respects, as applicable, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each C2 Entity has paid (or C2 has paid on its behalf) all taxes shown as due on such tax returns and reports and all material taxes otherwise due. The most recent C2 Financial Statements reflect an adequate reserve for all taxes payable by the C2 Entities for all taxable periods and portions thereof accrued through the date of such financial statements, and no deficiencies for any taxes have been proposed, asserted or assessed against any C2 Entity that are not adequately reserved for, except for inadequately reserved taxes and inadequately reserved deficiencies that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Except as set forth in Section 4.2.12 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, as of the date hereof, no requests for waivers of the time to assess or collect any taxes against any C2 Entity have been granted or are pending, and no audits or examinations of any C2 Entity are being conducted or, to the knowledge of C2, threatened by any taxing authority.

(b) No C2 Entity has taken any action that would create a material risk that the Merger would not qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(c) Except as set forth in Section 4.2.12 of the C2 Disclosure Letter, no C2 Entity is bound by any effective private letter ruling, closing agreement or similar agreement with any taxing authority (a "C2 Tax Ruling"), no C2 Entity has any applications or requests outstanding for any such rulings or agreements and no C2 Tax Ruling has been revoked or modified in any manner.

4.2.13. Employee Benefit Plans; ERISA. (a) No C2 Employee Benefit Plans are in effect and no C2 Entity has any present or contingent liability with respect to any Plan.

(b) As used herein "C2 Employee Benefit Plan" means any Plan entered into, established, maintained, sponsored, contributed to or required to be contributed to by any C2 Entity for the benefit of the current or former employees or directors of any C2 Entity and existing on the date of this Agreement or at any time subsequent thereto and on or prior to the Effective Time and, in the case of a Plan which is subject to Part 3 of Title I of ERISA, Section 412 of the Code or Title IV of ERISA, at any time during the five-year period preceding the date of this Agreement.

4.2.14. [Intentionally Omitted].

4.2.15. Environmental Matters. (a) Each C2 Entity has obtained or submitted timely applications for all Environmental Permits which are required under any applicable Environmental Law in respect of its business or operations, except for such failures to have Environmental Permits and to submit timely applications which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. Each of such Environmental Permits obtained by such C2 Entity is in full force and effect and each C2 Entity is in compliance with the terms and conditions of all such Environmental Permits and with all applicable Environmental Laws, except for such failures to be in full force and effect or compliance which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

(b) To the knowledge of C2, as of the date hereof, no site or facility now or previously owned, operated or leased by any C2 Entity is listed or proposed for listing on the National Priorities List promulgated pursuant to CERCLA or on any similar state or local list of sites requiring investigation or cleanup.

(c) No Liens have arisen under or pursuant to any Environmental Law on any site or facility owned, operated or leased by any C2 Entity, other than Liens not individually or in the aggregate material to the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, and no action of any Governmental or Regulatory Authority has been taken or, to the knowledge of C2, is in process which could subject any of such properties to such Liens, except for such Liens which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, and no C2 Entity would be required to place any notice or restriction relating to the presence of Hazardous Materials at any such site or facility owned by it in any deed to the real property on which such site or facility is located, except for such notices or restrictions which, individually or in the aggregate, could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

(d) As of the date hereof, there have been no written reports, environmental investigations, studies, audits, tests, reviews or other analyses conducted by, or which are in the possession of, any C2 Entity in relation to any site or facility now or previously owned, operated or leased by any C2 Entity that both (i) conclude that any C2 Entity could have liability under Environmental Laws that, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, and (ii) have not been delivered to A1 prior to the execution of this Agreement.

4.2.16. Intellectual Property Rights. Each C2 Entity has all right, title and interest in, or a valid and binding license to use, all Intellectual Property individually or in the aggregate material to the conduct of the businesses of the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole. No C2 Entity is in default (or with the giving of notice or lapse of time or both, would be in default) under any license to use such Intellectual Property, such Intellectual Property is not, to the knowledge of C2, being infringed by any third party, and no C2 Entity is infringing any Intellectual Property of any third party, except for such defaults and infringements which, individually or in the aggregate, are not having and could not be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

4.2.17. [Intentionally Omitted.]

4.2.18. Vote Required. The affirmative vote of the holders of record of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of C2 Common Stock with respect to the C2 Merger, this Agreement and the issuance of C2 Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement is the only vote of the holders of any class or series of the capital stock of C2 required to approve the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby.

4.2.19. Ownership of A1 Common Stock. No C2 Entity beneficially owns any shares of A1 Common Stock.

ARTICLE V.

COVENANTS

Section 5.1. Conduct Pending the Closing. At all times from and after the date hereof until the Effective Time, each party hereto covenants and agrees as follows:

5.1.1. Preservation of REIT Status. No party hereto shall take any action or omit to take any action reasonably within its power to take that (i) would cause A1 to be disqualified as a REIT, (ii) would cause C1 to be disqualified as a REIT or (iii) would result in a loss of the status of C1 and C2 (prior to the Merger) or the Surviving Corporation and C2 (from and after the Merger) as grandfathered from the application of Section 269B(a)(3) of the Code pursuant to Section 136(c)(3) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984.

5.1.2. Conduct of Business by C1 and C2 Pending the Closing. Each of C1 and C2 and its Subsidiaries and Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliates (such party's "Entities") shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact in all material respects its present business organizations and reputation, to keep available the services of its key officers and employees, to maintain its assets and properties in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, to maintain insurance on its tangible assets and businesses in such amounts and against such risks and losses as are currently in effect, to preserve its relationships with tenants and other occupiers of properties, customers, suppliers, lenders, partners and others having significant business dealings with them and to comply in all material respects with all laws and orders of all Governmental or Regulatory Authorities applicable to them, and neither C1 nor C2 shall, except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Agreement, as contemplated by the "C1/C2 Business Plan," which is identified in Section 5.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, or as otherwise described in Section 5.1.2 of the C1 Disclosure Letter, as applicable, or with the prior written consent of A1:

(a) incorporate or organize any new Entity of such party, unless such Entity shall be wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2 and A1 shall receive prompt notice of such incorporation or organization, including the information that would have been disclosed pursuant to Articles III and IV hereof had such Entity been in existence on the date hereof;

(b) amend or propose to amend its Charter Documents or permit the amendment of the Charter Documents of the Entities of C1 or C2, except, in the case of Entities of C1 or C2, for the amendment of the Charter Documents of such Entities as are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2, so long as such action shall be promptly disclosed to A1;

(c) (w) declare, set aside or pay any dividends on or make other distributions in respect of any of the beneficial interests or capital stock of such party, except that C1 and C2 each may declare and pay (1) quarterly cash dividends on C1 Common Stock and C2 Common Stock in an amount not to exceed $1.95 per C1 Common Share and related beneficial interest in shares of C2 Common Stock, with usual record and payment dates for such dividends in accordance with past dividend practice, (2) cash dividends on C1 Common Stock and C2 Common Stock in amounts proportional to the dividends paid on C1 Common Stock and C2 Common Stock for the last full quarter preceding the Effective Time prorated over the number of days elapsed in the quarter in which the Effective Time occurs from the beginning of such quarter to the Effective Time and (3) cash dividends on C1 Preference Shares in the amounts, and with the record and payment dates, required in accordance with the terms thereof, (x) split, combine, reclassify or take similar action with respect to any of its beneficial interests or capital stock or issue or authorize or propose the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of its beneficial interest or capital stock, or permit any of its Entities (other than Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2) to split, combine, reclassify or take similar action with respect to such Entities' capital stock or equity interests or issue or authorize or propose the issuance of any other securities or equity interests in respect of, in lieu of, or in substitution for such capital stock or equity interests, (y) adopt a plan of complete or partial liquidation or resolutions providing for or authorizing such liquidation or a dissolution, merger, consolidation, restructuring, recapitalization or other reorganization or permit any of such party's Entities (other than Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2) to take any such action, or (z) directly or indirectly redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire, or permit any Entity of C1 or C2 to redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire, directly or indirectly, any shares of capital stock of, or beneficial or other equity interests in, C1 or C2 or any of their Entities, or any Option with respect thereto (other than in transactions solely involving C1 or C2 and their Entities that are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2) and other than pursuant to C1 Permissible Redemption Arrangements;

(d) issue, deliver, sell or otherwise transfer, or authorize or propose the issuance, delivery, sale or other transfer of, or permit any of its Entities to issue, deliver, sell, or otherwise transfer or authorize or propose the issuance, delivery or sale of, any shares of capital stock of, or beneficial or other equity interests in, it or any of its Entities or any Option with respect thereto (other than (x) issuances of C1 Common Shares or beneficial interests in C2 Common Stock in connection with C1 Permissible Issuance Arrangements; provided that management of C1 shall use its best efforts to suspend sales of C1 Common Shares under the C1 QSPP from the date hereof until the Effective Time or (y) the issuance, sale or transfer by an Entity that is wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2 of such Entity's capital stock or other equity interests, or Options with respect thereto, to C1 or C2 or other Entities wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2), or modify or amend any right of any holder of outstanding Options with respect thereto (other than the modification or amendment of the rights of C1 or C2 or an Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2 under an Option issued by C1 or C2 or an Entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2);

(e) except, with respect to loans or capital contributions to any of C1's or C2's Entities, to the extent required under the express terms of any applicable Charter Document, provide funds to, or make any investment (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) in (or permit any of C1's or C2's Entities to take any such action with respect to), any Entity of C1 or C2 or other person (except for such Entities as shall be wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2), other than C1 Permitted Minority Investments, C2 Permitted Minority Investments and investments of the type described in Section 4.2.1 of the C1 Disclosure Letter or the C2 Disclosure Letter;

(f) in the case of C2, amend, modify or terminate the C2 Trust Agreements or propose such amendment, modification or termination;

(g) (x) acquire (by merging or consolidating with, or by purchasing a substantial equity interest in or a substantial portion of the assets of, or by any other manner) or permitting any of its Entities to acquire any business or any corporation, partnership, association or other business organization or division thereof or any significant assets, (y) mortgage or otherwise encumber or subject to any Lien or sell, lease or otherwise dispose of, or permit any of its Entities to do any of the foregoing with respect to, any significant portion of its interest in one or more of the properties or interests identified in Section 4.1.17 of the C1 Disclosure Letter or assign or encumber the right to receive income, dividends or distributions with respect thereto or (z) make or agree to make any new capital expenditures;

(h) (x) incur (which shall not be deemed to include entering into credit agreements, lines of credit or similar arrangements until borrowings are made or committed to be borrowed under such arrangements) any indebtedness for borrowed money or guarantee any such indebtedness, or permit any of its Entities to take any such action, other than to meet the current cash needs of its and its Entities' business in an aggregate amount not to exceed that which is contemplated by the C1/C2 Business Plan, to permit it to perform its obligations hereunder or to effect a redemption of indebtedness permitted by clause (y), or (y) voluntarily purchase, cancel, prepay or otherwise provide for a complete or partial discharge in advance of a scheduled repayment date with respect to, or waive any right under, or otherwise modify the provisions of, any indebtedness, or guarantee of indebtedness, for borrowed money, or permit any of its Entities to take any of such actions;

(i) enter into, adopt, amend in any material respect (except as may be required by applicable law) or terminate any C1 Employee Benefit Plan or grant any Options, awards or other benefits or increase compensation, except for increases in benefits and compensation to employees other than executive officers having a value in the aggregate of not greater than $250,000 and except for changes therein contemplated by Section 6.8 and 6.9 of this Agreement;

(j) enter into any Contract, or amend or modify any existing Contract, or engage in any new transaction outside the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or not on an arm's-length basis, or permit any of its Entities to take such actions, with any affiliate of C1 or C2 other than transactions among C1 or C2 and Entities that are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by C1 or C2;

(k) make any change in the lines of business in which it and its Entities participate or are engaged; or

(l) enter into any Contract, commitment or arrangement to do or engage in any action the consummation of which would be prohibited by the foregoing.

5.1.3. Conduct of Business by A1 Pending the Closing. Except as set forth in Section 5.1.3 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, during the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, A1 shall, and shall cause each of the A1 Entities to, use all commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact in all material respects its present business organizations and reputation, to keep available the services of its key officers and employees, to maintain its assets and properties in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, to maintain insurance on its tangible assets and businesses in such amounts and against such risks and losses as are currently in effect, to preserve its relationships with tenants and other occupiers of properties, customers, suppliers, lenders, partners and others having significant business dealings with them and to comply in all material respects with all laws and orders of all Governmental or Regulatory Authorities applicable to them, and A1 shall not, except as otherwise expressly provided for in this Agreement, as set forth in Section 5.1.3 of the A1 Disclosure Letter or with the prior written consent of C1:

(a) declare, set aside or pay any dividends on or make other distributions, except that A1 may declare and pay (1) quarterly cash dividends on A1 Common Stock in an amount not to exceed $0.505 per share of A1 Common Stock, with usual record and payment dates for such dividends in accordance with past dividend practice, (2) cash dividends on A1 Common Stock in amounts proportional to the dividends paid on A1 Common Stock in the last full quarter preceding the Effective Time prorated over the number of days elapsed in the quarter in which the Effective Time occurs from the beginning of such quarter to the Effective Time and (3) cash dividends on A1 Preferred Stock in the amounts, and with the record and payment dates, required in accordance with the terms thereof;

(b) enter into any Contract, or amend or modify any existing Contract, or engage in any new transaction outside the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or not on an arm's length basis, or permit any A1 Entity to take such actions, with any affiliate of such party other than transactions among A1 and Entities of A1 that are wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by A1 or any A1 Entity;

(c) make any change in the lines of business in which it and its Entities participate or are engaged; or

(d) enter into any Contract, commitment or arrangement to do or engage in any action the consummation of which would be prohibited by the foregoing.

5.1.4. Advice of Changes. Each party shall confer on a regular and frequent basis with the others with respect to its business and operations and other matters relevant to the Merger, and shall promptly advise the others, orally and in writing, of any change or event, including, without limitation, any complaint, investigation or hearing by any Governmental or Regulatory Authority (or communication indicating the same may be contemplated) or the institution or threat of litigation, having, or which, insofar as can be reasonably foreseen, could have, a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole or on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole, as the case may be, or on the ability of any party to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that no party shall be required to make any disclosure to the extent such disclosure would constitute a violation of any applicable law.

5.1.5. Notice and Cure. Each party will notify the others of, and will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cure before the Closing, any event, transaction or circumstance, as soon as practical after it becomes known to such party, that causes or will cause any covenant or agreement of such party under this Agreement to be breached or that renders or will render untrue any representation or warranty of such party contained in this Agreement. Each party also will notify the others in writing of, and will use all commercially reasonable efforts to cure, before the Closing, any violation or breach, as soon as practical after it becomes known to such party, of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement made by such party. No notice given pursuant to this paragraph shall have any effect on the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement for purposes of determining satisfaction of any condition contained herein.

5.1.6. Fulfillment of Conditions. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party will take or cause to be taken all commercially reasonable steps necessary or desirable and proceed diligently and in good faith to satisfy each condition to the other's obligations contained in this Agreement and to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 5.2. No Solicitations by C1 and C2. (a) Prior to the Effective Time, each of C1 and C2 agree (i) that it shall, and shall direct and use its best efforts to cause its Entities, controlled affiliates and Representatives to, immediately cease any discussion or negotiations with any parties that may be ongoing with respect to an Alternative Proposal for C1 and C2 (as defined below); (ii) that it shall not, and it shall use its best efforts to cause its Entities, controlled affiliates and Representatives not to, initiate, solicit or encourage, directly or indirectly, any inquiries or the making or implementation of any proposal or offer (including, without limitation, any proposal or offer to its stockholders or shareholders) with respect to a merger, consolidation or other business combination transaction involving it or any acquisition or similar transaction (including, without limitation, a tender or exchange offer) involving (i) the purchase of all or substantially all of the assets of the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole or (ii) the purchase, acquisition or issuance of shares of beneficial interest in C1 representing at least a majority of the voting power of all the outstanding shares of beneficial interest in C1 (for purposes hereof, any such proposal or offer with respect to such merger, consolidation, other business combination, acquisition or similar transaction is hereinafter referred to as an "Alternative Proposal for C1 or C2"), or engage in any negotiations with or provide any confidential information or data to, any person or group relating to an Alternative Proposal for C1 or C2 (excluding the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), or otherwise knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Alternative Proposal for C1 or C2, and (b) that it will notify A1 promptly if any such inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any such information is requested from, or any such negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, it or any of such persons.

ARTICLE VI.

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

Section 6.1. Access to Information; Confidentiality. Each party shall, and shall cause each of its Entities to, throughout the period from the date hereof to the Effective Time, (i) provide the other parties and their Representatives with full access, upon reasonable prior notice and during normal business hours, to all officers, employees, agents and accountants of such party and its Entities and their respective assets, properties and material books and records, but only to the extent that such access does not unreasonably interfere with the business and operations of such party and its Entities, and (ii) furnish promptly to such persons (x) a copy of each report, statement, schedule and other document filed or received by such party or any of its Entities pursuant to the requirements of Federal or state securities laws and each material report, statement, schedule and other document filed with any other Governmental or Regulatory Authority and (y) all other information and data (including, without limitation, copies of Contracts, A1 Employee Benefit Plans or C1 Employee Benefit Plans, as the case may be, and material other books and records and environmental assessments, investigations or studies concerning the properties of such party or the business or operations conducted thereon) concerning the business and operations of such party and its Entities as the other party or any of such other persons reasonably may request. No investigation pursuant to this paragraph or otherwise shall affect any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement or any condition to the obligations of the parties hereto. Any such information or material obtained pursuant to this Section 6.1 that constitutes "Evaluation Material" (as such term is defined in the letter agreement dated January 21, 1998 between A1 and C1 (the "Confidentiality Agreement")) shall be governed by the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

Section 6.2. Preparation of Registration Statement and Proxy Statement. A1, C1 and C2 shall prepare and file with the SEC as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof the Proxy Statement and C1 and C2 shall prepare and file with the SEC as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof the Registration Statement, in which the Proxy Statement will be included as the prospectus. A1, C1 and C2 shall use their best efforts to have the Registration Statement declared effective by the SEC as promptly as practicable after such filing. C1 and C2 shall also take any action (other than qualifying as a foreign corporation or taking any action which would subject it to service of process in any jurisdiction where A1 is not now so qualified or subject) required to be taken under applicable state blue sky or securities laws in connection with the issuance of the C1 Common Shares and C2 Common Stock (or beneficial interests therein) pursuant to this Agreement. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any event shall occur that should be set forth in an amendment of or a supplement to the Registration Statement, C1 and C2 shall prepare and file with the SEC such amendment or supplement as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable. A1, C1 and C2 shall cooperate with each other in the preparation of the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto, and each shall notify the others of the receipt of any comments of the SEC with respect to the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement and of any requests by the SEC for any amendment or supplement thereto or for additional information, and shall provide to the other promptly copies of all correspondence between the SEC and A1, C1 or C2, as the case may be, or any of their Representatives with respect to the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement. C1 and C2 shall give A1 and its counsel the opportunity to review the Registration Statement and all responses to requests for additional information by and replies to comments of the SEC before such registration statement is filed with, or sent to, the SEC. Each of A1, C1 and C2 agrees to use its best efforts, after consultation with the other parties hereto, to respond promptly to all such comments of and requests by the SEC and to cause (x) the Registration Statement to be declared effective by the SEC at the earliest practicable time and to be kept effective as long as is necessary to consummate the Merger, and (y) the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the holders entitled to vote at the Stockholders Meetings at the earliest practicable time.

Section 6.3. Approvals of Stockholders.

6.3.1. A1 Stockholder Approval. Subject to the exercise of fiduciary obligations under applicable law as advised by outside counsel, A1 shall, through its Board of Directors, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders (the "A1 Stockholders' Meeting") for the purpose of voting on the adoption of this Agreement (the "A1 Stockholders' Approval"). Subject to the exercise of fiduciary obligations under applicable law as advised by outside counsel, A1 shall, through its Board of Directors, include in the Proxy Statement the recommendation of the Board of Directors of A1 that the stockholders of A1 adopt this Agreement and shall use its best efforts to obtain such adoption.

6.3.2. C1 and C2 Stockholders' Approvals. Subject to the exercise of fiduciary obligations under applicable law as advised by outside counsel, each of C1 and C2 shall, through its Board of Directors, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders (collectively, the "C1 and C2 Stockholders' Meeting" and, together with the A1 Stockholders' Meeting, the "Stockholders' Meetings") for the purpose of voting on the adoption of this Agreement and the issuance of C1 Common Shares and C2 Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement and under the C1 Option Plan, as in effect following the Merger after the Merger in accordance with this Agreement (the "C1 Stockholders' Approval" and the "C2 Stockholders' Approval", respectively) as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof. Subject to the exercise of fiduciary obligations under applicable law as advised by outside counsel, each of C1 and C2 shall, through its Board of Directors, include in the Proxy Statement the recommendation of its Board of Directors that its stockholders adopt this Agreement and approve such issuances, as applicable, and shall use its best efforts to obtain such adoption and approval.

6.3.3. Cooperation for Stockholders' Meetings. A1, C1 and C2 shall coordinate and cooperate with respect to the timing of the Stockholders' Meetings and shall use their best efforts to cause the Stockholders' Meetings to be held on the same day and as soon as practicable after the date hereof.

Section 6.4. Affiliates. At least 30 days prior to the Closing Date, A1 shall deliver a letter to C1 and C2 identifying all persons who, at the time of the A1 Stockholders' Meetings, may, in A1's reasonable judgment, be deemed to be "affiliates" (as such term is used in Rule 145 under the Securities Act) of A1 ("A1 Affiliates"). A1 shall use its best efforts to cause each A1 Affiliate to deliver to C1 and C2 on or prior to the Closing Date a written agreement substantially in the form and to the effect of Exhibit H hereto (an "Affiliate Agreement"). C1 shall be entitled to place legends as specified in such Affiliate Agreement on the certificates evidencing C1 Common Shares to be received by such A1 Affiliates pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and to issue appropriate stop transfer instructions to the transfer agent for the C1 Common Shares consistent with the terms of such Affiliate Agreements.

Section 6.5. Stock Exchange Listing. C1 and C2 shall use their best efforts to cause C1 Common Shares and the related beneficial interests in the shares of C2 Common Stock and the shares of C1 Series A Preferred Stock to be issued pursuant to this Agreement or retained by C1 shareholders, and the C1 Common Shares and the paired interests in the C2 Common Stock issuable under the Option Plans or upon conversion of the C1 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock after the Merger, to be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date.

Section 6.6. Certain Tax Matters. None of A1, C1 or C2 shall take or fail to take any action which would cause A1, C1 or C2 or their respective stockholders to recognize gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of the consummation of the Merger, except (i) to the extent that any stockholder may receive cash, interests in shares of C2 Common Stock or cash in lieu of fractional shares, (ii) to the extent attributable to any action described or referred to in Section 6.15 or (iii) to the extent described in Section 7.1.7.

Section 6.7. Regulatory and Other Approvals. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and without limiting the provisions of Sections 6.2 and 6.3, each of A1, C1 and C2 will proceed diligently and in good faith to, as promptly as practicable, (a) obtain all consents, approvals or actions of, make all filings with and give all notices to Governmental or Regulatory Authorities or any other public or private third parties required of A1, C1 and C2 or any of their Entities to consummate the Merger and the other matters contemplated hereby and (b) provide such other information and communications to such Governmental or Regulatory Authorities or other public or private third parties as the other party or such Governmental or Regulatory Authorities or other public or private third parties may reasonably request in connection therewith.

Section 6.8. Employee Benefit Plans. (a) The Surviving Corporation shall succeed to the rights and obligations of A1 under the A1 Employee Benefit Plans and C1 shall retain its rights and obligations under the C1 Employee Benefit Plans in accordance with their respective terms.

(b) The Surviving Corporation and C1 shall honor without modification all employee severance plans (or policies) and employment and severance agreements of A1, C1 and C2 and any of their respective Entities in existence on the date hereof as such agreements shall be in effect in accordance with the terms of this Agreement at the Effective Time, including, without limitation, the plans and agreements specified in Section 6.8 of the A1 Disclosure Letter, the C1 Disclosure Letter or the C2 Disclosure Letter.

Section 6.9. Stock Plans.

6.9.1. Treatment of A1 Stock Plans. Effective as of the Effective Time, each outstanding option to purchase a share of A1 Common Stock and related interests (an "A1 Stock Option") under any of the A1 Stock Plans, whether theretofore vested or unvested, shall constitute an option to acquire one C1 Common Share, together with the related beneficial interest in C2 Common Stock which shall be paired with the C1 Common Share pursuant to the C2 Trust Agreements, and shall otherwise have the same terms and provisions as such A1 Stock Option (subject to the next sentence). The price per C1 Common Share at which each such option is exercisable shall be the option exercise price per share of the A1 Common Stock at which such option is exercisable pursuant to the applicable A1 Stock Plan immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that, in the case of an incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Code, the option exercise price, the number of shares purchasable pursuant to such option and the terms and conditions of exercise of such option shall be determined in order to comply with Section 424(a) of the Code and the regulations relating thereto. In addition, each outstanding right to earn shares of A1 Common Stock shall constitute a right to earn C1 Common Shares (together with the related beneficial interest in C2 Common Stock) determined in accordance with the terms of the applicable A1 Stock Plans.

6.9.2. Treatment of C1 Stock Plan. (a) Effective as of the Effective Time, each outstanding option to purchase a C1 Common Share and related interests in C2 Common Stock (a "C1 Stock Option") under the C1 Option Plan, whether theretofore vested or unvested, shall become immediately exercisable. The price per C1 Common Share and the related beneficial interest in C2 Common Stock at which each such option is exercisable shall be the exercise price per share at which the C1 Stock Option is exercisable pursuant to the C1 Option Plan immediately prior to the Effective Time but after adjustment for the transactions described in Section 1.1.2 pursuant to the terms of the C1 Option Plan; provided, however, that, in the case of an incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Code, the option exercise price, the number of shares purchasable pursuant to such option and the terms and conditions of exercise of such option shall be determined in order to comply with Section 424(a) of the Code and the regulations relating thereto.

(b) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, C1 Delaware shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act (or any successor or other appropriate form) with respect to the Paired Shares subject to A1 and C1 Stock Options and shall use its best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as such Options remain outstanding. C1 shall comply with the terms of A1 Stock Plans and the C1 Option Plan (collectively, the "Option Plans") and ensure, to the extent required by, and subject to the provisions of, the Option Plans, that the A1 Stock Options which qualified as qualified stock options prior to the Effective Time continue to qualify as qualified stock options after the Effective Time.

(c) C1 Delaware shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of Paired Shares for delivery under the Option Plans as adjusted in accordance with this Section 6.9. With respect to those individuals who, subsequent to the Merger, will be subject to the reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, where applicable, C1 shall administer the Option Plans in a manner that complies with Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act so that grants thereunder shall be exempt acquisitions under Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act.

6.9.3. Restricted Stock. Prior to the Effective Time, (i) C1 shall offer to the other party under each C1 ESPP Contract, and shall use its reasonable best efforts (it being understood that such efforts shall not require the expenditure of cash) to obtain the agreement of such party, to amend such C1 ESPP Contract (x) to release the transfer restrictions on the securities issued pursuant thereto and remove any associated legends from the certificates evidencing such securities, (y) to eliminate the right of such party to cause C1 to repurchase such securities and (z) to provide that upon any transfer of such securities, the transferor shall either pay to C1 the applicable portion of the "Permanent Restriction" thereunder or obtain an undertaking of the transferee thereof to pay such amount or obtain a comparable undertaking upon any subsequent transfer by such transferee and (ii) C1 may pay to such party (through forgiveness of indebtedness or otherwise) an amount equal to the principal of the indebtedness initially incurred, and any accrued interest subsequently added to the principal of such indebtedness, to purchase the securities purchased thereunder, but only if the per-unit purchase price thereof exceeded $150 (before deduction for any Permanent Restriction).

Section 6.10. Trustees', Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance. (a) From and after the Effective Time and until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time and for so long thereafter as any claim for indemnification asserted on or prior to such date has not been fully adjudicated, C1 (each, an "Indemnifying Party") shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a trustee, director or officer of A1, C1 or C2 or any of their respective Entities (the "Indemnified Parties") against (i) all losses, claims, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liabilities, judgments and settlement amounts that are paid or incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time) that is based on, or arises out of, the fact that such Indemnified Party is or was a trustee, director or officer of A1, C1 or C2 or any of their respective Entities and relates to or arises out of any action or omission occurring at or prior to the Effective Time ("Indemnified Liabilities"), and (ii) all Indemnified Liabilities based on, or arising out of, or pertaining to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, in each case to the full extent a corporation is permitted under applicable law to indemnify its own trustees, directors or officers, as the case may be; provided that no Indemnifying Party shall be liable for any settlement of any claim effected without its written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; and provided further that no Indemnifying Party shall be liable to an Indemnified Party for any Indemnified Liabilities which occur as a result of the gross negligence or wilful misconduct of such Indemnified Party. If any such action is brought against any of the Indemnified Parties and such Indemnified Parties notify the Indemnifying Parties of its commencement, the Indemnifying Parties will be entitled to participate in and, to the extent that they elect by delivering written notice to such Indemnified Parties promptly after receiving notice of the commencement of the action from the Indemnified Parties, to assume the defense of the action and after notice from the Indemnifying Parties to the Indemnified Parties of their election to assume the defense, the Indemnifying Parties will not be liable to the Indemnified Parties for any legal or other expenses except for the reasonable costs of investigation subsequently incurred by the Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense. Subject to the foregoing, in the event that any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation is brought against any Indemnified Party (whether arising prior to or after the Effective Time), (w) the Indemnifying Parties will pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation to each Indemnified Party to the full extent permitted by applicable law; provided that the person to whom expenses are advanced provides any undertaking required by applicable law to repay such advance if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification; (x) the Indemnified Parties shall retain counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnifying Parties; (y) the Indemnifying Parties shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties (subject to the final sentence of this paragraph) promptly as statements therefor are received; and (z) the Indemnifying Parties shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to assist in the defense of any such matter. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall notify the applicable Indemnifying Party, but the failure so to notify an Indemnifying Party shall not relieve such Indemnifying Party from any liability which it may have under this paragraph except to the extent such failure materially prejudices such Indemnifying Party. The Indemnified Parties, as a group, may retain only one law firm to represent them with respect to each such matter unless there is, under applicable standards of professional conduct, a conflict on any significant issue between the positions of any two or more Indemnified Parties, in which case the Indemnified Parties may retain more than one law firm.

(b) Except to the extent required by law, until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, C1 shall not amend, modify or repeal the provisions for indemnification of trustees, directors, officers or employees contained in the certificates or articles of incorporation or by-laws (or other comparable Charter Documents) of such corporation and its Entities in such a manner as would adversely affect the rights of any individual who shall have served as a trustee, director, officer or employee of any of A1, C1 or C2 or any of their respective Entities prior to the Effective Time to be indemnified by such corporations in respect of their serving in such capacities prior to the Effective Time.

(c) C1 shall, until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time and for so long thereafter as any claim for insurance coverage asserted on or prior to such date has not been fully adjudicated, cause to be maintained in effect, to the extent commercially available, the policies of trustees', directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by A1, C1 and C2, respectively, as of the date hereof (or policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms that are no less advantageous to the insured parties) with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or prior to the Effective Time; provided that C1 shall not be obligated to expend in order to maintain or procure insurance coverage pursuant to this paragraph any amount per annum in excess of 150 percent of the aggregate of the last annual premiums paid by A1, C1 and C2 for such policies prior to the date hereof, but if the cost of maintaining such insurance (or providing such new policies) would but for this proviso exceed such aggregate amount, then C1 shall purchase as much coverage as possible for such amount.

(d) The provisions of this Section are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and each party entitled to insurance coverage under paragraph (c) above, respectively, and his or her heirs and legal representatives, and shall be in addition to any other rights an Indemnified Party may have under the certificate or articles of incorporation or bylaws of C1, C2 or either Constituent Corporation or any of its Entities, under the Massachusetts Business Corporation Law, the DGCL, the MGCL or otherwise.

Section 6.11. Expenses. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such cost or expense, except that expenses incurred in connection with printing and mailing the Proxy Statement and the Registration Statement, as well as any filing fees relating thereto, shall be shared equally by A1 and C1.

Section 6.12. Brokers or Finders. Each party represents, as to itself and its affiliates, that no agent, broker, investment banker, financial advisor or other firm or person is or will be entitled to any broker's or finder's fee or any other commission or similar fee in connection with any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except Merrill Lynch, whose fees and expenses will be paid by A1 in accordance with A1's agreement with such firm (a true and complete copy of which has been delivered by A1 to C1 prior to the execution of this Agreement), and Lazard Freres & Co. LLC and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., whose fees and expenses will be paid by C1 in accordance with C1's agreements with such firms (a true and complete copy of which has been delivered by C1 to A1 prior to the execution of this Agreement), and each party shall indemnify and hold the others harmless from and against any and all claims, liabilities or obligations with respect to any other such fee or commission or expenses related thereto asserted by any person on the basis of any act or statement alleged to have been made by such party or its affiliate.

Section 6.13. Takeover Statutes. If any "fair price", "moratorium", "control share acquisition" or other form of antitakeover statute or regulation shall become applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby, each party and the members of the Board of Directors of such party shall grant such approvals and take such actions as are reasonably necessary so that the transactions contemplated hereby may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of such statute or regulation on the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

Section 6.14. Conveyance Taxes. A1, C1 and C2 shall cooperate in the preparation, execution and filing of all returns, questionnaires, applications or other documents regarding any real property transfer or gains, sales, use, transfer, value added, stock transfer and stamp taxes, any transfer, recording, registration and other fees, and any similar taxes which become payable in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that are required or permitted to be filed on or before the Effective Time.

Section 6.15. Transfer Tax. Each of A1, C1 and C2 shall pay, without deduction or withholding from any amount payable to any stockholders of A1, C1 or C2, any New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax, New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Stock Transfer Tax (the "Transfer Taxes") and any similar taxes imposed by any other State of the United States (and any penalties and interest with respect to such taxes), which become payable in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, on behalf of the stockholders of A1, C1 or C2, respectively. Each of A1, C1 and C2 shall cooperate in the preparation, execution and filing of any required returns with respect to such taxes (including returns on behalf of any stockholders) and in the determination of the portion of the consideration allocable to real property of A1, C1 or C2 and its Entities in New York State and City (or in any other jurisdiction, if applicable). The terms of the Proxy Statement shall provide that the stockholders of A1, C1 or C2 shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by the allocation established in this Section in the preparation of any return with respect to the Transfer Taxes and any similar taxes, if applicable.

Section 6.16. Post-Closing Asset Sales. During the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on December 31, 1998, the Surviving Corporation shall not assign, sell or otherwise transfer to an unaffiliated third party any asset owned by A1 prior to the Effective Time if, as a result of such assignment, sale or other transfer, the Surviving Corporation would recognize a gain, unless directors representing two-thirds of the entire Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation have duly adopted a resolution authorizing such assignment, sale or other transfer.

Section 6.17. Merger Sub. C1 will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that Merger Sub will be formed solely for the purpose of engaging in the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and that, prior to the Closing Date, it will not engage in any business activities or conduct any operations other than in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 6.18. Transfer of Assets. (a) At the direction of Al, C1 shall cause the applicable C1 Entity to enter into an agreement to sell the General Motors Building, located at 767 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, and any property related thereto (collectively the "GM Building") to one or more parties designated by A1. Under such agreement, the sale of the GM Building will be scheduled to close (with "time being of the essence" with respect to such closing) immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger or at such later date as A1 may agree to in writing. C1 shall, and shall cause the applicable C1 Entities to, use its and their reasonable best efforts to consummate the sale of the GM Building in accordance with the terms and conditions of such agreement. C1 shall cooperate with A1 in the negotiation and consummation of any agreement relating to the sale of the GM Building, including, without limitation, granting any potential buyer permission to conduct usual and customary due diligence in connection with such sale. The applicable C1 Entity shall enter into any agreement relating to the sale of the GM Building as A1 shall in good faith direct; provided, however, that, at the option of such C1 Entity, such agreement shall provide that (i) such C1 Entity shall not be obligated to consummate such sale unless the Merger will be consummated immediately thereafter and (ii) that in the event this Agreement is terminated such C1 Entity shall have the right to terminate such agreement without any cost, penalty or liability to the other parties thereto. Except as contemplated by the preceding sentence, neither C1 nor any C1 Entity shall make any decision it is entitled to make under, or relating to, any such agreement, or exercise any remedy in connection with any such agreement, without the prior written consent of A1.

(b) The parties hereto agree to use their best efforts (it being understood that such efforts shall not require the expenditure of other than a nominal amount of cash) to obtain all necessary consents of third parties to permit the contribution at or, at A1's request, promptly following the Effective Time of substantially all the assets of C1 and its Subsidiaries to Simon DeBartolo Group, L.P. ("A1 Operating Partnership") and/or to limited liability companies and/or limited partnerships, all the beneficial interests of which will be held by A1 Operating Partnership, or, at A1's request, to effectuate the transfer, effective as of the Effective Time or promptly following the Effective Time, of all or substantially all the economic benefits of such assets to A1 Operating Partnership and/or such limited liability companies and/or such limited partnerships.

Section 6.19. Existing Agreements. (a) The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that all contractual rights to registration of C1 Common Shares and beneficial interests in shares of C2 Common Stock under the Securities Act in existence at the Effective Time shall continue in effect after the Effective Time without being affected by the Merger in accordance with their terms; provided that in the event the Merger is restructured pursuant to Section 1.2(b), shareholders of CPI having such contractual rights shall have substantially similar rights with respect to the securities received in the Merger as so restructured. The parties also agree to negotiate in good faith with the holders of C1 Common Shares and beneficial interests in shares of C2 Common Stock to modify such registration rights to appropriately reflect the nature of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) By approving this Agreement the shareholders of C1 and C2 having contractual rights to representation on the Board of Trustees of C1 or the Board of Directors of C2 shall irrevocably waive, effective as of the Effective Time, all such rights. C1 acknowledges that each shareholder of C1 and C2 having such contractual representation rights is entering into a Stockholder Agreement.

ARTICLE VII.

CONDITIONS

Section 7.1. Conditions to Each Party's Obligation To Effect the Merger. The respective obligation of each party to effect the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby is subject to the fulfillment, at or prior to the Closing, of each of the following conditions:

7.1.1. Stockholder Approvals. This Agreement shall have been adopted by the requisite vote of the stockholders of A1 under the MGCL and the Articles of Incorporation and By-laws of A1. The issuance of C1 Common Shares and the related beneficial interests in C2 Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement and under the Option Plans after the Merger in accordance with this Agreement shall been approved by the requisite vote of the stockholders of C1 and C2 under the DGCL and the Certificates of Incorporation and By-laws of C1 and C2.

7.1.2. Registration Statement; State Securities Laws. The Registration Statement shall have become effective in accordance with the provisions of the Securities Act, and no stop order suspending such effectiveness shall have been issued and remain in effect and no proceeding seeking such an order shall be pending or threatened. C1 and C2 shall have received all state securities or "Blue Sky" permits and other authorizations necessary to issue the C1 Common Shares and C2 Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement, under the Option Plans after the Merger and to issue the C1 Common Shares and C2 Common Stock upon conversion of the C1 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock.

7.1.3. Exchange Listing. The C1 Common Shares, the related beneficial interests in shares of C2 Common Stock to be paired with the C1 Common Shares and the C1 Series A Preferred Stock to be issued pursuant to this Agreement, and the C1 Common Shares and the paired interests in the C2 Common Stock previously outstanding and issuable under the Option Plans or upon conversion of the C1 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock and the C1 Series A Preferred Stock after the Merger, shall have been authorized for listing on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), upon official notice of issuance.

7.1.4. No Injunctions or Restraints. No court of competent jurisdiction or other competent Governmental or Regulatory Authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any law or order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) which is then in effect and has the effect of making illegal or otherwise restricting, preventing or prohibiting consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

7.1.5. Tax Opinions. (a) A1 shall have received the opinion, based on appropriate representations of A1, C1 and C2, and applicable to the A1 stockholders referred to therein, of Willkie Farr & Gallagher, special tax counsel to A1, dated on or about the date on which the Registration Statement shall have become effective, which opinion shall have been confirmed in writing on and as of the Closing Date, generally to the effect that:

(i) The Merger will constitute a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

(ii) A1 will not recognize gain or loss as a result of the Merger;

(iii) the holders of shares of A1 Common Stock will recognize gain, but not loss, upon the exchange of each share of A1 Common Stock for C1 Common Shares and C2 Common Stock in the Merger, but only to the extent of the fair market value of the beneficial interest in shares of C2 Common Stock received;

(iv) a holder's tax basis in each C1 Common Shares received in the Merger will be the same as the tax basis of the shares of A1 Common Stock exchanged therefor, decreased by the fair market value of the beneficial interest in shares of C2 Common Stock also received in part exchange therefor in the Merger, and increased by the amount of gain recognized by the holder in respect of the exchanged share of A1 Common Stock;

(v) a holder's tax basis in the beneficial interest in C2 Common Stock received in exchange for a portion of a share of A1 Common Stock in the Merger will be the fair market value of such beneficial interest in C2 Common Stock at the Effective Time;

(vi) a holder's holding period for each C1 Common Share received in exchange for shares of A1 Common Stock in the Merger will include that holder's holding period of the share exchanged therefor at the Effective Time; and

(vii) a holder's holding period for the beneficial interest in C2 Common Stock received in exchange for shares of A1 Common Stock in the Merger will commence at the Effective Time.

(b) C1 and C2 shall have received the opinion, based on appropriate representations of A1, C1 and C2 and in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to C1 and C2, of Cravath, Swaine & Moore, special tax counsel to C1 and C2, dated as of the Closing Date, which opinion shall have been confirmed in writing on and as of the Closing Date, generally to the effect that:

(i) the Merger will constitute a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

(ii) C1 will not recognize gain or loss as a result of the Merger;

(iii) neither the consummation of the C1 Delaware Reorganization nor the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement (x) will adversely affect the qualification of C1 or the Surviving Corporation as a REIT or (y) will adversely affect the status of C1 Delaware and C2 as grandfathered from the application of Section 269B(a)(3) of the Code pursuant to Section 136(c)(3) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984;

(iv) the distribution of stock made to C1 shareholders pursuant to Section 1.1.2 of this Agreement will be treated as a tax-free distribution under Section 305(a) of the Code;

(v) the distribution of cash made to C1 shareholders pursuant to Section 1.1.2 of this Agreement will be treated as a distribution of property to which Section 301 of the Code applies; and

(vi) as of December 31, 1997, C1 qualified as a REIT, and if C1 continues its operations in the same manner as the operations of C1 since January 1, 1997, C1 will continue to qualify as a REIT.

(c) A1, C1 and C2 shall have received the opinion, based on appropriate representations of A1 and in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to C1 and C2, of Baker & Daniels, special counsel to A1, dated on or about the date on which the Registration Statement (or the last amendment thereto) shall have become effective, which opinion shall have been confirmed in writing on and as of the Closing Date to the effect that:

(i) At all times from and after December 31, 1993, A1 has qualified as a REIT, and if A1 continues its operations in the same manner as the operations of A1 since the beginning of such period, A1 will continue to so qualify; and

(ii) the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not adversely affect the ability of A1 or the Surviving Corporation to qualify as a REIT.

7.1.6. C1 Delaware Reorganization. The C1 Delaware Reorganization shall have occurred.

Section 7.2. Conditions to Obligation of C1 and C2 To Effect the Merger. The obligation of C1 and C2 to effect the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby is further subject to the fulfillment, at or prior to the Closing, of each of the following additional conditions (all or any of which may be waived in whole or in part by C1 and C2 in their sole discretion):

7.2.1. Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties made by A1 in this Agreement that are qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct, and those not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects, as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date or, in the case of representations and warranties made as of a specified date earlier than the Closing Date, on and as of such earlier date, except as affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and A1 shall have delivered to C1 and C2 a certificate, dated the Closing Date and executed in the name and on behalf of it by its Chairman of the Board, President or any Vice President, to such effect.

7.2.2. Performance of Obligations. A1 shall have performed and complied with, in all material respects, each agreement, covenant and obligation required by this Agreement to be so performed or complied with by it at or prior to the Closing, and A1 shall have delivered to C1 and C2 a certificate, dated the Closing Date and executed in the name and on behalf of it by its Chairman of the Board, President or any Vice President, to such effect.

7.2.3. Comfort Letters. C1 and C2 shall have received "cold comfort letters" in customary form from Arthur Andersen LLP, A1's accountants, the first dated within five days prior to the date the Proxy Statement is mailed to A1 stockholders and the second dated the Effective Date, in substantially the form and substance as is customarily given in a similar merger transaction.

7.2.4. No Material Adverse Change. Since the date of the Stockholders' Meetings, there shall not have been any change, event or occurrence which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the A1 Entities taken as a whole.

7.2.5. Proceedings. All proceedings to be taken on the part of A1 in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all documents incident thereto shall be reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to C1 and C2, and C1 and C2 shall have received copies of all such documents and other evidences as C1 or C2 may reasonably request in order to establish the consummation of such transactions and the taking of all proceedings in connection therewith.

7.2.6. Governmental and Regulatory and Other Consents and Approvals. Other than the filings provided for by Section 1.4, all consents, approvals and actions of, filings with and notices to any Governmental or Regulatory Authority or any other public or private third parties required of A1, C1 or C2 or any of their respective Entities to consummate the Merger and the other matters contemplated hereby, the failure of which to be obtained or taken could reasonably be expected to result in personal liability for any Representative of C1 or C2 or any Representative of their respective Entities shall have been obtained, all in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to C1.

Section 7.3. Conditions to Obligation of A1 To Effect the Merger. The obligations of A1 to effect the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby is further subject to the fulfillment, at or prior to the Closing, of each of the following additional conditions (all or any of which may be waived in whole or in part by A1 in their sole discretion):

7.3.1. Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties made by C1 and C2 in this Agreement that are qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct, and those not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects, as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date or, in the case of representations and warranties made as of a specified date earlier than the Closing Date, on and as of such earlier date, except as affected by the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and C1 and C2 shall each have delivered to A1 a certificate, dated the Closing Date and executed in the name and on behalf of it by its Chairman of the Board, President or any Vice President, to such effect.

7.3.2. Performance of Obligations. C1 and C2 shall have performed and complied with, in all material respects, each agreement, covenant and obligation required by this Agreement to be so performed or complied with by C1 or C2 at or prior to the Closing, and C1 and C2 shall each have delivered to A1 a certificate, dated the Closing Date and executed in the name and on behalf of it by its Chairman of the Board, President or any Vice President, to such effect.

7.3.3. Comfort Letters. A1 shall have received "cold comfort letters" in customary form from Ernst & Young LLP, C1's and C2's accountants, the first dated within five days prior to the date the Proxy Statement is mailed to C1 and C2 stockholders and the second dated the Effective Date, in substantially the form and substance as is customarily given in a similar merger transaction.

7.3.4. No Material Adverse Change. Since the date of the Stockholders' Meetings, there shall not have been any change, event or occurrence which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole.

7.3.5. Proceedings. All proceedings to be taken on the part of C1 or C2 in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and all documents incident thereto shall be reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to A1, and A1 shall have received copies of all such documents and other evidences as A1 may reasonably request in order to establish the consummation of such transactions and the taking of all proceedings in connection therewith.

7.3.6. Related Agreements. Stockholder Agreements shall have been duly executed by the holders of (i) at least a majority of the total voting power of all the outstanding C1 Common Shares and C1 Preference Shares and (ii) at least two thirds of the total voting power of all the outstanding C1 Preference Shares and each such agreement shall be in full force and effect.

7.3.7. Governmental and Regulatory and Other Consents and Approvals. Other than the filings provided for by Section 1.4, all consents, approvals and actions of, filings with and notices to any Governmental or Regulatory Authority or any other public or private third parties required of A1, C1 or C2 or any of their respective Entities to consummate the Merger and the other matters contemplated hereby, the failure of which to be obtained or taken could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on C1, C2 and their respective Entities, taken as a whole, or on the ability of A1, C1 or C2 to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby shall have been obtained, all in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to A1.

ARTICLE VIII.

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

Section 8.1. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned, at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether prior to or after the A1 Stockholders' Approval or the C1 Stockholders' Approval and the C2 Stockholders' Approval:

(a) by mutual written agreement of the parties hereto duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of their respective Boards;

(b) by either A1 or C1 upon notification to the nonterminating party by the terminating party:

(i) at any time after November 30, 1998, if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or prior to such date and such failure to consummate the Merger is not caused by a breach of this Agreement by the terminating party or any of its Affiliates;

(ii) if the A1 Stockholders' Approval or the C1 Stockholders' Approval and C2 Stockholders' Approval shall not be obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the requisite vote upon a vote held at a meeting of such stockholders, or any adjournment thereof, called therefor;

(iii) if there has been a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of the nonterminating party set forth in this Agreement, which breach is not curable or, if curable, has not been cured within 30 days following receipt by the nonterminating party of notice of such breach from the terminating party; or

(iv) if any court of competent jurisdiction or other competent Governmental or Regulatory Authority shall have issued an order making illegal or otherwise restricting, preventing or prohibiting either of the Merger and such order shall have become final and nonappealable;

Section 8.2. Effect of Termination. (a) If this Agreement is validly terminated by either A1 or C1 pursuant to Section 8.1, this Agreement will forthwith become null and void and there will be no liability or obligation on the part of either A1, C1 or C2 (or any of their respective Representatives or affiliates), except (i) that the provisions of Sections 6.11, 6.12 and this Section 8.2 will continue to apply following any such termination, (ii) that nothing contained herein shall relieve any party hereto from liability for wilful breach of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement and (iii) as provided in paragraph (b) or (c) below.

(b) (i) In the event that this Agreement is terminated (x) by C1 pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iii) due to a willful breach by A1 or (y) at any time on or prior to November 30, 1998 by either party pursuant to Section 8.1 b(ii) as a result of the A1 Stockholders' Approval not being obtained, then C1 shall become entitled to receive from A1 a termination fee of $50,000,000 (the "C1 Termination Fee"), payable annually in installments over a two-year period. The portion of the C1 Termination Fee that shall be payable each year shall equal the amount that C1 may receive in such taxable year without violating the REIT Requirements minus $1,000,000 (the "C1 Payment Amount"). On December 20 of each year in such two-year period C1's independent public accountants shall certify to A1 the C1 Payment Amount for such year, and A1 shall pay such C1 Payment Amount to C1 by December 31 of such year by wire transfer to an account specified by C1. Any portion of the C1 Termination Fee that is not paid to C1 by the end of the second year shall be forfeited and A1 will have no further obligation to make any C1 Termination Fee payments.

(ii) A1 acknowledges that the agreements contained in the preceding paragraph are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and that, without these agreements, C1 and C2 would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if A1 fails promptly to pay the amounts due in accordance with the terms of such paragraph, and in order to obtain any such payment, C1 commences a suit which results in a judgment against A1 for any such payment, A1 shall pay to C1 its cost and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit.

(c) (i) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by A1 pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iii) due to a willful breach by C1, then A1 shall become entitled to receive from C1 a termination fee of $50,000,000 (the "A1 Termination Fee"), payable annually in installments over a two-year period. The portion of the A1 Termination Fee that shall be payable each year shall equal the amount that A1 may receive in such taxable year without violating the REIT Requirements minus $1,000,000 (the "A1 Payment Amount"). On December 20 of each year in such two-year period A1's independent public accountants shall certify to A1 the A1 Payment Amount for such year, and C1 shall pay such A1 Payment Amount to A1 by December 31 of such year by wire transfer to an account specified by A1. Any portion of the A1 Termination Fee that is not paid to A1 by the end of the second year shall be forfeited and C1 will have no further obligation to make any A1 Termination Fee payments.

(ii) C1 acknowledges that the agreements contained in the preceding paragraph are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and that, without these agreements, A1 would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if C1 fails promptly to pay the amounts due in accordance with the terms of such paragraph, and in order to obtain any such payment, A1 commences a suit which results in a judgment against A1 for any such payment, C1 shall pay to A1 its cost and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit.

Section 8.3. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, supplemented or modified by action taken by or on behalf of the respective Boards of Directors of the parties hereto at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether prior to or after the A1 Stockholders' Approval or the C1 Stockholders' Approval and C2 Stockholders' Approval shall have been obtained, but after such adoption and approval only to the extent permitted by applicable law. No such amendment, supplement or modification shall be effective unless set forth in a written instrument duly executed by or on behalf of each party hereto.

Section 8.4. Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time any party hereto, by action taken by or on behalf of its Board of Directors, may to the extent permitted by applicable law (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties hereto contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto or (iii) waive compliance with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions of the other parties hereto contained herein. No such extension or waiver shall be effective unless set forth in a written instrument duly executed by or on behalf of the party extending the time of performance or waiving any such inaccuracy or noncompliance. No waiver by any party of any term or condition of this Agreement, in any one or more instances, shall be deemed to be or construed as a waiver of the same or any other term or condition of this Agreement on any future occasion.

ARTICLE IX.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 9.1. Non-Survival of Representations, Warranties, Covenants and Agreements. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall not survive the Merger but shall terminate at the Effective Time, except for the agreements contained in Article I and Article II, in Sections 6.6, 6.8, 6.9, 6.10, 6.11, 6.12, 6.13, 6.14, 6.15, 6.16, 6.17 and 6.18, this Article IX and the agreements of the "affiliates" of A1 delivered pursuant to Section 6.4, which shall survive the Effective Time.

Section 9.2. Notices. All notices, requests and other communications hereunder must be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given only if delivered personally, by overnight courier, by facsimile transmission or mailed (first-class postage prepaid) to the parties at the following addresses or facsimile numbers:

If to C1 or C2, to:

All such notices, requests and other communications will (i) if delivered personally or by reputable overnight courier to the address as provided in this Section, be deemed given upon delivery, (ii) if delivered by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number as provided in this Section, be deemed given when confirmation is received, and (iii) if delivered by mail in the manner described above to the address as provided in this Section, be deemed given upon receipt (in each case regardless of whether such notice, request or other communication is received by any other person to whom a copy of such notice, request or other communication is to be delivered pursuant to this Section). Any party from time to time may change its address, facsimile number or other information for the purpose of notices to that party by giving notice specifying such change to the other parties hereto.

Section 9.3. Entire Agreement; Incorporation of Exhibits; Construction. (a) This Agreement supersedes all prior discussions and agreements among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, other than the Confidentiality Agreement, which shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement, and contains, together with the Confidentiality Agreement, the sole and entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(b) The A1 Disclosure Letter, the C1 Disclosure Letter and any Exhibit attached to this Agreement and referred to herein are hereby incorporated herein and made a part hereof for all purposes as if fully set forth herein.

(c) The parties hereby acknowledge that this Agreement has been the subject of active and complete negotiations among the parties and represents the parties' agreement. The parties agree that the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not be construed in favor of or against any party by reason of the extent to which any party or its professional advisors participated in the preparation of this Agreement.

Section 9.4. Public Announcements. Except as otherwise required by law or the rules of any applicable securities exchange or national market system, so long as this Agreement is in effect, A1, C1 and C2 will not, and will not permit any of their respective Representatives to, issue or cause the publication of any press release or make any other public announcement with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. A1, C1 and C2 will cooperate with each other in the development and distribution of all press releases and other public announcements with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, and will furnish the other with drafts of any such releases and announcements as far in advance as practicable.

Section 9.5. No Third-Party Beneficiary. The terms and provisions of this Agreement are intended solely for the benefit of each party hereto and their respective successors or permitted assigns, and except as provided in Sections 6.9 and 6.10 (which are intended to be for the benefit of the persons entitled to therein, and may be enforced by any of such persons), it is not the intention of the parties to confer third-party beneficiary rights upon any other person.

Section 9.6. No Assignment; Binding Effect. Neither this Agreement nor any right, interest or obligation hereunder may be assigned by any party hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto and any attempt to do so will be void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement is binding upon, inures to the benefit of and is enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 9.7. Headings. The table of contents and headings used in this Agreement have been inserted for convenience of reference only and do not define, modify or limit the provisions hereof.

Section 9.8. Invalid Provisions. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable under any present or future law or order, and if the rights or obligations of any party hereto under this Agreement will not be materially and adversely affected thereby, (i) such provision will be fully severable, (ii) this Agreement will be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof, and (iii) the remaining provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect and will not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or by its severance herefrom.

Section 9.9. Governing Law. Except to the extent that the Massachusetts Business Corporation Law, the DGCL or the MGCL is mandatorily applicable to the Merger and the rights of the stockholders of the Constituent Corporations, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York applicable to a contract executed and performed in such State, without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

Section 9.10. Enforcement of Agreement. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement was not performed in accordance with its specified terms or was otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

Section 9.11. Certain Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) except as provided in Section 6.4, the term "affiliate", as applied to any person, shall mean any other person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, that person; for purposes of this definition, "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlling", "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as applied to any person, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of that person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise;

(b) a person will be deemed to "beneficially" own securities if such person would be the beneficial owner of such securities under Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, including securities which such person has the right to acquire (whether such right is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time);

(c) the term "business day" means a day other than Saturday, Sunday or any day on which banks located in the States of Maryland or New York are authorized or obligated to be closed;

(d) the term "Consolidated Non-Corporate Affiliate" means, with respect to any party, any trust, limited liability company or partnership, the accounts of which would be consolidated (including through a proportional consolidation of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses) with those of such party in its consolidated financial statements in accordance with the principles of consolidation employed by C1 and C2 (if such party is an affiliate of C1 or C2) or A1 (if such party is an affiliate of A1);

(e) the term "knowledge" or any similar formulation of "knowledge" shall mean, with respect to A1, the knowledge of its Chairman, President or Chief Financial Officer, and with respect to C1 or C2, the knowledge of its Chairman, President or Chief Financial Officer;

(f) any reference to any event, change or effect being "material" or "materially adverse" or having a "material adverse effect" on or with respect to an entity (or group of entities taken as a whole) means such event, change or effect is material or materially adverse, as the case may be, to the business, properties, assets, liabilities, condition financial or otherwise or results of operations of such entity (or of such group of entities taken as a whole); provided, however, that a downgrade in the credit rating of C1 shall be deemed materially adverse to the C1/C2 Entities taken as a whole if, and only if, such downgrade shall be to a level below a rating of Baa3 (or the equivalent) by Moody's Investors Services, Inc. and BBB- (or the equivalent) by Standard & Poor's Rating Services;

(g) the term "person" shall include individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts, other entities and groups (which term shall include a "group" as such term is defined in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act);

(h) the "Representatives" of any entity means such entity's trustees, directors, officers, employees, legal, investment banking and financial advisors, accountants and any other agents and representatives, in each case to the extent acting in such capacity;

(i) the term "Significant Entities" means, with respect to A1, the Entities of A1 which constitute "significant subsidiaries" under Rule 405 promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act and, in the case of C1 or C2, the Entities of either C1 or C2 which constitute "significant subsidiaries" of C1 and C2 taken as a whole under Rule 405 promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act;

(j) the term "Subsidiary" means, with respect to any party, any corporation of which more than 50 percent of either the equity interests in, or the voting control of, such corporation is, directly or indirectly through Entities or otherwise, beneficially owned by such party; and

(k) following the C1 Delaware Reorganization, (i) all references to "Cl" shall be deemed to refer to C1 Delaware, (ii) all references to C1 Common Shares shall be deemed to refer to shares of C1 Delaware Common Stock, (iii) all references to any other shares of any class of beneficial interest in or of C1 shall be deemed to refer to shares of capital stock of equivalent class of C1 Delaware, (iv) all references to shareholders of C1 shall be deemed to refer to stockholders of C1 Delaware and (v) all references to the Board of Trustees of C1 shall be deemed to refer to the Board of Directors of C1 Delaware.

Section 9.12. Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH OF THE PARTIES HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, FOR ITSELF AND FOR THE THIRD- PARTY BENEFICIARIES HEREUNDER, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 9.13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each party hereto has caused this Agreement to be signed by its officer thereunto duly authorized as of the date first above written.

ANNEX B

[MERRILL LYNCH LETTERHEAD]

February 19, 1998

Board of Directors
Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc.
115 West Washington Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46204

Members of the Board of Directors:

Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. (the "Company"), Corporate Property Investors ("CPI") and Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRCI") have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Agreement"), pursuant to which a newly formed subsidiary of CPI Delaware (as defined below) will be merged with the Company (the "Merger") and, as a result, the Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of CPI Delaware. The Merger and all of the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement are referred to herein as the "Transaction." Pursuant to the Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), (i) each outstanding share of common stock, par value $.0001 per share, of the Company ("Company Class A Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive one share of common stock, par value $.0001 per share, of CPI Delaware ("CPI Class A Common Stock"), (ii) each outstanding share of class B common stock, par value $.0001 per share, of the Company ("Company Class B Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive one share of class B common stock, par value $.0001 per share, of CPI Delaware ("CPI Class B Common Stock") and (iii) each outstanding share of class C common stock, par value $.0001 per share, of the Company ("Company Class C Common Stock" and together with the Company Class A Common Stock and the Company Class B Common Stock, the "Company Common Stock") will be converted into the right to receive one share of class C common stock, par value $.0001 per share, of CPI Delaware ("CPI Class C Common Stock" and together with the CPI Class A Common Stock and the CPI Class B Common Stock, the "CPI Common Stock"); in each case, other than any shares of such stock owned by the Company as treasury stock or by CPI Delaware, CRCI or certain of their affiliates, all of which shall be canceled, or held by stockholders who properly exercise their rights under applicable law to demand payment of the fair value of their stock. Also at the Effective Time, CPI Delaware and CRCI will take such action as is necessary so that each and every share of CPI Common Stock outstanding or issued in connection with the Transaction will be entitled to a beneficial interest in shares of CRCI common stock, par value $.10 per share, which shares are paired with, and are transferable only in combination with, CPI Class A Common Stock, CPI Class B Common Stock and CPI Class C Common Stock, as the case may be (the "CPI Paired Shares").

As a condition to the respective obligation of each party to effect the Merger, and prior to the record date for the stockholder meeting of CPI to be held to vote on the Transaction, CPI will reorganize as a Delaware corporation (as so reorganized, "CPI Delaware"). Immediately prior to the Effective Time, and as part of the Transaction, CPI Delaware will declare the following dividends per share of CPI Class

A Common Stock, payable to the holders of record of CPI Class A Common Stock immediately preceding the Effective Time: (i) a cash dividend consisting of an amount equal to the Cash Amount (as defined below); (ii) a stock dividend consisting of 1.0818 new shares of CPI Class A Common Stock; and (iii) a stock dividend consisting of 0.19 of a share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share, of CPI Delaware. The "Cash Amount" is equal to $90.00 per share of CPI Class A Common Stock, subject to adjustment as follows: (i) if the average of the closing prices per share for the Company Class A Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the fifth trading day prior to the Effective Time (the "Market Price") exceeds $38.67, then the Cash Amount shall be reduced by an amount equal to such excess multiplied by 2.0818, and (ii) if the Market Price is less than $28.58, then the Cash Amount shall be increased by an amount equal to such deficiency multiplied by 2.0818. The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Agreement. With your consent, we have assumed that the Company will not exercise its right pursuant to Section 1.2(b) of the Agreement to change the structure of the Transaction.

You have asked us whether, in our opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Transaction is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

In arriving at the opinion set forth below, we have, among other things:

(1) Reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company that we deemed to be relevant;

(2) Reviewed certain business and financial information relating to CPI that we deemed to be relevant, including but not limited to CPI's Annual Report, dated December 31, 1996, CPI's Quarterly Report to Shareholders, dated September 30, 1997, and CPI's draft 1997 audited financial statements;

(3) Reviewed certain information, including financial forecasts, relating to the business, earnings, funds from operations, cash flow, assets, liabilities and prospects of the Company, CPI and CRCI, as well as the amount and timing of the cost savings and related expenses, synergies and revenue enhancements expected to result from the Transaction (the "Expected Synergies"), furnished to us by the Company, CPI and CRCI respectively;

(4) Conducted discussions with members of senior management and representatives of the Company, CPI and CRCI concerning the matters described in clauses 1 and 2 above, as well as their respective businesses and prospects before and after giving effect to the Transaction and the Expected Synergies;

(5) Reviewed the appraisal dated February 5, 1998 (the "Appraisal") of the assets of CPI and CRCI as of December 31, 1997, as prepared by Landauer Associates, Inc. (the "Appraiser");

(6) Reviewed the results of operations of the Company, CPI and CRCI and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that we deemed to be relevant;

(7) Compared the proposed financial terms of the Transaction with the financial terms of certain other transactions that we deemed to be relevant;

(8) Participated in certain discussions and negotiations among representatives of the Company, CPI and CRCI and their financial and legal advisors;

(9) Reviewed the potential pro forma impact of the Transaction;

(10) Reviewed the Agreement; and

(11) Reviewed such other financial studies and analyses and took into account such other matters as we deemed necessary, including our assessment of general economic, market and monetary conditions.

In preparing our opinion, we have assumed and relied on the accuracy and completeness of all information supplied or otherwise made available to us, discussed with or reviewed by or for us, or publicly available, and we have not assumed any responsibility for independently verifying such information or undertaken an independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of the Company, CPI or CRCI, or been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal other than the Appraisal. In addition, we have not assumed any obligation to conduct, nor have we conducted, any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of the Company, CPI or CRCI. With respect to the financial forecast information and the Expected Synergies furnished to or discussed with us by the Company, CPI or CRCI, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and judgment of the Company's CPI's or CRCI's management as to the expected future financial performance of the Company, CPI or CRCI as the case may be, and the Expected Synergies. Additionally, we have assumed that the Appraisal has been reasonably prepared and reflects the best available estimates and judgments of the Appraiser as to the fair value of the assets of CPI and CRCI as of the date thereof. We have further assumed that the Transaction, upon approval by the stockholders of the Company, will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Our opinion is necessarily based upon market, economic and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on, and on the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. We have assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or other consents or approvals (contractual or otherwise) for the Transaction, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Transaction. We have also assumed that the combined entity will continue to qualify after the Transaction as a Real Estate Investment Trust for federal income tax purposes. In addition, we have assumed that the consummation of the Transaction will not adversely affect the status of CPI Delaware, as successor to CPI, and CRCI as grandfathered from the application of Section 269B(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code pursuant to Section 136(c)(3) of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984.

We are acting as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee from the Company for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. We have, in the past, provided financial advisory and financing services to the Company and may continue to do so and have received, and may receive, fees for the rendering of such services. In addition, in the ordinary course of our business, we may actively trade Company Common Stock and other securities of the Company, for our own account and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. As of the date hereof, Merrill Lynch & Co. held approximately 8.4% of the outstanding shares of the Company Class A Common Stock.

This opinion is for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of the Company. Our opinion does not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Transaction and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to how such shareholder should vote on the proposed Transaction or any other matter related thereto.

We are not expressing any opinion herein as to the prices at which the Company Common Stock will trade following the announcement of the Transaction or as to the prices at which the CPI Paired Shares will trade following the consummation of the Transaction.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the consideration to be received by the holders of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Transaction is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

Very truly yours,

MERRILL LYNCH, PIERCE, FENNER & SMITH

February 18, 1998

The Board of Trustees
Corporate Property Investors
Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza
305 East 47th Street
New York, New York 10017

Gentlemen:

We understand that Corporate Property Investors (Corporate Property Investors and its corporate successor are each referred to herein as "CPI"), Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC") and Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. ("Simon") have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Agreement") pursuant to which, among other things, CPI will declare a dividend to its shareholders and immediately thereafter a newly formed wholly owned subsidiary of CPI will merge with and into Simon (the dividend and merger being collectively referred to as the "Transaction"). In the Transaction, (i) each CPI common shareholder will retain its CPI common shares and, in addition, will receive with respect to each common share $90 in cash (subject to adjustment based on the value of Simon common stock), 1.0818 newly issued CPI common shares and 0.19 of a share of a new series of 6.50% convertible preferred stock of CPI having $100 liquidation preference per share and other terms as set forth in the Agreement and (ii) each CPI preferred shareholder will retain its CPI preference shares, the conversion price of which shall be adjusted as set forth in the Agreement and in the Certificate of Designation for such preference shares. We note that each common shareholder of Simon will receive in exchange for each share of Simon common stock one share of a substantially similar series of the common stock of CPI. We also note that each share of common stock of CPI including the new series of CPI common stock that will be issued in the merger is or will be entitled to an indirect beneficial interest in the common stock of CRC.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of CPI of the consideration to be received or retained by them, including beneficial interests in CRC, in the Transaction. In connection with this opinion, we have:

(i) Reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the Agreement;

(ii) Reviewed certain publicly available financial information concerning CPI, CRC and Simon;

(iii) Reviewed various financial forecasts and other data provided to us by CPI, CRC and Simon relating to their respective businesses;

(iv) Held discussions with members of the senior managements of CPI, CRC and Simon concerning their respective businesses and prospects of CPI and CRC together on one hand and Simon on the other, the strategic objectives of each, and possible benefits which might be realized following the Transaction;

(v) Reviewed public information with respect to certain publicly-traded real estate investment trusts (REITs) and other companies in lines of business we believe to be generally comparable to the businesses of CPI and CRC together on one hand and Simon on the other;

(vi) Reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations involving REITs or companies in lines of businesses we believe to be generally comparable to those of CPI and CRC together on one hand and Simon on the other;

(vii) Reviewed the historical market prices and trading volume of the shares of Simon's common stock;

(viii) Analyzed the pro forma financial impact of the Transaction on CPI and CRC together on one hand and Simon on the other;

(ix) Conferred with and relied upon the counsel to the Board of Trustees as to all legal matters pertaining to the Agreement and the Transaction; and

(x) Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the foregoing information, and have not assumed any responsibility for any independent verification of such information or any independent valuation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of CPI, CRC or Simon. It is expressly understood that this opinion does not constitute a valuation or appraisal of the shares of common stock, assets or liabilities of CPI, CRC or Simon. In addition, we are not expressing any opinion as to the price or range of prices at which the common stock of Simon or CPI and CRC may trade subsequent to the announcement of the execution of the Agreement or the consummation of the Transaction. With respect to financial forecasts, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgements of management of CPI, CRC and Simon as to the future financial performance of CPI and CRC together on one hand and Simon on the other. We assume no responsibility for and express no view as to such forecasts or the assumptions on which they are based. Further, our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect this opinion and that we do not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm this opinion.

[LAZARD FRERES & CO. LLC LETTERHEAD]

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated on the terms described in the Agreement, without any waiver of any material terms or conditions by CPI or CRC and that obtaining necessary regulatory approvals for the Transaction will not have an adverse effect on CPI, CRC or Simon. We have noted that the 6.50% Preference Shares of CPI are immediately convertible, and we have treated them, for the purpose of this opinion, as though they had been converted into the shares of common stock of CPI. As you know, CPI received proposals from other parties with respect to merger transactions involving CPI. In this regard, we are expressing no opinion herein as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of CPI of the consideration proposed by any such other parties, and no opinion is expressed as to the relative values to be received by the shareholders of CPI under the Transaction and under such other proposals.

Lazard Freres & Co. LLC is acting as investment banker to CPI in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the closing of the Transaction. Our Firm has provided investment banking services to CPI in the past and has received customary fees for such services. In the ordinary course of its business, our Firm may actively trade the debt and equity securities of CPI or Simon for its own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, we may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities. In addition, we call to your attention that a Vice Chairman of our Firm is a Trustee of CPI.

Our engagement has been, and the opinion expressed herein is for the benefit of the Board of Trustees of CPI. The opinion expressed herein does not constitute a recommendation to the shareholders of CPI or CRC as to how they should vote at the shareholders' meeting in connection with the Transaction.

It is understood that this letter may not be disclosed or otherwise referred to without our prior consent, except as may otherwise be required by law or by a court of competent jurisdiction, except that it may be reproduced in its entirety and described in a proxy statement mailed to the shareholders of CPI and CRC.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the consideration to be received or retained by the shareholders of CPI, including beneficial interests in CRC, in the Transaction is fair to them from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

LAZARD FRERES & CO. LLC

[JP MORGAN LETTERHEAD]

February 18, 1998

The Board of Trustees
Corporate Property Investors
Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza
305 East 47th Street
New York, NY 10017

Attention: Hans C. Mautner
Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Corporate Property Investors (Corporate Property Investors and its corporate successor are referred to herein as "CPI") of the consideration proposed to be received or retained by them in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 18, 1998 (the "Agreement"), among CPI, Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC") and Simon DeBartolo Group, Inc. ("Simon"), pursuant to which, among other things, CPI will declare a dividend to its shareholders and immediately thereafter a newly formed wholly owned subsidiary of CPI will merge with and into Simon (the dividend and the merger being referred to collectively as the "Transaction"). In the Transaction (i) each CPI common shareholder will retain its CPI common shares and will receive with respect to each common share $90 in cash (subject to adjustment based on the value of Simon common stock), 1.0818 newly issued CPI common shares and 0.19 shares of a new series of 6.50% convertible preferred stock of CPI having a $100 liquidation preference per share and other terms as set forth in the Agreement; (ii) each CPI preferred shareholder will retain its CPI preference shares, the conversion price of which shall be adjusted as set forth in the Agreement and in the Certificate of Designation for such preference shares; and (iii) each common shareholder of Simon will receive in exchange for each share of Simon common stock one share of a substantially similar series of the common stock of CPI. We note that each share of common stock of CPI including the new series of CPI common stock that will be issued in the merger is or will be entitled to an indirect beneficial interest in the common stock of CRC.

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed (i) the Agreement; (ii) certain information concerning the business of CPI and CRC, together, and certain other companies engaged in businesses comparable to those of CPI and CRC, together, and the reported market prices for certain other companies' securities deemed comparable; (iii) publicly available terms of certain transactions involving companies comparable to CPI and CRC, together, and the consideration received for such companies; (iv) current and historical market prices of the common stock of Simon; (v) the audited financial statements of CPI and Simon for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1996 and for the nine-month period ended September 30, 1997;

(vi) the audited financial statements of CPI for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1997; (vii) certain agreements with respect to outstanding indebtedness or obligations of CPI and Simon; (viii) certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by CPI and CRC, together, on the one hand, and Simon, on the other, and their respective managements; and (ix) the terms of other business combinations that we deemed relevant.

In addition, we have held discussions with certain members of the management of CPI, CRC and Simon with respect to certain aspects of the Transaction, the past and current business operations of CPI and CRC, together, on the one hand, and Simon, on the other, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of CPI and CRC, together, on the one hand, and Simon, on the other, the effects of the Transaction on the financial condition and future prospects of CPI and CRC, together, on the one hand, and Simon, on the other, and certain other matters we believed necessary or appropriate to our inquiry.

In giving our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to us by CPI, CRC and Simon or otherwise reviewed by us, and we have not assumed any responsibility or liability therefor. Though we have not conducted any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor have any such valuations or appraisals been provided to us, we have noted the per share estimates of the net asset value of CPI and CRC, together, as of December 31, 1996 and December 31, 1997, as determined by Landauer Associates, Inc. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to us, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of CPI and CRC, together, on the one hand, and Simon, on the other, to which such analyses or forecasts relate. We have also assumed that the Transaction will have the tax consequences described in discussions with, and materials furnished to us by, representatives of CPI and CRC, and that the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement will be consummated as described in the Agreement. We have relied as to all legal matters relevant to rendering our opinion upon the advice of counsel.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect this opinion and that we do not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm this opinion. We are expressing no opinion herein as to the price of which Simon's stock will trade at any future time. We have noted that the 6.50% Preference Shares of CPI are immediately convertible, and we have treated them, for the purpose of this opinion, as though they had been converted into the shares of common stock of CPI and a related beneficial interest in CRC. As you know, CPI received proposals from other parties with respect to possible merger transactions involving CPI and CRC. In this regard, we are expressing no opinion herein as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to CPI's shareholders of the consideration offered by any such parties, and no opinion is expressed as to the relative values of any such proposal as compared with the Transaction.

We have acted as financial advisor to CPI with respect to the proposed Transaction and will receive a fee from CPI for our services. We will also receive an additional fee if the proposed Transaction is consummated. We have in the past provided investment banking services to CPI and Simon for which we have received customary fees. Certain principals of CPI are and have been private banking clients of J.P. Morgan & Co. Incorporated and its affiliates. In addition, our affiliate, Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, is the co-lead agent on revolving credit facilities for both CPI and Simon. In the ordinary course of their businesses, our affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of CPI, CRC or Simon for their own account or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, they may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

On the basis of and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion as of the date hereof that the consideration to be received or retained by the shareholders of CPI, including beneficial interests in CRC, in the proposed Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders.

This letter is provided to the Board of Trustees of CPI in connection with and for the purposes of their evaluation of the Transaction. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of CPI or CRC as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Transaction. This opinion may be reproduced in full and described in any proxy or information statement mailed to shareholders of CPI and CRC.

Very truly yours,

ANNEX E

ANNOTATED CODE OF MARYLAND
CORPORATIONS AND ASSOCIATIONS

TITLE 3. CORPORATIONS IN GENERAL -- EXTRAORDINARY ACTIONS

SUBTITLE 2. RIGHTS OF OBJECTING STOCKHOLDERS

MD. CORPORATIONS AND ASSOCIATIONS CODE ANN. SEC. 3-201 (1997)

sec. 3-201. "Successor" defined

(a) Corporation amending charter. -- In this subtitle, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, "successor" includes a corporation which amends its charter in a way which alters the contract rights, as expressly set forth in the charter, of any outstanding stock, unless the right to do so is reserved by the charter of the corporation.

(b) Corporation whose stock is acquired. -- When used with reference to a share exchange, "successor" means the corporation the stock of which was acquired in the share exchange.

sec. 3-202. Right to fair value of stock

(a) General rule. -- Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, a stockholder of a Maryland corporation has the right to demand and receive payment of the fair value of the stockholder's stock from the successor if:

(1) The corporation consolidates or merges with another corporation;

(2) The stockholder's stock is to be acquired in a share exchange;

(3) The corporation transfers its assets in a manner requiring action under sec. 3-105 (d) of this title;

(4) The corporation amends its charter in a way which alters the contract rights, as expressly set forth in the charter, of any outstanding stock and substantially adversely affects the stockholder's rights, unless the right to do so is reserved by the charter of the corporation; or

(5) The transaction is governed by sec. 3-602 of this title or exempted by sec. 603 (b) of this title.

(b) Basis of fair value. --

(1) Fair value is determined as of the close of business:

(i) With respect to a merger under sec. 3-106 of this title of a 90 percent or more owned subsidiary into its parent, on the day notice is given or waived under sec. 3-106; or

(ii) With respect to any other transaction, on the day the stockholders voted on the transaction objected to.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of this subsection, fair value may not include any appreciation or depreciation which directly or indirectly results from the transaction objected to or from its proposal.

(3) In any transaction governed by sec. 3-602 of this title or exempted by sec. 3-603 (b) of this title, fair value shall be value determined in accordance with the requirements of sec. 3-603 (b) of this title.

(c) When right to fair value does not apply. -- Unless the transaction is governed by sec. 3-602 of this title or is exempted by sec. 3-603 (b) of this title, a stockholder may not demand the fair value of his stock and is bound by the terms of the transaction if:

(1) The stock is listed on a national securities exchange or is designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.:

(i) With respect to a merger under sec. 3-106 of this title of a 90 percent or more owned subsidiary into its parent, on the date notice is given or waived under sec. 3-106; or

(ii) With respect to any other transaction, on the record date for determining stockholders entitled to vote on the transaction objected to;

(2) The stock is that of the successor in a merger, unless:

(i) The merger alters the contract rights of the stock as expressly set forth in the charter, and the charter does not reserve the right to do so; or

(ii) The stock is to be changed or converted in whole or in part in the merger into something other than either stock in the successor or cash, scrip, or other rights or interests arising out of provisions for the treatment of fractional shares of stock in the successor; or

(3) The stock is that of an open-end investment company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Company Act of 1940 and the value placed on the stock in the transaction is its net asset value.

sec. 3-203. Procedure by stockholder

(a) Specific duties. -- A stockholder of a corporation who desires to receive payment of the fair value of his stock under this subtitle:

(1) Shall file with the corporation a written objection to the proposed transaction:

(i) With respect to a merger under sec. 3-106 of this title of a 90 percent or more owned subsidiary into its parent, within 30 days after notice is given or waived under sec. 3-106; or

(ii) With respect to any other transaction, at or before the stockholders' meeting at which the transaction will be considered;

(2) May not vote in favor of the transaction; and

(3) Within 20 days after the Department accepts the articles for record, shall make a written demand on the successor for payment for his stock, stating he number and class of shares for which he demands payment.

(b) Failure to comply with section. -- A stockholder who fails to comply with this section is bound by the terms of the consolidation, merger, share exchange, transfer of assets, or charter amendment.

sec. 3-204. Effect of demand on dividend and other rights

A stockholder who demands payment for his stock under this subtitle:

(1) Has no right to receive any dividends or distributions payable to holders of record of that stock on a record date after the close of business on the day as at which fair value is to be determined under sec. 3-202 of this subtitle; and

(2) Ceases to have any rights of a stockholder with respect to that stock, except the right to receive payment of its fair value.

sec. 3-205. Withdrawal of demand

A demand for payment may be withdrawn only with the consent of the successor.

sec. 3-206. Restoration of dividend and other rights

(a) When rights restored. -- The rights of a stockholder who demands payment are restored in full, if:

(1) The demand for payment is withdrawn;

(2) A petition for an appraisal is not filed within the time required by his subtitle;

(3) A court determines that the stockholder is not entitled to relief; or

(4) The transaction objected to is abandoned or rescinded.

(b) Effect of restoration. -- The restoration of a stockholder's rights entitles him to receive the dividends, distributions, and other rights he would have received if he had not demanded payment for his stock. However, the restoration does not prejudice any corporate proceedings taken before the restoration.

sec. 3-207. Notice and offer to stockholders

(a) Duty of successor. --

(1) The successor promptly shall notify each objecting stockholder in writing of the date the articles are accepted for record by the Department.

(2) The successor also may send a written offer to pay the objecting stockholder what it considers to be the fair value of his stock. Each offer shall be accompanied by the following information relating to the corporation which issued the stock:

(i) A balance sheet as of a date not more than six months before the date of the offer;

(ii) A profit and loss statement for the 12 months ending on the date of the balance sheet; and

(iii) Any other information the successor considers pertinent.

(b) Manner of sending notice. -- The successor shall deliver the notice and offer to each objecting stockholder personally or mail them to him by certified mail, return receipt requested, bearing a postmark from the United States Postal Service, at the address he gives the successor in writing, or, if none, at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation which issued the stock.

sec. 3-208. Petition for appraisal; consolidation of proceedings; joinder of objectors

(a) Petition for appraisal. -- Within 50 days after the Department accepts the articles for record, the successor or an objecting stockholder who has not received payment for his stock may petition a court of equity in the county where the principal office of the successor is located or, if it does not have a principal office in this State, where the resident agent of the successor is located, for an appraisal to determine the fair value of the stock.

(b) Consolidation of suits; joinder of objectors. --

(1) If more than one appraisal proceeding is instituted, the court shall direct the consolidation of all the proceedings on terms and conditions it considers proper.

(2) Two or more objecting stockholders may join or be joined in an appraisal proceeding.

sec. 3-209. Notation on stock certificate

(a) Submission of certificate. -- At any time after a petition for appraisal is filed, the court may require the objecting stockholders parties to the proceeding to submit their stock certificates to the clerk of the court for notation on them that the appraisal proceeding is pending. If a stockholder fails to comply with the order, the court may dismiss the proceeding as to him or grant other appropriate relief.

(b) Transfer of stock bearing notation. -- If any stock represented by a certificate which bears a notation is subsequently transferred, the new certificate issued for the stock shall bear a similar notation and the name of the original objecting stockholder. The transferee of this stock does not acquire rights of any character with respect to the stock other than the rights of the original objecting stockholder.

sec. 3-210. Appraisal of fair value

(a) Court to appoint appraisers. -- If the court finds that the objecting stockholder is entitled to an appraisal of his stock, it shall appoint three disinterested appraisers to determine the fair value of the stock on terms and conditions the court considers proper. Each appraiser shall take an oath to discharge his duties honestly and faithfully.

(b) Report of appraisers -- Filing. -- Within 60 days after their appointment, unless the court sets a longer time, the appraisers shall determine the fair value of the stock as of the appropriate date and file a report stating the conclusion of the majority as to the fair value of the stock.

(c) Same -- Contents. -- The report shall state the reasons for the conclusion and shall include a transcript of all testimony and exhibits offered.

(d) Same -- Service; objection. --

(1) On the same day that the report is filed, the appraisers shall mail a copy of it to each party to the proceedings.

(2) Within 15 days after the report is filed, any party may object to it and request a hearing.

sec. 3-211. Action by court on appraisers' report

(a) Order of court. -- The court shall consider the report and, on motion of any party to the proceeding, enter an order which:

(1) Confirms, modifies, or rejects it; and

(2) If appropriate, sets the time for payment to the stockholder.

(b) Procedure after order. --

(1) If the appraisers' report is confirmed or modified by the order, judgment shall be entered against the successor and in favor of each objecting stockholder party to the proceeding for the appraised fair value of his stock.

(2) If the appraisers' report is rejected, the court may:

(i) Determine the fair value of the stock and enter judgment for the stockholder; or

(ii) Remit the proceedings to the same or other appraisers on terms and conditions it considers proper.

(c) Judgment includes interest. --

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, a judgment for the stockholder shall award the value of the stock and interest from the date as at which fair value is to be determined under sec. 3-202 of this subtitle.

(2) The court may not allow interest if it finds that the failure of the stockholder to accept an offer for the stock made under sec. 3-207 of this subtitle was arbitrary and vexatious or not in good faith. In making this finding, the court shall consider:

(i) The price which the successor offered for the stock;

(ii) The financial statements and other information furnished to the stockholder; and

(iii) Any other circumstances it considers relevant.

(d) Costs of proceedings. --

(1) The costs of the proceedings, including reasonable compensation and expenses of the appraisers, shall be set by the court and assessed against the successor. However, the court may direct the costs to be apportioned and assessed against any objecting stockholder if the court finds that the failure of the stockholder to accept an offer for the stock made under sec. 3-207 of this subtitle was arbitrary and vexatious or not in good faith. In making this finding, the court shall consider:

(i) The price which the successor offered for the stock;

(ii) The financial statements and other information furnished to the stockholder; and

(iii) Any other circumstances it considers relevant.

(2) Costs may not include attorney's fees or expenses. The reasonable fees and expenses of experts may be included only if:

(i) The successor did not make an offer for the stock under sec. 3-207 of this subtitle; or

(ii) The value of the stock determined in the proceeding materially exceeds the amount offered by the successor.

(e) Effect of judgment. -- The judgment is final and conclusive on all parties and has the same force and effect as other decrees in equity. The judgment constitutes a lien on the assets of the successor with priority over any mortgage or other lien attaching on or after the effective date of the consolidation, merger, transfer, or charter amendment.

sec. 3-212. Surrender of stock

The successor is not required to pay for the stock of an objecting stockholder or to pay a judgment rendered against it in a proceeding for an appraisal unless, simultaneously with payment:

(1) The certificates representing the stock are surrendered to it, endorsed in blank, and in proper form for transfer; or

(2) Satisfactory evidence of the loss or destruction of the certificates and sufficient indemnity bond are furnished.

sec. 3-213. Rights of successor with respect to stock

(a) General rule. -- A successor which acquires the stock of an objecting stockholder is entitled to any dividends or distributions payable to holders of record of that stock on a record date after the close of business on the day as at which fair value is to be determined under sec. 3-202 of this subtitle.

(b) Successor in transfer of assets. -- After acquiring the stock of an objecting stockholder, a successor in a transfer of assets may exercise all the rights of an owner of the stock.

(c) Successor in consolidation, merger, or share exchange. -- Unless the articles provide otherwise, stock in the successor of a consolidation, merger, or share exchange otherwise deliverable in exchange for the stock of an objecting stockholder has the status of authorized but unissued stock of the successor. However, a proceeding for reduction of the capital of the successor is not necessary to retire the stock or to reduce the capital of the successor represented by the stock.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. A corporation may, in advance of the final action of any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding, pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by any officer, director, employee or agent in defending such action, provided that the director or officer undertakes to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. A corporation may indemnify such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

A Delaware corporation may indemnify officers and directors in an action by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him or her against the expenses (including attorneys' fees) which he or she actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith. The indemnification provided is not deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which an officer or director may be entitled under any corporation's by-law, agreement, vote or otherwise.

In accordance with Section 145 of the DGCL, Article VII of the Certificate of Incorporation of Corporate Property Investors, Inc. ("CPI", to be renamed Simon Property Group, Inc. ("Simon Group")) ("CPI's Charter"), Section 6.07(a) of the By-laws of CPI ("CPI's By-laws") and Article VII of the By-laws of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC") ("CRC's By-laws") provide, and Article Sixth, Paragraph 4(a) of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of CPI ("Simon Group's Charter"), the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of SPG Realty Consultants, Inc. ("SRC") ("SRC's Charter") and Article VIII of the By-laws of SRC ("SRC's By-laws") will provide, that CPI, CRC, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable, shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of CPI, CRC, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable, or is or was serving at the request of CPI, CRC, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable, as a director, officer, trustee or in any other capacity with another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of CPI, CRC, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The indemnification provided by CPI's Charter and CPI's By-laws, and to be provided by Simon Group's Charter, the By-laws of Simon Group ("Simon Group's By-laws"), SRC's Charter and SRC's By-laws, shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any of those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any other contract or agreement between CPI, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable, and any officer, director, employee or agent of CPI, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall (in the case of any action, suit or proceeding against a director or officer of CPI, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable) or may

(in the case of any action, suit or proceeding against an employee or agent) be paid by CPI, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable, in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors of CPI, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnified person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by CPI or Simon Group, as applicable. Article VII of CPI's Charter and Section 6.07(b) of CPI's By-laws provide, Article Sixth, Paragraph 4(d) of Simon Group's Charter, Section 8.02 of Simon Group's By-laws, Article Sixth, Paragraph 4(d) of SRC's Charter and Section 8.02 of SRC's By-laws will provide, that neither the amendment or repeal of, nor the adoption of any provision inconsistent with, the above-referenced provisions of CPI's Charter or CPI's By-laws, Simon Group's Charter or Simon Group's By-laws, and SRC's Charter or SRC's By-laws, respectively, and shall eliminate or reduce the effect of such provisions in respect of any matter occurring before such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision or in respect of any cause of action, suit or claim relating to any such matter which would have given rise to a right of indemnification or right to receive expenses pursuant to such provisions if any such provision had not been so amended or repealed or if a provision inconsistent therewith had not been so adopted. Article Sixth, Paragraph (4)(e) of Simon Group's Charter and Article Sixth, Paragraph (4)(e) of SRC's Charter will provide that a director of Simon Group or SRC shall not be personally liable to Simon Group, SRC or their stockholders, as applicable, for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Simon Group, SRC or their stockholders, as applicable, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL or any amendment thereto or successor provision thereto, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. If the DGCL is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of CPI, Simon Group or SRC, as applicable, shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL as so amended.

(a) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrants' annual reports pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X are not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

(d) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake as follows:

(1) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this Registration Statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuers undertake that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form; and

(2) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph (e)(1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(e) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake that insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than payment by the Registrants of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrants in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrants will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(f) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake that:

(1) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this Registration Statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the Registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this Registration Statement as of the time it was declared effective; and

(2) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(g) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.

(h) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in this Registration Statement when it became effective.

The total number of shares of stock which the Corporation shall have authority to issue is 36,209,249, consisting of 209,249 shares of 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock, par value $1,000 per share (hereinafter referred to as the "6.50% First Series Preferred Stock") and 36,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share (hereinafter referred to as the "Common Stock"). The number of authorized shares of the Common Stock may be increased or decreased (but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding) by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon irrespective of the provisions of Section 242(b)(2) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (or any successor provision thereto), and no vote of the holders of the Common Stock voting separately as a class shall be required therefor.

The 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock shall have the designation, powers, preferences and rights and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions as set forth in Exhibit A hereto.

The Common Stock shall be subject to the express terms of the 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock. Except as may be provided in this Certificate of Incorporation or by applicable law, the holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each such share upon all questions presented to the stockholders, the holders of shares of Common Stock shall have the exclusive right to vote for the election of directors and for all other purposes subject to the rights of the holders of shares of 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock or any other series or class of stock as set forth in this Certificate of Incorporation, and the holders of shares of 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to receive notice of any meeting of stockholders at which they are not entitled to vote; provided, however, that, except as otherwise required by law, the holders of shares of Common Stock, as such, shall not be entitled to vote on any amendment to this Certificate of Incorporation that relates solely to the terms of the 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock if the holders thereof are entitled, either separately or together with the holders of one or more other such series or class, to vote thereon pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation or pursuant to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. The holders of shares of Common Stock shall at all times, except as otherwise provided in this Certificate of Incorporation or as required by law, vote as one class, together with the holders of any other class or series of stock of the Corporation accorded such general voting rights.

Subject to applicable law and the rights, if any, of the holders of shares of 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock or any class or series of stock having a preference over or the right to participate with the shares of Common Stock with respect to the payment of dividends, dividends may be declared and paid on the Common Stock at such times and in such amounts as the Board of Directors in its discretion shall determine.

Upon the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, subject to the rights, if any, of the holders of shares of 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock or any class or series of stock having a preference over or the right to participate with the Common Stock with respect to the distribution of assets of the Corporation upon such dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Corporation, the holders of shares of Common Stock, as such, shall be entitled to receive the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares held by them.

The Corporation shall be entitled to treat the person in whose name any share of its stock is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such share on the part of any other person, whether or not the Corporation shall have notice thereof, except as expressly provided by applicable law.

BY-LAWS

In furtherance of, and not in limitation of, the powers conferred by law, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized and empowered:

(1) to adopt, amend or repeal the By-laws of the Corporation; provided, however, that the By-laws adopted by the Board of Directors under the powers hereby conferred may be amended or repealed by the Board of Directors or by the stockholders having voting power with respect thereto, provided further that, in the case of amendments by stockholders, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80 percent of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors ("Voting Stock"), voting together as a single class, shall be required in order for the stockholders to alter, amend or repeal any provision of the By-laws or to adopt any additional By-law; and

(2) from time to time to determine whether and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the Corporation, or any of them, shall be open to inspection of stockholders; and, except as so determined or as expressly provided in this Certificate of Incorporation, no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any account, book or document of the Corporation other than such rights as may be conferred by applicable law.

The Corporation may in its By-laws confer powers upon the Board of Directors in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon the Board of Directors by applicable law.

ARTICLE VI

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors of the Corporation shall be fixed in such manner as prescribed by the By-laws of the Corporation and may be increased or decreased from time to time in such manner as prescribed by the By-laws but, in any event, shall not exceed 24.

Unless and except to the extent that the By-laws of the Corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the Corporation need not be by written ballot.

The directors, other than those who may be elected by the holders of any series or class of stock as set forth in this Certificate of Incorporation, shall be divided into three classes, designated Class I, Class II and Class III. Each class shall consist, as nearly as possible, of one-third of the total number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors. Class I directors shall be initially elected for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 1999, Class II directors shall be initially elected for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2000, and Class III directors shall be initially elected for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2001. Members of each class shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. At each annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation commencing with the 1999 annual meeting, directors elected to succeed those directors whose terms then expire shall be elected by a plurality vote of all votes cast at such meeting to hold office for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting of stockholders after their election, with each director to hold office until his or her successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. No stockholder shall be permitted to cumulate votes at any election of directors.

Subject to the rights of the holders of shares 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock or any other series or class of stock as set forth in this Certificate of Incorporation, to elect additional directors under specified circumstances, vacancies resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or other cause, and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors, may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors, and directors so chosen shall hold office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders at which the term of office of the class to which they have been elected expires and until such director's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of authorized directors constituting the Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

Subject to the rights of the holders of shares 6.50% First Series Preferred Stock or any other series or class of stock as set forth in this Certificate of Incorporation, to elect additional directors under specified circumstances, any director may be removed from office at any time, but only for cause and by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80 percent of the voting power of the then outstanding Voting Stock, voting together as a single class. For purposes of this Article VI, "cause" shall mean the wilful and continuous failure of a director to substantially perform such director's duties to the Corporation (other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to physical or mental illness) or the wilful engaging by a director in gross misconduct materially and demonstrably injurious to the Corporation. All directors shall retire upon reaching the age of 70 years.

INDEMNIFICATION

Each person who is or was a director or officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted from time to time by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, if permitted by applicable law, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment) or any other applicable laws as presently or hereafter in effect. The Corporation may, by action of the Board of Directors, provide indemnification to employees and agents (other than a director or officer) of the Corporation, to directors, officers, employees or agents of a subsidiary, and to each person serving as a director, officer, partner, trustee, member, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, at the request of the Corporation, with the same scope and effect as the foregoing indemnification of directors and officers of the Corporation. The Corporation shall be required to indemnify any person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors or is a proceeding to enforce such person's claim to indemnification pursuant to the rights granted by this Certificate of Incorporation or otherwise by the Corporation. Without limiting the generality or the effect of the foregoing, the Corporation may enter into one or more agreements with any person which provide for indemnification greater or different than that provided in this Article VII. Any amendment or repeal of this Article VII shall not adversely affect any right or protection existing hereunder in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

DIRECTORS' LIABILITY

A director of the Corporation shall not be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the fullest extent permitted the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or by any other applicable law. Any amendment or repeal of this Article VIII shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing hereunder in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. If the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware shall be amended, to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the liability of directors, then a director of the Corporation, in addition to the circumstances in which he is not liable immediately prior to such amendment, shall be free of liability to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as so amended.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENTS

Except as may be expressly provided in this Certificate of Incorporation, the Corporation reserves the right at any time and from time to time to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, and any other provisions authorized by the laws of the State of Delaware at the time in force may be added or inserted, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed herein or by applicable law, and all rights, preferences and privileges of whatsoever nature conferred upon stockholders, directors or any other persons whosoever by and pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation in its present form or as hereafter amended are granted subject to the right reserved in this Article IX; provided, however, that any amendment or repeal of Article VII or Article VIII of this Certificate of Incorporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection existing thereunder in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Certificate of Incorporation to the contrary, and in addition to approval by the Board of Directors, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80 percent of the voting power of the then outstanding Voting Stock, voting together as a single class, shall be required to amend, repeal or adopt any provision inconsistent with paragraph (1) of Article V, Article VI or this second paragraph of this Article IX.

FORM OF

RESTATED

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC.

Simon Property Group, Inc. (the "Corporation"), a corporation organized under and by virtue of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, DOES HEREBY CERTIFY:

1. That the name of the Corporation is Simon Property Group, Inc.

2. The original Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation was filed under the name Corporate Property Investors, Inc. with the Secretary of State of Delaware on March 13, 1998.

3. This Restated Certificate of Incorporation was duly authorized by the Corporation's Board of Directors and stockholders, and all specifically affected classes or series of classes of stockholders, in accordance with the provisions of Section 242 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

4. This Restated Certificate of Incorporation has been duly adopted in accordance with Sections 242 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

5. The text of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation reads as follows:

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC.

FIRST: The name of the corporation (which is hereinafter called the "Corporation") is:

Simon Property Group, Inc.

SECOND: The purposes for which and any of which the Corporation is formed and the business and objects to be carried on and promoted by it are:

(a) To engage in the business of a real estate investment trust ("REIT") as that phrase is defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

(b) To engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

THIRD: The address of its registered office in the State of Delaware is c/o The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, County of New Castle, Delaware. The name of its registered agent at such address is The Corporation Trust Company.

FOURTH: (a) The total number of shares of stock of all classes which the Corporation has authority to issue is 750,000,000 shares of capital stock, of which 400,000 shares are classified as Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share ("Common Stock") 12,000,000 shares are classified as Class B Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share ("Class B Common Stock"), 4,000 shares are classified as Class C Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share ("Class C Common Stock"), 100,000,000 shares are classified as Preferred Stock, par value $.0001 per share, ("Preferred Stock"), and 237,996,000 shares are classified as Excess Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share ("Excess Common Stock").

(b) The following is a description of the preferences, conversion and other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption of the Common Stock of the Corporation:

(1) Each share of Common Stock shall have one vote, and, except as otherwise provided in respect of any series of Preferred Stock and any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created, and except as otherwise provided with respect to directors elected by the holders of the Class B Common Stock or of the Class C Common Stock, each voting as a separate class, the exclusive voting power for all purposes shall be vested in the holders of the Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock, the Class C Common Stock and the Excess Common Stock, voting together as a single class. Shares of Common Stock shall not have cumulative voting rights.

(2) Subject to the provisions of law and any preferences of any series of Preferred Stock and any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created, dividends or other distributions, including dividends or other distributions payable in shares of another class of the Corporation's stock, may be paid ratably on the Common Stock at such time and in such amounts as the Board of Directors may deem advisable, but only if at the same time, dividends are paid on outstanding shares of Class B Common Stock and Class C Common Stock in accordance with subparagraphs (c)(2) and (c-1)(2), respectively, of this Article FOURTH.

(3) Subject to the provisions of law and the preferences of any series of Preferred Stock and any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the Common Stock shall be entitled, together with the holders of Class B Common Stock, Class C Common Stock, Excess Common Stock and any other series of Preferred Stock hereafter created not having a preference on distributions in the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, to share ratably in the net assets of the Corporation remaining, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation and the amount to which the holders of any series of Preferred Stock and any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created having a preference on distributions in the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation shall be entitled.

(4) Each share of Common Stock is convertible into Excess Common Stock, as provided in Article NINTH hereof.

(c) The following is a description (which should be read in conjunction with paragraph (c-1) of this Article FOURTH) of the preferences, conversion and other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption of the Class B Common Stock of the Corporation:

(1) Each share of Class B Common Stock shall have one vote, and, except as otherwise provided in respect of any series of Preferred Stock and any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created and except as otherwise provided in this paragraph (c) and in paragraph (c-1), the exclusive voting power for all purposes shall be vested in the holders of the Class B Common Stock, the Class C Common Stock and the Common Stock, voting together as a single class. Shares of Class B Common Stock shall not have cumulative voting rights. The holders of the shares of Class B Common Stock shall have the right, voting as a separate class, to elect four directors of the Corporation and shall vote with the holders of the Class C Common Stock, and the Common Stock (voting together as a single class) to elect the remaining directors (other than the director or directors to be elected by the holders of the Class C Common Stock voting as a separate class); provided that if the Simon Family Group (as defined in Article NINTH) shall sell or transfer a portion of their Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Units (as defined in Article NINTH) so as to reduce their Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation (as defined in Article NINTH) to less than 50% of the Simon Family Group Initial Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest (as defined in Article NINTH) in the Corporation, from and after the date of such reduction the holders of the shares of Class B Common Stock shall have the right, voting as a separate class, to elect two directors of the Corporation. The right of the holders of Class B Common Stock to elect directors may be exercised by written consent of such holders. For purposes of this subparagraph, shares held in a voting trust shall be deemed owned by the beneficiaries of the voting trust.

(2) Subject to the provisions of law and the preferences of the Preferred Stock and of any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created, dividends or other distributions, including dividends or other distributions payable in shares of another class of the Corporation's stock, may be paid ratably on the Class B Common Stock at such time and in such amounts as the Board of Directors may deem advisable; provided that cash dividends or other distributions shall be paid on each share of Class B Common Stock at the same time as cash dividends or other distributions are paid on Common Stock or Class C Common Stock and in an amount equal to the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock into which each share of Class B Common Stock is then convertible; provided further that non-cash dividends or other non-cash distributions (including the issuance of warrants or rights to acquire securities of the Corporation) shall be distributed on each share of Class B Common Stock at the same time as such non-cash dividends or other non-cash distributions are distributed on Common Stock or Class C Common Stock and in an amount equal to the amount distributable on the number of shares of Common Stock into which each share of Class B

Common Stock is then convertible; provided further that any dividends or other distributions payable otherwise on the Class B Common Stock shall be paid in shares of Common Stock or securities convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock (or warrants or rights issued to acquire Common Stock or securities convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock).

(3) (A) Each share of Class B Common Stock is convertible into Excess Common Stock, as provided in Article NINTH hereof. Each share of Class B Common Stock may be converted at the option of the holder thereof into one share of Common Stock. Immediately and automatically each share of Class B Common Stock shall be converted into one share of Common Stock (i) if the Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation of the Simon Family Group is for any reason reduced to less than 5% of the Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation or (ii) if such share of Class B Common Stock is otherwise sold or otherwise transferred to or is otherwise held by anyone other than a member of the Simon Family Group. For purposes of this subparagraph, shares held in a voting trust shall be deemed owned by the beneficiaries of the voting trust.

(B) The Corporation may not subdivide its outstanding shares of Common Stock, combine its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, or issue by reclassification of its shares of Common Stock any shares of capital stock of the Corporation without making the same adjustment to the Class B Common Stock. The Corporation shall not distribute to all holders of its Common Stock evidences of its indebtedness or assets (excluding cash dividends or other distributions to the extent permitted by subparagraph (c)(2) of this Article FOURTH) or rights or warrants to subscribe for or purchase securities issued by the Corporation or property of the Corporation (excluding those referred to in subparagraph (c)(2) of this Article FOURTH), without making the same distribution to all holders of its Class B Common Stock. No adjustment of the conversion rate shall be made as a result of or in connection with the issuance of Common Stock of the Corporation pursuant to options or stock purchase agreements now or hereafter granted or entered into with officers or employees of the Corporation or its subsidiaries in connection with their employment, whether entered into at the beginning of the employment or at any time thereafter. In case of any capital reorganization of the Corporation, or the consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into another corporation, or a statutory share exchange, or the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property, assets or business of the Corporation then, in each such case, each share of Common Stock and each share of Class B Common Stock shall be treated the same unless the transaction is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the holders of Class B Common stock shall be required to approve such a transaction.

(C) Upon conversion of any shares of Class B Common Stock, no payment or adjustment shall be made on account of dividends accrued, whether or not in arrears, on such shares or on account of dividends declared and payable to holders of Common Stock of record on a date prior to the date of conversion.

(D) Except with respect to shares of Class B Common Stock which have been deemed to have been automatically converted into Common Stock pursuant to subparagraph (c)(3)(A) of this Article FOURTH, in order to convert shares of Class B Common Stock into Common Stock the holder thereof shall surrender at the office of the Transfer Agent the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed to the Corporation or in blank, and give written notice to the Corporation at said office that he elects to convert such shares and shall state in writing therein the name or names (with addresses) in which he wishes the certificate or certificates for Common Stock to be issued. Shares of Class B Common Stock shall be deemed to have been converted on the date of the surrender of such certificate or certificates for shares for conversion as provided above, and the person or persons entitled to receive the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such Common Stock on such date. As soon as practicable on or after the date of conversion as aforesaid, the Corporation will issue and deliver at said office a certificate or certificates for the number of full shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion, together with cash for any fraction of a share, as provided in subparagraph (c)(3)(F) of this Article FOURTH, to the person or persons entitled to receive the same. The Corporation will pay any and all federal original issue taxes that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on conversion of shares of Class B Common Stock pursuant hereto. The Corporation shall not, however, be required to pay any tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue and delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that in which the shares of Class B Common Stock so converted were registered, and no issue or delivery shall be made unless and until the person requesting such issue has paid to the Corporation the amount of any such tax, or has established to the satisfaction of the Corporation either that such tax has been paid or that no such tax is payable.

(E) All shares of Class B Common Stock converted into Common Stock shall be retired and cancelled and shall not be reissued.

(F) The Corporation shall not issue fractional shares of Common Stock upon any conversion of shares of Class B Common Stock. As to any final fraction of a share which the holder of one or more shares of Class B Common Stock would be entitled to receive upon exercise of such holder's conversion right the Corporation shall pay a cash adjustment in an amount equal to the same fraction of the Market Price (as defined in Article NINTH) for the date of exercise.

(G) The Corporation shall at all times have authorized and unissued a number of shares of Common Stock sufficient for the conversion of all shares of Class B Common Stock at the time outstanding. If any shares of Common Stock require registration with or approval of any governmental authority under any Federal or State law, before such shares may be validly issued upon conversion, then the Corporation will in good faith and as expeditiously as possible endeavor to secure such registration or approval as the case may be. The Corporation warrants that all Common Stock issued upon conversion of shares of Class B Common Stock will upon issue be fully paid and nonassessable by the Corporation and free from original issue taxes.

(4) Subject to the provisions of law and the preferences of the Preferred Stock and of any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of Class B Common Stock shall be entitled, together with the holders of Class C Common Stock, Common Stock, Excess Common Stock and any other series of Preferred Stock hereafter created not having a preference on distributions in the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, to share ratably in the net assets of the Corporation remaining, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation and the amount to which the holders of the Preferred Stock and of any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created having a preference on distributions in the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation shall be entitled.

(c-1) The following is a description (which should be read in conjunction with paragraph (c) of this Article FOURTH) of the preferences, conversion and other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption of the Class C Common Stock of the Corporation:

(1) Each share of Class C Common Stock shall have one vote, and, except as otherwise provided in respect of any series of Preferred Stock and any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created and except as otherwise provided in this paragraph (c-1) and in paragraph (c), the exclusive voting power for all purposes shall be vested in the holders of the Class C Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock and the Common Stock, voting together as a single class. Shares of Class C Common Stock shall not have cumulative voting rights. Subject to paragraph (b) of Article FIFTH, the holders of the shares of Class C Common Stock shall have the right, voting as a separate class, to elect two directors of the Corporation and shall vote with the holders of the Class B Common Stock, and the Common Stock (voting together as a single class) to elect the remaining directors (other than the directors to be elected by the holders of the Class B Common Stock voting as a separate class); provided that if the DeBartolo Family Group (as defined in Article NINTH) shall sell or transfer a portion of their Common Stock, Class C Common Stock and Units (as defined in Article NINTH) so as to reduce their Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation (as defined in Article NINTH) to less than 50% of the DeBartolo Family Group Initial Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest (as defined in Article NINTH) in the Corporation, from and after the date of such reduction the holders of the shares of Class C Common Stock shall have the right, voting as a separate class, to elect one director of the Corporation. The right of holders of Class C Common Stock to elect directors may be exercised by written consent of such holders. For purposes of this subparagraph, shares held in a voting trust shall be deemed owned by the beneficiaries of the voting trust.

(2) Subject to the provisions of law and the preferences of the Preferred Stock and of any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created, dividends or other distributions, including dividends or other distributions payable in shares of another class of the Corporation's stock, may be paid ratably on the Class C Common Stock at such time and in such amounts as the Board of Directors may deem advisable; provided that cash dividends or other distributions shall be paid on each share of Class C Common Stock at the same time as cash dividends or other distributions are paid on Common Stock or Class B Common Stock and in an amount equal to the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock into which each share of Class C Common Stock is then convertible; provided further that non-cash dividends or other non-cash distributions (including the issuance of warrants or rights to acquire securities of the Corporation) shall be distributed on each share of Class C Common Stock at the same time as such non-cash dividends or other non-cash distributions are distributed on Common Stock or Class B Common Stock and in an amount equal to the amount distributable on the number of shares of Common Stock into which each share of Class C Common Stock is then convertible; provided further that any dividends or other distributions payable otherwise on the Class C Common Stock shall be paid in shares of Common Stock or securities convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock (or warrants or rights issued to acquire Common Stock or securities convertible or exchangeable into Common Stock).

(3) (A) Each share of Class C Common Stock is convertible into Excess Common Stock, as provided in Article NINTH hereof. Each share of Class C Common Stock may be converted at the option of the holder thereof into one share of Common Stock. Immediately and automatically each share of Class C Common Stock shall be converted into one share of Common Stock (i) if the Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation of the DeBartolo Family Group is for any reason reduced to less than 5% of the Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation or (ii) if such share of Class C Common Stock is otherwise sold or otherwise transferred to or is otherwise held by anyone other than a member of the DeBartolo Family Group. For purposes of this subparagraph, shares held in a voting trust shall be deemed owned by the beneficiaries of the voting trust.

(B) The Corporation may not subdivide its outstanding shares of Common Stock, combine its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, or issue by reclassification of its shares of Common Stock any shares of the Corporation without making the same adjustment to the Class C Common Stock. The Corporation shall not distribute to all holders of its Common Stock evidences of its indebtedness or assets (excluding cash dividends or other distributions to the extent permitted by subparagraph (c-1)(2) of this Article FOURTH) or rights or warrants to subscribe for or purchase securities issued by the Corporation or property of the Corporation (excluding those referred to subparagraph (c-1)(2) of this Article FOURTH), without making the same distribution to all holders of its Class C Common Stock. No adjustment of the conversion rate shall be made as a result of or in connection with the issuance of Common Stock of the Corporation pursuant to options or stock purchase agreements now or hereafter granted or entered into with officers or employees of the Corporation or its subsidiaries in connection with their employment, whether entered into at the beginning of the employment or at any time thereafter. In case of any capital reorganization of the Corporation, or the consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into another corporation, or a statutory share exchange, or the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property, assets or business of the Corporation then, in each such case, each share of Common Stock and each share of Class C Common Stock shall be treated the same unless the transaction is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of Class C Common Stock shall be required to approve such a transaction.

(C) Upon conversion of any shares of Class C Common Stock, no payment or adjustment shall be made on account of dividends accrued, whether or not in arrears, on such shares or on account of dividends declared and payable to holders of Common Stock of record on a date prior to the date of conversion.

(D) Except with respect to shares of Class C Common Stock which have been deemed to have been automatically converted into Common Stock pursuant to subparagraph (c-1)(3)(A) of this Article FOURTH, in order to convert shares of Class C Common Stock into Common Stock the holder thereof shall surrender at the office of the Transfer Agent the certificate or certificates therefor, duly endorsed to the Corporation or in blank, and give written notice to the Corporation at said office that he elects to convert such shares and shall state in writing therein the name or names (with addresses) in which he wishes the certificate or certificates for Common Stock to be issued. Shares of Class C Common Stock shall be deemed to have been converted on the date of the surrender of such certificate or certificates for shares for conversion as provided above, and the person or persons entitled to receive the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such Common Stock on such date. As soon as practicable on or after the date of conversion as aforesaid, the Corporation will issue and deliver at said office a certificate or certificates for the number of full shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion, together with cash for any fraction of a share, as provided in subparagraph (c-l)(3)(F) of this Article FOURTH, to the person or persons entitled to receive the same. The Corporation will pay any and all federal original issue taxes that may be payable in respect of the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on conversion of shares of Class C Common Stock pursuant hereto. The Corporation shall not, however, be required to pay any tax which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue and delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that in which the shares of Class C Common Stock so converted were registered, and no issue or delivery shall be made unless and until the person requesting such issue has paid to the Corporation the amount of any such tax, or has established to the satisfaction of the Corporation either that such tax has been paid or that no such tax is payable.

(E) All shares of Class C Common Stock converted into Common Stock shall be retired and cancelled and shall not be reissued.

(F) The Corporation shall not issue fractional shares of Common Stock upon any conversion of shares of Class C Common Stock. As to any final fraction of a share which the holder of one or more shares of Class C Common Stock would be entitled to receive upon exercise of such holder's conversion right the Corporation shall pay a cash adjustment in an amount equal to the same fraction of the Market Price (as defined in Article NINTH) for the date of exercise.

(G) The Corporation shall at all times have authorized and unissued a number of shares of Common Stock sufficient for the conversion of all shares of Class C Common Stock at the time outstanding. If any shares of Common Stock require registration with or approval of any governmental authority under any Federal or State law, before such shares may be validly issued upon conversion, then the Corporation will in good faith and as expeditiously as possible endeavor to secure such registration or approval as the case may be. The Corporation warrants that all Common Stock issued upon conversion of shares of Class C Common Stock will upon issue be fully paid and nonassessable by the Corporation and free from original issue taxes.

(4) Subject to the provisions of law and the preferences of the Preferred Stock and of any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of Class C Common Stock shall be entitled, together with the holders of Class B Common Stock, Common Stock, Excess Common Stock and any other series of Preferred Stock hereafter created not having a preference on distributions in the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, to share ratably in the net assets of the Corporation remaining, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation and the amount to which the holders of the Preferred Stock and any series of Preferred Stock hereafter created having a preference on distributions in the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation shall be entitled.

(c-2) Subject in all cases to the provisions of Article NINTH with respect to Excess Stock (as defined in this paragraph), the Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time in one or more series, each of which series shall have such distinctive designation or title as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors prior to the issuance of any shares thereof. Each such series of Preferred Stock shall have such voting powers, full or limited, or no voting powers, and such preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights and such qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, as shall be stated in such resolution providing for the issue of such series of Preferred Stock as may be adopted from time to time by the Board of Directors prior to the issuance of any shares thereof pursuant to the authority hereby expressly vested in it, all in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware; provided, however, no shares of any series of Preferred Stock may be authorized or issued unless (i) the certificates of designations relating to such series contains restrictions on ownership and transfer and conversion provisions applicable to such series comparable to those set forth in this Article NINTH, and (ii) a corresponding series of Preferred Stock ("Excess Preferred Stock" and together with Excess Common Stock, unless the context otherwise requires, "Excess Stock"), to be issued in accordance with any such conversion provisions upon a violation of such restrictions on ownership and transfer, is simultaneously authorized by filing of a certificate of designations. The Board of Directors is further authorized to increase or decrease (but not below the number of such shares of series then outstanding) the shares of any series subsequent to the issuance of shares of that series.

FIFTH: (a) The powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the board of directors by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware shall be exercised and performed, in accordance with Section 141 thereof governing the action of directors, by a board (the "Board of Directors"); provided, however that pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware: (i) certain of such powers and duties of the Board of Directors set forth herein shall be exercised and performed only by the Independent Directors (as defined in Article NINTH hereof), (ii) certain of the directors shall serve until the annual meeting of the stockholders next to his or her name in Article FIFTH(e) and (iii) certain of such powers and duties of the Board of Directors as described herein may be exercised and performed by one or more committees consisting of one or more members of the Board of Directors and one or more other persons to the extent such powers and duties are delegated thereto by the Board of Directors. The number of directors of the Corporation shall never be less than the minimum number permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware now or hereafter in force and:

(1) so long as any shares of both Class B Common Stock and Class C Common Stock are outstanding, the number of directors of the Corporation shall be thirteen;

(2) so long as any shares of Class B Common Stock (but no Class C Common Stock) are outstanding, the number of directors of the Corporation shall be nine;

(3) so long as any shares of Class C Common Stock (but no Class B Common Stock) are outstanding, the number of directors of the Corporation shall be nine; and

(4) so long as no shares of Class B Common Stock or Class C Common Stock are outstanding, the number of directors of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

At least a majority of the directors shall be Independent Directors (as defined in Article NINTH).

(b) Subject to the rights of the holders of any class of Preferred Stock then outstanding, newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors shall be filled by a vote of the stockholders or a majority of the entire Board of Directors, and any vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from death, disability ("disability," which for purposes of this paragraph (b) shall mean illness, physical or mental disability or other incapacity), resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause shall be filled by a vote of the stockholders or a majority of the directors then in office; provided that

(1) any vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from death, disability, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause of a director elected by the holders of Class B Common Stock shall be filled by a vote of the holders of Class B Common Stock; and

(2) any vacancies on the Board of Directors with respect to a director elected by the holders of Class C Common Stock shall be filled as follows:

(A) any vacancy resulting from the death, disability, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or other cause of Mr. Frederick W. Petri (and any person duly nominated and elected to serve as his replacement) shall be filled by the holders of Class C Common Stock, voting as a separate class, to elect as a replacement director a candidate who is an Independent Director, who has similar experience and standing in the business community to the Independent Directors and who has been approved by a majority of the Independent Directors elected by the holders of Common Stock and other capital stock entitled to vote with the Common Stock as a single class. If such Independent Directors do not approve such candidate, the holders of Class C Common Stock may propose another candidate for approval by a majority of such Independent Directors. The right of holders of Class C Common Stock to propose candidates to the Independent Directors shall continue until one such candidate is approved by a majority of such Independent Directors;

(B) at any time prior to December 31, 2003, any vacancy in the seat on the Board of Directors occupied by Ms. Marie Denise DeBartolo York on [the date of the CPI Merger] other than one resulting from her death or disability shall reduce by such vacancy an equivalent number of the directors that holders of Class C Common Stock may, voting as a separate class, elect, and such vacancy shall be filled by a majority of the entire Board of Directors; and

(C) any vacancy in the seat on the Board of Directors occupied by Ms. Marie Denise DeBartolo York on [the date of the CPI Merger] resulting from the death or disability of Ms. Marie Denise DeBartolo York, or (ii) at any time on or subsequent to December 31, 2003, shall be filled by holders of Class C Common Stock, voting as a separate class, to elect as a replacement director a candidate who is either (i) the Chief Executive Officer of the Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (or any successor to such corporation), (ii) the Chief Financial Officer of the Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (or any successor to such corporation) provided that such person was the Chief Financial Officer of the Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation on the [date of the CPI Merger] or (iii) an Independent Director, who has similar experience and standing in the business community to the Independent Directors and who has been approved by a majority of the Independent Directors elected by the holders of Common Stock and other capital stock entitled to vote with the Common Stock as a single class. If such Independent Directors do not approve such candidate, the holders of Class C Common Stock may propose another candidate for approval by a majority of such Independent Directors. The right of holders of Class C Common Stock to propose candidates to the Independent Directors shall continue until one such candidate is approved by a majority of such Independent Directors.

(3) A special meeting of holders of the Class B Common Stock or Class C Common Stock shall be called by the President in the event a vacancy occurs on the Board of Directors from any cause among the directors entitled to be elected by the holders of the Class B Common Stock or Class C Common Stock, as the case may be, and a special meeting of holders of the Common Stock, the Class C Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock shall be called by the President in the event a vacancy occurs on the Board of Directors from any cause among the directors elected by the holders of the Common Stock, the Class C Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock (voting together as a single class) and is not filled by the directors within 30 days after the vacancy occurs. The holders of Class B Common Stock and Class C Common Stock may exercise their rights to elect directors by written consent without a meeting.

No decrease in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall affect the tenure of office of any director.

(c) Whenever the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation shall have the right, voting separately as a class, to elect one or more directors of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall consist of said directors so elected in addition to the number of directors fixed as provided in paragraph (a) of this Article FIFTH or in the By-Laws; provided that if any shares of Class B Common Stock or Class C Common Stock are outstanding, the election of one or more directors by such holders of Preferred Stock will eliminate the corresponding number of directors to be elected by the combined holders of the Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock, and the Class C Common Stock, voting together as a single class, and will neither increase the size of the Board of Directors nor eliminate the seat or seats of directors elected by the holders of the Class B Common Stock or of the Class C Common Stock, each voting as a separate class. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and except as otherwise may be required by law, whenever the holders of any one or more series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation shall have the right, voting separately as a class, to elect one or more directors of the Corporation, the terms of the director or directors elected by such holders shall expire at the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders.

(d) Subject to Section 141(k) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, directors may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the combined voting power of all classes of shares of capital stock entitled to vote in the election for directors voting together as a single class.

(e) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the following are the names of the current directors of the Corporation, each of whom shall serve until the annual meeting of stockholders indicated next to his or her name, and who thereafter will serve (or whose replacement will serve) until the next following annual meeting of stockholders.

(f) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, any action by the Corporation relating to (1) transactions between the Corporation and M.S. Management Associates, Inc., Simon MOA Management Company, Inc., DeBartolo Properties Management, Inc. and/or M.S. Management Associates (Indiana), Inc. or (2) transactions involving the Corporation, individually or in its capacity as general partner (whether directly or indirectly through another entity) of Simon Property Group, L.P., in which the Simon Family Group or the DeBartolo Family Group or any member or affiliate of any member of the Simon Family Group or DeBartolo Family Group has an interest (other than through ownership interests in the Corporation or Simon Property Group, L.P.), shall, in addition to such other vote that may be required, require the prior approval of a majority of the Independent Directors.

(g) Elections of directors need not be by written ballot.

(h) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Board of Directors may appoint an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, a Nominating Committee and other committees composed of one or more directors or one or more other persons delegated such powers and duties by the Board of Directors. Each committee except the Executive Committee, the Audit Committee and the Nominating Committee shall have as a member at least one director elected by the Class B Common Stock and at least one director elected by the Class C Common Stock. The entire Audit Committee and a majority of the Compensation Committee shall be Independent Directors. The Nominating Committee shall have five members, with two being independent Directors, two elected by the Class B Common Stock, and one elected by the Class C Common Stock, and, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of Article FIFTH of the Charter, only those members of the Nominating Committee elected by the Class B Common Stock or the Class C Common Stock shall nominate the persons to be elected to serve as directors by the holders of Class B Common Stock or Class C Common Stock, respectively.

SIXTH: (a) The following provisions are hereby adopted for the purpose of defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the Corporation and of the directors and the stockholders:

(1) The Board of Directors is hereby empowered to authorize the issuance from time to time of shares of its stock of any class, whether now or hereafter authorized, or securities convertible into shares of its stock of any class or classes, whether now or hereafter authorized, for such consideration as may be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors and without any action by the stockholders.

(2) No holder of any stock or any other securities of the Corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, shall have any preemptive right to subscribe for or purchase any stock or any other securities of the Corporation and at such price or prices and upon such other terms as the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may fix; and any stock or other securities which the Board of Directors may determine to offer for subscription may, as the Board of Directors in its sole discretion shall determine, be offered to the holders of any class, series or type of stock or other securities at the time outstanding to the exclusion of the holders of any or all other classes, series or types of stock or other securities at the time outstanding.

(3) The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall, consistent with applicable law, have power in its sole discretion to determine from time to time in accordance with sound accounting practice or other reasonable valuation methods what constitutes annual or other net profits, earnings, surplus, or net assets in excess of capital; to fix and vary from time to time the amount to be reserved as working capital, or determine that retained earnings or surplus shall remain in the hands of the Corporation; to set apart out of any funds of the Corporation such reserve or reserves in such amount or amounts and for such proper purpose or purposes as it shall determine and to abolish any such reserve or any part thereof; to redeem or purchase its stock or to distribute and pay distributions or dividends in stock, cash or other securities or property, out of surplus or any other funds or amounts legally available therefor, at such times and to the stockholders of record on such dates as it may, from time to time, determine; to determine the amount, purpose, time of creation, increase or decrease, alteration or cancellation of any reserves or charges and the propriety thereof (whether or not any obligation or liability for which such reserves or charges shall have been created shall have been paid or discharged); to determine the fair value and any matters relating to the acquisition, holding and disposition of any assets by the Corporation; and to determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the books, accounts and documents of the Corporation, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of stockholders, except as otherwise provided by statute or by the By-Laws, and, except as so provided, no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any book, account or document of the Corporation unless authorized so to do by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(4) (a) The Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer or trustee of or in any other capacity with another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(b) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall (in the case of any action, suit or proceeding against a director of the Corporation) or may (in the case of any action, suit or proceeding against an officer, trustee, employee or agent) be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnified person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article SIXTH paragraph (a)(4).

(c) The indemnification and other rights set forth in this paragraph (a)(4) shall not be exclusive of any provisions with respect thereto in the By-Laws or any other contract or agreement between the Corporation and any officer, director, employee or agent of the Corporation.

(d) Neither the amendment nor repeal of this paragraph (a)(4), subparagraph (a), (b) or (c), nor the adoption of any provision of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation inconsistent with paragraph (a)(4), subparagraph (a), (b) or (c), shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this paragraph (a)(4), subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c), in respect of any matter occurring before such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision or in respect of any cause of action, suit or claim relating to any such matter which would have given rise to a right of indemnification or right to receive expenses pursuant to this paragraph (a)(5), subparagraph (a), (b) or (c), if such provision had not been so amended or repealed or if a provision inconsistent therewith had not been so adopted.

(e) No director shall be personally liable to the Corporation or any stockholder for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability

(i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders;

(ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;

(iii) under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware; or

(iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

If the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware is amended after the date hereof to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as so amended. All references in this paragraph (e) shall also be deemed to refer to the Independent Directors and members of committees of the Board of Directors.

(5) For any stockholder proposal to be presented in connection with an annual meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, including any proposal relating to the nomination of a director to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the stockholders must have given timely written notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation in the manner and containing the information required by the By-Laws. Stockholder proposals to be presented in connection with a special meeting of stockholders will be presented by the Corporation only to the extent required by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

(b) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Charter, including any amendments changing the terms or contract rights, as expressly set forth in the Charter, of any of its outstanding stock by reclassification or otherwise, by a majority of the directors (including a majority of the Independent Directors, a majority of the directors elected by the holders of the Class B Common Stock and one director elected by the holders of the Class C Common Stock, if such Class B Common Stock and Class C Common Stock have at that time elected directors) adopting a resolution setting forth the proposed change, declaring its advisability, and either calling a special meeting of the stockholders certified to vote on the proposed change, or directing the proposed change to be considered at the next annual stockholders meeting; provided however, that any amendment to, repeal of or adoption of any provision inconsistent with subparagraphs (a)(4)(e) or (a)(5) or this paragraph (b) of Article SIXTH will be effective only if it is adopted upon the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast thereon (considered for this purpose as a single class) and any amendment to, repeal of, or adoption of any provision inconsistent with paragraphs (c) or (c-1) of Article FOURTH or Article FIFTH will be effective only if it is adopted upon both (1) the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast thereon (considered for this purpose as a single class) and (2) the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast by the holders of the Class B Common Stock (in the case of paragraph (c) of Article FOURTH or Article FIFTH) or by the holders of the Class C Common Stock (in the case of paragraph (c-1) of Article FOURTH or Article FIFTH).

(c) In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to make, alter or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation.

(d) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the affirmative vote of least six of the Independent Directors is necessary to cause any partnership in which the Corporation acts, directly or indirectly, as a general partner to sell any property owned by such partnership in accordance with the terms of the partnership agreement of such partnership.

(e) The enumeration and definition of particular powers of the Board of Directors included in the foregoing shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause of this or any other Article of the Charter of the Corporation, or construed as or deemed by inference or otherwise in any manner to exclude or limit any powers conferred upon the Board of Directors under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware now or hereafter in force.

SEVENTH: In the case of shares of Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, Class C Common Stock, Preferred Stock and Excess Stock, the holders of which are entitled to beneficial interests in shares of stock of SPG Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("SRC"), held in the trusts created under (i) Trust Agreements dated as of October 30, 1979 anf as of August 26, 1994, among stockholders of the Corporation (as successor to Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts voluntary association), SRC (as successor to Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation) and the Trustee thereunder, or (ii) any similar trust, such shares of the Corporation and such beneficial interests in shares of SRC will not be separately transferable. By acceptance of such shares of Common Stock, Class B Common Stock, Class C Common Stock, Preferred Stock and Excess Stock, the holder thereof agrees to thereafter be subject to, bound by and entitled to the benefits of all the terms and provisions of the applicable Trust Agreement or any similar trust. Each certificate evidencing any such shares of the Corporation will be endorsed with a legend stating that the holder of the shares represented thereby also holds a beneficial interest in shares of stock of SRC held in said trust under said Trust Agreement. Any purported transfer in violation of this paragraph shall be null and void.

EIGHTH: Except as otherwise set forth in this Charter, any action required or permitted to be taken by stockholders of the Company must be taken at a duly called annual or special meeting of such stockholders of the Company and may not be effected by any consent in writing by such stockholders.

NINTH: (a) (1) The following terms shall have the following meaning:

"Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation" shall mean the aggregate equity interest in the Corporation represented by the Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock, the Class C Common Stock and the Units on the assumption that all shares of Class B Common Stock and Class C Common Stock and all such Units are exchanged for Common Stock.

"Person" shall mean an individual, corporation, partnership, estate, trust (including a trust qualified under Section 401(a) or 501(c)(17) of the Code), a portion of a trust permanently set aside for or to be used exclusively for the purposes described in Section 642(c) of the Code, association, private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code, joint stock company or other entity and also includes a group as the term is used for purposes of Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"Purported Beneficial Holder" shall mean, with respect to any event (other than a purported Transfer) which results in Excess Stock, the Person for whom the Purported Record Holder held shares that were, pursuant to subparagraph

(a)(3) of this article NINTH, automatically converted into Excess Stock upon the occurrence of such event.

"Purported Beneficial Transferee" shall mean, with respect to any purported Transfer which results in Excess Stock, the purported beneficial transferee for whom the Purported Record Transferee would have acquired shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock if such Transfer had been valid under subparagraph (a)(2) of this Article NINTH.

"Purported Record Holder" shall mean, with respect to any event (other than a purported Transfer) which results in Excess Stock, the record holder of the shares that were, pursuant to subparagraph (a)(3) of this Article NINTH, automatically converted into Excess Stock upon the occurrence of such event.

"Purported Record Transferee" shall mean, with respect to any purported Transfer which results in Excess Stock, the record holder of the Common Stock or the Preferred Stock if such Transfer had been valid under subparagraph (a)(2) of this Article NINTH.

"Qualified Charitable Organization" shall mean (i) any entity which would be exempt from federal income under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and to which contributions are deductible under Section 170 of the Code or (ii) any federal, state or local government entity.

"REIT" shall mean a real estate investment trust under Section 856 of the Code.

"Restriction Termination Date" shall mean the first day after the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger on which the Corporation's status as a REIT shall have been terminated by the Board of Directors and the stockholders of the Corporation.

"Simon Family Group" shall mean Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon, other members of the immediate family of any of the foregoing, any other lineal descendants of any of the foregoing, any estates of any of the foregoing, any trust established for the benefit of any of the foregoing, and any other entity controlled by any of the foregoing.

"Simon Family Group Initial Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation" shall mean the portion of the Aggregate Assumed Equity Interest in the Corporation owned by the Simon Family Group immediately following the closing of the DeBartolo Merger.

"Trading Day" shall mean, with respect to any class of Capital Stock, a day on which the principal national securities exchange on which such class of Capital Stock is listed or admitted to trading is open for the transaction of business or, if such class of Capital Stock is not listed or admitted to trading on any national securities exchange, shall mean any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which banking institutions in the State of New York are authorized or obligated by law or executive order to close.

"Transfer" shall mean any sale, transfer, gift, hypothecation, pledge, assignment, devise or other disposition of Capital Stock (including (i) the granting of any option (including an option to acquire an Option or any series of such options) or entering into any agreement for the sale, transfer or other disposition of Capital Stock or (ii) the sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition of any securities or rights convertible into or exchangeable for Capital Stock), whether voluntary or involuntary, whether of record, constructively or beneficially and whether by operation of law or otherwise.

"Trust" shall mean the trust created pursuant to subparagraph (b)(1) of this Article NINTH.

"Trustee" shall mean any trustee for the Trust (or any successor trustee) appointed from time to time by the Corporation; provided, however, during any period in which Excess Stock is issued and outstanding the Corporation shall undertake to appoint trustees of the Trust which trustees are unaffiliated with the Corporation.

"Undesignated Excess Stock" shall have the meaning set forth in subparagraph (b)(3) of this Article NINTH.

"Units" shall mean units representing limited partnership interests in Simon Property Group, L.P.

(2) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (a)(9) of this Article NINTH, from the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger and prior to the Restriction Termination Date, no Person shall Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of the outstanding Capital Stock in excess of the Ownership Limit.

(B) Except as provided in subparagraph (a)(9) of this Article NINTH, from the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger and prior to the Restriction Termination Date, any Transfer that, if effective, would result in any Person Beneficially Owning or Constructively Owning Capital Stock in excess of the Ownership Limit shall be void ab initio as to the Transfer of that number of shares of Capital Stock which would be otherwise Beneficially or Constructively Owned by such Person in excess of the Ownership Limit; and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock in excess of the Ownership Limit.

(C) Except as provided in subparagraph (a)(9) of this Article NINTH, from the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger and prior to the Restriction Termination Date, any Transfer that, if effective, would result in the Capital Stock being Beneficially Owned by fewer than 100 Persons (determined without reference to any rules of attribution) shall be void ab initio; and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock.

(D) Except as provided in subparagraph (a)(9) of this Article NINTH, from the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger and prior to the Restriction Termination Date, any Transfer of shares or other event or transaction involving Capital Stock that, if effective, would result in the Corporation being "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code shall be void ab initio as to the Transfer of that number of shares or other event or transaction of Capital Stock which would cause the Corporation to be "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code; and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock in excess of the Ownership Limit.

(3) (A) If, notwithstanding the other provisions contained in this Article NINTH, at any time after the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger and prior to the Restriction Termination Date, there is a purported Transfer or other event such that any Person would Beneficially Own or Constructively Own Capital Stock in excess of the Ownership Limit, then, except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (a)(9), each such share of Common Stock or Preferred Stock which, when taken together with all other Capital Stock, would be in excess of the Ownership Limit (rounded up to the nearest whole share), shall automatically be converted into one share of Excess Stock, as further described in subparagraph (a)(3)(C) below and such shares of Excess Stock shall be automatically transferred to the Trustee as trustee for the Trust. The Corporation shall issue fractional shares of Excess Stock if required by such conversion ratio. Such conversion shall be effective as of the close of business on the business day prior to the date of the Transfer or other event.

(B) If, notwithstanding the other provisions contained in this Article NINTH, at any time after the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger and prior to the Restriction Termination Date, there is a purported Transfer or other event which, if effective, would cause the Corporation to become "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code, then each share of Common Stock or Preferred Stock being Transferred or which are otherwise affected by such event and which, in either case, would cause, when taken together with all other Capital Stock, the Corporation to be "closely held" within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code (rounded up to the nearest whole share) shall automatically be converted into one share of Excess Stock, as further described in subparagraph (a)(3)(C) of this Article NINTH, and such shares of Excess Stock shall be automatically transferred to Trustee as trustee for the Trust. The Corporation shall issue fractional shares of Excess Stock if required by such conversion ratio. Such conversion shall be effective as of the close of business on the business day prior to the date of the Transfer or other event.

(C) Upon conversion of Common Stock or Preferred Stock into Excess Stock pursuant to this subparagraph (a)(3) of this Article NINTH, Common Stock shall be converted into Excess Common Stock and Preferred Stock shall be converted into Excess Preferred Stock.

(4) If the Board of Directors or its designees shall at any time determine in good faith that a Transfer or other event has taken place in violation of subparagraph (a)(2) of this Article NINTH or that a Person intends to acquire or has attempted to acquire Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of any shares of Capital Stock in violation of subparagraph (a)(2) of this Article NINTH, the Board of Directors or its designees may take such action as it or they deem advisable to refuse to give effect to or to prevent such Transfer or other event, including, but not limited to, refusing to give effect to such Transfer or other event on the books of the Corporation or instituting proceedings to enjoin such Transfer or other event or transaction; provided, however, that any Transfers or attempted Transfers (or, in the case of events other than a Transfer, Beneficial ownership or Constructive Ownership) in violation of subparagraphs (a)(2)(A), (B), (C) and (D) of this Article NINTH shall be void ab initio and any Transfers or attempted Transfers (or, in the case of events other than a Transfer, Beneficial Ownership or Constructive ownership) in violation of subparagraphs (a)(2)(A), (B), and (D) shall automatically result in the conversion described in subparagraph (a)(3), irrespective of any action (or non-action) by the Board of Directors or its designees.

(5) Any Person who acquires or attempts to acquire shares of Capital Stock in violation of subparagraph (a)(2) of this Article NINTH, or any Person who is a transferee such that Excess Stock results under subparagraph (a)(3) of this Article NINTH, shall immediately give written notice to the Corporation of such event and shall provide to the Corporation such other information as the Corporation may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such Transfer or attempted Transfer or other event on the Corporation's status as a REIT.

(6) From the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger and prior to the Restriction Termination Date:

(A) Every Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner of more than 5%, or such lower percentages as required pursuant to regulations under the Code, of the outstanding Capital Stock of the Corporation shall, before January 30 of each year, give written notice to the Corporation stating the name and address of such Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner, the general ownership structure of such Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner, the number of shares of each class of Capital Stock Beneficially Owned or Constructively Owned, and a description of how such shares are held.

(B) Each Person who is a Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner of Capital Stock and each Person (including the stockholder of record) who is holding Capital Stock for a Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner shall provide on demand to the Corporation such information as the Corporation may request from time to time in order to determine the Corporation's status as a REIT and to ensure compliance with the Ownership Limit.

(7) Subject to subparagraph (a)(12) of this Article NINTH, nothing contained in this Article NINTH shall limit the authority of the Board of Directors to take such other action as it deems necessary or advisable to protect the Corporation and the interests of its stockholders by preservation of the Corporation's status as REIT and to ensure compliance with the Ownership Limit.

(8) In the case of an ambiguity in the application of any of the provisions of subparagraph (a) of this Article NINTH, including any definition contained in subparagraph (a)(1), the Board of Directors shall have the power to determine the application of the provisions of this subparagraph (a) with respect to any situation based on the facts known to it.

(9) The Board of Directors upon receipt of a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of tax counsel in each case to the effect that the restrictions contained in subparagraphs (a)(2)(A), (B), (C) and (D) of this Article NINTH will not be violated, may exempt a Person from the Ownership Limit:

(A) (i) if such Person is not an individual for purposes of Section 542(a)(2) of the Code, or (ii) if such Person is an underwriter which participates in a public offering of Common Stock or Preferred Stock for a period of 90 days following the purchase by such underwriter of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock, or (iii) in such other circumstances which the Board of Directors determines are appropriately excepted from the Ownership Limit, and

(B) the Board of Directors obtains such representations and undertakings from such Person as are reasonably necessary to ascertain that no individual's Beneficial Ownership and Constructive Ownership of Capital Stock will violate the Ownership Limit and agrees that any violation or attempted violation will result in such Common Stock or Preferred Stock being converted into shares of Excess Stock in accordance with subparagraph (a)(3) of this Article NINTH.

(10) From the effective date of the DeBartolo Merger and until the Restriction Termination Date, each certificate for the respective class of Capital Stock shall bear the following legend:

> The securities represented by this certificate are subject to restrictions on transfer for the purpose of the Corporation's maintenance of its status as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the "Code"). Transfers in contravention of such restrictions shall be void ab initio. Except as otherwise determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, no Person may (1) Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock in excess of 8.0% (other than members of the Simon Family Group, whose relevant percentage is 18.0%) of the value of any class of outstanding Capital Stock of the Corporation, or any combination thereof, determined as provided in the Corporation's Charter, as the same may be amended from time to time (the "Charter"), and computed with regard to all outstanding shares of Capital Stock and, to the extent provided by the Code, all shares of Capital Stock issuable under existing Options and Exchange Rights that have not been exercised; or (2) Beneficially Own Capital Stock which would result in the Corporation being "closely held" under Section 856(h) of the Code. Unless so excepted, any acquisition of Capital Stock and continued holding of ownership constitutes a continuous representation of compliance with the above limitations, and any Person who attempts to Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock in excess of the above limitations has an affirmative obligation to notify the Corporation immediately upon such attempt. If the restrictions on transfer are violated, the transfer will be void ab initio and the shares of Capital Stock represented hereby will be automatically converted into shares of Excess Stock and will be transferred to the Trustee to be held in trust for the benefit of one or more Qualified Charitable Organizations, whereupon such Person shall forfeit all rights and interests in such Excess Stock. In addition, certain Beneficial Owners or Constructive Owners must give written notice as to certain information on demand and on an annual basis. All capitalized terms in this legend have the meanings defined in the Charter. The Corporation will mail without charge to any requesting stockholder a copy of the Charter, including the express terms of each class and series of the authorized capital stock of the Corporation, within five days after receipt of a written request therefor.

(11) if any provision of this Article NINTH or any application of any such provision is determined to be invalid by any federal or state court having jurisdiction over the issues, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected, and other applications of such provision shall be affected only to the extent necessary to comply with the determination of such court.

(12) Nothing in this Article NINTH shall preclude the settlement of any transaction entered into through the facilities of the New York Stock Exchange.

(A)(1) Upon any purported Transfer or other event that results in Excess Stock pursuant to subparagraph (a)(3) of this Article NINTH, such Excess Stock shall be deemed to have been transferred to the Trustee as trustee of the Trust for the exclusive benefit of one or more Qualifying Charitable Organizations as are designated from time to time by the Board of Directors with respect to such Excess Stock. Shares of Excess Stock held in trust shall be issued and outstanding stock of the Corporation. The Purported Record Transferee or Purported Record Holder and the Purported Beneficial Transferee or Purported Beneficial Holder shall have no rights in such Excess Stock, except such rights to certain proceeds upon Transfer of shares of Excess Stock or upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or any distribution of the assets of, the Corporation as are expressly set forth herein.

(2) Excess Common Stock shall be entitled to dividends in an amount equal to any dividends which are declared and paid with respect to shares of Common Stock from which such shares of Excess Common Stock were converted. Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to dividends in an amount equal to any dividends which are declared and paid with respect to shares of Preferred Stock from which such shares of Excess Preferred Stock were converted. Any dividend or distribution paid prior to discovery by the Corporation that shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock have been converted into Excess Common Stock or Excess Preferred Stock, as the case may be, shall be repaid to the Corporation upon demand for delivery to the Trustee. The recipient of such dividend shall be personally liable to the Trust for such dividend. Any dividend or distribution declared but unpaid shall be rescinded as void ab initio with respect to such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock and shall automatically be deemed to have been declared and paid with respect to the shares of Excess Common Stock or Excess Preferred Stock, as the case may be, into which such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock shall have been converted.

(3) In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or any distribution of the assets of, the Corporation, (i) subject to the preferential rights of the Preferred Stock, if any, as may be determined by the Board of Directors and the preferential rights of the Excess Preferred Stock, if any, each holder of shares of Excess Common Stock shall be entitled to receive, ratably with each other holder of Common Stock and Excess Common Stock that portion of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to the holders of Common Stock or Excess Common Stock as the number of shares of the Excess Common Stock held by such holder bears to the total number of shares of Common Stock and the number of shares of Excess Common Stock then outstanding and (ii) each holder of shares of Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive that portion of the assets of the Corporation which a holder of the shares of Preferred Stock that were converted into such shares of Excess Preferred Stock would have been entitled to receive had such shares of Preferred Stock remained outstanding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, distributions shall not be made to holders of Excess Stock except in accordance with the following sentence. The Corporation shall distribute to the Trustee, as holder of the Excess Stock in trust, on behalf of the Beneficiaries any such assets received in respect of the Excess Stock in any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or any distribution of the assets of the Corporation. Following any such distribution, the Trustee shall distribute such proceeds between the Purported Record Transferee or Purported Record Holder, as appropriate, and the Qualified Charitable organizations which are Beneficiaries in accordance with procedure for distribution of proceeds upon Transfer of Excess Stock set forth in subparagraph (b)(5) of this Article NINTH; provided, however, that with respect to any Excess Stock as to which no Beneficiary shall have been determined within 10 days following the date upon which the Corporation is prepared to distribute assets ("Undesignated Excess Stock"), any assets that would have been distributed on account of such Undesignated Excess Stock had a Beneficiary been determined shall be distributed to the holders of Common Stock and the Beneficiaries of the Trust designated with respect to shares of Excess Common Stock, or to the holders of Preferred Stock and the Beneficiaries of the Trust designated with respect to shares of Excess Preferred Stock as determined in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors.

(4) Excess Common Stock shall be entitled to such voting rights as are ascribed to shares of Common Stock from which such shares of Excess Common Stock were converted. Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to such voting rights as are ascribed to shares of Preferred Stock from which such shares of Excess Preferred Stock were converted. Any voting rights exercised prior to discovery by the Corporation that shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock have been converted into Excess Common Stock or Excess Preferred Stock, as the case may be, shall be rescinded and recast as determined by the Trustee.

(5) (A) Following the expiration of the ninety day period referred to in subparagraph (b)(6) of this Article NINTH, Excess Stock shall be transferable by the Trustee to any Person whose Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of shares of Capital Stock outstanding, after giving effect to such Transfer, would not result in the shares of Excess Stock proposed to be transferred constituting Excess Stock in the hands of the proposed transferee. A Purported Record Transferee or, in the case of Excess Stock resulting from any event other than a purported Transfer, the Purported Record Holder shall have no rights whatsoever in such Excess Stock, except that such Purported Record Transferee or, in the case of Excess Stock resulting from any event other than a purported Transfer, the Purported Record Holder, upon completion of such Transfer, shall be entitled to receive the lesser of a price per share for such Excess Stock not in excess (based on the information provided to the Corporation in the notice given pursuant to this subparagraph (b)(5)(A)) of (x) the price per share such Purported Beneficial Transferee paid for the Common Stock or Preferred Stock in the purported Transfer that resulted in the Excess Stock, or (y) if the Purported Beneficial Transferee did not give value for such shares of Excess Stock (through a gift, devise or other transaction), a price per share of Excess Stock equal to the Market Price of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock on the date of the purported Transfer that resulted in the Excess Stock. Upon such transfer of any interest in Excess Stock held by the Trust, the corresponding shares of Excess Stock in the Trust shall be automatically converted into such number of shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock (of the same class as the shares that were converted into such Excess Stock) as is equal to the number of shares of Excess Stock, and such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock (of the same class as the shares that were converted into such Excess Stock) as is equal to the number of shares of Excess Stock, and such shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock shall be transferred of record to the proposed transferee of the Excess Stock. If, notwithstanding the provisions of this Article NINTH, under any circumstances, a Purported Transferee receives an amount for shares of Excess Stock that exceeds the amount provided by the formula set forth above, the Purported Transferee must pay the excess to the Trust. Prior to any transfer resulting in Common Stock or Preferred Stock being converted into Excess Stock, the Purported Record Transferee and Purported Beneficial Transferee, jointly, or Purported Record Holder and Purported Beneficial Holder, jointly, must give written notice to the Corporation of the date and sale price of the purported Transfer that resulted in Excess Stock or the Market Price on the date of the other event that resulted in Excess Stock. Prior to a Transfer by the Trustee of any shares of Excess Stock, the intended transferee must give advance notice to the Corporation of the information (after giving effect to the intended Transfer) required under subparagraph (a)(6), and the Corporation must have waived in writing its purchase rights, if any, under subparagraph (b)(6) of this Article NINTH. The Board of Directors may waive the notice requirements of this subparagraph in such circumstances as it deems appropriate.

(B) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the provisions of paragraph (b)(5) of this Article NINTH are determined to be void or invalid by virtue of any legal decision, statue, rule or regulation, then the Purported Beneficial Transferee or Purported Beneficial Holder of any shares of Excess Stock may be deemed, at the option of the Corporation, to have acted as an agent on behalf of the Trust, in acquiring or holding such shares of Excess Stock and to hold such shares of Excess Stock in trust on behalf of the Trust.

(6) Shares of Excess Stock shall be deemed to have been offered for sale by the Trust to the Corporation, or its designee, at a price per share of Excess Stock equal to the lesser of:

(A) (i) in the case of Excess Stock resulting from a purported Transfer, (x) the price per share of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock in the transaction that created such Excess Stock (or, in the case of devise or gift, the Market Price of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock at the time of such devise or gift), or (y) in the absence of a notice from the Purported Record Transferee or Purported Record Holder and Purported Beneficial Transferee to the Corporation within ten days after request therefor, such price as may be determined by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion, which price per share of Excess Stock shall be equal to the lowest Market Price of Common Stock or Preferred Stock (whichever resulted in Excess Stock) at any time prior to the date the Corporation, or its designee, accepts such offer; or

(ii) in the case of Excess Stock resulting from an event other than a Purported Transfer, (x) the Market Price of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock on the date of such event, or (y) in the absence of a notice from the Purported Record Holder and Purported Beneficial Holder to the Corporation within ten days after request therefor, such price as may be determined, by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion, which price shall be the lowest Market Price for shares of Common Stock or Preferred Stock (whichever resulted in Excess Stock) at any time from the date of the event resulting in Excess Stock and prior to the date the Corporation, or its designee, accepts such offer, and

(B) the Market Price of the Common Stock or Preferred Stock on the date the Corporation, or its designee, accepts such offer. The Corporation shall have the right to accept such offer for a period of ninety days after the later of (i) the date of the Transfer which resulted in such shares of Excess Stock and (ii) the date the Board of Directors determines in good faith that a Transfer or other event resulting in shares of Excess Stock has occurred, if the Corporation does not receive a notice of such Transfer or other event pursuant to subparagraph (a)(5) of this Article NINTH.

TENTH: Whenever the Corporation shall have the obligation to purchase Units and shall have the right to choose to satisfy such obligation by purchasing such Units either with cash or with Common Stock, the determination whether to utilize cash or Common Stock to effect such purchase shall be made by majority vote of the Independent Directors, pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

ELEVENTH: In the event any term, provision, sentence or paragraph of the Charter of the Corporation is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such term, provision, sentence or paragraph shall be deemed severed from the remainder of the Charter, and the balance of the Charter shall remain in effect and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law and shall be construed to preserve the intent and purposes of the Charter. Any such invalidity or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such term, provision, sentence or paragraph of the Charter in any other jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have made and signed this Certificate this __ day of _____ __, 1998 and affirm the statements contained herein as true under penalties of perjury.

Title:

Exhibit A
to Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Simon
Property Group, Inc.

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC.

Form of 6.50% Series A Convertible Preferred Stock

The authorized number of shares of the series of preferred stock created by this Exhibit and the voting powers, preferences and relative, participating optional or other special rights and qualifications, and the limitations or restrictions thereof, of such series shall be as set forth in this Exhibit herein. For purposes of this Exhibit:

"Corporation" shall mean Simon Property Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and, with reference to periods prior to the reorganization of the Corporation as a Delaware corporation; the Trust (as defined below);

"Trust" shall mean Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust and the predecessor to the Corporation; and

"Convertible Preference Shares" shall mean the preference shares of beneficial interest in the Trust which have been converted into shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (as defined below).

SECTION 1. Designation and Number. The designation of the series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation created by this Exhibit shall be "6.50% Series A Convertible Preferred Stock" (the "Series A Convertible Preferred Stock"). The authorized number of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be 209,249, with par value $.0001 per share.

SECTION 2. Dividends. (a) The holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, in preference to the holders of Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share, of the Corporation (the "Common Stock"), any other series of Preferred Stock ranking junior to the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up ("Junior Preferred Stock") or any other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking junior to the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up ("Other Junior Stock"), shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, in their sole discretion, out of assets of the Corporation legally available for payment of dividends, an annual cash dividend of the Per Share Dividend Amount (as defined below), payable in equal semiannual installments on March 31 and September 30, commencing on March 31, 1998 (each such date, a "Semiannual Payment Date"); provided that if any Semiannual Payment Date is not a business day (as defined in Section 4(b)), then such semiannual installment shall be payable on the next business day. The "Per Share Dividend Amount" shall be equal to the product of (x) the Liquidation Preference (as defined below) and (y) the Basic Rate (as defined below) and (z) the sum of 1.00 and a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Basic Rate and the denominator of which shall be 8.00. The "Basic Rate" shall be .065. Dividends shall be payable to holders of record as they appear on the stock register of the Corporation (or, with respect to the first dividend payable hereon, if applicable, the Trust) on such record dates, not more than 30 calendar days nor less than five calendar days preceding the payment dates thereof, as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. A dividend shall not be payable, but shall accumulate (even if undeclared), to the extent that it would exceed the Corporation's cash flow from operations, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, for the six-month period ending immediately before the Semiannual Payment Date.

(b) Dividends on shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be cumulative (even if undeclared). Such dividends on shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall accumulate from the first date of issuance of any such shares. Dividends on shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall cease to accumulate on such shares on the date of their earlier conversion or redemption.

(c) When holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends pursuant to the first sentence of this Section and such dividends and dividends on any other series of Preferred Stock ranking on a parity both as to dividends and upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up with the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and such other Preferred Stock being called "Parity Preferred Stock") are not paid in full, all dividends declared on Parity Preferred Stock shall be declared pro rata so that the amount of dividends declared per share on shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and on such other Parity Preferred Stock bear to each other the same ratio that unpaid dividends per share on shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and such other Parity Preferred Stock bear to each other. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence with respect to Parity Preferred Stock, unless the full amount of cumulative dividends on shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock have been paid, no dividends may be paid or declared and set aside for payment or other distribution ordered or made on the Common Stock or on any other series of Preferred Stock or other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking junior to or on a parity with the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, nor may any Common Stock or any other series of Preferred Stock or other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking junior to or on a parity with the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up be redeemed, repurchased or otherwise acquired for any consideration (or any payment made to or available for a sinking fund or defeasance Corporation for any such redemption, repurchase or acquisition) by the Corporation or any subsidiary thereof.

(d) The Corporation shall not repurchase any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock from any holder thereof prior to the initial Permissible Conversion Date (as defined below) unless the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall have given their written consent thereto.

SECTION 3. Liquidation. The Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall rank prior to the Common Stock, Junior Preferred Stock and any Other Junior Stock, so that in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation (a "Liquidation Transaction"), whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders, whether from capital, surplus or earnings, before any distribution is made to holders of Common Stock, Junior Preferred Stock or Other Junior Stock, an amount equal to $1,000.00 per share (the "Liquidation Preference" of a share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock) plus an amount equal to the full amount of accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon on the date of final distribution, prorating the dividend accumulated during the period commencing on the Semiannual Payment Date immediately preceding the date of final distribution and ending on such final distribution date (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months). If, upon any Liquidation Transaction, the assets of the Corporation, or proceeds thereof, distributable among the holders of Parity Preferred Stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment in full to such holders of the amounts payable to such holders upon a Liquidation Transaction pursuant to the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, then such assets or proceeds shall be distributed among such holders ratably in proportion to the amounts that would be payable on such shares if all amounts payable thereon were paid in full. After payment in full of the Liquidation Preference and accumulated and unpaid dividends to which they are entitled, the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of the assets of the Corporation. For purposes hereof, neither the voluntary sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer (for cash, shares, securities or other consideration) of all or substantially all the property or assets of the Corporation nor a consolidation or merger of the Corporation with one or more other persons shall be deemed to be a Liquidation Transaction, voluntary or involuntary.

The holder of any share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to receive any payment owed for such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock under this Section 3 until such holder shall (a) cause to be delivered to the Corporation the certificate(s) representing such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and (b) transfer instrument(s) satisfactory to the Corporation and sufficient to transfer such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to the Corporation free of any adverse interest. As in the case of the Redemption Price referred to in Section 6, no interest shall accrue on any payment upon liquidation after the date thereof.

SECTION 4. Conversion. (a) General. On the terms and subject to the conditions of this Section 4, at any time after the earlier of (i) the later of (A) the last day of the first calendar year in which the aggregate dividends and distributions that would have been payable to the holder of a single share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock or Convertible Preference Share that had converted such share pursuant to this Section 4 (or the comparable provision for the Convertible Preference Shares) on the last day of the preceding calendar year and thereafter held the Conversion Stock (as defined below) received in the conversion of such single share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock or Convertible Preference Share exceeds $65 and (B) August 31, 2000, and (ii) the first date as of which written conversion notices pursuant to Section 4(b) shall have been delivered with respect to more than 50% of the outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (any conversion date occurring after such earlier date is hereinafter called a "Permissible Conversion Date"), the holder of a share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall have the right, at such holder's option, to convert such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, unless previously redeemed, into that number of voting shares of Common Stock (calculated as to each conversion to the nearest 1/1000th of a share) obtained by dividing $1,000.00 by the lesser of the Conversion Price (as defined in Section 4(d)) and the Alternative Conversion Price (as defined below) (shares of the Common Stock issuable upon the aforesaid conversion, together with shares of any Common Stock issuable pursuant to clause (iii) of the third sentence of Section 4(b), being called "Conversion Stock"). The right of conversion of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock called for redemption by the Corporation shall terminate immediately prior to the close of business on the Redemption Date (as defined in Section 6) with respect to such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. The "Alternative Conversion Price" shall be the amount that would be the Conversion Price if the Conversion Price had been determined without giving effect to any adjustment pursuant to paragraphs (iii) or (iv) of Section 4(d).

(b) Conversion Procedures. In order to exercise the conversion privilege, the holder of any share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to be converted (i) at least fifteen business days prior to any Permissible Conversion Date (or five business days, if another holder of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall have delivered a conversion notice with respect to such Permissible Conversion Date), shall deliver to the principal office of the Corporation a written notice (a) stating that such holder elects to convert all or a specified whole number of such shares pursuant to this Section 4 and (b) specifying the name or names in which such holder wishes the certificate or certificates for Conversion Stock to be issued, (ii) on or prior to the applicable Permissible Conversion Date, shall surrender the certificate representing the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to be converted at the principal office of the Corporation and (iii) on or prior to the applicable Permissible Conversion Date, execute and deliver to the Corporation at the principal office of the Corporation a dividend proration agreement in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto. Unless the shares of Conversion Stock are to be issued in the same name as the name in which such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock are registered, the certificate representing the shares surrendered for conversion shall be accompanied by instruments of transfer, in form satisfactory to the Corporation, duly executed by the holder or its duly authorized attorney. As promptly as practicable after such surrender of a certificate for shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, but in no event before the applicable Permissible Conversion Date or after the fifth business day following such Permissible Conversion Date, the Corporation shall issue and deliver at such office to such holder, or on such holder's written order, (i) a certificate or certificates for the applicable number of full shares of Common Stock determined to be issuable pursuant to Section 4(a), (ii) if less than the full number of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock evidenced by the surrendered certificate is being converted, a new certificate, of like tenor, for the number of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock evidenced by such surrendered certificate less the number of shares being converted and (iii) to the extent that the Board of Directors determine in good faith that the amount in the numerator of the fraction referred to below does not exceed the Corporation's cash flow from operations from the last Semiannual Payment Date with respect to the Convertible Preference Shares or Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, a certificate or certificates for a number of shares of Common Stock equal to a fraction, the numerator of which shall be an amount equal to a pro rata portion of the semiannual dividend next payable on shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock being converted by such holder, such proration to be made from the date of the last Semiannual Payment Date with respect to the Convertible Preference Shares or Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to the date of conversion of such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months, and the denominator of which shall be the current market price of a share of Common Stock (as defined in Section 4(h)). Except as provided in clause (iii) above and the dividend proration agreement referred to above, no payment or adjustment shall be made on conversion for accumulated and unpaid dividends on shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock surrendered for conversion or for dividends on Conversion Stock. A "business day" is a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which banks in the State of New York are authorized to be closed.

Each conversion shall be deemed to have been effected as of the close of business on the applicable Permissible Conversion Date, and the person or persons in whose name or names any certificate or certificates for Conversion Stock are issuable shall be deemed to have become the holder or holders of record of such Conversion Stock at such time on such Permissible Conversion Date and such conversion shall be at the Conversion Price (or current market price, as applicable) in effect at such time on such Permissible Conversion Date, unless the share transfer books of the Corporation are closed on such Permissible Conversion Date, in which event such person or persons shall be deemed to have become such holder or holders of record at the close of business on the next day on which such share transfer books are open, but such conversion shall be at the Conversion Price in effect on the applicable Permissible Conversion Date. Upon delivery, all Conversion Stock shall be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, nonassessable, free of all liens and charges and not subject to any preemptive or subscription rights.

(c) Warrants issued for Fractional Conversion Stock. No fractional Conversion Stock or scrip representing fractions of Conversion Stock shall be issued upon conversion of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. If a fractional share of Conversion Stock is otherwise deliverable to a converting holder upon a conversion of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock being converted by such holder, the Corporation shall in lieu thereof issue to the person entitled thereto a warrant in certified form which shall entitle the holder to receive a full share of Common Stock upon the surrender of warrants aggregating a full share of Common Stock. Any such warrant shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares of Common Stock before the first anniversary of the conversion of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock giving rise to the issuance of such warrant. No warrant issued in lieu of a fractional share of Conversion Stock shall entitle the holder thereof to exercise voting rights with respect thereto, receive dividends thereon of to participate in any assets os the Corporation in the event of liquidation.

(d) Conversion Price. "Conversion Price" shall mean $26.319, as adjusted pursuant to this Section 4(d). The Conversion Price (and the kind and amount of consideration receivable by holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock upon conversion) shall be adjusted from time to time as follows:

(i) If the Corporation (A) pays a dividend or makes a distribution to all or substantially all holders of Common Stock on the Common Stock in shares of Common Stock or (B) subdivides, combines or reclassifies its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a greater or smaller number of shares, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such action shall be adjusted so that the holder of any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock thereafter surrendered for conversion shall be entitled to receive the number of shares of Common Stock that it would have owned or been entitled to receive immediately following such action had such stock been converted immediately prior to such action or the record date therefor, whichever is earlier. Such adjustment shall become effective immediately after the record date, in the case of a dividend or distribution, or immediately after the effective date, in the case of a subdivision, combination or reclassification.

(ii) In case the Corporation shall issue rights or warrants to all or substantially all holders of Common Stock entitling them to subscribe for or purchase shares of Common Stock (or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock) at a price per share of Common Stock (or having a conversion price per share of Common Stock) less than the current market price (as defined in Section 4(h)) of a share of Common Stock on the record date mentioned below, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior thereto shall be adjusted so that it shall equal the price determined by multiplying the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior thereto by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on the date of issuance of such rights or warrants (immediately prior to such issuance) plus the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate offering price of the total number of shares of Common Stock so offered (or the aggregate conversion price of the convertible securities so offered) would purchase at such current market price per share of Common Stock and the denominator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on the date of issuance of such rights or warrants (immediately prior to such issuance) plus the total number of additional shares of Common Stock offered for subscription or purchase (or into which the convertible securities so offered are convertible). Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever any rights or warrants are issued and shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such rights or warrants; provided, however, that in the event that all shares of the Common Stock offered for subscription or purchase are not delivered (or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock are not delivered) upon the exercise of such rights or warrants, upon the expiration of such rights or warrants the Conversion Price shall be readjusted to the Conversion Price which would have been in effect had the numerator and the denominator of the foregoing fraction and the resulting adjustments made upon the issuance of such rights or warrants been made based upon the number of shares of Common Stock (or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock) actually delivered upon the exercise of such rights or warrants rather than upon the number of shares of Common Stock offered for subscription or purchase. In determining whether any rights or warrants entitle the holders to subscribe for or purchase shares of Common Stock at less than such current market price, and in determining the aggregate offering price of such shares of Common Stock, there shall be taken into account any consideration received by the Corporation for such rights or warrants, the value of such consideration, if other than cash, to be determined in good faith by the Board of Directors (whose determination shall be described in a Board of Directors' resolution filed with the Transfer Agent).

(iii) In case the Corporation shall, by dividend or otherwise, distribute to all holders of shares of Common Stock, evidences of indebtedness or other assets (including, without limitation, securities and cash distributions paid on shares of Common Stock to the extent exceeding Cash Flow (as defined below) in the period with respect to which such dividend or distribution is payable, but excluding cash dividends or distributions to the extent not exceeding Cash Flow in the period with respect to which such dividends or distributions are payable and dividends or distributions referred to in paragraph (i) of this Section 4(d)) or rights or warrants (excluding those referred to in paragraph (ii) of this Section 4(d)), in each such case the Conversion Price in effect thereafter shall be determined by multiplying the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior thereto by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the difference between (I) the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding multiplied by the current market price per share of Common Stock on the record date mentioned below and (II) the aggregate fair market value determined by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be described in a Board of Directors' resolution filed with the Transfer Agent) of such evidences of indebtedness or other assets so distributed or of such rights or warrants, and the denominator shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding multiplied by such current market price per share of Common Stock. Such adjustment shall be made whenever any such distribution is made and shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such distribution. "Cash Flow" shall mean cash flow from operations after payment of dividends on all shares of stock of the Corporation other than shares of Common Stock, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be described in a Board of Directors' resolution filed with the Transfer Agent.

(iv) In case the Corporation shall, by dividend or otherwise, distribute cash from Cash Flow to all holders of shares of its shares of Common Stock but, after giving effect to the distribution, shall retain a portion of such Cash Flow in the Corporation undistributed, the Conversion Price in effect thereafter shall be determined by multiplying the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior thereto by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding multiplied by the current market price per share of Common Stock on the record date mentioned below, plus the portion of such Cash Flow retained in the Corporation and the denominator of which shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding multiplied by such current market price per share of Common Stock. Such adjustment shall be made whenever any such distribution and retention occurs and shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such distribution.

(v) (A) If the Corporation effects any consolidation or merger to which the Corporation is a party (other than a merger or consolidation in which the Corporation is the surviving person), any sale or conveyance to another person of all or substantially all the assets of the Corporation or any statutory exchange of securities with another person (including any exchange effected in connection with a merger of a third person into the Corporation), then in any such event the holder of each share of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock then outstanding shall have the right thereafter to convert such share into the kind and amount of consideration receivable pursuant to such transaction by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock might have been converted immediately prior to such transaction, assuming such holder of shares of Common Stock failed to exercise its rights of election, if any, as to the kind or amount of consideration receivable upon such transaction (provided that if the kind or amount of consideration receivable pursuant to such transaction is not the same for each share of Common Stock in respect of which such rights of election shall not have been exercised ("non-electing share"), then, for purposes of this paragraph (v)(A) the kind and amount of consideration receivable pursuant to such transaction for each non-electing share shall be deemed to be the kind and amount so receivable per share by a plurality of the non-electing shares). Thereafter, the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be entitled to appropriate adjustments with respect to their conversion rights to the end that the provisions set forth in this Section 4 shall correspondingly be made applicable, as nearly as may reasonably be, to any consideration thereafter deliverable on conversion of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock.

(B) As evidence of the kind and amount of consideration receivable pursuant to such consolidation, merger, statutory exchange, sale or conveyance, or as to the appropriate adjustments of the Conversion Price applicable with respect thereto, the Transfer Agent shall be furnished with and may accept the certificates or opinion of an independent public accountant of the type referred to in paragraph (vii) of this Section 4(d) with respect thereto; and, in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Transfer Agent, the Transfer Agent may conclusively rely thereon and shall not be responsible or accountable to any holder of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock for any provision in conformity therewith or approved by such independent public accountant. The foregoing provisions of this paragraph (v) shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, statutory exchanges, sales or conveyances.

(vi) No adjustment in the Conversion Price shall be required to be made unless it would require an increase or decrease of at least .25% in the Conversion Price, but any adjustments not made because of this paragraph (vi) shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment otherwise required. All calculations under this Section 4(d) shall be made to the nearest 1/10th of a cent or to the nearest 1/1000th of a share, as the case may be. All adjustments with respect to a transaction or event shall apply to subsequent such transactions and events. Anything in this Section 4(d) to the contrary notwithstanding, the Board of Directors shall be entitled to make such an irrevocable reduction in the Conversion Price, in addition to the adjustments required by this Section 4(d), as in their discretion they shall determine to be advisable in order to avoid or diminish any income deemed to be received for Federal income tax purposes by any holder of shares of Common Stock or shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock resulting from any event or occurrence giving rise to an adjustment pursuant to this Section 4(d) or from any similar event or occurrence, and evidence of the Board of Directors' determination of such adjustment shall be described in a Board of Directors' resolution filed with the Transfer Agent.

(vii) Whenever the Conversion Price is adjusted pursuant to this Section 4(d), (A) the Corporation shall promptly file with the Transfer Agent a certificate of a firm of nationally recognized independent public accountants setting forth the Conversion Price (and any change in the kind or amount of consideration to be received by holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock upon conversion) after such adjustment and setting forth a brief statement of the facts requiring such adjustment and the manner of computing the same and (B) a notice stating that the Conversion Price has been adjusted, stating the effective date of such adjustment and enclosing such certificate shall forthwith be mailed by the Corporation to the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock at their addresses as shown on the share register books of the Corporation.

(viii) If as a result of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 4(d), the holder of any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock surrendered for conversion becomes entitled to receive any consideration other than shares of Common Stock, (A) the Conversion Price with respect to such other consideration shall be subject to adjustment from time to time in a manner and on terms as nearly equivalent as practicable to the provisions with respect to shares of Common Stock contained in this Section 4(d) and (B) in the case such consideration shall consist of shares of Common Stock and some other kind of consideration or of two or more kinds of consideration, the Board of Directors shall determine in good faith the fair allocation of the adjusted Conversion Price between or among such types of consideration, and evidence of such determination shall be described in a Board of Directors' resolution filed with the Transfer Agent.

(e) The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available, free from preemptive and subscription rights, out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, for the purpose of effecting conversions of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, the full number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock not theretofore converted. For this purpose, the number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be computed as if at the time of computation all such outstanding shares were held by a single holder. The Corporation will not effect any transaction which would give rise to an adjustment in the Conversion Price unless immediately following such transaction the Corporation shall have available, free from preemptive and subscription rights, out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, the full number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock not theretofore converted.

(f) The Corporation shall pay all documentary stamp or similar issue or transfer taxes payable in respect of the issue or delivery of securities on conversion of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock; provided, however, that (i) the Corporation shall not be required to pay any tax to the extent payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue or delivery of securities in a name other than that of the holder of shares of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to be converted and (ii) no such issue or delivery shall be made unless and until such holder has paid to the Corporation the amount of any tax described in clause (i) payable in respect of the shares of stock of such holder or has established, to the satisfaction of the Corporation, that such tax has been paid or provided for.

(g) By acceptance of any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, the holder thereof agrees that upon conversion of any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, any shares of Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share ("SPG Shares"), of SPG Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("SPG"), which relate to such shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and which are held in the SPG Trust II (as defined below) shall be transferred to the SPG Trust (as defined below), and shall thereafter be subject to, bound by and entitled to the benefits of all the terms and provisions of the SPG Trust Agreement (as defined below within the definition of the "SPG Trust"), all as provided in the agreement establishing the SPG Trust II. The "SPG Trust II" means that certain Trust created by that certain Trust Agreement among the holders of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, SPG (as successor to Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. ("CRC")) and the Trustee of such Trust, under which the holders of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock have beneficial interests in the SPG Shares deposited in such Trust. The "SPG Trust" means that certain Trust created by that certain Trust Agreement (the "SPG Trust Agreement") dated as of October 30, 1979, among certain shareholders of the Corporation at that date, SPG (as successor to CRC) and the Trustee of such Trust, under which substantially all the holders of shares of Common Stock have beneficial interests in the SPG Shares deposited in such Trust.

(h) The "currentmarket price" per share of share of Common Stock on any day shall be the average of the closing per share sales prices of the Common Stock during the last twenty trading days as reported on the Composite Tape of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (the "NYSE") or, if shares of Common Stock are not then listed on the NYSE, on the principal United States securities exchange registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, on which shares of Common Stock are then listed or, if shares of Common Stock are not then listed on any such stock exchange, the average of the average closing bid and ask quotations with respect to a share of Common Stock during the last twenty trading days on the NASDAQ Stock Market or any successor system then in use or, if no such quotations are then available, the average of the bid and asked prices with respect to a share of Common Stock for such trading days, as furnished by a member of the NYSE regularly making a market in the Common Stock selected by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or, if no such member firm is then making a market in the Common Stock, the fair market value on such date of a share of Common Stock as determined in good faith by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation after consultation with an independent financial advisor of recognized national standing.

SECTION 5. Status of Converted or Redeemed Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. Upon any conversion or any redemption, repurchase or other acquisition by the Corporation of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock so converted, redeemed, repurchased or acquired shall be retired and canceled.

SECTION 6. Redemption at the Option of the Corporation. (a) The Board of Directors shall have the power to restrict transfers of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock and/or to call for redemption a sufficient number of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, selected in a manner deemed appropriate in the opinion of the Board of Directors, to maintain or bring the direct or indirect ownership of the capital stock of the Corporation into conformity with the requirements of Section 856(a)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, at the greater of (i) a price (the "Redemption Price") equal to the Liquidation Preference of the redeemed shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, plus an amount equal to the full amount of accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon at the Redemption Date (as hereinafter defined), prorating the dividend accumulated during the period commencing on the Semiannual Payment Date immediately preceding the date of the payment of the Redemption Price and ending on such payment date (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months) and (ii) the current market price of the Common Stock into which shares of such redeemed Series A Convertible Preferred Stock could have been converted if a right to convert existed at such time. In making such selection, the Board of Directors shall take due regard of all feasible selection methods and shall only select shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock if, in their considered, good faith judgment, such selection shall be an equitable way of maintaining or bringing ownership of the capital stock of the Corporation into conformity with Section 856(a)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, given the burdens on the holders of the shares of redeemed Series A Convertible Preferred Stock of the various selection methods and the consequences (including withholding tax and other tax consequences) to the Corporation and its remaining shareholders associated with such methods, such judgment to be made without reference to the liquidation preference, conversion rights or dividend rate of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock unless such preference, conversion rights or rate shall be directly relevant to the conformity of the ownership of the capital stock of the Corporation with said Section 856(a)(6).

(b) The Corporation shall give the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock prior written notice of a redemption pursuant to this Section 6 (a "Redemption") not more than 60 nor less than 30 calendar days prior to the date fixed for redemption (the "Redemption Date") at the address of such holders on the books of the Corporation (provided that failure to give such notice or any defect therein shall not affect the validity of the proceeding for a Redemption except as to the holder to whom the Corporation has failed to give such notice or whose notice was defective), and shall set apart the funds necessary to pay the aggregate Redemption Price on all shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock then called for redemption. Provided that such funds have been so set apart, from and after the close of business on the Redemption Date the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall no longer be deemed outstanding and all rights with respect to such shares shall forthwith cease and terminate, except the right of the holders thereof to receive the Redemption Price (without interest) upon surrender of the certificates evidencing their shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. In case fewer than all of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock represented by any such surrendered certificate are called for redemption, a new certificate shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation representing the unredeemed shares.

SECTION 7. Voting. (a) In addition to any rights provided by law, each holder of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be entitled to such number of votes per share held as shall equal the number (rounded to the nearest whole vote) obtained by dividing $1,000.00 by the lesser of (x) the Conversion Price and (y) the Alternative Conversion Price. Except as provided in paragraph (b) below, the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters as to which holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to vote, in the same manner and with the same effect as such holders of shares of Common Stock, voting together with the holders of shares of Common Stock as one class.

(b) The Corporation shall not, without the affirmative consent or approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock then outstanding, voting separately as a class, given by written consent in lieu of a meeting or by vote at a meeting called for such purpose for which notice shall have been given to the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, (i) authorize any class of stock ranking prior to the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to the payment of dividends or distribution of assets upon dissolution, liquidation or winding-up; (ii) amend, alter or repeal any of the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation so as to affect adversely the powers, preferences or rights of the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock then outstanding or reduce the minimum time required for any notice to which only the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock then outstanding may be entitled (an amendment of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation to authorize or create, or to increase the authorized amount of, any shares of any class ranking junior or on a parity with shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock shall be deemed not to affect adversely the powers, preferences or rights of the holders of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock); (iii) authorize or create, or increase the authorized amount of, any shares, or any security convertible into stock, of any class ranking prior to the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to the payment of dividends or distribution of assets upon dissolution, liquidation or winding-up; (iv) merge or consolidate with or into any other person, unless each holder of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock immediately preceding such merger or consolidation shall receive or continue to hold in the resulting person the same number of shares, with substantially the same rights and preferences, as correspond to shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock so held; (v) increase the number of authorized shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock above 209,249; (vi) amend, alter or modify any of the provisions of this Exhibit; or (vii) otherwise alter or change the powers, preferences, or rights, or qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock so as to affect them adversely.

SECTION 8. Notice of Certain Events. (a) In case at any time the Corporation shall propose

(i) to pay any dividend payable in shares of Common Stock upon its shares of Common Stock, or to make any distribution (other than a dividend or distribution of cash from Cash Flow) to the holders of shares of Common Stock;

(ii) to make any dividend or distribution of cash to the holders of shares of Common Stock from Cash Flow but to retain a portion of such Cash Flow in the Corporation;

(iii) to offer for subscription pro rata to the holders of shares of Common Stock any additional shares of beneficial interest of any class or any other rights or warrants;

(iv) to consolidate or merge with or into another person; or

(v) to effect any reorganization, reclassification, liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation;

and the effect of such proposed action would be to cause there to be made an adjustment in the Conversion Price pursuant to Section 4(d), then, and in any one or more of such cases, the Corporation shall cause at least ten calendar days' notice thereof to be filed with the Transfer Agent and to be given to each holder of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock as of the date on which (x) the books of the Corporation shall close, or a record be taken, for such dividend or distribution on shares of Common Stock, dividend or distribution or offering of rights or warrants or (y) such consolidation, merger, reorganization, reclassification, liquidation, dissolution or winding-up shall be effective, as the case may be.

(b) In case the Board of Directors shall approve the sale or other transfer of all or substantially all the interest of the Corporation or any affiliate of the Corporation in any of the Specified Assets (as defined below) to any person that is not an affiliate of the Corporation, then the Corporation shall cause notice of such approval to be filed with the Transfer Agent and given to each holder of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock as of the date of the giving of such approval within five business days of the date of the giving of such approval. The term "Specified Assets" shall mean the properties commonly known as Roosevelt Field Shopping Center (Nassau County, New York), Lenox Square Mall (Atlanta, Georgia), Town Center at Boca Raton (Palm Beach County, Florida), Georgia), Brea Mall (Brea, California) and Rockaway Townsquare Mall (Rockaway, New Jersey).

(c) If the Corporation shall receive written conversion notices pursuant to Section 4(b) with respect to more than two percent of the outstanding shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, then the Corporation shall cause notice of its receipt of such notices to be filed with the Transfer Agent and given to each holder of shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock within five business days of the date of the Corporation's receipt of such notices.

(d) The failure to give or receive the notice required by this Section 8 or any defect therein shall not affect the legality or validity of any such dividend, distribution, issuance of any right or warrant or other action.

SECTION 9. Designation of Capital Gain Dividends. So long as 10,000 or more shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock are held of record by one or more of (i) Stichting Pensioenfonds voor de Gezondheid Geestelijke en Maatschappelijke belangen ("PGGM"), (ii) any affiliate of PGGM that identifies itself to the Transfer Agent and the Corporation as such an affiliate and (iii) any other foreign individual or entity with a record address outside the United States of America: the Corporation shall not designate any dividends paid on shares of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (or dividends deemed paid pursuant to Section 305 of the Code) as capital gain dividends for U.S. tax purposes, and all distributions on the Common Stock of the Corporation in excess of the Corporation's real estate investment trust taxable income (excluding net capital gains) for any taxable year shall be designated as capital gains dividends to the extent of the Corporation's recognized capital gains for such taxable year.

SECTION 10. Return of Money Deposited for Converted Shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained herein, any funds which at any time shall have been deposited by the Corporation or on its behalf with the Transfer Agent or any other depositary for the purpose of any payment with respect to any shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock which shall have been converted into shares of Common Stock pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 shall forthwith upon such conversion be repaid to the Corporation by the Transfer Agent or such other depositary.

SECTION 11. Definitions and Construction. As used in this resolution: (a) "herein", "hereof", "hereunder" and other like words mean or refer to this resolution in its entirety; (b) "outstanding", when used with reference to shares of stock, means issued shares of stock, excluding shares of stock held by the Corporation or a subsidiary thereof; (c) "person" means any corporation, partnership, trust, organization, association or other entity or individual; (d) "affiliate" of any person means any other person controlling, controlled by or under common control with such person; (e) "capital stock of the Corporation" shall mean shares of the capital stock of the Corporation as described in Article FOURTH of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation; (f) "Common Stock" shall mean the stock described as Common Stock in Article FOURTH of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation; (g) "Preferred Stock" shall mean the stock described as Preferred Stock in Article FOURTH of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation; (h) "Transfer Agent" shall First Chicago Trust Company of New York or such other successor transfer agent(s) appointed by the Board of Directors in accordance with Section 6.02 of the Restated By-Laws of the Corporation; (i) headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not define, limit or affect any of the provisions hereof; and (j) references to Sections are to Sections of this Exhibit, unless otherwise expressly provided.

In addition, whenever reference is made herein to cash flow from operations of the Corporation, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, such determination shall be made on a basis substantially consistent with that employed by the Corporation in computing Funds From Operations as reported in the Corporation's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Exhibit A to Form of 6.50% Series A Convertible Preferred Stock of
Simon Property Group, Inc.

DIVIDEND PRORATION AGREEMENT

Date: _____

Simon Property Group, Inc.
National City Center
115 West Washington Street, Suite 15 East
Indianapolis, Indiana 46204

Dear Sirs:

The undersigned is a holder of shares of 6.50% Series A Convertible Preferred Stock ("Preferred Stock") of Simon Property Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Corporation"). On the date hereof, the undersigned has presented _____ (number) shares of Preferred Stock for conversion pursuant to their terms (the "Conversion"). This letter agreement is being given in satisfaction of a condition to the Conversion.

The undersigned hereby agrees with the Corporation that concurrently with the first payment of a regular cash dividend (i.e., a dividend that would not give rise to an adjustment of the "Conversion Price" pursuant to Section 4(d)(iv) of Exhibit A to the Corporation's Restated Certificate of Incorporation with respect to the shares of Preferred Stock) on shares of the Corporation's Common Stock with respect to which the record date (the "Next Record Date") occurs after the date of the Conversion, the undersigned shall pay to the Corporation an amount equal to the product of (x) the number of such shares of Common Stock issued in the Conversion (adjusted for any dividend or distribution on the shares of Common Stock in shares of Common Stock or the subdivision, combination or reclassification of outstanding shares of Common Stock into a greater or smaller number of Preferred Stock occurring after the date of the Conversion in order to give appropriate effect thereto), (y) the per share amount of such cash dividend and (z) a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of days elapsed (computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months) from the record date (the "Last Record Date") for the payment of the last regular dividend on shares of the Corporation's Common Stock occurring on or before the date of the Conversion and the denominator of which shall be the number of days elapsed (computed as aforesaid) from the Last Record Date to the Next Record Date.

The undersigned further grants to the Corporation the right to set off against any unpaid amount due to the Corporation under this letter agreement any debt or other obligation of the Corporation owing to the undersigned, including, without limitation, any dividend or other distribution payable to the undersigned by reason of its ownership of shares of the Corporation's Common Stock.

If the undersigned wishes to transfer legal, beneficial or record ownership of any shares of the Corporation's Common Stock (or any interest therein) issuable in the Conversion before all the undersigned's foregoing obligations are fully performed, it shall obtain, for the Corporation's benefit, an instrument of assumption by the transferee in which the transferee assumes all the undersigned's obligations under this letter agreement, which instrument shall contain a provision with respect to subsequent transfers with the same effect as this paragraph.

This letter agreement shall be construed in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflicts of laws principles.

Very truly yours,

Exhibit B to the Simon Property Group, Inc.
Restated Certificate of Incorporation

FORM OF

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC.

SERIES B CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

The authorized number of shares of the series of Preferred Stock created herein and the voting powers, preferences and relative, participating optional or other special rights and qualifications, and the limitations or restrictions thereof, of such series shall be as set forth herein.

For purposes of this exhibit, capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Simon Property Group, Inc. Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Charter").

Subject in all cases to the provisions of Article NINTH of the Charter of the Corporation with respect to Excess Stock, the following is a description of the preferences, conversion and other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series B Preferred Stock") of the Corporation:

(1) Designation and Amount. The designation of the series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation created herein shall be "Series B Convertible Preferred Stock." The authorized number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be 5,000,000, with par value $0.0001 per share.

All shares of Series B Preferred Stock redeemed, purchased, exchanged, unissued or otherwise acquired by the Corporation shall be retired and canceled and, upon the taking of any action required by applicable law, shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares of capital stock and may thereafter be issued, but not as Series B Preferred Stock.

(2) Ranking. The Series B Preferred Stock shall, with respect to dividend rights, rights upon liquidation, winding up, dissolution, and redemption rights, rank (A) junior to any other class or series of preferred stock hereafter duly established by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the terms of which shall specifically provide that such series shall rank prior to the Series B Preferred Stock as to the payment of dividends, distribution of assets upon liquidation and redemption rights

(the "Senior Preferred Stock"), (B) pari passu with the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock of the Corporation, par value $0.0001 per share, and any other class or series of Preferred Stock hereafter duly established by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the terms of which shall specifically provide that such class or series shall rank pari passu with the Series B Preferred Stock as to the payment of dividends, distribution of assets upon liquidation and redemption rights (the "Parity Preferred Stock") and (C) prior to any other class or series of preferred stock or other class or series of capital stock of or other equity interests in the Corporation, including, without limitation, all classes of the common stock of the Corporation, whether now or hereafter created. All of such classes or series of capital stock and other equity interests of the Corporation, including, without limitation, the Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock and the Class C Common Stock are collectively referred to herein as the "Junior Stock".

(3) Dividends. (A) Subject to the rights of series of Preferred Stock which may from time to time come into existence, holders of the then outstanding Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends, cumulative preferential cash dividends at the rate of $6.50 per annum per share. Such dividends shall accrue and be cumulative from the date of original issue and shall be payable in equal amounts quarterly in arrears on the last day of March, June, September and December or, if not a business day, the next succeeding business day (each, a "Distribution Payment Date"). The first dividend, which will be paid on September 30, 1998, will be for less than a full quarter. Such first dividend and any dividend distribution payable on Series B Preferred Stock for any partial distribution period will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. Distributions will be payable to holders of record as they appear in the share records of the Corporation at the close of business on the applicable record date, which shall be on the first day of the calendar month in which the applicable Distribution Payment Date falls on or on such other date designated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation for the payment of distributions that is not more than 30 nor less than 10 days prior to such Distribution Payment Date (each, a "Distribution Record Date").

(B) Dividends on Series B Preferred Stock will accrue and be cumulative whether or not the Corporation has earnings, whether or not there are funds legally available for the payment of such distributions and whether or not such distributions are earned, declared or authorized. No interest, or sum of money in lieu of interest, shall be payable in respect of any distribution payment or payments on Series B Preferred Stock which may be in arrears. Dividends paid on the Series B Preferred Stock in an amount less than the total amount of such dividends at the time accrued and payable on such shares shall be allocated pro rata on a per share basis among all such shares at the time outstanding.

(C) If, for any taxable year, the Corporation elects to designate as capital gain distributions (as defined in Section 857 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any successor revenue code or section (the "Code")) any portion (the "Capital Gains Amount") of the total distributions (as determined for federal income tax purposes) paid or made available for the year to holders of all classes of capital stock (the "Total Distributions"), then the portion of the Capital Gains Amount that shall be allocable to holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall be in the same percentage that the total distributions paid or made available to the holders of Series B Preferred Stock for the year bears to the Total Distributions.

(D) If any shares of Series B Preferred Stock are outstanding, then, except as provided in the following sentence, no distributions shall be declared or paid or set apart for payment on any shares of any other series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation ranking, as to distributions, on a parity with or junior to Series B Preferred Stock for any period unless full cumulative distributions have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart for such payments on shares of Series B Preferred Stock for all past distribution periods and the then current distribution period. When distributions are not paid in full (or a sum sufficient for such full payment is not set apart) upon the shares of Series B Preferred Stock and the shares of any other series of Preferred Stock ranking on parity as to distributions with shares of Series B Preferred Stock, all distributions declared upon shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other series of Preferred Stock ranking on a parity as to distributions with Series B Preferred Stock shall be declared pro rata so that the amount of distributions declared per share on Series B Preferred Stock and such other series of Preferred Stock shall in all cases bear to each other the same ratio that accrued distributions per share on Series B Preferred Stock and such other series of Preferred Stock bear to each other.

(E) Except as provided in subparagraph (3)(D) herein, unless full cumulative distributions on shares of Series B Preferred Stock have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart for payment for all past distribution periods and the then current distribution period, no distributions (other than in shares of Common Stock or other Junior Stock) shall be declared or paid aside for payment or other distribution shall be declared or made upon the shares of Common Stock or any other capital stock of the Corporation ranking junior to or on a parity with Series B Preferred Stock as to distributions or upon liquidation, nor shall any shares of Common Stock or any other capital stock of the Corporation ranking junior to or on a parity with Series B Preferred Stock as to distributions or upon liquidation be redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired for any consideration (or any moneys be paid to or made available for a sinking fund for the redemption of any such capital stock) by the Corporation (except by conversion into or exchange for Junior Stock).

(F) Any distribution payment made on shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall first be credited against the earliest accrued but unpaid distribution due with respect to shares of Series B Preferred Stock which remain payable.

(G) No distributions on the Series B Preferred Stock shall be authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation or be paid or set apart for payment by the Corporation at such time as the terms and provisions of any agreement of the Corporation, including any agreement relating to its indebtedness, prohibits such authorization, payment or setting apart for payment or provides that such authorization, payment or setting apart for payment would constitute a breach thereof or a default thereunder if such authorization or payment shall be restricted or prohibited by law.

(H) Except as provided in this paragraph (3) and in paragraph (5), the Series B Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to participate in the earnings or assets of the Corporation.

(4) Conversion. (A) General. On the terms and subject to the conditions of this paragraph (4), the holder of a share of Series B Preferred Stock shall have the right, at any time at such holder's option, to convert such shares of Series B Preferred Stock, unless previously redeemed, into that number of shares of Common Stock (calculated as to each conversion to the nearest 1/1000th of a share) obtained by dividing $100.00 by the Conversion Price (as defined in subparagraph (4)(D)) (shares of the Common Stock issuable upon the aforesaid conversion being called "Conversion Stock"). (Any such conversion date is hereinafter called a "Permissible Conversion Date"). The right of conversion of shares of Series B Preferred Stock called for redemption by the Corporation shall terminate immediately prior to the close of business on the redemption date with respect to such shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

(B) Conversion Procedures. In order to exercise the conversion privilege, the holder of any share of Series B Preferred Stock to be converted (i) at least fifteen business days prior to any Permissible Conversion Date (or five business days, if another holder of shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall have delivered a conversion notice with respect to such Permissible Conversion Date), shall deliver to the principal office of the Corporation a written notice (a) stating that such holder elects to convert all or a specified whole number of such shares pursuant to this paragraph (4) and (b) specifying the name or names in which such holder wishes the certificate or certificates for Conversion Stock to be issued and (ii) on or prior to the applicable Permissible Conversion Date, shall surrender the certificate representing the shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be converted at the principal office of the Corporation. Unless the shares of Conversion Stock are to be issued in the same name as the name in which such shares of Series B Preferred Stock are registered, the certificate representing the shares surrendered for conversion shall be accompanied by instruments of transfer, in form satisfactory to the Corporation, duly executed by the holder or its duly authorized attorney. As promptly as practicable after such surrender of a certificate for shares of Series B Preferred Stock, but in no event before the applicable Permissible Conversion Date or after the fifth business day following such Permissible Conversion Date, the Corporation shall issue and deliver at such office to such holder, or on such holder's written order, (i) a certificate or certificates for the applicable number of full shares of Common Stock determined to be issuable pursuant to subparagraph (4)(A) and (ii) if less than the full number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock evidenced by the surrendered certificate is being converted, a new certificate, of like tenor, for the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock evidenced by such surrendered certificate less the number of shares being converted. No payment or adjustment shall be made on conversion for accumulated and unpaid dividends on shares of Series B Preferred Stock surrendered for conversion or for dividends on Conversion Stock. A "business day" is a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which banks in the State of New York are authorized to be closed.

Each conversion shall be deemed to have been effected as of the close of business on the applicable Permissible Conversion Date, and the person or persons in whose name or names any certificate or certificates for Conversion Stock are issuable shall be deemed to have become the holder or holders of record of such Conversion Stock at such time on such Permissible Conversion Date and such conversion shall be at the Conversion Price (or current market price, as applicable) in effect at such time on such Permissible Conversion Date, unless the share transfer books of the Corporation are closed on such Permissible Conversion Date, in which event such person or persons shall be deemed to have become such holder or holders of record at the close of business on the next day on which such share transfer books are open, but such conversion shall be at the Conversion Price in effect on the applicable Permissible Conversion Date. Upon delivery, all Conversion Stock shall be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, nonassessable, free of all liens and charges and not subject to any preemptive or subscription rights.

In lieu of delivering physical certificates representing the securities issued upon conversion, providing the Corporation's Transfer Agent is participating on the Depositary Trust Company ("DTC") Fast Automated Securities Transfer program, upon the request of the holder of Series B Preferred Stock and its compliance with the provisions contained in this paragraph, so long as the certificates therefor do not bear a legend and such holders of Series B Preferred Stock thereof is not obligated to return such certificate for a placement of a legend thereon, the Corporation shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its Transfer Agent to electronically transmit the Common Stock issuable upon conversion to the holder of Series B Preferred Stock by crediting the account of the broker of such holder of Series B Preferred Stock with DTC through its Deposit Withdrawal Agent Commission System.

(C) Rounding of Fractional Conversion Stock. No fractional Conversion Stock or scrip representing fractions of Conversion Stock shall be issued upon conversion of shares of Series B Preferred Stock. If a fractional Conversion Share is otherwise deliverable to a converting holder upon a conversion of shares of Series B Preferred Stock (based upon the total number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock being converted by such holder), the Corporation shall in lieu thereof pay to the person entitled thereto an amount in cash equal to the current value of such fraction, calculated to the nearest 1/1000th of a share, to be computed based on the current market price of a share of Common Stock on the date of conversion.

(D) Conversion Price. "Conversion Price", shall mean $38.669, as adjusted pursuant to this subparagraph (4)(D). The Conversion Price (and the kind and amount of consideration receivable by holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock upon conversion) shall be adjusted from time to time as follows:

(i) If the Corporation (A) pays a dividend or makes a distribution to all holders of Common Stock on the Common Stock in shares of Common Stock or (B) subdivides, combines or reclassifies its outstanding shares of Common Stock into a greater or smaller number of shares, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such action shall be adjusted so that the holder of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock thereafter surrendered for conversion shall be entitled to receive the number of shares of Common Stock that it would have owned or been entitled to receive immediately following such action had such stock been converted immediately prior to such action or the record date therefor, whichever is earlier. Such adjustment shall become effective immediately after the record date, in the case of a dividend or distribution, or immediately after the effective date, in the case of a subdivision, combination or reclassification.

(ii) In case the Corporation shall issue rights or warrants to all holders of Common Stock entitling them to subscribe for or purchase shares of Common Stock (or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock) at a price per share of Common Stock (or having a conversion price per share of Common Stock) less than the current market price (as defined in subparagraph (4)(H)) of a share of Common Stock on the record date mentioned below, the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior thereto shall be adjusted so that it shall equal the price determined by multiplying the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior thereto by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on the date of issuance of such rights or warrants (immediately prior to such issuance) plus the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate offering price of the total number of shares of Common Stock so offered (or the aggregate conversion price of the convertible securities so offered) would purchase at such current market price per share of Common Stock and the denominator of which shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on the date of issuance of such rights or warrants (immediately prior to, such issuance) plus the total number of additional shares of Common Stock offered for subscription or purchase (or into which the convertible securities so offered are convertible). Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever any rights or warrants are issued and shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such rights or warrants; provided, however, that in the event that all shares of the Common Stock offered for subscription or purchase are not delivered (or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock are not delivered) upon the exercise of such rights or warrants, upon the expiration of such rights or warrants the Conversion Price shall be readjusted to the Conversion Price which would have been in effect had the numerator and the denominator of the foregoing fraction and the resulting adjustments made upon the issuance of such rights or warrants been made based upon the number of shares of Common Stock (or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock) actually delivered upon the exercise of such rights or warrants rather than upon the number of shares of Common Stock offered for subscription or purchase. In determining whether any rights or warrants entitle the holders to subscribe for or purchase shares of Common Stock at less than such current market price, and in determining the aggregate offering price of such shares of Common Stock, there shall be taken into account any consideration received by the Corporation for such rights or warrants, the value of such consideration, if other than cash, to be determined in good faith by the Board of Directors (whose determination shall be described in a Board of Directors' resolution filed with the Transfer Agent).

(iii) In case the Corporation shall, by dividend or otherwise, distribute to all holders of shares of Common Stock, evidences of indebtedness or other assets (excluding cash dividends or distributions paid in cash and dividends or distributions referred to in subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph 4(D)) or rights or warrants (excluding those referred to in subparagraph (ii) of this subparagraph 4(D)), in each such case the Conversion Price in effect thereafter shall be determined by multiplying the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior thereto by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the difference between (I) the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding multiplied by the current market price per share of Common Share on the record date mentioned below and (II) the aggregate fair market value determined by the Board of Directors (whose determination shall be described in a Board of Directors' resolution filed with the Transfer Agent) of such evidences of indebtedness or other assets so distributed or of such rights or warrants, and the denominator shall be the total number of shares of Common Stock outstanding multiplied by such current market price per share of Common Stock. Such adjustment shall be made whenever any such distribution is made and shall become effective immediately after the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such distribution.

(iv)(a) If the Corporation effects any consolidation or merger to which the Corporation is a party (other than a merger in which the Corporation is the surviving person and which does not result in any change in the Common Stock), any sale or conveyance to another person of all or substantially all the assets of the Corporation or any statutory exchange of securities with another person, then in any such event the holder of each share of Series B Preferred Stock thereafter outstanding shall have the right to convert such share into the kind and amount of consideration receivable pursuant to such transaction by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock into which such shares of Series B Preferred Stock might have been converted immediately prior to such transaction, assuming such holder of shares of Common Stock failed to exercise its rights of election, if any, as to the kind or amount of consideration receivable upon such transaction (provided that if the kind or amount of consideration receivable pursuant to such transaction is not the same for each share of Common Stock in respect of which such rights of election shall not have been exercised ("nonelecting share"), then, for purposes of this subparagraph (iv)(a) the kind and amount of consideration receivable pursuant to such transaction for each non-electing share shall be deemed to be the kind and amount so receivable per share by a plurality of the non-electing shares). Thereafter, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to appropriate adjustments with respect to their conversion rights such that the provisions set forth in this paragraph 4 shall correspondingly be made applicable, as nearly as may reasonably be, to any consideration thereafter deliverable on conversion of shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

(b) As evidence of the kind and amount of consideration receivable pursuant to such consolidation, merger, statutory exchange, sale or conveyance, or as to the appropriate adjustments of the Conversion Price applicable with respect thereto, the Transfer Agent shall be furnished with and may accept the certificates or opinion of an independent public accountant of the type referred to in subparagraph (vi) of this subparagraph 4(D) with respect thereto; and, in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Transfer Agent, the Transfer Agent may conclusively rely thereon and shall not be responsible or accountable to any holder of shares of Series B Preferred Stock for any provision in conformity therewith or approved by such independent public accountant. The foregoing provisions of this subparagraph (iv) shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, statutory exchanges, sales or conveyances.

(v) No adjustment in the Conversion Price shall be required to be made unless it would require an increase or decrease of at least .25% in the Conversion Price, but any adjustments not made because of this subparagraph (v) shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment otherwise required. All calculations under this subparagraph 4(D) shall be made to the nearest 1/10th of a cent or to the nearest 1/1000th of a share, as the case may be. All adjustments with respect to a transaction or event shall apply to subsequent such transactions and events. Anything in this subparagraph 4(D) to the contrary notwithstanding, the Board of Directors shall be entitled to make such an irrevocable reduction in the Conversion Price, in addition to the adjustments required by this subparagraph 4(D), as in their discretion they shall determine to be advisable in order to avoid or diminish any income deemed to be received for Federal income tax purposes by any holder of shares of Common Stock or shares of Series B

Preferred Stock resulting from any event or occurrence giving rise to an adjustment pursuant to this subparagraph 4(D) or from any similar event or occurrence, and evidence of the Board of Directors' determination of such adjustment shall be described in a Board of Directors' resolution filed with the Transfer Agent.

(vi) Whenever the Conversion Price is adjusted pursuant to this subparagraph 4(D), (a) the Corporation shall promptly file with the Transfer Agent a certificate of a firm of nationally recognized independent public accountants setting forth the Conversion Price (and any change in the kind or amount of consideration to be received by holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock upon conversion) after such adjustment and setting forth a brief statement of the facts requiring such adjustment and the manner of computing the same and (b) a notice stating that the Conversion Price has been adjusted, stating the effective date of such adjustment and enclosing such certificate shall forthwith be mailed by the Corporation to the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock at their addresses as shown on the share register books of the Corporation.

(vii) If as a result of any adjustment pursuant to this subparagraph 4(D), the holder of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock surrendered for conversion becomes entitled to receive any consideration other than shares of Common Stock, (a) the Conversion Price with respect to such other consideration shall be subject to adjustment from time to time in a manner and on terms as nearly equivalent as practicable to the provisions with respect to shares of Common Stock contained in this subparagraph (4)(D) and (b) in the case such consideration shall consist of shares of Common Stock and some other kind of consideration or of two or more kinds of consideration, the Board of Directors shall determine in good faith the fair allocation of the adjusted Conversion Price between or among such types of consideration, and evidence of such determination shall be described in a Board of Directors, resolution filed with the Transfer Agent.

(E) The Corporation shall at all times reserve and keep available, free from preemptive and subscription rights, out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, for the purpose of effecting conversions of shares of Series B Preferred Stock, the full number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock not theretofore converted. For this purpose, the number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be computed as if at the time of computation all such outstanding shares were held by a single holder. The Corporation will not effect any transaction which would give rise to an adjustment in the Conversion Price unless immediately following such transaction the Corporation shall have available, free from preemptive and subscription rights, out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, the full number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon the conversion of all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock not theretofore converted.

(F) The Corporation shall pay all documentary stamp or similar issue or transfer taxes payable in respect of the issue or delivery of securities on conversion of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock; provided, however, that (i) the Corporation shall not be required to pay any tax to the extent payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue or delivery of securities in a name other than that of the holder of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock to be converted and (ii) no such issue or delivery shall be made unless and until such holder has paid to the Corporation the amount of any tax described in clause (i) payable in respect of the shares of stock of such holder or has established, to the satisfaction of the Corporation, that such tax has been paid or provided for.

(G) By acceptance of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock, the holder thereof agrees that upon conversion of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock, the holder will have a beneficial interest in shares of Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share ("SRC Shares"), of SPG Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("SRC"), which relate to such Conversion Stock and which are held in the SRC Trust (as defined below), and that the holder of Series B Preferred Stock shall thereafter be subject to, bound by and entitled to the benefits of all the terms and provisions of the SRC Trust Agreement (as defined below within the definition of the "SRC Trust"). The "SRC Trust" means that certain trust created by that certain Trust Agreement (the "SRC Trust Agreement"), dated as of October 30, 1979, among certain stockholders of the Corporation at that date, SRC (as successor to Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation) and the Trustee of such trust, under which all the holders of shares of Common Stock have beneficial interests in the SRC Shares deposited in such trust.

(H) The "current market price" of a security on any date shall mean the average Closing Price (as defined below) of such security for the twenty consecutive Trading Days (as defined below) ending on the Trading Day immediately preceding the day in question; the "Closing Price" shall mean the last sale price for a such security as shown on the New York Stock Exchange Composite Transactions Tape, or if no such sale has taken place on such day, then the average of the closing bid and ask prices for such security on the New York Stock Exchange, or if such security is not listed or admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange, then on the principal national securities exchange on which such security is listed or admitted to trading, or, if such security is not listed or admitted to trading on any national securities exchange, then on the Nasdaq National Market, or, if such security is not listed or admitted to trading on the New York Stock Exchange, then on the principal national securities exchange on which such security is listed or admitted to trading, or, if such security is not listed or admitted to trading on any national securities exchange, then on the Nasdaq National Market, or, if such security is not quoted on the Nasdaq National Market, then the average of the closing bid and ask prices as furnished by any New York Stock Exchange member firm selected from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation for such purposes; and "Trading Day" shall mean a day on which the New York Stock Exchange or, if such security is not listed or admitted to trading thereon, the principal national securities exchange on which the Common Stock is listed or admitted to trading is open for the transaction of business or, if the Common Stock is not so listed or admitted, then any day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which depositary institutions in the City of New York are authorized or obligated by law to close.

(5) Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up. (A) Subject to the rights of series of Preferred Stock which may from time to time come into existence, upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, then, before any distribution or payment shall be made to the holders of any Junior Stock, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive out of assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution to stockholders, liquidation distributions in the amount of the liquidation preference of $100.00 per share in cash or property having a fair market value as determined by the Board of Directors valued at $100.00 per share, plus an amount equal to all distributions accrued and unpaid at the date of such liquidation, dissolution or winding up. After payment of the full amount of the liquidating distributions to which they are entitled, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will have no right or claim to any of the remaining assets of the Corporation. In the event that, upon any such voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, the available assets of the Corporation are insufficient to pay the amount of the liquidation distributions on all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and the corresponding amounts payable on all shares of Parity Preferred Stock, then the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock shall share ratably in any such distribution of assets in proportion to the full liquidating distributions to which they would otherwise be respectively entitled.

(B) A consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other entity or entities, or a sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation or a statutory share exchange in which stockholders of the Corporation may participate, shall not be deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation within the meaning of this paragraph (5).

(6) Redemption. (A) Shares of Series B Preferred Stock are not redeemable prior to [the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date]. On and after [the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date], the Corporation at its option upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' written notice, may redeem outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, for cash at the following redemption prices (expressed as a percentage of liquidation value) after [the anniversary of the Closing Date] in the following years:

Year	Percentage
2003	105
2004	104
2005	103
2006	102

plus an amount equal to all distributions accrued and unpaid thereon to the date fixed for redemption, without interest to the extent the Corporation will have funds legally available therefor. The redemption price of shares of Series B Preferred Stock (other than the portion hereof consisting of accrued and unpaid distributions) is payable solely out of proceeds from the sale of other capital stock of the Corporation, which may include Common Stock, Preferred Stock, depository shares, interests, participations or other ownership interests in the Corporation however designated, and any rights (other than debt securities converted into or exchangeable for capital stock), warrants or options to purchase any thereof, and not from any other source. Holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be redeemed shall surrender such shares of Series B Preferred Stock at the place designated in such notice and shall be entitled to the redemption price and any accrued and unpaid distributions payable upon such redemption following such surrender. If fewer than all of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock are to be redeemed, the number of shares to be redeemed will be determined by the Corporation and such shares may be redeemed pro rata from the holder of record of such shares in proportion to the number of such shares held by such holders (with adjustments to avoid redemption of fractional shares or by lot in a manner determined by the Corporation).

(B) Unless cumulative distributions on all shares of Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Stock shall have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof for payment for all past distribution periods and the current distribution period, no shares of Series B Preferred Stock or Parity Stock shall be redeemed unless all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock are simultaneously redeemed; the foregoing shall not prevent the purchase or acquisition of shares of Series B Preferred Stock or Parity Stock pursuant to a purchase or exchange offer made on the same terms to holders of all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock or Parity Preferred Stock, as the case may be. Furthermore, unless full cumulative distributions on all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart for payment for all past distribution periods and the then current distribution period, the Corporation shall not purchase or otherwise acquire directly or indirectly any shares of Series B Preferred Stock or Parity Preferred Stock (except by conversion into or exchange for shares of capital stock of the Corporation ranking junior to Series B Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock as to distributions and upon liquidation).

(C) Notice of redemption will be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of New York, such publication to be made once a week for two successive weeks commencing not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the redemption date. A similar notice will be mailed, postage prepaid, at least 30 days but not more than 90 days before the redemption date, to each holder of record of shares of Series B Preferred Stock at the address shown on the share transfer books of the Corporation. Each notice shall state: (i) the redemption date; (ii) the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be redeemed; (iii) the redemption price per share; (iv) the place or places where certificates for shares of Series B Preferred Stock are to be surrendered for payment of the redemption price; and (v) that distributions on shares of Series B Preferred Stock will cease to accrue on such redemption date. No failure to give such notice or any defect thereto or in the mailing thereof shall affect the validity of the proceeding for the redemption of any Series B Preferred Stock except as to the holder to whom notice was defective or not given. If fewer than all shares of Series B Preferred Stock are to be redeemed, the notice mailed to each such holder thereof shall also specify the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be redeemed from each such holder. If notice of redemption of any shares of Series B Preferred Stock has been given and if the funds necessary for such redemption have been set aside by the Corporation in trust for the benefit of the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock so called for redemption, then from and after the redemption date, distributions will cease to accrue on such shares of Series B Preferred Stock, such shares of Series B Preferred Stock shall no longer be deemed outstanding and all rights of the holders of such shares will terminate, except the right to receive the redemption price.

(D) The holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock at the close of business on a Distribution Record Date will be entitled to receive the distribution payable with respect to such shares of Series B Preferred Stock on the corresponding Distribution Payment Date notwithstanding the redemption thereof between such Distribution Record Date and the corresponding Distribution Payment Date or the Corporation's default in the payment of the distribution due. Except as provided above, the Corporation will make no payment or allowance for unpaid distributions, whether or not in arrears, on shares of Series B Preferred Stock which have been called for redemption.

(E) Series B Preferred Stock have no stated maturity and will not be subject to any sinking fund or mandatory redemption, except as provided in Article NINTH of the Charter of the Corporation.

(7) Voting. (A) Except as indicated in this paragraph (7), except as may be required by applicable law, or, at any time Series B Preferred Stock are listed on a securities exchange, as may be required by the rules of such exchange, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will have no voting rights.

(B) If six quarterly distributions (whether or not consecutive) payable on shares of Series B Preferred Stock are in arrears, whether or not earned or declared, the number of directors then constituting the Board of Directors of the Corporation will be increased by two (except as provided in the proviso to paragraph (c) to Article FOURTH of the Charter), and the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock, voting together as a class with the holders of shares of any other series of Preferred Stock upon which like voting rights have been conferred and are exercisable (any such other series, the "Nonvoting Preferred Stock"), will have the right to elect two directors to serve on the Corporation's Board of Directors at any annual meeting of stockholders or a special meeting of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock and such other voting Preferred Stock called by the holders of record of at least 10% of any series of Preferred Stock so in arrears (unless such request is received less than 90 days before the date fixed for the next annual or special meeting of the stockholders), until all such distributions have been declared and paid or set aside for payment. The term of office of all directors so elected will terminate with the termination of such voting rights.

(C) The approval of two-thirds of the outstanding Series B Preferred Stock voting as a single class is required in order to (i) amend, alter or repeal any provision of the Charter, so as to materially and adversely affect the rights, preferences, privileges or voting power of the Series B Preferred Stock; or (ii) authorize, reclassify, create or increase the authorized or issued amount of any class or series of stock having rights senior to Series B Preferred Stock with respect to the payment of distributions or amounts upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation or to create, authorize or issue any obligation or security convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase such shares. However, the Corporation may create additional classes of Parity Preferred Stock and Junior Stock, increase the authorized number of shares of Parity Preferred Stock and Junior Stock and issue additional series of Parity Preferred Stock and Junior Stock without the consent of any holder of Series B Preferred Stock or Voting Preferred Stock.

(D) Except as provided above, as may be required by law or as required by the rules of any securities exchange on which the Series B Preferred Stock are listed, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote on any merger or consolidation involving the Corporation, on any share exchange or on a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation.

(E) In any matter in which the Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to vote (as provided in this paragraph (7)), as may be required by law or as required by the rules of any securities exchange on which the Series B Preferred Stock are listed, including any action by written consent, each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to one vote.

(8) Excess Stock. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is convertible into Series B Excess Preferred Stock as provided in Article NINTH of the Charter of the Corporation.

Exhibit C
to Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Simon
Property Group, Inc.

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC.

Form of 6.50% Series A Excess Preferred Stock

The authorized number of shares of the series of Preferred Stock created by this Exhibit and the voting powers, preferences and relative, participating optional or other special rights and qualifications, and the limitations or restrictions thereof, of such series shall be as set forth in this Exhibit herein.

For purposes of this Exhibit, capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Simon Property Group, Inc. Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Charter"). In addition, for purposes of this Exhibit:

"Corporation" shall mean Simon Property Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and, with reference to periods prior to the reorganization of the Corporation as a Delaware corporation; the Trust (as defined below); and

"Trust" shall mean Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust and the predecessor to the Corporation.

Each share of 6.50% Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Corporation ("Series A Preferred Stock"), is convertible into 6.50% Series A Excess Preferred Stock (the "Series A Excess Preferred Stock") of the Corporation as provided in Article NINTH of the Charter of the Corporation. Subject in all cases to the provisions of Article NINTH of the Charter of the Corporation with respect to Excess Stock, the following is a description of the preferences, conversion and other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption of the Series A Excess Preferred Stock:

SECTION 1. Designation and Number. The designation of the series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation created by this Exhibit shall be "6.50% Series A Excess Preferred Stock". The authorized number of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall be 209,249, with par value $.0001 per share.

SECTION 2. Dividends. (a) The holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock, in preference to the holders of Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share, of the Corporation (the "Common Stock"), any other series of Preferred Stock ranking junior to the Series A Excess Preferred Stock either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up ("Junior Preferred Stock") or any other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking junior to the Series A Excess Preferred Stock either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up ("Other Junior Stock"), shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, in their sole discretion, out of assets of the Corporation legally available for payment of dividends, an annual cash dividend of the Per Share Dividend Amount (as defined below), payable in equal semiannual installments on March 31 and September 30, commencing on March 31, 1998 (each such date, a "Semiannual Payment Date"); provided that if any Semiannual Payment Date is not a business day, then such semiannual installment shall be payable on the next business day. A "business day" is a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which banks in the State of New York are authorized to be closed. The "Per Share Dividend Amount" shall be equal to the product of (x) the Liquidation Preference (as defined below) and (y) the Basic Rate (as defined below) and (z) the sum of 1.00 and a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Basic Rate and the denominator of which shall be 8.00. The "Basic Rate" shall be .065. Dividends shall be payable to holders of record as they appear on the stock register of the Corporation (or, with respect to the first dividend payable hereon, if applicable, the Trust) on such record dates, not more than 30 calendar days nor less than five calendar days preceding the payment dates thereof, as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors. A dividend shall not be payable, but shall accumulate (even if undeclared), to the extent that it would exceed the Corporation's cash flow from operations, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, for the six-month period ending immediately before the Semiannual Payment Date.

(b) Dividends on shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall be cumulative (even if undeclared). Such dividends on shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall accumulate from the first date of issuance of any such shares. Dividends on shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall cease to accumulate on such shares on the date of their earlier conversion or redemption.

(c) When holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends pursuant to the first sentence of this Section and such dividends and dividends on any other series of Preferred Stock ranking on a parity both as to dividends and upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up with the Series A Excess Preferred Stock (the Series A Excess Preferred Stock and such other Preferred Stock being called "Parity Preferred Stock") are not paid in full, all dividends declared on Parity Preferred Stock shall be declared pro rata so that the amount of dividends declared per share on shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock and on such other Parity Preferred Stock bear to each other the same ratio that unpaid dividends per share on shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock and such other Parity Preferred Stock bear to each other. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence with respect to Parity Preferred Stock, unless the full amount of cumulative dividends on shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock have been paid, no dividends may be paid or declared and set aside for payment or other distribution ordered or made on the Common Stock or on any other series of Preferred Stock or other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking junior to or on a parity with the Series A Excess Preferred Stock either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, nor may any Common Stock or any other series of Preferred Stock or other class or series of stock of the Corporation ranking junior to or on a parity with the Series A Excess Preferred Stock either as to dividends or upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up be redeemed, repurchased or otherwise acquired for any consideration (or any payment made to or available for a sinking fund or defeasance Corporation for any such redemption, repurchase or acquisition) by the Corporation or any subsidiary thereof.

SECTION 3. Liquidation. The Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall rank prior to the Common Stock, Junior Preferred Stock and any Other Junior Stock, so that in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation (a "Liquidation Transaction"), whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to its stockholders, whether from capital, surplus or earnings, before any distribution is made to holders of Common Stock, Junior Preferred Stock or Other Junior Stock, an amount equal to $1,000.00 per share (the "Liquidation Preference" of a share of Series A Excess Preferred Stock) plus an amount equal to the full amount of accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon on the date of final distribution, prorating the dividend accumulated during the period commencing on the Semiannual Payment Date immediately preceding the date of final distribution and ending on such final distribution date (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months). If, upon any Liquidation Transaction, the assets of the Corporation, or proceeds thereof, distributable among the holders of Parity Preferred Stock shall be insufficient to permit the payment in full to such holders of the amounts payable to such holders upon a Liquidation Transaction pursuant to the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, then such assets or proceeds shall be distributed among such holders ratably in proportion to the amounts that would be payable on such shares if all amounts payable thereon were paid in full. After payment in full of the Liquidation Preference and accumulated and unpaid dividends to which they are entitled, the holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of the assets of the Corporation. For purposes hereof, neither the voluntary sale, conveyance, exchange or transfer (for cash, shares, securities or other consideration) of all or substantially all the property or assets of the Corporation nor a consolidation or merger of the Corporation with one or more other persons shall be deemed to be a Liquidation Transaction, voluntary or involuntary.

The holder of any share of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to receive any payment owed for such shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock under this Section 3 until such holder shall (a) cause to be delivered to the Corporation the certificate(s) representing such shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock and (b) transfer instrument(s) satisfactory to the Corporation and sufficient to transfer such shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock to the Corporation free of any adverse interest. As in the case of the Redemption Price referred to in Section 5, no interest shall accrue on any payment upon liquidation after the date thereof.

SECTION 4. Status of Redeemed Series A Excess Preferred Stock. Upon any redemption, repurchase or other acquisition by the Corporation of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock, the shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock so redeemed, repurchased or acquired shall be retired and canceled.

SECTION 5. Redemption at the Option of the Corporation. (a) The Board of Directors shall have the power to restrict transfers of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock and/or to call for redemption a sufficient number of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock, selected in a manner deemed appropriate in the opinion of the Board of Directors, to maintain or bring the direct or indirect ownership of the capital stock of the Corporation into conformity with the requirements of Section 856(a)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, at the greater of (i) a price (the "Redemption Price") equal to the Liquidation Preference of the redeemed shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock, plus an amount equal to the full amount of accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon at the Redemption Date (as hereinafter defined), prorating the dividend accumulated during the period commencing on the Semiannual Payment Date immediately preceding the date of the payment of the Redemption Price and ending on such payment date (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months) and (ii) the current market price (as defined in Section 5(c)) of the Common Stock into which shares of such redeemed Series A Excess Preferred Stock could have been converted if a right to convert existed at such time. In making such selection, the Board of Directors shall take due regard of all feasible selection methods and shall only select shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock if, in their considered, good faith judgment, such selection shall be an equitable way of maintaining or bringing ownership of the capital stock of the Corporation into conformity with Section 856(a)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, given the burdens on the holders of the shares of redeemed Series A Excess Preferred Stock of the various selection methods and the consequences (including withholding tax and other tax consequences) to the Corporation and its remaining shareholders associated with such methods, such judgment to be made without reference to the liquidation preference, conversion rights or dividend rate of the shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock unless such preference, conversion rights or rate shall be directly relevant to the conformity of the ownership of the capital stock of the Corporation with said Section 856(a)(6).

(b) The Corporation shall give the holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock prior written notice of a redemption pursuant to this Section 5 (a "Redemption") not more than 60 nor less than 30 calendar days prior to the date fixed for redemption (the "Redemption Date") at the address of such holders on the books of the Corporation (provided that failure to give such notice or any defect therein shall not affect the validity of the proceeding for a Redemption except as to the holder to whom the Corporation has failed to give such notice or whose notice was defective), and shall set apart the funds necessary to pay the aggregate Redemption Price on all shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock then called for redemption. Provided that such funds have been so set apart, from and after the close of business on the Redemption Date the shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall no longer be deemed outstanding and all rights with respect to such shares shall forthwith cease and terminate, except the right of the holders thereof to receive the Redemption Price (without interest) upon surrender of the certificates evidencing their shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock. In case fewer than all of the shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock represented by any such surrendered certificate are called for redemption, a new certificate shall be issued at the expense of the Corporation representing the unredeemed shares.

(c) The "current market price" per share of share of Common Stock on any day shall be the average of the closing per share sales prices of the Common Stock during the last twenty trading days as reported on the Composite Tape of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (the "NYSE") or, if shares of Common Stock are not then listed on the NYSE, on the principal United States securities exchange registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, on which shares of Common Stock are then listed or, if shares of Common Stock are not then listed on any such stock exchange, the average of the average closing bid and ask quotations with respect to a share of Common Stock during the last twenty trading days on the NASDAQ Stock Market or any successor system then in use or, if no such quotations are then available, the average of the bid and asked prices with respect to a share of Common Stock for such trading days, as furnished by a member of the NYSE regularly making a market in the Common Stock selected by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, or, if no such member firm is then making a market in the Common Stock, the fair market value on such date of a share of Common Stock as determined in good faith by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors of the Corporation after consultation with an independent financial advisor of recognized national standing.

SECTION 6. Voting. (a) In addition to any rights provided by law, each holder of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to such number of votes per share held as shall equal the number (rounded to the nearest whole vote) obtained by dividing $1,000.00 by the lesser of (x) the Conversion Price and (y) the Alternative Conversion Price. Except as provided in paragraph (b) below, the holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to vote on all matters as to which holders of shares of Common Stock shall be entitled to vote, in the same manner and with the same effect as such holders of shares of Common Stock, voting together with the holders of shares of Common Stock as one class.

(b) The Corporation shall not, without the affirmative consent or approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock then outstanding, voting separately as a class, given by written consent in lieu of a meeting or by vote at a meeting called for such purpose for which notice shall have been given to the holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock, (i) authorize any class of stock ranking prior to the Series A Excess Preferred Stock with respect to the payment of dividends or distribution of assets upon dissolution, liquidation or winding-up; (ii) amend, alter or repeal any of the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation so as to affect adversely the powers, preferences or rights of the holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock then outstanding or reduce the minimum time required for any notice to which only the holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock then outstanding may be entitled (an amendment of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation to authorize or create, or to increase the authorized amount of, any shares of any class ranking junior or on a parity with shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock shall be deemed not to affect adversely the powers, preferences or rights of the holders of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock); (iii) authorize or create, or increase the authorized amount of, any shares, or any security convertible into stock, of any class ranking prior to the Series A Excess Preferred Stock with respect to the payment of dividends or distribution of assets upon dissolution, liquidation or winding-up; (iv) merge or consolidate with or into any other person, unless each holder of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock immediately preceding such merger or consolidation shall receive or continue to hold in the resulting person the same number of shares, with substantially the same rights and preferences, as correspond to shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock so held; (v) increase the number of authorized shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock above 209,249; (vi) amend, alter or modify any of the provisions of this Exhibit; or (vii) otherwise alter or change the powers, preferences, or rights, or qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock so as to affect them adversely.

SECTION 7. Notice of Certain Events. (a) In case at any time the Corporation shall propose

(i) to pay any dividend payable in shares of Common Stock upon its shares of Common Stock, or to make any distribution (other than a dividend or distribution of cash from Cash Flow) to the holders of shares of Common Stock;

(ii) to make any dividend or distribution of cash to the holders of shares of Common Stock from Cash Flow but to retain a portion of such Cash Flow in the Corporation;

(iii) to offer for subscription pro rata to the holders of shares of Common Stock any additional shares of beneficial interest of any class or any other rights or warrants;

(iv) to consolidate or merge with or into another person; or

(v) to effect any reorganization, reclassification, liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation;

and the effect of such proposed action would be to cause there to be made an adjustment in the Conversion Price of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock pursuant to the Charter, then, and in any one or more of such cases, the Corporation shall cause at least ten calendar days' notice thereof to be filed with the Transfer Agent and to be given to each holder of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock as of the date on which (x) the books of the Corporation shall close, or a record be taken, for such dividend or distribution on shares of Common Stock, dividend or distribution or offering of rights or warrants or (y) such consolidation, merger, reorganization, reclassification, liquidation, dissolution or winding-up shall be effective, as the case may be.

(b) In case the Board of Directors shall approve the sale or other transfer of all or substantially all the interest of the Corporation or any affiliate of the Corporation in any of the Specified Assets (as defined below) to any person that is not an affiliate of the Corporation, then the Corporation shall cause notice of such approval to be filed with the Transfer Agent and given to each holder of shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock as of the date of the giving of such approval within five business days of the date of the giving of such approval. The term "Specified Assets" shall mean the properties commonly known as Roosevelt Field Shopping Center (Nassau County, New York), Lenox Square Mall (Atlanta, Georgia), Town Center at Boca Raton

(Palm Beach County, Florida), Brea Mall (Brea, California) and Rockaway Townsquare Mall (Rockaway, New Jersey).

(c) The failure to give or receive the notice required by this Section 7 or any defect therein shall not affect the legality or validity of any such dividend, distribution, issuance of any right or warrant or other action.

SECTION 8. Designation of Capital Gain Dividends. So long as 10,000 or more shares of Series A Excess Preferred Stock are held of record by one or more of (i) Stichting Pensioenfonds voor de Gezondheid Geestelijke en Maatschappelijke belangen ("PGGM"), (ii) any affiliate of PGGM that identifies itself to the Transfer Agent and the Corporation as such an affiliate and (iii) any other foreign individual or entity with a record address outside the United States of America: the Corporation shall not designate any dividends paid on shares of the Series A Excess Preferred Stock (or dividends deemed paid pursuant to Section 305 of the Code) as capital gain dividends for U.S. tax purposes, and all distributions on the Common Stock of the Corporation in excess of the Corporation's real estate investment trust taxable income (excluding net capital gains) for any taxable year shall be designated as capital gains dividends to the extent of the Corporation's recognized capital gains for such taxable year.

SECTION 9. Definitions and Construction. As used in this resolution: (a) "herein", "hereof", "hereunder" and other like words mean or refer to this resolution in its entirety; (b) "outstanding", when used with reference to shares of stock, means issued shares of stock, excluding shares of stock held by the Corporation or a subsidiary thereof; (c) "person" means any corporation, partnership, trust, organization, association or other entity or individual; (d) "affiliate" of any person means any other person controlling, controlled by or under common control with such person; (e) "capital stock of the Corporation" shall mean shares of the capital stock of the Corporation as described in Article FOURTH of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation; (f) "Common Stock" shall mean the stock described as Common Stock in Article FOURTH of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation; (g) "Preferred Stock" shall mean the stock described as Preferred Stock in Article FOURTH of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation; (h) "Transfer Agent" shall First Chicago Trust Company of New York or such other successor transfer agent(s) appointed by the Board of Directors in accordance with Section 6.02 of the Restated By-Laws of the Corporation; (i) headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not define, limit or affect any of the provisions hereof; and (j) references to Sections are to Sections of this Exhibit, unless otherwise expressly provided.

In addition, whenever reference is made herein to cash flow from operations of the Corporation, as determined in good faith by the Board of Directors, such determination shall be made on a basis substantially consistent with that employed by the Corporation in computing Funds From Operations as reported in the Corporation's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Exhibit D to the Simon Property Group, Inc.
Restated Certificate of Incorporation

FORM OF

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC.

SERIES B EXCESS PREFERRED STOCK

The authorized number of shares of the series of Preferred Stock created herein and the voting powers, preferences and relative, participating optional or other special rights and qualifications, and the limitations or restrictions thereof, of such series shall be as set forth herein.

For purposes of this exhibit, capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Simon Property Group, Inc. Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Charter").

Each share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Corporation ("Series B Preferred Stock"), is convertible into Series B Excess Preferred Stock (the "Series B Excess Preferred Stock") of the Corporation as provided in Article NINTH of the Charter of the Corporation. Subject in all cases to the provisions of Article NINTH of the Charter of the Corporation with respect to Excess Stock, the following is a description of the preferences, conversion and other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption of the Series B Excess Preferred Stock:

(1) Designation and Amount. The designation of the series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation created herein shall be "Series B Excess Preferred Stock." The authorized number of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall be 5,000,000, with par value $0.0001 per share.

All shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock redeemed, purchased, exchanged, unissued or otherwise acquired by the Corporation shall be retired and canceled and, upon the taking of any action required by applicable law, shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares of capital stock and may thereafter be issued, but not as Series B Excess Preferred Stock.

(2) Ranking. The Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall, with respect to dividend rights, rights upon liquidation, winding up, dissolution, and redemption rights, rank (A) junior to any other class or series of Preferred Stock hereafter duly established by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the terms of which shall specifically provide that such series shall rank prior to the Series B Excess Preferred Stock as to the payment of dividends, distribution of assets upon liquidation and redemption rights (the "Senior Preferred Stock"), (B) pari passu with the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock of the Corporation, par value $0.0001 per share, the Series A Convertible Preferred Excess Stock of the Corporation, par value $0.0001 per share, the Series B Preferred Stock and any other class or series of Preferred Stock hereafter duly established by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the terms of which shall specifically provide that such class or series shall rank pari passu with the Series B Excess Preferred Stock as to the payment of dividends, distribution of assets upon liquidation and redemption rights (the "Parity Preferred Stock") and (C) prior to any other class or series of preferred stock or other class or series of capital stock of or other equity interests in the Corporation, including, without limitation, all classes of the common stock of the Corporation, whether now or hereafter created. All of such classes or series of capital stock and other equity interests of the Corporation, including, without limitation, the Common Stock, the Class B Common Stock and the Class C Common Stock are collectively referred to herein as the "Junior Stock".

(3) Dividends. (A) Subject to the rights of series of Preferred Stock which may from time to time come into existence, holders of the then outstanding Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends, cumulative preferential cash dividends at the rate of $6.50 per annum per share. Such dividends shall accrue and be cumulative from the date of original issue and shall be payable in equal amounts quarterly in arrears on the last day of March, June, September and December or, if not a business day, the next succeeding business day (each, a "Distribution Payment Date"). The first dividend, which will be paid on September 30, 1998, will be for less than a full quarter. Such first dividend and any dividend distribution payable on Series B Excess Preferred Stock for any partial distribution period will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. Distributions will be payable to holders of record as they appear in the share records of the Corporation at the close of business on the applicable record date, which shall be on the first day of the calendar month in which the applicable Distribution Payment Date falls on or on such other date designated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation for the payment of distributions that is not more than 30 nor less than 10 days prior to such Distribution Payment Date (each, a "Distribution Record Date").

(B) Dividends on Series B Excess Preferred Stock will accrue and be cumulative whether or not the Corporation has earnings, whether or not there are funds legally available for the payment of such distributions and whether or not such distributions are earned, declared or authorized. No interest, or sum of money in lieu of interest, shall be payable in respect of any distribution payment or payments on Series B Excess Preferred Stock which may be in arrears. Dividends paid on the Series B Excess Preferred Stock in an amount less than the total amount of such dividends at the time accrued and payable on such shares shall be allocated pro rata on a per share basis among all such shares at the time outstanding.

(C) If, for any taxable year, the Corporation elects to designate as capital gain distributions (as defined in Section 857 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any successor revenue code or section (the "Code")) any portion (the "Capital Gains Amount") of the total distributions (as determined for federal income tax purposes) paid or made available for the year to holders of all classes of capital stock (the "Total Distributions"), then the portion of the Capital Gains Amount that shall be allocable to holders of Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall be in the same percentage that the total distributions paid or made available to the holders of Series B Excess Preferred Stock for the year bears to the Total Distributions.

(D) If any shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock are outstanding, then, except as provided in the following sentence, no distributions shall be declared or paid or set apart for payment on any shares of any other series of Preferred Stock of the Corporation ranking, as to distributions, on a parity with or junior to Series B Excess Preferred Stock for any period unless full cumulative distributions have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart for such payments on shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock for all past distribution periods and the then current distribution period. When distributions are not paid in full (or a sum sufficient for such full payment is not set apart) upon the shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock and the shares of any other series of Preferred Stock ranking on parity as to distributions with shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock, all distributions declared upon shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock and any other series of Preferred Stock ranking on a parity as to distributions with Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall be declared pro rata so that the amount of distributions declared per share on Series B Excess Preferred Stock and such other series of Preferred Stock shall in all cases bear to each other the same ratio that accrued distributions per share on Series B Excess Preferred Stock and such other series of Preferred Stock bear to each other.

(E) Except as provided in subparagraph (3)(D) herein, unless full cumulative distributions on shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart for payment for all past distribution periods and the then current distribution period, no distributions (other than in shares of Common Stock or other Junior Stock) shall be declared or paid aside for payment or other distribution shall be declared or made upon the shares of Common Stock or any other capital stock of the Corporation ranking junior to or on a parity with Series B Excess Preferred Stock as to distributions or upon liquidation, nor shall any shares of Common Stock or any other capital stock of the Corporation ranking junior to or on a parity with Series B Excess Preferred Stock as to distributions or upon liquidation be redeemed, purchased or otherwise acquired for any consideration (or any moneys be paid to or made available for a sinking fund for the redemption of any such capital stock) by the Corporation (except by conversion into or exchange for Junior Stock).

(F) Any distribution payment made on shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall first be credited against the earliest accrued but unpaid distribution due with respect to shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock which remain payable.

(G) No distributions on the Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall be authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation or be paid or set apart for payment by the Corporation at such time as the terms and provisions of any agreement of the Corporation, including any agreement relating to its indebtedness, prohibits such authorization, payment or setting apart for payment or provides that such authorization, payment or setting apart for payment would constitute a breach thereof or a default thereunder if such authorization or payment shall be restricted or prohibited by law.

(H) Except as provided in this paragraph (3) and in paragraph (4), the Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to participate in the earnings or assets of the Corporation.

(4) Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding Up. (A) Subject to the rights of series of Preferred Stock which may from time to time come into existence, upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, then, before any distribution or payment shall be made to the holders of any Junior Stock, the holders of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive out of assets of the Corporation legally available for distribution to stockholders, liquidation distributions in the amount of the liquidation preference of $100.00 per share in cash or property having a fair market value as determined by the Board of Directors valued at $100.00 per share, plus an amount equal to all distributions accrued and unpaid at the date of such liquidation, dissolution or winding up. After payment of the full amount of the liquidating distributions to which they are entitled, the holders of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock will have no right or claim to any of the remaining assets of the Corporation. In the event that, upon any such voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, the available assets of the Corporation are insufficient to pay the amount of the liquidation distributions on all outstanding shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock and the corresponding amounts payable on all shares of Parity Preferred Stock, then the holders of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock shall share ratably in any such distribution of assets in proportion to the full liquidating distributions to which they would otherwise be respectively entitled.

(B) A consolidation or merger of the Corporation with or into any other entity or entities, or a sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation or a statutory share exchange in which stockholders of the Corporation may participate, shall not be deemed to be a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation within the meaning of this paragraph (4).

(5) Redemption. (A) Shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock are not redeemable prior to [the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date]. On and after [the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date], the Corporation at its option upon not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' written notice, may redeem outstanding shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, for cash at the following redemption prices (expressed as a percentage of liquidation value) after [the anniversary of the Closing Date] in the following years:

Year	Percentage
2003	105
2004	104
2005	103
2006	102

plus an amount equal to all distributions accrued and unpaid thereon to the date fixed for redemption, without interest to the extent the Corporation will have funds legally available therefor. The redemption price of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock (other than the portion hereof consisting of accrued and unpaid distributions) is payable solely out of proceeds from the sale of other capital stock of the Corporation, which may include Common Stock, Preferred Stock, depository shares, interests, participations or other ownership interests in the Corporation however designated, and any rights (other than debt securities converted into or exchangeable for capital stock), warrants or options to purchase any thereof, and not from any other source. Holders of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock to be redeemed shall surrender such shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock at the place designated in such notice and shall be entitled to the redemption price and any accrued and unpaid distributions payable upon such redemption following such surrender. If fewer than all of the outstanding shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock are to be redeemed, the number of shares to be redeemed will be determined by the Corporation and such shares may be redeemed pro rata from the holder of record of such shares in proportion to the number of such shares held by such holders (with adjustments to avoid redemption of fractional shares or by lot in a manner determined by the Corporation).

(B) Unless cumulative distributions on all shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock and Parity Stock shall have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof for payment for all past distribution periods and the current distribution period, no shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock or Parity Stock shall be redeemed unless all outstanding shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock are simultaneously redeemed; the foregoing shall not prevent the purchase or acquisition of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock or Parity Stock pursuant to a purchase or exchange offer made on the same terms to holders of all outstanding shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock or Parity Preferred Stock, as the case may be. Furthermore, unless full cumulative distributions on all outstanding shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid or declared and a sum sufficient for the payment thereof set apart for payment for all past distribution periods and the then current distribution period, the Corporation shall not purchase or otherwise acquire directly or indirectly any shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock or Parity Preferred Stock (except by conversion into or exchange for shares of capital stock of the Corporation ranking junior to Series B Excess Preferred Stock and Parity Preferred Stock as to distributions and upon liquidation).

(C) Notice of redemption will be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of New York, such publication to be made once a week for two successive weeks commencing not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the redemption date. A similar notice will be mailed, postage prepaid, at least 30 days but not more than 90 days before the redemption date, to each holder of record of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock at the address shown on the share transfer books of the Corporation. Each notice shall state: (i) the redemption date; (ii) the number of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock to be redeemed; (iii) the redemption price per share; (iv) the place or places where certificates for shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock are to be surrendered for payment of the redemption price; and (v) that distributions on shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock will cease to accrue on such redemption date. No failure to give such notice or any defect thereto or in the mailing thereof shall affect the validity of the proceeding for the redemption of any Series B Excess Preferred Stock except as to the holder to whom notice was defective or not given. If fewer than all shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock are to be redeemed, the notice mailed to each such holder thereof shall also specify the number of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock to be redeemed from each such holder. If notice of redemption of any shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock has been given and if the funds necessary for such redemption have been set aside by the Corporation in trust for the benefit of the holders of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock so called for redemption, then from and after the redemption date, distributions will cease to accrue on such shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock, such shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall no longer be deemed outstanding and all rights of the holders of such shares will terminate, except the right to receive the redemption price.

(D) The holders of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock at the close of business on a Distribution Record Date will be entitled to receive the distribution payable with respect to such shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock on the corresponding Distribution Payment Date notwithstanding the redemption thereof between such Distribution Record Date and the corresponding Distribution Payment Date or the Corporation's default in the payment of the distribution due. Except as provided above, the Corporation will make no payment or allowance for unpaid distributions, whether or not in arrears, on shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock which have been called for redemption.

(E) Series B Excess Preferred Stock have no stated maturity and will not be subject to any sinking fund or mandatory redemption, except as provided in Article NINTH of the Charter of the Corporation.

(6) Voting. (A) Except as indicated in this paragraph (6), except as may be required by applicable law, or, at any time Series B Excess Preferred Stock are listed on a securities exchange, as may be required by the rules of such exchange, the holders of shares of Series B Excess Preferred Stock will have no voting rights.

(B) If six quarterly distributions (whether or not consecutive) payable on shares of Series B Preferred Stock or Series B Excess Preferred Stock are in arrears, whether or not earned or declared, the number of directors then constituting the Board of Directors of the Corporation will be increased by two (except as provided in the proviso to paragraph (c) to Article FOURTH of the Charter), and the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and Series B Excess Preferred Stock, voting together as a class with the holders of shares of any other series of Preferred Stock upon which like voting rights have been conferred and are exercisable (any such other series, the "Nonvoting Preferred Stock"), will have the right to elect two directors to serve on the Corporation's Board of Directors at any annual meeting of stockholders or a special meeting of the holders of Series B Preferred Stock and Series B Excess Preferred Stock and such other voting Preferred Stock called by the holders of record of at least 10% of any series of Preferred Stock so in arrears (unless such request is received less than 90 days before the date fixed for the next annual or special meeting of the stockholders), until all such distributions have been declared and paid or set aside for payment. The term of office of all directors so elected will terminate with the termination of such voting rights.

(C) The approval of two-thirds of the outstanding Series B Excess Preferred Stock voting as a single class is required in order to (i) amend, alter or repeal any provision of the Charter, so as to materially and adversely affect the rights, preferences, privileges or voting power of the Series B Excess Preferred Stock; or (ii) authorize, reclassify, create or increase the authorized or issued amount of any class or series of stock having rights senior to Series B Excess Preferred Stock with respect to the payment of distributions or amounts upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation or to create, authorize or issue any obligation or security convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase such shares. However, the Corporation may create additional classes of Parity Preferred Stock and Junior Stock, increase the authorized number of shares of Parity Preferred Stock and Junior Stock and issue additional series of Parity Preferred Stock and Junior Stock without the consent of any holder of Series B Excess Preferred Stock or Voting Preferred Stock.

(D) Except as provided above, as may be required by law or as required by the rules of any securities exchange on which the Series B Excess Preferred Stock are listed, the holders of Series B Excess Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote on any merger or consolidation involving the Corporation, on any share exchange or on a sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Corporation.

(E) In any matter in which the Series B Excess Preferred Stock are entitled to vote (as provided in this paragraph (6)), as may be required by law or as required by the rules of any securities exchange on which the Series B Excess Preferred Stock are listed, including any action by written consent, each share of Series B Excess Preferred Stock shall be entitled to one vote.

CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, INC.

(HEREINAFTER CALLED THE "CORPORATION")

ARTICLE 1

OFFICES AND RECORDS

SECTION 1.01. Registered Office. The current registered office of the Corporation in the State of Delaware shall be located at 1209 Orange Street in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle. The name of the Corporation's registered agent at that address, upon whom legal process against the Corporation may be served, is CT Corporation System.

SECTION 1.02. Other Offices. The Corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Delaware, as the Board of Directors may designate or as the business of the Corporation may from time to time require.

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 2.01. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation shall be held at such date, place and time as may be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2.02. Special Meeting. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock of the Corporation (the "Preferred Stock") or any other series or class of stock as set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, special meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time only by the Secretary at the direction of the Board of Directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2.03. Place of Meeting. The Board of Directors may designate the place of meeting for any meeting of the stockholders. If no designation is made by the Board of Directors, the place of meeting shall be the principal office of the Corporation.

SECTION 2.04. Notice of Meeting. Written or printed notice, stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of special meetings, the purpose or purposes for which such special meeting is called, shall be prepared and delivered by the Corporation not less than ten days nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally, or by mail, to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. Such further notice shall be given as may be required by law. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting. Any previously scheduled meeting of the stockholders may be postponed, and (unless the Certificate of Incorporation otherwise provides) any special meeting of the stockholders may be canceled, by resolution of the Board of Directors upon public notice given prior to the time previously scheduled for such meeting of stockholders.

SECTION 2.05. Quorum and Adjournment. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Certificate of Incorporation, the holders of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (the "Voting Stock"), represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of stockholders, except that when specified business is to be voted on by a class or series voting as a class, the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of such class or series shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of such business. The Chairman of the Board or the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of Voting Stock so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time, whether or not there is such a quorum (or, in the case of specified business to be voted on by a class or series, the Chairman of the Board or the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of such class or series so represented may adjourn the meeting with respect to such specified business). No notice of the time and place of adjourned meetings need be given except as required by law. The stockholders present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum.

SECTION 2.06. Proxies. At all meetings of stockholders, a stockholder may vote by proxy as may be permitted by law; provided, that no proxy shall be voted after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. Any proxy to be used at a meeting of stockholders must be filed with the Secretary of the Corporation or his representative at or before the time of the meeting.

SECTION 2.07. Notice of Stockholder Business and Nominations.

(a) Annual Meetings of Stockholders.

(i) Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors of the Corporation and the proposal of business to be considered by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders (A) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting delivered pursuant to Section 2.04 of these Bylaws, (B) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (C) by any stockholder of the Corporation who is entitled to vote at the meeting, who complied with the notice procedures set forth in clauses (ii) and (iii) of this Section 2.07(a) and who was a stockholder of record at the time such notice is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation.

(ii) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (C) of paragraph (a)(i) of this Bylaw, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation and, in the case of business other than nominations, such other business must otherwise be a proper matter for stockholder action. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than ninety days nor more than one hundred and twenty days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided however, that with respect to the annual meeting to be held in 1999, the anniversary date shall be deemed to be

March 12, 1998; provided further, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than thirty days, or delayed by more than ninety days, from such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the one hundred and twentieth day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of an annual meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described in this Section 2.07(a). Such stockholder's notice shall set forth (A) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and Rule 14a-11 thereunder, including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected; (B) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (C) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (1) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner and (2) the class and number of shares of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder and such beneficial owner.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of clause (ii) of this Section 2.07(a) to the contrary, in the event that the number of directors to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation is increased and there is no public announcement naming all the nominees for director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the Corporation at least one hundred days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice required by this Bylaw shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Corporation.

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders.

Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting pursuant to Section 2.04 of these Bylaws. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) by any stockholder of the Corporation who is entitled to vote at the meeting, who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Bylaw and who is a stockholder of record at the time such notice is delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation. In the event the Corporation calls a special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more directors to the Board of Directors, any such stockholder may nominate such number of persons for election to such position(s) as are specified in the Corporation's Notice of Meeting, if the stockholder's notice as required by clause (ii) of Section 2.07(a) of these Bylaws shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not earlier than the one hundred and twentieth day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth day prior to such special meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at such meeting. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment or postponement of a special meeting commence a new time period for the giving of a stockholder's notice as described above.

(c) General

(i) Only persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Bylaw shall be eligible to be elected as directors at a meeting of stockholders and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Bylaw. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the Chairman of the Board shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Bylaw and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this Bylaw, to declare that such defective proposal or nomination shall be disregarded.

(ii) For purposes of this Bylaw, "public announcement" shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

(iii) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Bylaw, a stockholder shall also comply with all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Bylaw. Nothing in this Bylaw shall be deemed to affect any rights of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Corporation's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act.

SECTION 2.08. Procedure For Election of Directors; Voting. The election of directors submitted to stockholders at any meeting shall be decided by a plurality of the votes cast thereon, except as otherwise set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation with respect to the right of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock or any other series or class of stock to elect additional directors under specified circumstances. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, all matters other than the election of directors submitted to the stockholders at any meeting shall be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting power of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote thereon, and where a separate vote by class is required, a majority of the voting power of the shares of that class present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote thereon.

The vote on any matter, including the election of directors, shall be by written ballot. Each ballot shall be signed by the stockholder voting, or by such stockholder's proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted.

SECTION 2.09. Inspectors of Elections; Opening and Closing the Polls.

(a) The Board of Directors by resolution shall appoint one or more inspectors, which inspector or inspectors may not be directors, officers or employees of the Corporation, to act at the meeting and make a written report thereof. One or more persons may be designated as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector or alternate has been appointed to act, or if all inspectors or alternates who have been appointed are unable to act, at a meeting of stockholders, the Chairman of the Board shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting. Each inspector, before discharging his or her duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability. The inspectors shall have the duties prescribed by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

(b) The Chairman of the Board shall fix and announce at the meeting the date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at the meeting.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 3.01. General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of its Board of Directors. In addition to the powers and authorities by these Bylaws expressly conferred upon them, the Board of Directors may exercise all such powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not, by law or by Certificate of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

SECTION 3.02. Number, Tenure and Qualifications. Subject to Section 3.12 of these Bylaws and to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock, or any other series or class of stock as set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, to elect directors under specified circumstances, the number of directors shall be fixed from time to time exclusively pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, but shall consist of not less than three nor more than 24 directors. However, no decrease in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director. The directors, other than those who may be elected by the holders of any series of Preferred Stock, or any other series or class of stock as set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation, shall be divided into such classes and hold office for such terms as set forth in, and may be removed only in accordance with, the Certificate of Incorporation.

SECTION 3.03. Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without other notice than this Bylaw immediately after, and at the same place as, each annual meeting of stockholders. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, provide the time and place for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, the Secretary of the Corporation shall act as secretary at all regular meetings of the Board of Directors and in the Secretary's absence a temporary secretary shall be appointed by the chairman of the meeting.

SECTION 3.04. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be called at the request of the Chairman of the Board and the President, acting together, or a majority of the Board of Directors or such other person as the Board of Directors by resolution shall designate. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board of Directors may fix the place and time of the meetings. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, the Secretary of the Corporation shall act as secretary at all special meetings of the Board of Directors and in the Secretary's absence a temporary secretary shall be appointed by the chairman of the meeting.

SECTION 3.05. Notice. Notice of any special meeting shall be mailed to each director at his business or residence not later than three days before the day on which such meeting is to be held or shall be sent to either of such places by telegraph or facsimile or other electronic transmission, or be communicated to each director personally or by telephone, not later than the day before such day of meeting. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice of such meeting, except for amendments to these Bylaws as provided pursuant to Section 8.01 hereof. A meeting may be held at any time without notice if all the directors are present (except as otherwise provided by law) or if those present waive notice of the meeting in accordance with Section 6.04 hereof, either before or after such meeting.

SECTION 3.06. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if a written consent thereto is signed by all members of the Board or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the records of the proceedings of the Board or such committee.

SECTION 3.07. Conference Telephone Meetings. Members of the Board of Directors, or any committee thereof, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

SECTION 3.08. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee, a majority of the entire Board of Directors (as defined in Section 3.09(a)) or the entire committee (assuming no vacancies), as the case may be, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of the directors or members, as the case may be, present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be, except as otherwise provided in the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee, a majority of the directors or members, as the case may be, present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice other than announcement at the meeting. If permitted by applicable law, the directors or members, as the case may be, present at a duly authorized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough directors to leave less than a quorum.

SECTION 3.09. Committees. (a) The Corporation shall have [five] standing committees: the executive committee, the nominating and directors committee, the audit committee, the compensation committee and the investment committee. The executive committee shall have those powers and authority as are delegated to it from time to time pursuant to a resolution passed by a three-quarters vote of the total number of directors specified in the resolution pursuant to Section 3.02 of these Bylaws which the Corporation would have if there were no vacancies (the "entire Board of Directors").

(b) The nominating and directors committee shall have the following exclusive powers and authority: (i) evaluating and recommending director candidates to the Board of Directors, (ii) assessing Board of Directors performance not less frequently than every three years, (iii) recommending director compensation and benefits philosophy for the Corporation, (iv) reviewing individual director performance as issues arise and (v) periodically reviewing the Corporation's corporate governance profile. None of the members of the nominating and directors committee shall be a member of the executive committee or an officer or full-time employee of the Corporation or of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Corporation.

(c) The audit committee shall have the following powers and authority: (i) employing independent public accountants to audit the books of account, accounting procedures, and financial statements of the Corporation and to perform such other duties from time to time as the audit committee may prescribe, (ii) receiving the reports and comments of the Corporation's internal auditors and of the independent public accountants employed by the committee and to take such action with respect thereto as may seem appropriate, (iii) requesting the Corporation's consolidated subsidiaries and affiliated companies to employ independent public accountants to audit their respective books of account, accounting procedures, and financial statements, (iv) requesting the independent public accountants to furnish to the compensation committee the certifications required under any present or future stock option, incentive compensation or employee benefit plan of the Corporation, (v) reviewing the adequacy of internal financial controls, (vi) approving the accounting principles employed in financial reporting, (vii) approving the appointment or removal of the Corporation's general auditor and (viii) reviewing the accounting principles employed in financial reporting. None of the members of the audit committee shall be a member of the executive committee or an officer or full-time employee of the Corporation or of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Corporation.

(d) The compensation committee shall have the following powers and authority: (i) determining and fixing the compensation for all senior officers of the Corporation and those of its Subsidiaries (as defined in Section 6.07(f)) that the compensation committee shall from time to time consider appropriate, as well as all employees of the Corporation and its Subsidiaries compensated at a rate in excess of such amount per annum as may be fixed or determined from time to time by the Board of Directors, (ii) performing the duties of the committees of the Board of Directors provided for in any present or future stock option, incentive compensation or employee benefit plan of the Corporation or, if the compensation committee shall so determine, any such plan of any Subsidiary and (iii) reviewing the operations of and policies pertaining to any present or future stock option, incentive compensation or employee benefit plan of the Corporation or any Subsidiary that the compensation committee shall from time to time consider appropriate. None of the members of the compensation committee shall be a member of the executive committee or an officer or full-time employee of the Corporation or of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Corporation.

(e) The investment committee shall have the following powers and authority: maximizing the effective utilization of the assets of the Corporation and its subsidiaries and reviewing capital expenditures and appropriations and all other investments of the Corporation. None of the members of the investment committee shall be a member of the executive committee or an officer or full-time employee of the Corporation or of any subsidiary or affiliate of the Corporation.

(f) In addition, the Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors, designate one or more additional committees, with each such committee consisting of one or more directors of the Corporation and having such powers and authority as the Board of Directors shall designate by such resolutions.

(g) Any modification to the powers and authority of any committee shall require the adoption of a resolution by a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors.

(h) All acts done by any committee within the scope of its powers and authority pursuant to these Bylaws and the resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors in accordance with the terms hereof shall be deemed to be, and may be certified as being, done or conferred under authority of the Board of Directors. The Secretary or any Assistant Secretary is empowered to certify that any resolution duly adopted by any such committee is binding upon the Corporation and to execute and deliver such certifications from time to time as may be necessary or proper to the conduct of the business of the Corporation.

(i) Regular meetings of committees shall be held at such times as may be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors or the committee in question and no notice shall be required for any regular meeting other than such resolution. A special meeting of any committee shall be called by resolution of the Board of Directors, or by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary upon the request of the chairman or a majority of the members of any committee. Notice of special meetings shall be given to each member of the committee in the same manner as that provided for in Section 3.05 of these Bylaws.

SECTION 3.10. Committee Members. (a) Each member of any committee of the Board of Directors shall hold office until such member's successor is elected and has qualified, unless such member sooner dies, resigns or is removed. The number of directors which shall constitute any committee shall be determined by resolution adopted by a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors.

(b) The Board of Directors may remove a director from a committee or change the chairmanship of a committee only by resolution adopted by a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors.

(c) The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee to fill any vacancy on a committee and to fill a vacant chairmanship of a committee, occurring as a result of a member or chairman leaving the committee, whether through death, resignation, removal or otherwise; provided, that any such designation may only be amended by a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors.

SECTION 3.11. Committee Secretary. The Board of Directors may elect a secretary of any such committee. If the Board of Directors does not elect such a secretary, the committee shall do so. The secretary of any committee need not be a member of the committee, but shall be selected from a member of the staff of the office of the Secretary of the Corporation, unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors or the committee, as applicable.

SECTION 3.12. Certain Modifications. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, any action by the Board of Directors to change the number of directors comprising the Board of Directors or comprising any class of directors to other than an even number of directors shall require a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors.

SECTION 3.13. Compensation. The directors may be paid their expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors and may be paid compensation as director or chairman of any committee and for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors. Members of special or standing committees may be allowed like compensation and payment of expenses for attending committee meetings.

OFFICERS

SECTION 4.01. General. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors and shall consist of: a Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer; a President and Chief Operating Officer; a General Counsel; one or more assistant General Counsels; one or more Senior Vice Presidents; one or more Vice Presidents; a Secretary; one or more Assistant Secretaries; a Treasurer; one or more Assistant Treasurers; a Controller; one or more assistant controllers and such other officers as in the judgment of the Board of Directors may be necessary or desirable. All officers chosen by the Board of Directors shall have such powers and duties as generally pertain to their respective offices, subject to the specific provisions of this Article 4. Such officers shall also have powers and duties as from time to time may be conferred by the Board of Directors or any committee thereof. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws. The officers of the Corporation need not be stockholders or directors of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.02. Election and Term of Office. Subject to Section 4.08 of these Bylaws, the elected officers of the Corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors held after each annual meeting of the stockholders. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as convenient. Subject to Section 4.08 of these Bylaws, each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until his death or until he shall resign or be removed.

SECTION 4.03. Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer. The Chairman of the Board shall be a member of the Board of Directors and shall be an officer of the Corporation. The Chairman of the Board shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and shall supervise, coordinate and manage the Corporation's business and activities and supervise, coordinate and manage its operating expenses and capital allocation, shall have general authority to exercise all the powers necessary for the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws, all in accordance with basic policies as established by and subject to the oversight of the Board of Directors. The Chairman of the Board, if present, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.04. President and Chief Operating Officer. The President and Chief Operating Officer shall be a member of the Board of Directors and an officer of the Corporation. The President and Chief Operating Officer shall supervise, coordinate and manage the Corporation's business and activities and supervise, coordinate and manage its operating expenses and capital allocation, shall have general authority to exercise all the powers necessary for the President and Chief Operating Officer of the Corporation and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws, all in accordance with basic policies as established by and subject to the oversight of the Board of Directors and the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. In the absence or disability of the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, the duties of the Chairman of the Board shall be performed and the Chairman of the Board's authority may be exercised by the President and Chief Operating Officer, and in the event the President and Chief Operating Officer is absent or disabled, such duties shall be performed and such authority may be exercised by a director designated for this purpose by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.05. General Counsel. The General Counsel shall have responsibility for the legal affairs of the Corporation and for the performance of the duties of the Secretary. The General Counsel shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or these Bylaws, all in accordance with basic policies as established by and subject to the oversight of the Board of Directors, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and the President and Chief Operating Officer.

SECTION 4.06. Certain Actions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Bylaws, the removal of the current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer or the current President and Chief Operating Officer as of the date of adoption of these Bylaws, or any modification to either of their respective roles, duties or authority shall require a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.07. Vacancies. A newly created office and a vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, or removal may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the terms at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

STOCK CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFERS

SECTION 5.01. Stock Certificates and Transfers. (a) The interest of each stockholder of the Corporation shall be evidenced by certificates for shares of stock in such form as the appropriate officers of the Corporation may from time to time prescribe; provided that the Board of Directors may provide by resolution or resolutions that all or some of all classes or series of the stock of the Corporation shall be represented by uncertificated shares. Notwithstanding the adoption of such a resolution by the Board of Directors, every holder of stock represented by certificates and upon request every holder of uncertificated shares shall be entitled to have a certificate signed by, or in the name of the Corporation by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the President or any other authorized officer and by the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer, or the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Corporation representing the number of shares registered in certificate form. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, the rights and obligations of the holders of uncertificated stock and the rights and obligations of the holders of certificates representing stock of the same class and series shall be identical.

(b) The certificates of stock shall be signed, countersigned and registered in such manner as the Board of Directors may by resolution prescribe, which resolution may permit all or any of the signatures on such certificates to be in facsimile. In case any officer, transfer agent or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate has ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer, transfer agent or registrar at the date of issue.

(c) The shares of the stock of the Corporation represented by certificates shall be transferred on the books of the Corporation by the holder thereof in person or by his attorney, upon surrender for cancelation of certificates for the same number of shares, with an assignment and power of transfer endorsed thereon or attached thereto, duly executed, with such proof of the authenticity of the signature as the Corporation or its agents may reasonably require. Upon receipt of proper transfer instructions from the registered owner of uncertificated shares such uncertificated shares shall be canceled and issuance of new equivalent uncertificated shares or certificated shares shall be made to the person entitled thereto and the transaction shall be recorded upon the books of the Corporation. Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of uncertificated stock, the Corporation shall send to the registered owner thereof a written notice containing the information required to be set forth or stated on certificates pursuant to the Delaware General Corporation Law or, unless otherwise provided by the Delaware General Corporation Law, a statement that the Corporation will furnish without charge to each stockholder who so requests the powers, designations, preferences and relative participating, optional or other special rights of each class of stock or series thereof and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such preferences and/or rights.

SECTION 5.02. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. No certificate for shares or uncertificated shares of stock in the Corporation shall be issued in place of any certificate alleged to have been lost, destroyed or stolen, except on production of such evidence of such loss, destruction or theft and on delivery to the Corporation of a bond of indemnity in such amount, upon such terms and secured by such surety, as the Board of Directors or its designee may in its or his discretion require.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SECTION 6.01. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be as specified by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 6.02. Dividends. The Board of Directors may from time to time declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in the manner and upon the terms and conditions provided by law and the Certificate of Incorporation.

SECTION 6.03. Seal. The corporate seal shall have thereon the name of the Corporation and shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 6.04. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any stockholder or director of the Corporation under the provisions of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any annual or special meeting of the stockholders or any meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof need be specified in any waiver of notice of such meeting.

SECTION 6.05. Audits. The accounts, books and records of the Corporation shall be audited upon the conclusion of each fiscal year by an independent certified public accountant selected by the audit committee, and it shall be the duty of the audit committee to cause such audit to be made annually.

SECTION 6.06. Resignations. Any director or any officer, whether elected or appointed, may resign at any time upon notice of such resignation to the Corporation.

SECTION 6.07. Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any manner in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that he or she or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or a director or elected officer of a Subsidiary, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted from time to time by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, if permitted by applicable law, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Corporation to provide prior to such amendment) or any other applicable laws as presently or hereafter in effect, and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors or is a proceeding to enforce such person's claim to indemnification pursuant to the rights granted by this Bylaw. The Corporation shall pay the expenses incurred by such person in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition upon receipt (unless the Corporation upon authorization of the Board of Directors waives such requirement to the extent permitted by applicable law) of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Bylaw or otherwise.

(b) The indemnification and the advancement of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding prior to its final disposition provided by, or granted pursuant to this Bylaw shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, other provision of these Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or resolution of the Board of Directors or otherwise. No repeal, modification or amendment of, or adoption of any provision inconsistent with, this Section 6.07, nor to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any modification of law, shall adversely affect any right or protection of any person granted pursuant hereto existing at, or with respect to any events that occurred prior to, the time of such repeal, amendment, adoption or modification.

(c) The Corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any person who is or was a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of the Corporation or a Subsidiary or of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

(d) The Corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification, and rights to be paid by the Corporation the expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, to any person who is or was an employee or agent (other than a director or officer) of the Corporation or a Subsidiary and to any person who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation or a Subsidiary as a director, officer, partner, member, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans maintained or sponsored by the Corporation or a Subsidiary, to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Bylaw with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the Corporation.

(e) If any provision or provisions of this Bylaw shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, (1) the validity, the legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Bylaw (including, without limitation, each portion of any paragraph or clause of this Bylaw containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that is not itself held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby and (2) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Bylaw (including, without limitation, each such portion of any paragraph of this Bylaw containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested by the provision held invalid, illegal or unenforceable.

(f) For purposes of these Bylaws:

(1) "Disinterested Director" means a director of the Corporation who is not and was not a party to the proceeding or matter in respect of which indemnification is sought by the claimant.

(2) "Subsidiary" means a corporation, a majority of the capital stock of which is owned directly or indirectly by the Corporation, other than directors' qualifying shares.

(g) Any notice, request, or other communication required or permitted to be given to the Corporation under this Bylaw shall be in writing and either delivered in person or sent by telecopy, telex, telegram, overnight mail or courier service, or certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the Secretary of the Corporation and shall be effective only upon receipt by the Secretary.

CONTRACTS, PROXIES, ETC.

SECTION 7.01. Contracts. Except as otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any contracts or other instruments may be executed and delivered in the name and on the behalf of the Corporation by such officer or officers of the Corporation as the Board of Directors may from time to time direct. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances as the Board may determine. Subject to the control and direction of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive, the President and Chief Operating Officer, the General Counsel, the Treasurer and any Senior Vice President, or any Vice President may execute bonds, promissory notes, contracts, agreements, deeds, leases, guarantees, loans, commitments, obligations, liabilities and other instruments to be made or executed for or on behalf of the Corporation. Subject to any restrictions imposed by the Board of Directors, such officers of the Corporation may delegate such powers to others under his or her jurisdiction, it being understood, however, that any such delegation of power shall not relieve such officer of responsibility with respect to the exercise of such delegated power.

SECTION 7.02. Proxies. Unless otherwise provided by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or the President may from time to time appoint an attorney or attorneys or agent or agents of the Corporation, in the name and behalf of the Corporation, to cast the votes which the Corporation may be entitled to cast as the holder of stock or other securities in any other corporation or entity, any of whose stock or other securities may be held by the Corporation, at meetings of the holders of the stock or other securities of such other corporation or entity, or to consent in writing, in the name of the Corporation as such holder, to any action by such other corporation or entity, and may instruct the person or persons so appointed as to the manner of casting such vote or giving such consent, and may execute or cause to be executed in the name and on behalf of the Corporation and under its corporate seal or otherwise, all such written proxies or other instruments as he may deem necessary or proper in the premises.

AMENDMENTS

SECTION 8.01. Amendments. These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new Bylaws may be adopted by the stockholders or by the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof; provided, however, that notice of such alteration, amendment, repeal or adoption of new Bylaws is contained in the notice of meeting of stockholders. Unless a higher percentage is required by the Certificate of Incorporation as to any matter which is the subject of these Bylaws, all such amendments must be approved by either the holders of eighty percent (80%) of the Voting Stock or by a majority of the Board of Directors; provided further that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors may alter, amend or repeal, or adopt new Bylaws in conflict with, (i) any provision of these Bylaws which requires a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors for action to be taken thereunder, (ii) Section 4.08 of these Bylaws and (iii) this proviso to this Section 8.01 of these Bylaws only by a resolution adopted by a three-quarters vote of the entire Board of Directors.

Exhibit 3.4

FORM OF

SIMON PROPERTY GROUP, INC.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I.

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1.01. ANNUAL MEETING. Simon Property Group, Inc. (the "Corporation") shall hold an annual meeting of its stockholders to elect directors and transact any other business within its powers, at such place, on such date, and at such time as shall be set by the Board of Directors. Except as the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation (the "Charter"), these By-Laws, or statute provides otherwise, any business may be considered at an annual meeting without the purpose of the meeting having been specified in the notice. Failure to hold an annual meeting does not invalidate the Corporation's existence or affect any otherwise valid corporate acts.

SECTION 1.02. SPECIAL MEETING. At any time in the interval between annual meetings, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board, or a Co-Chairman of the Board or the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors by vote at a meeting or in writing (addressed to the Secretary of the Corporation) with or without a meeting.

SECTION 1.03. PLACE OF MEETINGS. Meetings of stockholders shall be held at such place in the United States as is set from time to time by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 1.04. NOTICE OF MEETINGS; WAIVER OF NOTICE. Not less than ten nor more than 60 days before each stockholders meeting, the Secretary shall give written notice of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting and each other stockholder entitled to notice of the meeting. The notice shall state the time and place of the meeting and, if the meeting is a special meeting or notice of the purpose is required by statute, the purpose of the meeting. Notice is given to a stockholder when it is personally delivered to him, left at his residence or usual place of business, or mailed to him at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, each person who is entitled to notice waives notice if he or she before or after the meeting signs a waiver of the notice which is filed with the records of stockholders' meetings, or is present at the meeting in person or by proxy (except as otherwise provided by Section 229 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware).

SECTION 1.05. QUORUM; VOTING. Unless any statute or the Charter provides otherwise, at a meeting of stockholders the presence in person or by proxy of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting constitutes a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is sufficient to approve any matter which properly comes before the meeting, except that a plurality of all the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is sufficient to elect a director.

SECTION 1.06. ADJOURNMENTS. Whether or not a quorum is present, a meeting of stockholders convened on the date for which it was called may be adjourned from time to time by a majority vote of the stockholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote without notice other than by announcement at the meeting. Any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified may be deferred and transacted at any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present.

SECTION 1.07. GENERAL RIGHT TO VOTE; PROXIES. Unless the Charter provides otherwise, each outstanding share of stock, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of stockholders. In all elections for directors, each share of stock entitled to vote may be voted for as many individuals as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the share is entitled to be voted. A stockholder may vote the stock he or she owns of record either in person or by proxy authorized by an instrument in writing or by a transmission permitted by law. Unless a proxy provides otherwise, it is not valid more than three years after its date.

SECTION 1.08. LIST OF STOCKHOLDERS. The Secretary shall prepare and make, at least ten days before every election of directors, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares of each stockholder. Such list shall be open at the place where the election is to be held for said ten days, to the examination of any stockholder, and shall be produced and kept at the time and place of election during the whole time thereof, and subject to the inspection of any stockholder who may be present.

SECTION 1.09. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors and the proposal of business to be considered by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders (a) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting, (b) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (c) by any stockholder of the Corporation who was a stockholder of record at the time of giving notice provided for in Section 1.11, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complied with the notice procedures set forth in Section 1.12. The chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section and Section 1.12 and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this Section and Section 1.12, to declare that such defective nomination or proposal be disregarded. No person shall be qualified to serve as a director unless nominated in accordance with this Section 1.09.

SECTION 1.10. CONDUCT OF VOTING. At all meetings of stockholders, unless the voting is conducted by inspectors, the proxies and ballots shall be received, and all questions touching the qualification of voters and the validity of proxies, the acceptance or rejection of votes and procedures for the conduct of business not otherwise specified by these By-Laws, the Charter or law, shall be decided or determined by the chairman of the meeting. Unless required by law, no vote need be by ballot and voting need not be conducted by an inspector. No candidate for election as a director at a meeting shall serve as an inspector thereat.

SECTION 1.11. STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS. For any stockholder proposal to be presented in connection with an annual meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, including any proposal relating to the nomination of a director to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the stockholders must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth (a) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (b) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and of the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (c) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made, (i) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner and (ii) the class and number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholders and such beneficial owner.

ARTICLE II.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 2.01. FUNCTION OF DIRECTORS. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of its Board of Directors. All powers of the Corporation may be exercised by or under authority of the Board of Directors, except as conferred on or reserved to the stockholders by statute or by the Charter or By-Laws.

SECTION 2.02. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS. The Corporation shall have that number of directors as provided in paragraph (a) of Article FIFTH of the Charter.

SECTION 2.03. REMOVAL OF DIRECTOR. Any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed only in accordance with the provisions of the Charter and General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

SECTION 2.04. VACANCY ON BOARD. Subject to the rights of the holders of any class of Preferred Stock then outstanding, newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors shall be filled by a vote of the stockholders or a majority of the directors in office on the Board of Directors, and any vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause shall be filled in accordance with paragraph (b) of Article FIFTH of the Charter.

SECTION 2.05. REGULAR MEETINGS. After each meeting of stockholders at which directors shall have been elected, the Board of Directors shall meet as soon as practicable for the purpose of organization and the transaction of other business. In the event that no other time and place are specified by resolution of the Board of Directors, the President, the Chairman of the Board or a Co-Chairman of the Board, with notice in accordance with Section 2.07, the Board of Directors shall meet immediately following the close of, and at the place of, such stockholders' meeting. Any other regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held on such date and at any place as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2.06. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board, or the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors by vote at a meeting, or in writing with or without a meeting. A special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held on such date and at any place as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

In the absence of designation such meeting shall be held at such place as may be designated in the call.

SECTION 2.07. NOTICE OF MEETING. Except as provided in Section 2.05, the Secretary shall give notice to each director of each regular and special meeting of the Board of Directors. The notice shall state the time and place of the meeting. Notice is given to a director when it is delivered personally to him, left at his residence or usual place of business, or sent by telegraph, facsimile transmission or telephone, at least 24 hours before the time of the meeting or, in the alternative by mail to his address as it shall appear on the records of the Corporation, at least 72 hours before the time of the meeting. Unless the By-Laws or a resolution of the Board of Directors provides otherwise, the notice need not state the business to be transacted at or the purposes of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. No notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors need be given to any director who attends except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, or to any director who, in writing executed and filed with the records of the meeting either before or after the holding thereof, waives such notice. Any meeting of the Board of Directors, regular or special, may adjourn from time to time to reconvene at the same or some other place, and no notice need be given of any such adjourned meeting other than by announcement.

SECTION 2.08. ACTION BY DIRECTORS. Unless statute or the Charter or By-Laws requires a greater proportion, the action of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present is action of the Board of Directors. A majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, the directors present by majority vote and without notice other than by announcement may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall attend. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if an unanimous written consent which sets forth the action is signed by each member of the Board and filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board.

SECTION 2.09. MEETING BY CONFERENCE TELEPHONE. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment if all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in a meeting by these means constitutes presence in person at a meeting.

SECTION 2.10. COMPENSATION. By resolution of the Board of Directors a fixed sum and expenses, if any, for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors or of committees thereof, and other compensation for their services as such or on committees of the Board of Directors, may be paid to directors. Directors who are employees of the Corporation need not be paid for attendance at meetings of the board or committees thereof for which fees are paid to other directors. A director who serves the Corporation in any other capacity also may receive compensation for such other services, pursuant to a resolution of the directors.

SECTION 2.11. ADVISORY DIRECTORS. The Board of Directors may by resolution appoint advisory directors to the Board, who may also serve as directors emeriti, and shall have such authority and receive such compensation and reimbursement as the Board of Directors shall provide. Advisory directors or directors emeriti shall not have the authority to participate by vote in the transaction of business.

SECTION 2.12. SURETY BONDS. Unless required by law, no director shall be obligated to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of any of his or her duties.

ARTICLE III.

COMMITTEES

SECTION 3.01. COMMITTEES. In accordance with the Charter, the Board of Directors may appoint an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, a Nominating Committee and other committees composed of one or more directors and delegate to these committees any of the powers of the Board of Directors, except the power to declare dividends or other distributions on stock, elect directors, issue stock other than as provided in the next sentence, recommend to the stockholders any action which requires stockholder approval, amend the By-Laws, or approve any merger or share exchange which does not require stockholder approval. If the Board of Directors has given general authorization for the issuance of stock, a committee of the Board of Directors, in accordance with a general formula or method specified by the Board of Directors by resolution or by adoption of a stock option or other plan, may fix the terms of stock subject to the terms on which any stock may be issued, including all terms and conditions required or permitted to be established or authorized by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3.02. COMMITTEE PROCEDURE. Each committee may fix rules of procedure for its business. A majority of the members of a committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of those present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of a committee may be taken without a meeting, if a unanimous written consent which sets forth the action is signed by each committee member and filed with the minutes of the committee. The members of a committee may conduct any meeting thereof by conference telephone in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.10.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS

SECTION 4.01. EXECUTIVE AND OTHER OFFICERS. The Corporation shall have a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. The Corporation may also have a Chairman, or Co-Chairmen, of the Board, a Chief Executive Officer, a Chief Operating Officer, one or more Vice-Presidents, assistant officers, and subordinate officers as may be established by the Board of Directors. A person may hold more than one office in the Corporation except that no person may serve concurrently as both President and Vice-President of the Corporation. The Chairman of the Board, or each of the Co-Chairmen of the Board, as the case may be, shall be a director; the other officers may be directors.

SECTION 4.02. CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD. The Chairman, or Co-Chairmen, of the Board, if elected, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders at which he or she or they shall be present. In general, the Chairman of the Board and a Co-Chairman of the Board shall perform all such duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.03. VICE CHAIRMAN. The Vice Chairman of the Board, if one be elected by the Board of Directors, shall be an officer of the Corporation. In general, the Vice Chairman of the Board shall perform all such duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.04. CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER. The Chief Executive Officer shall be the principal executive officer of the Corporation and, subject to the control of the Board of Directors and with the President, shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the Corporation. In general, he or she shall perform such other duties usually performed by a chief executive officer of a corporation and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, if one be elected, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board or a Co-Chairman of the Board, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders at which he or she shall be present.

SECTION 4.05. PRESIDENT. Unless otherwise specified by the Board of Directors, the President shall be the principal operating officer of the Corporation and perform the duties customarily performed by a principal operating officer of a corporation. If no Chief Executive Officer is appointed, he or she shall also serve as the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation. The President may sign and execute, in the name of the Corporation, all authorized deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments, except in cases in which the signing and execution thereof shall have been expressly delegated to some other officer or agent of the Corporation. In general, he or she shall perform such other duties usually performed by a president of a corporation and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, the President, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders at which he or she shall be present.

SECTION 4.06. CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER. The Chief Operating Officer, at the request of the Chief Executive Officer or the President, or in the President's absence or during his inability to act, shall perform the duties and exercise the functions of the President, and when so acting shall have the powers of the President. Unless otherwise specified by the Board of Directors, he or she shall perform such other duties usually performed by a chief operating officer of a corporation and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.07. VICE-PRESIDENTS. The Vice-President or Vice-Presidents, at the request of the Chief Executive Officer or the President or the Chief Operating Officer, or in the Chief Operating Officer's absence or during his inability to act, shall perform the duties and exercise the functions of the Chief Operating Officer, and when so acting shall have the powers of the Chief Operating Officer. If there be more than one Vice-President, the Board of Directors may determine which one or more of the Vice-Presidents shall perform any of such duties or exercise any of such functions, or if such determination is not made by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President may make such determination; otherwise any of the Vice-Presidents may perform any of such duties or exercise any of such functions. The Vice-President or Vice-Presidents shall have such other powers and perform such other duties, and have such additional descriptive designations in their titles (if any), as are from time to time assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.08. SECRETARY. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the stockholders, of the Board of Directors and of any committees, in books provided for the purpose; he or she shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws or as required by law; he or she shall be custodian of the records of the Corporation; he or she may witness any document on behalf of the Corporation, the execution of which is duly authorized, see that the corporate seal is affixed where such document is required or desired to be under its seal, and, when so affixed, may attest the same; and, in general, the Secretary shall perform all duties incident to the office of a secretary of a corporation, and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive officer, or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.09. TREASURER. The Treasurer shall have charge of and be responsible for all funds, securities, receipts and disbursements of the Corporation, and shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, in the name of the Corporation, all moneys or other valuable effects in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall, from time to time, be selected by the Board of Directors; he or she shall render to the President and to the Board of Directors, whenever requested, an account of the financial condition of the Corporation; and, in general, the Treasurer shall perform all the duties incident to the office of a treasurer of a corporation, and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive officer, or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.10. ASSISTANT AND SUBORDINATE OFFICERS. The assistant and subordinate officers of the Corporation are all officers below the office of Vice-President, Secretary, or Treasurer. The assistant or subordinate officers shall have such duties as are from time to time assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.11. ELECTION, TENURE AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS. The Board of Directors shall elect the officers. The Board of Directors may from time to time authorize any committee or officer to appoint assistant and subordinate officers. Election or appointment of an officer, employee or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. All officers shall be appointed to hold their offices, respectively, during the pleasure of the Board. The Board of Directors (or, as to any assistant or subordinate officer, any committee or officer authorized by the Board) may remove an officer at any time. The removal of an officer does not prejudice any of his contract rights. The Board of Directors (or, as to any assistant or subordinate officer, any committee or officer authorized by the Board) may fill a vacancy which occurs in any office for the unexpired portion of the term.

SECTION 4.12. COMPENSATION. The Board of Directors shall have power to fix the salaries and other compensation and remuneration, of whatever kind, of all officers of the Corporation. No officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may authorize any committee or officer, upon whom the power of appointing assistant and subordinate officers may have been conferred, to fix the salaries, compensation and remuneration of such assistant and subordinate officers.

ARTICLE V.

DIVISIONAL TITLES

SECTION 5.01. CONFERRING DIVISIONAL TITLES. The Board of Directors may from time to time confer upon any employee of a division of the Corporation the title of President, Vice President, Treasurer or Controller of such division or any other title or titles deemed appropriate, or may authorize the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the President to do so. Any such titles so conferred may be discontinued and withdrawn at any time by the Board of Directors, or by the Chairman of the Board, or a Co-Chairman of the Board or the President if so authorized by the Board of Directors. Any employee of a division designated by such a divisional title shall have the powers and duties with respect to such division as shall be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board, or the President.

SECTION 5.02. EFFECT OF DIVISIONAL TITLES. The conferring of divisional titles, as described in Section 5.01 hereof, shall not create an office of the Corporation under Article IV unless specifically designated as such by the Board of Directors; but any person who is an officer of the Corporation may also have a divisional title.

ARTICLE VI.

STOCK

SECTION 6.01. CERTIFICATES FOR STOCK. Each stockholder is entitled to certificates which represent and certify the shares of stock he or she holds in the Corporation. Each stock certificate shall include on its face the name of the Corporation, the name of the stockholder or other person to whom it is issued, and the class of stock and number of shares it represents. It shall be in such form, not inconsistent with law or with the Charter, as shall be approved by the Board of Directors or any officer or officers designated for such purpose by resolution of the Board of Directors. Each stock certificate shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board, the President, or a Vice-President, and countersigned by the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer, or an Assistant Treasurer. Each certificate may be sealed with the actual corporate seal or a facsimile of it or in any other form and the signatures may be either manual or facsimile signatures. A certificate is valid and may be issued whether or not an officer who signed it is still an officer when it is issued. A certificate may not be issued until the stock represented by it is fully paid.

SECTION 6.02. TRANSFERS. The Board of Directors shall have power and authority to make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificates of stock; and may appoint transfer agents and registrars thereof. The duties of transfer agent and registrar may be combined.

SECTION 6.03. RECORD DATES. The Board of Directors may set a record date for the purpose of making any proper determination with respect to stockholders, including which stockholders are entitled to notice of a meeting, vote at a meeting, receive a dividend, or be allotted other rights. The record date may not be prior to the close of business on the day the record date is fixed nor, subject to Section 1.06, more than 60 days before the date on which the action requiring the determination will be taken; and, in the case of a meeting of stockholders, the record date shall be at least ten days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 6.04. STOCK LEDGER. The Corporation shall maintain a stock ledger which contains the name and address of each stockholder and the number of shares of stock of each class which the stockholder holds. The stock ledger may be in written form or in any other form which can be converted within a reasonable time into written form for visual inspection. The original or a duplicate of the stock ledger shall be kept at the offices of a transfer agent for the particular class of stock, or, if none, at the principal office in the State of Delaware or the principal executive offices of the Corporation.

SECTION 6.05. LOST STOCK CERTIFICATES. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may determine the conditions for issuing a new stock certificate in place of one which is alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, or the Board of Directors may delegate such power to any officer or officers of the Corporation. In their discretion, the Board of Directors or such officer or officers may refuse to issue such new certificate save upon the order of some court having jurisdiction in the premises.

ARTICLE VII.

FINANCE

SECTION 7.01. CHECKS, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, drafts and orders for the payment of money, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, issued in the name of the Corporation, shall, unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, be signed by the Chief Executive Officer, the President, a Vice-President or an Assistant Vice-President and countersigned by the Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer, the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary.

SECTION 7.02. FISCAL YEAR. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the twelve calendar months period ending December 31 in each year, unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 7.03. DIVIDENDS. If declared by the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof, the Corporation may pay dividends on its shares in cash, property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation, unless such dividend is contrary to law or to a restriction contained in the Charter.

SECTION 7.04. CONTRACTS. To the extent permitted by applicable law, and except as otherwise prescribed by the Charter or these By-Laws with respect to certificates for shares, the Board of Directors may authorize any officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

ARTICLE VIII.

INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 8.01. PROCEDURE. Any indemnification, or payment of expenses, for which mandatory payments must be made under the Charter, in advance of the final disposition of any proceeding, shall be made promptly, and in any event within 60 days, upon the written request of the director or officer entitled to seek indemnification (the "Indemnified Party"). The right to indemnification and advances hereunder shall be enforceable by the Indemnified Party in any court of competent jurisdiction, if (i) the Corporation denies such request, in whole or in part, or (ii) no disposition thereof is made within 60 days. The Indemnified Party's costs and expenses incurred in connection with successfully establishing his right to indemnification, in whole or in part, in any such action shall also be reimbursed by the Corporation. It shall be a defense to any action for advance for expenses that (a) a determination has been made that the facts then known to those making the determination would preclude indemnification or (b) the Corporation has not received both (i) an undertaking as required by law to repay such advances in the event it shall ultimately be determined that the standard of conduct has not been met and (ii) a written affirmation by the Indemnified Party of such Indemnified Party's good faith belief that the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Corporation has been met.

SECTION 8.02. EXCLUSIVITY, ETC. The indemnification and advance of expenses provided by the Charter and these By-Laws shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advance of expenses may be entitled under any law (common or statutory), or any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or other provision that is consistent with law, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding office or while employed by or acting as agent for the Corporation, shall continue in respect of all events occurring while a person was a director or officer after such person has ceased to be a director or officer, and shall inure to the benefit of the estate, heirs, executors and administrators of such person. All rights to indemnification and advance of expenses under the Charter of the Corporation and hereunder shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each director or officer of the Corporation who serves or served in such capacity at any time while this By-Law is in effect. Nothing herein shall prevent the amendment of this By-Law, provided that no such amendment shall diminish the rights of any person hereunder with respect to events occurring or claims made before its adoption or as to claims made after its adoption in respect of events occurring before its adoption. Any repeal or modification of this By-Law shall not in any way diminish any rights to indemnification or advance of expenses of such director or officer or the obligations of the Corporation arising hereunder with respect to events occurring, or claims made, while this By-Law or any provision hereof is in force.

SECTION 8.03. SEVERABILITY; DEFINITIONS. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Article VIII shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. The phrase "this By-Law" in this Article VIII means this Article VIII in its entirety.

ARTICLE IX.

SUNDRY PROVISIONS

SECTION 9.01. BOOKS AND RECORDS. The Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of its accounts and transactions and minutes of the proceedings of its stockholders and Board of Directors and of any executive or other committee when exercising any of the powers of the Board of Directors. The books and records of a Corporation may be in written form or in any other form which can be converted within a reasonable time into written form for visual inspection. Minutes shall be recorded in written form but may be maintained in the form of a reproduction. The original or a certified copy of the By-Laws shall be kept at the principal office of the Corporation.

SECTION 9.02. CORPORATE SEAL. The Board of Directors shall provide a suitable seal, bearing the name of the Corporation, which shall be in the charge of the Secretary. The Board of Directors may authorize one or more duplicate seals and provide for the custody thereof. If the Corporation is required to place its corporate seal to a document, it is sufficient to meet the requirement of any law, rule, or regulation relating to a corporate seal to place the word "Seal" adjacent to the signature of the person authorized to sign the document on behalf of the Corporation.

SECTION 9.03. BONDS. The Board of Directors may require any officer, agent or employee of the Corporation to give a bond to the Corporation, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties, with one or more sureties and in such amount as may be satisfactory to the Board of Directors.

SECTION 9.04. VOTING UPON SHARES IN OTHER CORPORATIONS. Stock of other corporations or associations, registered in the name of the Corporation, may be voted by the President, a Vice-President, or a proxy appointed by either of them. The Board of Directors, however, may by resolution appoint some other person to vote such shares, in which case such person shall be entitled to vote such shares upon the production of a certified copy of such resolution.

SECTION 9.05. MAIL. Any notice or other document which is required by these By-Laws to be mailed shall be deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid.

SECTION 9.06. EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS. A person who holds more than one office in the Corporation may not act in more than one capacity to execute, acknowledge, or verify an instrument required by law to be executed, acknowledged, or verified by more than one officer.

SECTION 9.07. RELIANCE. Each director, officer, employee and agent of the Corporation shall, in the performance of his or her duties with respect to the Corporation, be fully justified and protected with regard to any act or failure to act in reliance in good faith upon the books of account or other records of the Corporation, upon an opinion of counsel or upon reports made to the Corporation by any of its officers or employees or by the adviser, accountants, appraisers or other experts or consultants selected by the Board of Directors or officers of the Corporation, regardless of whether such counsel or expert may also be a director.

SECTION 9.08. CERTAIN RIGHTS OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS. The directors shall have no responsibility to devote their full time to the affairs of the Corporation. Any director or officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, in his or her personal capacity or in a capacity as an affiliate, employee, or agent of any other person, or otherwise, may have business interests and engage in business activities similar to or in addition to those of or relating to the Corporation.

SECTION 9.09. AMENDMENTS. In accordance with the Charter, these By-Laws may be repealed, altered, amended or rescinded by the stockholders of the Corporation (considered for this purpose as one class) by the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of all the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of directors which are cast on the matter at any meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose (provided that notice of such proposed repeal, alteration, amendment or rescission is included in the notice of such meeting).

Exhibit 3.5

CPI REALTY SERVICES, INC.

I, the undersigned, for the purpose of incorporation and organizing a corporation under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, DO HEREBY CERTIFY as follows:

FIRST: The name of the corporation (the "Company") shall be CPI Realty Services, Inc.

SECOND: The address of the Company's registered office in the State of Delaware is 100 West Tenth Street, City of Wilmington, County of New Castle. The name of the Company's registered agent at such address is The Corporation Trust Company.

THIRD: The purpose of the Company is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware; provided, however, that the Company may not engage in any transaction or activity or take advantage of any business opportunity which could legally be engaged in or taken advantage of by Corporate Property Investors, a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI"), without jeopardizing CPI's status as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, or under any similar provisions of any subsequently adopted Federal income tax law, unless the Company shall by written notice delivered to CPI have first given CPI, for no consideration payable by CPI to the Company other than reimbursement to the Company for any expenditure or investment made by the Company in acquiring or creating such transaction, activity or business opportunity, a first refusal right to engage in such transaction or activity or to take advantage of such business opportunity and CPI shall not within 60 days of its receipt of such notice have advised the Company that CPI desires to exercise such right.

FOURTH: The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the Company shall have authority to issue is 2,000,000 shares of Common Stock of $1 par value (the "Shares").

The provisions of the following Sections 4.1 to 4.12 shall apply to the Shares:

4.1. Investment Statements. Upon the original issuance of such of the Shares as shall initially be issued to CPI, CPI, for itself and on behalf of its shareholders, shall represent and warrant to the Company (a) that CPI is, and (on its dividending of such Shares to its shareholders) its shareholders will be, acquiring such Shares for investment and not with a view to the sale or distribution thereof, nor with any present intention of distributing or selling the same and (b) that it and its shareholders understand (i) that such Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act by reason of their issuance in a transaction not subject to the registration requirements of said Act, (ii) that they must be held indefinitely unless a subsequent disposition thereof is registered under said Act pursuant to the rights granted under this Article FOURTH or is exempt from registration, (iii) that the exemption from registration afforded by Rules 144 and 237 issued under the Securities Act depends on the satisfaction of various conditions and (iv) that, if applicable, Rules 144 and 237 afford the basis for sales of the Shares only in limited amounts.

Upon subsequent issuances of additional Shares, each person to whom the same are issued shall make comparable representations and warranties to the Company.

4.2. Conditions Precedent to Transfers. (a) The Holders shall not effect any transfer of Unregistered Stock or of any interest therein or right to purchase the same (other than (1) a transfer to one or more other person or persons acting as nominee or nominees for the same holders of the beneficial interest in such Unregistered Stock for which the original Holder is acting, (2) a transfer by a Holder which is a trustee for one or more pension or trust funds in connection with the dissolution of such fund or funds or in connection with the transfer or distribution of all or part of the assets of such fund or funds to another pension or trust fund or funds for which such Holder or another corporate trustee is acting as trustee or to one or more other pension or trust funds for which such Holder is acting as trustee and (3) transfers by CPI to its shareholders as a dividend or dividends on CPI's shares except in accordance with this Article FOURTH, and (b) in the event that any Holder shall transfer any of the Shares without registration thereof under the Securities Act after compliance with the conditions specified in this Article FOURTH, such Holder shall, if the Company shall so request, cause its transferees to agree to take and hold such securities subject to the provisions of this Article FOURTH.

4.3. Certain Definitions. As used in this Article FOURTH, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

"Commission" shall mean the Securities and Exchange Commission, or any other Federal agency at the time administering the Securities Act.

"Securities Act" shall mean the Securities Act of 1933, or any similar Federal statute, and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, all as the same shall be in effect at the time.

"Transfer" shall mean, as to any Shares, any sale, assignment or transfer of any of the Shares or of any interest thereon or right to subscribe therefore, whether or not such transfer would constitute a "sale" as that term is defined in Section 2(3) of the Securities Act.

"Unregistered Stock" shall mean the Shares and shall also include any shares of the Company issued as a dividend or other distribution on such Shares or as a result of a subdivision, combination or reclassification of such Shares.

"Holder" shall mean any person or entity having received Shares and any transferee of such a person or entity who holds Shares subject to the provisions of this Article FOURTH.

"Registration Expenses" shall mean the expenses described in Section 4.8.

"Selling Expenses" shall mean the expenses so described in Section 4.8.

"Underwriter" shall mean each person who is or may be deemed to be an "underwriter", as that term is defined in Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, in respect of Unregistered Stock which shall have been registered by the Company under the Securities Act pursuant to any of the provisions of this Article FOURTH.

"Company Counsel" shall mean Messrs. Cravath, Swaine & Moore, or such other counsel as shall at the time be serving as counsel to the Company.

"Holder's Counsel" shall mean counsel satisfactory to the holder of the shares of Unregistered Stock in question.

4.4. Transfer Legends. Each certificate for Shares, including each certificate issued to any transferee, shall be stamped or otherwise imprinted with a legend in substantially the following form (unless otherwise permitted by the provisions of Section 4.5 or unless such Unregistered Stock shall have been effectively registered under the Securities Act and sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the intended method of disposition of the seller or sellers thereof set forth in the registration statement covering such Shares):

"The shares represented by this certificate have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and they may not be sold, assigned or transferred until the provisions of Article FOURTH of the Certificate of Incorporation of CPI Realty Services Inc. shall have been complied with. Copies of such Certificate are on file at the principal office of the Company."

4.5. Notice of Proposed Transfers; Requests for Registration. The Holder of any Shares by acceptance thereof agrees, prior to any transfer of any such Shares (other than a transfer referred to in the parenthetical phrase in Section 4.2(a)), to give written notice to the Company of such Holder's intention to effect such transfer and agrees to comply in all other respects with the provisions of this Section 4.5. Each such notice shall describe in detail the manner, method of disposition and circumstances of the proposed transfer and shall be accompanied by (i) the written opinion addressed to the Company of Holder's Counsel as to whether in the opinion of such counsel such proposed transfer involves a transaction requiring registration of the Shares under the Securities Act, and (ii) if in the opinion of such counsel such registration is required, a written notice addressed to the Company by the Holder of such shares requesting the Company to effect the registration of such shares under the Securities Act. Any expenses in connection with such determination by such counsel of the necessity for registration of such Shares under the Securities Act shall be paid by the Company.

Upon receipt by the Company of any such notice and opinion, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) As soon as practicable after receipt of such notice by the Company (but in any event not more than 20 days after such receipt), the Company Counsel shall render an opinion to the Company as to whether such counsel concurs in the opinion of Holder's Counsel. Company Counsel shall furnish copies of such opinion to the Company, Holder's Counsel and the Holder giving such notice.

(b) If in the opinion of Holder's Counsel and Company Counsel the proposed transfer of Shares may be effected without registration of such Shares under the Securities Act, the Holder of such Shares shall thereupon be entitled to transfer such Shares in accordance with the terms of the notice delivered by such Holder to the Company. Each certificate evidencing the Shares issued upon the transfer of any such Shares (and each certificate evidencing any untransferred balance of such Shares) shall bear the legend set forth in Section 4.4 unless in the opinion of Holder's Counsel and Company Counsel such legend is not necessary.

(c) If in the opinion of either Holder's Counsel or Company Counsel the proposed transfer of the Shares may not be effected without registration under the Securities Act of such Shares, the Company shall use its best efforts to effect the registration of such securities under the Securities Act, all in accordance with the request of the prospective seller and the following provisions and conditions of this Article FOURTH.

(d) If in the opinion of Holder's Counsel the proposed transfer of Shares may be effected without registration of such Shares under the Securities Act, and Company Counsel shall not concur in such opinion, Holder's Counsel at their option may submit the question to the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission for an advisory opinion and, in the event that the Staff shall issue a "no action" letter with respect to the proposed transfer, Holder's Counsel shall promptly furnish a copy thereof to the Company and to Company Counsel and thereupon the Holder in question shall be entitled to transfer the Shares covered by such "no action" letter on the basis and in accordance with the terms thereof.

The Holder of the Shares giving the notice under this Section 4.5 shall not transfer such Shares until (i) the favorable opinions of Holder's Counsel and Company Counsel referred to in paragraph (b) (unless waived by the Company) shall have been given or (ii) registration of such shares under the Securities Act shall have become effective or (iii) the "no action" letter referred to in paragraph (d) shall have been received.

4.6. Required Registration. Whenever the Company shall be requested, pursuant to Section 4.5, to effect the registration of any of its shares under the Securities Act, the Company shall promptly give written notice of such proposed registration to all holders of outstanding shares of Unregistered Stock and subject to the provisions of Section 4.10, shall as expeditiously as possible, use its best efforts to effect the registration under the Securities Act of

(a) the Shares which the Company has been requested to register pursuant to Section 4.5, for disposition in accordance with the proposed method of disposition described in the notice referred to in said Section 4.5, and

(b) all other Unregistered Stock the holders of which shall have made written request (stating the proposed method of disposition of such securities by the prospective seller) to the Company for the registration thereof within 20 days after the giving of such written notice by the Company, all to the extent requisite to permit the disposition (in accordance with the proposed methods thereof, as aforesaid) by the prospective seller or sellers of such securities.

4.7. Incidental Registration. If the Company at any time proposes to register any of its securities under the Securities Act (otherwise than pursuant to Section 4.6) on Form S-1, Form S-7, Form S-11, Form S-16, or any similar form then in effect, it shall each such time give written notice to all holders of outstanding Unregistered stock of its intention so to do and, upon the written request of any holder or holders of any such Unregistered Stock given within 20 days after the giving of any such notice (which request shall state the proposed method of disposition of such securities), the Company shall use its best efforts to cause all such Unregistered Stock the holder or holders of which shall have so requested registration thereof, to be included under the proposed registration, for the disposition (in accordance with the proposed methods thereof, as aforesaid) by the prospective seller or sellers of the securities so registered; provided, however, that the Company, in lieu of including such Unregistered Stock under the proposed registration, may elect to effect a separate registration thereof if such proposed registration relates to an underwritten public offering of securities and the Underwriters thereof object to the inclusion of such Unregistered Stock under such proposed registration. In the event the Company should elect to effect a separate registration in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence, the Company shall use its best efforts to cause such separate registration to become effective not later than 90 days after the effectiveness of the proposed registration. The Company may, to the extent then permitted by the Securities Act, at any time prior to the time the registration of the securities which it proposes to register as aforesaid has become effective, determine not to effect such registration, in which event the Company shall have no further obligation under this Section 4.7 to register any Unregistered Stock in connection with such proposed registration.

4.8. Registration Procedures and Expenses. If and whenever the Company is required by the provisions of this Article FOURTH to use its best efforts to effect the registration of any of its stock under the Securities Act, the Company shall, as expeditiously as possible

(a) prepare and file with the Commission a registration statement with respect to such securities and use its best efforts to cause such registration statement to become and remain effective;

(b) prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and supplements to such registration statement and the prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such registration statement effective for nine months from the date of its effectiveness and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by such registration statement in accordance with the intended method of disposition by the seller or sellers thereof set forth in such registration statement for such period;

(c) furnish to each seller such number of copies of the prospectus forming a part of such registration statement (including each preliminary prospectus), in conformity with the requirements of the Securities Act, and such other documents as such seller may reasonably request in order to facilitate the disposition of the securities owned by such seller;

(d) use its best efforts to register or qualify the securities covered by such registration statement under the securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions as each seller shall request (including, without limitation, the New York State Real Estate Syndicate Act and the New Jersey Real Estate Syndicate Offerings Law), and do any and all other acts and things which may be necessary or advisable to enable such seller to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions of the securities owned by such seller during the period provided in paragraph (b) of this Section 4.8; provided, however, that in no event shall the Company be obligated to qualify to do business in any jurisdiction where it is not now so qualified, to take any action which would subject it to the service of process in suits other than those arising out of the offer or sale of the securities covered by such registration statement in any jurisdiction where it is not now so subject or conform the composition of its assets at the time to the securities or blue sky laws of such jurisdictions, if in the opinion of the Board of Directors it may not be practicable to do so;

(e) (i) notify each seller of any shares covered by such registration statement, at any time when a prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event as a result of which the prospectus forming a part of such registration statement, as then in effect, includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made and (ii) at the request of any such seller prepare and furnish to such seller a reasonable number of copies of any supplement to or any amendment of such prospectus that may be necessary so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such shares, such prospectus shall not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances then existing; and

(f) provide a transfer agent and registrar for the Unregistered Stock at least by the effective date of the first registration of any of such Unregistered Stock.

All expenses incurred by the Company in complying with this Section 4.8, including, without limitation (except for the compensation of regular employees of the Company, which shall be paid in any event by the Company), all registration and filing fees, printing expenses, expenses of complying with securities or blue sky laws (including fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company and counsel for the Underwriters and counsel representing selling shareholders owning a majority of the Unregistered Stock being registered) pursuant to paragraph (d) of this Section 4.8, fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company and accountants' fees and expenses incident to or required by any such registration are herein called "Registration Expenses", which shall be borne as provided in Section 4.9. All underwriting fees and commissions to be incurred by any seller and all fees and disbursements of counsel for any seller (other than counsel described in the second parenthetical phrase in the preceding sentence) are herein called "Selling Expenses", which shall be borne by the seller or sellers, in such proportions as they may agree upon. It shall be a condition precedent to the obligation of the Company to take any action pursuant to this Section 4.8 that (x) the Company shall have received an undertaking satisfactory to it from each prospective seller of the shares registered or to be registered under each such registration (A) to pay all Registration Expenses required to be paid by such seller pursuant to Section 4.9 and all Selling Expenses to be incurred by or for account of such seller and (B) to notify the Company, at any time when a prospectus relating to the shares of such seller is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event relating to such seller, the shares held by such seller or the intended method of disposition of such shares as a result of which such prospectus includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, and (y) such prospective seller of the shares registered or to be registered under each such registration shall furnish to the Company such information regarding such seller, the shares held by such seller and the intended method of disposition of such shares as the Company shall reasonably request and as shall be required in connection with the action to be taken by the Company.

4.9. Allocation of Expenses. If and whenever the Company is required by the provisions of this Article FOURTH to use its best efforts to effect the registration of any of its securities under the Securities Act, the Company shall pay all Registration Expenses in connection with

(a) the first two registrations of any Unregistered Stock consummated pursuant to Section 4.6 and, if requested to do so in each case by holders of a majority of the total number of shares of Unregistered Stock, two additional such registrations; and

(b) each registration pursuant to Section 4.7. The Registration Expenses in connection with any other registration of its stock which the Company shall be required to use its best efforts to effect pursuant to any of the provisions of this Article FOURTH, and all Selling Expenses in connection with any registration of stock pursuant to this Article FOURTH, shall be borne by the seller or sellers of such securities, in such proportions as they may agree upon.

4.10. Limitations on Obligations to Register and Right to Sell Stock. Anything in this Article FOURTH to the contrary notwithstanding,

(a) the Company shall not be obligated to effect any registration pursuant to Sections 4.5, 4.6 and 4.7 until the earlier of (i) the expiration of six months after the first registration statement filed by the Company under the Securities Act otherwise than pursuant to said Sections shall have become effective or (ii) the effectiveness of a registration statement filed by the Company with respect to its shares pursuant to provisions comparable to said Sections which impose registration obligations on the Company;

(b) the Company shall not be obligated to effect any registration under Sections 4.5 and 4.6 unless it shall have received a request or requests pursuant to Sections 4.5 and 4.6 from a prospective seller or sellers to register at least 10 per cent of the Unregistered Stock;

(c) the Company shall not be obligated to effect any registration pursuant to Sections 4.5 and 4.6 if such registration would require an audit of the Company as of a date other than its fiscal year end unless the seller requesting such registration agrees to bear the expense of such an audit; and

(d) any registration pursuant to this Article FOURTH shall be subject to such restrictions or limitations as may be required by law or the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission on Holders as to the sales price or method of sale of their Shares included in such Registration Statement; provided that if upon the effectiveness of any such registration statement the Company will be engaged in a primary distribution of its securities, the Company may require Holders whose Shares are included in such registration statement to agree not to sell any such Shares for a period of 90 days after the effective date of such registration statement.

4.11. Indemnification. In the event of any registration of any of its shares or other securities under the Securities Act pursuant to this Article FOURTH or otherwise, the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each Holder and each seller of securities covered by a registration pursuant to this Article FOURTH and each Underwriter of such securities and each person, if any, who controls such Holder, seller or Underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act, against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities, joint or several, to which such

Holder, seller or Underwriter or controlling person may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, in so far as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in any registration statement under which such securities were registered under the Securities Act, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading; and will reimburse each such Holder, seller, Underwriter and controlling person for any legal or any other expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action; provided, however, that the Company will not be liable in any such case to the extent that any such loss, claim, damage or liability arises out of or is based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in such registration statement, said preliminary prospectus or said prospectus or said amendment or supplement in reliance upon and in conformity with written information furnished to the Company by such Purchaser or seller, or, in the case of a registration pursuant to Section 4.6, by the Underwriter distributing or selling the shares of such seller, specifically for use in the preparation thereof. This indemnity will be in addition to any liability which the Company may otherwise have.

A party from whom indemnity may be sought pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.11 shall not be liable for such indemnity with respect to any claim as to which indemnity is sought unless the party seeking such indemnity shall have notified such indemnifying party in writing of the nature of such claim promptly after the assertion thereof; provided, however, that the failure so to notify such indemnifying party will not relieve such party from any liability which it may have to such indemnified party otherwise than on account of the provisions of this Section 4.11 or if the failure to give such notice promptly shall not have been prejudicial to such indemnifying party. Any indemnifying party may participate in, and to the extent that it shall wish, may direct (at its own expense and either individually or jointly with any other indemnifying party), the defense of any suit brought to enforce such claim. If any indemnifying party elects to assume the defense of any such suit and retains counsel satisfactory to such indemnified party, such indemnifying party will not be liable to such indemnified party for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense of such suit, other than reasonable costs of investigation. No indemnifying party shall be liable for any compromise or settlement of any such action effected without its consent.

In so far as the foregoing indemnity agreement may permit indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act of any person who is a partner or controlling person of an Underwriter within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act and who, at the effective date of the registration statement, is, or is named to be, a director of the Company, if a claim for indemnification for any such liabilities (except payment for expenses incurred in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such a person, the Company will submit to a court of competent jurisdiction (unless in the opinion of counsel for the Company the matter has already been settled by controlling precedent) the question of whether or not such indemnification is against public policy and unenforceable, and such person and the Company will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

It shall be a condition precedent to the obligation of the Company as to a seller to take any action pursuant to Section 4.8 that the Company shall have received an undertaking satisfactory to it from such prospective seller of the shares to be registered under each registration pursuant to Section 4.6 or 4.7, and from the Underwriter of such shares, to indemnify and hold harmless (in the same manner and to the same extent as set forth in this Section 4.11) the Company, each of its directors and each of its officers who have signed such registration statement and any person who controls the Company within the meaning of the Securities Act against any losses, claims, damages or liabilities to which the Company or any such director or officer may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, in so far as such losses, claims, damages or liabilities (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of or are based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of any material fact contained in such registration statement, any preliminary prospectus or final prospectus, contained therein, or any amendment or supplement thereto, or arise out of or are based upon the omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, in each case to the extent, but only to the extent, that such untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission was in reliance upon or in conformity with written information furnished to the Company by such seller or Underwriter, as the case may be, specifically for use therein and, in the case of such indemnity by such seller in respect of a registration pursuant to Section 4.5, written information furnished to the Company by the Underwriter specifically for use therein; and will reimburse such director or officer and such controlling person for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, damage, liability or action. This indemnity will be in addition to any liability which such seller or Underwriter may otherwise have.

4.12. Agreement to Register under 1934 Act. The Company shall cause at least one class of its securities to be registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, within ninety (90) days after the effective date of the first registration statement filed by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and shall thereafter (i) cause such securities to remain registered under such Section 12, and (ii) file within the requisite period of time all reports required to be filed by issuers having securities registered pursuant to such Section 12.

FIFTH: The name and mailing address of the incorporator is Jonathan E. Colby, One Chase Manhattan Plaza, New York, N. Y. 10005.

SIXTH: In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Delaware, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized and empowered:

(a) to make, alter, and repeal the By-laws of the Company, subject to the power of the stockholders of the Company to alter or repeal any By-law made by the Board of Directors;

(b) subject to the laws of the State of Delaware, from time to time to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any part or parts of the properties of the Company and to cease to conduct the business connected therewith or again to resume the same, as it may deem best; and

(c) in addition to the powers and authorities hereinbefore and by the laws of the State of Delaware conferred upon the Board of Directors, to exercise all such powers and to do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Company; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of said laws, of the Certificate of Incorporation as from time to time amended of the Company, and of its By-laws.

SEVENTH: Any director or any officer of the Company elected or appointed by the stockholders of the Company or by its Board of Directors may be removed at any time in such manner as shall be provided in the By-laws of the Company.

EIGHTH: Each director of the Company shall be a person who is a trustee of CPI.

NINTH: The Company Reserves the right at any time and from time to time to amend, alter, change, or repeal any provision contained herein, and other provisions authorized by the laws of the State of Delaware at the time in force may be added or inserted, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law; and all rights, preferences, and privileges of whatsoever nature conferred upon stockholders, directors, or any other persons whomsoever by and pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation in its present form or as hereafter amended are granted subject to the right reserved in this Article.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the undersigned, being the incorporator hereinabove named, do hereby execute this Certificate of Incorporation this 1st day of October 1973.

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENTS

CPI REALTY SERVICES, INC.

I, the undersigned, President of CPI REALTY, SERVICES, INC., a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (hereinafter called the Corporation), DO HEREBY CERTIFY that the following amendments of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation were adopted by the written consent of the sole Stockholder of the Corporation in accordance with Section 228 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware:

FIRST: Article FIRST of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation is amended so as to change the corporate name of the Corporation by deleting all of Article FIRST thereof and substituting in place thereof a new Article FIRST, providing as follows:

"FIRST: the name of the corporation (the 'Company') shall be Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc."

SECOND: Section 4.4 of Article FOURTH of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation is amended to reflect said change of corporate name of the Corporation by deleting all of Section 4.4 or Article FOURTH thereof and substituting in place thereof a new Section 4.4 of Article FOURTH, providing as follows:

"4.4. Transfer Legends. Each certificate for Shares, including each certificate issued to any transferee, shall be stamped or otherwise imprinted with a legend in substantially the following form (unless otherwise permitted by the provisions of Section 4.5 or unless such Unregistered Stock shall have been effectively registered under the Securities Act and sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with the intended method of disposition of the seller or sellers thereof set forth in the registration statement covering such Shares):

"The shares represented by this certificate have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and they may not be sold, assigned or transferred until the provisions of Article FOURTH of the Certificate of Incorporation of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. shall have been complied with. Copies of such Certificate are on file at the principal office of the Company."

I DO HEREBY FURTHER CERTIFY that the aforesaid amendments of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation were duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of Section 242 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the undersigned, President of the Corporation, do hereby execute this Certificate of Amendments of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation on this 4th day of November 1975.

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT

CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC.

Pursuant to Section 242 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware

We, the undersigned, Hans C. Mautner and William J. Lyons, the President and Secretary, respectively, of Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., a Delaware corporation (herein called the Corporation), hereby certify as follows:

1. The Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation as heretofore amended shall be amended so as to reclassify the authorized capital stock of the Corporation by changing each of the Two million (2,000,000) shares (both issued and unissued) of Common Stock without par value, which said Certificate of Incorporation as heretofore amended provides that the Corporation shall have authority to issue, into one (1) share of Common Stock of the par value of $.10 each; the amendment as aforesaid of said Certificate of Incorporation as heretofore amended to be effected as follows:

A. The first sentence of Article FOURTH of said Certificate of Incorporation as heretofore amended shall be amended so as to read as follows:

"FOURTH: The total number of shares of all classes of stock which the Company shall have authority to issue is 2,000,000 shares of Common Stock of the par value of $.10 each (the "Shares")."

B. Of said 2,000,000 shares of Common Stock of the par value of $.10 each, one share shall be deemed to be issued and outstanding upon the taking effect of said amendment for each share of Common Stock without par value of the Corporation which shall be issued and outstanding immediately prior to the taking effect of said amendment, and upon the taking effect of said amendment the stated capital of the Corporation shall be reduced from $1 for each presently issued and outstanding share without par value to $.10 for each share of Common Stock, par value $.10 per share which shall be issued and outstanding immediately after the taking effect of such amendment and an amount equal to $.90 for each such share shall be transferred from the Corporation's capital to its surplus. A Certificate of Reduction of Capital pursuant to Section 244(c) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware is being filed with this Certificate of Amendment. Each certificate representing one or more shares of said Common Stock without par value which shall be issued and outstanding immediately prior to the taking effect of said amendment shall, upon and after the taking effect thereof, represent the same number of shares of Common Stock of the par value of S.10 each which the Corporation shall have authority to issue pursuant to said amendment.

2. The persons or bodies corporate holding a majority of the shares of capital stock of the Corporation issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on said amendment, to wit, a majority of the shares of Common Stock without par value issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, have consented to said amendment. Said amendment has been duly adopted in accordance with the provisions of Section 242 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and in accordance with the provisions of, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation as heretofore amended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Certificate has been made under the seal of said Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc., and has been signed by the undersigned, said Hans C. Mautner and said William J. Lyons, the President and the Secretary, respectively, of the Corporation, this 21st day of August, 1980.

FORM OF

RESTATED

SPG REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC.

SPG Realty Consultants, Inc. (the "Corporation"), a corporation organized under and by virtue of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, DOES HEREBY CERTIFY:

1. That the name of the Corporation is SPG Realty Consultants, Inc.

2. The original Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation was filed under the name Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. with the Secretary of State of Delaware on October 1, 1975.

3. This Restated Certificate of Incorporation was duly authorized by the Corporation's Board of Directors and stockholders, and all specifically affected classes or series of classes of stockholders, in accordance with the provisions of Section 242 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

4. This Restated Certificate of Incorporation has been duly adopted in accordance with Sections 242 and 245 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

5. The text of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation reads as follows:

RESTATED

SPG REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC.

FIRST: The name of the corporation (which is hereinafter called the "Corporation") is:

SPG Realty Consultants, Inc.

SECOND: The purposes for which the Corporation is formed is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware; provided however, that the Corporation may not engage in any transaction or activity or take advantage of any business opportunity which could legally be engaged in or taken advantage of by Simon Property Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Simon Group"), without jeopardizing Simon Group's status as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or under any similar provisions of any subsequently adopted Federal income tax law, unless the Corporation shall by written notice delivered to Simon Group have first given Simon Group, for no consideration payable by Simon Group to the Corporation other than reimbursement to the Corporation for any expenditure or investment made by the Corporation in acquiring or creating such transaction, activity or business opportunity, a first refusal right to engage in such transaction or activity or to take advantage of such business opportunity and Simon Group shall not within 60 days of its receipt of such notice have advised the Corporation that Simon Group desires to exercise such right.

THIRD: The address of its registered office in the State of Delaware is c/o The Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, County of New Castle, Delaware. The name of its registered agent at such address is The Corporation Trust Company.

FOURTH: (a) The total number of shares of stock which the Corporation has authority to issue is 750,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $.0001 per share ("Common Stock").

(b) The following is a description of the preferences, conversion and other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption of the Common Stock of the Corporation:

(1) Each share of Common Stock shall have one vote, and the exclusive voting power for all purposes shall be vested in the holders of the Common Stock. Shares of Common Stock shall not have cumulative voting rights.

(2) Subject to the provisions of law, dividends or other distributions, including dividends or other distributions payable in shares of another class of the Corporation's stock, may be paid ratably on the Common Stock at such time and in such amounts as the Board of Directors may deem advisable.

(3) Subject to the provisions of law, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of the Common Stock shall be entitled to share ratably in the net assets of the Corporation remaining, after payment or provision for payment of the debts and other liabilities of the Corporation and the amount to which any series of preferred stock hereafter created having a preference on distributions in the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Corporation shall be entitled.

FIFTH: (a) The powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the board of directors by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware shall be exercised and performed, in accordance with Section 141 thereof governing the action of directors, by a board (the "Board of Directors"); provided, however that pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware: (i) certain of such powers and duties of the Board of Directors set forth herein shall be exercised and performed only by the Independent Directors (as defined in Article EIGHTH hereof) and (ii) certain of such powers and duties of the Board of Directors as described herein may be exercised and performed by one or more committees consisting of one or more members of the Board of Directors and one or more other persons to the extent such powers and duties are delegated thereto by the Board of Directors. The number of directors of the Corporation shall never be less than the minimum number permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware now or hereafter in force the number of directors of the Corporation shall be thirteen. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time and shall initially be thirteen.

At least a majority of the directors shall be Independent Directors (as defined in Article EIGHTH).

(b) Newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors shall be filled by a vote of the stockholders or a majority of the entire Board of Directors, and any vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from death, disability ("disability," which for purposes of this paragraph (b) shall mean illness, physical or mental disability or other incapacity), resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause shall be filled by a vote of the stockholders or a majority of the directors then in office.

No decrease in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall affect the tenure of office of any director.

(c) Each director of the Corporation shall be a person who is a director of Simon Group.

(d) Subject to Section 141(k) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, directors may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the combined voting power of all classes of shares of capital stock entitled to vote in the election for directors voting together as a single class.

(f) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, any action by the Corporation relating to (1) transactions between the Corporation and M.S. Management Associates, Inc., Simon MOA Management Company, Inc., DeBartolo Properties Management, Inc. and/or M.S. Management Associates (Indiana), Inc. or (2) transactions involving the Corporation, individually or in its capacity as general partner (whether directly or indirectly through another entity) of SPG Realty Consultants, L.P., in which the Simon Family Group or the DeBartolo Family Group or any member or affiliate of any member of the Simon Family Group or DeBartolo Family Group has an interest (other than through ownership interests in the Corporation or SPG Realty Consultants, L.P.), shall, in addition to such other vote that may be required, require the prior approval of a majority of the Independent Directors.

(g) Elections of directors need not be by written ballot.

(h) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Board of Directors may appoint an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, a Nominating Committee and other committees composed of one or more directors or one or more other persons delegated such powers and duties by the Board of Directors. The entire Audit Committee and a majority of the Compensation Committee shall be Independent Directors. The Nominating Committee shall have five members, with two being independent Directors.

SIXTH: (a) The following provisions are hereby adopted for the purpose of defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the Corporation and of the directors and the stockholders:

(1) The Board of Directors is hereby empowered to authorize the issuance from time to time of shares of its stock of any class, whether now or hereafter authorized, or securities convertible into shares of its stock of any class or classes, whether now or hereafter authorized, for such consideration as may be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors and without any action by the stockholders.

(2) No holder of any stock or any other securities of the Corporation, whether now or hereafter authorized, shall have any preemptive right to subscribe for or purchase any stock or any other securities of the Corporation and at such price or prices and upon such other terms as the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may fix; and any stock or other securities which the Board of Directors may determine to offer for subscription may, as the Board of Directors in its sole discretion shall determine, be offered to the holders of any class, series or type of stock or other securities at the time outstanding to the exclusion of the holders of any or all other classes, series or types of stock or other securities at the time outstanding.

(3) The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall, consistent with applicable law, have power in its sole discretion to determine from time to time in accordance with sound accounting practice or other reasonable valuation methods what constitutes annual or other net profits, earnings, surplus, or net assets in excess of capital; to fix and vary from time to time the amount to be reserved as working capital, or determine that retained earnings or surplus shall remain in the hands of the Corporation; to set apart out of any funds of the Corporation such reserve or reserves in such amount or amounts and for such proper purpose or purposes as it shall determine and to abolish any such reserve or any part thereof; to redeem or purchase its stock or to distribute and pay distributions or dividends in stock, cash or other securities or property, out of surplus or any other funds or amounts legally available therefor, at such times and to the stockholders of record on such dates as it may, from time to time, determine; to determine the amount, purpose, time of creation, increase or decrease, alteration or cancellation of any reserves or charges and the propriety thereof (whether or not any obligation or liability for which such reserves or charges shall have been created shall have been paid or discharged); to determine the fair value and any matters relating to the acquisition, holding and disposition of any assets by the Corporation; and to determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions and regulations the books, accounts and documents of the Corporation, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of stockholders, except as otherwise provided by statute or by the By-laws, and, except as so provided, no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any book, account or document of the Corporation unless authorized so to do by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(4) (a) The Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer or trustee of or in any other capacity with another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(b) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall (in the case of any action, suit or proceeding against a director of the Corporation) or may (in the case of any action, suit or proceeding against an officer, trustee, employee or agent) be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the indemnified person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article SIXTH paragraph (a)(4).

(c) The indemnification and other rights set forth in this paragraph (a)(4) shall not be exclusive of any provisions with respect thereto in the By-laws or any other contract or agreement between the Corporation and any officer, director, employee or agent of the Corporation.

(d) Neither the amendment nor repeal of this paragraph (a)(4), subparagraph (a), (b) or (c), nor the adoption of any provision of this Restated Certificate of Incorporation inconsistent with paragraph (a)(4), subparagraph (a), (b) or (c), shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this paragraph (a)(4), subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c), in respect of any matter occurring before such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision or in respect of any cause of action, suit or claim relating to any such matter which would have given rise to a right of indemnification or right to receive expenses pursuant to this paragraph (a)(5), subparagraph (a), (b) or (c), if such provision had not been so amended or repealed or if a provision inconsistent therewith had not been so adopted.

(e) No director shall be personally liable to the Corporation or any stockholder for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability

(i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders;

(ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;

(iii) under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware; or

(iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

If the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware is amended after the date hereof to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as so amended. All references in this paragraph (e) shall also be deemed to refer to the Independent Directors and members of committees of the Board of Directors.

(5) For any stockholder proposal to be presented in connection with an annual meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, including any proposal relating to the nomination of a director to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the stockholders must have given timely written notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation in the manner and containing the information required by the By-laws. Stockholder proposals to be presented in connection with a special meeting of stockholders will be presented by the Corporation only to the extent required by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

(b) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Charter, including any amendments changing the terms or contract rights, as expressly set forth in the Charter, of any of its outstanding stock by reclassification or otherwise, by a majority of the directors (including a majority of the Independent Directors adopting a resolution setting forth the proposed change, declaring its advisability, and either calling a special meeting of the stockholders certified to vote on the proposed change, or directing the proposed change to be considered at the next annual stockholders meeting; provided however, that any amendment to, repeal of or adoption of any provision inconsistent with subparagraphs (a)(4)(e) or (a)(5) or this paragraph (b) of Article SIXTH will be effective only if it is adopted upon the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the aggregate votes entitled to be cast thereon.

(c) In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized to make, alter or repeal the By-laws of the Corporation.

(d) Pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the affirmative vote of least six of the Independent Directors is necessary to cause any partnership in which the Corporation acts, directly or indirectly, as a general partner to sell any property owned by such partnership in accordance with the terms of the partnership agreement of such partnership.

(e) The enumeration and definition of particular powers of the Board of Directors included in the foregoing shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause of this or any other Article of the Charter of the Corporation, or construed as or deemed by inference or otherwise in any manner to exclude or limit any powers conferred upon the Board of Directors under the General

Corporation Law of the State of Delaware now or hereafter in force.

SEVENTH: Any action required or permitted to be taken by stockholders of the Company at a duly called annual or special meeting of such stockholders of the Company may be effected by written consent without a meeting by such stockholders.

EIGHTH: The following terms shall have the following meaning:

"Board of Directors" shall mean the Board of Directors of the Corporation as defined in Article FIFTH.

"By-laws" shall mean the By-laws of the Corporation.

"DeBartolo Family Group" shall mean the Estate of Edward J. DeBartolo, Sr., Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. and Marie Denise DeBartolo York, other members of the immediate family of any of the foregoing, any other lineal descendants of any of the foregoing, any estates of any of the foregoing, any trusts established for the benefit of any of the foregoing, and any other entity controlled by any of the foregoing.

"Independent Director" shall mean a director of the Corporation who is neither an employee of the Corporation nor a member (or an affiliate of a member) of the Simon Family Group or the DeBartolo Family Group.

"Simon Family Group" shall mean Melvin Simon, Herbert Simon and David Simon, other members of the immediate family of any of the foregoing, any other lineal descendants of any of the foregoing, any estates of any of the foregoing, any trust established for the benefit of any of the foregoing, and any other entity controlled by any of the foregoing.

"Units" shall mean units representing limited partnership interests in SPG Realty Consultants, L.P.

NINTH: Whenever the Corporation shall have the obligation to purchase Units and shall have the right to choose to satisfy such obligation by purchasing such Units either with cash or with Common Stock, the determination whether to utilize cash or Common Stock to effect such purchase shall be made by majority vote of the Independent Directors, pursuant to Section 141(a) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

TENTH: In the event any term, provision, sentence or paragraph of the Charter of the Corporation is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such term, provision, sentence or paragraph shall be deemed severed from the remainder of the Charter, and the balance of the Charter shall remain in effect and be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law and shall be construed to preserve the intent and purposes of the Charter. Any such invalidity or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such term, provision, sentence or paragraph of the Charter in any other jurisdiction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have made and signed this Certificate this __ day of _____ __, 1998 and affirm the statements contained herein as true under penalties of perjury.

EXHIBIT 3.7

CPI REALTY SERVICES, INC.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

Offices

SECTION 1. Registered Office. The registered office of CPI Realty Services, Inc. (the "Corporation"), in the State of Delaware shall be at 100 West Tenth Street, City of Wilmington, County of New Castle. The name of the registered agent in charge thereof is The Corporation Trust Company.

SECTION 2. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at other places either within or without the State of Delaware.

ARTICLE II

Meetings of Stockholders; Stockholders' Consent in Lieu of Meeting

SECTION 1. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting shall be held at such place, date, and hour as shall be designated in the notice thereof.

SECTION 2. Special Meetings. A special meeting of the stockholders for any purpose or purposes may be called by the Board, the Chairman of the Board, the President, or the Secretary, to be held at such place, date, and hour as shall be designated in the notice thereof.

SECTION 3. Stockholders' Consent in Lieu of Meeting. Any corporate action requiring a vote of stockholders may be taken without a meeting if the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the meetings of stockholders.

ARTICLE III

Board of Directors

SECTION 1. General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board.

SECTION 2. Number and Term of Office. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole Board shall be fixed from time to time by a vote of a majority of the whole board. Each of the directors of the Corporation shall hold office until the annual meeting next after his election and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify or until his earlier death or resignation or removal in the manner hereinafter provided.

SECTION 3. Resignation, Removal, and Vacancies. Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Chairman of the Board or the Secretary of the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, then it shall take effect when accepted by action of the Board. Except as aforesaid, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

A director may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time by vote of a majority of the whole Board.

In case of any vacancy on the Board or in case of any newly created directorship, a director to fill the vacancy of the newly created directorship for the unexpired portion of the term being filled may be elected by a majority of the directors of the Corporation then in office though less than a quorum; provided, however, that if, at the time of filling any vacancy, the directors then in office shall constitute less than a majority of the whole Board (as constituted immediately prior to such vacancy), the Court of chancery may, upon application of any stockholder or stockholders holding at least ten percent of the total number of the shares at the time outstanding having the right to vote for such directors, summarily order a meeting of stockholders to be held to fill such vacancy or to replace the director chosen by the directors then in office.

SECTION 4. Meetings.

(A) Annual Meetings. As soon as practicable after each annual election of directors, the Board shall meet for the purpose of organization and the transaction of other business.

(B) Other Meetings. Other meetings of the Board shall be held at such times and places as the Board, the Chairman of the Board, the President, or the Secretary shall from time to time determine.

(C) Notice of Meetings. The Secretary shall give notice to each director of each meeting, including the time and place of such meeting. Notice of each such meeting shall be mailed to each director, addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, at least two days before the day on which such meeting is to be held, or shall be sent to him by telegraph, cable, wireless, or other form of recorded communication or be delivered personally or by telephone not later than the day before the day on which such meeting is to be held. Notice of any meeting shall not be required to be given to any director who shall attend such meeting. A written waiver of notice, signed by the person entitled thereto, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice.

(D) Place of Meeting. The Board may hold its meetings at such place or places within or without the State of Delaware as the Board may from time to time by resolution determine or as shall be designated in the respective notices or waivers of notice thereof.

(E) Quorum and Manner of Acting. A majority of the directors then in office (but in no case less than two directors) shall be present in person at any meeting of the Board in order to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting, and the vote of a majority of those directors present at any such meeting at which a quorum is present shall be necessary for the passage of any resolution or act of the Board, except as otherwise expressly required by law or these By-laws. In the absence of a quorum for any such meeting, a majority of the directors present thereat may adjourn such meeting from time to time until a quorum shall be present thereat. Notice of any adjourned meeting need not be given.

(F) Organization and Order of Business. At each meeting of the Board, one of the following shall act as chairman of the meeting and preside thereat, in the following order of precedence:

(a) the Chairman of the Board;

(b) the President;

(c) any director chosen by a majority of the directors present thereat.

The Secretary, or in the case of his absence, any person (who shall be an Assistant Secretary, if an Assistant Secretary shall be present thereat) whom the chairman shall appoint, shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

SECTION 5. Unanimous Director Consent in Lieu of Meeting. Any corporate action requiring a vote of the Board may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board.

SECTION 6. Compensation. Each director, in consideration of his serving as such, shall be entitled to receive from the Corporation such amount per annum or such fees for attendance at meetings of the Board or of any committee, or both, as the Board shall from time to time determine. The Board may likewise provide that the Corporation shall reimburse each director or member of a committee for any expenses incurred by him on account of his attendance at any such meeting. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

ARTICLE IV

Committees

SECTION 1. Committees of Directors. The Board may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate one or more committees (including, but not limited to, an Executive Committee), each committee to consist of two or more of the directors of the Corporation. Any such committee, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation and shall have such other duties and functions as shall be provided in such resolution.

SECTION 2. Minutes of Committee Meetings. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board when required.

ARTICLE V

Officers

SECTION 1. Election and Appointment and Term of Office. The officers of the Corporation shall be a Chairman of the Board, a President, such number of Vice Presidents (including any Executive and/or Senior Vice Presidents) as the Board may determine from time to time, a Treasurer and a Secretary. Each such officer shall be elected by the Board at its annual meeting and shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the Board and until his successor shall be elected or until his earlier death or resignation or removal in the manner hereinafter provided.

The Board may elect or appoint such other officer (including one or more Assistant Treasurers and one or more Assistant Secretaries) as it deems necessary, who shall have such authority and shall perform such duties as the Board may prescribe.

If additional officers are elected or appointed during the year, each of them shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the board and until his successor shall be elected or appointed or until his earlier death or resignation or removal in the manner hereinafter provided.

SECTION 2. Resignation, Removal, and Vacancies. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Chairman of the Board or the Secretary of the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, then it shall take effect when accepted by action of the Board. Except as aforesaid, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

All officers and agents elected or appointed by the Board shall be subject to removal at any time by the Board with or without cause.

A vacancy in any office may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the same manner as provided for election or appointment to such office.

SECTION 3. Duties and Functions.

(A) The Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board and of the stockholders at which he is present and shall have the general supervision of the affairs of the Corporation, and perform all such duties as are incident to his office or as are properly required of him by the Board.

(B) The President. The President shall be the chief operating officer of the Corporation. Under the supervision of the Chairman of the Board, he shall have general charge of the business and affairs of the Corporation and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect.

(C) Vice Presidents. Each Vice President shall have such powers and duties as shall be prescribed by the Chairman of the Board, the President, or the Board.

(D) Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall have charge of the accounting records of the Corporation and shall be responsible for the preparation and filing of all reports and returns relating to or based upon such accounting records.

(E) Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the records of all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board. He shall affix the seal of the Corporation to all deeds, contracts, bonds, or other instruments requiring the corporate seal when the same shall have been signed on behalf of the Corporation by a duly authorized officer.

Contracts, Checks, Drafts, Bank Accounts, Etc.

SECTION 1. Execution of Contracts. The Board, except as otherwise provided in these By-laws, may authorize any officer or officers or other person or persons to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name and on behalf of the Corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances, and unless so authorized by the Board or by the provisions of these By-laws, no officer or other person shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable pecuniarily for any purpose or to any amount.

SECTION 2. Loans. No loan shall be contracted on behalf of the Corporation, and no negotiable papers shall be issued in its name, except by such officer or officers or other person or persons as may be designated by the Board from time to time. If and to the extent authorized by the Board, the power to contract loans or issue negotiable papers may be delegated by any such officer or officers or other person or persons.

SECTION 3. Checks, Drafts, etc. All checks, drafts, bills of exchange, and other orders for the payment of money, letters of credit, acceptances, obligations, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness, bills of lading, warehouse receipts and insurance certificates of the Corporation shall be signed or endorsed by such officer or officers or other person or persons as may be designated by the Board from time to time. If and to the extent authorized by the Board, the power to sign or endorse any such instrument may be delegated by any such officer or officers or other person or persons.

SECTION 4. Bank Accounts. The Board may from time to time authorize the opening and maintenance of general and special bank and custodial accounts with such banks, trust companies, and other depositories as it may select. Rules, regulations, and agreements applicable to such accounts may be made, and changed form time to time, by the Board, including, but without limitation, rules, regulations, and agreements with respect to the use of facsimile and printed signatures. Any of such powers of the Board with respect to bank and custodial accounts may be delegated by the Board to any officer or officers or other person or persons as may be designated by the Board, and if and to the extent authorized by the Board, any such power may be further delegated by any such officer or officers or other person or persons.

SECTION 5. Proxies in Respect of Stock or Other Securities of Other Corporations. The Board shall designate the officers of the Corporation who shall have authority from time to time to appoint an agent or agents of the Corporation to exercise in the name and on behalf of the Corporation the powers and rights which the Corporation may have as the holder of stock or other securities in any other corporation and to vote or consent in respect of such stock or securities. Such designated officers may instruct the person or persons so appointed as to the manner of exercising such powers and rights, and such designated officers may execute or cause to be executed in the name and on behalf of the Corporation and under its corporate seal, or otherwise, such written proxies, powers of attorney, or other instruments as they may deem necessary or proper in order that the Corporation may exercise such powers and rights.

ARTICLE VII

Books and Records

The books and records of the Corporation may be kept at such places within or without the State of Delaware as the Board, the Chairman of the Board, the President, or the Secretary may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE VIII

Indemnification

The Corporation shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action, suit, or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative) by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate is or was a director, officer, or employee of the Corporation or serves or served any other enterprise at the request of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX

Seal

The Board shall provide a corporate seal, which shall be in form of a circle and shall bear the full name of the Corporation and the words and figures "Corporate Seal 1975 Delaware."

ARTICLE X

Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Corporation shall end on the 31st day of December in each year.

ARTICLE XI

Amendments

These By-laws may be altered or repealed by the vote of a majority of the whole Board, subject to the power of the stockholders of the Corporation to alter or repeal any By-law made by the Board.

Exhibit 3.8

FORM OF

SPG REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I.

STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1.01. ANNUAL MEETING. SPG Realty Consultants, Inc. (the "Corporation") shall hold an annual meeting of its stockholders to elect directors and transact any other business within its powers, at such place, on such date, and at such time as shall be set by the Board of Directors. Except as the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation (the "Charter"), these By-laws, or statute provides otherwise, any business may be considered at an annual meeting without the purpose of the meeting having been specified in the notice. Failure to hold an annual meeting does not invalidate the Corporation's existence or affect any otherwise valid corporate acts.

SECTION 1.02. SPECIAL MEETING. At any time in the interval between annual meetings, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board, or a Co-Chairman of the Board or the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors by vote at a meeting or in writing (addressed to the Secretary of the Corporation) with or without a meeting.

SECTION 1.03. PLACE OF MEETINGS. Meetings of stockholders shall be held at such place in the United States as is set from time to time by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 1.04. NOTICE OF MEETINGS; WAIVER OF NOTICE. Not less than ten nor more than 60 days before each stockholders meeting, the Secretary shall give written notice of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting and each other stockholder entitled to notice of the meeting. The notice shall state the time and place of the meeting and, if the meeting is a special meeting or notice of the purpose is required by statute, the purpose of the meeting. Notice is given to a stockholder when it is personally delivered to him, left at his residence or usual place of business, or mailed to him at his address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, each person who is entitled to notice waives notice if he or she before or after the meeting signs a waiver of the notice which is filed with the records of stockholders' meetings, or is present at the meeting in person or by proxy (except as otherwise provided by Section 229 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware).

SECTION 1.05. QUORUM; VOTING. Unless any statute or the Charter provides otherwise, at a meeting of stockholders the presence in person or by proxy of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting constitutes a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is sufficient to approve any matter which properly comes before the meeting, except that a plurality of all the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present is sufficient to elect a director.

SECTION 1.06. ADJOURNMENTS. Whether or not a quorum is present, a meeting of stockholders convened on the date for which it was called may be adjourned from time to time by a majority vote of the stockholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote without notice other than by announcement at the meeting. Any business which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified may be deferred and transacted at any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present.

SECTION 1.07. GENERAL RIGHT TO VOTE; PROXIES. Unless the Charter provides otherwise, each outstanding share of stock, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of stockholders. In all elections for directors, each share of stock entitled to vote may be voted for as many individuals as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the share is entitled to be voted. A stockholder may vote the stock he or she owns of record either in person or by proxy authorized by an instrument in writing or by a transmission permitted by law. Unless a proxy provides otherwise, it is not valid more than three years after its date.

SECTION 1.08. LIST OF STOCKHOLDERS. The Secretary shall prepare and make, at least ten days before every election of directors, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares of each stockholder. Such list shall be open at the place where the election is to be held for said ten days, to the examination of any stockholder, and shall be produced and kept at the time and place of election during the whole time thereof, and subject to the inspection of any stockholder who may be present.

SECTION 1.09. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors and the proposal of business to be considered by the stockholders may be made at an annual meeting of stockholders (a) pursuant to the Corporation's notice of meeting, (b) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (c) by any stockholder of the Corporation who was a stockholder of record at the time of giving notice provided for in Section 1.11, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complied with the notice procedures set forth in Section 1.12. The chairman of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section and Section 1.12 and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this Section and Section 1.12, to declare that such defective nomination or proposal be disregarded. No person shall be qualified to serve as a director unless nominated in accordance with this Section 1.09.

SECTION 1.10. CONDUCT OF VOTING. At all meetings of stockholders, unless the voting is conducted by inspectors, the proxies and ballots shall be received, and all questions touching the qualification of voters and the validity of proxies, the acceptance or rejection of votes and procedures for the conduct of business not otherwise specified by these By-laws, the Charter or law, shall be decided or determined by the chairman of the meeting. Unless required by law, no vote need be by ballot and voting need not be conducted by an inspector. No candidate for election as a director at a meeting shall serve as an inspector thereat.

SECTION 1.11. STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS. For any stockholder proposal to be presented in connection with an annual meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, including any proposal relating to the nomination of a director to be elected to the Board of Directors of the Corporation, the stockholders must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 60 days from such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the 90th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 60th day prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth (a) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as a director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (b) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder and of the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (c) as to the stockholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made, (i) the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner and (ii) the class and number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholders and such beneficial owner.

ARTICLE II.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 2.01. FUNCTION OF DIRECTORS. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of its Board of Directors. All powers of the Corporation may be exercised by or under authority of the Board of Directors, except as conferred on or reserved to the stockholders by statute or by the Charter or By-laws.

SECTION 2.02. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS. The Corporation shall have that number of directors as provided in paragraph (a) of Article FIFTH of the Charter.

SECTION 2.03. REMOVAL OF DIRECTOR. Any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed only in accordance with the provisions of the Charter and General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

SECTION 2.04. VACANCY ON BOARD. Subject to the rights of the holders of any class of preferred stock then outstanding, newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors shall be filled by a vote of the stockholders or a majority of the directors in office on the Board of Directors, and any vacancies on the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office, or other cause shall be filled in accordance with paragraph (b) of Article FIFTH of the Charter.

SECTION 2.05. REGULAR MEETINGS. After each meeting of stockholders at which directors shall have been elected, the Board of Directors shall meet as soon as practicable for the purpose of organization and the transaction of other business. In the event that no other time and place are specified by resolution of the Board of Directors, the President, the Chairman of the Board or a Co-Chairman of the Board, with notice in accordance with Section 2.07, the Board of Directors shall meet immediately following the close of, and at the place of, such stockholders' meeting. Any other regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held on such date and at any place as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2.06. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board, or the President or by a majority of the Board of Directors by vote at a meeting, or in writing with or without a meeting. A special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held on such date and at any place as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors.

In the absence of designation such meeting shall be held at such place as may be designated in the call.

SECTION 2.07. NOTICE OF MEETING. Except as provided in Section 2.05, the Secretary shall give notice to each director of each regular and special meeting of the Board of Directors. The notice shall state the time and place of the meeting. Notice is given to a director when it is delivered personally to him, left at his residence or usual place of business, or sent by telegraph, facsimile transmission or telephone, at least 24 hours before the time of the meeting or, in the alternative by mail to his address as it shall appear on the records of the Corporation, at least 72 hours before the time of the meeting. Unless the By-laws or a resolution of the Board of Directors provides otherwise, the notice need not state the business to be transacted at or the purposes of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. No notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors need be given to any director who attends except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, or to any director who, in writing executed and filed with the records of the meeting either before or after the holding thereof, waives such notice. Any meeting of the Board of Directors, regular or special, may adjourn from time to time to reconvene at the same or some other place, and no notice need be given of any such adjourned meeting other than by announcement.

SECTION 2.08. ACTION BY DIRECTORS. Unless statute or the Charter or By-laws requires a greater proportion, the action of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present is action of the Board of Directors. A majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, the directors present by majority vote and without notice other than by announcement may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall attend. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if an unanimous written consent which sets forth the action is signed by each member of the Board and filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board.

SECTION 2.09. MEETING BY CONFERENCE TELEPHONE. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment if all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in a meeting by these means constitutes presence in person at a meeting.

SECTION 2.10. COMPENSATION. By resolution of the Board of Directors a fixed sum and expenses, if any, for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors or of committees thereof, and other compensation for their services as such or on committees of the Board of Directors, may be paid to directors. Directors who are employees of the Corporation need not be paid for attendance at meetings of the board or committees thereof for which fees are paid to other directors. A director who serves the Corporation in any other capacity also may receive compensation for such other services, pursuant to a resolution of the directors.

SECTION 2.11. ADVISORY DIRECTORS. The Board of Directors may by resolution appoint advisory directors to the Board, who may also serve as directors emeriti, and shall have such authority and receive such compensation and reimbursement as the Board of Directors shall provide. Advisory directors or directors emeriti shall not have the authority to participate by vote in the transaction of business.

SECTION 2.12. SURETY BONDS. Unless required by law, no director shall be obligated to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of any of his or her duties.

ARTICLE III.

COMMITTEES

SECTION 3.01. COMMITTEES. In accordance with the Charter, the Board of Directors may appoint an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee, a Nominating Committee and other committees composed of one or more directors and delegate to these committees any of the powers of the Board of Directors, except the power to declare dividends or other distributions on stock, elect directors, issue stock other than as provided in the next sentence, recommend to the stockholders any action which requires stockholder approval, amend the By-laws, or approve any merger or share exchange which does not require stockholder approval. If the Board of Directors has given general authorization for the issuance of stock, a committee of the Board of Directors, in accordance with a general formula or method specified by the Board of Directors by resolution or by adoption of a stock option or other plan, may fix the terms of stock subject to the terms on which any stock may be issued, including all terms and conditions required or permitted to be established or authorized by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3.02. COMMITTEE PROCEDURE. Each committee may fix rules of procedure for its business. A majority of the members of a committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of those present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of a committee may be taken without a meeting, if a unanimous written consent which sets forth the action is signed by each committee member and filed with the minutes of the committee. The members of a committee may conduct any meeting thereof by conference telephone in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.10.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS

SECTION 4.01. EXECUTIVE AND OTHER OFFICERS. The Corporation shall have a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. The Corporation may also have a Chairman, or Co-Chairmen, of the Board, a Chief Executive Officer, a Chief Operating Officer, one or more Vice-Presidents, assistant officers, and subordinate officers as may be established by the Board of Directors. A person may hold more than one office in the Corporation except that no person may serve concurrently as both President and Vice-President of the Corporation. The Chairman of the Board, or each of the Co-Chairmen of the Board, as the case may be, shall be a director; the other officers may be directors.

SECTION 4.02. CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD. The Chairman, or Co-Chairmen, of the Board, if elected, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders at which he or she or they shall be present. In general, the Chairman of the Board and a Co-Chairman of the Board shall perform all such duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.03. VICE CHAIRMAN. The Vice Chairman of the Board, if one be elected by the Board of Directors, shall be an officer of the Corporation. In general, the Vice Chairman of the Board shall perform all such duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 4.04. CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER. The Chief Executive Officer shall be the principal executive officer of the Corporation and, subject to the control of the Board of Directors and with the President, shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the Corporation. In general, he or she shall perform such other duties usually performed by a chief executive officer of a corporation and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, if one be elected, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board or a Co-Chairman of the Board, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders at which he or she shall be present.

SECTION 4.05. PRESIDENT. Unless otherwise specified by the Board of Directors, the President shall be the principal operating officer of the Corporation and perform the duties customarily performed by a principal operating officer of a corporation. If no Chief Executive Officer is appointed, he or she shall also serve as the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation. The President may sign and execute, in the name of the Corporation, all authorized deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments, except in cases in which the signing and execution thereof shall have been expressly delegated to some other officer or agent of the Corporation. In general, he or she shall perform such other duties usually performed by a president of a corporation and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, the President, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders at which he or she shall be present.

SECTION 4.06. CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER. The Chief Operating Officer, at the request of the Chief Executive Officer or the President, or in the President's absence or during his inability to act, shall perform the duties and exercise the functions of the President, and when so acting shall have the powers of the President. Unless otherwise specified by the Board of Directors, he or she shall perform such other duties usually performed by a chief operating officer of a corporation and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.07. VICE-PRESIDENTS. The Vice-President or Vice-Presidents, at the request of the Chief Executive Officer or the President or the Chief Operating Officer, or in the Chief Operating Officer's absence or during his inability to act, shall perform the duties and exercise the functions of the Chief Operating Officer, and when so acting shall have the powers of the Chief Operating Officer. If there be more than one Vice-President, the Board of Directors may determine which one or more of the Vice-Presidents shall perform any of such duties or exercise any of such functions, or if such determination is not made by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President may make such determination; otherwise any of the Vice-Presidents may perform any of such duties or exercise any of such functions. The Vice-President or Vice-Presidents shall have such other powers and perform such other duties, and have such additional descriptive designations in their titles (if any), as are from time to time assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.08. SECRETARY. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the stockholders, of the Board of Directors and of any committees, in books provided for the purpose; he or she shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of the By-laws or as required by law; he or she shall be custodian of the records of the Corporation; he or she may witness any document on behalf of the Corporation, the execution of which is duly authorized, see that the corporate seal is affixed where such document is required or desired to be under its seal, and, when so affixed, may attest the same; and, in general, the Secretary shall perform all duties incident to the office of a secretary of a corporation, and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive officer, or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.09. TREASURER. The Treasurer shall have charge of and be responsible for all funds, securities, receipts and disbursements of the Corporation, and shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, in the name of the Corporation, all moneys or other valuable effects in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall, from time to time, be selected by the Board of Directors; he or she shall render to the President and to the Board of Directors, whenever requested, an account of the financial condition of the Corporation; and, in general, the Treasurer shall perform all the duties incident to the office of a treasurer of a corporation, and such other duties as are from time to time assigned to him or her by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive officer, or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.10. ASSISTANT AND SUBORDINATE OFFICERS. The assistant and subordinate officers of the Corporation are all officers below the office of Vice-President, Secretary, or Treasurer. The assistant or subordinate officers shall have such duties as are from time to time assigned to them by the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, or the President of the Corporation.

SECTION 4.11. ELECTION, TENURE AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS. The Board of Directors shall elect the officers. The Board of Directors may from time to time authorize any committee or officer to appoint assistant and subordinate officers. Election or appointment of an officer, employee or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. All officers shall be appointed to hold their offices, respectively, during the pleasure of the Board. The Board of Directors (or, as to any assistant or subordinate officer, any committee or officer authorized by the Board) may remove an officer at any time. The removal of an officer does not prejudice any of his contract rights. The Board of Directors (or, as to any assistant or subordinate officer, any committee or officer authorized by the Board) may fill a vacancy which occurs in any office for the unexpired portion of the term.

SECTION 4.12. COMPENSATION. The Board of Directors shall have power to fix the salaries and other compensation and remuneration, of whatever kind, of all officers of the Corporation. No officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may authorize any committee or officer, upon whom the power of appointing assistant and subordinate officers may have been conferred, to fix the salaries, compensation and remuneration of such assistant and subordinate officers.

ARTICLE V.

DIVISIONAL TITLES

SECTION 5.01. CONFERRING DIVISIONAL TITLES. The Board of Directors may from time to time confer upon any employee of a division of the Corporation the title of President, Vice President, Treasurer or Controller of such division or any other title or titles deemed appropriate, or may authorize the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the President to do so. Any such titles so conferred may be discontinued and withdrawn at any time by the Board of Directors, or by the Chairman of the Board, or a Co-Chairman of the Board or the President if so authorized by the Board of Directors. Any employee of a division designated by such a divisional title shall have the powers and duties with respect to such division as shall be prescribed by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board, or the President.

SECTION 5.02. EFFECT OF DIVISIONAL TITLES. The conferring of divisional titles, as described in Section 5.01 hereof, shall not create an office of the Corporation under Article IV unless specifically designated as such by the Board of Directors; but any person who is an officer of the Corporation may also have a divisional title.

ARTICLE VI.

STOCK

SECTION 6.01. CERTIFICATES FOR STOCK. Each stockholder is entitled to certificates which represent and certify the shares of stock he or she holds in the Corporation. Each stock certificate shall include on its face the name of the Corporation, the name of the stockholder or other person to whom it is issued, and the class of stock and number of shares it represents. It shall be in such form, not inconsistent with law or with the Charter, as shall be approved by the Board of Directors or any officer or officers designated for such purpose by resolution of the Board of Directors. Each stock certificate shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board, the President, or a Vice-President, and countersigned by the Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer, or an Assistant Treasurer. Each certificate may be sealed with the actual corporate seal or a facsimile of it or in any other form and the signatures may be either manual or facsimile signatures. A certificate is valid and may be issued whether or not an officer who signed it is still an officer when it is issued. A certificate may not be issued until the stock represented by it is fully paid.

SECTION 6.02. TRANSFERS. The Board of Directors shall have power and authority to make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient concerning the issue, transfer and registration of certificates of stock; and may appoint transfer agents and registrars thereof. The duties of transfer agent and registrar may be combined.

SECTION 6.03. RECORD DATES. The Board of Directors may set a record date for the purpose of making any proper determination with respect to stockholders, including which stockholders are entitled to notice of a meeting, vote at a meeting, receive a dividend, or be allotted other rights. The record date may not be prior to the close of business on the day the record date is fixed nor, subject to Section 1.06, more than 60 days before the date on which the action requiring the determination will be taken; and, in the case of a meeting of stockholders, the record date shall be at least ten days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 6.04. STOCK LEDGER. The Corporation shall maintain a stock ledger which contains the name and address of each stockholder and the number of shares of stock of each class which the stockholder holds. The stock ledger may be in written form or in any other form which can be converted within a reasonable time into written form for visual inspection. The original or a duplicate of the stock ledger shall be kept at the offices of a transfer agent for the particular class of stock, or, if none, at the principal office in the State of Delaware or the principal executive offices of the Corporation.

SECTION 6.05. LOST STOCK CERTIFICATES. The Board of Directors of the Corporation may determine the conditions for issuing a new stock certificate in place of one which is alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, or the Board of Directors may delegate such power to any officer or officers of the Corporation. In their discretion, the Board of Directors or such officer or officers may refuse to issue such new certificate save upon the order of some court having jurisdiction in the premises.

ARTICLE VII.

FINANCE

SECTION 7.01. CHECKS, DRAFTS, ETC. All checks, drafts and orders for the payment of money, notes and other evidences of indebtedness, issued in the name of the Corporation, shall, unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, be signed by the Chief Executive Officer, the President, a Vice-President or an Assistant Vice-President and countersigned by the Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer, the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary.

SECTION 7.02. FISCAL YEAR. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the twelve calendar months period ending December 31 in each year, unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 7.03. DIVIDENDS. If declared by the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof, the Corporation may pay dividends on its shares in cash, property, or in shares of the capital stock of the Corporation, unless such dividend is contrary to law or to a restriction contained in the Charter.

SECTION 7.04. CONTRACTS. To the extent permitted by applicable law, and except as otherwise prescribed by the Charter or these By-laws with respect to certificates for shares, the Board of Directors may authorize any officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

ARTICLE VIII.

INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 8.01. PROCEDURE. Any indemnification, or payment of expenses, for which mandatory payments must be made under the Charter, in advance of the final disposition of any proceeding, shall be made promptly, and in any event within 60 days, upon the written request of the director or officer entitled to seek indemnification (the "Indemnified Party"). The right to indemnification and advances hereunder shall be enforceable by the Indemnified Party in any court of competent jurisdiction, if (i) the Corporation denies such request, in whole or in part, or (ii) no disposition thereof is made within 60 days. The Indemnified Party's costs and expenses incurred in connection with successfully establishing his right to indemnification, in whole or in part, in any such action shall also be reimbursed by the Corporation. It shall be a defense to any action for advance for expenses that (a) a determination has been made that the facts then known to those making the determination would preclude indemnification or (b) the Corporation has not received both (i) an undertaking as required by law to repay such advances in the event it shall ultimately be determined that the standard of conduct has not been met and (ii) a written affirmation by the Indemnified Party of such Indemnified Party's good faith belief that the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Corporation has been met.

SECTION 8.02. EXCLUSIVITY, ETC. The indemnification and advance of expenses provided by the Charter and these By-laws shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advance of expenses may be entitled under any law (common or statutory), or any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or other provision that is consistent with law, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding office or while employed by or acting as agent for the Corporation, shall continue in respect of all events occurring while a person was a director or officer after such person has ceased to be a director or officer, and shall inure to the benefit of the estate, heirs, executors and administrators of such person. All rights to indemnification and advance of expenses under the Charter of the Corporation and hereunder shall be deemed to be a contract between the Corporation and each director or officer of the Corporation who serves or served in such capacity at any time while this By-law is in effect. Nothing herein shall prevent the amendment of this By-law, provided that no such amendment shall diminish the rights of any person hereunder with respect to events occurring or claims made before its adoption or as to claims made after its adoption in respect of events occurring before its adoption. Any repeal or modification of this By-law shall not in any way diminish any rights to indemnification or advance of expenses of such director or officer or the obligations of the Corporation arising hereunder with respect to events occurring, or claims made, while this By-law or any provision hereof is in force.

SECTION 8.03. SEVERABILITY; DEFINITIONS. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Article VIII shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. The phrase "this By-law" in this Article VIII means this Article VIII in its entirety.

ARTICLE IX.

SUNDRY PROVISIONS

SECTION 9.01. BOOKS AND RECORDS. The Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of its accounts and transactions and minutes of the proceedings of its stockholders and Board of Directors and of any executive or other committee when exercising any of the powers of the Board of Directors. The books and records of a Corporation may be in written form or in any other form which can be converted within a reasonable time into written form for visual inspection. Minutes shall be recorded in written form but may be maintained in the form of a reproduction. The original or a certified copy of the By-laws shall be kept at the principal office of the Corporation.

SECTION 9.02. CORPORATE SEAL. The Board of Directors shall provide a suitable seal, bearing the name of the Corporation, which shall be in the charge of the Secretary. The Board of Directors may authorize one or more duplicate seals and provide for the custody thereof. If the Corporation is required to place its corporate seal to a document, it is sufficient to meet the requirement of any law, rule, or regulation relating to a corporate seal to place the word "Seal" adjacent to the signature of the person authorized to sign the document on behalf of the Corporation.

SECTION 9.03. BONDS. The Board of Directors may require any officer, agent or employee of the Corporation to give a bond to the Corporation, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties, with one or more sureties and in such amount as may be satisfactory to the Board of Directors.

SECTION 9.04. VOTING UPON SHARES IN OTHER CORPORATIONS. Stock of other corporations or associations, registered in the name of the Corporation, may be voted by the President, a Vice-President, or a proxy appointed by either of them. The Board of Directors, however, may by resolution appoint some other person to vote such shares, in which case such person shall be entitled to vote such shares upon the production of a certified copy of such resolution.

SECTION 9.05. MAIL. Any notice or other document which is required by these By-laws to be mailed shall be deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid.

SECTION 9.06. EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS. A person who holds more than one office in the Corporation may not act in more than one capacity to execute, acknowledge, or verify an instrument required by law to be executed, acknowledged, or verified by more than one officer.

SECTION 9.07. RELIANCE. Each director, officer, employee and agent of the Corporation shall, in the performance of his or her duties with respect to the Corporation, be fully justified and protected with regard to any act or failure to act in reliance in good faith upon the books of account or other records of the Corporation, upon an opinion of counsel or upon reports made to the Corporation by any of its officers or employees or by the adviser, accountants, appraisers or other experts or consultants selected by the Board of Directors or officers of the Corporation, regardless of whether such counsel or expert may also be a director.

SECTION 9.08. CERTAIN RIGHTS OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS. The directors shall have no responsibility to devote their full time to the affairs of the Corporation. Any director or officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, in his or her personal capacity or in a capacity as an affiliate, employee, or agent of any other person, or otherwise, may have business interests and engage in business activities similar to or in addition to those of or relating to the Corporation.

SECTION 9.09. AMENDMENTS. In accordance with the Charter, these By-laws may be repealed, altered, amended or rescinded by the stockholders of the Corporation (considered for this purpose as one class) by the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of all the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of directors which are cast on the matter at any meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose (provided that notice of such proposed repeal, alteration, amendment or rescission is included in the notice of such meeting).

Form of stock certificate of Simon Property Group, Inc. Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share.

The holder of the shares represented by this certificate also holds a beneficial interest in shares of stock of SPG Realty Consultants, Inc. ("SRC") held in a trust under a Trust Agreement dated as of October 30, 1979, among stockholders of Corporate Property Investors (predecessor to the Corporation), Corporate Property Investors (predecessor to the Corporation), Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. (predecessor to SRC), and the trustee thereunder.

The securities represented by this certificate are subject to restrictions on transfer for the purpose of the Corporation's maintenance of its status as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the "Code"). Transfers in contravention of such restrictions shall be void ab initio. Except as otherwise determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, no Person may (1) Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock in excess of 8.0% (other than members of the Simon Family Group, whose relevant percentage is 18.0%) of the value of any class of outstanding Capital Stock of the Corporation, or any combination thereof, determined as provided in the Corporation's Charter, as the same may be amended from time to time (the "Charter"), and computed with regard to all outstanding shares of Capital Stock and, to the extent provided by the Code, all shares of Capital Stock issuable under existing options and Exchange Rights that have not been exercised; or (2) Beneficially Own Capital Stock which would result in the Corporation being "closely held" under Section 856(h) of the Code. Unless so excepted, any acquisition of Capital Stock and continued holding of ownership constitutes a continuous representation of compliance with the above limitations, and any Person who attempts to Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock in excess of the above limitations has an affirmative obligation to notify the Corporation immediately upon such attempt. If the restrictions on transfer are violated, the transfer will be void ab initio and the shares of Capital Stock represented hereby will be automatically converted into shares of Excess Stock and will be transferred to the Trustee to be held in trust for the benefit of one or more Qualified Charitable Organizations, whereupon such person shall forfeit all rights and interests in such Excess Stock. In addition, certain Beneficial Owners or Constructive Owners must give written notice as to certain information on demand and on an annual basis. All capitalized terms in this legend have the meanings defined in the Charter. The Corporation will mail without charge to any requesting stockholder a copy of the Charter, including the express terms of each class and series of the authorized capital stock of the Corporation, within five days after receipt of a written request therefor.

Form of stock certificate of Simon Property Group, Inc. Class B Common Stock, par value $0.0001 per share.

The holder of the shares represented by this certificate also holds a beneficial interest in shares of stock of SPG Realty Consultants, Inc. ("SRC") held in a trust under a Trust Agreement dated as of October 30, 1979, among stockholders of Corporate Property Investors (predecessor to the Corporation), Corporate Realty Consultants, Inc. (predecessor to SRC), and the trustee thereunder.

The securities represented by this certificate are subject to restrictions on transfer for the purpose of the Corporation's maintenance of its status as a real estate investment trust under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time (the "Code"). Transfers in contravention of such restrictions shall be void ab initio. Except as otherwise determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, no Person may (1) Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock in excess of 8.0% (other than members of the Simon Family Group, whose relevant percentage is 18.0%) of the value of any class of outstanding Capital Stock of the Corporation, or any combination thereof, determined as provided in the Corporation's Charter, as the same may be amended from time to time (the "Charter"), and computed with regard to all outstanding shares of Capital Stock and, to the extent provided by the Code, all shares of Capital Stock issuable under existing Options and Exchange Rights that have not been exercised; or (2) Beneficially Own Capital Stock which would result in the Corporation being "closely held" under Section 856(h) of the Code. Unless so excepted, any acquisition of Capital Stock and continued holding of ownership constitutes a continuous representation of compliance with the above limitations, and any Person who attempts to Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock in excess of the above limitations has an affirmative obligation to notify the Corporation immediately upon such attempt. If the restrictions on transfer are violated, the transfer will be void ab initio and the shares of Capital Stock represented hereby will be automatically converted into shares of Excess Stock and will be transferred to the Trustee to be held in trust for the benefit of one or more Qualified Charitable Organizations, whereupon such Person shall forfeit all rights and interests in such Excess Stock. In addition, certain Beneficial Owners or Constructive Owners must give written notice as to certain information on demand and on an annual basis. All capitalized terms in this legend have the meanings defined in the Charter. The Corporation will mail without charge to any requesting stockholder a copy of the Charter, including the express terms of each class and series of the authorized capital stock of the Corporation, within five days after receipt of a written request therefor.

TRUST AGREEMENT (herein called this "Agreement"), dated as of October 30, 1979, among shareholders of CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI"), whose executions appear at the foot hereof (herein called the "Shareholders"), CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC., a Delaware corporation ("CRC"), and FIRST JERSEY NATIONAL BANK, as Trustee (herein called the "Trustee").

WHEREAS, the Shareholders hold outstanding shares of common stock, no par value (the "Shares"), of CRC and outstanding(shares of beneficial interest, par value $1 per share ("CPI Shares"), of CPI, whether Series A (Voting) Shares or Series B (Nonvoting) Shares of CPI; and

WHEREAS the Shareholders desire to create hereunder a trust, to be known as the "CRC Trust", the corpus of which is to consist of the Shares now held by the Shareholders and any shares of stock of CRC received by the Trustee with respect thereto and is to be held for the proportionate benefit of, or distributed proportionately to the registered holders from time to time (herein called the "Grantors") of CPI Shares who shall, respectively, be (i) a Shareholder, or a transferee of the CPI Shares now held by a Shareholder who deposits all his Shares hereunder in accordance with Section 1.1 hereof or a transferee of the

CPI Shares now held by First Jersey National Bank as Escrow Agent under an Escrow Agreement dated as of February 29, 1973, (ii) a holder of CPI Shares the issuance of which hereafter was, pursuant to Section 2.3 hereof, accompanied by the transfer by CPI to the Trustee of a portion of the consideration received by CPI therefor, or a transferee of any such CPI Shares, (iii) a holder of CPI Shares (the "Conversion Shares") heretofore or hereafter issued upon the conversion of CPI's presently outstanding 7-1/2% Convertible Subordinated Debentures Due 1981, or a transferee of any Conversion Shares, or (iv) a holder of CPI Shares (the "Option Shares") heretofore issued upon the exercise of options of CPI or hereafter issued upon the exercise of options of CPI outstanding at the date hereof, or a transferee of any Option Shares; and

WHEREAS the Trustee is willing to accept the trust property hereinafter described and to hold and dispose of it upon the trusts herein set forth;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto are agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

Transfers of Shares to Trustee and Holding of Beneficial Interest Therein

1.1. Transfer. (a) The Shareholders will, promptly after the date of execution hereof, cause to be delivered to the Trustee certificates, duly endorsed for transfer to the nominee of the Trustee and with proper transfer tax stamps affixed thereto if any such stamps are required.

(b) The Grantors may from time to time cause to be delivered to the Trustee certificates, duly endorsed for transfer to the nominee of the Trustee and with proper transfer tax stamps affixed thereto if any such stamps are required, representing additional shares of stock of any class of CRC.

1.2. Beneficial Interest in Shares and Distributions with Respect Thereto. (a) The Trustee agrees that (i) all shares of stock of CRC transferred to the nominee Trustee as described in Section 1.1 hereof, (ii) all shares of stock of any class of CRC received by the Trustee as a stock dividend or other distribution on, or as a result of a split-up of, shares of stock of CRC held by the Trustee or received in exchange for such shares as a result of a merger, consolidation, recapitalization or reclassification of CRC or otherwise and (iii) all shares of stock of any class of CRC received by the Trustee upon its purchase thereof pursuant to Section 2.3 hereof or upon its exercise, pursuant to Section 2.4 hereof, of warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase such shares, will be held by it as Trustee hereunder for the benefit of the Grantors in proportion to the respective numbers of CPI Shares held by them, and, subject to Section 5.4, will not be sold or otherwise disposed of during the term of the CRC Trust. The Trustee further agrees that, subject to Section 5.1 hereof, all cash dividends and other assets received by the Trustee with respect to any of the foregoing (including all assets received pursuant to Section 3.5 hereof and all property other than cash or securities, all debt obligations, all shares of stock and all warrants or rights to purchase stock or other securities which the Trustee shall receive) exclusive of shares of stock, and warrants and rights to purchase shares of stock, of CRC, will be distributed currently by the Trustee to the Grantors in proportion to the respective numbers of CPI Shares held by them.

1.3 Holding Trust Assets. All Shares and other assets held in the CRC Trust may be held of record in the name of the Trustee's nominee.

ARTICLE III

Transfer of Beneficial Interest, Issuance of Additional CPI Shares and Warrants and Rights Offering by CRC

2.1. List. The Trustee shall maintain a list in alphabetical order of the names and addresses of the Grantors and the number and series of CPI Shares held by each Grantor, all as certified to the Trustee by CPI or its agent for the transfer of CPI Shares. Upon written request from CPI or CRC, the Trustee shall furnish a certified copy of such list as of the date specified in such request to CPI or CRC or to their respective authorized representatives or successors in interest.

2.2. Transfer. The beneficial interest of the Grantors in the shares of stock of CRC held in the CRC Trust shall not be transferable separately but only by and as part of a transfer of CPI Shares, and every sale or transfer by any Grantor of all or part of his CPI Shares shall include all or a proportionate part of his undivided beneficial interest in the shares of stock of CRC or in any other assets in the CRC trust then held by the Trustee. The sale of transfer of such an undivided beneficial interest shall be evidenced by the transfer of a certificate representing CPI Shares.

2.3. Issuance of Additional CPI Shares. It is anticipated that, if CPI shall issue any additional CPI Shares (other than Conversion Shares or Option Shares) after the date hereof, (a) CPI will (i) receive therefor an amount equal to the aggregate fair value (as determined by the Trustees of CPI) of such CPI Shares and of the number of the Shares of CRC which will represent the beneficial interests in the CRC Trust to be acquired by the purchasers of such CPI Shares as herein provided and (ii) transfer to the Trustee the portion of the consideration received by CPI for such CPI Shares which represents the value of such beneficial interests in the CRC Trust, and (b) in that event, CRC will simultaneously offer to sell additional Shares of CRC proportionately to its shareholders at a price equal to the value of CRC's Shares determined as aforesaid and in such aggregate number that the Trustee will be entitled to subscribe to the number of such Shares determined as aforesaid. The Trustee will apply the consideration transferred to it by CPI as aforesaid to the purchase of Shares of CRC pursuant to its aforesaid offer. The Trustee will be advised of any action taken by CPI as described in this Section and may properly rely on such advice.

2.4. Warrants and Rights for Stock of CRC. Upon the receipt by the Trustee from CRC of warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase shares of stock of any class of CRC, the Trustee shall inform the Grantors thereof and advise the Grantors that if they desire and provide the Trustee with their respective portions (proportionately to the respective numbers of CPI Shares held by them) of the consideration required for the exercise in full of all such warrants or rights, the Trustee will exercise the same. The Trustee will exercise such warrants or rights upon its receipt of the total consideration required of the exercise of all such warrants or rights, but in the event the Trustee does not receive the total consideration for the exercise of all such warrants or rights it shall permit all such warrants or rights to lapse and shall refund the consideration which it did receive.

Dividends and Distributions

3.1. Definition of "Additional Assets". Any cash, any property other than cash or securities, any debt obligations, any shares of stock and any warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase securities (hereinafter collectively called "Additional Assets") which the Trustee shall receive as a dividend or other distribution on shares of stock of CRC held by the Trustee, or as a result of a split-up of such shares or in exchange for such shares pursuant to a merger, consolidation, recapitalization or reclassification or CRC or otherwise, or upon the dissolution, liquidation or bankruptcy of CRC, shall be dealt with by the Trustee as provided in Sections 2.4, 3.2, 3.3, 3.4 and 3.5 hereof.

3.2. Trustee to Distribute Additional Assets Other Than Stock of CRC or Warrants or Rights for Stock of CRC. Additional Assets (including (i) property other than cash or securities, (ii) debt obligations of CRC and warrants or rights to purchase securities of CRC other than shares of its stock, and (iii) debt obligations of, shares of stock of, and warrants or rights to purchase stock or other securities of, any corporation other than CRC) other than shares of stock of any class of CRC and warrants or rights to purchase shares of stock of any class of CRC which the Trustee shall receive shall be distributed by the Trustee to the Grantors on the record date fixed by CRC for purposes of the payment or delivery of such Additional Assets to its stockholders, in proportion to the respective numbers of CPI Shares held by such Grantors. The Trustee may direct that any such Additional Assets be paid or distributed by CRC or by its dividend paying or distribution or exchange agent directly to the Grantors and, upon acceptance of such direction by CRC or such agent, such direction shall relieve the Trustee from all further responsibility with respect thereto.

3.3. Trustee to Retain Stock of CRC and Warrants or Rights for Stock of CRC. Additional Assets consisting of shares of stock of any class of CRC or warrants or rights to purchase shares of stock of any class or CRC which the Trustee shall receive shall be added to the corpus of the CRC Trust and held by the Trustee, subject to all the terms and provisions of this Agreement, for the benefit of the Grantors.

3.4. Handling of Rights and Warrants. Additional Assets received by the Trustee consisting of warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase any securities of CRC other than shares of its stock or to subscribe to or purchase any securities of any corporation other than CRC shall be distributed by the Trustee in the manner described in Section 3.2 hereof. The Trustee shall not sell or distribute any warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase additional shares of stock of any class of CRC and shall exercise such rights or warrants if but only if the Grantors shall provide the Trustee funds appropriate for such exercise pursuant to Section 2.4 hereof. Any shares of stock of CRC acquired by the Trustee upon such exercise shall be added to the corpus of the CRC Trust and held by the Trustee, subject to all the terms and provisions of this Agreement, for the benefit of the Grantors.

3.5. Responsibility of Trustee of Dissolution, Liquidation and Bankruptcy of CRC. In the event that CRC should be dissolved or completely liquidated or be adjudged a bankrupt or institute proceedings to be adjudged a bankrupt or take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency laws or if a receiver is appointed for CRC or its property, the Trustee shall not be charged with any responsibility with respect to the dissolution, liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other proceedings except (i) to mail to the Grantors a copy of any notice the Trustee may receive of the institution of any such proceedings; and (ii) to pay and distribute moneys and other property received by the Trustee to the Grantors, as of the date of receipt by the Trustee, in proportion to their respective beneficial interests in the CRC Trust, against the submission to the Trustee of their certificates for CPI Shares for appropriate notation thereon of such payment and upon final distribution for notation thereon to the effect that the CRC Trust has been terminated. If in connection with the final distribution made to the Trustee the certificates evidencing stock of CRC held in trust are required to be surrendered, the Trustee is authorized to surrender the same against the receipt of such distribution. If such certificates are not required to be surrendered in connection with such final distribution, the Trustee, after the receipt thereof, shall deliver the certificates to the Grantors in accordance with their respective interests, or as may be otherwise directed in such dissolution, liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership and other proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

Voting and Proxies

4.1. Directors of CRC. The Trustee shall, to the extent of and in accordance with instructions received by it from CPI, vote the Shares held by it so that each director of CRC shall at all times also be a trustee of CPI.

4.2. Other Matters--Delivery of Notices and Proxies to Trustee. With respect to each meeting of stockholders of CRC, the Trustee, as holder of all the voting stock of CRC, will cause CRC to furnish to the Trustee copies of the notice of and proxy and proxy statements (if any) for such meeting in sufficient number and sufficiently in advance of such meeting so that the Trustee may mail the same to each Grantor on the date fixed by CRC for determining stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting and request instructions from each Grantor as to how the Shares held in the CRC Trust at such date for the benefit of such Grantor should be voted. Subject to Section 4.1 hereof, the Trustee shall file with CRC a proxy or proxies in accordance with the instructions received from the Grantors in respect of the Shares covered by such instructions. Subject to Section 4.1 hereof, the Trustee shall not cast any vote in respect of the Shares held in the CRC Trust as to which voting instructions were not given to the Trustee by the Grantors.

4.3. Financial Information. The Trustee shall mail to the Grantors, as shown by a list of Grantors maintained by the Trustee as provided in Section 2.1 hereof, copies of all reports, financial statements and other communications which CRC mails to its stockholders of record.

4.4. Inspection of Records. The Trustee shall, upon request of one or more Grantors, as shown by a list of Grantors maintained by the Trustee as provided in Section 2.1 hereof, exercise for their benefit such rights to inspect and make copies of all corporate records of CRC as such Grantors would have if they were holders of record of the Shares held in the CRC Trust for their benefit.

Concerning the Trustee

5.1. Duties and Responsibilities. The Trustee shall be obligated to perform and be liable for only such acts as are specifically provided for herein. The Trustee shall have no responsibility with respect to the voting of stock held in the CRC Trust, except as provided in Article IV hereof, or with respect to the operation or carrying on of the business of CRC. The Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by an authorized officer of the Trustee.

5.2. Certain Rights of Trustee. The Trustee may rely, and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting, upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, consent, order or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own choosing and any opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered by it in good faith and in accordance with such opinion.

5.3. Recitals. The recitals contained herein and any recital or provision contained in certificates representing CPI Shares shall be taken as the statements of CPI or CRC, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the same.

5.4. Compensation, Indemnification and Lien of Trustee. CRC agrees to pay to the Trustee from time to time, and the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, reasonable compensation. CRC also agrees to pay or reimburse the Trustee upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance herewith, including reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its counsel or agents, except any such expense, disbursement or advance arising from the Trustee's negligence or bad faith. CRC agrees to indemnify the Trustee for and to hold itharmless against any loss, liability, tax or expense incurred without wilful misconduct, negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the CRC Trust or this Agreement, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim or liability in the premises. The Trustee shall have the right to pay or reimburse itself for all such compensation, expenses, disbursements, advances, losses, liabilities, taxes, expenses and costs, out of any or all cash dividends and all other assets received by the Trustee pursuant to Section 1.2 hereof. The Trustee shall have a lien prior to that of the Grantors upon all the corpus of the CRC Trust to secure such payment or reimbursement, and if CRC fails to make any such payment or reimbursement after a reasonable lapse of time after being requested to do so the Trustee shall have the right to make such payment or reimbursement to itself out of any or all of such corpus and to sell at public or private sale without notice any or all trust assets to the extent necessary to make such payment or reimbursement.

5.5. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee. In the extent that the Trustee shall merge into or consolidate with another bank or trust company, the surviving corporation shall act as the Trustee hereunder without further action of the parties hereto.

5.6. Resignation and Removal, Appointment of Successor Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to CRC and all Grantors. Upon receiving such notice of resignation Grantors shall, by the vote, at a meeting or by proxy, of Grantors holding a majority of the outstanding CPI Shares held by Grantors, promptly appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in triplicate, one copy of which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee, one copy to the successor trustee and one copy to CRC. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within thirty days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning

Trustee or any Grantor may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee.

(b) In case at any time the Trustee shall fail to comply with the provisions of this Agreement or if the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent, or if a receiver of the Trustee or its property shall be appointed, or if any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or its property or affairs, then and in any such case the Grantors may by the vote, at a meeting or by proxy, of Grantors holding a majority of the outstanding CPI Shares held by the Grantors remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in triplicate, one copy of which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed, one copy to the successor trustee and one copy to CRC.

(c) The Trustee hereunder shall at all times be a corporation or association organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of the State of New Jersey or the State of New York having its principal office and place of business in Jersey City, New Jersey, or New York, New York, and having capital and surplus of at least $5,000,000 and which is authorized to exercise corporate trust powers.

(d) Any resignation or removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee shall become effective upon the acceptance in writing of the appointment by the successor trustee and the agreement by such successor trustee to the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

(e) Upon the appointment and acceptance of a successor trustee, the Trustee shall promptly assign and transfer to such successor trustee, subject to the provisions of Section 5.4 hereof, all shares of stock and other assets held in the CRC Trust and shall deliver to such successor trustee a certified list of all the Grantors together with any other assets or property held in the CRC Trust.

ARTICLE VI

Duration of CRC Trust

6.1. Duration of Trust. The CRC Trust shall continue until the expiration of twenty (20) years after the death of the last survivor of the following persons (provided, however, that as to any part of the trust estate located in any jurisdiction in which such duration is not permitted, the CRC Trust created hereby shall terminate on the latest date permitted by the law of such jurisdiction, using Lawrence Lederman, John J. Cirigliano and Gary S.

6.2. Termination. The CRC Trust shall terminate prior thereto (i) upon the termination of CPI or (ii) upon notification to the Trustee of the vote to that effect, at a meeting or by proxy, of Grantors holding two-thirds of the outstanding CPI Shares held by Grantors. As used in this Section 6.2, termination of CPI shall mean the termination of CPI otherwise than in a transaction contemplated by Sections 7.1 or 7.2 hereof.

6.3. Effect of Termination of Trust. Upon the termination of the CRC Trust, all assets then held in the CRC Trust by the Trustee shall be transferred and assigned by the Trustee to the Grantors in proportion to their beneficial interests herein.

CPI Shares

7.1. Conversion of CPI into Corporation. If the trust creating CPI shall be converted into a corporation, the term "CPI Shares" shall be deemed to refer to the shares of common stock of such corporation, regardless of class or series.

7.2. Merger, Consolidation or Exchange of CPI Shares. If (i) CPI shall merge or consolidate with or into, or sell all or substantially all of its assets to, any other business entity ("CPI Transaction") and (ii) all CPI Shares are canceled or deemed canceled as a result of the CPI Transaction and (iii) CPI (and/or its shareholders) shall receive shares of common stock of such entity or an entity affiliated therewith as a result of the CPI Transaction, the term "CPI Shares" shall be deemed to refer to such shares of common stock, regardless of class or series.

7.3. Reclassification of CPI Shares. If any CPI Shares are reclassified, the term "CPI Shares" as used in this Agreement shall be deemed to refer to the common shares of CPI, after such reclassification, regardless of class or series.

7.4. CPI. The term "CPI" as used in this Agreement shall be deemed to refer to any issuer from time to time of CPI Shares.

7.5. Substituted CPI Issuer or Shares. If other shares of CPI or of any corporation shall be deemed pursuant to this ARTICLE VII to be CPI Shares, appropriate descriptions of such shares (and of any other shares which shall subsequently be deemed to be CPI Shares) and of the certificates representing them shall be deemed to be substituted for references to CPI Shares and to certificates representing CPI Shares wherever used in this Agreement and the name of any such other corporation shall be deemed substituted for or added to "CPI".

ARTICLE VIII

Miscellaneous Provisions

8.1. Amendments. This Agreement may be amended by the affirmative vote or written consent of Grantors holding at least two-thirds of the outstanding CPI Shares held by Grantors; provided, however, that no amendment shall (i) change the proportionate beneficial interests of the Grantors in the CRC Trust without the affirmative vote or written consent of all such Grantors; or (ii) make any provision not uniformly applicable to all stock of CRC theretofore or thereafter deposited in the CRC Trust, regardless of the time of deposit or (iii) require or authorize the Trustee to engage in any business; or (iv) change the termination provisions in ARTICLE VI hereof. In the event that any such amendment, in the opinion of the Trustee, adversely affects its obligations, rights or responsibilities, such amendment shall not become effective until thirty days after a copy thereof has been delivered to the Trustee or until such time as a resignation of the Trustee, written notice of which shall have been given after such copy of such amendment shall have been so delivered to the Trustee, shall take place under Section 5.6(a) hereof, whichever is later, unless prior thereto the Trustee consents to such amendment.

8.2. Communications. Any notice or communication by the Grantors or CRC to the Trustee will be deemed to have been sufficiently given or made for all purposes if it is given or made in writing addressed to the Trustee at its principal office, attention of Corporate Trust Division. Any notice or communication by the Trustee to any Grantor will be deemed to have sufficiently given or made for all purposes if it is given or made in writing addressed to the Grantor at the address shown on the books of CPI. Any notice or communication by the Trustee to CRC will be deemed to have been sufficiently given or made for all purposes if it is given or made in writing addressed to CRC at its office at 230 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

8.3. Definition of "Trustee". Wherever used in this Agreement the term "Trustee" shall refer to the Trustee herein named and to any successor trustee appointed as herein provided which accepts the office as Trustee.

8.4. Execution and Governing Law. This Agreement is executed and acknowledged with reference to the statutes and laws of the State of New York and the rights of all parties and the construction and effect of every provision hereof shall be subject to and construed according to the statutes and laws of said State.

8.5. Securities Laws. If any Grantor has made or hereafter makes any representation or warranty that he has acquired any CPI Shares for investment and not with a view to the sale or distribution thereof or has agreed or hereafter agrees that he will not effect any transfer of any CPI Shares or any interest therein or right to purchase same except upon satisfying certain conditions designed to ensure compliance with the securities laws, such representation, warranty or agreement shall apply to his beneficial interest in the CRC Trust and to any securities received by him from the Trustee pursuant hereto to the same extent as such representation, warranty or agreement applies to his CPI Shares (or would apply to his CPI Shares but for CPI's termination as contemplated in Section 6.2 hereof), except that any references therein to CPI shall be deemed to mean CRC. Upon any registration of CPI Shares under the Securities Act of 1933 or the securities laws of any state, the Trustee shall cause CRC at its expense to cause such of its securities held by the CRC Trust which correspond to the CPI Shares being registered to be registered thereunder, to the extent CPI deems appropriate in connection therewith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed and their respective corporate seals to be hereunto affixed and attested, all as of the day and year first above written.

CONFORMED COPY

TRUST AGREEMENT (herein called this "Agreement") dated as of August 26, 1994, among the holders of the 6.50% First Series Preference Shares of CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, a Massachusetts business trust ("CPI"), whose executions appear at the foot hereof (herein called the "Shareholders"), CORPORATE REALTY CONSULTANTS, INC., a Delaware corporation ("CRC"), and BANK OF MONTREAL TRUST COMPANY, a New York trust company, as Trustee (herein called, the "Trustee").

WHEREAS the Shareholders hold outstanding shares of Common Stock, $.10 par value per share (the "Shares"), of CRC and outstanding shares of beneficial interest, par value $1,000 per share, of 6.50% First Series Preference Shares of CPI ("First Series Preference Shares"), the terms of the Certificate of Designation (the "Certificate of Designation") for which are substantially set forth in Exhibit A hereto; and

WHEREAS the Shareholders desire to create hereunder a trust, to be known as the "CRC Trust II", the corpus of which is to consist of the Shares now held by the Shareholders and any shares of stock of CRC received by the Trustee with respect thereto and is to be held for the proportionate benefit of, or distributed proportionately to, the registered holders from time to time (herein called the "Grantors") of First Series Preference Shares who shall, respectively, be (i) a Shareholder, or a transferee of the First Series Preference Shares now held by a Shareholder who deposits all his Shares hereunder in accordance with Section 1.01 hereof, or (ii) a holder of First Series Preference Shares the issuance of which hereafter was, pursuant to Section 2.03 hereof, accompanied by the transfer to CRC of the consideration set forth in Section 2.03 hereof, or a transferee of any such First Series Preference Shares; and

WHEREAS the Trustee is willing to accept the trust property hereinafter described and to hold and dispose of it upon the trusts herein set forth;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto are agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

Transfers of Shares to Trustee, Establishment of Initial Trust Corpus and Holding of Beneficial Interest Therein

SECTION 1.01. Transfer. (a) The Shareholders will, promptly after the date of execution hereof, cause to be delivered to the Trustee certificates, either registered in the Trustee's nominee's name or duly endorsed for transfer to the nominee of the Trustee and with proper transfer tax stamps affixed thereto if any such stamps are required, representing the Shares.

(b) The Grantors may from time to time cause to be delivered to the Trustee certificates, either registered in the Trustee's nominee's name or duly endorsed for transfer to the nominee of the Trustee and with proper transfer tax stamps affixed thereto if any such stamps are required, representing additional shares of stock of any class of CRC. CRC shall reimburse the Grantors for any transfer tax stamps or any other transfer taxes payable in connection with the issuance of such certificates.

(c) Stichting Pensioenfonds voor de Gezondheid Geestelijke en Maatschappelijke belangen, a Dutch foundation (the "Initial Beneficiary"), will, on the date of execution hereof, cause to be delivered to the Trustee $100 in cash (the "Initial Trust Corpus"). Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, (i) the Trustee shall hold the Initial Trust Corpus, uninvested, until the occurrence of the transfers contemplated by Section 1.01(a) hereof or the earlier termination of the CRC Trust II pursuant to the terms hereof, (ii) upon the occurrence of the transfers contemplated by Section 1.01(a) hereof or such earlier termination, the Initial Trust Corpus shall be returned to the Initial Beneficiary, without interest, and (iii) thereupon the Initial Beneficiary shall not, in such capacity, have any further interest, as beneficiary or otherwise, in the CRC Trust II, but Stichting Pensioenfonds voor de Gezondheid Geestelijke en Maatschappelijke belangen shall have an interest in the CRC Trust II as a Grantor.

SECTION 1.02. Beneficial Interest in Shares and Distributions with Respect Thereto. (a) The Trustee agrees that (i) (all shares of stock of CRC transferred to the nominee of the Trustee as described in Section 1.01 hereof,(ii) all shares of stock of any class of CRC received by the Trustee as a stock dividend or other distribution on, or as a result of a split-up of, shares of stock of CRC held by the Trustee or received in exchange for such shares as a result of a merger, consolidation, recapitalization or reclassification of CRC or otherwise, (iii) all shares of stock of CRC issued to the Trustee as described in Section 2.03 hereof and (iv) all shares of stock of any class of CRC received by the Trustee upon its purchase thereof pursuant to Section 3.03 hereof or upon its exercise, pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof, of warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase such shares, will be held by it as Trustee hereunder for the benefit of the Grantors in proportion to the respective numbers of First Series Preference Shares held by them, and, subject to Section 5.04, will not be sold or otherwise disposed of during the term of the CRC Trust II. The Trustee further agrees that, subject to Section 5.04 hereof, all cash dividends and other assets received by the Trustee with respect to any of the foregoing (including all assets received pursuant to Section 3.05 hereof and all property other than cash or securities, all debt obligations, all shares of stock and all warrants or rights to purchase stock or other securities which the Trustee shall receive) exclusive of shares of stock, and warrants and rights to purchase shares of stock, of CRC, will be distributed currently by the Trustee to the Grantors in proportion to the respective numbers of First Series Preference Shares held by them.

SECTION 1.03. Holding Trust Assets. All Shares and other assets held in the CRC Trust II may be held of record in the name of the Trustee's nominee.

ARTICLE II

Transfer of Beneficial Interest, Issuance of Additional First Series Preference Shares, Warrants and Rights Offering by CRC and Conversion of First Series Preference Shares

SECTION 2.01. List. The Trustee shall keep a list in alphabetical order of the names and addresses of the Grantors and the number of First Series Preference Shares held by each Grantor, all as certified to the Trustee by CPI or its agent for the transfer of First Series Preference Shares. Upon written request from CPI, CRC or any Grantor, the Trustee shall furnish to CPI, CRC or such Grantor or to their respective authorized representatives or successors in interest a copy of the most recent list furnished to the Trustee.

SECTION 2.02. Transfer. The beneficial interest of the Grantors in the Shares held in the CRC Trust II shall not be transferable separately but only by and as part of a transfer of First Series Preference Shares, and every sale or transfer by any Grantor of all or part of its First Series Preference Shares shall include all or a proportionate part of such Grantor's undivided beneficial interest in the Shares or in any other assets in the CRC Trust II then held by the Trustee. The sale or transfer of such undivided beneficial interest shall be evidenced by the transfer of a certificate representing First Series Preference Shares.

SECTION 2.03. Issuance of Additional First Series Preference Shares. It is anticipated that, if CPI shall issue any additional First Series Preference Shares after the date hereof and prior to January 1, 1995, (a) CRC will concurrently issue a number of Shares to the Trustee bearing the same relationship to the number of Shares then held by the Trustee as the number of First Series Preference Shares being issued bears to the number of First Series Preference Shares outstanding immediately prior to such issuance of First Series Preference Shares and (b) against such issuance, the purchaser of such First Series Preference Shares from CPI shall pay to CRC an amount approximately equal to the product of $3.589 and the number of First Series Preference Shares being issued. The Trustee will be advised in writing of any action taken by CPI as described in this Section 2.03 and may properly rely on such advice.

SECTION 2.04. Warrants and Rights for Stock of CRC. Upon the receipt by the Trustee from CRC of warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase shares of stock of any class of CRC, the Trustee shall inform the Grantors thereof and advise the Grantors that if they desire and provide the Trustee with their respective portions (proportionately to the respective numbers of First Series Preference Shares held by them) of the consideration required for the exercise in full of all such warrants or rights, the Trustee will exercise the same. The Trustee will exercise such warrants or rights upon its receipt of the total consideration required for the exercise of all such warrants or rights, but in the event the Trustee does not receive the total consideration for the exercise of all such warrants or rights it shall permit all such warrants or rights to lapse and shall refund the consideration which it did receive to the Grantors from which it was received, without interest.

CRC shall not issue any warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase shares of stock of any class of CRC to the Trustee and holders of Shares other than the Trustee unless such warrants or rights provide that such other holders shall not be entitled to exercise the warrants or rights issued to such other holders unless the Trustee shall exercise the warrants or rights issued to the Trustee.

SECTION 2.05. Conversion of First Series Preference Shares. Upon each conversion by a Grantor of First Series Preference Shares pursuant to Section 4 of the Certificate of Designation, the Trustee shall deliver to the trustee of the CRC Trust (as defined below) all or a proportionate part, as applicable, of such holder's undivided beneficial interest in the Shares and in any other assets in the CRC Trust II then held by the Trustee, duly endorsed to the trustee of the CRC Trust (as defined below) or its nominee. The "CRC Trust" means the Trust created by that certain Trust Agreement dated as of October 30, 1979, among the shareholders of CPI at that date, CRC and First Jersey National Bank, as Trustee, under which the holders of common shares of CPI have beneficial interests in the shares of stock of CRC deposited in such Trust.

ARTICLE III

Dividends and Distributions

SECTION 3.01. Definition of "Additional Assets". Any cash, any property other than cash or securities, any debt obligations, any shares of stock and any warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase securities (hereinafter collectively called "Additional Assets") which the Trustee shall receive as a dividend or other distribution on shares of stock of CRC held by the Trustee, or as a result of a split-up of such shares or in exchange for such shares pursuant to a merger, consolidation, recapitalization or reclassification of CRC or otherwise, or upon the dissolution, liquidation or bankruptcy of CRC, shall be dealt with by the Trustee as provided in Sections 2.04, 3.02, 3.03, 3.04 and 3.05 hereof.

SECTION 3.02. Trustee to Distribute Additional Assets Other Than Stock of CRC or Warrants or Rights for Stock of CRC. Additional Assets (including (i) property other than cash or securities, (ii) debt obligations of CRC and warrants or rights to purchase securities of CRC other than shares of its stock and (iii) debt obligations of, shares of stock of, and warrants or rights to purchase stock or other securities of, any corporation other than CRC) other than shares of stock of any class of CRC and warrants or rights to purchase shares of stock of any class of CRC which the Trustee shall receive shall be distributed by the Trustee to the Grantors who are such on the record date fixed by CRC for purposes of the payment or delivery of such Additional Assets to its stockholders, in proportion to the respective numbers of First Series Preference Shares held by such Grantors. The Trustee may direct that any such Additional Assets be paid or distributed by CRC or by its dividend paying or distribution or exchange agent directly to the Grantors and, upon acceptance of such direction by CRC or such agent, such direction shall relieve the Trustee from all further responsibility with respect thereto.

SECTION 3.03. Trustee to Retain Stock of CRC and Warrants or Rights for Stock of CRC. Additional Assets consisting of shares of stock of any class of CRC or warrants or rights to purchase shares of stock of any class of CRC which the Trustee shall receive shall be added to the corpus of the CRC Trust II and held by the Trustee, subject to all the terms and provisions of this Agreement, for the benefit of the Grantors.

SECTION 3.04. Handling of Rights and Warrants. Additional Assets received by the Trustee consisting of warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase any securities of CRC other than Shares or to subscribe to or purchase any securities of any corporation other than CRC shall be distributed by the Trustee in the manner described in Section 3.02 hereof. The Trustee shall not sell or distribute any warrants or rights to subscribe to or purchase additional shares of stock of any class of CRC and shall exercise such rights or warrants if but only if the Grantors shall provide the Trustee funds appropriate for such exercise pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof. Any shares of stock of CRC acquired by the Trustee upon such exercise shall be added to the corpus of the CRC Trust II and held by the Trustee, subject to all the terms and provisions of this Agreement, for the benefit of the Grantors.

SECTION 3.05. Responsibility of Trustee on Dissolution, Liquidation and Bankruptcy of CRC. In the event that CRC should be dissolved or completely liquidated or be adjudged a bankrupt or institute proceedings to be adjudged a bankrupt or take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency laws or if a receiver is appointed for CRC or its property, or have proceedings to be adjudged a bankrupt commenced against it without its application or consent, the Trustee shall not be charged with any responsibility with respect to the dissolution, liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other proceedings except (i) to mail to the Grantors a copy of any notice the Trustee may receive of the institution of any such proceedings; and (ii) to pay and distribute moneys and other property received by the Trustee to the Grantors, as of the date of receipt by the Trustee, in proportion to their respective beneficial interests in the CRC Trust II, against the submission to the Trustee of their certificates for First Series Preference Shares for appropriate notation thereon of such payment and upon final distribution for notation thereon to the effect that the CRC Trust II has been terminated. If in connection with the final distribution made to the Trustee the certificates evidencing stock of CRC held in trust are required to be surrendered, the Trustee is authorized to surrender the same against the receipt of such distribution. If such certificates are not required to be surrendered in connection with such final distribution, the Trustee, after the receipt thereof, shall deliver the certificates to the Grantors in accordance with their respective interests, or as may be otherwise directed in such dissolution, liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership and other proceedings.

ARTICLE IV

Voting and Proxies

SECTION 4.01. Directors of CRC. The Trustee shall, to the extent of and in accordance with instructions received by it from CPI, vote the Shares held by it so that each director of CRC shall, at all times also be a trustee of CPI.

SECTION 4.02. Other Matters--Delivery of Notices and Proxies to Trustee. With respect to each meeting of stockholders of CRC, the Trustee will cause CRC to furnish to the Trustee copies of the notice of meeting, proxy statement (if any) and form of proxy for such meeting in sufficient number and sufficiently in advance of such meeting so that the Trustee may mail the same to each Grantor on the date fixed by CRC for determining stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting and request instructions from each Grantor as to how the Shares held in the CRC Trust II at such date for the benefit of such Grantor should be voted. Subject to Section 4.01 hereof, the Trustee shall, or shall cause its nominee to, file with CRC a proxy or proxies in accordance with the instructions received from the Grantors in respect of the Shares covered by such instructions. Subject to Section 4.01 hereof, the Trustee shall not cast any vote in respect of the Shares held in the CRC Trust II as to which voting instructions were not given to the Trustee by the Grantors.

SECTION 4.03. Financial Information. The Trustee shall mail to the Grantors, as shown by a list of Grantors maintained by the Trustee as provided in Section 2.01 hereof, copies of all reports, financial statements and other communications which CRC mails to its stockholders of record.

SECTION 4.04. Inspection of Records. The Trustee shall, upon request of one or more Grantors, as shown by a list of Grantors maintained by the Trustee as provided in Section 2.01 hereof, exercise for their benefit such rights to inspect and make copies of all corporate records of CRC as such Grantors would have if they were holders of record of the Shares held in the CRC Trust II for their benefit.

ARTICLE V

Concerning the Trustee

SECTION 5.01. Duties and Responsibilities. The Trustee shall be obligated to perform and be liable for only such acts as are specifically provided for herein. The Trustee shall have no responsibility with respect to the voting of stock held in the CRC Trust II, except as provided in Article IV hereof, or with respect to the operation or carrying on of the business of CRC. The Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by an authorized officer of the Trustee. No provision of this Agreement shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights and powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

SECTION 5.02. Certain Rights of Trustee. The Trustee may rely, and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting, upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, consent, order or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties. The Trustee may consult with counsel of its own choosing and any opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered by it in good faith and in accordance with such opinion.

SECTION 5.03. Recitals. The recitals contained herein and any recital or provision contained in certificates representing First Series Preference Shares shall be taken as the statements of CPI or CRC, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for the correctness of the same.

SECTION 5.04. Compensation, Indemnification and Lien of Trustee. CRC agrees to pay to the Trustee from time to time, and the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, reasonable compensation. CRC also agrees to pay or reimburse the Trustee upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee in accordance herewith, including reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its counsel or agents, except any such expense, disbursement or advance arising from the Trustee's negligence or bad faith. CRC agrees to indemnify the Trustee for and to hold it harmless against any loss, liability, tax or expense incurred without wilful misconduct, negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the CRC Trust II or this Agreement, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim or liability in the premises. The Trustee shall have the right to pay or reimburse itself for all such compensation, expenses, disbursements, advances, losses, liabilities, taxes, expenses and costs, out of any or all cash dividends and all other assets received by the Trustee pursuant to Section 1.02 hereof. The Trustee shall have a lien prior to that of the Grantors upon all the corpus of the CRC Trust II to secure such payment or reimbursement, and if CRC fails to make any such payment or reimbursement after a reasonable lapse of time after being requested to do so the Trustee shall have the right to make such payment or reimbursement to itself out of any or all of such corpus and to sell at public or private sale without notice any or all trust assets to the extent necessary to make such payment or reimbursement; provided, however, that the Trustee shall notify the Grantors prior to exercising such lien.

SECTION 5.05. Merger or Consolidation of Trustee. In the event that the Trustee shall merge into or consolidate with another bank or trust company, the surviving corporation shall act as the Trustee hereunder without further action of the parties hereto.

SECTION 5.06. Resignation and Removal, Appointment of Successor Trustee. (a) The Trustee may at any time resign by giving written notice of resignation to CRC and all Grantors. Upon receiving such notice of resignation Grantors shall, by the vote, at a meeting or by proxy, of Grantors holding a majority of the outstanding First Series Preference Shares held by Grantors, promptly appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in triplicate, one copy of which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee, one copy to the successor trustee and one copy to CRC. If no successor trustee shall have been so appointed and have accepted appointment within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee or any Grantor may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor trustee.

(b) In case at any time the Trustee shall fail to comply with the provisions of this Agreement or if the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall file for bankruptcy or become insolvent, or if receiver of the Trustee or its property shall be appointed, or if any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or its property or affairs, then and in any such case the Grantors may by the vote, at a meeting or by proxy, of Grantors holding a majority of the outstanding First Series Preference Shares held by the Grantors remove the Trustee and appoint a successor trustee by written instrument, in triplicate, one copy of which instrument shall be delivered to the Trustee so removed, one copy to the successor trustee and one copy to CRC.

(c) Any resignation or removal of the Trustee and appointment of a successor trustee shall become effective upon the acceptance in writing of the appointment by the successor trustee and the agreement by such successor trustee to the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

(d) Upon the appointment and acceptance of a successor trustee, the Trustee shall promptly assign and transfer to such successor trustee, subject to the provisions of Section 5.04 hereof, all shares of stock and other assets held in the CRC Trust II and shall deliver to such successor trustee a certified list of all the Grantors together with any other assets or property held in the CRC Trust II.

ARTICLE VI

Duration of CRC Trust II

SECTION 6.01. Duration of Trust. The CRC Trust II shall continue until the expiration of 20 years after the death of the last survivor of the following persons (provided, however, that as to any part of the trust estate located in any jurisdiction in which such duration is not the CRC Trust II created hereby shall terminate on the latest date permitted by the law of such jurisdiction, using Lawrence Lederman, John J. Cirigliano and Gary S. Spirer, the initial Trustees of CPI, and the following persons as measuring lives if so permitted):

Name	Date of Birth	Address
Marjorie G. Deane	July 7, 1955)

William Q. O'Connor	May 27, 1969)	293 Pondfield Road
Christopher B. O'Connor	May 8, 1970)	Bronxville, NY

SECTION 6.02. Termination. The CRC Trust II shall terminate prior thereto upon the earlier to occur of (i) the termination of CPI, (ii) notification to the Trustee of the vote to that effect, at a meeting or by proxy, of Grantors holding two-thirds of the outstanding First Series Preference Shares held by Grantors at any time after the termination or dissolution of the CRC Trust and (iii) the conversion or redemption of all outstanding First Series Preference Shares. As used in this Section 6.02, termination of CPI shall mean the termination of CPI otherwise than in a transaction contemplated by Sections 7.01 or 7.02 hereof.

SECTION 6.03. Effect of Termination of Trust. Upon the termination of the CRC Trust II, all assets then held in the CRC Trust II by the Trustee shall be transferred and assigned by the Trustee to the Grantors in proportion to their beneficial interests herein.

ARTICLE VII

First Series Preference Shares

SECTION 7.01. Conversion of CPI into Corporation. If the trust creating CPI shall be converted into a corporation, the term "First Series Preference Shares" shall be deemed to refer to the comparable shares of preferred stock of such corporation, regardless of the name of such class or series.

SECTION 7.02. Merger, Consolidation or Exchange of First Series Preference Shares. If (i) CPI shall merge or consolidate with or into, or sell all or substantially all its assets to, any other business entity ("CPI Transaction") and (ii) all First Series Preference Shares are canceled or deemed canceled as a result of the CPI Transaction and (iii) CPI (and/or its shareholders) shall receive shares of preferred stock of such entity or an entity affiliated therewith as a result of the CPI Transaction, the term "First Series Preference Shares" shall be deemed to refer to such shares of preferred stock, regardless of class or series.

SECTION 7.03. Reclassification of First Series Preference Shares. If any First Series Preference Shares are reclassified, the term "First Series Preference Shares" as used in this Agreement shall be deemed to refer to the preferred shares of CPI, after such reclassification, regardless of class or series.

SECTION 7.04. CPI. The term "CPI" as used in this Agreement shall be deemed to refer to any issuer from time to time of First Series Preference Shares.

SECTION 7.05. Substituted CPI Issuer or Shares. If other shares of CPI or of any corporation shall be deemed pursuant to this ARTICLE VII to be First Series Preference Shares, appropriate descriptions of such shares (and of any other shares which shall subsequently be deemed to be First Series Preference Shares) and of the certificates representing them shall be deemed to be substituted for references to First Series Preference Shares and to certificates representing First Series Preference Shares wherever used in this Agreement and the name of any such other corporation shall be deemed substituted for or added to "CPI".

ARTICLE VIII

Miscellaneous Provisions

SECTION 8.01. Amendments. This Agreement may be amended by the affirmative vote or written consent of Grantors holding at least two-thirds of the outstanding First Series Preference Shares held by Grantors; provided, however, that no amendment shall (i) change the proportionate beneficial interests of the Grantors in the CRC Trust II without the affirmative vote or written consent of all such Grantors; or (ii) make any provision not uniformly applicable to all stock of CRC theretofore or thereafter deposited in the CRC Trust II, regardless of the time of deposit; or (iii) require or authorize the Trustee to engage in any business; or (iv) change the termination provisions in ARTICLE VI hereof. In the event that any such amendment, in the opinion of the Trustee, adversely affects its obligations, rights or responsibilities, such amendment shall not become effective until 30 days after a copy thereof has been delivered to the Trustee or until such time as a resignation of the Trustee, written notice of which shall have been given after such copy of such amendment shall have been so delivered to the Trustee, shall take place under Section 5.06(a) hereof, whichever is later, unless prior thereto the Trustee consents to such amendment.

SECTION 8.02. Communications. Any notice or communication by the Grantors or CRC to the Trustee will be deemed to have been sufficiently given or made for all purposes if it is given or made in writing addressed to the Trustee at 77 Water Street, New York, New York 10005, attention of Trust Officer. Any notice or communication by the Trustee to any Grantor will be deemed to have been sufficiently given or made for all purposes if it is given or made in writing addressed to the Grantor at the address shown on the books of CPI. Any notice or communication by the Trustee to CRC will be deemed to have been sufficiently given or made for all purposes if it is given or made in writing addressed to CRC at its office at Three Dag Hammarskjold Plaza, 305 East 47th Street, New York, New York 10017.

SECTION 8.03. Definition of "Trustee". Wherever used in this Agreement the term "Trustee" shall refer to the Trustee herein named and to any successor trustee appointed as herein provided which accepts the office as Trustee.

SECTION 8.04. Execution and Governing Law. This Agreement is executed and acknowledged with reference to the statutes and laws of the State of New York and the rights of all parties and the construction and effect of every provision hereof shall be subject to and construed according to the statutes and laws of said State.

SECTION 8.05. Securities Laws. If any Grantor has made or hereafter makes any representation or warranty that he has acquired any First Series Preference Shares for investment and not with a view to the sale or distribution thereof or has agreed or hereafter agrees that he will not effect any transfer of any First Series Preference Shares or any interest therein or right to purchase same except upon satisfying certain conditions designed to ensure compliance with the securities laws, such representation, warranty or agreement shall apply to his beneficial interest in the CRC Trust II and to any securities received by him from the Trustee pursuant hereto to the same extent as such representation, warranty or agreement applies to his First Series Preference Shares (or would apply to his First Series Preference Shares but for CPI's termination as contemplated in Section 6.02 hereof), except that any references therein to CPI shall be deemed to mean CRC. Upon any registration of First Series Preference Shares under the Securities Act of 1933 or the securities laws of any state, the Trustee shall cause CRC at its expense to cause such of its securities held by the CRC Trust II which correspond to the First Series Preference Shares being registered to be registered thereunder, to the extent CPI deems appropriate in connection therewith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed and their respective corporate seals to be hereunto affixed and attested, all as of the day and year first above written.

9% NOTES DUE 2002

CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, an unincorporated business trust organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (hereinafter called the "Issuer", which term includes any successor entity under the Indenture hereinafter referred to), for value received, hereby promises to pay to or registered assigns, upon surrender hereof the principal sum of United States Dollars ($) on March 15, 2002 and to pay interest thereon, semiannually in arrears, on each March 15 and September 15 (an "Interest Payment Date") in each year, commencing in 1992, at 9% per annum, from the most recent Interest Payment Date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, or, if the date hereof is an Interest Payment Date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, then from the date hereof or, if no interest has been paid or duly provided for, from March 25, 1992, in each case until the principal hereof is paid or payment thereof is duly provided for. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the date hereof is after March 1 or September 1 in any year and before the following March 15 or September 15 in such years this Note shall bear interest, from such March 15 or September 15, as applicable, provided that if the Issuer shall default in the payment of interest due on such March 15 or September 15, as applicable, then this Note shall bear interest from the next preceding Interest Payment Date to which interest on the Note has been paid or duly provided for, or if no interest has been paid or duly provided for, from March 25, 1992. The interest so payable on any Interest Payment Date will, subject to the provisions contained in the Indenture (as hereinafter defined), be paid to the Person in whose name this Note is registered at the close of business in the City of New York on the fifteenth calendar day next preceding such Interest Payment Date (hereinafter called the "Record Date"). Such payments shall be made in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time of payment shall be legal tender for the payment of public and private debts.

The statements set forth in the legend are an integral part of the terms of this Note and by acceptance hereof each holder of this Note agrees to be subject to and bound by the terms and provisions set forth in such legend.

Reference is made to the further provisions set forth on the reverse hereof. Such further provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as though fully set forth on the face hereof.

Unless the certificate of authentication hereon has been executed by the Trustee by the manual signature of one of its authorized officers, this Note shall not be entitled to any benefit under the Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Issuer has caused this Note to be duly executed by the manual or facsimile signature of a duly authorized officer of the Issuer.

MORGAN GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY
OF NEW YORK, as Trustee

By:_____
Authorized Officer

[FORM OF REVERSE OF NOTE]

9% NOTES DUE 2002

1. This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of Notes of the Issuer designated as its 9% Notes Due 2002 (herein called the "Notes"), limited (except as otherwise provided in the Indenture referred to below), in aggregate principal amount to $250,000,000. The Notes are issued and to be issued under the Indenture, dated as of March 15, 1992 (herein called the "Indenture"), between the Issuer and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Trustee (herein called the "Trustee", which term includes any successor trustee under the Indenture), to which Indenture and all indentures supplemental thereto reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights thereunder of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of the Notes. The Holders of the Notes will be entitled to the benefits of, be bound by, and be deemed to have notice of, all of the provisions of the Indenture. A copy of the Indenture is on file and may be inspected at the offices of the paying agent referred to below.

2. The Notes are direct unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank equally with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer. The Notes are issuable in fully registered form without coupons in denominations of $250,000 and integral multiples thereof.

3. (a) The Notes are not entitled to any mandatory sinking fund. The Notes may be redeemed at the Issuer's option, in whole at any time or from time to time in part, upon notice as described below, at a redemption price equal to the sum of (i) the principal amount of the Note, plus interest through the date of redemption, and (ii) the Make-Whole Amount (as defined in the Indenture), if any (the "Redemption Price").

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) below, notice of redemption of the Notes, in whole or in part, as the case may be, shall be given in accordance with paragraph 8, at least once not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, all as provided in the Indenture. Notice having been given, the Notes so called for redemption shall become due and payable on the date fixed for redemption and upon presentation and surrender thereof will be paid at the Redemption Price at the place or places of payment and in the manner specified herein.

(c) The Notes will be subject to mandatory redemption, as described below, at the Redemption Price upon the occurrence of a Mandatory Redemption Event (as defined in the Indenture). The Issuer will be required to redeem the Notes within five Business Days of any Mandatory Redemption Event.

4. Pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, the Issuer has initially appointed Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), as transfer agent for the exchange and transfer of the Notes, and as Registrar. The Issuer shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to terminate any such appointment and to appoint any substitute or additional paying agents, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Indenture.

5. (a) Principal and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on the Notes will be payable against surrender of such Notes at the Corporate Trust Office of the Paying Agent in the City of New York. Payment of interest on the Notes will be made to the person in whose name such Note is registered at the close of business in the City of New York on the fifteenth calendar day (the "Record Date") next preceding the relevant Interest Payment Date notwithstanding the cancellation of such Note upon any transfer or exchange thereof subsequent to such Record Date and prior to such Interest Payment Date; provided that if and to the extent the Issuer shall default in the payment of interest due on such payment date, such defaulted interest shall be paid to the persons in whose names the Notes are registered at the close of business on a subsequent Record Date established by notice given by mail by or on behalf of the Issuer to the Holders of Registered Notes not less than 15 days preceding such subsequent Record Date, such Record Date to be not less than ten days preceding the date of payment of such defaulted interest. Payment of such interest will be made (i) by dollar check drawn on a bank in the City of New York sent to the Holder's registered address or (ii) to any Holder of $5,000,000 or more aggregate principal amount of the Notes, upon written instructions to the Paying Agent not later than the relevant Record Date, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a dollar account maintained by such Holder, as the case may be, with a bank in the United States designated by such Holder (but only if such bank shall have appropriate facilities therefor). Interest payments on this Note shall include interest accrued from and including the date indicated on the face hereof, or from but excluding the most recent date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, to but excluding the related Interest Payment Date or date of Maturity as the case may be. Interest payments for this Note shall be computed and paid on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months and, in the case of an incomplete month, the actual number of days elapsed.

(b) Should the Issuer at any time default in the payment of any principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on this Note, the Issuer will pay interest on the amount in default (to the extent permitted by law in the case of interest on interest) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes.

(c) The Issuer covenants that as long as this Note shall be outstanding it shall at all times maintain a paying agency in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York for payments with respect to Notes. Notice of any termination or appointment and of any change in the office through which any Paying Agent, transfer agent or Registrar will act will be promptly given once in the manner described in paragraph 8.

6. Except as otherwise provided in the Indenture with respect to amounts deposited by the Issuer with the Trustee to effect a defeasance of the Notes or certain covenants and provisions in the Indenture, all moneys paid by the Issuer to the Trustee or any other Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Issuer and, to the extent permitted by law, the Holder of such Note thereafter shall look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amount shall thereupon cease.

7. The Issuer agrees to provide the Holder hereof and any prospective purchaser hereof designated by such Holder, upon request of such Holder or such prospective purchaser, such information required by Rule 144A (d)(4) under the Securities Act as will enable resales of this Note to be made pursuant to Rule 144A; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to provide more information pursuant to this paragraph 7 than is required by Rule 144A as in effect on the date of the Indenture, but may elect to do so if necessary as a result of subsequent amendments to such Rule. Further, this Note and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time (x) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedure in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (y) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of this Note in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that this Note, if it is outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective, be placed in book-entry form). The Holders of this Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of this Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

8. All notices to the Noteholders will be mailed to Holders of Notes at their registered addresses.

9. (a) In case any Note shall become mutilated, defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and, upon the request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced Note, or in lieu of and in substitution for the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof. In case any Note which has matured or is about to mature shall become mutilated, defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer may, instead of issuing a substitute Note pay or authorize the payment of the same, if the applicant for such payment shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee security or indemnity and, in every case of apparent destruction, loss or theft, satisfactory evidence, in each case as set forth in the preceding sentence. Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith.

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, and subject to paragraph 9(e), a Note or Notes, duly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of assignment and transfer, may be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of Notes in different authorized denominations or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes of authorized denominations by surrender of such Note or Notes at the corporate trust office of the Trustee in the City of New York, together with a written request for the exchange.

(c) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, and subject to paragraph 9(e), a Note may be transferred in whole or in part (in the amount of U.S. $250,000 and integral multiples thereof) by the Holder or Holders surrendering the Note for registration of transfer at the office of any transfer agent or at the office of the Registrar, duly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of assignment and transfer. Upon presentation of this Note for registration of transfer as provided herein, the Registrar shall register the transfer of this Note only if (i) the Registrar shall have received written instructions from the Issuer to effect such transfer, (ii) the Note is presented for registration of transfer at least three years after the later of the issuance of this Note (or any predecessor Note hereto) and the sale hereof (or any predecessor Note hereof) by the Issuer or an affiliate of the Issuer or (iii) the Holder hereof shall have properly completed the Certificate of Transfer below or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer and have delivered such Certificate of Transfer or transfer instrument (together with any transferee certification required as part of the Certificate of Transfer and any letter required by the Issuer or the Trustee to be delivered by the transferee with such certificate of transfer or transfer instrument) to the Trustee.

(d) The costs and expenses of effecting any exchange or registration of transfer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, except for the expenses of delivery by mail and except, if the Issuer shall so require, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in relation thereto, will be borne by the Issuer.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to accept any request for an exchange or registration of transfer during the period of 15 days preceding the due date for any payment of principal of or interest on the Notes.

(f) Each purchaser of this Note will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows: (i) it is purchasing this Note for its own account or an account with respect to which it exercises sole investment discretion and it or such account is (x) a "Qualified Institutional Buyer" (as defined in Rule 144A of the Securities Act) and is aware that the sale to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act; or (y) an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act and in the case of each of (x) and (y) it is acquiring this Note for investment and not with a view to, or for offer or sale in connection with, any distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) or fractionalization thereof or with any intention of reselling this Note or any part hereof, subject to any requirement of law that the disposition of its property or the property of such investor account or accounts to be at all times within its or their control and subject to its or their ability to resell this Note pursuant to Rule 144A, Regulation S or other exemption from registration available under the Securities Act; (ii) it acknowledges that this Note has not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be sold except as permitted below; (iii) it agrees that (A) if it should transfer this Note (or any predecessor Note hereto) within three years after the later of the original issuance of the Notes and the sale thereof by the Issuer or an affi1iate of the Issuer, it will do so in compliance with any applicable state securities or "Blue Sky" laws and only (1) to the Issuer, (2) in compliance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act (as indicated by the box checked by the transferor on the Certificate of Transfer), (3) outside the United States in compliance with Regulation S under the Securities Act (as indicated by the box checked by the transferor on the Certificate of Transfer), or (4) to an Accredited Investor, but only if, in connection with any transfer a certificate in the form of Exhibit A to the Indenture is delivered by the transferee to the Registrar, and (B) it will give the transferee notice of any restrictions on resale of this Note; (iv) it understands that this Note, unless otherwise agreed by the Issuer and the Holder thereof, will bear the legend on the face of this Note; (v) it has received the information, if any, requested by it pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act, has had full opportunity to review such information and has received all additional information necessary to verify such information; (vi) it (A) is able to fend for itself in the transactions contemplated by its acquisition of this Note; (B) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its prospective investment in this Note; and (C) has the ability to bear the economic risks of its prospective investment and can afford the complete loss of such investment; and (vii) it understands that the Issuer, the Managers (as defined in the Offering Memorandum relating to the Notes) and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or warranties deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of this Note are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer. If it is acquiring this Note as a fiduciary or agent for one or more investor accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

10. In case an Event of Default, as defined in the Indenture, shall have occurred and be continuing, the principal of all of the Notes may be declared due and payable, in the manner and with the effect, and subject to the conditions, provided in the Indenture. The Indenture provides that in certain events such declaration and its consequences may be waived by the holders of 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding and that, prior to any such declaration, such Holders may waive any default under the Indenture and its consequences, except a default in the payment of principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any of the Notes. Any such consent or waiver by the holder of this Note (unless revoked as provided in the Note) shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future holders and owners of this Note and any Note' which may be issued in exchange or substitution herefor, whether or not any notation thereof is made upon this Note or such other Notes.

11. The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Issuer and the Trustee, with the consent of the holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a Noteholders' meeting pursuant to Article Ten of the Indenture), evidenced as in the Indenture provided, to execute supplemental indentures adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture or modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided that no such supplemental indenture shall without the consent of each Holder of an Outstanding Note affected thereby (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date for any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or the interest thereon or on any amount payable upon redemption or acceleration thereof, (ii) change the coin or currency in which any Note or interest thereon is payable, (iii) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to any Note, (iv) reduce the above-stated percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is required to modify or amend the Indenture or the provisions of the Notes, (v) modify any of the provisions of Section 5.12 or 8.02 of the Indenture, except to increase any of the percentages set forth therein or to provide that certain other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Note affected thereby or (vi) reduce the quorum requirements or the percentage of votes required for the adoption of any action at a meeting of Noteholders. In addition, this Note and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time (i) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of this Note to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (ii) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note Outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form). Each Holder of this Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of such Note, to have agreed to any amendment or supplement described in the immediately preceding sentence.

12. The Indenture provides that persons entitled to vote a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of Holders of Notes. In the absence of such a quorum at a meeting of Holders of Notes called by the Issuer, such meeting shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days and, in the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting shall be further adjourned for another period of not less than 10 days. At any subsequent reconvening of any meeting of Holders of Notes adjourned for lack of a quorum, persons entitled to vote 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum. Any action which may be taken by a meeting of Holders of Notes requires a vote of the Holders of the lesser of (a) a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding or (b) 75% in aggregate principal amount of the Holders of Notes represented and voting at the meeting.

13. No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture shall alter or impair the obligation of the Issuer, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and rate herein prescribed.

14. The Indenture provides that the Issuer may merge or consolidate with, or sell or convey all or substantially all its assets to, any corporation or other entity and that such corporation or other entity may assume the obligations of the Issuer under the Indenture and the Notes without the consent of the Noteholders provided that certain conditions are met.

15. The Indenture provides that, upon satisfaction of certain terms and conditions as set forth in the Indenture, the Issuer (a) will be discharged from any and all obligations in respect of this Note (except for certain obligations to register the transfer or exchange of Notes, to replace any stolen, lost or mutilated Note, to maintain paying agencies and hold monies in trust) and (b) has the option to omit to comply with certain covenants and certain provisions of the Indenture shall cease to apply, in the case of each of (a) and (b) above, 91 days after the deposit with the Trustee, in trust, of money and/or U.S. Government Obligations (as defined in the Indenture), which through the payment of interest and principal thereof in accordance with their terms will provide money in sufficient amount to pay the principal of and interest on this Note on the Stated Maturity of such payments in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and this Note.

16. The Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee may deem and treat the person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner thereof for all purposes and neither the Issuer, the Trustee nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

17. The Indenture and this Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

18. All terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings specified in the Indenture.

ARTICLE ONE

DEFINITIONS AND OTHER PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

SECTION 1.01. Definitions.

The following terms (except as otherwise expressly provided or unless the context otherwise requires) for all purposes of this Indenture and of any, indenture supplemental hereto shall have the respective meanings specified in this Section.

(1) The terms defined in this Article have the meanings assigned to them in this Article and include the plural as well as the singular;

(2) All accounting terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America then in effect; and

(3) The words "herein", "hereof" and "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Indenture as a whole and not to any particular Article, Section or other subdivision.

"Accredited Investor" shall mean an "accredited investor" as defined in Rule 501(a)(l), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act.

"Act" when used with respect to any Holder of a Note has the meaning specified in Section 1.03.

"Affiliate" of any Person shall mean a Person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, such Person.

"Appraisal" means an appraisal referred to in Section 4.11 hereof.

"Appraiser" means Landauer Associates, Inc., or any other nationally recognized, independent appraiser that is a member of the Appraisal Institute selected by the Issuer and acceptable to the Trustee, which acceptance shall be deemed given unless the Trustee reasonably objects to the selection on the basis of such appraiser's lack of national recognition, independence or qualification as a member of the Appraisal Institute.

"Asset Disposition" means any sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of any asset, directly or indirectly (by merger or otherwise), by the Issuer or any Subsidiary other than (i) any lease of space in Real Property entered into in the ordinary course of business, (ii) any sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of any asset other than Real Property entered into in the ordinary course of business, (iii) any sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of any asset to the Issuer or to any wholly-owned Consolidated Subsidiary of the Issuer, (iv) any transfer of cash or any sale or other disposition of a short-term investment and (v) any grant of a Lien on any property of the Issuer or any Subsidiary.

"Board of Trustees" means the Board of Trustees of the Issuer or the executive or any other committee of such Board authorized to exercise the powers and authority of such Board in connection herewith.

"Board Resolution" when used with reference to the Issuer means a copy of a resolution, certified by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Issuer to have been duly adopted by the Board of Trustees and to be in full force and effect on the date of such certification, and delivered to the Trustee.

"Business Day" means a day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday or a day on which banks in the State of New York are required or authorized to be closed.

"Cash Flow" means for any period Consolidated Net Income for such period plus depreciation and amortization expense for such period (determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles) to the extent deducted in determining Consolidated Net Income for such period.

"Consolidated Debt" means at any date the Debt of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, determined on a consolidated basis as of such date.

"Consolidated Interest Expense" means for any period consolidated interest expense (whether accrued or paid) on the Consolidated Debt for such period, including, without limitation, (i) any interest accrued or paid during such period which is capitalized in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, (ii) the portion of any obligation under capitalized leases allocable to interest expense during such period in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and (iii) any dividends paid in cash during such period on preferred stock of a Consolidated Subsidiary held by a person other than the Issuer or a wholly-owned Consolidated Subsidiary.

"Consolidated Net Income" means for any period the consolidated income (or loss) before nonrecurring items of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries for such period, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Consolidated Net Worth" means at any date Gross Assets at such date less the aggregate outstanding principal amount of Consolidated Debt at such date.

"Consolidated Secured Debt" means at any date that portion of Consolidated Debt at such date that is attributable to (i) Secured Debt of the Issuer at such date and (ii) Debt of any Subsidiary at such date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Trustee shall have received a certificate from the Chairman or chief financial officer of the Issuer stating that the amount of Secured Debt of the Issuer or any Subsidiary that is Non-Recourse Debt exceeds the FMV of the assets securing it and setting forth the FMV thereof (together with the basis therefor), then the amount of such excess shall be deemed not to be Debt for purposes of computing Consolidated Secured Debt. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "FMV" with respect to any asset means (i) if such asset is Real Property that was valued in the most recent Appraisal, then the value of such asset as set forth in such Appraisal, (ii) if such asset is Real Property acquired after the valuation date of the most recent Appraisal, then the purchase price thereof and (iii) in all other cases, the fair market value of such asset determined in good faith by the Chairman or chief financial officer of the Issuer.

"Consolidated Subsidiary" means any Subsidiary or other entity (including, without limitation, a partnership), the accounts of which would be consolidated with those of the Issuer in its consolidated financial statements if such statements were prepared as of such date.

"Corporate Trust Office" means the principal corporate trust office of the Trustee at which at any particular time its corporate trust business shall be administered, which office is, at the date of execution of this Indenture, located at 60 Wall Street (36th Floor), New York, New York 10260.

"Debt" of any Person (the "Obligor") means at any date, without duplication, (i) all obligations of the Obligor for borrowed money or for the unpaid purchase price of property or services or for unpaid taxes, (ii) all obligations of any other Person for borrowed money or for the unpaid purchase price of property or services or for unpaid taxes in respect of which the Obligor is liable, contingently or otherwise, to pay or advance money or property as guarantor, endorser or otherwise (except as endorser for collection in the ordinary course of business) or which the Obligor has agreed to purchase or otherwise acquire, (iii) all obligations of any other Person for borrowed money or for the purchase price of property or services or for unpaid taxes secured by (or for which the holder of such obligation has an existing right, contingent or otherwise, to be secured by) any Lien upon or in property (including, without limitation, accounts and contract rights) owned by the Obligor whether or not the Obligor has assumed or become liable for the payment of such obligations and (iv) any lease of property, real or personal, by the Obligor, as lessee, to the extent that, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, it is required to be capitalized on a balance sheet of the lessee; provided, however, that with respect to obligations set forth in clause (iii) above involving the Obligor's subordination of (a) the payment of lease rentals on Real Property owned by the Obligor or (b) the Obligor's interest in Real Property to the payment of a mortgage loan or other secured indebtedness which is solely the obligation of any other Person, the amount of indebtedness or other obligations of any other Person to be included in Debt shall not be deemed to exceed the amount of the Obligors interest in such Real Property as determined in accordance with the most recent Appraisal.

"Depositary" means the depositary for the Global Notes initially appointed by the Issuer pursuant to Section 2.01(f), until a successor depositary shall have become such pursuant to such Section and thereafter "Depositary" shall mean or include each Person who is then a Depositary hereunder.

"Event of Default" means any event or condition specified in Section 5.01.

"Global Note" has the meaning specified in Section 2.01(f).

"Gross Assets" means at any date the sum of (i) the consolidated Real Property Value of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, (ii) cash and all other assets of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries which, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, would at such time be included on a consolidated balance sheet of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries (other than Real Property and any asset which is classified as an intangible asset under generally accepted accounting principles, including, without limitation, goodwill, patents, trademarks, trade names, copyrights and franchises), all determined as of the valuation date for the most recent Appraisal and (iii) if not included in the assets described in clause (ii), the value of any notes and contract receivables held by the Issuer pursuant to its Employee Share Purchase Plan as indicated in the most recent Appraisal.

"Secured Debt" means, with respect to any Person, any Debt of such Person that is secured by a Lien on any of its assets.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

"Stated Maturity" when used with respect to any Note or any installment of interest thereon means the date specified in such Note as the fixed date on which the principal of such Note, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or such installment of interest is due and payable.

"Statistical Release" means the statistical release designated "H.15(519)" or any successor publication which is published weekly by the Federal Reserve System and which establishes yields on actively traded U.S. Government Obligations adjusted to constant maturities or, if such statistical release is not published at the time of any determination hereunder, then such other reasonably comparable index which shall be designated by the Issuer.

"Subordinated Securities" of any Person means shares of beneficial interest or stock, or other equity interest, in such Person (whether common or preferred, voting or nonvoting, redeemable or non-redeemable) and Debt of such Person which shall have been expressly subordinated in right of payment at maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise by the instrument creating such Debt to the Notes.

"Subsidiary" means (i) any corporation, trust or other entity governed by a board of directors, board of trustees or other body exercising similar authority over the affairs thereof, securities or ownership interests of which having ordinary voting power to elect a majority of such board or body are at the time of determination directly or indirectly owned by the Issuer and (ii) any general or limited partnership or joint venture of which the Issuer directly or indirectly owns the interest of a general partner or venturer; provided, however, that (A) for purposes of Sections 5.01 and 9.05, such partnership or venture shall be deemed not to be a "Subsidiary" unless, pursuant to applicable law and the instruments and agreements governing the organization of such partnership or venture, the Issuer directly or indirectly shall have the right to cause such partnership or venture to take, or to refrain from taking, the action described in such Sections and (B) for purposes of Article Four, such partnership or venture shall be deemed not to be a "Subsidiary" unless, pursuant to applicable law and the instruments and agreements governing the organization of such partnership or venture, the Issuer directly or indirectly shall have the right to cause compliance by such partnership or venture with the provisions of such Article. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the right to take or refrain from taking any action shall include the right to cause the subject partnership or venture to obtain the necessary funds required for it to take or refrain from taking such action.

"Trustee" means the Person named as the "Trustee" in the first paragraph of this instrument until a successor Trustee shall have become such pursuant to the applicable provisions of this Indenture, and thereafter "Trustee" shall mean such successor Trustee.

"United States" means the United States of America.

"U.S. Government Obligations" means direct obligations of the United States for the payment of which its full faith and credit is pledged, or obligations of a person controlled or supervised by and acting as an agency or instrumentality of the United States and the payment of which is unconditionally guaranteed by the United States.

"U.S. Person" has the meaning assigned thereto in Regulation S.

SECTION 1.02. Form of Documents Delivered to Trustee; Compliance Certificates and Opinions. In any case where several matters are required to be certified by, or covered by an opinion of, any specified Person, it is not necessary that all such matters be certified by, or covered by the opinion of, only one such Person, or that they be so certified or covered by only one document, but one such Person may certify or give an opinion with respect to some matters and one or more other such Persons as to other matters, and any such Person may certify or give an opinion as to such matters in one or several documents.

Any certificate or opinion of an officer of the Issuer may be based, insofar as it relates to legal matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, counsel unless such officer knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which such certificate or opinion is based are erroneous. Any such certificate or any Opinion of Counsel may be based, insofar as it relates to factual matters, upon a certificate or opinion of, or representations by, an officer or officers of the Issuer stating that the information with respect to such factual matters is in the possession of the Issuer unless such counsel knows, or in the exercise of reasonable care should know, that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to such matters are erroneous.

Where any Person is required to make, give or execute two or more applications, requests, consents, certificates, statements, opinions or other instruments under this Indenture, they may, but need not, be consolidated and form one instrument.

Upon any application or request by the Issuer to the Trustee to take any action under any provision of this Indenture other than a Request pursuant to Section 2.03 for the initial authentication of Notes pursuant to this Indenture, there shall be furnished to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate stating that all conditions precedent, if any, provided for in this Indenture relating to the proposed action have been complied with and an Opinion of Counsel stating that in the opinion of such counsel all such conditions precedent, if any, have been complied with, except that in the case of any such application or request as to which the furnishing of such documents is specifically required by any provision of this Indenture relating to such particular application or request, no additional certificate or opinion need be furnished.

Every certificate or opinion with respect to compliance with a condition or covenant provided for in this Indenture shall include a statement as to whether, in the opinion of each such individual, such condition or covenant has been complied with.

SECTION 1.03. Acts of Holders of Notes.

(a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Holders of Notes may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders in person or by agent or proxy duly appointed in writing; and, except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments are delivered to the Trustee and, where it is hereby expressly required, to the Issuer. Such instruments (and the action embodied therein and evidenced thereby) are herein sometimes referred to as the "Act" of the Holders of Notes signing such instruments. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent or proxy, or of the holding by any Person of a Note, shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Issuer, if made in the manner provided in this Section 1.03.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved in any reasonable manner which the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The principal amount and serial numbers of Notes held by any Person, and the date of his holding the same, shall be proved by the Note Register.

(d) At any time prior to the taking of any action by the Holders of the percentage in aggregate principal amount of the Notes specified in this Indenture in connection with such action, any Holder of a Note the serial number of which is shown by the evidence to be included in the Notes the Holders of which have consented to such action may (to the extent permitted by applicable law), by filing written notice with the Trustee at its Corporate Trust Office and upon proof of holding as provided in this Section 1.03, revoke such consent so far as it concerns such Note. Except as aforesaid, any such action by the Holder of any Note (to the extent permitted by applicable law) shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future Holders and owners of such Note and of any Note issued in exchange or substitution therefor irrespective of whether or not any notation in regard thereto is made upon each Note or upon any Note issued in exchange or substitution therefor.

SECTION 1.04. Notices, etc., to Trustee or Issuer. Except as provided in Section 5.01, any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or Act of Holders of Notes or other document provided or permitted by this Indenture to be made upon, given or furnished to, or filed with,

(1) the Trustee by any Holder of Notes or by the Issuer shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if made, given, furnished or filed in writing to or with the Trustee at its Corporate Trust Office to the attention of Corporate Trust Administration, or

(2) the Issuer by the Trustee or by any Holder of Notes shall be sufficient for every purpose hereunder if in writing, and delivered by hand, mailed, first-class postage prepaid, or telexed or telecopied and confirmed by mail, first-class postage prepaid, addressed to the Issuer at the address of its principal office specified in the first paragraph of this instrument, to the attention of its Secretary, or at any other address previously furnished in writing to the Trustee by the Issuer.

All notices, elections, requests and demands required or permitted under this Indenture shall be in the English language.

SECTION 1.05. Effect of Headings and Table of Contents. The Article and Section headings herein and the Table of Contents are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction hereof.

SECTION 1.06. Successors and Assigns. All covenants and agreements in this Indenture by the Issuer or the Trustee shall bind their respective successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not.

SECTION 1.07. Separability Clause. In case any provision in this Indenture or the Notes shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby.

SECTION 1.08. Benefits of Indenture. Nothing in this Indenture or in the Notes, express or implied, shall give to any Person, other than the parties hereto and their successors and assigns hereunder and the Holders of Notes, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Indenture.

SECTION 1.09. Governing Law. This Indenture and each of the Notes shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

SECTION 1.10. Legal Holidays. In any case where the Stated Maturity of any Note or the date on which any installment of interest is due and payable shall be a day which is not a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture or the Notes) payment of interest, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or principal need not be made on such day but may be made on the next succeeding Business Day, with the same force and effect as if made at the Stated Maturity or due date and no interest shall accrue on such payment for the intervening period after such Stated Maturity or due date to such next succeeding Business Day.

SECTION 1.11. Consent to Jurisdiction and Service of Process. The Issuer waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection which it may have to the laying of the venue in any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Indenture or any Note brought in any New York State or United States Federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in the City of New York and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The Issuer agrees that final judgment in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such a court shall be conclusive and binding upon the Issuer and may be enforced in any court to the jurisdiction of which the Issuer is subject by a suit upon such judgment, provided that service of process is effected upon the Issuer in the manner specified in the following paragraph or as otherwise permitted by law.

As long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, the Issuer will at all times during which the Issuer does not maintain an office in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York have an authorized agent in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York upon whom process may be served in any legal action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Indenture or any Note and will upon the appointment of such agent promptly notify the Trustee in writing of the name and address of such agent. Service of process upon such agent and written notice of such service mailed or delivered to the Issuer shall to the extent permitted by law be deemed in every respect effective service of process upon the Issuer in any such legal action or proceeding.

Nothing in this Section shall affect the right of the Trustee or any Noteholder to serve process in any manner permitted by law or limit the right of the Trustee to bring proceedings against the Issuer in the courts of any jurisdiction or jurisdictions.

SECTION 1.12. Disclaimer of Liability of Shareholders and Others. Corporate Property Investors refers to the Trustees for the time being under an Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust dated as of June 15, 1978, as amended, on file in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The Declaration of Trust provides that the obligations of Corporate Property Investors shall not constitute personal obligations of its Trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents, and that all persons dealing with Corporate Property Investors shall look solely to the assets of Corporate Property Investors for satisfaction of any liability of Corporate Property Investors, and will not seek recourse against such Trustees, officers, shareholders, employees or agents or any of them or any of their personal assets for such satisfaction.

ARTICLE TWO

ISSUE, EXECUTION, FORM AND REGISTRATION OF SECURITIES

SECTION 2.01. Form Generally; Title and Terms.

(a) The Notes, including the face of the Notes, the reverse of the Notes and the Trustee's certificate of authentication shall be in substantially the forms set forth above, with such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Indenture and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon as may be required to comply with the rules of any securities exchange or as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the officers executing such Notes, as evidenced by such execution.

The definitive Notes shall be printed, lithographed, engraved or otherwise produced as determined by the officers executing such Notes as evidenced by such execution.

(b) Except for Notes authenticated and delivered in exchange for or in lieu of Notes pursuant to Section 2.04, 2.05 or 8.05, the aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be authenticated and delivered under this Indenture is limited to $250,000,000 principal amount.

The Notes shall be known and designated as the 9% Notes Due 2002 of the Issuer. Their Stated Maturity shall be March 15, 2002. The Notes shall bear interest as provided in the form of Note.

(c) The Notes and transfers thereof shall be registered as provided in Section 2.04.

(d) Each Note shall be dated the date of its authentication.

(e) The Notes shall not be entitled to any mandatory sinking fund. The Notes shall be redeemable by the Issuer as provided for in Article Nine.

(f) The Notes may be issued in whole or in part in the form of one or more global notes (the "Global Notes"). The Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall, in accordance herewith and upon the Order of the Issuer, authenticate and deliver one or more Global Notes that (i) shall represent and shall be denominated in an aggregate principal or face amount of the Outstanding Notes to be represented by such Global Note or Notes, (ii) shall be registered in the name of the Depositary or the nominee of the Depositary, (iii) shall be delivered by the Trustee to the Depositary or pursuant to the Depositary's instructions and (iv) shall bear the legend set forth below.

The Issuer initially designates The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") as the depositary for the Global Notes. The Issuer and the Trustee shall enter into a customary letter of representation with DTC, providing for, among other things, a legend restricting transfer of the Global Notes.

The Depositary may be treated by the Issuer as the owner of such Global Notes for all purposes whatsoever. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent the Issuer from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by or to the Depositary or impair, as between the Depositary and its participants, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of the rights of a holder of any Note.

The Holder of any Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, and the Trustee agree that such Global Note shall be transferred pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof only in whole and not in part to a nominee of DTC, a successor to DTC or a nominee of such successor which is another clearing agency registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

If at any time DTC (or any successor Depositary) notifies the Issuer that it is unwilling or unable to continue as Depositary for the Global Note or at any time DTC (or such successor Depositary) shall no longer be eligible under this Section 2.01, the Issuer shall appoint a successor Depositary with respect to the Global Notes and such successor shall enter into a customary letter of representation with the Issuer and the Trustee. If a successor Depositary for the Global Notes is not appointed by the Issuer within 90 days after the Issuer receives such notice or becomes aware of such ineligibility, or if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Notes shall thereafter no longer be in the form of the Global Notes and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee upon receipt of an Order of the Issuer for the authentication and delivery of certificated Notes, will authenticate and deliver certificated Notes in any authorized denominations in an aggregate principal amount of the Global Notes in exchange for the Global Notes, such certificated Notes to be in denominations and registered in the names specified by the Depositary; provided that if such Event of Default is waived pursuant to Section 5.01 or is no longer continuing, such certificated Notes need not be issued and if already issued may, at the Holder's request, be represented again by a Global Note in accordance with this Section 2.01.

SECTION 2.02. Denominations. The Notes are issuable in registered form in denominations of $250,000 and integral multiples thereof.

SECTION 2.03. Execution, Authentication and Delivery of Notes. The Notes shall be executed on behalf of the Issuer by a duly authorized officer of the Issuer. Any such signature may be manual or facsimile.

Notes bearing the manual or facsimile signature of any Person who was, at the actual date of execution thereof, a duly authorized officer of the Issuer shall bind the Issuer, notwithstanding that such Person has ceased to be a duly authorized officer prior to the authentication and delivery of such Notes. At any time and from time to time after the execution and delivery of this Indenture, the Issuer may deliver to the Trustee for authentication Notes executed by the Issuer and, upon written Request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver such Notes as in this Indenture provided and not otherwise.

Except as otherwise provided in Sections 3.03 and 4.14 of this Indenture with respect to amounts deposited by the Issuer with the Trustee to effect a defeasance of the Notes or certain covenants and provisions in the Indenture, all monies paid by the Issuer to the Trustee or other Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, Make-Whole Amount or interest shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Issuer and, to the extent permitted by law, the Holder of such Note thereafter shall look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amount shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 2.04. Registration, Transfer and Exchange.

(a) The Issuer shall cause to be kept at the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee a register (the register maintained in such office and in any other office or agency designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose being herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Note Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Issuer shall provide for the registration of Notes and for transfers of Notes. The Issuer hereby appoints Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as the Registrar. The registration of transfer of a Note by the Registrar shall be deemed to be the acknowledgment of such transfer on behalf of the Issuer. Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Note at an office or agency of the Issuer designated pursuant to Section 4.02 for such purpose, the Issuer shall execute, and the Trustee. shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of any authorized denomination and of a like aggregate principal amount.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.04(a), the following procedures and restrictions with respect to the registration of any transfer of any Note other than a Global Note shall apply:

(i) The Registrar shall register the transfer of any Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if the requested transfer is (x) to the Issuer, or (y) at least three years after the later of (A) the issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (B) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(ii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note, whether or not such Note bears the Private Placement Legend, if each of (i) the Holder of such Note and (ii) the proposed transferee (if so required by the Certificate of Transfer) has properly completed the Certificate of Transfer, or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer, and has delivered such Certificate to the Registrar, together, in the case of a transfer to an Accredited Investor, with a letter from the transferee in the form of Exhibit A hereto.

(iii) The Registrar shall register the transfer of a Note to or from a depositary organization for any other institutional trading system designated by the Issuer in a Notice of Issuance or otherwise set forth in a written notice to the Registrar. In connection with any such transfer to such depositary organization for deposit in such other institutional trading system, no further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied to the Registrar in respect thereof. In connection with any such transfer out of such other institutional trading system, the Registrar shall receive such documents, certifications or other evidence from the transferor or transferee as are specified in such Notice of Issuance or other written notice.

(iv) If so specified in the Notice of Issuance with respect to the Notes, the Registrar shall register the transfer of the Notes, from or through any dealer, placement agent or other person specified by the Issuer in such Notice of Issuance which has agreed in writing to offer, sell and effect transfers of Notes only to a prospective purchaser who such dealer, placement agent or other person has reasonable grounds to believe and does believe is a Qualified Institutional Buyer or an Accredited Investor who can make representations with respect to itself substantially to the same effect as set forth in the Certificate of Transfer. No further documents, certifications or other evidence need be supplied in respect of any such transfer.

(v) With respect to any requested transfer of a Note not provided for in clauses (i) through (iv) above, the Registrar shall, subject to such additional procedures as the Issuer may establish, register such transfer upon surrender of such Note. Such additional procedures may include, without limitation, (x) delivery by the transferor or the proposed transferee of an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to the effect that such transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act and (y) the delivery by the proposed transferee of representation letters in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Issuer to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Securities Act.

(vi) Upon receipt of the duly completed Note and any required instruments of transfer, transfer notices or other written statements or documents, the Registrar shall register the transfer and complete, countersign and deliver in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Notes of authorized denominations in the principal amount specified on such Note.

(vii) The Registrar shall have no liability whatsoever to any party so long as it registers the transfer in accordance with the instructions described here.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, so long as a Global Note remains Outstanding, and is held by the Registrar, as custodian for the Depositary, unless the transferee shall otherwise request in writing to the Registrar, no certificated Note shall be issued or authenticated in connection with the transfer of any certificated Note pursuant to the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A. Instead, upon acceptance for transfer of any certificated Note, the Registrar shall cancel such certificated Note and shall, in lieu of issuing a new certificated Note in exchange for the certificated Note surrendered for registration of transfer, endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note in an amount equal to the principal amount of such certificated Note. All provisions of this Section 2.04 relating to the transfer of Notes (other than those relating to the issuance and authorization of a new Note) shall apply to any transfer resulting in an increase in the principal amount of such Global Note. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any increase in the principal amount of any Global Note.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Indenture, resales or other transfers of Notes represented by a Global Note made in compliance with Rule 144A or made on or subsequent to the date that is three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note) and (ii) the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof, will be conducted according to the rules and procedures of the Depositary applicable to U.S. corporate debt obligations and without notice to, or action by, the Registrar. Upon notice from the beneficial owner (or an agent of the beneficial owner) of Notes represented by a Global Note that such beneficial owner intends to resell or transfer such Notes otherwise than pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act prior to three years after the later of (i) the original issue date of such Notes (or any predecessor of such Notes) and (ii) the last date on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of such Note (or any predecessor of such Note), determined as set forth in Section 2.04(j) hereof, and upon satisfaction by the transferor and, if applicable, the transferee, of the conditions necessary for the registration of transfer of a Note set out in Section 2.04(b), the Registrar shall and is authorized by the holder of such Global Note, by its acceptance thereof, to endorse on the schedule affixed to such Global Note (or on a continuation of such schedule affixed to such Global Note and made a part thereof), an appropriate notation evidencing the date and the reduction in the principal amount of such Global Note equal to the principal amount of the portion of the Global Note being transferred and shall authenticate and deliver a certificated Note registered in the name of the transferee or its nominee in an equal aggregate principal amount. The Registrar shall notify the Depositary promptly of any decrease in the principal amount of any Global Note.

(d) Except as otherwise provided on the face of the Notes with respect to the payment of interest on Notes transferred between Record Dates and Interest Payment Dates, each Note authenticated and delivered upon any transfer or exchange for or in lieu of the whole or any part of any Note shall carry all the rights to interest, if any, accrued and unpaid and to accrue which were carried by the whole or such part of such Note.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to exchange or register the transfer of any Note during the period of 15 days preceding (i) the due date for any payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, on the Notes or (ii) the date on which Notes are scheduled for redemption.

(f) Transfer, registration and exchange shall be permitted and executed as provided in this Section without any charge other than any stamp or other taxes or governmental charges or insurance charges payable on transfers or any expenses of delivery but subject to such reasonable regulations as the Issuer and the Registrar may prescribe.

(g) Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes not bearing the legend set forth in the form of Note (the "Private Placement Legend"), the Trustee shall deliver Notes that do not bear the Private Placement Legend. Upon the transfer, exchange or replacement of Notes bearing the Private Placement Legend, the Trustee shall deliver only Notes that bear the Private Placement Legend unless the circumstances contemplated by Section 2.04(b)(i)(y) above exist.

(h) Any Note or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes in other authorized denominations, in an equal aggregate principal amount. Notes to be exchanged shall be surrendered at an office or agency to be maintained by the Issuer for such purpose as provided in Section 4.02, and the Issuer shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver in exchange therefor the Note or Notes which the Noteholder making the exchange shall be entitled to receive, bearing numbers not contemporaneously outstanding.

All Notes presented for registration of transfer, exchange, redemption or payment shall (if so required by the Issuer or the Trustee) be duly endorsed by, or be accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer in form satisfactory to the Issuer and the Trustee duly executed by, the Holder or his attorney duly authorized in writing.

All Notes issued upon any transfer or exchange of Notes shall be valid obligations of the Issuer, evidencing the same debt, and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Notes surrendered upon such transfer or exchange.

(i) The Issuer agrees to make available such information as is required by Rule 144A(d)(iv) as in effect on the original issue date of the Notes. Further, the Notes and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time in accordance with Section 8.01 (i) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (ii) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form). Each Holder of any Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of such Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

(j) For purposes of determining the last day on which the Issuer or any Affiliate of the Issuer was the beneficial owner of a Note, the Registrar and the Issuer shall rely on the representation as to "Affiliation with Issuer" set forth on the Certificate or Certificates of Transfer delivered to it from and after the date of issuance of such Note (or any predecessor Note) in connection with transfers of such Note. The Registrar, the Issuer and all Holders of Notes shall be entitled to rely without further investigation on any certification by any transferor on the Certificate of Transfer. Unless a transferor required to provide a Certificate of Transfer shall certify thereon that it is an Affiliate of the Issuer, such transferor shall be deemed to have represented that it is not an Affiliate of the Issuer.

SECTION 2.05. Mutilated, Defaced, Destroyed, Lost and Stolen Notes. In case any Note shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and upon the written request of any officer of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced Note, or in lieu of and substitution for the Note so apparently destroyed, lost or stolen. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith. In case any Note which has matured or has been called for redemption in full, shall become mutilated or defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer may, instead of issuing a substitute Note, with the Holder's consent in the case that the Note is called for redemption, pay or authorize the payment of the same (without surrender thereof except in the case of a mutilated or defaced Note), if the applicant for such payment shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee such security or indemnity as any of them may require to save each of them harmless, from all risks, however remote, and, in every case of apparent destruction, loss or theft, the applicant shall also furnish to the Issuer and the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof.

Every substitute Note issued pursuant to the provisions of this Section by virtue of the fact that any Note is apparently destroyed, lost or stolen shall constitute an additional contractual obligation of the Issuer, whether or not the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note shall be at any time enforceable by anyone and shall be entitled to all the benefits of (but shall be subject to all the limitations of rights set forth in) this Indenture equally and proportionately with any and all other Notes duly authenticated and delivered hereunder. All Notes shall be held and owned upon the express condition that, to the extent permitted by law, the foregoing provisions are exclusive with respect to the replacement or payment or conversion of mutilated, defaced, or apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Notes and shall preclude any and all other rights or remedies notwithstanding any law or statute existing or hereafter enacted to the contrary with respect to the replacement or payment of negotiable instruments or other securities without their surrender.

SECTION 2.06. Persons Deemed Owners. The Issuer, the Trustee and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee may treat the person in whose name any Note is registered as the absolute owner of such Note for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and (subject to the provisions for payment of interest set forth in the form of Note) interest on such Note and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not such Note be overdue, and neither the Issuer, the Trustee nor any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee shall be affected by notice to the contrary to the extent permitted by applicable law.

SECTION 2.07. Cancellation of Notes; Destruction Thereof. All Notes surrendered for payment, redemption, or registration of transfer or exchange, if surrendered to the Issuer or any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee, shall be delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or, if surrendered to the Trustee, shall be cancelled by it; and no Notes shall be issued in lieu thereof except as expressly permitted by any of the provisions of this Indenture. The Trustee shall destroy cancelled Notes held by it and deliver a certificate of destruction to the Issuer. If the Issuer shall acquire any of the Notes, such Acquisition shall not operate as a redemption or satisfaction of the indebtedness represented by such Notes unless and until the same are delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

ARTICLE III

SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE; DEPOSITED MONEYS

SECTION 3.01. Satisfaction and Discharge of Indenture. This Indenture shall cease to be of further effect (except as to any surviving rights of transfer or exchange herein expressly provided for), and the Trustee, upon Request of the Issuer at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, when

(a) either

(i) all Notes theretofore authenticated and delivered (other than Notes which have been destroyed, lost or stolen and which have been replaced or paid as provided in Section 2.04), have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation and 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date of delivery of the last such Note for cancellation; or

(ii) all such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation (1) have become due and payable, (2) will become due and payable at their Stated Maturity within one year, (3) are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the giving of notice of redemption by the Trustee in the name, and at the expense, of the Issuer, or (4) are deemed paid and discharged pursuant to Section 3.03, as applicable, and in the case of (1), (2) or (3) above, 91 days (during which no event referred to in Section 5.01(e) or (f) with respect to the Issuer shall have occurred) have run from the date on which the Issuer has deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee or the Paying Agent, in trust for the purpose, an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the entire indebtedness on such Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest accrued to the date of such deposit or to the Stated Maturity or Redemption Date, as the case may be;

(b) the Issuer has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable hereunder by the Issuer; and

(c) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture have been complied with.

Notwithstanding the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, the obligations of the Issuer to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06 and, if money shall have been deposited with the Trustee pursuant to sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) of this Section or if money or obligations shall have been deposited with or received by the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03, the obligations of the Trustee under Sections 3.02 and 6.06 shall survive.

SECTION 3.02. Application of Trust Money. Subject to Section 4.02, all money deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.01, all money and U.S. Government Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 or 4.14 and all money received by the Trustee in respect of U.S. Governmental Obligations deposited with the Trustee pursuant to Section 3.03 shall be held in trust and applied by it, in accordance with the provisions of the Notes and this Indenture, to the payment, either directly or through the Paying Agent as the Trustee may determine, to the Holders of the Notes for whose payment such money has been deposited with the Trustee, of all sums due and to become due thereon for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest for whose payment such money has been deposited with or received by the Trustee or to make payments as contemplated by Section 3.03; but such money need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

SECTION 3.03. Satisfaction, Discharge and Defeasance of Notes. The Issuer shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire indebtedness on all the Notes on the 91st day after the date of the deposit referred to in subparagraph (d) hereof, and the provisions of this Indenture shall no longer be in effect (and the Trustee, at the expense of the Issuer, shall, upon receipt of a Request of the Issuer, execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except as to:

(a) the rights of Holders of Notes to receive, from the trust funds described in subparagraph (d) of this Section 3.03, payment of the principal of and each installment of or interest on the Notes on the Stated Maturity of such principal or installment of principal or interest;

(b) the Issuer's obligations with respect to the Notes under Section 2.04, 2.05 and 4.02; and provided that, the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(c) the rights, powers, trust and immunities of the Trustee hereunder and the duties of the Trustee under Section 3.02 and the duty of the Trustee to authenticate Notes issued on registration of transfer or exchange;

(d) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defease the Notes under this Section 3.03 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably with the Trustee as trust funds in trust for the purpose of making the following payments, specifically pledged as security for and dedicated solely to the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants expressed in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(e) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(f) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit or during the period ending on the 91st day after such date;

(g) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (1) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (2) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (1) or (2), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit, defeasance and discharge and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit, defeasance and discharge had not occurred;

(h) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble to this Section 3.03 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 3.03 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 3.03, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 3.03 have been complied with.

ARTICLE FOUR

COVENANTS OF THE ISSUER AND THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 4.01. Payment of Principal and Interest. The Issuer will duly and punctually pay the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes, in accordance with the terms of the Notes and this Indenture.

Payment of principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on Notes will be made in accordance with the terms of the Notes against surrender of the Notes at the Corporate Trust Office of the Paying Agent in the City of New York. Payment of interest on the Notes will be made, in accordance with the terms of the Notes, to the respective persons in whose name the Notes are registered at the close of business on the subsequent Record Date prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date.

The Issuer will on or before 3:00 P.M., the City of New York time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the due date of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes, pay to the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds a sum sufficient to pay the principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest so becoming due, such sum to be held in trust for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes.

SECTION 4.02. Maintenance of Office or Agency; Appointment of Paying Agent. So long as any of the Notes remain Outstanding, the Issuer will maintain in the City of New York, the following: (a) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for payment, (b) an office or agency where the Notes may be presented for registration of transfer and for exchange as in this Indenture provided and (c) an office or agency where notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes or of this Indenture may be served. The Issuer will give to the Trustee written notice of the location of any such office or agency and of any change of location thereof. The Issuer hereby initially designates the Corporate Trust Office of the Trustee as the office or agency for each such purpose. In case the Issuer shall fail to maintain any such office or agency or shall fail to give such notice of the location or of any change in the location thereof, presentations and demands may be made and notices may be served at the Corporate Trust Office.

The Issuer hereby appoints Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), for the payment of principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on the Notes on behalf of the Issuer. The Issuer reserves the right at any time, and from time to time, to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent, transfer agent or Registrar or to appoint any additional or other Paying Agent or agencies or transfer agent or agencies or Registrar.

Whenever the Issuer shall appoint a Paying Agent other than the Trustee, it will cause such Paying Agent to execute and deliver to the Trustee an instrument in which such agent shall agree with the Trustee, subject to the provisions of this Section 4.02, that it will hold all sums held by it as such agent for the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes in trust for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, that it will give the Trustee notice of any failure by the Issuer to make any payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on the Notes when the same shall be due and payable and that, at any time during the continuance of any such default, upon the written request of the Trustee, it will forthwith pay to the Trustee all sums so held by it in trust.

Anything in this Section 4.02 to the contrary notwithstanding, the Issuer may, at any time, for the purpose of obtaining a satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture, or for any other reason, cause to be paid to the Trustee all sums held in trust by any Paying Agent hereunder as required by this Section 4.02, such sums to be held by the Trustee upon the trust herein contained. Any money deposited with the Trustee or any Paying Agent for the payment of the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, the Make-Whole Amount or interest has become due and payable shall be paid to the Issuer, and the Holder of such Note shall thereafter look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amounts shall thereupon cease.

SECTION 4.03. Existence of Issuer. The Issuer will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, rights and franchises; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to preserve the existence of the Issuer or any such right or franchise if the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall determine that the failure to preserve such existence, right or franchise is not disadvantageous in any material respect to the Holders of Notes and in the case of such right or franchise, is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of the Issuer.

SECTION 4.04. Information. The Issuer will deliver to the Trustee and to each Holder of Notes upon the request of such Holder:

(a) within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Issuer, a consolidated balance sheet of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries as of the end of such fiscal year and the related consolidated statements of cash flows, income and shareholders' equity for such fiscal year, in each case prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, setting forth in each case in comparative form the figures for the previous fiscal year, and a report and opinion thereon of independent public accountants of recognized national standing; and

(b) within 60 days after the end of each of the first three fiscal quarters, unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries for the portion of the Issuer's fiscal year then ended, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as provided to the Issuer's shareholders.

SECTION 4.05. Maintenance of Property; Insurance.

(a) The Issuer will keep, and will cause each Subsidiary to keep, all material property useful and necessary in its business in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

(b) The Issuer will maintain, and will cause each Subsidiary to maintain, in full force and effect at all times with financially sound and reputable insurance companies, insurance on all of its property in at least such amounts and against at least such risks as are usually insured against in the same general area by companies engaged in similar businesses.

SECTION 4.06. Trustee. The Issuer whenever necessary to avoid or fill a vacancy in the office of Trustee, will appoint, in the manner provided in Section 6.09, a Trustee, so that there shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder.

SECTION 4.07. Compliance with Laws. The Issuer will comply, and, will cause each Subsidiary to comply, in all material respects, with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and requirements of governmental authority, except where the necessity of compliance therewith is contested in good faith or where the failure to comply would not have a material adverse effect upon the Issuer and its Consolidated Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

SECTION 4.08. Limitations on Debt. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit:

(a) Consolidated Debt to exceed 50% of Gross Assets, or

(b) Consolidated Secured Debt to exceed 35% of the Gross Assets.

SECTION 4.09. Minimum Net Worth. The Issuer shall not, at any time, permit Consolidated Net Worth to be less than $2,000,000,000 (Two Billion Dollars).

SECTION 4.10. Debt Service Coverage. The Issuer shall not, at the end of any fiscal quarter, permit the sum of (i) Cash Flow for the four fiscal quarters then ended plus (ii) Consolidated Interest Expense for such four fiscal quarters to be less than 150% of the sum of (x) Consolidated Interest Expense for such four fiscal quarters plus (y) all payments of principal with respect to Consolidated Debt payable during such four fiscal quarters (other than optional prepayments and any other lump sum or bullet payments).

SECTION 4.11. Annual Real Property Appraisal. Prior to February 28 of each year, the Issuer will (a) cause the fair market value of the equity of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries in all interests in Real Property as of the December 31 next preceding such February 28 to be appraised by the Appraiser in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute, (b) calculate as of such December 31 the value of Gross Assets, (c) cause the Appraiser to review such calculation of Gross Assets and (d) cause to be filed with the Trustee a report from the Appraiser containing the Appraiser's opinion on the value of Gross Assets as of such December 31 and its opinion on the reasonableness of the Issuer's calculation of the value of Gross Assets as of such December 31 and stating that the appraisal referred to in clause (a) above was made in conformity with and subject to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct of the Appraisal Institute.

SECTION 4.12. File Statement Annually with the Trustee. Within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year, the Issuer will file with the Trustee an Officers' Certificate, stating that in the course of the performance by the signers of their duties as officers of the Issuer, they would normally obtain knowledge of any default by the Issuer in the performance or fulfillment of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Indenture, that they have made a review with a view to determining whether there is any default under this Indenture, and stating whether or not they have obtained knowledge of any such default, and, if so, specifying each default of which the signers have knowledge and the nature thereof.

At the time such Officers' Certificate is filed, the Issuer will also file with the Trustee a letter or statement of the independent accountants who shall have certified the consolidated financial statements of the Issuer for its preceding fiscal year to the effect that, in making the examination necessary for certification of such financial statements, nothing has come to their attention to cause them to believe that the Issuer failed to comply with the covenants in Sections 4.01, 4.08, 4.09 and 4.10 which failure remains uncured at the date of such letter or statement, or, if they shall have obtained knowledge of any such failure, specifying in such letter or statement the nature thereof.

SECTION 4.13. Further Assurances. From time to time whenever requested by the Trustee, the Issuer will execute and deliver such further instruments and assurances and do such further acts as may be reasonably necessary or proper to carry out more effectually the purposes of this Indenture or to secure the rights and remedies hereunder of the Holders of the Notes.

SECTION 4.14. Defeasance of Certain Obligations. The Issuer may omit to comply with any term, provision or condition set forth in Sections 4.04, 4.05, 4.07, 4.08 to 4.11, inclusive, and Section 5.01(c) and (d) and (e) and (f) (but only insofar as such paragraphs (e) and (f) relate to Subsidiaries of the Issuer), inclusive, and Article Nine shall be deemed deleted, provided that the following conditions shall have been satisfied:

(1) the Issuer shall have given the Trustee written notice that it intends to exercise its right to defeasance under this Section 4.14 and deposited or caused to be deposited irrevocably (except as provided in Section 3.03) with the Trustee as trust funds in trust, specifically pledged as security for, and dedicated solely to, the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, cash in U.S. dollars (or such other money or currencies as shall then be legal tender in the United States) and/or U.S. Government Obligations which through the payment of interest and principal in respect thereof, in accordance with their terms, will provide (and without reinvestment and assuming no tax liability will be imposed on such Trustee), not later than one day before the due date of any payment of money, an amount in cash, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants in writing delivered to the Trustee, to pay and discharge each installment of principal of and any interest on the Notes on the dates such installments of interest or principal are due;

(2) such deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, this Indenture or any other agreement or instrument to which the Issuer is a party or by which it is bound;

(3) no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time would become an Event of Default with respect to the Notes shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit;

(4) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee (a) an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel or (b) there has been published by (or the Issuer has received from) the Internal Revenue Service a ruling, in the case of either (a) or (b), to the effect that Holders of the Notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amount and in the same manner and at the same times, as would have been the case if such deposit and defeasance of certain obligations had not occurred;

(5) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an opinion of counsel from Cravath, Swaine & Moore or other nationally recognized counsel to the effect that such deposit and the effects of such deposit set forth in the preamble of this Section 4.14 (i) will not cause the Trustee or the trust created pursuant to this Section 4.14 to constitute an "investment company" within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and (ii) will not, following the expiration of the 91-day period referred to in the preamble to this Section 4.14, constitute a preferential transfer (with respect to "non-insider" transferees) under Section 547(b) of the United States Bankruptcy Code; and

(6) the Issuer has delivered to the Trustee an Officers' Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to the defeasance contemplated by this Section 4.14 have been complied with.

ARTICLE FIVE

REMEDIES

SECTION 5.01. Events of Default Defined; Acceleration of Maturity; Waiver of Default. The following events or conditions constitute Events of Default hereunder (whatever the reason for such Event of Default and whether it shall be voluntary or involuntary or be effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order, rule or regulation of any administrative body):

(a) default in the payment of any installment of interest upon any Note when it becomes due and payable and continuance of such default for a period of 10 Business Days; or

(b) default in the payment of principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any of the Notes when due, whether at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise; or

(c) default in the performance, or breach, of any covenant or agreement of the Issuer in this Indenture or the Notes (other than a covenant or agreement a default in the performance of which or the breach of which is elsewhere in this Section specifically dealt with or default in the payment of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest), and continuance of such default or breach for a period of 30 days after there shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, by the Holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such default or breach and requiring it to be remedied and stating that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder; or

(d) acceleration of, or failure to pay at maturity, Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) of the Issuer or any Subsidiary in an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000 which acceleration is not rescinded or annulled or which Debt is not discharged, in either case, within 30 days after there shall have been given to the Issuer by the Trustee, by registered or certified mail, or to the Issuer and the Trustee by the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, a written notice specifying such acceleration or failure to pay and requiring the Issuer to remedy the same; or

(e) the entry of a decree or order for relief in respect of the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) by a court having jurisdiction in the premises in an involuntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or Other similar law, or appointing a receiver, liquidate, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or ordering the winding up or liquidation of its affairs, and the continuance of any such decree or order unstayed and in effect for a period of 60 consecutive days; or

(f) the commencement by the Issuer (or any Subsidiary that has outstanding Debt (other than Non-Recourse Debt) with an aggregate principal amount in excess of $10,000,000) of a voluntary case under the United States Federal bankruptcy laws, as now or hereafter constituted, or any other applicable United States Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or other similar law, or the consent by it (or any such Subsidiary) to the entry of an order for relief in an involuntary case under any such law as to the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or other similar official) of the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) or of any substantial part of its property, or the making by it of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the admission by it in writing of its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or the taking of corporate action by the Issuer (or any such Subsidiary) in furtherance of any such action.

If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(a) or (b) occurs and is continuing, then and in every such case (i) the Trustee by a notice in writing to the Issuer may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately or (ii) the Holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee declare the Notes to be due and payable immediately, and upon any such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(c) or (d) occurs and is continuing, then in every such case the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be due and payable immediately by a notice in writing to the Issuer (and to the Trustee if given by Holders) and upon such declaration the Notes shall be immediately due and payable at the principal amount plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any. If an Event of Default set forth in Section 5.01(e) or (f) occurs, the Notes shall automatically become due and payable at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date the Notes are paid without any action or declaration upon the part of the Trustee or Noteholders.

The preceding paragraph, however, is subject to the condition that if, at any time after the principal of the Notes shall have so become due and payable, before any judgment or decree for the payment of moneys due shall have been obtained or entered as hereinafter provided, the Issuer shall pay or shall deposit with the Trustee a sum sufficient to pay all matured installments of interest upon all the Notes and the expenses of the Trustee, and any and all defaults under this Indenture, other than the non-payment of Notes which shall have become due by such declaration, shall have been remedied, then in every such case the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof), by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may waive all defaults and rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences; but no waiver and rescission and annulment shall extend to or shall affect any default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of the Notes or any subsequent default or shall impair any right consequent thereon.

SECTION 5.02. Collection of Debt and Suits for Enforcement by Trustee. The Issuer covenants that if:

(i) in case default is made in the payment of any installment of interest on any Note when such interest becomes due and payable and such default continues for a period of 10 Business Days, or

(ii) default is made in the payment of the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on any Note at the Maturity thereof, then the Issuer will, upon demand of the Trustee, pay to it, for the benefit of the Holders of such Notes, the principal amount thereof, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any, with interest upon the overdue principal and the Make-Whole Amount and, to the extent that payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable, upon overdue installments of interest, at the rate borne by the Notes, and, in addition thereto, such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover the costs and expenses of collection and all amounts payable to the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

If the Issuer fails to pay any amounts required under this Section 5.02 forthwith upon such demand, the Trustee, in its own name and as trustee of an express trust, may institute a judicial proceeding for the collection of the sums so due and unpaid and may prosecute such proceeding to judgment or final decree, and may enforce the same against the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes and collect the moneys adjudged or decreed to be payable in the manner provided by law out of the property of the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes, wherever situated.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may in its discretion proceed to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Holders of Notes by such appropriate judicial proceedings as the Trustee shall deem most effectual to protect and enforce any such rights, whether for the specific enforcement of any covenant or agreement in this Indenture or in aid of the exercise of any power granted herein or to enforce any other proper remedy.

SECTION 5.03. Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. In case of the pendency of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, composition or other judicial proceeding relative to the Issuer or any other obligor upon the Notes or the property of the Issuer or such other obligor, the Trustee (irrespective of whether the principal of the Notes shall then be due and payable as therein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Trustee shall have made any demand on the Issuer for the payment of overdue principal or interest) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise,

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Notes and to file such other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee (including, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer, any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee, their agents and counsel) and of the Holders of Notes allowed in such judicial proceeding,

(b) to collect and receive any moneys or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same, and

(c) unless prohibited by law or applicable regulations, to vote on behalf of Holders of Notes in any election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions; and any receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder of Notes to make such payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders of Notes, to pay, in the case of any such proceeding relating to the Issuer or to the Trustee any amount due to it or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to or accept, or adopt on behalf of any Holder of Notes, any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Notes or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder of Notes in any such proceeding, except, as aforesaid, for the election of a trustee in bankruptcy or other person performing similar functions.

SECTION 5.04. Trustee May Enforce Claims Without Possession of Notes. All rights of action and claims under this Indenture or the Notes may be prosecuted and enforced by the Trustee (to the extent permitted by applicable law) without the possession of any of the Notes or the production thereof in any proceeding relating thereto, and any such proceeding instituted by the Trustee shall be brought in its own name as trustee of an express trust, and any recovery of judgment shall be for the ratable benefit of the Holders of the Notes in respect of which judgment has been recovered, subject to the provisions of this Indenture.

SECTION 5.05. Application of Money Collected. Any money collected by the Trustee pursuant to this Article shall be applied in the following order, at the date or dates fixed by the Trustee and, in case of the distribution of such money on account of principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest, upon presentation of the Notes, and the notation thereon of the payment if only partially paid and upon surrender thereof if fully paid:

FIRST: To the payment of all amounts due the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee under Section 6.06;

SECOND: In case the principal of the Outstanding Notes shall not have become due and be unpaid, to the payment of interest on the Notes, in the order of the maturity of the installments of such interest, with interest upon the overdue installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes, such payments to be made ratably to the persons entitled thereto, without discrimination or preference;

THIRD: In case the principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on the Outstanding Notes shall have become due, by declaration or otherwise, to the payment of the whole amount then owing and unpaid upon the Notes for principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, with interest on the overdue principal and installments of interest (so far as permitted by law and to the extent that such interest has been collected by the Trustee) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes; and in case such moneys shall be insufficient to pay in full the whole amount so due and unpaid upon the Notes, then to the payment of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest, without preference or priority of principal or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, over interest, or of interest over principal, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or of any installment of interest over any other installment of interest, ratably to the aggregate of such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and accrued and unpaid interest; and FOURTH: To the payment of the remainder, if any, to the Issuer or any other person lawfully entitled thereto.

SECTION 5.06. Limitation on Suits by Noteholders. No Holder of any Note shall have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Indenture, or for the appointment of a receiver or trustee, or for any other remedy hereunder, unless:

(1) such Holder has previously given written notice to the Trustee of a continuing Event of Default;

(2) the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have made written request to the Trustee to institute proceedings in respect of such Events of Default set forth in Sections 5.01(c) or (d);

(3) such Holder or Holders have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities to be incurred in compliance with such request;

(4) the Trustee for 60 days after its receipt of such notice, request and offer of indemnity has failed to institute any such proceeding; and

(5) no direction inconsistent with such written request has been given to the Trustee during such 60-day period by the Holders of a majority (or 66-2/3% where expressly provided herein) in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes;

it being understood and intended that no one or more Holders of Notes shall have any right in any manner whatever by virtue of, or by availing of, any provision of this Indenture to affect, disturb or prejudice the rights of any other Holders of Notes, or to obtain or seek to obtain priority or preference over any other Holders or to enforce any right under this Indenture, except in the manner herein provided and for the equal and ratable benefit of all the Holders of Notes.

SECTION 5.07. Unconditional Rights of Holders to Receive Principal and Interest. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Indenture, the Holder of any Note shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional, to receive payment of the principal of, and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on such Note on the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes and to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder.

SECTION 5.08. Restoration of Rights' and Remedies. If the Trustee or any Holder of Notes has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Indenture and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to the Trustee or to such Holder, then and in every such case the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall, subject to any determination in such proceeding, be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder, and thereafter all rights and remedies of the Trustee and the Holders of Notes shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

SECTION 5.09. Rights and Remedies Cumulative. No right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

SECTION 5.10. Delay or Omission Not Waiver. No delay or omission of the Trustee or of any Holder of any Note to exercise any right or remedy accruing upon any Event of Default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such Event of Default or an acquiescence therein. Every right and remedy given by this Article or by law to the Trustee or to the Holders of Notes may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by the Trustee or by the Holders of Notes, as the case may be.

SECTION 5.11. Control by Holders. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Notes, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee, provided that:

(1) such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or with this Indenture,

(2) the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction, and

(3) the Trustee shall have the right to decline to follow any such action if the Trustee in good faith by its board of directors or executive committee or a trust committee of directors and/or Responsible Officers shall determine the actions or proceedings so directed would involve the Trustee in personal liability or would be unduly prejudicial to Holders not joining in such direction.

SECTION 5.12. Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of not less than 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes may on behalf of the Holders of all the Notes waive any past default hereunder and its consequences, except a default in the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note.

Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of this Indenture, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or impair any right consequent thereto.

SECTION 5.13. Undertaking for Costs. All parties to this Indenture agree, and each Holder of any Note by his acceptance thereof shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court of competent jurisdiction may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture, or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; but the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any suit instituted against the Issuer by the Trustee, by any Holder of Notes, or group of Holders of Notes, holding in the aggregate more than 10% in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, or by any Holder of any Note for the enforcement of the payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on such Note on or after the respective dates such payments are due in accordance with the terms of the Notes.

SECTION 5.14. Notice of Default to Holders of Notes. The Trustee shall at the Issuer's expense, within 90 days after any Event of Default becomes known to a Responsible Officer of it, give the Holders of Notes notice thereof, unless such default shall have been cured or waived.

ARTICLE SIX

CONCERNING THE TRUSTEE

SECTION 6.01. Duties and Responsibilities of the Trustee; During Default; Prior to Default. The Trustee, prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default which may have occurred, undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture. In case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent man would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his own affairs.

No provision of this Indenture shall be construed to relieve the Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own wilful misconduct, except that

(i) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all such Events of Default which may have occurred: the duties and obligations of the Trustee shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Indenture, and the Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; this Subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of this Section 6.01;

(ii) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it shall be proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes (or 66-2/3% or 25% in principal amount where expressly provided herein) relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, under this Indenture; and

(iv) none of the provisions of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

SECTION 6.02. Certain Rights of Trustee.

Subject to the provisions of Section 6.01:

(a) the Trustee may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, Officers' Certificate or any other certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request, direction, order or demand of the Issuer mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Officers' Certificate (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein specifically prescribed) and any resolution of the Board of Trustees of the Issuer shall be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) the Trustee may consult with counsel and any advice or Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such Opinion of Counsel;

(d) the Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the trusts or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request, order or direction of any of the Noteholders pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, unless such

Noteholders shall have offered to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred therein or thereby;

(e) the Trustee shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted by it in good faith and reasonably believed by it to be authorized or within the discretion or rights or powers conferred upon it by this Indenture;

(f) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default hereunder and after the curing or waiving of all Events of Default, the Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, or bond, debenture or other paper or document, unless requested in writing so to do by the Holders of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then Outstanding; provided that, if the payment within a reasonable time to the Trustee of the costs, expenses or liabilities likely to be incurred by it in the making of the investigation is, in the opinion of the Trustee, not reasonably assured to the Trustee by the security afforded to it by the terms of this Indenture, the Trustee may require reasonable indemnity against such expenses or liabilities as a condition to proceeding; the reasonable expenses of every such examination shall be paid by the Issuer or, if paid by the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee, shall be repaid by the Issuer upon demand; and

(g) the Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder.

SECTION 6.03. Trustee Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes. The recitals contained herein and in the Notes (except the Trustee's certificate of authentication) shall be taken as the statements of the Issuer, and the Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Indenture or of the Notes; provided that the Trustee shall not be relieved of its duty to authenticate Notes as authorized by this Indenture. The Trustee shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Issuer of Notes or the proceeds thereof.

SECTION 6.04. Trustee and Agents May Hold Notes. The Trustee, the Paying Agent or any other agent of the Issuer, in its individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Notes, collections, proceeds, and may otherwise deal with the Issuer and may receive, collect, hold and retain collections from the Issuer with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee, Paying Agent or such other agent.

SECTION 6.05. Moneys Held in Trust. Money held by the Trustee or the Paying Agent in trust hereunder need not be segregated from other funds, except to the extent required by law. The Trustee shall be under no liability for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed with the Issuer.

SECTION 6.06. Compensation and Indemnification of Trustee And Its Prior Claim. The Issuer covenants and agrees:

(a) to pay to the Trustee from time to time such compensation as shall from time to time be agreed upon in writing by the Trustee and the Issuer or, if there be no agreement, reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder (which compensation shall not be limited by any provision of law in regard to the compensation of a trustee of an express trust);

(b) to reimburse each of the Trustee and any predecessor Trustee upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Trustee or any predecessor Trustee in accordance with any provision of this Indenture (including the reasonable compensation and the reasonable expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except to the extent any such expense, disbursement or advance may be attributable to its negligence or bad faith; and

of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust or the performance of its duties hereunder, including the reasonable costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim of liability or investigating any claim of liability in the premises, except to the extent any such loss, liability or expense may be attributable to negligence or bad faith on its own part.

To ensure the performance of the obligations of the Trustee under this Section, the Trustee shall have a claim prior to the Notes upon all property and funds held or collected by the Trustee as such, except funds held in trust for the payment of the principal of, or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Notes. The rights of the Trustee under this Section 6.06 shall survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture.

SECTION 6.07. Right of Trustee to Rely on Officers' Certificate, etc. Subject to Sections 6.01 and 6.02, whenever in the administration of the trusts of this Indenture the Trustee shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking or suffering or omitting any action hereunder, such matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof be herein prescribed) may, in the absence of negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by an officers' Certificate delivered to the Trustee, and such certificate, in the absence of negligence or bad faith on the part of the Trustee, shall be full warrant to the Trustee for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it under the provisions of this Indenture upon the good faith thereof.

SECTION 6.08. Corporate Trustee Required; Eligibility. The Trustee shall at all times be a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having a combined capital and surplus of at least $75,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by Federal or State authority and having its principal office in the United States. If such corporation publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of the aforesaid supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published.

SECTION 6.09. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Trustee and no appointment of a successor Trustee pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Trustee under Section 6.10.

(b) The Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Issuer and by mailing notice thereof by first-class mail to Holders of Notes at their last addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. If an instrument of acceptance by a successor Trustee shall not have been delivered to the Trustee within 60 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(c) The Trustee may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, delivered to the Trustee and to the Issuer.

(d) If at any time:

(i) the Trustee shall cease to be eligible under Section 6.08 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Issuer or by any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months, or

(ii) the Trustee shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Trustee or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Trustee or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (A) the Issuer by a Board Resolution may remove the Trustee, or (B) subject to Section 5.13, any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(e) If the Trustee shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Trustee for any cause, the Issuer, by an Issuer Order, shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee. If, within one year after such resignation, removal or incapability, or the occurrence of such vacancy, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by Act of the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes delivered to the Issuer and the retiring Trustee, the successor Trustee so appointed shall, forthwith upon its acceptance of such appointment, become the successor Trustee and supersede `the successor Trustee appointed by the Issuer. If no successor Trustee shall have been so appointed by the Issuer or by the Holders of Notes or pursuant to Section 6.09(b) and shall have accepted appointment in the manner hereinafter provided in Section 6.10, any Holder of a Note who has been a Holder in due course of a Note for at least six months may, subject to Section 5.13, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

(f) The Issuer shall give notice of each resignation and each removal of the Trustee and each appointment of a successor Trustee in the manner set forth in paragraph 8 on the Form of Reverse of Note. The notice shall include the name of the successor Trustee and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

(g) The rights of a Trustee pursuant to Section 6.06 shall survive its resignation or removal and the appointment of successor Trustees hereunder.

SECTION 6.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor. Any successor Trustee appointed as provided in Section 6.09 shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Issuer and to the retiring Trustee an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective and such successor Trustee, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Trustee; but, on request of the Issuer or the successor Trustee, such retiring Trustee shall, upon payment to it of all fees, expenses and other amounts owing to it hereunder, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Trustee all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Trustee, and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Trustee all property and money held by such retiring Trustee hereunder, subject nevertheless to its claim, if any, provided for in Section 6.06. Upon request of any such successor Trustee, the Issuer shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Trustee all such rights, powers and trusts.

No successor Trustee shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Trustee shall be eligible and qualified under this Article.

SECTION 6.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business. Any corporation into which the Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Trustee shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, shall be the successor of the Trustee hereunder, provided that such corporation shall be otherwise eligible and qualified under Section 6.08, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

In case at any time such successor to the Trustee shall succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture, any of the Notes have been authenticated, but not delivered, by the Trustee then in office, any successor, by merger, conversion or consolidation or by succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Trustee, to such authenticating Trustee may adopt such authentication and deliver the Notes so authenticated with the same effect as if such successor Trustee had itself authenticated such Notes; provided, that the right to adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor Trustee or to authenticate Notes in the name of any predecessor only to its successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation.

ARTICLE SEVEN

CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, SALE OF ASSETS

SECTION 7.01. Issuer May Consolidate, etc., on Certain Terms. The Issuer covenants that it will not merge or consolidate with any other Person or sell or convey (including by way of lease) all or substantially all of its assets to any Person (other than the sale, transfer or conveyance (including by way of lease) of all or substantially all of the Issuer's assets in a single transaction or a series of transactions to one or more wholly-owned Subsidiaries), unless (i) either (A) the Issuer shall be the continuing entity or (B) the successor entity or the Person which acquires by sale or conveyance all or substantially all the assets of the Issuer (if other than the Issuer) shall (1) expressly assume the due and punctual payment of the principal of, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on all the Notes, according to their tenor, and the due and punctual performance and observance of all of the covenants and conditions of this Indenture and the Notes to be performed or observed by the Issuer, by supplemental indenture satisfactory to the Trustee, executed and delivered to the Trustee by such Person, and (2) if such Person is not organized under the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, agree in such supplemental indenture that any amount to be paid by such Person to Holders of the Notes shall be paid without deduction or withholding for any taxes, levies, imposts or charges whatsoever imposed by or for the account of the country in which any such Person is organized or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, or if deduction or withholding of any such taxes, levies, imposts or charges shall at any time be required by such country as aforesaid, or any of its political subdivisions or taxing authorities, such Person will pay any such additional amount in respect of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest as may be necessary in order that the net amounts paid to the Holders of the Notes or the Trustee, as the case may be, after such deduction or withholding, shall equal the respective amounts of principal, Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest as specified in the Notes to which such Holders or the Trustee are entitled, and (ii) the Issuer or such successor Person or acquiring Person shall not, immediately after such merger or consolidation, or such sale or conveyance, be in default in the performance of any such covenant or condition.

SECTION 7.02. Successor Issuer Substituted. In the case of any such consolidation, merger, sale or conveyance, and following such an assumption by the successor entity, such successor entity shall succeed to and be substituted for the Issuer, with the same effect as if it had been named herein. Such successor entity may cause to be signed, and may issue either in its own name or in the name of the Issuer prior to such succession, any or all of the Notes issuable hereunder, which theretofore shall not have been signed by the Issuer and delivered to the Trustee; and, upon the order of such successor entity instead of the Issuer and subject to all the terms, conditions and limitations in this Indenture prescribed, the Trustee shall authenticate and shall deliver any Notes which previously shall have been signed and delivered by the officers of the Issuer to the Trustee for authentication and any Notes which such successor entity thereafter shall cause to be signed and delivered to the Trustee for that purpose. All of the Notes so issued shall in all respects have the same legal rank and benefit under this Indenture as the Notes theretofore or thereafter issued in accordance with the terms of this Indenture as though all of such Notes had been issued at the date of the execution hereof.

In case of any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or conveyance such changes in phraseology and form (but not in substance) may be made in the Notes thereafter to be issued as may be appropriate.

In the event of any such sale or conveyance (other than a conveyance by way of lease) the Issuer or any successor entity which shall theretofore have become such in the manner described in this Article shall be discharged from all obligations and covenants under this Indenture and the Notes and may be liquidated and dissolved.

SECTION 7.03. Opinion of Counsel to Trustee. The Trustee, subject to the provisions of Section 6.01 and 6.02, may rely on an Opinion of Counsel and an Officers' Certificate, as conclusive evidence that any such consolidation, merger, sale, lease or conveyance, and any such assumption, and any such liquidation or dissolution, complies with the applicable provisions of this Indenture.

ARTICLE EIGHT

SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURES

SECTION 8.01. Supplemental Indentures Without Consent of Holders. Without the consent of the Holders of any Notes, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto, for any of the following purposes:

(a) to evidence the assumption by any successor entity to the Issuer of the covenants of the Issuer herein and in the Notes contained; or

(b) to add to the covenants of the Issuer, for the benefit of the Holders of the Notes, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Issuer; or

(c) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally; or

(d) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note Outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form); or

(e) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision herein which may be inconsistent with any other provision herein, to make any provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Indenture, or to make any other changes herein that shall not materially adversely affect the interests of the Holders of the Notes.

The Trustee is hereby authorized to join with the Issuer in the execution of any such supplemental indenture, to make any further appropriate agreements and stipulations which may be therein contained and to accept the conveyance, transfer, assignment, mortgage or pledge of any property thereunder, but the Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

Any supplemental indenture authorized by the provisions of this Section may be executed without the consent of the Holders of any of the Notes at the time Outstanding notwithstanding any of the provisions of Section 8.02.

SECTION 8.02. Supplemental Indentures With Consent of Holders; Waiver of Future Compliance. With the consent of the Holders of 66-2/3% (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a meeting of Noteholders pursuant to Article Ten hereof) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, by Act of said Holders delivered to the Issuer and the Trustee, the Issuer, when authorized by Board Resolutions, and the Trustee may enter into one or more indentures supplemental hereto for the purpose of adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of this Indenture or of modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes under this Indenture or to waive future compliance with the Indenture or the provisions of the Notes; provided, however, that no such supplemental indenture or waiver shall, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Note affected thereby,

(a) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of, or the due date for any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or the interest thereon or any amount payable upon redemption or acceleration thereof, or

(b) change the coin or currency in which any Note or the interest thereon is payable, or

(c) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or with respect to any Note, or

(d) reduce the above-stated percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is required to modify or amend the Indenture or the provisions of any Note, or

(e) modify any of the provisions of this Section or Section 5.12, except to increase any of the percentages set forth herein or therein or to provide that certain other provisions of this Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the o consent of the Holder of each Note affected thereby, or

(f) reduce the quorum requirements or the percentage of votes required for the adoption of any action at a meeting of Noteholders.

A supplemental indenture which changes or eliminates any covenant or other provision of this Indenture which has expressly been included solely for the benefit of the Notes, or which modifies the rights of Noteholders, with respect to such covenant or provision, shall be deemed not to affect the rights under this Indenture of the Noteholders.

Upon the request of the Issuer, accompanied by a copy of a resolution of the Board of Trustees certified by the secretary or an assistant secretary of the Issuer authorizing the execution of any such supplemental indenture, and upon the filing with the Trustee of evidence of the consent of Noteholders as aforesaid and other documents, if any, required by Section 8.01, the Trustee shall join with the Issuer in the execution of such supplemental indenture unless such supplemental indenture affects the Trustee's own rights, duties or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise, in which case the Trustee may in its discretion, but shall not be obligated to, enter into such supplemental indenture.

It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Noteholders under this Section to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental indenture, but it shall be sufficient if such consent shall approve the substance thereof.

Promptly after the execution by the Issuer and the Trustee of any supplemental indenture pursuant to the provisions of this Section, the Trustee shall mail a notice thereof to the Holders of then Outstanding Notes by first-class mail to such Holders at their addresses as they shall appear on the Note Register. Any failure of the Issuer to mail such notice, or any defect therein, shall not, however, in any way impair or affect the validity of any such supplemental indenture.

SECTION 8.03. Execution of Supplemental Indentures. In executing, or accepting the additional trusts created by, any supplemental indenture permitted by this Article or the modifications thereby of the trust created by this Indenture, the Trustee shall be entitled to receive, and (subject to Sections 6.01 and 6.02) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental indenture is authorized or permitted by this Indenture. The Trustee may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental indenture which affects the Trustee's own rights, duties, obligations or immunities under this Indenture or otherwise.

SECTION 8.04. Effect of Supplemental Indentures. Upon the execution of any supplemental indenture under this Article, this Indenture shall be and shall be deemed modified in accordance therewith and the respective rights, obligations, duties and immunities under this Indenture of the Trustee, the Issuer and the Holders of Notes affected thereby shall thereafter be determined, exercised and enforced hereunder subject in all respects to such modifications and amendments, and all other terms and conditions of any such supplemental indenture shall form a part of this Indenture for all purposes.

SECTION 8.05. Reference in Notes to Supplemental Indentures. Notes authenticated and delivered after the execution of any supplemental indenture pursuant to this Article may, and shall if required by the Trustee, bear a notation in form approved by the Trustee as to any matter provided for in such supplemental indenture. If the Issuer shall so determine, new Notes so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Issuer and the Trustee, to any such supplemental indenture may be prepared and executed by the Issuer and such Notes shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee in exchange for Outstanding Notes.

ARTICLE NINE

REDEMPTION OF NOTES

SECTION 9.01. Optional Redemption. The Issuer at its option may, at any time, redeem all, or from time to time any part, of the Notes upon payment of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued interest to the date of redemption, plus the Make-Whole Amount, if any (the "Redemption Price"). If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed at the option of the Issuer, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee at least 45 days prior to the Redemption Date (or such shorter period as the Trustee may accept) an Officers' Certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes to be redeemed.

If less than all the Notes are to be redeemed, the Trustee shall select, in such manner as it shall deem appropriate and fair, Notes to be redeemed in whole or in part. Notes may be redeemed in part in multiples equal to the minimum authorized denomination for Notes. Unless the Trustee has been requested to notify Holders of redemption pursuant to the last paragraph of Section 9.02, the Trustee shall promptly (but in no event after the later of (a) the date that is ten days after the date of receipt by the Trustee of the Officers' Certificate referred to in the first paragraph of this Section 9.01 and (b) the date that is five days before the date identified by the Issuer in such Officers Certificate as the date on which the Issuer intends to give notice of redemption) notify the Issuer in writing of the Notes selected for redemption and, in the case of any Notes selected for partial redemption, the principal amount thereof to be redeemed. For all purposes of this Indenture, unless the context otherwise requires, all provisions relating to the redemption of Notes, in the case of any Note redeemed or to be redeemed only in part, relates to the portion of the principal amount of such Note which has been or is to be redeemed.

SECTION 9.02. Notice of Redemption. Notice of redemption to the Holders of Notes to be redeemed as a whole or in part at the option of the Issuer shall be given by first-class mail, postage prepaid, at least 30 days and not more than 60 days prior to the date of redemption (the "Redemption Date") at their last addresses as they shall appear upon the Note Register. Any notice which is mailed in the manner herein provided shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly given, whether or not the Holder receives the notice. Failure to give notice by mail, or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Note as a whole or in part, shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the redemption of any other Note.

The notice of redemption to each such Holder shall specify the principal amount of each Note held by such Holder to be redeemed, the date fixed for redemption, the Redemption Price (or the method of calculating thereof in the case of the Make-Whole Amount component, if any, of the Redemption Price), the place or places of payment and that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of such Notes. In the case of the redemption of Notes that are to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption shall state the portion of the principal amount thereof to be redeemed and shall state that on and after the Redemption Date, upon surrender of such Note, a new Note or Notes in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion thereof will be issued.

The notice of redemption of Notes at the option of the Issuer shall be given by the Issuer or, at the Issuer's request, by the Trustee in the name and at the expense of the Issuer.

SECTION 9.03. Deposit of Redemption Price. Prior to 3:00 p.m., New York City time, on the day which is one Business Day next preceding the Redemption Date, the Issuer shall deposit with the Paying Agent in "next day" (New York Clearing House) funds an amount of money sufficient to pay on the Redemption Date the Redemption Price of all the Notes so called for redemption.

SECTION 9.04. Payment of Notes Called for Redemption. If notice of redemption has been given as aforesaid, the Notes shall, on the Redemption Date, become due and payable at the Redemption Price therein specified, and on and after such date (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price) such Notes shall cease to bear interest.

If the Issuer defaults on the Redemption Date in the payment of the Redemption Price such Notes shall, until paid, bear interest from the Redemption Date at the rate borne by the Notes.

SECTION 9.05. Mandatory Redemption. The Notes shall be subject to redemption in whole, at any time, at the Redemption Price within five Business Days following any Mandatory Redemption Event in accordance with the provisions of Sections 9.02, 9.03 and 9.04, except that the notice referred to in Section 9.02 shall be mailed within two Business Days of the Mandatory Redemption Event.

ARTICLE TEN

MEETINGS OF NOTEHOLDERS

SECTION 10.01. Notice; Quorum; Actions Taken.

(a) The Issuer may at any time call a meeting of the Noteholders, such meeting to be held at such time and at such place as the Issuer shall determine, for the purposes provided in Section 8.02 hereof, or for the purpose of taking action with respect to any Event of Default under Article Five hereof. Notice of any meeting of Noteholders, setting forth the time and place of such meeting, in general terms the action proposed to be taken at such meeting and the record date for determining Holders entitled to take action at such meeting, shall be mailed to the registered address of such Holders not less than 20 nor more than 180 days prior to the date fixed for such meeting. To be entitled to vote at any meeting of Noteholders, a person must be (i) a Holder of one or more Notes on such record date or (ii) a person appointed by an instrument in writing as proxy by the Holder of one or more Notes on such record date. The only persons who shall be entitled to be present or to speak at any meeting of Noteholders shall be the persons entitled to vote at such meeting and their counsel and any representatives of the Issuer or the Trustee and their respective counsel.

(b) Persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of any such meeting. No business shall be transacted in the absence of a quorum, unless a quorum is present when the meeting is called to order. In the absence of a quorum within 30 minutes of the time appointed for any such meeting, a meeting which has been called by the Issuer or the Trustee shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days as determined by the chairman of the meeting. In the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting shall be further adjourned for a period of not less than 10 additional days as determined by the chairman of the meeting. Notice of the reconvening of any adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section 10.01. Subject to the foregoing, at the reconvening of any meeting further adjourned for lack of a quorum, the persons entitled to vote 25% in principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the taking of any action set forth in the notice of the original meeting. Notice of the reconvening of an adjourned meeting shall state expressly the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Notes which shall constitute a quorum.

(c) At a meeting or an adjourned meeting duly convened and at which a quorum is present as aforesaid, any resolution for any purpose provided in Article Eight hereof or for the purpose of taking any action with respect to any Event of Default under Article Five hereof shall be effectively passed and decided if passed and decided by the persons entitled to vote the lesser of (i) a majority in principal amount of Notes then Outstanding and (ii) 75% in principal amount of the Notes represented and voting at the meeting. Any Noteholder who has executed an instrument in writing appointing a person as proxy shall be deemed to be present for the purpose of determining a quorum and be deemed to have voted, provided that such Noteholder shall be considered as present or voting only with respect to the matters covered by such instrument in writing (which may include authorization to vote on any other matters as may come before the meeting). Any resolution passed or decision taken at any meeting of Noteholders duly held in accordance with this Section shall be binding on all the Noteholders whether or not present or represented at the meeting.

(d) The Issuer shall appoint a temporary chairman of the meeting. A permanent chairman and a permanent secretary of the meeting shall be elected by vote of Persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Notes represented at the meeting. At any meeting each Noteholder or proxy shall be entitled to one vote for each $250,000 principal amount of Notes as to which he is a Noteholder or proxy; provided, however that no vote shall be cast or counted at any meeting in respect of any Note challenged as not Outstanding and ruled by the chairman of the meeting to be not Outstanding. The chairman of the meeting shall have no right to vote except as a Noteholder or proxy. Any meeting of Noteholders duly called at which a quorum is present may be adjourned from time to time, and the meeting may be held as so adjourned without further notice.

(e) The vote upon any resolution submitted to any meeting of Noteholders shall be by written ballot on which shall be subscribed the signatures of the Noteholders or proxies and on which shall be inscribed an identifying number or numbers or to which shall be attached a list of identifying numbers of the Notes entitled to be voted by them. The permanent chairman of the meeting shall appoint two inspectors of votes who shall count all votes cast at the meeting for or against any resolution and who shall make and file with the secretary of the meeting their verified written reports in duplicate of all votes cast at the meeting. A record in duplicate of the proceedings of each meeting of Noteholders shall be prepared by the secretary of the meeting and there shall be attached to said record the original reports of the inspectors of votes on any vote by ballot taken thereat and affidavits by one or more persons having knowledge of the acts setting forth a copy of the notice of the meeting and showing that said notice was published as provided above. The record shall be signed and verified by the permanent chairman and secretary of the meeting and one of the duplicates shall be delivered to the Issuer and the other to the Trustee to be preserved by the Trustee, the latter to have attached thereto the ballots voted at the meeting. Any record so signed and verified shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein stated.

* * * * *

This instrument may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Indenture to be duly executed, and their respective seals to be hereunto affixed and attested, all as of the day and year first above written.

EXHIBIT A

[Name of Trustee]
[address]

Dear Sirs:

In connection with our proposed purchase of $_____ principal amount of 9% Notes Due 2002 (the "Notes") of Corporate Property Investors ("CPI"), we confirm that:

1. We have received a copy of the Offering Memorandum dated March 18, 1992, relating to the Notes and understand that the Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and may not be sold except as permitted in the following sentence. We agree, on our own behalf and on behalf of any accounts for which we are acting as hereinafter stated, that if we should sell any Notes within three years of the later of the original issuance of the Notes or the sale thereof by the Issuer or an affiliate of CPI, we will do so only (A) to CPI, (B) in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act (as indicated by the box checked by the transferor on the form of assignment on the reverse of the Note), (C) outside the United States in accordance with Rule 904 of Regulation S under the Securities Act (as indicated by the box checked by the transferor on the form of assignment on the reverse of the Note) or (D) to an institutional investor that is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(l), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act which delivers a certificate in the form hereof to the trustee under the Indenture dated as of March 15, 1992 between CPI and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as trustee (the "Indenture Trustee"), and we further agree, in the capacities stated above, to provide to any person purchasing any of the Notes from us a notice advising such purchaser that resales of the Notes are restricted as stated herein.

In addition, we understand that, upon any proposed resale of any Note within three years of the later of the original issuance of such Note (or any predecessor Note thereof) or the sale of such Note (or any predecessor Note thereof) by CPI or an affiliate of CPI, we will be required to furnish to the Indenture Trustee, such certification and other information (including, without limitation, an opinion of counsel) as the Indenture Trustee or CPI may reasonably require to confirm that the proposed sale complies with the foregoing restrictions. We further understand that certificates evidencing Notes purchased by us will, until the third anniversary of the later of the original issuance of the Notes (or any predecessor Notes thereof) or the sale thereof by CPI or an affiliate of CPI bear a legend to the foregoing effect.

2. We are an institutional investor and an "accredited investor" (within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(l), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act) and have such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of our investment in the Notes, and we and any account for which we are acting are each able to bear the economic risk of our or its investment.

3. We are acquiring the Notes purchased by us for our own account or for one or more accounts (each of which is an institutional "accredited investor") as to each of which we exercise sole investment discretion and for each of which we are acquiring not less than $250,000 aggregate principal amount of Notes.

4. We have received such information as we deem necessary in order to make our investment decision.

You and CPI are entitled to rely upon this letter and are irrevocably authorized to produce this letter or a copy hereof to any interested party in any administrative or legal proceeding or official inquiry with respect to the matters covered hereby.

Very truly yours,

[Purchaser]

7 3/4% NOTES DUE 2004

CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS, an unincorporated business trust organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (hereinafter called the "Issuer", which term includes any successor entity under the Indenture hereinafter referred to), for value received, hereby promises to pay to or registered assigns, upon surrender hereof the principal sum of United States Dollars ($) on August 15, 2004 and to pay interest thereon, semiannually in arrears, on each February 15 and August 15 (an "Interest Payment Date") in each year, commencing in 1993, at 7 3/4% per annum, from the most recent Interest Payment Date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, or, if the date hereof is an Interest Payment Date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, then from the date hereof or, if no interest has been paid or duly provided for, from August 19, 1992, in each case until the principal hereof is paid or payment thereof is duly provided for. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the date hereof is after February 1 or August 1 in any year and before the following February 15 or August 15 in such year, this Note shall bear interest from such February 15 or August 15, as applicable, provided that if the Issuer shall default in the payment of interest due on such February 15 or August 15, as applicable, then this Note shall bear interest from the next preceding Interest Payment

Date to which interest on the Note has been paid or duly provided for, or if no interest has been paid or duly provided for, from August 19, 1992. The interest so payable on any Interest Payment Date will, subject to the provisions contained in the Indenture (as hereinafter defined), be paid to the Person in whose name this Note is registered at the close of business in the City of New York on the fifteenth calendar day next preceding such Interest Payment Date (hereinafter called the "Record Date"). Such payments shall be made in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time of payment shall be legal tender for the payment of public and private debts.

The statements set forth in the legend are an integral part of the terms of this Note and by acceptance hereof each holder of this Note agrees to be subject to and bound by the terms and provisions set forth in such legend.

Reference is made to the further provisions set forth on the reverse hereof. Such further provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as though fully set forth on the face hereof.

Unless the certificate of authentication hereon has been executed by the Trustee by the manual signature of one of its authorized officers, this Note shall not be entitled to any benefit under the Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Issuer has caused this Note to be duly executed by the manual or facsimile signature of a duly authorized officer of the Issuer.

MORGAN GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY
OF NEW YORK, as Trustee

By:_____
Authorized Officer

[FORM OF REVERSE OF NOTE]

CORPORATE PROPERTY INVESTORS

7 3/4% NOTES DUE 2004

1. This Note is one of a duly authorized issue of Notes of the Issuer designated as its 7 3/4% Notes Due 2004 (herein called the "Notes"), limited (except as otherwise provided in the Indenture referred to below), in aggregate principal amount to $150,000,000. The Notes are issued and to be issued under the Indenture, dated as of August 15, 1992 (herein called the "Indenture"), between the Issuer and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, as Trustee (herein called the "Trustee", which term includes any successor trustee under the Indenture), to which Indenture and all indentures supplemental thereto reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights thereunder of the Issuer, the Trustee and the Holders (as defined in the Indenture) of the Notes. The Holders of the Notes will be entitled to the benefits of, be bound by, and be deemed to have notice of, all of the provisions of the Indenture. A copy of the Indenture is on file and may be inspected at the offices of the paying agent referred to below.

2. The Notes are direct unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank equally with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer. The Notes are issuable in fully registered form without coupons in denominations of $250,000 and integral multiples thereof.

3. (a) The Notes are not entitled to any mandatory sinking fund. The Notes may be redeemed at the Issuer's option, in whole at any time or from time to time in part, upon notice as described below, at a redemption price equal to the sum of (i) the principal amount of the Note, plus interest through the date of redemption, and (ii) the Make-Whole Amount (as defined in the Indenture), if any (the "Redemption Price").

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) below, notice of redemption of the Notes, in whole or in part, as the case may be, shall be given in accordance with paragraph 8, at least once not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, all as provided in the Indenture. Notice having been given, the Notes so called for redemption shall become due and payable on the date fixed for redemption and upon presentation and surrender thereof will be paid at the Redemption Price at the place or places of payment and in the manner specified herein.

(c) The Notes will be subject to mandatory redemption, as described below, at the Redemption Price upon the occurrence of a Mandatory Redemption Event (as defined in the Indenture). The Issuer will be required to redeem the Notes within five Business Days (as defined in the Indenture) of any Mandatory Redemption Event.

4. Pursuant to the terms of the Indenture, the Issuer has initially appointed Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York as paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), as transfer agent for the exchange and transfer of the Notes, and as Registrar. The Issuer shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to terminate any such appointment and to appoint any substitute or additional paying agents, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Indenture.

5. (a) Principal and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, on the Notes will be payable against surrender of such Notes at the Corporate Trust Office of the Paying Agent in the City of New York. Payment of interest on the Notes will be made to the person in whose name such Note is registered at the close of business in the City of New York on the fifteenth calendar day (the "Record Date") next preceding the relevant Interest Payment Date notwithstanding the cancellation of such Note upon any transfer or exchange thereof subsequent to such Record Date and prior to such Interest Payment Date; provided that if and to the extent the Issuer shall default in the payment of interest due on such payment date, such defaulted interest shall be paid to the persons in whose names the Notes are registered at the close of business on a subsequent Record Date established by notice given by mail by or on behalf of the Issuer to the Holders of Registered Notes not less than 15 days preceding such subsequent Record Date, such Record Date to be not less than ten days preceding the date of payment of such defaulted interest. Payment of such interest will be made (i) by dollar check drawn on a bank in the City of New York sent to the Holder's registered address or (ii) to any Holder of $5,000,000 or more aggregate principal amount of the Notes, upon written instructions to the Paying Agent not later than the relevant Record Date, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to a dollar account maintained by such Holder, as the case may be, with a bank in the United States designated by such Holder (but only if such bank shall have appropriate facilities therefor). Interest payments on this Note shall include interest accrued from and including the date indicated on the face hereof, or from but excluding the most recent date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for, to but excluding the related Interest Payment Date or date of maturity as the case may be. Interest payments for this Note shall be computed and paid on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months and, in the case of an incomplete month, the actual number of days elapsed.

(b) Should the Issuer at any time default in the payment of any principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on this Note, the Issuer will pay interest on the amount in default (to the extent permitted by law in the case of interest on interest) at the rate of interest borne by the Notes.

(c) The Issuer covenants that as long as this Note shall be outstanding it shall at all times maintain a paying agency in the Borough of Manhattan, the City of New York for payments with respect to Notes. Notice of any termination or appointment and of any change in the office through which any Paying Agent, transfer agent or Registrar will act will be promptly given once in the manner described in paragraph 8.

6. Except as otherwise provided in the Indenture with respect to amounts deposited by the Issuer with the Trustee to effect a defeasance of the Notes or certain covenants and provisions in the Indenture, all moneys paid by the Issuer to the Trustee or any other Paying Agent for the payment of principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any Note and remaining unclaimed for two years after such principal, the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Issuer and, to the extent permitted by law, the Holder of such Note thereafter shall look only to the Issuer for payment thereof and all liability, if any, of the Trustee or any Paying Agent with respect to such deposited amount shall thereupon cease.

7. The Issuer agrees to provide the Holder hereof and any prospective purchaser hereof designated by such Holder, upon request of such Holder or such prospective purchaser, such information required by Rule 144A (d)(4) under the Securities Act as will enable resales of this Note to be made pursuant to Rule 144A; provided, however, that the Issuer shall not be required to provide more information pursuant to this paragraph 7 than is required by Rule 144A as in effect on the date of the Indenture, but may elect to do so if necessary as a result of subsequent amendments to such Rule. Further, this Note and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time (x) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of the Notes to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedure in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (y) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of this Note in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that this Note, if it is outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective, be placed in book-entry form). The Holders of this Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of this Note, to have agreed to any such amendment or supplement.

8. All notices to the Noteholders will be mailed to Holders of Notes at their registered addresses.

9. (a) In case any Note shall become mutilated, defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer in its discretion may execute, and, upon the request of the Issuer, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Note bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding, in exchange and substitution for the mutilated or defaced Note, or in lieu of and in substitution for the apparently destroyed, lost or stolen Note. In every case the applicant for a substitute Note shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee such security or indemnity as may be required by them to indemnify and defend and to save each of them and any agent of the Issuer or the Trustee harmless and, in every case of destruction, loss or theft, evidence to their satisfaction of the apparent destruction, loss or theft of such Note and of the ownership thereof. In case any Note which has matured or is about to mature shall become mutilated, defaced or be apparently destroyed, lost or stolen, the Issuer may, instead of issuing a substitute Note pay or authorize the payment of the same, if the applicant for such payment shall furnish to the Issuer and to the Trustee security or indemnity and, in every case of apparent destruction, loss or theft, satisfactory evidence, in each case as set forth in the preceding sentence. Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Issuer may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Trustee) connected therewith.

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, and subject to paragraph 9(e), a Note or Notes, duly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of assignment and transfer, may be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of Notes in different authorized denominations or Notes may be exchanged for a Note or Notes of authorized denominations by surrender of such Note or Notes at the corporate trust office of the Trustee in the City of New York, together with a written request for the exchange.

(c) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Indenture, and subject to paragraph 9(e), a Note may be transferred in whole or in part (in the amount of U.S. $250,000 and integral multiples thereof) by the Holder or Holders surrendering the Note for registration of transfer at the office of any transfer agent or at the office of the Registrar, duly endorsed or accompanied by a duly executed instrument of assignment and transfer. Upon presentation of this Note for registration of transfer as provided herein, the Registrar shall register the transfer of this Note only if (i) the Registrar shall have received written instructions from the Issuer to effect such transfer, (ii) the Note is presented for registration of transfer at least three years after the later of the issuance of this Note (or any predecessor Note hereto) and the sale hereof (or any predecessor Note hereof) by the Issuer or an affiliate (within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto, hereinafter referred to as an "Affiliate") of the Issuer (computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) by a Holder that certifies that it was not at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer or (iii) the Holder hereof shall have properly completed the Certificate of Transfer below or a transfer instrument substantially in the form of such Certificate of Transfer and have delivered such Certificate of Transfer or transfer instrument (together with any transferee certification required as part of the Certificate of Transfer and any letter required by the Issuer or the Trustee to be delivered by the transferee with such certificate of transfer or transfer instrument) to the Trustee.

(d) The costs and expenses of effecting any exchange or registration of transfer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, except for the expenses of delivery by mail and except, if the Issuer shall so require, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in relation thereto, will be borne by the Issuer.

(e) The Issuer, Trustee or Registrar may decline to accept any request for an exchange or registration of transfer during the period of 15 days preceding the due date for any payment of principal of or interest on the Notes.

(f) Each purchaser of this Note will be deemed to have represented and agreed as follows: (i) it is purchasing this Note for its own account or an account with respect to which it exercises sole investment discretion and it or such account is (x) a "Qualified Institutional Buyer" (as defined in Rule 144A of the Securities Act) and is aware that the sale to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act; or (y) an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(l), (2), (3) or (7) under the Securities Act and in the case of each of (x) and (y) it is acquiring this Note for investment and not with a view to, or for offer or sale in connection with, any distribution (within the meaning of the Securities Act) or fractionalization thereof or with any intention of reselling this Note or any part hereof, subject to any requirement of law that the disposition of its property or the property of such investor account or accounts to be at all times within its or their control and subject to its or their ability to resell this Note pursuant to Rule 144A, Regulation S or other exemption from registration available under the Securities Act; (ii) it acknowledges that this Note has not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be sold except as permitted below; (iii) it agrees that (A) if it should transfer this Note (or any predecessor Note hereto) within three years after the later of the original issuance of the Notes and the sale thereof by the Issuer or an Affiliate of the Issuer (computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act) or if it was at the date of such transfer or during the three months preceding such date of transfer an Affiliate of the Issuer it will do so in compliance with any applicable state securities or "Blue Sky" laws and only (1) to the Issuer, (2) in compliance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act (as indicated by the box checked by the transferor on the Certificate of Transfer), (3) outside the United States in compliance with Regulation S under the Securities Act (as indicated by the box checked by the transferor on the Certificate of Transfer), or (4) to an Accredited Investor, but only if, in connection with any transfer a certificate in the form of Exhibit A to the Indenture is delivered by the transferee to the Registrar, and (B) it will give the transferee notice of any restrictions on resale of this Note; (iv) it understands that this Note, unless otherwise agreed by the Issuer and the Holder thereof, will bear the legend on the face of this Note; (v) it has received the information, if any, requested by it pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act, has had full opportunity to review such information and has received all additional information necessary to verify such information; (vi) it (A) is able to fend for itself in the transactions contemplated by its acquisition of this Note; (B) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its prospective investment in this Note; and (C) has the ability to bear the economic risks of its prospective investment and can afford the complete loss of such investment; and (vii) it understands that the Issuer, the Managers (as defined in the Offering Memorandum relating to the Notes) and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements and agrees that if any of the acknowledgments, representations or warranties deemed to have been made by it by its purchase of this Note are no longer accurate, it shall promptly notify the Issuer. If it is acquiring this Note as a fiduciary or agent for one or more investor accounts, it represents that it has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and it has full power to make the foregoing acknowledgments, representations and agreements on behalf of such account.

10. In case an Event of Default, as defined in the Indenture, shall have occurred and be continuing, the principal of all of the Notes may be declared due and payable, in the manner and with the effect, and subject to the conditions, provided in the Indenture. The Indenture provides that in certain events such declaration and its consequences may be waived by the Holders of 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding and that, prior to any such declaration, such Holders may waive any default under the Indenture and its consequences, except a default in the payment of principal of or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or interest on any of the Notes. Any such consent or waiver by the Holder of this Note (unless revoked as provided in the Note) shall be conclusive and binding upon such Holder and upon all future holders and owners of this Note and any Note which may be issued in exchange or substitution herefor, whether or not any notation thereof is made upon this Note or such other Notes.

11. The Indenture contains provisions permitting the Issuer and the Trustee, with the consent of the Holders of not less than 66-2/3% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time Outstanding (or such lesser amount as may have acted at a Noteholders' meeting pursuant to Article Ten of the Indenture), evidenced as in the Indenture provided, to execute supplemental indentures adding any provisions to or changing in any manner or eliminating any of the provisions of the Indenture or of any supplemental indenture or modifying in any manner the rights of the Holders of the Notes; provided that no such supplemental indenture shall without the consent of each Holder of an Outstanding Note affected thereby (i) change the Stated Maturity of the principal of or the due date for any installment of interest on, any Note, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the Make-Whole Amount, if any, or the interest thereon or on any amount payable upon redemption or acceleration thereof, (ii) change the coin or currency in which any Note or interest thereon is payable, (iii) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to any Note, (iv) reduce the above-stated percentage in principal amount of the Outstanding Notes, the consent of whose Holders is required to modify or amend the Indenture or the provisions of the Notes, (v) modify any of the provisions of Section 5.12 or 8.02 of the Indenture, except to increase any of the percentages set forth therein or to provide that certain other provisions of the Indenture cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the Holder of each Note affected thereby or (vi) reduce the quorum requirements or the percentage of votes required for the adoption of any action at a meeting of Noteholders. In addition, this Note and related documentation may be amended or supplemented from time to time (i) to modify the restrictions on, and procedures for, resales and other transfers of this Note to reflect any change in applicable law or regulation (or the interpretation thereof) or provide alternative procedures in compliance with applicable law and practices relating to the resale or other transfer of restricted securities generally and (ii) to accommodate the issuance, if any, of Notes in book-entry form and matters related thereto (although no such amendment or supplement may require that a Note Outstanding at the time such amendment or supplement becomes effective be placed in book-entry form). Each Holder of this Note shall be deemed, by the acceptance of such Note, to have agreed to any amendment or supplement described in the immediately preceding sentence.

12. The Indenture provides that persons entitled to vote a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of Holders of Notes. In the absence of such a quorum at a meeting of Holders of Notes called by the Issuer, such meeting shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days and, in the absence of a quorum at any such adjourned meeting, such adjourned meeting shall be further adjourned for another period of not less than 10 days. At any subsequent reconvening of any meeting of Holders of Notes adjourned for lack of a quorum, persons entitled to vote 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes at the time outstanding shall constitute a quorum. Any action which may be taken by a meeting of Holders of Notes requires a vote of the Holders of the lesser of (a) a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding or (b) 75% in aggregate principal amount of the Holders of Notes represented and voting at the meeting.

13. No reference herein to the Indenture and no provision of this Note or of the Indenture shall alter or impair the obligation of the Issuer, which is absolute and unconditional, to pay the principal of and the Make-Whole Amount, if any, and interest on this Note at the times and rate herein prescribed.

14. The Indenture provides that the Issuer may merge or consolidate with, or sell or convey all or substantially all its assets to, any corporation or other entity and that such corporation or other entity may assume the obligations of the Issuer under the Indenture and the Notes without the consent of the Noteholders provided that certain conditions are met.
